Edip-Layth	6:15 Say, "I fear if I disobey my Lord, the retribution of a great day!"
The Monotheist Group	6:15 Say: "I fear if I disobey my Lord, the retribution of a great Day!"
Muhammad Asad	6:15 Say: "Behold, I would dread, were I [thus] to rebel against my Sustainer, the suffering [which would befall me] on that awesome Day [of Judgment]."
Rashad Khalifa	6:15 Say, "I fear, if I disobeyed my Lord, the retribution of an awesome day.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:15 Say, "I fear, if I disobey my Lord, the retribution of an awesome Day."
Transliteration	6:15 Qul innee akh a fu in AAa s ayturabbee AAa th aba yawmin AAa th eemin
A	6:15 قل انى اخلف ان عصيت ربى عذاب يوم عظيم
Edip-Layth	6:16 Whoever He spares from it, then He had treated him with mercy; and that is the obvious success.
The Monotheist Group	6:16 Whoever He spares from it, then He has had mercy on him; and that is the clearest success.
Muhammad Asad	6:16 Upon him who shall be spared on that Day, He will indeed have bestowed His grace: and this will be a manifest triumph.
Rashad Khalifa	6:16 "Whoever is spared (the retribution), on that day, has attained His mercy. And this is the greatest triumph."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:16 Whoever is saved from retribution on that Day, has attained God's mercy, and that is the signal triumph.
Transliteration	6:16 Man yu s raf AAanhu yawma-i th infaqad ra h imahu wa th alika alfawzu almubeenu
A	6:16 من يصرف عنه يومئذ فقد رحمه وذلك الفوز المبين
Edip-Layth	6:17 If God were to touch you with harm, then none can remove it except Him; and if He were to touch you with good, then He is capable of all things.
The Monotheist Group	6:17 And if God were to inflict you with harm, then none can remove it except Him; and if He were to bless you with good, then He is capable of all things.
Muhammad Asad	6:17 And if God should touch thee with misfortune, there is none who could remove it but He; and if He should touch thee with good fortune -it is He who has the power to will anything:

Rashad Khalifa	Only God Controls Happiness 6:17 If GOD touches you with adversity, none can relieve it except He. And if He touches you with a blessing, He is Omnipotent.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:17 Whatever adversity touches you for violating God's laws, the only way to redress it is to turn to His laws. And you attain all blessings by following His laws, for He is Able to do all things. He has appointed due measure for all things including harm and benefit.
Transliteration	6:17 Wa-in yamsaska All ahu bi durrinfala k ashifa lahu ill a huwa wa-in yamsaskabikhayrin fahuwa AAala kulli shay-in qadeer un
A	6:17 وان يمسسك الله بضر فلا كاشف له الا هو وان يمسسك بخير فهو على كل شيء قدير
Edip-Layth	6:18 He is the Supreme over His servants; and He is the Wise, the Ever-aware. ²
The Monotheist Group	6:18 And He is the Supreme over His servants; and He is the Wise, the Expert.
Muhammad Asad	6:18 for He alone holds sway over His creatures, and He alone is truly wise, all-aware.
Rashad Khalifa	6:18 He is Supreme over His creatures. He is the Most Wise, the Cognizant.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:18 He is Supreme over His servants, and He is the Wise, the Aware. ⁴
Transliteration	6:18 Wahuwa alqahiru fawqa AAibadihiwahuwa alhakeemu alkhabeeru
A	6:18 وهو القاهر فوق عباده وهو الحكيم الخبير
Edip-Layth	Muhammad was Given Only the Quran 6:19 Say, "Which is the greatest testimony?" Say, "God is witness between me and you, and He has inspired to me this Quran that I may warn you with it and whomever it reaches. Do you bear witness that along with God are other gods?" Say, "I do not bear witness!" Say, "He is only One god, and I am innocent of your setting up partners!"³
The Monotheist Group	6:19 Say: "Which is the greatest testimony?" Say: "God is witness between me and you, and He has inspired to me this Qur'an that I may warn you with it and whomever it reaches, that you bear witness that along with God are other gods!" Say: "I do not bear witness!" Say: "He is only One god, and I am innocent of what you set up!"
Muhammad Asad	6:19 Say: "What could most weightily bear witness to the truth?" Say: "God is witness between me and you; and this Qur'an has been revealed unto me so that on the strength thereof I might warn you and all whom it may reach." Could you in truth bear witness that there are other deities side by side with God? Say: "I bear no [such] witness!" Say: "He is the One God; and, behold, far be it from me to ascribe divinity, as, you do, to aught beside Him!"¹³
Rashad Khalifa	Quran, the Whole Quran, and Nothing But the Quran 6:19 Say, "Whose testimony is the greatest?" Say, "GOD's. He is the witness between me and you that this Quran has been inspired to me, to preach it to you and whomever it reaches. Indeed, you bear witness that there are other gods beside GOD." Say, "I do not testify as you do; there is only one god, and I disown your idolatry."
	6:19 Say (O Messenger!), "What could be the greatest witness?" Say, "God is Witness between me and you. This Qur'an has been revealed to me so that I may Shabbir Ahmed	warn you as well as whomever it reaches. Do you bear witness that there are other deities besides God?" Say, "I bear no such witness." Say, "He is the One God. I disown what you associate with Him."

Transliteration	6:19 Qul ayyu shay-in akbaru shah a datanquli All a hu shaheedun baynee wabaynakum waoohiyailayya h a th a alqur- a nu li-on thi rakum bihiwaman balagha a-innakum latashhadoona anna maAAa All a hi al ihatanokhr a qul l a ashhadu qul innam a huwa il a hunwa h idun wa-innanee baree-on mimma a tushrikoona
A	6:19 قل اى شىء اكبر شهادة قل الله شهيد بينى وبينكم واوحى الى هذا القرآن لانزركم به ومن بلغ انكم لتشهدون ان مع الله الهة اخرى قل لا اشهد قل انما هو اله وحد واننى برىء مما تشركون
Edip-Layth	6:20 Those to whom We have given the book know it as they know their children. Those who lost themselves, they do not acknowledge.
The Monotheist Group	6:20 Those to whom We have given the Scripture know it as they know their children. Those who lost their souls, they do not believe.
Muhammad Asad	6:20 They unto whom we have vouchsafed revelation aforetime know this ¹⁴ as they know their own children; yet those [of them] who have squandered their own selves -it is they who refuse to believe.
Rashad Khalifa	6:20 Those to whom we have given the scripture recognize this as they recognize their own children. The ones who lose their souls are those who do not believe.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:20 Those who have been given the scripture, recognize this (message) as they recognize their sons. Yet those who have squandered their own 'self' fail to accept such undeniable truth.
Transliteration	6:20 Allat h eena a tayna h umualkit a ba yaAAarifoona h u kam a yaAAarifoona abna a humallat h eena khasiroo anfusahum fahum l a yu/minoona
A	6:20 الذين ءاتينهم الكتب يعرفونه كما يعرفون ابناءهم الذين خسروا انفسهم فهم لا يؤمنون
Edip-Layth	6:21 Who is more wicked than one who invents lies about God, or denies His signs! The wicked will never succeed.
The Monotheist Group	6:21 And who is more wicked than one who invents lies about God, or denies His revelations! The wicked will never succeed.
Muhammad Asad	6:21 And who could be more wicked than he who attributes his own lying inventions to God or gives the lie to His messages? Verily, such evildoers will never attain to a happy state:
Rashad Khalifa	6:21 Who is more evil than one who lies about GOD, or rejects His revelations? The transgressors never succeed.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:21 Who can be a greater transgressor than the one who invents a lie against God and denies His revelations? The wrongdoers who displace reality with falsehood, will not succeed.
Transliteration	6:21 Waman a th lamu mimmani iftar a AAa l a All a hi ka thi ban aw kath th ababi- a yatihi innahu l a yufli h u al thth alimoona
A	6:21 ومن اظلم ممن افترى على الله كذبا او كذب بايته انه لا يفلح الظالمون
Edip-Layth	Polytheists Deny Their Polytheism 6:22 The day We gather them all, then We say to those who set up partners: "Where are your partners whom you used to claim?" ⁴

The Monotheist Group	6:22 And the Day We gather them all, then We say to those who set up partners: "Where are your partners whom you used to claim?"
Muhammad Asad	6:22 for one Day We shall gather them all together, and then We shall say unto those who ascribed divinity to aught beside God: "Where, now, are those beings whom you imagined to have a share in God's divinity?" ¹⁵
Rashad Khalifa	Idol Worshipers Deny Their Idolatry 6:22 On the day when we summon them all, we will ask the idol worshipers, "Where are the idols you set up?"
Shabbir Ahmed	6:22 On the Day We assemble them, We will ask the idolaters, "Where are now those partners of God that you conceived?"
Transliteration	6:22 Wayawma na h shuruhum jameeAAan thummanaqoolu lilla t heena ashrakoo ayna shuraka o kumu alla t heenakuntum tazAAumoon a
A	6:22 ويوم نحشرهم جميعا ثم نقول للذين اشركوا اين شركاؤكم الذين كنتم تزعمون
Edip-Layth	6:23 Then, their only trial was to say, "By God, our Lord, we did not set up partners!"
The Monotheist Group	6:23 Then, their only excuse was to say: "By God, our Lord, we did not set up partners!"
Muhammad Asad	6:23 Whereupon, in their utter confusion, they will only [be able to] say: "By God, our Sustainer, we did not [mean to] ascribe divinity to aught beside Him !" ¹⁶
Rashad Khalifa	6:23 Their disastrous response will be, "By GOD our Lord, we never were idol worshipers."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:23 They will hardly have a response, but they will swear," By God, our Lord, we were never idolaters."
Transliteration	6:23 Thumma lam takun fitnatuhum ill a an q a loowaAll h i rabb i n a m a kunna m ushrikeena
A	6:23 ثم لم تكن فتنتهم الا ان قالوا والله ربنا ما كنا مشركين
Edip-Layth	6:24 See how they lied to themselves; and what they invented deserted them.
The Monotheist Group	6:24 See how they lied to themselves; and that which they invented deserted them.
Muhammad Asad	6:24 Behold how they have lied to themselves ¹⁷ -and [how] their false imagery has forsaken them!
Rashad Khalifa	6:24 Note how they lied to themselves, and how the idols they had invented have abandoned them.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:24 Imagine how they lie against themselves, and how their fabricated gods abandon them.
Transliteration	6:24 On t hur kayfa ka t habooAAa l a an fusihi m wa d alla AAanhu m m a ka n ooyaftaroona
A	6:24 انظر كيف كذبوا على انفسهم وضل عنهم ما كانوا يفترون
	Hypocrites Call the Divine Signs Mythology 6:25 Among them are those who listen to you; and We have made covers over

Edip-Layth	their hearts to prevent them from understanding it, and deafness in their ears; and if they see every sign they will not acknowledge; even when they come to you they argue, those who reject say, "This is nothing but the tales from the past!" ⁵
The Monotheist Group	6:25 And from them are those who listen to you; and We have made covers over their hearts to prevent them from understanding it, and a deafness in their ears; and if they see every sign they will not believe; even when they come to you they argue, those who reject say: "This is nothing but the tales from the past!"
Muhammad Asad	6:25 And there are among them such as [seem to] listen to thee [O Prophet]: but over their hearts We have laid veils which prevent them from grasping the truth, and into their ears, deafness. ¹⁸ And were they to see every sign [of the truth], they would still not believe in it-so much so that when they come unto thee to contend with thee, those who are bent on denying the truth say, "This is nothing but fables of ancient times!"
Rashad Khalifa	6:25 Some of them listen to you, but we place veils on their hearts to prevent them from understanding, and deafness in their ears. Thus, no matter what kind of proof they see, they cannot believe. Thus, when they come to argue with you, the disbelievers say, "These are tales from the past."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:25 Some of them pretend to listen to you, but We (Our laws) have already veiled their hearts from understanding and caused deafness in their ears. Blind followers fail to believe even when they see all kinds of proofs. When they come to argue with you, they say about the Qur'an, "These are stories of the bygoners."
Transliteration	6:25 Waminhum man yastamiAAu ilayka wajaAAaln aAAala quloobihim akinnatan an yafqahoohu wafee athanihimwaqran wa-in yaraw kulla ayatin l a yu/minoo bihahatta i tha j aooka yuj adiloonakayaqoolu alla theena kafaroo in h atha ill a asateerual-awwaleena
A	6:25 ومنهم من يستمع اليك وجعلنا على قلوبهم اكنة ان يفقهوه وفي اذانهم وقرا وان يروا كل آية لا يؤمنوا بها حتى اذا جاءوك يجدلونك يقول الذين كفروا ان هذا الا اسطير الاولين
Edip-Layth	6:26 They are deterring others from it, and keeping away themselves; but they will only destroy themselves, yet they do not notice.
The Monotheist Group	6:26 And they are deterring others from it, and keeping away themselves; but they will only destroy themselves, yet they do not notice.
Muhammad Asad	6:26 And they bar others therefrom. and go far away from it: but they destroy none but themselves, and perceive it not.
Rashad Khalifa	6:26 They repel others from this (Quran), as they themselves stay away from it, and thus, they only destroy themselves without perceiving.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:26 They repel others from the Qur'an and deprive themselves of it. They hurt their own 'self' without even knowing it.
Transliteration	6:26 Wahum yanhawna AAanhu wayan-awna AAanhuwa-in yuhlikoona ill a anfusahum wama yashAAuroona
A	6:26 وهم ينهون عنه وينون عنه وان يهلكون الا انفسهم وما يشعرون
Edip-Layth	6:27 If you could see when they are standing over the fire, they say, "If only we were sent back, we would not deny the signs of our Lord, and we would be those who acknowledge!"
The Monotheist Group	6:27 And if you could see when they are standing over the Fire, they say: "If only we could be sent back, we would not deny the revelations of our Lord, and we would be believers!"

Muhammad Asad	6:27 If thou couldst but see [them] when they will be made to stand before the fire and will say, "Oh, would that we were brought back [to life]: then we would not give the lie to our Sustainer's messages, but would be among the believers!"
Rashad Khalifa	6:27 If only you could see them when they face the hellfire! They would say then, "Woe to us. Oh, we wish we could go back, and never reject our Lord's revelations, and join the believers."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:27 If only you could see them when they face the fire! They would say then, "Woe to us. Oh, we wish we could go back. We would never then reject our Lord's revelations, and would join the believers."
Transliteration	6:27 Walaw tar a i th wuqifoo AAal aaInnari faq aloo y a laytan anuraddu wal a nukaththiba bi-ayatirabbina wanakoona mina almu/mineena
A	6:27 ولو ترى اذ وقفوا على النار فقالوا يليتنا نرد ولا نكذب بايت ربنا ونكون من المومنين
Edip-Layth	6:28 No, it is merely what they have been concealing that has now become evident to them; and if they were sent back they would return to what they were deterred from doing, they are but liars!
The Monotheist Group	6:28 No, it is merely what they have been concealing that has now become evident to them; and if they were sent back they would return to what they were deterred from doing, they are but liars!
Muhammad Asad	6:28 But nay -[they will say this only because] the truth which they used to conceal [from themselves] in the past will have become obvious to them; and if they were brought back [to life], they would return to the very thing which was forbidden to them: for behold, they are indeed liars! ¹⁹
Rashad Khalifa	6:28 As a matter of fact, (they only say this because) their secrets have been exposed. If they go back, they will commit exactly the same crimes. They are liars.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:28 Nay, it has now become clear to them what they used to conceal. And even if they were sent back, they would revert to doing what they were forbidden. Surely, they are liars.
Transliteration	6:28 Bal bad a lahum m a k anooyukhfoona min qablu walaw ruddoo laAA adoo limanuhoo AAanhu wa-innahum lakathiboona
A	6:28 بل بدا لهم ما كانوا يخفون من قبل ولو ردوا لعادوا لما نهوا عنه وانهم لكذبون
Edip-Layth	6:29 They had also said, "There is only this worldly life, and we will not be resurrected!"
The Monotheist Group	6:29 And they had said: "There is only this worldly life, and we will not be resurrected!"
Muhammad Asad	6:29 And some [of the unbelievers] say, "There is nothing beyond our life in this world, for We shall not be raised from the dead."
Rashad Khalifa	6:29 They say (subconsciously), "We live only this life; we will not be resurrected."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:29 There are people who think that the only life is the life of this world and that they will not be raised again.
Transliteration	6:29 Waqaaloo in hiya illa hayatunaalddunya wama nahnu bimabAAootheena

A	6:29 وقالوا ان هـى الـا حـياتنا الدنـيا وما نحن بمبعوثين
Edip-Layth	6:30 If you could see them when they are standing at their Lord? He said, "Is this not the truth?" They said, "Yes, by our Lord." He said, "Then taste the retribution for what you have rejected."
The Monotheist Group	6:30 And if you could see them when they are standing at their Lord; He said: "Is this not the truth?", they said: "Yes, by our Lord," He said: "Then taste the retribution for what you have rejected."
Muhammad Asad	6:30 If thou couldst but see [them] when they shall be made to stand before their Sustainer [and] He will say, "Is not this the truth?" They will answer: "Yea, indeed, by our Sustainer!" [Whereupon] He will say: "Taste, then, the suffering that comes from ²⁰ your having refused to acknowledge the truth!"
Rashad Khalifa	6:30 If you could only see them when they stand before their Lord! He would say, "Is this not the truth?" They would say, "Yes, by our Lord." He would say, "You have incurred the retribution by your disbelief."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:30 But if only you could see when they stand before their Lord! He will ask, "Is not this real?" They will say "Yes, by our Lord!" God will then say, "Taste the requital for your rejection of the truth."
Transliteration	6:30 Walaw tara ith wuqifoo AAalagrabbihim qala alaysa hatha bialhaqqiqaloo bala warabbina qala fathooqooalAAathaba bima kuntum takfuroona
A	6:30 ولو ترى اذ وقفوا على ربهم قال اليس هذا بالحق قالوا بلى وربنا قال فذوقوا العذاب بما كنتم تكفرون
Edip-Layth	6:31 Losers are those who have denied their meeting with God; until the moment comes to them suddenly, then they say, "We deeply regret what we have wasted in it," and they will carry their burdens on their backs; miserable indeed is their burden.
The Monotheist Group	6:31 Losers are those who have denied their meeting with God; until the Hour comes to them suddenly, then they say: "We deeply regret that which we have wasted in it," and they will carry their burdens on their backs; miserable indeed is their burden.
Muhammad Asad	6:31 Lost indeed are they who consider it a lie that they will have to meet God - till the Last Hour suddenly comes upon them, [and] they cry, "Alas for us, that we disregarded it!" - for they shall bear on their backs the burden of their sins: ²¹ oh, how evil the load with which they shall be burdened!
Rashad Khalifa	6:31 Losers indeed are those who disbelieve in meeting GOD, until the Hour comes to them suddenly, then say, "We deeply regret wasting our lives in this world." They will carry loads of their sins on their backs; what a miserable load!
Shabbir Ahmed	6:31 Losers are those who deny meeting with God, until the Hour suddenly comes upon them. Then they will say, "We deeply regret wasting our lives in this world!" They will bear their burdens on their backs. Evil are the burdens that they bear.
Transliteration	6:31 Qad khasira alla theena ka ththaboobiliqa-i All ahi hatta i tha j aat-humualssaAAatu baghtatan q aloo y a hasratanaAAala m a farra tna feeh a wahumyahmiloona awzarahum AAala thuhoorihimala saa ma yaziroona
A	6:31 قد خسـر الذـين كذبوا بـلقاء الله حـتى اذا جاءتهم السـاعة بـغـة قالوا يحسـرتنا على ما فرطنا فيها وهم يحملون اوزارهم على ظهورهم الا ساء ما يـزرون

Edip-Layth	Don't be Distracted by the Trivial Issues 6:32 This worldly life is nothing more than games and a diversion, and the abode of the Hereafter is far better for those who are aware. Do you not understand?
The Monotheist Group	6:32 This worldly life is nothing more than games and a diversion, and the abode of the Hereafter is far better for those who are righteous. Do you not understand?
Muhammad Asad	6:32 And nothing is the life of this world but a play and a passing delight; and the life in the hereafter is by far the better for all who are conscious of God. Will you not, then, use your reason?
Rashad Khalifa	Rearranging Our Priorities 6:32 The life of this world is no more than illusion and vanity, while the abode of the Hereafter is far better for the righteous. Do you not understand?!
Shabbir Ahmed	6:32 The life of this world is a play and a passing delight in comparison to the Eternal Life. The abode of the Hereafter is far better for those who live according to the Divine laws. Will you not use Reason?
Transliteration	6:32 Wama al hayatu a lddunyaila laAAibun walahwun wala Iddaru al-akhiratikhayrun lillaheena yattaqoona afala taAAqiloona
A	6:32 وما الحياة الدنيا الا لعب ولهو وللدار الءاخرة خير للذين يتقون افلا تعقلون
Edip-Layth	6:33 We know that you are saddened by what they say; they are not rejecting you, but it is God's signs which the wicked disregard.
The Monotheist Group	6:33 We know that you are saddened by what they say; they are not rejecting you, but it is God's revelations which the wicked disregard.
Muhammad Asad	6:33 Well do We know that what such people say ²² grieves thee indeed: yet, behold, it is not thee to whom they give the lie, but God's messages do these evildoers deny.
Rashad Khalifa	6:33 We know that you may be saddened by what they say. You should know that it is not you that they reject; it is GOD's revelations that the wicked disregard.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:33 We know well how their talk grieves you (O Messenger!). In truth they do not deny you. It is the revelations of God that the wicked deny.
Transliteration	6:33 Qad naAAalamu innahu laya hzunuka alla theeyaqooloona fa-innahum l a yukaththiboonaka walakinnaalthalimeena bi-ayatiAllahi yajhadooona
A	6:33 قد نعلم انه ليحزنك الذى يقولون فانهم لا يكذبونك ولكن الظالمين بآيت الله يجحدون
Edip-Layth	6:34 Messengers before you were denied, but they were patient for what they were denied, and they were harmed until Our victory came to them; nothing changes the words of God. News of the messengers has come to you.
The Monotheist Group	6:34 Messengers before you were denied, but they were patient for what they were denied, and they were harmed until Our victory came to them; there is no changing the words of God. News of the messengers has come to you.
Muhammad Asad	6:34 And, indeed, [even] before thy time have apostles been given the lie, and they endured with patience all those charges of falsehood, and all the hurt done to them, till succour came unto them from Us: for there is no power that could alter [the outcome of] God's promises. And some of the histories of those apostles have already come within thy ken. ²³
	6:34 Messengers before you have been rejected, and they steadfastly persevered

Rashad Khalifa	in the face of rejection. They were persecuted until our victory came to them. Such is GOD's system that will never change. The history of My messengers thus sets the precedents for you.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:34 messengers before you, were denied and opposed. They steadfastly faced persecution until Our help reached them. There is none to alter the decisions, laws and Words of God. Some history of the messengers has already come to you and sets examples for you. ⁵
Transliteration	6:34 Walaqad ku thth ibat rusulun minqablika fa s abaroo AAal a m a ku thth iboowaoo th oo h atta at a hum na s run a wala mubaddila likalim a ti All a hi walaqad j a kamin naba-i almursaleen a
A	6:34 ولقد كذبت رسل من قبلك فصبروا على ما كذبوا واونوا حتى اتتهم نصرنا ولا مبدل لكلمت الله ولقد جاءك من نبأ المرسلين
Edip-Layth	Warning to the Messenger: Do not Be Ignorant 6:35 If their aversion has become too much for you, then perhaps you could make a tunnel in the earth, or a ladder to the heavens, and bring them a sign. Had God willed, He would have summoned them to the guidance; so do not be of the ignorant ones.
The Monotheist Group	6:35 And if their aversion has become too much for you, then perhaps you could make a tunnel in the Earth, or a ladder to the heavens, and bring them a sign. Had God willed, He would have gathered them to the guidance; so do not be of the ignorant ones.
Muhammad Asad	6:35 And if it distress thee that those who deny the truth ²⁴ turn their backs on thee - why, then, if thou art able to go down deep into the earth or to ascend a ladder unto heaven ²⁵ in order to bring them a [yet more convincing] message, [do so;] but [remember that] had God so willed, He would indeed have gathered them all unto [His] guidance. Do not, therefore, allow thyself to ignore [God's ways]. ²⁶
Rashad Khalifa	6:35 If their rejection gets to be too much for you, you should know that even if you dug a tunnel through the earth, or climbed a ladder into the sky, and produced a miracle for them (they still would not believe). Had GOD willed, He could have guided them, unanimously. Therefore, do not behave like the ignorant ones.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:35 If their rejection is hard on you, (remember they would still not believe) even if you were able to seek a tunnel in the ground or a ladder to the sky and bring them a miracle. If it were God's will, He could assemble them together to true guidance. So, do not be among those who are swayed by ignorance (about free will given to humans). ⁶
Transliteration	6:35 Wa-in k a na kabura AAalayka iAAar a duhumfa-ini ista t aAAata an tabtaghiya nafaqan fee al-ar d iaw sullaman fee a Issama a -i fata/tyahum bi- a yatinwalaw sh a a All a hu lajamaAAahum AAala alhud a fala takoonanna mina alj a hileena
A	6:35 وان كان كبير عليك اعراضهم فان استطعت ان تبتغي نفقا في الارض او سلما في السماء فتاتيهم باية ولو شاء الله لجمعهم على الهدى فلا تكونن من الجاهلين
Edip-Layth	6:36 Only those who listen will respond. As for the dead, God will resurrect them, then to Him they will return.
The Monotheist Group	6:36 Only those who listen will respond. As for the dead, God will resurrect them, then to Him they will return.

Muhammad Asad	6:36 Only they who listen [with their hearts] can respond to a call; and as for the dead [of heart], God [alone] can raise them from the dead, whereupon unto Him they shall return. ²⁷
Rashad Khalifa	6:36 The only ones to respond are those who listen. GOD resurrects the dead; they ultimately return to Him.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:36 Only those can accept the truth who hear and listen with an open mind (10:100). The living dead will only hear when God raises them (to use their faculties (2:260), or when God will raise them to the second life. Ultimately, to Him they will be returned.
Transliteration	6:36 Innama yastajeebu alla theenayasmaAAoona wa al-mawta yabAAathuhumu Allahu huthumma ilayhi yurjaAAoona
A	6:36 انما يستجيب الذين يسمعون والموتى بيعثهم الله ثم اليه يرجعون
Edip-Layth	Everything is Recorded 6:37 They said, "If only a sign was sent to him from his Lord!" Say, "God is able to send a sign, but most of them would not know."
The Monotheist Group	6:37 And they said: "If only a sign was sent to him from his Lord!" Say: "God is able to send a sign, but most of them would not know."
Muhammad Asad	6:37 And they say, "Why has no miraculous sign been bestowed on him ²⁸ from on high by his Sustainer?" Say: "Behold, God has the power to bestow any sign from on high." Yet most human beings are unaware of this ²⁹
Rashad Khalifa	6:37 They said, "If only a certain sign could come down to him from his Lord!" Say, "GOD is able to send down a sign, but most of them do not know."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:37 They say, "If only a miracle could come down to him from his Lord!" Say, "God surely has the Power to send down a miracle, but most of them do not use their knowledge." ⁷
Transliteration	6:37 Waqaaloo lawl a nuzzila AAalayhi ayatun min rabbihi qul inna All aha qadirunAAala an yunazzila ayatun walakinnaaktharahum la yaAAalamoona
A	6:37 وقالوا لولا نزل عليه آية من ربه قل ان الله قادر على ان ينزل آية ولكن اكثرهم لا يعلمون
Edip-Layth	6:38 There is not a creature in the earth, or a bird that flies with its wings, but are nations like you. We did not leave anything out of the book; then to their Lord they will be summoned. ⁶
The Monotheist Group	6:38 And there is not a creature in the Earth, or a bird that fly's with its wings, but are nations like you. We did not leave anything out of the record; then to their Lord they will be gathered.
Muhammad Asad	6:38 although there is no beast that walks on earth and no bird that flies on its two wings which is not [God's] creature ³⁰ like yourselves: no single thing have We neglected in Our decree. And once again: ³¹ Unto their Sustainer shall they [all] be gathered.
Rashad Khalifa	Animals and Birds: Submitting Creatures 6:38 All the creatures on earth, and all the birds that fly with wings, are communities like you. We did not leave anything out of this book ⁴ . To their Lord, all these creatures will be summoned.

Shabbir Ahmed	6:38 (There are signs in the Universe to behold.) There is not an animal on the earth, nor a flying creature flying on two wings, but they are communities like you. We have omitted nothing in the Book (that was essential to be given through revelation.) Then to their Lord they will be gathered.
Transliteration	6:38 Wama min dabbatin fee al-arḍi wala ta-irin yaṭeeru bijanahayhi illaomamun amthalukum m a farra inā feealkit ābi min shay-in thumma il a rabbihim yuḥsharoona
A	6:38 وما من دابة في الارض ولا طئر يطير بجناحيه الا امم امثالكم ما فرطنا في الكتب من شيء ثم الى ربهم يحشرون
Edip-Layth	6:39 Those who deny Our signs, they are deaf and dumb, in darkness. Whoever God wishes He misguides, and whoever He wishes He makes him on a straight path.
The Monotheist Group	6:39 And those who deny Our signs, they are deaf and dumb, in darkness. Whoever God wishes He misguides, and whoever He wishes He makes him on a straight path.
Muhammad Asad	6:39 And they who give the lie to Our messages are deaf and dumb, in darkness deep. Whomever God wills, He lets go astray; and whomever He wills, He places upon a straight way. 32
Rashad Khalifa	Overwhelming Miracle of the Quran 6:39 Those who reject our proofs are deaf and dumb, in total darkness. Whomever GOD wills, He sends astray, and whomever He wills, He leads in a straight path.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:39 Those who deny Our signs are deaf and dumb, in total darkness. Straying and guidance take place according to the Divine laws. 8
Transliteration	6:39 Waallatheena ka ththaboobi-ayatina summun wabukmun fee alththulumatiman yasha-i All ahu yuḍlihu waman yasha/ yajAAalhuAAal a siratin mustaqeemin
A	6:39 والذين كذبوا بايتنا صم وبكم في الظلمت من يشا الله يضلله ومن يشا يجعله على صراط مستقيم
Edip-Layth	6:40 Say, "We will see when God's retribution comes to you, or the moment comes to you, if you will still call on any other than God. If you are being truthful."
The Monotheist Group	6:40 Say: "We will see when God's retribution comes to you, or the Hour comes to you, if you will still call on any other than God. If you are being truthful."
Muhammad Asad	6:40 Say: "Can you see yourselves invoking any but God when God's chastisement befalls you [in this world], or the Last Hour comes upon you? [Tell me this,] if you are men of truth!
Rashad Khalifa	6:40 Say, "What if GOD's retribution came to you, or the Hour came to you: would you implore other than GOD, if you are truthful?"
Shabbir Ahmed	6:40 Say, "Can you see yourselves calling upon other than God, if the Divine retribution comes upon you or the Hour comes upon you? (Answer that) if you are truthful."
Transliteration	6:40 Qul araaytakum in atakum AAathabuAllahi aw atatkumu alssaAAatu aghayra AllahitadAAoona in kuntum sadiqeena

A	6:40 قل ارءيتكم ان اتكم عذاب الله او اتكم الساعة اغير الله تدعون ان كنتم صدقين
Edip-Layth	6:41 "No, it is Him alone you will call on; then He will remove what you called Him for, if He wills; you will forget what you set up."
The Monotheist Group	6:41 "No, it is Him alone you will call on; and He will remove that which you called Him for, if He wills; and you will forget what you set up."
Muhammad Asad	6:41 Nay, but it is Him alone that you will invoke - whereupon He may, if He so wills, remove that [ill] which caused you to call unto Him; and you will have forgotten all that. to which you [now] ascribe divinity side by side with Him."
Rashad Khalifa	6:41 The fact is: only Him you implore, and He answers your prayer, if He so wills, and you forget your idols.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:41 Nay, you will call to Him alone, and He removes your affliction that caused to you call upon Him, if He wills. At that time you forget your idols.
Transliteration	6:41 Bal iyyahu tadAAoona fayakshifu m atadAAoona ilayhi in sh aa watansawna ma tushrikoona
A	6:41 بل اياه تدعون فيكشف ما تدعون اليه ان شاء وتنتسبون ما تشركون
Edip-Layth	6:42 We have sent others to nations before you. We then took them with adversity and hardship, perhaps they would implore.
The Monotheist Group	6:42 And We have sent others to nations before you. We then took them with adversity and hardship, perhaps they would implore.
Muhammad Asad	6:42 And, indeed, We sent Our messages unto people before thy time, [O Prophet,] and visited them with misfortune and hardship so that they might humble themselves:
Rashad Khalifa	6:42 We have sent (messengers) to communities before you, and we put them to the test through adversity and hardship, that they may implore.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:42 We sent messengers to nations before you. (They compassionately advised their people that the Supreme law is operative on the earth, as it is in the Universe that is in the heavens and all that is on earth.) When those nations violated Our laws in their societies, they had to face the consequences. They should have become humble and taken corrective action right away.
Transliteration	6:42 Walaqad arsaln a il a omamin minqabluka faakha thnahum bi alba/sa-i waalddarra-ilaAAallahum yatadarraAAoona
A	6:42 ولقد ارسلنا الى امم من قبلك فاخذنهم بالبساء والضراء لعلهم يتضرعون
Edip-Layth	6:43 If only they had implored when Our punishment came to them; but their hearts hardened, and the devil adorned for them what they used to do.
The Monotheist Group	6:43 If only they had implored when Our punishment came to them; but their hearts hardened, and the devil adorned for them what they used to do.
Muhammad Asad	6:43 yet when the misfortune decreed by Us befell them, they did not humble themselves, but rather their hearts grew hard, for Satan had made all their doings seem goodly to them.
Rashad Khalifa	6:43 If only they implored when our test afflicted them! Instead, their hearts were hardened, and the devil adorned their works in their eyes.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:43 But, instead of being humble when Our requital touched them, their selfish desires led their minds into rationalizing their actions. This is because their hearts had been hardened with arrogance and repeated rejection of the truth. ⁹

Transliteration	6:43 Falawla i th j aahumba/suna ta darraAAoo wal akin qasat quloobuhumwazayyana lahumu alshshaytanu ma kanooyaAAamaloona
A	6:43 فلولا اذ جاءهم باسنا تضرعوا ولكن قست قلوبهم وزين لهم الشيطان ما كانوا يعملون
Edip-Layth	The System 6:44 So when they forgot what they had been reminded of, We opened for them the gates of all opportunities; and when they became haughty with what they were given, We took them suddenly! They were confounded.
The Monotheist Group	6:44 So when they forgot what they had been reminded of, We opened for them the gates of all opportunities; and when they were happy with what they were given, We took them suddenly! They were confounded.
Muhammad Asad	6:44 Then, when they had forgotten all that they had been told to take to heart, We threw open to them the gates of all [good] things ³³ until -even as they were rejoicing in what they had been granted - We suddenly took them to task: and lo! they were broken in spirit; ³⁴
Rashad Khalifa	The System 6:44 When they thus disregard the message given to them, we open for them the gates of everything. Then, just as they rejoice in what was given to them, we punish them suddenly; they become utterly stunned. ⁵
Shabbir Ahmed	6:44 When they forgot the reminder given to them, We opened for them the gates of all (good) things until just as they were enjoying Our gifts, suddenly We called them to account. Then, they were plunged in despair. ¹⁰
Transliteration	6:44 Famma nasoo m a thukkiroobihi fatahna AAalayhim abw aba kulli shay-in hattai tha farihoo bima ootoo akha thnaghumbaghtatan fa-i tha hum mublisoon a
A	6:44 فلما نسوا ما ذكروا به فتحنا عليهم ابواب كل شيء حتى اذا فرحوا بما اوتوا اخذناهم بغتة فاذا هم مبلسون
Edip-Layth	6:45 It was thus that the remainder of the wicked people was wiped out; and praise be to God, the Lord of the worlds.
The Monotheist Group	6:45 It was thus that the remainder of the wicked people were wiped out; and praise be to God, the Lord of the worlds.
Muhammad Asad	6:45 and [in the end,] the last remnant of those folk who had been bent on evildoing was wiped out. ³⁵ For all praise is due to God, the Sustainer of all the worlds.
Rashad Khalifa	6:45 The wicked are thus annihilated. Praise be to GOD, Lord of the universe.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:45 When nations violated human rights with their unjust systems they were uprooted (6:6, 7:129). God replaced them with people who were not like them (10:14, 11:57). You can understand that all praise in word and action belongs to the Lord of the worlds. ¹¹
Transliteration	6:45 FaqutiAAa d abiru alqawmi alla theenathalamoo wa alhamdu lill aghirabbi alAAalameena
A	6:45 فقطع دابر القوم الذين ظلموا والحمد لله رب العلمين
	6:46 Say, "Do you see that if God were to take away your hearing and your

Edip-Layth	eyesight, and He seals your hearts; which god besides God can bring it to you?" Look how We cite the signs, but then they turn away.
The Monotheist Group	6:46 Say: "Do you see that if God were to take away your hearing and your eyesight, and He seals your hearts; which god besides God can bring it to you?" Look how We put forth the revelations, but then they turn away.
Muhammad Asad	6:46 Say: "What do you think? If God should take away your hearing and your sight and seal your hearts - what deity but God is there that could bring it all back to you?" Behold how many facets we give to our messages-and yet they turn away in disdain!
Rashad Khalifa	God Alone Worthy of Worship 6:46 Say, "What if GOD took away your hearing and your eyesight, and sealed your minds; which god, other than GOD, can restore these for you?" Note how we explain the revelations, and note how they still deviate!
Shabbir Ahmed	6:46 (The exploiters of the masses think that they are smarter, and therefore, they deserve to take advantage of people 28:76-82.) Say, "Will you think? If God took away your hearing and your sight and sealed up your hearts, which god other than God could restore them to you? Note how We explain the verses by various facets, and note how they still turn away.
Transliteration	6:46 Qul araaytum in akha tha All ghusamAAakum waab sarakum wakhatama AAala quloobikumman il ahun ghayru All ahi ya/teekum bihi on thurkayfa nusarrifu al- ayati thumma hum ya sdifoona
A	6:46 قل ارءيتم ان اخذ الله سمعكم وابصركم وختم على قلوبكم من اله غير الله ياتيكم به انظر كيف نصرف الءايت ثم هم يصدفون
Edip-Layth	6:47 Say, "Do you see if God's retribution comes to you suddenly, or gradually, will anyone be destroyed except the wicked people?"
The Monotheist Group	6:47 Say: "Do you see if God's retribution comes to you suddenly, or gradually, will anyone be destroyed except the wicked people?"
Muhammad Asad	6:47 Say: "Can you imagine what your condition will be ³⁶ if God's chastisement befalls you, either suddenly or in a [gradually] perceptible manner? [But then-] will any but evildoing folk [ever] be destroyed? ³⁷
Rashad Khalifa	6:47 Say, "What if GOD's retribution came to you suddenly, or after an announcement, is it not the wicked who incur annihilation?"
Shabbir Ahmed	6:47 Tell them that the punishment according to the Law of Requital, sneaks up or suddenly hits nations that are transgressors (11:104). Would any people perish unless they are oppressors of the masses? ¹²
Transliteration	6:47 Qul araaytakum in at akum AAa thabuAllahi baghtatan aw jahratan hal yuhlaku illa alqawmu al ththalimoona
A	6:47 قل ارءيتكم ان اتكم عذاب الله بغتة او جهرة هل يهلك الا القوم الظالمون
Edip-Layth	Messengers are not Supermen 6:48 We do not send the messengers except as bearers of good news and warners; whoever acknowledges, and reforms, then there is no fear for them nor will they grieve.
The Monotheist Group	6:48 And We do not send the messengers except as bearers of good news and warners; whoever believes, and does good, then there is no fear for them nor will they grieve.

Muhammad Asad	6:48 And We send [Our] message-bearers only as heralds of glad tidings and as warners: hence, all who believe and live righteously -no fear need they have, and neither shall they grieve;
Rashad Khalifa	Role of the Messengers 6:48 We do not send the messengers except as deliverers of good news, as well as warners. Those who believe and reform have nothing to fear, nor will they grieve.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:48 We have sent Our messengers to give good news and to warn. Those who attain belief, mend their ways and work for social equity fulfilling the needs of others, will have nothing to fear nor will they have any regrets.
Transliteration	6:48 Wama nursilu almursaleena illa amubashshireena wamun thireena faman amana waaslahafala khawfun AAalayhim wala hum yahzanoona
A	6:48 وما نرسل المرسلين الا مبشرين ومنذرين فمن آمن واصلح فلا خوف عليهم ولا هم يحزنون
Edip-Layth	6:49 Those who deny Our signs, the retribution will touch them for their wickedness.
The Monotheist Group	6:49 And those who deny Our revelations, the retribution will inflict them for their vileness.
Muhammad Asad	6:49 whereas those who give the lie to Our messages - suffering will afflict them in result of all their sinful doings.
Rashad Khalifa	6:49 As for those who reject our revelations, they incur the retribution for their wickedness.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:49 But those who deny Our revelations, retribution will afflict them, for they keep drifting from the secure path. 13
Transliteration	6:49 Waallatheena ka ththaboobi-ayatina yamassuhumu alAAa thabu bim akanoo yafsuqoona
A	6:49 والذين كذبوا بآيتنا يمسه العذاب بما كانوا يفسقون
Edip-Layth	6:50 Say, "I do not say to you that I possess God's treasures, nor do I know the future, nor do I say to you that I am an angel. I merely follow what is inspired to me." Say, "Are the blind and the seer the same? Do you not think?"
The Monotheist Group	6:50 Say: "I do not say to you that I possess God's treasures, nor do I know the future, nor do I say to you that I am an angel. I merely follow what is inspired to me." Say: "Are the blind and the seer the same? Do you not think?"
Muhammad Asad	6:50 Say [O Prophet]: "I do not say unto you, 'God's treasures are with me,'; nor [do I say], 'I know the things that are beyond the reach of human perception'; nor do I say unto you, 'Behold, I am an angel': I but follow what is revealed to me." 38 Say: "Can the blind and the seeing be deemed equal? 39 Will you not, then, take thought?"
Rashad Khalifa	6:50 Say, "I do not say to you that I possess the treasures of GOD. Nor do I know the future. Nor do I say to you that I am an angel. I simply follow what is revealed to me." Say, "Is the blind the same as the seer? Do you not reflect?"
Shabbir Ahmed	6:50 Say, (O Messenger!), "I do not claim that I have the Treasures of God, nor do I have the knowledge of the Unseen, nor do I tell you that I am an angel. I follow what is revealed to me. (You blindly follow your ancestors.) Say, "Is the blind of the heart the same as the seer who uses reason? Would you not reflect?"

Transliteration	6:50 Qul l a aqoolu lakum AAindee khaz a -inuAll a hi wal a aAAlamu alghayba wal a aqoolulakum innee malakun in attabiAAu ill a m a yoo h ailayya qul hal yastawee al-aAAam a waalbaseeruafal a tatafakkaroona
A	6:50 قل لا اقول لكم عندى خزان الله ولا اعلم الغيب ولا اقول لكم انى ملك ان اتبع الا ما يوحى الى قل هل يستوى الاعمى والبصير افلا تتفكرون
Edip-Layth	6:51 Warn with it those who realize that they will be summoned to their Lord; they do not have besides Him any protector nor intercessor; so that they may be righteous. ⁷
The Monotheist Group	6:51 And warn with it those who realize that they will be gathered to their Lord; they do not have besides Him any protector nor intercessor; so that they may be righteous.
Muhammad Asad	6:51 And warn hereby those who fear lest they be gathered unto their Sustainer with none to protect them from Him or to intercede with Him, so that they might become [fully] conscious of Him. ⁴⁰
Rashad Khalifa	6:51 And preach with this (Quran) to those who reverence the summoning before their Lord - they have none beside Him as a Lord and Master, nor an intercessor - that they may attain salvation.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:51 Give this warning to those who fear that they will be brought to judgment before their Lord. Except for Him, they will have no protector and no intercessor. (Counsel them) so that they may live upright.
Transliteration	6:51 Waan th ir bihi alla th eena yak h afoonaan yu h sharoo il a rabbi h im laysa lahum min doonih i waliyyun wal a shafeeAAun laAAallahum yattaqoon a
A	6:51 وانذر به الذين يخافون ان يحشروا الى ربهم ليس لهم من دونه ولى ولا شفيع لعلمهم يتقون
Edip-Layth	6:52 Do not turn away those who call on their Lord at dawn and dusk seeking His presence; you are not responsible for their account, nor are they responsible for your account; if you turn them away, then you will be of the wicked.
The Monotheist Group	6:52 And do not turn away those who call on their Lord at dawn and dusk seeking His presence; you are not responsible for their judgment, nor are they responsible for your judgment; if you turn them away, then you will be of the wicked.
Muhammad Asad	6:52 Hence, repulse not [any of] those who at morn and evening invoke their Sustainer, seeking His countenance. ⁴¹ Thou art in no wise accountable for them- just as they are in no wise accountable for thee ⁴² -and thou hast therefore no right to repulse them: for then thou wouldst be among the evildoers. ⁴³
Rashad Khalifa	6:52 And do not dismiss those who implore their Lord day and night, devoting themselves to Him alone. You are not responsible for their reckoning, nor are they responsible for your reckoning. If you dismiss them, you will be a transgressor.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:52 Do not send away those who call on their Lord morning and evening, seeking His Countenance (devoting themselves to Him alone). You are, by no means, accountable for them, and they are not accountable for you. (In spite of the demands of the rich and powerful leaders, you shall not turn away the sincere servants of God.) If you send them away, then you will be among the unjust.

Transliteration	6:52 Wala ta trudi alla theenayadAAoona rabbahum bi alghadati waalAAashiiyyureedoona wajhahu m_a AAalayka min hisabihimmin shay-in wama min hisabika AAalayhim minshay-in fatatrudahum fatakoona mina alththalimeena
A	6:52 ولا تطرد الذين يدعون ربهم بالغدوة والعشى يريدون وجهه ما عليك من حسابهم من شيء وما من حسابك عليهم من شيء فتطردهم فتكون من الظالمين
Edip-Layth	6:53 Thus, We test them with one another, so that they may say, "Are these the ones whom God has blessed from amongst us?" Is God not aware of the thankful?
The Monotheist Group	6:53 And it is such that We test them with one another, so that they may say: "Are these the ones whom God has blessed from amongst us?" Is God not aware of the thankful?
Muhammad Asad	6:53 For it is in this way ⁴⁴ that We try men through one another - to the end that they might ask, "Has God, then, bestowed His favour upon those others in preference to us?" ⁴⁵ Does not God know best as to who is grateful [to Him]?
Rashad Khalifa	6:53 We thus test the people by each other, to let them say (mockingly), "Are these the people among us who are blessed by GOD?" Is GOD not aware of the appreciative ones?
Shabbir Ahmed	6:53 Thus did We test some of them by means of others, so that they said, "Is it these that God has favored from among us?" But, does not God know best those who are appreciative?
Transliteration	6:53 Wakathalika fatann a baAA dahumbibaAAdin liyaqooloo ah aola-i manna AllahuAAalayhim min baynina alysa Allahu bi-aAAlama bialshshakireena
A	6:53 وكذلك فتننا بعضهم ببعض ليقولوا اهولاء من الله عليهم من بيننا اليس الله باعلم بالشكرين
Edip-Layth	6:54 If those who acknowledge Our signs come to you, then say, "Peace be upon you, our Lord has decreed mercy upon Himself, that any of you who commits sin out of ignorance and then repents afterwards and reforms, then He is Forgiving, Compassionate."
The Monotheist Group	6:54 And if those who believe in Our revelations come to you, then say: "Peace be upon you, our Lord has decreed mercy upon Himself, that any of you who commits sin out of ignorance and then repents afterwards and amends, then He is Forgiving, Merciful."
Muhammad Asad	6:54 And when those who believe in Our messages come unto thee, say: "Peace be upon you. Your Sustainer has willed upon Himself the law of grace and mercy ⁴⁶ - so that if any of you does a bad deed out of ignorance, and thereafter repents and lives righteously, He shall be [found] much-forgiving, a dispenser of grace."
Rashad Khalifa	6:54 When those who believe in our revelations come to you, you shall say, "Salmun `Alaykum (Peace be upon you). Your Lord has decreed that mercy is His attribute. Thus, anyone among you who commits a transgression out of ignorance, and repents thereafter and reforms, then He is Forgiving, Most Merciful."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:54 When those who believe in Our revelations come to you, say, Salamun Alaikum (Peace be upon you! = Salutes to you!) Your Lord has decreed mercy upon Himself. Thus anyone among you who commits a bad deed out of ignorance, and then repents and makes amends should know that He is Forgiving, Merciful.

Transliteration	6:54 Wa-i tha j a aka alla theen ayu/minoona bi- ayati na faqul sal a munAAalaykum kataba rabbukum AAala a nafsih i a Irra h mataannahu man AAamila minkum soo-an bi ja h al atin thumma ta bamin baAAadihi waas la ha faannahu ghafoorun ra heem un
A	6:54 واذا جاءك الذين يؤمنون بايتنا فقل سلم عليكم كتب ربكم على نفسه الرحمة انه من عمل منكم سوءا بجهلة ثم تاب من بعده واصلح فانه غفور رحيم
Edip-Layth	6:55 It is such that We explain the signs, and make clear the way of the criminals.
The Monotheist Group	6:55 And it is such that We explain the revelations, and make clear the way of the criminals.
Muhammad Asad	6:55 And thus clearly do We spell out Our messages: and [We do it] so that the path of those who are lost in sin might be distinct [from that of the righteous].
Rashad Khalifa	6:55 We thus explain the revelations, and point out the ways of the wicked.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:55 We explain Our laws to distinguish (between minor, unintended violations and) the way of the criminals who steal the fruit of others' labor.
Transliteration	6:55 Wakat ha lika nufass i lu al- ayati walitastabeena sabeelu almu jr imeena
A	6:55 وكذلك نفصل الءايت ولتستبين سبيل المجرمين
Edip-Layth	6:56 Say, "I am warned to stop serving those you call upon other than God." Say, "I will not follow your desires; otherwise I would go astray and I would not be of those guided." ⁸
The Monotheist Group	6:56 Say: "I am warned not to serve those you call upon other than God" Say: "I will not follow your desires, otherwise I would go astray and I would not be of those guided."
Muhammad Asad	6:56 SAY [to the deniers of the truth]: "Behold, I have been forbidden to worship those [beings] whom you invoke instead of God." Say: "I do not follow your errant views -or else I should have gone astray, and should not be among those who have found the right path."
Rashad Khalifa	6:56 Say, "I am forbidden from worshipping what you worship besides GOD." Say, "I will not follow your opinions. Otherwise, I will go astray, and not be guided."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:56 Say, "I am forbidden to worship and obey on whom you call instead of God." Say, "I will not follow your desires, otherwise I will go astray and not be among the rightly guided."
Transliteration	6:56 Qul innee nuheetu an aAAabuda alla theen atadAAoona min dooni All ah i qul la a attabiAAu ahwa a akumqad da laltu i th an wama a na minaalmuhtadeena
A	6:56 قل انى نهيت ان اعبد الذين تدعون من دون الله قل لا اتبع اهواءكم قد ضللت اذا وما انا من المهتدين
Edip-Layth	6:57 Say, "I am on a proof from my Lord and you have denied it. I do not have what you hasten towards; the judgment is with God only; He carves out the truth, and He is the best analyzer." ⁹
	6:57 Say: "I am on a clarity from my Lord and you have denied it. I do not have

The Monotheist Group	what you hasten towards; the judgment is with God only; He carves out the truth, and He is the best decider."
Muhammad Asad	6:57 Say: "Behold, I take my stand on a clear evidence from my Sustainer-and [so] it is to Him that you are giving the lie! Not in my power is that which [in your ignorance] you so hastily demand: ⁴⁷ judgment rests with none but God. He shall declare the truth, since it is He who is the best judge between truth and falsehood."
Rashad Khalifa	6:57 Say, "I have solid proof from my Lord, and you have rejected it. I do not control the retribution you challenge me to bring. Judgment belongs with GOD alone. He narrates the truth, and He is the best judge."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:57 Say, "I have a manifest proof from my Lord that you deny. I do not control the retribution you challenge me to bring. Judgment belongs to none but God. And no one has the Ultimate Rule. He declares the truth and He is the Best of deciders."
Transliteration	6:57 Qul innee AAal a bayyinat min rabbeewaka th thabtum bihi m a AAindee matastaAAajiloona bihi ini al hukmu ill a lill ahiyaqu ssu al haqqa wahuwa khayru alfa sileena
A	6:57 قل انى على بينة من ربي وكذبتم به ما عندى ما تستعجلون به ان الحكم الا لله يقص الحق وهو خير الفصلين
Edip-Layth	6:58 Say, "If I had what you are hastening for, then the matter between us would have been resolved. God is fully aware of the wicked."
The Monotheist Group	6:58 Say: "If I had what you were hastening towards, then the matter between us would have been resolved. And God is fully aware of the wicked."
Muhammad Asad	6:58 Say: "If that which you so hastily demand were in my power, everything would indeed have been decided between me and you. ⁴⁸ But God knows best as to who is doing wrong."
Rashad Khalifa	6:58 Say, "If I controlled the retribution you challenge me to bring, the whole matter would have been terminated long ago. GOD knows best who the wicked are."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:58 Say, "If the ultimate decision you are hastening for was up to me, the case would have been already decided. God is best Aware of the wrongdoers."
Transliteration	6:58 Qul law anna AAindee m atastaAAajiloona bihi laqu diya al-amru baynee wabaynakum waAlla h uaAAalamu bial th thalimeena
A	6:58 قل لو ان عندى ما تستعجلون به لقضى الامر بينى وبينكم والله اعلم بالظلمين
Edip-Layth	God the Omniscient, the Omnipotent 6:59 With Him are the keys to the unseen, none knows them except He. He knows what is in the land and in the sea; and not a leaf falls except with His knowledge; nor a seed in the darkness of the earth; nor anything moist or anything dry; all is in a clear book. ¹⁰
The Monotheist Group	6:59 And with Him are the keys to the unseen, none know them except He. And He knows what is in the land and in the sea; and not a leaf falls except with His knowledge; nor a seed in the darkness of the Earth; nor anything moist or anything dry; all is in a clear record.
	6:59 For, with Him are the keys to the things that are beyond the reach of a created being's perception: none knows them but He. And He knows all that is on

Muhammad Asad	land and in the sea; and not a leaf falls but He knows it; and neither is there a grain in the earth's deep darkness, nor anything: living or dead, ⁴⁹ but is recorded in [His] clear decree.
Rashad Khalifa	Almighty God 6:59 With Him are the keys to all secrets; none knows them except He. He knows everything on land and in the sea. Not a leaf falls without His knowledge. Nor is there a grain in the depths of the soil. Nor is there anything wet or dry, that is not recorded in a profound record.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:59 With Him are the keys of the Unseen. (None but He knows the subtle processes and their stages where actions culminate into their logical outcome.) He knows everything in the land and in the sea. Not even a leaf falls without His knowledge. Neither is there a grain in the dark depths of the soil, nor anything fresh or withered, that He knows not. But all is written in the Open Book of the Universe around you.
Transliteration	6:59 WaAAindahū maf̣aṭihū alghaybi ḷ ayaAAalamuhā illā huwa wayaAAalamu ṃ a feealbarri wa albahri waṃ a tasqu tū minwaraqatin illā yaAAalamuh a wal a habbatinfee th ulumaṭi al-ardi walā raṭbinwalā yaḅisin illā fee kitābin mubeeṇin
A	6:59 وعنده مفاتيح الغيب لا يعلمها الا هو ويعلم ما فى البر والبحر وما تسقط من ورقة الا يعلمها ولا حبة فى ظلمات الارض ولا رطب ولا يابس الا فى كتب مبين
Edip-Layth	6:60 He is the One who takes you at night, and He knows what you have done during the day, then He sends you back to it until a fixed span; then to Him is your return and He will inform you of what you used to do. ¹¹
The Monotheist Group	6:60 And He is the One who seizes you during the night, and He knows what you have done during the day, then He sends you back again to complete an appointed term; then to Him is your return and He will inform you of what you used to do.
Muhammad Asad	6:60 And He it is who causes you to be [like] dead ⁵⁰ at night, and knows what you work in daytime; and He brings you back to life each days ⁵¹ in order that a term set [by Him] be fulfilled. In the end, unto Him you must return: and then He will make you understand all that you were doing [in life].
Rashad Khalifa	Death and Resurrection: Every Day 6:60 He is the One who puts you to death during the night, and knows even the smallest of your actions during the day. He resurrects you every morning, until your life span is fulfilled, then to Him is your ultimate return. He will then inform you of everything you had done. ⁶
Shabbir Ahmed	6:60 He suspends your consciousness during sleep at night, and knows what you do by day, when awake. He resurrects you every morning until your life span is completed. Death is, likewise, a temporary suspension of consciousness and afterward to Him is your return (39:42). Then, He will inform you of what you really accomplished.
Transliteration	6:60 Wahuwa alla thee yatawaff̣ akumbiallayli wayaAAalamu ṃ a jara htum bialInnaharithumma yabAAathukum feehi liyuq̣ da ajalun musamman thummailayhi marjiAAukum thumma yunabbi-okum bima kuntumtaAAamaloona
A	6:60 وهو الذى يتوفىكم بالليل ويعلم ما جرحتم بالنهار ثم يبعثكم فيه ليقضى اجل مسمى ثم اليه مرجعكم ثم ينبئكم بما كنتم تعملون
	6:61 He is the Supreme over His servants, and He sends over you guardians. So

Edip-Layth	that when the time of death comes to one of you, Our messengers take him, and they do not neglect any. ¹²
The Monotheist Group	6:61 And He is the Supreme over His servants, and He sends over you guardians. So that when the time of death comes to one of you, Our messengers terminate his life, and they do not neglect any.
Muhammad Asad	6:61 And He alone holds sway over His servants. And He sends forth heavenly forces to watch over you ⁵² until, when death approaches any of you, Our messengers cause him to die: and they do not overlook [anyone].
Rashad Khalifa	6:61 He is Supreme over His creatures, and He appoints guards to protect you. When the appointed time of death comes to any of you, our messengers put him to death without delay.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:61 He is Supreme over His servants. His laws guard your life until the inescapable law of death approaches you. When death comes to one of you, Our couriers receive him without delay.
Transliteration	6:61 Wahuwa alqahiru fawqa AAibadihiwayursilu AAalaykum hafathatan hattaitha jaa ahadakumu almawtu tawaffat-hurusuluna wahum la yufarriṭoona
A	6:61 وهو القاهر فوق عباده ويرسل عليكم حفظة حتى اذا جاء احدكم الموت توفته رسلنا وهم لا يفرطون
Edip-Layth	6:62 Then they are returned to God, their true Patron; to Him is the judgment and He is the swiftest in reckoning.
The Monotheist Group	6:62 Then they are returned to God, their true Patron; to Him is the judgment and He is the swiftest in reckoning.
Muhammad Asad	6:62 And they [who have died] are thereupon brought before God, ⁵³ their true Lord Supreme. Oh, verily, His alone is all judgment: and He is the swiftest of all reckoners!
Rashad Khalifa	6:62 Then everyone is returned to GOD, their rightful Lord and Master. Absolutely, He is the ultimate judge; He is the most accurate Reckoner.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:62 Then they are returned to God, their Rightful Master. Surely, His is the command and His is the judgment. And He is the Swiftest of those who take account.
Transliteration	6:62 Thumma ruddoo il a Allahi mawl ahumualhaqqi al a lahu al hukmu wahuwa asraAAu alhasibeena
A	6:62 ثم ردوا الى الله مولاهم الحق الا له الحكم وهو اسرع الحسبين
Edip-Layth	6:63 Say, "Who rescues you from the darkness of the land and the sea?," you call on Him openly and secretly: "If You save us from this, we will be of the thankful!"
The Monotheist Group	6:63 Say: "Who rescues you from the darkness of the land and the sea?" you call on Him in humility and in secret: "If You save us from this, we will be of the thankful!"
Muhammad Asad	6:63 Say: "Who is it that saves you from the dark dangers ⁵⁴ of land and sea [when] you call unto Him humbly, and in the secrecy of your hearts, `If He will but save us from this [distress], we shall most certainly be among the grateful'?"
Rashad Khalifa	6:63 Say, "Who can save you from the darkness of the land or the sea?" You implore Him loudly and secretly: "If He saves us this time, we will be eternally appreciative."

Shabbir Ahmed	6:63 Say, "Who saves you, in the darkness of the land and the sea, when you call upon Him humbly and quietly saying, "If He saves us this time, we will always be thankful?"
Transliteration	6:63 Qul man yunajjeekum min th ulum a tialbarri wa a lbah r i tadAAoonahu tad a rruAAanwakhufyatan la-in anj a na min h a thihilanakoonanna mina alshshakireena
A	6:63 قل من ينجيكم من ظلمت البر والبحر تدعونه تضرعا وخفية لن انجنا من هذه لنكون من الشكرين
Edip-Layth	6:64 Say, "God will save you from it and from all distresses, yet you still set up partners!"
The Monotheist Group	6:64 Say: "God will save you from it and from all distresses, yet you still set up partners!"
Muhammad Asad	6:64 Say: "God [alone] can save you from this and from every distress - and still you ascribe divinity to other powers beside Him!"
Rashad Khalifa	6:64 Say, "GOD does save you this time, and other times as well, then you still set up idols besides Him."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:64 Say, "It is God (Whose laws you trust never to change), Who protects you from different afflictions. Even then you attribute partners to Him!"
Transliteration	6:64 Quli All a hu yunajjeekum minh a wamin kulli karbin thumma antum tushrikoona
A	6:64 قل الله ينجيكم منها ومن كل كرب ثم انتم تشركون
Edip-Layth	6:65 Say, "He is able to send retribution from above you or from below your feet, or He will make you belong to opposing factions, then He will let you taste the might of each other." See how We cite the signs, perhaps they may comprehend.
The Monotheist Group	6:65 Say: "He is able to send retribution from above you or from below your feet, or He will make you belong to opposing factions, then He will let you taste the might of each other." See how We put forth the revelations, perhaps they may comprehend.
Muhammad Asad	6:65 Say: "It is He alone who has the power to let loose upon you suffering from above you or from beneath your feet, ⁵⁵ or to confound you with mutual discord and let you taste the fear of one another." ⁵⁶ Behold how many facets we give to these messages, so that they might understand the truth.
Rashad Khalifa	6:65 Say, "He is certainly able to pour upon you retribution from above you, or from beneath your feet. Or He can divide you into factions and have you taste each others' tyranny. Note how we explain the revelations, that they may understand."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:65 Say, "He is Able to send punishment upon you from above you or from beneath your feet, or to bewilder you with dissension and make you taste the tyranny of one another. (Violation of His laws can inflict you from the top in the form of tyrannical rule, or from the bottom in the form of popular rebellion. You could then divide into hateful parties, and taste smite of one another.) Note how We use Tasreef, explaining Our verses from various vantage points, that men and women may understand.
	6:65 Qul huwa alqadiru AAala anyabAAatha AAalaykum AAathaban min fawqikum

Transliteration	aw min ta htia ^h arjulikum aw yalbisakum shiyaAAan wayu theeqa baAA dakumba/sa baAA ^h in on ^h ur kayfa nu ^h sarrifual- ^h ayati laAAallahum yafqahoon a
A	6:65 قُلْ هُوَ الْقَادِرُ عَلَىٰ أَنْ يَبْعَثَ عَلَيْكُمْ عَذَابًا مِنْ فَوْقِكُمْ أَوْ مِنْ تَحْتِ أَرْجُلِكُمْ أَوْ يَلْبَسَكُمْ ثِيَابًا وَيُذِيقَ بَعْضَكُمْ بَأْسَ بَعْضٍ أَنْظِرْ كَيْفَ نَصْرَفَ الْآيَاتِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَفْقَهُونَ
Edip-Layth	Some of the News of the Quran left for Future Generations 6:66 Your people denied it, while it is the truth. Say, "I am not a guardian over you!"
The Monotheist Group	6:66 And your people denied it, while it is the truth. Say: "I am not a guardian over you!"
Muhammad Asad	6:66 and yet, to all this thy peoples ⁵⁷ have given the lie, although it is the truth. Say [then]: "I am not responsible for your conduct.
Rashad Khalifa	6:66 Your people have rejected this, even though it is the truth. Say, "I am not a guardian over you."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:66 Even then, (O Messenger!) Your people deny the truth. Tell them, "I have not been appointed a guardian over you."
Transliteration	6:66 Wakath ^h aba bihi qawmuka wahuwa al ha ^h quququl lastu AAalaykum biwakeelin
A	6:66 وَكَذَّبَ بِهِ قَوْمُكَ وَهُوَ الْحَقُّ قُلْ لَسْتُ عَلَيْكُمْ بِوَكِيلٍ
Edip-Layth	6:67 For every news there is a time, and you will come to know."
The Monotheist Group	6:67 "For every news there is a time, and you will come to know."
Muhammad Asad	6:67 Every tiding [from God] has a term set for its fulfilment: and in time you will come to know [the truth]."
Rashad Khalifa	6:67 Every prophecy herein will come to pass, and you will surely find out.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:67 Every tiding given in the Qur'an shall come to pass and you (mankind) will surely find out.
Transliteration	6:67 Likulli naba-in mustaqarrun wasawfataAAalamoon a
A	6:67 لِكُلِّ نَبَأٍ مُسْتَقَرٌّ وَسَوْفَ تَعْلَمُونَ
Edip-Layth	If they Make Fun of God's Signs 6:68 If you encounter those who make fun of Our signs, then turn away from them until they move on to a different topic; and if the devil lets you forget, then do not sit after remembering with the wicked people. ¹³
The Monotheist Group	6:68 And if you encounter those who make fun of Our revelations, then turn away from them until they move on to a different topic; and if the devil lets you forget, then do not sit after remembering with the wicked people.
Muhammad Asad	6:68 NOW, whenever thou meet such as indulge in [blasphemous] talk about Our messages, turn thy back upon them until they begin to talk of other things ⁵⁸ and if Satan should ever cause thee to forget [thyself], remain not, after recollection, in the company of such evil-doing folk,
Rashad Khalifa	Respect for the Word of God 6:68 If you see those who mock our revelations, you shall avoid them until they delve into another subject. If the devil causes you to forget, then, as soon as you remember, do not sit with such evil people.

Shabbir Ahmed	6:68 When you see them engaged in vain discourse about Our verses, turn away from them unless they engage in a different subject. If Satan ever makes you forget (your mind gets engrossed in their discourse,) then as soon as you recollect, no longer sit in the company of the people who confound the truth with falsehood. ¹⁴
Transliteration	6:68 Wa-i ^{tha} raayta alla ^{theenayakhoodoona} fee ^{ayatina} faaAAaridAAanhum ^{hatta} yakhoodo fee ^{hadeethinghayrihi} wa-imm ^a yunsiyannaka a ^{Ishshaytanufala} taqAAud baAAda al ^{ththikra} maAAaalqawmi al ^{ththalimeena}
A	6:68 واذا رايت الذين يخوضون في آيتنا فأعرض عنهم حتى يخوضوا في حديث غيره وأما ينسبك الشيطان فلا تقعد بعد الذكرى مع القوم الظالمين
Edip-Layth	6:69 Those who are aware are not held accountable for them, but a reminder may help them to be aware.
The Monotheist Group	6:69 And the righteous are not required to take responsibility for them, but a reminder so perhaps they will be aware.
Muhammad Asad	6:69 for whom those who are conscious of God are in no wise accountable. Theirs, however, is the duty to admonish [the sinners], ⁵⁹ so that they might become conscious of God.
Rashad Khalifa	6:69 The righteous are not responsible for the utterances of those people, but it may help to remind them; perhaps they may be saved.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:69 Those who live upright bear no responsibility for them, except to remind them, that they may protect themselves against personal detriment. ¹⁵
Transliteration	6:69 Wama AAala alla ^{theenayattaqoona} min ^{hisabihim} min shay-in wal ^{akinthikra} laAAallahum yattaqoona
A	6:69 وما على الذين يتقون من حسابهم من شيء ولكن ذكرى لعلهم يتقون
Edip-Layth	6:70 Leave alone those who have taken their system as a game and diversion, and this worldly life has tempted them. Remind with it that a person will suffer for what s/he has earned, s/he will not have besides God any supporter nor intercessor; and even if s/he offers every ransom, none will be accepted from it. These are the ones who have suffered with what they have earned; for them will be a boiling drink, and a painful retribution for what they had rejected.
The Monotheist Group	6:70 Leave alone those who have taken their system as fun and games, and this worldly life has tempted them. And remind with it that a soul will suffer for what it has earned, it will not have besides God any supporter nor intercessor; and even if it brings all justice, none will be accepted from it. These are the ones who have suffered with what they have earned; for them will be a boiling drink, and a painful retribution for what they had rejected.
Muhammad Asad	6:70 And leave to themselves all those who, beguiled by the life of this world, have made play and passing delights their religion; ⁶⁰ but remind [them] herewith that [in the life to come] every human being shall be held in pledge for whatever wrong he has done, and shall have none to protect him from God, and none to intercede for him; and though he offer any conceivable ransom, ⁶¹ it shall not be accepted from him. It is [people such as] these that shall be held in pledge for the wrong they have done; for them there is [in the life to come] a draught of burning despair ⁶² and grievous suffering awaits them because of their persistent refusal to acknowledge the truth.

Rashad Khalifa	6:70 You shall disregard those who take their religion in vain, as if it is a social function, and are totally absorbed in this worldly life. Remind with this (Quran), lest a soul may suffer the consequences of its evil earnings. It has none beside GOD as a Lord and Master, nor an intercessor. If it could offer any kind of ransom, it would not be accepted. They suffer the consequences of the evil works they earn; they have incurred hellish drinks, and a painful retribution because of their disbelief.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:70 Leave to themselves those who take their religion as nothing but pastime, amusement, games of ritual, and social partying; their life revolving around quick gains of the worldly life. But follow up with reminders with the Qur'an on appropriate occasions. Remind people lest a 'self' be ruined for its own actions. No 'self' has a protecting friend, master or intercessor against the law of God even if it offered any conceivable ransom. Such is the end of those who land themselves into ruin with their own actions. For them is a draught of burning despair and a painful doom. They had kept denying the truth.
Transliteration	6:70 Wathari alla theena ittakha thoodeenahum laAAiban walahwan wagharrat-humu alhayatualddunya wathakkir bihi an tubsala nafsunbim a kasabat laysa lah a min dooni Allahiwaliyyun wala shafeeAAun wa-in taAADil kulla AAadlin I ayu/khath minh a ol a-ika alla theenaobsiloo bim a kasaboo lahum shar abun min hameeminwaAAathabun aleemun bim a kanoo yakfuroona
A	6:70 ونذر الذين اتخذوا دينهم لعبا ولهوا وغرتهم الحياة الدنيا وذكر به ان تبسل نفس بما كسبت ليس لها من دون الله ولي ولا شفيع وان تعدل كل عدل لا يؤخذ منها أولئك الذين ابسلوا بما كسبوا لهم شراب من حميم وعذاب اليم بما كانوا يكفرون
Edip-Layth	6:71 Say, "Shall we call upon other than God what cannot benefit us or harm us, and we turn back on our heels after God has guided us?" This is like the one whom the devils have managed to mislead on earth, he is confused, having friends who call him to the guidance: "Come to us!" Say, "The guidance is God's guidance, and we have been ordered to peacefully surrender to the Lord of the worlds."
The Monotheist Group	6:71 Say: "Shall we call upon other than God what cannot benefit us or harm us, and we turn back on our heels after God has guided us?" This is like the one whom the devils have managed to mislead on Earth, he is confused, having friends who call him to the guidance: "Come to us!" Say: "The guidance is God's guidance, and we have been ordered to submit to the Lord of the worlds."
Muhammad Asad	6:71 SAY: "Shall we invoke, instead of God, something that can neither benefit us nor harm us, and [thus] turn around on our heels after God has guided us aright? -like one whom the satans have enticed into blundering after earthly lusts, the while his companions, trying to guide him, call out unto him [from afar] , ⁶³ `Come thou to us!'" Say: "Verily, God's guidance is the only guidance: and so we have been bidden to surrender ourselves unto the Sustainer of all the worlds,
Rashad Khalifa	6:71 Say, "Shall we implore, beside GOD, what possesses no power to benefit us or hurt us, and turn back on our heels after GOD has guided us? In that case, we would join those possessed by the devils, and rendered utterly confused, while their friends try to save them: `Stay with us on the right path.' " Say, "GOD's guidance is the right guidance. We are commanded to submit to the Lord of the universe.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:71 Say, "Should we call unto those who can neither benefit nor harm us, and turn back on our heels after God has guided us right? In that situation we would be like one whom satans (his satanic comrades) have enticed and he is wandering bewildered on earth. His companions invite him for showing him the way, but in vain. Say, "The guidance of God is the true guidance, and we are commanded to submit to the Lord of the worlds."

Transliteration	6:71 Qul anadAAoo min dooni Allāhi mālā yanfaAAunā walā yaḍurrunāwanuraddu AAalā aAAaqabina baAAda iṭḥadānā Allāhu kaallatḥee istahwat-hualshshayateenu fee al-arḍi ḥayranalahu aṣ-ḥabun yadAAoonahu il ā alhud ai/tina qul inna hud ā Allāhi huwa alhudāwaomirna linuslima lirabbi alAAalameena
A	6:71 قل اندعوا من دون الله ما لا ينفعنا ولا يضرنا ونرد على اعقابنا بعد اذ هدىنا الله كالذى استهوته الشياطين فى الارض حيران له اصحب يدعونه الى الهدى انتننا قل ان هدى الله هو الهدى وامرنا لنسلم لرب العلمين
Edip-Layth	6:72 Hold the contact prayer, and be aware; and to Him you will be summoned.
The Monotheist Group	6:72 And you shall uphold the communion, and be aware; and to Him you will be gathered.
Muhammad Asad	6:72 and to be constant in prayer and conscious of Him: for it is He unto whom you all shall be gathered."
Rashad Khalifa	6:72 "And to observe the Contact Prayers (Salat), and to reverence Him - He is the One before whom you will be summoned (for the reckoning)."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:72 "And to establish the Divine System and live upright. He it is to Whom you will be summoned."
Transliteration	6:72 Waan aqeeru aṣṣalatawattaqooḥu wahuwa allatḥee ilayhi tuḥsharoona
A	6:72 وان اقيموا الصلوة واتقوه وهو الذى اليه تحشرون
Edip-Layth	6:73 He is the One who created the heavens and the earth with truth, and the day He says: "Be," then it is! His saying is truth; and to Him is the sovereignty, the day the trumpet is blown. Knower of the unseen and the seen; He is the Wise, the Ever-aware.
The Monotheist Group	6:73 And He is the One who created the heavens and the Earth with truth, and the day He says: "Be," then it is! His saying is truth; and to Him is the sovereignty the Day the trumpet is blown. Knower of the unseen and the seen; He is the Wise, the Expert.
Muhammad Asad	6:73 And He it is who has created the heavens and the earth in accordance with [an inner] truth ⁶⁴ - and whenever He says, "Be," His word comes true; and His will be the dominion on the Day when the trumpet [of resurrection] is blown. He knows all that is beyond the reach of a created being's perception, as well as all that can be witnessed by a creature's senses or mind: ⁶⁵ for He alone is truly wise, all-aware.
Rashad Khalifa	6:73 He is the One who created the heavens and the earth, truthfully. Whenever He says, "Be," it is. His word is the absolute truth. All sovereignty belongs to Him the day the horn is blown. Knower of all secrets and declarations, He is the Most Wise, the Cognizant.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:73 And He is the One Who has created the heavens and earth with a definite purpose. Whenever He says "Be!" it is. His Word is the truth. And His will be the Dominion on the Day the Trumpet (of Resurrection) is blown. Knower of the Invisible and the Visible, for, He is the Wise, the Aware. ¹⁶
Transliteration	6:73 Wahuwa alla ṭḥee khalaqa a ṣṣamawatiwaal-arda bi alḥaqqi wayawma yaqoolukun fayakoonu qawluhu al ḥaqqu walahu almulku yawmayunfakhu fee alṣsoori AAalimu alghaybi waalshshahadatiwahuwa alḥakeemu alkhabeeru

A	6:73 وهو الذى خلق السموت والارض بالحق ويوم يقول كن فيكون قوله الحق وله الملك يوم ينفخ فى الصور علم الغيب والشهدة وهو الحكيم الخبير
Edip-Layth	The Abrahamic Method of Reasoning 6:74 Abraham said to his father, Azar: "Will you take idols as gods? I see you and your people clearly misguided." ¹⁴
The Monotheist Group	6:74 And Abraham said to his father, Azar: "Will you take idols as gods? I see you and your people clearly misguided."
Muhammad Asad	6:74 AND, LO, [thus] spoke Abraham unto his father Azar: ⁶⁶ "Takest thou idols for gods? Verily, I see that thou and thy people have obviously gone astray!"
Rashad Khalifa	Abraham Debates With Idol Worshipers 6:74 Recall that Abraham said to his father Azar, "How could you worship statues as gods? I see that you and your people have gone far astray."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:74 Remember when Abraham said to his father Azar (Terah), "How could you worship idols as gods? I see you and your people are in obvious error." ¹⁷
Transliteration	6:74 Wa-i th q ala ib ra heemuli-abeehi az ara atattakhi th u a sn aman al ihataninee ar aka waqawmaka fee dal alin mubeen in
A	6:74 واذا قال ابراهيم لابييه ازر اتخذ اصناما ءالهة انى اربك وقومك فى ضلال مبين
Edip-Layth	6:75 Thus We showed Abraham the kingdom of heavens and earth, so that he will be of those who have certainty.
The Monotheist Group	6:75 And it is such that We showed Abraham the kingdom of heavens and Earth, so that he will be of those who have certainty.
Muhammad Asad	6:75 And thus We gave Abraham [his first] insight into [God's] mighty dominion over the heavens and the earth - and [this] to the end that he might become one of those who are inwardly sure.
Rashad Khalifa	6:75 We showed Abraham the marvels of the heavens and the earth, and blessed him with certainty:
Shabbir Ahmed	6:75 And to this end, We gave Abraham insight into the Mighty Dominion of the Universe so that he might attain firm conviction.
Transliteration	6:75 Wakath al ika nuree ib r aheemamalakoota al ss amawati wa al- ar diwaliyakoonaminalmoqqineena
A	6:75 وكذلك نرى ابراهيم ملكوت السموت والارض وليكون من الموقنين
Edip-Layth	6:76 When the night covered him, he saw a planet, and he said, "This is my Lord." But when it disappeared he said, "I do not like those that disappear."
The Monotheist Group	6:76 When the night covered him, he saw a planet, and he said: "This is my Lord." But when it disappeared he said: "I do not like those that disappear."
Muhammad Asad	6:76 Then, when the night overshadowed him with its darkness, he beheld a star;., [and] he exclaimed, "This is my Sustainer!" -but when it went down, he said, "I love not the things that go down."
Rashad Khalifa	6:76 When the night fell, he saw a shining planet. "Maybe this is my Lord," he said. When it disappeared, he said, "I do not like (gods) that disappear."
	6:76 (Some of his people were idolaters and others were nature-worshipers.) One

Shabbir Ahmed	night when it grew dark upon him he saw a planet (Venus). Abraham exclaimed to them, "This is my Lord!" But when it went down, he said, "I do not love things that go down."
Transliteration	6:76 Falamma janna AAalayhi allaylu ra akawkaban q ala hatha rabbee falamm a afala qalala ohibbu al-afileenaa
A	6:76 فلما جن عليه الليل رءا كوكبا قال هذا ربى فلما افل قال لا احب الءافلين
Edip-Layth	6:77 So when he saw the moon rising, he said, "This is my Lord." But when it disappeared he said, "If my Lord will not guide me, then I will be amongst the wicked people!"
The Monotheist Group	6:77 So when he saw the moon rising, he said: "This is my Lord." But when it disappeared he said: "If my Lord will not guide me, then I will be amongst the wicked people!"
Muhammad Asad	6:77 Then, when he beheld the moon rising, he said, "This is my Sustainer!"-but when it went down, he said, "Indeed, if my Sustainer guide me not. I will most certainly become one of the people who go astray!"
Rashad Khalifa	6:77 When he saw the moon rising, he said, "Maybe this is my Lord!" When it disappeared, he said, "Unless my Lord guides me, I will be with the strayers."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:77 (Another night) when the moon was rising, he exclaimed, "This is my Lord." But when it went down, he said to himself and to the people, "Unless my Lord guides me, I surely will go astray."
Transliteration	6:77 Falamma raq alqamara b azighanqala hatha rabbee falamm a afala q alala-in lam yahdinee rabbee laakoonanna mina alqawmi alddalleena
A	6:77 فلما رءا القمر بازغا قال هذا ربى فلما افل قال لنن لم يهدنى ربى لاكونن من القوم الضالين
Edip-Layth	6:78 So when he saw the sun rising, he said, "This is my Lord, this is bigger." But when it disappeared he said, "My people, I am innocent of what you have set up."
The Monotheist Group	6:78 So when he saw the sun rising, he said: "This is my Lord, this is bigger." But when it disappeared he said: "My people, I am innocent of that which you have set up."
Muhammad Asad	6:78 Then, when he beheld the sun rising, he said, "This is my Sustainer! This one is the greatest [of all]!" - but when it [too] went down, he exclaimed: "O my people! Behold, far be it from me to ascribe divinity, as you do, to aught beside God!"
Rashad Khalifa	6:78 When he saw the sun rising, he said, "This must be my Lord. This is the biggest." But when it set, he said, "O my people, I denounce your idolatry."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:78 (In the morning) he saw the sun rising in splendor, and he said, "This is my Lord! This is greater!" But, as the sun went down, Abraham exclaimed, "O My people! I am free from all that you associate with God." 18
Transliteration	6:78 Falamma ra a a Ishshamsabazighatan q ala h atha rabbee h athaakbaru falamma afalat qala ya qawmi inneebarree-on mimma tushrikoona
A	6:78 فلما رءا الشمس بازغة قال هذا ربى هذا اكبر فلما افلت قال يقوم انى برىء مما تشركون
	6:79 "I shall turn my face to the One who created the heavens and the earth, as

Edip-Layth	a monotheist, and I am not of those who set up partners." ¹⁵
The Monotheist Group	6:79 "I shall turn my face to the One who initiated the heavens and the Earth, in monotheism, and I am not of those who set up partners."
Muhammad Asad	6:79 Behold, unto Him who brought into being the heavens and the earth have I turned my face, having turned away from all that is false; and I am not of those who ascribe divinity to aught beside Him."
Rashad Khalifa	6:79 "I have devoted myself absolutely to the One who initiated the heavens and the earth; I will never be an idol worshiper."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:79 "I have focused firmly on Him Who initiated the heavens and earth; as an upright man I turn away from all that is false. I will never be an idol worshiper in any form."
Transliteration	6:79 Innee wajjahtu wajhiya lilla thee fa taraalssamawati wa al-arda haneefanwama ana mina almushrikeena
A	6:79 اَنِى وَجَّهْتُ وَجْهِيَ لِلَّذِى فَطَرَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ حَنِيفًا وَمَا اَنَا مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ
Edip-Layth	6:80 His people argued with him. He said, "Do you argue with me regarding God, when He has guided me? I do not fear what you have set up except if my Lord wishes it so; my Lord encompasses all things with knowledge; will you not remember?"
The Monotheist Group	6:80 And his people debated with him. He said: "Do you debate with me regarding God, when He has guided me? I do not fear that which you have set up except if my Lord wishes it so; my Lord encompasses all things with knowledge; will you not remember?"
Muhammad Asad	6:80 And his people argued with him. He said: "Do you argue with me about God, when it is He who has guided me? But I do not fear anything to which you ascribe divinity side by side with Him, [for no evil can befall me] unless my Sustainer so wills. ⁶⁷ All things does my Sustainer embrace within His knowledge; will you not, then, keep this in mind?
Rashad Khalifa	6:80 His people argued with him. He said, "Do you argue with me about GOD, after He has guided me? I have no fear of the idols you set up. Nothing can happen to me, unless my Lord wills it. My Lord's knowledge encompasses all things. Would you not take heed?
Shabbir Ahmed	6:80 His people argued with him, but Abraham said, "Do you dispute with me about God when He has guided me? I do not fear those you associate with Him. Nothing can happen to me contrary to the laws of God. My Lord encompasses all things in His knowledge. Will you not then, reflect and use your intellect?" ¹⁹
Transliteration	6:80 Wa hajjahu qawmuhu q ala atu hajjoonneefee All ahi waqad had ani wal a ak hafu m atushrikoona bihi ill a an yash aa rabbee shay-anwasiAAa rabbee kulla shay-in AAilman afala tata thakkaroon a
A	6:80 وَحَاجَهُ قَوْمُهُ قَالَ اتَّخُذْنِي فِي اللَّهِ وَقَدْ هَدِينِ وَلَا اخَافُ مَا تُشْرِكُونَ بِهِ إِلَّا أَن يُشَاءَ رَبِّي شَيْئًا وَسِعَ رَبِّي كُلَّ شَيْءٍ عِلْمًا أَفَلَا تَتَذَكَّرُونَ
Edip-Layth	6:81 "How can I possibly fear what you have set up; yet you do not fear that you have set up partners with God, for which He has not sent down to you any authority! So which of our two groups is more worthy of security if you know?"
The Monotheist Group	6:81 "And how can I possibly fear what you have set up; yet you do not fear that you have set up partners with God, for which He has not sent down to you any authority! So which of our two groups is more worthy of security if you know?"

Muhammad Asad	6:81 And why should I fear anything that you worship side by side with Him, seeing that you are not afraid of ascribing divinity to other powers beside God without His ever having bestowed upon you from on high any warrant therefor? [Tell me,] then, which of the two parties has a better right to feel secure -if you happen to know [the answer]?
Rashad Khalifa	6:81 "Why should I fear your idols? It is you who should be afraid, since you worship instead of GOD idols that are utterly powerless to help you. Which side is more deserving of security, if you know?"
Shabbir Ahmed	6:81 He said, "Why should I fear what you set up beside Him, when you do not fear to set up besides God, deities for which He has sent no authority and are utterly powerless. Think which of the two sides among us deserves peace and security? Answer me if you have the answer." 20
Transliteration	6:81 Wakayfa akh a fu m a ashraktumwal a takh a foona annakum ashraktum bi Alla hima lam yunazzil bihi AAalaykum sul ta nan faayyualfareeqayni a ha quq bial-amni in kuntum taAAalamoona
A	6:81 وكيف اخاف ما اشركتم ولا تخافون انكم اشركتم بالله ما لم ينزل به عليكم سلطانا فاي الفريقين احق بالامن ان كنتم تعلمون
Edip-Layth	Pure Monotheism 6:82 Those who acknowledge and do not dress their acknowledgement with inequity; they will have security, and they are guided. 16
The Monotheist Group	6:82 Those who believe and do not dress their belief with wrongdoing; they will have security, and they are guided.
Muhammad Asad	6:82 Those who have attained to faith, and who have not obscured their faith by wrongdoing-it is they who shall be secure, since it is they who have found the right path!"
Rashad Khalifa	Perfect Security for Believers 6:82 Those who believe, and do not pollute their belief with idol worship, have deserved the perfect security, and they are truly guided.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:82 Those who attain belief and do not cloak their belief with wrong, for them is inner peace and security. They are rightly guided. 21
Transliteration	6:82 Alla th eena a manoo walamyalbiso eem a nahum bi th ulmin ola-ikalahumu al-amnu wahum muhtadoona
A	6:82 الذين ءامنوا ولم يلبسوا ايمنهم بظلم اولئك لهم الامن وهم مهتدون
Edip-Layth	6:83 Such was Our argument that We gave Abraham over his people; We raise the degree of whom We please. Your Lord is Wise, Knowledgeable. 17
The Monotheist Group	6:83 And such was Our argument that We gave Abraham over his people; We raise the degree of whom We please. Your Lord is Wise, Knowledgeable.
Muhammad Asad	6:83 And this was Our argument 68 which We vouchsafed unto Abraham against his people: [for] We do raise by degrees whom We will. 69 Verily, thy Sustainer is wise, all-knowing.
Rashad Khalifa	6:83 Such was our argument, with which we supported Abraham against his people. We exalt whomever we will to higher ranks. Your Lord is Most Wise, Omniscient.

Shabbir Ahmed	6:83 This is the logic (examples of the star, the moon and the sun) that We taught Abraham (Ibrahim) against his people. We exalt people in ranks when they follow Our laws. Your Lord is Wise, All Knower.
Transliteration	6:83 Watilka hujjatuna ataynah ibraheema AAal a qawmihi narfaAAu darajatinman nashao inna rabbaka hakeemun AAaleemun
A	6:83 وتلك حجتنا آتيناها إبراهيم على قومه نرفع درجات من نشاء ان ربك حكيم عليم
Edip-Layth	Prophets 6:84 We granted him Isaac and Jacob, both of whom We guided; and Noah We guided from before; and from his progeny is David, Solomon, Job, Joseph, Moses, and Aaron. It is such that We reward the good doers.
The Monotheist Group	6:84 And We granted him Isaac and Jacob, both of whom We guided; and Noah We guided from before; and from his progeny is David, and Solomon, and Job, and Joseph, and Moses, and Aaron. It is such that We reward the good doers.
Muhammad Asad	6:84 And We bestowed upon him Isaac and Jacob; and We guided each of them as We had guided Noah aforetime. And out of his offspring, [We bestowed prophethood upon] David, and Solomon, and Job, and Joseph, and Moses, and Aaron: for thus do We reward the doers of good;
Rashad Khalifa	6:84 And we granted him Isaac and Jacob, and we guided both of them. Similarly, we guided Noah before that, and from his descendants (we guided) David, Solomon, Job, Joseph, Moses, and Aaron. We thus reward the righteous.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:84 We gave him Isaac the son, and Jacob the grandson, and We guided them. Before Abraham, We guided Noah and from his descendants, We guided David (Dawood), Solomon (Sulaiman), Job (Ayub), Joseph (Yusuf), Moses (Musa), and Aaron (Haroon). We thus reward the benefactors of humanity.
Transliteration	6:84 Wawahabna lahu is haqawaya AAaqooba kullan hadayn a wanoo han hadaynamin qablu wamin thurriyyatihi d awooda wasulaym anawaayyooba wayoosufa wamoosa waharoona wakathalika ^{halika} najzee almuhsineena
A	6:84 ووهبنا له اسحق ويعقوب كلا هدينا ونوحا هدينا من قبل ومن نريته داود وسليمان وايوب ويوسف وموسى وهرون وكذلك نجزي المحسنين
Edip-Layth	6:85 And Zachariah and John, and Jesus, and Elias; all were of the reformed.
The Monotheist Group	6:85 And Zachariah and John, and Jesus, and Elias; all were from the upright.
Muhammad Asad	6:85 and [upon] Zachariah, and John, and Jesus, and Elijah: every one of them was of the righteous;
Rashad Khalifa	6:85 Also, Zachariah, John, Jesus, and Elias; all were righteous.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:85 And Zachariah (Zakariya), John (Yahya), Jesus ('Isa) and Elijah (Ilyas); all in the ranks of the righteous who fulfilled the needs of mankind.
Transliteration	6:85 Wazakariyya waya ^{hy} awaAAeesa wailyasa kullun mina a ^l ssaliheena
A	6:85 وزكريا ويحيى وعيسى والياس كل من الصالحين
Edip-Layth	6:86 Also Ishmael, Elisha, Jonah, and Lot; each We have distinguished over the worlds.
The Monotheist Group	6:86 And Ishmael and Elisha and Jonah and Lot; and each We have preferred over the worlds.

Muhammad Asad	6:86 and [upon] Ishmael, and Elisha, and Jonah, and Lot. ⁷⁰ And every one of them did We favour above other people;
Rashad Khalifa	6:86 And Ismail, Elisha, Jonah, and Lot; each of these we distinguished over all the people.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:86 And Ishmael (Ismail), Elisha (Al-Yasa'), Jonah (Yunus), and Lot (Lut). To all of them We gave distinction over people of their times.
Transliteration	6:86 Wa-ismāAAeela wa ilyasaAAawayoonusa waloo tan wakullan fa ddaalna AAalaalAAalameena
A	6:86 واسماعيل واليسع ويونس ولوطا وكلنا فضلنا على العلمين
Edip-Layth	6:87 From their fathers and their progeny and their brothers We have also chosen; and We guided them to a straight path.
The Monotheist Group	6:87 And from their fathers and their progeny and their brothers We have also chosen; and We guided them to a straight path.
Muhammad Asad	6:87 and [We exalted likewise] some of their forefathers and-their offspring and their brethren: We elected them [all], and guided them onto a straight way.
Rashad Khalifa	6:87 From among their ancestors, their descendants, and their siblings, we chose many, and we guided them in a straight path.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:87 And We gave distinction to some of their ancestors, children and siblings and guided them to the straight path. ²²
Transliteration	6:87 Wamin aba-ihim wa thurriyyatihimwa-ikhwanihim wa ijtabaynahum wahadaynahumila siratin mustaqeemin
A	6:87 ومن آبائهم وذريتهم واخوانهم واجتبتينهم وهدينهم الى صراط مستقيم
Edip-Layth	6:88 Such is the guidance of God, He guides with it whom He pleases of His servants. If they set up partners, then all that they had worked would fall away from them. ¹⁸
The Monotheist Group	6:88 Such is the guidance of God, He guides with it whom He pleases of His servants. And if they set up partners, then all that they had worked would fall away from them.
Muhammad Asad	6:88 Such is God's guidance: He guides therewith whomever He wills of His servants. And had they ascribed divinity to aught beside Him-in vain, indeed, would have been all [the good] that they ever did:
Rashad Khalifa	6:88 Such is GOD's guidance, with which He guides whomever He chooses from among His servants. Had any of them fallen into idolatry, their works would have been nullified.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:88 This is the guidance of God. He guides His servants according to His laws (4:88). If they had associated others with God, their actions would have been vain.
Transliteration	6:88 Thalika hud a All ahiyahdee bihi man yash ao min AAib adihi walaw ashrakoolahabiṭa AAanhum ma kanoo yaAAamaloona
A	6:88 ذلك هدى الله يهدى به من يشاء من عباده ولو اشركوا لحبط عنهم ما كانوا يعملون

Edip-Layth	6:89 Those to whom We have given the book, the law, and the prophethood, if they reject it, then We will entrust it to a people who will not reject it.
The Monotheist Group	6:89 Those to whom We have given the Scripture, and the law, and the prophethood, if they reject it, then We will entrust it to a people who will not reject it.
Muhammad Asad	6:89 [but] it was to them that We vouchsafed revelation, and sound judgment, and prophethood. And now, although the unbelievers may choose to deny these truths, ⁷¹ [know that] We have entrusted them to people who will never refuse to acknowledge them-
Rashad Khalifa	6:89 Those were the ones to whom we have given the scripture, wisdom, and prophethood. If these people disbelieve, we will substitute others in their place, and the new people will not be disbelievers.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:89 They were the ones to whom We gave the scripture, Sound Judgment and prophethood. Now, if these people reject these truths, We have entrusted these truths to people who will not refuse to acknowledge them.
Transliteration	6:89 Ola-ika alla theena ataynāhumu alkitāba wa alḥukma wa alnubuwwatafa-in yakfur bihā haola-i faqad wakkalnā bihā qawman laysoo bihā bikāfireena
A	6:89 اولئك الذين ءاتينهم الكتب والحكم والنبوة فان يكفر بها هولا فقد وكلنا بها قوما ليسوا بها بكافرين
Edip-Layth	6:90 These are the ones guided by God; so let their guidance be an example. Say, "I do not ask you for a wage; this is but a reminder for the worlds."
The Monotheist Group	6:90 These are the ones guided by God; so let their guidance be an example. Say: "I do not ask you for a wage; this is but a reminder for the worlds."
Muhammad Asad	6:90 to those whom God has guided. Follow, then, their guidance, [and] say: "No reward do I ask of you for this [truth]: behold, it is but an admonition unto all mankind!"
Rashad Khalifa	6:90 These are the ones guided by GOD; you shall be guided in their footsteps. Say, "I do not ask you for any wage. This is but a message for all the people."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:90 Those were the ones guided by God, so follow their guidance. Say, (O Messenger!), "I ask of you no wage for this. This (guidance in the Qur'an) is but a reminder to all nations."
Transliteration	6:90 Ola-ika alla theena had Allahu fabihud āhumu iqtadih qul I ā as-alukum AAalayhi ajran in huwa illa thikra lilAAalameena
A	6:90 اولئك الذين هدى الله فبهداهم اقتده قل لا اسلكم عليه اجرا ان هو الا ذكرى للعلمين
Edip-Layth	The Most Wicked People 6:91 They did not value God as He deserves to be valued, for they said, "God has never sent down anything to any human being." Say, "Who then has sent down the book which Moses had come with, a light and guidance for the people? You treat it just as scrolls of paper; you show some of it and conceal much, though you were taught what neither you nor your fathers knew." Say, "God has." Then leave them playing in their folly.
The Monotheist Group	6:91 And they did not appreciate God as He deserves to be appreciated, for they said: "God has never sent down anything to any human being." Say: "Who then has sent down the Scripture which Moses had come with, a light and a guidance for the people? You treat it just as paper, you show some of it and conceal much, and you were taught what neither you nor your fathers knew." Say: "God has."

	Then leave them playing in their folly.
Muhammad Asad	6:91 For, no true understanding of God have they when they say, "Never has God revealed anything unto man." Say: "Who has bestowed from on high the divine writ which Moses brought unto men as a light and a guidance, [and] which you treat as ⁷² [mere] leaves of paper, making a show of them the while you conceal [so] much - although you have been taught [by it] what neither you nor your forefathers had ever known?" ⁷³ Say: "God [has revealed that divine writ]!" - and then leave them to play at their vain talk.
Rashad Khalifa	God's Messages to the World 6:91 They never valued GOD as He should be valued. Thus, they said, "GOD does not reveal anything to any human being." Say, "Who then revealed the scripture that Moses brought, with light and guidance for the people?" You put it down on paper to proclaim it, while concealing a lot of it. You were taught what you never knew - you and your parents. Say, "GOD (is the One who revealed it)," then leave them in their heedlessness, playing.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:91 People do not value God as He must be valued when they say, "God has not revealed His message to any human being." Ask them, "Who then revealed the scripture which Moses brought, a light and guidance for people? Although you put it down on parchment which you show, but you conceal a lot. You were taught what neither you, nor your ancestors knew before." Say, "God (revealed it)." Then leave them to enjoy their vain talk.
Transliteration	6:91 Wama qadaroo All aha haqqaqadrihi i th q aloo m a anzala All ahuAAala basharin min shay-in qul man anzala alkit abaallathee j aa bihi moos a nooran wahudan li InnasitajAAaloonahu qar ateesa tubdoonah a watukhfoonakatheeran waAAullimtum m a lam taAAlamoo antum wal a abakumquli All ahu thumma tharhum fee khawdihimyalAAaboona
A	6:91 وما قدروا الله حق قدره اذ قالوا ما انزل الله على بشر من شيء قل من انزل الكتب الذي جاء به موسى نورا وهدى للناس تجعلونه قراطيس تبدونها وتخفون كثيرا وعلمتم ما لم تعلموا انتم ولا ءاباؤكم قل الله ثم نرهم في خوضهم يلعبون
Edip-Layth	6:92 This too is a book which We have sent down, blessed, authenticating what is before it, that you may warn the capital city and those around it. Those who acknowledge the Hereafter, will acknowledge this, and they are dedicated to their contact prayer.
The Monotheist Group	6:92 And this is a Scripture which We have sent down, blessed, authenticating what is present with him, and that you may warn the capital of the towns and those around it. And those who believe in the Hereafter believe in it, and they are dedicated to their communion.
Muhammad Asad	6:92 And this, too, is a divine writ which We have bestowed from on high - blessed, confirming the truth of whatever there still remains [of earlier revelations] ⁷⁴ -and [this] in order that thou mayest warn the foremost of all cities and all who dwell around it. ⁷⁵ And those who believe in the life to come do believe in this [warning]; and it is they who are ever-mindful of their prayers.
Rashad Khalifa	6:92 This too is a blessed scripture that we have revealed, confirming the previous scriptures, that you may warn the most important community and all those around it. Those who believe in the Hereafter will believe in this (scripture), and will observe the Contact Prayers (Salat).
Shabbir Ahmed	6:92 And this Qur'an is the Blessed Book that We have sent down, confirming the (truth in) what was revealed before it, that you (O Prophet!) may warn the Central Town, Makkah, and places around it. (From this Center, the message will fan out 6:90, 12:104, 2:101.) Those who believe in (the law of Recompense and) the Hereafter, accept this Book as a comprehensive Guide. And they ensure that following the Divine Commands is facilitated in the society. ²³

Transliteration	6:92 Wah atha kit abun anzaln ahumubarakun mu saddiqu alla thee bayna yadayhiwalitun thira omma alqur a waman hawlahawaalla theena yu/minoona bial- akhiratiyu /minoona bihi wahum AAala salat ihim yu hafith oona
A	6:92 وهذا كتب انزلنه مبارك مصدق الذى بين يديه ولتتذر ام القرى ومن حولها والذين يومنون بالءاخرة يومنون به وهم على صلاتهم يحافظون
Edip-Layth	6:93 Who is more wicked than one who invents lies about God, or says: "It has been inspired to me," when no such thing inspired to him; or who says: "I will bring down the same as what God has sent down." If you could only see the wicked at the moments of death when the angels have their arms opened: "Bring yourselves out, today you will be given the disgraceful punishment for what you used to say about God without truth, and you used to be arrogant towards His signs."
The Monotheist Group	6:93 And who is more wicked than one who invents lies about God, or says: "It has been inspired to me," when We did not inspire anything to him; or who says: "I will bring down the same as what God has sent down." And if you could only see the wicked at the moments of death when the angels have their arms opened: "Bring yourselves out, today you will be given the severest punishment for what you used to say about God without truth, and you used to be arrogant towards His revelations."
Muhammad Asad	6:93 And who could be more wicked than he who invents a lie about God, ⁷⁶ or says, "This has been revealed unto me," the while nothing has been revealed to him? - or he who says, "I, too, can bestow from on high the like of what God has bestowed"? ⁷⁷ If thou couldst but see [how it will be] when these evildoers find themselves in the agonies of death, and the angels stretch forth their hands [and call]: "Give up your souls! Today you shall be requited with the suffering of humiliation for having attributed to God something that is not true, and for having persistently scorned His messages in your arrogance!"
Rashad Khalifa	False Messengers Condemned 6:93 Who is more evil than one who fabricates lies and attributes them to GOD, or says, "I have received divine inspiration," when no such inspiration was given to him, or says, "I can write the same as GOD's revelations?" If only you could see the transgressors at the time of death! The angels extend their hands to them, saying, "Let go of your souls. Today, you have incurred a shameful retribution for saying about GOD other than the truth, and for being too arrogant to accept His revelations."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:93 Who can be a greater wrongdoer than the one who fabricates a lie and attributes it to God, or claims receiving revelation while he has received none? Or someone who says, "I, too, can write the same as what God has revealed." If only you could see such transgressors at the time of death! The angels extend their power to them saying, "Bring out your egos. This day you will be awarded a punishment of disgrace for speaking lies concerning God, and for being too arrogant to accept His revelations." ²⁴
Transliteration	6:93 Waman a thlamu mimmani iftar aAAala All ahi ka thiban aw q ala oo hiyailayya walam yoo ha ilayhi shay-on waman q alasaonzilu mithla m a anzala All ahu walaw tarai thi a lththal imoona fee ghamar at ialmawti wa al mal a -ikatu b asi tooydeehim akhrijoo anfusakumu alyawma tujzawna AAa th abaalhooni bim a kuntum taqooloona AAala All ah ighayra al haqqi wakuntum AAan ay atihitastakbiroona

A	6:93 ومن اظلم ممن افترى على الله كذبا او قال اوحى الى ولم يوح اليه شيء ومن قال سائر ما انزل الله ولو ترى اذ الظالمون في غمرت الموت والملئكة باسطوا ايديهم اخرجوا انفسكم اليوم تجزون عذاب الهون بما كنتم تقولون على الله غير الحق وكنتم عن اياته تستكبرون
Edip-Layth	Don't Expect to be Saved by an Intercessor 6:94 "You have come to Us individually, just as We had created you the first time; and you have left behind you all that We have provided for you. We do not see your intercessors with you that you used to claim were with you in partnership; all is severed between you, and what you have claimed has abandoned you."¹⁹
The Monotheist Group	6:94 "And you have come to Us individually, just as We had created you the first time; and you have left behind you all that We have provided for you; and We do not see your intercessors with you that you used to claim were with you in partnership; all is severed between you, and what you have claimed has abandoned you."
Muhammad Asad	6:94 [And God shall say:] "And now, indeed, you have come unto Us in a lonely state, even as We created you in the first instance; and you have left behind you all that We bestowed on you [in your lifetime]. And We do not see with you those intercessors of yours whom you supposed to have a share in God's divinity with regard to yourselves!⁷⁸ Indeed, all the bonds between you [and your earthly life] are now severed, and all your former fancies have forsaken you!⁷⁹
Rashad Khalifa	6:94 "You have come back to us as individuals, just as we created you the first time, and you have left behind what we provided for you. We do not see with you the intercessors that you idolized and claimed that they will help you. All ties among you have been severed; the idols you set up have abandoned you."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:94 Now you have come to Us, alone just as We created you individuals the first time. You have left behind all your belongings. We do not see with you the intercessors you idolized. Now all ties among you have been cut off and your assumptions have failed you.
Transliteration	6:94 Walaqad ji/tumoon a fur adakama khalaqn akum awwala marratin wataraktum m akhawwalnakum war aa thuhoorikum wam anara maAAakum shufaAAakumu alla theenazaAAamtum annahum feekum shurak ao laqad taqattaAAabaynakum wadalla AAankum ma kuntum tazAAumoonaa
A	6:94 ولقد جئتمونا فردى كما خلقناكم اول مرة وتركتم ما خولناكم وراء ظهوركم وما نرى معكم شفعاءكم الذين زعمتم انهم فيكم شركوا لقد تقطع بينكم وصل عنكم ما كنتم ترعون
Edip-Layth	The Creator, the Noble, the Subtle, the Ever-aware 6:95 God is the splitter of the seeds and the grains; He brings the living out from the dead and He is the bringer of the dead out from the living. Such is God; so why are you deluded?
The Monotheist Group	6:95 God is the splitter of the seeds and the grains; He brings the living out from the dead and He brings the dead out from the living. Such is God; so why are you deluded?
Muhammad Asad	6:95 VERILY, God is the One who cleaves the grain and the fruit-kernel asunder, bringing forth the living out of that which is dead, and He is the One who brings forth the dead out of that which is alive. This, then, is God: and yet, how perverted are your minds!⁸⁰

Greatness of God

Rashad Khalifa	6:95 GOD is the One who causes the grains and the seeds to crack and germinate. He produces the living from the dead, and the dead from the living. Such is GOD; how could you deviate!
Shabbir Ahmed	6:95 God is the One Who causes the grains and the seeds to split and germinate. He produces the living from the dead, and the dead from the living. Such is God. Where are you headed in bewilderment? ²⁵
Transliteration	6:95 Inna All aha f aliku al habbiwaaInnawa yukhriju al hayya mina almayyitiwamukhriju almayyiti mina alhayyi thalikumu Allahufaanna tu/fakoona
A	6:95 ان الله فالق الحب والنوى يخرج الحى من الميت ومخرج الميت من الحى ذلکم الله فانى توفکون
Edip-Layth	6:96 Initiator of morning. He made the night to reside in, and the sun and the moon as a calculation device. Such is the measure of the Noble, the Knowledgeable.
The Monotheist Group	6:96 Initiator of morning and Maker of the night to reside in; and the sun and the moon for counting. Such is the measure of the Noble, the Knowledgeable.
Muhammad Asad	6:96 [He is] the One who causes the dawn to break; and He has made the night to be [a source of] stillness, and the sun and the moon to run their appointed courses: ⁸¹ [all] this is laid down by the will of the Almighty, the All-Knowing.
Rashad Khalifa	6:96 At the crack of dawn, He causes the morning to emerge. He made the night still, and He rendered the sun and the moon to serve as calculation devices. Such is the design of the Almighty, the Omniscient.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:96 He is the Cleaver of the daybreak. He has appointed the night for stillness, (rest and tranquility) and the sun and the moon to run their well-calculated courses. They become means of calculating time for you (10:5). Such is the Design of the All-Powerful, the Knower.
Transliteration	6:96 Faliku al-i sbahiwajaAAala allayla sakanan wa alshshamsa wa alqamara husbananthalika taqdeeru alAAazeezi alAAaleem i
A	6:96 فالق الاصباح وجعل اليل سكنا والشمس والقمر حسبانا ذلك تقدير العزيز العليم
Edip-Layth	6:97 He is the One who made for you the stars, to guide you by them in the darkness of the land and the sea. We have explained the signs to a people who know.
The Monotheist Group	6:97 And He is the One who made for you the stars, to guide you by them in the darkness of the land and the sea. We have explained the signs to a people who know.
Muhammad Asad	6:97 And He it is who has set up for you the stars so that you might be guided by them in the midst of the deep darkness of land and sea: clearly, indeed, have We spelled out these messages unto people of [innate] knowledge!
Rashad Khalifa	6:97 And He is the One who made the stars to guide you during the darkness, on land and on sea. We thus clarify the revelations for people who know.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:97 He is the One Who has made the stars to guide you through the darkness of the land and the sea. (And they never fail to guide you 21:33, 36:40.) We have scattered Our signs throughout the Universe for people who use their knowledge.
Transliteration	6:97 Wahuwa alla thee jaAAala lakumu a Innujoomalitahtadoo biha fee thulumati albarriwaalbahri qad fassalna al-ayatilqawmin yaAAlamoona

A	6:97 وهو الذى جعل لكم النجوم لتهتدوا بها فى ظلمات البر والبحر قد فصلنا الاءايت لقوم يعلمون
Edip-Layth	6:98 He is the One who initiated you from one person; a repository and a sojourn. We have explained the signs to a people who comprehend.
The Monotheist Group	6:98 And He is the One who initiated you from one person; with a place for stability and development. We have explained the signs to a people who comprehend.
Muhammad Asad	6:98 And He it is who has brought you [all] into being out of one living entity, ⁸² and [has appointed for each of you] a time-limit [on earth] and a resting-place [after death] : ⁸³ clearly, indeed, have We spelled out these messages unto people who can grasp the truth!
Rashad Khalifa	6:98 He initiated you from one person, and decided your path, as well as your final destiny. We thus clarify the revelations for people who understand.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:98 And He is the One Who initiated you from a single life cell. Then in the process of evolution He appointed stages, from one station to the next destination. (Thus goes on the journey of life here and in the Hereafter.) Thus We explain Our messages for people who use their insight. ²⁶
Transliteration	6:98 Wahuwa alla thee anshaakum min nafsinw ahidatin famustaqarrun wamustawdaAAun qad fassalnaal-ayati liqawmin yafqahoon a
A	6:98 وهو الذى انشاكم من نفس وحدة فمستقر ومستودع قد فصلنا الاءايت لقوم يفقهون
Edip-Layth	6:99 He is the One who sent down water from the sky, and We brought out with it plants of every kind. We brought out from it the green, from which We bring out multiple seeds; and what is from the palm trees, from its sheaths hanging low and near; and gardens of grapes, olives and pomegranates, similar and not similar. Look at its fruit when it blossoms and its ripeness. In this are signs for a people that acknowledge.
The Monotheist Group	6:99 And He is the One who sent down water from the sky, and We brought out with it plants of every kind. We brought out from it the green, from which We bring out multiple seeds; and what is from the palm trees, from its sheaths hanging low and near; and gardens of grapes and olives and pomegranates, similar and not similar. Look at its fruit when it blossoms and its ripeness. In this are signs for a people that believe.
Muhammad Asad	6:99 And He it is who has caused waters to come down from the sky; and by this means have We brought forth all living growth, and out of this have We brought forth verdure. ⁸⁴ Out of this do We bring forth close-growing grain; and out of the spathe of the palm tree, dates in thick clusters; and gardens of vines, and the olive tree, and the pomegranate: [all] so alike, and yet so different! ⁸⁵ Behold their fruit when it comes to fruition and ripens! Verily, in all this there are messages indeed for people who will believe!
Rashad Khalifa	6:99 He is the One who sends down from the sky water, whereby we produce all kinds of plants. We produce from the green material multitudes of complex grains, palm trees with hanging clusters, and gardens of grapes, olives and pomegranate; fruits that are similar, yet dissimilar. Note their fruits as they grow and ripen. These are signs for people who believe.
	6:99 (He took care of your provision even before you were created.) He is the One Who sends down water from the heights. With it We produce vegetation of all

Shabbir Ahmed	kind; green multitudes, complex grains, palm trees, from their pollens spring pendant clusters, and gardens of grapes, olives and pomegranate; fruits that are similar and diverse. Look upon the fruit thereof and look upon its ripening. These are signs for those who reach conviction through reason.
Transliteration	6:99 Wahuwa alla thee anzala mina a Issama-ima an faakhraj a bihi nab ata kulli shay-infaakhraj a minhu kha diran nukhriju minhu habban mutar ak iban wamina alInnakhli min talAAi ha qin wa nun d ani yatun wajann atin min aAAan abin waalzzaytoona wa alrrum ana mushtabihanwaghayra mutash abi hin on thu roo il ath amarihi i tha athmara wayanAAihi inna fee thal ikumla ay atin liqawmin yu/minoona
A	6:99 وهو الذى انزل من السماء ماء فاخرجنا به نبات كل شىء فاخرجنا منه خضرا نخرج منه حبا متراكبا ومن النخل من طلعها قنوان دانية وجنت من اعناب والزيتون والرمان مشتبها وغير متشبه انظروا الى ثمره اذا اثمر وينعه ان فى ذلكم لءايت لقوم يؤمنون
Edip-Layth	No appreciation of God 6:100 Yet, they made partners with God from among the Jinn, while He had created them. They invented for Him sons and daughters without having any knowledge! Be He glorified and far above what they describe.
The Monotheist Group	6:100 And they made partners with God from among the Jinn, while He had created them. And they invented for Him sons and daughters without them having any knowledge! Be He glorified and far above what they describe.
Muhammad Asad	6:100 And yet, some [people] have come to attribute to all manner of invisible beings ⁸⁶ a place side by side with God - although it is He who has created them [all]; and in their ignorance they have invented for Him sons and daughters! ⁸⁷ Limitless is He is His glory, and sublimely exalted above anything that men may devise by way of definition: ⁸⁸
Rashad Khalifa	6:100 Yet, they set up beside GOD idols from among the jinns, though He is the One who created them. They even attribute to Him sons and daughters, without any knowledge. Be He glorified. He is the Most High, far above their claims.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:100 Yet, they set up besides God idols among the Jinns, though He is the One Who created them. They even assign to Him sons and daughters, without any knowledge. Be He Glorified! He is Exalted above all that they attribute to Him. ²⁷
Transliteration	6:100 WajaAAaloo lill ahi shurak aal jinna wakhalaaqahum wakharaqoo lahu baneena waban atin bighayri AAilmin sub han ahu wataAA ala AAammaya s ifoona
A	6:100 وجعلوا لله شركاء الجن وخلقهم وخرقوا له بنين وبنات بغير علم سبحانه وتعالى عما يصفون
Edip-Layth	6:101 Originator of the heavens and the earth, how can He have a son when He did not take a wife? He created all things and He is knowledgeable over all things.
The Monotheist Group	6:101 Originator of the heavens and the Earth, how can He have a son when He did not take a wife? And He created all things and He is knowledgeable over all things.
Muhammad Asad	6:101 the Originator of the heavens and the earth! How could it be that He should have a child without there ever having been a mate for Him - since it is He who has created everything, and He alone knows everything?
Rashad Khalifa	6:101 The Initiator of the heavens and the earth. How can He have a son, when He never had a mate? He created all things, and He is fully aware of all things.

Shabbir Ahmed	6:101 Wonderful Originator of the heavens and earth; how can He have a son when He never chose for Himself a mate? He creates all things (and does not procreate 112:3.) and He is the Profound Knower of all things and events.
Transliteration	6:101 BadeeAAu aIssamawatiwaal-ardi anna yakoonu lahu waladun walamtakun lahu sahibatun wakhalaaq kulla shay-in wahuwabikulli shay-in AAaleem un
A	6:101 بديع السموت والارض انى يكون له ولد ولم تكن له صحبة وخلق كل شىء وهو بكل شىء عليم
Edip-Layth	6:102 Such is God, your Lord, there is no god but He; creator of all things, so serve Him. He is caretaker over all things.
The Monotheist Group	6:102 Such is God, your Lord, there is no god but He; creator of all things, so serve Him. And He is caretaker over all things.
Muhammad Asad	6:102 Such is God, your Sustainer: there is no deity save Him, the Creator of everything: worship, then, Him alone -for it is He who has everything in His care.
Rashad Khalifa	God 6:102 Such is GOD your Lord, there is no god except He, the Creator of all things. You shall worship Him alone. He is in control of all things.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:102 Such is God, your Sustainer. There is no god but He. No one is worthy of worship and obedience but He, the Creator of all things. So, obey Him! He is the Guardian of all and takes care of every thing.
Transliteration	6:102 Thalikumu All ahu rabbukum I ailaha ill a huwa kh aliqu kulli shay-in faoAAabudoohuwahuwa AAala kulli shay-in wakeel un
A	6:102 ذلكم الله ربكم لا اله الا هو خلق كل شىء فاعبدوه وهو على كل شىء وكيل
Edip-Layth	6:103 The eyesight cannot reach Him, yet He can reach all eyesight; and He is the Subtle, the Ever-aware.
The Monotheist Group	6:103 The eyesight cannot reach Him, yet He can reach all eyesight; and He is the Subtle, the Expert.
Muhammad Asad	6:103 No human vision can encompass Him, whereas He encompasses all human vision: for He alone is unfathomable, all-aware. ⁸⁹
Rashad Khalifa	6:103 No visions can encompass Him, but He encompasses all visions. He is the Compassionate, the Cognizant.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:103 No vision can grasp Him while He grasps all vision. He is Unfathomable, Aware.
Transliteration	6:103 La tudrikuhu al-ab saru wahuwayudriku al-ab sara wahuwa alla teefu alkhabeeru
A	6:103 لا تتركه الابصر وهو يدرك الابصر وهو اللطيف الخبير
Edip-Layth	6:104 "Visible proofs have come to you from your Lord; so whoever can see, does so for himself, and whoever is blinded, does the same. I am not a guardian over you."
The Monotheist Group	6:104 "Visible proofs have come to you from your Lord; so whoever can see, does so for himself, and whoever is blinded, does the same. I am not a watcher over you."
	6:104 Means of insight have now come unto you from your Sustainer [through

Muhammad Asad	this divine writ]. Whoever, therefore, chooses to see, does so for his own good; and whoever chooses to remain blind, does so to his own hurt. And [say unto the blind of heart]: "I am not your keeper."
Rashad Khalifa	6:104 Enlightenments have come to you from your Lord. As for those who can see, they do so for their own good, and those who turn blind, do so to their own detriment. I am not your guardian.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:104 (You are not expected to know His Essence.) Say (O Prophet!), "The manifest Enlightenment has come to you from your Lord. Whoever sees the truth, does so for his own good. And whoever turns blind, hurts himself. I am not your keeper or guardian."
Transliteration	6:104 Qad j aakum ba sa-iru minrabbikum faman ab saara falinafsihi waman AAamiya faAAalayhawaama ana AAalaykum bihafeethin
A	6:104 قد جاءكم بصائر من ربكم فمن ابصر فلنفسه ومن عمى فعليها وما انا عليكم بحفيظ
Edip-Layth	6:105 It is thus that We cite the signs and that they may say, "You have studied," and We will make it clear for a people who know.
The Monotheist Group	6:105 It is thus that We put forth the revelations and that they may say: "You have studied," and We will make it clear for a people who know.
Muhammad Asad	6:105 And thus do We give many facets to Our messages. And to the end that they might say, "Thou hast taken [all this] well to heart," ⁹⁰ and that We might make it clear unto people of [innate] knowledge,
Rashad Khalifa	6:105 We thus explain the revelations, to prove that you have received knowledge, and to clarify them for people who know.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:105 Thus We give many facets to Our verses so that they may admit that you (O Prophet!) have taken all this to heart in the most excellent manner. And (through this method of Tasreef) We make it clear to people who use what they learn.
Transliteration	6:105 Wakathalika nu sarriфу al- ayatiwaliyaqooloo darasta walinubayyinahu liqawmin yaAAalamoonaa
A	6:105 وكذلك نصرف الءايت وليقولوا درست ولنبينه لقوم يعلمون
Edip-Layth	6:106 Follow what is inspired to you from your Lord; there is no god but He, and turn away from those who have set up partners.
The Monotheist Group	6:106 Follow what is inspired to you from your Lord; there is no god but He, and turn away from those who have set up partners.
Muhammad Asad	6:106 follow thou what has been revealed unto thee by thy Sustainer - save whom there is no deity - and turn thy back upon all who ascribe divinity to aught beside Him.
Rashad Khalifa	6:106 Follow what is revealed to you from your Lord, there is no god except He, and disregard the idol worshipers.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:106 Follow what is revealed to you from your Lord. There is no god but He. And disregard those who associate others with Him. ²⁸
Transliteration	6:106 IttabiAA m a oo hiya ilayka minrabbika l a il aha ill a huwa waaAAari dAAani almushrikeena
A	6:106 اتبع ما اوحى اليك من ربك لا اله الا هو واعرض عن المشركين

Edip-Layth	6:107 If God had willed, they would not have set up partners. We did not place you over them as a guardian, nor are you their lawyer.
The Monotheist Group	6:107 And if God had willed, they would not have set up partners. And We did not place you over them as a guardian, nor are you over them as a sponsor.
Muhammad Asad	6:107 Yet if God had so willed, they would not have ascribed divinity to aught beside Him; ⁹¹ hence, We have not made thee their keeper, and neither art thou responsible for their conduct.
Rashad Khalifa	6:107 Had GOD willed, they would not have worshipped idols. We did not appoint you as their guardian, nor are you their advocate.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:107 We could have created all people without free will and they would then not associate any partners with Him. (But guidance has been distinguished from straying 2:256.) And We have not appointed you as their guardian, nor are you responsible for them.
Transliteration	6:107 Walaw sh aa All ahu m aashrakoo wam a jaAAaln aka AAalayhim hafeethanwama anta AAalayhim biwakeelin
A	6:107 ولو شاء الله ما اشركوا وما جعلناك عليهم حفيظا وما انت عليهم بوكيل
Edip-Layth	Do not Provoke the Ignorant People 6:108 Do not insult those who call on other than God, lest they insult God without knowledge. We have similarly adorned for every nation their works; then to their Lord is their return and He will inform them of what they had done.
The Monotheist Group	6:108 And do not insult those who call on other than God, lest they insult God out of ignorance. And We have similarly adorned for every nation their works; then to their Lord is their return and He will inform them of what they had done.
Muhammad Asad	6:108 But do not revile those [beings] whom they invoke instead of God, ⁹² lest they revile God out of spite, and in ignorance: for, goodly indeed have We made their own doings appear unto every community ⁹³ In time, [however,] unto their Sustainer they must return: and then He will make them [truly] understand all that they were doing.
Rashad Khalifa	6:108 Do not curse the idols they set up beside GOD, lest they blaspheme and curse GOD, out of ignorance. We have adorned the works of every group in their eyes. Ultimately, they return to their Lord, then He informs them of everything they had done.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:108 (O Believers) Do not insult the idols they set up besides God. They might insult God in their ignorance and hurt themselves. To every community We have made their deeds seem fair. Then to their Lord is their return and He will explain to them exactly what they used to do.
Transliteration	6:108 Wala tasubboo alla theenayadAAoona min dooni All ahi fayasubboo AllahaAAadwan bighayri Aailmin ka thalika zayyanna likulliommatin AAamalahum thumma ila rabbihim marjiAAuhumfayunabbi-ohum bim a kanoo yaAAamaloona
A	6:108 ولا تسبوا الذين يدعون من دون الله فيسبوا الله عدوا بغير علم كذلك زينا لكل امة عملهم ثم الى ربهم مرجعهم فينبئهم بما كانوا يعملون
Edip-Layth	Bigotry and Prejudice Deprive From Witnessing God's Signs 6:109 They swore by God using their strongest oaths; that if a sign came to them they would acknowledge it. Say, "The signs are from God; and how do you know that once it comes, that they would not reject?"

The Monotheist Group	6:109 And they swore by God using their strongest oaths; that if a sign came to them they would believe in it. Say: "The signs are from God; and how do you know that once it comes, that they would not disbelieve?"
Muhammad Asad	6:109 Now they swear by God with their most solemn oaths that if a miracle were shown to them, they would indeed believe in this [divine writ]. Say: "Miracles are in the power of God alone." ⁹⁴ And for all you know, even if one should be shown to them, they would not believe
Rashad Khalifa	6:109 They swore by GOD, solemnly, that if a miracle came to them, they would surely believe. Say, "Miracles come only from GOD." For all you know, if a miracle did come to them, they would continue to disbelieve.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:109 They swear by God that if a miracle comes to them, they would surely believe in it (the Book). Say, "All miracles are with God (if you reflect on the Universe). What can make you understand that even if a physical miracle came to them, they would find other excuses and still not believe?"
Transliteration	6:109 Waaqsamoo bi Allāhi jahda aymānihilma-in jāat-hum āyatun layu/minunna biha qulinnam a al- āyatu AAinda All āhi wam āyushAAirukum annah a i tha j aat layu/minoonā
A	6:109 واقسموا بالله جهد ايمانهم لئن جاءتهم آية ليؤمنن بها قل انما الـآيات عند الله وما يشعركم انها اذا جاءت لا يؤمنون
Edip-Layth	6:110 We divert their hearts and eyesight, as they did not acknowledge it the first time; and We leave them wandering in their transgression. ²⁰
The Monotheist Group	6:110 And We divert their hearts and eyesight, as they did not believe in it the first time; and We leave them wandering in their transgression.
Muhammad Asad	6:110 so long as We keep their hearts and their eyes turned [away from the truth], ⁹⁵ even as they did not believe in it in the first instance: and [so] We shall leave them in their overweening arrogance, blindly stumbling to and fro.
Rashad Khalifa	6:110 We control their minds and their hearts. Thus, since their decision is to disbelieve, we leave them in their transgressions, blundering.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:110 Our law keeps their hearts and their eyes turned away from the truth. Since they have preemptively rejected it (the Qur'an), We let them wander blindly in their rebellious attitude.
Transliteration	6:110 Wanuqallibu af-idatahum waab sarahumkama lam yu/minoo bihi awwala marratin wanatharuhumfee tughyanihim yaAAamahoonā
A	6:110 ونقلب افدتهم وابصرهم كما لم يؤمنوا به اول مرة ونذرهم فى طغيانهم يعمهون
Edip-Layth	6:111 If We had sent down to them the angels, and the dead spoke to them, and We had gathered before them everything, they still would not acknowledge except if God wills. But most of them are ignorant.
The Monotheist Group	6:111 And if We had sent down to them the angels, and the dead spoke to them, and We had gathered before them everything, they still would not believe except if God wills. Alas, most of them are ignorant.
Muhammad Asad	6:111 And even if We were to send down angels unto them, and if the dead were to speak unto them ⁹⁶ and [even if] We were to assemble before them, face to face, all the things [that can prove the truth], they would still not believe unless God so willed ⁹⁷ But [of this] most of them are entirely unaware.

Rashad Khalifa	A Consequence of Their Own Decision 6:111 Even if we sent down the angels to them; even if the dead spoke to them; even if we summoned every miracle before them; they cannot believe unless GOD wills it. Indeed, most of them are ignorant.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:111 Even if We caused the angels to descend to them, and the dead to speak to them, and lined up all the miracles before them, they would not believe. People can be guided only according to God's laws, but most of them choose the way of ignorance.
Transliteration	6:111 Walaw annan a nazzaln alayhimu almal a-ikata wakallamahumu almawt a wahasharnaAAalayhim kulla shay-in qubulan m a kanoo liyu/minooilla an yash aa Allahu walakinnaaktharahum yajhaloon a
A	6:111 ولو اننا نزلنا اليهم الملائكة وكلمهم الموتى وحشرنا عليهم كل شيء قبلا ما كانوا ليؤمنوا الا ان يشاء الله ولكن اكثرهم يجهلون
Edip-Layth	Hadith: Satanic Inspiration 6:112 We have permitted the enemies of every prophet, human and Jinn devils, to inspire in each other fancy words in order to deceive. Had your Lord willed, they would not have done it. You shall disregard them and their fabrications.²¹
The Monotheist Group	6:112 And as such, We have permitted the enemies of every prophet - human and Jinn devils - to inspire each other with fancy words in order to deceive. Had your Lord willed, they would not have done it. You shall disregard them and their fabrications.
Muhammad Asad	6:112 AND THUS it is that against every prophet We have set up as enemies the evil forces from among humans as well as from among invisible beings that whisper unto one another glittering half-truths meant to delude the mind ⁹⁸ But they could not do this unless thy Sustainer had so willed: stand, therefore, aloof from them and from all their false imagery!
Rashad Khalifa	Hadith & Sunna: Fabrications by the Prophet's Enemies 6:112 We have permitted the enemies of every prophet - human and jinn devils - to inspire in each other fancy words, in order to deceive. Had your Lord willed, they would not have done it. You shall disregard them and their fabrications.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:112 Remember, We have appointed to every prophet enemies. The rebellious among the urban and the rural populations rose in opposition, (since the message struck at their personal interests.) They plotted and inspired each other with fancy words. If your Lord willed, they would not do that. Disregard them and whatever they fabricate.
Transliteration	6:112 Wakathalika jaAAaln a likullinabiyyin AAaduwwan shay a teena al-insi waaljinni yooheebaAAduhum ila baAAdin zukhrufa alqawlighurooran walaw sh a rabbuka ma faAAaloohu fatharhumwama yaftaroon a
A	6:112 وكذلك جعلنا لكل نبي عدوا شيطيين الانس والجن يوحى بعضهم الى بعض زخرف القول غرورا ولو شاء ربك ما فعلوه فذرهم وما يفترون
Edip-Layth	6:113 That is so the hearts of those who do not acknowledge the Hereafter will listen to it, and they will accept it, and they will take of it what they will.
The Monotheist Group	6:113 That is so the hearts of those who do not believe in the Hereafter will listen to it, and they will accept it, and they will take of it what they will.
Muhammad Asad	6:113 Yet, to the end that the hearts of those who do not believe in the life to come might incline towards Him, and that in Him they might find contentment, and that they might earn whatever they can earn [of merit] -

	Important Criterion
Rashad Khalifa	6:113 This is to let the minds of those who do not believe in the Hereafter listen to such fabrications, and accept them, and thus expose their real convictions.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:113 Those who love quick gains and neglect the long-term benefits and the Hereafter, are parties to such fabrications. Let them delight in it and let them earn from it what they may.
Transliteration	6:113 Walitasgha ilayhi af-idatualla theena I a yu/minoona bial-akhiratiwaliyar dawhu waliyaqtarifoo m a hum muqtarifoona
A	6:113 ولتصغى اليه افدة الذين لا يؤمنون بالآخرة وليرضوه وليقتروا ما هم مقترفون
Edip-Layth	6:114 "Shall I seek other than God as a judge when He has sent down to you this book sufficiently detailed?" Those to whom We have given the book know it is sent down from your Lord with truth; so do not be of those who have doubt. ²²
The Monotheist Group	6:114 "Shall I seek other than God as a judge when He has sent down to you this Scripture fully detailed?" Those to whom We have given the Scripture know it is sent down from your Lord with truth; so do not be of those who have doubt.
Muhammad Asad	6:114 [say thou:] "Am I, then, to look unto anyone but God for judgment ⁹⁹ [as to what is right and wrong], when it is He who has bestowed upon you from on high this divine writ, clearly spelling out the truth?" ¹⁰⁰ And those unto whom We have vouchsafed revelation aforetime know that this one, too, has been bestowed from on high, step by step, by thy Sustainer. ¹⁰¹ Be not, then, among the doubters-
Rashad Khalifa	Quran: Fully Detailed 6:114 Shall I seek other than GOD as a source of law, when He has revealed to you this book fully detailed? Those who received the scripture recognize that it has been revealed from your Lord, truthfully. You shall not harbor any doubt.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:114 Say, "Shall I seek for Judge and Ruler someone other than God? He is the One Who has revealed this Book, well expounded in detail for you." Those whom We have given the Book know that this is revealed in truth from your Lord. Be not among those who argue for the sake of argument.
Transliteration	6:114 Afaghayra All ahi abtaghee hakamanwahuwa alla thee anzala ilaykumu alkitaba mufa ssalanwaalla theena ataynahumu alkit abayaAAlamoona annahu munazzalun min rabbika bialhaqqifala takoonanna mina almumtareena
A	6:114 افغير الله ابتغى حكما وهو الذى انزل اليكم الكتب مفصلا والذين ءاتينهم الكتب يعلمون انه منزل من ربك بالحق فلا تكونن من الممترين
Edip-Layth	6:115 The word of your Lord has been completed with truth and justice; there is no changing His words. He is the Hearer, the Knower.
The Monotheist Group	6:115 And the word of your Lord has been completed with truth and justice; there is no changing His words. He is the Hearer, the Knower.
Muhammad Asad	6:115 for, truly and justly has thy Sustainer's promise been fulfilled. ¹⁰² There is no power that could alter [the fulfilment of] His promises: and He alone is all-hearing, all-knowing.
Rashad Khalifa	6:115 The word of your Lord is complete, in truth and justice. Nothing shall abrogate His words. He is the Hearer, the Omniscient.

Shabbir Ahmed	6:115 Perfected is the Word of your Lord in truth and Justice. None can change His Words and His laws. And He is the Profound Hearer, the Knower. 29
Transliteration	6:115 Watammat kalimatu rabbika sidqanwaAAadlan l a mubaddila likalim atihi wahuwa alssameeAAualAAaleemu
A	6:115 وتمت كلمت ربك صدقا وعدلا لا مبدل لكلمته وهو السميع العليم
Edip-Layth	6:116 If you obey the majority of those on earth they will lead you away from God's path; that is because they follow conjecture, and that is because they only guess.
The Monotheist Group	6:116 And if you obey the majority of those on Earth they will lead you away from God's path; that is because they follow conjecture, and that is because they only guess.
Muhammad Asad	6:116 Now if thou pay heed unto the majority of those [who live] on earth, they will but lead thee astray from the path of God: they follow but [other people's] conjectures, and they themselves do nothing but guess. 103
Rashad Khalifa	6:116 If you obey the majority of people on earth, they will divert you from the path of GOD. They follow only conjecture; they only guess.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:116 (People will confront you with what the majority is doing.) Now if you pay heed to, or get intimidated by majority of those who live on earth, they will lead you astray from God's way. Most of the people follow nothing but conjecture and they only live by guesswork.
Transliteration	6:116 Wa-in tu tiAA akthara man fee al-ar diyudillooka AAan sabeeli All ahi in yattabiAAoona illaathanna wa-in hum illa yakhrusoona
A	6:116 وان تطع اكثر من فى الارض يضلوك عن سبيل الله ان يتبعون الا الظن وان هم يخرصون
Edip-Layth	6:117 Your Lord is fully aware of who strays from His path, and He is fully aware of the guided ones.
The Monotheist Group	6:117 Your Lord is fully aware of who strays from His path, and He is fully aware of the guided ones.
Muhammad Asad	6:117 Verily, thy Sustainer knows best as to who strays from His path, and best knows He as to who are the right-guided.
Rashad Khalifa	6:117 Your Lord is fully aware of those who stray off His path, and He is fully aware of those who are guided.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:117 Only your Lord (shows the right path and) knows best those who stray and those who are rightly guided.
Transliteration	6:117 Inna rabbaka huwa aAAalamu man ya dilluAAan sabeelihi wahuwa aAAalamu bialmuhtadeena
A	6:117 ان ربك هو اعلم من يضل عن سبيله وهو اعلم بالمهتدين
Edip-Layth	Dietary Prohibitions 6:118 So eat from that on which God's name has been mentioned, if you indeed acknowledge His signs. 23
The Monotheist Group	6:118 So eat from that on which God's name has been mentioned, if you indeed believe in His revelations.

Muhammad Asad	6:118 EAT, then, of that over which God's name has been pronounced, if you truly believe in His messages. ¹⁰⁴
Rashad Khalifa	6:118 You shall eat from that upon which GOD's name has been pronounced, if you truly believe in His revelations.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:118 So eat of what God has made permissible, if you are believers in His revelations. ³⁰
Transliteration	6:118 Fakuloo mimm a thukira ismuAll ahi AAalayhi in kuntum bi-ayatihimu/mineena
A	6:118 فكلوا مما ذكر اسم الله عليه ان كنتم بآيته مومنين
Edip-Layth	6:119 Why should you not eat that on which God's name has been mentioned, when He has sufficiently detailed to you what has been made forbidden; except what you are forced to? Many misguide by their desires without knowledge; your Lord is fully aware of the transgressors.
The Monotheist Group	6:119 And why should you not eat that on which God's name has been mentioned, when He has fully detailed to you what has been made forbidden; except what you are forced to? Many misguide by their desires without knowledge; your Lord is fully aware of the transgressors.
Muhammad Asad	6:119 And why should you not eat of that over which God's name has been pronounced, seeing that He has so clearly spelled out to you what He has forbidden you [to eat] unless you are compelled [to do so]? But, behold, [it is precisely in such matters that] many people lead others astray by their own errant views, without [having any real] knowledge. Verily, thy Sustainer is fully aware of those who transgress the bounds of what is right.
Rashad Khalifa	Chance to Remember God: Mention God's Name Before You Eat 6:119 Why should you not eat from that upon which GOD's name has been mentioned? He has detailed for you what is prohibited for you, unless you are forced. Indeed, many people mislead others with their personal opinions, without knowledge. Your Lord is fully aware of the transgressors.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:119 Why should you not eat of that on which God's Name has been pronounced (i.e. it is not dedicated to other than Him)? He has explained to you in detail what is forbidden along with certain exception, when in dire need. Numerous of the clergy mislead people in this matter without knowledge, and with their personal opinions. Surely, your Lord! He is best Aware of those who transgress and go beyond limits. ³¹
Transliteration	6:119 Wama lakum all a ta/kuloo mimm athukira ismu All ahi AAalayhi waqad fassalalakum ma harrama AAalaykum illa ma idturirtumilayhi wa-inna katheeran layudilloona bi-ahw a-ihimbighayri AAilmin inna rabbaka huwa aAalamu bialmuAAatadeena
A	6:119 وما لكم الا تاكلوا مما ذكر اسم الله عليه وقد فصل لكم ما حرم عليكم الا ما اضطررتم اليه وان كثيرا ليضلون باهوائهم بغير علم ان ربك هو اعلم بالمعتدين
Edip-Layth	6:120 Leave what is openly a sin as well as what is discreet; those who earn sin will be punished for what they have taken.
The Monotheist Group	6:120 And leave what is openly a sin as well as what is discreet; those who earn sin will be punished for what they have taken.
	6:120 But abstain from sinning, ¹⁰⁵ be it open or secret-for, behold, those who

Muhammad Asad	commit sins shall be requited for all that they have earned.
Rashad Khalifa	6:120 You shall avoid obvious sins, as well as the hidden ones. Those who have earned sins will surely pay for their transgressions.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:120 Abstain from violating the Divine Commands, whether openly or secretly. Those who drag down their own 'self' by such violations will be awarded what they have earned. ³²
Transliteration	6:120 Watharoo th ahiraal-ithmi wab a tinahu inna alla th eena yaksiboonaal-ithma sayujzawna bima k anoo yaqtarifoona
A	6:120 ونزروا ظهر الاثم وباطنه ان الذين يكسبون الاثم سيجزون بما كانوا يقتفون
Edip-Layth	6:121 Do not eat from what God's name has not been mentioned, for it is vile. The devils inspire their supporters to argue with you; and if you obey them, then you have set up partners. ²⁴
The Monotheist Group	6:121 And do not eat from that which God's name has not been mentioned, for it is vile. And the devils they inspire their supporters to argue with you; and if you obey them, then you have set up partners.
Muhammad Asad	6:121 Hence, eat not of that over which God's name has not been pronounced: for this would be sinful conduct indeed. And, verily, the evil impulses [within men's hearts] whisper unto those who have made them their own ¹⁰⁶ that they should involve you in argument [as to what is and what is not a sin]; and if you pay heed unto them, lo! you will become [like] those who ascribe divinity to other beings or forces beside God. ¹⁰⁷
Rashad Khalifa	6:121 Do not eat from that upon which the name of GOD has not been mentioned, for it is an abomination. The devils inspire their allies to argue with you; if you obey them, you will be idol worshipers.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:121 Do not eat anything (not just meat) without mentioning the name of God over it, for, that will be drifting away from what is right. Satans (the rebellious among people) inspire their companions to dispute with you. If you were to obey them, you would be as idolaters. ³³
Transliteration	6:121 Wala ta/kuloo mimma lam yu <th>kariismu Allahi AAalayhi wa-innahu lafisqun wa-inna a lshshayateenalayoohoona il a awliy a-ihim liyuj adilookumwa-in ataAAatumoohum innakum lamushrikoona</th>	kariismu All a hi AAalayhi wa-innahu lafisqun wa-inna a lshshaya teen alayoo h oona il a awliy a -ihim liyuj a dilookumwa-in a ta AAatumoohum innakum lamushrikoona
A	6:121 ولا تاكلوا مما لم يذكر اسم الله عليه وانه لفسق وان الشيطان ليوحون الى اوليائهم ليجدلوكم وان اطعتموهم انكم لمشركون
Edip-Layth	6:122 Is one who was dead and to whom We gave life, and We made for him a light to walk with amongst the people, as one whose example is in darkness and he will not exit from it? It is such that the work of the ingrates has been adorned for them.
The Monotheist Group	6:122 Is one who was dead and to whom We gave life, and We made for him a light to walk with amongst the people, as one whose example is in darkness and he will not exit from it? It is such that the work of the rejecters has been adorned for them.
Muhammad Asad	6:122 IS THEN -HE who was dead [in spirit] and whom We thereupon gave life, and for whom We set up a light whereby he might see his way among men ¹⁰⁸ - [is then he] like one [who is lost] in darkness deep, out of which he cannot emerge? [But] thus it is: goodly seem all their own doings to those who deny the truth.

Rashad Khalifa	6:122 Is one who was dead and we granted him life, and provided him with light that enables him to move among the people, equal to one in total darkness from which he can never exit? The works of the disbelievers are thus adorned in their eyes.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:122 (God's light revives the living dead and makes them walk honorably among mankind.) Is one who was living dead and We gave him life, and a light whereby he sees his way (honorably) among people, - Is he like one who is lost in total darkness out of which he cannot emerge? Thus it is: Goodly seems their own deeds to the deniers. 34
Transliteration	6:122 Awa man kana maytan faahyaaynahuwajaAAalna lahu nooran yamshee bihi fee aInnasikaman mathaluhu fee a lththulumatilaysa bikh arijin minh a ka thalika zuyyinalilkafireena ma kanoo yaAAamaloona
A	6:122 او من كان ميتا فاحيينه وجعلنا له نورا يمشى به في الناس كمن مثله في الظلمات ليس بخارج منها كذلك زين للكافرين ما كانوا يعملون
Edip-Layth	6:123 As such, We have permitted in every town the influential from its criminals, to scheme in it. They only scheme their own selves without perceiving.
The Monotheist Group	6:123 And as such, We have permitted in every town the influential from its criminals, to scheme in it. They only scheme their own souls without perceiving.
Muhammad Asad	6:123 And it is in this way that We cause the great ones in every land to become its [greatest] evildoers, 109 there to weave their schemes: yet it is only against themselves that they scheme -and they perceive it not.
Rashad Khalifa	6:123 We allow the leading criminals of every community to plot and scheme. But they only plot and scheme against their own souls, without perceiving.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:123 This is how We allow the greatest ones in every community to become its greatest criminals, to weave their schemes. Yet it is only against themselves that they scheme without even knowing it.
Transliteration	6:123 Wakathalika jaAAaln a feekulli qaryatin ak abira mujrimeeh a liyamkuroo feehawama yamkuroona illa bi-anfushim wam ayashAAuroona
A	6:123 وكذلك جعلنا في كل قرية اكبر مجرميها ليمكروا فيها وما يمكرون الا بانفسهم وما يشعرون
Edip-Layth	Blind Followers do not Appreciate Originality 6:124 If a sign comes to them they say, "We will not acknowledge until we are given the same as what God's messengers were given!" God is fully aware of where He makes His message; those criminals will have debasement with God and a painful retribution for what they had schemed. 25
The Monotheist Group	6:124 And if a sign comes to them they say: "We will not believe until we are given the same as what God's messengers were given!" God is fully aware where He makes His message; those criminals will have debasement with God and a painful retribution for what they had schemed.
Muhammad Asad	6:124 And whenever. a [divine] message comes to them, they say, "We shall not believe unless we are given the like of what God's apostles were given!" 110 [But] God knows best upon whom to bestow His message. Abasement in the sight of God will befall those who have become guilty of evildoing, and suffering severe for all the schemes which they were wont to weave.

Rashad Khalifa	Questioning God's Wisdom 6:124 When a powerful proof comes to them, they say, "We will not believe, unless we are given what is given to GOD's messengers!" GOD knows exactly who is best qualified to deliver His message. Such criminals will suffer debasement at GOD, and terrible retribution as a consequence of their evil scheming.¹¹
Shabbir Ahmed	6:124 When a message comes to them, they say, "We will not believe until we are directly given what God's messengers are given." But, God knows best with whom to place His message. Such criminals will be humiliated by God's Law of Requit, and suffer a heavy punishment for their scheming.
Transliteration	6:124 Wa-i th a jaat-hum aya tunq ^{aloo} lan nu/mina hatta nu/t ^a mithlam a ootiya rusulu All ahi All ahu aAAlamu hay thuyajAAalu ris alata hu sayu seebu alla ^{the} enaajramoo sagha run AAinda All ahi waAAa tha bunshadeedun bim a k anoo yamkuroona
A	6:124 واذا جاءتهم آية قالوا لن نؤمن حتى نوتي مثل ما اوتى رسل الله اعلم حيث يجعل رسالته سيصيب الذين اجرموا صغار عند الله وعذاب شديد بما كانوا يمكرون
Edip-Layth	6:125 Whomever God wishes to guide, He will open his chest towards peacefully surrender; and whomever He wishes to misguide, He will make his chest tight and constricted, as one who is climbing towards the sky. It is such that God afflicts those who do not acknowledge.
The Monotheist Group	6:125 Whoever God wishes to guide, He will open his chest towards submission; and whoever He wishes to misguide, He will make his chest tight and constricted, as one who is climbing towards the sky. It is such that God afflicts those who do not believe.
Muhammad Asad	6:125 And whomsoever God wills to guide, his bosom He opens wide with willingness towards self-surrender [unto Him]; and whomsoever He wills to let go astray, his bosom He causes to be tight and constricted, as if he were climbing unto the skies: it is thus that God inflicts horror upon those who will not believe.
Rashad Khalifa	Quranic Knowledge Far Ahead of Human Progress 6:125 Whomever GOD wills to guide, He renders his chest wide open to Submission. And whomever He wills to send astray, He renders his chest intolerant and straitened, like one who climbs towards the sky ¹². GOD thus places a curse upon those who refuse to believe.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:125 Whoever follows God's law of guidance, He expands his chest wide open to submission. And whoever violates God's law of guidance, feels his chest tight and narrowed as if he were climbing to the sky. Thus God's law appoints disgrace for those who continue to reject the truth.
Transliteration	6:125 Faman yuridi All ahu an yahdiyahuyashra h sad rahu lil-isl ^a mi waman yurid an yu dill ahuyajAAal sad rahu day yiqan hara jan kaannam ayassa AAAAadu fee alssama-i ka th alikayajAAalu All ^{ah} u alrrijsa AAala alla ^{the} enala yu/minoona
A	6:125 فمن يرد الله ان يهديه يشرح صدره للإسلام ومن يرد ان يضله يجعل صدره ضيقا حرجا كأنما يصعد في السماء كذلك يجعل الله الرجس على الذين لا يؤمنون
Edip-Layth	6:126 This is your Lord's straight path. We have sufficiently detailed the signs to a people who take heed.
The Monotheist Group	6:126 And this is your Lord's straight path. We have fully detailed the revelations to a people who remember.

Muhammad Asad	6:126 And undeviating is this thy Sustainer's way. ¹¹¹ Clearly, indeed, have We spelled out these messages unto people who [are willing to] take them to heart!
Rashad Khalifa	6:126 This is the straight path to your Lord. We have explained the revelations for people who take heed.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:126 And this (Qur'an) is the path of your Lord, a straight path. Certainly, We have detailed Our revelations for those who pay attention and take them to heart!
Transliteration	6:126 Wah a tha s iratu rabbikamustaqeeman qad fa s salna al- a yatiliqawmin yath h akkaroo n a
A	6:126 وهذا صراط ربك مستقيما قد فصلنا الءايت لقوم يذكرون
Edip-Layth	6:127 They will have the abode of peace with their Lord; He is their supporter because of what they used to do.
The Monotheist Group	6:127 They will have the abode of peace with their Lord; He is their supporter because of what they used to do.
Muhammad Asad	6:127 Theirs shall be an abode of peace with their Sustainer; and He shall be near unto them in result of what they have been doing.
Rashad Khalifa	6:127 They have deserved the abode of peace at their Lord; He is their Lord and Master, as a reward for their works.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:127 For them is the wonderful Abode of Peace with their Sustainer. He will be their Protecting Friend because of what they used to do.
Transliteration	6:127 Lahum d a ru a Issalam i AAinda rabbi h im wahuwa waliyyuhum bim a kanooyaAAamaloona
A	6:127 ئ لهم دار السلم عند ربهم وهو وليهم بما كانوا يعملون
Edip-Layth	6:128 The day He summons them all: "O tribes of Jinn, you have managed to take many humans." Their supporters from the humans said, "Our Lord, we have indeed enjoyed one another, and we have reached our destiny to which You delayed us." He said, "The fire is your dwelling, in it you shall abide eternally, except as your Lord wishes." Your Lord is Wise, Knowledgeable.
The Monotheist Group	6:128 And the Day We gather them all: "O tribes of Jinn, you have managed to take many humans." Their supporters from the humans said: "Our Lord, we have indeed enjoyed one another, and we have reached our destiny to which You delayed us." He said: "The Fire is your dwelling, in it you shall abide eternally, except as your Lord wishes." Your Lord is Wise, Knowledgeable.
Muhammad Asad	6:128 AND ON THE DAY when He shall gather them [all] together, [He will say:] "O you who have lived in close communion with [evil] invisible beings! A great many [other] human beings have you ensnared! ¹¹² And those of the humans who were close to them ¹¹³ will say: "O our Sustainer! We did enjoy one another's fellowship [in life]; but (now that] we have reached the end of our term-the term which Thou hast laid down for us - (we see the error of our ways]!" [But] He will say: "The fire shall be your abode, therein to abide-unless God wills it otherwise." ¹¹⁴ Verily, thy Sustainer is wise, all-knowing.
Rashad Khalifa	6:128 The day will come when He summons all of them (and says): "O you jinns, you have claimed multitudes of humans." Their human companions will say, "Our Lord, we enjoyed each others' company until we wasted the life span You had set for us." He will say, "Hell is your destiny." They abide therein forever, in accordance with GOD's will. Your Lord is Wise, Omniscient.

Shabbir Ahmed	6:128 The day will come when He gathers all of them and says, "O You nomads! You have seduced many of the urban." Their urbanite friends will say, "Our Lord! We enjoyed each other's company (and both used each other opportunistically as happens in a chaotic society) until we wasted a life span You had given us." He will say, "fire is your home. Abide therein forever according to God's Design." Surely, (O Messenger!) your Lord is Wise, Knower. (He has designed His laws in all wisdom and knowledge.)
Transliteration	6:128 Wayawma ya hshuruhum jameeAAan y amaAAashara aljinni qadi istakthartum mina al-insi waq alaawliyaohum mina al-insi rabban a istamtaAAa baAADunabibaAAadin wabalaghn a ajalan a alla theeajjalta lan a q ala a Innaru mathwakumkhalideena feeh a ill a m a sh aaAllahu inna rabbaka hakeemun AAaleemun
A	6:128 ويوم يحشرهم جميعا يمعشر الجن قد استكثرتم من الانس وقال اولياؤهم من الانس ربنا استمتع بعضنا ببعض وبلغنا اجلنا الذى اجلت لنا قال النار مثوكم خلدن فيها الا ما شاء الله ان ربك حكيم عليم
Edip-Layth	6:129 It is such that We make the wicked as supporters to one another for what they had earned.
The Monotheist Group	6:129 It is such that We make the wicked as supporters to one another for what they had earned.
Muhammad Asad	6:129 And in this manner do We cause evildoers to seduce one another ¹¹⁵ by means of their (evil] doings.
Rashad Khalifa	6:129 We thus match the wicked to be companions of each other, as a punishment for their transgressions.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:129 Thus We make the wrongdoers turn to, and befriend, each other because of what they earn. ³⁵
Transliteration	6:129 Wakathalika nuwallee baAA da a lththalimeenabaAADan bim a k anoo yaksiboona
A	6:129 وكذلك نولى بعض الظالمين بعضا بما كانوا يكسبون
Edip-Layth	God Does not Commit Injustice 6:130 "O you tribes of Jinn and humans, did not messengers come to you from amongst you and relate to you My signs, and warn you of the meeting of this day?" They said, "Yes, we bear witness upon ourselves;" and the worldly life deceived them, and they bore witness on themselves that they were ingrates.
The Monotheist Group	6:130 "O you tribes of Jinn and humans, did not messengers come to you from amongst you and relate to you My revelations, and warn you of the meeting of this Day?" They said: "Yes, we bear witness upon ourselves;" and the worldly life deceived them, and they bore witness on themselves that they were rejecters.
Muhammad Asad	6:130 [And thus will God continue:] "O you who have lived in close communion with [evil] invisible beings and [like-minded] humans! Have there not come unto you apostles from among yourselves, who conveyed unto you My messages and warned you of the coming of this your Day [of Judgment]?" They will answer: "We do bear witness against ourselves!"-for the life of this world had beguiled them: and so they will bear witness against themselves that they had been denying the truth.
	6:130 O you jinns and humans, did you not receive messengers from among you,

Rashad Khalifa	who narrated to you My revelations, and warned you about the meeting of this day? They will say, "We bear witness against ourselves." They were totally preoccupied with the worldly life, and they will bear witness against themselves that they were disbelievers.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:130 O You, assembly of the nomads and the urbanites! Did not messengers come to you from among yourselves, conveyed to you My messages and warned you of the meeting of this your Day? They will say, "We testify against ourselves." Pursuit of only the worldly life preoccupied their hearts and minds. They will bear witness against themselves that they disregarded the truth.
Transliteration	6:130 Ya maAAashara aljinni waal-insialam ya/tikum rusulun minkum yaqu ssoona AAalaykum ayatewayunthiroomakum liq aa yawmikum h atha q alooshahidna AAala anfusina wagharrat-humu al hayatualddunya washahidoo AAal a anfusihim annahumkanoo kafiirena
A	6:130 يمعشر الجن والانس الم ياتكم رسل منكم يقصون عليكم آيتي وينذرونكم لقاء يومكم هذا قالوا شهدنا على انفسنا وغرتهم الحياة الدنيا وشهدوا على انفسهم انهم كانوا كافرين
Edip-Layth	6:131 That is because your Lord was not to destroy any town because of its wickedness while its people were unaware.
The Monotheist Group	6:131 That is because your Lord was not to destroy any town because of its wickedness while its people were unaware.
Muhammad Asad	6:131 And so it is that thy Sustainer would never destroy a community ¹¹⁶ for its wrongdoing so long as its people are still unaware [of the meaning of right and wrong]:
Rashad Khalifa	6:131 This is to show that your Lord never annihilates any community unjustly, while its people are unaware.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:131 And so it is that your Lord never destroys communities while their people are unaware of their wrongdoings.
Transliteration	6:131 Thalika an lam yakun rabbuka muhlikaalqur a bi thulmin waahluh a ghafiloon
A	6:131 ذلك ان لم يكن ربك مهلك القرى بظلم واهلها غفلون
Edip-Layth	6:132 But there are degrees for what they had done; and your Lord is never unaware of what they do.
The Monotheist Group	6:132 But there are degrees for what they had done; and your Lord is not unaware of what they do.
Muhammad Asad	6:132 for all shall be judged according to their [conscious] deeds ¹¹⁷ - and thy Sustainer is not unaware of what they do.
Rashad Khalifa	6:132 Everyone will attain a rank commensurate with their deeds. Your Lord is never unaware of anything they do.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:132 The ranks of all individuals and nations are determined solely by their deeds, and your Lord is not unaware of what they do. ³⁶
Transliteration	6:132 Walikullin daraj atun mimm aAAamiloo wam a rabbuka bigh afilin AAammayaAAamaloona
A	6:132 ولكل درجات مما عملوا وما ربك بغفل عما يعملون

Edip-Layth	6:133 Your Lord is Rich, full of Compassion. If He wished, He could remove you and bring after you whom He pleases, just like He established you from the seed of another people.
The Monotheist Group	6:133 And your Lord is Rich with Mercy. If He wished, He could remove you and bring after you whom He pleases, just like He established you from the seed of another people.
Muhammad Asad	6:133 And thy Sustainer alone is self-sufficient, limitless in His grace. If He so wills, He may put an end to you and thereafter cause whom He wills to succeed you - even as He has brought you into being out of other people's seed.
Rashad Khalifa	6:133 Your Lord is the Rich One; possessor of all mercy. If He wills, He can remove you, and substitute whomever He wills in your place, just as He produced you from the progeny of other people.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:133 Your Lord is Self-sufficient, Full of mercy. If it were His Will, He could destroy you and replace you with whomever He wills, just as He produced you from the posterity of other creation. ³⁷
Transliteration	6:133 Warabbuka alghaniyyu thoo aIrrah mati in yasha/ yu th hibkum wayastakhli f min baAAadi kum may ash ao ka ma an shaakum min th urriyyati qawmin akh hareena
A	6:133 وربك الغنى ذو الرحمة ان يشاء يذهبكم ويستخلف من بعدكم ما يشاء كما انشاكم من ذرية قوم اخرين
Edip-Layth	6:134 What you have been promised will come, you cannot escape it.
The Monotheist Group	6:134 What you have been promised will come, you cannot escape it.
Muhammad Asad	6:134 Verily, that [reckoning] which you are promised is bound to come, and you cannot elude it!
Rashad Khalifa	6:134 What is promised to you will come to pass, and you can never evade it.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:134 That which you are promised will surely come to pass, and you can never evade the Divine laws.
Transliteration	6:134 Inna ma tooAAadoona la atin wam a antum bimuAAajizeen a
A	6:134 ان ما توعدون لءات وما انتم بمعجزين
Edip-Layth	6:135 Say, "My people, do your best, and so will I. You will then know those who deserve the ultimate abode. The wicked will not succeed."
The Monotheist Group	6:135 Say: "My people, work as you see fit, and I will work. You will then know to whom will be the punishment of the Hereafter. The wicked will not succeed."
Muhammad Asad	6:135 Say: "O my [unbelieving] people! Do yet all that may be within your power, [while] I, behold, shall labour [in God's way]; and in time you will come to know to whom the future belongs. ¹¹⁸ Verily, never will evildoers attain to a happy state!"
Rashad Khalifa	6:135 Say, "O my people, do your best, and so will I. You will surely find out who the ultimate victors are." Certainly, the wicked will never succeed.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:135 Say, "O My people! Go on doing what you wish, and so will I. Soon, you will know to whom belongs the ultimate (success). Most certainly, the wrongdoers will never prosper." ³⁸
Transliteration	6:135 Qul y a qawmi iAAamaloo AAal am akanatikum innee AA am ilun fasawfa

	taAAalamoona mantakoonu lahu AAaqibatu alddari innahu layuflihu al th halimoona
A	6:135 قل يقوم اعملوا على مكانتكم انى عامل فسوف تعلمون من تكون له عقبة الدار انه لا يفلح الظلمون
Edip-Layth	Prohibitions in the Name of God 6:136 Of crops and the livestock He provided, they set aside a portion for God, they said, "This is for God," according to their claim, "This is for our partners." However, what was for their partners did not reach God, while what was for God reached their partners! Miserable is how they judged.²⁶
The Monotheist Group	6:136 And they made for God a portion of what He provided them of crops and the livestock; they said: "This is for God," by their claims, "And this is for our partners." So what was for their partners did not reach God, and what was for God, it reached their partners! Miserable is how they judged.
Muhammad Asad	6:136 AND OUT OF whatever He has created of the fruits of the field and the cattle, they assign unto God a portion, saying, "This belongs to God"-or so they [falsely] claim ¹¹⁹ - "and this is for those beings who, we are convinced, have a share in God's divinity." ¹²⁰ But that which is assigned to the beings associated in their minds with God does not bring [them] closer to God - whereas that which is assigned to God brings [them but] closer to those beings to whom they ascribe a share in His divinity. ¹²¹ Bad, indeed, is their judgment!
Rashad Khalifa	Abusing God's Provisions 6:136 They even set aside a share of GOD's provisions of crops and livestock, saying, "This share belongs to GOD," according to their claims, "and this share belongs to our idols." However, what was set aside for their idols never reached GOD, while the share they set aside for GOD invariably went to their idols. Miserable indeed is their judgment.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:136 *
Transliteration	6:136 WajaAAaloo lill ahi mimm a tharaamina al harthi wa al-anAAami naseebanfaqaaloo h atha lill ahi bizaAAamihim wah athalishuraka-ina fam a k ana lishuraka-ihimfala ya silu il a All ahi wam a k analillahi fahuwa ya silu il a shurak a-ihimsaa ma yahkumoonaa
A	6:136 وجعلوا لله مما ذرا من الحرث والانعم نصيبا فقالوا هذا لله بزعمهم وهذا لشركائنا فما كان لشركائهم فلا يصل الى الله وما كان لله فهو يصل الى شركائهم ساء ما يحكمون
Edip-Layth	6:137 Thus, for those who set up partners their partners adorned the killing of born children, in order to turn them and to confuse their system for them. Had God willed they would not have done this, so ignore them and what they invent. ²⁷
The Monotheist Group	6:137 And it was adorned for those who set up partners, by such partners, to kill their children in order to turn them and to confuse their system for them. Had God willed they would not have done this, so ignore them and what they invent.
Muhammad Asad	6:137 And, likewise, their belief in beings or powers that are supposed to have a share in God's divinity makes ¹²² [even] the slaying of their children seem goodly to many of those who ascribe divinity to aught beside God, thus bringing them to ruin and confusing them in their faith. ¹²³ Yet, unless God had so willed, they would not be doing all this: ¹²⁴ stand, therefore, aloof from them and all their false imagery!

Rashad Khalifa	6:137 Thus were the idol worshipers duped by their idols, to the extent of killing their own children. In fact, their idols inflict great pain upon them, and confuse their religion for them. Had GOD willed, they would not have done it. You shall disregard them and their fabrications.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:137 (At the prompting of the mystics and monks, and in the name of their temples, idols, sanctuaries, and the dead "holy" men and women), the Mushrikeen (idolaters) do acts of omission and commission against their own children! They inflict great pain upon themselves and their families in the name of religion. If God had willed (they would have followed the laws of guidance and), they would not have done it. (Since they take this abuse as a part of their plan to salvation), leave them alone and what they fabricate.
Transliteration	6:137 Wakathalika zayyana likatheerin minaalmushrikeena qatla awl adihim shurakaohumliyurdoohum waliyalbisoo AAalayhim deenahum walaw sh aa Allahuma faAAaloohu fatharhum wama yaftaroon a
A	6:137 وكذلك زين لكثير من المشركين قتل اولدهم شركاؤهم ليردوهم وليلبسوا عليهم دينهم ولو شاء الله ما فعلوه فذرهم وما يفترون
Edip-Layth	6:138 They said by asserting that: "These are livestock and crops that are restricted, and none shall eat from them except as we please." Even, livestock whose backs are forbidden, and livestock over which they do not mention God's name as invention against Him. He will recompense them for what they invented.
The Monotheist Group	6:138 And they said: "These are livestock and crops that are restricted, and none shall eat from them except as we please," by their claims; and livestock whose backs are forbidden, and livestock over which they do not mention God's name as invention against Him. He will recompense them for what they invented.
Muhammad Asad	6:138 And they say, "Such-and-such cattle and fruits of the field are sacred; none may eat thereof save those whom we will [to do so]" -so they [falsely] claim; ¹²⁵ and [they declare that] it is forbidden to burden the backs of certain kinds of cattle; and there are cattle over which they do not pronounce God's name ¹²⁶ - falsely attributing [the origin of these customs] to Him. [But] He will requite them for all their false imagery.
Rashad Khalifa	Religious Innovations Condemned 6:138 They said, "These are livestock and crops that are prohibited; no one shall eat them except whomever we permit," so they claimed. They also prohibited the riding of certain livestock. Even the livestock they ate, they never pronounced GOD's name as they sacrificed them. Such are innovations attributed to Him. He will surely requite them for their innovations.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:138 And they say, "Such and such cattle and fruits of the field are sacred. No one will eat of them except whom we permit." They also arbitrarily prohibit the riding of some animals. And there are cattle over which they do not pronounce the Name of God (but of someone else, to please people). Such are their fabrications in His Name. Soon He will reward them for their false imagery. 40
Transliteration	6:138 Waqaloo h athihi anAA amunwaharthun hijrun l a ya tAAamuhaila man nashao bizaAAamihim waanAA amun hurrimatthuhooruh waanAA amun l a yathkuroonaisma All ahi AAalayh a iftir aan AAalayhisayajzeehim bim a k anoo yaftaroon a
A	6:138 وقالوا هذه انعم وحرث حجر لا يطعمها الا من نشاء يزعمهم وانعم حرمت ظهورها وانعم لا يذكرون اسم الله عليها افتراء عليه سيجزيهم بما كانوا يفترون
Further Discrimination against Females

Edip-Layth	6:139 They said, "What is in the bellies of these livestock is purely for our males and forbidden for our spouses, and if it comes out dead, then they will be partners in it." God will recompense them for what they describe. He is Wise, Knowledgeable.
The Monotheist Group	6:139 And they said: "What is in the bellies of these livestock is purely for our males and forbidden for our wives, and if comes out dead, then they will be partners in it." God will recompense them for what they describe. He is Wise, Knowledgeable.
Muhammad Asad	6:139 And they say, "All that is in the wombs of such-and-such cattle is reserved for our males and forbidden to our women; but if it be stillborn, then both may have their share thereof." [God] will requite them for all that they [falsely] attribute [to Him]: behold, He is wise, all-knowing.
Rashad Khalifa	6:139 They also said, "What is in the bellies of these livestock is reserved exclusively for the males among us, and prohibited for our wives." But if it was a still birth, they permitted their wives to share therein. He will certainly requite them for their innovations. He is Most Wise, Omniscient.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:139 (They display their bias toward women in weird ways.) They say, "What is in the bellies of these cattle is reserved for the males among us, and forbidden to our wives." But if it is a stillbirth, they permit their wives to share it. He, the Wise, the Knower, will repay them for their innovations.
Transliteration	6:139 Waqaloo m a fee bu toonihathihi al-anAA ami kh alisatun lithukoorinawamuharramun AAal a azw ajina wa-inyakun maytatan fahum feehee shurakao sayajzeehim wasfahuminnahu hakeemun AAaleemun
A	6:139 وقالوا ما فى بطون هذه الانعم خالصة لذكورنا ومحرم على ازوجنا وان يكن ميتة فهم فيه شركاء سيجزيهم وصفهم انه حكيم عليم
Edip-Layth	6:140 Losers are those who have killed their born children foolishly, without knowledge, and they forbade what God had provided for them by attributing lies to God. They have strayed and they were not guided.
The Monotheist Group	6:140 Losers are those who have killed their children foolishly, without knowledge, and they forbade what God had granted them by lying about God. They have strayed and they were not guided.
Muhammad Asad	6:140 Lost, indeed, are they who, in their weak-minded ignorance, slay their children and declare as forbidden that which God has provided for them as sustenance, falsely ascribing [such prohibitions] to God: they have gone astray and have not found the right path.
Rashad Khalifa	6:140 Losers indeed are those who killed their children foolishly, due to their lack of knowledge, and prohibited what GOD has provided for them, and followed innovations attributed to GOD. They have gone astray; they are not guided.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:140 Lost are those who kill their children foolishly, and forbid what God has provided them as sustenance. And they attribute their innovations to God! Their straying is far from the way of the rightly guided. ⁴¹
Transliteration	6:140 Qad khasira alla theena qataloo awl adahumsafahan bighayri AAilmin waharramoo m a razaqahumuAllahu iftiraan AAal a Allahi qad dalloowama kanoo muhtadeena
A	6:140 قد خسر الذين قتلوا اولدهم سفها بغير علم وحرموا ما رزقهم الله افتراء على الله قد ضلوا وما كانوا مهتدين

Edip-Layth	Enumerated List of Dietary Prohibitions; 6:141 He is the One Who initiated gardens; both trellised and untrellised; palm trees, and plants, all with different tastes; and olives and pomegranates, similar and not similar. Eat from its fruit when it blossoms and give its due on the day of harvest; and do not waste. He does not like the wasteful. ²⁸
The Monotheist Group	6:141 And He is the One Who initiated gardens; both trellised and untrellised; and palm trees, and plants, all with different taste; and olives and pomegranates, similar and not similar. Eat from its fruit when it blossoms and give its due on the day of harvest; and do not waste. He does not like the wasteful.
Muhammad Asad	6:141 For it is He who has brought into being gardens-[both] the cultivated ones and those growing wild ¹²⁷ -and the date-palm, and fields bearing multiform produce, and the olive tree, and the pomegranate: [all] resembling one another and yet so different! ¹²⁸ Eat of their fruit when it comes to fruition, and give [unto the poor] their due on harvest day. And do not waste [God's bounties]: verily, He does not love the wasteful!
Rashad Khalifa	Zakat Must Be Given "On The Day Of Harvest" 6:141 He is the One who established gardens, trellised and untrellised, and palm trees, and crops with different tastes, and olives, and pomegranate - fruits that are similar, yet dissimilar. Eat from their fruits, and give the due alms on the day of harvest ¹⁴, and do not waste anything. He does not love the wasters.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:141 He is the One Who creates bounties for you, such as gardens that are cultivated, greens that are wild, palm trees of various kinds, crops in diversity, olives and pomegranates, fruits that are similar and diverse. Enjoy them, but give Him His Right on the Day of the Harvest. And waste not the bounty of God. Surely, He does not love the wasteful. ⁴²
Transliteration	6:141 Wahuwa alla^{thee} anshaa janna^{tin}maAAroosh^{atin} waghayra maAAroosh^{atin} waalInnakhlawaal^{al}zzarAAa mukhtalifan okuluhu wa ^{al}zzaytoona waal^rrummanamutash^{ab}ihan waghayra mutash ^{ab}ihin kuloo minthamarihi i ^{tha} athmara wa ^{ato}o ^{ha}qqahu yawma ^{hasa}adihiwala^a tusrifoo innahu l ^a yu ^{hibbu} almusrifeena
A	6:141 وهو الذى انشا جنت معروشت وغير معروشت والنخل والزروع مختلفا اكله والزيتون والرمان متشبهها وغير متشبهه كلوا من ثمره اذا اثمر وءاتوا حقه يوم حصاده ولا تسرفوا انه لا يحب المسرفين
Edip-Layth	6:142 From the livestock are those for burden, and also for clothing. Eat from what God has provided you and do not follow the footsteps of the devil; he is to you a clear enemy.
The Monotheist Group	6:142 And from the livestock are those for burden, and also for clothing. Eat from what God has provided you and do not follow the footsteps of the devil; he is to you a clear enemy.
Muhammad Asad	6:142 And of the cattle reared for work and for the sake of their flesh, eat whatever God has provided for you as sustenance, and follow not Satan's footsteps: ¹²⁹ behold, he is your open foe!
Rashad Khalifa	6:142 Some livestock supply you with transportation, as well as bedding materials. Eat from GOD's provisions to you, and do not follow the steps of Satan; he is your most ardent enemy.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:142 Among the quadrupeds some are for work and transportation and others for consumption, and their skins for bedding materials. Enjoy what God has provided you. And do not follow the footsteps of Satan. Satan (your selfish desires) is your open enemy.

Transliteration	6:142 Wamina al-anAA ami hamoolatanwafarshan kuloo mimm a razaqakumu All ahu wal atattabiAAoo khu tuwati a Ishshaytaniinnahu lakum AAaduwwun mubeen un
A	6:142 ومن الانعم حمولة وفرشا كلوا مما رزقكم الله ولا تتبعوا خطوات الشيطان انه لكم عدو مبين
Edip-Layth	6:143 Eight pairs: from the sheep two, and from the goats two; say, "Is it the two males that He forbade or the two females, or what the womb of the two females bore? Inform me if you are truthful!" ²⁹
The Monotheist Group	6:143 Eight pairs: from the lambs two, and from the goats two. Say: "Is it the two males that He forbade or the two females, or what the womb of the two females bore? Inform me if you are truthful!"
Muhammad Asad	6:143 [His followers would have it that, in certain cases, any of these] four kinds of cattle of either sex [is unlawful to man]: either of the two sexes of sheep and of goats. ¹³⁰ Ask [them]: "Is it the two males that He has forbidden, or the two females, or that which the wombs of the two females may contain? Tell me what you know in this respect, ¹³¹ if what you say is true."
Rashad Khalifa	Innovated Dietary Prohibitions Condemned 6:143 Eight kinds of livestock: regarding the two kinds of sheep, and the two kinds of goats, say, "Is it the two males that He prohibited, or the two females, or the contents of the wombs of the two females? Tell me what you know, if you are truthful."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:143 Take the example of eight quadrupeds: Two sheep, one male and one female, two goats, one male and one female. Say, "Is it the two males that He has forbidden, or the two females, or the calves in the wombs of the females? Tell me if you have true knowledge.
Transliteration	6:143 Tham aniyata azw ajin mina a Idda /niithnayni wamina almaAA azi ithnayni qul aliththakarayni harrama ami alonthayayni amm a ishtamalat AAalayhiar hamu alonthayayni nabbi-oonee biAA ilmin in kuntum sadiqeena
A	6:143 ثمانية ازوج من الضان اثنين ومن المعز اثنين قل ءالذكرين حرم ام الانثيين اما اشتملت عليه ارحام الانثيين نبوني بعلم ان كنتم صدقين
Edip-Layth	6:144 From the camels two, and from the cattle two; say, "Is it the two males that He forbade or the two females, or what the womb of the two females bore? Or were you witnesses when God ordered you with this?" Who is more wicked than one who invents lies about God to misguide the people without knowledge? God does not guide the wicked people.
The Monotheist Group	6:144 And from the camels two, and from the cattle two. Say: "Is it the two males that He forbade or the two females, or what the womb of the two females bore? Or were you witnesses when God ordered you with this?" Who is more wicked than one who invents lies about God to misguide the people without knowledge. God does not guide the wicked people.
Muhammad Asad	6:144 And [likewise they declare as unlawful] either of the two sexes of camels and of bovine cattle. ¹³² Ask [them]: "Is it the two males that He has forbidden, or the two females, or that which the wombs of the two females may contain? Is it, perchance, that you [yourselves] were witnesses when God enjoined [all] this upon you?" And who could be more wicked than he who, without any [real] knowledge, attributes his own lying inventions to God, and thus leads people astray'? ¹³³ Behold, God does not grace [such] evildoing folk with His guidance.

Rashad Khalifa	6:144 Regarding the two kinds of camels, and the two kinds of cattle, say, "Is it the two males that He prohibited, or the two females, or the contents of the wombs of the two females? Were you witnesses when GOD decreed such prohibitions for you? Who is more evil than those who invent such lies and attribute them to GOD? They thus mislead the people without knowledge. GOD does not guide such evil people."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:144 Then two camels, one male and one female, two cows, one male and one female. Say, "Is it the two males that He has forbidden, or the two females, or the calves in the wombs of the two females? Were you witnesses when God made such prohibitions? Who can be a greater transgressor than the one who invents a lie and attributes it to God? They mislead people without knowledge. God does not intervene to guide those who displace knowledge with conjecture."
Transliteration	6:144 Wamina al-ibili ithnayni wamina albaqariithnayni qul al ththakarayni harramaami alonthayayni amm a ishtamalat AAalayhi ar ha mualonthayayni am kuntum shuhada aa i th wa ss akumuAllahu bih atha faman a th lamu mimmaniiftar a AAala All ahi ka th iban liyu d illaalInnasa bighayri AAilmin inna All aha l ayah dee alqawma al thth al imeena
A	6:144 ومن الابل اثنتين ومن البقر اثنتين قل ءالذكرين حرم ام الانثيين اما اشتملت عليه ارحام الانثيين ام كنتم شهداء اذ وصكم الله بهذا فمن اظلم ممن افترى على الله كذبا ليضل الناس بغير علم ان الله لا يهدى القوم الظالمين
Edip-Layth	6:145 Say, "I do not find in what is inspired to me forbidden except that it be already dead, or blood poured forth, or the meat of pig, for it is foul; or what is corruptly dedicated to other than God." Whoever is forced without seeking disobedience or transgression, then your Lord is Forgiving, Compassionate. ³⁰
The Monotheist Group	6:145 Say: "I do not find in what is inspired to me forbidden except that it be already dead, or blood, or the meat of pig, for it is foul; or what is corruptly dedicated to other than God." Whoever is forced without seeking disobedience or transgression, then your Lord is Forgiving, Merciful.
Muhammad Asad	6:145 Say [O Prophet]: "In all that has been revealed unto me, I do not find anything forbidden to eat, if one wants to eat thereof, ¹³⁴ unless it be carrion, or blood poured forth, or the flesh of swine-for that, behold, is loathsome-or a sinful offering ¹³⁵ over which any name other than God's has been invoked. But if one is driven by necessity - neither coveting it nor exceeding his immediate need -then [know that], behold, thy Sustainer is much-forgiving, a dispenser of grace." ¹³⁶
Rashad Khalifa	The Only Dietary Prohibitions 6:145 Say, "I do not find in the revelations given to me any food that is prohibited for any eater except: (1) carrion, (2) running blood, (3) the meat of pigs, for it is contaminated, and (4) the meat of animals blasphemously dedicated to other than GOD." If one is forced (to eat these), without being deliberate or malicious, then your Lord is Forgiver, Most Merciful. ¹⁵
Shabbir Ahmed	6:145 Say, "I do not find in the revelation given to me, any food that is prohibited for one who wishes to eat except: Carrion (dead meat), or running blood, or the flesh of swine - for, certainly, it is a barrier to moral development. Or, anything (not just meat) that, in defiance to commands, has been dedicated to other than God." If one is forced by dire need without being deliberate and without transgressing, your Lord is Forgiving, Merciful. ⁴³

Transliteration	6:145 Qul I a ajidu feem a oo hiyailayya mu harraman AAal a taAAamin yaAAamuhuilla an yakoon maytatan aw daman masfoo han aw lahmakhinzeerin fa-innahu rijsun aw fisqan ohilla lighayri All ahibihi famani i dturra ghayra b aghin wala AAadinfa-inna rabbaka ghafoorun raheemun
A	6:145 قل لا اجد في ما اوحى الى محرما على طاعم يطعمه الا ان يكون ميتة او دما مسفوحا او لحم خنزير فانه رجس او فسقا اهل لغير الله به فمن اضطر غير باغ ولا عاد فان ربك غفور رحيم
Edip-Layth	6:146 For those who are Jewish, We forbade all that have claws; and from the cattle and the sheep We forbade their fat except what is attached to the back, or entrails, or mixed with bone. That is a punishment for their rebellion, and We are truthful.
The Monotheist Group	6:146 And for the Jews We have forbidden all that have claws; and from the cattle and the sheep We forbade their fat except what is attached to the back, or entrails, or mixed with bone. That is a punishment for their rebellion, and We are truthful.
Muhammad Asad	6:146 And [only] unto those who followed the Jewish faith did We forbid all beasts that have claws; ¹³⁷ and We forbade unto them the fat of both oxen and sheep, excepting that which is in their backs or entrails or that which is within the bone: ¹³⁸ thus did We requite them for their evildoing-for, behold, We are true to Our word!" ¹³⁹
Rashad Khalifa	6:146 For those who are Jewish we prohibited animals with undivided hoofs; and of the cattle and sheep we prohibited the fat, except that which is carried on their backs, or in the viscera, or mixed with bones. That was a retribution for their transgressions, and we are truthful.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:146 For those who are Jewish, We had prohibited some edibles, such as animals with undivided hoof, the fat of the cow and the sheep, except what is attached to their backs or their intestines, or what is mixed-up in the bone. But that was only a temporary retribution for their disobedience (4:160). We are absolutely True to Our Word.
Transliteration	6:146 WaAAala alla theena h adoo harramna kulla thee thufurinwamina albaqari waalghanami harramnaAAalayhim shuhoomahuma illa ma hamalatthuhooruhuma awi al hawayaaaw m a ikhtala ta biAAa thmin thalikajazaynahum bibaghyihim wa-inna lasadiqoona
A	6:146 وعلى الذين هادوا حرمنا كل ذى ظفر ومن البقر والغنم حرمنا عليهم شحومهما الا ما حملت ظهورهما او الحوايا او ما اختلط بعظم ذلك جزينهم ببغيهم وانا لصدقون
Edip-Layth	6:147 If they deny you, then say, "Your Lord has vast Compassion, but His Might will not be turned away from the criminal people."
The Monotheist Group	6:147 If they deny you, then say: "Your Lord has vast Mercy, but His Might will not be turned away from the criminal people."
Muhammad Asad	6:147 And if they give thee the lie, ¹⁴⁰ say: "Limitless is your Sustainer in His grace; but His punishment shall not be averted from people who are lost in sin."
Rashad Khalifa	6:147 If they disbelieve you, then say, "Your Lord possesses infinite mercy, but His retribution is unavoidable for the guilty people."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:147 If they accuse you of falsehood (O Prophet!), tell them, "Your Lord is the Lord of Infinite mercy, but His requital will not be averted from the guilty."

Transliteration	6:147 Fa-in kaththabooka faqul rabbukum thoora ^h matin wasiAAatin wala yuraddu ba/suhuAAani alqawmi almujrimeena
A	6:147 فان كذبوك فقل ربكم ذو رحمة وسعة ولا يرد باسه عن القوم المجرمين
Edip-Layth	6:148 Those who set up partners will say, "If God wished, we would not have set up partners, nor would have our fathers, nor would we have forbidden anything." Those before them lied in the same way, until they tasted Our might. Say, "Do you have any knowledge to bring out to us? You only follow conjecture, you only guess." ³¹
The Monotheist Group	6:148 Those who have set up partners will say: "If God wished, we would not have set up partners, nor would have our fathers, nor would we have forbidden anything." Those before them lied in the same way, until they tasted Our might. Say: "Do you have any knowledge to bring out to us? You only follow conjecture, you only guess."
Muhammad Asad	6:148 THOSE who are bent on ascribing divinity to aught beside God will say, "Had God so willed, we would not have ascribed divinity to aught but Him, nor would our forefathers [have done so]; and neither would we have declared as forbidden anything [that He has allowed]." Even so did those who lived before them give the lie to the truth ¹⁴¹ -until they came to taste Our punishment! Say: "Have you any [certain] knowledge which you could proffer to us? ¹⁴² You follow but [other people's] conjectures, and you yourselves do nothing but guess."
Rashad Khalifa	6:148 The idol worshipers say, "Had GOD willed, we would not practice idolatry, nor would our parents, nor would we prohibit anything." Thus did those before them disbelieve, until they incurred our retribution. Say, "Do you have any proven knowledge that you can show us? You follow nothing but conjecture; you only guess."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:148 Those who associate others with God will say, "Had God willed, we would not have practiced idolatry, nor would our ancestors, nor would we have prohibited anything." So did their ancestors argue falsely until they tasted Our requital. Say, "Do you have any proven knowledge that you can present (that the human being is created without free will 18:29, 76:3, 90:10)? Nay, you follow nothing but conjecture and you only run after guess-work."
Transliteration	6:148 Sayaqoolu alla theena ashrakoo law sh aaAllahu m a ashrakn a wal a abaonawala harramna min shay-in ka thalikakaththaba alla theena min qablihim hattathaqqoo ba/san a qul hal AAindakum min AAilminfatukhrijoohu lan a in tattabiAAoona illa alththannawa-in antum illa takhrusoona
A	6:148 سيقول الذين اشركوا لو شاء الله ما اشركنا ولا ءاباونا ولا حرمننا من شيء كذلك كذب الذين من قبلهم حتى ذاقوا باسنا قل هل عندكم من علم فتخرجوه لنا ان تتبعون الا الظن وان انتم الا تخرصون
Edip-Layth	6:149 Say, "God has the conclusive argument. If He wished He would have guided you all." ³²
The Monotheist Group	6:149 Say: "With God is the greatest argument. If He wished He would have guided you all."
Muhammad Asad	6:149 Say: "[Know,] then, that the final evidence [of all truth] rests with God alone; and had He so willed, He would have guided you all aright." ¹⁴³
Rashad Khalifa	The Most Powerful Argument 6:149 Say, "GOD possesses the most powerful argument; if He wills He can guide

	all of you." ¹⁶
Shabbir Ahmed	6:149 Say, "The most Powerful Reasoning, the Final evidence belongs to God. If He willed, He could have made all of you innately guided (like other creation who spontaneously follow Divine laws 16:49, 41:11.)"
Transliteration	6:149 Qul falillahi al h ujjatu al ba lighatufalaw sha lahad a kum ajmaAAeena
A	6:149 قل فله الحجة البالغة فلو شاء لهدىكم اجمعين
Edip-Layth	6:150 Say, "Bring forth your witnesses who bear witness that God has forbidden this." If they bear witness, then do not bear witness with them, nor follow the desires of those who deny Our signs, and those who do not acknowledge the Hereafter; and they make equals with their Lord! ³³
The Monotheist Group	6:150 Say: "Bring forth your witnesses who bear witness that God has forbidden this." If they bear witness, then do not bear witness with them, nor follow the desires of those who deny Our revelations, and those who do not believe in the Hereafter; and they make equals with their Lord!
Muhammad Asad	6:150 Say: "Bring forward your witnesses who could bear witness that God has forbidden [all] this!" ¹⁴⁴ -and if they bear witness [falsely], do not bear witness with them; and do not follow the errant views of those who have given the lie to Our messages, nor of those who believe not in the life to come, and who regard other powers as their Sustainer's equals! ¹⁴⁵
Rashad Khalifa	6:150 Say, "Bring your witnesses who would testify that GOD has prohibited this or that." If they testify, do not testify with them. Nor shall you follow the opinions of those who reject our revelations, and those who disbelieve in the Hereafter, and those who stray away from their Lord.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:150 Say, "Come, bring forward your witnesses who can bear witness that God forbade all this. And if they bear witness falsely, do not bear witness with them. You shall not follow the opinions of those who deny Our revelations, nor of those who do not believe in the life to come, and deem others equal with their Lord. ⁴⁴
Transliteration	6:150 Qul halumma shuhada a kumu alla th eenayashhadoona anna All a ha ha rr ama ha th a fa-inshahidoo fal a tashhad maAAahum wal a tattabiAA ahw aa allat h eena ka th thaboo bi- ay atin aw aallat h eena la yu/minoona bial- ak hiratiwahum birabbihim yaAAadiloona
A	6:150 قل هلم شهداءكم الذين يشهدون ان الله حرم هذا فان شهدوا فلا تشهد معهم ولا تتبع اهواء الذين كذبوا بايتنا والذين لا يؤمنون بالآخرة وهم يربهم يعدلون
Edip-Layth	6:151 Say, "Come let me recite to you what your Lord has forbidden for you: that you should not set up anything with Him; and be kind to your parents; and do not kill your born children for fear of poverty, We provide for you and for them; and do not come near lewdness, what is plain of it or subtle; and do not kill the person which God has forbidden, except in justice. That is what He enjoined you that you may comprehend."
The Monotheist Group	6:151 Say: "Come let me recite for you what your Lord has forbidden for you: that you should not set up anything with Him; and be kind to your parents; and do not kill your children for fear of poverty, We provide for you and for them; and do not come near lewdness, what is plain of it or subtle; and do not kill the soul which God has forbidden, except in justice. That is what He enjoined you that you may comprehend."
	6:151 Say: "Come, let me convey unto you what God has [really] forbidden to

Muhammad Asad	you: "Do not ascribe divinity, in any way, to aught beside Him; and [do not offend against but, rather,] do good unto your parents; ¹⁴⁶ and do not kill your children for fear of poverty - [for] it is We who shall provide sustenance for you as well as for them; ¹⁴⁷ and do not commit any shameful deeds, be they open or secret; and do not take any human being's life-[the life] which God has declared to be sacred -otherwise than in [the pursuit of] justice: this has He enjoined upon you so that you might use your reason; ¹⁴⁸
Rashad Khalifa	The Major Commandments 6:151 Say, "Come let me tell you what your Lord has really prohibited for you: You shall not set up idols besides Him. You shall honor your parents. You shall not kill your children from fear of poverty - we provide for you and for them. You shall not commit gross sins, obvious or hidden. You shall not kill - GOD has made life sacred - except in the course of justice. These are His commandments to you, that you may understand."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:151 Say, "Come, let me convey to you what your Sustainer has enjoined upon you as a sacred duty: i. Associate none with Him. ii. Honor your parents, do good to them, fulfill their needs. iii. Neither kill your children for fear of poverty nor deprive them of proper training and education. We provide for you and for them. (The Divine System will take care of your needs and their needs.) iv. Do not go near immodesty or lewdness whether openly or in secret. v. Do not slay a life - life that God has made sacred - except in the course of justice. This He has commanded you so that you may use your intelligence."
Transliteration	6:151 Qul taAAa ^l aw atlu m a ^l harramarabbukum AAalaykum all a ^l tushrikoo bihi shay-an wabi alwalidayni ^h san ^{an} wal a ^l taqtuloo awl a ^l adakum minim ^l aqin na hnu narzuqukum wa-iy ^y a ^h um wal a ^l taqraboo alfaw a ^h isha m a ^l thahara minh awama ba ^l tana wal a ^l taqtuloo a ^l Innafsaallatee harrama All a ^h u ill a ^l bi alhaqqithalikum wassa ^l akum bihi laAAaallakum taAAaqiloon ^a
A	6:151 ئى قُلْ تَعَالَوْا اٰتِلْ مَا حَرَّمَ رَبِّكُمْ عَلَيْكُمْ اَلَا تَشْرِكُوْا بِهِ شَيْئًا وَبِالْوٰلِدَيْنِ اِحْسٰنًا وَلَا تَقْتُلُوْا اَوْلَدَكُمْ مِّنْ اَمْلَقٍ نَّحْنُ نَرْزُقُكُمْ وَاِيٰهَمْ وَلَا تَقْرَبُوْا الْفَوْحِشَ مَا ظَهَرَ مِنْهَا وَمَا بَطْنٌ وَلَا تَقْتُلُوْا النَّفْسَ الَّتِي حَرَّمَ اللّٰهُ اِلَّا بِالْحَقِّ ذٰلِكُمْ وَصَّيْكُمْ بِهِ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَعْقِلُوْنَ
Edip-Layth	6:152 "Do not come near the money of the orphan, except for what is best, until he reached his maturity; and give honestly full measure and weight equitably. We do not burden a person beyond its capacity. When you speak you must observe justice, even if against a relative. You shall also observe the pledges you made to God. He has enjoined you this so that you may take heed."
The Monotheist Group	6:152 "And do not come near the money of the orphan, except for what is best, until he reaches his independence; and give honestly full measure and weight equitably. We do not burden a soul except by what it can bear, and if you speak then be just even if against a relative; and regarding the pledges made to God, you shall observe them. This He has enjoined you that you may remember."
Muhammad Asad	6:152 and do not touch the substance of an orphan - save to improve it-before he comes of age." ¹⁴⁹ And [in all your dealings] give full measure and weight, ¹⁵⁰ with equity: [however,] We do not burden any human being with more than he is well able to bear; ¹⁵¹ and when you voice an opinion, be just, even though it be [against] one near of kin. ¹⁵² And [always] observe your bond with God: ¹⁵³ this has He enjoined upon you, so that you might keep it in mind.
Rashad Khalifa	Additional Commandments 6:152 You shall not touch the orphans' money except in the most righteous manner, until they reach maturity. You shall give full weight and full measure when you trade, equitably. We do not burden any soul beyond its means. You shall be absolutely just when you bear witness, even against your relatives. You shall fulfill your covenant with GOD. These are His commandments to you, that you may take heed.

Shabbir Ahmed	6:152 God commands you further: vi. Do not approach the wealth of the orphan except to improve it until they come of age with full maturity of body and mind. vii. Give full weight and full measure in all your dealings. Uphold justice in all aspects of your life. Our commands are meant to widen your human potential. We do not assign any 'self' responsibility beyond its means. viii. And when you voice an opinion, be just, even if it is against a relative. ix. Fulfill your Covenant with God, the unwavering allegiance to the Divine System (1:4-5, 9:111). This He commands for you to bear in mind.
Transliteration	6:152 Wala taqraboo m ala alyateemiill a bi allatee hiya a hsanu hattayablugh a ashuddahu waawfoo alkayla wa almeezana bi alqistila nukallifu nafsani ill a wusAAaha wa-i thaqultum fa iAAadiloo walaw k ana tha qurb awabiAAahdi All ahi awfoo thalikum wassakumbihi laAAallakum tathakkaroon
A	6:152 ولا تقربوا مال اليتيم الا بالتى هى احسن حتى يبلغ اشده ووفوا الكيل والميزان بالقسط لا نكلف نفسا الا وسعها واذا قلتم فاعدلوا ولو كان ذا قربى وبعهد الله اوفوا ذلكم وصمكم به لعلكم تذكرون
Edip-Layth	6:153 This is My path, a Straight One. "So follow it, and do not follow the other paths lest they divert you from His path. That is what He has enjoined you so that you may be aware."
The Monotheist Group	6:153 And this is My path, a Straight One. "So follow it, and do not follow the other paths lest they divert you from His path. That is what He has enjoined you to that you may be righteous."
Muhammad Asad	6:153 And [know] that this is the way leading straight unto Me: follow it, then, and follow not other ways, lest they cause you to deviate ¹⁵⁴ from His way. [All] this has He enjoined upon you, so that you might remain conscious of Him.
Rashad Khalifa	6:153 This is My path - a straight one. You shall follow it, and do not follow any other paths, lest they divert you from His path. These are His commandments to you, that you may be saved.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:153 (Say, O My people,) this is my straight path, (and I, Muhammad, walk this path and so do my companions 12:108)). Follow it, then, and follow not other ways that take you away from His path. This He has ordained for you so that you live upright.
Transliteration	6:153 Waanna h atha sirateemustaqeeman fa ittabiAAoohu wal a tattabiAAoo alssubulafatafarraqa bikum AAan sabeelihi thalikum wa ssakumbihi laAAallakum tattaqoon
A	6:153 وان هذا صراطى مستقيما فاتبعوه ولا تتبعوا السبل فتفرق بكم عن سبيله ذلكم وصمكم به لعلكم تتقون
Edip-Layth	God's Signs Only Help the Open-Minded 6:154 Then We gave Moses the book, complete with the best and sufficiently detailing all things, and a guide and mercy that they may acknowledge the meeting of their Lord.
The Monotheist Group	6:154 Then We gave Moses the Scripture, to complete for those who do right, and to fully detail all things, and a guide and mercy that they may believe in the meeting of their Lord.

Muhammad Asad	6:154 AND ONCE AGAIN: ¹⁵⁵ We vouchsafed the divine writ unto Moses in fulfilment [of Our favour] upon those who persevered in doing good, clearly spelling out everything, ¹⁵⁶ and [thus providing] guidance and grace, so that they might have faith in the [final] meeting with their Sustainer.
Rashad Khalifa	6:154 And we gave Moses the scripture, complete with the best commandments, and detailing everything, and a beacon and mercy, that they may believe in meeting their Lord.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:154 We had given Moses the scripture complete for him who would do good to others. We gave him the scripture in detail as guidance and a mercy that they might believe in the meeting of their Lord (and in that all actions are duly recompensed.)
Transliteration	6:154 Thumma a tayna moos a alkit a ba tam a man AAal a alla thee a hsanawataf se elan likulli shay-in wahudan wara h matanlaAAallahum biliq a -i rabbi h im yu/minoona
A	6:154 ثم ءاتينا موسى الكتب تماما على الذى احسن وتقصيلا لكل شىء وهدى ورحمة لعلمهم بقاء ربهم يؤمنون
Edip-Layth	6:155 This too is a blessed book that We have sent down. So follow it and be aware, that you may receive mercy.
The Monotheist Group	6:155 And this is a Scripture that We have sent down which is blessed, so follow it and be aware, that you may receive mercy.
Muhammad Asad	6:155 And this, too, is a divine writ which We have bestowed from on high, a blessed one: follow it, then, and be conscious of God, so that you might be graced with His mercy.
Rashad Khalifa	6:155 This too is a blessed scripture that we have revealed; you shall follow it and lead a righteous life, that you may attain mercy.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:155 And now this Qur'an is the Blessed Book that We have revealed. So follow it and live upright so that you attain mercy (and your human potential is guaranteed development, like the fetus grows in the mother's womb.)
Transliteration	6:155 Wah a tha kit a bun anzaln a humub a rakun fa ittabiAAoohu waittaqoolaAAallakum tur h amoona
A	6:155 وهذا كتب انزلنه مبارك فاتبعوه واتقوا لعلكم ترحمون
Edip-Layth	6:156 Lest you say, "The book was only sent down to two groups before us, and we were unaware of their study!"
The Monotheist Group	6:156 Lest you say: "The Scripture was only sent down to two groups before us, and we were unaware of their study!"
Muhammad Asad	6:156 It has been given to you] lest you say, "Only unto two groups of people, [both of them] before our time, has a divine writ been bestowed from on high ¹⁵⁷ and we were indeed unaware of their teachings";
Rashad Khalifa	6:156 Now you can no longer say, "The scripture was sent down to two groups before us, and we were unaware of their teachings."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:156 (Now the Qur'an has been given to you) lest you say, "The scripture was sent down to two groups (Jews and Christians) before our time, and we remained unaware of what they originally read." ⁴⁵

Transliteration	6:156 An taqooloo innam a onzila alkit abuAAala ta -ifatayni min qablin a wa-in kunnaAAan dirasatihim lagha fileena
A	6:156 ان تقولوا انما انزل الكتب على طائفتين من قبلنا وان كنا عن دراستهم لغفلين
Edip-Layth	6:157 Or you say, "If the book was sent to us we would have been more guided than they!" Proof has come to you from your Lord, guidance and a mercy. Who is more wicked than one who denies God's signs and turns away from them? We will punish those who turn away from Our signs with the pain of retribution for what they turned away.
The Monotheist Group	6:157 Or you say: "If the Scripture was sent to us we would have been more guided than they!" Clarity has come to you from your Lord, and a guidance and a mercy. Who is more wicked than one who denies God's revelations and turns away from them? We will punish those who turn away from Our revelations with the pain of retribution for what they turned away.
Muhammad Asad	6:157 or lest you say, "If a divine writ had been bestowed from on high upon us, we would surely have followed its guidance better than they did." 158 And so, a clear evidence of the truth has now come unto you from your Sustainer, and guidance, and grace. Who, then, could be more wicked than he who gives the lie to God's messages, and turns away from them in disdain? We shall requite those who turn away from Our messages in disdain with evil suffering for having thus turned away!
Rashad Khalifa	Mathematics: The Ultimate Proof 6:157 Nor can you say, "If only a scripture could come down to us, we would be better guided than they." A proven scripture has now come to you from your Lord, and a beacon, and a mercy. Now, who is more evil than one who rejects these proofs from GOD, and disregards them? We will commit those who disregard our proofs to the worst retribution for their heedlessness. 17
Shabbir Ahmed	6:157 Or lest you say, "If a Divine scripture had come to us, we would have been better guided than they. Now has come to you a clear evidence of truth from your Lord. It is a beacon and mercy. Who can be a greater transgressor than the one who denies the revelations of God and turns away from them in disregard? Our Law of Requital will award those who turn away from Our revelations, an awful suffering for their disregard.
Transliteration	6:157 Aw taqooloo law anna onzila AAalaynaalkitabu lakunna ahda minhum faqad jaakumbayyinatan min rabbikum wahudan wara hmatun faman a thlamumimman kaththaba bi- ayati Allahi wasadafaAAanha sanajzee alla theena ya sdifoona AAan ayatinaasoo-a alAAathabi bima kanoo yasdifoona
A	6:157 او تقولوا لو انا انزل علينا الكتب لكانا اهدى منهم فقد جاءكم بينة من ربكم وهدى ورحمة فمن اظلم ممن كذب بايت الله وصدف عنها سنجزي الذين يصدفون عن آياتنا سوء العذاب بما كانوا يصدفون
Edip-Layth	6:158 Do they wait until the angels will come to them, or your Lord comes, or some signs from your Lord? The day some signs come from your Lord, it will do no good for any person to acknowledge if s/he did not acknowledge before, or s/he gained good through his/her acknowledgement. Say, "Wait, for we too are waiting."
The Monotheist Group	6:158 Do they wait until the angels will come to them, or your Lord comes, or some signs from your Lord? The day some signs come from your Lord, it will do no good for any soul to believe if it did not believe before, or it gained good through its belief. Say: "Wait, for we are waiting."

Muhammad Asad	6:158 Do they, perchance, wait for the angels to appear unto them, or for thy Sustainer [Himself] to appear, or for some of thy Sustainer's [final] portents to appear?¹⁵⁹ [But] on the Day when thy Sustainer's [final] portents do appear, believing will be of no avail to any human being who did not believe before, or who, while believing, did no good works. ¹⁶⁰ Say: "Wait, [then, for the Last Day, O unbelievers:] behold, we [believers] are waiting, too!"
Rashad Khalifa	Requirements of the Test 6:158 Are they waiting for the angels to come to them, or your Lord, or some physical manifestations of your Lord? The day this happens, no soul will benefit from believing if it did not believe before that, and did not reap the benefits of belief by leading a righteous life. Say, "Keep on waiting; we too are waiting."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:158 Are they waiting for angels, your Lord, or some physical miracles to come to them? On the Day one of such signs comes, no person will benefit from declaring belief if he did not believe before. Or who, while believing, did not do good works. (Belief has to be based on Reason and it must lead you to a productive life 12:108, 13:17.) Say, "Keep on waiting (for miracles or the doom), we too are waiting (for the results of our efforts)."
Transliteration	6:158 Hal yan thuroona ill aan ta/tiyahumu almal a-ikatu aw ya/tiya rabbuka aw ya/tiyabaAAu ayati rabbika yawma ya/tee baAA duayati rabbika l a yanfaAAu nafsan eemanuhalam takun aamanat min qablu aw kasabat fee eem anihakhayran quli intathiroo inna muntathiroona
A	6:158 هل ينظرون الا ان تاتيهم الملائكة او ياتي ربك او ياتي بعض ايت ربك يوم ياتي بعض ايت ربك لا ينفع نفسا ايمنها لم تكن امانت من قبل او كسبت في ايمنها خيرا قل انتظروا انا منتظرون
Edip-Layth	Sunni and Shiite Sects Have Nothing to do with the Prophet 6:159 Those who have divided their system and become sects, you have nothing to do with them. Their matter will be with God, then, He will inform them of what they had done.³⁴
The Monotheist Group	6:159 Those who have divided their system and become sects, you are not with them in anything. Their matter will be with God, then He will inform them of what they had done.
Muhammad Asad	6:159 VERILY, as for those who have broken the unity of their faith and have become sects - thou hast nothing to do with them. ¹⁶¹ Behold, their case rests with God: and in time He will make them understand what they were doing.
Rashad Khalifa	Religious Sects Condemned 6:159 Those who divide themselves into sects do not belong with you. Their judgment rests with GOD, then He will inform them of everything they had done.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:159 (There is only one straight path) O Messenger! Those who break the unity of their Deen and become sects, you have nothing to do with them whatsoever. Their case will go to God and He will then tell them what they had been doing.
Transliteration	6:159 Inna allatheena farraqoo deenahumwak anoo shiyaAAan lasta minhum fee shay-in innam aamruhum il a All ahi thumma yunabbi-ohum bim akanoo yafAAaloona
A	6:159 ان الذين فرقوا دينهم وكانوا شيعا لست منهم في شيء انما امرهم الى الله ثم ينبئهم بما كانوا يفعلون
	6:160 Whoever comes with a good deed, he will receive ten times its worth, and

Edip-Layth	whoever comes with a sin, he will only be recompensed its like; they will not be wronged.
The Monotheist Group	6:160 Whoever comes with a good deed, he will receive ten times its worth, and whoever comes with a sin, he will only be recompensed its like; they will not be wronged.
Muhammad Asad	6:160 Whoever shall come [before God] with a good deed will gain ten times the like thereof; but whoever shall come with an evil deed will be requited with no more than the like thereof; and none shall be wronged. ¹⁶²
Rashad Khalifa	6:160 Whoever does a righteous work receives the reward for ten, and the one who commits a sin is requited for only one. No one suffers the slightest injustice.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:160 Whoever brings a good deed will receive a tenfold reward. And whoever brings an ill deed will be requited for one. And they will not be wronged.
Transliteration	6:160 Man j aa bi alhasanatifalahu AAashru amth aliha waman j aa bialssayyi-atifala yujza illa mithlaha wahum layuthlamoon
A	6:160 من جاء بالحسنة فله عشر امثالها ومن جاء بالسيئة فلا يجزى الا مثلها وهم لا يظلمون
Edip-Layth	6:161 Say, "My Lord has guided me to a Straight Path. An upright system, the creed of Abraham the monotheist; he was not from those who set up partners."
The Monotheist Group	6:161 Say: "My Lord has guided me to a Straight Path, an upright system, the creed of Abraham the monotheist; he was not from those who set up partners."
Muhammad Asad	6:161 SAY: "Behold, my Sustainer has guided me onto a straight way through an ever-true faith-the way of Abraham, who turned away from all that is false, and wa,. not of those who ascribe divinity to aught beside Him."
Rashad Khalifa	6:161 Say, "My Lord has guided me in a straight path - the perfect religion of Abraham, monotheism. He never was an idol worshiper."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:161 Say, "As for me, my Lord has guided me to a straight path, the perfect Deen (way) of Abraham, the upright, who was no idolater in any sense."
Transliteration	6:161 Qul innanee had anee rabbee il asiratin mustaqeemin deenan qiyaman millata ibraheemahaneefan wama kana mina almushrikeena
A	6:161 قل اننى هدى ربي الى صراط مستقيم ديننا قيما ملة ابراهيم حنيفا وما كان من المشركين
Edip-Layth	6:162 Say, "My contact prayer, my devotion and offerings, my life, and my death, are all to God the Lord of the worlds."
The Monotheist Group	6:162 Say: "My communion, and my rites, and my life, and my death, are all to God the Lord of the worlds."
Muhammad Asad	6:162 Say: "Behold, my prayer, and (all] my acts of worship, and my living and my dying are for God [alone], the Sustainer of all the worlds,
Rashad Khalifa	6:162 Say, "My Contact Prayers (Salat), my worship practices, my life and my death, are all devoted absolutely to GOD alone, the Lord of the universe.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:162 Say, "All my duties to the Divine System, the ways to discharge them, my living and my dying are for God alone, the Lord of the worlds.
Transliteration	6:162 Qul inna salatee wanusukeewama hyaya wamam atee lill ahi rabbialAAalameena

A	6:162 قل ان صلاتى ونسكى ومحياى ومماتى لله رب العلمين
Edip-Layth	6:163 "He has no partner, and this is what I was commanded; I am the first of those who have peacefully surrendered."
The Monotheist Group	6:163 "He has no partner, and it is to this that I was commanded, and I am the first of those who have submitted."
Muhammad Asad	6:163 in whose divinity none has a share: for thus have I been bidden-and I shall [always] be foremost among those who surrender themselves unto Him."
Rashad Khalifa	6:163 "He has no partner. This is what I am commanded to believe, and I am the first to submit."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:163 He has no partner. This is what I have been commanded and I am the foremost of those who surrender to Him."
Transliteration	6:163 La shareeka lahu wabi ^h alikaomirtu waana awwalu almuslimeen a
A	6:163 لا شريكى له وبذلك امرت وانا اول المسلمين
Edip-Layth	6:164 Say, "Shall I seek other than God as a Lord when He is the Lord of everything?" Every person earns what is for it, and none will bear the burden of another. Then to your Lord is your return and He will inform you regarding your disputes. ³⁵
The Monotheist Group	6:164 Say: "Shall I seek other than God as a Lord when He is the Lord of everything?" And every soul earns what is for it, and none will bear the burden of another. Then to your Lord is your return and He will inform you of what you disputed in.
Muhammad Asad	6:164 Say: "Am I, then, to seek a sustainer other than God, when He is the Sustainer of all things?" And whatever [wrong] any human being commits rests upon himself alone; and no bearer of burdens shall be made to bear another's burden. ¹⁶³ And, in time, unto your Sustainer you all must return: and then He will make you. [truly] understand all that on which you were wont to differ. ¹⁶⁴
Rashad Khalifa	6:164 Say, "Shall I seek other than GOD as a lord, when He is the Lord of all things? No soul benefits except from its own works, and none bears the burden of another. Ultimately, you return to your Lord, then He informs you regarding all your disputes."
Shabbir Ahmed	6:164 Say, "Shall I seek anyone other than God as a lord when He is the Sustainer of all things? No 'self' benefits but from its own works, and none bears the load of another. Then to your Lord is your return and He will make you understand wherein you differed.
Transliteration	6:164 Qul aghayra Alla ^h i abghee rabbanwahuwa rabbu kulli shay-in wal a taksibu kullu nafs in illa ^h AAalay ^h a wala taziru w aziratun wizra okhr a ^h thumma ila rabbikum marjiAAukum fayunabbi-okum bimakuntum feehi takhtalifoona
A	6:164 قل اغير الله ابغى ربا وهو رب كل شىء ولا تكسب كل نفس الا عليها ولا تزر وازرة وزر اخرى ثم الى ربكم مرجعكم فينبئكم بما كنتم فيه تختلفون
Edip-Layth	6:165 He is the One who made you successors on earth, and He raised some of you over others in grades, to test you with what He had given you. Your Lord is quick to punishment, and He is Forgiving, Compassionate.
The Monotheist Group	6:165 And He is the One who made you inheritors on Earth, and He raised some of you over others in grades, to test you with what He had given you. Your Lord is quick to punishment, and He is Forgiving, Merciful.

Muhammad Asad	6:165 For, He it is who has made you inherit the earth, 165 and has raised some of you by degrees above others, so that He might try you by means of what He has bestowed upon you. 166 Verily, thy Sustainer is swift in retribution: yet, behold, He is indeed much-forgiving, a dispenser of grace.
Rashad Khalifa	6:165 He is the One who made you inheritors of the earth, and He raised some of you above others in rank, in order to test you in accordance with what He has given you. Surely, your Lord is efficient in enforcing retribution, and He is Forgiver, Most Merciful.
Shabbir Ahmed	6:165 He is the One Who has made you the inheritors of the earth after other nations. He determines your ranks, some above others (according to His laws). He tries you in what He has given you, for your Lord is Swift in grasping. Yet, He is Forgiving, Merciful. 46
Transliteration	6:165 Wahuwa alla ^{thee} jaAAalakum khal ^q -ifaal-ard ⁱ warafaAAa baAAa ^d akum fawqa baAAa ^d indaraja ^t in liyabluwakum fee m a ^a ta ^k uminna rabbaka sareeAAu alAAiq ^a bi wa-innahu laghafoorun ra ^h eeem ^{un}
A	6:165 وهو الذى جعلكم خلائف الارض ورفع بعضكم فوق بعض درجات ليبلوكم فى ما ءاتكم ان ربك سريع العقاب وانه لغفور رحيم

<< Prev 6:1-165 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (6:1)

Both "darkness" and "light" are used here in their spiritual connotation. As always in the Qur'an, "darkness" is spoken of in the plural (zulumat) in order to stress its intensity, and is best translated as "deep darkness" or "depths of darkness".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (6:2)

Lit., "and a term is stated with Him" -i.e., known to Him alone (Manar VII, 298). Some of the authorities are of the opinion that the "term" refers to the end of the world and the subsequent resurrection, while others relate it to individual human lives. Other commentators, again, see in the first mention of this word a reference to individual lives, and in the second, to the Day of Resurrection; according to this latter interpretation, the concluding phrase might be rendered thus: "and there is [another] term...", etc. However, in view of several other occurrences of the expression ajal musamma in the Qur'an, it is best rendered here as "a term set [by Him]" or "known [to Him]", i.e., relating both to individual lives and to the world as a whole.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (6:4)

Lit., "there has not come unto them a message of their Sustainer's messages without that they turned their backs upon it".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (6:5)

Lit., "there will come to them information about that which they used to mock at" or "deride" -i.e., the continuation of life after death, in particular, and the Quranic message, in general.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (6:6)

Lit., "a generation of others after them". However, in Qur'anic usage, the term qarn does not always denote "a generation", but - rather more frequently - "an epoch", or "people belonging to one particular epoch", as well as "a civilization" in the historical sense of this word.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (6:8)

I.e., Judgment Day would have come - for it is only then that the forces described as angels will manifest themselves to man in their true form and become comprehensible to him. (Cf. a similar passage in 2:210.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (6:9)

Lit., "if We had made him God's message (Zamakhshari). an angel" -with the pronoun obviously referring to the bearer of

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (6:9)

Lit., "We would have made confusing to them that which they are making confused". Since it is impossible for man to perceive angels as they really are, the hypothetical angelic message-bearer would have to assume the shape of a human being - and so their demand for a direct "verification" of the message would have remained unfulfilled, and their self-caused confusion unresolved.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (6:10)

Lit., "that which they were wont to deride enfolded those who scoffed at them", (i.e., at the apostles): the meaning being that a derisive rejection of spiritual truths inexorably rebounds on the scoffers and has not only a disastrous effect on their individual lives after death but also-if persisted in by the majority within a community - destroys the moral basis of their society and, thus; their earthly happiness and sometimes even their physical existence.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (6:12)

The expression "God has willed upon Himself as a law" (kataba `ala nafsih) occurs in the Qur'an only twice - here and in verse 54 of this surah - and in both instances with reference to His grace and mercy (rahmah); none of the other divine attributes has been similarly described. This exceptional quality of God's grace and mercy is further stressed in 7:156 "My grace overspreads everything"-and finds an echo in the authentic Tradition in which, according to the Prophet, God says of Himself, "Verily, My grace and mercy outstrips My wrath" (Bukhari and Muslim).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (6:14)

Lit., "when it is He who feeds [others] and is not fed".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (6:14)

Lit., "and be thou not" - an elliptic reference to the words in which this commandment has been expressed.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (6:19)

Lit., "I am clear of that which you associate [with Him]."

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (6:20)

I.e., the truth of God's transcendental uniqueness and oneness, which is stressed in all authentic scriptures.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (6:22)

Lit., "those [God-]partners of yours whom you supposed [to exist]". Whenever the term shuraka' (pl. of sharik) is used in the Qur'an with reference to beliefs, it invariably denotes real or imaginary beings or forces to whom one ascribes a share in God's divinity: consequently, this concept-and its utter condemnation in Islam-relates not merely to the worship of false deities but also to the attribution of semi-divine qualities and powers to saints (in the liturgical sense of this word), as well as to abstract notions like wealth, social status, power, nationality, etc., to which men so often ascribe an objective influence on human destinies.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (6:23)

This refers to beliefs which undoubtedly imply shirk ("the ascribing of divinity or divine qualities to beings or forces other than God") in the objective sense of this concept, but which the person concerned does not subjectively visualize as denying God's oneness (Razi): for instance, the mystical dogma of, the "Trinity" which, in the Christian view, does not conflict with the principle of God's oneness inasmuch as it is supposed to express a "threefold aspect" of the One Deity, or the attribution of divine or semi-divine qualities to saints as supposed "mediators" between man and God, and so forth. All such beliefs are, of course, emphatically rejected by the Qur'an.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (6:24)

I.e., by allowing themselves to think, in their lifetime, that their beliefs did not offend against the principle of God's oneness (Razi). But see also 10:28 and the corresponding notes 45 and 46.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (6:25)

Regarding the problem of God's "causing" this spiritual blindness and deafness, see 2:7 and the corresponding note, as well as note 4 on 14:4.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (6:28)

I.e., their longing for a "second chance" is not dictated by love of truth for its own sake but, rather, by their dread of the evil consequences of their doings; and "faith is useless unless it is desired for its own sake" (Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (6:30)

Lit., "the suffering [or "chastisement"] because of" or "in consequence of". The particle bi-ma expresses here a causal connection between the denial of the truth and the subsequent suffering, and is best rendered as above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (6:31)

Lit., "their burdens". My use of the words "the burden of their sins" rests on the interpretation given by Ibn `Abbas, as quoted by Razi.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (6:33)

Lit., "what they say" - i.e., about life after death (which they regard as a "fable") in particular, and about the Qur'anic message in general.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 23 (6:34)

Lit., "some of the information concerning the apostles has already come to thee": a reference to the fact that only a few of the earlier prophets and their histories have been specifically mentioned in the Qur'an (always in connection with a particular moral lesson), while the great majority of them are only alluded to in a general manner, in support of the divine statement that no community or civilization has been left without prophetic guidance.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 24 (6:35)

Lit., "that they".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 25 (6:35)

Lit., "to seek out an opening in the earth or a ladder to heaven".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 26 (6:35)

Lit., "be not, therefore, of the ignorant".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 27 (6:36)

Lit., "they shall be returned". Most of the classical commentators (e.g., Tabari. Zamakhshari, Razi, as well as the earlier authorities whom they quote) interpret this verse in the metaphorical sense in which it has been rendered by me. As is so often the case with Qur'anic diction, its elliptical meaning can only be brought out by means of interpolations.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 28 (6:37)

I.e., on Muhammad. to demonstrate that he is really a bearer of God's message.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 29 (6:37)

Lit., "most of them do not know", i.e., that God manifests Himself always-as the next verse points out - through the ever-recurring miracle of His creation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 30 (6:38)

Lit., "but they are [God's] creatures (umam)". The word ummah (of which umam is the plural) primarily denotes a group of living beings having certain characteristics or circumstances in common. Thus, it is often synonymous with "community", "people", "nation", "genus", "generation", and so forth. Inasmuch as every such grouping is characterized by the basic fact that its constituents (whether human or animal) are endowed with life, the term ummah sometimes signifies "[God's] creatures" (Lisan al-Arab', with particular reference to this very Qur'an-verse; also Lane 1, 90). Thus, the meaning of the above passage is this: Man can detect God's "signs" or "miracles" in all the life-phenomena that surround him, and should, therefore, try to observe them with a view to better understanding "God's way" (sunnat Allah)-which is the Qur'anic term for what we call "laws of nature".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 31 (6:38)

The particle thumma is mostly used as a conjunction indicating a sequence in time or order ("then", "thereafter" or "thereupon."), and occasionally also as a simple conjunction equivalent to "and". But in yet another usage-of which there are frequent instances in the Qur'an as well as in pre-Islamic Arabian poetry -thumma has the significance of a repetitive stress, alluding to something that has already been stated and is now again emphasized. This particular usage of thumma is best rendered by the words "and once again", followed by a colon.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 32 (6:39)

See note 4 on 14:4.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 33 (6:44)

I.e., to test them by happiness after the test by misery.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 34 (6:44)

The verb ablasa signifies "he despaired of all hope" or "became broken in spirit". (For the linguistic connection of this word with the name of Iblis, the Fallen Angel, see Surah 7, note 10.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 35 (6:45)

Lit., "cut off". The above passage illustrates a phenomenon well known in history: namely, the inevitable social and moral disintegration of communities which have lost sight of spiritual truths.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 36 (6:47)

Lit., "Can you see yourselves".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 37 (6:47)

I.e., the righteous will never be really "destroyed"-for, even if they should suffer physical destruction, they are found to attain to spiritual bliss and cannot, therefore, be said to have been "destroyed" like the evildoers, who, by their actions, lose their happiness both in this world and in the life to come (Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 38 (6:50)

This denial on the part of the Prophet of any claim to supernatural powers refers, primarily, to the demand of the unbelievers (mentioned in verse 37) that he should prove his prophetic mission by causing a "miraculous sign" to be bestowed on him. Beyond this specific reference, however, the above passage is meant to prevent any deification of the Prophet and to make it clear that he - like all other prophets before him - was but a mortal human being, a servant whom, God had chosen to convey His message to mankind. See also 7:188.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 39 (6:50)

I.e., "Can those who remain blind and deaf to God's messages find their way through life equally well as those who have achieved a spiritual vision and guidance through God's revelation?"

Muhammad Asad - End Note 40 (6:51)

It is obvious from the context that this verse refers to followers of earlier scriptures-such as the Jews and the Christians-who share with the followers of the Qur'an the belief in life after death (Zamakhshari), as well as to agnostics who, without having definite beliefs on this point, admit the possibility of life after death.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 41 (6:52)

According to Traditions, this and the next verse were revealed when, several years before the Muslims' exodus to Medina, some of the pagan chieftains at Mecca expressed their willingness to consider accepting Islam on the condition that the Prophet would dissociate himself from the former slaves and other "lowly" persons among his followers - a demand which the Prophet, of course, rejected. This historical reference does not, however, provide a full explanation of the above 'passage. In accordance with the Qur'anic method, allusions to historical events -whether relating to contemporary occurrences or to earlier times -are always made with a view to expressing ethical teachings of a permanent nature; and the passage under consideration is no exception in this respect. As the wording shows, it relates not to "lowly" followers of Islam but to people who, while not being Muslims in the current sense of this word, believe in God and are always ("at morn and evening") "seeking His countenance" (i.e., His grace and acceptance): and, thus, verses 52-53 connect logically with verse 51. Although primarily addressed to the Prophet, the exhortation voiced in this passage is directed to all followers of the Qur'an: they are enjoined not to repulse anyone who believes in God-even though his beliefs may not fully answer to the demands of the Qur'an - but, on the contrary, to try to help him by means of a patient explanation of the Qur'anic teachings.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 42 (6:52)

Le., for whatever in their beliefs or actions does not coincide with the teachings of the Qur'an, and vice-versa. In, other words, all are accountable to God alone.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 43 (6:52)

Lit., "so that thou shouldst repulse them and thus be of the evildoers".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 44 (6:53)

I.e., by endowing man with the power of reasoning and thus, indirectly, giving rise to a multiplicity of faiths.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 45 (6:53)

Lit., "Is it those upon whom God has bestowed His favour from among us (min baynina)?" As mentioned by Zamakhshari, the expression min baynina is here equivalent to min dunina, which, in this context, may suitably be rendered as "in preference to us". This would seem to be an allusion to the sarcastic incredulity with which, as a rule, non-Muslims receive the claim of the Muslims that the Qur'an is the final formulation of God's message to man. The "trial" referred to above consists in the unwillingness of people of other faiths to accept this claim as valid, and so to renounce the prejudice against Islam to which their cultural and historical environment has made them, consciously or subconsciously, predisposed.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 46 (6:54)

See note 10 above. Regarding the word salam, which has been translated here as "peace", see surah 5, note 29. The "peace" referred to in the above expression -which occurs many times in the Qur'an and has become the standard form of Muslim greeting-has a spiritual connotation comprising the concepts of ethical soundness, security from all that is evil and, therefore, freedom from all moral conflict and disquiet.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 47 (6:57)

Lit., "not with me is that which you would hasten": a reference to the sarcastic demand of the unbelievers, mentioned in 8:32, that God should chastise them forthwith in proof of the Prophet's claim to be His message-bearer.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 48 (6:58)

I.e., "you would have been convinced that I am really a bearer of God's message"-the implication being that a conviction based solely on a "miraculous" proof would have no spiritual value.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 49 (6:59)

Lit., "fresh or dry".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 50 (6:60)

For a full explanation of the verb tawaffa - lit., "he took [something] in full" - see note 44 on 39:42, which is the earliest instance of its use in the Qur'an.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 51 (6:60)

Lit., "therein" -referring to the daytime. The polarity of sleep and wakefulness contains an allusion to life and death (cf. 78:9-11).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 52 (6:61)

Lit., "sends forth guardians over you".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 53 (6:62)

Lit., "brought back [or "referred"] to God"-i.e., placed before Him for judgment.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 54 (6:63)

Lit., "the darkenesses" or "the deep darkness".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 55 (6:65)

Le., from any direction or by any means whatsoever.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 56 (6:65)

Or: "the violence of one against another"-inner disintegration, fear, violence and tyranny being the inevitable consequences of a society's departure from spiritual truths.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 57 (6:66)

Le., the unbelieving compatriots of the Prophet and, by implication, all who deny the truth.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 58 (6:68)

Lit., "until they immerse themselves in talk other than this".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 59 (6:69)

This is a paraphrase of the elliptic expression wa-lakin dhikra ("however, an admonition").

Muhammad Asad - End Note 60 (6:70)

The phrase attakhadhu dinahum la'iban wa-lahwan can be understood in either of two ways: (1) "they have made their religion [an object of] play and fun", or (2) "they have made play and fun [or "passing delights"] their religion" - i.e., the main goal of their lives. To my mind, the latter reading is definitely preferable inasmuch as it brings out the fact that many of those who are "beguiled by the life of this world" devote themselves to the pursuit of what the Qur'an describes as "passing delights" - including the pleasures which money and power can provide - with something akin to religious fervour: an attitude of mind which causes them to lose sight of all spiritual and moral values.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 61 (6:70)

Lit., "though he might [try to] ransom himself with all ransom" - i.e., though he might proffer, after resurrection, any atonement whatever for his past sins.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 62 (6:70)

Among the various meanings attributable to the word hamim are the concepts of intense heat as well as of painful cold (Qamus, Taj al' Arus). In the eschatology of the Qur'an it invariably refers to the suffering of the sinners in the life to come; and since all Qur'anic references to life after death are, necessarily, allegorical, the term hamim may be rendered as "burning despair".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 63 (6:71)

Lit., "whom the satans have enticed with lusts on earth, [rendering him] bewildered, [while] he has companions who call him unto guidance". See in this connection note 10 on 2 : 14, as well as note 31 on 14:22 and note 16 on 15:17.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 64 (6:73)

See surah 10, note 11.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 65 (6:73)

The term ash-shahadah (lit., "that which is [or "can be"] witnessed") is used in this and similar contexts as the exact antithesis of al-ghayb ("that which is beyond the reach of a created being's perception"). Thus, it circumscribes those aspects of reality which can be sensually or conceptually grasped by a created being.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 66 (6:74)

The subsequent passage (verses 74 ff.) continues, by way of narrative, the exposition of God's oneness and uniqueness. - In the Bible, the name of Abraham's father is given not as Azar but as Terah (the Tarah or Tarakh of the early Muslim genealogists). However, he seems to have been known by other names (or designations) as well, all of them obscure as to origin and meaning. Thus, in various Talmudic stories he is called Zarah, while Eusebius Pamphili (the ecclesiastical historian who lived towards the end of the third and the beginning of the fourth century of the Christian era) gives his name as Athar. Although neither the Talmud nor Eusebius can be regarded as authorities for the purposes of a Qur'an-commentary, it is not impossible that the designation Azar (which occurs in the Qur'an only once) is the pre-Islamic, Arabicized form of Athar or Zarah.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 67 (6:80)

Lit., "unless my Sustainer wills a thing".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 68 (6:83)

The description of Abraham's reasoning as God's own argument implies that it was divinely inspired, and is therefore valid for the followers of the Qur'an as well.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 69 (6:83)

This is evidently an allusion to Abraham's gradual grasp of the truth, symbolized by his intuitive progress from an adoration of celestial bodies - stars, moon and sun - to a full realization of God's transcendental, all-embracing existence. Alternatively, the expression "by degrees" may be taken to mean "by many degrees", signifying the great spiritual dignity to which this forerunner of a long line of prophets was ultimately raised (see 4:125).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 70 (6:86)

Although Lot was not a "descendant" of Abraham since he was his brother's son, his name is included here for two reasons: firstly, because he followed Abraham from his earliest youth as a son follows his father, and, secondly, because in ancient Arabian usage a paternal uncle is often described as "father" and, conversely, a nephew as "son". - For the Hebrew prophets Elijah (Ilyas) and Elisha (Al-Yasa`), see note 48 on 37:123.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 71 (6:89)

Lit., "if these deny them" - i.e., the manifestations of God's oneness and of the revelation of His will through the prophets.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 72 (6:91)

Lit., "which you make into": but it should be remembered that the verb ja'lahu has also the abstract meaning of "he considered it to be" or "regarded it as" or "treated it as" (Jawhari, Raghib, et al.): a significance often met with in the Qur'an.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 73 (6:91)

This passage is obviously addressed to those followers of the Bible who pay lip-service to its sacred character as a revealed scripture but, in reality, treat it as "mere leaves of paper" - that is, as something that is of little consequence to their own conduct: for, although they pretend to admire the moral truths which it contains, they conceal from themselves the fact that their own lives have remained empty of those truths.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 74 (6:92)

See surah 3, note 3.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 75 (6:92)

"The foremost of all cities" (lit., "the mother of all towns") is an epithet applied in the Qur'an to Mecca because it is the place where the first temple ever dedicated to the One God was built (cf. 3:96) and subsequently became the qiblah (direction of prayer) of all believers. The expression "all who dwell around it" denotes all mankind (Tabari, on the authority of Ibn `Abbas; Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 76 (6:93)

In this context, the "lie" would seem to refer to the denial, spoken of in verse 91, of the fact of divine revelation as such.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 77 (6:93)

Implying, in a sarcastic manner, that the purported revelation has in reality been composed by a human being and that, therefore, the like of it can be produced by other men.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 78 (6:94)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 79 (6:94)

Lit., "all that you were wont to assert [or "to suppose"] has gone away from you" - i.e., all the, imaginary intercessors or mediators between man and God.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 80 (6:95)

See surah 5, note 90.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 81 (6:96)

Lit., "to be [according to] a definite reckoning".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 82 (6:98)

See surah 4, note 1.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 83 (6:98)

The commentators differ widely as to the meaning of the terms mustaqarr and mustawda` in this context. However, taking into account the primary meaning of musstagarr as "the limit of a course"-i.e., the point at which a thing reaches its fulfilment or end-and of mustawda` as "a place of consignment" or "repository", we arrive at the rendering adopted by me above. This rendering finds, moreover, strong support in 11:6, where God is spoken of as providing sustenance for every living being and knowing "its time-limit [on earth] and its resting-place [after death]" (mustagarraha wa-mustawda'aha), as well as in verse 67 of the present surah, where mustaqarr is used in the sense of "a term set for the fulfilment [of God's tiding]".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 84 (6:99)

In contrast with its sequence, which is governed by the present tense, the whole of the above sentence is expressed in the past tense-thus indicating, obliquely, the original, basic aspect of God's creating life "out of water" (cf. 21:30 and the corresponding note 39).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 85 (6:99)

I.e., all so alike in the basic principles of their life and growth, and yet so different in physiology, appearance and taste.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 86 (6:100)

The plural noun jinn (popularly, but incorrectly, taken to denote "genii" or "demons") is derived from the verb janna, "he was (or "became") concealed" or "veiled from sight"; thus, the veiling darkness of night is called jinn (Jawhari). According to Arab philologists, the term jinn signifies, primarily, "beings that are concealed from [man's] senses" (Qamus, Lisan al-'Arab, Raghib), and is thus applicable to all kinds of invisible beings or forces. For a further discussion of this term and of its wider implications, see Appendix III.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 87 (6:100)

Lit., "they have invented for Him [or "falsely attributed to Him"] sons and daughters without [having any] knowledge": a reference to the beliefs of the pre-Islamic Arabs who regarded the angels as "God's daughters" (a designation which they also applied to certain of their goddesses), as well as to the Christian view of Jesus as "the son of God". See also 19:92 and the corresponding note 77.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 88 (6:100)

I.e., utterly remote is He from all imperfection and from the incompleteness which is implied in the concept of having progeny. The very concept of "definition" implies the possibility of a comparison or correlation of an object with other objects; God, however, is unique, there being "nothing like unto Him" (42:11) and, therefore, "nothing that could be compared with Him" (112:4) - with the result that any attempt at defining Him or His "attributes" is a logical impossibility and, from the ethical point of view, a sin. The fact that He is un-definable makes it clear that the "attributes" (sifat) of God mentioned in the Qur'an do not circumscribe His reality but, rather, the perceptible effect of His activity on and within the universe created by Him.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 89 (6:103)

The term latif denotes something that is extremely subtle in quality, and therefore intangible and unfathomable. Whenever this term occurs in the Qur'an with reference to God in conjunction with the adjective khafir ("all-aware"), it is invariably used to express the idea of His inaccessibility to human perception, imagination or comprehension, as Contrasted with His Own all-awareness (see, apart from the above verse, also 22:63, 31:16, 33:34 and 67:14). In the two instances where the combination of latif and khafir carries the definite article al (and 67:14), the expression huwa 'l-latif has the meaning of "He alone is unfathomable"-implying that this quality of His is unique and absolute.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 90 (6:105)

Lit., "thou hast learned [it well]"-i.e., God's message.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 91 (6:107)

Le., no mortal has it in his power to cause another person to believe unless God graces that person with His guidance.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 92 (6:108)

This prohibition of reviling anything that other people hold sacred - even in contravention of the principle of God's oneness - is expressed in the plural and is, therefore, addressed to all believers. Thus, while Muslims are expected to argue against the false beliefs of others, they are not allowed to abuse the objects of those beliefs and to hurt thereby the feelings of their erring fellow-men.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 93 (6:108)

Lit., "thus goodly have We made...", etc., implying that it is in the nature of man to regard the beliefs which have been implanted in him from childhood, and which he now shares with his social environment, as the only true and possible ones - with the result that a polemic against those beliefs often tends to provoke a hostile psychological reaction.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 94 (6:109)

Lit., "Miracles are only with God." It is to be noted that the Qur'anic term ayah denotes not only a "miracle" (in the sense of a happening that goes beyond the usual-that is, commonly observable-course of nature), but also a "sign" or "message": and the last-mentioned significance is the one which is by far the most frequently- met with in the Qur'an. Thus, what is commonly described as a "miracle" constitutes, in fact, an unusual message from God, indicating sometimes in a symbolic manner - a spiritual truth which would otherwise have remained hidden from man's intellect. But even such extraordinary, "miraculous" messages cannot be regarded as "supernatural": for the so-called "laws of nature" are only a perceptible manifestation of "God's way" (sunnat Allah) in respect of His creation- and, consequently, everything that exists and happens, or could conceivably exist or happen, is "natural" in the innermost sense of this word, irrespective of whether it conforms to the ordinary course of events or goes beyond it. Now since the extraordinary messages referred to manifest themselves, as a rule, through the instrumentality of those specially gifted and divinely elected personalities known as "prophets", these are sometimes spoken of as "performing miracles" - a misconception which the Qur'an removes by the words, "Miracles are in the power of God alone". (See also 17:59 and the corresponding note.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 95 (6:110)

Le., so long as they remain blind to the truth in consequence of their unwillingness to acknowledge it - and this in accordance with the law of cause and effect which God has imposed on His creation (see surah 2, note 7).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 96 (6:111)

Sc., of the fact that there is life after death.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 97 (6:111)

See note 95 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 98 (6:112)

Lit., "embellished speech" or "varnished falsehood" (Lane III, 1223 - oy way of delusion" - i.e., half-truths which entice man by their deceptive attractiveness and cause him to overlook all real spiritual values (see also 25:30-31). - Regarding my rendering of jinn as "invisible beings", see note 86 above and Appendix III. The term shayatin (lit., "satans"), on the other hand, is often used in the Qur'an in the sense of evil forces inherent in man as well as in the spiritual world (cf. 2:14, and the corresponding note). According to several well-authenticated Traditions, quoted by Tabari, the Prophet was asked, "Are there satans from among men?" -and he replied, "Yes, and they are more evil than the satans from among the invisible beings (al-jinn). Thus, the meaning of the above verse is that every prophet has had to contend against the spiritual - and often physical-enmity of the evil ones who, for whatever reason, refuse to listen to the voice of truth and try to lead others astray.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 99 (6:114)

Lit., "to seek a judge other than God".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 100 (6:114)

The expression mufassalan could also be rendered as "in a manner that brings out the distinction (fasl) between truth and falsehood" (Zamakhshari). The use of the plural "you" indicates that the divine writ is addressed to all who may come to know it.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 101 (6:114)

See 2:146, and the corresponding note. The pronoun "it" may refer either to- the earlier divine writ-the Bible-and to its prediction of the advent of a prophet descended from Abraham, or, more probably, to the Qur'an: in which case it must be rendered as "this one, too". In either case, the above phrase seems to allude to the instinctive (perhaps only subconscious) awareness of some of the followers of the Bible that the Qur'an is, in truth, an outcome of divine revelation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 102 (6:115)

When related to God, the term kalimah (lit., "word") is often used in the Qur'an in the sense of "promise". In this instance it obviously refers to the Biblical promise (Deuteronomy xviii, 15 and 18) that God would raise up a prophet "like unto Moses" among the Arabs (see surah 2, note 33).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 103 (6:116)

Le., regarding the true nature of human life and its ultimate destiny, the problem of revelation, the relationship between God and man, the meaning of good and evil, etc. Apart from leading man astray from spiritual truths, such guesswork gives rise to the arbitrary rules of conduct and self-imposed inhibitions to which the Qur'an alludes, by way of example, in verses 118 and 119.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 104 (6:118)

The purpose of this and the following verse is not, as might appear at first glance, a repetition of already-promulgated food laws but, rather, a reminder that the observance of such laws should not be made an end in itself and an object of ritual: and this is the reason why these two verses have been placed in the midst of a discourse on God's transcendental unity and the ways of man's faith. The "errant views" spoken of in verse 119 are such as lay stress on artificial rituals and taboos rather than on spiritual values.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 105 (6:120)

This injunction connects with verse 118, thus: "Eat, then, of that over which God's name has been pronounced, but abstain from sinning" -i.e., "do not go beyond that which God has made lawful to you".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 106 (6:121)

Lit., "the satans whisper unto those who are near to them (ila awliya'ihim)". For my above rendering of shayatin as "evil impulses", see note 10 on 2:14 and note 31 on 14: 22.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 107 (6:121)

I.e., "your own evil impulses are trying to draw you into argument as to what does and what does not constitute a sin in order to make you lose sight of God's clear ordinances in this respect; and if you follow their arbitrary, deceptive reasoning, you will elevate them, as it were, to the position of moral law-givers, and thus ascribe to them a right that belongs to God alone."

Muhammad Asad - End Note 108 (6:122)

Lit., "whereby he walks among men". All the commentators agree in that the expression "he who was dead" is metaphorical, and that it refers to people who become spiritually alive through faith and are thereupon able to pursue their way through life unerringly.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 109 (6:123)

Because the consciousness of their importance makes them more or less impervious to criticism, the "great ones" are, as a rule, rather less inclined than other people to question the moral aspects of their own behaviour; and the resulting self-righteousness only too often causes them to commit grave misdeeds.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 110 (6:124)

I.e., direct revelation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 111 (6:126)

Lit., "and this thy Sustainer's way is straight" - i.e., unchanging in its application of the law of cause and effect to man's inner life as well.-The term rijs occurring in the preceding sentence, and rendered by me as "horror", signifies anything that is intrinsically loathsome, horrible or abominable; in this case, it would seem to denote that awesome feeling of utter futility which, sooner or later, overcomes everyone who does not believe that life has meaning and purpose.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 112 (6:128)

According to most of the commentators, the invisible beings (al-jinn) referred to here are the "evil forces" (shayatin) among them, such as are spoken of in verse 112 of this surah. It is generally assumed that these very beings or forces are addressed here; but the primary meaning of the term ma'shar appearing in this context warrants, in my opinion, a different conclusion. It is true that this term is often used to denote a group or community or genus of sentient beings which have certain characteristics in common: a conventional -and undoubtedly justifiable-use based on the verb `asharahu, "he consorted [or "was on intimate terms"] with him" or "lived in close communion with him". But it is precisely this verbal origin of the term ma'shar which gives us a clue as to what is really meant here. Since, in its primary significance, a person's ma'shar denotes those who are on intimate terms or in close communion with him (cf. Lisan al-'Arab: "A man's ma'shar is his family"), we may well assume that it has a similar significance in the above Qur'anic phrase. Thus, to my mind, the allocution ya ma'shar al-jinn does not denote, "O you community of [evil] invisible beings" but, rather, "O you who are [or "have lived"] in close communion with [evil] invisible beings": in other words, it is addressed to the misguided human beings- who have been seduced by "glittering half-truths meant to delude the mind" (verse 112). This interpretation is reinforced by the words, "Have there not come unto you apostles from among yourselves", occurring in verse 130 below: for the Qur'an speaks always only of apostles who belonged to the human race, and never of apostles from among the jinn. (As regards the wide significance of this latter term, see Appendix III.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 113 (6:128)

Le., close to the evil invisible beings. It is to be remembered that the primary meaning of wali (of which awliya' is the plural) is "one who is close [to another]".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 114 (6:128)

I.e., unless He graces them with His mercy (see verse 12 of this surah, and the corresponding note). Some of the great Muslim theologians conclude from the above and from the similar phrase occurring in 11:107 (as well' as from several well-authenticated sayings of the Prophet) that-contrary to the bliss of paradise, which will be of unlimited duration-the suffering of the sinners in the life to come will be limited by God's mercy. (See in this connection the hadith quoted in note 10 on 40:12.) ,

Muhammad Asad - End Note 115 (6:129)

Lit., "to be close to one another", or "get hold of one another". The expression "in this manner" (kadhalika), which introduces the above sentence, is an obvious allusion to the manner in which the evil ones "whisper unto one another glittering half-truths meant to delude the mind" (verse 112 of this surah).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 116 (6:131)

Lit., "communities". The term qaryah (lit., "town", "village" or "land") denotes also the people of a town or land - in short, a "community" - and it is in this sense that this term is mostly, though not always, used in the Qur'an.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 117 (6:132)

Lit., "all shall have grades out of what they did", i.e., consciously - since God does not take people to task for any wrong they may have committed unless it was done in conscious contravention of a moral law already made clear to them by the prophets.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 118 (6:135)

Lit., "to whom the [happy] end of the abode shall belong". The term "abode" (dar) is used in the Qur'an with reference to both the life of this world (dar ad-dunya) and the life to come (dar al-akhirah). Most of the commentators are of the opinion that it refers here to the life to come; Zamakhshari, however, relates it to life on earth. Since either of these interpretations is agreeable with the text, I have chosen the above rendering which comprises both.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 119 (6:136)

Falsely -because everything that exists belongs, in the last resort, to God alone.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 120 (6:136)

Lit., "for our [God-]partners" -i.e., "those whom we consider to be associated with God". For an explanation of the term sharik, see note 15 on verse 22 of this surah. The pre-Islamic Arabs used to dedicate a part of their agricultural produce and cattle to some of their deities, and a part to God, whom they regarded as one - albeit the greatest- of them. In consonance, however, with the method of the Qur'an, the above verse does not allude merely to this historical aspect of pre-Islamic Arabian life but has a wider, more general implication as well: that is, it refers not only to the apportioning of devotional "shares" between God and the imaginary deities, but also to the attribution of any share in His creative powers to anyone or anything beside Him.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 121 (6:136)

I.e., the fact that they assign a "share" of their devotions to God does not strengthen their belief in Him but, rather, implies a negation of His transcendental uniqueness and, thus, makes them more and more dependent on imaginary divine or semi-divine "mediators".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 122 (6:137)

Lit., "their [God-]partners make". As pointed out by Razi, some early commentators were of the opinion that the expression shuraka'uhum (lit., "their associates") denotes here the "evil beings" or "forces" (shayatin) from among men and jinn referred to in verses 112, 121, 128 and 130 of this surah. It seems to me, however, that what is meant here - as in the preceding verse - is the belief in the existence of anything that could be "associated" with God; hence my rendering of the above phrase as "their belief in beings or powers that are supposed. . .", etc.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 123 (6:137)

This is a reference to the custom prevalent among the pre-Islamic Arabs of burying alive some of their unwanted children, mainly girls, and also to the occasional offering of a boy-child in sacrifice to one or another of their idols (Zamakhshari). Apart from this historical reference, the above Qur'an-verse seems to point out, by implication, the psychological fact that an attribution of divinity to anyone or anything but God brings with it an ever-growing dependence on all kinds of imaginary powers which must be "propitiated" by formal and often absurd and cruel rites: and this, in turn, leads to the loss of all spiritual freedom and to moral self-destruction.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 124 (6:137)

I.e., He allows them to behave as they do because He wants them to make use of their reason and of the free will with which He has endowed man.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 125 (6:138)

The pre-Islamic Arabs falsely claimed that these taboos were ordained by God, as is made clear in the last part of this verse. One of these supposed, arbitrary "ordinances" laid down that only the priests of the particular idol and some men belonging to the tribe could eat the flesh of such dedicated animals, while women were not allowed to do so (Zamakhshari).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 126 (6:138)

Le., while sacrificing them to their idols (see also 5:103 and the corresponding note). It would seem from this allusion that, as a rule, the pagan Arabs did pronounce the name of God-whom they regarded as the supreme deity-over the animals which they slaughtered; in the above-mentioned exceptional cases, however, they refrained from doing so in the belief that God Himself had forbidden it.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 127 (6:141)

This is the generally-accepted explanation of the term ma'rushat and ghavr ma'rushat (lit., "those which are and those which are not provided with trellises"). The mention of "gardens" serves here to illustrate the doctrine that everything living and growing-like everything else in the universe-owes its existence to God alone, and that it is, therefore, blasphemous to connect it causally or devotionally with any other power, be it real or imaginary.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 128 (6:141)

See note 85 on verse 99 of this surah.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 129 (6:142)

Le., by superstitiously declaring as forbidden what God has made lawful to man. All the references to pre-Islamic taboos given in verses 138-140 as well as 142-144 are meant to stress the lawfulness of any food (and, by implication, of any other physical enjoyment) which God has not expressly forbidden through revelation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 130 (6:143)

Lit., "eight [in] pairs - of sheep two and of goats two" (the two other pairs are mentioned in the next verse). This is an outstanding example of the ellipticism often employed in the Qur'an: a mode of expression which cannot be correctly rendered in any other language without the use of explanatory interpolations. The term zawj denotes a pair of things as well as each of the two constituents of a pair: hence my rendering of thamaniyat azwaj (lit., "eight [in] pairs") as "four kinds of cattle of either sex". The particular superstition to which this and the next verse refer is probably identical with the one mentioned in 5:103.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 131 (6:143)

Lit., "tell me with knowledge" - i.e., not on the basis of guesswork but of knowledge acquired through authentic revelation. The preceding and subsequent ironical questions are meant to bring out the vagueness and inconsistency which characterizes all such superstitious, self-imposed prohibitions.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 132 (6:144)

Lit., "and of camels two, and of bovine the "eight kinds [i.e., four pairs] of cattle".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 133 (6:144)

Lit., "[thus] to lead people astray". However, the conjunction li prefixed to the verb yudill ("he leads astray") does not denote here - as is usually the case - an intent ("in order that") but, rather, a logical sequel ("and thus..."): a use which is described by the grammarians as lam al'aqibah, "the letter lam signifying a causal sequence".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 134 (6:145)

Lit., "forbidden to an eater to eat thereof".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 135 (6:145)

Lit., "a sinful deed" (fisq) - here signifying an idolatrous offering.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 136 (6:145)

Cf. 2:173 and 5:3.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 137 (6:146)

The construction of the above sentence makes it clear that this prohibition was imposed specifically on the Jews, to the exclusion of believers of later times (Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 138 (6:146)

Cf. Leviticus vii, 23 (where, however, "all manner" of fat of ox, sheep or goat is declared forbidden).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 139 (6:146)

See 3:93.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 140 (6:147)

I.e., regarding the Qur'anic statement (in verse 145) that God forbids only a few, clearly defined categories of food. The pronoun "they" refers to the Jews as well as to the pagan Arabs spoken of in the preceding verses -both of whom claim that God has imposed on man various complicated restrictions in the matter of food. According to the Qur'an, the Jews are wrong in their claim inasmuch as they overlook the fact that the severe Mosaic food laws were a punishment for their past misdeeds (see 3:93) and, therefore, intended for them alone; and the pagan Arabs are wrong because their taboos have no divine basis whatsoever and are due to mere superstition.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 141 (6:148)

I.e., the truth that God has endowed man with the ability to choose between right and wrong. The above verse constitutes a categorical rejection of the doctrine of "predestination" in the commonly accepted sense of this term.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 142 (6:148)

I.e., knowledge regarding "predestination".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 143 (6:149)

In other words, the real relationship between God's knowledge of the future (and, therefore the ineluctability of what is to happen in the future) on the one side, and man's free will, on the other - two propositions which, on the face of it, seem to contradict one another - is beyond man's comprehension; but since both are postulated by God, both must be true. The very concept of "God" presupposes His omniscience; and the very concept of morality and moral responsibility presupposes free will on man's part. Had God so willed, every human being would have been forced to live righteously; but this would have amounted to depriving man of his free will, and morality of all its meaning.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 144 (6:150)

A reference to the arbitrary prohibitions mentioned in the preceding passages.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 145 (6:150)

Lit., "make [others] equal to their Sustainer": i.e., attribute divine or almost-divine qualities to certain ill-defined natural powers - e.g., believe in "spontaneous" creative evolution, or in a "self-created" universe, or in a mysterious, impersonal elan vital that supposedly underlies all existence, etc.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 146 (6:151)

In the consensus of all the commentators, the phrase interpolated by me between brackets is clearly implied in the above commandment, since it is mentioned among the things which God has forbidden - and being good towards one's parents is not only not forbidden but, on the contrary, enjoined over and over in the Qur'an.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 147 (6:151)

This may possibly refer to abortions dictated by economic considerations.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 148 (6:151)

Sc., "and not resort to brute force whenever your private interests are involved". The expression "otherwise than in (the pursuit of) justice" refers to the execution of a legal punishment or to killing in a just-that is, defensive-war, or to individual, legitimate self-defence.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 149 (6:152)

I.e., after the orphan in one's charge has come of age, the former guardian may "touch" his property, legally, by borrowing from it or otherwise utilizing it with the owner's consent. The phrase rendered by me as "save to improve it" reads, literally, "in a manner that is best", which implies the intent of bettering it.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 150 (6:152)

This refers metonymically to all dealings between men and not only to commercial transactions: hence my interpolation of "in all your dealings".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 151 (6:152)

The meaning is that God does not expect man to behave with "mathematical" equity which, in view of the many intangible factors involved, is rarely attainable in human dealings - but expects him to do his best towards achieving this ideal.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 152 (6:152)

According to Razi, the phrase "when you voice an opinion" (lit., "when you speak") applies to expressing an opinion on any subject, whether it concerns one personally or not; but the subsequent reference to one's "near of kin" makes it probable that the above injunction relates, in particular, to the giving of evidence in cases under dispute.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 153 (6:152)

See surah 2, note 19.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 154 (6:153)

Lit., "to become scattered"

Muhammad Asad - End Note 155 (6:154)

See note 31 on the last paragraph of verse 38 of this surah. In this instance, the stress implied in the use of thumma seems to point to verse 91 of this surah.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 156 (6:154)

I.e., everything that they needed by way of laws and injunctions appropriate to their time and the stage of their development (Razi). See in this connection the phrase, "Unto every one of you have We appointed a [different] law and way of life", occurring in 5:48, and the corresponding note 66.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 157 (6:156)

Le., to the Jews and the Christians, who were the only two communities known to the Arabs as possessing revealed scriptures.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 158 (6:157)

Although this passage refers, in the first instance, to the Arabian contemporaries of the Prophet, its message is not restricted to them but relates to all people, at all times, who refuse to believe in revelation unless they themselves are its direct recipients.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 159 (6:158)

I.e., the signs announcing the Day of Judgment.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 160 (6:158)

Lit., "or [did not] earn good in his faith": thus, faith without good works is here declared to be equivalent to having no faith at all (Zamakhshari).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 161 (6:159)

A reference. primarily, to the Jews and the Christians, who have departed from the fundamental religious principles which they had originally shared in their entirety, and have gone different ways in respect of doctrine and ethics (cf. 3:105). Beyond }this "primary" reference, however, the above verse connects logically with verse 153 above, "this is the way leading straight unto Me: follow if, then, and follow not other ways, lest they cause you to deviate from His way" -and thus relates prophetically to the followers of the Qur'an as well: in other words, it expresses a condemnation of all sectarianism arising out of people's intolerant, mutually-exclusive claims to being "the only true exponents" of the Qur'anic teachings. Thus, when asked about the implications of this verse, the Prophet's Companion Abu Hurayrah is reported to have answered, "It has been revealed with reference to this [our] community" (Tabari).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 162 (6:160)

Lit., "and they shall not be wronged". See in this connection the statement that God "has willed upon Himself the law of grace and mercy", occurring in verse 12 of this surah, and the corresponding note 10.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 163 (6:164)

This statement - which is also found in 17:15 , 35:18. 39:7 and 53:38 - constitutes a categorical rejection of the Christian doctrines of "original sin" and "vicarious atonement". For the wider ethical implications of this statement, see 53 : 38, where it occurs for the first time in the chronological order of revelation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 164 (6:164)

See surah 2, note 94.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 165 (6:165)

See 2:30, and the corresponding note 22.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 166 (6:165)

Le., by way of character, strength, knowledge, social position, wealth, etc.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (6:8)

Angels to be seen are sent only when the period of respite is over. 16:33, 25:22

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (6:9)

It would not fulfill their demand of seeing an angel as a messenger

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (6:11)

Taking lessons from history as we travel in order to comprehend the laws of the Rise and Fall of nations

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (6:18)

He uses his authority with wisdom and knowledge

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (6:34)

6:116, 10:64, 17:77, 18:27, 33:38, 33:62, 40:85, 48:23

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (6:35)

God wants His servants to reflect and make free choices. 2:256, 10:98-99, 12:108

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (6:37)

He does not wish to stun the human intellect with supernatural phenomena. He wants people to reflect and use reason. 12:108

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (6:39)

4:88

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (6:43)

2:74, 5:13

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 10 (6:44)

16:112

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 11 (6:45)

His Rule is the Rule of law 8:53, 13:11

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 12 (6:47)

11:117

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 13 (6:49)

7:147, 91:9-10

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 14 (6:68)

Zaalimeen = Those who relegate the truth from its rightful place = In this verse, trying to displace or confound the truth with falsehood

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 15 (6:69)

See Taqwa, 2:41

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 16 (6:73)

3:191, 38:27

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 17 (6:74)

Azar is called Terah in the Bible and Zarah in Talmud

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 18 (6:78)

Of course, Abraham knew that the celestial bodies were not gods. He is only preaching his people by example

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 19 (6:80)

This is how Abraham tried that his people reflect and be rational

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 20 (6:81)

3:150-151, 29:41, 33:39

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 21 (6:82)

Zulm = Wrong, in this verse, conveys falsehood and Shirk

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 22 (6:87)

Aaba = Fathers = Forefathers = Ancestors

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 23 (6:92)

Wa hum 'ala salaatihim yuhaafizoon = They guard their prime commitment = They protect the Divine System that they have established. The common translation, "They guard their prayers," makes no sense here

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 24 (6:93)

Angels = God's forces in nature. Yadd = Hand = Powers = Abilities. 5:38

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 25 (6:95)

Similar are the laws that apply to individuals and nations. They must develop their inherent potentials in order to prosper

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 26 (6:98)

11:6

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 27 (6:100)

Jinn = The mythical invisible creatures with occult powers. For details, see introduction to Surah 72, Al-Jinn

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 28 (6:106)

21:20-22, 29:61-63

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 29 (6:115)

6:34, 6:115, 10:64, 17:77, 18:27, 33:38, 33:62, 40:85, 48:23

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 30 (6:118)

People wonder why different things have been made lawful or unlawful in the Qur'an. But what the majority thinks, shall never be the criterion 3:93

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 31 (6:119)

5:3

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 32 (6:120)

They will live a subhuman existence and meet a befitting consequence

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 33 (6:121)

6:145, 6:173. Using Tasreef, this verse has been translated differently, but correctly. Fisq = Drifting away = Disobedience. Mentioning the name of God draws our attention to Him as the Provider and Sustainer. Mushrikoon = Idolaters = Pagans = Those who ascribe divinity besides God = Those who prefer human 'authorities' or clergy over revelation = Who 'worship' their own desires

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 34 (6:122)

When people have their belief systems jumbled up, they lose the power to distinguish between the right and wrong

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 35 (6:129)

The criminals of the same kind tend to hang around together

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 36 (6:132)

Calling yourselves 'believers' will not help. 2:8

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 37 (6:133)

Please see 'evolution' 22:5

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 38 (6:135)

'Uqba = End = The final outcome = The ultimate destination = Life Hereafter. The last is probably not applicable here because of the context

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 40 (6:138)

They claim that it has been dedicated to some saint. Are not such VIP favors very much alive in the modern day Jahilyah?

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 41 (6:140)

They deprive their children to the point of starvation and death in the name of religious service, when under the instructions of the priesthood they abandon their families

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 42 (6:141)

'give Him His Right' = Give God His Right = Render to the poor what is their Divinely ordained right. Time to reflect on Zakaat: See 2:3, 11:64, 55:10

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 43 (6:145)

2:173, 5:3. Rijs = Unclean = Disapproved = Contaminated = Foul = A barrier to moral development. Science still needs to learn how pork can be a barrier to morality. Fisq = Deviation = Abomination = In defiance of Divine Commands = Disobedience of God = Drifting away from reason

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 44 (6:150)

Nine commandments ♦ Graven images of the Bible not mentioned

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 45 (6:156)

2:101

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 46 (6:165)

10:14, 13:11. Nations determine their own condition and destiny according to the laws of Rise and Fall of Nations given in the Qur'an

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (6:12)

The most repeated attributes of God are those that emphasize His mercy and care towards His creation.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (6:18)

See 53:42-62.

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (6:19)

Accepting other authorities besides the Quran to define God's system is considered polytheism (6:112-115; 7:2-3; 9:31; 17:46; 16:89; 45:6; 42:21).

Edip-Layth - End Note 4 (6:22)

Those who associate man-made religious teachings and the opinions of their religious scholars with God's word and judgment are mushriks (polytheists), and yet they deny their shirk (polytheism). The relationship between the verses is obvious (Also, see 3:80; 6:148; 16:35; 53:19-23).

Edip-Layth - End Note 5 (6:25)

The followers of hadith and sunna are implied by this verse, because of their depiction of the Quran's code 19 as a "myth." A book written by four top Sunni scholars in Turkey, including Edip Yuksel's father, picked the "The Myth of 19" as the title of their book. Their choice of words to reject God's signs, demonstrates their intellectual and spiritual genetic link with their unappreciative ancestors; this is no coincidence (47:29-30; 74:30-31).

Edip-Layth - End Note 6 (6:38)

This verse is primarily about the master record that records everything we do. However, with its secondary meaning it implies the Quran too, since it contains all we need to attain eternal salvation (16:89).

Edip-Layth - End Note 7 (6:51)

See 2:48.

Edip-Layth - End Note 8 (6:56)

Also, see 42:52; 93:7.

Edip-Layth - End Note 9 (6:57)

The fanatics who are slaves of their environment, traditions, irrational interests, and unguided emotions, cannot and would not want to see/appreciate God's signs.

Edip-Layth - End Note 10 (6:59)

Said Nursi, an influential Sunni scholar and political figure, in his incomplete commentary of the Quran, Isharat ul-'Icaz pulls our attention to the implication of verses narrating the miracles of previous messengers. He argued that the Quran, expressly or implicitly, symbolically or indicatively contains all the information in the world. Though this fancy assertion is not plausible, his argument regarding the purpose of the miracles mentioned in the Quran makes sense: to support their missions in their lifetime and to show us the ultimate goals of scientific and technological progress, and to inspire us to repeat them by acquiring the knowledge of divine laws embedded in nature. See 6:38; 16:89.

Edip-Layth - End Note 11 (6:60)

See 39:42.

Edip-Layth - End Note 12 (6:61)

God uses protectors'/preservers' powers to download the program/data information containing conscious personalities from human brains and upload them to the master record. These protectors/preservers are mentioned in plural, and thus the verse rejects the traditional belief about Azrail, the so-called sole angel of death.

Edip-Layth - End Note 13 (6:68)

God has given ultimate freedom of thought, belief and expression (2:256; 4:140; 6:110; 10:99; 18:29; 88:20-21). Those who threaten the lives of those who criticize or insult their faith, ignore God's advice in this and other verses. If God asks us to ignore those who insult and mock God's revelations and signs by protesting passively, how can we get enraged and mad in the name of the same God? We should enlighten ignorant people without falling to their level. The technique known as the Socratic Method is an efficient and positive method for discussing issues involving religion and faith. The following verses, 6:74-83, will give us an example from Abraham's method for pulling the attention of the faithful people to engage in a rational discussion. "The Lord said to Moses: 'Take the blasphemer outside the camp. All those who heard him are to lay their hands on his head, and the entire assembly is to stone him. Say to the Israelites: If anyone curses his God, he will be held responsible; anyone who blasphemes the name of the Lord must be put to death. The entire assembly must stone him. Whether an alien or native-born, when he blasphemes the Name, he must be put to death.... Then Moses spoke to the Israelites, and they took the blasphemer outside the camp and stoned him. The Israelites did as the Lord commanded Moses" (Leviticus 24:13-16). "If your very own brother, or your son or daughter, or the wife you love, or your closest friend secretly entices you, saying, 'Let us go and worship other gods' ... Show him no pity. Do not spare him or shield him. You must certainly put him to death. Your hand must be the first in putting him to death, and then the hands of all the people. Stone him to death, because he tried to turn you away from the Lord your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out the land of slavery. Then all Israel will hear and be afraid, and no one among you will do such an evil thing again" (Deuteronomy 13:6-11).

Edip-Layth - End Note 14 (6:74)

Abraham was a rational monotheist. Before his messengership, Abraham, as a young philosopher, reached the idea of the "greatest" by a series of hypothetical questions. His method of proving the existence of the creator of all things was both empirical and rational. He invited people to observe the heavenly bodies and then deduce the existence of an absolute creator from their contingent characteristics. God supports this empirical and rational methodology. Abraham, not only supported his monotheistic faith through rational arguments, but also falsified the claims of his opponents via rational arguments by breaking the little statutes of his pagan people and sparing the biggest one. When the polytheists inquired about the "disbeliever" who committed such a blasphemous act to their idols, Abraham stood up and pointed at the biggest statute, thereby forcing his people to reflect and examine their religious dogmas (21:51-67). The Quran provides a rational argument for why God cannot have partners or equals. The argument in verse 21:21-22 is a logical argument called Denying Antecedent. Thus, it is no wonder that the Quran invites us not to be gullible. We should not follow anything without sufficient knowledge, including belief in God (17:36). Abraham's methodology of emphasizing reason, valiantly examining the religious dogmas of his people, engaging his opponents with intellectual dialogues, and occasionally modeling the thinking process for his audience, later was made famous by Socrates, a messenger of God to Greece. Socrates, like Abraham criticized the superstitions and polytheistic religious dogmas of his people through dialogues where he subjected them to a series of questions and inferences. Socrates, similarly received the wrath of the ruling class, whose authority depended on the ignorance of their subjects. The Abrahamic method has been used by many messengers of God. Thus, we are asked to follow Abraham's example (60:4).

Edip-Layth - End Note 15 (6:79)

The word fatara which is translated as "create," or "initiate" contains the meaning of "splitting/cracking" (82:1). We learn from embryology and cosmology, that the creation of new bodies usually involves a splitting and diversification process. The universe was created approximately 13.7 billion years ago with a big separation (21:30) and it will collapse back as it started (21:104). See 4:82.

Edip-Layth - End Note 16 (6:82)

Shirk, that is associating equal or lower level partners to God, is injustice (31:13). See 2:48,286; 3:18.

Edip-Layth - End Note 17 (6:83)

In these verses, 18 names of prophets are mentioned and they are praised by God. Though the Quran refers to some of their errors and weaknesses, and underscores their human nature, they are depicted as role models. Nevertheless, through using their intellect and determination, we are informed that they worked hard to avoid temptations, sins, and injustices. The Old Testament, which was extensively distorted by Ezra and numerous Rabbis, contains many wicked and despicable acts, some of which should have been x-rated, to these role models. The New Testament's hero, however, is treated to the contrary; he is transformed into a human-god, into an oxymoron, or more accurately into a logical contradiction. Evangelicals try to defend those shameful stories as a merit, as a sign of a realistic account of the Old Testament. Knowing that numerous disgraceful and wicked stories were falsely attributed to Muhammad to justify the actions of corrupt and oppressive rulers who came after him, we are justified in speculating that the real motive behind the x-rated and v-rated Biblical stories was most likely to reduce the guilt from the fabricators of the stories who themselves either committed or contemplated similar acts of sexual abuse and violence, or to reduce the guilt of their criminal friends and rulers. Indeed, this is a cynical view, and the Bible contains more than enough reasons to be cynical. For instance, according to the Old Testament, Lot had incest with his daughters while he was drunk (Genesis 19:30-38); Judah too committed incest (Genesis 38:15-30); David tempted and committed adultery with someone else's wife and had her husband killed (2 Samuel 11:1-27); David's son rapes his sister Tamar, causing interfamily conflict. (2 Samuel 13:1-34). See the Quran 2:59.

Edip-Layth - End Note 18 (6:88)

The Arabic text supports two meanings: (1) God guides whoever He wishes. (2) God guides whomever wishes so. It seems that both meanings are equally intended. See 42:13

57:22-23; 6:110; 7:30; 14:4;

Edip-Layth - End Note 19 (6:94)

See 2:48.

Edip-Layth - End Note 20 (6:110)

Individuals makes their initial decision with the freedom of choice given to them (18:29) and God leads them according to their choice. Those who have decided deep in their minds to reject God's signs/miracles with prejudice, will not see, witness, acknowledge, or appreciate those signs/miracles (7:146). These people label the divine signs and miracles as "myth" or "illusion/magic" (6:7,25). To witness a 3-D stereogram made with computer generated random dots, one needs to have an open mind, open both his eyes, and follow certain rules. Recent studies by Mahzarin Banaji Anthony Greenwald and other scientists using Implicit Association Test, or IAT show that our unconscious attitudes create strong biases. Bruce Bower, in April 22, 2006 issue of Science News described these hidden biases with the following statements: "It lurks in the mind's dark basement, secretly shaping our opinions, attitudes, and stereotypes. This devious manipulator does its best to twist our behavior to its nefarious end. Its stock in trade: stirring up racial prejudice and a host of other pernicious preconceptions about members of various groups. Upstairs, our conscious mind ignores this pushy cellar dweller and assumes that we're decent folk whose actions usually reflect good intentions." Inductive reasoning, which creates stereotyping or generalization is an important tool for our survival. Occasionally we need to react fast in events when we sense risk to our lives or well-being. However, the quick retrieval of stored conclusions of inductive reasoning, has also the chance to be wrong. Thus, when we have more than few seconds to reflect, to reach an accurate or beneficial judgment it is always important to examine our biases. To overcome against this stealthy prejudice, the Quran recommends us to engage in self-examination, critical thinking, and deliberate and constant struggle to be open-minded (53:33; 54:43; 17:36; 39:18).

Edip-Layth - End Note 21 (6:112)

None who acknowledges the reality of life after death would be attracted to the fancy words presented as divine inspiration or revelation. Those who idolized (J)esu(s), a human messenger, by alleging him to be literally the "son of God," are in fact, his ardent enemies. Comparing the hearsay stories in Hadith books with the precepts in the Quran, we can see why and how their narrators and collectors were indeed the enemies of Muhammad, another human messenger and servant of God.

Edip-Layth - End Note 22 (6:114)

Knowing that the enemies of Jesus fabricated the doctrine of the Trinity and associated him as a partner with One God by creating multiple personalities for God, similarly those who gave lip service to islam also fabricated hadith books and associated Muhammad as partner with God in His judgment. The Quran informs us about many ways of setting up partners with God, or polytheism. A careful reader will notice that the verses quoted above reject all the major excuses used by the proponents of hadith and sunna. These verses describe the adherents of fancy hadiths with the following qualities: Despite their lip service, they do not appreciate God's signs/miracles (We have witnessed a modern example of this lack of appreciation regarding the prophetic fulfillment of the number 19 mentioned in chapter 74).

-
- Most of them are ignorant, blind followers.
- They tell each other fancy hadiths presenting them as divine inspiration or revelation.
- The hadiths that they are narrating to each other are fabrications.
- Despite their lip service, they do not appreciate the hereafter.
- They seek Muhammad and other idols as partners with God's judgment regarding islam.
- They do not accept that the Quran is sufficiently detailed.
- They do not accept that that God's word is complete.
- They put too much confidence in the numbers of those who follow their sect; they follow the crowd.

- They follow conjecture.
See 17:39; 33:38; 49:1

Edip-Layth - End Note (6:116)

Edip-Layth - End Note 23 (6:118)

One of the common characteristics of those who associate religious leaders as partners with God is to prohibit things that God has not prohibited. Thus, the description of mushriks (polytheists) starting from 6:112, continues with a specific example until 6:155. The followers of the same mushriks might deceive themselves by assuming that those verses have no application in our times; that they were about some people who lived and perished 15 centuries ago! They ignore the warning of the Quran (36:70).

Edip-Layth - End Note (6:119)

Edip-Layth - End Note 24 (6:121)

We should commemorate God's name while slaughtering animals and eating their product. We are not asked to monitor or even investigate whether the person who slaughtered it commemorated God's name or not. However, if we know that the animal was slaughtered according to the rules of a religion falsely attributed to God, then we should not consume it since it would legitimize that blasphemy. This verse is a commonly misunderstood one, and it creates problems for muslims who live in foreign countries. If we evaluate this verse under the light of 6:145 and similar verses, its meaning gains clarity. This verse does not prohibit eating the animal food slaughtered by non-muslims or atheists. This verse asks muslims to protest the mushriks who did not eat the meat of the animals over which they mentioned God's name when they slaughtered; they let it go to waste for the sake of God. In order to make the animal clean for consumption, when they slaughter them, they deliberately and specifically did not mention God's name. This tradition was based on the fabricated rules of their religion and it was thus, for other than God. Verse 6:119 refers to this tradition. In brief, if we read 6:119-121,145 and 22:37 carefully, we will learn that the prohibition in this verse is about the animals sacrificed by mushriks (polytheists) who deliberately did not mention God's name, because of false religious teachings and traditions. The Quran requires offering of domesticated animals only during the Haj (pilgrim) as a penalty for violation of the conference rules (2:196; 5:2,95-97; 48:25), and it has practical purposes: to regulate the conference in peaceful manner and feed participants of the annual international conference where hunting is prohibited to protect the wild life and environment. The Old Testament requires offerings for many different reasons and contains complicated instructions, which were partially adopted by Sunni and Shiite mushriks through hadith, sunna, and sharia (Genesis 8:20; 12:7; 13:4,18; 15:9-11; 22:1-18; Ex 12:3-27; Leviticus 23:5-8; Nu 9:2-14). Torrey's index lists the following verses under the title, "Offerings": To be made to God alone (Ex 22:20; Jg 13:16); Its origin (Genesis 4:3-4). DIFFERENT KINDS OF; Burnt (Leviticus 1:3-17; Ps 66:15); Sin (Leviticus 4:3-35; 6:25; 10:17); Trespass (Leviticus 5:16-19; 6:6; 7:1); Peace (Leviticus 3:1-17; 7:11); Heave (Ex 29:27; 7:14; Nu 15:19); Wave (Ex 29:26; Leviticus 7:30); Meat (Leviticus 2:1-16; Nu 15:4); Drink (Genesis 35:14; Ex 29:40; Nu 15:5); Thank (Leviticus 7:12; 22:29; Ps 50:14); Free-will (Leviticus 23:38; De 16:10; 23:23); Incense (Ex 30:8; Mal 1:11; Lu 1:9); First-fruits (Ex 22:29; De 18:4); Tithe (Leviticus 27:30; Nu 18:21; De 14:22); Gifts (Ex 35:22; Nu 7:2-88); Jealousy (Nu 5:15); Personal, for redemption (Ex 30:13,15); Declared to be most holy (Nu 18:9), REQUIRED TO BE Perfect (Leviticus 22:21); The best of their kind (Mal 1:14); Offered willingly (Leviticus 22:19); Offered in righteousness (Mal 3:3); Offered in love and charity (Mt 5:23-24); Brought in a clean vessel (Isa 66:20); Brought to the place appointed of God (De 12:6; Ps 27:6; Heb 9:9); Laid before the altar (Mt 5:23-24); Presented by the priest (Heb 5:1); Brought without delay (Ex 22:29-30) Unacceptable, without gratitude (Ps 50:8,14 (Could not make the offerer perfect (Heb 9:9); THINGS FORBIDDEN AS; The price of fornication (De 23:18); The price of a dog (De 23:18); Whatever was blemished (Leviticus 22:20); Whatever was imperfect (Leviticus 22:24); Whatever was unclean (Leviticus 27:11,27); Laid up in the temple (2Ch 31:12; Ne 10:37); Hezekiah prepared chambers for (2Ch 31:11); THE JEWS OFTEN Slow in presenting (Ne 13:10-12); Defrauded God of (Mal 3:8) Gave the worst they had as (Mal 1:8,13); Rejected in, because of sin (Isa 1:13; Mal 1:10); Abhorred, on account of the sins of the priests (1 Samuel 2:17); Presented to idols (Eze 20:28).

Edip-Layth - End Note 25 (6:124)

Those who followed their ancestors and religious leaders blindly opposed the messengers of God throughout history, by using the past and the number of the crowd as a justification for their lack of appreciation. Ignorant people rejected and opposed Muhammad who claimed to not bring any evidence, sign or miracle except the Quran (29:50-51); they expected evidences/miracles which were only similar to those given to the previous messengers (17:90-93). What they cared about was not the truth, but conformity with the past and preservation of the status quo. They would reject any evidence without evaluating it, with prejudice and in a reflexive manner to keep conformity with their proximate group. The same unappreciative mind now is rejecting the mathematical signs and miracles of the Quran. Verses 38:1-15, and 26:1-6 criticizes these conservative conformists.

Edip-Layth - End Note 26 (6:136)

The Quran was not revealed to warn only the Meccan polytheists; it is a warning and good news for all humanity. Thus, we notice that the characteristics of medieval mushriks are found in modern mushriks. The verse refers to the following common claim of the followers of manmade religious teachings: "According to God this is haram (prohibited), according to Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings be upon him), or according to this or that imam/alim (may God be pleased from them), these and those are haram."

Edip-Layth - End Note 27 (6:137)

The word "awlad" is a derivative of the verb "WaLaDa" and means "born children." The verse condemns the tradition of infanticide based on sex discrimination. For abortion, see 46:15; 31:14; 22:5; 23:14; 16:58-59 and 17:31

Edip-Layth - End Note 28 (6:141)

Betterment by sharing (zaka) is so important that God specifically mentions it in connection with His mercy (7:156). Sunni and Shiite mushriks reduced the universal implication of zaka, which means, purification by sharing a portion of any blessing one may have, such as talents, professional skills, knowledge, presence. Not only did they restrict the meaning of zaka with alms (sadaqa) or feeding the poor (infaq), but they also limited it to an annual practice. The amount needed for purification is left up to us to decide within guidelines. See 2:219; 17:29.

Edip-Layth - End Note 29 (6:143)

The triviality and complexity of cleric- made prohibitions is reminded by directing more detailed questions to the proponents of those prohibitions. The verse uses an excellent rhetorical device to debunk the claims of those who follow man-made fabrications based on their common excuse, "God's word is not detailed." God informs us that His word is sufficiently detailed, and there is no limit for details if one wishes to see more of them by asking further questions. Bring me any hadith or sectarian practice you claim to be detailed, I will find deficiency in their explanation by just asking a few more questions. For instance, you claim that you follow hadith books because they taught you how to hold your hands during prayers; well, what about how to breathe during prayers? From your nose or mouth, or both? What about the color of clothes you should wear during prayers? Red, green, yellow, blue, white, black or a particular combination? Thus, your very excuse (seeking more and more details) for following hearsay and manmade religions, will come back and haunt you. The moment you wish to rebuttal and come up with answers to the demands for further details, you have to start fabricating new rules; thereby proving the origins of your previous details: man-made fabrications. However, if you reject answering those questions by saying, "Your question will make prayers more difficult to fulfill. Hadith, sunna and sectarian jurisprudence provide us with sufficient details that we need. We are not held responsible for following further details." That would be the best answer. Now look at the mirror: when you demand more details from people who follow the Quran alone, they too would respond to you with exactly the same answer by just replacing the word hadith, sunna and sectarian jurisprudence with the Quran! "The Quran provides us with the sufficient details that we need. We are not held responsible for following further details. Your question will make prayers more difficult to fulfill."

Edip-Layth - End Note (6:144)

Edip-Layth - End Note 30 (6:145)

The Quran enumerates the list of the dietary prohibitions and states clearly that only the enumerated ones are prohibited by God. It is up to your experience, taste, cultural cuisine, or doctor to pick what to eat or not to eat. You may choose to not eat frog legs, but you cannot attribute your personal taste to God and criticize others in the name of God. In verses 145 and 146, God indirectly tells us that He is able to distinguish meat from fat, as opposed to clergymen's claim, and if He wishes to prohibit fat alone He could express that. Those who do not appreciate God's wisdom and ability to use the language to communicate His will, despite these clear verses, follow numerous contradictory prohibitions falsely attributed to Muhammad, who followed the Quran alone. See 10:59-60; 16:112-116. Similar prohibitions are found in the Old Testament, Leviticus 17:11-15; Deuteronomy 12:24; 14:8; 14:21. Deuteronomy 14:7 mentions the additional prohibition.

Edip-Layth - End Note 31 (6:148)

Fabricating prohibitions and attributing them to God through his messenger is shirk, that is associating partners with God. Modern mushriks, like their predecessors, accuse God for their commitment of shirk. The portrait of mushriks drawn by the Quran is universal. See 3:18; 6:22-24; 16:35; 10:59-60.

Edip-Layth - End Note 32 (6:149)

God's evidence is in his mathematically coded and detailed book; not in hadith books that contain hearsay stories and contradictory prohibitions.

Edip-Layth - End Note 33 (6:150)

This verse provides an excellent question for cross-examination and impeachment. When discussing this issue with clerics who claim many more prohibitions such as mussel, crab, or lobster, start reading from five verses before and stop at the question in this verse by directing the question personally to them while looking in their eyes. Wait for their response. If they list the names of hadith books and sect leaders, then convict them with the rest of the verse. You will be surprised to see that many of them will incriminate themselves. Also, see 9:31; 42:21.

Edip-Layth - End Note 34 (6:159)

The followers of hearsay, and the sharia concocted by clerics, divided themselves into many hostile sects, factions and orders. See 3:105; 23:52-56.

Edip-Layth - End Note 35 (6:164)

None can save another from their responsibility. Those who mislead others will get a share from the crimes of those who were misled. None can assume someone else's responsibility; however, if someone misleads another one he will also be held responsible for that. See 16:25.

Rashad Khalifa - The Final Testament

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 4 (6:38)

All information relevant to our eternal life of the Hereafter is contained in the Quran. The true believers accept, without hesitation, God's assertion: "We did not leave anything out of this book." The importance of this statement, and similar statements, is reflected in the fact that each of them consists of 19 Arabic letters (Appendix 19).

Rashad Khalifa - End Note (6:38)

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 5 (6:44)

Before the guilty are thrown out the window, they are taken up to a high floor.

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 6 (6:60)

The righteous do not really die; they go straight to the same Paradise where Adam and Eve once lived. The unrighteous die and experience a nightmare that lasts until the Day of Resurrection (see 2:154, 3:169, 8:24, 16:32, 22:58, 36:26-27, 44:56, and Appendix 17).

Rashad Khalifa - End Note (6:114)

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 11 (6:124)

Jealousy and ego are human traits that provoke some people to question God's wisdom in selecting His messengers. Corrupted Muslim scholars have uttered this same utterance regarding the revelation of the Quran's mathematical code through God's Messenger of the Covenant.

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 12 (6:125)

Centuries after the revelation of the Quran, we learned that the proportion of oxygen diminishes as we climb towards the sky, and we gasp for air.

Rashad Khalifa - End Note (6:125)

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 14 (6:141)

Zakat charity is so important, the Most Merciful has restricted His mercy to those who give it (7:156). Yet, the corrupted Muslims have lost this most important commandment; they give Zakat only once a year. We see here that Zakat must be given away "On the day we receive income." The proportion that came to us through Abraham is 2.5% of our net income.

Rashad Khalifa - End Note (6:141)

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 15 (6:145)

Only four kinds of animal products are prohibited: animals that die of themselves, running blood (not trapped within the meat), the meat of pigs, and animals dedicated to other than their Creator. Verse 146 informs us that such prohibitions are very specific; God prohibits either "the meat" or "the fat," or both, if He so wills.

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 16 (6:149)

The Quran's mathematical code is a tangible and utterly incontrovertible proof that this is God's message to the world. It takes divine intervention to prevent any reader from appreciating this extraordinary phenomenon, then falling prostrate, and accepting this overwhelming miracle (see 17:45-46, 18:57, 56:79, and Appendix One).

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 17 (6:157)

The role of the Quran's mathematical code is evident from the fact that the sum of the verse number (157) plus the gematrical value of "RashadKhalifa" (1230), through whom the code was revealed, gives 1387, or 19×73 .

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

Translations

Chapter/Verse

Refresh

Search

Search

<< Prev 7:1-206 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 7:1 A1L30M40S90 ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 7:1 A.L.M.S'
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 7:1 Alif. Lam. Mim. ¹
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 7:1 A. L. M. S.. ¹
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 7:1 A.L.M.S. Alif-Laam-Meem-Saad. (Allah, Lateef the Unfathomable, Majeed the Magnificent, Saadiq the True, states that),
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRrahmani alRrahēemi 7:1 Alif-lām-meem-sād
A	بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ 7:1 المص
Edip-Layth	7:2 A book that has been sent down to you, so let there not be any burden in your chest from it, that you may warn with it; and a reminder to those who acknowledge.

The Monotheist Group	7:2 A Scripture that has been sent down to you, so let there not be any burden in your chest from it, that you may warn with it; and a reminder to the believers.
Muhammad Asad	7:2 A DIVINE WRIT has been bestowed from on high upon thee -and let there be no doubt about this in thy heart-in order that thou mayest warn [the erring] thereby, and [thus] admonish the believers: ²
Rashad Khalifa	7:2 This scripture has been revealed to you - you shall not harbor doubt about it in your heart - that you may warn with it, and to provide a reminder for the believers.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:2 This Book has been revealed to you (O Messenger!), so you shall harbor no doubt about it in your heart - in order that with it you may warn (the erring). And it is a reminder for the believers. ¹
Transliteration	7:2 Kitābun onzila ilayka fal ayyakun fee ṣadrika ḥarajun minhu litun thirabihi wathikra lilmu/mineena
A	7:2 كتب انزل اليك فلا يكن في صدرك حرج منه لتنذر به وذكرى للمومنين
Edip-Layth	Do Not Follow Any Other Source Besides God 7:3 Follow what was sent down to you all from your Lord, and do not follow besides Him any supporters. Little do you remember!
The Monotheist Group	7:3 Follow what was sent down to you all from your Lord, and do not follow besides Him any supporters. Little do you remember!
Muhammad Asad	7:3 "Follow what has been sent down unto you by your Sustainer, and follow no masters other than Him. ³ How seldom do you keep this in mind!
Rashad Khalifa	7:3 You shall all follow what is revealed to you from your Lord; do not follow any idols besides Him. Rarely do you take heed.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:3 You shall all follow what has been revealed to you from your Lord and follow no masters other than Him. How seldom do you keep this in mind! ²
Transliteration	7:3 IttabiAAoo m a onzila ilaykum minrabbikum wal a tattabiAAoo min doonihi awliyaqaaleelan ma tathakkaroona
A	7:3 اتبعوا ما انزل اليكم من ربكم ولا تتبعوا من دونه اولياء قليلا ما تذكرون
Edip-Layth	7:4 How many a town have We destroyed; for Our punishment came to them while sleeping, or while resting.
The Monotheist Group	7:4 And how many a town have We destroyed; for Our punishment came to them while sleeping, or while resting.
Muhammad Asad	7:4 And how many a [rebellious] community have We destroyed, with Our punishment coming upon it by night, or while they were resting at noontide! ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	7:4 Many a community we annihilated; they incurred our retribution while they were asleep, or wide awake.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:4 (You will find ample documentation in history that when communities ignored Our Permanent Value System they met with destruction.) How many a community We (Our laws) have annihilated! Our requital visited them by night, or while they slept for their afternoon rest.
Transliteration	7:4 Wakam min qaryatin ahlaknahafajaaha ba/suna bayatan aw hum qa-iloona
A

7:4 وكم من قرية اهلكناها فجاءها باسنا بيتا او هم قائلون

Edip-Layth	7:5 Then their only saying when Our punishment came to them was: "We were wicked!"
The Monotheist Group	7:5 Then their only saying when Our punishment came to them was: "We were wicked!"
Muhammad Asad	7:5 And when Our punishment came upon them, they had nothing to say for themselves, and could only cry, ⁵ "Verily, we were wrongdoers!"
Rashad Khalifa	7:5 Their utterance when our retribution came to them was: "Indeed, we have been transgressors."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:5 They had no plea when Our requital came to them, but they said, "We were unjust, and used to oppress the vulnerable."
Transliteration	7:5 Fama k ana daAAaw ahum i thjaahum ba/sun a ill a an q aloo inn akunna thalimeena
A	7:5 فما كان دعوتهم اذ جاءهم باسنا الا ان قالوا انا كنا ظلمين
Edip-Layth	7:6 We will ask those who received the message, and We will ask the messengers.
The Monotheist Group	7:6 We will ask those to whom We have sent, and We will ask the messengers.
Muhammad Asad	7:6 Thus, [on Judgment Day] We shall most certainly call to account all those unto whom a [divine] message was sent, and We shall most certainly call to account the message-bearers [themselves]; ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	7:6 We will certainly question those who received the message, and we will question the messengers.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:6 We will certainly question those to whom Our messengers were sent, and certainly We will question the messengers.
Transliteration	7:6 Falanas-alanna alla ^{the} ena orsilailayhim walanas-alanna almursaleen a
A	7:6 فلنسلن الذين ارسل اليهم ولنسلن المرسلين
Edip-Layth	7:7 We will narrate to them with knowledge; We were not absent.
The Monotheist Group	7:7 We will narrate to them with knowledge; We were not absent.
Muhammad Asad	7:7 and thereupon We shall most certainly reveal unto them Our knowledge [of their doings]: ⁷ for never have We been absent [from them].
Rashad Khalifa	7:7 We will inform them authoritatively, for we were never absent.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:7 We shall recount the whole story for them, for We were never absent in Time and Place.
Transliteration	7:7 Falanaqussanna AAalayhim biAAilmin wamakunna gha-ibeen a
A	7:7 فلنقصن عليهم بعلم وما كنا غائبين
Edip-Layth	7:8 The scales on that day will be the truth. Whoever has heavy scales, these are the successful ones.
	7:8 And the scales on that Day will be the truth. Whoever has heavy weights,

The Monotheist Group	then these are the successful ones.
Muhammad Asad	7:8 And true will be the weighing on that Day; and those whose weight [of good deeds] is heavy in the balance -it is they, they who shall attain to a happy state;
Rashad Khalifa	7:8 The scales will be set on that day, equitably. Those whose weights are heavy will be the winners.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:8 The scales on that Day will be truly equitable. Those whose constructive deeds are heavy, will prosper.
Transliteration	7:8 Waalwaznu yawma-i th ini al h aqqufaman thaqulat maw a zeenuhu faol a -ika humu almufl ih oona
A	7:8 والوزن يومئذ الحق فمن ثقلت موزينه فالولئك هم المفلحون
Edip-Layth	7:9 Whoever has light scales, these are the ones who lost themselves for they wrongfully treated Our signs. ²
The Monotheist Group	7:9 And whoever has light weights, then these are the ones who lost their souls for what they transgressed of Our revelations.
Muhammad Asad	7:9 whereas those whose weight is light in the balance - it is they who will have squandered their own selves by their wilful rejection of Our messages. ⁸
Rashad Khalifa	7:9 As for those whose weights are light, they will be the ones who lost their souls as a consequence of disregarding our revelations, unjustly.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:9 And those whose scales are light, will be the ones who have put their own 'self' in loss. This is because they used to replace Our revelations with manmade dogmas.
Transliteration	7:9 Waman khaffat maw a zeenuhu faol a -ikaall at heena khasiroo anfusahum bim a kanoo bi- ay atin ay a th limoona
A	7:9 ومن خفت موزينه فالولئك الذين خسروا انفسهم بما كانوا بايتنا يظلمون
Edip-Layth	The Test 7:10 We granted you dominion on earth, and made for you in it a habitat; little do you give thanks!
The Monotheist Group	7:10 And We granted you dominion on Earth, and made for you in it a habitat; little do you give thanks!
Muhammad Asad	7:10 YEA, INDEED, [O men,] We have given you a [bountiful] place on earth, and appointed thereon means of livelihood for you: [yet] how seldom are you grateful!
Rashad Khalifa	7:10 We have established you on earth, and we have provided for you the means of support therein. Rarely are you appreciative.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:10 (Take heed before the final scales are set.) We have placed you on earth and given you means for a fulfilling life. How seldom are you grateful! ³
Transliteration	7:10 Walaqad makkann a kum fee al-ar d iwajaAAal n a lakum feeh a maAA ay isha qaleelan ma t ashkuroona
A	7:10 ولقد مكنكم فى الارض وجعلنا لكم فيها معيش قليلا ما تشكرون
Edip-Layth	7:11 We created you, We shaped you, and then We said to the angels: "Submit to Adam;" so they submitted except for Satan, he was not of those who submitted.

The Monotheist Group	7:11 And We created you, then We shaped you, then We said to the angels: "Yield to Adam;" so they yielded except for Satan, he was not of those who yielded.
Muhammad Asad	7:11 Yea, indeed, We have created you, and then formed you; ⁹ and then We said unto the angels, "Prostrate yourselves before Adam!" - whereupon they [all] prostrated themselves, save Iblis: he was not among those who prostrated themselves. ¹⁰
Rashad Khalifa	7:11 We created you, then we shaped you, then we said to the angels, "Fall prostrate before Adam." They fell prostrate, except Iblees (Satan); he was not with the prostrators.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:11 We created you, then shaped you, then told the angels, "Be of service to Adam! And they agreed to be of service, all but Iblees (Satan). He was not of the subservient. ⁴
Transliteration	7:11 Walaqad khalaqn a_kum thumma sawwarnakumthumma quln a lilmal a-ikati osjudoo li-adamafasajadoo illa ibleesa lam yakun mina alssajideena
A	7:11 ولقد خلقكم ثم صوركم ثم قلنا للملكة اسجدوا لآدم فسجدوا الا ابليس لم يكن من السجدين
Edip-Layth	7:12 He said, "What has prevented you from submitting when I have ordered you?" He said, "I am better than him, You created me from fire and created him from clay!" ³
The Monotheist Group	7:12 He said: "What has prevented you from yielding when I have ordered you?" He said: "I am far better than him, You created me from fire and created him from clay!"
Muhammad Asad	7:12 [And God] said: "What has kept thee from prostrating thyself when I commanded thee?" Answered [Iblis]: "I am better than he: Thou hast created me out of fire, whereas him Thou hast created out of clay."
Rashad Khalifa	The Test Begins 7:12 He said, "What prevented you from prostrating when I ordered you?" He said, "I am better than he; You created me from fire, and created him from mud."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:12 God said, "What stopped you from being subservient when I ordered you?" Iblees responded, "I am better than he. You created me from fire, and created him from clay." ⁵
Transliteration	7:12 Qala m a manaAAaka all atasjuda i th amartuka q ala an a khayrun minhukhalaqtanee min narin wakhalaqtahu min teenin
A	7:12 قال ما منعك الا تسجد اذ امرتك قال انا خير منه خلقتني من نار وخلقته من طين
Edip-Layth	7:13 He said, "Descend from it, it is not for you to be arrogant here; depart, for you are disgraced."
The Monotheist Group	7:13 He said: "Descend from it, it is not for you to be arrogant here; depart, for you are disgraced."
Muhammad Asad	7:13 [God] said: "Down with thee, then, from this [state] -for it is not meet for thee to show arrogance here! Go forth, then: verily, among the humiliated shalt thou be!"

Rashad Khalifa	7:13 He said, "Therefore, you must go down, for you are not to be arrogant here. Get out; you are debased."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:13 (Recall that many of the verses of the Qur'an are allegorical.) God said, "You are dismissed and degraded hence. It is not for you to be arrogant here. Go forth, then! You shall be among the humiliated."
Transliteration	7:13 Qala faihibi minha fama yakoonu laka an tatakabbara feeh a faokhrujinnaka mina alssaghireena
A	7:13 قال فاهبط منها فما يكون لك ان تتكبر فيها فاخرج انك من الصغرين
Edip-Layth	7:14 He said, "Grant me respite until the day they are resurrected?"
The Monotheist Group	7:14 He said: "Grant me respite until the Day they are resurrected?"
Muhammad Asad	7:14 Said [Iblis]: "Grant me a respite till the Day when all shall be raised from the dead."
Rashad Khalifa	7:14 He said, "Grant me a respite, until the Day of Resurrection."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:14 He (Iblees) said, "Give me respite till the Day they are raised up."
Transliteration	7:14 Qala anthirnee ilayawmi yubAAathoona
A	7:14 قال انظرنى الى يوم يبعثون
Edip-Layth	7:15 He said, "You are granted respite." 4
The Monotheist Group	7:15 He said: "You are granted."
Muhammad Asad	7:15 [And God] replied: "Verily, thou shalt be among those who are granted a respite."
Rashad Khalifa	7:15 He said, "You are granted a respite."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:15 (The request was granted.) "Be among those who are given respite."
Transliteration	7:15 Qala innaka mina almunthareena
A	7:15 قال انك من المنظرين
Edip-Layth	7:16 He said, "For You having me sent astray, I will stalk for them on Your Straight Path." 5
The Monotheist Group	7:16 He said: "For that which You have caused me to be misled, I will stalk for them on Your Straight Path."
Muhammad Asad	7:16 [Whereupon Iblis] said: "Now that Thou hast thwarted me," 11 shall most certainly lie in ambush for them all along Thy straight way,
Rashad Khalifa	7:16 He said, "Since You have willed that I go astray, I will skulk for them on Your straight path."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:16 Iblees said, "Since You have willed that I go astray, I will lurk in ambush for them in Your straight path."
Transliteration	7:16 Qala fabima aghwaytaneelaaqAAudanna lahum sirataka almustaqeema
A	7:16 قال فيما اغويتنى لاقعدن لهم صراطك المستقيم

Edip-Layth	7:17 "Then I will come to them from between their hands, and from behind them, and from their right, and from their left; You will not find most of them to be appreciative."
The Monotheist Group	7:17 "Then I will come to them from between their hands, and from behind them, and from their right, and from their left; You will find most of them are unappreciative."
Muhammad Asad	7:17 and shall most certainly fall upon them openly as well as in a manner beyond their ken, ¹² and from their right and from their left: and most of them Thou wilt find ungrateful."
Rashad Khalifa	7:17 "I will come to them from before them, and from behind them, and from their right, and from their left, and You will find that most of them are unappreciative."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:17 "Then I will assault them openly and secretly, through their strengths and through their weaknesses. And You will not find most of them grateful (for the guidance)."
Transliteration	7:17 Thumma la atiyannahum min bayniaydeehim wamin khalfihim waAAan aymanihim waAAan shama-ilihimwala tajidu aktharahum shakireena
A	7:17 ثم لءاتينهم من بين ايديهم ومن خلفهم وعن ايمنهم وعن شمالهم ولا تجد اكثرهم شكرين
Edip-Layth	7:18 He said, "Get out from this, you are despised and banished. As for those among them who follow you, I will fill hell with you all!"
The Monotheist Group	7:18 He said: "Get out from this, you are despised and banished. As for those of them who follow you, I will fill Hell with you all!"
Muhammad Asad	7:18 [And God] said: "Go forth from here, disgraced and disowned! [And] as for such of them as follow thee - I will most certainly fill hell with you all!"
Rashad Khalifa	7:18 He said, "Get out therefrom, despised and defeated. Those among them who follow you, I will fill Hell with you all.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:18 He said, "Go forth from here, degraded and banished. Whoever follows you among them, I will surely fill Hell with you all." ⁶
Transliteration	7:18 Qala okhruj minh a ma thoomanmadhooran laman tabiAAaka minhum laamlaanna jahannamaminkum ajmaAAeena
A	7:18 قال اخرج منها مذعوما مدحورا لمن تبعك منهم لاملان جهنم منكم اجمعين
Edip-Layth	7:19 "Adam, reside with your mate in the paradise, and eat from wherever you please; but do not approach this tree or you will be of the wicked." ⁶
The Monotheist Group	7:19 "And Adam, reside with your mate in the paradise, and eat from wherever you please; but do not approach this tree or you will be of the wicked."
Muhammad Asad	7:19 And [as for thee], O Adam', dwell thou and thy wife in this garden, and eat, both of you, whatever you may wish; but do not approach this one tree, lest you become evildoers!" ¹³
Rashad Khalifa	7:19 "As for you, Adam, dwell with your wife in Paradise, and eat therefrom as you please, but do not approach this one tree, lest you fall in sin."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:19 "O Adam! Dwell you and your wife in the Garden and eat from whatever you may wish; but do not approach this one tree, lest you become wrong doers." ⁷

Transliteration	7:19 Waya adamu oskun antawazawjuka aljannata fakul a min haythu shi/tumawala taqraba hathihi alshshajaratafatakoona mina al th halimeena
A	7:19 ويادم اسكن انت وزوجك الجنة فكلا من حيث شئتما ولا تقربا هذه الشجرة فتكونا من الظلمين
Edip-Layth	7:20 But the devil whispered to them, to reveal their bodies which was hidden from them; and he said, "Your Lord did not forbid you from this tree except that you would become angels, or you would be immortals."
The Monotheist Group	7:20 But the devil whispered to them, to reveal to them what was no longer apparent to them of their bodies; and he said: "Your Lord did not forbid you from this tree except that you would become angels, or you would be immortal."
Muhammad Asad	7:20 Thereupon Satan whispered unto the two with a view to making them conscious of their nakedness, of which [hitherto] they had been unaware; ¹⁴ and he said: "Your Sustainer has but forbidden you this tree lest you two become .[as] angels, or lest you live forever." ¹⁵
Rashad Khalifa	7:20 The devil whispered to them, in order to reveal their bodies, which were invisible to them. He said, "Your Lord did not forbid you from this tree, except to prevent you from becoming angels, and from attaining eternal existence."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:20 Then Satan deceived them in order to reveal their imperfections and fallibility to them. He said, "Your Lord forbade this tree lest you become angels or become immortals." ⁸
Transliteration	7:20 Fawaswasa lahum a a lshshaytanuliyubdiya lahum a m a wooriya AAanhum a minsaw-atihima waq ala m a nah akumarabbukuma AAan h athihi a lshshajarati illaan takoona malakayni aw takoona mina alkh h alideena
A	7:20 فوسوس لهما الشيطان ليبيد لهما ما ورى عنهما من سوءتهما وقال ما نهكما ربكما عن هذه الشجرة الا ان تكونا ملكين او تكونا من الخلد
Edip-Layth	7:21 He swore to them: "I am giving good advice."
The Monotheist Group	7:21 And he swore to them: "I am giving good advice."
Muhammad Asad	7:21 And he swore unto them, "Verily, I am of those who wish you well indeed!"
Rashad Khalifa	7:21 He swore to them, "I am giving you good advice."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:21 And Satan swore to both, man and woman, "I am a sincere advisor to you."
Transliteration	7:21 Waqasamahuma innee lakum alamina aln n asiheena
A	7:21 وقاسمهما انى لكما لمن الناصحين
Edip-Layth	7:22 So he misled them with deception; and when they tasted the tree, their bodies became apparent to them, and they rushed to cover themselves with the leaves of the paradise; and their Lord called to them: "Did I not forbid you from that tree, and tell you that the devil is your clear enemy?" ⁷
The Monotheist Group	7:22 So he misled them with deception; and when they tasted the tree, their bodies became apparent to them, and they rushed to cover themselves with the leaves of the paradise; and their Lord called to them: "Did I not forbid you from that tree, and tell you that the devil is your clear enemy?"

Muhammad Asad	7:22 -and thus he led them on with deluding thoughts. But as soon as the two had tasted [the fruit] of the tree, they became conscious of their nakedness; and they began to cover themselves with pieced-together leaves from the garden. And their Sustainer called unto them: "Did I not forbid that tree unto you and tell you, `Verily, Satan is your open foe?'"
Rashad Khalifa	7:22 He thus duped them with lies. As soon as they tasted the tree, their bodies became visible to them, and they tried to cover themselves with the leaves of Paradise. Their Lord called upon them: "Did I not enjoin you from that tree, and warn you that the devil is your most ardent enemy?"
Shabbir Ahmed	7:22 So by deceit Satan brought about their downfall. They tasted of the tree of discord and started to divide into branches. Soon their imperfections became obvious and they tried to conceal them in vain with superficial courtesy. Then came a reminder from their Lord, "Did I not forbid you that tree and tell you that Satan is your open enemy?" 9
Transliteration	7:22 Fadallaḥuma bighuroorin falamm athaqa a Ishshajarata badat lahum a saw- atuhumawatafiqa yakh sifani AAalayhim amin waraqi aljannati wan adahuma rabbuhum ^a alam anhakum a AAan tilkum a a Ishshajaratiwaaqul lakum a inna alshshay ^{ana} lakum ^{AA} aduwwun mubeen ^{un}
A	7:22 فدللهما بغرور فلما ذاقا الشجرة بدت لهما سوءتهما وطفقا يخصفان عليهما من ورق الجنة وناديهما ربهما الم انهكما عن تلكما الشجرة واقل لكما ان الشيطان لكما عدو مبين
Edip-Layth	7:23 They said, "Our Lord, we have wronged ourselves and if You do not forgive us and have mercy on us, then we will be of the losers!"
The Monotheist Group	7:23 They said: "Our Lord, we have wronged ourselves and if You do not forgive us and have mercy on us, then we will be of the losers!"
Muhammad Asad	7:23 The two replied: "O our Sustainer! We have sinned against ourselves -and unless Thou grant us forgiveness and bestow Thy mercy upon us, we shall most certainly be lost!"
Rashad Khalifa	7:23 They said, "Our Lord, we have wronged our souls, and unless You forgive us and have mercy on us, we will be losers."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:23 They said, "Our Lord! We have wronged ourselves. Unless You forgive us and have mercy on us, we will certainly be lost." 10
Transliteration	7:23 Qala rabban a thalamna anfusana wa-in lam taghfir lan a watar ^{hamna} alanakoonanna mina alkh ^{asireena}
A	7:23 قالوا ربنا ظلمنا انفسنا وان لم تغفر لنا وترحمنا لنكونن من الخسرين
Edip-Layth	7:24 He said, "Descend as enemies to one another; on earth you will have residence and provisions until the appointed time."
The Monotheist Group	7:24 He said: "Descend; for you are enemies to one another; and on Earth you will have residence and provisions until the appointed time."
Muhammad Asad	7:24 Said He: "Down with you, 16 [and be henceforth] enemies unto one another, having on earth your abode and livelihood for a while:
Rashad Khalifa	7:24 He said, "Go down as enemies of one another. On earth shall be your habitation and provision for awhile."
	7:24 (Self interests of people had given rise to unjust marking of land and individual hoarding. Suppression of the weak had begun.) God told them that

Shabbir Ahmed	they had fallen down from the high station of humanity. They had ignored the law that "Mankind is one community" (10:19). From then on, they would live as tribes and nations, enemies to one another, "There will be for you on land an abode and sustenance for a while." ¹¹
Transliteration	7:24 Qala ihbi too baAA dukumlibaAAadin AAaduwwun walakum fee al-ar di mustaqarrunwamatAAun ila heenin
A	7:24 قال اهبطوا بعضكم لبعض عدو ولكم فى الارض مستقر ومتع الى حين
Edip-Layth	7:25 He said, "In it you will live and in it you will die, and from it you will be brought forth."
The Monotheist Group	7:25 He said: "In it you will live and in it you will die, and from it you will be brought forth."
Muhammad Asad	7:25 there shall you live" - He added - "and there shall you die, and thence shall you be brought forth [on Resurrection Day]!
Rashad Khalifa	7:25 He said, "On it you will live, on it you will die, and from it you will be brought out."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:25 He said, "You shall live on earth and die there and be resurrected from there." ¹²
Transliteration	7:25 Qala feeha tahyawnawafeeha tamootoona waminha tukhrajooona
A	7:25 قال فيها تحيون وفيها تموتون ومنها تخرجون
Edip-Layth	7:26 O Children of Adam, We have sent down for you garments to cover your bodies, as well as ornaments; and the garment of awareness is the best. That is from God's signs, perhaps they will remember. ⁸
The Monotheist Group	7:26 O Children of Adam, We have sent down for you garments to alleviate your sin, as well as feathers; and the garment of righteousness is the best. That is from God's signs, perhaps they will remember.
Muhammad Asad	7:26 O CHILDREN of Adam! Indeed, We have bestowed upon you from on high [the knowledge of making] garments to cover your nakedness, and as a thing of beauty: ¹⁷ but the garment of God-consciousness is the best of all. Herein lies a message from God, so that man ¹⁸ might take it to heart.
Rashad Khalifa	7:26 O children of Adam, we have provided you with garments to cover your bodies, as well as for luxury. But the best garment is the garment of righteousness. These are some of GOD's signs, that they may take heed.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:26 O Children of Adam! We have provided you with garments to cover your bodies as well as to adorn you. The best garment for you to wear, in addition, is good conduct. (Your character decorates you inside out.) These are the verses of God that they must take to heart.
Transliteration	7:26 Ya banee adama qad anzaln aAAalaykum lib asan yuw aree saw-atikumwareeshan walib asu a Ittaqwa thalikakhayrun thalika min ayati AllahilaAAallahum yaththakkarooona
A	7:26 يبنى اءادم قد انزلنا عليكم لباسا يورى سوءتكم وريشا ولباس التقوى ذلك خير ذلك من اءايت الله لءلهم يذكرون
	7:27 O Children of Adam, do not let the devil afflict you as he evicted your

Edip-Layth	parents from the paradise; removing from them their garments to show them their bodies. He and his tribe see you from where you do not see them. We have made the devils as allies for those who do not acknowledge. ⁹
The Monotheist Group	7:27 O Children of Adam, do not let the devil afflict you as he evicted your parents from the paradise; he removes from them their garments to show them their bodies. He and his tribe see you from where you do not see them. We have made the devils as allies for those who do not believe.
Muhammad Asad	7:27 O children of Adam! Do not allow Satan to seduce you in the same way as he caused your ancestors to be driven out of the garden: he deprived them of their garment [of God-consciousness] in order to make them aware of their nakedness. Verily, he and his tribe are lying in wait for you where you cannot perceive them! ¹⁹ Verily, We have placed [all manner of] satanic forces near unto those who do not [truly] believe; ²⁰
Rashad Khalifa	7:27 O children of Adam, do not let the devil dupe you as he did when he caused the eviction of your parents from Paradise, and the removal of their garments to expose their bodies. He and his tribe see you, while you do not see them. We appoint the devils as companions of those who do not believe.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:27 O Children of Adam! Let not your selfish desires deceive you as it deceived your ancestors, caused them to lose their Paradise, and exposed their imperfections. A host of selfish and rebellious desires lurk within you. You can't even see them but these Satans see you and befriend those who do not believe.
Transliteration	7:27 Ya banee adama layaftinannakumu a lshshaytanu kama akhrajaaawaykum mina aljannati yanziAAu AAanhum a libasahumaliyuriyahuma saw-atihima innahu yarakumhuwa waqabeeluhu min haythu l a tarawnahum inn ajaAAalna alshshayateena awliya lillaheenala yu/minoona
A	7:27 بينى آدم لا يفتنكم الشيطان كما اخرج ابويكم من الجنة ينزع عنهما لباسهما ليريهما سوءتهما انه يريكم هو وقبيله من حيث لا ترونهم انا جعلنا الشيطان اولياء للذين لا يؤمنون
Edip-Layth	Examine Claims About God With Knowledge 7:28 When they commit evil acts, they say, "We found our fathers doing such, and God ordered us to it." Say, "God does not order evil! Do you say about God what you do not know?" ¹⁰
The Monotheist Group	7:28 And if they commit evil acts, they say: "We found our fathers doing such, and God ordered us to it." Say: "God does not order evil! Do you say about God what you do not know?"
Muhammad Asad	7:28 and [so,] whenever they commit a shameful deed, they are wont to say, "We found our forefathers doing it," and, "God has enjoined it upon us." Say: "Behold, never does God enjoin deeds of abomination. Would you attribute unto God something of which you have no knowledge?"
Rashad Khalifa	7:28 They commit a gross sin, then say, "We found our parents doing this, and GOD has commanded us to do it." Say, "GOD never advocates sin. Are you saying about GOD what you do not know?"
Shabbir Ahmed	7:28 (As an example) when people commit an indecency they say, "We found our forefathers doing it and God has enjoined it upon us." (Made it natural for us). Say (O Prophet!), "God never enjoins indecency. Do you attribute to God that of which you have no knowledge?"
Transliteration	7:28 Wa-itha faAAaloo f ahishatan q aloowajadna AAalayh a abaana waAllahuamarana bih a qul inna All aha l aya/muru bi alfaahsha-i ataqooloona AAalaAllahi ma la taAAlamoona

A	7:28 واذا فعلوا فحشة قالوا وجدنا عليها ءاباءنا والله امرنا بها قل ان الله لا يامر بالفحشاء اتقولون على الله ما لا تعلمون
Edip-Layth	7:29 Say, "My Lord orders justice, and that you be devoted at every temple, and that you call on Him, while being faithful to Him in the system; as He initiated you, so you will return." ¹¹
The Monotheist Group	7:29 Say: "My Lord orders justice, and that you be devoted at every temple, and that you call on Him, while being faithful to Him in the system; as He initiated you, so you will return."
Muhammad Asad	7:29 Say: "My Sustainer has [but] enjoined the doing of what is right; and [He desires you to] put your whole being into every act of worship, ²¹ and to call unto Him, sincere in your faith in Him alone. As it was He who brought you into being in the first instance, so also [unto Him] you will return:
Rashad Khalifa	7:29 Say, "My Lord advocates justice, and to stand devoted to Him alone at every place of worship. You shall devote your worship absolutely to Him alone. Just as He initiated you, you will ultimately go back to Him."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:29 Say (O Messenger!), "My Lord enjoins justice and moderation and to stand devoted to Him alone in complete obedience. Call unto Him, sincere in your faith in Him alone. He is the One Who brought you into being in the first place, and to Him you will return." (And this is how you can regain your lost Paradise in both worlds.)
Transliteration	7:29 Qul amara rabbee bi alqistiwaaqeemoo wujoohakum AAinda kulli masjidin waodAAoohumukhliseenah lahu alIddeena kama badaakumtaAAoodoona
A	7:29 قل امر ربى بالقسط واقيموا وجوهكم عند كل مسجد وادعوه مخلصين له الدين كما بداكم تعودون
Edip-Layth	7:30 A group He has guided and a group has deserved misguidance; that is because they have taken the devils as allies besides God; and they think they are guided!
The Monotheist Group	7:30 A group He has guided and a group have deserved misguidance; that is because they have taken the devils as allies besides God; and they think they are guided!
Muhammad Asad	7:30 some [of you] He will have graced with His guidance, whereas, for some a straying from the right path will have become unavoidable: ²² for, behold, they will have taken [their own] evil impulses for their masters in preference to God, thinking all the while that they have found the right path!"
Rashad Khalifa	Beware: They Believe that They Are Guided 7:30 Some He guided, while others are committed to straying. They have taken the devils as their masters, instead of GOD, yet they believe that they are guided.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:30 But there will be two parties among people. Some of them will live upright according to the Divine laws of guidance while others will ally with Satans as their friends. They take their religious leadership as their masters instead of God, and think that they are rightly guided. ¹³
Transliteration	7:30 Fareeqan had a wafareeqan haqqaAAalayhimu a lddalalatu innaahumu ittakhathooalshshayaateena awliy aa min dooni All ahiwayahsaboona annahum muhtadoona

A	7:30 فريقا هدى وفريقا حق عليهم الضلالة انهم اتخذوا الشيطان اولياء من دون الله ويحسبون انهم مهتدون
Edip-Layth	7:31 O Children of Adam, dress nicely at every temple, and eat and drink and do not indulge or waste; He does not like the indulgers and the prodigals.
The Monotheist Group	7:31 O Children of Adam, dress nicely at every temple, and eat and drink and do not indulge; He does not like the indulgers.
Muhammad Asad	7:31 O CHILDREN of Adam! Beautify yourselves ²³ for every act of worship, and eat and drink [freely], but do not waste: verily, He does not love the wasteful!
Rashad Khalifa	Dress Nicely For The Masjid 7:31 O children of Adam, you shall be clean and dress nicely when you go to the masjid. And eat and drink moderately; Surely, He does not love the gluttons.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:31 O Children of Adam! Subservience and obedience to the Divine Commands ensures for you adornment and nice things in life. So enjoy God's bounties, but do not commit excesses. God does not love the wasters.
Transliteration	7:31 Ya banee adama khu thoozeenatakum AAinda kulli masjidin wakuloo waishraboo walatusrifoo innahu la yuhibbu almusrifeena
A	7:31 بينى اءادم خءوا زينءكم عند كل مسجد وكلوا واشربوا ولا تسرفوا انه لا يحب المسرفين
Edip-Layth	Do Not Prohibit in the Name Of God 7:32 Say, "Who has forbidden the nice things that God has brought forth for His servants and the good provisions?" Say, "They are in this worldly life for those who acknowledge, and they will be exclusive for them on the day of Resurrection" We thus explain the signs for those who know. ¹²
The Monotheist Group	7:32 Say: "Who has forbidden the nice things that God has brought forth for His servants and the good provisions?" Say: "They are meant for those who believe during this worldly life, and they will be exclusive for them on the Day of Resurrection." It is such that We explain the revelations for those who know.
Muhammad Asad	7:32 Say: "Who is there to forbid the beauty which God has brought forth for His creatures, and the good things from among the means of sustenance?" Say: "They are [lawful] in the life of this world unto all who have attained to faith - to be theirs alone on Resurrection Day." ²⁴ Thus clearly do We spell out these messages unto people of [innate] knowledge!
Rashad Khalifa	Innovated Prohibitions Condemned 7:32 Say, "Who prohibited the nice things GOD has created for His creatures, and the good provisions?" Say, "Such provisions are to be enjoyed in this life by those who believe. Moreover, the good provisions will be exclusively theirs on the Day of Resurrection." We thus explain the revelations for people who know.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:32 Say, "Who is there to forbid the beauty that God has brought forth for His servants, and the good things of sustenance?" Say, "On the Day of Resurrection, these things will be only for those who chose to believe during the life of this world." Thus do We detail Our messages for people who make use of what they learn. ¹⁴
Transliteration	7:32 Qul man harrama zeenata All ahiallatee akhraja liAAib adihi waalttayyibatimina a Irrizqi qul hiya lilla theena amanoofee al hayati a Iddunya khalisatanyawma alqiyamati kathalika nufassilu al-ayatiliqawmin yaAAlamoonaa
A	7:32 قل من حرم زينة الله التى اخرج لعباده والطيبات من الرزق قل هى للذين ءامنوا فى

Edip-Layth	7:33 Say, "My Lord has forbidden all lewd action, what is obvious from them and what is subtle, and sin, aggression without cause, your setting up partners with God that were never authorized by Him, and saying about God what you do not know."
The Monotheist Group	7:33 Say: "My Lord has forbidden all lewd action, what is obvious from them and what is subtle, and sin, and aggression without cause, and that you set up partners with God that which He has never authorized, and that you say about God what you do not know."
Muhammad Asad	7:33 Say: "Verily, my Sustainer has forbidden only shameful deeds, be they open or secret, and [every kind of] sinning, and unjustified envy, and the ascribing of divinity to aught beside Him - since He has never bestowed any warrant therefor from on high and the attributing unto God of aught of which you have no knowledge."
Rashad Khalifa	7:33 Say, "My Lord prohibits only evil deeds, be they obvious or hidden, and sins, and unjustifiable aggression, and to set up beside GOD powerless idols, and to say about GOD what you do not know."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:33 Say, "My Lord forbids only: Indecent shameful deeds, open or secret, actions that hurt the 'self' and drag down the individual and collective human potential, unjust aggression, associating others with God (Shirk), for which He has sent down no authority, and that you say things about God that you do not know."
Transliteration	7:33 Qul innam a harrama rabbiyaalfaw ahisha m a thahara minh awama ba tana waal-ithma waalbaghyabighayri al haqqi waan tushrikoo bi Allahi m alam yunazzil bihi sultanan waan taqooloo AAala Allahima la taAAalamoonaa
A	7:33 قل انما حرم ربى الفوحش ما ظهر منها وما بطن والاثم والبغى بغير الحق وان تشركوا بالله ما لم ينزل به سلطانا وان تقولوا على الله ما لا تعلمون
Edip-Layth	7:34 For every nation will be an allotted time; when their time is reached, they will not delay by one moment nor advance it.
The Monotheist Group	7:34 And for every nation will be an allotted time; when their time is reached, they will not delay by one hour nor advance.
Muhammad Asad	7:34 And for all people a term has been set: ²⁵ and when [the end of] their term approaches, they can neither delay it by a single moment, ²⁶ nor can they hasten it.
Rashad Khalifa	7:34 For each community, there is a predetermined life span. Once their interim comes to an end, they cannot delay it by one hour, nor advance it.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:34 All nations and communities determine the terms of their Rise and Fall in accordance with these Divine laws. And these laws work with meticulous timing, without delay and without hastening.
Transliteration	7:34 Walikulli ommatin ajalun fa-i tha jaaajaluhum la yasta/khiroona s aAAatan walayastaqdimoonaa
A	7:34 ولكل امة اجل فاذا جاء اجلهم لا يستأخرون ساعة ولا يستقدمون
Edip-Layth	When Messengers Come To You 7:35 O Children of Adam, when messengers come to you from amongst yourselves and narrate My signs to you; then for those who are aware, and reform, there will be no fear over them nor will they grieve.

The Monotheist Group	7:35 O Children of Adam, when messengers come to you from amongst yourselves and narrate My revelations to you; then for those who are aware, and upright, there will be no fear over them nor will they grieve.
Muhammad Asad	7:35 O CHILDREN of Adam! Whenever there come unto you apostles of your own, conveying My messages unto you, then all who are conscious of Me and live righteously - no fear need they have, and neither shall they grieve;
Rashad Khalifa	Messengers From Among You 7:35 O children of Adam, when messengers come to you from among you, and recite My revelations to you, those who take heed and lead a righteous life, will have nothing to fear, nor will they grieve.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:35 O Children of Adam! (I had revealed in the early stages of human civilization that I will keep sending My guidance to you 2:213.) So, when messengers of your own come to you narrating My messages, those who will live upright and mend their ways, will have nothing to fear or grieve.
Transliteration	7:35 Ya banee adama imm aya/tyannakum rusulun minkum yaqu ssoona AAalaykum ayateefamani ittaq a waa slaha fal a khawfunAAalayhim wal a hum yahzanoona
A	7:35 بیانی ادم اما یاتینکم رسل منکم یقصون علیکم ءایتی فمن اتقی واصلح فلا خوف علیهم ولا هم یحزنون
Edip-Layth	7:36 As for those who reject Our signs, and become arrogant towards them; then these are the dwellers of the fire, in it they will abide"
The Monotheist Group	7:36 As for those who reject Our revelations, and become arrogant towards them; then these are the dwellers of the Fire, in it they will abide"
Muhammad Asad	7:36 but they who give the lie to Our messages and scorn them in their pride- these are destined for the fire, therein to abide.
Rashad Khalifa	7:36 As for those who reject our revelations, and are too arrogant to uphold them, they have incurred Hell, wherein they abide forever.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:36 On the other hand, those who reject Our revelations and scorn them, will dwell in the Hellfire to live therein, forever.
Transliteration	7:36 Waallatheena ka ththaboobi-ayatina wa istakbaroo AAanh aola-ika a s-habu alnnari humfeeha khalidoona
A	7:36 والذین کذبوا بآیتنا واستکبروا عنها اولئک اصحب النار هم فیها یدلون
Edip-Layth	The Worst People 7:37 Who is more wicked than one who invents lies about God, or denies His signs? These will receive their recompense from the book; so that when Our messengers come to take them, they will say, "Where are those whom you used to call on besides God?" they said, "They have abandoned us!" and they bore witness upon themselves that they were ingrates.
The Monotheist Group	7:37 Who is more wicked than one who invents lies about God, or denies His revelations? These will receive their recompense from the record; so that when Our messengers come to terminate their lives, they will say: "Where are those whom you used to call on besides God?" they said: "They have abandoned us!" and they bore witness upon themselves that they were rejecters.
	7:37 And who could be more wicked than they who attribute their own lying

Muhammad Asad	inventions to God or give the lie to His messages? Whatever has been decreed to be their lot [in life] will be theirs ²⁷ -till there shall come _ unto them Our messengers to cause them to die, [and] shall say, "Where, now, are those beings whom you were wont to invoke beside God?" And [those sinners] will reply, "They have forsaken us!" -and [thus] they will bear witness against themselves that they had been denying the truth.
Rashad Khalifa	7:37 Who is more evil than those who invent lies about GOD, or reject His revelations? These will get their share, in accordance with the scripture, then, when our messengers come to terminate their lives, they will say, "Where are the idols you used to implore beside GOD?" They will say, "They have abandoned us." They will bear witness against themselves that they were disbelievers.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:37 Who can do a greater wrong than the one who invents lies about God, or rejects His revelations? They get their due share according to the Law of Respite till Our couriers of death come to them saying, "Where are those on whom you called besides God?" They will respond, "They have left us hanging." Then they will testify against themselves that they had been disbelievers.
Transliteration	7:37 Faman a th lamu mimmani iftarāAAalā Allāhi kathīban aw kath th hababi- ^{ay} atihi olā-ika yan aluhum na seebuhummina alkit ^{abi} hatta i ^{tha} j ^{aat} -humrusuluna yatawaffawnahum q ^{aloo} ayna m ^{akuntum} tadAAoona min dooni All ^{ahi} q ^{aloo} ^{daloo} AAanna washahidoo AAalā anfusihim annahum ka ^{nook} a ^{fi} reena
A	7:37 فمن اظلم ممن افترى على الله كذبا او كذب بايته اولئك ينالهم نصيبهم من الکتب حتی اذا جاءتهم رسلنا يتوفونهم قالوا این ما کنتم تدعون من دون الله قالوا ضلوا عنا وشهدوا على انفسهم انهم کانوا کفرین
Edip-Layth	7:38 He said, "Enter with the multitude of nations before you from humans and Jinn to the fire!" Every time a nation entered, it cursed its sister nation, until they are all gathered inside it; then the last of them says to the first: "Our Lord, these are the ones who have misguided us, so give them double the retribution of the fire!" He replied: "Each will receive double, but you do not know." ¹³
The Monotheist Group	7:38 He said: "Enter with the multitude of nations before you from humans and Jinn to the Fire!" Every time a nation entered, it cursed its sister nation, until they are all gathered inside it; then the last of them says to the first: "Our Lord, these are the ones who have misguided us, so give them double the retribution of the Fire!" He replied: "Each will receive double, but you do not know."
Muhammad Asad	7:38 [And God] will say: "Join those hosts of invisible beings and humans who have gone before you into the fire!" [And] every time a host enters [the fire], it will curse its fellow-host -so much so that, when they all shall have passed into it, one after another, the last of them will speak [thus] of the first of them: ²⁸ "O our Sustainer! It is they who have led us astray: give, them, therefore, double suffering through fire!" He, will reply: "Every one of you deserves double suffering ²⁹ -but you know it not."
Rashad Khalifa	Mutual Blaming 7:38 He will say, "Enter with the previous communities of jinns and humans into Hell." Every time a group enters, they will curse their ancestral group. Once they are all in it, the latest one will say of the previous one, "Our Lord, these are the ones who misled us. Give them double the retribution of Hell." He will say, "Each receives double, but you do not know."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:38 God will command them to join the previous uncivilized and civilized communities into the fire. Every later group will blame the earlier one, "Our Lord! These are the ones who misled us; double their punishment." He will say, "Doubled for all": but this you do not know. ¹⁵

Transliteration	7:38 Qala odkhuloo fee omamin qad khalatmin qablikum mina aljinni wa al-insi fee a Innarikullama dakhalat ommatun laAAanat okhtah a hattaiha idd arakoo feeha jameeAAan q alatokhrahum li-ool ahum rabban a h aola-iaadalloonah fa atihim AAathaban diAAafanmina alnnari qala likullin diAAafunwalakin la taAAlamoona
A	7:38 قال ادخلوا في امم قد خلت من قبلكم من الجن والانس في النار كلما دخلت امة لعنت اخنها حتى اذا اداركوا فيها جميعا قالت اخرهم لاولهم ربنا هؤلاء اضلونا فاتهم عذابا ضعفا من النار قال لكل ضعف ولكن لا تعلمون
Edip-Layth	7:39 The first of them said to the last: "You have no preference over us, so taste the retribution for what you earned!"
The Monotheist Group	7:39 And the first of them said to the last: "You have no preference over us, so taste the retribution for what you earned!"
Muhammad Asad	7:39 And the first of them will say unto the last of them: "So you were in no wise superior to us! ³⁰ Taste, then, this suffering for all [the evil] that you were wont to do!"
Rashad Khalifa	7:39 The ancestral group will say to the later group, "Since you had an advantage over us, taste the retribution for your own sins."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:39 The first nation will say to the last, "You are not the least bit better than us. So taste the doom for what you earned."
Transliteration	7:39 Waqalat ool ahum li-okhr ahumfama k ana lakum AAalayn a min fadlinfathooqoo alAAathaba bima kuntum taksiboona
A	7:39 وقالت اولهم لآخرهم فما كان لكم علينا من فضل فتوقوا العذاب بما كنتم تكسبون
Edip-Layth	Do Not Be Unappreciative of God's Signs 7:40 Those who have denied Our signs, and reacted to them with arrogance, the gates of the sky will not open for them, nor will they enter paradise until the camel passes through the eye of a needle. It is such that We recompense the criminals. ¹⁴
The Monotheist Group	7:40 Those who have denied Our revelations, and became arrogant towards them, the gates of the sky will not open for them, nor will they enter Paradise until the camel passes through the eye of a needle. It is such that We recompense the criminals.
Muhammad Asad	7:40 VERILY, unto those who give the lie to Our messages and scorn them in their pride, the gates of heaven shall not be opened; ³¹ and they shall not enter paradise any more than a twisted rope can pass through a needle's eye: ³² for thus do We requite such as are lost in sin.
Rashad Khalifa	Rejecting God's Revelations: An Unforgivable Offense 7:40 Surely, those who reject our revelations and are too arrogant to uphold them, the gates of the sky will never open for them, nor will they enter Paradise until the camel passes through the needle's eye. We thus requite the guilty.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:40 Those who deny Our messages, and scorn them, the gates of heaven will not be opened for them, and they will not enter the Garden until the camel goes through the eye of a needle. This is how We recompense the guilty. ¹⁶
Transliteration	7:40 Inna alla theena ka ththaboo bi- ayatinawaistakbaroo AAanh a l a tufattahulahum abw abu a Issama-i wal ayadkhuloona aljannata hatta yaliya aljamalu feesammi alkhiyati waka thhalika najzee almujrimeena

A	7:40 ان الذين كذبوا بايتنا واستكبروا عنها لا تفتح لهم ابواب السماء ولا يدخلون الجنة حتى يلج الجمل في سم الخياط وكذلك نجزي المجرمين
Edip-Layth	7:41 They will have hell as an abode, and from above them will be barriers. It is thus We recompense the wicked.
The Monotheist Group	7:41 They will have Hell as an abode, and from above them will be barriers. It is thus We recompense the wicked.
Muhammad Asad	7:41 Hell will be their resting-place and their covering as well: ³³ for thus do We requite the evildoers.
Rashad Khalifa	7:41 They have incurred Hell as an abode; they will have barriers above them. We thus requite the transgressors.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:41 Hell is their bed and their covering as well. This is how We recompense the guilty, those who steal the fruit of others' labor and thus violate human rights. ¹⁷
Transliteration	7:41 Lahum min jahannama mih adun waminfawqihim ghaw ashin waka thalika najzee al th th alimeena
A	7:41 لهم من جهنم مهاد ومن فوقهم غواش وكذلك نجزي الظلمين
Edip-Layth	7:42 As for those who acknowledge and do good; We do not burden a person beyond its capacity; those are the dwellers of paradise, in it they will abide.
The Monotheist Group	7:42 As for those who believe and do good; We do not burden a soul beyond its means; those are the dwellers of Paradise, in it they will abide.
Muhammad Asad	7:42 But those who attain to faith and do righteous deeds - [and] We do not burden any human being with more than he is well able to bear - they are destined for paradise, therein to abide,
Rashad Khalifa	7:42 As for those who believe and lead a righteous life - we never burden any soul beyond its means - these will be the dwellers of Paradise. They abide in it forever.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:42 On the other hand, those who attain conviction in Divine laws and work to augment the individual and collective potential of humanity, will succeed in attaining Paradise of their own making (3:136). We never assign goals to people that are beyond their capacity. ¹⁸
Transliteration	7:42 Waallat h heena amanoowa AAamiloo a Issalihati l a nukallifunafsan ill a wusAAah a ola-ika as- hab ualjannati hum fee h a kh a lidoona
A	7:42 والذين ءامنوا وعملوا الصلحت لا نكلف نفسا الا وسعها اولئك اصحب الجنة هم فيها خلدون
Edip-Layth	7:43 We removed what was in their chests of jealousy and hidden enmity; rivers will flow beneath them; and they will say, "Praise be to God who has guided us to this, and we would not have been guided unless God guided us. The messengers of our Lord had come with truth." It will be announced to them: "This is paradise; you have inherited it for what you have done."
The Monotheist Group	7:43 And We removed what was in their chests of hate; rivers will flow beneath them; and they will say: "Praise be to God who has guided us to this, and we would not have been guided unless God guided us. The messengers of our Lord had come with truth." And it was called to them: "This is Paradise; you have inherited it for what you have done."

Muhammad Asad	7:43 after We shall have removed whatever unworthy thoughts or feelings may have been [lingering] in their bosoms. Running waters will flow at their feet; and they will say: "All praise is due to God, who has guided us unto this; for we would certainly not have found the right path unless God had guided us! Indeed, our Sustainer's apostles have told us the truth!" And [a voice] will call out unto them: "This is the paradise which you have inherited by virtue of your past deeds!"
Rashad Khalifa	By God's Grace 7:43 We will remove all jealousy from their hearts. Rivers will flow beneath them, and they will say, "GOD be praised for guiding us. We could not possibly be guided, if it were not that GOD has guided us. The messengers of our Lord did bring the truth." They will be called: "This is your Paradise. You have inherited it, in return for your works."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:43 *
Transliteration	7:43 WanazaAAana ma fee sudoorihimmin ghillin tajree min ta htihimu al-anharu waqalooalhamdu lillahi alla thee hadanalihattha wama kunn linahtadiya lawl aan hadana Allahu laqad jaat rusulurabbina bi alhaqqi wanoodoo an tilkumualjannatu oorithtumooaha bima kuntum taAamaloonaa
A	7:43 ونزعلنا ما فى صدورهم من غل تجرى من تحتهم الانهر وقالوا الحمد لله الذى هدانا لهذا وما كنا لنهتدى لولا ان هدانا الله لقد جاءت رسل ربنا بالحق ونودوا ان تكلم الجنة اورثتموها بما كنتم تعملون
Edip-Layth	A Dialogue Between People of Paradise and Hell 7:44 The companions of paradise called the dwellers of the fire: "We have found what our Lord promised us to be true; did you find what your Lord promised to be true?" They said, "Indeed!" Then a caller announced between them: "God's curse is on the wicked."
The Monotheist Group	7:44 And the dwellers of Paradise called the dwellers of the Fire: "We have found what our Lord promised us to be true; did you find what your Lord promised to be true?" They said: "Indeed!" Then a caller announced between them: "God's curse is on the wicked."
Muhammad Asad	7:44 And the inmates of paradise will call out to the inmates of the fire: "Now we have found that what our Sustainer promised us has come true; have you, too, found that what your Sustainer promised you has come true?" [The others] will answer, "Yes!"-whereupon from their midst a voice 35 will loudly proclaim: "God's rejection is the due of the evildoers
Rashad Khalifa	7:44 The dwellers of Paradise will call the dwellers of Hell: "We have found our Lord's promise to be the truth; have you found your Lord's promise to be the truth?" They will say, "Yes." An announcer between them will announce: "GOD's condemnation has befallen the transgressors;
Shabbir Ahmed	7:44 The dwellers of the Garden will call out to the dwellers of the fire, "We have found that what our Sustainer promised us has come true. Have you too, found that what your Sustainer promised you has come true?" They will answer, "Yes!" Then from their midst a voice will proclaim, "God rejects the oppressors who wrongfully violated human rights."
Transliteration	7:44 Wanada as-habualjannati as-haba alnnari an qadwajadna ma waAadanah rabbunah haqqanfahal wajadtum ma waAada rabbukum haqqan qaloonaaaam faaththana mu-atththinun baynahum an laAAnatuAllahi AAala alththalimeena
	7:44 ونادى اصحاب الجنة اصحاب النار ان قد وجدنا ما وعدنا ربنا حقا فهل وجدتم ما وعد

A	ربكم حقا قالوا نعم فاذن مؤذن بينهم ان لعنة الله على الظالمين
Edip-Layth	7:45 "The ones who hinder from the path of God, and seek to distort it, are the rejecters of the Hereafter."
The Monotheist Group	7:45 "The ones who hinder from the path of God, and sought to make it crooked; and with regard to the Hereafter they were rejecters."
Muhammad Asad	7:45 who turn others away from God's path and try to make it appear crooked, and who refuse to acknowledge the truth of the life to come!"
Rashad Khalifa	7:45 "who repel from the path of GOD, and strive to make it crooked, and, with regard to the Hereafter, they are disbelievers."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:45 They hindered men and women from the path of God and tried to make it crooked, thus practically denying the Law of Requital and the life Hereafter.
Transliteration	7:45 Allat h eena ya s uddoona AAansabeeli All a hi wayabghoonah a AAiwajan wahum bial- a khira tika firoona
A	7:45 الذين يصدون عن سبيل الله وييغونها عوجا وهم بالآخرة كفرون
Edip-Layth	Identification Station 7:46 A barrier separates them. At the identification station there are pedestrians who recognize others by their features. They called out to the dwellers of paradise: "Peace be upon you!" They have not yet entered it, but they are hoping. ¹⁵
The Monotheist Group	7:46 And between them is a barrier, and on the elevated platform are men who recognized others by their features. And they called out to the dwellers of Paradise: "Peace be upon you!" They have not yet entered it, but they are hoping.
Muhammad Asad	7:46 And between the two there will be a barrier. ³⁶ And there will be persons who [in life] were endowed with the faculty of discernment [between right and wrong], recognizing each by its mark. ³⁷ And they will call out unto the inmates of paradise, "Peace be upon you!"-not having entered it themselves, but longing [for it].
Rashad Khalifa	7:46 A barrier separates them, while the Purgatory is occupied by people who recognize each side by their looks. They will call the dwellers of Paradise: "Peace be upon you." They did not enter (Paradise) through wishful thinking.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:46 Between the people of Paradise and Hell there will be a veil. On the Heights there will be people with insight who will recognize others by their looks. They will greet those who, in their estimate, are worthy of entering the Garden, with "Peace!" ²⁰
Transliteration	7:46 Wabaynahuma h ijabunwaAAala al-aAAar a fi rij a lun yaAAarifoona kullan biseema h um wan a daw a s - h abaaljannati an sal a mun AAalaykum lam yadkhulooh a wahum ya i maAAoona
A	7:46 وبينهما حجاب وعلى الاعراف رجال يعرفون كلا بسيماهم ونادوا اصحاب الجنة ان سلم عليكم لم يدخلوها وهم يطمعون
Edip-Layth	7:47 When their eyes are turned towards the dwellers of the fire, they say, "Our Lord, do not make us with the wicked people!"
The Monotheist Group	7:47 And when their eyes are turned towards the dwellers of the Fire, they say: "Our Lord, do not make us with the wicked people!"

Muhammad Asad	7:47 And whenever their eyes are turned towards the inmates of the fire, they will cry: "O our Sustainer! Place us not among the people who have been guilty of evildoing!"
Rashad Khalifa	7:47 When they turn their eyes towards the dwellers of Hell, they will say, "Our Lord, do not put us with these wicked people."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:47 When their eyes turn toward the dwellers of the hellish societies, they will say, "Our Lord! Do not place us with the unjust people."
Transliteration	7:47 Wa-i ^{tha} surifat absaruhumtilqaa as-habi alnnari qaloorabbana la tajAAalna maAAa alqawmi al ^{ththalimeena}
A	7:47 واذا صرفت ابصرهم تلقاء اصحاب النار قالوا ربنا لا تجعلنا مع القوم الظالمين
Edip-Layth	7:48 Those attending the identification station called on men they recognized by their features, they said, "What good did your large number do for you, or what you were arrogant for?"
The Monotheist Group	7:48 And the people standing on the elevated platform called on men they recognized by their features, they said: "What good did your large number do for you, or what you were arrogant for?"
Muhammad Asad	7:48 And they who [in life] had possessed this faculty of discernment will call out to those whom they recognize by their marks [as sinners], saying: "What has your amassing [of wealth] availed you, and all the false pride of your past?"
Rashad Khalifa	The Majority Doomed 7:48 The dwellers of the Purgatory will call on people they recognize by their looks, saying, "Your great numbers did not avail you in any way, nor did your arrogance."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:48 The people on the Heights will recognize another group by their appearance and say to them, "How did your multitude, the wealth you amassed and the things you took pride in, help you?" 21
Transliteration	7:48 Wanada a s-habual-aAAafi rij alan yaAAarifoonahum biseem ahumqaloo m a aghna AAankum jamAAukum wamakuntum tastakbiroona
A	7:48 ونادى اصحاب الاعراف رجالا يعرفونهم بسيماهم قالوا ما اغنى عنكم جمعكم وما كنتم تستكبرون
Edip-Layth	7:49 "Weren't these the ones whom you swore God would not grant them of His mercy? "Enter paradise, there is no fear for you nor will you grieve."
The Monotheist Group	7:49 Weren't these the ones whom you swore God would not grant them of His mercy? "Enter Paradise, there is no fear for you nor will you grieve."
Muhammad Asad	7:49 Are those [blessed ones] the self-same people of whom you once solemnly declared, 'Never will God bestow His grace upon them'? 38 [For now they have been told,] 'Enter paradise; no fear need you have, and neither shall you grieve!'"
Rashad Khalifa	7:49 "Are those the people you swore that GOD will never touch them with mercy?" (The people in the Purgatory will then be told,) "Enter Paradise; you have nothing to fear, nor will you grieve."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:49 And pointing to the dwellers of the Garden, they will say, "Are these not the people about whom you used to swear that God will never bestow His grace upon them? They are entering the Garden where there will be no fear or grief." 22

Transliteration	7:49 Aha ^o la-i alla the ena ^a qsamtu ^m l a ^u yan a ^l uhumu All a ^h u bira h matinodkhuloo aljannata la ^u khawfun AAalaykum wala ^u antumta ^h zanoona
A	7:49 اهولاء الذين اقستم لا ينالهم الله برحمة ادخلوا الجنة لا خوف عليكم ولا انتم تحزنون
Edip-Layth	7:50 The dwellers of the fire called on the dwellers of paradise: "Give us some water, or what God has provided for you?" They said, "God has forbidden it for the ingrates."
The Monotheist Group	7:50 And the dwellers of the Fire called on the dwellers of Paradise: "Give us some water, or what God has provided for you?" They said: "God has forbidden it for the rejecters."
Muhammad Asad	7:50 And the inmates of the fire will call out unto the inmates of paradise: "Pour some water upon us, or some of the sustenance [of paradise] which God has provided for you!" [The inmates of paradise] will reply: "Verily, God has denied both to those who have denied the truth -
Rashad Khalifa	7:50 The dwellers of Hell will call on the dwellers of Paradise: "Let some of your water, or some of GOD's provisions to you flow towards us." They will say, "GOD has forbidden them for the disbelievers."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:50 The dwellers of Hell will say to the dwellers of Paradise, "Give us something of the life-giving resources and the provisions bestowed on you by God." They will reply, "God has made these things forbidden to the rejecters of His laws." 23
Transliteration	7:50 Wanada as-habu aInarias-haba aljannati an afee doo AAalayn amina alm a-i aw mimma razaqakumu Allahu qalooinna Allaha harramahuma AAala alkafireena
A	7:50 ونادى اصحب النار اصحب الجنة ان افيضوا علينا من الماء او مما رزقكم الله قالوا ان الله حرمهما على الكافرين
Edip-Layth	7:51 The ones who took their system as diversion and games, and were preoccupied with this worldly life. Today we ignore them as they ignored their meeting on this day, and they denied Our signs.
The Monotheist Group	7:51 The ones who took their system as amusement and games, and were preoccupied with this worldly life. Today We forget them as they forgot their meeting on this Day, and they did not heed Our revelations.
Muhammad Asad	7:51 those who, beguiled by the life of this world, have made play and passing delights their religion! 39 [And God will say:] "And so We shall be oblivious of them today as they were oblivious of the coming of this their Day [of Judgment], and as Our messages they did deny:
Rashad Khalifa	7:51 Those who do not take their religion seriously, and are totally preoccupied with this worldly life, we forget them on that day, because they forgot that day, and because they spurned our revelations.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:51 Those who took their religion as mere amusement and ritual partying, were deceived by immediate gains of the worldly life (6:70). We will forget them as they forgot the meeting of this Day, and rejected Our revelations.
Transliteration	7:51 Allatheena ittakha th ooddeenahum lahwana walaAAiban wagharrat-humu alhayatualddunya faalyawma nansa ^h um kamasoo liqaa yawmihim h atha wama ^u kanoobi-ayatina yajhadoo ^a
A	7:51 الذين اتخذوا دينهم لهوا ولعبا وغرتهم الحياة الدنيا فاليوم ننسهم كما نسوا لقاء يومهم هذا وما كانوا بايتنا يجحدون

Edip-Layth	The Quran Is Detailed in Knowledge 7:52 We have brought them a book which We have detailed with knowledge; a guide and a mercy to those who acknowledge. ¹⁶
The Monotheist Group	7:52 And We have come to them with a Scripture which We have detailed with knowledge; a guide and a mercy to those who believe.
Muhammad Asad	7:52 for, indeed, We did convey unto them a divine writ which We clearly, and wisely, ⁴⁰ spelled out - a guidance and a grace unto people who will believe."
Rashad Khalifa	Quran: Fully Detailed 7:52 We have given them a scripture that is fully detailed, with knowledge, guidance, and mercy for the people who believe.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:52 We have given them a Book of knowledge that explains the guidance in full detail. It is a mercy for those who accept it. (It has the Power to change hellish societies into Paradise on earth.)
Transliteration	7:52 Walaqad ji/n ahum bikit abin fa ssalnahuAAala AAilmin hudan wara hmatan liqawmin yu/minoona
A	7:52 وَلَقَدْ جِئْنَاهُمْ بِكِتَابٍ فَصَّلْنَاهُ عَلَىٰ عِلْمٍ هُدًى وَرَحْمَةً لِّقَوْمٍ يُؤْمِنُونَ
Edip-Layth	7:53 Are they waiting for its fulfillment? On the day which its fulfillment happens, those who previously forgot it will say, "Our Lord's messengers have come with truth! Are there any intercessors to intercede for us? Or could we be returned so that we may act differently than what we did?" They have lost themselves and what they have invented has abandoned them.
The Monotheist Group	7:53 Are they waiting for what it says to come true? On the day it comes true, those who previously forgot it will say: "Our Lord's messengers have come with truth! Are there any intercessors to intercede for us? or can we be sent back and we will work differently than what we did?" They have lost their souls and what they have invented has abandoned them.
Muhammad Asad	7:53 Are [the unbelievers] but waiting for the final meaning of that [Day of Judgment] to unfold? ⁴¹ [But] on the Day when its final meaning is unfolded, those who aforetime had been oblivious thereof will say: "Our Sustainer's apostles have indeed told us the truth! Have we, then, any intercessors who could intercede in our behalf? Or could we be brought back [to life] so that we might act otherwise than we were wont to act?" ⁴² Indeed, they will have squandered their own selves, and all their false imagery will have forsaken them.
Rashad Khalifa	7:53 Are they waiting until all (prophecies) are fulfilled? The day such fulfillment comes to pass, those who disregarded it in the past will say, "The messengers of our Lord have brought the truth. Are there any intercessors to intercede on our behalf? Would you send us back, so that we change our behavior, and do better works than what we did?" They have lost their souls, and their own innovations have caused their doom.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:53 Are they waiting until the consequences stare them in the eyes? The Day the consequences appear, those who disregarded it will say, "The messengers of our Lord did bring the truth. Are there any intercessors to intercede on our behalf? Or can we be returned so that we behave differently from our past?" They have put their own 'self' in loss and their own forgery fails them. ²⁴
Transliteration	7:53 Hal yan thuroona ill ata/weelahu yawma ya/tee ta/weeluhu yaqoolu allatheenanasoohu min qablu qad j aat rusulu rabbil a bi alhaqqifahallan a min shufaAAaa fayashfaAAoo lan aaw nuraddu fanaAAMala ghayra alla thee

	kunnanaAAmalu qad khasiroo anfusahum waḍalla AAanhum maḵanoo yaftaroon a
A	7:53 هل ينظرون الا تاويله يوم ياتى تاويله يقول الذين نسوه من قبل قد جاءت رسل ربنا بالحق فهل لنا من شفعاء فيشفعوا لنا او نرد فنعمل غير الذى كنا نعمل قد خسروا انفسهم وضل عنهم ما كانوا يفترون
Edip-Layth	7:54 Your Lord is God who created the heavens and earth in six days, and then He established the authority. The night covers the day, which seeks it continually; and the sun and the moon and the stars are all subjected to His law; to Him is the creation and the law. Glory be to God, the Lord of the worlds. ¹⁷
The Monotheist Group	7:54 Your Lord is God who created the heavens and Earth in six days, then He settled upon the throne. The night runs from the day, which seeks it continually; and the sun and the moon and the stars are all subjected by His command; to Him is the creation and the command. Glory be to God, the Lord of the worlds.
Muhammad Asad	7:54 VERILY, your Sustainer is God, who has created the heavens and the earth in six aeons, and is established on the throne of His almightiness. ⁴³ He covers the day with the night in swift pursuit, with the sun and the moon and the stars subservient to His command: oh, verily, His is all creation and all command. Hallowed is God, the Sustainer of all the worlds!
Rashad Khalifa	7:54 Your Lord is the one GOD, who created the heavens and the earth in six days, then assumed all authority. The night overtakes the day, as it pursues it persistently, and the sun, the moon, and the stars are committed to serve by His command. Absolutely, He controls all creation and all commands. Most Exalted is GOD, Lord of the universe.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:54 Surely, your Sustainer is God Who created the heavens and earth in six stages, and then established Himself on the Throne of His Almighty. He draws the night over the day, each seeking the other in rapid succession. The sun, the moon and the stars are committed to serve by His command. Remember! To Him belongs the World of Creation, and to Him belongs the World of command. Exalted is God, the Lord of the worlds. ²⁵
Transliteration	7:54 Inna rabbakumu All ahu alla theekhalaqa a Issamawati wa al-ardaḥee sittati ayyamin thumma istaw a AAal aalAAarshi yughshee allayla a Innahra yaḥlubuhuḥatheethan wa alshshamsa wa alqamara wa alInnujoomamusakhkharatin bi-amrihi ala lahu alkhalqu waal-amrutabaraka Allahu rabbu alAAalameena
A	7:54 ان ربكم الله الذى خلق السموت والارض فى ستة ايام ثم استوى على العرش يعشى الليل النهار يطلبه حثيثا والشمس والقمر والنجوم مسخرت بامره الا له الخلق والامر تبارك الله رب العلمين
Edip-Layth	7:55 Call on your Lord openly and in secret. He does not like the aggressors.
The Monotheist Group	7:55 Call on your Lord in humility and in secret. He does not like the aggressors.
Muhammad Asad	7:55 Call unto your Sustainer humbly, and in the secrecy of your hearts. Verily, He loves not those who transgress the bounds of what is right:
Rashad Khalifa	7:55 You shall worship your Lord publicly and privately; He does not love the transgressors.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:55 (He has the power to revive dead nations.) Call unto your Lord humbly and in the secrecy of your hearts. He does not love those who transgress the bounds of what He has ordained as right.

Transliteration	7:55 OdAAoo rabbakum ta darruAAanwakhufyatan innahu l a yu hibbu almuAAatadeena
A	7:55 ادعوا ربكم تضرعا وخفية انه لا يحب المعتدين
Edip-Layth	Do Not Corrupt the Earth 7:56 Do not corrupt the earth after it has been reformed; and call on Him out of fear and want. God's mercy is near to the righteous.
The Monotheist Group	7:56 And do not corrupt the Earth after it has been made right; and call on Him out of fear and want. God's mercy is near to the righteous.
Muhammad Asad	7:56 hence, do not spread corruption on earth after it has been so well ordered. And call unto Him with fear and longing: verily, God's grace is ever near unto the doers of good!
Rashad Khalifa	7:56 Do not corrupt the earth after it has been set straight, and worship Him out of reverence, and out of hope. Surely, GOD's mercy is attainable by the righteous.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:56 So, do not spread corruption on earth after it has been set in order. Call upon Him in fear and hope. God's mercy is close to the benefactors of humanity. 26
Transliteration	7:56 Walā tufsidoo fee al-ar dībaAAda i slaḥiḥa wa odAAoohu khawfan waṭamaAAaninna raḥmata Allāhi qareebun mina almuḥsineena
A	7:56 ولا تفسدوا في الارض بعد اصلحها وادعوه خوفا وطمعا ان رحمت الله قريب من المحسنين
Edip-Layth	7:57 He is the One who sends the winds to be dispersed between His hands of mercy; so when it carries a heavy cloud, We drive it to a dead town, and We send down the water with it and We bring forth fruits of all kind. Thus We will bring out the dead, perhaps you may remember.
The Monotheist Group	7:57 He is the One who sends the winds to be dispersed between His hands of mercy; so when it carries a heavy cloud, We drive it to a dead town, and We send down the water with it and We bring forth fruits of all kind. It is thus that We will bring out the dead, perhaps you will remember.
Muhammad Asad	7:57 And He it is who sends forth the winds as a glad tiding of His coming grace- so that, when they have brought heavy clouds, We may drive them towards dead land and cause thereby water to descend; and by this means do We cause all manner of fruit to come forth. Even thus shall We cause the \dead to come forth: [and this] you ought to keep in mind. 44
Rashad Khalifa	7:57 He is the One who sends the wind with good omen, as a mercy from His hands. Once they gather heavy clouds, we drive them to dead lands, and send down water therefrom, to produce with it all kinds of fruits. We thus resurrect the dead, that you may take heed.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:57 He is the One who sends pleasant winds bearing good news of the forthcoming rain of His blessings. When the winds carry the heavy clouds, We drive them to a land that is dead. The water then causes all kinds of fruit and vegetation to sprout. This is how We can revive dead people and nations. Herein is a sign for those who pay heed.
Transliteration	7:57 Wahuwa alla thee yursilu a Irriyahabushran bayna yaday ra hmatihi hatta ithaaqallat sa haban thiq alan suqn ahu libaladinmayyitin faanzaln a bihi alm aa faakhrajnabihi min kulli a lththamarati ka thalīkanukhriju almawt a laAAaallakum tathakkaroonā

A	7:57 وهو الذى يرسل الريح بشرا بين يدي رحمة حتى اذا اقلبت سحابا ثقالا سقنه لبلد ميت فانزلنا به الماء فاخرجنا به من كل الثمرات كذلك نخرج الموتى لعلكم تذكرون
Edip-Layth	7:58 As for the good town, its plants are produced by its Lord's permission, while the inferior land does not produce except very little. It is such that We cite the signs for a people who are thankful.
The Monotheist Group	7:58 And the good town, its plants are brought forth by its Lord's leave. And for the one that is evil, it does not bring forth except very little. It is such that We put forth the revelations for a people who are thankful.
Muhammad Asad	7:58 As for the good land, its vegetation comes forth [in abundance] by its Sustainer's leave, whereas from the bad it comes forth but poorly. Thus do We give many facets to Our messages for [the benefit of] people who are grateful!
Rashad Khalifa	7:58 The good land readily produces its plants by the leave of its Lord, while the bad land barely produces anything useful. We thus explain the revelations for people who are appreciative.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:58 The land that has been well prepared springs up rich produce by the Leave of its Lord. The land that has not been well prepared only yields scant vegetation. (Similar is the situation of nations that wish to come back to life. They need reform at the grassroots level.) This is how We explain Our verses from various vantage points for those who are grateful to receive such clear guidance.
Transliteration	7:58 Waalbaladu a lttayyibuyakhruju nab atuhu bi-i thni rabbihi waallatheekhabutha la yakhruju ill a nakidan ka thalikanusarrifu al-ayati liqawmin yashkuroona
A	7:58 والبلد الطيب يخرج نباته باذن ربه والذى خبث لا يخرج الا نكدا كذلك نصرف الاءات لقوم يشكرون
Edip-Layth	Noah 7:59 We have sent Noah to his people, so he said, "My people, serve God, you have no god besides Him. I fear for you the retribution of a great day!"
The Monotheist Group	7:59 We have sent Noah to his people, so he said: "My people, serve God, you have no god besides Him. I fear for you the retribution of a great Day!"
Muhammad Asad	7:59 INDEED, We sent forth Noah unto his people, ⁴⁵ and he said: "O my people! Worship God alone: you have no deity other than Him. Verily, I fear lest suffering befall you on an awesome Day!" ⁴⁶
Rashad Khalifa	Noah 7:59 We sent Noah to his people, saying, "O my people, worship GOD; you have no other god beside Him. I fear for you the retribution of an awesome day."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:59 * We sent Noah to his people. He said, "O My people! Serve God (by serving His creation). You have no other god beside Him. (If you do not reform) I fear for you the retribution of an awesome day."
Transliteration	7:59 Laqad arsaln a noo han il aqawmihi faq ala y a qawmi oAAbudoo All aha malakum min il ahin ghayruhu innee akh afu AAalaykumAAa thaba yawmin AAattheemin
A	7:59 لقد ارسلنا نوحا الى قومه فقال يقوم اعبدوا الله ما لكم من اله غيره انى اخاف عليكم عذاب يوم عظيم
Edip-Layth	7:60 The leaders from his people said, "We see that you are clearly misguided."

The Monotheist Group	7:60 The leaders from his people said: "We see that you are clearly misguided."
Muhammad Asad	7:60 The great ones among his people replied: "Verily, we see that thou art obviously lost in error!"
Rashad Khalifa	7:60 The leaders among his people said, "We see that you are far astray."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:60 The chiefs of his people said, "We surely see you in manifest error."
Transliteration	7:60 Qala almalao min qawmihi innalanaraka fee dalalin mubeenin
A	7:60 قال الملا من قومه انا لنرىك فى ضلال مبين
Edip-Layth	7:61 He said, "My people, I am not misguided, but I am a messenger from the Lord of the worlds."
The Monotheist Group	7:61 He said: "My people, I am not misguided, but I am a messenger from the Lord of the worlds."
Muhammad Asad	7:61 Said [Noah]: "O my people! There is no error in me, but I am an apostle from the Sustainer of all the worlds."
Rashad Khalifa	7:61 He said, "O my people, I am not astray; I am a messenger from the Lord of the universe."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:61 Noah said, "O My people! There is no error in me. I am a messenger from the Lord of the worlds."
Transliteration	7:61 Qala y a qawmi laysa bee dalalatunwalakinnee rasoolun min rabbi alAAalameena
A	7:61 قال يقوم ليس بى ضللة ولكنى رسول من رب العلمين
Edip-Layth	7:62 "I deliver to you my Lord's messages, I advise you, and I know from God what you do not know."
The Monotheist Group	7:62 "I deliver to you my Lord's messages, and I advise you, and I know from God what you do not know."
Muhammad Asad	7:62 I am delivering unto you my Sustainer's messages and giving you good advice: for I know [through revelation] from God what you do not know."
Rashad Khalifa	7:62 "I deliver to you the messages of my Lord, and I advise you, and I know from GOD what you do not know."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:62 I only convey to you the messages of my Lord. My advice to you is sincere and I know from God what you do not know."
Transliteration	7:62 Obalighukum risalatI rabbeewaan sahu lakum waaAAalamu mina All ahi m ala taAAalamoon
A	7:62 ابليغكم رسلت ربي وانصح لكم واعلم من الله ما لا تعلمون
Edip-Layth	7:63 "Are you surprised that a reminder has come to you from your Lord through a man from amongst you to warn you so that you become aware, and that you may receive mercy?"
The Monotheist Group	7:63 "Are you surprised that a reminder has come to you from your Lord through a man from amongst you to warn you, and that you may receive mercy?"
	7:63 Why, do you deem it strange that a tidings from your Sustainer should have

Muhammad Asad	come unto you through a man from among yourselves, so that he might warn you, and that you might become conscious of God, and that you might be graced with His mercy?"
Rashad Khalifa	7:63 "Is it too much of a wonder that a reminder should come to you from your Lord, through a man like you, to warn you, and to lead you to righteousness, that you may attain mercy?"
Shabbir Ahmed	7:63 Why do you wonder that there has come to you a reminder from your Lord through a man from amongst you - to warn you, and to show you the secure path so that you may flourish in grace?"
Transliteration	7:63 Awa AAajibtum an j aakum thikrunmin rabbikum AAal a rajulin minkum liyunthirakumwalitattaqoo walaAAallakum turhamoona
A	7:63 اوعجبتم ان جاءكم ذكر من ربكم على رجل منكم لينذركم ولتتقوا ولعلكم ترحمون
Edip-Layth	7:64 They denied him, so We saved him and those with him in the ship, and We drowned those who denied Our signs; they were a blind people.
The Monotheist Group	7:64 They denied him, so We saved him and those with him in the Ship, and We drowned those who denied Our revelations; they were a blind people.
Muhammad Asad	7:64 And yet they gave him the lie! And so We saved him and those who stood by him, in the ark, the while We caused those who had given the lie to Our messages to drown: verily, they were blind folk! 47
Rashad Khalifa	7:64 They rejected him. Consequently, we saved him and those with him in the ark, and we drowned those who rejected our revelations; they were blind.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:64 But they denied him. So, We saved him and those with him in the ship, and drowned those who denied Our revelations. They were a people blind in arrogance. 28
Transliteration	7:64 Fakaththaboohu faanjaynahu waallatheenamaAAahu fee alfulki waaghraqn a allatheena kaththaboobi-ayatina innahum kanoo qawmanAAameena
A	7:64 فكنبوه فاتجينه والذين معه فى الفلك واغرقنا الذين كذبوا بايتنا انهم كانوا قوما عمين
Edip-Layth	Hud 7:65 To Aad We sent their brother Hud, he said, "My people, serve God, you have no god besides Him. Will you not be aware?"
The Monotheist Group	7:65 And to 'Aad We sent their brother Hud, he said: "My people, serve God, you have no god besides Him. Will you not be righteous?"
Muhammad Asad	7:65 AND UNTO [the tribe of] `Ad [We sent] their brother Hud. 48 He said: "O my people! Worship God alone: you have no deity other than Him. Will you not, then, be conscious of Him?"
Rashad Khalifa	Hood 7:65 To `Aad we sent their brother Hood. He said, "O my people, worship GOD; you have no other god beside Him. Would you then observe righteousness?"
Shabbir Ahmed	7:65 To the people of 'Aad, We sent their brother, Hud. He said, "O My people! Serve God. You have no god beside Him. Do you not wish to live upright?"
Transliteration	7:65 Wa-ilā AAadin akhahumhoodan qala ya qawmi oAAabudoo Allaha m alakum min ilahin ghayruhu afala tattaqoona
A	7:65 والى عاد اخاهم هودا قال يقوم اعبدوا الله ما لكم من اله غيره افلا تتقون

Edip-Layth	7:66 The leaders who rejected from among his people said, "We see you in foolishness, and we think you are one of the liars"
The Monotheist Group	7:66 The leaders who rejected from among his people said: "We see you in foolishness, and we think you are one of the liars"
Muhammad Asad	7:66 Said the great ones among his people, who refused to acknowledge the truth: "Verily, we see that thou art weak-minded; and, verily, we think that thou art a liar!" ⁴⁹
Rashad Khalifa	7:66 The leaders who disbelieved among his people said, "We see that you are behaving foolishly, and we think that you are a liar."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:66 The elite among his people who were disbelieving said, "Ah! We see that you are in folly, and we think that you are a liar."
Transliteration	7:66 Qala almalao allatheenakafaroo min qawmihi inna lanaraka fee safahatinwa-inna lanathunnuka mina alkathibeen
A	7:66 قال الملا الذين كفروا من قومه انا لنريك فى سفاهة وانا لنظنك من الكذابين
Edip-Layth	7:67 He said, "My people, there is no foolishness in me, but I am a messenger from the Lord of the worlds."
The Monotheist Group	7:67 He said: "My people, there is no foolishness in me, but I am a messenger from the Lord of the worlds."
Muhammad Asad	7:67 Said [Hud]: "O my people! There is no weak-mindedness in me, but I am an apostle from the Sustainer of all the worlds."
Rashad Khalifa	7:67 He said, "O my people, there is no foolishness in me; I am a messenger from the Lord of the universe."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:67 He said, "O My people! There is no folly in me. I am a messenger from the Lord of the worlds."
Transliteration	7:67 Qala y a qawmi laysa bee saf ahatunwalakinnee rasoolun min rabbi alAAalameena
A	7:67 قال يقوم ليس بى سفاهة ولكنى رسول من رب العلمين
Edip-Layth	7:68 "To deliver to you my Lord's messages, and to you I am a trustworthy advisor."
The Monotheist Group	7:68 "To deliver to you my Lord's messages, and to you I am a trustworthy advisor."
Muhammad Asad	7:68 I am delivering unto you my Sustainer's messages and advising you truly and wells. ⁵⁰
Rashad Khalifa	7:68 "I deliver to you my Lord's messages, and I am honestly advising you."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:68 I convey to you the messages of my Lord, and I am a sincere and trustworthy adviser to you."
Transliteration	7:68 Obalighukum risalat rabbeewaana lakum nasihun ameenun
A	7:68 اببلغكم رسلت ربى وانا لكم ناصح امين
	7:69 "Are you surprised that a reminder has come to you from your Lord through a man from amongst you to warn you? Recall that he made you successors after

Edip-Layth	the people of Noah, and He increased you in status. So recall God's blessings that you may succeed." ¹⁸
The Monotheist Group	7:69 "Are you surprised that a reminder has come to you from your Lord through a man from amongst you to warn you? And recall that he made you successors after the people of Noah, and He increased you in status. So recall God's grace, that you may succeed."
Muhammad Asad	7:69 Why, do you deem it strange that a tiding from your Sustainer should have come unto you through a man from among yourselves, so that he might warn you? Do but remember how He made you heirs to Noah's people, and endowed you abundantly with power: ⁵¹ remember, then, God's blessings, so that you might attain to a happy state!"
Rashad Khalifa	7:69 "Is it too much of a wonder that a message should come to you from your Lord, through a man like you, to warn you? Recall that He made you inheritors after the people of Noah, and multiplied your number. Remember GOD's blessings, that you may succeed."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:69 Why do you wonder that there has come to you a reminder from your Lord through a man from amongst you, to warn you? Recall that He made you successors to Noah's people and gave you abundant power. Keep in mind God's authority and blessings that you may continue to prosper."
Transliteration	7:69 Awa AAajibtum an j aakum thikrunmin rabbikum AAal a rajulin minkum liyunthirakum wa othkurooith jaAAalakum khulaf aa min baAAadi qawmi noohinwazadukum fee alkhalqi bas tatan fa othkurooalaa All ahi laAAaallakum tuflihoona
A	7:69 اوعجبتم ان جاءكم ذكر من ربكم على رجل منكم لينذركم واذكروا اذ جعلكم خلفاء من بعد قوم نوح وزادكم في الخلق بسطة فاذكروا ءالاء الله لعلكم تفلحون
Edip-Layth	7:70 They said, "Have you come to us to serve God alone and abandon what our fathers had served? Bring us what you promise if you are of the truthful ones!"
The Monotheist Group	7:70 They said: "Have you come to us to serve God alone and abandon what our fathers had served? Bring us what you promise if you are of the truthful ones!"
Muhammad Asad	7:70 They answered: "Hast thou come to us [with the demand] that we worship God alone, and give up all that our forefathers were wont to worship? Bring about, then, that [punishment] with which thou hast threatened us, if thou art a man of truth!"
Rashad Khalifa	Following the Parents Blindly: A Human Tragedy 7:70 They said, "Did you come to make us worship GOD alone, and abandon what our parents used to worship? We challenge you to bring the doom you threaten us with, if you are truthful."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:70 They said, "Have you come to us that we worship God alone and give up what our forefathers worshiped? Bring upon us what you threaten us with, if you are truthful."
Transliteration	7:70 Qaloo aji/tan a linaABuda All ahawahdahu wana thara m a k ana yaABudu abaonafa/tina bima taAAiduna in kunta mina alssadiqeena
A	7:70 قالوا اجئتنا لنعبد الله وحده ونذر ما كان يعبد ءاباونا فاتنا بما تعدنا ان كنت من الصادقين
Edip-Layth	7:71 He said, "An affliction and wrath shall befall you from your Lord. Do you argue with me over names which you and your fathers have created with no authority being sent down by God? Wait then, and I will wait with you." ¹⁹

The Monotheist Group	7:71 He said: "An affliction and wrath shall befall you from your Lord. Do you argue with me over names which you and your fathers have created with no authority being sent down by God? Wait then, and I will wait with you."
Muhammad Asad	7:71 Said [Hud]: "You are already beset by loath some evils ⁵² and by your Sustainer's condemnation! Do you argue with me about the [empty] names which you have invented ⁵³ - you and your forefathers - for which God has bestowed no warrant from on high? Wait, then, [for what will happen:] verily, I shall wait with you!" ⁵⁴
Rashad Khalifa	7:71 He said, "You have incurred condemnation and wrath from your Lord. Do you argue with me in defense of innovations you have fabricated - you and your parents - which were never authorized by GOD? Therefore, wait and I will wait along with you."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:71 ('Aad were a powerful community, but their society had gone unjust. Since there is a Law of Respite for nations, they flourished and were unable to see the wrong thus far.) Hud said, "God's Law of Requital is already hovering over you. Do you argue with me about certain names that you and your forefathers have fabricated, whereas God never authorized them. Then wait for the consequences, and I am also waiting." ²⁹
Transliteration	7:71 Qala qad waqaAAa AAalaykum minrabbikum rijsun wagha dabun atujadiloonanee fee asm a-insammaytumooha antum wa abaokum m anazzala Allahu biha min sultanin faintathirooinnee maAAakum mina almuntaathireena
A	7:71 قال قد وقع عليكم من ربكم رجس وغضب اتجدلونني في اسماء سميتموها انتم وءابوكم ما نزل الله بها من سلطان فانتظروا اني معكم من المنتظرين
Edip-Layth	7:72 We saved him and those with him by a mercy from Us, and We destroyed the remnant of those who rejected Our signs and did not acknowledge.
The Monotheist Group	7:72 We saved him and those with him by a mercy from Us, and We destroyed the remnant of those who rejected Our revelations, they were never believers.
Muhammad Asad	7:72 And so, by Our grace, We saved him and those who stood by him, the while We wiped out the last remnant of those who gave the lie to Our messages and would not believe. ⁵⁵
Rashad Khalifa	7:72 We then saved him and those with him, by mercy from us, and we annihilated those who rejected our revelations and refused to be believers.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:72 * We saved him and those with him by mercy from Us, and cut the root of those who denied Our messages and would not believe.
Transliteration	7:72 Faanjaynahu wa allatheenamaAAahu bira hmatin minn a waqa taAAna dabiraallatheena kaththaboo bi-ayatinawama kanoo mu/mineena
A	7:72 فانجينه والذين معه برحمة منا وقطعنا دابر الذين كذبوا بايتنا وما كانوا مؤمنين
Edip-Layth	Saleh 7:73 To Thamud, We sent their brother Saleh, he said, "My people, serve God, you have no god besides Him; proof has come to you from your Lord. This is God's camel, in her you have a sign, so leave her to eat in God's land, and do not harm her, else a painful retribution will take you."
The Monotheist Group	7:73 And to Thamud, We sent their brother Saleh, he said: "My people, serve God, you have no god besides Him; clarity has come to you from your Lord, this is God's camel, in her you have a sign, so leave her to eat in God's land, and do not harm her, else the painful retribution will take you."

Muhammad Asad	7:73 AND UNTO [the tribe of] Thamud [We sent] their brother salih ⁵⁶ He said: "O my people! Worship God alone: you have no deity other than Him. Clear evidence of the truth has now come unto you from your Sustainer. "This she-camel belonging to God shall be a token for you: so leave her alone to pasture on God's earth, and do her no harm, lest grievous chastisement befall you." ⁵⁷
Rashad Khalifa	Saaleh 7:73 To Thamoud we sent their brother Saaleh. He said, "O my people, worship GOD; you have no other god beside Him. Proof has been provided for you from your Lord: here is GOD's camel, to serve as a sign for you. Let her eat from GOD's land, and do not touch her with any harm, lest you incur a painful retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:73 The people of Thamud were successors to 'Aad. To them We sent their brother, Saaleh. He said, "O My people! Serve God. You have no other god but He. The clear truth has come to you from your Lord. This is the she-camel of God, a token for your obedience. So let her feed in God's earth and do not harm her lest painful torment seize you." ³¹
Transliteration	7:73 Wa-ila thamooda akhahum salihanqala ya qawmi oAAabudoo Allaha malakum min ilahin ghayruhu qad j aatukum bayyinatunmin rabbikum h athihi naqatu Allahi lakum ayatanfatharooha ta/kul fee ar di All ahi wal atamassooha bisoo-in fayakhuhakum AAathabunaleemun
A	7:73 والى ثمود اخاهم صلحا قال يقوم اعبدوا الله ما لكم من اله غيره قد جاءتكم بينة من ربكم هذه ناقة الله لكم آية فذروها تاكل في ارض الله ولا تمسوها بسوء فياخذكم عذاب اليم
Edip-Layth	7:74 "Recall that He made you successors after Aad, and He established you in the land so that you make palaces on its plains, and you carve homes in the mountains. So recall God's grace, and do not roam the earth as corrupters."
The Monotheist Group	7:74 "And recall that He made you successors after 'Aad, and He established you in the land so that you make palaces on its plains, and you carve homes in the mountains. So recall God's grace, and do not roam the Earth as corrupters."
Muhammad Asad	7:74 "And remember how He made you heirs to [the tribe of] `Ad ⁵⁸ and settled you firmly on earth, so that you [are able to] build for yourselves castles on its plains and hew out mountains [to serve you] as dwellings: ⁵⁹ remember, then, God's blessings, and do not act wickedly on earth by spreading corruption."
Rashad Khalifa	7:74 "Recall that He made you inheritors after `Aad, and established you on earth, building mansions in its valleys, and carving homes from its mountains. You shall remember GOD's blessings, and do not roam the earth corruptingly."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:74 Saaleh said, "Remember how He made you inherit the land after 'Aad and established you therein. You build castles in the valleys and carve out homes in the mountains. So, remember God's bounties and do not spread corruption in the land."
Transliteration	7:74 Waothkuroo ithjaAAalakum khulafaa min baAAadi AA adin wabawwaakumfee al-ardi tattakhi thoona min suhoolih a qu sooranwatanhitoona aljib ala buyootan faothkurooalaa Allahi wala taAAathaw fee al-ardimufsideena
A	7:74 واذكروا اذ جعلكم خلفاء من بعد عاد وبواكم في الارض تتخذون من سهولها قصورا وتتحتون الجبال بيوتا فاذكروا ءلاء الله ولا تعثوا في الارض مفسدين
	7:75 The leaders who were arrogant from among his people said to those who

Edip-Layth	had acknowledged among the powerless: "How do you know that Saleh was sent from his Lord?" They said, "We acknowledge the message he has been sent with."
The Monotheist Group	7:75 The leaders who were arrogant from among his people said to those who were weak and believed from amongst them: "How do you know that Saleh was sent from his Lord?" They said: "We believe in what he has been sent with."
Muhammad Asad	7:75 The great ones among his people, who gloried in their arrogance towards all who were deemed weak, said unto the believers among them: "Do you [really] know that salih has been sent by his Sustainer?" They answered: "Verily, we believe in the message which he bears." ⁶⁰
Rashad Khalifa	The Message: Proof of Messengership 7:75 The arrogant leaders among his people said to the common people who believed, "How do you know that Saaleh is sent by his Lord?" They said, "The message he brought has made us believers."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:75 Their leaders said to the believers, "How do you know that Saaleh is sent from his Lord?" They responded, "We believe in the message he has brought." ³²
Transliteration	7:75 Qala almalao allatheenaistakbaroo min qawmihi lilla theena istu dAAaifooliman amana minhum ataAAalamoona anna salihanmursalun min rabbihi qaloo inna bima orsilabihi mu/minoona
A	7:75 قال الملا الذين استكبروا من قومه للذين استضعفوا لمن ءامن منهم اتعلمون ان صلحا مرسل من ربه قالوا انا بما ارسل به مومنون
Edip-Layth	7:76 Those who were arrogant said, "We reject what you acknowledge!"
The Monotheist Group	7:76 Those who were arrogant said: "In that which you believe, we reject!"
Muhammad Asad	7:76 [But] the arrogant ones said: "Behold, what you have come to believe in we refuse to regard as true!"
Rashad Khalifa	7:76 The arrogant ones said, "We disbelieve in what you believe in."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:76 (The arrogant leaders and the feudal lords could see their personal interests getting hit, so they decided to reject the message.) The arrogant ones said to the believers, "We reject what you believe in."
Transliteration	7:76 Qala allatheena istakbaroo innabiallathee amantum bihi kaffiroona
A	7:76 قال الذين استكبروا انا بالذى ءامنتم به كفرون
Edip-Layth	7:77 They thus killed the camel and defied their Lord's command, and they said, "O Saleh, bring us what you promised us if you are of the messengers!"
The Monotheist Group	7:77 They thus killed the camel and defied their Lord's command, and they said: "O Saleh, bring us what you promised us if you are of the messengers!"
Muhammad Asad	7:77 And then they cruelly slaughtered the she-camel ⁶¹ and turned with disdain from their Sustainer's commandment, and said: "O Salih! Bring about that [punishment] with which thou hast threatened us, if thou art truly one of God's message bearers!"
Rashad Khalifa	7:77 Subsequently, they slaughtered the camel, rebelled against their Lord's command, and said, "O Saaleh, bring the doom you threaten us with, if you are really a messenger."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:77 They killed the she-camel, rebelled against their Lord's command and challenged, "O Saaleh! Bring the doom you threaten us with, if you are really a messenger."

Transliteration	7:77 FaAAaqaroo a Innaqata waAAatawAAan amri rabbihi waq aloo y a salihui/tina bima taAAiduna in kunta minaalmursaleen a
A	7:77 فَعَقَرُوا النَّاقَةَ وَعَتَوْا عَنْ أَمْرِ رَبِّهِمْ وَقَالُوا يُصْلِحْ أُنْتُمْ بِمَا تَعْدُنَا إِنْ كُنْتَ مِنَ الْمُرْسَلِينَ
Edip-Layth	7:78 The earthquake took them, so they fell motionless in their homes.
The Monotheist Group	7:78 The Earthquake took them, so they became lifeless in their homes.
Muhammad Asad	7:78 Thereupon an earthquake overtook them: and then they lay lifeless, in their very homes, on the ground. ⁶²
Rashad Khalifa	7:78 Consequently, the quake annihilated them, leaving them dead in their homes.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:78 (In their life of luxury, like other strong nations, they felt invincible.) The destruction came from under their feet. A powerful earth-quake annihilated them, leaving them lifeless in their homes.
Transliteration	7:78 Faakhat ^h at-humu alrrajfatu faasba ^h oofee darihim jathimeena
A	7:78 فَاخْذَتْهُمْ الرِّجْفَةُ فَاصْبَحُوا فِي دَارِهِمْ جَثْمِينَ
Edip-Layth	7:79 Thus he turned away from them, and said, "My people, I had delivered to you the message of my Lord and advised you; but you do not like the advisers."
The Monotheist Group	7:79 Thus he turned away from them, and said: "My people, I had delivered to you the message of my Lord and advised you; but you do not like the advisers."
Muhammad Asad	7:79 And [Salih] turned away from them, and said: "O my people! Indeed, I delivered unto you my Sustainer's message and gave you good advice: but you did not love those who gave [you] good advice."
Rashad Khalifa	7:79 He turned away from them, saying, "O my people, I have delivered my Lord's message to you, and advised you, but you do not like any advisers."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:79 Saaleh was grieved that his people disregarded the message of his Lord. He moved away from the township saying to himself, "O My people! I gave my Lord's message to you, and advised you sincerely, but you never liked good advisers."
Transliteration	7:79 Fatawalla AAanhum waq ala y aqawmi laqad ablaghtukum ris alata rabbee wana ^s at ^h ulakum walakin la tuhibboona aInnasiheena
A	7:79 فَتَوَلَّى عَنْهُمْ وَقَالَ يَاقَوْمِ لَقَدْ أَبْلَغْتُكُمْ رِسَالَاتِ رَبِّي وَنَصَحْتُ لَكُمْ وَلَكِنْ لَا تُحِبُّونَ النَّصِيحِينَ
Edip-Layth	Lot 7:80 And Lot, when he said to his people: "Do you commit lewdness to an extend that none in the worlds had surpassed you?"
The Monotheist Group	7:80 And Lot, he said to his people: "Do you commit lewdness such as none of those of the worlds had done before?"
Muhammad Asad	7:80 AND [remember] Lot , ⁶³ when he said unto his people: "Will you commit abominations such as none in all the world has ever done before you?"
Rashad Khalifa	Lot: Homosexuality Condemned 7:80 Lot said to his people, "You commit such an abomination; no one in the world has done it before!"

Shabbir Ahmed	7:80 Lot told them, "You commit such an abomination that no one in the worlds has done before you." 33
Transliteration	7:80 Walootān i th qalaliqawmihi ata/toona alf aḥishata m a sabaqakum bih amin aḥadin mina alAAalameena
A	7:80 ولوطا اذ قال لقومه اتاتون الفحشة ما سبقكم بها من احد من العلمين
Edip-Layth	7:81 "You come to men with desire instead of women; you are a transgressing people."
The Monotheist Group	7:81 "You come to men with desire instead of women; you are a transgressing people."
Muhammad Asad	7:81 Verily, with lust you approach men instead of women: nay, but you are people given to excesses!"
Rashad Khalifa	7:81 "You practice sex with the men, instead of the women. Indeed, you are a transgressing people."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:81 You approach men with lust in preference to women. Nay, but you are a people crossing all bounds."
Transliteration	7:81 Innakum lata/toona a Irrijalashahwatan min dooni a Innisa-i bal antum qawmunmusrifoona
A	7:81 انكم لتاتون الرجال شهوة من دون النساء بل انتم قوم مسرفون
Edip-Layth	7:82 The only response of his people was, "Drive them out of your town; they are a people who wish to be pure!"
The Monotheist Group	7:82 The only response of his people was: "Drive them out of your town; they are a people who wish to be pure!"
Muhammad Asad	7:82 But his people's only answer was this: 64 "Expel them from your land! Verily, they are folk who make themselves out to be pure!" 65
Rashad Khalifa	7:82 His people responded by saying, "Evict them from your town. They are people who wish to be pure."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:82 They said, "Drive them out of your town! These people want to be models of purity."
Transliteration	7:82 Wama k ana jaw abaqaawmihi ill a an q aloo akhrijoohum min qaryatikuminnahum onasun yataṭahharoona
A	7:82 وما كان جواب قومه الا ان قالوا اخرجوهم من قريبتكم انهم اناس يتطهرون
Edip-Layth	7:83 We saved him and his family, except for his wife; she was of those who lagged behind.
The Monotheist Group	7:83 We saved him and his family, except for his wife; she was of those who were destroyed.
Muhammad Asad	7:83 Thereupon We saved him and his household except his wife, who was among those that stayed behind 66
Rashad Khalifa	7:83 Consequently, we saved him and his family, but not his wife; she was with the doomed.
	7:83 We saved him and his followers. But his wife who lagged behind in belief

Shabbir Ahmed	stayed with the crowd, and was destroyed.
Transliteration	7:83 Faanjaynahu waahlahu illa'imraatahu kanat mina alghabireena
A	7:83 فانجينه واهله الا امراته كانت من الغبرين
Edip-Layth	7:84 We showered them with a shower, so see what the punishment for the criminals was.
The Monotheist Group	7:84 And We rained down upon them a rain, so see how was the punishment for the criminals.
Muhammad Asad	7:84 the while We rained a rain [of destruction] upon the others: and behold what happened in the end to those people lost in sin!
Rashad Khalifa	7:84 We showered them with a certain shower; note the consequences for the guilty.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:84 And We rained a rain upon them (a huge shower of stones). See now how grievous was the end of the guilty. 34
Transliteration	7:84 Waamtarna AAalayhim mata'ranfaonthur kayfa kana AAaqibatualmujrimeena
A	7:84 وامطرنا عليهم مطرا فانظر كيف كان عقبة المجرمين
Edip-Layth	Shuayb 7:85 To Midian, their brother Shuayb, he said, "My people, serve God, you have no god besides Him. Proof has come to you from your Lord, so give full weight and measure, and do not hold back from the people what belongs to them, and do not make mischief on the earth after it has been reformed. That is better for you if you acknowledge."
The Monotheist Group	7:85 And to Midyan, their brother Shu'ayb, he said: "My people, serve God, you have no god besides Him. Clarity has come to you from your Lord, so give full weight and measure, and do not hold back from the people what belongs to them, and do not make corruption on the Earth after it has been set-right. That is better for you if you believe."
Muhammad Asad	7:85 AND UNTO [the people of] Madyan [We sent] their brother Shu'ayb . 67 He said: "O my people! Worship God alone: you have no deity other than Him. Clear evidence of the truth has now come unto you from your Sustainer. Give, therefore, full measure and weight [in all your dealings], and do not deprive people of what is rightfully theirs; 68 and do not spread corruption on earth after it has been set so well ordered: [all] this is for your own good, 'if you would but believe."
Rashad Khalifa	Shu`aib: Cheating, Dishonesty Condemned 7:85 To Midyan we sent their brother Shu`aib. He said, "O my people, worship GOD; you have no other god beside Him. Proof has come to you from your Lord. You shall give full weight and full measure when you trade. Do not cheat the people out of their rights. Do not corrupt the earth after it has been set straight. This is better for you, if you are believers.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:85 To Midyan, We sent Shoaib (Jethro), their brother, to them (around 1300 BC). He said, "O My people! Obey God. There is none else worthy of obedience and law-giving. Now has come to you the clear evidence of truth from your Lord. Give just measure and weight and do not withhold from people the things that are rightfully theirs. And do no corruption (and crimes) in the land after it has been set in order. This will be best for you if you are believers. 35

Transliteration	7:85 Wa-ilā madyana akh ḡhumshuAAayban q ala y a qawmi oAAabudoo All aha malakum min il ahin ghayruhu qad j aatkum bayyinatunmin rabbikum faawfoo alkayla waalmeezana walatabkhasoo alnnasa ashyaaahum walatufsidoo fee al-ardi baAAda islahiha thalikumkhayrun lakum in kuntum mu/mineen a
A	7:85 والى مدین اخاهم شعيبا قال يقوم اعبدوا الله ما لكم من اله غيره قد جاءتكم بينة من ربكم فافوا الكيل والميزان ولا تبخسوا الناس اشياءهم ولا تفسدوا فى الارض بعد اصلحها نلكم خير لكم ان كنتم مومنين
Edip-Layth	7:86 "Do not stand on every road to threaten and repel from the path of God those who acknowledged Him, by attempting to distort it. Recall that you were few and He multiplied you; and see what the retribution of the troublemakers is."
The Monotheist Group	7:86 "And do not stand on every road, robbing, and turning away from the path of God those who believe in Him, and you seek to make it crooked. And recall that you were few and He multiplied you; and see how is the retribution of the corrupters."
Muhammad Asad	7:86 And do not lie in ambush by every road [that leads to the truth ⁶⁹], threatening and trying to turn away from God's path all who believe in Him, and trying to make it appear crooked. And remember [the time] when you were few, and [how] He made you many: and behold what happened in the end to the spreaders of corruption!
Rashad Khalifa	7:86 "Refrain from blocking every path, seeking to repel those who believe from the path of GOD, and do not make it crooked. Remember that you used to be few and He multiplied your number. Recall the consequences for the wicked.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:86 Lurk not on every road threatening travelers, and hindering from the path of God those who believe in Him, nor seek to make it crooked. Remember, when you were few and weak and how He multiplied and strengthened you. And see how (miserable) was the end of the corrupters.
Transliteration	7:86 Wala taqAAudoo bikulli siratintooAAidoona wata suddoona AAan sabeeli Allahi man amanabihi watabghoonaha AAiwan wa othkuroo i thkuntum qaleelan fakaththarakum waonthurookayfa kana AAaqibatu almufsideena
A	7:86 ولا تقعدوا بكل صرط توعدون وتصدون عن سبيل الله من ءامن به وتبغونها عوجا واذكروا اذ كنتم قليلا فكثركم وانظروا كيف كان عقبة المفسدين
Edip-Layth	7:87 "If a group of you acknowledges what I have been sent with, and another group rejects, then wait until God judges between us. He is the best of judges."
The Monotheist Group	7:87 "And if a group of you believes in what I have been sent with, and a group disbelieves, then wait until God judges between us. He is the best of judges."
Muhammad Asad	7:87 "And if there be some among you who have come to believe in the message which I bear, the while the others do not believe, then have patience in adversity till God shall judge between us [and them]: for He is the best of all judges!"
Rashad Khalifa	7:87 "Now that some of you have believed in what I was sent with, and some have disbelieved, wait until GOD issues His judgment between us; He is the best judge."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:87 A group among you has believed in what I have been sent with and the other group has not believed. Then have patience (let the believers work their program of reform), until God judges between us. He is the Best of deciders."
Transliteration	7:87 Wa-in k ana ta-ifatun minkum amanoobialla thee orsiltu bihi wa ta-ifatun

	lamyu/minoo fa isbiroo hatta ya hkumaAllahu baynan a wahuwa khayru alhakimeena
A	7:87 وان كان طائفة منكم ءامنوا بالذى ارسلت به وطائفة لم يؤمنوا فاصبروا حتى يحكم الله بيننا وهو خير الحكمين
Edip-Layth	7:88 The leaders who became arrogant from among his people said, "We will evict you Shuayb, along with those who acknowledged, or else you will return to our creed!" He said, "Even though we detest?"
The Monotheist Group	7:88 And the leaders who became arrogant from among his people said: "We will drive you out of our town Shu'ayb, along with those who believed with you, or else you will return to our creed!" He said: "Would you force us?"
Muhammad Asad	7:88 Said the great ones among his people, who gloried in their arrogance: "Most certainly, O Shu'ayb, we shall expel thee and thy fellow-believers from our land, unless you indeed return to our ways!" Said [Shu'ayb]: "Why, even though we abhor [them]?"
Rashad Khalifa	7:88 The arrogant leaders among his people said, "We will evict you, O Shu`aib, together with those who believed with you, from our town, unless you revert to our religion." He said, "Are you going to force us?"
Shabbir Ahmed	7:88 The arrogant leaders of his community said, "O Shoaib! We will certainly drive you and those who believe with you out of our town unless you return to our ways." Shoaib said, "Why, even though we detest your ways?"
Transliteration	7:88 Qala almalao alla theenaistakbaroo min qawmihi lanukhrijannaka y a shuAAaybu wa allatheenaamanoo maAAaka min qaryatin a aw lataAAoodunna feemillatina qala awa law kunna kariheena
A	7:88 قال الملا الذين استكبروا من قومه لنخرجنك يشعيب والذين ءامنوا معك من قريتنا او لتعودن فى ملتنا قال اولو كنا كرهين
Edip-Layth	7:89 "We would then be inventing lies about God if we return to your creed after God had saved us from it; and we would not return to it except if God our Lord wishes. Our Lord encompasses everything with knowledge. In God we put our trust. Our Lord, separate between us and between our people with truth, you are the best separator."
The Monotheist Group	7:89 "We would then be inventing lies about God if we return to your creed after God had saved us from it; and we would not return to it except if God our Lord wishes, our Lord encompasses everything with knowledge, in God we put our trust. Our Lord, open between us and between our people with truth, you are the best opener."
Muhammad Asad	7:89 We should be guilty of blaspheming against God ⁷⁰ were we to return to your ways after God has saved us from them! It is not conceivable that we should return to them-unless God, our Sustainer, so wills. ⁷¹ All things does our Sustainer embrace within His knowledge; in God do we place our trust. O our Sustainer! Lay Thou open the truth between us and our people -for Thou art the best of all to lay open the truth!" ⁷²
Rashad Khalifa	7:89 "We would be blaspheming against GOD if we reverted to your religion after GOD has saved us from it. How could we revert back to it against the will of GOD our Lord? Our Lord's knowledge encompasses all things. We have put our trust in GOD. Our Lord, grant us a decisive victory over our people. You are the best supporter."

Shabbir Ahmed	7:89 "We will be inventing a lie against God if we reverted to your religion after God has saved us from it. It is not for us to return to it against the will of God, our Lord. Our Lord comprehends all things in knowledge. In God do we put our trust. Our Lord! Decide with truth between us and our people. Certainly, You are the Best of deciders."
Transliteration	7:89 Qadi iftarayn a AAal a All ahikathiban in AAudn a fee millatikum baAAAda ithnajjana All ahu minh a wam ayakoonu lan a an naAAooda feeh a ill a an yashaAllahu rabbun a wasiAAa rabbun a kulla shay-inAAilman AAal a All ahi tawakkalna rabban aiftah baynan a wabayna qawmin a bi alhaqqiwaanta khayru alfatihena
A	7:89 قد افترينا على الله كذبا ان عدنا في ملتكم بعد اذ نجينا الله منها وما يكون لنا ان نعود فيها الا ان يشاء الله ربنا وسع ربنا كل شيء علما على الله توكلنا ربنا افتح بيننا وبين قومنا بالحق وانت خير الفتحين
Edip-Layth	7:90 The leaders who rejected from among his people said, "If you follow Shuayb, then you are losers."
The Monotheist Group	7:90 And the leaders who rejected from among his people said: "If you follow Shu'ayb, then you are losers."
Muhammad Asad	7:90 But the great ones among his people, who were bent on denying the truth, said [to his followers]: "Indeed, if you follow Shu'ayb, you will, verily, be the losers!"
Rashad Khalifa	7:90 The disbelieving leaders among his people said, "If you follow Shu`aib, you will be losers."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:90 But the disbelieving chiefs of his nation said, "O People! If you follow Shoaib, then be sure, you will be ruined." 36
Transliteration	7:90 Waqala almalao alla theenakafaroo min qawmihi la-ini ittabaAAatum shuAAayban innakum ithanlakhasiroona
A	7:90 وقال الملا الذين كفروا من قومه لن اتبعن شعيبا انكم اذا لخسرون
Edip-Layth	7:91 The earthquake took them, thus they fell motionless in their homes.
The Monotheist Group	7:91 The Earthquake took them, thus they became lifeless in their homes.
Muhammad Asad	7:91 Thereupon an earthquake overtook them: and then they lay lifeless, in their very homes, on the ground 73 -
Rashad Khalifa	7:91 The quake annihilated them, leaving them dead in their homes.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:91 A tremendous earth-quake seized them and the morning found them dead in their homes, on the ground.
Transliteration	7:91 Faakhathat-humu alRrajfatu faasbaahoofee darihim jathimeena
A	7:91 فاخذتهم الرجفة فاصبحوا في دارهم جثمين
Edip-Layth	7:92 Those who denied Shuayb, it is as if they never prospered therein. Those who denied Shuayb, they were the losers.
The Monotheist Group	7:92 Those who denied Shu'ayb, it is as if they never prospered therein. Those who denied Shu'ayb, they were the losers.
Muhammad Asad	7:92 they who had given the lie to Shu'ayb - as though they had never lived there: they who had given the lie to Shu'ayb -it was they who were the losers!

Rashad Khalifa	7:92 Those who rejected Shu`aib vanished, as if they never existed. Those who rejected Shu`aib were the losers.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:92 Those who denied Shoaib became as though they had never lived there. Those who denied Shoaib, were the losers.
Transliteration	7:92 Alla the ena ka th thabooshuAAayban kaan lam yaghnaw feeh a alla the ena ka th thabooshuAAayban ka n oo humu alkha s ireena
A	7:92 الذين كذبوا شعيبا كان لم يغنوا فيها الذين كذبوا شعيبا كانوا هم الخسرين
Edip-Layth	7:93 Thus he turned away from them, and said, "My people, I had delivered to you the messages of my Lord and advised you. How can I feel sorry over a rejecting people?"
The Monotheist Group	7:93 Thus he turned away from them, and said: "My people, I had delivered to you the messages of my Lord and advised you. How can I feel sorry over a rejecting people?"
Muhammad Asad	7:93 And he turned away from them, and said: "O my people! Indeed, I delivered unto you my Sustainer's message and gave you good advice: how, then, could I mourn for people who have denied the truth?"
Rashad Khalifa	7:93 He turned away from them, saying, "O my people, I have delivered to you the messages of my Lord, and I have advised you. How can I grieve over disbelieving people."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:93 (The prophet of God had been forewarned of the oncoming catastrophe and he moved out into the valley along with his followers.) As he was leaving, he said, "O My people! I delivered my Lord's messages to you and gave you sincere advice. How could I mourn for people who rejected the truth?"
Transliteration	7:93 Fatawalla AAanhum waq a la y a qawmi laqad ablaghtukum ris a la ti rabbee wana s ahtulakum fakayfa a s a AAala qawmin ka f ireena
A	7:93 فتولى عنهم وقال يقوم لقد ابلغتكم رسالت ربي ونصحت لكم فكيف ءاسى على قوم كافرين
Edip-Layth	A Majority Fail the Test That Determines Their Eternity 7:94 Whenever We sent a prophet to any town, We would afflict its people with hardship and adversity so that they may implore.
The Monotheist Group	7:94 And We do not send a prophet to any town, except afterwards We would afflict its people with hardship and adversity that they may implore.
Muhammad Asad	7:94 AND NEVER YET have We sent a prophet unto any community without trying its people with misfortune and hardship, so that they might humble themselves;
Rashad Khalifa	Blessings in Disguise 7:94 Whenever we sent a prophet to any community, we afflicted its people with adversity and hardship, that they may implore.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:94 We sent no prophet to a community without Our Law of Requitat trying them with adversity and tribulation for their wrongdoings, so that they become humble.
Transliteration	7:94 Wama a arsaln a fee qaryatin minnabiyyin ill a akha th na ahlah a bi alba/ s a-iwa a ld d arra-i laAAallahum ya d darraAAoona
A	7:94 وما ارسلنا في قرية من نبي الا اخذنا اهلها بالبأساء والضراء لعلهم يضرعون

Edip-Layth	7:95 Then We replaced the bad with the good until they had plenty and they said, "Our fathers were the ones afflicted by hardship, and adversity." We then take them suddenly, while they do not perceive.
The Monotheist Group	7:95 Then We replace the bad with good, until they have plenty, then they say: "Our fathers were the ones afflicted by hardship, and adversity." We then take them suddenly, while they are unaware.
Muhammad Asad	7:95 then We transformed the affliction into ease of life, ⁷⁴ so that they throve and said [to themselves], "Misfortune and hardship befell our forefathers as well ⁷⁵ -whereupon We took them to task, all of a sudden, without their being aware [of what was coming]. ⁷⁶
Rashad Khalifa	7:95 Then we substituted peace and prosperity in place of that hardship. But alas, they turned heedless and said, "It was our parents who experienced that hardship before prosperity." Consequently, we punished them suddenly when they least expected.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:95 Then We changed their plight for better till they became affluent. Then they said, "Even our forefathers were touched by suffering and affluence." We seized them all of a sudden when they least expected it. ³⁷
Transliteration	7:95 Thumma baddaln a mak ana a Issayyi-atialhasanata hatta AAafaw waq aloo qadmassa abaana a Iddarraowaalssarrao faakha thnahum baghtatanwahum l a yashAAuroona
A	7:95 ثم بدلنا مكان السيئة الحسنة حتى عفوا وقالوا قد مس اباؤنا الضراء والسراء فاخذنهم بغتة وهم لا يشعرون
Edip-Layth	7:96 If the people of the towns had only acknowledged and been aware, then We would have opened for them blessings from the sky and the land; but they denied, so We took them for what they used to earn.
The Monotheist Group	7:96 And if the town's people had only believed and been aware, then We would have opened for them blessings from the sky and the land; but they denied, so We took them for what they used to earn.
Muhammad Asad	7:96 Yet if the people of those communities had but attained to faith and been conscious of Us, We would indeed have opened up for them blessings out of heaven and earth: but they gave the lie to the truth - and so We took them to task through what they [themselves] had been doing. ⁷⁷
Rashad Khalifa	Most People Make the Wrong Choice 7:96 Had the people of those communities believed and turned righteous, we would have showered them with blessings from the heaven and the earth. Since they decided to disbelieve, we punished them for what they earned.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:96 If the people of the towns had believed in the Divine laws and run their system right, We would have opened for them blessings from the heaven and the earth. But they denied and what they earned with their deeds seized them.
Transliteration	7:96 Walaw anna ahla alqur a amanoowaittaqaw lafata hna AAalayhim barakatinmina a Issama-i wa al-ardi wal akinkaththaboo faakha thnahum bim a kanooyaksiboona
A	7:96 ولو ان اهل القرى ءامنوا واتقوا لفتحنا عليهم بركات من السماء والارض ولكن كذبوا فاخذنهم بما كانوا يكسبون

Edip-Layth	7:97 Are the people of the towns sure that Our punishment will not come to them at night while they are sleeping?
The Monotheist Group	7:97 Are the people of the towns sure that Our punishment will not come to them at night while they are sleeping?
Muhammad Asad	7:97 Can, then, the people of any community ever feel secure that Our punishment will not come upon them by night, while they are asleep?
Rashad Khalifa	7:97 Did the people of the present communities guarantee that our retribution will not come to them in the night as they sleep?
Shabbir Ahmed	7:97 Can the people of any community ever feel secure that Our requital will not come upon them at night, while they are asleep?
Transliteration	7:97 Afaamina ahlu alqurā an ya/tyahumba/sunā bayatan wahum na-imoona
A	7:97 افامن اهل القرى ان ياتيهم باسنا بيتا وهم نائمون
Edip-Layth	7:98 Or are the people of the towns sure that Our punishment will not come to them during the late morning while they are playing?
The Monotheist Group	7:98 Or are the people of the towns sure that Our punishment will not come to them during the late morning while they are playing?
Muhammad Asad	7:98 Why, can the people of any community ever feel secure that Our punishment will not come upon them in broad daylight, while they are engaged in (worldly] play? ⁷⁸
Rashad Khalifa	7:98 Did the people of today's communities guarantee that our retribution will not come to them in the daytime while they play?
Shabbir Ahmed	7:98 Or do the people of townships feel secure from the coming of Our requital upon them in the daytime while they play?
Transliteration	7:98 Awa amina ahlu alqurā an ya/tyahumba/sunā duhan wahum yaAAaboon a
A	7:98 اوامن اهل القرى ان ياتيهم باسنا ضحى وهم يلعبون
Edip-Layth	7:99 Have they become sure about God's scheming? None feels secure about God's scheming except the losing people.
The Monotheist Group	7:99 Have they become sure about God's scheming? None are sure about God's scheming except the people who are losers.
Muhammad Asad	7:99 Can they, then, ever feel secure from God's deep devising? But none feels secure from God's deep devising save people who are [already] lost. ⁷⁹
Rashad Khalifa	7:99 Have they taken GOD's plans for granted? None takes GOD's plans for granted except the losers.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:99 Do they feel secure from the subtle progression of the Divine laws? Do they think that the Divine law grants them unconditional security? Only the losers feel secure from the subtle progression of God's Law of Requital.
Transliteration	7:99 Afaaminoo makra All ahi fal aya/manu makra All ahi ill a alqawmu alkhāsiroona
A	7:99 افامنوا مكر الله فلا يامن مكر الله الا القوم الخسرون
Edip-Layth	7:100 Is it not clear for those who inherited the land after them, that if We wished, We could have punished them immediately for their sins and We could have stamped on their hearts, so they would not hear.

The Monotheist Group	7:100 Is it not a guide for those who inherited the land after them, that if We wished We could have punished them immediately for their sins? And We stamp on their hearts, so they do not hear.
Muhammad Asad	7:100 Has it, then, not become obvious unto those who have inherited the earth in the wake of former generations ⁸⁰ that, if We so willed, We could smite them [too] by means of their sins, sealing their hearts so that they cannot hear [the truth]? ⁸¹
Rashad Khalifa	7:100 Does it ever occur to those who inherit the earth after previous generations that, if we will, we can punish them for their sins, and seal their hearts, causing them to turn deaf?
Shabbir Ahmed	7:100 Is it not a lesson for those who inherit the earth from previous generations that they could suffer similar consequences? Trailing behind in the community of nations is a tribulation in itself. And Our law can cause their intellectual and perceptual faculties to be sealed and blunted for their failings.
Transliteration	7:100 Awa lam yahdi lilla the ena yarithoonaal-ar da min baAAadi ahlih a an law nashao a sabna humbith hunoobi him wana tba AAu AAal a quloobihi ⁸⁰ fahum l a yasmaAAoona
A	7:100 اولم يهد للذين يرثون الارض من بعد اهلها ان لو نشاء اصبينهم بذنوبهم ونطبع على قلوبهم فهم لا يسمعون
Edip-Layth	7:101 These are the towns whose stories We relate to you; their messengers had come to them with proofs, but they would not acknowledge what they had denied before. It is such that God stamps on the hearts of the ingrates.
The Monotheist Group	7:101 These are the towns whose news We narrate to you; their messengers had come to them with proofs, but they would not believe in what they had denied before. It is such that God stamps on the hearts of the rejecters.
Muhammad Asad	7:101 Unto those [earlier] communities - some of whose stories We [now] relate unto thee -there had indeed come apostles of their own with all evidence of the truth; but they would not believe in anything to which they had once given the lie: ⁸² thus it is that God seals the hearts of those who deny the truth;
Rashad Khalifa	7:101 We narrate to you the history of those communities: their messengers went to them with clear proofs, but they were not to believe in what they had rejected before. GOD thus seals the hearts of the disbelievers.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:101 Such were the communities whose historical accounts We relate to you (O Prophet!). Their messengers came to them with clear evidence of truth. But they preemptively rejected it, and then stuck to rejection. Or they denied the truth in blind following since their ancestors had denied it. This is how the rejecters cause God's law to seal their hearts to reason.
Transliteration	7:101 Tilka alqura a naqu ssu AAalaykamin an b a -i ha walaqad j aat -hum rusuluhum bialbayyin at ifama k anoo liyu/minoo bim a ka th thaboomin qablu ka th alika ya tba AAu All ahu AAala quloobi alka fireena
A	7:101 تلك القرى نقص عليك من انبائها ولقد جاءتهم رسلهم بالبينت فما كانوا ليؤمنوا بما كذبوا من قبل كذلك يطبع الله على قلوب الكافرين
Edip-Layth	7:102 We did not find most of them up to their pledge, rather, We found most of them corrupt.

The Monotheist Group	7:102 And We did not find most of them up to their pledge, rather, We found most of them corrupt.
Muhammad Asad	7:102 and in most of them We found no [inner] bond with anything that is right ⁸³ -and most of them We found to be iniquitous indeed.
Rashad Khalifa	7:102 We found that most of them disregard their covenant; we found most of them wicked.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:102 And in most of them We found no bond with their honored stature of humanity (17:70). And We found that most of them slipped away from the Permanent Values.
Transliteration	7:102 Wama wajadn a li-aktharihimmin AAahdin wa-in wajadn a aktharahum lafa ^s iqeena
A	7:102 وما وجدنا لاكثرهم من عهد وان وجدنا اكثرهم لفسقين
Edip-Layth	Moses 7:103 Then after them We sent Moses with Our signs to Pharaoh and his leaders. But they treated them with prejudice, so see what the end of the corrupters is.
The Monotheist Group	7:103 Then after them We sent Moses with Our signs to Pharaoh and his leaders. But they did wrong in them, so see how is the end of the corrupters.
Muhammad Asad	7:103 AND AFTER those [early people] We sent Moses with Our messages unto Pharaoh and his great ones, and they wilfully rejected them: ⁸⁴ and behold what happened in the end to those spreaders of corruption!
Rashad Khalifa	Moses 7:103 After (those messengers,) we sent Moses with our signs to Pharaoh and his people, but they transgressed. Note the consequences for the wicked.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:103 * We sent Moses to Pharaoh and his chiefs with Our revelations and they willfully rejected them. Now see the consequence for the corrupters.
Transliteration	7:103 Thumma baAAathn a min baAAadihim moos abi-ayatina il a firAAawna wamala-ihifa ^t alamoo biha faonuthurkayfa kana AAaqibatu almufsideena
A	7:103 ثم بعثنا من بعدهم موسى بايتنا الى فرعون وملايه فظلموا بها فانظر كيف كان عقبة المفسدين
Edip-Layth	7:104 Moses said, "O Pharaoh, I am a messenger from the Lord of the worlds."
The Monotheist Group	7:104 And Moses said: "O Pharaoh, I am a messenger from the Lord of the worlds."
Muhammad Asad	7:104 And Moses said: "O Pharaoh! Verily, I am an apostle from the Sustainer of all the worlds,
Rashad Khalifa	7:104 Moses said, "O Pharaoh, I am a messenger from the Lord of the universe.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:104 Moses said, "O Pharaoh! I am a messenger from the Lord of the worlds.
Transliteration	7:104 Waqala moosa ya firAAawnu innee rasoolun min rabbi alAAalameena
A	7:104 وقال موسى يفرعون انى رسول من رب العلمين
	7:105 "It is not proper for me to say about God except the truth; I have come to

Edip-Layth	you with proof from your Lord. So send with me the Children of Israel."
The Monotheist Group	7:105 "It is not proper for me to say about God except the truth; I have come to you with proof from your Lord. So send with me the Children of Israel."
Muhammad Asad	7:105 so constituted that I cannot say anything about God but the truth. I have now come unto you with a clear evidence from your Sustainer: let, then, the children of Israel go with me!"
Rashad Khalifa	7:105 "It is incumbent upon me that I do not say about GOD except the truth. I come to you with a sign from your Lord; let the Children of Israel go."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:105 It is incumbent upon me that I say about God nothing but the truth. I come to you with clear evidence of the truth from your Lord. So let the Children of Israel go with me."
Transliteration	7:105 Haqeequn AAal a an l aaqoola AAal a All ahi ill a al haqqa qadji/tukum bibayyinatin min rabbikum faarsil maAAiya banee isra-eela
A	7:105 حقيق على ان لا اقول على الله الا الحق قد جئتكم ببينة من ربكم فارسل معي بنى اسرئيل
Edip-Layth	7:106 He said, "If you have come with a sign then bring it, if you are of the truthful?"
The Monotheist Group	7:106 He said: "If you have come with a sign then bring it, if you are of the truthful?"
Muhammad Asad	7:106 Said [Pharaoh]: "If thou hast come with a sign, produce it-if thou art a man of truth!"
Rashad Khalifa	7:106 He said, "If you have a sign, then produce it, if you are truthful."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:106 Pharaoh said, "If you have come with clear evidence, produce it if you are of the truthful."
Transliteration	7:106 Qala in kunta ji/ta bi-ayatinfa/ti biha in kunta mina aIssadiqeena
A	7:106 قال ان كنت جئت باية فات بها ان كنت من الصادقين
Edip-Layth	7:107 He threw down his staff and there it was an obvious serpent.
The Monotheist Group	7:107 He threw down his staff and it manifested into a serpent.
Muhammad Asad	7:107 Thereupon [Moses] threw down his staff, and lo! it was a serpent, plainly visible;
Rashad Khalifa	7:107 He threw down his staff, and it turned into a tremendous serpent.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:107 Moses presented his argument that he held fast, with vibrant confidence and logic.
Transliteration	7:107 Faalqa AAasaahu fa-i <th>ah</th> iya thuAAbanun mubeenun	ah
A	7:107 فالقى عصاه فاذا هي ثعبان مبين
Edip-Layth	7:108 He drew out his hand, and it became pure white for the spectators.
The Monotheist Group	7:108 And he drew out his hand, and it became pure white for the onlookers.
Muhammad Asad	7:108 and he drew forth his hand, and lo! it appeared [shining] white to the beholders. ⁸⁵

Rashad Khalifa	7:108 He took out his hand, and it was white to the beholders.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:108 The strength of his conviction shone bright to those present. ³⁹
Transliteration	7:108 WanazaAAa yadahu fa-i tha hiya bay daolilnna th ireena
A	7:108 ونزع يده فاذا هي بيضاء للنظرين
Edip-Layth	7:109 The commanders among the people of Pharaoh said, "This is a knowledgeable magician!"
The Monotheist Group	7:109 The commanders from among the people of Pharaoh said: "This is a knowledgeable magician!"
Muhammad Asad	7:109 The great ones among Pharaoh's people said: "Verily, this is indeed a sorcerer of great knowledge,
Rashad Khalifa	7:109 The leaders among Pharaoh's people said, "This is no more than a clever magician.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:109 The chiefs of Pharaoh's nation said, "This is some knowing wizard!
Transliteration	7:109 Qala almalao min qawmi firAAawnainna hatha lasa hirun AAaleem un
A	7:109 قال الملا من قوم فرعون ان هذا لسحر عليم
Edip-Layth	7:110 "He wishes to drive you out of your land; what do you recommend?"
The Monotheist Group	7:110 "He wishes to drive you out of your land; what is your command?"
Muhammad Asad	7:110 who wants to drive you out of your land! " ⁸⁶ [Said Pharaoh:] "What, then, do you advise?"
Rashad Khalifa	7:110 "He wants to take you out of your land; what do you recommend?"
Shabbir Ahmed	7:110 It appears to us that Moses, after gaining some following, plans to throw you out of your land." Said Pharaoh, "Now, what do you advise?"
Transliteration	7:110 Yureedu an yukhrijakum min ar dikumfama tha ta/muroona
A	7:110 يريد ان يخرجكم من ارضكم فماذا تلمرون
Edip-Layth	7:111 They said, "Delay him and his brother, and send gatherers to the cities."
The Monotheist Group	7:111 They said: "Delay him and his brother, and send gatherers to the cities."
Muhammad Asad	7:111 They answered: "Let him and his brother ⁸⁷ wait awhile, and send unto all cities heralds
Rashad Khalifa	7:111 They said, "Respite him and his brother, and send summoners to every city.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:111 (After consulting, they said, "Put him and his brother off for a while and send to the cities men to summon.
Transliteration	7:111 Qaloo arjih waakh ahu waarsilfee almada a -ini h ashireena
A	7:111 قالوا ارجه واخاه وارسل في المدن حشرين

Edip-Layth	7:112 "They will come to you with every knowledgeable magician."
The Monotheist Group	7:112 "They will come to you with every knowledgeable magician."
Muhammad Asad	7:112 who shall bring before thee every sorcerer of great knowledge."
Rashad Khalifa	7:112 "Let them summon every experienced magician."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:112 To bring all master debaters to your court." 40
Transliteration	7:112 Ya/tooka bikulli sahirin AAaleemin
A	7:112 ياتوك بكل سحر عليم
Edip-Layth	7:113 The magicians came to Pharaoh and said, "There should be a reward for us if we are the victors."
The Monotheist Group	7:113 And the magicians came to Pharaoh, they said: "We require a reward if we are the victors."
Muhammad Asad	7:113 And the sorcerers came unto Pharaoh [and] said: "Verily, we ought to have a great reward ⁸⁸ if it is we who prevail."
Rashad Khalifa	7:113 The magicians came to Pharaoh and said, "Do we get paid if we are the winners?"
Shabbir Ahmed	7:113 The master debaters came to Pharaoh. They said, "Surely there will be reward for us if we are victors."
Transliteration	7:113 Wajaa a IssaharatufirAAawna q aloo inna lan a laajran in kunn anahnu alghalibeena
A	7:113 وجاء السحرة فرعون قالوا ان لنا لاجرا ان كنا نحن الغلبين
Edip-Layth	7:114 He said, "Yes, and you will be made close to me."
The Monotheist Group	7:114 He said: "Yes, and you will be made close to me."
Muhammad Asad	7:114 Answered [Pharaoh]: "Yes; and, verily, you shall be among those who are near unto me."
Rashad Khalifa	7:114 He said, "Yes indeed; you will even become close to me."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:114 He answered, "Yes, certainly, and you will be among those who are close to me."
Transliteration	7:114 Qala naAAam wa-innakum laminaalmuqarrabeena
A	7:114 قال نعم وانكم لمن المقربين
Edip-Layth	7:115 They said, "O Moses, either you cast, or shall we cast?"
The Monotheist Group	7:115 They said: "O Moses, either you cast, or we will cast?"
Muhammad Asad	7:115 They said: "O Moses! Either thou shalt throw [thy staff first], or we shall [be the first to] throw."
Rashad Khalifa	7:115 They said, "O Moses, either you throw, or we are throwing."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:115 The debaters said, "O Moses! Either you begin or let us be the first to present our case."

Transliteration	7:115 Qaloo ya moosa immaan tulqiya wa-imma an nakoona nahnu almulqeena
A	7:115 قالوا يموسى اما ان تلقى واما ان نكون نحن الملقين
Edip-Layth	Magic Has No Objective Reality: It Is Merely the Product Of Illusion and Suggestion 7:116 He said, "You cast." So when they cast, they deceived the people's eyes, intimidated them, and they produced a great magic. ²⁰
The Monotheist Group	7:116 He said: "You cast." So when they cast, they bewitched the eyes of the people, and struck terror in them, and they came with a great magic.
Muhammad Asad	7:116 He answered: "You throw [first]." And when they threw down [their staffs], they cast a spell upon the people's eyes, and struck them with awe, and produced mighty sorcery.
Rashad Khalifa	7:116 He said, "You throw." When they threw, they tricked the people's eyes, intimidated them, and produced a great magic.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:116 Moses asked them to begin. When they began they cast a spell on the people's eyes, and struck them with awe, and stunned the assembly with their spellbinding eloquence.
Transliteration	7:116 Qala alqoo falam a alqaw sa harooaAAayuna a Innasi wa istarhaboohum wajaoobisihrin AAattheemin
A	7:116 قال القوا فلما القوا سحروا اعين الناس واسترهبوهم وجاءوا بسحر عظيم
Edip-Layth	7:117 We inspired Moses: "Throw down your staff;" and soon it was swallowing what they had invented.
The Monotheist Group	7:117 And We inspired Moses: "Throw down your staff;" and it swallowed what they invented.
Muhammad Asad	7:117 And [then] We inspired Moses, "Throw down thy staff!" -and lo! it swallowed up all their deceptions: ⁸⁹
Rashad Khalifa	7:117 We then inspired Moses: "Throw down your staff," whereupon it swallowed whatever they fabricated.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:117 So, We inspired Moses, "Respond with conviction. And then see how it swallows their deceptive rhetoric." ⁴¹
Transliteration	7:117 Waawhayna ila moosaan alqi AAasaka fa-itha hiya talqafu maya/fikoona
A	7:117 واوحينا الى موسى ان الق عصاك فاذا هى تلقف ما يافكون
Edip-Layth	7:118 Thus the truth was confirmed, and what they were doing was falsified.
The Monotheist Group	7:118 Thus the truth was set, and what they did was made of no effect.
Muhammad Asad	7:118 whereupon the truth was established, and vain was proved all that they had been doing.
Rashad Khalifa	The Truth Recognized by the Experts 7:118 Thus, the truth prevailed, and what they did was nullified.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:118 The truth prevailed and their arguments were manifestly proven false.
Transliteration	7:118 FawaqaAAa alhaqu wabatala makanoo yaAamaloona

A	7:118 فوق الحق وبطل ما كانوا يعملون
Edip-Layth	7:119 They were thus defeated there, and they turned in disgrace.
The Monotheist Group	7:119 They were thus defeated there and then, and they turned in disgrace.
Muhammad Asad	7:119 And thus were they vanquished there and then, and became utterly humiliated.
Rashad Khalifa	7:119 They were defeated then and there; they were humiliated.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:119 Thus, they were defeated right there and humiliated.
Transliteration	7:119 Faghuliboo hun a lika wainqalaboos a ghireena
A	7:119 فغلبوا هنالك وانقلبوا صغرين
Edip-Layth	7:120 The magicians fell down prostrating.
The Monotheist Group	7:120 And the magicians went down prostrating.
Muhammad Asad	7:120 And down fell the sorcerers, ⁹⁰ prostrating themselves
Rashad Khalifa	7:120 The magicians fell prostrate.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:120 The debaters fell down prostrate.
Transliteration	7:120 Waolqiya al s sah a ratu sa j ideena
A	7:120 والقي السحرة سجدين
Edip-Layth	7:121 They said, "We acknowledge the Lord of the worlds."
The Monotheist Group	7:121 They said: "We believe in the Lord of the worlds."
Muhammad Asad	7:121 [and] exclaiming: "We have come to believe in the Sustainer of all the worlds,
Rashad Khalifa	7:121 They said, "We believe in the Lord of the universe.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:121 They were convinced and said, "We believe in the Lord of the worlds.
Transliteration	7:121 Q a loo a m anna birabbialAA a lameena
A	7:121 قالوا ءامنا برب العلمين
Edip-Layth	7:122 "The Lord of Moses and Aaron."
The Monotheist Group	7:122 "The Lord of Moses and Aaron."
Muhammad Asad	7:122 the Sustainer of Moses and Aaron!"
Rashad Khalifa	7:122 "The Lord of Moses and Aaron."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:122 The Lord of Moses and Aaron."
Transliteration	7:122 Rabbi moosa a wah a roona
A	7:122 رب موسى وهرون
Edip-Layth	7:123 Pharaoh said, "Did you acknowledge him before I have given you permission? This is surely some scheme which you have schemed in the city to drive its people out; but soon you shall know."

The Monotheist Group	7:123 Pharaoh said: "Have you become believers before I have given you permission? This is surely some scheme which you have schemed in the city to drive its people out; you will reveal what you know."
Muhammad Asad	7:123 Said Pharaoh: "Have you come to believe in him ⁹¹ ere I have given you permission? Behold, this is indeed a plot which you have cunningly devised in this [my] city in order to drive out its people hence! But in time you shall come to know, [my revenge]:
Rashad Khalifa	7:123 Pharaoh said, "Did you believe in him without my permission? This must be a conspiracy you schemed in the city, in order to take its people away. You will surely find out.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:123 Pharaoh got annoyed, "You believe in Him before I give you permission! This is a political conspiracy you all have made up in the city, so that you get my subjects out on the streets in rebellion and topple the government. You will see the punishment very soon.
Transliteration	7:123 Qala firAAawnu amantum bihiqabla an athana lakum inna h atha lamakrunmakartumooahu fee almadeenati litukhrijoo minh a ahlah a fasawfa taAAalamoon
A	7:123 قال فرعون ءامنتم به قبل ان ءاذن لكم ان هذا لمكر مكرتموه فى المدينة لتخرجوا منها اهلها فسوف تعلمون
Edip-Layth	7:124 "I will cut off your hands and feet from alternate sides; then I will crucify you all."
The Monotheist Group	7:124 "I will cut off your hands and feet from alternate sides, then I will crucify you all."
Muhammad Asad	7:124 most certainly shall I cut off your hands and your feet in great numbers, because of [your] perverseness, and then I shall most certainly crucify you, in great numbers, all together! ⁹²
Rashad Khalifa	7:124 "I will cut your hands and feet on alternate sides, then I will crucify you all."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:124 I will immobilize you in handcuffs and fetters. Then I will crucify every one of you." ⁴²
Transliteration	7:124 LaoqaṭiAAanna aydiyakum waarjulakummin khil afin thumma laosallibannakum ajmaAAeena
A	7:124 لا قطعن ايديكم وارجلكم من خلف ثم لاصلبنكم اجمعين
Edip-Layth	7:125 They said, "To our Lord shall we return."
The Monotheist Group	7:125 They said: "It is to our Lord that we will return."
Muhammad Asad	7:125 They answered: "Verily, unto our Sustainer do we turn-
Rashad Khalifa	7:125 They said, "We will then return to our Lord.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:125 They responded, "We are determined to turn to our Lord."
Transliteration	7:125 Qaloo inna ila rabbinamunqaliboona
A	7:125 قالوا انا الى ربنا منقلبون

Edip-Layth	7:126 "You are only seeking revenge on us because we acknowledged our Lord's signs when they came to us. Our Lord, grant us patience and let us die having peacefully surrendered."
The Monotheist Group	7:126 "And you are only seeking revenge on us because we believed in our Lord's signs when they came to us. Our Lord, provide us with patience, and let us die as submitters."
Muhammad Asad	7:126 for thou takest vengeance on us only because we have come to believe in our Sustainer's messages as soon as they came to us. O our Sustainer! Shower us with patience in adversity, and make us die as men who have surrendered themselves unto Thee!"
Rashad Khalifa	7:126 "You persecute us simply because we believed in the proofs of our Lord when they came to us." "Our Lord, grant us steadfastness, and let us die as submitters."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:126 "You take vengeance on us simply because we believed in the revelations of our Lord when they came to us? Our Lord! Bestow on us steadfastness and let us die as submitters." 43
Transliteration	7:126 Wama tanqimu minn a ill aan amanna bi- ayati rabbinn alamma j atna rabbana afrigh AAalayn asabran watawaffana muslimena
A	7:126 وما تنتقم منا الا ان ءامنا بايت ربنا لما جاءتنا ربنا افرغ علينا صبرا وتوفنا مسلمين
Edip-Layth	7:127 The leaders among the people of Pharaoh said, "Will you let Moses and his people corrupt the land, and abandon you and your gods?" He said, "We will kill their children and shame their women; we will be supreme over them."
The Monotheist Group	7:127 And the commanders from among the people of Pharaoh said: "Will you let Moses and his people corrupt the land, and abandon you and your gods?" He said: "We will kill their children and rape their women; we will be supreme over them."
Muhammad Asad	7:127 And the great ones among Pharaoh's people said: "Wilt thou allow Moses and his people to spread corruption on earth, and to [cause thy people to] forsake thee and thy gods?" [Pharaoh] replied: "We shall slay their sons in great numbers and shall spare [only] their women: for, verily, we hold sway over them!"
Rashad Khalifa	7:127 The leaders among Pharaoh's people said, "Will you allow Moses and his people to corrupt the earth, and forsake you and your gods?" He said, "We will kill their sons, and spare their daughters. We are much more powerful than they are."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:127 The chiefs among Pharaoh's people said, "Will you allow Moses and his people to create disorder in the land, and forsake your rule and your gods?" He said, "We will slay their sons and spare their women. We are in power over them."
Transliteration	7:127 Waq ala almalao min qawmi firAAawnaata tharu moos a waqawmahu liyufsidoo fee al-ar diwayatharaka wa alihataka q ala sanuqattilu abnaahumwanastahyee nisaahum wa-inna fawqahum qahiroona
A	7:127 وقال الملا من قوم فرعون اتذر موسى وقومه ليفسدوا فى الارض ويتركوا الهتك قال سنقتل ابناءهم ونستحي نساءهم وانا فوقهم قهرون
Edip-Layth	7:128 Moses said to his people: "Seek help with God, and be patient; for the land is God's. He will inherit it to whom He pleases of His servants; and the victory belongs to the righteous."

The Monotheist Group	7:128 Moses said to his people: "Seek help with God, and be patient; for the land is God's, He will inherit it to whom He pleases of His servants; and the end will be to the righteous."
Muhammad Asad	7:128 [And] Moses said unto his people: "Turn unto God for aid, and have patience in adversity. Verily, all the earth belongs to God: He gives it as a heritage - to such as He wills of His servants; and the future belongs to the God-conscious!"
Rashad Khalifa	7:128 Moses said to his people, "Seek GOD's help, and steadfastly persevere. The earth belongs to GOD, and He grants it to whomever He chooses from among His servants. The ultimate victory belongs to the righteous."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:128 Moses assured his people, "Seek help in God and patiently persevere. Remember that the earth belongs to God. He grants it as a heritage to His servants according to His laws. And the ultimate end belongs to the upright." ⁴⁴
Transliteration	7:128 Qala moos a liqawmihiistaAAeenoo bi Allahi wa isbiroo innaal-ar da lill ahi yoorithuha man yashaamin AAibadihi waalAAaqibatu lilmuttaqeen
A	7:128 قال موسى لقومه استعينوا بالله واصبروا ان الارض لله يورثها من يشاء من عباده والعقبه للمتقين
Edip-Layth	7:129 They said, "We were being harmed before you came to us and since you have come to us." He said, "Perhaps your Lord will destroy your enemy, and make you successors in the land, so He sees how you behave."
The Monotheist Group	7:129 They said: "We were being harmed before you came to us and since you have come to us." He said: "Perhaps your Lord will destroy your enemy, and make you successors in the land, so He sees how you act?"
Muhammad Asad	7:129 [But the children of Israel] said: "We have suffered hurt ere thou camest to us and since thou hast come to us! ⁹³ [Moses] replied: "It may well be that your Sustainer will destroy your foe and make you inherit the earth: and thereupon he will behold how you act." ⁹⁴
Rashad Khalifa	7:129 They said, "We were persecuted before you came to us, and after you came to us." He said, "Your Lord will annihilate your enemy and establish you on earth, then He will see how you behave."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:129 Fearing persecution they said, "We suffered before you came to us and after you have come to us." Moses said, "Your Lord will annihilate your enemy, and you will inherit the earth. Then He will see what kind of works you do."
Transliteration	7:129 Qaloo ootheenaa minqabli an ta/tiyana wamin baAAadi m a ji/tana qalaAAasa rabbukum an yuhlika AAaduwwakum wayastakhlifakum feeal-ar di fayan thura kayfa taAAamaloona
A	7:129 قالوا اودينا من قبل ان تاتينا ومن بعد ما جئتنا قال عسى ربكم ان يهلك عدوك ويستخلفكم فى الارض فينظر كيف تعملون
Edip-Layth	Disasters 7:130 We then afflicted the people of Pharaoh with years of drought, a shortage in crops, so that they might take heed.
The Monotheist Group	7:130 And We afflicted the people of Pharaoh with years of drought, and a shortage in crops, perhaps they will remember.

Muhammad Asad	7:130 And most certainly did We overwhelm Pharaoh's people with drought and scarcity of fruits, so that they might take it to heart.
Rashad Khalifa	The Plagues 7:130 We then afflicted Pharaoh's people with drought, and shortage of crops, that they may take heed.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:130 The unjust system of Pharaoh and his people began to waver (7:94). When Our requital struck them with famine, and scanty crop (they found themselves ill prepared for the relief efforts). They should have stopped to think.
Transliteration	7:130 Walaqad akha thna alafir AAawna bi alssineena wanaq sin mina alththamar atila AAallahum ya thth akkaroonaa
A	7:130 ولقد اخذنا آل فرعون بالسنين ونقص من الثمرات لعلهم يذكرون
Edip-Layth	7:131 When any good comes to them, they say, "This is ours," and when any bad afflicts them, they blame it on Moses and those with him. Their blame is with God, but most of them do not know.
The Monotheist Group	7:131 When any good comes to them, they say: "This is ours," and when any bad afflicts them, they blame it on Moses and those with him. Their blame is with God, but most of them do not know.
Muhammad Asad	7:131 But whenever good fortune alighted upon them, they would say, "This is [but] our due"; and whenever affliction befell them, they would blame their evil fortune on Moses and those who followed him. ⁹⁵ Oh, verily, their [evil] fortune had been decreed by God-but most of them knew it not.
Rashad Khalifa	7:131 When good omens came their way, they said, "We have deserved this," but when a hardship afflicted them, they blamed Moses and those with him. In fact, their omens are decided only by GOD, but most of them do not know.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:131 (Instead of reflecting and taking corrective action, they sought the easy way out.) All good that came along, they ascribed it to their own worthiness, and any affliction that struck them, they blamed it on the bad omen of Moses and his companions. Most people do not know that there is no such thing as a bad omen or a good omen. People determine their destiny according to God's laws. In that sense, then, omens are with God alone.
Transliteration	7:131 Fa-itha jaat -humu al hasanatu qaloo lana hathihi wa-in tu sibhumsayyi -atun ya tattayyaroo bimoos a waman maAAahu al ainnama ta -iruhum AAinda All ahi wal akinna aktharahum la yaAAlamoona
A	7:131 فاذا جاءتهم الحسنة قالوا لنا هذه وان تصيبهم سيئة يطيروا بموسى ومن معه الا انما طئروهم عند الله ولكن اكثرهم لا يعلمون
Edip-Layth	7:132 They said, "No matter what you bring us of a sign to bewitch us with, we will never acknowledge you."
The Monotheist Group	7:132 And they said: "No matter what you bring us of a sign to bewitch us with, we will never believe in you."
Muhammad Asad	7:132 And they said [unto Moses]: "Whatever sign thou mayest produce before us in order to cast a spell upon us thereby, we shall not believe thee!"
Rashad Khalifa	7:132 They said, "No matter what kind of sign you show us, to dupe us with your magic, we will not believe."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:132 They kept telling Moses, "Whatever the verses might say, whatever bad omens you could bring, or bewitch us with your logic, we will not believe in you."

	(And will not consider reformation).
Transliteration	7:132 Waqa _l oo mahma _a ta/tin _a bihi min _a ayatin litas _a harana _a bih _a fam _a anah _{nu} laka bimu/mineena
A	7:132 وقالوا مهما تاتنا به من آية لتسحرنا بها فما نحن لك بمومنين
Edip-Layth	7:133 So We sent them the flood, the locust, the lice, the frogs, and the blood; all detailed signs; but they turned arrogant, they were a criminal people. ²¹
The Monotheist Group	7:133 So We sent them the flood, and the locust, and the lice, and the frogs, and the blood; all detailed signs; but they turned arrogant, they were a criminal people.
Muhammad Asad	7:133 Thereupon We let loose upon them floods, and [plagues of] locusts, and lice, and frogs, and [water turning into] blood ⁹⁶ -distinct signs [all]: but they gloried in their arrogance, for they were people lost in sin.
Rashad Khalifa	The Warnings Go Unheeded 7:133 Consequently, we sent upon them the flood, the locusts, the lice, the frogs, and the blood - profound signs. But they maintained their arrogance. They were evil people.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:133 Their System was too inefficient to fight off natural calamities, such as, floods, swarms of locusts, and diseases of crops, livestock and humans. These were open signs for them to wake up to reform, but Pharaoh and his chiefs were too arrogant to accept responsibility, and too involved in luxury to take action. They were guilty of misrule.
Transliteration	7:133 Faarsalna AAalayhimu a Ittoofanawaaljarada wa alqummala waaliddafadiAAawaalddama ayatin mufa ssalatinfaitakbaroo wak anoo qawman mujrimeena
A	7:133 فارسلنا عليهم الطوفان والجراد والقمل والضفادع والدم آيات مفصلت فاستكبروا وكانوا قوما مجرمين
Edip-Layth	7:134 When the plague befell them, they said, "O Moses, call on your Lord for what pledge He gave you. If you remove this plague from us, then we will acknowledge you and we will send with you the Children of Israel."
The Monotheist Group	7:134 And when the plague befell them, they said: "O Moses, call on your Lord for what pledge He gave you, that if you remove this plague from us, then we will believe you and we will send with you the Children of Israel."
Muhammad Asad	7:134 And whenever a plague struck them, they would cry: "O Moses, pray for us to thy Sustainer on the strength of the covenant [of prophethood] which He has made with thee! If thou remove this plague from us, we will truly believe in thee. and will let the children of Israel go with thee!"
Rashad Khalifa	7:134 Whenever a plague afflicted them, they said, "O Moses, implore your Lord - you are close to Him. If you relieve this plague, we will believe with you, and will send the Children of Israel with you."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:134 (The irrational Egyptians continued to remain sunken in superstition.) Whenever hardship struck, they turned to Moses for prayer stating that God had a pledge with him, and promising that they would believe and let the Children of Israel go with him. ⁴⁵
Transliteration	7:134 Walamma waqaAAa AAalayhimu a Irrijzuqaloo y a moos a odAAu lan a rabbaka bimAAahida AAindaka la-in kashafta AAann a Irrijzalanu/minanna laka

	walanursilanna maAAaka banee isra-eela
A	7:134 ولما وقع عليهم الرجز قالوا يموسى ادع لنا ربك بما عهد عندك لئن كشفت عنا الرجز لنؤمنن لك ولنرسلن معك بنى اسرائيل
Edip-Layth	7:135 So when We removed from them the plague until a future time; they broke their pledge.
The Monotheist Group	7:135 So when We removed from them the plague until a future time; they broke their pledge.
Muhammad Asad	7:135 But whenever We removed the plague from them, giving them time to make good their promise, ⁹⁷ lo, they would break their word.
Rashad Khalifa	7:135 Yet, when we relieved the plague for any length of time, they violated their pledge.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:135 When the hardship ran its course according to Our laws, they would break their promise with Moses.
Transliteration	7:135 Falamma kashafn a AAanhumu a Irrijzaila ajalin hum b alighoohu i tha humyankuthoona
A	7:135 فلما كشفنا عنهم الرجز الى اجل هم بلغوه اذا هم ينجثون
Edip-Layth	Children of Israel Tested After Receiving Divine Support 7:136 For their denial and disregard of Our signs, We thus inflicted them with punishment by drowning them in the sea,
The Monotheist Group	7:136 We thus took vengeance upon them by drowning them in the sea, for their denial of Our signs, and their disregard of them.
Muhammad Asad	7:136 And so We inflicted Our retribution on them, and caused them to drown in the sea, because they had given the lie to Our messages and had been heedless of them;
Rashad Khalifa	The Inevitable Retribution 7:136 Consequently, we avenged their actions, and drowned them in the sea. That is because they rejected our signs, and were totally heedless thereof.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:136 They had to meet with Our Law of Requit as they continued to deny Our revelations and remained heedless. Instead of mending their ways, they tried to annihilate Moses and his people and We drowned them in the sea as they were pursuing Moses and his people, in rage and arrogance.
Transliteration	7:136 Faintaqamna minhum faaghraqnahumfee alyammi bi-annahum ka <th>thaboo bi-ayatinawakanoo AAanha ghafleena</th>	thaboo bi-ayatinawakanoo AAanha ghafleena
A	7:136 فانتقمنا منهم فاغرقنهم فى اليم بانهم كذبوا بايتنا وكانوا عنها غفلين
Edip-Layth	7:137 We let the people who were oppressed inherit the east and the west of the land which We have blessed, and good word of your Lord was completed towards the Children of Israel. For they were patient, and We destroyed what Pharaoh and his people were doing, and what they contrived.
The Monotheist Group	7:137 And We let the people who were weak inherit the east of the land and the west of it which We have blessed. And the good word of your Lord was completed towards the Children of Israel for their patience; and We destroyed what Pharaoh and his people were doing, and what they contrived.
	7:137 whereas unto the people who [in the past] had been deemed utterly low,

Muhammad Asad	We gave as their heritage the eastern and western parts of the land that We had blessed. ⁹⁸ And [thus] thy Sustainer's good promise unto the children of Israel was fulfilled in result of their patience in adversity; ⁹⁹ whereas We utterly destroyed all that Pharaoh and his people had wrought, and all that they had built. ¹⁰⁰
Rashad Khalifa	7:137 We let the oppressed people inherit the land, east and west, and we blessed it. The blessed commands of your Lord were thus fulfilled for the Children of Israel, to reward them for their steadfastness, and we annihilated the works of Pharaoh and his people and everything they harvested.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:137 We made the oppressed people inherit the east and the west of the land that We had blessed with abundant provision. The commands of your Lord were fulfilled for the Children of Israel to reward them for their steadfastness. Pharaoh and his people eventually met destruction for violating Our laws. And We leveled to the ground (the great works and fine buildings, temples, palaces, tombs, statues and stately) structures of all kinds that Pharaoh and his people had built with so much skill and pride. ⁴⁶
Transliteration	7:137 Waawrathna alqawma alla theenakanoo yusta dAAafoona mash ariqa al-ardiwamagharibaha allatee b arakna feeh awatammat kalimatu rabbika al husna AAalabaneer isr a-eela bim a sabaroo wadammarna ma kana ya snaAAu firAAawnu waqawmuhu wamakanoo yaAAarishoona
A	7:137 واورثنا القوم الذين كانوا يستضعفون مشرق الارض ومغربها التي بركنها فيها وتمت كلمت ربك الحسنی على بنی اسرائیل بما صبروا ودمرنا ما كان یصنع فرعون وقومه وما كانوا یعرشون
Edip-Layth	7:138 We let the Children of Israel cross the sea, then they passed by a people who were devoted to idols they had. They said, "O Moses, make for us a god like the gods they have." He said, "You are an ignorant people!"
The Monotheist Group	7:138 And We let the Children of Israel cross the sea, then they came upon a people who were devoted to idols made for them; they said: "O Moses, make for us a god like they have gods?" He said: "You are an ignorant people!"
Muhammad Asad	7:138 AND WE BROUGHT the children of Israel across the sea; and thereupon they came upon people who were devoted to the worship of some idols of theirs. ¹⁰¹ Said [the children of Israel]: "O Moses, set up for us a god even as they have gods!" He replied: "Verily, you are people without any awareness [of right and wrong]!"
Rashad Khalifa	After All the Miracles 7:138 We delivered the Children of Israel across the sea. When they passed by people who were worshipping statues, they said, "O Moses, make a god for us, like the gods they have." He said, "Indeed, you are ignorant people."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:138 After they crossed the sea (into Sinai 2:50-51), the Children of Israel passed by some people who were worshipping statues. They said, 'O Moses! Make a god for us, like the gods they have.' Moses said, "You are a people who wish to lurk in darkness."
Transliteration	7:138 Wajawazna bibanee isr a-eelaalbahra faataw AAal a qawmin yaAAakufoona AAalaasnamin lahum qaloo ya moosaijAAal lana ilahan kama lahum alihatunqala innakum qawmun tajhaloona
A	7:138 وجوزنا ببني اسرائيل البحر فاتوا على قوم يعكفون على اصنام لهم قالوا يموسى اجعل لنا الها كما لهم ءالهة قال انكم قوم تجهلون

Edip-Layth	7:139 "These people are ruined for what they are in, and worthless is what they do."
The Monotheist Group	7:139 "These people are ruined for what they are in, and evil is what they do."
Muhammad Asad	7:139 As for these here -verily, their way of life is bound to lead to destruction; and worthless is all that they have ever done!"
Rashad Khalifa	7:139 "These people are committing a blasphemy, for what they are doing is disastrous for them.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:139 What these idol worshipers are doing is senseless and vain.
Transliteration	7:139 Inna haqla-i mutabbarun mahum feehee wabaatilun ma kanoo yaAamaloon
A	7:139 ان هؤلاء متبر ما هم فيه وبطل ما كانوا يعملون
Edip-Layth	7:140 He said, "Shall I seek other than God as a god for you when He has preferred you over the worlds?"
The Monotheist Group	7:140 He said: "Shall I seek other than God as a god for you when He has preferred you over the worlds?"
Muhammad Asad	7:140 [And] he said: "Am I to seek for you a deity other than God, although it is He who has favoured you above all other people?" ¹⁰²
Rashad Khalifa	7:140 "Shall I seek for you other than GOD to be your god, when He has blessed you more than anyone else in the world?"
Shabbir Ahmed	7:140 Shall I seek a god for you other than God, when He has blessed you more than the other existing nations?"
Transliteration	7:140 Qala aghayra All ahi abgheekumil ahan wahuwa fa ddalakum AAal alAAalameena
A	7:140 قال اغير الله ابغىكم الها وهو فضلكم على العلمين
Edip-Layth	7:141 When We saved you from the people of Pharaoh, who were afflicting you with the worst punishment, killing your children and shaming your women; and in that was a great trial from your Lord.
The Monotheist Group	7:141 And We have saved you from the people of Pharaoh, they were afflicting you with the worst punishment; they used to kill your children and rape your women; and in that was a great trial from your Lord.
Muhammad Asad	7:141 And [he reminded them of this word of God]: "Lo, We saved you from Pharaoh's people who afflicted you with cruel suffering, slaying your sons in great numbers and sparing [only] your women - which was an awesome trial from your Sustainer." ¹⁰³
Rashad Khalifa	Reminder to the Children of Israel 7:141 Recall that we delivered you from Pharaoh's people, who inflicted the worst persecution upon you, killing your sons and sparing your daughters. That was an exacting trial for you from your Lord.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:141 Also remember when We saved you from Pharaoh's people. They persecuted you (by assigning hard tasks and) with a dreadful torment. They slaughtered your sons and let your women people live (for slavery and shameful acts). That was a great tribulation, a test from your Lord Supreme. ⁴⁷
	7:141 Wa-ith anjaynakum min alifirAAawna yasoomoonakum soo-a alAAa thabi

Transliteration	yuqattiloona abn aakumwayastahyoona nis aakum wafee thalikum bal aonmin rabbikum AAat the emun
A	7:141 واذا انجينكم من آل فرعون يسومونكم سوء العذاب يقتلون أبناءكم ويستحيون نساءكم وفي ذلكم بلاء من ربكم عظيم
Edip-Layth	Moses Receives The Commandments 7:142 We appointed for Moses thirty nights and completed them with ten, so the appointed time of his Lord was completed at forty nights. Moses said to his brother Aaron: "Be my successor with my people and reform, and do not follow the path of the corrupters." ²²
The Monotheist Group	7:142 And We appointed for Moses thirty nights and completed them with ten, so the appointed time of his Lord was completed at forty nights. And Moses said to his brother Aaron: "Be my successor with my people and be upright, and do not follow the path of the corrupters."
Muhammad Asad	7:142 AND [then] We appointed for Moses thirty nights [on Mount Sinai]; and We added to them ten, whereby the term of forty nights set bye, his Sustainer was fulfilled. ¹⁰⁴ And Moses said unto his brother Aaron: "Take thou my place among my people; and act righteously, and follow not the path of the spreaders of corruption."
Rashad Khalifa	Our World Cannot Stand the Physical Presence of God 7:142 We summoned Moses for thirty ⁷ nights, and completed them by adding ten. Thus, the audience with his Lord lasted forty nights. Moses said to his brother Aaron, "Stay here with my people, maintain righteousness, and do not follow the ways of the corrupters."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:142 We summoned Moses for thirty nights and completed them by adding ten. Thus We completed the term with His Lord, forty nights. Before leaving for Mount Sinai, Moses assigned his brother Aaron, as his deputy and told him to keep social order after him and not to be intimidated by trouble makers. ⁴⁸
Transliteration	7:142 WawaAAadna moos a thal atheenalaylatan waatmamn aha biAAashrin fatamma meeqaturabbihi arbaAAeena laylatan waq ala moosa li-akheehih groona okhlufnee fee qawmee waaslih walatattabiAA sabeela almufsideena
A	7:142 ووعدنا موسى ثلاثين ليلة واتممنها بعشر فتم ميقت ربه اربعين ليلة وقال موسى لاهيه هرون اخلفني في قومي واصلح ولا تتبع سبيل المفسدين
Edip-Layth	7:143 So when Moses came to Our appointed time, and his Lord spoke to him, he said, "My Lord, let me look upon you." He said, "You will not see Me, but look upon the mountain, if it stays in its place then you will see Me." So, when his Lord manifested Himself to the mountain, He caused it to crumble; thus Moses fell unconscious. When he recovered, he said, "Glory be to You, I repent to You and I am the first of those who acknowledge." ²³
The Monotheist Group	7:143 So when Moses came to Our appointed time, and his Lord spoke to him, he said: "My Lord, let me look upon you." He said: "You will not see Me, but look upon the mountain, if it stays in its place then you will see Me." So when his Lord revealed Himself to the mountain, He caused it to crumble; thus Moses fell unconscious. When he awoke, he said: "Glory be to You, I repent to You and I am the first of those who believe."
	7:143 And when Moses came [to Mount Sinai] at the time set by Us, and his Sustainer spoke unto him, he said: "O my Sustainer! Show [Thyself] unto me, so that I might behold Thee!" Said [God]: "Never canst thou see Me. However,

Muhammad Asad	behold this mountain: if it remains firm in its place, then - only then - wilt thou see Me. ¹⁰⁵ And as soon as his Sustainer revealed His glory to the mountain, He caused it to crumble to dust; and Moses fell down in a swoon. And when he came to himself, he said: "Limitless art Thou in Thy glory! Unto Thee do I turn in repentance; and I shall [always] be the first to believe in Thee!" ¹⁰⁶
Rashad Khalifa	7:143 When Moses came at our appointed time, and his Lord spoke with him, he said, "My Lord, let me look and see You." He said, "You cannot see Me. Look at that mountain; if it stays in its place, then you can see Me." Then, his Lord manifested Himself to the mountain, and this caused it to crumble. Moses fell unconscious. When he came to, he said, "Be You glorified. I repent to You, and I am the most convinced believer."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:143 When Moses arrived at the appointed time, and his Lord spoke to him, Moses said, "My Lord! Give me the power to better perceive You." His Lord said, "You will not perceive Me unless you look pensively at the mountain. If it remains firm in its place, then shall you perceive Me." (You will realize that even a single mountain is made of countless particles that were scattered as dust and it is your Lord Who has made it stand firm.) Thus did his Lord choose for the mountain to be a manifestation of His glory. Moses pictured the mountain as dust and was stunned! When he recovered his senses, he said, "Infinite are You in Your glory! I turn to you repentant and I am among the foremost believers." ⁴⁹
Transliteration	7:143 Walamma j aa moos alimeeqatina wakallamahu rabbuhu q ala rabbiarinee anthur ilayka qala lan taraneewalakin onthur ila aljabali fa-iniistaqarra makanahu fasawfa tar anee falam aatajalla rabbuhu liljabali jaAAalahu dakkan wakharra moosasaAAiqan falam a af aqa q ala sub hanakatubtu ilayka waan a awwalu almu/mineena
A	7:143 ولما جاء موسى لميقتنا وكلمه ربه قال رب ارني انظر اليك قال لن ترني ولكن انظر الى الجبل فان استقر مكانه فسوف ترني فلما تجلى ربه للجبل جعله دكا وخر موسى صعقا فلما افاق قال سبحنك تبت اليك وانا اول المؤمنين
Edip-Layth	7:144 He said, "O Moses, I have chosen you over people with My message and My words; so take what I have given you and be of the thankful."
The Monotheist Group	7:144 He said: "O Moses, I have chosen you over the people with My message and My words; so take what I have given you and be of the thankful."
Muhammad Asad	7:144 Said [God]: "O Moses! Behold, I have raised thee above all people by virtue of the messages which I have entrusted to thee, ¹⁰⁷ and by virtue of My speaking [unto thee]: hold fast, therefore, unto what I have vouchsafed thee, and be among the grateful!"
Rashad Khalifa	7:144 He said, "O Moses, I have chosen you, out of all the people, with My messages and by speaking to you. Therefore, take what I have given you and be appreciative."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:144 God said, "O Moses! I have chosen you, out of all people, with My messages and by speaking to you. Therefore, take what I have given you and be among the grateful."
Transliteration	7:144 Qala y a moos a innee i stafaytukaAAala a Innasi biris alateewabikalamee fakhuth ma ataytuka wakunmina alshshakireena
A	7:144 قال يموسى انى اصطفيتك على الناس برسلتى وبكلمى فخذ ما اتيئك وكن من الشكرين

Edip-Layth	7:145 We wrote for him on the tablets from everything a lesson, and detailing all things. You shall uphold them firmly and order your people to take the best from it. I will show you the abode of the corrupt. ²⁴
The Monotheist Group	7:145 And We wrote for him on the tablets from everything a lesson, and detailing all things. Take it with strength and order your people to take the best from it. I will show you the abode of the corrupt.
Muhammad Asad	7:145 And We ordained for him in the tablets [of the Law] all manner of admonition, clearly spelling out everything. ¹⁰⁸ And [We said:] "Hold fast unto them with [all thy] strength, and bid thy people to hold fast to their most goodly rules." I will show you the way the iniquitous shall go. ¹⁰⁹
Rashad Khalifa	7:145 We wrote for him on the tablets all kinds of enlightenments and details of everything: "You shall uphold these teachings strongly, and exhort your people to uphold them - these are the best teachings. I will point out for you the fate of the wicked."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:145 We ordained for him, in the Tablets of law, Enlightenment and clearly spelled out guidance. And told him, "Uphold these teachings strongly, and tell your people to uphold them. These are excellent teachings. I will soon let you and your people see (how blessed the end of compliance will be and) to which abode the drifters will be headed." ⁵⁰
Transliteration	7:145 Wakatabna lahu fee al-alw ahimin kulli shay-in mawAAi thatan watafseelanlikulli shay-in fakhu thha biquwwatin wa/mur qawmakaya/khu thoo bi-ahsaniha saoreekum daraalfasiqeena
A	7:145 وكتبنا له في الألواح من كل شيء موعظة وتفصيلا لكل شيء فخذها بقوة وأمر قومك ياخذوها باحسنها ساوريكم دار الفسقين
Edip-Layth	Those Who Deny Signs and Miracles 7:146 I will divert from My signs those who are arrogant on earth unjustly, and if they see every sign they do not acknowledge it, and if they see the path of guidance they do not take it as a path; and if they see the path of straying, they take it as a path. That is because they have denied Our signs and were heedless of them. ²⁵
The Monotheist Group	7:146 I will turn away from My revelations those who are arrogant on Earth without right, and if they see every sign they do not believe in it, and if they see the path of guidance they do not take it as a path; and if they see the path of mischief, they take it as a path. That is because they have denied Our revelations and were heedless of them.
Muhammad Asad	7:146 From My messages shall I cause to turn away all those who, without any right, behave haughtily on earth: for, though they may see every sign [of the truth], they do not believe in it, and though they may see the path of rectitude, they do not choose to follow it-whereas, if they see a path of error, they take it for their own: this, because they have given the lie to Our messages, and have remained heedless of them," ¹¹⁰
Rashad Khalifa	Divine Intervention Keeps the Disbelievers in the Dark 7:146 I will divert from My revelations those who are arrogant on earth, without justification. Consequently, when they see every kind of proof they will not believe. And when they see the path of guidance they will not adopt it as their path, but when they see the path of straying they will adopt it as their path. This is the consequence of their rejecting our proofs, and being totally heedless thereof.

Shabbir Ahmed	7:146 Even if they went through the entire script, and saw clear evidence of the truth, their arrogance will keep them from believing. When they see the right guidance, they do not accept it, but they readily accept straying. This is because they choose to deny Our revelations and to remain unaware of the wisdom in them. ⁵¹
Transliteration	7:146 Saasrifu AAan ayatiyaallatheena yatakabbaroona fee al-ar di bighayri alhaqqiwa-in yaraw kulla ayatin la yu/minoo bihaawa-in yaraw sabeela alrrushdi la yattakhi th oohusabeelan wa-in yaraw sabeela alghayyi yattakhi th oohusabeelan th alika bi-annahum ka th thaboo bi-ayatinawakanoo AAanha ghafileena
A	7:146 سألصرف عن آياتي الذين يتكبرون في الأرض بغير الحق وإن يروا كل آية لا يؤمنوا بها وإن يروا سبيل الرشد لا يتخذوه سبيلا وإن يروا سبيل الغي يتخذوه سبيلا ذلك بأنهم كذبوا بآيتنا وكانوا عنها غفلين
Edip-Layth	7:147 Those who deny Our signs and the meeting of the Hereafter, their work has collapsed. Will they not be rewarded except for what they used to do?
The Monotheist Group	7:147 And those who deny Our revelations and the meeting of the Hereafter, their work has collapsed. Will they not be rewarded except for what they used to do?
Muhammad Asad	7:147 Hence, all who give the lie to Our messages, and [thus] to the truth ¹¹¹ of the life to come -in vain shall be all their doings: [for] are they to be rewarded for aught but what they were wont to do? ¹¹²
Rashad Khalifa	7:147 Those who reject our revelations and the meeting of the Hereafter, their works are nullified. Are they requited only for what they committed?
Shabbir Ahmed	7:147 Those who deny Our messages and the meeting of the Hereafter, their works are fruitless. Are they rewarded anything but what they deserved for their decisions? ⁵²
Transliteration	7:147 Waallatheena ka th thaboobi-ayatina waliq a-i al- ^{akhirati} habitāt aAAamaluhum hal yujzawna ill ^{ama} kanoo yaAAamaloona
A	7:147 والذين كذبوا بآيتنا ولقاء الءآخرة حبطت اعمالهم هل يجزون الا ما كانوا يعملون
Edip-Layth	Children of Israel are Tested With the Symbol Of Their Former Masters 7:148 The people of Moses, in his absence, made from their ornaments the statue of a calf which had a sound. Did they not see that it could not speak to them, nor guide them to any way. They took it and turned wicked. ²⁶
The Monotheist Group	7:148 And the people of Moses, in his absence, made from their ornaments the image of a calf which made a sound. Did they not see that it could not speak to them, nor guide them to any way? They took it and they were wicked.
Muhammad Asad	7:148 AND IN his absence the people of Moses took to worshipping the effigy of a calf [made] of their ornaments, which gave forth a lowing sound." ¹¹³ Did they not see that it could neither speak unto them nor guide them in any way? [And yet] they took to worshipping it, for they were evildoers:
Rashad Khalifa	The Golden Calf 7:148 During his absence, Moses' people made from their jewelry the statue of a calf, complete with the sound of a calf. Did they not see that it could not speak to them, or guide them in any path? They worshipped it, and thus turned wicked.
	7:148 The people of Moses made up a calf out of their ornaments while Moses

Shabbir Ahmed	was at the Mount Sinai. They made it such that blowing into it produced a lowing sound. They did not even see that it could not talk to them or show them any path. Still they chose it as a god, and thus wronged their own 'self'.
Transliteration	7:148 Wa ^{it} takha th a qawmu moos a ^m in baAAadihi min ^h uliyyihim AAijlan jasad ^a n lahu khuw a ^r unalam yaraw annahu l a yukallimuhum wal a yahdeehimsabeelan ittakhathoo ^h u wakanoo th alimeena
A	7:148 واتخذ قوم موسى من بعده من حليهم عجلا جسدا له خوار الم يروا انه لا يكلمهم ولا يهديهم سبيلا اتخذوه وكانوا ظلمين
Edip-Layth	7:149 When they were smitten with remorse and they saw that they had gone astray, they said, "If our Lord will not have mercy on us and forgive us, then we will be of the losers!"
The Monotheist Group	7:149 And when they realized what their hands had done, and they saw that they had gone astray, they said: "If our Lord will not have mercy on us and forgive us, then we will be of the losers!"
Muhammad Asad	7:149 although [later,] when they would smite their hands in remorse, ¹¹⁴ having perceived that they had gone astray, they would say, "Indeed, unless our Sustainer have mercy on us and grant us forgiveness, we shall most certainly be among the lost!" ¹¹⁵
Rashad Khalifa	7:149 Finally, when they regretted their action, and realized that they had gone astray, they said, "Unless our Lord redeems us with His mercy, and forgives us, we will be losers."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:149 When they regretted their action and realized that they had gone astray, they said, "Unless our Lord embraces us with mercy and forgives us, we surely will be lost."
Transliteration	7:149 Walamma suq ⁱ ta fee aydeehimwaraaw annahum qad ^d alloo qaloo la-in lam yar ^h am ⁿ a ^r abbun ^a wayaghfir lan ^a lanakoonanna mina alkha ^s ireena
A	7:149 ولما سقط في ايديهم وراوا انهم قد ضلوا قالوا لن لم يرحمنا ربنا ويغفر لنا لنكونن من الخسرين
Edip-Layth	7:150 When Moses returned to his people, angry and grieved, he said, "Miserable is what you have done after me; do you wish to hasten the action of your Lord?" He cast down the tablets, and took his brother by his head dragging him towards him. He said, "Son of my mother, the people overpowered me and nearly killed me, so do not make the enemies rejoice over me, and do not make me with the wicked people." ²⁷
The Monotheist Group	7:150 And when Moses returned to his people, angry and grieved, he said: "Miserable is what you have done after I was gone; do you wish to hasten the action of your Lord?" And he cast down the tablets, and took his brother by his head dragging him towards him. He said: "Son of my mother, the people overpowered me and nearly killed me, so do not make the enemies rejoice over me, and do not make me with the wicked people."
Muhammad Asad	7:150 And when Moses returned to his people, full of wrath and sorrow, he exclaimed: "Vile is the course which you have followed in my absence! Have you forsaken ¹¹⁶ your Sustainer's commandment?" And he threw down the tablets [of the Law], and seized his brother's head, dragging him towards himself. Cried Aaron: "O my mother's son! Behold, the people brought me low ¹¹⁷ and almost slew me: so let not mine enemies rejoice at my affliction, and count me not among the evildoing folk!"

Rashad Khalifa	7:150 When Moses returned to his people, angry and disappointed, he said, "What a terrible thing you have done in my absence! Could you not wait for the commandments of your Lord?" He threw down the tablets, and took hold of his brother's head, pulling him towards himself. (Aaron) said, "Son of my mother, the people took advantage of my weakness, and almost killed me. Let not my enemies rejoice, and do not count me with the transgressing people."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:150 Moses returned to his people and was upset and grieved. He said, "You have chosen a terrible thing after me. Do you wish your Lord's requital to smite you soon? He put down the tablets of the commands among them and questioned his brother, Aaron, very strictly. Aaron explained, "O Son of my mother! These people treated me harshly and took my patience as weakness, and almost killed me. Let not my opponents rejoice, and do not count me among the wrongdoers." 53
Transliteration	7:150 Walamma rajaAAa moos a il aqawmihi gha dbana asifan q ala bi/samakhalaftumoonnee min baAAadee aAAajiltum amra rabbikum waalq a al-alwahawaakhatha bira/si akheehi yajurruhu ilayhi q alabna omma inna alqawma istadAAafoonee wak adooyaqtuloonanee fal a tushmit biya al-aAAD aa walatajAAalnee maAAa alqawmi al <th>th</th> alimeena	th
A	7:150 ولما رجع موسى الى قومه غضبن اسفا قال بئسما خلفتموني من بعدى اعجلتم امر ربكم والقي الألواح واخذ براس اخيه يجره اليه قال ابن ام ان القوم استضعفوني وكادوا يقتلونني فلا تشمت بي الاعداء ولا تجعلني مع القوم الظلمين
Edip-Layth	7:151 He said, "My Lord, forgive me and my brother, and admit us in your mercy; you are the most Compassionate of the compassionate."
The Monotheist Group	7:151 He said: "My Lord, forgive me and my brother, and admit us in Your mercy; and you are the Most Merciful of those who show mercy."
Muhammad Asad	7:151 Said [Moses]: "O my Sustainer! Grant Thou forgiveness unto me 118 and my brother, and admit us unto Thy grace: for Thou art the most merciful of the merciful!"
Rashad Khalifa	7:151 (Moses) said, "My Lord, forgive me and my brother, and admit us into Your mercy. Of all the merciful ones, You are the Most Merciful."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:151 Moses said, "My Lord! Forgive me and my brother and admit us in Your grace. Of all the merciful ones, You are the Most Merciful."
Transliteration	7:151 Qala rabbi ighfir lee wali-akheewaadkhiln a fee ra hmatika waanta ar hamu alrrahimeena
A	7:151 قال رب اغفر لي ولاخي وادخلنا في رحمتك وانت ارحم الرحمين
Edip-Layth	7:152 Those who took up the calf will be dealt with a wrath from their Lord and a humiliation in this worldly life. We thus punish the fabricators.
The Monotheist Group	7:152 Those who took-up the calf will be dealt with a wrath from their Lord and a humiliation in this worldly life. It is such that We punish the fabricators.
Muhammad Asad	7:152 [And to Aaron he said:] "Verily, as for those who have taken to worshipping the [golden] - calf - their Sustainer's condemnation will overtake them, and ignominy [will be their lot] in the -life of this world!" For thus do We requite all who invent [such] falsehood. 119
	7:152 Surely, those who idolized the calf have incurred wrath from their Lord,

Rashad Khalifa	and humiliation in this life. We thus requite the innovators.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:152 Those who chose the calf for worship, were seized by their Lord's Law of Requital, and faced humiliation in the life of this world. Thus do We recompense those who invent lies.
Transliteration	7:152 Inna alla the ena ittakha thoo alAAijla sayan al uhum gha da bun min rabbi hi m wa thi llatunfee al hay ati alddunya wakathalika naj zee almuftareena
A	7:152 ان الذين اتخذوا العجل سينالهم غضب من ربهم وذلة في الحياة الدنيا وكذلك نجزي المفترين
Edip-Layth	7:153 As for those who commit sin but then repent afterwards and acknowledge; your Lord afterward is Forgiving, Compassionate.
The Monotheist Group	7:153 As for those who commit sin but then repent afterwards and believe; your Lord after that is Forgiving, Merciful.
Muhammad Asad	7:153 But as for those who do bad deeds and afterwards repent and [truly] believe- verily , after such repentance ¹²⁰ thy Sustainer is indeed much forgiving, a dispenser of grace!
Rashad Khalifa	7:153 As for those who committed sins, then repented thereafter and believed, your Lord - after this - is Forgiver, Most Merciful.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:153 Those who have done ill deeds, but then repent and attain belief, for them, afterward, God is Forgiving, Merciful.
Transliteration	7:153 Waalla the ena AAamiloo a Issayyi- at ithumma t a boo min baAAadi h a wa a manoo innarabbaka min baAAadi h laghafoorun ra heem un
A	7:153 والذين عملوا السيئات ثم تابوا من بعدها وعامنوا ان ربك من بعدها لغفور رحيم
Edip-Layth	7:154 When the anger subsided from Moses, he took the tablets; and in its inscription was a guidance and mercy for those who revere their Lord.
The Monotheist Group	7:154 And when the anger subsided from Moses, he took the tablets; and in its inscription was a guidance and mercy for those who revere their Lord.
Muhammad Asad	7:154 And when Moses' wrath as stilled, he took up the tablets, in the writing whereof there was guidance and grace for all who stood in awe of their Sustainer. ¹²¹
Rashad Khalifa	7:154 When Moses' anger subsided, he picked up the tablets, containing guidance and mercy for those who reverence their Lord.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:154 When Moses calmed down, he picked up the tablets, on which was inscribed merciful guidance for those who fear violating the law of their Lord.
Transliteration	7:154 Walamma sakata AAan moos a algha da bu akha tha al-alw a ha wafee nuskhati h g h udan wara h matun lilla the ena hum lirabbi hi myarhaboon a
A	7:154 ولما سكنت عن موسى الغضب اخذ الاواح وفي نسختها هدى ورحمة للذين هم لربهم يرهبون
Edip-Layth	7:155 Moses selected from his people seventy men for Our appointed time; so when the quake seized them, he said, "My Lord, if You wished You could have destroyed them before this, and me as well. Will you destroy us for what the foolish amongst us have done? It is all Your test, You misguide with it whom You please and You guide with it whom You please. You are our supporter, so forgive us and have mercy on us; You are the best forgiver." ²⁸

The Monotheist Group	7:155 And Moses selected from his people seventy men for Our appointed time; so when the Earthquake seized them, he said: "My Lord, if You wished You could have destroyed them before this, and me as well. Will you destroy us for what the foolish amongst us have done? It is all Your test, You misguide with it whom You please and You guide with it whom You please. You are our supporter, so forgive us and have mercy on us; You are the best forgiver."
Muhammad Asad	7:155 And Moses chose out of his people seventy men to come [and pray for forgiveness] at a time set by Us. Then, when violent trembling seized them, ¹²² he prayed: "O my Sustainer! Hadst Thou so willed, Thou wouldst have destroyed them ere this, and me [with them]. Wilt Thou destroy us for what the weak-minded among us have done? (All) this is but a trial from Thee, whereby Thou allowest to go astray whom Thou willest, and guidest aright whom Thou willest. Thou art near unto us: grant us, then, forgiveness and have mercy on us - for Thou art the best of all forgivers!
Rashad Khalifa	7:155 Moses then selected seventy men from among his people, to come to our appointed audience. When the quake shook them, he said, "My Lord, You could have annihilated them in the past, together with me, if You so willed. Would You annihilate us for the deeds of those among us who are foolish? This must be the test that You have instituted for us. With it, You condemn whomever You will, and guide whomever You will. You are our Lord and Master, so forgive us, shower us with Your mercy; You are the best Forgiver.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:155 Then, Moses selected seventy of his people for Our place of meeting. When they were seized with violent quaking, he said, "My Lord! You could have destroyed them and me long before, if You so willed. Would You destroy us for the actions of the foolish ones among us? This must be Your trial. By such trials, You let go astray those who will to go astray, and You guide those who will to be guided. You are our Protector. So, forgive us and grant us mercy. You are the Best of forgivers. ⁵⁴
Transliteration	7:155 Waikhtara moos aqawmahu sabAAeena rajulan limeeq atina falammaakhatat-humu alrrajfatu qala rabbi lawshi/ta ahlaktahum min qablu wa- iyyaya atuhlikunabima faAAala alssufahao minna in hiyailla fitnatuka tudillu biha man tashao watahdee man tashao anta waliyyun faighfirlana wairhamna waanta khayru alghafireena
A	7:155 واختار موسى قومه سبعين رجلا لميقتنا فلما اخذتهم الرجفة قال رب لو شئت اهلكتهم من قبل وايبى اتهلكنا بما فعل السفهاء منا ان هي الا فتنتك تضل بها من تشاء وتهدي من تشاء انت ولينا فاغفر لنا وارحمنا وانت خير الغفرين
Eidip-Layth	Importance of Charity and Social Work 7:156 "Decree for us good in this world, and in the Hereafter; we have been guided towards You." He said, "I will afflict with My punishment whom I chose, but My mercy encompasses all things. I will thus decree it for those who are aware and contribute towards betterment, and those who acknowledge Our signs." ²⁹
The Monotheist Group	7:156 "And decree for us good in this world, and in the Hereafter; we have been guided towards You." He said: "My punishment, I afflict with it whom I chose, and My mercy encompasses all things. I will thus decree it for those who are aware and contribute towards betterment, and those who believe in Our revelations."
	7:156 And ordain Thou for us what is good in this world as well as in the life to come: behold, unto Thee have we turned in repentance!" [God] answered: "With

Muhammad Asad	My chastisement do I afflict whom I will - but My grace overspreads everything: ¹²³ and so I shall confer it on those who are conscious of Me and spend in charity, and who believe in Our messages-
Rashad Khalifa	Requirements For Attaining God's Mercy The Importance of Zakat 7:156 "And decree for us righteousness in this world, and in the Hereafter. We have repented to You." He said, "My retribution befalls whomever I will. But My mercy encompasses all things. However, I will specify it for those who (1) lead a righteous life, (2) give the obligatory charity (Zakat), (3) believe in our revelations, and
Shabbir Ahmed	7:156 So, appoint for us the good in this world and in the Hereafter. We turn to You for guidance." (He answered), "My punishment is but through My law. But My mercy embraces all things. Yet, I (especially) appoint it for those who live upright and keep their wealth open for others and those who truly believe in Our messages." ⁵⁵
Transliteration	7:156 Waoktub lana fee hathihialdunya hasanatan wafee al- akhiratiinna hudna ilayka qala AAathabee oseebubihi man ash ao wara hmatee wasiAAat kulla shay- infasaaktubuha lilla theena yattaqoona wayu/toona a Izzakatawaaalla theena hum bi-ayatinayu/minoona
A	7:156 واكتب لنا فى هذه الدنيا حسنة وفى الءآخرة انا هدنا اليك قال عذابى اصيب به من اشاء ورحمتى وسعت كل شء فساكتبها للذين يتقون ويوتون الزكوة والذين هم بايتنا يومنون
Edip-Layth	Muhammad: The Gentile Prophet 7:157 "Those who follow the gentile prophet whom they find written for them in the Torah and the Injeel; he orders them to goodness, deters them from evil, he makes lawful for them the good things, he forbids for them the evil, and he removes their burden and the shackles imposed upon them. So those who acknowledged him, honored him, supported him, and followed the light that was sent down with him; these are the successful." ³⁰
The Monotheist Group	7:157 "Those who follow the Gentile messenger prophet whom they find written for them in the Torah and the Injeel; he orders them to goodness, and deters them from evil, and he makes lawful for them the good things, and he forbids for them the evil, and he removes their burden and the shackles that are upon them. So those who believe in him, and support him, and help him persevere, and follow the light that was sent down with him; these are the successful."
Muhammad Asad	7:157 those who shall follow the [last] Apostle, the unlettered Prophet whom they shall find described in the Torah that is with them, and [later on] in the Gospel: ¹²⁴ [the Prophet] who will enjoin upon them the doing of what is right and forbid them the doing of what is wrong, and make lawful to them the good things of life and forbid them the bad things, and lift from them their burdens and the shackles that were upon them [aforetime]. ¹²⁵ Those, therefore, who shall believe in him, and honour him, and succour him, and follow the light that has been bestowed from on high through him-it is they that shall attain to a happy state."
Rashad Khalifa	7:157 "(4) follow the messenger, the gentile prophet (Muhammad), whom they find written in their Torah and Gospel. He exhorts them to be righteous, enjoins them from evil, allows for them all good food, and prohibits that which is bad, and unloads the burdens and the shackles imposed upon them. Those who believe in him, respect him, support him, and follow the light that came with him are the successful ones."
	7:157 (Now the law has been revealed to prophet Muhammad.) Follow the messenger, the prophet who is a non-Israelite, and who was unlettered before

Shabbir Ahmed	the revelation (29:48). They find him well described ⁵⁶ in the Torah and the Gospel with them. He enjoins upon them the Right, and forbids them the Wrong. He declares lawful all good things, and declares unlawful only the unclean things. He relieves people from the burdens they carried. He breaks the shackles of mental and physical slavery that they used to wear, and brings them out from darkness to light (5:15-16, 65:11, 76:4). Those who believe in him, honor him, support him, and follow the light that has come with him, are the eternally successful.
Transliteration	7:157 Allatheena yattabiAAoona a IrrasoolaaInnabiyya al-ommiyya alla thee yajidoonahumaktooban AAindahum fee a Ittawraati wa al-injeeliya/muruhum bialmaAAaroofi wayanh ahum AAani almunkariwayu hillu lahumu a Ittayyibati wayuharrimuAAalayhimu alkhaba-itha wayadaAAu AAanhum israhumwaal-aghlala allatee kanat AAalayhim fa allatheenaamanoo bihi waAAazzaroohu wana sarooHu waittabaAAooalInnoora allathee onzila maAAahu ola-ikahumu almuflihooNa
A	7:157 الذين يتبعون الرسول النبي الامى الذى يجدونه مكتوبا عندهم فى التوراة والانجيل يامرهم بالمعروف وينههم عن المنكر ويحل لهم الطيبات ويحرم عليهم الخبث ويضع عنهم اصرهم والاغلل التى كانت عليهم فالذين ءامنوا به وعزروه ونصروه واتبعوا النور الذى انزل معه اولئك هم المفلحون
Edip-Layth	7:158 Say, "O people, I am God's messenger to you all. The One who has the sovereignty of heavens and earth, there is no god but He; He gives life and causes death." So acknowledge God and His gentile prophet, who acknowledges God and His words; and follow him that you may be guided. ³¹
The Monotheist Group	7:158 Say: "O mankind, I am God's messenger to you all. The One who has the sovereignty of heavens and Earth, there is no god but He; He gives life and causes death." So believe in God and His Gentile messenger prophet, who believes in God and His words; and follow him that you may be guided.
Muhammad Asad	7:158 Say [O Muhammad]: "O mankind! Verily, I am an apostle of God to all of you, ¹²⁶ [sent by Him] unto whom the dominion over the heavens and the earth belongs! There is no deity save Him; He [alone] grants life and deals death!" Believe, then, in God and His Apostle-the unlettered Prophet who believes in God and His words-and follow him, so that you might find guidance!
Rashad Khalifa	7:158 Say, "O people, I am GOD's messenger to all of you. To Him belongs the sovereignty of the heavens and the earth. There is no god except He. He controls life and death." Therefore, you shall believe in GOD and His messenger, the gentile prophet, who believes in GOD and His words. Follow him, that you may be guided.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:158 Say, "O Mankind! I am God's messenger to all of you (beyond temporal and geographical bounds.) The messenger of Him to Whom belongs the Dominion of the heavens and earth. There is no god but He. He has absolute control over the fountain spring of life and over the laws of transition to death. So, believe in God and His messenger, the prophet to whose people no scripture was given before, and who believes in God and in His Words. Follow him so that you may be rightly guided."
Transliteration	7:158 Qul y a ayyuh a a Innasuinnee rasoolu All ahi ilaykum jameeAAan allatheelahu mulku a Issamawati wa al-ardila il aha ill a huwa yu hyee wayumeetufaaminoo bi Allahi warasoolihi a Innabiyyial-ommiyyi alla thee yu/minu biAllahi wakalimaatihiwaittabiAAoohu laAAaallakum tahtadoona
A	7:158 قل يا ايها الناس انى رسول الله اليكم جميعا الذى له ملك السموت والارض لا اله الا هو يحيى ويميت فامنوا بالله ورسوله النبي الامى الذى يؤمن بالله وكلماته واتبعوه لعلكم تهتدون

Edip-Layth	7:159 Among the people of Moses are a nation who guide with truth and with it they become just.
The Monotheist Group	7:159 And from among the people of Moses are a nation who guide with truth and with it they become just.
Muhammad Asad	7:159 AND AMONG the folk of Moses there have been people who would guide [others] in the way of the truth and act justly in its light. ¹²⁷
Rashad Khalifa	The Guided Jews 7:159 Among the followers of Moses there are those who guide in accordance with the truth, and the truth renders them righteous.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:159 The people of Moses were given similar guidance and a section among them was guided and did justice in truth.
Transliteration	7:159 Wamin qawmi moosa ommatun yahdoonabi alhaqqi wabihi yaAAadiloon a
A	7:159 ومن قوم موسى امة يهدون بالحق وبه يعدلون
Edip-Layth	7:160 We separated them into twelve tribes as nations; and We inspired Moses when his people wanted to drink: "Strike the rock with your staff," thus twelve springs burst forth. Every group knew where from to drink. We shaded them with clouds and We sent down to them manna and quail: "Eat from the good things that We have provided for you." They did not wrong Us, but it was themselves that they wronged.
The Monotheist Group	7:160 And We separated them into twelve tribes as nations; and We inspired Moses when his people wanted to drink: "Strike the rock with your staff," thus twelve springs burst forth. Every group knew where from to drink. And We shaded them with clouds and We sent down to them manna and quail: "Eat from the good things that We have provided for you." They did not wrong Us, but it was their souls that they wronged.
Muhammad Asad	7:160 And We divided them into twelve tribes, [or] communities. And when his people asked Moses for water, We inspired him, "Strike the rock with thy staff!" - whereupon twelve springs gushed forth from it, so that all the people knew whence to drink., And We caused the clouds to comfort them with their shade, and We sent down unto them manna and quails, [saying:] "Partake of the good things which We have provided for you as sustenance." And [by all their sinning] they did no harm unto Us-but [only] against their own selves did they sin.
Rashad Khalifa	Miracles in Sinai 7:160 We divided them into twelve tribal communities, and we inspired Moses when his people asked him for water: "Strike the rock with your staff," whereupon twelve springs gushed out therefrom. Thus, each community knew its water. And we shaded them with clouds, and sent down to them manna and quails: "Eat from the good things we provided for you." It is not us that they wronged; it is they who wronged their own souls.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:160 We set up twelve tribal communities among the Israelites (for effective administration). When his people asked for water, We revealed to Moses, "Strike the rock with your staff!" And twelve springs gushed forth from there. Each group knew its own place of water. We gave them the shade of clouds, and manna and quails, saying, "Eat of the good things We have provided you." (After a time, the corrupters in that wonderful society started dissenting.) They did not harm Us, but they did harm their own 'self'. ⁵⁷
	7:160 WaqattaAAanahumu ithnatayAAashrata asb atan omaman waaw hayna ilamoosa ithi istasqahu qawmuhu ani i dribbiAAasaka alhajara fa inbajasat minhu

Transliteration	ithnataAAashrata AAaynan qad AAalima kullu on asin mashrabahum wathallalnaAAalayhimu algham ama waanzaln a AAalayhimu almannawa alssalwa kuloo min tayyibati marazaqnakum wama a thalamoona walakinkanoo anfusahum yathlimoona
A	7:160 وقطعهم اثنتى عشرة اسباطا امما واوحينا الى موسى اذ استسقى قومه ان اضرب بعصاك الحجر فانجست منه اثنتا عشرة عينا قد علم كل اناس مشربهم وظللنا عليهم الغم وانزلنا عليهم المن والسلوى كلوا من طيبات ما رزقناكم وما ظلمونا ولكن كانوا انفسهم يظلمون
Edip-Layth	Children of Israel Trade Humility and Peace With Violence and Arrogance 7:161 When they were told: "Reside in this town and eat from it as you please, talk amicably and enter the passage by prostrating, We will then forgive for you your wrong doings. We will increase for the good doers."
The Monotheist Group	7:161 And they were told: "Reside in this town and eat from it as you please, and say: "Our load is removed," and enter the passageway by crouching, We will forgive for you your wrong doings, and We will increase for the good doers."
Muhammad Asad	7:161 And [remember] when you were told: "Dwell in this land and eat of its food as you may desire; but say, 'Remove Thou from us the burden of our sins,' and enter the gate humbly - [whereupon] We shall forgive you your sins [and] shall amply reward the doers of good."
Rashad Khalifa	Rebellion Despite the Miracles 7:161 Recall that they were told, "Go into this town to live, and eat therefrom as you please, treat the people amicably, and enter the gate humbly. We will then forgive your transgressions. We will multiply the reward for the righteous."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:161 And remember it was said to them, "Dwell in this town (Palestine 5:21) and enjoy the provisions as you wish. Enter the gate humbly and say, 'Hittatun', 'Our Lord! Absolve our misdeeds as we mend our ways.' Then do what you say and We shall forgive you your misdeeds. We increase the reward for the doers of good." 58
Transliteration	7:161 Wa-ith qeela lahumu oskunoo h athihialqaryata wakuloo minh a haythu shi/tum waqooloo hittatunwaodkhuloo alb aba sujjadan naghfir lakum khafee-atikumsanazeedu almuhsineena
A	7:161 واذ قيل لهم اسكنوا هذه القرية وكلوا منها حيث شئتم وقولوا حطة وادخلوا الباب سجدا نغفر لكم خطيئكم سنزيد المحسنين
Edip-Layth	7:162 Those who were wicked amongst them altered what was said to them with something different; so We sent to them a pestilence from the sky because they were wicked.
The Monotheist Group	7:162 Those who were wicked amongst them altered what was said to them with something different; so We sent to them an affliction from the sky because they were wicked.
Muhammad Asad	7:162 But those among them who were bent on wrongdoing substituted another saying for that which they had been given: and so We let loose against them a plague from heaven in requital of all their evil doings. 128
Rashad Khalifa	7:162 But the evil ones among them substituted other commands for the commands given to them. Consequently, we sent upon them condemnation from the sky, because of their wickedness.
	7:162 But, some of the wrongdoers began changing the Word of God that was taught to them, and displaced it with their own fabrications. (They became Shabbir Ahmed	disobedient). So, We (Our law) caused them to weaken and waver, for they violated the commands. ⁵⁹

Transliteration	7:162 Fabaddala alla theena th alamoominhu qawlan ghayra alla thee qeela lahum faarsalnaAAalayhim rijzan mina alssama-i bima kanoo ya th limoona
A	7:162 فبدل الذين ظلموا منهم قولا غير الذى قيل لهم فارسلنا عليهم رجزا من السماء بما كانوا يظلمون
Edip-Layth	7:163 Ask them about the town which was by the sea, after they had transgressed the Sabbath; their fish would come to them openly on the day of their Sabbath, and when they were not in Sabbath, they would not come to them! It is such that We afflicted them for what they corrupted.
The Monotheist Group	7:163 And ask them about the town which was by the sea, after they had transgressed the Sabbath; their fish would come to them openly on the day of their Sabbath, and when they are not in Sabbath, they do not come to them! It is such that We afflicted them for what they corrupted.
Muhammad Asad	7:163 And ask them about that town which stood by the sea: how its people would profane the Sabbath whenever their fish came to them, breaking the water's surface, on a day on which they ought to have kept Sabbath -because they would not come to them on other than Sabbath-days! ¹²⁹ Thus did We try them by means of their [own] iniquitous doings.
Rashad Khalifa	Observing the Commandments ` Brings Prosperity 7:163 Remind them of the community by the sea, who desecrated the Sabbath. When they observed the Sabbath, the fish came to them abundantly. And when they violated the Sabbath, the fish did not come. We thus afflicted them, as a consequence of their transgression.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:163 Ask the Israelites about the township (Elat) that was located by the sea, and they had violated the Sabbath. The big fish used to come on the surface in abundance on their day of Sabbath, feeling secure, and did not come up on other days. (But the community failed to persevere, and broke the Sabbath to get a good catch.) Thus We tested them to see for themselves how they drift away from discipline.
Transliteration	7:163 Wais-alhum AAani alqaryati allatee k anath adirata alba hri i th yaAAadoona fee alssabti th ta/teehim heet anuhum yawma sabtihimshurraAAan wayawma l a yasbitoona l a ta/teehim ka th alikanabloohum bima kanoo yafsuqoona
A	7:163 وسلمهم عن القرية التى كانت حاضرة البحر اذ يعدون فى السبت اذ تاتيهم حينانهم يوم سبتهم شرعا ويوم لا يسبتون لا تاتيهم كذلك نبلوهم بما كانوا يفسقون
Edip-Layth	7:164 A nation from amongst them said, "Why do you preach to a people whom God will destroy or punish a painful retribution?" They said, "To fulfill our duty to your Lord, and perhaps they may become aware."
The Monotheist Group	7:164 And a nation from amongst them said: "Why do you preach to a people whom God will destroy or punish a painful retribution?" They said: "A plea to your Lord, and perhaps they may be aware."
Muhammad Asad	7:164 And whenever some people ¹³⁰ among them asked [those who tried to restrain the Sabbath-breakers], "Why do you preach to people whom God is about to destroy or [at least] to chastise with suffering severe?" -the pious ones ¹³¹ would answer, "In order to be free from blame before your Sustainer, and that these [transgressors, too,] might become conscious of Him."

Rashad Khalifa	Mocking and Ridiculing God's Message 7:164 Recall that a group of them said, "Why should you preach to people whom GOD will surely annihilate or punish severely?" They answered, "Apologize to your Lord," that they might be saved.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:164 The kind-hearted among them kept reminding the violators. And others said, "Why do you preach a people whom God's requital is going to destroy or punish them with a severe torment?" The counselors said, "In order to be free of guilt before your Lord that we failed to advise -And in the hope that they live upright."
Transliteration	7:164 Wa-i th q a lat ommatun minhumlima taAAi th oona qawman All a hu muhlikuhum awmuAAa th thibuhum AAa th aban shadeedan q a loomaAA th iratan il a rabbikum walaAAallahum yattaqoona
A	7:164 واذا قالت امة منهم لم تعظون قوما الله مهلكهم او معذبهم عذابا شديدا قالوا معذرة الى ربكم ولعلمهم يتقون
Edip-Layth	7:165 So when they forgot what they were reminded of, We saved those who desisted from evil, and We took those who transgressed with a grievous retribution for what they were corrupting.
The Monotheist Group	7:165 So when they forgot that which they were reminded of, We saved those who prohibited evil, and We took those who transgressed with a grievous retribution for what they were corrupting.
Muhammad Asad	7:165 And thereupon, when those [sinners] had forgotten all that they had been told to take to heart, We saved those who had tried to prevent the doing of evil, ¹³² and overwhelmed those who had been bent on evil-doing with dreadful suffering for all their iniquity;
Rashad Khalifa	7:165 When they disregarded what they were reminded of, we saved those who prohibited evil, and afflicted the wrongdoers with a terrible retribution for their wickedness.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:165 When they disregarded the reminders, We saved the ones who admonished them, and punished those who transgressed and drifted away from the command.
Transliteration	7:165 Famma a nasoo m a th ukkiroobihi anjayn a alla th eena yanhawna AAani alssoo-iwaakhath na alla th eena th alamoobiAAa th abin ba-eesin bim a k a noo yafsuqoona
A	7:165 فلما نسوا ما ذكروا به انجينا الذين ينهاون عن السوء واخذنا الذين ظلموا بعذاب بئيس بما كانوا يفسقون
Edip-Layth	7:166 When they persisted in what they had been forbidden from, We said to them: "Be despicable apes!" ³²
The Monotheist Group	7:166 When they persisted in that which they had been prohibited from, We said to them: "Be despicable apes!"
Muhammad Asad	7:166 and then, when they disdainfully persisted in doing what they had been forbidden to do, We said unto them: "Be as apes despicable!" ¹³³
Rashad Khalifa	7:166 When they continued to defy the commandments, we said to them, "Be you despicable apes."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:166 As they persisted with their rebellious behavior, Our law caused their disposition take a downward turn and they developed apish mentality. We told them, "Be the living symbols of humiliation."

Transliteration	7:166 Falamma a AAataw AAan m a nuhooAAanhu quln a lahum koonoo qiradatan kh asi-eena
A	7:166 فلما عتوا عن ما نهوا عنه قلنا لهم كونوا قردة خسین
Edip-Layth	7:167 Furthermore, your Lord declared that He will rise against them people who would inflict severe persecution on them, until the day of Resurrection. Your Lord is quick to punish, and He is Forgiving, Compassionate.
The Monotheist Group	7:167 And your Lord has sworn that He will send upon them, until the Day of Resurrection, people who would inflict severe punishment on them. Your Lord is quick to punish, and He is Forgiving, Merciful.
Muhammad Asad	7:167 And lo! Thy Sustainer made it known that most certainly He would rouse against them, unto Resurrection Day, people who would afflict them with cruel suffering: verily, thy Sustainer is swift in retribution - yet, verily, He is [also] much-forgiving, a dispenser of grace.
Rashad Khalifa	7:167 Additionally, your Lord has decreed that He will raise up against them people who will inflict severe persecution upon them, until the Day of Resurrection. Your Lord is most efficient in enforcing retribution, and He is certainly the Forgiver, Most Merciful.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:167 And remember, your Lord proclaimed that He would raise against them till the Day of Resurrection, people who will persecute them. Your Lord is Swift in retribution, yet any people who mend their ways, will find Him Forgiving, Merciful.
Transliteration	7:167 Wa-i th taa th thana rabbukalayabAAathanna AAalayhim il a yawmi alqiy a mati manyasoomuhum soo-a alAAa th abi inna rabbaka lasareeAAu alAAiq a biwa-innahu laghafoorun ra h ee m un
A	7:167 واذا تاذن ربك لبيعثن عليهم الى يوم القيمة من يسومهم سوء العذاب ان ربك لسريع العقاب وانه لغفور رحيم
Edip-Layth	7:168 We divided them through the land as nations. From them are the reformed, and from them are other than that. We tested them with good things and bad, perhaps they will return.
The Monotheist Group	7:168 And We divided them through the land as nations. From them are the upright, and from them are other than that. And We tested them with good things and bad, perhaps they will return.
Muhammad Asad	7:168 And We dispersed them as [separate] communities all over the earth; some of them were righteous, and some of them less than that: and the latter We tried with blessings as well as with afflictions, so that they might mend their ways. ¹³⁴
Rashad Khalifa	7:168 We scattered them among many communities throughout the land. Some of them were righteous, and some were less than righteous. We tested them with prosperity and hardship, that they may return.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:168 And We scattered them into different communities throughout the earth. Among them some are righteous, and some are opposite. Through the turns of history We have caused them to experience easy and difficult times, in order that they might return to Our laws.
Transliteration	7:168 WaqattaAAan a hum fee al-ar d iomaman minhumu a l ssali h oona waminhum doona th alikawabalawn a hum bial h asan a ti waal l sayyi- a tilaAAallahum yarjiAAoona

A	7:168 وقطعهم فى الارض امما منهم الصلحون ومنهم دون ذلك وبلونهم بالحسنت والسيات لعلهم يرجعون
Edip-Layth	7:169 A generation came after them who inherited the book, but they indulged in the petty materials of this world by saying, "It will be forgiven for us." They continued choosing materials, whenever they were given a chance. Did they not make a covenant to uphold the book that they would only say the truth about God? They studied what was in it; but the abode of the Hereafter is better for those who are aware. Do you not reason?
The Monotheist Group	7:169 A generation came after them who inherited the Scripture, but they took the materialism of this world, which is lower; and they say: "It will be forgiven for us." And if materialism again comes to them they take it; was not the covenant of the Scripture taken on them that they would only say the truth about God? And they studied what was in it; but the abode of the Hereafter is better for those who are aware. Do you not comprehend?
Muhammad Asad	7:169 And they have been succeeded by [new] generations who - [in spite of] having inherited the divine writ-clutch but at the fleeting good of this lower world and say, "We shall be forgiven, ¹³⁵ the while they are ready, if another such fleeting good should come their way, to clutch at it [and sin again]. Have they not been solemnly pledged through the divine writ not to attribute unto God aught but what is true, ¹³⁶ and [have they not] read again and again all that is therein? Since the life in the hereafter is the better [of the two] for all who are conscious of God -will you not, then, use your reason?
Rashad Khalifa	7:169 Subsequent to them, He substituted new generations who inherited the scripture. But they opted for the worldly life instead, saying, "We will be forgiven." But then they continued to opt for the materials of this world. Did they not make a covenant to uphold the scripture, and not to say about GOD except the truth? Did they not study the scripture? Certainly, the abode of the Hereafter is far better for those who maintain righteousness. Do you not understand?
Shabbir Ahmed	7:169 But, the succeeding generations that inherited the scripture, did no better. They became more materialistic, falling for instant gains. Yet, they insist, "We will be forgiven, and would not have to account for it." And they keep longing for material gains. Didn't they promise to uphold the scripture, and not to say about God but the truth? And they have studied the commands in it! The long-term benefit and the abode of the Hereafter are better for those who deal justly with people and live upright. Will you not use sense?
Transliteration	7:169 Fakhalafa min baAAadihim khalfun warithooalkit aba ya/khu thoona AAarada hathaal-adna wayaqooloona sayughfaru lan a wa-in ya/tihimAAara dun mithluhu ya/khuthoohu alam yu/kha thAAalayhim meeth aqu alkitabi an l a yaqoolooAAal a Allahi ill a al haqqa wadarasoo m afeehi wa alddaru al- akhira khayrun lillatheenayattaqoona afala taAAqiloona
A	7:169 ف خلف من بعدهم خلف ورثوا الكتب ياخذون عرض هذا الادنى ويقولون سيغفر لنا وان ياتهم عرض مثله ياخذوه الم يوخذ عليهم ميثق الكتب ان لا يقولوا على الله الا الحق ودرسوا ما فيه والدار الءاخرة خير للذين يتقون افلا تعقلون
Edip-Layth	7:170 As for those who adhere to the book, and they hold the contact prayer; We will not waste the reward of the reformers.
The Monotheist Group	7:170 As for those who adhere to the Scripture, and they uphold the communion; We will not waste the reward of the righteous.
Muhammad Asad	7:170 For [We shall requite] all those who hold fast to the divine writ and are constant in prayer: verily, We shall not fail to requite those who enjoin the doing of what is right!

Rashad Khalifa	7:170 Those who uphold the scripture, and observe the Contact Prayers (Salat), we never fail to recompense the pious.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:170 Those who hold fast to the Book of God, and strive to establish the Divine System, should know that We never squander the reward of the righteous.
Transliteration	7:170 Wa ^a lla th eena yumassikoona bi alkitabiwaaqamoo a lssalata inn a lanudeeAAu ajra almu ^s li ^h eena
A	7:170 والذين يمسكون بالكتب واقاموا الصلوة انا لا نضيع اجر المصلحين
Edip-Layth	7:171 When We raised the mountain above them as if it were a cloud, and they thought it would fall on them: "Take what We have given you with strength and remember what is in it that you may be aware."
The Monotheist Group	7:171 And We raised the mountain above them as if it were a cloud, and they thought it would fall on them: "Take what We have given you with strength and remember what is in it that you may be righteous."
Muhammad Asad	7:171 And [did We not say,] when We caused Mount Sinai to quake above the children of Israel ¹³⁷ as though it were a [mere] shadow, and they thought that it would fall upon them, "Hold fast with [all your] strength unto what We have vouchsafed you, and bear in mind all that is therein, so that you might remain conscious of God"? ¹³⁸
Rashad Khalifa	7:171 We raised the mountain above them like an umbrella, and they thought it was going to fall on them: "You shall uphold what we have given you, strongly, and remember the contents thereof, that you may be saved."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:171 They must recall that the Mount Sinai stands over them as a telling Witness. The mountain could shake with a quake and fall to be level with them but the Divine guidance is the unwavering truth (13:31, 59:61). We said, "Hold firmly what We have given you and remember its teachings so that you live upright."
Transliteration	7:171 Wa-i th nataqna aljabalafawqahum kaannahu th ullatun wa th annooannahu waqiAAun bihim khu ^{thoo} m a ataynakumbiquwwatin wa o th ku ^r oo m a feehi laAAallakumtattaqoon ^a
A	7:171 واذ نتقنا الجبل فوقهم كانه ظلة وظنوا انه واقع بهم خذوا ما ءاتينكم بقوة واذكروا ما فيه لعلكم تتقون
Edip-Layth	We Are Born With the Genetic Program To Infer the Creator of Universe 7:172 When your Lord took from the children of Adam from their backs, their progeny; and He made them witness over themselves: "Am I not your Lord?" They said, "Yes, we bear witness." Thus you cannot say on the day of Resurrection that you were unaware of this. ³³
The Monotheist Group	7:172 And your Lord took for the children of Adam from their backs, their progeny; and He made them witness over themselves: "Am I not your Lord?" They said: "Yes, we bear witness." Thus you cannot say on the Day of Resurrection that you were unaware of this.
Muhammad Asad	7:172 AND WHENEVER thy Sustainer brings forth their offspring from the loins of the children of Adam, He [thus] calls upon them to bear witness about themselves: "Am I not your Sustainer?" - to which they answer: "Yea, indeed, we do bear witness thereto!" ¹³⁹ [Of this We remind you,] lest you say on the Day of Resurrection, "Verily, we were unaware of this";

Rashad Khalifa	We Are Born With Instinctive Knowledge About God 7:172 Recall that your Lord summoned all the descendants of Adam, and had them bear witness for themselves: "Am I not your Lord?" They all said, "Yes. We bear witness." Thus, you cannot say on the Day of Resurrection, "We were not aware of this." 11
Shabbir Ahmed	7:172 When your Lord brought forth generations in succession from the Children of Adam, and made them bear witness, "Am I not your Sustainer?" They said, "Yes, we bear witness." Thus you cannot say on the Resurrection Day, "We were not aware of this." 60
Transliteration	7:172 Wa-ith akha tha rabbuka minbanee adama min thuhoorihim thurriyyatahumwaashhadahum AAal a anfusihim alastu birabbikum q aloobala shahidna an taqooloo yawma alqiy amatinna kunna AAan hatha ghafileena
A	7:172 واذا اخذ ربك من بنى ءادم من ظهورهم ذريتهم واشهدهم على انفسهم الست بربكم قالوا بلى شهدنا ان تقولوا يوم القيمة انا كنا عن هذا غفلين
Edip-Layth	7:173 Nor can you say, "It was our fathers who set up partners before and we were simply a progeny who came after them. Would You destroy us for what the innovators did?"
The Monotheist Group	7:173 Nor can you say: "It was our fathers who set up partners before and we were simply a progeny who came after them. Would You destroy us for what the innovators did?"
Muhammad Asad	7:173 or lest you say, "Verily, it was but our forefathers who, in times gone by, began to ascribe divinity to other beings beside God; and we were but their late offspring: wilt Thou, then, destroy us for the doings of those inventors of falsehoods?"
Rashad Khalifa	7:173 Nor can you say, "It was our parents who practiced idolatry, and we simply followed in their footsteps. Will You punish us because of what others have innovated?"
Shabbir Ahmed	7:173 Nor will any excuse avail them such as, "It was our forefathers who took false gods and we inherited their belief system. Will you punish us for what falsehood others practiced?" 61
Transliteration	7:173 Aw taqooloo innam a ashraka abaonamin qablu wakunna thurriyyatan min baAAadihimafatuhlikuna bima faAAala almubiloona
A	7:173 او تقولوا انما اشرك ءاباونا من قبل وكنا ذرية من بعدهم افتهلكنا بما فعل المبطلون
Edip-Layth	7:174 We thus explain the signs, perhaps they will return. 34
The Monotheist Group	7:174 It is such that We explain the revelations, perhaps they will revert.
Muhammad Asad	7:174 And thus clearly do We spell out these messages; and [We do it] so that they [who have sinned] might return [unto Us].
Rashad Khalifa	7:174 We thus explain the revelations, to enable the people to redeem themselves. 12
Shabbir Ahmed	7:174 We explain Our verses in detail so that people turn toward the Book.
Transliteration	7:174 Wakathalika nufassilu al-ayatiwalaAAallahum yarjiAAoona

A	7:174 وكذلك نفصل الءآيت ولعلمهم يرجعون
Edip-Layth	7:175 Relate to them the news of the person whom We gave him Our signs, but he withdrew from them, and thus the devil followed him, and He became of those who went astray.
The Monotheist Group	7:175 And recite to them the story of the person whom Our revelations were given to him, but he removed himself from them, and thus the devil followed him, and He became of those who went astray.
Muhammad Asad	7:175 And tell them what happens to him ¹⁴⁰ to whom We vouchsafe Our messages and who then discards them: Satan catches up with him, and he strays, like so many others, into grievous error. ¹⁴¹
Rashad Khalifa	7:175 Recite for them the news of one who was given our proofs, but chose to disregard them. Consequently, the devil pursued him, until he became a strayer.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:175 And tell them what happened to him whom Our messages were conveyed but he cast them off. Thus Satan (his selfish desires) overpowered him until he became of those who lost their way.
Transliteration	7:175 Waotlu AAalayhim nabaa alla theeataynahu ayatina fa insalakhaminha faatbaAAahu alshshaytanu faknamina alghaweena
A	7:175 وائل عليهم نبا الذى آاتينه آايتنا فانسلك منها فاتبعه الشيطان فكان من الغالوين
Edip-Layth	7:176 Had We willed, We could have elevated him by it, but he stuck to the earth and he followed his wishful thinking. His example is like the dog; if you scold him he pants, and if you leave him he pants; such is the example of the people who deny Our signs. Relate the stories, perhaps they will think.
The Monotheist Group	7:176 Had We wished, We could have elevated him by it, but he stuck to the Earth and he followed his desire. His example is like the dog, if you scold him he pants, and if you leave him he pants; such is the example of the people who deny Our revelations. Relate the stories, perhaps they will think.
Muhammad Asad	7:176 Now had We so willed, We could indeed have exalted him by means of those [messages]: but he always clung to the earth and followed but his own desires. Thus, his parable is that of an [excited] dog: if thou approach him threateningly, he will pant with his tongue lolling; and, if thou leave him alone, he will pant with his tongue lolling. ¹⁴² Such is the parable of those who are bent on giving the lie to Our messages. Tell [them], then, this story, so that they might take thought.
Rashad Khalifa	7:176 Had we willed, we could have elevated him therewith, but he insisted on sticking to the ground, and pursued his own opinions. Thus, he is like the dog; whether you pet him or scold him, he pants. Such is the example of people who reject our proofs. Narrate these narrations, that they may reflect.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:176 He could have raised himself in honor according to Our laws, but he clung to the earth and followed his own desires. Therefore his likeness is as the likeness of a dog. Whether you pet him or scold him, he pants. Such is the example of nations that deny Our revelations. So, relate this narration that they may reflect. ⁶²
Transliteration	7:176 Walaw shi/n a larafaAAan ahu bih awalakinnahu akhlada il a al-ar di waittabaAAahawahu famathaluhu kamathali alkalbi in ta hmilAAalayhi yalhath aw tatruk-hu yalhath thalika mathalualqawmi alla theena ka ththaboo bi-ayatinafaoqsusi alqasasa laAAallahumyatafakkaroona

A	7:176 ولو شئنا لرفعنه بها ولكنه اخلد الى الارض واتبع هوبه فمثله كمثل الكلب ان تحمل عليه يلهث او تتركه يلهث ذلك مثل القوم الذين كذبوا بايتنا فاقصص القصص لعلهم يتفكرون
Edip-Layth	7:177 Miserable is the example of the people who denied Our signs, and it was themselves that they had wronged.
The Monotheist Group	7:177 Miserable is the example of the people who denied Our revelations, and it was their souls that they had wronged.
Muhammad Asad	7:177 Evil is the example of people who are bent on giving the lie to Our messages: for it is against their own selves that they are sinning!
Rashad Khalifa	7:177 Bad indeed is the example of people who reject our proofs; it is only their own souls that they wrong.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:177 Evil as an example are the people who reject Our verses, since they hurt their own 'self'.
Transliteration	7:177 Saa mathalan alqawmu alla theenakaththaboo bi- ayatina waanfusahum kanooya th limoona
A	7:177 ساء مثلاً القوم الذين كذبوا بايتنا وانفسهم كانوا يظلمون
Edip-Layth	7:178 Whoever God guides, then he is the guided one; and whoever He misguides, then these are the losers.
The Monotheist Group	7:178 Whoever God guides, then he is the guided one; and whoever He misguides, then these are the losers.
Muhammad Asad	7:178 He whom God guides, he alone is truly guided; whereas those whom He lets go astray-it is they, they who are the losers!
Rashad Khalifa	7:178 Whomever GOD guides is the truly guided one, and whomever He commits to straying, these are the losers.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:178 Whoever attains God's guidance according to His laws is led right. And goes astray he who violates God's law of guidance. 63
Transliteration	7:178 Man yahdi All ahu fahuwa almuhtadeewaman yu dlil faol a-ika humu alkh ^{as} iroona
A	7:178 من يهد الله فهو المهتدى ومن يضلل فاولئك هم الخسرون
Edip-Layth	Satan Hypnotizes His Followers 7:179 We have committed to hell many Jinns and humans. They have hearts, yet they do not comprehend; they have eyes yet they do not see; they have ears yet they do not hear. They are like cattle; no, they are even more astray. These are the heedless ones.
The Monotheist Group	7:179 And We have committed to Hell many Jinn and humans; they had hearts with which they did not comprehend, and they had eyes with which they did not see, and they had ears with which they did not hear. They are like cattle; no, they are even more astray. These are the unaware ones.
Muhammad Asad	7:179 And most certainly have We destined for hell many of the invisible beings ¹⁴³ and men who have hearts with which they fail to grasp the truth, and eyes with which they fail to see, and ears with which they fail to hear. They are like cattle -nay, they are even less conscious of the right way: ¹⁴⁴ it is they, they who are the [truly] heedless!

Rashad Khalifa	Satan Hypnotizes His Constituents 7:179 We have committed to Hell multitudes of jinns and humans. They have minds with which they do not understand, eyes with which they do not see, and ears with which they do not hear. They are like animals; no, they are far worse - they are totally unaware.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:179 Our law has committed to Hell numerous people, rural and urban; they are living a life of Hell. They have hearts that they use not to understand. They have eyes with which they see not, and ears with which they hear not. They are like cattle. Nay, they are even worse. Such are the people who have chosen to live through life in total darkness of ignorance.
Transliteration	7:179 Walaqad thara/na lijahannamakatheeran mina aljinni wa al-insi lahum quloobun l ayafqahoona bih a walahum aAAayunun l a yub siroonabiha walahum athanun l a yasmaAAoona bih aola-ika ka al-anAAami bal hum a dalluola-ika humu alghafiloona
A	7:179 ولقد ذرانا لجهنم كثيرا من الجن والانس لهم قلوب لا يفقهون بها ولهم اعين لا يبصرون بها ولهم اذان لا يسمعون بها اولئك كالانعم بل هم اضل اولئك هم الغفلون
Edip-Layth	Beautiful Names Belong To God 7:180 To God belong the beautiful names, so call Him by them; and disregard those who blaspheme in His names. They will be punished for what they used to do. 35
The Monotheist Group	7:180 And to God belong the beautiful names, so call Him by them; and ignore those who blaspheme in His names. They will be punished for what they used to do.
Muhammad Asad	7:180 AND GOD'S [alone] are the attributes of perfection; 145 invoke Him, then, by these, and stand aloof from all who distort the meaning of His attributes: 146 they shall be requited for all that they were wont to do!
Rashad Khalifa	7:180 To GOD belongs the most beautiful names; call upon Him therewith, and disregard those who distort His names. They will be requited for their sins.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:180 All Names of God are the fairest names. You can invoke Him by any of them. Be mindful not to over-emphasize a single attribute of His. (For example, the Merciful God is also a Just God). Disregard those who distort His Names or the meaning of His Attributes (like calling Him, Father, Son, the Destroyer, the man upstairs, etc). Be assured that all of you will be rewarded according to your doings, and by no other criterion.
Transliteration	7:180 Walillahi al-asmao alhusnafaodAAoohu biha watharoo allatheenayulhidoona fee asma-ihi sayujzawna ma kanooyaAAamaloona
A	7:180 والله الاسماء الحسنی فادعوه بها وذروا الذين يلحدون فی اسمئه سيجزون ما كانوا يعملون
Edip-Layth	7:181 From among those We created is a community who guides with truth, and with it they establish justice.
The Monotheist Group	7:181 And from among those We created is a community who guides with truth, and with it they are just.
Muhammad Asad	7:181 Now, among those whom We have created there are people who guide [others] in the way of the truth and act justly in its light. 147
Rashad Khalifa	7:181 Among our creations, there are those who guide with the truth, and the truth renders them righteous.

Shabbir Ahmed	7:181 Among the communities We have created there have been those who guide with truth and establish justice with it.
Transliteration	7:181 Wamimman khalaqna ommatun yahdoonabialhaqqi wabihi yaAdiloon a
A	7:181 وممن خلقنا امة يهدون بالحق وبه يعدلون
Edip-Layth	7:182 As for those who deny Our signs, We will gradually lead them from where they do not know.
The Monotheist Group	7:182 As for those who deny Our revelations, We will entice them from where they do not know.
Muhammad Asad	7:182 But as for those who are bent on giving the lie to Our messages-We shall bring them low, step by step, without their perceiving how it came about: ¹⁴⁸
Rashad Khalifa	7:182 As for those who reject our revelations, we lead them on without them ever realizing it.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:182 And those who deny Our revelations, Our law of Recompense leads them in stages to the miserable destination they have no idea of.
Transliteration	7:182 Waallatheena ka ththaboobi-ayatina sanastadrijuhum min haythula yaAalamoon a
A	7:182 والذين كذبوا بايتنا سنستدرجهم من حيث لا يعلمون
Edip-Layth	7:183 I will respite them, for My scheming is formidable.
The Monotheist Group	7:183 And I will encourage them, for My scheming is formidable.
Muhammad Asad	7:183 for, behold, though I may give them rein for a while. My subtle scheme is exceedingly firm!
Rashad Khalifa	7:183 I will even encourage them; My scheming is formidable.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:183 I give them respite but My Law of Requital is designed to be strong.
Transliteration	7:183 Waomlee lahum inna kaydee mateen un
A	7:183 واملى لهم ان كيدى متين
Edip-Layth	7:184 Do they not reflect that their companion is not crazy; but he is a clear warner.
The Monotheist Group	7:184 Do they not reflect? Their companion has no madness; but he is a clear warner.
Muhammad Asad	7:184 Has it, then, never occurred to them ¹⁴⁹ that there is no madness whatever in [this] their fellowman? He is only a plain warner. ¹⁵⁰
Rashad Khalifa	7:184 Why do they not reflect upon their friend (the messenger)? He is not crazy. He is simply a profound warner.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:184 Has it never occurred to them that there is no madness whatsoever in their fellow-man? He has lived a whole life among you (10:16). He is only a plain warner.
Transliteration	7:184 Awa lam yatafakkaroo m a bisahibihimmin jinnatin in huwa ill a na theerun

	mubeenun
A	7:184 اولم يتفكروا ما بصاحبهم من جنة ان هو الا نذير مبين
Eidip-Layth	7:185 Do they not look at the dominion of heavens and earth, and all that God has created, and perhaps their time is drawing near? In which hadith after this one will they acknowledge? ³⁶
The Monotheist Group	7:185 Did they not look at the dominion of heavens and Earth, and all that God has created? Perhaps their time is drawing near; so in which narrations after this one will they believe?
Muhammad Asad	7:185 Have they, then, never considered [God's] mighty dominion over the heavens and the earth, and all the things that God has created, and [asked themselves] whether, perchance, the end of their own term might already have drawn nigh? In what other tiding, then, will they, after this, believe? ¹⁵¹
Rashad Khalifa	7:185 Have they not looked at the dominion of the heavens and the earth, and all the things GOD has created? Does it ever occur to them that the end of their life may be near? Which Hadith, beside this, do they believe in?
Shabbir Ahmed	7:185 Can they not see (and correlate what he tells them with) the Dominion of the heavens and earth and what God has created? Does it ever occur to them that the end of their own life may be near (hence the time to make the right decisions is not unlimited)? In what Hadith after this (Qur'an) are they going to believe then?
Transliteration	7:185 Awalam yan thuroo feemalakooti a Issamawati wa al-ardiwama khalafa Allahu min shay-in waan AAas aan yakoona qadi iqtaraba ajaluhum fabi-ayyi hadeethinbaAAadahu yu/minoona
A	7:185 اولم ينظروا فى ملكوت السموت والارض وما خلق الله من شىء وان عسى ان يكون قد اقترب اجلهم فباى حديث بعده يؤمنون
Eidip-Layth	7:186 Whoever God misguides, then there is none to guide him; and He leaves them blundering in their transgression.
The Monotheist Group	7:186 Whoever God misguides, then there is none to guide him; and He leaves them blindly wandering in their transgression.
Muhammad Asad	7:186 For those whom God lets go astray, there is no guide; and He shall leave them in their overweening arrogance, blindly stumbling to and fro. ¹⁵²
Rashad Khalifa	7:186 Whomever GOD commits to straying, there is no way for anyone to guide him. He leaves them in their sins, blundering.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:186 There is no guide for him who misleads himself by violating God's law of guidance. When he leaves the law, the law leaves him wandering in the wilderness of arrogant trespassing. ⁶⁴
Transliteration	7:186 Man yu dlili All ahu fal ahadiya lahu waya tharuhum fee tughyanihimyaAAamahoona
A	7:186 من يضل الله فلا هادى له وينرهم فى طغيانهم يعمهون
Eidip-Layth	Only God Can Reveal the Time of the End; Messengers Are Humans Like You 7:187 They ask you regarding the moment: "When will be its time?" Say, "Its knowledge is with my Lord, none can reveal its time except Him. It is heavy through the heavens and the earth; it will not come to you except suddenly."

	They ask you, as if you are too curious about it! Say, "Its knowledge is with God, but most people do not know." ³⁷
The Monotheist Group	7:187 They ask you regarding the Hour: "When will be its time?" Say: "Its knowledge is with my Lord, none can reveal its coming except Him. It is heavy through the heavens and the Earth; it will not come to you except suddenly." They ask you, as if you are responsible for it! Say: "Its knowledge is with God, but most people do not know."
Muhammad Asad	7:187 THEY WILL ASK thee [O Prophet] about the Last Hour: "When will it come to pass?" Say: "Verily, knowledge thereof rests with my Sustainer alone. None but He will reveal it in its time. Heavily will it weigh on the heavens and the earth; [and] it will not fall upon you otherwise than of a sudden." They will ask thee - as if thou couldst gain insight into this [mystery] by dint of persistent inquiry! ¹⁵³ Say: "Knowledge thereof rests with my Sustainer alone; but [of this] most people are unaware."
Rashad Khalifa	7:187 They ask you about the end of the world (the Hour), and when it will come to pass. Say, "The knowledge thereof is with my Lord. Only He reveals its time. Heavy it is, in the heavens and the earth. It will not come to you except suddenly." They ask you as if you are in control thereof. Say, "The knowledge thereof is with GOD," but most people do not know.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:187 (They even venture into predicting the end of the world.) They ask you (O Messenger!), about the Hour, when the end of the world will come to pass. Say, "That knowledge is only with my Lord. He alone will manifest it at the appropriate time. Heavy it is in the heavens and earth. It will come upon you suddenly." They ask you as if you could gain insight into this mystery with persistent inquiry. Say, "The knowledge thereof is with God only. But most people do not know that even messengers were not given this knowledge."
Transliteration	7:187 Yas-aloonaka AAani a IssaAAatiayyana murs aha qul innam a AilmuhaAAinda rabbee la yujalleeha liwaqtiha illahuwa thaqulat fee alssamawati waal-ardila ta/teekum illa baghtatan yas-aloonaka kaannaka hafiiyyunAAanha qul innama Ailmuha AAinda Allahiwalakinna akthara alnnasi layaAAlamoona
A	7:187 يسألونك عن الساعة ايان مرسدها قل انما علمها عند ربى لا يجليها لوقتها الا هو ثقلت فى السموت والارض لا تاتيكم الا بغتة يسألونك كانك حفى عنها قل انما علمها عند الله ولكن اكثر الناس لا يعلمون
Edip-Layth	7:188 Say, "I do not possess for myself any benefit or harm, except what God wills. If I could know the future, then I would have increased my good fortune, and no harm would have come to me. I am but a warner and a bearer of good news to a people who acknowledge." ³⁸
The Monotheist Group	7:188 Say: "I do not possess for myself any benefit or harm, except what God wills. And if I could know the future, then I would have increased my good fortune, and no harm would have come to me. I am but a warner and a bearer of good news to a people who believe."
Muhammad Asad	7:188 Say [O Prophet]: "It is not within my power to bring benefit to, or avert harm from, myself, except as God may please. And if I knew that which is beyond the reach of human perception, abundant good fortune-would surely have fallen to my lot, and no evil would ever have touched me. I am nothing but a warner, and a herald of glad tidings unto people who will believe." ¹⁵⁴
Rashad Khalifa	Messengers Are Powerless; They Do Not Know the Future. 7:188 Say, "I have no power to benefit myself, or harm myself. Only what GOD wills happens to me. If I knew the future, I would have increased my wealth, and no harm would have afflicted me. I am no more than a warner, and a bearer of good news for those who believe."

Shabbir Ahmed	7:188 Say, "I do not even have the power to benefit myself or to avert harm from myself, contrary to the laws of God. If I had the knowledge of the Unseen, I would have amassed abundant fortune, and no adversity would have touched me. I am but a warner and a bearer of good news for those who have faith."
Transliteration	7:188 Qul la amliku linafsee nafAAan wal ad arran ill a ma sh aa All ahu walaw kuntu aAAalamu alghayba la istakthartu mina alkhayriwam a massaniya a Issoo-o in an a ill an at hee run wabasheerun liqawmin yu/minoon a
A	7:188 قل لا املك لنفسي نفعا ولا ضرا الا ما شاء الله ولو كنت اعلم الغيب لاستكثرت من الخير وما مسنى السوء ان انا الا نذير وبشير لقوم يؤمنون
Edip-Layth	7:189 He is the One who created you from one person, and He made from it its mate to attain tranquility. When he covered her, she became pregnant with a light load, and she continued with it. When it became heavy, they called on God, their Lord: "If You give us a healthy child, then we will be among the thankful."
The Monotheist Group	7:189 He is the One who created you from one person, and He made from it its mate to reside with. When he dwelled with her, she became pregnant with a light load, and she continued with it; then when it became heavy, they called on God, their Lord: "If You give us an upright child, then we will be among the thankful."
Muhammad Asad	7:189 IT IS HE who has created you [all] out of one living entity, and out of it brought into being its mate, so that man might incline [with love] towards woman. ¹⁵⁸ And so, when he has embraced her, she conceives [what at first is] a light burden, and continues to bear it. Then, when she grows heavy [with child], they both call unto God, their Sustainer, "If Thou indeed grant us a sound [child], we shall most certainly be among the grateful!"
Rashad Khalifa	Our Children Can be Idols 7:189 He created you from one person (Adam). Subsequently, He gives every man a mate to find tranquility with her. She then carries a light load that she can hardly notice. As the load gets heavier, they implore GOD their Lord: "If You give us a good baby, we will be appreciative."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:189 (The message encompasses life in its totality.) Recall that God created life from a single life cell, then made male and female cells, and then shaped you into human beings, males and females. He designed it such that man might incline with love towards the woman. When he gets intimate with her, she carries a light load that she can hardly notice. As she grows heavy with the child, they both implore God, their Lord, "If you grant us a healthy baby, we shall certainly be among the grateful."
Transliteration	7:189 Huwa allat hee khalaqakum min nafsinw ah idatin wajaAAala minh a zawjah a liyaskunailayh a falamm a taghashsh ah a h amalath am lan khafeefan famarrat bihi falamm a athqalatdaAAaw a All aha rabbahum a la-in at aytan as ali h an lanakoonanna mina alshsh ak ireen a
A	7:189 هو الذى خلقكم من نفس وحدة وجعل منها زوجها ليسكن اليها فلما تغشها حملت حملا خفيفا فمرت به فلما اثقلت دعوا الله ربهما لن ءاتيتنا صلحا لنكونن من الشكرين
Edip-Layth	7:190 But when He gave them a healthy child, they made partners with Him in what He had given them. God be exalted above what they set up as partners.
The Monotheist Group	7:190 But when He gave them an upright child, they made partners with Him in what He had given them. God be exalted above what they set up as partners.

Muhammad Asad	7:190 And yet, as soon as He has granted them sound [offspring], they begin to ascribe to other powers beside Him a share in bringing about what He has granted them ! ¹⁵⁶ Sublimely exalted, however, is God- above anything to which men may ascribe a share in His divinity!
Rashad Khalifa	7:190 But when He gives them a good baby, they turn His gift into an idol that rivals Him. GOD be exalted, far above any partnership.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:190 But as soon as He grants them a sound baby, they begin to ascribe to other powers beside Him a share in bringing about what He has granted them. Exalted is He, High above all that they associate with Him.
Transliteration	7:190 Falamma atahumasali han jaAAala lahu shuraka aa feema ata huma fataAAala AllahuAAamma yushrikoona
A	7:190 فلما ءاتنهما صلحا جعل لهما شركاء فيما ءاتنهما فتعالى الله عما يشركون
Edip-Layth	7:191 Do they set up those who do not create anything, while they are created?
The Monotheist Group	7:191 Do they set up those who do not create anything, while they are created?
Muhammad Asad	7:191 Will they, then,- ascribe divinity, side by side with Him, unto beings that cannot create anything ¹⁵⁷ since they themselves are created -
Rashad Khalifa	7:191 Is it not a fact that they are idolizing idols who create nothing, and are themselves created?
Shabbir Ahmed	7:191 Do they ascribe to Him as partners things that can create nothing, but are themselves created?
Transliteration	7:191 Ayushrikoona ma la yakhluqushay-an wahum yukhlaqoon a
A	7:191 ايشركون ما لا يخلق شيئا وهم يخلقون
Edip-Layth	7:192 They cannot help them, nor can they help themselves?
The Monotheist Group	7:192 And they cannot give them aid, nor can they aid themselves?
Muhammad Asad	7:192 and neither are able to give them succour nor can succour themselves,
Rashad Khalifa	7:192 Idols that can neither help them, nor even help themselves?
Shabbir Ahmed	7:192 And they cannot help them, nor can they help themselves.
Transliteration	7:192 Wala yastateeAAoona lahum nasranwala anfusahum yansuroona
A	7:192 ولا يستطيعون لهم نصرا ولا انفسهم ينصرون
Edip-Layth	7:193 If you invite them to the guidance they will not follow you. It is the same whether you invite them or simply remain silent.
The Monotheist Group	7:193 And if you invite them to the guidance they will not follow you. It is the same whether you invite them or simply keep quiet.
Muhammad Asad	7:193 and, if you pray to them for guidance, do not respond to you? As far as you are concerned, it is all one whether you invoke them or keep silent.
Rashad Khalifa	7:193 When you invite them to the guidance, they do not follow you. Thus, it is the same for them whether you invite them, or remain silent.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:193 When you invite them to the guidance, they do not follow you. Thus, it is the same for them whether you invite them, or remain silent.

Transliteration	7:193 Wa-in tadAAoohum il a alhud a l ay attabiAAookum saw on AAalaykum adaAAawtumoohum am antum sam itoona
A	7:193 وان تدعوهم الى الهدى لا يتبعوكم سواء عليكم ادعوتموهم ام انتم صمتون
Edip-Layth	Prophets, Messengers, Saints Whom You Implore Are Powerless Humans Like You 7:194 Those whom you call on besides God are servants like you; so let them answer for you if you are truthful.
The Monotheist Group	7:194 Those whom you call on besides God are servants like you; so let them answer for you if you are truthful.
Muhammad Asad	7:194 Verily, all those whom you invoke beside God are but created beings ¹⁵⁹ like yourselves: invoke them, then, and let them answer your prayer - if what you claim is true!
Rashad Khalifa	7:194 The idols you invoke besides GOD are creatures like you. Go ahead and call upon them; let them respond to you, if you are right.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:194 Those whom you call upon besides God, such as the mystics and saints, are people like you. Go ahead and call upon them, let them respond by helping you if you are true in your belief.
Transliteration	7:194 Inna alla the ena tadAAoona min dooniAll ahi AAib adun amth al ukum faodAAoohumfalyastajeeboo lakum in kuntum sadi qeena
A	7:194 ان الذين تدعون من دون الله عباد امثالكم فادعوهم فليستجيبوا لكم ان كنتم صدقين
Edip-Layth	7:195 Do they have feet to walk with? Or do they have hands to strike with? Or do they have eyes to see with? Or do they have ears to hear with? Say, "Call on your partners, then scheme against me with no respite."
The Monotheist Group	7:195 Do they have feet with which to walk?, or do they have hands with which to strike?, or do they have eyes with which to see?, or do they have ears with which to hear? Say: "Call on your partners, then scheme against me. You will not be given respite."
Muhammad Asad	7:195 Have these [images], perchance, feet on which they could walk? Or have they hands with which they could grasp? Or have they eyes with which they could see? Or have they ears with which they could hear? Say [O Prophet]: "Summon to your aid all those to whom you ascribe a share in God's divinity, ¹⁶⁰ and thereupon contrive [anything you may wish] against me, and give me no respite!"
Rashad Khalifa	7:195 Do they have legs on which they walk? Do they have hands with which they defend themselves? Do they have eyes with which they see? Do they have ears with which they hear? Say, "Call upon your idols, and ask them to smite me without delay.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:195 Do the idols have feet to walk, hands to hold, eyes to see and ears to hear? Tell the opponents of the message, "Call upon your idols and your so-called partners of God, contrive what you can, and give me no respite. ⁶⁵
Transliteration	7:195 Alahum arjulun yamshoona bih a amlahum aydin yab i shoona bih a am lahum aAAayunun yub s iroonabiha am lahum athan un yasmaAAoona bih a quliodAAoo shurakaakum thumma keedooni fala tun thi rooni
A	7:195 الهم ارجل يمشون بها ام لهم ايد يبطشون بها ام لهم اعين يبصرون بها ام لهم اذان يسمعون بها قل ادعوا شركاءكم ثم كيون فلا تنظرون

Edip-Layth	7:196 "My supporter is God who sent down the book; and He takes care of the good-doers."
The Monotheist Group	7:196 "My supporter is God who sent down the Scripture; and He takes care of the righteous."
Muhammad Asad	7:196 Verily, my protector is God, who has bestowed this divine writ from on high: for it is He who protects the righteous,
Rashad Khalifa	7:196 "GOD is my only Lord and Master; the One who revealed this scripture. He protects the righteous.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:196 My Protecting Friend is God Who has revealed this Book, and He befriends the righteous."
Transliteration	7:196 Inna waliyyiya All ahu alla theenazzala alkit aba wahuwa yatawall a alssaliheena
A	7:196 ان ولي الله الذى نزل الكتب وهو يتولى الصالحين
Edip-Layth	7:197 As for those whom you call on beside Him, they cannot help you, nor can they help themselves.
The Monotheist Group	7:197 As for those whom you call on beside Him, they cannot aid you, nor can they aid themselves.
Muhammad Asad	7:197 whereas all those whom you invoke in His stead are neither able to give you succour nor can succour themselves;
Rashad Khalifa	7:197 "As for the idols you set up beside Him, they cannot help you, nor can they help themselves."
Shabbir Ahmed	7:197 Whomever you call instead of Him, have no power to help you, nor can they help themselves.
Transliteration	7:197 Waallatheena tadAAoona mindoonihi l a yasta teeAAoona na srakum walaanfusahum yansuroona
A	7:197 والذين تدعون من دونه لا يستطيعون نصركم ولا انفسهم ينصرون
Edip-Layth	7:198 If you invite them to the guidance, they do not listen; you see them looking at you, while they do not see.
The Monotheist Group	7:198 And if you invite them to the guidance, they do not listen. And you see them looking at you, while they do not see.
Muhammad Asad	7:198 and if you pray unto them for guidance, they do not hear; and though thou mayest imagine that they behold thee, ¹⁶¹ they do not see."
Rashad Khalifa	7:198 When you invite them to the guidance, they do not hear. And you see them looking at you, but they do not see.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:198 When you invite them to the guidance, they do not hear. And you see them looking at you, but they do not see.
Transliteration	7:198 Wa-in tadAAoohum il a alhud a l ayasmaAAoo watar ahum yan thuroona ilayka wahumla yubsiroona
A	7:198 وان تدعوهم الى الهدى لا يسمعون وترىهم ينظرون اليك وهم لا يبصرون
Be Tolerant And Promote Recognition Of Diversity

Edip-Layth	7:199 You shall resort to pardoning, and advocate recognition, and turn away from the ignorant ones.
The Monotheist Group	7:199 Take to pardoning, and order with what is good, and turn away from the ignorant ones.
Muhammad Asad	7:199 MAKE due allowance for man's nature, ¹⁶² and enjoin the doing of what is right; and leave alone all those who choose to remain ignorant. ¹⁶³
Rashad Khalifa	7:199 You shall resort to pardon, advocate tolerance, and disregard the ignorant.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:199 Resort to pardon, go ahead with your program of enjoining virtue and disregard those who adamantly choose to remain ignorant.
Transliteration	7:199 Khuthi alAAafwa wa/mur bi aAAurfiwaaAArid AAani aljahileena
A	7:199 خذ العفو وامر بالعرف واعرض عن الجاهلین
Edip-Layth	7:200 If a provocation from the devil incites you, then seek refuge with God. He is the Hearer, the Knower.
The Monotheist Group	7:200 And if the devil harms you in any way, then seek refuge with God. He is the Hearer, the Knower.
Muhammad Asad	7:200 And if it should happen that a prompting from Satan stirs thee up [to blind anger], ¹⁶⁴ seek refuge with God: behold, He is all-hearing, all-knowing.
Rashad Khalifa	7:200 When the devil whispers to you any whisper, seek refuge in GOD; He is Hearer, Omniscient.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:200 Seek refuge in God's laws by staying alert to any covert actions of the satanic opponents. He is Hearer, Knower.
Transliteration	7:200 Wa-imma yanzaghannaka mina a Ishshaytaninazghun fa istaAAith bi Allahi innahusameeAAun AAaleemun
A	7:200 واما ينزغناك من الشيطان نزغ فاستعذ بالله انه سميع عليم
Edip-Layth	7:201 Those who are aware, when a visit from the devil touches them, they remember; soon they are seers.
The Monotheist Group	7:201 Those who are pious, when any evil from the devil touches them, they remember, then they can see.
Muhammad Asad	7:201 Verily, they who are conscious of God bethink themselves [of Him] whenever any dark suggestion from Satan touches them ¹⁶⁵ - whereupon, lo! they begin to see [things] clearly,
Rashad Khalifa	7:201 Those who are righteous, whenever the devil approaches them with an idea, they remember, whereupon they become seers.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:201 Those who are mindful of God, stay alert to the covert actions of the hinderers and see them with an observant mind.
Transliteration	7:201 Inna alla theena ittaqaw i thamassahum ta-ifun mina a Ishshaytani tathakkaroofa-itha hum mubsiroona
A	7:201 ان الذين اتقوا اذا مسهم طئف من الشيطان تذكروا فاذا هم مبصرون
Edip-Layth	7:202 But their brethren plunge them into error; they do not cease.

The Monotheist Group	7:202 And their brethren attempt to drive them towards error, they do not cease.
Muhammad Asad	7:202 even though their [godless] brethren would [like to] draw them into error: ¹⁶⁶ and then they cannot fail [to do what is right].
Rashad Khalifa	7:202 Their brethren ceaselessly entice them to go astray.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:202 The hinderers and their comrades plunge one another deeper into error, and cease not.
Transliteration	7:202 Wa-ikhwanuhum yamuddoonahum feealghayyi thumma la yuqsiroona
A	7:202 واخونهم يمدونهم فى الغى ثم لا يقصرون
Edip-Layth	7:203 Since you do not bring them a sign, they say, "If only you had brought one." Say, "I only follow what is inspired to me from my Lord. These are enlightenments from your Lord, a guide and a mercy to a people who acknowledge."
The Monotheist Group	7:203 And because you do not bring them a sign, they say: "If only you had brought one." Say: "I only follow what is inspired to me from my Lord. This is an evidence from your Lord, and a guide and mercy to a people who believe."
Muhammad Asad	7:203 And yet, when thou [O Prophet] dost not produce any miracle for them, some [people] say, "Why dost thou not seek to obtain it [from God]? ¹⁶⁷ Say: "I only follow whatever is being revealed to me by my Sustainer: this [revelation] is a means of insight from your Sustainer, and a guidance and grace unto people who will believe.
Rashad Khalifa	7:203 If you do not produce a miracle that they demand, they say, "Why not ask for it?" Say, "I simply follow what is revealed to me from my Lord." These are enlightenments from your Lord, and guidance, and mercy for people who believe.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:203 When you do not produce a miracle that they demand, they say, "Why not ask God for it?" Say, "I simply follow and convey what is revealed to me from my Lord." These verses are the enlightening miracle from your Lord, the guidance and grace for those who accept them.
Transliteration	7:203 Wa-i ^{tha} lam ta/tihim bi- ^{ayatin} qaloo lawla i ^{jt} abaytaha qul innama ^a attabiAAu ma ^a yoo ^{ha} ilayya min rabbee h ^a ^{athabasa} -iru min rabbikum wahudan wara ^h matun liqawminyu/minoona
A	7:203 واذا لم تاتهم باية قالوا لولا اجتبيتها قل انما اتبع ما يوحى الى من ربي هذا بصائر من ربكم وهدى ورحمة لقوم يؤمنون
Edip-Layth	Constantly Remember Your Lord 7:204 If the Quran is being recited, then listen to it and pay attention, so that you may receive mercy.
The Monotheist Group	7:204 And if the Qur'an is being related, then listen to it and pay attention, that you may receive mercy.
Muhammad Asad	7:204 Hence, when the Qur'an is voiced, hearken unto it, and listen in silence, so that you might be graced with [God's] mercy."
Rashad Khalifa	7:204 When the Quran is recited, you shall listen to it and take heed, that you may attain mercy.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:204 When the Qur'an is read, listen to it with full attention, and listen to it silently, that you may receive mercy.

Transliteration	7:204 Wa-i tha quri-a alqur- anu fa istamiAAoolahu waan sitoo laAAallakum tur hamoona
A	7:204 واذا قرئ القرآن فاستمعوا له وانصتوا لعلكم ترحمون
Edip-Layth	7:205 Remember your Lord in yourself out of humility and fear, and without being loud during the morning and the evening. Do not be of the heedless ones.
The Monotheist Group	7:205 And remember your Lord within yourself, in humility and in reverence; and without loudness in words, during the morning and the evening. And do not be of the careless ones.
Muhammad Asad	7:205 And bethink thyself of thy Sustainer humbly and with awe, and without raising thy voice, at morn and at evening; and do not allow thyself to be heedless.
Rashad Khalifa	7:205 You shall remember your Lord within yourself, publicly, privately, and quietly, day and night; do not be unaware.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:205 Remember your Sustainer within yourself humbly and in reverence, and without raising your voice, morning and evening. Be not among the neglectful.
Transliteration	7:205 Wa oth kur rabbaka fee nafsikata d arruAAaan wakheefatan wadoona aljahri mina alqawli bial gh huduwwiwaal- as ali wala takun mina al gha fileena
A	7:205 واذكر ربك في نفسك تضرعا وخيفة ودون الجهر من القول بالغدو والءاصل ولا تكن من الغفلين
Edip-Layth	7:206 Those who are at your Lord, they are never too proud to serve Him, and they glorify Him, and to Him they prostrate.
The Monotheist Group	7:206 Those who are at your Lord, they are never too proud to serve Him, and they glorify Him, and to Him they yield.
Muhammad Asad	7:206 Behold, those who are near unto thy Sustainer ¹⁶⁸ are never too proud to worship Him; and they extol His limitless glory, and prostrate themselves before Him [alone].
Rashad Khalifa	7:206 Those at your Lord are never too proud to worship Him; they glorify Him and fall prostrate before Him.
Shabbir Ahmed	7:206 Those who are with your Lord (the truly devoted), are never too proud to serve Him. They strive to establish His glory on earth by adoring Him and submitting to His commands.
Transliteration	7:206 Inna alla the ena AAinda rabbika l ay astakbироona AAan AAib a datihi wayusabbi ho onahuwalahu yasjudoona
A	7:206 ان الذين عند ربك لا يستكبرون عن عبادته ويسبحونه وله يسجدون

<< Prev 7:1-206 Next >>

Return to top

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (7:1)

A1L30M40S90. These letters/numbers play an important role in the mathematical system of the Quran based on code 19. See 74:1-56; 1:1; 2:1; 13:38; 27:82; 38:1-8; 40:28-38; 46:10; 72:28.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (7:9)

Our personality weakens by not following the instruction of its creator.

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (7:12)

Satan demonstrated an unjustified pride in something that was not his own work. Racism finds its roots in such a diabolic false pride. See 15:28.

Edip-Layth - End Note 4 (7:15)

The so-called "problem of evil" has created a great challenge for theologians and philosophers who accept a Benevolent and Omnipotent God. The Christian medieval philosopher St. Augustine, in Enchiridion, has an interesting argument regarding the existence of Satan: "He used the very will of the creature which was working in opposition to the Creator's will as an instrument for carrying out his will"

Edip-Layth - End Note 5 (7:16)

Satan is a convicted liar; his followers too (7:20; 6:22-23).

Edip-Layth - End Note 6 (7:19)

The Quran describes the tree as the tree of eternity. Satan tempted Adam and his mate with the false promise of eternity. The Old Testament, in Genesis 2:1-25 and 3:1-24, narrates the same event with some differences. According to Genesis, the tree is about the knowledge of evil and good, and the one who was first tempted is Eve. The Biblical accusation of Eve for the failure of Adam in this major event, would later be exploited fully by misogynistic clergymen. St. Paul justifies his male chauvinist teaching based on women's serpentine-like role in the original sin. The other major difference in the account of this event is the depiction of the tree. The Bible describes the tree as the tree of knowledge. This depiction might be one of the causes of dogmatic and anti-scientific attitude developed by the Church. Sunni and Shiite mushriks imported and adopted this Judeo-Christian distortion regarding creation and the role of man and woman in our failure, through hadith narrations. These misogynistic ideas later were sneaked into the commentaries of the Quran that relied on hadiths. See 2:36; 20:115-123.

Edip-Layth - End Note 7 (7:22)

Our creation on earth with material bodies starts with our failure of a divine test. We believed in Satan's promise and we ended up with a temporal body rather than an eternal one. We are given a second chance in this temporal body, which is designed to fail in a short time. The temptation of attaining eternity, shame, body, and covering the body all imply that the temptation was sexual intercourse between man and woman. In this second test, however, sexual attraction and intercourse per se is not prohibited; to the contrary, it is considered a divine blessing (30:21; 33:52). Nevertheless, the purpose of the test is the same: we should peacefully surrender ourselves to God alone, lead a righteous life to redeem ourselves, and expect that there will be a Day after death in which God alone will judge our intentions, attitude and actions, which will determine our eternal salvation or damnation. See 7:26 and 15:29.

Edip-Layth - End Note 8 (7:26)

Some translators and commentators render the word sawa as "sin" or "ugly parts" or "genitals." Though the word is etymologically related to "sin" or "shame," we prefer translating it as "body," which appeared to us after our sinful and shameful failure of the first test. For the other usages of the same word, see 5:31; 7:20,22,27; 20:121.

Edip-Layth - End Note 9 (7:27)

There is no contradiction between 7:27 and 7:30. While the Quran states that every event happens in accordance to God's design and permission (8:17; 57:22-25), the Quran also informs us regarding our freedom to choose our path (6:110; 13:11; 18:29 42:13,48; 46:15).

Edip-Layth - End Note 10 (7:28)

In Euthyphro, Plato narrates a conversation between Socrates and a pious priest on the meaning of virtue and the baffling question, "is it right because God says so or does God says so because it is right?" We know from the Quran that Truth or Justice are among God's attributes and thus their existence is the essence of God's self. In other words, the answer to the Socratic question should be "both are true: it is right because God says so and God says so because it is right." See 37:105-107.

Edip-Layth - End Note 11 (7:29)

See 2:139; 39:2,11,14; 40:14,65; 98:5.

Edip-Layth - End Note 12 (7:32)

This verse implicitly criticizes the clerics who prohibited gold and silk for men.

Edip-Layth - End Note 13 (7:38)

The last word could also be read la ya'lamun (they do not know). See 6:31; 16:25. For examples of different readings, see 2:54.

Edip-Layth - End Note 14 (7:40)

If the word jamal is read as jummal (rope), then it changes the meaning of the phrase to "until the rope passes through the eye of a needle." The Bible uses the same metaphor. "And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God." (Matthew 19:24; Mark 10:25; Luke 18:25). Ironically, despite these Biblical verses, many modern evangelical Christians, who worship the fictional Jesus, have become avid proponents of wild capitalism and big corporations.

Edip-Layth - End Note 15 (7:46)

The word araf is a plural noun derived from the verb ARaFa (recognize, discern, know, identify). The usage of both of these forms in this very verse clarifies the meaning of araf as identification station, where people are separated according to their failure and success in their test during their lives on the planet earth. Traditional translations render it as "purgatory, limbo" or an elevated third place between paradise and hell. We translated the word rijal as "pedestrians" rather than "man," since the verse is not in the context of relations between men and women. Unlike zakar (male), rijal (men, walkers on feet; humans) does not necessarily exclude women (See, 9:108; 16:43; 17:64; 21:7; 38:62; 64:6; 72:6). At the identification station, people are recognized and separated based on certain marks recognized by detectors commissioned by God. See 2:26; 13:35; 47:15. Also, see 12:109; 33:4; 39:29; 72:5. The idea of limbo has been much more important among Catholics. However, in 2006, after a week- long deliberation, the Theological Commission recommended to Pope Benedict XVI that he abolish limbus infantium which has been in existence for the last 700 years. Below is an excerpt from the Internationalist Humanist News authored by Babu Gogineni about this "radical restructuring of the heavens": "Since early days, Christians have wrestled with the thorny question of the fate of unbaptised prophets, as well as the fate of children who die before they are baptized. Catholics believe that all human beings, with the exception of Mary and Jesus, are born in original sin and that only the ritual of baptism will cleanse their sins and will redeem them. Without baptism, there can be no union of the believer with Christ in His death, burial and resurrection, and there can be no holy communion with God, either in this life or in the next. Such a person cannot go to heaven even if he or she has never committed sin. "To help solve the problem, St. Gregory of Nazianzus (329-390 AD) proposed that the unbaptised should neither be punished nor could they access the full glory of God. However, the hardliner St Augustine of Hippo (354-430 AD) rejected this idea, insisting that baptism was necessary for salvation, and that even babies would be consigned to hell if they were not baptized. Though St. Augustine made the generous concession that their torment would be the mildest of all of hell's residents, this torture of the innocent was unacceptable to St Thomas Aquinas (1226-1274 AD), the first major theologian to speculate about the existence of a place called limbo where these souls would be lodged for ever. Limbo is now a part of Canon Law. "This safe passage to heaven that the Catholic Church now assures children who are dying young is a significant step in the right direction. One should now hope and pray that in the Catholic heaven the children will also receive adequate protection from sexual abuse by Catholic priests. Since the Church did not deem sexual abuse by its clergy a matter worthy of punishment in this world, they will all no doubt now be going to heaven too. The Church needs to take immediate steps to ensure that the millions of little children who are now being admitted to heaven are adequately protected in line with the Holy See's international obligations as an early ratifier of the 1990 Convention on the Rights of the Child." On the other hand, a Lutheran theologian Martin E Marty, in an article published at Christian Post, criticized the timing of this papal amendment and its ramification: "The post-limbo announcement awakens all kinds of responses, many of them easily accessible on the internet or in the press. Taunters who have heard that Catholicism does not change now taunt, "Here's a change." Catholic pastors who have always found the reference to limbo, a place of non-descriptness and non-happening, to be more chilling than comforting to parents of unbaptized children can be relieved of the charge to pass on word about it. Catholics who lean toward a most expansive Catholic view of salvation and tend toward universalism cheer, for this proclamation that unbaptized infants can go straight to heaven might open the door for Catholic witness that some non-infants could have the same experience. "Pro-choice" Catholics are coming on record as seeing that this can fortify their cause: If fetuses are babies, and they no longer go to limbo but can go to heaven, then abortion may not be as dire a fate as it is often pictured to be. Abort and send them prematurely to heaven. Catholic traditionalists you'll find plenty of them rage at Pope Benedict and others involved in this announcement, seeing them as traitors to the Catholic cause: If this can change, can't other things? Relativism, which the pope abhors, will take over. "Pope Benedict made clear in his announcement that limbo was never an infallible teaching and was not even a formal doctrine of the church. We wonder whether generations of parents who suffered endlessly as they imagined their infants endlessly denied the vision of God or much of any other kind of vision knew of that nuance. Those of us who are not Catholic, and who care about Catholic teaching and Catholic parents, but cannot appreciate all the niceties of gradation of authority among "infallible" and "not quite infallible" and "traditional" and "easy to change" teachings, will look for clarification. "So will Catholics of many stripes, including some who had not thought about limbo for a long time, but in response to press coverage now find themselves in an intellectual limbo."

Edip-Layth - End Note (7:48)

Edip-Layth - End Note 16 (7:52)

See 11:1.

Edip-Layth - End Note 17 (7:54)

This verse, like many other verses informs us that God is employing evolution and stages in His creation (41:9-10; 7:69; 15:28-29; 24:45; 29:18-20; 32:7-9; 71:14-17). Furthermore, creation in six days provides a yardstick regarding the times allocated for the creation of the earth and the universe. According the Quran the creation of earth took four out of six days. If universe started 13.7 billion years ago, ignoring the possibility of early inflation, then 4/6th of this, would be approximately 9 billion years, which is about 4 billion years more than currently estimated age. According to the Bible, God created the universe for a special purpose (Psalms 135:6), and creation shows the power of God (Isaiah 40:26,28), His glory and handiwork (Psalms 19:1), and the wisdom of God (Psalms 104:24; 136:5). In six days. Exodus 20:11; 31:17). First day, making light and dividing it from darkness (Genesis 1:3-5; 2Co 4:6). Second day, making the firmament or atmosphere, and separating the waters (Genesis 1:6-8). Third day, separating the land from the water, and making it fruitful (Genesis 1:9-13). Fourth day, placing the sun, moon, and stars to give light (Genesis 1:14-19). Fifth day, making birds, insects, and fish (Genesis 1:20-23). Sixth day, making beasts of the earth, and man (Genesis 1:24,28). God rested on the seventh day (Genesis 2:2-3). Those who distorted the revelation in the Bible misunderstood the meaning of the phrase "six days" as "six 24-hour days." According to the Bible, the earth is only 5700-plus years old. The Quran rejects the assertion of God "resting" on the seventh day (50:38).

Edip-Layth - End Note 18 (7:69)

The word Basta is erroneously misspelled in modern manuscripts. Some manuscripts indicate a correction through a tiny letter S (Sin) on top of the erroneous letter S (Sad). This spelling error came to our attention when we noticed that the frequency of the letter/number S90 in the three S90-initialed chapters were 153, rather than the expected 152 (19x8). Our study of the oldest available manuscripts supported the implied correction of the mathematical system. The mathematical system of the Quran is a verifiable and falsifiable scientific theory that is supported by textual facts, historical events, and fulfilled predictions and prophecies. See 74:1-56; 1:1; 2:1; 13:38; 27:82; 38:1-8; 40:28-38; 46:10; 72:28. This verse also informs us of the evolutionary stage or genetic improvement in our creation after Noah. Chapter 71, which focuses on the story of Noah, informs us of our creation on this planet in terms of evolution rather than an instantaneous one (71:14-17). See 7:69; 15:28-29; 24:45; 32:7-9).

Edip-Layth - End Note 19 (7:71)

Those who follow the teachings of Bukhari, Muslim, Ibn Maja, Ibn Hanbal, Tirmizi, Abu Dawud, Imam Azam, Imam Shafi, Imam Yusuf, Imam Rabbani, Abdulqadir Gaylani, Naqshibendi, Gazzali, Said Nursi, and many more, besides the Quran are addressees of this verse.

Edip-Layth - End Note 20 (7:116)

Magic, according to the description of the Quran, is not a paranormal phenomenon. Magic is a tool employed by people with devious intentions to manipulate individuals and societies via trickery and suggestion. These verses refer to both its physical and psychological components.

Edip-Layth - End Note 21 (7:133)

We are receiving warning signs in our times too. AIDS and many other sexually transmitted diseases that became epidemics as a consequence of our transgression and indulgence in sexual promiscuity; deformed frogs providing signs of the hazards of toxic chemicals contaminating our lakes, groundwater, and environment; the greenhouse effect and related climatic disasters caused by our wasteful lifestyle and irresponsible consumption of coal, petroleum and forests; putting the entire planet at risk of destruction by stockpiling nuclear weapons in a frenzy; these and many other problems are divine warnings for our irresponsible and unappreciative ways of life. The Quran mentions numerous animals, each being witnesses to God's creative and intelligent design and signs, which started from a single cell: mosquito (2:26); calf (2:51,54,92,93; 4:153; 7:148,152; 11:69; 20:88; 51:26); monkey (2:65; 5:60; 7:166); cow, heifer (2:67-71; 6:144,146; 12:43,46); pig (2:173; 5:3; 6:145; 16:115); donkey (2:259; 16:8; 31:19; 62:5); horse (3:14; 8:60; 16:8; 17:64; 59:6); falcon (5:4); dog, (5:4; 7:176; 18:18-22); crow (5:31); bird (6:38; 27:20); goat, sheep (6:143); camel (6:144; 88:17); adult he camel (7:40); she camel (7:73,77; 11:64; 17:59; 26:155; 54:27; 91:13); snake (7:107; 26:32); locust (7:133; 54:7); lice (7:133); frog (7:133); fish, whale (7:163; 18:61,63; 37:142; 68:48); wolf (12:17); bee (16:68); sheep/goat/ewe (20:18); fly (22:73); ant (27:18); hoopoe (27:20); spider (29:41); termite (34:14); ewe/sheep (38:23-24); lion (74:51); zebra (74:50); butterfly (101:4); elephant (105:1).

Edip-Layth - End Note 22 (7:142)

One of the reasons that the number "forty" is expressed curiously as "thirty plus ten" is the role that numbers play in the numerical structure of the Quran.

Edip-Layth - End Note 23 (7:143)

People in paradise will see God (39:69; 75:23, 89:22). Some critics claim that the last statement of this verse contradicts 39:12 and 2:132. If we check a search engine with the following words: Olympic first place 100-meters, we will find many names of athletes who got first place. If we use the logic of the critics, we would think there is a great confusion and contradictory claims regarding the first place winner of the 100-meters race. What is wrong with that logic? Obviously, we need to consider the two important dimensions: time and space! Abraham was the first Muslim (submitter and promoter of peace) in his time and location. Similarly, Moses and Muhammad were too pioneer muslims of their times and location.

Edip-Layth - End Note 24 (7:145)

See the Old Testament, Deuteronomy 5:1- 22 for the Ten Commandments. Also see Deuteronomy 6:4-5.

Edip-Layth - End Note 25 (7:146)

Religious clerics who oppose the numerical miracle of the Quran are one example. See 74:1-56.

Edip-Layth - End Note 26 (7:148)

The verse does not say the calf made a sound; but a calf that had a sound, indicating its mechanical function. This sound was most likely created by wind passing through its holes. Indeed, archeologists discovered in Egyptian temples calf statues that created sound by the help of wind. See 20:83-99.

Edip-Layth - End Note 27 (7:150)

The tablets containing God's commandments were not sacred or important but the commandments themselves were. Thus, as a reaction to the Children of Israel's disobedience to the first commandment, Moses reacted in anger. His throwing away the physical medium carrying the commandments and interrogating his brother for letting his people regress into idolatry has a message. There are those who ignore many commandments of the Quran, including its first commandment, yet demonstrate extreme respect to the paper and ink comprising the manuscript of the Quran. This behavior is materialistic and totemic.

Edip-Layth - End Note 28 (7:155)

Compare it with the Old Testament, Numbers 11:16-30.

Edip-Layth - End Note 29 (7:156)

The importance of zaka (purification and betterment) through giving from blessings, is emphasized. Infaq is the financial zaka. The amount of financial charity (2:219; 17:26,29), its time (6:141), the list of recommended recipients (2:215), how it will be given (2:274; 13:22), and why it should be given (30:39) are all clarified.

Edip-Layth - End Note 30 (7:157)

The prophetic statements in Deuteronomy 18:15-19, and John 14:16-17 and 16:13 might be understood to be about Muhammad.

Edip-Layth - End Note 31 (7:158)

By distorting the meaning of ummi, clerics turned Muhammad into an illiterate person. For the meaning of ummi, see 3:20 and 2:78. For a detailed discussion of this verse, see the Sample Comparisons section in the Introduction.

Edip-Layth - End Note 32 (7:166)

See 2:65 and 5:60.

Edip-Layth - End Note 33 (7:172)

The past tense denotes the creation of human prototype. We translated the verse by taking its whole meaning. The dialog here is not necessarily verbal; it is by the nature. We, the humans, are all born with innate ability to infer God's existence and power. In other words, by the very possession of DNA we are born with a divine contract not to corrupt our person, discover our creator and devote ourselves to Him alone. Compare this to verse 41:11.

Edip-Layth - End Note 34 (7:174)

This life is our last chance to return to God.

Edip-Layth - End Note 35 (7:180)

The Quran uses more than a hundred attributes for God, and attributes indicate continuity. Not every verb used for God can be considered an attribute. For instance, not every person who writes can be called a "writer." Furthermore, God's attributes are not necessarily Arabic. God sent messengers in many different languages to each nation, and informed them about His attributes in their languages. Thus, the Quran teaches us that to God belong all beautiful attributes. However, hadith books lists 99 attributes of which some cannot be considered "beautiful." The list, which is very popular among Sunni and Shiite mushriks and many people memorize, include "bad" names such as al- Dar (the one who harms). Quran tells us otherwise (42:30). Those who have confused Arab nationalism with islam might criticize our use of the English word God in the English text, rather than the word Allah. We would like to pull the attention of those who are not intoxicated with hadith and sunna that promotes Arab culture to the following points: the word Allah is not a proper name; it is an Arabic word contraction of the article Al (the) and Elah (god). Also, see 2:165; 3:26; 6:12; 17:110; 20:52; 42:11; 58:7. The Quran informs us that God has been sending messengers to every nation in their own language (14:4). In each language, names or attributes represented by different sounds and symbols are used for the creator. For instance, the Old Testament uses Yehovah or Elohim. The New Testament quotes from Jesus addressing to God as Eloi (my lord), which is very close to the Arabic word Elahi (my lord) (Mark 15:34). Through distortion and mistranslations, some Biblical verses depict God as less than a perfect being. For instance, Judges 1:19 (powerless); Genesis 6:6-7 (fallible); Psalms 13:1; Lamentations 5:20 (forgetful); Genesis 3:8-10 (can't see); 1 Samuel 15:2-3 (cruel). For more on divine attributes in the Quran and the Bible, see 59:22-24. The Quran contains more than a hundred attributes for God and they are designed letter by letter in accordance with the mathematical structure based on code 19. The studies of Prof. Adib Majul, which was continued by Edip Yuksel on the attributes of God, demonstrate an interlocking system. For instance, among the attributes of God, the frequency of only four of them are multiples of 19. They are Shahyd (Witness) 19, Allah (God) 2698, Rahman (Gracious) 57, Rahym (Compassionate) 114 times. When we analyze the attributes of God in according to their numerical values, we learn that only four of them are multiples of 19 and each correspond to the frequency of the other four: Wahid (One) 19, Zulfadl-il Azym (The Possessor of Great Bounty) 2698, Majyd (Glorious) 57, and Jami (Editor) 114. The details of this extraordinary and intricate mathematical design will be discussed in a book, which might be titled "On it 19" or "Nineteen: God's Signature in Nature and Scripture." See: 74:30.

Edip-Layth - End Note 36 (7:185)

Whenever the word hadith is used for a word other than the Quran, it is used in a negative context. God knew that those who would revert back to their polytheistic religion would call their false teachings hadith (12:111; 31:6; 33:38; 35:43; 45:6; 52:34; 77:50).

Edip-Layth - End Note 37 (7:187)

God revealed that knowledge in 1980. See 20:15; 15:87; 72:27. From this and similar verses, we may infer that monotheists will not experience the horror of the end of the world. (See 6:31,44; 12:107; 21:40; 22:55; 26:202; 29:53; 43:66; 47:18).

Edip-Layth - End Note 38 (7:188)

None knows the future, including Muhammad (6:50; 7:188; 10:20; 27:65; 81:24). Only God knows the future and this knowledge can be attained only through divine revelations/signs (3:44; 11:49; 12:102; 30:2; 72:27).

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (7:1)

See Appendix II.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (7:2)

The expression haraj (lit., "straitness" or "tightness") is often used idiomatically to denote "doubt": and this is, according to Ibn `Abbas, Mujahid and Qatadah, the meaning of the term here (see Tabari, Zamakhshari, Baghawi, Razi, Ibn Kathir). The construction of the whole sentence makes it clear that the "doubt" does not relate to the origin of the divine writ but to its purpose: and thus, although ostensibly addressed to the Prophet, the above passage is meant to draw the attention of all whom the Qur'anic message may reach to the fact that it has a twofold objective - namely, to warn the rejectors of the truth and to guide those who already believe in it. Both the warning and the admonition are summarized in the sequence.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (7:3)

Some of the great Muslim thinkers, and particularly Ibn Hazm and Ibn Taymiyyah, maintain' that the expression awliya' (here rendered as "masters") denotes, in this context, "authorities" in the religious sense of the word, implying a prohibition of attributing legal validity-side by side with Qur'anic ordinances - to the subjective opinions of any person below the Prophet. See in this connection 5:101, and the corresponding notes.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (7:4)

I.e., suddenly, when the people felt completely secure and at ease. This passage connects with the obligation, laid down in the preceding two verses, to follow God's revealed messages.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (7:5)

Lit., "their plea was nothing but that they said".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (7:6)

Cf. 5:109.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (7:7)

Lit., "relate to them with knowledge".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (7:9)

Lit., "for that they were wont to act wrongfully with regard to Our messages".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (7:11)

The sequence of these two statements - "We have created you [i.e., "brought you into being as living organisms"] and then formed you" [or "given you your shape", i.e., as human beings]-is meant to bring out the fact of man's gradual development, in the individual sense, from the embryonic stage to full-fledged existence, as well as of the evolution of the human race as such.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (7:11)

As regards God's allegorical command to the angels to "prostrate themselves" before Adam, see 2:30-34, and the corresponding notes. The reference to all mankind which precedes the story of Adam in this surah makes it clear that his name symbolizes, in this context, the whole human race. Western scholars usually take it for granted that the name "Iblis" is a corruption of the Greek word diabolos, from which the English "devil" is derived. There is, however, not the slightest evidence that the pre-Islamic Arabs borrowed this or any other mythological term from the Greeks-while, on the other hand, it is established that the Greeks derived a good deal of their mythological concepts (including various deities and their functions) from the much earlier South-Arabian civilization (cf. Encyclopaedia of Islam I, 379 f.). One may, therefore, assume with something approaching certainty that the Greek diabolos is a Hellenized form of the Arabic name for the Fallen Angel, which, in turn, is derived from the root-verb ablasa, "he despaired" or "gave up hope" or "became broken in spirit" (see Lane I, 248). The fact that the noun diabolos ("slanderer" -derived from the verb diaballein, "to throw [something] across") is of genuinely Greek origin does not, by itself, detract anything from this hypothesis: for it is conceivable that the Greeks, with their well-known tendency to Hellenize foreign names, identified the name "Iblis" with the, to them, much more familiar term diabolos -As regards Iblis' statement, in the next verse, that he had been created "out of fire", see surah 38. note 60.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (7:16)

Or: "allowed me to fall into error". The term aghwahu denotes both "he caused [or "allowed"] him to err" or "he caused him to be disappointed" or "to fail in attaining his desire" (cf. Lane VI, 2304f.). Since, in this case, the saying of Iblis refers to the loss of his erstwhile position among the angels, the rendering adopted by me seems to be the most appropriate.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (7:17)

Lit., "from between their hands and from behind them". Regarding this idiomatic expression and my rendering of it, see the similar phrase in 2:255 ("He knows all that lies open before men and all that is hidden from them"). The subsequent phrase "from their right and from their left" signifies "from all directions and by all possible means".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (7:19)

See 2:35 and 20:120, as well as the corresponding notes.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (7:20)

Lit., "so as to make manifest to them that of their nakedness which [hitherto] had been imperceptible to them": an allegory of the state of innocence in which man lived before his fall from grace-that is, before his consciousness made him aware of himself and of the possibility of choosing between alternative courses of action, with all the attending temptations towards evil and the misery which must follow a wrong choice.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (7:20)

Lit., "or [lest] you become of those who are enduring": thus instilling in them the desire to live forever and to become. in this respect, like God. (See note 106 on 20:120.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (7:24)

Sc., "from this state of blessedness and innocence". As in the parallel account of this parable of the Fall in 2:35-36, the dual form of address changes at this stage into the plural, thus connecting once again with verse 10 and the beginning of verse 11 of this surah, and making it clear that the story of Adam and Eve is, in reality, an allegory of human destiny. In his earlier state of innocence man was unaware of the existence of evil and, therefore, of the ever-present necessity of making a choice between the many possibilities of action and behaviour: in other words, he lived, like all other animals, in the light of his instincts alone. Inasmuch, however, as this innocence was only a condition of his existence and not a virtue, it gave to his life a static quality and thus precluded him from moral and intellectual development. The growth of his consciousness-symbolized by the wilful act of disobedience to God's command-changed all this. It transformed him from a purely instinctive being into a full-fledged human entity as we know it - a human being capable of discerning between right and wrong and thus of choosing his way of life. In this deeper sense, the allegory of the Fall does not describe a retrogressive happening but, rather, a new stage of human development: an opening of doors to moral considerations. By forbidding him to "approach this tree", God made it possible for man to act wrongly-and, therefore, to act rightly as well: and so man became endowed with that moral free will which distinguishes him from all other sentient beings. - Regarding the role of Satan - or Iblis - as the eternal tempter of man, see note 26 on 2:34 and note 31 on 15:41 .

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (7:26)

Lit., "as plumage" - a metaphorical expression derived from the beauty of birds' plumage.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (7:26)

Lit., "this is [one] of God's messages, so that they.. .", etc.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (7:27)

Lit., "see you from where you do not see them".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (7:27)

The interpolated word "truly" is implied in this phrase in view of the subsequent reference to the erroneous beliefs of such people: for, although their beliefs are wrong, some of them are under the impression that the "shameful deeds" subsequently referred to have been enjoined by God. As for the "satanic forces" (shayatin), it is to be remembered that this designation is applied in the Qur'an to all kinds of wicked impulses or propensities that are "near unto" (i.e., in the hearts of) those who do not truly believe in God (see note 31 on 14:22): hence, the term shayatin occurring in verse 30 below has been rendered as "evil impulses".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (7:29)

The term wajh (lit., "face") occurring here is often used, in the abstract sense, to denote a person's entire being or entire attention-as, for instance, in the phrase aslamtu wajhi li'llahi, "I have surrendered my whole being unto God" (3:20). The word masjid, which usually signifies the time or place of prostration in prayer (sujud), evidently stands in this context-as well as in verse 31 below-for any act of worship.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (7:30)

Lit., "will have become incumbent upon them" (hagqa `alayhim), implying that this straying was an inevitable consequence of their own doings and attitudes.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 23 (7:31)

Lit., "take to your adornment (zinah)". According to Raghib (as quoted in Lane III, 1279 f.), the proper 'meaning of zinah is "a [beautifying] thing that does not disgrace or render unseemly ... either in the present world or in that which is to come": thus, it signifies anything of beauty in both the physical and moral connotations of the word.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 24 (7:32)

By declaring that all good and beautiful things of life-i.e., those which are not expressly prohibited-are lawful to the believers, the Qur'an condemns, by implication, all forms of life-denying asceticism, world-renunciation and self-mortification. While, in the life of this world, those good things are shared by believers and unbelievers alike, they will be denied to the latter in the hereafter (cf. verses 51 of this surah).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 25 (7:34)

Lit., "for every community (ummah) there is a term": i.e., all people have a life-term decreed by God, during which they are at liberty to accept or to reject the guidance offered them through revelation. The word ummah often denotes "living beings" -in this context, "people".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 26 (7:34)

In Arabic usage, the term sa'ah (lit., "hour") signifies not merely the astronomical hour-i.e., the twenty-fourth part of a mean solar day -but also "time" in an absolute sense, or any fraction of it, whether large or small. In the above context, it has obviously been used in the sense of "a least fraction of time" or "a single moment".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 27 (7:37)

Lit., "their share of the [divine] decree (al-kitab) will reach them": i.e., they will have in their lifetime, like all other people, all the good or bad fortune envisaged for them in God's eternal decree. The "messengers" (rusul) referred to in the next clause are, apparently, the angels of death.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 28 (7:38)

The terms "first" and "last" refer here either to a sequence in time ("those who came earlier" and "those who came later") or in status ("leaders" and "followers"); and in both cases they relate, as the next sentence indicates, to the evil influence which the former exerted on the latter during their lifetime-either directly, as leaders of thought and persons of distinction, or indirectly, as forerunners in time, whose example was followed by later generations.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 29 (7:38)

Lit., "to everyone a double [suffering]": i.e., for having gone astray and for having, by his example, led others astray. Cf. 16:25 - "on Resurrection Day they shall bear the full weight of their own burdens, as well as some of the burdens of those ignorant ones whom they have led astray".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 30 (7:39)

I.e., "You went the wrong way, as we did, out of your own free will, and you bear the same responsibility as we do." Another possible interpretation is: "You are not superior to us because you have learnt nothing from our mistakes."

Muhammad Asad - End Note 31 (7:40)

According to Ibn `Abbas (as quoted by Razi), this metaphor signifies that God will not accept any of the good deeds of such sinners, nor their subsequent supplications.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 32 (7:40)

Lit., "until (hatta) a twisted rope passes through a needle's eye"; since this phrase is meant to express an impossibility, the rendering of hatta as "any more than" seems to be appropriate here. As for the word jamal occurring in this sentence, there is hardly any doubt that its translation, in this context, as "camel" is erroneous. As pointed out by Zamakhshari (and confirmed by other classical commentators, including Razi), Ibn `Abbas used to read the word in the spelling jummal, which signifies "a thick rope" or "a twisted cable"; and the same reading is attributed to 'Ali ibn Abi Talib (Taj al-'Arus). It is to be noted that there are also several other dialectical spellings of this word, namely, jumal, jumal, jumal and, finally, jamal (as in the generally-accepted version of the Qur'an) - all of them signifying "a thick, twisted rope" (Jawhari, and all of them used in this sense by some of the Prophet's Companions or their immediate successors (tabi'un). Ibn `Abbas is also quoted by Zamakhshari as having said that God could not have coined so inappropriate a metaphor as "a camel passing through a needle's eye" - meaning that there is no relationship whatsoever between a camel and a needle's eye whereas, on the other hand, there is a definite relationship between the latter and a rope (which, after all, is but an extremely thick thread). On all accounts, therefore, the rendering of jamal as "a twisted rope" is, in this context, infinitely preferable to that of "a camel". The fact that the latter rendering occurs in a somewhat similar phrase in the Greek version of the Synoptic Gospels (Matthew xix, 24, Mark x, 25 and Luke xviii, 25) does not affect this contention. One should remember that the Gospels were originally composed in Aramaic, the language of Palestine at the time of Jesus, and that those Aramaic texts are now lost. It is more than probable that, owing to the customary absence of vowel signs in Aramaic writing, the Greek translator misunderstood the consonant spelling g-m-l (corresponding to the Arabic j-m-l), and took it to mean "a camel": a mistake repeated since, with regard to the above Qur'an-verse, by many Muslims and all, non-Muslim orientalist as well.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 33 (7:41)

Lit., "for them there will be a resting-place of [the fires of] hell and, from above them, coverings [thereof]".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 34 (7:43)

Lit., "beneath them": i.e., all blessings will be at their command.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 35 (7:44)

Lit., "an announcer" (mu'adhdhin).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 36 (7:46)

The word hijab denotes anything that intervenes as an obstacle between things or conceals one thing from another; it is used in both an abstract and a concrete sense.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 37 (7:46)

The term al-a'raf (which gave to this surah its title) occurs in the Qur'an only twice-namely, in the above verse and in verse 48. It is the plural of `urf, which primarily denotes "acknowledgement" or "discernment", and is also used to denote the highest, or most elevated, part of anything (because it is most easily discerned): for instance, the `urf of a cock is the cockcomb, that of a horse its mane, and so forth. On the basis of this idiomatic usage, many commentators assume that the a'raf referred to here are "elevated places", like the heights of a wall or its ramparts, and identify it with the "barrier" (hijab) mentioned at the end of the preceding sentence. A far more likely interpretation, however, is forthcoming from the primary significance of the word `urf and its plural a'raf: namely, "discernment" and "the faculty of discernment", respectively. This interpretation has been adopted by some of the great, early commentators of the Qur'an, like Al-Hasan al-Basri and Az-Zajjaj, whose views Razi quotes with evident approval. They state emphatically that the expression `ala 'l-a'raf is synonymous with `ala ma'rifah, that is, "possessing knowledge" or "endowed with the faculty of discernment" (i.e., between right and wrong); and that the persons thus described are those who in their lifetime were able to discern between right and wrong ("recognizing each by its mark"), but did not definitely incline to either: in brief, the indifferent ones. Their lukewarm attitude has prevented them from doing either much good or much wrong-with the result that, as the next sentence shows, they deserve neither paradise nor hell. (Several Traditions to this effect are quoted by Tabari as well as by Ibn Kathir in their commentaries on this verse.) -The noun rijal (lit., "men") at the beginning of the next sentence as well as in verse 48 obviously denotes "persons" of both sexes.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 38 (7:49)

Implying either that the believers did not deserve God's grace or, alternatively, that God does not exist. The expression "you solemnly declared" (lit., "you said under oath") is a metaphor for the unbelievers' utter conviction in this respect.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 39 (7:51)

See 6:70 and the corresponding note 60.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 40 (7:52)

Lit., "with knowledge".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 41 (7:53)

In this context, the term ta'wil (which literally means "an endeavour to arrive at the final meaning [of a saying or occurrence]"-cf. 3:7) signifies the fulfilment of the warnings contained in the Qur'an: and in this sense it connotes the "unfolding of its final meaning"

Muhammad Asad - End Note 42 (7:53)

Cf. 6:27 -28.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 43 (7:54)

The conjunctive particle thumma which precedes this clause does not always denote order in time ("then" or "thereupon"). In cases where it is used to link parallel statements it has often the function of the simple conjunction wa ("and") - as, for instance, in 2:29 ("and has applied His design. . .", etc.) As regards the term `arsh (lit., "throne" or "seat of power"), all Muslim commentators, classical and modern, are unanimously of the opinion that its metaphorical use in the Qur'an is meant to express God's absolute sway over all His creation. It is noteworthy that in all the seven instances where God is spoken of in the Qur'an as "established on the throne of His almightiness" (, 10:3, 13:2, 20:5, 25:59, 32:4 and 57:4), this expression is connected with a declaration of His having created the universe.-The word yawm, commonly translated as "day" - but rendered above as "aeon" - is used in Arabic to denote any period, whether extremely long ("aeon") or extremely short ("moment"): its application to an earthly "day" of twenty-four hours is only one of its many connotations. (Cf. in this respect note 26 above, where the meaning of sa'ah - lit., "hour" - is explained.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 44 (7:57)

This is the key-sentence of the parable set forth in verses 57-58: by the exercise of the same life-giving power by which God causes plants to grow, He will resurrect the dead at the end of time. The next sentence continues the parable by likening those whose hearts are open to the voice of truth to fertile earth, and those who are bent on denying it, to barren earth.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 45 (7:59)

In continuation of the stress, in the preceding passages, on God's omnipotence and transcendental oneness, verses 59-93 refer to several of the earlier prophets, who preached the same truth, and whose names were familiar to the Arabs before the revelation of the Qur'an. Their stories - beginning with that of Noah, who is considered the first apostle ever sent to mankind - are reduced here to the warnings with which they unsuccessfully tried to persuade their people to worship God alone and to live righteously.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 46 (7:59)

This refers either to the Day of Judgment or to the approaching deluge.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 47 (7:64)

Explaining this verse in his translation of the Qur'an, Muhammad Ali rightly points out that the latter "does not support the theory of a world deluge, for it plainly states ... that only people to whom Noah had delivered his message called him a liar, and ... were drowned Hence the deluge affected the territory of Noah's people, not the whole world, as the Bible would have us believe." To this may be added that the deluge spoken of in the Bible, in the myths of Sumeria and Babylonia, and, finally, in the Qur'an, most probably represents the inundation, during the Ice Age, of the huge basin which today is covered by the Mediterranean: an inundation which was due to the break-in of the Atlantic through the land-barrier at the modern Gibraltar, and of the Black Sea through what is now the Dardanelles.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 48 (7:65)

Hud is said to have been the first Arabian prophet. He may be identical with the Biblical `Eber, the ancestor of the Hebrews (`Ibrim) who - like most of the Semitic tribes - had probably originated in South Arabia. (References to `2b& are found in Genesis x, 24-25 and xi, 14 ff.) The ancient Arabian name Hud is still reflected in that of Jacob's son Judah (Yahudah in Hebrew), which provided the subsequent designation of the Jews. The name `Eber - both in Hebrew and in its Arabic form `Abir - signifies "one who crosses over" (i.e., from one territory to another), and may be a Biblical echo of the fact that this tribe "crossed over" from Arabia to Mesopotamia in pre-Abrahamic times. -The tribe of `Ad, to which Hud belonged ("their brother Hud"), inhabited the vast desert region known as Al-Ahqaf, between `Uman and Hadramawt, and was noted for its great power and influence (see 89:8 - "the like of whom has never been reared in all the land"). It disappeared from history many centuries before the advent of Islam, but its memory always remained alive in Arabian tradition.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 49 (7:66)

They considered him "weak-minded" because he expected them to give up their traditional beliefs and deities; and a "liar", because he claimed to be a prophet of God.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 50 (7:68)

Lit., "I am a trustworthy adviser to you".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 51 (7:69)

Lit., "successors after Noah's people"-i.e., the most numerous and powerful of all the tribes that descended from Noah - "and increased you abundantly in respect of [your] natural endowment (khalq)". The latter term also signifies "power" (Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 52 (7:71)

A reference to their idolatry and obstinacy.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 53 (7:71)

Lit., "names which you have named"-i.e., the false deities, which have no real existence.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 54 (7:71)

Lit., "I shall be, together with you, among those who wait."

Muhammad Asad - End Note 55 (7:72)

As is shown in 69 :6-8, this destruction came about through a violent sandstorm raging without a break for seven nights and eight days.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 56 (7:73)

The Nabataean tribe of Thamud descended from the tribe of 'Ad mentioned in the preceding passage, and is, therefore, often referred to in pre-Islamic poetry as the "Second `Ad". Apart from Arabian sources, "a series of older references, not of Arabian origin, confirm the historical existence of the name and people of Thamud. Thus the inscription of Sargon of the year 715 B.C. mentions the Thamud among the people of eastern and central Arabia subjected by the Assyrians. We also find the Thamudaei, Thamudenes mentioned in Aristo, Ptolemy, and Pliny" (Encyclopaedia of Islam IV, 736). At the time of which the Qur'an speaks, the Thamud were settled in the northernmost Hijaz, near the confines of Syria . Rock-inscriptions attributed to them are still extant in the region of Al-Hijr.-As in the case of the `Adite prophet Hud-and the prophet Shu'ayb spoken of in verses 85-93 of this surah - salih is called the "brother" of the tribe because he belonged to it.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 57 (7:73)

The commentators cite various legends to the effect that this she-camel was of miraculous origin. Since neither the Qur'an nor any authentic Tradition provides the least support for these legends, we must assume that they are based on the expression naqat Allah ("God's she-camel"), which has led some pious Muslims to fantastic conjectures. However, as Rashid Rida' points out (Manar VIII, 502), this expression denotes merely the fact that the animal in question was not owned by any one person, and was therefore to be protected by the whole tribe; a further, analogous expression is found in the words "God's earth" in the same verse: an illustration of the fact that everything belongs to God. The particular stress placed by salih on good treatment of this ownerless animal - referred to in several places in the Qur'an - was obviously due to the cruel high-handedness displayed by the tribe, who, as the next two verses show, were wont to "act wickedly on earth by spreading corruption" and "gloried in their arrogance towards all who were deemed weak": in other words, their treatment of the defenceless animal was to be a "token" of their change of heart or (as is made clear in 54:27) "a test for them".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 58 (7:74)

Cf. the parallel expression in verse 69 above - "heirs to Noah's people" - and the corresponding note. From all the historical references to the Thamud it is apparent that they were one of the greatest and most powerful Arab tribes of their time.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 59 (7:74)

A reference to the elaborate rock-dwellings or tombs-to be seen to this day-which the Thamud carved out of the cliffs west of Al-Hijaz, in northern Hijaz, and embellished with sculptures of animals as well as many inscriptions attesting to the comparatively high degree of their civilization and power. In popular Arabian parlance, these rock-dwellings are nowadays called Mada'in salih ("The Towns of Salih").

Muhammad Asad - End Note 60 (7:75)

The contents of his message (lit., "that with which he has been sent") appeared to them justification enough to accept it on its merits, without the need of any esoteric "proof" of Salih's mission. In a subtle way, this statement of faith has a meaning which goes far beyond the story of the Thamud. It is an invitation to the sceptic who is unable to believe in the divine origin of a religious message, to judge it on its intrinsic merits and not to make his acceptance dependent on extraneous, and objectively impossible, proofs of its origin: for only through the contents of a message can its truth and validity be established.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 61 (7:77)

The verb `aqara primarily denotes "he hamstrung [an animal]"-i.e., before slaughtering it, so that it might not run away. This barbarous custom was widely practiced in pre-Islamic Arabia, so that `aqr ("hamstringing") gradually became synonymous with slaughtering in a cruel manner (Razi; see also Lane V, 2107 f.).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 62 (7:78)

Lit., "they became, in their homes, prostrate on the ground". The term rajfah which occurs at the beginning of this sentence signifies any violent commotion or trembling, and is often, though not always, applied to an earthquake (rajfat al-ard). It is possible that the earthquake mentioned here was accompanied by the volcanic eruption which at some time overtook the historical dwelling-places of the Thamud tribe, and to which the extensive black lava-fields (harrah) of northern Hijaz, and particularly near Mada'in Salih (see note 59 above), bear eloquent witness to this day.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 63 (7:80)

The story of Lot, Abraham's nephew (Lut in Arabic), is given in greater detail in 11:69-83.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 64 (7:82)

Lit., "their answer was nothing but that they said".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 65 (7:82)

Lit., "who purify themselves"; also, "who keep aloof from unclean things": here obviously used ironically. The plural relates to Lot, his family and his followers (cf. 27:56).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 66 (7:83)

Contrary to the Biblical account; according to which Lot's wife only "looked back" inadvertently (Genesis xix, 26), the Qur'an makes it clear in 11:81 and 66:10 that she remained behind deliberately, being at heart one with the sinning people of Sodom and having no faith in her husband.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 67 (7:85)

Shu'ayb is said to be identical with Jethro, the father-in-law of Moses, also called in the Bible Reú-el (Exodus ii, 18), meaning "Faithful to God". The region of Madyan - the Midian of the Bible-extended from the present-day Gulf of Aqabah westwards deep into the Sinai Peninsula and to the mountains of Moab east of the Dead Sea ; its inhabitants were Arabs of the Amorite group of tribes.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 68 (7:85)

Lit., "do not diminish to people their things" - an expression which applies to physical possessions as well as to moral and social rights. Regarding my interpolation of "in all your dealings", see surah 6, note 150.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 69 (7:86)

Thus Zamakhshari and Razi, stressing the metaphorical meaning of the above phrase. Cf. a similar expression, attributed to Satan, in verse 16 of this surah.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 70 (7:89)

Lit., "inventing a lie about God".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 71 (7:89)

An expression of humility, and not of the idea that God might "will" them to blaspheme.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 72 (7:89)

Or: "Thou art the best of all deciders" - since the verb fataha can also be rendered as "he decided". However, Shu'ayb's prayer could not have implied a request for God's "decision" (for there was no doubt in his mind as to who was right), and therefore the primary significance of iftah ("lay open") and fatih ("one who lays open", i.e., the truth) is preferable.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 73 (7:91)

See note 62 above. Like the harrah once inhabited by the Thamud tribe, the adjoining region of Madyan (the Biblical Midian) shows ample evidence of volcanic eruptions and earthquakes.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 74 (7:95)

Lit., "then We put good [things] in place of the bad".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 75 (7:95)

Le., they regarded it as a normal course of events and did not draw any lesson from it.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 76 (7:95)

Cf. 6:42 -45.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 77 (7:96)

Thus the discourse returns to its starting-point at the beginning of this surah (verses 4-5): namely, that the destruction which is bound to overtake any community (the proper significance of the term qaryah in this context) which lives in opposition to the eternal moral verities amounts, in the last resort, to self-annihilation: for this is the real meaning of God's "taking them to task through what (bi-ma) they themselves were doing".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 78 (7:98)

I.e., while they enjoy ease and a sense of security, and are unaware of any danger that may threaten them (cf. verse 4 of this surah).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 79 (7:99)

I.e., morally lost and, therefore, destined to perish. The term makr Allah ("God's deep devising") denotes here His unfathomable planning, which is alluded to elsewhere in the Qur'an by the expression sunnat Allah ("God's [unchangeable] way"-cf., in particular, 33:62, 35:43 and 48:23).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 80 (7:100)

Lit., "after its [former] people". The people "who have inherited the earth" are those now living.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 81 (7:100)

See surah 2, note 7. Here, again, we have an affirmation that what the Qur'an describes as "God's punishment" (as well as "God's reward") is, in reality, a consequence of man's own doings, and not an arbitrary act of God: it is "by means of their sins" (bi-dhunubihim) that God "sets a seal" upon the hearts of men. This statement is further elucidated at the end of verse 101.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 82 (7:101)

Lit., "to which they had given the lie aforetime": an allusion to the instinctive unwillingness of most people to give up the notions - positive or negative - to which they are accustomed.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 83 (7:102)

Thus Raghīb explains the term `ahd occurring in this sentence. Its usual rendering as "covenant" or "loyalty to their covenant" is entirely meaningless in this context. Rashid Rida' widens Raghīb's interpretation and includes in the above term man's instinctive ability to discern between right and wrong and, thus, to follow the dictates of his own conscience (Manar IX, 33 ff.). Regarding the deeper implications of this expression, see surah 2, note 19.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 84 (7:103)

Lit., "they did wrong to them".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 85 (7:108)

As is evident from 20:22 , 27:12 and 28:32, the hand of Moses was "[shining] white, without blemish", i.e., endowed with transcendent luminosity in token of his prophethood-and not, as stated in the Bible (Exodus iv, 6), "leprous as snow". Regarding the possible mystic significance of the miracle of the staff, see note 14 on 20:21 .

Muhammad Asad - End Note 86 (7:110)

I.e., "deprive you of your rule". The plural "you" relates to Pharaoh and the ruling class.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 87 (7:111)

I.e., Aaron, who-as is mentioned in several other places in the Qur'an-accompanied Moses on his mission.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 88 (7:113)

The particle la preceding the noun ajr ("reward") indicates an emphasis which gives to this combination the meaning of "great reward".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 89 (7:117)

Implying that the act of Moses was a genuine miracle, whereas that of the sorcerers was a feat of make-believe (cf. 20:66).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 90 (7:120)

Lit., "the sorcerers were thrown down" -i.e., they fell to the ground as if thrown by a superior force (Zamakhshari).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 91 (7:123)

This personal pronoun may refer either to God or to Moses; but a similar expression in 20:71 and 26:49 makes it obvious that it refers here to Moses.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 92 (7:124)

The grammatical forms la-ugatti' anna and la-usallibannakum must be rendered as "most certainly shall I cut off [your hands and feet] in great numbers" and "crucify you in great numbers": and this indicates that either the repentant sorcerers thus addressed were many or, alternatively, that they had a large following among the people of Egypt. The latter assumption seems to be corroborated by the Biblical reference to the fact that many Egyptians joined the Israelites in their exodus from Egypt: "And a mixed multitude went up also with them" (Exodus xii, 38). As regards my rendering of min khilaf as "because of [your] perverseness", see surah 5, note 44 (last sentence).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 93 (7:129)

This is, in the above context, the first hint of the inconstancy and weakness of faith for which the Qur'an so often blames the children of Israel: and this, together with what follows in verses 138-140 and 148 ff., is the reason why the story of Moses has been included here among the stories of the earlier prophets whose warnings were neglected by their communities.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 94 (7:129)

I.e., "He will judge you by your actions". As is evident from the reference, in verse 137 below, to the "patience in adversity" which the children of Israel subsequently displayed, it would seem that the hope held out to them by Moses helped them, once again, to overcome their moral weakness; but, at the same time, his words "God will behold how you act" imply a distinct warning.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 95 (7:131)

The phrase tatayyara bihi signifies "he attributed an evil omen to him" or "he augured evil, from him". It is based on the pre-Islamic Arab custom of divining the future or establishing an omen from the flight of birds. Thus, the noun ta'ir (lit., "a flying creature" or "a bird") is often used in classical Arabic to denote "destiny" or "fortune", both good and evil, as in the next sentence of the above verse ("their [evil] fortune had been decreed by [lit., "was with"] God"). Instances of this tropical employment of the expressions ta'ir and tayr and their verbal derivations are also found in 3:49, 5:110, 17:13, 27:47, 36:18-19.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 96 (7:133)

For a description of these plagues, see Exodus vii-x.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 97 (7:135)

Lit., "until a term which they should reach".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 98 (7:137)

Palestine is spoken of as "blessed" because it was the land in which Abraham, Isaac and Jacob had lived, and because so many other prophets were to appear there.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 99 (7:137)

The promise of God referred to here is the one given to the children of Israel through Moses (see verses 128 and 129).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 100 (7:137)

The story of the suffering of the Israelites during their bondage in Egypt, their deliverance through Moses, their crossing of the Red Sea (or, more probably, of what today is known as the Gulf of Suez) and the destruction of Pharaoh and his hosts is narrated in considerable detail in the Bible (Exodus i-xiv). The Qur'an, on the other hand, does not give us a consecutive narrative: for historical narrative as such is never its purpose. Whenever the Qur'an refers to past events-whether recorded in the Bible or alive in Arabian tradition-it does so exclusively with a view to bringing out elements that are relevant to the ethical, teachings which it propounds.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 101 (7:138)

The Qur'an does not say who those people were. It is, however, probable that they belonged to the group of Arabian tribes described in the Bible as "Amalekites", who inhabited southernmost Palestine, the adjoining regions of the Hijaz, and parts of the Sinai Peninsula.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 102 (7:140)

I.e., by having raised so many prophets out of their midst.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 103 (7:141)

Cf. 2:49. It appears that this passage is part of Moses' reminder to his people (Manar IX, 115 ff.); I have brought this out by interpolating "he reminded them of this word of God" between brackets.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 104 (7:142)

According to several of the Prophet's Companions, and particularly Ibn `Abbas, the first thirty nights were to be spent by Moses in spiritual preparation, including fasting, whereupon the Law would be revealed to him in the remaining ten (Zamakhshari and Razi); see also Manar IX, 119 ff.). In Arabic usage, a period of time designated as "nights" comprises the days as well.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 105 (7:143)

Lit., "then, in time (sawfa) wilt thou see Me". As these words express the impossibility of man's seeing God-which is clearly implied in the Arabic construction -a literal rendering would not do justice to it.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 106 (7:143)

Since Moses was already a believer, his words do not merely allude to belief in God's existence but, rather, belief in the impossibility of man's seeing God (Ibn Kathir, on the authority of Ibn `Abbas).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 107 (7:144)

Lit., "by virtue of My messages".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 108 (7:145)

See surah 6, note 156.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 109 (7:145)

Lit., "I will show you the abode of the iniquitous". The rendering adopted by me corresponds to the interpretations given by Tabari (on the authority of Mujahid and Al-Hasan al-Basri) and by Ibn Kathir; regarding the meaning of dar ("abode") in this context, see surah 6, note 118. Some of the commentators are of the opinion that the above sentence concludes God's admonition to Moses, but the plural form of address in "I will show you" makes it more probable that it is the beginning of a parenthetic passage connected, no doubt, with the preceding one, but having a general import not confined to Moses.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 110 (7:146)

As so often in the Qur'an, God's "causing" the sinners to sin is shown to be a consequence of their own behaviour and the result of their free choice. By "those who, without any right, behave haughtily on earth". are obviously meant people who think that their own judgment as to what constitutes right and wrong is the only valid one, and who therefore refuse to submit their personal concerns to the criterion of absolute (i.e., revealed) moral standards; cf. 96:6-7 - "man becomes grossly overweening whenever he believes himself to be self-sufficient".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 111 (7:147)

Lit., "to the meeting (liqa')" - in the sense of its being a pre-ordained fact.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 112 (7:147)

This is the end of the parenthetic passage beginning with the words, "I will show you the way the iniquitous shall go".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 113 (7:148)

The golden calf of the Israelites was obviously a result of centuries-old Egyptian influences. The Egyptians worshipped at Memphis the sacred bull, Apis, which they believed to be an incarnation of the god Ptah. A new Apis was supposed always to be born at the moment when the old one died, while the soul of the latter was believed to pass into Osiris in the Realm of the Dead, to be henceforth worshipped as Osiris-Apis (the "Serapis" of the Greco-Egyptian period). The "lowing sound" (khuwar) which the golden calf emitted was probably produced by wind effects, as was the case with some of the hollow Egyptian temple effigies.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 114 (7:149)

Lit., "when it was made to fall upon their hands"-an idiomatic phrase denoting intense remorse, probably derived from the striking ("falling") of hand upon hand as an expression of grief or regret.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 115 (7:149)

The whole of verse 149 is a parenthetic clause (jumlah mu'taridah) referring to a later time-for the repentance of the Israelites came after Moses' return from Mount Sinai, of which the next verse speaks.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 116 (7:150)

Lit., "outrun". The expression "one has outrun a forsaken it" or "left it undone" (Zamakhshari).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 117 (7:150)

Lit., "made me [or "deemed me"] utterly weak". Contrary to the Biblical account (Exodus xxxii, 1-5), the Qur'an does not accuse Aaron of having actually participated in making or worshipping the golden calf; his guilt consisted in having remained passive in the face of his people's idolatry for fear of causing a split among them (cf. 20:92-94).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 118 (7:151)

Sc., "for my anger and my harshness" (Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 119 (7:152)

Throughout the Qur'an, this expression is used to describe (a) the attribution of divine qualities to any concrete or imaginary object, or person, and (b) the making of false statements about God, His attributes, or the contents of His messages. In the above context it refers to any false imagery which deflects man from the worship of the One God.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 120 (7:153)

Lit., "after it".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 121 (7:154)

According to the Bible (Exodus xxxii, 19), Moses broke the tablets when he threw them down in anger; the Qur'anic narrative, however, shows them as having remained intact.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 122 (7:155)

Most of the commentators take rajfah to mean here "earthquake", as it evidently does in matter" is synonymous with "he has other places in the Qur'an (e.g., in verses 78 and 91 of this surah). However, it should be remembered that this noun denotes any "violent commotion" or "trembling", from whatever cause; and since there is no reason to suppose that in this context an earthquake is meant, we may assume that the violent trembling which seized the seventy elders was caused by their intense regret and fear of God's punishment.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 123 (7:156)

Cf. 6:12 (and the corresponding note 10), as well as 6:54.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 124 (7:157)

The interpolation of the words "later on" before the reference to the Gospel is necessitated by the fact that the whole of this passage is addressed to Moses and the children of Israel, that is, long before the Gospel (in the Qur'anic sense of this term -cf. surah 3, note 4) was revealed to Jesus. The stories of some of the earlier prophets given in this surah -beginning with the story of Noah and ending with that of Moses and the children of Israel - constitute a kind of introduction to this command to follow the "unlettered Prophet", Muhammad. The stress on his having been "unlettered" (ummi), i.e., unable to read and write, serves to bring out the fact that all his knowledge of the earlier prophets and of the messages transmitted by them was due to divine inspiration alone, and not to a familiarity with the Bible as such. For the Old Testament predictions of the advent of the Prophet Muhammad (especially in Deuteronomy xviii, 15 and 18), see surah 2, note 33; for the New Testament prophecies to the same effect, see 61:6 and the corresponding note 6.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 125 (7:157)

A reference to the many severe rituals and obligations laid down in Mosaic Law, as well as to the tendency towards asceticism evident in the teachings of the Gospels. Thus the Qur'an implies that those "burdens and shackles", intended as means of spiritual discipline for particular communities and particular stages of man's development, will become unnecessary as soon as God's message to man shall have achieved its final, universal character in the teachings of the Last Prophet, Muhammad.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 126 (7:158)

This verse, placed parenthetically in the midst of the story of Moses and the children of Israel, is meant to elucidate the preceding passage. Each of the earlier prophets was sent to his, and only his, community: thus, the Old Testament addresses itself only to the children of Israel, and even Jesus, whose message had a wider bearing, speaks of himself as "sent only unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel" (Matthew xv. 24). In contrast, the message of the Qur'an is universal-that is, addressed to mankind as a whole-and is neither time-bound nor confined to any particular cultural environment. It is for this reason that Muhammad, through whom this message was revealed, is described in the Qur'an (21:107) as an evidence of "[God's] grace towards all the worlds" (i.e. towards all mankind), and as "the Seal of all Prophets" (33:40) - in other words, the last of them.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 127 (7:159)

I.e., people like those spoken of in 3:113-115. With this verse, the discourse returns to the moral history of the children of Israel. The stress on the fact that there have always been righteous people among them is meant to contrast this righteousness with the rebellious sinfulness which most of them displayed throughout their Biblical history. It provides, at the same time, an indication that, although the wrongdoing of some of its members may sometimes plunge whole communities into suffering, God judges men individually, and not in groups.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 128 (7:162)

For an explanation of this and the preceding verse, see 2:58-59, and the corresponding notes.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 129 (7:163)

Lit., "on a day when they did not keep Sabbath". Under Mosaic Law, they were obliged to refrain from all work-and, therefore, also from fishing-on Sabbath-days, with the result that the fish were more plentiful and would come closer to the shore on those days: and the inhabitants of the town took this as an excuse to break the Sabbath-law. Since the Qur'an does not mention the name of the town nor give any indication as to the historical period in which those offences were committed, it may be assumed that the story of the Sabbath-breakers (alluded to in several places in the Qur'an) is a general illustration of the tendency, so often manifested by the children of Israel, to offend against their religious laws in pursuit of their passions or for the sake of worldly gain. Although, according to the teachings of Islam, the Mosaic dispensation has since been abrogated, the Qur'an frequently points out its great role in the history of man's monotheistic beliefs, and stresses again and again its (time-bound) importance as a means of enforcing spiritual discipline on the children of Israel. Their repeated, deliberate breaches of the Mosaic Law are shown as evidence of their rebellious attitude towards that discipline and, thus, towards God's commandments in general.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 130 (7:164)

Lit., "a community" - obviously people who, while not actively protesting against the impiety of their environment, did not themselves participate in this profanation of the Sabbath.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 131 (7:164)

Lit., "they" - an allusion to the really pious among them, such as are described in verse 159 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 132 (7:165)

Lit., "who were forbidding the evil".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 133 (7:166)

According to Zamakhshari and Razi, the expression "We said unto them" is here synonymous with "We decreed with' regard to them" - God's "saying" being in this case a metonym for a manifestation of His will. As for the substance of God's decree, "Be as apes despicable", the famous tabi'i Mujahid explain it thus: "[Only] their hearts were transformed, that is, they were not [really] transformed into apes: this is but a metaphor (mathal) coined by God with regard to them, similar to the metaphor of 'the ass carrying books' [62:5]" (Tabari, in his commentary on 2:65; also Manar I, 343; VI, 448; and IX, 379). A similar explanation is given by Raghib. It should be borne in mind that the expression "like an ape" is often used in classical Arabic to describe a person who is unable to restrain his gross appetites or passions.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 134 (7:168)

Lit., "so that they might return [to righteousness]".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 135 (7:169)

I.e., for breaking God's commandments in their pursuit of worldly gain: an allusion to their persistent belief that they are "God's chosen people" and that, no matter what they do, His forgiveness and grace are assured to them by virtue of their being Abraham's descendants.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 136 (7:169)

A reference to their erroneous idea that God's forgiveness could be obtained without sincere repentance. The divine writ mentioned twice in this passage is obviously the Bible.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 137 (7:171)

Lit., "when We shook the mountain over the, ~, : possibly a reference to an earthquake which took place at the time of the revelation of the L xw (the "tablets") to Moses.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 138 (7:171)

This is the end, so far as this surah is concerned, of the story of the children of Israel. In accordance with the method of the Qur'an, their story is made an object-lesson for all believers in God, of whatever community or time: and, therefore, the next passage speaks of the "children of Adam", that is, of the whole human race.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 139 (7:172)

In the original, this passage is in the past tense ("He brought forth", "He asked them", etc.), thus stressing the continuous recurrence of the above metaphorical "question" and "answer": a continuity which is more clearly brought out in translation by the use of the present tense. According to the Qur'an, the ability to perceive the existence of the Supreme Power is inborn in human nature (fitrah); and it is this instinctive cognition-which may or may not be subsequently blurred by self-indulgence or adverse environmental influences - that makes every sane human being "bear witness about himself" before God. As so often in the Qur'an, God's "speaking" and man's "answering" is a metonym for the creative act of God and of man's existential response to it.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 140 (7:175)

Lit., "convey to them the tiding of him".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 141 (7:175)

Lit., "he became one of those who have strayed into grievous error". In the original, this whole verse is in the past tense; but since its obvious purport is the statement of a general truth (cf. Razi, on the authority of Qatadah, `Ikrimah and Abu Muslim) and not, as some commentators assume, a reference to a particular person, it is best rendered in the present tense. The kind of man spoken of here is one who has understood the divine message but, nevertheless, refuses to admit its truth because - as is pointed out in the next verse - he "clings to the earth", i.e., is dominated by a materialistic, "earthly" outlook on life. (Cf. the allegory of "a creature out of the earth" in 27:82.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 142 (7:176)

Because his attitudes are influenced only by what his earth-bound desires represent to him as his immediate "advantages" or "disadvantages", the type of man alluded to in this passage is always - whatever the outward circumstances - a prey to a conflict between his reason and his base urges and, thus, to inner disquiet and imaginary fears. and cannot attain to that peace of mind which a believer achieves through his faith.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 143 (7:179)

See Appendix III.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 144 (7:179)

Lit.; "they are farther astray"-inasmuch as animals follow only their instincts and natural needs and are not conscious of the possibility or necessity of a moral choice.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 145 (7:180)

This passage connects with the mention, at the end of the preceding verse, of "the heedless ones" who do not use their faculty of discernment in the way intended for it by God, and remain heedless of Him who comprises within Himself all the attributes of perfection and represents, therefore, the Ultimate Reality. As regards the expression al-asma' al-husna (lit., "the most perfect [or "most goodly"] names"), which occurs in the Qur'an four times-i.e., in the above verse as well as in 17:110, 20:8 and 59:24-it is to be borne in mind that the term ism is, primarily, a word applied to denote the substance or the intrinsic attributes of an object under consideration, while the term al-husna is the plural form of al-ahsan ("that which is best" or "most goodly"). Thus, the combination al-asma' al-husna may be appropriately rendered as "the attributes of perfection" - a term reserved in the Qur'an for God alone.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 146 (7:180)

Le., by applying them to other beings or objects or, alternatively, by trying to "define" God in anthropomorphic terms and relationships, like "father" or "son" (Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 147 (7:181)

Sc., "and they will be rewarded accordingly". See verse 159 above, where the righteous "among the folk of Moses" are thus described. In this verse, the reference is broadened to include the righteous of all times and communities - that is, all those who are receptive to God's messages and live up to them by virtue of their conviction that God is the Ultimate Reality.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 148 (7:182)

Lit., "without their knowing whence [it comes]". For an explanation of the term kayd ("subtle scheme") occurring in the next verse, see note 25 on 68:45, where this term appears for the first time in Qur'anic revelation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 149 (7:184)

Lit., "Have they, then, not reflected".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 150 (7:184)

Because he enunciated a message that differed radically from anything to which- the Meccans had been accustomed, the Prophet was considered mad by many of his unbelieving contemporaries. The stress on his being "their fellow-man" (sahibuhum - lit., "their companion") is meant to emphasize the fact that he is human, and thus to counteract any possible tendency on the part of his followers to invest him with superhuman qualities: an argument which is more fully developed in verse 188.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 151 (7:185)

Apart from a reminder of man's utter dependence on God, the implication of the above passage is this: Since everything in the observable or intellectually conceivable universe is obviously caused, it must have had a beginning and, therefore, must also have an end. Furthermore, since the universe is not eternal in the sense of having had no beginning, and since it cannot possibly have evolved "by itself" out of nothing, and since "nothingness" is a concept devoid of all reality, we are forced to predicate the existence of a Primary Cause which is beyond the limits of our experience and, hence, beyond the categories of our thought-that is, the existence of God: and this is the meaning of the "tiding" to which this verse refers.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 152 (7:186)

As in verse 178 above - and in many other places in the Qur'an - the expression "he whom God lets [or "causes to"] go astray" indicates the natural law instituted by God (sunnat Allah), whereby a wilful neglect of one's inborn, cognitive faculties unavoidably results in the, loss of all ethical orientation: that is, not an act of "predestination" but a result of one's own choice. See also surah 2, note 7, and surah 14, note 4.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 153 (7:187)

The verb ahfa means "he did [a thing] in an excessive measure" or "he exceeded the usual bounds in doing [something]". In connection with an inquiry, and especially when followed by `anhu or `anha ("about it"), it signifies "he tried hard to gain insight [into something] by persistently inquiring about it". Thus, used as a participle, it means "one who has gained insight [into something] through persistent inquiry". In the above context, the implication is that no amount of inquiry or speculation can reveal to man-the prophets included-the coming of the Last Hour before its actual manifestation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 154 (7:188)

See 6:50, as well as the corresponding note. The repeated insistence in the Qur'an on the humanness of the Prophet is in tune with the doctrine that no created being has or could have any share, however small, in any of the Creator's qualities or powers. In logical continuation of this argument, the next passage (verses 189-198) stresses the uniqueness and exclusiveness of God's creative powers.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 158 (7:189)

Lit., "do not follow you". As regards my translation of in tad' uhum ila 'l-huda as "if you pray to them for guidance" (instead of the erroneous -but common -translation "if you invite [or "call") them to guidance"), see Zamakhshari, Razi and Ibn Kathir. Cf. also verse 198 below.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 156 (7:190)

Lit., "they attribute to Him partners with regard to that which He has granted them": i.e., many of them look upon the contributing factors of sound childbirth (like personal care during pregnancy, medical assistance, eugenics, etc.) as something independent of God, forgetting that all these contributing factors are - like the birth of the child itself - but an outcome of God's will and grace: a manifestation of what the Qur'an calls "the way of God" (sunnat Allah). Since this kind of mental association of "other" factors with God is not really intentional, it does not amount to the unforgivable sin of shirk ("the ascribing of divine qualities to powers other than God"); but it is close enough to it to warrant the subsequent discourse on shirk in the real meaning of this term.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 157 (7:191)

Lit., "that which does not create anything": a phrase expressed in the singular, but having the plural meaning of "beings" - that is, either animate beings (like saints or supposedly "divine" personalities) or their inanimate representations.

Muhammad Asad - End Note (7:193)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 159 (7:194)

Lit., "servants" (`ibad)-i.e., created beings subservient to God's will. This refers to saints. living or dead, as well as to inanimate objects of every description, including idols, fetishes and representational images-physical or mental-of saints or deified persons.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 160 (7:195)

Lit., "summon your [God-]partners" (see surah 6, note 15).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 161 (7:198)

Lit., "though thou seest them looking at thee" -but since the pronoun "them" inn tarahum ("thou seest them") refers to mental images no less than to physical representations, the verb must be understood in its abstract sense of "seeing with the mind", i.e., "considering" or "imagining". In contrast with the preceding passages, which are addressed to those who actually invoke false deities or images, the last sentence is addressed to man in general, sinner and believer alike: and this generalization is brought out by changing the form of address from "you" to "thou".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 162 (7:199)

Lit., "accept what is easily forthcoming [from man's nature]". According to Zamakhshari, khudh al-afw means: "Accept what comes easily to thee [or "what is willingly accorded to thee"] of the doings and the nature of men, and make things easy [for them], without causing them undue hardship (kulfah); and do not demand of them efforts that may be too difficult for them." This interpretation - which has been adopted by many other classical commentators as well - is based on the identical explanation of the phrase khudh al'afw by `Abd Allah ibn az-Zubayr and his brother `Urwah (Bukhari), as well as by `A'ishah and, in the next generation, by Hisham ibn `Urwah and Mujahid (see Tabari, Baghawi and Ibn Kathir). Thus, in accordance with the Qur'anic statements that "man has been created weak" (4:28) and that "God does not burden any human being with more than he is well able to bear" (2:286. 6:152, 7:42, 23:62), the believer is admonished to make due allowance for human nature and not to be too harsh with those who err. This admonition is the more remarkable as it follows immediately upon a discourse on the most unforgivable of all sins - the ascribing of divine powers or qualities to anyone or anything but God.'

Muhammad Asad - End Note 163 (7:199)

Lit., "the ignorant ones*" - i.e., those who wilfully remain deaf to moral truths. and not' those who are simply unaware of them.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 164 (7:200)

Le., anger at the rejection of the truth by "those who choose to remain ignorant". The words "to blind anger" interpolated between brackets are based on a Tradition according to which the Prophet, after the revelation of the preceding verse calling for forbearance, exclaimed, "And what about [justified] anger, O my Sustainer?"-whereupon the above verse was revealed to him (Tabari, Zamakhshari, Razi, Ibn Kathir).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 165 (7:201)

The noun ta'if (also forthcoming in the forms tayf and tayyif denotes any ungraspable phantom, image or suggestion, as in a dream, or "an imperceptible obsession which obscures the mind" (Taj al-'Arus). Since, in the above context, it is described as coming from Satan, "a dark suggestion" seems to be an appropriate rendering.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 166 (7:202)

I.e., by goading them to anger or trying to engage them in futile argument. "Their brethren" are those who wilfully remain ignorant of the truth (with the pronoun referring to the God-conscious). The conjunctive particle wa preceding this clause has here the meaning of "although" or "even though".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 167 (7:203)

Sc., "if thou art really His apostle" (cf. 6:37 and 109, and the corresponding notes). Some of the commentators assume that the term ayah - translated by me as "miracle" - denotes here a verbal "message" which would answer the objections of those who did not believe in the Prophet. Since, however, the continuous revelation of the Qur'an was full of such messages, the demand of the unbelievers must have related to some particular manifestation or "proof" of his divinely-inspired mission: namely, to a concrete miracle which would establish the truth of his claim in a supposedly "objective" manner. In its wider implication, the above verse relates to the primitive mentality of all who regard miracles, and not the message itself, as the only valid "proof" of prophethood.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 168 (7:206)

Lit., "those who are with thy Sustainer": a metaphorical description of utter God-consciousness.

Rashad Khalifa - The Final Testament

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 1 (7:1)

See Appendix 1 for the role of these initials in the Quran's mathematical miracle.

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 7 (7:142)

The manner in which these numbers are mentioned is significant. As detailed in Appendix 1, all the numbers mentioned in the Quran add up to 162146,19x8534.

Rashad Khalifa - End Note (7:142)

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 11 (7:172)

Thus, every human being is born with an instinctive knowledge about God.

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 12 (7:174)

This life is our last chance to return to God's Kingdom (See INTRODUCTION).

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (7:2)

Sadr = Chest = Breast = Heart. Haraj = Difficulty = Burden = Doubt = Hardship = Loss = Tightness in chest

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (7:3)

Awliya = Protecting friends = Allies = Masters

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (7:10)

Being grateful is not only verbal thanks. It involves sharing God's bounties with fellow humans and other creation. 16:114, 31:12

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (7:11)

Take a panoramic view of your common origin. Life began as a single life cell from hydrated inorganic matter (23:13) We made you Adam (Homo sapiens, male and female). And We made the angels (the Universal forces) subservient to you. Satan or Iblees, your own rebellious desires, refused to submit to your higher controls of judgment

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (7:12)

Emotions are fiery in relation to sound judgment. The criterion of honor is not lineage, color, caste or nation. It is nothing but good conduct. 49:13

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (7:18)

Jahannam = Hell = Fire = Hebrew Gehenna = Destruction of the 'self' in this life and the Hereafter for succumbing to Satan, the selfish desires

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (7:19)

Contrary to the popular beliefs that the forbidden Tree was the tree of knowledge, fruit of this plant and that plant, or of sexual charms, it refers to humanity dividing itself like the branches of a tree. 2:35-36, 2:213, 20:120

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (7:20)

The selfish desires of humans prompted them to think about their own children rather than the collective good. That would, in a way, give them power and immortality

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (7:22)

Personal interests dominated their minds rather than the collective good of all. Humanity began to fall into mutual contention

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 10 (7:23)

Men and women accepted responsibility acknowledging that they had free will, while Satan blamed God and ascribed his disobedience to the will of God. 7:16

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 11 (7:24)

Tribes 49:13

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 12 (7:25)

In the meantime they could regain their lost Paradise if they followed the Divine Commands. 2:213

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 13 (7:30)

7:3, 22:13

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 14 (7:32)

17:18-20, 20:117-123

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 15 (7:38)

The first group violated the laws and misled others, and the second group was guilty of blind following and misleading their successors

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 16 (7:40)

Likewise nations that ignore the Divine laws in nature will utterly fail to establish a Paradise on earth. The parable of the camel and the needle conveys a perception, the impossibility of attaining success in defiance of these laws

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 17 (7:41)

Nations that fail to build their own Paradise on earth only lurk on hellish ground. They have a ceiling of chaos above, keeping them from rising in the community of nations

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 18 (7:42)

The Paradise of people's own making will never be lost. It will be their heritage in the life to come. 2:25, 3:133, 55: 45-47

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 20 (7:46)

A barrier of distinction will exist between the heavenly and the hellish societies. On the heights of wisdom and knowledge will be some sincere leaders. They will recognize the strengths and the weaknesses of communities. Striving for peace and security, they will show the way to establish the right system to people who will be craving for it

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 21 (7:48)

In my opinion, the people of Heights will advise corrective action to be taken against the hoarding of wealth, population explosion, and self-glorification of nations. Jam'ukum = Your great numbers = Your multitude = Your hoardings = What you have amassed

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 22 (7:49)

They will make it clear that the Divine law favors no particular people. Obeying His laws brings His grace and bounties

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 23 (7:50)

The hellish societies will expect God's provisions to be granted to them as free-bees. They will be told that God's bounties can only be achieved by establishing the Right System

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 24 (7:53)

They will seek mediation for their mutual conflicts and long for starting from scratch. Since they have hurt their own 'self', they have lost the power of judgment and they would need help. They have been dragging unworkable systems

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 25 (7:54)

10:3, 13:2. Six Stages or Eras: 7:54, 10:3, 11:7, 25:59, 50:38, 57:4, See 41:10

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 26 (7:56)

Fear the consequences of violating His commands and hope for His grace since His promise is always true

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 28 (7:64)

A great flood was about to come as revealed to Noah. He and his followers built an Ark. They were with him in belief and in the ship, so they were saved

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 29 (7:71)

53:23

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 31 (7:73)

The feudal lords controlled land, crop, oases and water resources, and the weak were suffering. Saaleh assigned a she-camel as a symbol of their reformation

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 32 (7:75)

The bringer of such a Sublime message cannot be a liar

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 33 (7:80)

Hud, Saaleh, and their respective followers, escaped destruction because they believed in the revelation and took appropriate precautions. The people of prophet Lot lived by the Dead Sea in Sodom

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 34 (7:84)

A huge volcano was about to erupt. The prophet of God had advance knowledge and he moved out at the right time, along with his followers

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 35 (7:85)

The Nation of Midyan lived between Madinah and Damascus since around 2000 BC. They were the descendants of prophet Abraham's son Midyan from his third wife Qatoora. Most of them were traders but they squandered justice and equity in business

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 36 (7:90)

as you lose the big profits in trade

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 37 (7:95)

They thought that hardships and prosperity were just a matter of chance. To them the requital appeared sudden, but unjust systems insidiously move toward disaster

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 39 (7:108)

20:17-21

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 40 (7:112)

Saahir from Sihr = Magician, liar, stunningly eloquent, smart poet, deceitful, trickster, cheater, defrauder, dodger, hoaxer, swindler

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 41 (7:117)

'Asaa = Staff = Cane = Strength = Conviction = Authority = Power = Strong logic = Convincing argument

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 42 (7:124)

Cutting off the hands and feet on the alternate side refers to immobilizing a person, otherwise crucifixion would not be necessary. 20:71, 26:49, 38:12

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 43 (7:126)

2:250

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 44 (7:128)

21:105

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 45 (7:134)

They did not understand that the pledge of God with His messenger was only that of obeying His commands and His blessings in return. It did not involve any supernatural phenomena such as miracles

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 46 (7:137)

The Children of Israel later inherited a sizeable and highly prosperous kingdom including Syria and Palestine under David and Solomon

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 47 (7:141)

In addition to killing the newborn boys, as a matter of state policy, Pharaoh humiliated the strong and left the vulnerable for slavery and shameful acts. Abna = Sons = Strong ones. Nisaa = Females = Women = Derivatively, the weak ones. Yastahyoon carries the connotation of 'letting live' as well as 'in shame'. A tyrannical system has little tolerance for men of courage. 27:34, 28:4-5, 40:25. Exodus 1:15-22

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 48 (7:142)

2:51

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 49 (7:143)

The 7,359 feet high Mount Sinai is standing to this day. Therefore, contrary to popular literal translation of this verse, its understanding in allegorical terms is preferred. Also, a prophet of God is least likely to make a demand to see God in physical form. See 2:55, 2:118, 7:155. Now let us suppose that it was some other mountain that had crumbled to dust. In that case, the place would most certainly have become the greatest historical relic of all times. As I have stated in preface to QXPi, the earliest Tafseers of the Qur'an were written centuries after the exalted prophet. By then the Ajami (Zoroastrian-Persian, alien) politics and culture dominated the Islamic Empire centered in Baghdad. It is a hard fact of the historical dynamics that the rulers' political supremacy, profoundly affects the culture and language of the entire nation. Just as an example, Khalifa Haroon Rasheed's mother Khaizran was a Zoroastrian (Parsi or Maggian), and so were his wives. Khaizran's son, the succeeding Khalifa Mamoon's wives were also Ajami. Even the Baramakah, the viziers of the Empire were Ajamis. So, the Zoroa-Persian concepts left a very heavy impact on the Arabic language, giving Ajami (alien) concepts even to the Qur'anic themes and terminology - So much so that they became Ma'roof (generally recognized and well-accepted). Let us see how our clergy handled this verse. They had the unchangeable Qur'an before them, but the concepts they adopted were foreign and pliable like wax. A Hadith was concocted in the name of the exalted messenger. Here it is as related by a recent Mullah: "The prophet, after reciting this verse (7:143), placed his thumb on the little finger and said that only this much of the light of God had touched the mountain. Therefore, only that much portion (the size of a little finger) of the mountain was affected." - Ma'arifil Qur'an, Mufti Aazam (the Chief Mufti) of Pakistan, 'Maulana' Mufti Muhammad Shafi; tafseer of 7:143 vol 4 - quoting Anas bin Malik from the ancient Tirmizi, Hanbal and Hakam. Whoever made up this Hadith forgot that the wrong Ajami translations talk of the whole mountain crumbling to dust!

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 50 (7:145)

39:18

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 51 (7:146)

The law stands that those who are arrogant without justification will turn away from My revelations. Takabbur bil-Haqq (rightful pride with gratitude to God) is different from Takabbur bighairil-Haqq (Pride against all right). God ascribes to Himself, the consequences according to His Law of Requitall, such as, "God did it."

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 52 (7:147)

Human beings should remember that every action has a consequence and it gets imprinted on the 'self'. While every tomorrow is the Akhirah (after) of today, the final Judgment and Recompense for us rests with the life to come

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 53 (7:150)

20:86. Seizing the beard and head is indicative of interrogating harshly. Aaron had been extra patient with their idolatry to avoid division among them (20:94). Aaron, the prophet of God, preferred Shirk over Sectarianism. This is how reprehensible sectarianism and division in religion is

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 54 (7:155)

2:55

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 55 (7:156)

Sha = Due measure = Divine law = Will. Taqwa = To live upright = Being mindful of God = Being observant = Being God-conscious = Seeking to journey through life in security. Nafaq = An open-ended tunnel = Shun hoarding = Leaving wealth open for others = Spend on others

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 56 (7:157)

Deuteronomy: 18:15-18. Gospel of John: 14:16, 15:26, 16:7 Paracletos = Comforter, from original Greek Periclytos = The praised one. In Aramaic, Mawhamana = The praised one

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note (7:157)

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 57 (7:160)

2:60, 3:7. Remember the times when they were in the Sinai desert and there was shortage of water. Moses asked for water for his people and God guided him to a rock under which were hidden twelve springs of water ready to gush forth. Moses, with the strength of his conviction and with the help of his companions, unclogged those springs and each of the twelve tribes found their respective source of fresh cool water. Moses had established the Divine System of life. God will open the blessings of the heavens and earth for any nation that accepts His laws and works for the collective good of humanity. Such abundance with equity is no less than a heavenly "Table spread" that ensures freedom from want for all, in the shadow of Divine grace. They enjoyed delicious bird meat and vegetation they had grown in the oasis of their own making. For Manna and Salwa, see Glossary in Introduction to QXP

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 58 (7:161)

2:58

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 59 (7:162)

Rijz = Weakness = Disease = Plague = Beri beri, a neurological weakness in the camel and in humans caused by Vit B1 deficiency (erroneously described under Ithm in QXPi). Rijam-min-Assama = Heavenly punishment resulting in moral and physical weakness. 2:59-61, 5:22-24, 7:134, 8:11, 29:34, 34:5

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 60 (7:172)

Min Zuhoorihim = From their posterity = In succession = Their seed = One generation following another. The uninterrupted survival of mankind is a telling witness for them that there is an Almighty

Sustainer of the Universe

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 61 (7:173)

You will not be questioned what others used to do. No one will bear the load of another. 2:134, 39:7

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 62 (7:176)

If it had been Our Will = If so applied Our laws. God's revelation lightens your burdens, while manmade dogmas burden you. 7:157

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 63 (7:178)

4:88

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 64 (7:186)

2:15

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 65 (7:195)

These human demigods have no foundation of truth to stand on, nor the power to avert requital, nor the faculties to confront Reason

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

Translations ▼

Chapter/Verse ▼

Refresh

Search

<< Prev 8:1-75 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 8:1 They ask you regarding the spoils of war, say, "The spoils of war are for God and the messenger." So be aware of God, and peacefully reform the matters between you; and obey God and His messenger if you are those who acknowledge.¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 8:1 They ask you regarding the spoils of war, say: "The spoils of war are for God and the messenger." So be aware of God, and be upright in matters between you; and obey God and His messenger if you are believers.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 8:1 HEY WILL ASK thee about the spoils of war. Say: "All spoils of war belong to God and the Apostle."¹ Remain, then, conscious of God, and keep alive the bonds of brotherhood among yourselves, ² and pay heed unto God and His Apostle, if you are [truly] believers!
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 8:1 They consult you about the spoils of war. Say, "The spoils of war belong to GOD and the messenger." You shall observe GOD, exhort one another to be righteous, and obey GOD and His messenger, if you are believers.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 8:1 They ask you (O Messenger!), about the spoils of war. Say, "The spoils of war belong to God and the messenger. Be mindful of God's commands and maintain the bonds of brotherhood among you. Obey God and the messenger if you are believers. ¹
	Bismi Allāhi alRrahmāni alRrahēemi

Transliteration	8:1 Yas-aloonaka AAani al-anf ali qulial-anf alu lill ahi wa alIrrasooli fa ittaqooAllaha waasli hoo thata baynikum waa tee AAooAllaha warasoolahu in kuntum mu/mineena
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 8:1 يسلونك عن الانفال قل الانفال لله والرسول فاتقوا الله واصلحوا ذات بينكم واطيعوا الله ورسوله ان كنتم مومنين
Edip-Layth	8:2 The acknowledgers are those whom, when God is mentioned, their hearts tremble; when His signs are recited to them, it strengthens their acknowledgement; and they put their trust in their Lord.
The Monotheist Group	8:2 The believers are those whom, when God is mentioned, their hearts reverence; and when His revelations are recited to them, it increases their faith; and they put their trust in their Lord.
Muhammad Asad	8:2 Believers are only they whose hearts tremble with awe whenever God is mentioned, and whose faith is strengthened whenever His messages are conveyed unto them, ³ and who in their Sustainer place their trust -
Rashad Khalifa	The True Believers 8:2 The true believers are those whose hearts tremble when GOD is mentioned, and when His revelations are recited to them, their faith is strengthened, and they trust in their Lord.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:2 The true believers are those who feel a tremor in their hearts when God is mentioned. (They beat synchronously with the commands of God.) And when His revelations are conveyed to them, they find their faith strengthened. They do their best and then put their trust in their Lord.
Transliteration	8:2 Innama almu/minoona alla theenai tha thukira All ahu wajilat quloobuhum wa- ithat uliyat AAalayhim ayat uhu z adat -hum eem anan waAAala rabb ihim yatawakkaloona
A	8:2 انما المومنون الذين اذا ذكر الله وجلت قلوبهم واذا تليت عليهم آياته زادتهم ايمنا وعلى ربهم يتوكلون
Edip-Layth	8:3 They hold the contact prayer, and from Our provisions to them they spend.
The Monotheist Group	8:3 They uphold the communion, and from Our provisions to them they spend.
Muhammad Asad	8:3 those who are constant in prayer and spend on others out of what We provide for them as sustenance : ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	8:3 They observe the Contact Prayers (Salat), and from our provisions to them, they give to charity.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:3 They help establish the Divine System and keep the provision that We have given them, open for the good of humanity.
Transliteration	8:3 Alla theena yuqeemoona al ssalata wamimma razaq n ahum yunfiqoona
A	8:3 الذين يقيمون الصلوة ومما رزقنهم ينفقون
Edip-Layth	8:4 These are the true acknowledgers; they will have ranks at their Lord, forgiveness, and a generous provision.

The Monotheist Group	8:4 These are the true believers; they will have grades with their Lord and a forgiveness and a generous provision.
Muhammad Asad	8:4 it is they, they who are truly believers! Theirs shall be great dignity in their Sustainer's sight, and forgiveness of sins, and a most excellent sustenance. ⁵
Rashad Khalifa	8:4 Such are the true believers. They attain high ranks at their Lord, as well as forgiveness and a generous provision.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:4 Such are the true believers. They have high ranks with their Lord and for them is the protection (against the detriment of their faults) and honorable provision. ²
Transliteration	8:4 Olā-ika humu almu/minoona ḥaqqanlahum daraj atun AAinda rabbiḥim wamaḡfiratun warizqunkareemun
A	8:4 اولئك هم المومنون حقا لهم درجت عند ربهم ومغفرة ورزق كريم
Edip-Layth	8:5 As your Lord made you go out from your home with the truth, but a party from among those who acknowledge opposed this.
The Monotheist Group	8:5 As your Lord made you go out from your home with the truth, but a party from among the believers disliked this.
Muhammad Asad	8:5 EVEN AS thy Sustainer brought thee forth from thy home [to fight] in the cause of the truth, although some of the believers were averse to it,
Rashad Khalifa	The Weak Believers 8:5 Then your Lord willed that you leave your home, to fulfill a specific plan, some believers became exposed as reluctant believers.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:5 (When the time came to defend the Ideological State of Madinah), your Lord commanded you (O Prophet!) to go forth from your home with the conviction that the truth was on your side. And some of the believers were reluctant.
Transliteration	8:5 Kama akhrajaka rabbuka min baytika bi alḥaqqiwa-inna fareeqan mina almu/mineena lakarḥoona
A	8:5 كما اخرجك ربك من بيتك بالحق وان فريقا من المومنين لكرهون
Edip-Layth	8:6 They argue with you about the truth when it has been made clear; as if they were being herded towards death while they are watching!
The Monotheist Group	8:6 They argue with you about the truth when it has been made clear to them; as if they were being herded towards death while they are watching!
Muhammad Asad	8:6 [so, too,] they would argue with thee about the truth [itself] after it had become manifest ⁶ - just as if they were being driven towards death and beheld it with their very eyes.
Rashad Khalifa	8:6 They argued with you against the truth, even after everything was explained to them. They acted as if they were being driven to certain death.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:6 (They argued whether to meet the aggressor outside Madinah at Badr, or wait.) And they disputed with you about it after the decision had been made manifest in mutual consultations, as if they were being driven to obvious death.
Transliteration	8:6 Yujadiloonaka fee al ḥaqqibaAAada m a tabayyana kaannam a yus aqoona ilaalmawti wahum yanḥuroona
A	8:6 يجدلونك في الحق بعد ما تبين كأنما يساقون الى الموت وهم ينظرون

Edip-Layth	8:7 God promises you that one of the two parties will be defeated by you; yet you wish that the one least armed be the one. But God wishes that the truth be manifest with His words, and that He eliminates the remnant of the ingrates.
The Monotheist Group	8:7 And God promises you that one of the two parties will be defeated by you; and you wish that the one least armed be the one. But God wishes that the truth be manifest with His words, and that He eliminates the remnant of the rejecters.
Muhammad Asad	8:7 And, lo, God gave you the promise that one of the two [enemy] hosts would fall to you: and you would have liked to seize the less powerful one, ⁷ whereas it was God's will to prove the truth to be true in accordance with His words, and to wipe out the last remnant of those who denied the truth ⁸ -
Rashad Khalifa	8:7 Recall that GOD promised you victory over a certain group, but you still wanted to face the weaker group. It was GOD's plan to establish the truth with His words, and to defeat the disbelievers.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:7 God promised you engagement and victory against one of the two groups. You preferred to face the weaker group, but God willed the truth to prevail according to His Words and soundly defeat the aggressive disbelievers.
Transliteration	8:7 Wa-i th yaAAidukumu All a hu i h da al tt a -ifatayni annah a lakum watawaddoonaanna ghayra th ati a lshshawkati takoonu lakumwayureedu All a hu an yu h iqqa al h aqqa bikalima t ihiwayaq t aAAa d a bira alka f ireena
A	8:7 واذا يعدكم الله احدى الطائفتين انها لكم وتودون ان غير ذات الشوكة تكون لكم ويريد الله ان يحق الحق بكلمته ويقطع دابر الكافرين
Edip-Layth	8:8 So that truth will be manifest and the falsehood will be falsified; even if the criminals oppose it.
The Monotheist Group	8:8 So that truth will be manifest, and the falsehood will be confounded; even if the criminals dislike it.
Muhammad Asad	8:8 so that He might prove the truth to be true and the false to be false, however hateful this might be to those who were lost in sin. ⁹
Rashad Khalifa	8:8 For He has decreed that the truth shall prevail, and the falsehood shall vanish, in spite of the evildoers.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:8 (That was your first armed confrontation with the opponents in which you were greatly outnumbered and ill equipped.) For He has decreed that the truth shall triumph, and the falsehood shall vanish, even as the guilty detest it.
Transliteration	8:8 Liyu h iqqa al h aqqa wayub t ilaal b atila walaw kariha almu j rimoon a
A	8:8 ليحق الحق ويبطل البطل ولو كره المجرمون
Edip-Layth	The Invisible Soldiers of God 8:9 You implored your Lord and He answered you: "I will provide you with one thousand angels as defenders."
The Monotheist Group	8:9 You called on help from your Lord and He answered you: "I will provide you with one thousand angels as defenders."
Muhammad Asad	8:9 Lo! You were praying unto your Sustainer for aid, whereupon He thus responded to you: "I shall, verily, aid you with a thousand angels following one upon' another!"
	God's Invisible Soldiers

Rashad Khalifa	8:9 Thus, when you implored your Lord to come to the rescue, He responded to you: "I am supporting you with one thousand angels in succession."
Shabbir Ahmed	8:9 You sought help from your Lord and He assured you, "I will help you with a thousand of the angels, rank upon rank."
Transliteration	8:9 I th tastagheethoona rabbakum fa istaj ^{ab} alakum annee mumiddukum bi-alfin mina almal ^a -ikatimurdifeena
A	8:9 اذ تستغيثون ربكم فاستجاب لكم اني ممدكم بالف من الملائكة مردفين
Edip-Layth	8:10 God did not do this except to give you good news, and that your hearts may be assured by it. Victory is only from God; God is Noble, Wise.
The Monotheist Group	8:10 And God did not do this except to give you good news, and that your hearts may be assured by it. And victory is only from God; God is Noble, Wise.
Muhammad Asad	8:10 And God ordained this only as a glad tiding, and that your hearts should thereby be set at rest-since no succour can come from any save God: verily, God is almighty, wise! ¹⁰
Rashad Khalifa	Victory Guaranteed for the Believers 8:10 GOD gave you this good news to strengthen your hearts. Victory comes only from GOD. GOD is Almighty, Most Wise.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:10 God made this as good news and contentment to your hearts. And there is no help except from God. Certainly, God is Mighty, Wise. ³
Transliteration	8:10 Wama jaAAalahu All ^{ah} u ill ^a a bushra walita t ^{ma} -inna bihi quloobukum wam ^a a alInna s ruilla min AAindi All ^{ah} i inna All ^{ah} a AAazeezun h akeem un
A	8:10 وما جعله الله الا بشرى ولتطمئن به قلوبكم وما النصر الا من عند الله ان الله عزيز حكيم
Edip-Layth	8:11 A peaceful sleep from Him overcame you, and He sent down to you water from the sky to cleanse you with it. He caused the affliction of the devil to leave you so that He may fortify your hearts and set firm your feet.
The Monotheist Group	8:11 Sleep overcame you from Him to give you peace; and He sent down to you water from the sky to cleanse you with it and cause the affliction of the devil to leave you; and so that He may strengthen your hearts and set firm your feet.
Muhammad Asad	8:11 [Remember how it was] when He caused inner calm to enfold you, ¹¹ as an assurance from Him, and sent down upon you water from the skies, so that He might purify you thereby and free you from Satan's unclean whisperings ¹² and strengthen your hearts and thus make firm your steps.
Rashad Khalifa	8:11 He caused peaceful slumber to overtake you and pacify you, and He sent down water from the sky to clean you therewith. He protected you from the devil's curse, reassured your hearts and strengthened your foothold.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:11 Remember He caused calmness to overtake you to give you inner peace from Himself. And He sent down from the sky water upon you, that He might refresh you, and remove from you the fear of Satan - And that He might, thus, strengthen your hearts and make firm your foothold. ⁴
Transliteration	8:11 I th yughashsheekumu a InnuAAa ^s aamanatan minhu wayunazzilu AAalaykum mina al s sama-ima ^{an} liyu t ahhirakum bihi wayu t hhiba AAankumrijza a Ishshay t ani waliyarbi t a AAala q uloobikum wayuthabbita bihi al-aqda m a

A	8:11 اذ يغشاكم النعاس امنة منه وينزل عليكم من السماء ماء ليطهركم به ويذهب عنكم رجز الشيطان وليربط على قلوبكم ويثبت به الاقدام
Edip-Layth	Defending People Against an Aggressive Enemy 8:12 Your Lord inspired to the angels: "I am with you so keep firm those who acknowledge. I will cast fear into the hearts of those who have rejected; so strike above the necks, and strike every finger." ²
The Monotheist Group	8:12 Your Lord inspired to the angels: "I am with you so keep firm those who believe. I will cast terror into the hearts of those who have rejected; so strike above the necks, and strike from them every one standing."
Muhammad Asad	8:12 Lo! Thy Sustainer inspired the angels [to convey this His message to the believers]: "I am with you !" ¹³ [And He commanded the angels:] "And, give firmness unto those who have attained to faith [with these words from Me]: ¹⁴ 'I shall cast terror into the hearts of those who are bent on denying the truth; strike, then, their necks, [O believers,] and strike off every one of their finger-tips!'" ¹⁵
Rashad Khalifa	Lessons from History 8:12 Recall that your Lord inspired the angels: "I am with you; so support those who believed. I will throw terror into the hearts of those who disbelieved. You may strike them above the necks, and you may strike even every finger." ¹
Shabbir Ahmed	8:12 Recall that your Lord inspired the angels, "I am with you. So make the believers stand firm. I will instill awe in the hearts of the unbelievers." Then (O believers) launch a swift strike to disillusion their command and scatter their soldiers. ⁵
Transliteration	8:12 Ith yoohee rabbuka ilaalmala-ikati annee maAAakum fathabbitoo alla theena amanoosoolqee fee quloobi alla theena kafaroo a IrruAAaba fa idriboofawqa al-aAAnaqi waidriboo minhum kulla bananin
A	8:12 اذ يوحى ربك الى الملكة انى معكم فثبتوا الذين ءامنوا سلقى فى قلوب الذين كفروا الرعب فاضربوا فوق الاعناق واضربوا منهم كل بنان
Edip-Layth	8:13 That is because they have aggressed against God and His messenger. Whoever aggresses against God and His messenger, then God is severe in retribution.
The Monotheist Group	8:13 That is because they have aggressed against God and His messenger. And whoever aggresses against God and His messenger, then God is severe in retribution.
Muhammad Asad	8:13 This, because they have cut themselves off from ¹⁶ God and His Apostle: and as for him who cuts himself off from God and His Apostle - verily, God is severe in retribution.
Rashad Khalifa	8:13 This is what they have justly incurred by fighting GOD and His messenger. For those who fight against GOD and His messenger, GOD's retribution is severe.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:13 That is because they opposed God and His messenger. Whoever opposes God and His messenger, then, God is Strict in grasping.
Transliteration	8:13 Thalika bi-annahum sh aqqoo All ahawarasoolahu waman yush aqiqi All aha warasoolahufa-inna Allaha shadeedu alAAaiqabi
A	8:13 ذلك بانهم شاقوا الله ورسوله ومن يشاقق الله ورسوله فان الله شديد العقاب

Edip-Layth	8:14 This is for you to sample, and for the ingrates will be retribution of fire.
The Monotheist Group	8:14 This is for you to sample, and for the rejecters will be a retribution of Fire.
Muhammad Asad	8:14 This [for you, O enemies of God]! Taste it, then, [and know] that suffering through fire awaits those who deny the truth!
Rashad Khalifa	8:14 This is to punish the disbelievers; they have incurred the retribution of Hell.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:14 That is the punishment, so taste it. And there is the torment of fire for the rejecters.
Transliteration	8:14 Thalikum fathooqoohu waannalilka fireena AAath aba aInnari
A	8:14 ذلکم فنوقوه وان للکفرین عذاب النار
Edip-Layth	8:15 O you who acknowledge; when you encounter those who have rejected on the battlefield, do not flee from them.
The Monotheist Group	8:15 O you who believe; when you encounter those who have rejected on the battlefield, do not flee from them.
Muhammad Asad	8:15 O YOU who have attained to faith! When you meet in battle those who are bent on denying the truth, advancing in great force, do not turn your backs on them: ¹⁷
Rashad Khalifa	8:15 O you who believe, if you encounter the disbelievers who have mobilized against you, do not turn back and flee.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:15 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! Never turn your backs when you meet the rejecters in battle.
Transliteration	8:15 Ya ayyuh a alla theena amanooitha laqeetumu alla theena kafaroo za h fan fa tu walloohumu al-ad ba ra
A	8:15 يايها الذين ءامنوا اذا لقيتم الذين كفروا زحفا فلا تولوهم الادبار
Edip-Layth	8:16 Whoever on that day flees from them; unless it is part of the battle strategy or if he is retreating back to his group; then he has drawn God's wrath upon him, and his abode will be hell. What a miserable destiny.
The Monotheist Group	8:16 And whoever on that day flees from them; unless it is part of the battle strategy or if he is retreating back to his group; then he has drawn God's wrath upon him, and his abode will be Hell. What a miserable destiny.
Muhammad Asad	8:16 for, whoever on that day turns his back on them-unless it be in a battle manoeuvre or in an endeavour to join another troop [of the believers] - shall indeed have earned the burden of God's condemnation, and his goal shall be hell: and how vile a journey's end!
Rashad Khalifa	8:16 Anyone who turns back on that day, except to carry out a battle plan, or to join his group, has incurred wrath from GOD, and his abode is Hell; what a miserable destiny!
Shabbir Ahmed	8:16 Anyone who turns back on that day, unless strategically or to join his own troops, incurs God's disapproval. His abode shall be Hell, a miserable destination.
Transliteration	8:16 Waman yuwallihim yawma-i thin duburahuill a muta harrifan liqit alin aw mutah ayyizanila fi-atin faqad b aa bighad abin mina All ah i wama /wahu jahannamu wabi/sa almas eeru

A	8:16 ومن يولهم يومئذ دبره الا متحرفا لقتال او متحيزا الى فئة فقد باء بغضب من الله وما لوه جهنم وبئس المصير
Edip-Layth	8:17 It was not you who killed them, but it was God who killed them. It was not you who launched when you did, but it was God who launched. So that those who acknowledge would be tested well by Him. God is Hearer, Knowledgeable.
The Monotheist Group	8:17 It was not you who killed them, but it was God who killed them. And it was not you who launched when you did, but it was God who launched. And so that the believers would be tested well by Him. God is Hearer, Knowledgeable.
Muhammad Asad	8:17 And yet, [O believers,] it was not you who slew the enemy, ¹⁸ but it was God who slew them; and it was not thou who cast [terror into them, O Prophet], when thou didst cast it, but it was God who cast it: ¹⁹ and [He did all this] in order that He might test the believers by a goodly test of His Own or daining. ²⁰ Verily, God is all-hearing, all-knowing!
Rashad Khalifa	God Is Doing Everything 8:17 It was not you who killed them; GOD is the One who killed them. It was not you who threw when you threw; GOD is the One who threw. But He thus gives the believers a chance to earn a lot of credit. GOD is Hearer, Omniscient. ²
Shabbir Ahmed	8:17 You did not subdue them, God did. You did not throw the arrows, God did. But He let the believers test themselves in a blessing from Him in disguise. God is Hearer, Knower. ⁶
Transliteration	8:17 Falam taqtuloohum wal a _{kin} na Allaha qatalahum wama ramayta i _{th} ramayta wal a _{kin} na Allaha ram a waliyubliya almu/mineena minhu bal a _{an} hasanan inna Allaha sameeAAun AAaleem un
A	8:17 فلم تقتلوهم ولكن الله قتلهم وما رميت اذ رميت ولكن الله رمى وليبلى المومنين منه بلاء حسنا ان الله سميع عليم
Edip-Layth	8:18 That, and God weakens the plots of the ingrates.
The Monotheist Group	8:18 That, and God weakens the plots of the rejecters.
Muhammad Asad	8:18 This [was God's purpose] -and also [to show] that God renders vain the artful schemes of those who deny the truth.
Rashad Khalifa	8:18 Additionally, GOD thus nullifies the schemes of the disbelievers.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:18 That was the case with you. And know that God is the One Who nullifies the artful schemes of the rejecters.
Transliteration	8:18 Tha likum waanna Allaha moohinukaydi alka _{fi} reena
A	8:18 ذلكم وان الله موهن كيد الكافرين
Edip-Layth	8:19 If you sought conquest, then conquest has come to you. But if you cease, then it is better for you. If you return again, then We will also return, and your group will avail you nothing even if it is many. God is with those who acknowledge.
The Monotheist Group	8:19 If you sought conquest, then conquest has come to you, but if you cease, then it is better for you. And if you return again, then We will also return, and your group will avail you nothing even if it is many. God is with the believers.
	8:19 If you have been praying for victory, [O believers] - victory has now indeed

Muhammad Asad	come unto you. And if you abstain [from sinning], it will be for your own good; but if you revert to it, We shall revoke [Our promise of aid] - and never will your community be of any avail to you, however great its numbers: for, behold, God is [only] with those who believe ! ²¹
Rashad Khalifa	8:19 You sought victory (O disbelievers), and victory did come; it belonged to the believers. If you refrain (from aggression) it would be better for you, but if you return, so will we. Your armies will never help you, no matter how great. For GOD is on the side of the believers.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:19 You sought victory and judgment (O Disbelievers)! Now victory and judgment have come to you. (If you reflect, the triumph of the truth is the victory for all, including yourselves.) If you refrain from aggression, it will be better for you. But, if you return, so shall We. Your armies will not avail you, no matter how numerous. Certainly, God is with the believers.
Transliteration	8:19 In tastaftihoo faqad jaakumualfathu wa-in tantahoo fahuwa khayrun lakum wa-intaAAoodoo naAAud walan tughniya AAankum fi-atukum shay-an walawkathurat waanna Allaha maAAa almu/mineena
A	8:19 ان تستفتحوا فقد جاءكم الفتح وان تنتهوا فهو خير لكم وان تعودوا نعد ولن تغني عنكم فئتكم شيئا ولو كثرت وان الله مع المؤمنين
Edip-Layth	8:20 O you who acknowledge, obey God and His messenger, and do not turn away from him while you have heard.
The Monotheist Group	8:20 O you who believe, obey God and His messenger, and do not turn away from him while you have heard.
Muhammad Asad	8:20 [Hence,] O you who have attained to faith, pay heed unto God and His Apostle, and do not turn away from Him now that you hear [His message];
Rashad Khalifa	8:20 O you who believe, obey GOD and His messenger, and do not disregard him while you hear.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:20 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! Obey God and His messenger. Listen to him when he speaks, without getting distracted.
Transliteration	8:20 Ya ayyuh a alla theena amanooateeAAoo All aha warasoolahu wal a tawallawAAanhu waantum tasmaAAoona
A	8:20 ياايها الذين ءامنوا اطيعوا الله ورسوله ولا تولوا عنه وانتم تسمعون
Edip-Layth	8:21 Do not be like those who have said, "We hear," but they do not hear.
The Monotheist Group	8:21 And do not be like those who have said: "We hear," but they do not hear.
Muhammad Asad	8:21 and be not like those who say, "We have heard", the while they do not hearken. ²²
Rashad Khalifa	The Disbelievers Blocked Out 8:21 Do not be like those who say, "We hear," when they do not hear.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:21 Do not be like those who say that they hear, while they do not hear.
Transliteration	8:21 Wala takoonoo kaallatheenaqaloo samiAAana wahum la yasmaAAoona
A	8:21 ولا تكونوا كالذين قالوا سمعنا وهم لا يسمعون
Edip-Layth	8:22 The worst creatures with God are the deaf and dumb who do not reason.

The Monotheist Group	8:22 The worst creatures with God are the deaf and dumb who do not understand.
Muhammad Asad	8:22 Verily, the vilest of all creatures ²³ in the sight of God are those deaf, those dumb ones who do not use their reason.
Rashad Khalifa	8:22 The worst creatures in the sight of GOD are the deaf and dumb, who do not understand.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:22 Surely, the worst of creations in the sight of God are the deaf and the dumb who do not use their reason. ⁷
Transliteration	8:22 Inna sharra a Iddawabbi AAindaAll ahi a Issummu albukmu alla theena layaAAqiloonaa
A	8:22 ان شر الدواب عند الله الصم البكم الذين لا يعقلون
Edip-Layth	8:23 If God had found any good in them, then He would have made them listen. But if He makes them listen, they would still turn away, averse.
The Monotheist Group	8:23 And if God had found any good in them, then He would have made them listen. But if He makes them listen, they would still turn away, averse.
Muhammad Asad	8:23 For, if God had seen any good in them, He would certainly have made them hear: but [as it is,] even if He had made them hear, they would surely have turned away in their obstinacy.
Rashad Khalifa	8:23 Had GOD known of any good in them, He would have made them hearers. Even if He made them hearers, they still would turn away in aversion.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:23 If God had seen any good in them, He would have made them hear. But, even if He made them hear, they would have turned away. ⁸
Transliteration	8:23 Walaw AAalima All ahu feehim khayranlaasmaAAahum walaw asmaAAahum latawallaw wahum muAAaridoona
A	8:23 ولو علم الله فيهم خيرا لاسمعهم ولو اسمعهم لتولوا وهم معرضون
Edip-Layth	8:24 O you who acknowledge, answer the call of God and His messenger when he calls you to what will grant you life. Know that God comes between a person and his heart, and that to Him you will be gathered.
The Monotheist Group	8:24 O you who believe, answer the call of God and His messenger when he calls you to what will grant you life. And know that God comes between a person and his heart, and that to Him you will be gathered.
Muhammad Asad	8:24 O you who have attained to faith! Respond to the call of God and the Apostle whenever he calls you unto that which will give you life; and know that God intervenes between man and [the desires of] his heart, ²⁴ and that unto Him you shall be gathered.
Rashad Khalifa	The Righteous Do Not Really Die 8:24 O you who believe, you shall respond to GOD and to the messenger when he invites you to what gives you life. You should know that GOD is closer to you than your heart, and that before Him you will be summoned. ³
Shabbir Ahmed	8:24 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! Respond to God and the messenger. He calls you to what gives you life. Know that God intervenes between man and his heart, and that to Him you will be gathered. ⁹

Transliteration	8:24 Ya ayyuh a alla theena amanooistajeeboo lill ahi wali Irrasooli i tha daAAakumlima yu hyeekum wa iAAlamoo anna All ahaya_hoolu bayna almar-i waqalbihi waannahu ilayhi tuhsharoona
A	8:24 يايها الذين ءامنوا استجبوا لله وللرسول اذا دعاكم لما يحييكم واعلموا ان الله يحول بين المرء وقلبه وانه اليه تحشرون
Edip-Layth	8:25 Be aware of a test that will not only afflict those of you who were wicked; and know that God is severe in retribution.
The Monotheist Group	8:25 And be aware of a test that will not only afflict those of you who were wicked; and know that God is severe in retribution.
Muhammad Asad	8:25 And beware of that temptation to evil which does not befall only those among you who are bent on denying the truth, to the exclusion of others; ²⁵ and know that God is severe in retribution.
Rashad Khalifa	8:25 Beware of a retribution that may not be limited to the evildoers among you. You should know that GOD's retribution is severe.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:25 Beware of a tribulation that may not be limited to the wrongdoers among you. Know that God is strict in retribution. (There is a strong link between individual and collective good.)
Transliteration	8:25 Waittaqoo fitnatan l a tu seebannaallatheena thalamoo minkum khassatanwaiAAlamoo anna Allaha shadeedu alAAiqabi
A	8:25 واتقوا فتنة لا تصيبن الذين ظلموا منكم خاصة واعلموا ان الله شديد العقاب
Edip-Layth	8:26 Recall when you were but a few who were overpowered in the land, you were fearful that men might capture you. But He sheltered you, and He supported you with His victory, and He provided you with good provisions, so that you may be thankful.
The Monotheist Group	8:26 And recall when you were but a few who were weak in the land, you were fearful that the people might capture you. But He sheltered you, and He supported you with His victory, and He provided you with good provisions, so that you may be thankful.
Muhammad Asad	8:26 And remember the time when you were few [and] helpless on earth, fearful lest people do away with you ²⁶ - whereupon He sheltered you, and strengthened you with His succour, and provided for you sustenance out of the good things of life, so that you might have cause to be grateful.
Rashad Khalifa	God Supports the Believers 8:26 Remember that you used to be few and oppressed, fearing that the people may snatch you, and He granted you a secure sanctuary, supported you with His victory, and provided you with good provisions, that you may be appreciative.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:26 Recall when you were few and oppressed in the land (Makkah) and fearful that people may do away with you. He gave you shelter (in Madinah), strengthened you with His help and gave you decent provision. Be grateful in word and action.
Transliteration	8:26 Waothkuroo i th antumqaleelun musta dAAafoona fee al-ar di takh afoonaan yatakhattafakumu alInnasu faawakumwaayyadakum binasrihi warazaqakum mina alttayyibatilaAAallakum tashkuroona
A	8:26 واذكروا اذ انتم قليل مستضعفون في الارض تخافون ان يتخطفكم الناس فاوكم وايدكم

Edip-Layth	8:27 O you who acknowledge, do not betray God and the messenger, nor betray your trusts, while you know.
The Monotheist Group	8:27 O you who believe, do not betray God and the messenger, nor betray your trust, while you know.
Muhammad Asad	8:27 [Hence,] O you who have attained to faith, do not be false to God and the Apostle, and do not knowingly be false to the trust that has been reposed in you; ²⁷
Rashad Khalifa	8:27 O you who believe, do not betray GOD and the messenger, and do not betray those who trust you, now that you know.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:27 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! Never betray God and His messenger (the Central authority), nor betray people who trust you, nor be lax in your duties knowingly.
Transliteration	8:27 Ya ayyuh a alla theena amanoolā takhoonoo All aha wa alrrasoola watakhoonooamanatikum waantum taAAlamoona
A	8:27 يايها الذين ءامنوا لا تخونوا الله والرسول وتخونوا امنكم وانتم تعلمون
Edip-Layth	8:28 You should know that your money and your children are a test, and that God has the greatest reward.
The Monotheist Group	8:28 And know that your money and your children are a test, and that God has the greatest reward.
Muhammad Asad	8:28 and know that your worldly goods and your children are but a trial and a temptation, and that with God there is a tremendous reward. ²⁸
Rashad Khalifa	Money & Children Are Tests 8:28 You should know that your money and your children are a test, and that GOD possesses a great recompense.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:28 Know that your wealth and your children are a test for you, and that with God is immense reward. ¹⁰
Transliteration	8:28 WaiAAlamoo annam a amw alukumwaawladukum fitnatun waanna All aha AAindahu ajrunAAaatheemun
A	8:28 واعلموا انما امولكم واولدكم فتنة وان الله عنده اجر عظيم
Edip-Layth	8:29 O you who acknowledge, if you are aware of God, He will make for you a distinction, and He will cancel your sins and forgive you. God is possessor of great favor.
The Monotheist Group	8:29 O you who believe, if you are aware of God, He will make for you a criterion, and He will cancel your sins and forgive you. God is possessor of great favor.
Muhammad Asad	8:29 O you who have attained to faith! If you remain conscious of God. He will endow you with a standard by which to discern the true from the false, ²⁹ and will efface your bad deeds, and will forgive you your sins: for God is limitless in His great bounty.
Rashad Khalifa	8:29 O you who believe, if you reverence GOD, He will enlighten you, remit your sins, and forgive you. GOD possesses infinite grace.

Shabbir Ahmed	8:29 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! If you remain mindful of God, He will give you distinction among the community of nations and grant you clear discernment between right and wrong. He will absolve your imperfections and grant you the protection of forgiveness. God is of Infinite bounty.
Transliteration	8:29 Ya ayyuh a alla theena amanooiin tattaqoo All aha yajAAal lakum furqananwayukaffir AAankum sayyi- atikum wayaghfir lakum wa Allahu th oo alfa dli alAAa th heemi
A	8:29 يايها الذين ءامنوا ان تتقوا الله يجعل لكم فرقانا ويكفر عنكم سيئاتكم ويغفر لكم والله ذو الفضل العظيم
Edip-Layth	8:30 The ingrates plot against you to confine you, to kill you, or to expel you. They plot, and God plots, and God is the best of plotters.
The Monotheist Group	8:30 And the rejecters plot against you to arrest you, or to kill you, or to expel you. And they plot, and God plots, and God is the best of plotters.
Muhammad Asad	8:30 AND [remember, O Prophet,] how those who were bent on denying the truth were scheming against thee, in order to restrain thee [from preaching], or to slay thee, or to drive thee away: thus have they [always] schemed: ³⁰ but God brought their scheming to nought-for God is above all schemers.
Rashad Khalifa	God Protects His Messenger 8:30 The disbelievers plot and scheme to neutralize you, or kill you, or banish you. However, they plot and scheme, but so does GOD. GOD is the best schemer. ⁵
Shabbir Ahmed	8:30 Remember (O Messenger!), when the rejecters were making schemes to arrest you, slay you, or expel you. That was their plan, but God's Law of Requitall is designed to work in a way unfailing. God is the Best of planners.
Transliteration	8:30 Wa-i th yamkuru bika alla theenakafaroo liyuthbitooka aw yaqtulooka aw yukhrijooka wayamkuroonawayamkuru Allahu waAllahu khayru almaki ^{reena}
A	8:30 واذ يمكر بك الذين كفروا ليثبتوك او يقتلوك او يخرجوك ويمكرون ويمكر الله والله خير المكرين
Edip-Layth	8:31 When Our signs are recited to them, they say, "We have listened, and if we wish, we could have said the same thing. This is nothing but tales of the ancients!"
The Monotheist Group	8:31 And if Our revelations are recited to them, they say: "We have listened, and if we wish, we could have said the same thing. This is nothing but tales of the ancients!"
Muhammad Asad	8:31 And whenever Our messages were conveyed to them, they would say, "We have heard [all this] before; if we wanted, we could certainly compose sayings like these [ourselves]: they are nothing but fables of ancient times!" ³¹
Rashad Khalifa	8:31 When our revelations are recited to them, they say, "We have heard. If we wanted to, we could have said the same things. These are no more than tales from the past!"
Shabbir Ahmed	8:31 When Our messages are conveyed to them, they say, "We have heard. If we wish, we can speak like it. This is nothing but fables of the ancient."
Transliteration	8:31 Wa-i th a tutl a AAalayhim ayatunaqaloo qad samiAAan a law nash ao laqulna ^m ithla ^h a th a in ^h a th a illa asateerual-awwaleena

A	8:31 واذا تتلى عليهم ءايتنا قالوا قد سمعنا لو نشاء لقلنا مثل هذا ان هذا الا اسطير الاولين
Edip-Layth	8:32 They said, "Our god, if this is the truth from You, then send down upon us a rain of stones from the sky or bring on us a painful retribution."
The Monotheist Group	8:32 And they said: "Our god, if this is the truth from You, then send down upon us a rain of stones from the sky or bring on us a painful retribution."
Muhammad Asad	8:32 And, lo, they would say, "O God! If this. be indeed the truth from Thee, then rain down upon us stones from the skies, or inflict [some other] grievous suffering on us! ³²
Rashad Khalifa	8:32 They also said, "Our god, if this is really the truth from You, then shower us with rocks from the sky, or pour upon us a painful punishment."
Shabbir Ahmed	8:32 They further said, "O God! If this is the truth from You, then shower upon us rocks from the sky or bring on us a painful suffering."
Transliteration	8:32 Wa-ith q aloo all ahummain k ana h atha huwa al haqqa min AAindika faamtirAAalayna hijaratan mina alssama-iawi i/tina biAAathabin aleem in
A	8:32 واذا قالوا اللهم ان كان هذا هو الحق من عندك فامطر علينا حجارة من السماء او ائتنا بعذاب اليم
Edip-Layth	8:33 But God was not to punish them while you are with them, nor will God punish them while they continue to seek forgiveness.
The Monotheist Group	8:33 But God was not to punish them while you are with them, nor will God punish them while they continue to seek forgiveness.
Muhammad Asad	8:33 But God did not choose thus to chastise them whip thou [O Prophet] wert still among them, ³³ nor would God chastise them when they [might yet] ask for forgiveness.
Rashad Khalifa	8:33 However, GOD is not to punish them while you are in their midst; GOD is not to punish them while they are seeking forgiveness.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:33 But, God did not intend to punish them while you (O Messenger!), were in their midst (in Makkah, still conveying the message). And He would not punish them while they might seek forgiveness.
Transliteration	8:33 Wama k ana All ahuliyuAAaththibahum waanta feehim wam a k anaAllahu muAAaththibahum wahum yastaghfiroon a
A	8:33 وما كان الله ليعذبهم وانت فيهم وما كان الله معذبهم وهم يستغفرون
Edip-Layth	8:34 Why should God not punish them when they are turning others away from the Restricted Temple, and they were never its protectors! Its protectors are the righteous. But most of them do not know.
The Monotheist Group	8:34 And why should God not punish them when they are turning others away from the Sacred Temple, and they were never its protectors! Its protectors are the righteous; but most of them do not know.
Muhammad Asad	8:34 But what have they [now] in their favour that God should not chastise them- seeing that they bar [the believers] from the Inviolable House of Worship, although they are not its [rightful] guardians? ³⁴ None but the God-conscious can be its guardians: but of this most of these [evildoers] are unaware;
	8:34 Have they not deserved GOD's retribution, by repelling others from the

Rashad Khalifa	Sacred Masjid, even though they are not the custodians thereof? The true custodians thereof are the righteous, but most of them do not know.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:34 (Now, this is a new situation.) Have they not deserved God's requital when they are hindering His servants from the Sacred Masjid of Makkah, even though they are not its guardians? Its guardians can only be those who are mindful of God. Most of them do not even know how awesome this responsibility is.
Transliteration	8:34 Wama lahum all a yuAAa ththibahumuAllahu wahum ya suddoona AAani almasjidi al haramiwama k anoo awliy aahu in awliy aohu ill aalmuttaqoona walakinna aktharahum la yaAAalamoona
A	8:34 وما لهم الا يعذبهم الله وهم يصدون عن المسجد الحرام وما كانوا اولياءه ان اولياؤه الا المتقون ولكن اكثرهم لا يعلمون
Edip-Layth	Meccan Polytheists Were Formally Following Abraham's Practices 8:35 Their contact prayer at the sanctuary was nothing but deception/noise and aversion. Taste the retribution for what you have rejected. ³
The Monotheist Group	8:35 And their communion at the Dwelling was nothing but noise and aversion. Taste the retribution for what you have rejected.
Muhammad Asad	8:35 and their prayers before the Temple are nothing but whistling and clapping of hands. ³⁵ Taste then, [O unbelievers,] this chastisement as an outcome of your persistent denial of the truth! ³⁶
Rashad Khalifa	The Contact Prayers (Salat) Existed Before the Quran 8:35 Their Contact Prayers (Salat) at the shrine (Ka`bah) were no more than a mockery and a means of repelling the people (by crowding them out). Therefore, suffer the retribution for your disbelief. ⁶
Shabbir Ahmed	8:35 What is their worship at the House (of God) but whistling and clapping? Therefore, it is said to them, "Taste of the retribution for your rejection of the truth." ¹¹
Transliteration	8:35 Wama k ana salatuhumAAinda albayti ill a muk aan wata sdiyatan fathooqoalAAathaba bima kuntum takfuroona
A	8:35 وما كان صلاتهم عند البيت الا مكاء وتصدية فذوقوا العذاب بما كنتم تكفرون
Edip-Layth	8:36 Those who have rejected, they spend their money to turn others away from the path of God. They will spend it, then it will become a source of regret for them, then they are defeated. Those who rejected will be summoned to hell.
The Monotheist Group	8:36 Those who have rejected, they spend their money to turn others away from the path of God. They will spend it, then it will become an anguish for them, then they are defeated. Those who rejected will be gathered to Hell.
Muhammad Asad	8:36 Behold, those who are bent on denying the truth are spending their riches in order to turn others away from the path of God; and they will go on spending them until they become [a source of] intense regret for them; and then they will be overcome! And those who [until their death] have denied the truth shall be gathered unto hell,
Rashad Khalifa	Spending Their Money to Fight God 8:36 Those who disbelieve spend their money to repel others from the way of GOD. They will spend it, then it will turn into sorrow and remorse for them. Ultimately, they will be defeated, and all disbelievers will be summoned to Hell. ⁷

Shabbir Ahmed	8:36 Those who oppose the truth, spend their riches to hinder people from the path of God. They will spend it, then it will become anguish for them, and they will be overcome. And the rejecters of the truth will be gathered to Hell.
Transliteration	8:36 Inna alla the ena kafaroo yunfiqoonaw al ahum liya s uddoo AAan sabeeli All ah ifasayunfiqoonah a thumma takoonu AAalayhim h asratanthumma yughlaboona wa al la the ena kafaroo il a jahannama yu h sharoona
A	8:36 ان الذين كفروا ينفقون اموالهم ليمسدوا عن سبيل الله فسينفقونها ثم تكون عليهم حسرة ثم يغلبون والذين كفروا الى جهنم يحشرون
Edip-Layth	8:37 This is so that God will distinguish the bad from the good, and so that the bad will be gathered together into one heap; then He will cast it all into hell. These are the losers.
The Monotheist Group	8:37 This is so that God will distinguish the bad from the good, and so that the bad will be gathered together into one heap then He will cast it all into Hell. These are the losers.
Muhammad Asad	8:37 so that God might separate the bad from the good, and join the bad with one another, and link them all together [within His condemnation], and then place them in hell. They, they are the lost!
Rashad Khalifa	8:37 GOD will sift away the bad from the good, then pile the bad on top of each other, all in one pile, then throw it in Hell. Such are the losers.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:37 God will distinguish the bad from the good, then pile the bad on top of one another and cast them together in the Hellfire. They are truly the losers. 12
Transliteration	8:37 Liyameeza All a hu alkhabeetha mina a l ttayyibiwayajAAala alkhabeetha baAA a hu AA a la baAA d infayarkumahu jameeAAan fayajAA a lu fee jahannama ol a -ikahumu alkh a siroona
A	8:37 ليميز الله الخبيث من الطيب ويجعل الخبيث بعضه على بعض فيركمه جميعا فيجعله في جهنم اولئك هم الخسرون
Edip-Layth	8:38 Say to the ingrates: "If they cease, then what has passed before will be forgiven to them, and if they return to it, then the example of the previous generations has already been given." ⁴
The Monotheist Group	8:38 Say to the rejecters: "If they cease, then what has passed before will be forgiven to them, and if they return to it, then the example of the previous generations has already been given."
Muhammad Asad	8:38 Tell those who are bent on denying the truth that if they desist, ³⁷ all that is past shall be forgiven them; but if they revert [to their wrongdoing], let them remember what happened to the like of them in times gone by. ³⁸
Rashad Khalifa	8:38 Tell those who disbelieved: if they stop, all their past will be forgiven. But if they return, they will incur the same fate as their previous counterparts.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:38 (O Prophet!) Tell the disbelievers that if they cease hostilities, all their past will be forgiven. But if they return, they will meet the example of the old nations.
Transliteration	8:38 Qul lilla the ena kafaroo in yantahooyughfar lahum m a qad salafa wa-in yaAA o odoo faqad ma d atsunnatu al-awwaleena
A	8:38 قل للذين كفروا ان ينتهوا يغفر لهم ما قد سلف وان يعودوا فقد مضت سنت الاولين

Fight Against Oppressive Powers For Freedom

Edip-Layth	8:39 You should fight them all until there is no more oppression, and so that the entire system is God's. But if they cease, then God is seer of what they do.
The Monotheist Group	8:39 And fight them all until there is no more oppression, and so that the entire system is God's. But if they cease, then God is watcher over what they do.
Muhammad Asad	8:39 And fight against them until there is no more oppression and all worship is devoted to God alone. ³⁹ And if they desist-behold, God sees all that they do; ⁴⁰
Rashad Khalifa	8:39 You shall fight them to ward off oppression, and to practice your religion devoted to GOD alone. If they refrain from aggression, then GOD is fully Seer of everything they do.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:39 Fight and subdue those who persist in aggression until persecution is no more, and absolute freedom of religion is established. People must be able to adopt a religion only for God's Approval, and as free choice (2:193, 12:108). If they cease from aggression, God is the Seer of their actions, and therefore you shall leave them alone.
Transliteration	8:39 Waq ^{at} iloo ^h um ^h atta l ^a takoona fitnatun wayakoona a ⁱ ddeenu kullu ^h u lilla ^h ifa-ini inta ^h aw fa-inna Alla ^h a bima ^a yaAAamaloona ba ^s eerun
A	8:39 وقتلوهم حتى لا تكون فتنة ويكون الدين كله لله فان انتهوا فان الله بما يعملون بصير
Edip-Layth	8:40 If they turn away, then know that God is your Patron. What an excellent Patron, and what an excellent Victor. ⁵
The Monotheist Group	8:40 And if they turn away, then know that God is your Patron. What an excellent Patron, and what an excellent Victor.
Muhammad Asad	8:40 and if they turn away [from righteousness], know that God is your Lord Supreme: [and] how excellent is this Lord Supreme, and how excellent this Giver of Succour!
Rashad Khalifa	8:40 If they turn away, then you should know that GOD is your Lord and Master; the best Lord and Master, the best supporter.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:40 (Be magnanimous in treating them) knowing that if they returned to their previous ways, God is your Lord Supreme. And how excellent is this Lord Supreme, and how excellent is this Giver of help!
Transliteration	8:40 Wa-in tawallaw fa ⁱ AAalamoo anna All ^a hamawla ^k um niAAama almawl ^a waniAAama alInna ^s eeru
A	8:40 وان تولوا فاعلموا ان الله مولكم نعم المولى ونعم النصير
Edip-Layth	8:41 You should know: "Of anything you gain, that one-fifth shall go to God and the messenger: to the relatives, the orphans, the poor, and the wayfarer." You will do this if you acknowledge God and in what We revealed to Our servant on the day of distinction, the day the two armies clashed. God is able to do all things. ⁶
The Monotheist Group	8:41 And know that anything you profit, one-fifth shall go to God and the messenger, and the relatives, and the orphans, and the poor, and the wayfarer." You will do this if you believe in God and in what We revealed to Our servant on the day of the Criterion, the day the two armies clashed. God is able to do all things.
	8:41 AND KNOW that whatever booty you acquire [in war], one-fifth thereof belongs to God and the Apostle, and the near of kin, and the orphans, and the

Muhammad Asad	needy, and the wayfarer. ⁴¹ [This you must observe] if you believe in God and in what We bestowed from on high upon Our servant on the day when the true was distinguished from the false - the day when the two hosts met in battle. And God has the power to will anything. ⁴²
Rashad Khalifa	8:41 You should know that if you gain any spoils in war, one-fifth shall go to GOD and the messenger, to be given to the relatives, the orphans, the poor, and the traveling alien. You will do this if you believe in GOD and in what we revealed to our servant on the day of decision, the day the two armies clashed. GOD is Omnipotent.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:41 (You ask about the distribution of the spoils of war when you fight aggression and attain victory.) Whatever you take as spoils of war, a fifth of that is for God and the messenger (the State). (And the rest) is for the families (of the fallen soldiers), those left alone in the society, the widows, the ones whose income has stalled for any reason, and the needy wayfarer, the homeless son of the street. This (you will do) if you believe in God and in what We have revealed to Our servant when the two armies met (at Badr) on the Day of Distinction. God has appointed due measure for all things and events. ¹³
Transliteration	8:41 WaiAAlamoo annam a ghanimtummin shay-in faanna lill ahi khumusahu waliIrrasooliwalithe alqurb a wa alyatama wa almasakeeniwaibni a Issabeeli in kuntum amantum biAllaahi wama anzalna AAala AAabdin a yawmaalfurqani yawma iltaqa aljamAAani waAllahuAAala kulli shay-in qadeer un
A	8:41 واعلموا انما غنمتم من شيء فان الله خمسه وللرسول ولذي القربى واليتيمى والمسكين وابن السبيل ان كنتم امة منتم بالله وما انزلنا على عبدنا يوم الفرقان يوم التقى الجمعان والله على كل شيء قدير
Edip-Layth	Trust in God 8:42 When you were on the near side, and they were on the far side, then the supply line became directly beneath you. Had you planned for this meeting, you would have disagreed on its timing, but God was to enforce a command that was already done. So that He would destroy those to be destroyed with proof, and to let those who will live be alive with proof. God is Hearer, Knowledgeable.
The Monotheist Group	8:42 When you were on the near side, and they were on the far side, then the supply line became directly beneath you. And had you planned for this meeting, you would have disagreed on its timing, but God was to enforce a command that was already done. So that He would destroy those to be destroyed with proof, and to let those who will live be alive with proof. God is Hearer, Knowledgeable.
Muhammad Asad	8:42 [Remember that day] when you were at the near end of the valley [of Badr], and they were at its farthest end, while the caravan was below you. ⁴³ And if you had known that a battle was to take place, you would indeed have refused to accept the challenge: ⁴⁴ but [the battle was brought about none the less,] so that God might accomplish a thing [which He willed] to be done, ⁴⁵ [and] that he who would perish might perish in clear evidence of the truth, and that he who would remain alive might live in clear evidence of the truth. ⁴⁶ And, behold, God is indeed all-hearing, all-knowing.
Rashad Khalifa	God Controls Everything and Plans for the Believers 8:42 Recall that you were on this side of the valley, while they were on the other side. Then their caravan had to move to lower ground. Had you planned it this way, you could not have done it. But GOD was to carry out a predetermined matter, whereby those destined to be annihilated were annihilated for an obvious reason, and those destined to be saved were saved for an obvious reason. GOD is Hearer, Omniscient.

Shabbir Ahmed	8:42 Remember you were on this, (the Madinah) side of the Valley (of Badr), and they were on the farther (Makkah) side of the Valley. And the caravan of the Makkans was on lower ground than you (proceeding south along the low western coast, from Syria to Makkah). Had you attacked the caravan, it would not have accomplished God's will on a matter already decided, that those who died might die after a clear sign, and those who lived might live after a clear sign. He wanted you to have a decisive victory over the hostile army. God has decreed that the truth shall live and falsehood shall vanish. Certainly, God is Hearer, Knower. ¹⁴
Transliteration	8:42 Ith antum bi alAAudwati a Iddunya wahum bi alAAudwati alqu swa waalrrakbu asfala minkum walaw taw aAAadtum la ikhtalaftum fee almeesAA ad walakin liyaq diya All ahu amran k ana mafAAoolan liyahlika man halaka AAan bayyinat inwayahya man hayya AAan bayyinat in wa-inna All aha lasamee AAun AAaleemun
A	8:42 اذ انتم بالعدوة الدنيا وهم بالعدوة القصوى والركب أسفل منكم ولو تواعدتم لاختلفتم في الميعد ولكن ليقضى الله امرا كان مفعولا ليهلك من هلك عن بينة ويحيى من حي عن بينة وان الله لسميع عليم
Edip-Layth	8:43 God shows them to you as being few in your dream, and had He shown them to be many, then you would have failed and you would have disputed in the matter; it was God who saved you. He is the Knower of what is inside the chests. ⁷
The Monotheist Group	8:43 God shows them to you as being few in your dream, and had He shown them to be many, then you would have failed and you would have disputed in the matter; it was God who saved you. He is the Knower of what is inside the chests.
Muhammad Asad	8:43 Lo! God showed them to thee in a dream as few: ⁴⁷ for, had He shown them to you as many, you would surely have lost heart, and would surely have disagreed with one another about what to do. ⁴⁸ But God saved [you from this]: verily, He has full knowledge of what is the hearts [of men].
Rashad Khalifa	8:43 GOD made them appear in your dream (O Muhammad) fewer in number. Had He made them appear more numerous, you would have failed, and you would have disputed among yourselves. But GOD saved the situation. He is Knower of the innermost thoughts.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:43 God made them few in your vision. Had He made them appear more numerous (and you got intimidated by their great numbers), you would have been discouraged. And you would have disputed among yourselves (whether fighting them at Badr was a good idea). But God saved you from faltering. He is fully Aware of what is in the hearts.
Transliteration	8:43 Ith yureekahumu All ahu fee man amikaqaleelan walaw arakahum katheeran lafashiltum walatan azaAAatum fee al-amri wal akinna All aha sallama innahu AAaleemun bithati alssudoori
A	8:43 اذ يريكم الله في منامك قليلا ولو اريكم كثيرا لفشلتم ولتنزعتم في الامر ولكن الله سلم انه عليم بذات الصدور
Edip-Layth	8:44 He showed them to you when you met as being few to your eyes, and He made you appear as being fewer to their eyes. That was so God's decree would come to be; and to God all matters are returned.
The Monotheist Group	8:44 And He showed them to you when you met as being few to your eyes, and He made you appear as being fewer to their eyes. That was so God's decree would come to be; and to God all matters are returned.

Muhammad Asad	8:44 And so, when you met in battle, He made them appear as few in your eyes - just as He made you appear as of little account in their eyes - so that God might accomplish a thing [which He willed] to be done: ⁴⁹ for all things go back to God [as their source].
Rashad Khalifa	8:44 And when the time came and you faced them, He made them appear fewer in your eyes, and made you appear fewer in their eyes as well. For GOD willed to carry out a certain plan. All decisions are made by GOD.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:44 When the two armies faced each other, He made them appear few in your eyes, and made you appear weak in their eyes (3:12). God willed that to be the Day of Distinction. All matters go back to God's laws as their source.
Transliteration	8:44 Wa-i th yureekumoo h um i th iil ta qay t um fee aAAayuniku m qaleelan wayuqalliluk u m fee aAAayuni h imliy a q d iya All a hu amran k a na mafAAoolan wa-ila ll ah i turjaAAu al-omoor u
A	8:44 واذا يرىكم وهم اذا التقيتهم في اعينكم قليلا ويقللكم في اعينهم ليقضى الله امرا كان مفعولا والى الله ترجع الامور
Edip-Layth	8:45 O you who acknowledge, when you meet a force, stand firm and mention God frequently, that you may succeed.
The Monotheist Group	8:45 O you who believe, when you meet a force, stand firm and mention God excessively, that you may succeed.
Muhammad Asad	8:45 [Hence,] O you who have attained to faith, when you meet a host in battle, be firm, and remember God often; so that you might attain to a happy state!
Rashad Khalifa	8:45 O you who believe, when you encounter an army, you shall hold fast and commemorate GOD frequently, that you may succeed.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:45 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! Whenever you meet an army, be firm and remember God much, that you may be successful. ¹⁵
Transliteration	8:45 Ya ayyuh a alla th eena a manooi th a laq e etum fi-atan fa othbutoo wao th kurooAll a ha katheeran laAAaallak u m tufli h oona
A	8:45 يا ايها الذين ءامنوا اذا لقيتم فئة فاثبتوا واذكروا الله كثيرا لعلكم تفلحون
Edip-Layth	8:46 You should obey God and His messenger, and do not dispute; else you will fail and your momentum will depart, and patiently persevere. God is with the ones who patiently persevere.
The Monotheist Group	8:46 And obey God and His messenger, and do not dispute else you will fail and your momentum will depart, and be patient. God is with the patient ones.
Muhammad Asad	8:46 And pay heed unto God and His Apostle, and do not [allow yourselves to] be at variance with one another, lest you lose heart and your moral strength desert you. ⁵⁰ And be patient in adversity: for, verily, God is with those who are patient in adversity.
Rashad Khalifa	8:46 You shall obey GOD and His messenger, and do not dispute among yourselves, lest you fail and scatter your strength. You shall steadfastly persevere. GOD is with those who steadfastly persevere.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:46 Obey God and His messenger (the Central authority) and do not fall into disputation, lest you falter and lose your strength. Be steadfast, for certainly, God is with the steadfast.

Transliteration	8:46 Waat̤eeAAoo All̤aḥa warasoolahuwal a tan azaAAoo fatafshaloo wata thhaba reehukumwaisbiroo inna All̤aḥa maAAaa alIssabireena
A	8:46 واطيعوا الله ورسوله ولا تنزعوا فتفشلوا وتذهب ريحكم واصبروا ان الله مع الصبرين
Edip-Layth	8:47 Do not be like those who came out from their homes to boast and to be seen by men, and they repel others away from the path of God. God surrounds of what they do.
The Monotheist Group	8:47 And do not be like those who came out from their homes to boast and to be seen by the people, and they repel others away from the path of God. God is aware of what they do.
Muhammad Asad	8:47 And be not like those [unbelievers] who went forth from their homelands full of self-conceit and a desire to be seen and praised by men ⁵¹ for they were trying to turn others away from the path of God -the while God encompassed all their doings [with His might].
Rashad Khalifa	8:47 Do not be like those who left their homes grudgingly, only to show off, and in fact discouraged others from following the path of GOD. GOD is fully aware of everything they do.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:47 Do not be like the disbelievers who come out of their homes boastfully and to show off, although they come forth to hinder people from the path of God. And God encompasses all their doings.
Transliteration	8:47 Walā takoonoo ka allat̤heenakharajoo min diy arihim ba taran wari- aa alInnaasiwayasuddoona AAan sabeeli All̤ahi waAll̤ahubima yaAAamaloona muheet̤un
A	8:47 ولا تكونوا كالذين خرجوا من ديارهم بطرا ورئاء الناس ويصدون عن سبيل الله والله بما يعملون محيط
Edip-Layth	8:48 The devil adorned their work for them, and he said, "None from the people can defeat you today, and I am by your side." But when the two forces came together, he turned on his heels to flee and he said, "I am innocent from you! I see what you do not see. I fear God, and God is severe in punishment." ⁸
The Monotheist Group	8:48 And the devil adorned their work for them, and he said: "No people can defeat you today, and I am by your side." But when the two forces came together, he turned on his heels to flee and he said: "I am innocent from you! I see what you do not see. I fear God, and God is severe in punishment."
Muhammad Asad	8:48 And, lo, Satan made all their doings seem goodly to them, and said, "No one can overcome you this day, for, behold, I shall be your protector !" ⁵² but as soon as the two hosts came within sight of one another, he turned on his heels and said, "Behold, I am not responsible for you: behold, I see something that you do not see: behold, I fear God-for God is severe in retribution !" ⁵³
Rashad Khalifa	The Devil Sees God's Invisible Soldiers 8:48 The devil had adorned their works in their eyes, and said, "You cannot be defeated by any people today," and "I will be fighting along with you." But as soon as the two armies faced each other, he turned back on his heels and fled, saying, "I disown you. I see what you do not see. I am afraid of GOD. GOD's retribution is awesome."
Shabbir Ahmed	8:48 There was a group of Satanic conspirators, the hypocrites, who praised the disbelievers' actions, "You cannot be overcome by any people today, and we will be fighting along with you as allies." But as soon as the two armies came face to face, they turned back on their heels and fled, saying, "We disown you, We see what you do not. We are afraid of God Who has instilled faith in the hearts of the believers. God is Strict in grasping."

Transliteration	8:48 Wa-i th zayyana lahumu a Ishshay ^{tanua} AAa ^m alahum waq ^a la l ^a gh ^a liba lakumualyawma mina a Inn ^{asi} wa-innee j ^a run lakumfalamm ^a tar ^a ati alfi-at ^a ni nakas ^a AAa ^{la} AAaqibayhi waq ^a la innee baree-on minkum innee ^a r ^a m ^a l ^a tarawna innee akh ^a fu All ^a hawaAll ^a hu shadeedu alAAi ^q abi
A	8:48 واذا زين لهم الشيطان عملهم وقال لا غالب لكم اليوم من الناس واني جار لكم فلما تراءت الفئتان نكص على عقبيه وقال اني بريء منكم اني ارى ما لا ترون اني اخاف الله والله شديد العقاب
Edip-Layth	8:49 The hypocrites and those who have a disease in their hearts said, "These people have been deceived by their system." But whoever puts his trust in God, then God is Noble, Wise.
The Monotheist Group	8:49 The hypocrites and those who have a disease in their hearts said: "These people have been deceived by their system." But whoever puts his trust in God, then God is Noble, Wise.
Muhammad Asad	8:49 At the same time, the hypocrites and those in whose hearts was disease were saying, "Their faith has deluded these [believers] !" ⁵⁴ But he who places his trust in God [knows that], verily, God is almighty, wise.
Rashad Khalifa	8:49 The hypocrites and those who harbored doubt in their hearts said, "These people are deceived by their religion." However, if one puts his trust in GOD, then GOD is Almighty, Most Wise.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:49 The hypocrites, and those who harbor doubts in their hearts, taunted the believers, "Their religion has deluded them." But, whoever puts his trust in God, will find that God is Exalted in Might, Wise.
Transliteration	8:49 I th yaqoolu almun ^a fiquona wa ^a llat ^{heen} afee quloobihim mara ^{dun} gharra ha ^{ola} -ideenuhum waman yatawakkal AAa ^l ^a All ^a hi fa-inna All ^a haAAazeezun hakeem ^{un}
A	8:49 اذ يقول المنافقون والذين في قلوبهم مرض غر هؤلاء دينهم ومن يتوكل على الله فان الله عزيز حكيم
Edip-Layth	8:50 If you could only see as the angels take those who have rejected, they strike their faces and their backs: "Taste the punishment of the blazing fire!"
The Monotheist Group	8:50 And if you could only see as the angels terminate the lives of those who have rejected, they strike their faces and their backs: "Taste the punishment of the blazing Fire!"
Muhammad Asad	8:50 AND IF thou couldst but see [how it will be] when He causes those who are bent on denying the truth to die: the angels will strike their faces: and their backs, ⁵⁵ and [will say]: "Taste suffering through fire
Rashad Khalifa	8:50 If you could only see those who disbelieved when the angels put them to death! They will beat them on their faces and their rear ends: "Taste the retribution of Hell.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:50 Only if you could perceive how the rejecters leave this world, as the angels put them to death. It is as if they were smiting their faces and backs, "Taste the doom of burning."
Transliteration	8:50 Walaw tar ^a i th yatawaff ^a llat ^{heen} ena kafaroo almal ^a -ikatu

	yadriboonawujoohahum waadbarahum wathooqoo AAathaba alhareeqi
A	8:50 ولو ترى اذ يتوفى الذين كفروا الملائكة يضربون وجوههم وادبرهم وذوقوا عذاب الحريق
Edip-Layth	8:51 "This is for what your hands have put forth, and God does not wrong the servants."
The Monotheist Group	8:51 "This is for what your hands have put forth, and God does not wrong the servants."
Muhammad Asad	8:51 in return for what your own hands have wrought - for, never does God do the least wrong to His creatures!"
Rashad Khalifa	8:51 "This is a consequence of what your hands have sent forth. GOD is never unjust towards the creatures."
Shabbir Ahmed	8:51 "It is the result of your deeds that you sent forth with your own hands. God is never a tyrant over His servants."
Transliteration	8:51 Thalika bim a qaddamat aydeekumwaanna All aha laysa bi <th>h</th> allaminlilAAabeedi	h
A	8:51 ذلك بما قدمت ايديكم وان الله ليس بظالم للعبيد
Edip-Layth	8:52 Like the behavior of the people of Pharaoh, and those before them; they rejected God's signs, so God took them for their sins. God is Strong, severe in punishment.
The Monotheist Group	8:52 Like the behavior of the people of Pharaoh, and those before them; they rejected God's signs, so God took them for their sins. God is Strong, severe in punishment.
Muhammad Asad	8:52 [To them shall happen.] the like of what happened to Pharaoh's people and those who lived before them: they denied the truth of God's messagesand so God took them to task for their sins. Verily, God is powerful, severe in retribution!
Rashad Khalifa	8:52 This is the same fate as that of Pharaoh's people and those who disbelieved before them. They rejected GOD's revelations, and GOD punished them for their sins. GOD is powerful, and His retribution is severe.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:52 (They were made aware of history but) they ended up like Pharaoh's people, and those before them. They rejected God's messages, and God (through His laws) seized them for trailing behind in humanity. Certainly, God is Strong, Strict in grasping. 16
Transliteration	8:52 Kada/bi ali firAAawna wa allath ^h eenamin qablihim kafaroo bi- ayati All ahi faakhath ^h ahumuAllahu bi <th>h</th> unoobihim inna Allaha qawiyyunshadeedu alAAiqabi	h
A	8:52 كذاب ءال فرعون والذين من قبلهم كفروا بايت الله فاخذهم الله بذنوبهم ان الله قوى شديد العقاب
Edip-Layth	To Change The Negative Conditions You Need First To Change Yourself 8:53 That is because God was not to change anything He bestowed to a people, unless they change what is in themselves. God is Hearer, Knowledgeable.
The Monotheist Group	8:53 That is because God was not to change anything He bestowed to a people, unless they change what is in themselves. God is Hearer, Knowledgeable.
	8:53 This, because God would never change 56 the blessings with which He has

Muhammad Asad	graced a people unless they change their inner selves : 57 and [know] that God is all-hearing, all-seeing.
Rashad Khalifa	Retribution: A Consequence of Sin 8:53 GOD does not change a blessing He has bestowed upon any people unless they themselves decide to change. GOD is Hearer, Omniscient.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:53 God never changes a blessing that He has bestowed upon a nation until they first change themselves. God is the One Who is Hearer, Knower. 17
Transliteration	8:53 Th alika bi-anna All a ha lamyaku mughayyiran niAAaman anAAamah a AAala qawmin h attayughayyiroo ma bi-anfusihim waanna All a ha sameeAAunAAaleemun
A	8:53 ذَلِكَ بَانَ اللَّهِ لَمْ يَكْ مُغَيِّرًا نِعْمَةً أَنْعَمَهَا عَلَى قَوْمٍ حَتَّى يُغَيِّرُوا مَا بِأَنْفُسِهِمْ وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَشَمِيعٌ عَلِيمٌ
Edip-Layth	8:54 Like the behavior of Pharaoh's people and those before them. They denied the signs of their Lord, so We destroyed them by their sins, and We drowned the people of Pharaoh; all of them were wicked.
The Monotheist Group	8:54 Like the behavior of Pharaoh's people and those before them. They denied the signs of their Lord, so We destroyed them by their sins, and We drowned the people of Pharaoh; all of them were wicked.
Muhammad Asad	8:54 [To those sinners shall happen] the like of what happened to Pharaoh's people and those who lived before them: they gave the lie to their Sustainer's messages - and so We destroyed them in return for their sins, and caused Pharaoh's people to drown: for they were evildoers all.
Rashad Khalifa	8:54 Such was the case with the people of Pharaoh and others before them. They first rejected the signs of their Lord. Consequently, we annihilated them for their sins. We drowned Pharaoh's people; the wicked were consistently punished.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:54 Pharaoh's people and those before them are examples. They denied the messages of their Lord. They trailed behind in humanity and We (Our law) annihilated them. Pharaoh's people were drowned. They had displaced justice with injustice and used to violate human rights.
Transliteration	8:54 Kada/bi a li firAAawna wa allath ^h eenamin qablihim ka th thaboo bi- ay ati rabbihimfaahlaknahum bi th unoobihim waaghraqn a a lafirAAawna wakullun k a noo th alimeena
A	8:54 كَذَابٌ ءَالَ فِرْعَوْنَ وَالَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ كَذَبُوا بِآيَاتِ رَبِّهِمْ فَأَهْلَكْنَاهُمْ بِذُنُوبِهِمْ وَافْرِقْنَا ءَالَ فِرْعَوْنَ وَكُلِّ كَانُوا ظَالِمِينَ
Edip-Layth	8:55 The worst creatures to God are those who reject, for they do not acknowledge.
The Monotheist Group	8:55 The worst creatures to God are those who reject, for they do not believe.
Muhammad Asad	8:55 Verily, the vilest creatures in the sight of God are those who are bent on denying the truth and therefore do not believe. 58
Rashad Khalifa	8:55 The worst creatures in the sight of GOD are those who disbelieved; they cannot believe.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:55 The worst among creatures in God's Sight are those who oppose the truth. They show ingratitude by not using their God-given faculties and thus fail to believe.

Transliteration	8:55 Inna sharra a Iddaw abbi AAindaAll ahi alla the ena kafaroo fahum l a yu/minoona
A	8:55 ان شر الدواب عند الله الذين كفروا فهم لا يؤمنون
Edip-Layth	War and Peace 8:56 The ones whom you made a pledge with them, then they break their pledge every time, and they do not care.
The Monotheist Group	8:56 The ones whom you made a pledge with them, then they break their pledge every time, and they do not care.
Muhammad Asad	8:56 AS FOR THOSE with whom thou hast made a covenant, and who thereupon break their covenant on every occasion, ⁵⁹ not being conscious of God-
Rashad Khalifa	8:56 You reach agreements with them, but they violate their agreements every time; they are not righteous.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:56 Those with whom you have made a peace treaty, and then at every opportunity they break their treaty, certainly violate the Divine laws.
Transliteration	8:56 Allat he ena AA ahad ta minhumthumma yanqu do ona AAahdahum fee kulli marratin wahum lay attaqoona
A	8:56 الذين عهدت منهم ثم ينفقون عهدهم في كل مرة وهم لا يتقون
Edip-Layth	8:57 So, when you encounter them in battle, set them as an example to those who would come after them; perhaps they may remember.
The Monotheist Group	8:57 So, when you encounter them in battle, set them as an example to those who would come after them; perhaps they may remember.
Muhammad Asad	8:57 if thou find them at war [with you], make of them a fearsome example for those who follow them, ⁶⁰ so that they might take it to heart;
Rashad Khalifa	8:57 Therefore, if you encounter them in war, you shall set them up as a deterrent example for those who come after them, that they may take heed.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:57 When you encounter them in war, deal with them to set an example for those who come after them, that they may remember.
Transliteration	8:57 Fa-imma tathqafannahum fee al har bifasharrid bihim man khalfahum laAAallahum ya th thakkaroona
A	8:57 فلما تتقنهم في الحرب فشرد بهم من خلفهم لعلهم يذكرون
Edip-Layth	8:58 If you are being betrayed by a people, then you shall likewise move against them. God does not like the betrayers.
The Monotheist Group	8:58 And if you are being betrayed by a people, then you shall likewise move against them. God does not like the betrayers.
Muhammad Asad	8:58 or, if thou hast reason to fear treachery ⁶¹ from people [with whom thou hast made a covenant], cast it back at them in an equitable manner: ⁶² for, verily, God does not love the treacherous!
Rashad Khalifa	8:58 When you are betrayed by a group of people, you shall mobilize against them in the same manner. GOD does not love the betrayers.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:58 If you anticipate treachery and breach of treaty, then fairly return the treaty back to them. God does not love the treacherous.

Transliteration	8:58 Wa-imma takhafanna min qawminkhiy anatan fainbith ilayhim AAal asawa-in inna Allaha la yuhibbu alkhaneena
A	8:58 واما تخافن من قوم خيانة فانبذ اليهم على سواء ان الله لا يحب الخائنين
Edip-Layth	8:59 Let not those who have rejected think that they have escaped; they will never avail themselves.
The Monotheist Group	8:59 And let not those who have rejected think that they have escaped; they will never avail themselves.
Muhammad Asad	8:59 And let them not think - those who are bent on denying the truth -that they shall escape ⁶³ [God]: behold, they can never frustrate [His purpose].
Rashad Khalifa	8:59 Let not those who disbelieve think that they can get away with it; they can never escape.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:59 Let not the rejecters think that they can get away with their violations. They cannot escape the Law of Requital.
Transliteration	8:59 Wala ya hasabanna allatheenakafaroo sabaqoo innahum la yuAAajizoon a
A	8:59 ولا يحسبن الذين كفروا سبقوا انهم لا يعجزون
Edip-Layth	8:60 Prepare for them all that you can of might, and from horse powers, that you may instill fear with it towards God's enemy and your enemy, and others beside them whom you do not know but God knows them. Whatever you spend in the cause of God will be returned to you, and you will not be wronged.
The Monotheist Group	8:60 And prepare for them all that you can of might, and from the steeds of war, that you may instill fear with it towards God's enemy and your enemy, and others beside them whom you do not know but God knows them. And whatever you spend in the cause of God will be returned to you, and you will not be wronged.
Muhammad Asad	8:60 Hence, make ready against them whatever force and war mounts ⁶⁴ you are able to muster, so that you might deter thereby the enemies of God, who are your enemies as well, ⁶⁵ and others besides them of whom you may be unaware, [but] of whom God is aware; and whatever you may expend ⁶⁶ in God's cause shall be repaid to you in full, and you shall not be wronged.
Rashad Khalifa	You Shall Be Prepared: A Divine Commandment 8:60 You shall prepare for them all the power you can muster, and all the equipment you can mobilize, that you may frighten the enemies of GOD, your enemies, as well as others who are not known to you; GOD knows them. Whatever you spend in the cause of GOD will be repaid to you generously, without the least injustice.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:60 Make ready for them all the power you can muster, and all the equipment you can mobilize so that you may deter the enemies of God, and your enemies. And others beside them whom you know not, but God knows them. Whatever wealth and effort you spend on your defenses, will be your expenditure in the cause of God, and it will be repaid to you generously. And you shall not be wronged at all.
Transliteration	8:60 WaaAAiddoo lahum m a ista taAAatummin quwwatin wamin rib ati alkhayli turhiboona bihiAAaduwwa Allahi waAAaduwwakum wa akhareena mindoonihim l a taAAlamoonahumu Allahu yaAAlamuhum wam atunfiqoo min shay-in fee sabeeli Allahi yuwaffa ilaykumwaantum la tuthlamoon a

A	8:60 واعدوا لهم ما استطعتم من قوة ومن رباط الخيل ترهبون به عدو الله وعدوكم وءاخرين من دونهم لا تعلمونهم الله يعلمهم وما تنفقوا من شيء في سبيل الله يوف اليكم وانتم لا تظلمون
Edip-Layth	8:61 If they seek peace, then you also seek it, and put your trust in God. He is the Hearer, the Knowledgeable.
The Monotheist Group	8:61 And if they seek peace, then you also seek it, and put your trust in God. He is the Hearer, the Knowledgeable.
Muhammad Asad	8:61 But if they incline to peace, incline thou to it as well, and place thy trust in God: verily, He alone is all-hearing, all-knowing!
Rashad Khalifa	8:61 If they resort to peace, so shall you, and put your trust in GOD. He is the Hearer, the Omniscient.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:61 When they incline to peace, you shall incline to it, and trust in God. He is the Hearer, the Knower.
Transliteration	8:61 Wa-in jana hoo li lssalmi faijnahlahā watawakkal AAal a Allāhi innahu huwa alssameeAAualAAaleemu
A	8:61 وان جنحوا للسلم فاجنح لها وتوكل على الله انه هو السميع العليم
Edip-Layth	8:62 If they wish to deceive you, then God is sufficient for you. He is the One who supported you with His victory and with those who acknowledge.
The Monotheist Group	8:62 And if they wish to deceive you, then God is sufficient for you. He is the One who supported you with His victory and with the believers.
Muhammad Asad	8:62 And should they seek but to deceive thee [by their show of peace] - behold, God is enough for thee! ⁶⁷ He it is who has strengthened thee with His succour, and by giving thee believing followers ⁶⁸
Rashad Khalifa	God Suffices the Believers 8:62 If they want to deceive you, then GOD will suffice you. He will help you with His support, and with the believers.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:62 And if they intend to deceive you, God will be Sufficient for you. He will strengthen you (O Messenger!) with His support, and with the believers. ¹⁸
Transliteration	8:62 Wa-in yureedoo an yakhdAAooka fa-inna hasbakaAllāhu huwa alla thee ayyadaka binaṣrihi wabialmu/mineena
A	8:62 وان يريدوا ان يخدعوك فان حسبك الله هو الذى ايدك بنصره وبالمومنين
Edip-Layth	8:63 He made unity between their hearts. Had you spent all that is on earth, you would not have united between their hearts, but God united between them. He is Noble, Wise.
The Monotheist Group	8:63 And He made unity between their hearts. And had you spent all that is on Earth, you would not have united between their hearts, but God united between them. He is Noble, Wise.
Muhammad Asad	8:63 whose hearts He has brought together: [for,] if thou hadst expended all that is on earth, thou couldst not have brought their hearts together [by thyself]: but God did bring them together. Verily, He is almighty, wise.
Rashad Khalifa	8:63 He has reconciled the hearts (of the believers). Had you spent all the money on earth, you could not reconcile their hearts. But GOD did reconcile them. He is Almighty, Most Wise.

Shabbir Ahmed	8:63 God has brought together the hearts of the believers. If you (O Messenger!) had spent all that is on earth, you could not have produced that affection, but God has done it. (The Divine Ideology has unified the believers.) Surely, He is Almighty, Wise.
Transliteration	8:63 Waallafa bayna quloobihim law anfaqta m afee al-ardi jameeAAan m a allafta bayna quloobihimwal akinna All aha allafa baynahum innahu AAazeezun hakeemun
A	8:63 والف بين قلوبهم لو انفقت ما فى الارض جميعا ما الفت بين قلوبهم ولكن الله الف بينهم انه عزيز حكيم
Edip-Layth	8:64 O prophet, God is sufficient for you and those who acknowledged among your followers. ⁹
The Monotheist Group	8:64 O prophet, God is sufficient for you, and whoever followed you from the believers.
Muhammad Asad	8:64 O Prophet! God is enough for thee and those of the believers who follow thee!
Rashad Khalifa	8:64 O you prophet, sufficient for you is GOD and the believers who have followed you.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:64 O Prophet! God is Sufficient for you and for the believers who follow you.
Transliteration	8:64 Ya ayyuh a a Innabiyyu hasbukaAllahu wamani ittabaAAaka mina almu/mineena
A	8:64 ياايها النبى حسبك الله ومن اتبعك من المومنين
Edip-Layth	8:65 O prophet, urge those who acknowledge to battle. If there are twenty of you who are patient, they will defeat two hundred. If there are one hundred of you, they will defeat one thousand from amongst those who reject; that is because they are a people who do not reason.
The Monotheist Group	8:65 O prophet, urge the believers to fight. If there are twenty of you who are patient, they will defeat two hundred. And if there are one hundred of you, they will defeat one thousand from amongst those who reject; that is because they are a people who do not comprehend.
Muhammad Asad	8:65 O Prophet! Inspire the believers to conquer all fear of death when fighting, ⁶⁹ [so that,] if there be twenty of you who are patient in adversity, they might overcome two hundred; and [that,] if there be one hundred of you, they might overcome one thousand of those who are bent on denying the truth, because they are people who cannot grasp it. ⁷⁰
Rashad Khalifa	8:65 O you prophet, you shall exhort the believers to fight. If there are twenty of you who are steadfast, they can defeat two hundred, and a hundred of you can defeat a thousand of those who disbelieved. That is because they are people who do not understand.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:65 O Prophet! Inspire the believers (to conquer all fear of death) in times of war. If there be twenty of you who are patient in adversity, they shall overcome two hundred, and if there be one hundred of you, they shall overcome one thousand of the opponents of the truth. This is because the rejecters of the truth are people who cannot understand (the Eternal rewards that motivate the believers).
	8:65 Ya ayyuh a a Innabiyyu harriidialmu/mineena AAal a alqit ali in yakun

Transliteration	minkumAAishroona s abiroona yaghliboo mi-atayni wa-in yakunminkum mi-atun yaghliboo alfan mina allat h eena kafaroobi-annahum qawmun l a yafqahoona
A	8:65 يايها النبي حرض المومنين على القتال ان يكن منكم عشرون صبرون يغلبوا مائتين وان يكن منكم مائة يغلبوا الفا من الذين كفروا بانهم قوم لا يفقهون
Edip-Layth	8:66 Now, God has lightened for you, for He knows that there is weakness in you. If there are one hundred of you who are patient, they will defeat two hundred. If there are one thousand of you, they will defeat two thousand by God's leave. God is with the patient.
The Monotheist Group	8:66 Now, God has lightened for you, for He knows that there is weakness in you. If there are one hundred of you who are patient, they will defeat two hundred. And if there are one thousand of you, they will defeat two thousand by God's leave. God is with the patient.
Muhammad Asad	8:66 For the time being, [however,] God has lightened your burden. for He knows that you are weak: and so, if there be one hundred of you who are patient in adversity, they should [be able to]' overcome two hundred; and if there be one thousand of you, they should [be able to] overcome two thousand by God's leave: for God is with those who are patient in adversity. ⁷¹
Rashad Khalifa	8:66 Now (that many new people have joined you) GOD has made it easier for you, for He knows that you are not as strong as you used to be. Henceforth, a hundred steadfast believers can defeat two hundred, and a thousand of you can defeat two thousand by GOD's leave. GOD is with those who steadfastly persevere.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:66 For the time being, however, God has lightened your burden, for He knows that you are weak. And so, if there be one hundred of you who are steadfast in adversity, they should be able to overcome two hundred; and if there be one thousand of you, they should be able to overcome two thousand by God's leave. God is with those who are steadfast in adversity.
Transliteration	8:66 Al- a na khaffafa All a hu AAankumwaAAalima anna feekum d aAAafan fa-in yakun minkum mi-atun s abiratunyaghliboo mi-atayni wa-in yakun minkum alfun yaghliboo alfaynibi-ith n i All a hi waAll a hu maAAa a l ss a bireena
A	8:66 الن خفف الله عنكم وعلم ان فيكم ضعفا فان يكن منكم مائة صابرة يغلبوا مائتين وان يكن منكم الف يغلبوا الفين باذن الله والله مع الصبرين
Edip-Layth	Slavery Prohibited 8:67 It was not for any prophet to take prisoners unless it was in battle. You desire the materials of this world, while God wants the Hereafter for you. God is Noble, Wise. ¹⁰
The Monotheist Group	8:67 And it was not for any prophet to take prisoners until he is bound by a campaign. You desire the materials of this world, while God wants the Hereafter for you. God is Noble, Wise.
Muhammad Asad	8:67 IT DOES NOT behove a prophet to keep captives unless he has battled strenuously on earth. ⁷² You may desire the fleeting gains of this world-but God desires [for you the good of] the life to come: and God is almighty, wise.
Rashad Khalifa	8:67 No prophet shall acquire captives, unless he participates in the fighting. You people are seeking the materials of this world, while GOD advocates the Hereafter. GOD is Almighty, Most Wise.
	8:67 It is beyond the dignity of a prophet to hold any captives, except

Shabbir Ahmed	temporarily, during warfare. You may desire the fleeting gains of this world, but God desires for you (the good of) Eternity. God is Almighty, Wise. (He knows your true welfare.) ¹⁹
Transliteration	8:67 Ma k ana linabiyyin an yakoonalahu asr a hatta yuthkhina fee al-arditureedoona AAara da a Iddunya wa Allahuyureedu al- akhirata wa Allahu AAazeezun hakeemun
A	8:67 ما كان لنبي ان يكون له اسرى حتى يثخن في الارض تريدون عرض الدنيا والله يريد الءاخرة والله عزيز حكيم
Edip-Layth	8:68 Had it not been previously ordained from God, then a severe punishment would have afflicted you for what you took.
The Monotheist Group	8:68 Had it not been previously ordained from God, then a severe punishment would have afflicted you for what you took.
Muhammad Asad	8:68 Had it not been for a decree from God that had already gone forth, there would indeed have befallen you a tremendous chastisement on account of all [the captives] that you took. ⁷³
Rashad Khalifa	8:68 If it were not for a predetermined decree from GOD, you would have suffered, on account of what you took, a terrible retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:68 If God had not decreed upon Himself mercy, those of you who fell for temptation (of booty), would have faced a great retribution.
Transliteration	8:68 Lawla kit abun mina All ahisabaqa lamassakum feem a akha thtum AAathabunAAatheemun
A	8:68 لولا كتب من الله سبق لمسكم فيما اخذتم عذاب عظيم
Edip-Layth	8:69 So consume what you have gained, lawful and good, and be aware of God. God is Forgiving, Compassionate.
The Monotheist Group	8:69 So consume what you have gained, lawful and good, and be aware of God. God is Forgiving, Merciful.
Muhammad Asad	8:69 Enjoy, then, all that is lawful and good among the things which you have gained in war, and remain conscious of God: verily, God is much-forgiving, a dispenser of grace.
Rashad Khalifa	8:69 Therefore, eat from the spoils you have earned, that which is lawful and good, and observe GOD. GOD is Forgiver, Most Merciful.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:69 * Now enjoy what you have won as lawful and good. Be mindful of God (His laws). Surely, God is Absolver of imperfections, Merciful.
Transliteration	8:69 Fakuloo mimm a ghanimtum halalantayyiban wa ittaqoo All aha inna Allahaghafoorun raheemun
A	8:69 فكلوا مما غنمتم حلالا طيبا واتقوا الله ان الله غفور رحيم
Edip-Layth	Treat Prisoners of War With Dignity 8:70 O prophet, say to those prisoners whom you hold: "If God finds in your hearts any good, He will grant you better than what He took from you, and He will forgive you. God is Forgiving, Compassionate."
The Monotheist Group	8:70 O prophet, say to those prisoners whom you hold: "If God finds in your hearts any good, He will grant you better than what He took from you, and He will forgive you. God is Forgiving, Merciful."

Muhammad Asad	8:70 [Hence,] O Prophet, say unto the captives who are in your hands: "If God finds any good in your hearts, He will give you something better than all that has been taken from you, and will forgive you your sins: for God is much-forgiving, a dispenser of grace." ⁷⁴
Rashad Khalifa	8:70 O you prophet, tell the prisoners of war in your hands, "If GOD knew of anything good in your hearts, He would have given you better than anything you have lost, and would have forgiven you. GOD is Forgiver, Most Merciful."
Shabbir Ahmed	8:70 O Prophet! Tell the captives of war who are in your hand, "If God sees any good in your hearts He will give you better than what has been taken from you, and He will forgive you. Surely, God is Forgiving, Merciful."
Transliteration	8:70 Ya ayyuh a Innabiyyuqul liman fee aydeekum mina al-asr a in yaAAalami Allahu fee quloobikum khayran yu/tikum khayran mimm a okhi thaminkum wayaghfir lakum waAllahu ghafoorun raheemun
A	8:70 يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ قُلْ لِمَنْ فِي أَيْدِيكُمْ مِنَ الْأَسْرَىٰ إِنَّ يَعْلَمُ اللَّهُ فِي قُلُوبِكُمْ خَيْرًا يُؤْتِكُمْ خَيْرًا مِّمَّا أَتَاكُمْ وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ وَاللَّهُ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ
Edip-Layth	8:71 If they want to betray you, they have already betrayed God before, and He overpowered them. God is Knowledgeable, Wise.
The Monotheist Group	8:71 And if they want to betray you, they have already betrayed God before, and He overpowered them. God is Knowledgeable, Wise.
Muhammad Asad	8:71 And should they but seek to play false with thee ⁷⁵ -well, they were false to God [Himself] ere this: but He gave [the believers] mastery over them. ⁷⁶ And God is all-knowing, wise.
Rashad Khalifa	8:71 And if they want to betray you, they have already betrayed GOD. This is why He made them the losers. GOD is Omniscient, Most Wise.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:71 If they have treacherous designs against you, well, they have already betrayed God before this, and that is why He has given you power over them. God is Knower, Wise.
Transliteration	8:71 Wa-in yureedoo khiy anataka faqad kh anooAllaha min qablu faamkana minhum waAllahuAAaleemun hakeemun
A	8:71 وَإِنْ يَرِيدُوا خِيَانَتَكَ فَقَدْ خَانُوا اللَّهَ مِنْ قَبْلُ فَأَمْكَنَ مِنْهُمْ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ حَكِيمٌ
Edip-Layth	International Treaties Trump Other Allegiances 8:72 Those who have acknowledged and emigrated and strived with their money and lives in the cause of God, and those who sheltered and supported; these are the allies of one another. Those who acknowledged but did not emigrate, you do not owe them any allegiance until they emigrate. But if they seek your help in the system, then you must support them, except if it is against a people with whom there is a treaty between you. God is watcher over what you do. ¹¹
The Monotheist Group	8:72 Those who have believed and emigrated and strived with their money and lives in the cause of God, and those who sheltered and supported; these are the allies of one another. And those who believed but did not emigrate, you do not owe them any obligation until they emigrate. But if they seek your help in the system, then you must support them, except if it is against a people with whom there is a treaty between you. God is watcher over what you do.
	8:72 BEHOLD, as for those who have attained to faith, and who have forsaken

Muhammad Asad	the domain of evil ⁷⁷ and are striving hard, with their possessions and their lives, in God's cause, as well as those who shelter and succour [them] ⁷⁸ - these are [truly] the friends and protectors of one another. But as for those who have come to believe without having migrated [to your country] ⁷⁹ - you are in no wise responsible for their protection until such a time as they migrate [to you]. Yet, if they ask you for succour against religious persecution, ⁸⁰ it is your duty to give [them] this succour-except against a people between whom and yourselves there is a covenant: ⁸¹ for God sees all that you do.
Rashad Khalifa	8:72 Surely, those who believed, and emigrated, and strove with their money and their lives in the cause of GOD, as well as those who hosted them and gave them refuge, and supported them, they are allies of one another. As for those who believe, but do not emigrate with you, you do not owe them any support, until they do emigrate. However, if they need your help, as brethren in faith, you shall help them, except against people with whom you have signed a peace treaty. GOD is Seer of everything you do.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:72 Those who believed, emigrated, and strove with their possessions and lives in the cause of God, as well as those who hosted them and supported them (in Madinah), are close protecting friends of one another. For those who believed but stayed back (in Makkah), you do not owe them support until they migrate. However, if they seek your help as sisters and brothers in Deen (Divine Ideology), then it is your duty to help them except against a people with whom you have a treaty. God is fully Aware of all your actions.
Transliteration	8:72 Inna alla theena amanoo wah ajaroowajahadoo bi-amw alihim waanfushihim fee sabeeli All ahiwaallatheena awaw wana saroo ol a-ikabaAAduhum awliy ao baAAadin wa allatheenaamanoo walam yuh ajiroo m a lakum min wal ayatihimmin shay-in hatta yuhajiroo wa-ini istansarookumfee alddeeni faAAalaykumu aInnasru illaAAala qawmin baynakum wabaynahum meeth aqun wa Allahubima taAAamaloona baseerun
A	8:72 ان الذين ءامنوا وهاجروا وجهدوا بامولهم وانفسهم فى سبيل الله والذين ءاؤوا ونصروا اولئك بعضهم اولياء بعض والذين ءامنوا ولم يهاجروا ما لكم من وليتهم من شىء حتى يهاجروا وان استتصروكم فى الدين فعليكم النصر الا على قوم بينكم وبينهم ميثق والله بما تعملون بصير
Edip-Layth	8:73 As for those who reject, they are allies to one another. If you do not do this, then there will be oppression on earth and great corruption.
The Monotheist Group	8:73 As for those who reject, they are allies to one another. If you do not do this, then there will be oppression on Earth and great corruption.
Muhammad Asad	8:73 With all this, [remember that] those who are bent on denying the truth are allies of one another; ⁸² and unless you act likewise [among yourselves], oppression will reign on earth, and great corruption.
Rashad Khalifa	8:73 Those who disbelieved are allies of one another. Unless you keep these commandments, there will be chaos on earth, and terrible corruption.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:73 Those who reject the Divine message are protectors of one another. If you do not help the immigrants, there will be chaos in the land and great corruption.
Transliteration	8:73 Waallatheena kafaroo baAA duhumawliya baAA din ill a tafAAaloohu takunfitnatun fee al-ardi wafasadun kabeerun
A	8:73 والذين كفروا بعضهم اولياء بعض الا تفعلوه تكن فتنة فى الارض وفساد كبير

Edip-Layth	8:74 Those who have acknowledged and emigrated and strived in the cause of God, and those who sheltered and supported, these are truly those who acknowledge. They will have forgiveness and a generous provision.
The Monotheist Group	8:74 And those who have believed and emigrated and strived in the cause of God, and those who sheltered and supported, these are truly the believers. They will have a forgiveness and a generous provision.
Muhammad Asad	8:74 And they who have attained to faith, and who have forsaken the domain of evil and are striving hard in God's cause, as well as those who shelter and succour [them]-it is they, they who are truly believers! Forgiveness of sins awaits them, and a most excellent sustenance. ⁸³
Rashad Khalifa	8:74 Those who believed and emigrated, and strove in the cause of GOD, as well as those who hosted them and gave them refuge, and supported them, these are the true believers. They have deserved forgiveness and a generous recompense.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:74 Those who believed and emigrated, and strove in the cause of God, and those who hosted them and supported them, are True believers. For them is protection of forgiveness and honorable provision.
Transliteration	8:74 Waallatheena amanoo wah ajaroowajahadoo fee sabeeli All ahi waallatheenaawaw wana saroo ol a-ika humu almu/minoona haqqanlahum maghfiraturun warizqun kareemun
A	8:74 والذين ءامنوا وهاجروا وجهدوا فى سبيل الله والذين ءاؤوا ونصروا اولئك هم المومنون حقا لهم مغفرة ورزق كريم
Edip-Layth	8:75 Those who acknowledged afterwards and emigrated and strived with you, then they are from you. The relatives by birth are also supportive of one another in God's book. God is aware of all things.
The Monotheist Group	8:75 And those who believed afterwards and emigrated and strived with you, then they are from you. And the relatives by birth are also supportive of one another in God's record. God is aware of all things.
Muhammad Asad	8:75 And as for those who henceforth come to believe, ⁸⁴ and who forsake the domain of evil and strive hard [in God's cause] together with you - these [too] shall belong to you; ⁸⁵ and they who are [thus] closely related have the highest claim on one another in [accordance with] God's decree. ⁸⁶ Verily, God has full knowledge of everything.
Rashad Khalifa	8:75 Those who believed afterwards, and emigrated, and strove with you, they belong with you. Those who are related to each other shall be the first to support each other, in accordance with GOD's commandments. GOD is fully aware of all things.
Shabbir Ahmed	8:75 And those who followed them in belief, and left their homes, and strove along with you, they are of you. Remember that blood relatives have certain special rights and obligations over each other according to God's Ordinance. They should be the first ones to help each other. Surely, God is Knower of all things.
Transliteration	8:75 Waallatheena amanoo minbaAAadu wah ajaroo wajahadoo maAAakum faol a-ikaminkum waoloo al-ar hami baAA duhum awl abibaAAadin fee kit abi All ahi inna Allahabikulli shay-in AAaleemun
A	8:75 والذين ءامنوا من بعد وهاجروا وجهدوا معكم فاولئك منكم واولوا الارحام بعضهم اولى ببعض فى كتب الله ان الله بكل شىء عليم

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (8:1)

See 8:41.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (8:12)

Wars are subject to the general principles spelled out in 60:8-9. Also, see 9:29.

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (8:35)

The Quran informs us that the practices of Islam were initially revealed to Abraham. Abraham and his followers were observing the sala prayer (21:73). Meccan polytheists never accepted that they were polytheists (6:23,148; 16:35). Since they believed in the intercession of some holy people, and since they falsely attributed numerous prohibitions and rules to God, the Quran considered them polytheists. Those so-called Muslims who reverted to the belief and practices of the era of ignorance after the revelation of the Quran, tried to create some artificial differences between them and Meccan polytheists. They distorted the meaning of the verse into "their prayer is only clapping hands and whistles" so that Meccan polytheists will be seen to be bizarre and different. The word muka means whistle, noise, or hypocrisy. The celebrated Arabic dictionary Lisan al-Arab, under the definition of this word, lists underground escape holes dug by moles. This resembles the word nafaqa (hypocrisy), which relates a semantic relation between physical holes and abstract hypocrisy. As for the word tasdiya, either means aversion or it is a form of tasdidah, which simply means repelling. In fact, the following verse uses its verb form, supporting our understanding. See 53:19-23. Also, see chapter 107 and verse 9:54.

Edip-Layth - End Note 4 (8:38)

The expression of sunnat al-awalyn (the path/laws of previous generations) reminds God's punishment to the past communities who transgressed. The word sunna means "law," and there is only one valid sunna, God's sunna (33:38,62; 35:43; 40:85; 48:23). Muhammad could not have his own sunna (law) besides God's sunna in the Quran.

Edip-Layth - End Note 5 (8:40)

See 2:286.

Edip-Layth - End Note 6 (8:41)

Distorting the meaning of this verse, Shiite clergymen have created an entitlement for themselves. The followers of Shiite sects donate one fifth of their annual income (khumus) to their religious leeches.

Edip-Layth - End Note 7 (8:43)

See 25:47; 2:255; 12:6; 30:23; 39:42; 78:9; 37:102.

Edip-Layth - End Note 8 (8:48)

Satan's fear (khafy) is without reverence (khashya).

Edip-Layth - End Note 9 (8:64)

Traditional translations dilute the sufficiency of God by including those who acknowledge as the second subject besides God, rather than another object besides Muhammad. They translate the verse as "God and the believers who follow you suffice for you."

Edip-Layth - End Note 10 (8:67)

This verse prohibits slavery. Prisoners of war are released after the war ends (47:4). Also, see 4:3,25; 90:1-20.

Edip-Layth - End Note 11 (8:72)

This verse unequivocally states that the rule of law is above any other affiliation. Islam emphasizes the importance of the rule of law, justice and peace (16:91,92).

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (8:1)

The term nafal (of which anfal is the plural) denotes, in its purely linguistic sense, "an accretion or addition received beyond one's due" or "something given in excess of one's obligation" (from which latter meaning the term salat an-nail - i.e., a "supererogatory prayer" - is derived). In its plural form anfal, which occurs in the Qur'an only in the above verse, this word signifies "spoils of war", inasmuch as such spoils are an incidental accession above and beyond anything that a mujahid ("a fighter in God's cause") is entitled to expect. The statement that "all spoils of war belong to God and the Apostle" implies that no individual warrior has a claim to any war booty: it is public property, to be utilized or distributed by the government of an Islamic state in accordance with the principles laid down in the Qur'an and the teachings of the Prophet. For further details relating to the division of spoils of war, see verse 41 of this surah.-The immediate occasion of this revelation was the question of the booty acquired by the Muslims-in the battle of Badr (an account of which is given in the introductory note to this surah); but the principle enunciated above is valid for all times and circumstances.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (8:1)

Lit., "set to rights the relationship between yourselves" -i.e., "remain conscious of your brotherhood in faith and banish all discord among yourselves".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (8:2)

Lit., "and whenever His messages are conveyed to them, they increase them in faith"

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (8:3)

See surah 2, note 4.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (8:4)

I.e., in paradise. According to Razi, however, the "most excellent sustenance" is a metonym for "the spiritual raptures arising from the knowledge of God, the love of Him, and the self-immersion (istighraq) in worshipping Him". In Razi's interpretation, this expression refers to the spiritual reward of faith in this world. Some commentators (cf. Manar IX, 597) regard the above definition of true believers as the most important passage of this surah.-The phrase rendered by me as "theirs shall be great dignity" reads, literally, "they shall have degrees", 'namely, of excellence and dignity.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (8:6)

I.e., after it had become clear that it was indeed God's will that the Muslims should give open battle to the Quraysh army. This reference to the antecedents of the battle of Badr (see the introductory note to this surah) connects with the admonition given in verse 1, "pay heed unto God and His Apostle", as well as with the reminder, in verse 2, that true believers place all their trust in God. A few of the followers of the Prophet disliked the idea of giving battle to the main army of the Quraysh, instead of attacking the Meccan caravan returning from Syria and thus of acquiring easy booty; but the majority of them immediately declared that they would follow God's Apostle wherever he might lead them. -Some of the commentators are inclined to relate the adverbial particle kama ("just as" or "even as"), introducing this sentence, to the preceding passage and, thus, to their duty to follow God's commands. Others, however, regard this interpretation as somewhat laboured, and relate the comparison implied in kama to the first clause of verse 6, explaining the passage thus: "Just as some of the believers were averse to going forth from Medina to give battle to the Quraysh, so, too, they would argue with thee as to whether it was really willed by God." This, in particular, was the view of Mujahid, whom Tabari quotes with approval in his commentary on this verse.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (8:7)

Lit., "while you would have liked the one which was not powerful to be yours"-i.e., the caravan coming from Syria, which was accompanied by only forty armed men and could, therefore, be attacked without great danger.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (8:7)

The destruction of the Meccan army at Badr was the prelude to the elimination, in the course of the next few years, of all opposition to Islam in its homeland: and it is to this future fulfilment of God's promise that the above words refer. See also surah 11, note 103.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (8:8)

The implication is that the truth of the Prophet's cause could not have been vindicated by the Muslims' overcoming and plundering the rich caravan which was approaching from the north. Although such an action would have benefited the Muslims materially, it would not have lessened the strength of the pagan Quraysh: while, on the other hand, the-encounter at Badr with the main, heavily-armed Quraysh force, resulting as it did in a decisive victory of the Muslims, was destined to shatter the self-confidence of the enemy and thus to pave the way for the ultimate triumph of Islam in Arabia.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (8:10)

"On the day of the battle of Badr, the Prophet looked at his followers, who were three hundred and odd men, and he looked at those who were ascribing divinity to beings other than God: and lo, they were more than one thousand. Thereupon God's Prophet turned towards the qiblah, raised his hands and thus implored his Sustainer: `O God! Fulfil what Thou hast promised me! O God! If this little band of those who have surrendered themselves unto Thee is destroyed, Thou wilt not be worshipped on earth . . .'" This authentic Tradition, quoted by Muslim, Abu Da'ud, Tirmidhi, Ahmad ibn Hanbal, etc., appears also in a very similar version in Bukhari's , Sahih. It is said that the above Qur'an-verse was revealed in response to the Prophet's prayer-whereupon he recited another, much earlier verse (54:45): "The hosts shall be routed, and shall turn their backs [in flight]" (Bukhari). - As regards the promise of aid through thousands of angels, see 3:124-125, where a similar promise - made on the occasion of the battle of Uhud - is said to have been uttered by the Prophet and thus, by implication, confirmed by

God. The spiritual nature of this angelic aid is clearly expressed by the words, "and God ordained this only as a glad tiding. . .", etc. (See also surah 3, notes 93 and 94.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (8:11)

Le., before the battle of Badr. Regarding the interpretation of nu'as as "inner calm", see surah 3, note 112. Here it refers to the spiritual quiet and self-confidence of the believers in the face of overwhelming odds.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (8:11)

Lit., "take away from you the pollution of Satan". Immediately before the beginning of the battle, the Meccan army invested the wells of Badr, thus depriving the Muslims of water; and, under the influence of thirst, some of the latter fell prey to utter despair (here symbolized by "Satan's unclean whisperings") -when, suddenly, abundant rain fell and enabled them to satisfy their thirst (Tabari, on the authority of Ibn `Abbas). '

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (8:12)

The phrase "I am with you" is addressed (through the angels) to the believers - "for, the purport of these words was the removal of fear, since it was the Muslims, and not the angels, who feared the deniers of the truth" (Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (8:12)

The following is, again, addressed to the believers (Razi). Verse 10 of this surah makes it clear that the aid of the angels was purely spiritual in nature; and there is no evidence anywhere in the Qur'an that they did, or were meant to, participate in the battle in a physical sense. In his commentary on the above verse, Razi stresses this point repeatedly; among modern commentators, Rashid Rida' emphatically rejects the legendary notion that angels actually fought in this or any other of the Prophet's battles (see Manar IX, 612 ff.). It is mainly on the basis of Razi's interpretation of this passage that I have interpolated, in several places, explanatory clauses between brackets.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (8:12)

I.e., "destroy them utterly".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (8:13)

Or: "contended against" (Baghawi). However, since the primary meaning of shaqqahu ("he separated himself from him" or "cut himself off from him") comprises the concepts of both estrangement and opposition (Tabari, Zamakhshari, Razi), the rendering adopted by me seems to be the most suitable in this context.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (8:15)

I.e., in flight: the implication being that in view of God's promise of victory no retreat is permissible. Since this verse (like the whole of this surah) relates predominantly to the battle of Badr, it may well be presumed that the above admonition forms part of the message of encouragement beginning with the words, "I am with you" (verse 12), which God commanded the angels to convey to the believers before the battle. In accordance with the didactic method of the Qur'an, however, the moral lesson contained in this verse is not confined to the historical occasion to which it refers, but has the validity of a permanent law.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (8:17)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (8:17)

According to several Traditions, the Prophet cast, at the beginning of the battle, a handful of pebbles or dust in the direction of the enemy, thus symbolically indicating their approaching defeat. However, none of these accounts attains to the standard of authenticity described as sahih (i.e., "reliable") by the great exponents of the science of Tradition (ilm al-hadith), and cannot, therefore, satisfactorily explain the above Qur'anic passage (see Ibn Kathir's commentary on this verse, as well as Manar IX, 620 f.). Since the verb rama (lit., "he cast" or "flung") applies also to the act of "shooting an arrow" or "flinging a spear", it might be explained here as a reference to the Prophet's active participation in the battle. Alternatively, it may denote his "casting terror", i.e., into the hearts of his enemies, by his and his followers' extreme valour. Whichever explanation is adopted, the above verse implies that the victory of the Muslims over the much more numerous and much better equipped army of the Quraysh was due to God's grace alone: and, thus, it is a reminder to the faithful, of all times, not to indulge in undue pride in any of their achievements (which is the meaning of the "test" mentioned in the next sentence).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (8:17)

Lit., "from Himself".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (8:19)

There is no unanimity among the commentators as to whether this verse is addressed to the believers or to their opponents at Badr, that is, the pagan Quraysh. While some of the commentators (e.g., Razi) are of the opinion that it is an admonition to the believers and understand it in the sense rendered by me above, others maintain that it is a warning addressed to the Quraysh. In order to justify this view, they give to the word fath (lit., "opening") occurring in the first sentence the meaning of "judgment" or "decision" (which is undoubtedly permissible from the linguistic point of view), and arrive at the following rendering: "If you have been seeking a decision [O unbelievers] - a decision has now indeed come unto you. And if you abstain [from making war on God and His Apostle], it will be for your own good; but if you revert to it, We shall revert [to defeating you] - and never will your army be of any avail to you, however great its numbers: for, behold, God is with the believers!" As can be seen from this alternative rendering, the difference in interpretation pivots on the tropical meaning which one gives to the words fath ("decision" or "victory") and fi'ah ("army" or "community"). As regards the latter, it is to be borne in mind that its primary significance is "a group" or "a congregated body of men" - more or less synonymous with ta'ifah or jama'ah; it can, therefore, be used to denote "an army" as well as "a community". Similarly, the expression na'ud can be understood in either of two ways: namely, as meaning "We shall revert [to defeating you]" - or, as in my rendering, "We shall revoke [Our promise of aid]" - addressed, in the one instance to the unbelievers, and in the other, to the believers. (For the use of the verb `ada in the sense of "he revoked", see Taj al-'Arus; also Lane V, 2189.) But while both interpretations of the above verse are linguistically justified, the one adopted by me (and supported, according to Ibn Kathir, by Ubayy ibn Ka'b) is in greater harmony with the context, inasmuch as both the preceding and subsequent passages are unmistakably addressed to the believers. Thus, the verse must be understood as a reminder to the Muslims that God will be with them only so long as they remain firm in faith and righteous in action, and that, however large their community may be in the future, they will be powerless unless they are true believers.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (8:21)

See 2:93 and 4:46, and the corresponding notes. While in the above-mentioned two instances the Jews are alluded to, the present allusion is more general, and relates to all people who have come to know and understand the message of the Qur'an, but pay no heed to it.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 23 (8:22)

Lit., "animals that walk or crawl" (dawab, sing. dabbah), including man as well.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 24 (8:24)

I.e., between a man's desires and the outward action that may result from those desires: indicating that God can turn man away from what his heart urges him to do (Raghib). In other words, it is God-consciousness alone that can prevent man from being misled by wrong desires and, thus, from becoming like "those deaf, those dumb ones who do not use their reason" (verse 22 above); and it is God-consciousness alone that can enable man to follow the call "unto that which gives life" - that is, spiritual awareness of right and wrong and the will to act accordingly.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 25 (8:25)

The term fitnah - here rendered as "temptation to evil" - comprises a wide range of concepts, e.g., "seduction" or "trial" or "test" or "an affliction whereby one is tried"; hence also "confusion" (as in 3:7 and 6:23), "discord" or "dissension" (because it constitutes a "trial" of human groupments), as well as "persecution" and "oppression" (because it is an affliction which may cause man to go astray and to lose his faith in spiritual values - a meaning in which the word fitnah is used in 2:191 and 193); and, finally, "sedition" and "civil war" (because it leads whole communities astray). Since the expression "temptation to evil" is applicable to all these meanings, it appears to be the most suitable in the above context: the idea being that it is not merely the deliberate deniers of spiritual truths who are exposed to such a temptation, but that also people who are otherwise righteous may fall prey to it unless they remain always, and consciously, on their guard against anything that might lead them astray from the right course.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 26 (8:26)

A reference to the weakness of the believers in the early days of Islam, before their exodus from Mecca to Medina. In its wider meaning; it is a reminder to every community of true believers, at all times, of their initial weakness and numerical insignificance and their subsequent growth in numbers and influence.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 27 (8:27)

Lit., "do not be false to your trusts, the while you know". Regarding the deeper meaning of amanah ("trust"), see note 87 on 33:72.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 28 (8:28)

Inasmuch as love of worldly goods and a desire to protect one's family may lead a person to transgression (and, thus, to a betrayal of the moral values postulated in God's message), they are described as fitnah -which, in this context, is best rendered by the two words "trial and temptation". This reminder connects with verse 25 above, "beware of that temptation to evil which does not befall only those who are bent on denying the truth," since it is acquisitiveness and a desire to confer benefits on one's own family which often tempt an otherwise good person to offend against the rights of his fellow-men. It is to be borne in mind that, contrary to the New Testament, the Our'an does not postulate a contempt for worldly attachments as a pre-requisite of righteousness: it only demands of man that he should not allow these attachments to deflect him from the pursuit of moral verities.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 29 (8:29)

I.e., the faculty of moral valuation (Manar IX, 648). See also surah 2, note 38.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 30 (8:30)

While the first sentence of this verse is a reference to the persecution to which the Prophet and his followers had been exposed in Mecca before their exodus to Medina, this concluding passage points to the ever-recurring fact of man's religious history that those who deny the truth of divine revelation are always intent on rendering its preachers powerless or destroying them, either physically or, figuratively, through ridicule.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 31 (8:31)

Cf. 6:25. As regards the expression la-qulna - here rendered as "we could certainly [ourselves] compose" -it is to be remembered that the verb qala does not always signify only "he said", but also "he asserted" or "expressed an opinion", as well as-in connection with a literary production-"he composed": thus, qala shi'r means "he composed a poem". In the above context, this expression alludes to the oft-repeated (but never fulfilled) boast of the pagan Quraysh that they could produce a poetic message comparable in merit to that of the Qur'an; in its wider sense, it is an allusion to the attitude of many unbelievers towards revealed scriptures in general.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 32 (8:32)

This sarcastic appeal of the unbelievers -referred to several times in the Qur'an -is meant to stress their conviction that the Qur'an is not a divine revelation. According to Anas ibn Malik, these words were first uttered by Abu Jahl, the Prophet's chief opponent at Mecca. who was killed in the battle of Badr (Bukhari).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 33 (8:33)

I.e., in Mecca, before the exodus to Medina.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 34 (8:34)

At the time of the revelation of this surah (the year 2 H.) Mecca was still in the possession of the hostile Quraysh, and no Muslim was allowed to enter it. Owing to their descent from Abraham, the Quraysh considered themselves entitled to the guardianship of the Ka`bah ("the Inviolable House of Worship"), which had been built by Abraham as the first temple ever dedicated to the One God (see surah 2, note 102). The Qur'an refutes this contention, just as it refutes the claim of the children of Israel to being "the chosen people" by virtue of their descent from Abraham. (Cf. in this connection 2:124, and especially the last sentence, "My covenant does not embrace the wrongdoers.") Although they still retained a modicum of belief in God, the Quraysh had entirely forsaken the unitarian faith of Abraham, thus forfeiting any moral claim to the guardianship of the Temple (al-bayt) built by him.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 35 (8:35)

I.e., devoid of all spiritual contents. Some of the early authorities maintain that dancing around the Ka`bah, accompanied by whistling and hand-clapping, was actually a ritual practiced by the pre-Islamic Arabs. Although this explanation is quite plausible, it would appear from the context that the expression "whistling and clapping of hands" is used here metaphorically, to denote the spiritual emptiness of the religious rituals of people who are wont to attribute a quasi-divine efficacy to all manner of circumstantial "forces"-like wealth, power, social status, "luck", etc.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 36 (8:35)

The chastisement or suffering referred to here was their crushing defeat at Badr.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 37 (8:38)

I.e., from their endeavour to turn others way from the path of God and from waging war against the believers.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 38 (8:38)

Lit., "the example (sunnah) of the people of old times has already come to pass": an allusion to the disasters that have overtaken, and are bound to overtake, those who persistently deny moral truths.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 39 (8:39)

I.e., until man is free to worship God. Cf. the identical phrase in 2:193, and the corresponding note. Both these passages stress self-defence -in the widest sense of this word -as the only justification of war.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 40 (8:39)

I.e., He knows their motives, and will requite them according to their merits.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 41 (8:41)

According to verse 1 of this surah, "all spoils of war belong to God and the Apostle", i.e., are to be administered by the authorities of an Islamic state in the interests of the common weal. Most of the great Islamic jurists are of the opinion that whereas four-fifths of all spoils may either be distributed among those who actively took part in the war effort or may be otherwise utilized for the welfare of the community, one-fifth must be reserved for the specific purposes enumerated in the above verse, including a share "for God and the Apostle" (which is obviously a metonym for a government that rules in accordance with the laws of the Qur'an and the teachings of God's Apostle); this latter share is to be used for the exigencies of state administration. Since a full discussion of this complex juridical problem would go far beyond the scope of these explanatory notes, the reader is referred, in particular, to Manar X, 4 ff., where the views of the classical exponents of Islamic jurisprudence are summarized. - For the term ibn as-sabil occurring in this verse, see surah 2, note 145. By "the near of kin and the orphans" apparently the relatives of fallen combatants are meant in this context.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 42 (8:41)

Le., "He can grant you victory or can withhold it from you". The battle of Badr is described here as "the day when the true was distinguished from the false" (yawm al-furqan) because on that occasion a small and poorly armed group of believers utterly destroyed an infinitely better equipped army more than three times its number. The revelation referred to in this connection was God's promise of victory, given in verses 12-14 of this surah. (See also note 38 on 2:53.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 43 (8:42)

Before the beginning of the battle, the Prophet and his followers were encamped in the northern part of the valley of Badr, nearest to Medina, while their enemies, having come from Mecca, occupied its southern part. The Meccan trade caravan, coming from Syria under the leadership of Abu Sufyan, was in the meantime proceeding southwards through the coastal lowlands (see introductory note to this surah).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 44 (8:42)

This is a very free rendering of the elliptic phrase which runs, literally, thus: "And if you had mutually made an appointment, you would indeed have failed to keep the appointment" - i.e., for battle. As already mentioned in the introductory note to this surah, most of the Prophet's followers had been under the impression that their objective was the relatively weak trade caravan, and some of them were dismayed at finding themselves face to face with the powerful Quraysh army advancing from the south.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 45 (8:42)

According to all the commentators, the words interpolated by me between brackets are implied in this highly elliptical sentence. Literally translated, its last words might be rendered as "a thing that was [already] done": meaning that if God decrees a thing, it must inevitably come about, and may therefore be described as already done.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 46 (8:42)

Some of the great commentators understand this sentence in a metaphorical sense, with "destruction" signifying persistence in denying the truth (kufr), and "life" being synonymous with faith. According to this interpretation, the above sentence would have the following meaning: ' . . . so that the denial of the truth on the part of him who has denied it, and the faith of him who has attained to it, might become clearly evident' (Zamakhshari); or "let him who is bent on denying the truth go on denying it after this clear evidence of God's will, and let him who has attained to belief go on believing" (Ibn Is'haq, as quoted by Ibn Kathir). In my opinion, however, it is preferable to interpret the references to death and life in their prima-facie (that is, not metaphorical) sense - namely, as applying to the death or survival of all who took part in the battle of Badr, believers and unbelievers alike: the believers who fell in that battle died conscious of being martyrs in God's cause, and those who survived could now clearly discern God's hand in their victory; while the dead among the deniers of the truth had clearly given their lives for nothing, and those of them who survived must now realize that their crushing defeat was due, in the last resort, to something infinitely greater than the valour of the Muslims (cf. verse 17, and the corresponding notes).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 47 (8:43)

Lit., "in thy dream"-obviously relating to a dream which the Prophet had had just before the encounter at Badr. We have no authentic Tradition to this effect, but the tabi'i Mujahid is quoted as having said, "God had shown the enemies to the Prophet, in a dream, as few; he informed his Companions accordingly, and this encouraged them greatly" (Razi and Ibn Kathir, with minor variants).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 48 (8:43)

Lit., "about the matter" - i.e., about the advisability of giving battle or retreating.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 49 (8:44)

See note 45 above. Since at the time of the actual encounter the Muslims could no longer be in doubt as to the great number of the enemy force, the phrase "He made them appear as few in your eyes" has obviously a metaphorical meaning: it implies that, by that time, the Prophet's followers were so full of courage that the enemy appeared insignificant to them. The Quraysh, on the other hand, were so conscious of their own power and numerical superiority that the Muslims appeared but of little account to them - a mistake which ultimately cost them the battle and a great number of lives.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 50 (8:46)

The relevant word is rih, which literally signifies "wind"; it is used metaphorically to denote "spirit" or "moral strength".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 51 (8:47)

A reference to the Quraysh army which set forth from Mecca under the leadership of Abu Jahl in the conviction that they would destroy the Prophet and his followers. These words imply a warning to the believers, of all times, never to go to war boastfully and for the sake of empty glory.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 52 (8:48)

Lit., "your neighbour"-an expression derived from the ancient Arabian principle that a man is honour-bound to aid and protect his neighbours.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 53 (8:48)

This allegory of Satan's blandishments and of his subsequent abandonment of the sinner occurs, in a more general form, in 59:16.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 54 (8:49)

I.e., into thinking that in spite of their numerical weakness and lack of arms, they could withstand the powerful Meccan army. The term din, often denoting "religion", obviously stands here for the attitude one has towards his religion: in another word, one's faith. "Those in whose hearts was disease" is a reference to the vacillating and faint-hearted among the Prophet's followers, who were afraid of meeting the Quraysh in battle.-The particle idh which introduces this sentence has often the meaning of "when"; in this case, however, it signifies "at the same time".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 55 (8:50)

Or: ". . . when the angels gather in death those who were bent on denying the truth. they strike.. .", etc. -depending on whether one attributes the pronoun in yatawaffa to the angels, which gives the reading "they gather [them] in death", or to God, in which case it means "He causes [them] to die" (Zamakhshari and Razi).-The beating of the sinners' faces and backs is, according to Razi, an allegory of their suffering in the life to come in consequence of their having denied the truth while alive in this world: "They have utter darkness behind them and utter darkness before them-and this is the meaning of the words, '[the angels] strike their faces and their backs'." Most of the commentators assume that this passage refers specifically to the pagan Quraysh who fell in the battle of Badr; but while it undoubtedly does apply to them, there is no reason, in my opinion, to restrict its import to this particular historical event-especially in view of the subsequent passages (up to and including verse 55), which obviously refer to all who are "bent on denying the truth".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 56 (8:53)

I.e., withdraw.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 57 (8:53)

For an explanation of the wide implications of this statement in the context of the law of cause and effect which God has decreed on His creation (and which is described elsewhere in the Qur'an as sunnat Allah. "the way of God"), see my note on the phrase "God does not change men's condition unless they change their inner selves" occurring in 13:11.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 58 (8:55)

Cf. verse 22 of this surah, where the same epithet is applied to human beings "who do not use their reason". In the present instance, it should be noted, the particle fa at the beginning of the phrase fa-hum la yu'minun has the meaning of "and therefore" ("and therefore they do not believe"): thus showing that lack of belief in spiritual verities is a consequence of one's being "bent on denying the truth". Expressed in positive terms, this amounts to the statement that belief in any ethical proposition depends on one's readiness to consider it on its merits and to admit the truth of whatever one's mind judges to be in conformity with other-empirically or intuitively established-truths. As regards the expression alladhina kafaru, the use of the past tense is meant here, as so often in the Qur'an, to stress the element of intention, and is, therefore, consistently rendered by me - wherever the context warrants it - as "those who are bent on denying the truth" (see also surah 2, note 6).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 59 (8:56)

Lit., "every time". The covenants referred to are agreements between the Muslim community and non-Muslim political groupments. Although this passage is addressed, in the first instance, to the Prophet, the "thou" relates here to every follower of the Qur'an and, thus, to the Muslim community of all times. With the above verse, the discourse returns to the subject of war with unbelievers to which most of this surah is devoted. The reference to the unbelievers' "breaking their covenants" has two implications: firstly, that the establishment of covenants (i.e., of peaceful relations) with non-Muslims is not only permissible but, in fact, desirable (cf. verse 61): and, secondly, that the Muslims may resort to war only if and when the other party is openly hostile to them.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 60 (8:57)

Lit., "put to flight, by means of them, those who come after them"; or "terrify through them those who follow them": i.e., "fight against them and inflict an exemplary punishment on them".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 61 (8:58)

The "reason to fear treachery" must not, of course, be based on mere surmise but on clear, objective evidence (Tabari, Baghawi, Razi; also Manar X, 58).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 62 (8:58)

I.e., "renounce the covenant in an equitable manner ('ala sawa')"., Tabari explains this sentence thus: "Before making war on them, inform them that because of the clear evidence of their treachery thou hast renounced the treaty which existed between thee and them, so that both thou and they should know that thou art at war with them." Baghawi, in his commentary on this verse, gives an almost identical interpretation and adds, "so that they should not be under the false impression that thou hast renounced the treaty after having started the war." Thus, the concluding sentence of this verse - "God does not love the treacherous" - is a warning to the believers as well as to their enemies (Manar X, 58 f.).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 63 (8:59)

Lit., "that they have outstripped".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 64 (8:60)

Lit., "tethering of horses" (ribat al-khavl): an expression which signifies "holding in readiness mounted troupes at all points open to enemy invasion (thughur)"; hence, tropically, the over-all maintenance of military preparedness.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 65 (8:60)

Lit., "God's enemy and your enemy" - implying that every "enemy of God" (i.e., everyone who deliberately opposes and seeks to undermine the moral laws laid down by God) is, eo ipso, an enemy of those who believe in Him.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 66 (8:60)

I.e., of resources, efforts and sacrifice of life.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 67 (8:62)

The implication is that "even if they offer peace only with a view to deceiving thee, this [offer of] peace must be accepted, since all judgment [of their intentions] must be based on outward evidence alone" (Razi): in other words, mere suspicion cannot be made an excuse for rejecting an offer of peace.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 68 (8:62)

Lit., "and by the believers": thus signifying the visible means (wasitah) by which God succoured the Prophet.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 69 (8:65)

For an explanation of the phrase harrid al-mu'minin, see surah 4, note 102. Consistently with my interpretation, the words `ala 'l-qital can be rendered here in either of two ways: "[with a view] to fighting" or "when fighting". On the basis of the conventional interpretation of the verb harrid as "urge" or "rouse", the phrase could be translated as "urge the believers to fight": but this, as I have pointed out in the earlier note referred to above, does not convey the true sense of this injunction.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 70 (8:65)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 71 (8:66)

This relates to the time at which the above verse was revealed, namely, immediately after the battle of Badr (2 H.), when the Muslims were extremely weak both in numbers and in equipment, and their community had not yet attained to any significant degree of political organization. Under those circumstances, the Qur'an says, they could not - nor could any Muslim community of later times, in similar circumstances-be expected to bring forth the effort and the efficiency required of a fully developed community of believers; but even so they should be able to stand up to an enemy twice their number. (The proportions one to two, or - as in the preceding verse, one to ten - are not, of course, to be taken literally; as a matter of fact, the Muslims defeated at Badr a much better armed army more than thrice their own number.) The reference to God's having "lightened the burden" imposed on the believers in this respect makes it clear that both this and the preceding verse imply a divine command couched in terms of exhortation, and not a prediction of events to come (Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 72 (8:67)

I.e., as an aftermath of a war in a just cause. As almost always in the Qur'an, an injunction addressed to the Prophet is, by implication, binding on his followers as well. Consequently, the above verse lays down that no person may be taken, or for any time retained, in captivity unless he was taken prisoner in a jihad-that is, a holy war in defence of the Faith or of freedom (regarding which see surah 2, note 167) - and that, therefore, the acquisition of a slave by "peaceful" means, and the keeping of a slave thus acquired, is entirely prohibited: which, to all practical purposes, amounts to a prohibition of slavery as a "social institution". But even with regard to captives taken in war, the Qur'an ordains (in 47:4) that they should be freed after the war is over.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 73 (8:68)

This is apparently a reference to the captives taken by the Muslims at Badr, and the discussions among the Prophet's followers as to what should be done with them. `Umar ibn al-Khattab was of the opinion that they should be killed in revenge for their past misdeeds, and in particular for their persecution of the Muslims before the latter's exodus to Medina; Abu Bakr, on the other hand, pleaded for forgiveness and a release of the prisoners against ransom, supporting his plea with the argument that such an act of mercy might induce some of them to realize the truth of Islam. The Prophet adopted the course of action advocated by Abu Bakr, and released the captives. (The relevant Traditions are quoted by most of the commentators, and especially-with full indication of the sources-by Tabari and Ibn Kathir.) The reference in the above verse to the "tremendous chastisement" that might have befallen the Muslims "but for a decree (kitab) from God that had already gone forth"-i.e., a course of action fore-ordained in God's knowledge makes it clear that the killing of the captives would have been an awesome sin.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 74 (8:70)

I.e., "If God finds in your hearts a disposition to realize the truth of His message, He will bestow on you faith and, thus, the good of the life to come: and this will outweigh by far your defeat in war and the loss of so many of your friends and companions." Although these words relate primarily to the pagan Quraysh taken prisoner in the battle of Badr, they circumscribe the Islamic attitude towards all unbelieving enemies who might fall into the believers' hands in the course of war. For a further discussion of the problem of prisoners of war, see 47:4.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 75 (8:71)

Le., by falsely pretending to a change of heart and an acceptance of Islam in order to be freed from the obligation of paying ransom.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 76 (8:71)

Sc., "and He can, if He so wills, do it again". Thus, the Muslims are enjoined, by implication, to accept the declarations of the captives at their face value, and not to be swayed by mere suspicion of their motives. The possibility of treachery on the part of those captives, and even a later discovery that some of them had indeed played false, should not induce the Muslims to deviate from the course ordained by God.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 77 (8:72)

See surah 2, note 203. Historically, this expression relates to the Meccan Muslims who migrated with the Prophet to Medina; but the sequence makes it clear that the definitions and injunctions provided by this verse are in the nature of a general law, valid for all times. With all this, it should be noted that the hijrah referred to here has a preponderantly physical connotation, implying an emigration from a non-Muslim country to a country ruled by the Law of Islam.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 78 (8:72)

This refers, in the first instance, to the ansar at Medina—that is, to the newly-converted Muslims of that town, who gave shelter and whole-hearted aid to the muhajirfn ("emigrants") from Mecca before and after the Prophet's own migration thither: but, similar to the spiritual meaning attaching to the terms hijrah and muhajir, the expression ansar transcends its purely historical connotation and applies to all believers who aid and give comfort to "those who flee from evil unto God".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 79 (8:72)

Le., those Muslims who, for some reason or other, remain outside the political jurisdiction of the Islamic state. Since not every non-Muslim country is necessarily a "domain of evil", I am rendering the phrase wa-lam yuha jiru as "without having migrated [to your country]".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 80 (8:72)

Lit., "to succour them in religion": implying that they are exposed to persecution on account of their religious beliefs.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 81 (8:72)

Le., a treaty of alliance or of non-interference in each other's internal affairs. Since in such cases an armed intervention of the Islamic state in behalf of the Muslim citizens of a non-Muslim state would constitute a breach of treaty obligations, the Islamic state is not allowed to seek redress by force. A solution of the problem could conceivably be brought about by negotiations between the two states or, alternatively, by an emigration of the persecuted Muslims.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 82 (8:73)

The fact of their being bent on denying the truth of the divine message constitutes, as it were, a common denominator between them, and precludes the possibility of their ever being real friends to the believers. This refers; of course, to relations between communities, and not necessarily between individuals: hence my rendering of the term awliya', in this context, as "allies".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 83 (8:74)

See note 5 on verse 4 of this surah.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 84 (8:75)

Although the expression alladhina amanu (lit., "those who have come to believe") is in the past tense, the words min ba'd ("afterwards" or "henceforth") indicate a future time in relation to the time at which this verse was revealed: hence, the whole sentence beginning with alladhina amanu must be understood as referring to the future (Manar X, 134f.; see also Razi's commentary on this verse).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 85 (8:75)

Le., they, too, shall belong to the brotherhood of Islam, in which the faith held in common supplies the decisive bond between believer and believer.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 86 (8:75)

The classical commentators are of the opinion that this last clause refers to actual family relations, as distinct from the spiritual brotherhood based on a community of faith. According to these commentators, the above sentence abolished the custom which was prevalent among the early Muslims, whereby the ansar ("the helpers" - i.e., the newly-converted Muslims of Medina) concluded, individually, symbolic ties of brotherhood with the muhajirin ("the emigrants" from Mecca), who, almost without exception, arrived at Medina in a state of complete destitution: ties of brotherhood, that is, which entitled every muhajir to a share in the property of his "brother" from among the ansar, and, in the event of the latter's death, to a share in the inheritance left by him. The above verse is said to have prohibited such arrangements by stipulating that only actual close relations should henceforth have a claim to inheritance. To my mind, however, this interpretation is not convincing. Although the expression ulu 'l-arham is derived from the noun rahm (also spelt rihm and rahim), which literally signifies "womb", one should not forget that it is tropically used in the sense of "kinship", "relationship" or "close relationship" in general (i.e., not merely blood-relationship). Thus, "in the classical language, ulu 'l-arham means any relations: and in law, any relations that have no portion [of the inheritances termed fara'id]" (Lane III, 1056, citing, among other authorities, the Taj al-'Arus). In the present instance, the reference to "close relations" comes at the end of a passage which centres on the injunction that the believers must be "the friends and protectors (awliya') of one another", and that all later believers shall, similarly, be regarded as members of the Islamic brotherhood. If the reference to "close relations" were meant to be taken in its literal sense and conceived as alluding to laws of inheritance, it would be quite out of tune with the rest of the passage, which stresses the bonds of faith among true believers, as well as the moral obligations arising from these bonds. In my opinion, therefore, the above verse has no bearing on laws of inheritance, but is meant to summarize, as it were, the lesson of the preceding verses: All true believers, of all times, form one single community in the deepest sense of this word; and all who are thus closely related in spirit have the highest claim on one another in accordance with God's decree that "all believers are brethren" (49:10).

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (8:1)

God and the messenger = The Central authority. After the exalted messenger, the Central authority of the truly Islamic State will equitably allocate all funds at their disposal

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (8:4)

Ghafarah = Helmet = Protection = Shielding = Forgiveness = Cover

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (8:10)

These Divine Attributes should draw attention to organized force and sound planning

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (8:11)

Fear of Satan: Concern about the satanic act of the enemy as they had confiscated the water wells

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (8:12)

Fawq al-a'naaq and Kulla banan are exactly similar allegories as we find in 47:4. No commander, during active combat with swords and arrows, would order his soldiers to aim only for 'above the necks' and 'at every one of their finger tips'. Would not that be a sure way to lose the battle?

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (8:17)

'God did' = Being the Supreme Controller, God assigns to Himself all that happens in the Universe.
Balaa-an-Hasana = Tribulation ending graciously = Blessing in disguise

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (8:22)

2:18, 16:76

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (8:23)

The perceptual and conceptual faculties, both must be used for understanding and attaining guidance.
17:36

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (8:24)

53:24. His guidance intervenes between righteousness and desires

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 10 (8:28)

Spend your wealth on fellow humans and provide good education and training to your children

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 11 (8:35)

House 2:125. Those who plunge in ritualistic worship, trail behind in action and invite suffering

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 12 (8:37)

The clans of rejecters will join hands to fight the believers, but the battleground will become Hell for them

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 13 (8:41)

Families of the slain soldiers are included in context and also in Yatama, those left alone

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 14 (8:42)

My interpolation of the locations can easily be discerned on a good map

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 15 (8:45)

8:10

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 16 (8:52)

Zanb = Tail = Trailing behind = Sticking a slander behind someone's back

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 17 (8:53)

13:11

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 18 (8:62)

An offer of peace should not be rejected for undue suspicion

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 19 (8:67)

The captives must be freed at the conclusion of hostilities by way of kindness, for ransom, or by exchange of prisoners of war. There is no other option. 47:4

Rashad Khalifa - The Final Testament

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 1 (8:12)

All wars are governed by the basic rule in 60:8-9.

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 2 (8:17)

Believing in God necessitates believing in His qualities, one of which is that He is doing everything. Without knowing God, there is no belief(23:84-90).Bad things are incurred by us, and executed by Satan, in accordance with God'slaws (4:78-79,42:30).

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 3 (8:24)

See Appendix 17. When the righteous exit their bodies, they go straight to Heaven.

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 5 (8:30)

God chose His final prophet, Muhammad, from the strongest tribe of Arabia. It was tribal laws and traditions that prevented the disbelievers--byGod's leave--from killing Muhammad. Similarly, it was God's will to moveHis Messenger of the Covenant from the Middle East, where he would have beenkilled, to the U.S.A. where God's message can flourish and reach every cornerof the globe. This is mathematically confirmed: the sura & verse numbers= $8+30=19 \times 2$.

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 6 (8:35)

All religious practices in Islam came to us through Abraham; when the Quran was revealed, all rites in "Submission" were already in existence(21:73,22:78).

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 7 (8:36)

The idol worshiping leaders of corrupted Islam, Saudi Arabia, have allocated huge sums of money annually to fight God and His miracle. For example,the famous Lebanese publisher Daar Al-` Ilm Lil-

Malaayeen (Knowledge for theMillions) published the Arabic version of "The Miracle of the Quran" in March1983. The Saudis bought all the copies and destroyed them.

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

Translations

Chapter/Verse

Refresh

Search

Search

<< Prev 9:1-129 Next >>

Edip-Layth	9:1 This is an ultimatum from God and His messenger to those who set up partners with whom you had entered a treaty. ¹
The Monotheist Group	9:1 This is a revocation from God and His messenger to those with whom you have made a treaty from among those who have set up partners.
Muhammad Asad	9:1 DISAVOWAL by God and His Apostle [is herewith announced] unto those who ascribe divinity to aught beside God, [and] with whom you [O: believers] have made a covenant. ¹
Rashad Khalifa	9:1 An ultimatum is herein issued from GOD and His messenger to the idol worshipers who enter into a treaty with you.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:1 Freedom from obligation is proclaimed from God and His messenger towards those of the Pagans with whom you had made a treaty. ¹
Transliteration	9:1 Bara'atun mina All ahiwarasoolihi il a alla theena AA a hadtum minaaalmushrikeena
A	9:1 براءة من الله ورسوله الى الذين عهدتم من المشركين
Edip-Layth	9:2 Therefore, roam the land for four months and know that you will not escape God, and that God will humiliate the ingrates.
The Monotheist Group	9:2 Therefore, roam the land for four months and know that you will not escape God, and that God will humiliate the rejecters.
Muhammad Asad	9:2 [Announce unto them:] "Go, then, [freely] about the earth for four months ² - but know that you can never elude God, and that, verily, God shall bring disgrace upon all who refuse to acknowledge the truth!"
Rashad Khalifa	9:2 Therefore, roam the earth freely for four months, and know that you cannot escape from GOD, and that GOD humiliates the disbelievers.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:2 (O Idolaters, who have repeatedly violated the peace treaties!) Travel freely in the land for four months, and know that you cannot escape God, and that God will bring disgrace to the rejecters of the truth. ²

Transliteration	9:2 Faseehoo fee al-ar di arbaAAataashhurin wa iAAlamoo annakum ghayru muAAajizee Allāhiwaanna Allāha mukhzee alkafireena
A	9:2 فسيحوا في الارض اربعة اشهر واعلموا انكم غير معجزى الله وان الله مخزى الكافرين
Edip-Layth	9:3 A declaration from God and His messenger to the people, on this, the peak day of the Pilgrimage: "That God and His messenger are free from obligation to those who set up partners." If you repent, then it is better for you, but if you turn away, then know that you will not escape God. Promise those who have rejected of a painful retribution; ²
The Monotheist Group	9:3 And a declaration from God and His messenger to the people on the day of the greater Pilgrimage: "That God and His messenger are innocent from all those who set up partners." If you repent, then it is better for you, and if you turn away, then know that you will not escape God. And give news to those who have rejected of a painful retribution.
Muhammad Asad	9:3 And a proclamation from God and His Apostle [is herewith made] unto all mankind on this day of the Greatest Pilgrimage: ³ "God disavows all who ascribe divinity to aught beside Him, and [so does] His Apostle. Hence, if you repent, it shall be for your own good; and if you turn away, then know that you can never elude God!" And unto those who are bent on denying the truth give thou [O Prophet] the tiding of grievous chastisement.
Rashad Khalifa	9:3 A proclamation is herein issued from GOD and His messenger to all the people on the great day of pilgrimage, that GOD has disowned the idol worshipers, and so did His messenger. Thus, if you repent, it would be better for you. But if you turn away, then know that you can never escape from GOD. Promise those who disbelieve a painful retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:3 And a proclamation from God and His messenger is herewith made to all mankind on this day of the Greatest Pilgrimage (9th day of the 12th lunar month, Zil-Hajjah). God disowns the idolaters, and so does His messenger. So, if you repent, it will be better for you. But if you turn away from repentance, then know that you cannot escape God. (O Messenger!) Give tiding of an awful retribution to those who are bent upon opposing the truth.
Transliteration	9:3 Waathanun mina All ahiwarasoolihi il a l Innasi yawma al hajjial-akbari anna Allāha baree-on mina almushrikeenawarasooluhu fa-in tubtum fahuwa khayrun lakum wa-in tawallaytumfa iAAlamoo annakum ghayru muAAajizee Allāhiwabashshiri allatheena kafaroo biAAaathabin aleem in
A	9:3 واذن من الله ورسوله الى الناس يوم الحج الاكبر ان الله برىء من المشركين ورسوله فان تبتم فهو خير لكم وان توليتم فاعلموا انكم غير معجزى الله وبشر الذين كفروا بعذاب اليم
Edip-Layth	9:4 Except for those with whom you had a treaty from among those who have set up partners if they did not reduce anything from it nor did they plan to attack you; you shall fulfill their terms until they expire. God loves the righteous.
The Monotheist Group	9:4 Except for those with whom you had a treaty from among those who have set up partners if they did not reduce anything from it nor did they plan to attack you; you shall continue the treaty with them until its expiry. God loves the righteous.
Muhammad Asad	9:4 But excepted shall be ⁴ -from among those who ascribe divinity to aught beside God - [people] with whom you [O believers] have made a covenant and who thereafter have in no wise failed to fulfil their obligations towards you, and neither have aided anyone against you: observe, then, your covenant with them until the end of the term agreed with them. Verily, God loves those who are conscious of Him.

Rashad Khalifa	9:4 If the idol worshipers sign a peace treaty with you, and do not violate it, nor band together with others against you, you shall fulfill your treaty with them until the expiration date. GOD loves the righteous.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:4 Except those idolaters with whom you have a treaty and they have not subsequently failed you, nor have they helped others against you. You shall fulfill your treaty with them till their term. Surely, God loves those who are mindful of His laws.
Transliteration	9:4 Illa alla theena AA ahdattummina almushrikeena thumma lam yanqu sookum shay-an walam yu thahirooAAalaykum a hadan faatimmoo ilayhim AAahdahum ilamuddatihim inna Allaha yuhibbu almuttaqeen
A	9:4 الا الذين عهدتم من المشركين ثم لم ينقصوكم شيئا ولم يظهروا عليكم احدا فاتموا اليهم عهدهم الى مدتهم ان الله يحب المتقين
Edip-Layth	9:5 So when the restricted months have passed, then you may kill those who have set up partners wherever you find them, take them, surround them, and stand against them at every point. If they repent, hold the contact prayer, and contribute towards betterment, then you shall leave them alone. God is Forgiving, Compassionate.
The Monotheist Group	9:5 So when the restricted months have passed, then you may kill those who have set up partners wherever you find them, and take them, and surround them, and stand against them at every point. If they repent, and uphold the communion, and contribute towards betterment, then you shall leave them alone. God is Forgiving, Merciful.
Muhammad Asad	9:5 And so, when the sacred months are over ⁶ , slay those who ascribe divinity to aught beside God wherever you may come upon them, ⁷ and take them captive, and besiege them, and lie in wait for them at every conceivable place ⁸ ! Yet if they repent, and take to prayer, and render the purifying dues, let them go their way: for, behold, God is much forgiving, a dispenser of grace. ⁹
Rashad Khalifa	9:5 Once the Sacred Months are past, (and they refuse to make peace) you may kill the idol worshipers when you encounter them, punish them, and resist every move they make. If they repent and observe the Contact Prayers (Salat) and give the obligatory charity (Zakat), you shall let them go. GOD is Forgiver, Most Merciful.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:5 When the four Sacred Months are over and if the idolaters are still aggressing, (neither becoming law-abiding citizens of the State, nor emigrating), subdue them whichever tribe they may belong to, take them captive, and besiege them, and prepare for them ambush. But if they repent from aggression, and help in the consolidation of the Divine System and in setting up the Economic Order of Zakaat, then leave their way free. Surely, God is Forgiving Merciful (so shall you be). ³
Transliteration	9:5 Fa-itha insalakha al-ashhuru al hurumufaoqtuloo almushrikeena haythu wajadtumoohum wakhu thoohumwaohsuroohum wa oqAAudoo lahum kulla marsadinfa-in t aboo waaq amoo a lssalatawaaatawoo a lzzakata fakhalloo sabeelahum innaAllaha ghafoorun raheemun
A	9:5 فاذا انسلك الاشهر الحرم فاقتلوا المشركين حيث وجدتموهم وخذوهم واحصروهم واقعدوا لهم كل مرصد فان تابوا واقاموا الصلوة وءاتوا الزكاة فخلوا سبيلهم ان الله غفور رحيم

Do Not Let Those Who Violate the Peace Treaty Succeed

Edip-Layth	9:6 If any of those who have set up partners seeks your protection, then you may protect him so that he may hear the words of God, then let him reach his sanctuary. This is because they are a people who do not know.
The Monotheist Group	9:6 And if any of those who have set up partners seeks your protection, then you may protect him so that he may hear the words of God, then let him reach his sanctity. This is because they are a people who do not know.
Muhammad Asad	9:6 And if any of those who ascribe divinity to aught beside God seeks thy protection, ¹⁰ grant him protection, so that he might [be able to] hear the word of God [from thee]; and thereupon convey him to a place where he can feel secure: ¹¹ this, because they [may be] people who [sin only because they] do not know [the truth].
Rashad Khalifa	9:6 If one of the idol worshipers sought safe passage with you, you shall grant him safe passage, so that he can hear the word of GOD, then send him back to his place of security. That is because they are people who do not know.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:6 (O Messenger!) If anyone of the idolaters seeks your protection or a safe passage, grant him protection from the State. Convey to him the Word of God, and then send him to a place where he feels safe and secure. This kindness on your part is mandatory because they are people who have not yet seen the beauty of the Divine System.
Transliteration	9:6 Wa-in a h adun mina almushrikeena istaja r akafaajirhu h atta yasmaAAa kal a ma All a hithumma ablighhu ma/manahu th alika bi-annahum qawmun l a yaAAalamoona
A	9:6 وان احد من المشركين استجارك فاجره حتى يسمع كلم الله ثم ابليه مامنه ذلك بانهم قوم لا يعلمون
Edip-Layth	9:7 How can those who have set up partners have a pledge with God and with His messenger? Except for those with whom you made a pledge near the Restricted Temple, as long as they are upright with you, then you are upright with them. God loves the righteous.
The Monotheist Group	9:7 How can those who have set up partners have a pledge with God and with His messenger? Except for those with whom you made a pledge near the Sacred Temple, as long as they are upright with you, then you are upright with them. God loves the righteous.
Muhammad Asad	9:7 HOW COULD they who ascribe divinity to aught beside God be granted a covenant by God and His Apostle, ¹² unless it be those [of them] with whom you [O believers] have made a covenant in the vicinity of the Inviolable House of Worship? ¹³ [As for the latter,] so long as they remain true to you, be true to them: for, verily, God loves those who are conscious of Him.
Rashad Khalifa	9:7 How can the idol worshipers demand any pledge from GOD and from His messenger? Exempted are those who have signed a peace treaty with you at the Sacred Masjid. If they honor and uphold such a treaty, you shall uphold it as well. GOD loves the righteous.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:7 How can there be a treaty with God and His messenger for the idolaters (when they have repeatedly violated it)? Exempted are those with whom you make a treaty at the Sacred Masjid. If they honor and uphold such a treaty, so shall you. God loves those who live upright.
Transliteration	9:7 Kayfa yakoonu ilmushrikeena AAahdun AAindaAll a hi waAAinda rasoolihi ill a allath e ena AA a hadtumAAinda almasjidi al h arami fam a istaq a moolakum faistaqeemoo lahum inna All a ha yu h ibbualmuttaqeena

A	9:7 كيف يكون للمشركين عهد عند الله وعند رسوله الا الذين عهدتم عند المسجد الحرام فما استقموا لكم فاستقيموا لهم ان الله يحب المتقين
Edip-Layth	9:8 How is it that when they come upon you they disregard all ties, either that of kinship or of pledge. They seek to please you with their words, but their hearts deny, and most of them are wicked.
The Monotheist Group	9:8 How is it that when they come upon you they disregard all ties, either those of kinship or of pledge. They seek to please you with their words, but their hearts deny, and most of them are wicked.
Muhammad Asad	9:8 How [else could it be]? ¹⁴ -since, if they [who are hostile to you] were to overcome you, they would not respect any tie [with you,] nor any obligation to protect [you]. ¹⁵ They seek to please you with their mouths, the while their hearts remain averse [to you]; and most of them are iniquitous.
Rashad Khalifa	9:8 How can they (demand a pledge) when they never observed any rights of kinship between you and them, nor any covenant, if they ever had a chance to prevail. They pacified you with lip service, while their hearts were in opposition, and most of them are wicked.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:8 How can there be a treaty seeing that if they get the upper hand against you, they would respect no ties and no pacts with you? They pleased you with their speech but their hearts opposed you. Most of them defy their pledges. ⁴
Transliteration	9:8 Kayfa wa-in ya th haroo AAalaykumla yarquboo feekum illan wal a th immatan yurdoonakumbi-afw ah ihim wata/b a quloobuhum waaktharuhum f asiqoona
A	9:8 كيف وان يظهروا عليكم لا يرقبوا فيكم الا ولا ذمة يرضونكم بافوههم وتابى قلوبهم واكثرهم فسقون
Edip-Layth	9:9 They purchased with God's signs a small price, so they turn others from His path. Evil indeed is what they used to do.
The Monotheist Group	9:9 They purchased with God's revelations a small price, so they turn others from His path. Evil indeed is what they used to do.
Muhammad Asad	9:9 God's messages have they bartered away for a trifling gain, and have thus turned away from His path: evil, behold, is all that they are wont to do,
Rashad Khalifa	9:9 They traded away GOD's revelations for a cheap price. Consequently, they repulsed the people from His path. Miserable indeed is what they did!
Shabbir Ahmed	9:9 They trade away God's revelations for petty gains and hinder people from His path. Their deeds spread inequity and confusion in the society. ⁵
Transliteration	9:9 Ishtaraw bi- ay ati All ah ithamanan qaleelan fa s addoo AAan sabeelihi innahum s ama k anoo yaAAamaloona
A	9:9 اشتروا بآيت الله ثمنا قليلا فصدوا عن سبيله انهم ساء ما كانوا يعملون
Edip-Layth	9:10 They neither respect the ties of kinship nor a pledge for any those who acknowledge. These are the transgressors.
The Monotheist Group	9:10 They do not respect those who are believers, nor a kinship, nor a pledge. These are the transgressors.
Muhammad Asad	9:10 respecting no tie and no protective obligation with regard to a believer; and it is they, they who transgress the bounds of what is right! ¹⁶

Rashad Khalifa	9:10 They never observe any rights of kinship towards any believer, nor do they uphold their covenants; these are the real transgressors.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:10 They respect no tie and no pact regarding a believer. They are the ones given to excesses.
Transliteration	9:10 La yarquboona fee mu/minin illan wal athimmatan waol a-ika humu almuAAatadoona
A	9:10 لا يرقبون في مؤمن الا ولا ذمة واولئك هم المعتدون
Edip-Layth	9:11 If they repent, and they hold the contact prayer, and they contribute towards betterment, then they are your brothers in the system. We explain the signs for a people who know.
The Monotheist Group	9:11 If they repent, and they uphold the communion, and they contribute towards betterment, then they are your brothers in the system. We explain the revelations for a people who know.
Muhammad Asad	9:11 Yet if they repent, and take to prayer, and render the purifying dues, they become your brethren in faith: ¹⁷ and clearly do We spell out these messages unto people of [innate] knowledge!
Rashad Khalifa	Repentance: Cleaning the Slate 9:11 If they repent and observe the Contact Prayers (Salat) and give the obligatory charity (Zakat), then they are your brethren in religion. We thus explain the revelations for people who know.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:11 If they mend their ways, (and as law-abiding citizens), help consolidate the Divine System, and the Economic Order of Zakaat, then they are your brothers in the System of Life. We explain Our messages for those who wish to learn. ⁶
Transliteration	9:11 Fa-in t aboo waaq amoo a lssalatatawatawoo a lzzakata fa-ikhw anukum feealddeeni wanufassilu al-ayatiliqawmin yaAAlamoonaa
A	9:11 فان تابوا واقاموا الصلوة وءاتوا الزكوة فآخونكم في الدين ونفصل الءآيت لقوم يعلمون
Edip-Layth	9:12 If they break their oaths after their pledge, and they taunt and attack your system; then you may kill the chiefs of rejection. Their oaths are nothing to them, perhaps they will then cease.
The Monotheist Group	9:12 And if they break their oaths after making them, and they denounce the authority of your system; then you may kill the chiefs of rejection. Their oaths are nothing to them, perhaps they will then cease.
Muhammad Asad	9:12 But if they break their solemn pledges after having concluded a covenant, ¹⁸ and revile your religion, then fight against these archetypes of faithlessness ¹⁹ who, behold, have no [regard for their own] pledges, so that they might desist [from aggression].
Rashad Khalifa	9:12 If they violate their oaths after pledging to keep their covenants, and attack your religion, you may fight the leaders of paganism - you are no longer bound by your covenant with them - that they may refrain.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:12 If they keep breaking their pledges after their treaty, and assail your System, then fight the chiefs of the disbelievers. They have no respect for their binding oaths. This action will help restrain them from aggression.

Transliteration	9:12 Wa-in nakathoo aym anahum min baAAadiAAahdihim wa taAAanoo fee deenikum faq atilooa-immata alkufri innahum l a aym ana lahumlaAAallahum yantahoona
A	9:12 وان نكثوا ايمانهم من بعد عهدهم وطعنوا في دينكم فقتلوا ائمة الكفر انهم لا ايمان لهم لعلهم ينتهون
Edip-Layth	9:13 Would you not fight a people who broke their oaths and intended to expel the messenger, especially while they were the ones who attacked you first? Do you fear them? It is God who is more worthy to be feared if you are those who acknowledge.
The Monotheist Group	9:13 Would you not fight a people who broke their oaths and intended to expel the messenger, especially while they were the ones who attacked you first? Do you fear them? It is God who is more worthy to be feared if you are believers.
Muhammad Asad	9:13 Would you, perchance, fail to fight against people who have broken their solemn pledges, and have done all that they could to drive the Apostle away, and have been first to attack you? Do you hold them in awe? Nay, it is God alone of whom you ought to stand in awe, ²¹ if you are [truly] believers! 20
Rashad Khalifa	9:13 Would you not fight people who violated their treaties, tried to banish the messenger, and they are the ones who started the war in the first place? Are you afraid of them? GOD is the One you are supposed to fear, if you are believers.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:13 Will you not fight a people who keep breaking their solemn pledges and did everything to drive out the messenger, and did attack you first? What! Do you fear them? Nay, it is God alone Whom you should more justly fear, if you are truly believers.
Transliteration	9:13 Ala tuq atiloona qawmannakathoo aym anahum wahammoo bi-ikhr aji alrrasooliwahum badaookum awwala marratin atakhshawnahum fa Allahuahaquq an takhshawhu in kuntum mu/mineena
A	9:13 الا تقتلون قوما نكثوا ايمانهم وهموا باخراج الرسول وهم بدعوكم اول مرة اتخشونهم فالله احق ان تخشوه ان كنتم مومنين
Edip-Layth	9:14 Fight them; perhaps God will punish them by your hands, humiliate them, grant you victory over them and heal the chests of an acknowledging people,
The Monotheist Group	9:14 Fight them; perhaps God will punish them by your hands and humiliate them and grant you victory over them and heal the chests of the believing people.
Muhammad Asad	9:14 Fight against them! God will chastise them by your hands, and will bring disgrace upon them, and will succour you against them; and He will soothe the bosoms of those who believe,
Rashad Khalifa	9:14 You shall fight them, for GOD will punish them at your hands, humiliate them, grant you victory over them, and cool the chests of the believers.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:14 Fight them! God will punish them at your hands, and He will humiliate them, and give you victory over them, and He will soothe the bosoms of those who believe. (Soothe from the persecution they have undergone).
Transliteration	9:14 Qatiloohum yuAAa ththibhumu All ahubi-aydeekum wayukhzihim wayansurkum AAalayhim wayashfi sudooraqawmin mu/mineena
A	9:14 قتلوهم يعذبهم الله بايدكم ويخزهم وينصركم عليهم ويشف صدور قوم مومنين

Edip-Layth	9:15 To remove the anger from their hearts; God pardons whom he pleases. God is Knowledgeable, Wise.
The Monotheist Group	9:15 And to remove the anger from their hearts; God pardons whom he pleases. God is Knowledgeable, Wise.
Muhammad Asad	9:15 and will remove the wrath that is in their hearts. And God will turn in His mercy unto whom He wills: ²² for, God is all-knowing, wise.
Rashad Khalifa	9:15 He will also remove the rage from the believers' hearts. GOD redeems whomever He wills. GOD is Omniscient, Most Wise.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:15 He will remove the rage from their hearts. (The invitation is always open.) God accepts corrective action according to His law. For God is All Knower, All Wise.
Transliteration	9:15 Wayu th hib ghay th aquloo ^{bi} him wayatoobu All a hu AAal a man yash a owaAll a hu AAaleemun h akeemun
A	9:15 وَيَذْهَبُ غِيظَ قُلُوبِهِمْ وَيَتُوبُ اللَّهُ عَلَىٰ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ حَكِيمٌ
Edip-Layth	9:16 Or did you think that you would be left alone? God will come to know those of you who strived and did not take other than God and His messenger and those who acknowledge as helpers. God is Ever-aware in what you do.
The Monotheist Group	9:16 Or did you think that you would be left alone? God will come to distinguish those of you who strived and did not take other than God and His messenger and the believers as helpers. God is Expert in what you do.
Muhammad Asad	9:16 Do you [O believers] think that you will be spared ²³ unless God takes cognizance of your having striven hard [in His cause] ²⁴ without seeking help from any but God and His Apostle and those who believe in Him? ²⁵ For, God is aware of all that you do.
Rashad Khalifa	9:16 The Inevitable Test Did you think that you will be left alone without GOD distinguishing those among you who strive, and never ally themselves with GOD's enemies, or the enemies of His messenger, or the enemies of the believers? GOD is fully Cognizant of everything you do.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:16 Do you think that you will be left alone without God distinguishing those among you who strive in His cause, and take none for ally except God, His messenger, and the believers? And God is Aware of what you do.
Transliteration	9:16 Am h asibtum an tutrakoo walamm a yaAAlami All a hu alla th eena j a hadoo minkumwalam yattakhi th oo min dooni All a hi wal a rasooli ^{hi} wal a almu/mineena waleejatan waAll a hukhabeerun bima a taAAamaloona
A	9:16 أَمْ حَسِبْتُمْ أَنْ تُتْرَكُوا وَلَمَّا يَعْلَمِ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ جَاهَدُوا مِنْكُمْ وَلَمْ يَتَّخِذُوا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ وَلَا رَسُولِهِ وَلَا الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَلِيجَةً وَاللَّهُ خَبِيرٌ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ
Edip-Layth	9:17 It was not for those who have set up partners to maintain God's temples while they bear witness over their own rejection. For these, their works have fallen, and in the fire they will abide.
The Monotheist Group	9:17 It was not for those who have set up partners to maintain God's temples while they bear witness over their own rejection. For these, their works have fallen, and in the Fire they will abide.
	9:17 IT IS NOT for those who ascribe divinity to aught beside God to visit or

Muhammad Asad	tend ²⁶ God's houses of worship, the while [by their beliefs] they bear witness against themselves that they are denying the truth. It is they whose works shall come to nought, and they who in the fire shall abide ²⁷
Rashad Khalifa	9:17 The idol worshipers are not to frequent the masjids of GOD, while confessing their disbelief. These have nullified their works, and they will abide forever in Hell.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:17 Those who associate others with God, (whether idols, religious leaders or temporal leaders), shall not administer God's Masjids, the Centers of the Divine System - while they witness against their own 'self' denial of truth. All their works are in vain and they will abide in the fire. ⁷
Transliteration	9:17 Ma k ana lilmushrikeena anyaaAmuroo mas ajida All ahi sh ahideena AAalaanfusihim bi alkufri ol a-ika habitaAAamaluham wafee a Innari hum khalidoona
A	9:17 ما كان للمشركين ان يعمروا مسجد الله شهيدين على انفسهم بالكفر اولئك حبطت اعمالهم وفي النار هم خلدون
Edip-Layth	9:18 Rather, the temples of God are maintained by the one who acknowledges God and the Last day, holds the contact prayer, contributes towards betterment, and he does not fear except God. It is these that will be of the guided ones.
The Monotheist Group	9:18 Rather, the temples of God are maintained by he who believes in God and the Last Day, and he upholds the communion, and he contributes towards betterment, and he does not fear except God. It is these that will be of the guided ones.
Muhammad Asad	9:18 Only he should visit or tend God's houses of worship who believes in God and the Last Day, and is constant in prayer, and spends in charity, and stands in awe of none but God: for [only such as] these may hope to be among the right-guided! ²⁸
Rashad Khalifa	9:18 The only people to frequent GOD's masjids are those who believe in GOD and the Last Day, and observe the Contact Prayers (Salat), and give the obligatory charity (Zakat), and do not fear except GOD. These will surely be among the guided ones.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:18 Only those people are fit to administer the Masjids (the Centers of the Divine Order), who have unwavering belief in God and the Last Day. They strive to establish the Divine System, and to set up the Just Economic System of Zakaat and fear none but God. They are the only ones who are rightly guided.
Transliteration	9:18 Innama yaAAamuru mas ajida All ahiman amana bi Allahi wa alyawmi al-akhiriwaaqama a lssalata wa ataazzakata walam yakhsha ill a All ahafaAAasa ola-ika an yakoonoo mina almuhtadeena
A	9:18 انما يعمر مسجد الله من اامن بالله واليوم الءاخر واقام الصلوة وءاتى الزكوة ولم يخش الا الله فعسى اولئك ان يكونوا من المهتدين
Edip-Layth	9:19 Have you made serving drink to the pilgrims and the maintenance of the Restricted Temple the same as one who acknowledges God and the Last day, who strives in the cause of God? They are not the same with God. God does not guide the wicked people.
The Monotheist Group	9:19 Have you made the watering of the pilgrim and the maintenance of the Sacred Temple the same as one who believes in God and the Last Day and he strives in the cause of God? They are not the same with God. And God does not guide the wicked people.

Muhammad Asad	9:19 Do you, perchance, regard the [mere] giving of water to pilgrims and the tending of the Inviolable House of Worship as being equal to [the works of] one who believes in God and the Last Day and strives hard in God's cause? These [things] are not equal in the sight of God. And God does not grace with His guidance people who [deliberately] do wrong.
Rashad Khalifa	Question to the Arabs 9:19 Have you considered the watering of the pilgrims and caring for the Sacred Masjid a substitute for believing in GOD and the Last Day, and striving in the cause of GOD? They are not equal in the sight of GOD. GOD does not guide the wicked people.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:19 Do you consider providing water to pilgrims and caring for the Sacred Masjid (in Makkah) equal to the work of him who has Conviction in God and the Last Day and then strives in the cause of God? They are not equal in the sight of God. God does not guide those who displace action with ritual. ⁸
Transliteration	9:19 AjaAAaltum siq ayata al hajjiwaAAimarata almasjidi al harami kaman amanabiAllahi wa alyawmi al- akhiri waj ahadafee sabeeli All ahi l a yastawoona AAinda AllahiwaAllahu la yahdee alqawma al <th>th</th> alimeena	th
A	9:19 اجعلتم سقاية الحاج وعمارة المسجد الحرام كمن ءامن بالله واليوم الءآخر وجهد فى سبيل الله لا يستون عند الله والله لا يهدى القوم الظلمين
Edip-Layth	9:20 Those who acknowledged, emigrated, strived in the cause of God with their wealth and their lives are in a greater degree with God. These are the winners.
The Monotheist Group	9:20 Those who believed and emigrated and strived in the cause of God with their wealth and their lives are in a greater degree with God. These are the winners.
Muhammad Asad	9:20 Those who believe, and who have forsaken the domain of evil ³⁰ and have striven hard in God's cause with their possessions and their lives have the highest rank in the sight of God; and it is they, they who shall triumph [in the end]!
Rashad Khalifa	Good News 9:20 Those who believe, and emigrate, and strive in the cause of GOD with their money and their lives, are far greater in rank in the sight of GOD. These are the winners.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:20 Those who attained belief, and left their homes, and strove in the cause of God with their wealth and their lives, have a much greater rank with God. They are the ones who are truly triumphant.
Transliteration	9:20 Allat ^h heena amanoo wah ajaroowajahadoo fee sabeeli All ahi bi-amwalihimwaanfusihim aAA th amu darajatan AAinda All ahiwaola-ika humu alf a-izoonaa
A	9:20 الذين ءامنوا وهاجروا وجهدوا فى سبيل الله بامولهم وانفسهم اعظم درجة عند الله واولئك هم الفائزون
Edip-Layth	9:21 Their Lord gives them good news of a Mercy from Him, acceptance, and gardens that are for them in which there is permanent bliss.
The Monotheist Group	9:21 Their Lord gives them good news of a Mercy from Him, and acceptance, and estates that are for them in which there is permanent bliss.
	9:21 Their Sustainer gives them the glad tiding of the grace [that flows] from

Muhammad Asad	Him, and of [His] goodly acceptance, and of the gardens which await them, full of lasting bliss,
Rashad Khalifa	9:21 Their Lord gives them good news: mercy and approval from Him, and gardens where they rejoice in everlasting bliss.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:21 Their Lord gives them good news of His grace, His Approval, and the Gardens with lasting delight and bliss.
Transliteration	9:21 Yubashshiruhum rabbuhum bira h _u matinminhu wari _d wa _n in wajanna _t in lahum feeha _n aAeemun muqee _m un
A	9:21 يبشرهم ربهم برحمة منه ورضون وجنت لهم فيها نعيم مقيم
Edip-Layth	9:22 They will abide in it eternally. God has a great reward.
The Monotheist Group	9:22 They will abide in it eternally. God has a great reward.
Muhammad Asad	9:22 therein to abide beyond the count of time. Verily, with God is a mighty reward!
Rashad Khalifa	9:22 Eternally they abide therein. GOD possesses a great recompense.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:22 They will live there forever. Surely, with God is immense reward.
Transliteration	9:22 Kha _l ideena feeha _a abadan innaAlla _h a AAindah _u ajrun AAa _t heem _u n
A	9:22 خلدین فیہا ابدان ان اللہ عنده اجر عظیم
Edip-Layth	9:23 O you who acknowledge, do not take your fathers nor brothers as allies if they prefer rejection to acknowledgement. Whoever of you takes them as such, then these are the wicked.
The Monotheist Group	9:23 O you who believe, do not take your fathers nor brothers as allies if they prefer rejection to belief. And whoever of you takes them as such, then these are the wicked.
Muhammad Asad	9:23 O YOU who have attained to faith! Do not take your fathers and your brothers for allies if a denial of the truth is dearer to them than faith: for those of you who ally themselves with them-it is they, they who are evildoers! ³¹
Rashad Khalifa	If You Have to Make a Choice 9:23 O you who believe, do not ally yourselves even with your parents and your siblings, if they prefer disbelieving over believing. Those among you who ally themselves with them are transgressing.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:23 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! Even if your parents and siblings take pleasure in disbelief rather than faith, do not take them as allies. For, those of you who ally themselves with them, it is those who are wrongdoers. (The Divine Ideology shall take precedence over all other bonds.)
Transliteration	9:23 Ya ayyuh a _a alla _a theena _a amanoola _a tattakhi _a thoo _a aba _a kum wa-ikhwa _n akumawliya _a ini ista _a habboo _a alkufra AAa _a l a _a al-eema _n iwanaman yatawallahum minkum faola _a -ika humu al _{th} tha _l imoona
A	9:23 ياايها الذين ءامنوا لا تتخذوا ءاباءكم و اخونكم اولياء ان استحبوا الكفر على الايمن ومن يتولهم منكم فاولئك هم الظالمون
	Dedicate Yourself to Establish Peace and Liberty 9:24 Say, "If your fathers, your sons, your brothers, your spouses, your clan, and money which you have gathered, a trade in which you fear a decline, and Edip-Layth	homes which you enjoy; if these are dearer to you than God and His messenger and striving in His cause, then wait until God brings His decision. God does not guide the wicked people."

The Monotheist Group	9:24 Say: "If your fathers, and your sons, and your brothers, and your wives, and your clan, and money which you have gathered, and a trade which you would fear if it declines, and homes which you find pleasing; if these are dearer to you than God and His messenger and striving in His cause, then wait until God brings His decision. And God does not guide the wicked people."
Muhammad Asad	9:24 Say: "If your fathers and your sons and your brothers and your spouses and your clan, and the worldly goods which you have acquired, and the commerce whereof you fear a decline, and the dwellings in which you take pleasure - [if all these] are dearer to you than God and His Apostle and the struggle in His cause, then wait until God makes manifest His will; ³² and [know that] God does not grace iniquitous folk with His guidance."
Rashad Khalifa	Important Criterion 9:24 Proclaim: "If your parents, your children, your siblings, your spouses, your family, the money you have earned, a business you worry about, and the homes you cherish are more beloved to you than GOD and His messenger, and the striving in His cause, then just wait until GOD brings His judgment." GOD does not guide the wicked people. ²
Shabbir Ahmed	9:24 Say, "If your parents, your children, and your siblings, and your spouses, and your tribe, and the wealth you have acquired, and the business in which you fear a decline, and the houses you love, are dearer to you than God and His messenger and striving in His cause, then wait till God brings His command to pass." (Systems based on other than the Supreme Divine Ideology are destined to collapse.) God does not intervene to guide those who drift away from Divine laws. ⁹
Transliteration	9:24 Qul in k ana abaokumwaabnaokum wa-ikhw anukum waazwajukumwaAAasheeratukum waamw alun iqtaraftumoooh a watijaratuntakhshawna kasadaha wamas akinu tar dawnahaahabba ilaykum mina Allahi warasoolihi wajih adinfee sabeelihi fatarabba soo hatta ya/tiya All ahubi-amrihi waAllahu la yahdee alqawma alfasiqeena
A	9:24 قل ان كان ءاباؤكم وابناؤكم واخونكم وازوجكم وعشيرتكم وامول اقترفتموها وتجرة تخشون كسادها ومسكن ترضونها احب اليكم من الله ورسوله وجهاد في سبيله فتربصوا حتى ياتي الله بامرہ والله لا يهدى القوم الفسقين
Edip-Layth	9:25 God has granted you victory in many battlefields. On the day of Hunayn, when you were pleased with your great numbers but it did not help you at all, and the land became tight around you for what it held, then you turned to flee.
The Monotheist Group	9:25 God has granted you victory in many battles. And on the day of Hunayn when you were pleased with your great numbers but it did not help you at all, and the land became tight around you for what it held, then you turned to flee.
Muhammad Asad	9:25 Indeed, God has succoured you on many battlefields, [when you were few;] and [He did so, too,] on the Day of Hunayn, when you took pride in your great numbers and they proved of no avail whatever to you -for the earth, despite all its vastness, became [too] narrow for you and you turned back, retreating: ³³
Rashad Khalifa	9:25 GOD has granted you victory in many situations. But on the day of Hunayn, you became too proud of your great number. Consequently, it did not help you at all, and the spacious earth became so straitened around you, that you turned around and fled.

Shabbir Ahmed	9:25 God has granted you victory in many battle-fields. And on the Day of Hunain, when you marveled at your great numbers, they did not avail you in the least. The earth, despite all its vastness, became constrained for you and you turned back, retreating.
Transliteration	9:25 Laqad na sarakumu All ahu feemaw atina katheeratin wayawma hunaynin ithaAAajabatkum kathratukum falam tughni AAankum shay-an wadaqatAAalaykumu al-ardu bima rahubat thummawallaytum mudbireena
A	9:25 لقد نصركم الله في مواطن كثيرة ويوم حنين اذ اعجبتمكم كثرتكم فلم تغن عنكم شيئا وضائق عليكم الارض بما رحبت ثم وليتم مدبرين
Edip-Layth	9:26 Then God sent down tranquility upon His messenger and those who acknowledge, and He sent down soldiers which you did not see. He thus punished those who rejected. Such is the recompense of the ingrates.
The Monotheist Group	9:26 Then God sent down tranquility upon His messenger and the believers, and He sent down soldiers which you did not see, and He punished those who disbelieved. Such is the recompense of the rejecters.
Muhammad Asad	9:26 whereupon God bestowed from on high His [gift of] inner peace upon His Apostle and upon the believers, and bestowed [upon you] from on high forces which you could not see, ³⁴ and chastised those who were bent on denying the truth: for such is the recompense of all who deny the truth!
Rashad Khalifa	9:26 Then GOD sent down contentment upon His messenger and upon the believers. And He sent down invisible soldiers; He thus punished those who disbelieved. This is the requital for the disbelievers.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:26 Then God sent His peace of reassurance down upon His messenger and upon the believers, and sent down armies you could not see, and punished the rejecters. Such is the reward of the rejecters of the truth. ¹⁰
Transliteration	9:26 Thumma anzala All ahu sakeenatahu AAal arasoolihi waAAal almu/mineena waanzala junoodan lamtarawha waAAaththaba allatheena kafaroo wa thalikajazao alkafireena
A	9:26 ثم انزل الله سكينة على رسوله وعلى المومنين وانزل جنودا لم تروها وعذب الذين كفروا وذلك جزاء الكافرين
Edip-Layth	9:27 Then God will accept the repentance of whom He pleases after that. God is Forgiving, Compassionate.
The Monotheist Group	9:27 Then God will accept the repentance of whom He pleases after that. God is Forgiving, Merciful.
Muhammad Asad	9:27 But with all this , ³⁵ God will turn in His mercy unto whom He wills: for God is much-forgiving, a dispenser of grace. ³⁶
Rashad Khalifa	9:27 Ultimately, GOD redeems whomever He wills. GOD is Forgiver, Most Merciful.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:27 God will shower mercy on the worthy according to His laws. God is Forgiving, Merciful.
Transliteration	9:27 Thumma yatoobu All ahu min baAAadi thalikaAAala man yash ao wa Allahu ghafoorunraheemun
A

9:27 ثم يتوب الله من بعد ذلك على من يشاء والله غفور رحيم

Edip-Layth	9:28 O you who acknowledge, those who have set up partners are impure, so let them not approach the Restricted Temple after this calendar year of theirs. If you fear poverty, then God will enrich you from His blessings if He wills. God is Knowledgeable, Wise.
The Monotheist Group	9:28 O you who believe, those who have set up partners are impure, so let them not approach the Sacred Temple after this year of theirs; and if you fear poverty, then God will enrich you from His blessings if He wills. God is Knowledgeable, Wise.
Muhammad Asad	9:28 O YOU who have attained to faith! Those who ascribe divinity to aught beside God are nothing but impure: ³⁷ and so they shall not approach the Inviolable House of Worship from this year onwards ³⁸ And should you fear poverty, then [know that] in time God will enrich you out of His bounty, if He so wills: ³⁹ for, verily, God is all-knowing, wise!
Rashad Khalifa	9:28 O you who believe, the idol worshipers are polluted; they shall not be permitted to approach the Sacred Masjid after this year. If you fear loss of income, GOD will shower you with His provisions, in accordance with His will. GOD is Omniscient, Most Wise.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:28 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! The idolaters have made their hearts unclean (and the Sacred Masjid of Makkah is the House of Pure Monotheism. Only those who believe in the Divine System can administer this Sacred House (9:18). So let not the Idolaters come close to it after this year of theirs. If you fear scarcity of trade, God will enrich you with His bounty. This is the promise of God Who is Knower, Wise.
Transliteration	9:28 Ya ayyuh a alla theena amanooinnama almushrikoona najasun fal a yaqraboalmasjida al harama baAAda AA amihim h athawa-in khiftum AAaylatan fasawfa yughneekumu All ahu min fa dlihiin sh aa inna All aha AAaleemun hakeemun
A	9:28 يايها الذين ءامنوا انما المشركون نجس فلا يقربوا المسجد الحرام بعد عامهم هذا وان خفتم عيلة فسوف يغنيكم الله من فضله ان شاء ان الله عليم حكيم
Edip-Layth	9:29 Fight those who do not acknowledge God nor the Last day among the people who received the book; they do not forbid what God and His messenger have forbidden, and they do not uphold the system of truth; until they pay the reparation, in humility.
The Monotheist Group	9:29 Fight those who do not believe in God or the Last Day, nor do they forbid what God and His messenger have forbidden, nor do they uphold the system of truth - from among the people who have been given the Scripture - until they pay the reparation, willingly or unwillingly, and they are subdued.
Muhammad Asad	9:29 [And] fight against those who - despite having been vouchsafed revelation [aforetime] ⁴⁰ - do not [truly] believe either in God or the Last Day, and do not consider forbidden that which God and His Apostle have forbidden, ⁴¹ and do not follow the religion of truth [which God has enjoined upon them] ⁴² till they [agree to] pay the exemption tax with a willing hand, after having been humbled [in war]. ⁴³
Rashad Khalifa	9:29 You shall fight back against those who do not believe in GOD, nor in the Last Day, nor do they prohibit what GOD and His messenger have prohibited, nor do they abide by the religion of truth - among those who received the scripture - until they pay the due tax, willingly or unwillingly.

Shabbir Ahmed	9:29 Fight back against those who do not believe in God, nor in the Last Day, nor do they prohibit what God and His messenger have prohibited, nor do they acknowledge the True Deen - among those who were given the scripture, until they pay Jizya in humility. ¹¹
Transliteration	9:29 Qatiloona alla theena l ayyu/minoona bi Allahi wal a bi alyawmial-akhiri wal a yuharrimoona m a harramaAllahu warasooluhu wal a yadeenoona deena alhaqqimina alla theena ootoo alkit aba hattayuAAto aljizyata AAan yadin wahum saghiroona
A	9:29 قتلوا الذين لا يؤمنون بالله ولا باليوم الآخر ولا يحرمون ما حرم الله ورسوله ولا يدينون دين الحق من الذين اوتوا الكتب حتى يعطوا الجزية عن يد وهم صغرون
Edip-Layth	Do Not Accept Religious Leaders As Authorities Besides God 9:30 The Jews said, "Ezra is God's son," and the Nazarenes said, "The Messiah is God's son." Such is their utterances with their mouths; they imitate the sayings of those who rejected before them. God's curse be on them. How deviated are they! ⁴
The Monotheist Group	9:30 The Jews said: "Ezra is God's son," and the Nazarenes said: "The Messiah is God's son." Such is their utterances with their mouths, they imitate the sayings of those who rejected before them. God will fight them. They are deluded from the truth!
Muhammad Asad	9:30 AND THE JEWS say, "Ezra is God's son," while the Christians say, "The Christ is God's son." Such are the sayings which they utter with their mouths, following in spirit assertions made in earlier times by people who denied the truth! ⁴⁴ [They deserve the imprecation:] "May God destroy them!" ⁴⁵ How perverted are their minds! ⁴⁶
Rashad Khalifa	Blasphemies 9:30 The Jews said, "Ezra is the son of GOD," while the Christians said, "Jesus is the son of GOD!" These are blasphemies uttered by their mouths. They thus match the blasphemies of those who have disbelieved in the past. GOD condemns them. They have surely deviated.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:30 The Jews say, "Uzayr is God's son," while the Christians say, "The Messiah is God's son." They only utter baseless themes with their mouths, following the assertions made in earlier times by people who denied the truth! God condemns them. They are surely deluded. ¹²
Transliteration	9:30 Waqaalati alyahoodu AAuzayrun ibnu Allahi waqaalati alInnaasara almaseehu ibnu Allahi thalika qawluhum bi-afw ahihim yu dahi-oonaqawla alla theena kafaroo min qablu qatalahumu Allahuanna yu/fakoona
A	9:30 وقالت اليهود عزير ابن الله وقالت النصارى المسيح ابن الله ذلك قولهم بافوههم يضلون قول الذين كفروا من قبل قتلهم الله انى يوفكون
Edip-Layth	9:31 They took their scholars and priests to be lords besides God, and the Messiah son of Mary, while they were only commanded to serve One god, there is no god but He, be He glorified for what they set up.
The Monotheist Group	9:31 They took their Priests and Monks to be patrons besides God, and the Messiah son of Mary, while they were only commanded to serve One god, there is no god but He, be He glorified for what they set up.
	9:31 They have taken their rabbis and their monks-as well as the Christ, son of

Muhammad Asad	Mary-for their lords beside God, ⁴⁷ although they had been bidden to worship none but the One God, save whom there is no deity: the One who is utterly remote, in His limitless glory, from anything to which they may ascribe a share in His divinity!
Rashad Khalifa	Upholding the Teachings of Religious Leaders Instead of 9:31 They have set up their religious leaders and scholars as lords, instead of GOD. Others deified the Messiah, son of Mary. They were all commanded to worship only one god. There is no god except He. Be He glorified, high above having any partners.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:31 They take their rabbis, priests and monks to be their Lords ¹³ besides God. And they take as their Lord, the Messiah son of Mary. Yet they were commanded to worship but One God. There is no god but He. praise and glory to Him, He is far too Glorious for what they ascribe to Him.
Transliteration	9:31 Ittakha ^h oo a ^h b ^h arahunwaruh ^h anahum arb ^a ban min dooni All ^a hi wa ^a lmaseeh ^h aibna maryama wama ^a omiroo illa liyaAAabudoo il ^a hanwa ^h idan la ilaha illa huwa sub ^h anahuAAamma yushrikoona
A	9:31 اتخذوا احبارهم ورهبانهم اربابا من دون الله والمسيح ابن مريم وما امروا الا ليعبدوا الها وحدا لا اله الا هو سبحانه عما يشركون
Edip-Layth	9:32 They want to extinguish God's light with their mouths, but God refuses such and lets His light continue, even if the ingrates hate it.
The Monotheist Group	9:32 They want to extinguish God's light with their mouths, but God refuses such and lets His light continue, even if the rejecters hate it.
Muhammad Asad	9:32 They want to extinguish God's [guiding] light with their utterances: ⁴⁸ but God will not allow [this to pass], for He has willed to spread His light in all its fullness, ⁴⁹ however hateful this may be to all who deny the truth.
Rashad Khalifa	9:32 They want to put out GOD's light with their mouths, but GOD insists upon perfecting His light, in spite of the disbelievers.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:32 They seek to extinguish God's light (the Qur'an) by their utterances. But God will not allow this to pass, for He has willed to spread His light in all its fullness even though the rejecters may detest it.
Transliteration	9:32 Yureedoona an yu ^t fi-oo noora All ^a hibi-afwa ^h ihim waya/b ^a All ^a hu ill ^a anyutimma noorahu walaw kariha alka ^f iroona
A	9:32 يريدون ان يطفوا نور الله بافواههم ويابى الله الا ان يتم نوره ولو كره الكفرون
Edip-Layth	9:33 He is the One who sent His messenger with guidance and the system of truth, to make it manifest above all other systems, even if those who set up partners hate it. ⁵
The Monotheist Group	9:33 He is the One who sent His messenger with guidance and the system of truth, to make it expose all other systems, even if those who set up partners hate it.
Muhammad Asad	9:33 He it is who has sent forth His Apostle with the [task of spreading] guidance and the religion of truth, to the end that He may cause it to prevail over all [false] religion ⁵⁰ -however hateful this may be to those who ascribe divinity to aught beside God.
	"Submission" Destined to Prevail

Rashad Khalifa	9:33 He is the One who sent His messenger with the guidance and the religion of truth, and will make it dominate all religions, in spite of the idol worshipers. ⁴
Shabbir Ahmed	9:33 He is the One Who has sent His messenger with guidance and the True Religion (Deen = The System of Life), that He may cause it to prevail over all religions and systems of life, even though the idolaters may detest it. ¹⁴
Transliteration	9:33 Huwa allat ^h ee arsala rasoolahu bi alhudawadeeni al ^h aqqi liyu ^t hirahu AAala aldeenikullihi walaw kariha almushrikoon a
A	9:33 هو الذى ارسل رسوله بالهدى ودين الحق ليظهره على الدين كله ولو كره المشركون
Edip-Layth	Beware of Religious Scholars and Leaders Who Exploit In God's Name 9:34 O you who acknowledge, many of the scholars and priests consume people's money in falsehood, and they turn away from the path of God. Those who hoard gold and silver, and do not spend it in the cause of God, give them news of a painful retribution.
The Monotheist Group	9:34 O you who believe, many of the Priests and Monks consume people's money in falsehood, and they turn away from the path of God. And those who hoard gold and silver, and do not spend it in the cause of God, give them news of a painful retribution.
Muhammad Asad	9:34 O you who have attained to faith! Behold, many of the rabbis and monks do indeed wrongfully devour men's possessions and turn [others] away from the path of God. But as for all who lay up treasures of gold and silver and do not spend them for the sake of Gods ⁵¹ - give them the tidings of grievous suffering [in the life to come]:
Rashad Khalifa	Beware of Professional Religionists 9:34 O you who believe, many religious leaders and preachers take the people's money illicitly, and repel from the path of GOD. Those who hoard the gold and silver, and do not spend them in the cause of GOD, promise them a painful retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:34 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! A great many religious leaders, rabbis, priests, monks, Mullahs, yogis, and mystics devour the wealth of people in falsehood, and bar them from the path of God. All those who hoard up gold and silver and do not spend it in the cause of God, to them give tidings (O Prophet!) of a painful doom. ¹⁵
Transliteration	9:34 Ya ayyuh a alla ^t heena amanooinna katheeran mina al-a ^h bari waalrruhbanilaya/kuloona amw ala a Innasi bi albatiliwayasuddoon AAan sabeeli Allahi wa allat ^h eenayaknizoona a ^t thahaba wa alfiddatawala yunfiqoonah a fee sabeeli All ^h ifabashshirhum biAAa ^t habin aleemin
A	9:34 ياايها الذين ءامنوا ان كثيرا من الاحبار والرهبان لياكلون اموال الناس بالباطل ويصدون عن سبيل الله والذين يكنزون الذهب والفضة ولا ينفقونها فى سبيل الله فبشرهم بعذاب اليم
Edip-Layth	9:35 On the day when they will be seared in the fires of hell, their foreheads, sides and backs will be branded with it: "This is what you have hoarded for yourselves, so taste what you have hoarded!"
The Monotheist Group	9:35 On the Day when they will be seared in the fires of Hell, and their foreheads and sides and backs will be branded with it: "This is what you have hoarded for yourselves, so taste what you have hoarded!"
Muhammad Asad	9:35 on the Day when that [hoarded wealth] shall be heated in the fire of hell and their foreheads and their sides and their backs branded therewith ⁵² , [those sinner shall be told:] "These are the treasures which you have laid up for yourselves! Taste, then, [the evil of] your hoarded treasures!"

Rashad Khalifa	9:35 The day will come when their gold and silver will be heated in the fire of Hell, then used to burn their foreheads, their sides, and their backs: "This is what you hoarded for yourselves, so taste what you have hoarded."
Shabbir Ahmed	9:35 On the Day when it will all be heated in the fire of Hell and their foreheads, flanks and backs will be branded with it. "Here is what you hoarded for yourselves, now taste what you had hoarded."
Transliteration	9:35 Yawma yu hma AAalayh afee n ari jahannama fatukw a bih a jibahuhumwajunoobuhum wa thuhooruhum h atha m akanaztum li-anfusikum fathooqoo ma kuntum taknizoon
A	9:35 يوم يحمى عليها في نار جهنم فتكوى بها جباههم وجنوبهم وظهورهم هذا ما كنزتم لانفسكم فنوقوا ما كنتم تكنزون
Edip-Layth	9:36 The count of the months with God is twelve months in God's book the day He created the heavens and the earth; four of them are restricted. This is the correct system; so do not wrong yourselves in them. Fight those who set up partners collectively as they fight you collectively. Know that God is with the righteous. ⁶
The Monotheist Group	9:36 The count of the months with God is twelve months in God's record the day He created the heavens and the Earth; four of them are restricted. This is the correct system; so do not wrong yourselves in them; and fight those who set up partners collectively as they fight you collectively. And know that God is with the righteous.
Muhammad Asad	9:36 BEHOLD, the number of months, in the sight of God, is twelve months, [laid down] in God's decree on the day when He created the heavens and the earth; [and] out of these, four are sacred: ⁵³ this is the ever-true law [of God]. Do not, then, sin against ⁵⁴ yourselves with regard to these [months]. And fight against those who ascribe divinity to aught beside God, all together-just as they fight against you, [O believers,] all together ⁵⁵ -and know that God is with those who are conscious of Him.
Rashad Khalifa	God's System: Twelve Months Per Year 9:36 The count of months, as far as GOD is concerned, is twelve. This has been GOD's law, since the day He created the heavens and the earth. Four of them are sacred. This is the perfect religion; you shall not wrong your souls (by fighting) during the Sacred Months. However, you may declare all-out war against the idol worshipers (even during the Sacred Months), when they declare all-out war against you, and know that GOD is on the side of the righteous. ⁵
Shabbir Ahmed	9:36 God has ordained twelve months in one year. This has been God's Ordinance since the day He created the heavens and earth. Four of these Months are Sacred, forbidden for all warfare. This is the Firm Religion, the right way. So, do not wrong yourselves by fighting during the Sacred Months. However, you may fight the idolaters in any or all these months if they fight against you in any or all of them (2:194). And know that God is with those who restrain themselves. ¹⁶
Transliteration	9:36 Inna AAiddata a lshshuhoori AAinda Allahiithna AAashara shahran fee kit abi Allahiyawma khalaqa a lssamawati wa al-ardaminha arbaAAatun hurumun thalika alddeenu alqayyimu fa ta thlimoo feehinna anfusakumwaq atiloo almushrikeena kaffatan kam a yuq atiloonakumkaffatan wa iAalamoo anna All aha maAAaalmuttaqeen

A	9:36 ان عدة الشهور عند الله اثنا عشر شهرا فى كتب الله يوم خلق السموت والارض منها اربعة حرم ذلك الدين القيم فلا تظلموا فيهن انفسكم وقتلوا المشركين كافة كما يقتلونكم كافة واعلموا ان الله مع المتقين
Edip-Layth	9:37 Know that accelerating the intercalary is an addition in rejection; that those who have rejected may misguide with it. They make it lawful one calendar year, and they forbid it one calendar year, so as to circumvent the count that God has made restricted; thus they make lawful what God made forbidden! Their evil works have been adorned for them, and God does not guide the rejecting people.⁷
The Monotheist Group	9:37 Know that the use of the additional month causes an increase in rejection, for it is used by those who have rejected that they may misguide with it by making it lawful one year and forbidding it one year, so as to circumvent the count that God has made restricted; thus they make lawful what God made forbidden! Their evil works have been adorned for them, and God does not guide the rejecting people.
Muhammad Asad	9:37 The intercalation [of months] is but one more instance of [their] refusal to acknowledge the truth.⁵⁶ [a means] by which those who are bent on denying the truth are led astray. They declare this [intercalation] to be permissible in one year and forbidden in [another] year,⁵⁷ in order to conform [outwardly] to the number of months which God has hallowed: and thus they make allowable what God has forbidden.⁵⁸ Goodly seems unto them the evil of their own doings, since God does not grace with His guidance people who refuse to acknowledge the truth.
Rashad Khalifa	Altering the Sacred Months 9:37 Altering the Sacred Months is a sign of excessive disbelief; it augments the straying of those who have disbelieved. They alternate the Sacred Months and the regular months, while preserving the number of months consecrated by GOD. They thus violate what GOD has consecrated. Their evil works are adorned in their eyes. GOD does not guide the disbelieving people.⁶
Shabbir Ahmed	9:37 Altering the Sacred Months is only an addition to disbelief. It increases the straying of the disbelievers. They keep the total count of the Sacred Months as four, but keep shifting them within the same year or from year to year. Thus they allow what God has forbidden. Their evil actions seem pleasing to them. God does not intervene to guide those who have decided to live in darkness.
Transliteration	9:37 Innama a Innasee-o ziy adatunfee alkufri yu dallu bihi alla theena kafaroo yuhilloonahuAAaman wayu harrimoonahu AA aman liyuw ati-ooAAiddata m a harrama All ahu fayu hillooma harrama All ahu zuyyina lahum soo-o aAAamalihimwaAllahu la yahdee alqawma alkafireena
A	9:37 انما النسيء زيادة فى الكفر يضل به الذين كفروا يحلونه عاما ويحرمونه عاما ليواطوا عدة ما حرم الله فيحلوا ما حرم الله زين لهم سوء اعمالهم والله لا يهدى القوم الكافرين
Edip-Layth	Do Not Accept Aggression and Oppression 9:38 O you who acknowledge, what is wrong with you when you are told: "March forth in the cause of God," you become heavy on earth. Have you become content with this worldly life over the Hereafter? The enjoyment of this worldly life compared to the Hereafter is nothing.
The Monotheist Group	9:38 O you who believe, what is wrong with you when you are told: "Mobilize in the cause of God," you become heavy on Earth. Have you become content with this worldly life over the Hereafter? The enjoyment of this worldly life compared to the Hereafter is nothing.

Muhammad Asad	9:38 O YOU who have attained to faith! What is amiss with you that, when you are called upon, "Go forth to war in God's cause," you cling heavily to the earth? ⁵⁹ Would you content yourselves with [the comforts of] this worldly life in preference to [the good of] the life to come? But the enjoyment of life in this world is but a paltry thing when compared with the life to come!
Rashad Khalifa	9:38 O you who believe, when you are told, "Mobilize in the cause of GOD," why do you become heavily attached to the ground? Have you chosen this worldly life in place of the Hereafter? The materials of this world, compared to the Hereafter, are nil.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:38 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! What is amiss with you that, when called upon, "Go forth in the cause of God," you cling heavily to the ground? Do you choose pleasure in the life of this world rather than in the life to come? The enjoyment of this life is but a paltry thing compared to the Hereafter.
Transliteration	9:38 Ya ayyuh a alla theena amanooma lakum i tha qeela lakumu infiroo fee sabeeli All ahiiththaqaltum il a al-ar di ara deetum bi alhayatialddunya mina al-akhirati fama matAAualhayati alddunya fee al-akhiratiilla qaleelun
A	9:38 يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا مَا لَكُمْ إِذَا قِيلَ لَكُمْ انْفِرُوا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ أَتَأْتِلُم إِلَى الْأَرْضِ وَرَضْتُمْ بِالْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا مِنَ الْآخِرَةِ فَمَا مَتَّعَ الْحَيَاةَ الدُّنْيَا فِي الْآخِرَةِ إِلَّا قَلِيلٌ
Edip-Layth	9:39 If you do not march forth, then He will punish you with a painful retribution, He will replace you with another people, and you do not bother Him in the least. God is capable of all things.
The Monotheist Group	9:39 If you do not mobilize, then He will punish you with a painful retribution, and He will replace you with another people, and you do not bother Him in the least. God is capable of all things.
Muhammad Asad	9:39 If you do not go forth to war [in God's cause], He will chastise you with grievous chastisement, and will place another people in your stead - whereas you shall in no wise harm Him: for, God has the power to will anything.
Rashad Khalifa	9:39 Unless you mobilize, He will commit you to painful retribution and substitute other people in your place; you can never hurt Him in the least. GOD is Omnipotent.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:39 If you did not go forth in God's cause, He (His law) will afflict you with a painful doom. He will replace you with another nation. You cannot harm Him in the least. All things transpire according to the laws appointed by God. ¹⁷
Transliteration	9:39 Illa tanfiroo yuAAa ththibkumAAathaban aleeman wayastabdil qawman ghayrakum walataðurroohu shay-an waAllahu AAalakuilli shay-in qadeerun
A	9:39 إِلَّا تَنْفِرُوا يَعْذِبْكُمْ عَذَابًا أَلِيمًا وَيَسْتَبْدِلْ قَوْمًا غَيْرَكُمْ وَلَا تَضُرُّوهُ شَيْئًا وَاللَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ
Edip-Layth	9:40 If you do not help him, then God has helped him. When those who rejected expelled him, he was one of only two, and when both were in the cave, he said to his friend: "Do not grieve, for God is with us." So God sent down tranquility over him and He supported him with soldiers that you did not see, and He made the word of those who rejected be the lowest, and God's word be the highest. God is Noble, Wise.
The Monotheist Group	9:40 If you do not help him, then God has helped him. When those who rejected expelled him, he was one of only two, and when they were in the cave, he said to his friend: "Do not grieve, for God is with us." So God sent down calmness over him and He supported him with soldiers that you did not see, and He made the word of those who rejected be the lowest, and God's word be the highest. God is Noble, Wise.

Muhammad Asad	9:40 If you do not succour the Apostle, ⁶⁰ then [know that God will do so -just as] God succoured him at the time when those who were bent on denying the truth drove him away, [and he was but] one of two: ⁶¹ when these two were [hiding] in the cave, [and] the Apostle said to his companion, "Grieve not: verily, God is with us." ⁶² And thereupon God bestowed upon him from on high His (gift of) inner peace, ⁶³ and brought utterly low the cause of those who were bent on denying the truth, whereas the cause of God remained supreme: ⁶⁴ for God is almighty, wise.
Rashad Khalifa	God's Invisible Soldiers 9:40 If you fail to support him (the messenger), GOD has already supported him. Thus, when the disbelievers chased him, and he was one of two in the cave, he said to his friend, "Do not worry; GOD is with us." GOD then sent down contentment and security upon him, and supported him with invisible soldiers. He made the word of the disbelievers lowly. GOD's word reigns supreme. GOD is Almighty, Most Wise.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:40 If you do not help the messenger, God will help him, as always. When the disbelievers drove him out of his home, they were just two men. They had to seek refuge in a cave. The messenger said to his companion, "Grieve not. Surely, God is with us." Then God sent His reassuring peace upon him, and supported him with invisible forces of faith and courage (9:26). He made the word of the disbelievers utterly low. God's Word remains Supreme, for God is Mighty, Wise.
Transliteration	9:40 Illā tan suroohu faqad na sarahuAllāhu i th akhrajahu alla theena kafaroo thaniyaithnayni i th hum a fee algh ari i thyaqoolu li sahibihi l a ta hzan inna AllāhamaAAana faanzala Allāhu sakeenatahu AAalayhiwaayyadahu bijunoodin lam tarawha wajaAAala kalimata alla theenakafaroo a Issufla wakalimatu All ahi hiyaalAAulya waAllāhu AAazeezun hakeemun
A	9:40 الا تنصروه فقد نصره الله اذ اخرجه الذين كفروا ثانی اثنین اذ هما فی الغار اذ يقول لصاحبه لا تحزن ان الله معنا فانزل الله سكينته عليه وايده بجنود لم تروها وجعل كلمة الذين كفروا السفلى وكلمة الله هي العليا والله عزيز حكيم
Edip-Layth	9:41 March forth in light gear or heavy gear, and strive with your money and lives in the cause of God. That is best if you knew.
The Monotheist Group	9:41 Mobilize in light gear or heavy gear, and strive with your money and lives in the cause of God. That is best if you knew.
Muhammad Asad	9:41 Go forth to war, whether it be easy or difficult [for you], ⁶⁵ and strive hard in God's cause with your possessions and your lives: this is for your own good -if you but knew it!
Rashad Khalifa	Better Believers Strive in the Cause of God 9:41 You shall readily mobilize, light or heavy, and strive with your money and your lives in the cause of GOD. This is better for you, if you only knew.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:41 Go forth lightly armed, or heavily armed and strive with your wealth and person in the cause of God. This is best for you if you but knew.
Transliteration	9:41 Infiroo khif afan wathiq alanwajahidoo bi-amw alikum waanfusiikum fee sabeeli Allāhithalikum khayrun lakum in kuntum taAAlamoon a
A	9:41 انفروا خفافا وثقالا وجهدوا بامولكم وانفسكم في سبيل الله ذلكم خير لكم ان كنتم تعلمون

Edip-Layth	9:42 If it were a near gain, or an easy journey, they would have followed you; but the distance was too much for them. They will swear by God: "If we could have, we would have come with you." They destroy themselves, and God knows they are liars.
The Monotheist Group	9:42 If it were a near gain, or an easy journey, they would have followed you; but the distance was too much for them. And they will swear by God: "If we could have, we would have come with you." They destroy themselves, and God knows they are liars.
Muhammad Asad	9:42 Had there been [a prospect of] immediate gain, and an easy journey, they would certainly have followed thee, [O Prophet:] but the distance was too great for them ⁶⁶ . And yet, [after your return, O believers,] they will swear by God, "Had we been able to do so, we would certainly have set out with you!" - [and by thus falsely swearing] they will be destroying their own selves: for God knows indeed that they are lying!
Rashad Khalifa	The Sedentary 9:42 If there were a quick material gain, and a short journey, they would have followed you. But the striving is just too much for them. They will swear by GOD: "If we could, we would have mobilized with you." They thus hurt themselves, and GOD knows that they are liars.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:42 There are people among you that if it were a quick material gain and a short easy journey, they would follow you. But the strife and the distance seem heavy and long to them. They will swear by God, "If we could, we would have gone along with you." They destroy their own 'self'. God knows that they are liars.
Transliteration	9:42 Law k ana AAara dan qareebanwasafaran q asidan la ittabaAAooka walakinbaAAudat AAalayhimu a Ishshuqqatu wasaya hlifoona bi Allahilawi istaAAana lakharajn a maAAakumyuhlikoona anfusahum wa Allahu yaAAlamu innahum lakathiboona
A	9:42 لو كان عرضا قريبا وسفرا قاصدا لاتبعوك ولكن بعدت عليهم الشقة وسيحلفون بالله لو استطعنا لخرجنا معكم يهلكون انفسهم والله يعلم انهم لكذبون
Edip-Layth	9:43 God pardons you; why did you grant them leave before it became clear to you who are truthful, and who are lying?
The Monotheist Group	9:43 God pardons you; why did you give them leave before it became clear to you who are truthful, and who are lying?
Muhammad Asad	9:43 May God pardon thee [O Prophet] ! ⁶⁷ Why didst thou grant them permission [to stay at home] ere it had become obvious to thee as to who was speaking the truth, and [ere] thou camest to know. [who were] the liars?
Rashad Khalifa	9:43 GOD has pardoned you: why did you give them permission (to stay behind), before you could distinguish those who are truthful from the liars?
Shabbir Ahmed	9:43 God pardons you (O Messenger!)! Why did you give them permission to stay behind, before you could distinguish the truthful from the liars? ¹⁸
Transliteration	9:43 AAafa Allahu AAanka lima a thintalahum hatta yatabayyana laka alla theena sadaqoowataAAlama alkathibeena
A	9:43 عفا الله عنك لم اذنت لهم حتى يتبين لك الذين صدقوا وتعلم الكذابين
Edip-Layth	9:44 Those who acknowledge God and the Last day will not ask leave. They strive with their money and their lives. God is aware of the righteous.

The Monotheist Group	9:44 Those who believe in God and the Last Day will not ask leave. They strive with their money and their lives. And God is aware of the righteous.
Muhammad Asad	9:44 Those who [truly] believe in God and the Last Day do not ask thee for exemption from struggling with their possessions and their lives [in God's cause]- and God has full knowledge as to who is conscious of Him-: ⁶⁸
Rashad Khalifa	9:44 Those who truly believe in GOD and the Last Day do not ask your permission to evade the opportunity to strive with their money and their lives. GOD is fully aware of the righteous.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:44 Those who have conviction in God and the Last Day, do not ask you for exemption from striving with their wealth and persons. God is Aware of those who live upright.
Transliteration	9:44 La yasta/ thinuka alla theenayu /minoona bi Allāhi wa alyawmi al- akhirian yujahidoo bi-amwalihim waanfusihi waAllāhuAAaleemun bialmuttaqeenā
A	9:44 لا يستذك الذين يؤمنون بالله واليوم الآخر ان يجهدوا بامولهم وانفسهم والله عليم بالمتقين
Edip-Layth	9:45 Those who ask leave are the ones who do not acknowledge God and the Last day, and their hearts are in doubt. In their doubts they are wavering. ⁸
The Monotheist Group	9:45 Those who ask leave are the ones who do not believe in God and the Last Day, and their hearts are in doubt. In their doubts they are wavering.
Muhammad Asad	9:45 only those ask thee for exemption who do not [truly] believe in God and the Last Day and whose hearts have become a prey to doubt, so that in their doubting they waver between one thing and another.
Rashad Khalifa	9:45 The only people who wish to be excused are those who do not really believe in GOD and the Last Day. Their hearts are full of doubt, and their doubts cause them to waver.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:45 Only those ask your leave (O Prophet!) who do not truly believe in God and the Last Day. Their hearts feel doubt, and in their doubt they waver.
Transliteration	9:45 Innama yasta/ thinuka alla theenala yu/minoona bi Allāhi wa alyawmi al- akhiriwairtabat quloobuhum fahum fee raybihiyataraddadoonā
A	9:45 انما يستذك الذين لا يؤمنون بالله واليوم الآخر وارتابت قلوبهم فهم فى ريبهم يترددون
Edip-Layth	9:46 If they had gone with you then they would have taken all preparation for it, but God disliked their being sent forth, so He hindered them, and they were told: "Stay with those who have stayed."
The Monotheist Group	9:46 And if they had gone with you then they would have taken all precautions for it, but God disliked them coming forth, so He made them lag behind, and they were told: "Stay with those who have stayed."
Muhammad Asad	9:46 For, had they been [truly] desirous of setting out [with thee], they would surely have made some preparation therefor: but God was averse to their taking the field, and so He caused them to hold back when it was said, "[You may] stay at home with all [the others] who stay at home." ⁶⁹
Rashad Khalifa	9:46 Had they really wanted to mobilize, they would have prepared for it thoroughly. But GOD disliked their participation, so He discouraged them; they were told, "Stay behind with those who are staying behind."
	9:46 If they wanted to go forth, they would have made necessary preparation.

Shabbir Ahmed	God disliked their participation for their reluctance, and held them back. (The prophet had) said to them, "Stay behind with those who are sitting back."
Transliteration	9:46 Walaw ar ^{ad} oo alkhurooja laaAAaddoolahu AAuddatan wal ^a kin kariha All ^{ah} u inbiAA ^a thahumfathabbat ^a hum waqeela oqAA ^u doo maAA ^a a alq ^a AA ⁱ deena
A	9:46 وَلَوْ ارَادُوا الْخُرُوجَ لَأَعَدُوا لَهُ عِدَّةٌ وَلَٰكِن كَرِهَ اللَّهُ انْبِعَاثَهُمْ فَثَبَّطَهُمْ وَقِيلَ اقْعُدُوا مَعَ الْقَاعِدِينَ
Edip-Layth	9:47 Had they come out with you they would have added nothing but disorder, and they would have hurried about seeking a test among you. There are some amongst you who listen to them. God is aware of the wicked.
The Monotheist Group	9:47 Had they come out with you they would have added nothing but disruption, and they would have hurried about seeking to cause for you an ordeal; and there are some amongst you who listen to them. God is aware of the wicked.
Muhammad Asad	9:47 Had these [hypocrites] set out with_ you, [O believers,] they would have added nothing to you save the evil of corruption, and would surely have scurried to and fro in your midst, seeking to stir up discord among you, seeing that there are in your midst such as would have lent them ear: but God has full knowledge of the evildoers.
Rashad Khalifa	9:47 Had they mobilized with you, they would have created confusion, and would have caused disputes and divisions among you. Some of you were apt to listen to them. GOD is fully aware of the transgressors.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:47 Even if they had gone forth they would have only caused trouble and run to and fro seeking sedition among you. In your ranks some are apt to listen to them and in your ranks are spies of the enemy. God knows the wrongdoers.
Transliteration	9:47 Law kharajoo feekum m ^a z ^a dookumilla khab ^a lan walaaw ^{da} AAoo khil ^{al} akumyabghoonakumu alfitnata wafeekum samm ^a AAoona lahum waAll ^{ah} uAAaleemun bial th th ^{al} imeena
A	9:47 لَوْ خَرَجُوا فِیْكُمْ مَا زَاوَوْكُمْ إِلَّا خَبَالًا وَلَا وُضِعُوا لِلْخَلْقِ یَبْغُونَكُمْ الْفِتْنَةَ وَفِیْكُمْ سَمْعُونَ لَهُمْ وَاللَّهُ عَلِیمٌ بِالظَّالِمِینَ
Edip-Layth	9:48 They wanted to test from before, and they turned matters upside down for you until the truth came and God's command was revealed, while they hated it.
The Monotheist Group	9:48 They wanted to cause an ordeal from before, and they turned matters upside down for you until the truth came and God's command was revealed, while they hated it.
Muhammad Asad	9:48 Indeed, even before this time ⁷⁰ have they tried to stir up discord and devised all manner of plots against thee, [O Prophet,] until the truth was revealed and God's will became manifest, however hateful this may have been to them.
Rashad Khalifa	9:48 They sought to spread confusion among you in the past, and confounded matters for you. However, the truth ultimately prevails, and GOD's plan is carried out, in spite of them.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:48 They sought to create dissension among you before, and raised difficulties for you (O Prophet!). They did that till the truth came and the decree of God prevailed, though they detested it.
Transliteration	9:48 Laqadi ibtaghawoo alfitnata min qabluwaqallaboo laka al-omoora ^{hatta} j ^{aa} al ^{ha} qquwa th ahara amru All ^{ah} i wahum k ^{ari} hoona
A	9:48

لقد ابتغوا الفتنة من قبل وقلبوا لك الامور حتى جاء الحق وظهر امر الله وهم كرهون

Edip-Layth	9:49 Some of them say, "Grant me leave, and do not test me." But it is in the test that they have indeed fallen, and hell is surrounding the ingrates.
The Monotheist Group	9:49 And from them are those who say: "Grant me leave, and do not test me." But it is in the test that they have indeed fallen, and Hell is surrounding the rejecters.
Muhammad Asad	9:49 And among them there was [many a one] who said," ⁷¹ Grant me permission [to remain at home], and do not put me to too hard a test!" Oh, verily, [by making such a request] they had [already failed in their test and] succumbed to a temptation to evil: ⁷² and, behold, hell will indeed encompass all who refuse to acknowledge the truth!
Rashad Khalifa	9:49 Some of them would say, "Give me permission (to stay behind); do not impose such a hardship on me." In fact, they have thus incurred a terrible hardship; Hell is surrounding the disbelievers.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:49 Of them is he who says, "Grant me leave, and do not draw me into trial." Have they not fallen into trial already? In fact, Hell is all around the disbelievers.
Transliteration	9:49 Waminhum man yaqoolu i/ than lee wal ataftinne ala fee alfitnati saqa too wa-innajahannama lamu ^h ee ^t atun bialka ^h fireena
A	9:49 ومنهم من يقول ائذن لي ولا تفتني الا في الفتنة سقطوا وان جهنم لمحيطه بالكافرين
Edip-Layth	9:50 When any good befalls you, it upsets them, and if any bad befalls you, they say, "We have taken our precautions beforehand," and they turn away rejoicing.
The Monotheist Group	9:50 When any good befalls you, it upsets them, and if any bad befalls you, they say: "We have made our precautions beforehand," and they turn away happy.
Muhammad Asad	9:50 Should good fortune alight on thee, ⁷³ [O Prophet,] it will grieve them; and should misfortune befall thee, they will say [to themselves], "We have already taken our precautions beforehand!" - and will turn away, and will rejoice.
Rashad Khalifa	9:50 If something good happens to you, they hurt, and if an affliction befalls you, they say, "We told you so," as they turn away rejoicing.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:50 If some good comes to you (O Prophet!) it grieves them. And if calamity befalls you, they say, "We took our precautions beforehand." And they turn away rejoicing.
Transliteration	9:50 In tu sibka hasan atun tasu/humwa-in tu sibka mu seeb atun yaqooloo qad akha ^h tna amra ⁿ a min qablu wayatawallaw wahum fari hoona
A	9:50 ان تصيبك حسنة تسوهم وان تصيبك مصيبة يقولوا قد اخذنا امرنا من قبل ويتولوا وهم فرحون
Edip-Layth	9:51 Say, "Nothing will befall us except what God has decreed for us; He is our Patron." In God those who acknowledge shall put their trust. ⁹
The Monotheist Group	9:51 Say: "Nothing will befall us except what God has decreed for us, He is our Patron." And in God the believers shall put their trust.
Muhammad Asad	9:51 Say: "Never can anything befall us save what God has decreed! He is our Lord Supreme; and in God let the believers place their trust!"
	9:51 Say, "Nothing happens to us, except what GOD has decreed for us. He is our Rashad Khalifa	Lord and Master. In GOD the believers shall trust."

Shabbir Ahmed	9:51 Say, "No calamity befalls us except within the bounds of God's laws. Only He is our Lord Supreme (Maulana)." In God let the believers put their trust! 19
Transliteration	9:51 Qul lan yu _{see} banā illāma kataba Allāhu lanā huwa mawlānawāAAalā Allāhi falyatawakkali almu/minoona
A	9:51 قل لن يصيبنا الا ما كتب الله لنا هو مولنا وعلى الله فليتوكل المؤمنون
Edip-Layth	9:52 Say, "While we wait for you to be afflicted by God with retribution from Him, or at our hands you can only expect for us one of two good things. So wait, we are with you waiting."
The Monotheist Group	9:52 Say: "You can only expect for us one of two good things; while we wait for you to be afflicted by God with a retribution from Him, or by our hands. So wait, we are with you waiting."
Muhammad Asad	9:52 Say: "Are you, perchance, hopefully waiting for something [bad] to happen to us-[the while nothing can happen to us] save one of the two best things? 74 But as far as you are concerned, we are hopefully waiting for God to inflict chastisement upon you, [either] from Himself 75 or by our hands! Wait, then, hopefully; behold, we shall hopefully wait with you!"
Rashad Khalifa	9:52 Say, "You can only expect for us one of two good things (victory or martyrdom), while we expect for you condemnation from GOD and retribution from Him, or at our hands. Therefore, wait, and we will wait along with you."
Shabbir Ahmed	9:52 Say, "Can you expect for us other than one of two things?" -(Victory or martyrdom). On the other hand, we expect for you that God will send His retribution from Himself, or by our hands. Wait then expectant, and we shall hopefully wait with you."
Transliteration	9:52 Qul hal tarabbasoonā bina illāi _{hda} al _{hus} nayayni wana _{hnu} natarabbasubikum an yu _{see} bakumu Allāhu biAAa _{thabin} minAAindihi aw bi-aydeen ā fatarabbā soo innamaAAakum mutarabbisoonā
A	9:52 قل هل تتربصون بنا الا احدى الحسنين ونحن نتربص بكم ان يصيبكم الله بعذاب من عنده او بايدنا فتربصوا انا معكم متربصون
Edip-Layth	9:53 Say, "Spend willingly or unwillingly, it will not be accepted from you. You are a wicked people."
The Monotheist Group	9:53 Say: "Spend willingly or unwillingly, it will not be accepted from you. You are a wicked people."
Muhammad Asad	9:53 Say: "You may spend [anything], willingly-or unwillingly, [pretending that you do it for the sake of God:] it shall never be accepted from you 76 -for, verily, you are people bent on iniquity!"
Rashad Khalifa	9:53 Say, "Spend, willingly or unwillingly. Nothing will be accepted from you, for you are evil people."
Shabbir Ahmed	9:53 (Some hypocrites want to make financial contributions.) Tell them, "Your contribution is not accepted whether you pay willingly or unwillingly. You are a people who drift away from the System at the first opportune time."
Transliteration	9:53 Qul anfiqoo _{taw} AAan aw karhan lanyutaqabbala minkum innakum kuntum qawman _{fasi} qeena

A	9:53 قل انفقوا طوعا او كرها لن يتقبل منكم انكم كنتم قوما فسقين
Edip-Layth	9:54 What prevented the acceptance of their spending was that they rejected God and His messenger, and they do not attend to the contact prayer except lazily, and they do not spend except unwillingly. 10
The Monotheist Group	9:54 And what prevented what they would spend from being accepted from them except that they rejected God and His messenger, and they do not attend the communion except lazily, and they do not spend except unwillingly.
Muhammad Asad	9:54 For, only this prevents their spending from being accepted from them: 77 they are bent on refusing to acknowledge God and His Apostle, and never pray without reluctance , 78 and never spend [on righteous causes] without resentment.
Rashad Khalifa	The Contact Prayer Existed Before Muhammad 9:54 What prevented the acceptance of their spending is that they disbelieved in GOD and His messenger, and when they observed the Contact Prayers (Salat) 7, they observed them lazily, and when they gave to charity, they did so grudgingly.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:54 What prevents their contributions from being accepted is this: They do not truly believe in God and His messenger. They only claim to believe (2:8). They join you in congregations of prayer only halfheartedly and just to be seen of men (4:142, 107:5). And they contribute only with great reluctance in their hearts. 20
Transliteration	9:54 Wama manaAAahum an tuqbala minhumnafaq atuhum illa annahum kafaroo biAlla ^h i wabirasoolihi wala ya/toona a lssalatailla wahum kus ala wal a yunfiqoona illawahum karihoona
A	9:54 وما منعهم ان تقبل منهم نفقتهم الا انهم كفروا بالله وبرسوله ولا ياتون الصلوة الا وهم كسالى ولا ينفقون الا وهم كرهون
Edip-Layth	Worldly Gains 9:55 So do not be impressed by their wealth or children; God only wishes to punish them with it in the worldly life, and so that their lives will end while they are ingrates.
The Monotheist Group	9:55 So do not be impressed by their wealth or children; God only wishes to punish them with it in the worldly life, and so that their lives will end while they are rejecters.
Muhammad Asad	9:55 Let not, then, their worldly goods or [the happiness which they may derive from] their children excite thy admiration: God but wants to chastise them by these means in this worldly life, and [to cause] their souls to depart while they are [still] denying the truth.
Rashad Khalifa	Apparent Worldly Success 9:55 Do not be impressed by their money, or their children. GOD causes these to be sources of retribution for them in this life, and (when they die) their souls depart while they are disbelievers.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:55 Let not their riches or their children and party astonish you (O Prophet!). God causes them to suffer retribution through these in the life of this world and they depart in sorrow while they are rejecters (9:85). 21
Transliteration	9:55 Fala tuAAajibka amw aluhum wal aawladuhum innam a yureedu All ahu liyuAAaththibahumbiha fee al hayati a Iddunyawatazhaqa anfusuhum wahum kafirooma

A	9:55 فلا تعجبك اموالهم ولا اولداهم انما يريد الله ليعذبهم بها فى الحياة الدنيا وتزهد انفسهم وهم كفرون
Edip-Layth	9:56 They swear by God that they are with you, while they are not with you; but they are timid and divisive people.
The Monotheist Group	9:56 And they swear by God that they are with you, while they are not with you; but they are a people who are indecisive.
Muhammad Asad	9:56 And they swear by God that they do indeed belong to you -the while they do not belong to you, but are [only] people ridden by fear:
Rashad Khalifa	9:56 They swear by GOD that they belong with you, while they do not belong with you; they are divisive people.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:56 And they swear by God that they are of you. In fact, they are not of you, they are people ridden with fear.
Transliteration	9:56 Waya h lifoona bi All h iinnahum laminkum wam a hum minkum wal a kinnahumqawmun yafraqoon a
A	9:56 ويحلفون بالله انهم لمنكم وما هم منكم ولكنهم قوم يفرقون
Edip-Layth	9:57 If they could find a refuge, a cave, or any place to enter, then they would have run to it, rushing.
The Monotheist Group	9:57 If they find a refuge, or cave, or any place to enter, then they would have run to it while they are in haste.
Muhammad Asad	9:57 if they could but find a place of refuge, or any cavern, or a crevice [in the earth], they would turn towards it in headlong haste. ⁸⁰
Rashad Khalifa	9:57 If they could find a refuge, or caves, or a hiding place, they would go to it, rushing.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:57 If they could find a refuge or a cave or a hiding place, they would rush to it like runaway horses.
Transliteration	9:57 Law yajidoona maljaan aw magh a ratinaw muddakhalan lawallaw ilayhi wahum yajma h oona
A	9:57 لو يجدون ملجا او مغرت او مدخلا لولوا اليه وهم يجمعون
Edip-Layth	9:58 Some of them are those who criticize you regarding the charities. If they are given from it, they are content; but if they are not given from it, they become enraged!
The Monotheist Group	9:58 And from them are those who criticize you regarding the charities. If they are given from it, they are content; and if they are not given from it, they become enraged!
Muhammad Asad	9:58 And among them are such as find fault with thee [O Prophet] concerning [the distribution of] the offerings given for the sake of God: ⁸¹ if they are given something thereof, they are well-pleased; but if they are not given anything thereof, lo! they are consumed with anger.
Rashad Khalifa	9:58 Some of them criticize your distribution of the charities; if they are given therefrom, they become satisfied, but if they are not given therefrom, they become objectors.

Shabbir Ahmed	9:58 Some of them try to find fault with you (O Prophet!) in the distribution of charity. If they are given plenty, they are pleased, but if they receive little share, they get enraged.
Transliteration	9:58 Waminhum man yalmizuka fee a lssadaqatifa-in oAAtoo minha radoo wa-in lam yuAAtawminha itha hum yaskhatooa
A	9:58 ومنهم من يلمزك في الصدقات فان اعطوا منها رضوا وان لم يعطوا منها اذا هم يسخطون
Edip-Layth	9:59 If only they were content with what God and His messenger had given them, and had said, "God suffices us; God will give us from His bounty, and so His messenger; it is to God that we desire."
The Monotheist Group	9:59 And if they had only been content with what God and His messenger had given them, and they had said: "God suffices; God will give us from His bounty, and His messenger; it is to God that we desire."
Muhammad Asad	9:59 And yet, [it would be but for their own good] if they were to content themselves with what God has given them and [caused] His Apostle [to give them], ⁸² and would say, "God is enough for us! God will give us [whatever He wills] out of His bounty, and [will cause] His Apostle [to give us, too]: verily, unto God alone do we turn with hope!"
Rashad Khalifa	9:59 They should be satisfied with what GOD and His messenger have given them. They should have said, "GOD suffices us. GOD will provide for us from His bounties, and so will His messenger. We are seeking only GOD."
Shabbir Ahmed	9:59 It would have been enormously good for them if they were content with what God and His messenger had given them. And if they had said, "God suffices us. God will give us of His bounty, and the messenger will distribute in kindness and equity. We turn to God with all our hopes." ²²
Transliteration	9:59 Walaw annahum ra doo m a atahumuAllahu warasooluhu waq aloo hasbunaAllahu sayu/teen a All ahu min fa dlihiwarasooluhu inn a il a All ahi raghiboona
A	9:59 ولو انهم رضوا ما ائتهم الله ورسوله وقالوا حسبنا الله سيوتينا الله من فضله ورسوله انا الى الله رغبون
Edip-Layth	Distribution of Charities 9:60 The charities are to go to the poor, the needy, those who work on their collection, those whose hearts are to be reconciled, free the slaves, those in debt, in the cause of God, and to the wayfarer. A duty from God; God is Knowledgeable, Wise.
The Monotheist Group	9:60 The charities are to go to the poor, and the needy, and those who work to collect them, and those whose hearts have been united, and to free the slaves, and those in debt, and in the cause of God, and the wayfarer. A duty from God, and God is Knowledgeable, Wise.
Muhammad Asad	9:60 The offerings given for the sake of God ⁸³ are [meant] only for the poor and the needy, and those who are in charge thereof, ⁸⁴ and those whose hearts are to be won over, and for the freeing of human beings from bondage, and [for] those who are over burdened with debts, and [for every struggle] in God's cause, and [for] the wayfarer: [this is] an ordinance from God - and God is all-knowing, wise. ⁸⁵
	Distribution System for Charities

Rashad Khalifa	9:60 Charities shall go to the poor, the needy, the workers who collect them, the new converts, to free the slaves, to those burdened by sudden expenses, in the cause of GOD, and to the traveling alien. Such is GOD's commandment. GOD is Omniscient, Most Wise.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:60 (The funds that the Central authority receives as) Alms and Charity (Sadaqaat) belong to the following categories: - The poor. Those who are not able to earn enough living to meet their basic needs, for any reason. - Those whose running businesses have stalled or the ones who have lost their jobs, those who have become needy with their active lives coming to a standstill. - Officers who have been appointed by the government to collect alms and charity. - Those who are hindered from joining the Divine System for financial reasons. - To free men and women from bondage of any kind: physical slavery, unjust captivity, and oppression from any quarters. -Those pressed under the load of ransom or heavy debt from an enemy. -Defense of the Ideological State, in the cause of God. - The wayfarer who becomes needy, or travels to the believers in destitute condition, and the homeless son of the street. This is a Duty from God. He is the Knower, the Wise and His commands are based on knowledge and wisdom. 23
Transliteration	9:60 Innama a lssadaqatulilfuqara-i wa almasakeeni wa alAAamileenaAAalayha waalmu-allafati quloobuhum wafee a lrriqabiwaalgharimeena wafee sabeeli All ahi waibnialssabeeli fareedatan mina Allahi waAllahuAAaleemun hakeemun
A	9:60 انما الصدقات للفقراء والمساكين والعاملين عليها والمولفة قلوبهم وفي الرقاب والغرمين وفي سبيل الله وابن السبيل فريضة من الله والله عليم حكيم
Edip-Layth	9:61 Among them are those who hurt the prophet, and they say, "He only listens!" Say, "What he listens to is best for you. He acknowledges God, he trusts those who acknowledge, and he is a mercy to those who acknowledge among you." Those who hurt God's messenger will have a painful retribution.
The Monotheist Group	9:61 And from them are those who harm the prophet, and they say: "He only listens!" Say: "What he listens to is best for you. He believes in God, and he has trust for the believers, and he is a mercy to those who believe among you." And those who harm God's messenger will have a painful retribution.
Muhammad Asad	9:61 AND AMONG those [enemies of the truth] there are such as malign the Prophet by saying, "He is all ear." 86 Say: "[Yes,] he is all ear, [listening] to what is good for you! 87 He believes in God, and trusts the believers, and is [a manifestation of God's] grace towards such of you as have [truly] attained to faith. And as for those who malign God's Apostle - grievous suffering awaits them [in the life to come]!"
Rashad Khalifa	9:61 Some of them hurt the prophet by saying, "He is all ears!" Say, "It is better for you that he listens to you. He believes in GOD, and trusts the believers. He is a mercy for those among you who believe." Those who hurt GOD's messenger have incurred a painful retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:61 And among those (enemies of the truth) are some who hurt the prophet and say, "He is only a hearer." Say, "A listener, that is good for you." He believes in God, has faith in the believers, and is a mercy to those of you who believe." Those who vex and hurt the messenger of God, for them is an awful punishment. 24
Transliteration	9:61 Waminhumu alla th eena yu/ th oonaalInnabiyya wayaqooloona huwa o th unun qul o th unukhayrin lakum yu/minu bi Allahi wayu/minulilmu/mineena wara ^h matun lillat ^h eena amanoominkum wa allat ^h eena yu/ th oona rasoola All a ^h ilahum AAat ^h abun aleem un

A	9:61 ومنهم الذين يوذون النبي ويقولون هو اذن قل اذن خير لكم يومن بالله ويومن للمومنين ورحمة للذين ءامنوا منكم والذين يوذون رسول الله لهم عذاب اليم
Edip-Layth	9:62 They swear to you by God in order to please you; while God and His messenger is more worthy to be pleased if they were those who acknowledge.
The Monotheist Group	9:62 They swear to you by God in order to please you; while God and His messenger are more worthy to be pleased if they are believers.
Muhammad Asad	9:62 [The hypocrites] swear to you by God [that they are acting in good faith], with a view to pleasing you [O believers] - the while it is God and His Apostle whose pleasure they should seek above all else, if indeed they are believers! ⁸⁸
Rashad Khalifa	9:62 They swear by GOD to you, to please you, when GOD and His messenger are more worthy of pleasing, if they are really believers.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:62 (O You who believe) People swear by God to you in order to please you (and improve personal relations). But it is more fitting that they should please God and His messenger, if they really believe (in the Divine Ideology).
Transliteration	9:62 Ya ^h lifoona bi ^{Alla} hilakum liyur ^{doo} kum wa ^{Alla} hu warasooluhu a ^{ha} qqan yur ^{doo} hu in ^{ka} n ^{oo} mu/mineena
A	9:62 يحلفون بالله لكم ليرضوكم والله ورسوله احق ان يرضوه ان كانوا مومنين
Edip-Layth	Hypocrites and Opponents 9:63 Did they not know that whoever is hostile towards God and His messenger, he will have the fire of hell to abide in. Such is the greatest humiliation.
The Monotheist Group	9:63 Did they not know that whoever is hostile towards God and His messenger, he will have the Fire of Hell to abide in. Such is the greatest humiliation.
Muhammad Asad	9:63 Do they not know that for him who sets himself against God and His Apostle there is in store the fire of hell, therein to abide -that most awesome disgrace?
Rashad Khalifa	Retribution for Opposing God and His Messenger 9:63 Did they not know that anyone who opposes GOD and His messenger has incurred the fire of Hell forever? This is the worst humiliation.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:63 Do they not know that whoever opposes God and His messenger, for him certainly is Hellfire, to abide therein? That is the supreme disgrace.
Transliteration	9:63 Alam yaAAalamoo annahu man yu ^{ha} di ^{di} Al ^{la} ha warasoolahu faanna lahu n ^a ra jahannama k ^{ha} lidanfee ^{ha} ^{tha} lika alkhizyu alAAa ^{the} emu
A	9:63 ألم يعلموا انه من يحادد الله ورسوله فان له نار جهنم خلدا فيها ذلك الخزي العظيم
Edip-Layth	9:64 The hypocrites fear that a chapter will be sent down against them exposing what is in their hearts. Say, "Mock, for God will bring out what you fear."
The Monotheist Group	9:64 The hypocrites fear that a chapter will be sent down which will expose what is in their hearts. Say: "Mock, for God will bring out what you fear."
Muhammad Asad	9:64 [Some of] the hypocrites dread lest a [new] surah be revealed [in evidence] against them, making them understand what is [really] in their hearts. ⁸⁹ Say: "Go on mocking! Behold, God will bring to light the very thing that you are dreading!" ⁹⁰
Rashad Khalifa	The Hypocrites 9:64 The hypocrites worry that a sura may be revealed exposing what is inside their hearts. Say, "Go ahead and mock. GOD will expose exactly what you are afraid of."

Shabbir Ahmed	9:64 The hypocrites fear that a Surah might be revealed concerning them, exposing what is in their hearts. Say, "Go on mocking! God will bring to light exactly what you are dreading."
Transliteration	9:64 Ya h tharu almun a f iqoona antunazzala AAalayhim sooratun tunabbi-ohum bima feequloobihim quli istahzi-oo inna All a ha mukhrijun ma t ah h aroona
A	9:64 يحذر المنافقون ان تنزل عليهم سورة تنبئهم بما فى قلوبهم قل استهزءوا ان الله مخرج ما تحذرون
Edip-Layth	9:65 If you ask them they say, "We were only jesting and playing." Say, "Is it in God and His signs and His messenger you were mocking?"
The Monotheist Group	9:65 And if you ask them they say: "We were only jesting and playing." Say: "Is it in God and His verses and His messenger you were mocking?"
Muhammad Asad	9:65 Yet, indeed, if thou wert to question them. they would surely answer, "We were only indulging in idle talk, and were playing [with words]. 91 Say: "Were you, then. mocking at God and His messages and His Apostle?"
Rashad Khalifa	9:65 If you ask them, they would say, "We were only mocking and kidding." Say, "Do you realize that you are mocking GOD, and His revelations, and His messenger?"
Shabbir Ahmed	9:65 And if you ask them (O Messenger!), they will say, "We only talk in jest." Say, "Do you realize that you are mocking God, His revelations and His messenger?"
Transliteration	9:65 Wala-in saaltahum layaqoolunna innam a kunna nakhoo du wanaAAabu qul abiAll a hiwa y atihi warasoolihi kuntum tastahzi-oona
A	9:65 ولئن سألتهم ليقولن انما كنا نخوض ونلعب قل ابالله وعائته ورسوله كنتم تستهزءون
Edip-Layth	9:66 Do not apologize, for you have rejected after your acknowledgement. Even if We pardon one group from you, We will punish another group, because they were criminals.
The Monotheist Group	9:66 Do not apologize, for you have rejected after your belief. If We pardon one group from you, We will punish another group. That is because they were criminals.
Muhammad Asad	9:66 Do not offer [empty] excuses! You have indeed denied the truth after [having professed] your belief [in it] - 92 Though We may efface the sin of some of you, We shall chastise others - seeing that they were lost in sin. 93
Rashad Khalifa	9:66 Do not apologize. You have disbelieved after having believed. If we pardon some of you, we will punish others among you, as a consequence of their wickedness.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:66 "Make no excuses. You have disbelieved after your confession of belief." If We forgive a group of you, there is another group whom We shall punish since they have violated human rights by stealing the fruit of others' labor." (Unless they restore their rights 4:17, 9:102, 25:70, 27:11).
Transliteration	9:66 La taAAat h iroom qad kafartumbaAAda eem a nikum in naAAafu AAan t a-ifatin minkumnuAAat h hib t a-ifatan bi-annahum kanoomujrimeena

A	9:66 لا تعتذروا قد كفرتم بعد ايمانكم ان نغف عن طائفة منكم نعذب طائفة بانهم كانوا مجرمين
Edip-Layth	9:67 The hypocrite men and the hypocrite women, they are the same. They order evil, deter from good, and they are tightfisted. They ignored God, so He ignored them; the hypocrites are the wicked.
The Monotheist Group	9:67 The hypocrite men and women, they are to each other. They order evil and deter from good, and they close their hands. They forgot God, so He forgot them; the hypocrites are the wicked.
Muhammad Asad	9:67 The hypocrites, both men and women. are all of a kind: they enjoin the doing of what is wrong and forbid the doing of what is right ⁹⁴ and withhold their hands [from doing good]. They are oblivious of God, and so He is oblivious of them. Verily, the hypocrites-it is they, they who are truly iniquitously ⁹⁵
Rashad Khalifa	9:67 The hypocrite men and the hypocrite women belong with each other - they advocate evil and prohibit righteousness, and they are stingy. They forgot GOD, so He forgot them. The hypocrites are truly wicked.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:67 The hypocrites, both men and women, are all of a kind. They enjoin the doing of what is wrong and forbid the doing of what is right, and withhold their hands from doing good. They have forgotten God, and so He has deprives them of His grace. Surely, the hypocrites drift away from humanity. ²⁵
Transliteration	9:67 Almunafiqoona wa almunafiqatubaAAduhum min baAA din ya/muroona bialmunkariwayanhawna AAani almaAAroofi wayaqbi doona aydiyahum nasooAllaha fanasiyahum inna almunafiqeena humu alfasiqoona
A	9:67 المنفقون والمنفقت بعضهم من بعض يأمرون بالمنكر وينهون عن المعروف ويقبضون ايديهم نسوا الله فنسيهم ان المنفقين هم الفسقون
Edip-Layth	9:68 God has promised the hypocrite men and women and the ingrates a fire in hell, in it they will abide; it suffices them. God has cursed them and they will have a lasting retribution.
The Monotheist Group	9:68 God has promised the hypocrite men and women and the rejecters a Fire in Hell, in it they will abide; it will be enough for them. And God has cursed them and they will have a lasting retribution.
Muhammad Asad	9:68 God- has promised the hypocrites, both men and women-as well as the [outright] deniers of the _ truth-the fire of hell, therein to abide: this shall be their allotted_ portion. For, God has rejected them, and long-lasting suffering awaits them.
Rashad Khalifa	9:68 GOD promises the hypocrite men and the hypocrite women, as well as the disbelievers, the fire of Hell, wherein they abide forever. It suffices them. GOD has condemned them; they have incurred an everlasting retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:68 God promises the hypocrites, both men and women, and the rejecters of the truth, the fire of Hell for their abode. It suffices them. They deprive themselves of the grace of God, and theirs is the lasting torment.
Transliteration	9:68 WaAAada Allahu almunafiqeenawaalmunafiqati waalkuffara narajahannama khalideena feeh a hiya hasbuhumwalaAAanahumu Allahu walahum AAa thabun muqeemun
A	9:68 وعد الله المنفقين والمنفقت والكفار نار جهنم خالدين فيها هي حسبهم ولعنهم الله ولهم

Edip-Layth	9:69 Like those before you; they were more powerful than you, and had more wealth and offspring. They enjoyed their lot, and you enjoyed your lot as those before you enjoyed their lives; and you indulged as they indulged. These are those whose works crumbled in this world and the hereafter, and they were the losers.
The Monotheist Group	9:69 Like those before them, they were more powerful than you, and with more wealth and offspring. They enjoyed their lives, and you enjoyed your lives as those before you enjoyed their lives; and you jested as they jested. They had their work crumble in this world and the next, and they were the losers.
Muhammad Asad	9:69 [Say unto them: "You are] like those [hypocrites] who lived before your time. ⁹⁶ Greater than you were they in power, and richer in wealth and in children; and they enjoyed their share [of happiness]. And you have been enjoying your share -just as those who preceded you enjoyed their share; and you have been indulging in scurrilous talk -just as they indulged in it. It is they .whose works have come to nought in this world and in the life to come - and it is they, they who are the cost!" ⁹⁷
Rashad Khalifa	God's System Does Not Change 9:69 Some of those before you were stronger than you, and possessed more money and children. They became preoccupied with their material possessions. Similarly, you have become preoccupied with your material possessions, just like those before you have become preoccupied. You have become totally heedless, just as they were heedless. Such are the people who nullify their works, both in this world and in the Hereafter; they are the losers.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:69 There have been people like you before who were mightier than you in strength, more affluent than you in wealth and children and party. They enjoyed their share of this worldly life. And you have been enjoying your share, just as they did, and you indulge in idle talk as they did. Such are the people whose works have perished in the world and in the life to come. And it is they, yes, those who are the losers.
Transliteration	9:69 Kaallatheena min qablikum k anooashadda minkum quwwatan waakthara amwalan waawl adanfaistamtaAAoo bikhal aqihim fa istamtaAAatumbikhalagikum kama istamtaAAa alla theena minqablikum bikhal aqihim wakhu dtum kaallatheekhadoo ola-ika habitat aAAlulumfee alddunya waal-akhirati waol a-ikahumu alkhasiroona
A	9:69 كالذين من قبلكم كانوا اشد منكم قوة واكثر امولا واولدا فاستمتعوا بخلقهم فاستمتعتم بخلقكم كما استمتع الذين من قبلكم بخلقهم وخضتم كالذى خاضوا اولئك حبطت اعمالهم فى الدنيا والءاخرة واولئك هم الخسرون
Edip-Layth	9:70 Had not the news of those before them come to them, the people of Noah and Aad and Thamud. The people of Abraham, and the dwellers of Midian, and those overthrown. Their messengers came to them with proofs; it was not God who wronged them, but it was themselves that they wronged.
The Monotheist Group	9:70 Did the news not come to them of those before them, the people of Noah and 'Aad and Thamud. And the people of Abraham, and the dwellers of Midyan, and those overthrown. Their messengers came to them with clarity; it was not God who wronged them, but it was themselves that they wronged.
	9:70 Have, then, the stories of those who preceded them never come within the ken of these [hypocrites and deniers of the truth]?-[the stories] of Noah's people, and of [the tribes of] `Ad and Thamud, and of Abraham's people, and of the folk

Muhammad Asad	of Madyan, and of the cities that were overthrown? ⁹⁸ To [all of] them their apostles had come with all evidence of the truth. [but they rejected them:] and so it was not God who wronged them [by His punishment], but it was they who wronged themselves.
Rashad Khalifa	The Losers 9:70 Have they not learned anything from the previous generations; the people of Noah, `Aad, Thamood, the people of Abraham, the dwellers of Midyan, and the evildoers (of Sodom and Gomorrah)? Their messengers went to them with clear proofs. GOD never wronged them; they are the ones who wronged their own souls.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:70 Has not the history reached them of those before them? Of the People of Noah, 'Aad, Thamud, Abraham's people, the dwellers of Midyan, and the disasters that befell them. Their messengers had come to them with clear evidence of the truth. God never did injustice to them. But they used to wrong their own people and thus wronged their own 'self'.
Transliteration	9:70 Alam ya/tihim nabao alla theena minqablihim qawmi noo hin waAA adin wathamooda waqawmiibr aheema waa s-habi madyana wa almu/tafikatiatat-hum rusuluhum bi albayyinati fam a k anaAllahu liya thlimahum wal akin kanooanfusahum ya thlimoona
A	9:70 ألم يأتهم نبا الذين من قبلهم قوم نوح وعاد وثمود وقوم ابراهيم واصحاب مدين والموتفكت انتهم رسلهم بالبينت فما كان الله ليظلمهم ولكن كانوا انفسهم يظلمون
Edip-Layth	9:71 The acknowledging men and women, they are allies to one another. They order good and deter from evil, and they hold the contact prayer, and they contribute towards betterment, and they obey God and His messenger. God will have mercy on them; God is Noble, Wise.
The Monotheist Group	9:71 And the believing men and women, they are allies to one another. They order good and deter from evil, and they uphold the communion, and they contribute towards betterment and they obey God and His messenger. God will have mercy on them; God is Noble, Wise.
Muhammad Asad	9:71 AND [as for] the believers, both men and women they are close unto one another: ⁹⁹ they [all] enjoin the doing of what is right and forbid the doing of what is wrong, and are constant in prayer, and render the purifying dues, and pay heed unto God and His Apostle. It is they upon whom God will bestow His grace: verily, God is almighty, wise!
Rashad Khalifa	The Winners 9:71 The believing men and women are allies of one another. They advocate righteousness and forbid evil, they observe the Contact Prayers (Salat) and give the obligatory charity (Zakat), and they obey GOD and His messenger. These will be showered by GOD's mercy. GOD is Almighty, Most Wise.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:71 And the believers, men and women, are colleagues of one another. They encourage virtue and discourage vice. Together, they help establish the Divine System, and set up the Economic Order of Zakaat. (This is how) they obey God and His messenger. These are the men and women on whom God will shower His mercy. God is Exalted in Power, Wise. ²⁶
Transliteration	9:71 Waalmu/minoona waalmu/minatubaAAduhum awliya baAAadin ya/muroona bialmaAAaroofiwayanhawna AAani almunkari wayuqeemoona a lssalatawayu/toona alzzakata wayuteeAAoona Allahawarasoolahu ola-ika sayar hamuhumu Allahuinna Allaha AAazeezun hakeemun
	9:71 والمؤمنون والمؤمنات بعضهم اولياء بعض يامرون بالمعروف وينهون عن المنكر

A	ويقيمون الصلوة ويوتون الزكاة ويطيعون الله ورسوله أولئك سيرحمهم الله ان الله عزيز حكيم
Edip-Layth	9:72 God has promised the acknowledging men and women gardens with rivers flowing beneath it, in which they will abide, and pleasing homes in the everlasting gardens. The acceptance from God is the most important; such is the greatest success.
The Monotheist Group	9:72 God has promised the believing men and women estates with rivers flowing beneath it, in which they will abide, and pleasing homes in the gardens of Eden. And the acceptance from God is the most important; such is the greatest success.
Muhammad Asad	9:72 God has promised the believers, both men and women, gardens through which running waters flow, therein to abide, and goodly dwellings in gardens of perpetual bliss: ¹⁰⁰ but God's goodly acceptance is the greatest [bliss of all] -for this, this is the triumph supreme!
Rashad Khalifa	9:72 GOD promises the believing men and the believing women gardens with flowing streams, wherein they abide forever, and magnificent mansions in the gardens of Eden. And GOD's blessings and approval are even greater. This is the greatest triumph.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:72 God promises to the believers, both men and women, Gardens underneath which rivers flow, wherein they will live forever, and magnificent dwellings in the Gardens of Eden. And God's Approval is the greatest of all blessings. That is the Supreme Triumph.
Transliteration	9:72 WaAAada Allahu almu/mineena wa almu/minatijannatin tajree min ta htiha al-anharukhalideena feeh a wamas akina tayyibatanfee jann ati AAadnin waridwanun mina Allahiakbaru thalika huwa alfawzu alAAaatheemu
A	9:72 وعد الله المومنين والمومنات جنت تجري من تحتها الانهر خلدن فيها ومسكن طيبة في جنت عدن ورضون من الله اكبر ذلك هو الفوز العظيم
Edip-Layth	9:73 O prophet, strive against the ingrates and the hypocrites and be firm against them. Their dwelling is hell, what a miserable destiny!
The Monotheist Group	9:73 O prophet, strive against the rejecters and the hypocrites and be firm against them. Their dwelling is Hell, what a miserable destiny!
Muhammad Asad	9:73 O PROPHET! Strive hard against the deniers of the truth and the hypocrites, and be adamant with them. ¹⁰¹ And [if they do not repent,] their goal shall be hell -and how vile a journey's end!
Rashad Khalifa	You Shall Be Stern With the Disbelievers 9:73 O you prophet, strive against the disbelievers and the hypocrites, and be stern in dealing with them. Their destiny is Hell; what a miserable abode!
Shabbir Ahmed	9:73 * O Prophet! Strive hard against the rejecters of the truth and the hypocrites! And be tough with them without the least inclination towards compromise in matters of Ideology. Their ultimate abode is Hell, surely a miserable destination.
Transliteration	9:73 Ya ayyuh a a Innabiyyu j ahidialkuffara wa almunafiqeena waoghlu th AAalayhim wama/wahum jahannamu wabi/sa almas ^{eer} u
A	9:73 ياايها النبي جهد الكفار والمنفقين واغظ عليهم وماوبهم جهنم وبئس المصير
	9:74 They swear by God that they did not say it, while they had said the word of

Edip-Layth	rejection, and they rejected after they had peacefully surrendered, and they were concerned with what they could not possess; and they could not find any fault except that God and His messenger had enriched them from His bounty. If they repent it is better for them, and if they turn away, then God will punish them severely in this world and the next. They will not have on earth any ally or supporter.
The Monotheist Group	9:74 They swear by God that they did not say it, while they had said the word of rejection, and they rejected after they had submitted, and they were concerned with what they could not possess; and they could not find any fault except that God and His messenger had enriched them from His bounty. If they repent it is better for them, and if they turn away, then God will punish them severely in this world and the next. They will not have on Earth any ally or supporter.
Muhammad Asad	9:74 [The hypocrites] swear by God that they have said nothing [wrong]; yet most certainly have they uttered a saying which amounts to a denial of the truth, ¹⁰² and have [thus] denied the truth after [having professed] their self-surrender to God: for they were aiming at something which was beyond their reach. ¹⁰³ And they could find no fault [with the Faith] save that God had enriched them and [caused] His Apostle [to enrich them] out of His bounty! ¹⁰⁴ Hence, if they repent, it will be for their own good. but if they turn away, God will cause them to suffer grievous suffering in this world and in the life to come, and they will find no helper on earth, and none to give [them] succour.
Rashad Khalifa	9:74 They swear by GOD that they never said it, although they have uttered the word of disbelief; they have disbelieved after becoming submitters. In fact, they gave up what they never had. They have rebelled even though GOD and His messenger have showered them with His grace and provisions. If they repent, it would be best for them. But if they turn away, GOD will commit them to painful retribution in this life and in the Hereafter. They will find no one on earth to be their lord and master.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:74 (The hypocrites) swear by God that they have said nothing wrong. Yet they most certainly have uttered a word of disbelief (9:61-62). And they have denied the truth after professing their surrender to God. They were aiming at something beyond their reach (attaining inner peace without sincerity to the Divine guidance). And they could find no fault in the Divine System except that God has enriched them and caused His messenger to enrich them out of His bounty. So, it will be good for them if they repent and correct themselves. But if they still turn away, God will cause them to suffer grievous retribution in this world and in the life to come. And they will have no protector or helper on earth.
Transliteration	9:74 Yahlifooona bi Allahi m aqaloo walaqad q aloo kalimata alkufri wakafaroobaAAda islamihi wahammoo bima lam yan aloowama naqamoo illa an aghnagumu All ahuwarasooluhu min fa dlihi fa-in yatooboo yaku khayran lahumwa-in yatawallaw yuAAA ththibhumu All ahu AAa thabanaleeman fee alddunya waal-akhiratiwama lahum fee al-ardi min waliyyin wala naseerin
A	9:74 يحلفون بالله ما قالوا ولقد قالوا كلمة الكفر وكفروا بعد اسلمهم وهموا بما لم ينالوا وما نقموا الا ان اغنهم الله ورسوله من فضله فان يتوبوا يك خيرا لهم وان يتولوا يعذبهم الله عذابا ليما في الدنيا والءخرة وما لهم في الارض من ولى ولا نصير
Edip-Layth	9:75 Some of them pledged to God: "If He gives us from His bounty, then we will acknowledge and we will be amongst the reformed."
The Monotheist Group	9:75 And from them are those who pledged to God: "If He gives us from His bounty, then we will believe and we will be amongst the upright."
	9:75 And among them are such as vow unto God, "If indeed He grant us

Muhammad Asad	[something] out of His bounty, we shall most certainly spend in charity, and shall most certainly be among the righteous!"
Rashad Khalifa	9:75 Some of them even pledged: "If GOD showered us with His grace, we would be charitable, and would lead a righteous life."
Shabbir Ahmed	9:75 And among them are those who promise God, "If He gives us of His bounty we will certainly spend in charity and will certainly become of the righteous, the ones who help others."
Transliteration	9:75 Waminhum man AA ahada All ahala-in atana min fa dlihi lanassaddaqqannawalanakoonanna mina alssaliheena
A	9:75 ومنهم من عهد الله لن ءاتنا من فضله لنصدقن ولنكونن من الصالحين
Edip-Layth	9:76 Yet when He gave them of His bounty, they became stingy with it, and they turned away in aversion.
The Monotheist Group	9:76 So when He gave them of His bounty, they became stingy with it, and they turned away while they were averse.
Muhammad Asad	9:76 But as soon as He has given them [aught] out of His bounty. they cling to it niggardly, and turn away in their obstinacy [from all that they have vowed]:
Rashad Khalifa	9:76 But when He did shower them with His provisions, they became stingy, and turned away in aversion.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:76 Yet, when He gave them of His bounty they hoarded it and turned away from their promise.
Transliteration	9:76 Falamma atahum min fadlihibakhiloo bihi watawallaw wahum muAAari doona
A	9:76 فلما ءاتهم من فضله بخلوا به وتولوا وهم معرضون
Edip-Layth	9:77 Thus, they ended up with hypocrisy in hearts until the day they meet Him; that is for breaking what they promised to God, and for what they were lying.
The Monotheist Group	9:77 Thus, hypocrisy followed in their hearts until the Day they meet Him; that is for breaking what they promised God, and for what they were lying.
Muhammad Asad	9:77 whereupon He causes hypocrisy to take root in their hearts, [therein to remain] until the Day on which they shall meet Him" 105 - because they have failed to fulfil the vow which they had made unto God, and because they were wont to lie. 106
Rashad Khalifa	9:77 Consequently, He plagued them with hypocrisy in their hearts, till the day they meet Him. This is because they broke their promises to GOD, and because of their lying.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:77 God's law instilled hypocrisy in their hearts till the Day they meet Him (until their demise). This is because they broke their word to God that they promised Him, and because they lied again and again.
Transliteration	9:77 FaaAAqabahum nifaqqan fee quloobihimila yawmi yalqawnahu bim a akhlafoo Allaha mawaAAadoohu wabima kanoo yakthiboona
A	9:77 فاعقبهم نفاقا فى قلوبهم الى يوم يلقونه بما اخلفوا الله ما وعده وبما كانوا يكذبون
Edip-Layth	9:78 Did they not know that God knows their secrets, their conspiracies, and that God is the knower of all the unseen?

The Monotheist Group	9:78 Did they not know that God knows their secrets, and their conspiracies, and that God is the knower of all the unseen?
Muhammad Asad	9:78 Do they not know that God knows [all] their hidden thoughts and their secret confabulations, and that God knows fully all the things that are beyond the reach of human perception'?
Rashad Khalifa	9:78 Do they not realize that GOD knows their secrets, and their conspiracies, and that GOD is the Knower of all secrets?
Shabbir Ahmed	9:78 Are they not aware that God knows their thoughts and secret consultations and that God is the Great Knower of all that is Hidden?
Transliteration	9:78 Alam yaAAalamoo anna All aha yaAAalamusirrahum wanajw ahum waanna Allaha AAallaamualghuyoobi
A	9:78 ألم يعلموا ان الله يعلم سرهم ونجوتهم وان الله علم الغيوب
Edip-Layth	9:79 God mocks those who criticize the generous acknowledgers for giving too much; and disdain those who do not have anything to give but their effort, God disdains them, and they will have a painful retribution.
The Monotheist Group	9:79 Those who criticize the volunteers among the believers in charities; that they only have their effort to give; so they mock them. God mocks them, and they will have a painful retribution.
Muhammad Asad	9:79 [It is these hypocrites] who find fault with such of the believers as give for the sake of God ¹⁰⁷ more than they are duty-bound to give, as well as with, such as find nothing [to give] beyond [the meagre fruits of] their toil, and who scoff at them [all]. ¹⁰⁸ God will cause their scoffing to rebound on themselves. ¹⁰⁹ and grievous suffering awaits them.
Rashad Khalifa	9:79 Those who criticize the generous believers for giving too much, and ridicule the poor believers for giving too little, GOD despises them. They have incurred a painful retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:79 It is these (hypocrites) who find fault with such of the believers who give generously, and they find fault with such believers who have nothing to give but their toil and labor. They ridicule them all. God's Law of Requital will cause their ridicule to rebound on themselves, and grievous suffering awaits them.
Transliteration	9:79 Allatheena yalmizoonu almu ttawwiAAeenamina almu/mineena fee alssadaqati wa allatheenala yajidoona ill a juhdaum fayaskharoona minhumsakhira Allahu minhum walahum AAathabun aleem un
A	9:79 الذين يلمزون المطوعين من المؤمنين في الصدقات والذين لا يجدون الا جهدهم فيسخرون منهم سخر الله منهم ولهم عذاب اليم
Edip-Layth	Muhammad Did Not Have Power of Intercession 9:80 Whether you seek forgiveness for them, or do not seek forgiveness for them. If you seek forgiveness for them seventy times, God will not forgive them. That is because they have rejected God and His messenger; and God does not guide the wicked people. ¹¹
The Monotheist Group	9:80 Whether you seek forgiveness for them, or do not seek forgiveness for them. If you seek forgiveness for them seventy times, God will not forgive them. That is because they have rejected God and His messenger; and God does not guide the wicked people.
	9:80 [And] whether thou dost pray [unto God] that they be forgiven or dost not

Muhammad Asad	pray for them - [it will all be the same: for even] if thou wert to pray seventy times ¹¹⁰ that they be forgiven, God will not forgive them, seeing that they are bent on denying God and His Apostle. And God does not bestow His guidance upon such iniquitous folk. ¹¹¹
Rashad Khalifa	Satan's Most Effective Bait: The Myth of Intercession 9:80 Whether you ask forgiveness for them, or do not ask forgiveness for them - even if you ask forgiveness for them seventy times - GOD will not forgive them. This is because they disbelieve in GOD and His messenger. GOD does not guide the wicked people. ⁸
Shabbir Ahmed	9:80 (O Prophet! You very compassionately ask forgiveness for them.) It does not matter if you ask forgiveness for them, or not, God will not forgive them even if you ask seventy times for their forgiveness. They have rejected God and His messenger. God does not intervene to guide people who intentionally drift away from the right path.
Transliteration	9:80 Istaghfir lahum aw l a tastaghfir lahum in tastaghfir lahum sabAAeena marratan falan yaghfira All a hulahum t h a l i k a bi-annahum kafaroo biAll a h i w a r a s o o l i h i w a A l l a h u l a y a h d e e a l q a w m a a l f a s i q e e n a
A	9:80 استغفر لهم او لا تستغفر لهم ان تستغفر لهم سبعين مرة فلن يغفر الله لهم ذلك بانهم كفروا بالله ورسوله والله لا يهدي القوم الفاسقين
Edip-Layth	9:81 Those who were left behind rejoiced their staying behind God's messenger, and they disliked to strive with their wealth and lives in the cause of God. They said, "Do not march out in the heat." Say, "The fire of hell is far hotter." If they could only understand!
The Monotheist Group	9:81 Those who have remained are happy with their position of lagging behind God's messenger, and they disliked striving with their wealth and lives in the cause of God; and they say: "Do not mobilize in the heat." Say: "The fire of Hell is far hotter," if they could only understand.
Muhammad Asad	9:81 THOSE [hypocrites] who were left behind rejoiced in their staying away [from war] ¹¹² after [the departure of] God's Apostle, for they hated the thought of striving with their possessions and their lives in God's cause; and they had [even] said [to the others], "Do not go forth to war in this heat!" Say: "The fire of hell is hotter by far!" Had they but grasped this truth!
Rashad Khalifa	9:81 The sedentary rejoiced in their staying behind the messenger of GOD, and hated to strive with their money and their lives in the cause of GOD. They said, "Let us not mobilize in this heat!" Say, "The fire of Hell is much hotter," if they could only comprehend.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:81 Those (hypocrites) who were left behind, rejoiced in their sitting back behind the messenger of God, and disliked to strive with their wealth and persons in God's cause. They said, "Let us not go forth in heat." Say, "The fire of Hell is more intense", if they but understood. ²⁸
Transliteration	9:81 F a r i h a a l m u k h a l l a f o o n a b i m a q A A a d i h i m k h i l a f a r a s o o l i A l l a h i w a k a r i h o o a n y u j a h i d o o b i - a m w a l i h i m w a a n f u s i h i m f e e s a b e e l i A l l a h i w a q a l o o l a t a n f i r o o f e e a l h a r r i q u l n a r u j a h a n n a m a a s h a d d u h a r r a n l a w k a n o o y a f q a h o o n a
A	9:81 فرح المخلفون بمقعدهم خلف رسول الله وكرهوا ان يجهدوا بامولهم وانفسهم في سبيل الله وقالوا لا تنفروا في الحر قل نار جهنم اشد حرا لو كانوا يفقهون
Edip-Layth	9:82 Let them laugh a little, and cry a lot, as a recompense for what they had earned.

The Monotheist Group	9:82 Let them laugh a little, and cry a lot, a recompense for what they had earned.
Muhammad Asad	9:82 Let them, then, laugh a little -.for they will weep a lot ¹¹³ in return for what they have earned.
Rashad Khalifa	9:82 Let them laugh a little, and cry a lot. This is the requital for the sins they have earned.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:82 Then let them laugh a little, they will weep much, as the reward of what they have earned.
Transliteration	9:82 Falyad ^h akoo qaleelan walyabkookatheeran jaza ^a an bima ^a ka ⁿ ooo yaksiboon ^a
A	9:82 فليضحكوا قليلا وليبكوا كثيرا جزاء بما كانوا يكسبون
Edip-Layth	9:83 If God returns you to a group of them, and they ask your permission to come with you, then say, "You will not come with me ever; nor will you fight any enemy with me. You had accepted staying behind the first time, so stay with those who remain behind."
The Monotheist Group	9:83 If God returns you to a group of them, and they ask your permission to come with you, then say: "You will not come with me ever; nor will you fight any enemy with me. You had accepted staying behind the first time, so stay with those who remain behind."
Muhammad Asad	9:83 Hence, [O Prophet,] if God brings thee again face to face with some of them," ¹¹⁴ and then they ask thy leave to go forth [to war with thee], say: "Never shall you go forth with me. nor shall you fight an enemy together with me! Behold, you were well-pleased to stay at home on that first occasion: stay at home, then, with, those who [are obliged to] remain behind!" ¹¹⁵
Rashad Khalifa	9:83 If GOD returns you to a situation where they ask your permission to mobilize with you, you shall say, "You will never again mobilize with me, nor will you ever fight with me against any enemy. For you have chosen to be with the sedentary in the first place. Therefore, you must stay with the sedentary."
Shabbir Ahmed	9:83 If God returns you to a situation where they ask your permission to go forth, say, "You shall never again come out with me, nor fight an enemy with me. For you were well pleased sitting back the first time. Then, stay back with those who stay behind (women, children, elderly men, the sick and the disabled).
Transliteration	9:83 Fa-in rajaAAaka All ^a ahu ila ^a ta-ifatinminhum faista/ ^h thanooka lilkhurooji faqul lantakhrujoo maAAiya abadan walan tuq ^a atiloo maAAiya AAaduwwaninnakum radeetum bialquAAoodi awwala marratin faoqAAaudoomaAAa alkh ^a lifeena
A	9:83 فان رجعت الله الى طائفة منهم فاستذنوك للخروج فقل لن تخرجوا معي ابدا ولن تقتلوا معي عدوا انكم رضيتم بالقيود اول مرة فاقعدوا مع الخلفين
Edip-Layth	9:84 Do not show support for anyone of them who dies, nor stand at his grave. They have rejected God and His messenger and died while they were wicked.
The Monotheist Group	9:84 And do not commune over any of them who have died, nor stand at their grave. They have rejected God and His messenger and died while they were wicked.
Muhammad Asad	9:84 And never shalt thou pray over any of them that has died, and never shalt thou stand by his grave: ¹¹⁶ for, behold, they were bent on denying God and His

	Apostle, and they died in this their iniquity. ¹¹⁷
Rashad Khalifa	9:84 You shall not observe the funeral prayer for any of them when he dies, nor shall you stand at his grave. They have disbelieved in GOD and His messenger, and died in a state of wickedness.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:84 Nor shall you (O Prophet!) ever follow the funeral of any of them that dies, nor stand at his grave. They rejected God and His messenger, and drifted away from the Divine Commands till death.
Transliteration	9:84 Walā tu ṣalli AAal a ḥadinminhum m ata abadan wal a taqum AAal a qabrihiinnahum kafaroo biAllāhi warasoolihi wamaṭoowahum faṣiqoona
A	9:84 ولا تصل على احد منهم مات ابدا ولا تقم على قبره انهم كفروا بالله ورسوله وماتوا وهم فسقون
Edip-Layth	Do Not Be Impressed by Their Wealth 9:85 Do not also be impressed by their wealth and their children; God only wishes to punish them with it in this world, and their selves will vanish while they are ingrates.
The Monotheist Group	9:85 And do not be impressed by their wealth and their children; God only wishes to punish them with it in this world, and so their souls will be taken to death while they are rejecters.
Muhammad Asad	9:85 And let not their worldly goods and [the happiness which they may derive from] their children excite thy admiration: God but wants to chastise them by these means in [the life of] this world, and [to cause] their souls to depart while they are [still] denying the truth. ¹¹⁸
Rashad Khalifa	Worldly Materials Are Nil 9:85 Do not be impressed by their money or their children; GOD causes these to be sources of misery for them in this world, and their souls depart as disbelievers.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:85 Let not their wealth or their children or party impress you! God causes these things to be a suffering for them in this world, and their 'self' departs while they are disbelievers (9:55). ²⁹
Transliteration	9:85 Walā tuAAajibka amw aluhum waawl aduhuminnama yureedu All ahu an yuAAaththibahum bihafee alddunya watazhaqa anfusuhum wahum kaḥfiroona
A	9:85 ولا تعجبك اموالهم واولدهم انما يريد الله ان يعذبهم بها فى الدنيا وتزهد انفسهم وهم كفرون
Edip-Layth	9:86 If a chapter is sent down: "That you shall acknowledge God and strive with His messenger," those with wealth and influence ask your permission and they say, "Let us be with those who remain behind."
The Monotheist Group	9:86 And if a chapter is sent down: "That you shall believe in God and strive with His messenger," those with wealth and influence ask your permission and they say: "Let us be with those who remain behind."
Muhammad Asad	9:86 [They are indeed denying it:] for, when they were called upon through revelation, ¹¹⁹ "Believe in God, and strive hard [in His cause] together with His Apostle," [even] such of them as were well able [to go to war] asked thee for exemption, saying, "Allow us to stay behind with those who remain at home!" ¹²⁰
Rashad Khalifa	9:86 When a sura is revealed, stating: "Believe in GOD, and strive with His messenger," even the strong among them say, "Let us stay behind!"

Shabbir Ahmed	9:86 When a Surah is revealed saying, "Attain belief in God, and strive along with His messenger", the able-bodied men of wealth ask your leave and say, "Allow us to stay behind with those who remain at home."
Transliteration	9:86 Wa-i tha onzilat sooratun an a minoobi Alla hi waj a hidoo maAAa rasoolihi ista/ th anakaoloo al tt awli minhum waq a loo th ar na nakun maAAa alq a AAideena
A	9:86 واذا انزلت سورة ان ءامنوا بالله وجهدوا مع رسوله استذكرك اولوا الطول منهم وقالوا ذرنا نكن مع القعدين
Edip-Layth	9:87 They were content to stay with those who remained behind, and it was stamped on their hearts, for they do not reason.
The Monotheist Group	9:87 They were content to stay with those who remained behind, and it was stamped on their hearts, for they do not comprehend.
Muhammad Asad	9:87 They were well-pleased to remain with those who were left behind - where for their hearts have been sealed, ¹²¹ so that they cannot grasp the truth.
Rashad Khalifa	9:87 They chose to be with the sedentary. Consequently, their hearts were sealed, and thus, they cannot comprehend.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:87 They are well pleased to be with the disabled, the elderly, the women and children, and the ill. This attitude puts a seal on their hearts. They seldom understand (that fear can only be overcome with action 2:277, 6:48, 6:81).
Transliteration	9:87 Ra doo bi-an yakoonoo maAAa alkhaw a lifiwa t ubiAAa AAa la quloobihim fahum la y afqahoona
A	9:87 رضوا بان يكونوا مع الخوالف وطبع على قلوبهم فهم لا يفقهون
Edip-Layth	Strive For Good Causes 9:88 But the messenger and those who acknowledge with him have strived with their money and their lives. For them will be the good things, and they are the successful ones.
The Monotheist Group	9:88 But the messenger and those who believe with him have strived with their money and their lives. For them will be the good things, and they are the successful ones.
Muhammad Asad	9:88 The Apostle, however, and all who share his faith strive hard [in God's cause] with, their possessions and their lives: and it is they whom the most excellent things await [in the life to come], and it is they, they who shall attain to a happy state!
Rashad Khalifa	True Believers are Eager to Strive 9:88 As for the messenger and those who believed with him, they eagerly strive with their money and their lives. These have deserved all the good things; they are the winners.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:88 And the messenger, and those who believe with him, strive with their wealth and person. For them are all the good things and high ranks, and they are the ones who are truly prosperous.
Transliteration	9:88 La k ini a Irrasoolu wa a llat he ena a manoo maAAa hu j a hadoo bi-amwa li himwaanfusihim waol a -ika lahumu alkhayr a tu waol a -ikahumu almufli h oona
A	9:88 لكن الرسول والذين ءامنوا معه جهدوا بامولهم وانفسهم واولئك لهم الخيرت واولئك هم المفلحون

Edip-Layth	9:89 God has prepared for them gardens with rivers flowing beneath, in them they shall abide. Such is the great gain.
The Monotheist Group	9:89 God has prepared for them estates with rivers flowing beneath, in them they shall abide. Such is the great gain.
Muhammad Asad	9:89 God has readied for them gardens through which running waters flow, therein to abide: and this is the triumph supreme!
Rashad Khalifa	9:89 GOD has prepared for them gardens with flowing streams, wherein they abide forever. This is the greatest triumph.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:89 God has made ready for them Gardens beneath which rivers flow, wherein they will abide. That is the signal Victory.
Transliteration	9:89 aAAadda Allahu lahum jannatintajree min tahtiha al-anharu khalideenafeeha thalika alfawzu alAAaath ^{ee} mu
A	9:89 اعد الله لهم جنت تجري من تحتها الانهر خلدین فیها ذلك الفوز العظيم
Edip-Layth	9:90 Those who made excuses from among the Arabs came to get permission. Thus, those who denied God and His messenger stayed behind. Those who rejected from them will be inflicted with a painful retribution.
The Monotheist Group	9:90 And those who had an excuse from among the Nomads came so permission would be given to them, and those who denied God and His messenger simply stayed behind. Those who rejected from them will be inflicted with a painful retribution.
Muhammad Asad	9:90 AND THERE came [unto the Apostle] such of the bedouin as had some excuse to offer, [with the request] that they be granted exemption, ¹²² whereas those who were bent on giving the lie to God and His Apostle [simply] remained at home. ¹²³ [And] grievous suffering is bound to befall such of them as are bent on denying the truth!
Rashad Khalifa	9:90 The Arabs made up excuses, and came to you seeking permission to stay behind. This is indicative of their rejection of GOD and His messenger - they stay behind. Indeed, those who disbelieve among them have incurred a painful retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:90 And of the desert Arabs also, there were some who made excuses and came to claim exemption. And those who were false to God and His messenger, merely sat behind. Grievous suffering is bound to befall the unbelievers among them.
Transliteration	9:90 Wajaa almuAAa ththiir ^{oo} na minaal-AAAr abi liyu/ thana lahum waqaAAada allatheenakathaboo All aha warasoolahu sayu seebu alla theenakafaroo minhum AAaath ^{ab} un aleem un
A	9:90 وجاء المعزرون من الاعراب ليؤذن لهم وقعد الذين كذبوا الله ورسوله سيصيب الذين كفروا منهم عذاب اليم
Edip-Layth	Handicapped People Are Protected 9:91 There is no blame to be placed upon the weak, the sick, or those who do not find anything to spend on, as long as they are sincere to God and His messenger. There is no argument against the good doers; and God is Forgiving, Compassionate.
The Monotheist Group	9:91 There is no blame to be placed upon the weak, or the sick, or those who do not find anything to spend on, if they are sincere to God and His messenger.

	There is no argument against the good doers; and God is Forgiving, Merciful.
Muhammad Asad	9:91 [But] no blame shall attach to the weak, ¹²⁴ nor to the sick, nor to those who have no means. [to equip themselves], ¹²⁵ provided that they are sincere towards God and His Apostle: there is no cause to reproach the doers of good, for God is much-forgiving, a dispenser of grace.
Rashad Khalifa	9:91 Not to be blamed are those who are weak, or ill, or do not find anything to offer, so long as they remain devoted to GOD and His messenger. The righteous among them shall not be blamed. GOD is Forgiver, Most Merciful.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:91 Not to be blamed are the physically weak, the elderly, the sick, and the ones who have no means to offer, so long as they are sincere to God and His messenger (48:17). They should do what they can to support the cause. There is no way of blame against the doers of such good. God is Forgiving, Merciful.
Transliteration	9:91 Laysa AAal a a IdduAAafa-iwala AAal a almar da wal a AAal aallatheena l a yajidoona m a yunfiqoona harajuni th a na sa ^{hoo} lill ahi warasoolihi m aAAala almu ^h sineena min sabeelin waAlla ^h ughafa ^{oorun} ra ^{heemun}
A	9:91 ليس على الضعفاء ولا على المرضى ولا على الذين لا يجدون ما ينفقون حرج اذا نصحوا الله ورسوله ما على المحسنين من سبيل والله غفور رحيم
Edip-Layth	9:92 Nor upon those who come to ride out with you, while you said, "I do not have any mounts for you;" they turned away while their eyes were flooded with tears out of sadness, for they could not find anything to contribute.
The Monotheist Group	9:92 Nor upon those who come to ride out with you, while you said: "I do not have any mounts for you;" they turned away while their eyes were flooded with tears out of sadness, for they could not find anything to contribute.
Muhammad Asad	9:92 Nor [shall blame attach] to those who, when they came unto thee [O Prophet, with the request] that thou provide them with mounts, were told by thee, "I cannot find anything whereon to mount you" - [whereupon] they turned away, their eyes overflowing with tears out of sorrow that they had no means to spend [on their equipment].
Rashad Khalifa	9:92 Also excused are those who come to you wishing to be included with you, but you tell them, "I do not have anything to carry you on." They then turn back with tears in their eyes, genuinely saddened that they could not afford to contribute.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:92 Nor is there any blame on those who came to you (O Messenger!) requesting that you provide them with mounts (horses and camels). You told them, "I cannot find a ride to mount you on." They returned with eyes flowing with tears out of sorrow that they had no means to spend for equipment.
Transliteration	9:92 Wala AAal a alla theena i th ama atawka lita ^h milahum qulta l a ajidu ma ^{ah} milukum AAalayhi tawallaw waaAAayunuhum tafee ^u mina a IddamAAi hazanan alla yajidoo ma ^y unfiqoona
A	9:92 ولا على الذين اذا ما اتوك لتحملهم قلت لا اجد ما احملكم عليه تولوا واعينهم تفيض من الدمع حزنا الا يجدوا ما ينفقون
Edip-Layth	9:93 Indeed, the argument is against those who sought your permission to stay while they had the means. They accepted to be with those who remained behind; God stamped their hearts, for they do not know.
The Monotheist Group	9:93 Indeed, the argument is against those who sought your permission to stay while they were rich. They accepted to be with those who remained behind, and God stamps their hearts, for they do not know.

Muhammad Asad	9:93 Only they may rightly be reproached who asked thee for exemption even though they were fully able [to go to war]. ¹²⁶ They were well-pleased to remain with those who were left behind -wherefore God has sealed their hearts, so that they do not know [what they are doing].
Rashad Khalifa	9:93 The blame is on those who ask your permission to stay behind, even though they have no excuse. They have chosen to be with the sedentary. Consequently, GOD has sealed their hearts, and thus, they do not attain any knowledge.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:93 The way of blame is only against those who ask for your leave when they are rich and able-bodied. They are well pleased to be with those who are obliged to stay behind. They have caused God's Law of Requit to seal their hearts without knowing it.
Transliteration	9:93 Innama a Issabeelu AAal aallatheena yasta/ thinoonaka wahum aghniya ¹²⁶ aorad ¹²⁶ oo bi-an yakoonoo maAAa alkhaw alifi wa tabaAAaAllahu AAal a quloobihim fahum la yaAAlamoona
A	9:93 انما السبيل على الذين يستذنونك وهم اغنياء رضوا بان يكونوا مع الخوالف وطبع الله على قلوبهم فهم لا يعلمون
Edip-Layth	Ignore the Hypocrites 9:94 They will apologize to you when you return to them. Say, "Do not apologize; we will no longer trust you, for God has told us of your news." God will see your work, as will His messenger, then you will be returned to the knower of the unseen and the seen, He will inform you of what you did.
The Monotheist Group	9:94 They will apologize to you when you return to them, say: "Do not apologize, we will not believe you, for God has told us of your news." And God will see your work, as will His messenger, then you will be returned to the knower of the unseen and the seen, He will inform you of what you did.
Muhammad Asad	9:94 [And] they will [still] be offering excuses to you when you return to them ,[from the campaign]! Say: "Do not offer [empty] excuses, [for] we shall not believe you: God has already enlightened us about you. And God will behold your [future] deeds, and [so will] His Apostle; and in the end you will be brought before Him ¹²⁷ who knows all that is beyond the reach of a created being's perception as well as all that can be witnessed by a creature's senses or mind, ¹²⁸ and then He will make you truly understand what you were doing [in life]."
Rashad Khalifa	Hard Times Serve to Expose the Hypocrites 9:94 They apologize to you when you return to them (from battle). Say, "Do not apologize; we no longer trust you. GOD has informed us about you." GOD will see your works, and so will the messenger, then you will be returned to the Knower of all secrets and declarations, then He will inform you of everything you had done.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:94 They will make excuse to you when you believers return. Say, "Make no excuse, for we shall not believe you. God has informed us about you. God and His messenger, the Central authority, will keep you under probation. And then you will be brought back to Him, the Knower of the Invisible and the Visible, and He will tell you what you had been doing."
Transliteration	9:94 YaAAata ¹²⁷ thiroona ilaykum i tharajaAAatum ilayhim qul I a taAAata thiroo lan nu/minalakum qad nabbaan a All ahu min akhb arikumwasayara All ahu AAamalakum warasooluhu thummaturaddoona il a AA alimi alghaybi waalshshahadatifayunabbi-okum bima kuntum taAAamaloona

A	9:94 يعتذرون اليكم اذا رجعتم اليهم قل لا تعتذروا لن نؤمن لكم قد نبأنا الله من اخباركم وسيرى الله عملكم ورسوله ثم تردون الى علم الغيب والشهادة فينبئكم بما كنتم تعملون
Edip-Layth	9:95 They will swear by God to you when you return to them, so that you may overlook them. So overlook them, for they are tainted, and their destiny is hell as a recompense for what they earned.
The Monotheist Group	9:95 They will swear by God to you, when you return to them, so that you would let them be. So let them be, for they are foul, and their destiny is Hell as a recompense for what they earned.
Muhammad Asad	9:95 When you will have returned to them, (O believers,) they will swear to you by God, [repeating their excuses,] with a view to your letting them be. 129 Let them be, then: behold, they are loathsome, and hell is their goal in recompense for what they were wont to do.
Rashad Khalifa	9:95 They will swear by GOD to you, when you return to them, that you may disregard them. Do disregard them. They are polluted, and their destiny is Hell, as a requital for the sins they have earned.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:95 They will swear by God, when you return to them, so that you may leave them alone. So leave them alone (9:125). They have blotted their humanity and earned the abode of Hell with their actions.
Transliteration	9:95 Sayahlifooona bi Allāhilakum i tha inqalabtum ilayhim lituAAari doo AAanhumfaaAAarido AAanhum innahum rijsun wama/w ahumjahannamu jaz aan bima kanoo yaksiboona
A	9:95 سيحلفون بالله لكم اذا انقلبتم اليهم لتعرضوا عنهم فاعرضوا عنهم انهم رجس وملوهم جهنم جزاء بما كانوا يكسبون
Edip-Layth	9:96 They swear to you so that you would accept them. Even if you accept them, God does not accept the wicked people.
The Monotheist Group	9:96 They swear to you so that you would accept them. Even if you accept them, God does not accept the wicked people.
Muhammad Asad	9:96 They will swear to you with a view to making you pleased with them: but [even] should you be pleased with them, verily, God shall never be pleased with iniquitous folk.
Rashad Khalifa	9:96 They swear to you, that you may pardon them. Even if you pardon them, GOD does not pardon such wicked people.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:96 They swear that you believers may be pleased with them. Even if you accept them, God does not accept those who drift away from His commands 30
Transliteration	9:96 Yahlifooona lakum litar dawAAanhum fa-in tar daw AAanhum fa-inna All aha layarda AAani alqawmi alfasiqeena
A	9:96 يحلفون لكم لترضوا عنهم فان ترضوا عنهم فان الله لا يرضى عن القوم الفاسقين
Edip-Layth	Good and Bad Arabs 9:97 The Arabs are the worst in rejection and hypocrisy, and more likely not to know the limits of what God has sent down upon His messenger. God is Knower, Wise.
The Monotheist Group	9:97 The Nomads are the worst in rejection and hypocrisy, and more likely not to know the limits of what God has sent down upon His messenger. God is Knower, Wise.

Muhammad Asad	9:97 [The hypocrites among] the bedouin ¹³⁰ are more tenacious in [their] refusal to acknowledge the truth and in [their] hypocrisy [than are settled people], and more liable to ignore the ordinances which God has bestowed from on high upon His Apostle - but God is all-knowing, wise. ¹³¹
Rashad Khalifa	The Arabs 9:97 The Arabs are the worst in disbelief and hypocrisy, and the most likely to ignore the laws that GOD has revealed to His messenger. GOD is Omniscient, Most Wise.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:97 The desert Arabs are harder in rejection and hypocrisy, and more likely to ignore the Limits that God has revealed to His messenger. God is Knower, Wise.
Transliteration	9:97 Al-aAa ra bu ashaddu kufran wanif a qanwaaajdaru all a yaAAalamoo h udooda ma anzalaAll ah u AA a la rasoolihi waAll ah uAAaleemun h akeem un
A	9:97 الاعراب اشد كفرا ونفاقا واجدر الا يعلموا حدود ما انزل الله على رسوله والله عليم حكيم
Edip-Layth	9:98 From the Arabs are some who look upon what they spend as a fine, and wait for disasters to befall you. They will have the evil disasters, and God is Hearer, Knowledgeable.
The Monotheist Group	9:98 And from the Nomads are some who look upon what they spend as a fine, and wait for misfortune upon you. They will have the misfortune of evil, and God is Hearer, Knowledgeable.
Muhammad Asad	9:98 And among the bedouin there are such as regard all that they might spend [in God's cause] as a loss, and wait for misfortune to encompass you, [O believers: but] it is they whom evil fortune shall encompass - for God is all-hearing, all-knowing.
Rashad Khalifa	9:98 Some Arabs consider their spending (in the cause of God) to be a loss, and even wait in anticipation that a disaster may hit you. It is they who will incur the worst disaster. GOD is Hearer, Omniscient.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:98 Among these Bedouin Arabs is he who looks upon his spending as a penalty, and awaits a disaster to hit you. (They hope for the Divine Order to collapse.) It is those who invite disaster upon themselves. God is Hearer, Knower.
Transliteration	9:98 Wamina al-aA ar abi man yattakhi th uma yunfiqu maghraman wayatarabba su bikumu alddaw a -iraAAalayhim d a -iratu alssaw-i waAll ah usameeAAun AAaleem un
A	9:98 ومن الاعراب من يتخذ ما ينفق مغرما ويتربص بكم الدوائر عليهم دائرة السوء والله سميع عليم
Edip-Layth	9:99 From the Arabs there is he who acknowledges God and the Last day, and considers his spending as a means towards God, and the support of the messenger. It indeed makes them closer. God will admit them in His mercy; God is Forgiving, Compassionate. ¹²
The Monotheist Group	9:99 And from the Nomads are those who believe in God and the Last Day, and he looks upon what he spends to make him closer to God, and the communions of the messenger. It indeed makes them closer. God will admit them in His mercy; God is Forgiving, Merciful.
	9:99 However, among the bedouin there are [also] such as believe in God and the Last Day, and regard all that they spend (in God's cause] as a means of

Muhammad Asad	drawing them nearer to God and of [their being remembered in] the. Apostle's prayers. Oh, verily, it shall [indeed] be a means of [God's] nearness to them, [for] God will admit them unto His grace: verily, God is much-forgiving, a dispenser of grace!
Rashad Khalifa	9:99 Other Arabs do believe in GOD and the Last Day, and consider their spending to be a means towards GOD, and a means of supporting the messenger. Indeed, it will bring them nearer; GOD will admit them into His mercy. GOD is Forgiver, Most Merciful.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:99 And among the Bedouins are those who believe in God and the Last Day and consider their spending as a means towards God and a means of supporting the messenger. This will raise their ranks with God. God will embrace them with His mercy. Surely, God is Forgiving, Gracious.
Transliteration	9:99 Wamina al-aAarabi man yu/mino bi Allahiwaalyawmi al-akhiri wayattakhi thu mayunfiqu qurub atin AAinda All ahi wa salawat alrrasooli al a innah a qurbatun lahumsayudkhiluhumu Allahu fee rahmatihi inna Allaghaghafoorun raheemun
A	9:99 ومن الاعراب من يؤمن بالله واليوم الآخر ويتخذ ما ينفق قربت عند الله وصلوات الرسول الا انها قربة لهم سيدخلهم الله في رحمته ان الله غفور رحيم
Edip-Layth	9:100 The pioneers of the emigrants and the supporters, and those who followed them in kindness; God has accepted them, and they have accepted Him; and He prepared for them gardens with rivers flowing beneath in which they will abide eternally. Such is the great success.
The Monotheist Group	9:100 And those who came early and quickly from amongst the emigrants and the supporters, and those who followed them in kindness; God has accepted them, and they have accepted Him; and He prepared for them estates with rivers flowing beneath in which they will abide eternally. Such is the great success.
Muhammad Asad	9:100 And as for the first and foremost of those who have forsaken the domain of evil and of those who have sheltered and succoured the Faith, ¹³² as well as those who follow them in [the way of] righteousness - God is well-pleased with them, and well--pleased are they with Him. And for them has He readied gardens through which running waters flow, therein to abide beyond the count of time: this is the triumph supreme!
Rashad Khalifa	9:100 As for the early vanguards who immigrated (Muhajerin), and the supporters who gave them refuge (Ansar) and those who followed them in righteousness, GOD is pleased with them, and they are pleased with Him. He has prepared for them gardens with flowing streams, wherein they abide forever. This is the greatest triumph.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:100 The foremost among the emigrants and the helpers, as well as those who followed them in noble deeds: God's will is in harmony with them and their will in harmony with Him. He has made ready for them the evergreen Gardens, wherein they will abide eternally. This is the Supreme Triumph. ³¹
Transliteration	9:100 Waalssabiqoona al-awwaloonamina almuh ajireena wa al-ansari waallatheenaittabaAAoohum bi-i hsanin ra diya All ahu AAanhum wara doo AAanhu waaAAadda lahum jann atintajree ta htaha al-anh aru kh alideenafeeha abadan thalika alfawzu alAAaath heemu
A	9:100 والسبقون الاولون من المهجرين والانصار والذين اتبعوهم باحسن رضى الله عنهم ورضوا عنه واعد لهم جنت تجري تحتها الانهر خلدن فيها ابدًا ذلك الفوز العظيم
	9:101 Among the Arabs around you are hypocrites, as well as from the city

Edip-Layth	people; they are audacious in hypocrisy. You do not know them, but We know them. We will punish them twice, then they will be returned to a great punishment.
The Monotheist Group	9:101 And from the Nomads around you are hypocrites, as well as from the city people, they persist in hypocrisy. You do not know them, but We know them. We will punish them twice, then they will be returned to a great punishment.
Muhammad Asad	9:101 But among the bedouin who dwell around you there are hypocrites; and among the people of the [Prophet's] City ¹³³ [too] there are such as have grown insolent in [their] hypocrisy. Thou dost not [always] know them, [O Muhammad - but] We know them. We shall cause them to suffer doubly [in this world]; ¹³⁴ and then they will be given over to awesome suffering [in the life to come].
Rashad Khalifa	Retribution Doubled for the Hypocrites 9:101 Among the Arabs around you, there are hypocrites. Also, among the city dwellers, there are those who are accustomed to hypocrisy. You do not know them, but we know them. We will double the retribution for them, then they end up committed to a terrible retribution. ⁹
Shabbir Ahmed	9:101 Some of the Bedouins who dwell around your town are hypocrites, and some of the people of Al-Madinah also persist in hypocrisy. You do not know them, We know them. We will punish them twice (they will be humiliated in the battle and they will see their families and children embracing Belief). Then they will be relegated to a painful doom.
Transliteration	9:101 Wamimman ḥawlakum mina al-aAar abimunaḥfiqoona wamin ahli almadeenati maradoo AAal a a Innifaqila taAAalamuhum na ḥnu naAAalamuhum sanuAAaththibuhummarratayni thumma yuraddoona ila AAathabin AAatheemin
A	9:101 وممن حولكم من الاعراب منافقون ومن اهل المدينة مردوا على النفاق لا تعلمهم نحن نعلمهم سنعذبهم مرتين ثم يردون الى عذاب عظيم
Edip-Layth	9:102 Others who have acknowledged their sins, they have mixed good work with bad. Perhaps God will pardon them. God is Forgiving, Compassionate.
The Monotheist Group	9:102 And others who have acknowledged their sins, they have mixed good work with bad. Perhaps God will pardon them. God is Forgiving, Merciful.
Muhammad Asad	9:102 And [there are] others ¹³⁵ - [people who] have become conscious of their sinning after having done righteous deeds side by side with evil ones; ¹³⁶ [and] it may well be that God will accept their repentance: for, verily, God is much-forgiving, a dispenser' of grace.
Rashad Khalifa	9:102 There are others who have confessed their sins; they have mixed good deeds with bad deeds. GOD will redeem them, for GOD is Forgiver, Most Merciful.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:102 There are others who acknowledge their faults. Since they have a mixed record of good and bad deeds, they may hope that God will relent toward them, for God is Forgiving, Merciful.
Transliteration	9:102 Waakharoona iAAtarafoo bi thunoobihimkhalatoo AAamalan salihan waakharasayyi-an AAas a All ahu an yatooba AAalayhim inna All ahaghafoorun raheemun
A	9:102 وءآخرون اعترفوا بذنوبهم خلطوا عملا صلحا وءآخر سيئا عسى الله ان يتوب عليهم ان الله غفور رحيم
	9:103 Take from their money a charity to purify them and improve them with it,

Edip-Layth	and support them. Your support is tranquility for them; and God is Hearer, Knowledgeable.
The Monotheist Group	9:103 Take from their money a charity to purify them and develop them with it, and commune over them; for your communion is a tranquility for them; and God is Hearer, Knowledgeable.
Muhammad Asad	9:103 [Hence, O Prophet,] accept that [part] of their possessions which is offered for the sake of God, ¹³⁷ so that thou mayest cleanse them thereby and cause them to grow in purity, and pray for them: behold, thy prayer will be [a source of] comfort to them-for God is all-hearing, all-knowing.
Rashad Khalifa	9:103 Take from their money a charity to purify them and sanctify them. And encourage them, for your encouragement reassures them. GOD is Hearer, Omniscient.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:103 Accept their contribution for the community. Purify their thoughts with proper education and training so that their own 'self' may grow. Encourage and support them! Your support is a great source of peace in their hearts. God is Hearer, Knower. ³²
Transliteration	9:103 Khuth min amw alihim sadaqatantutahhiruhum watuzakkeehim bih a wasalliAAalayhim inna salatakakanun lahum waAllahusameeAAun AAaleemun
A	9:103 خذ من اموالهم صدقة تطهرهم وتزكيهم بها وصل عليهم ان صلوٰتك سكن لهم والله سميع عليم
Edip-Layth	9:104 Did they not know that it is God who accepts repentance from His servants, and He takes the charities, and that God is the Pardoner, Compassionate.
The Monotheist Group	9:104 Did they not know that it is God who accepts repentance from His servants, and He takes the charities, and that God is the Pardoner, Merciful.
Muhammad Asad	9:104 Do they not know that it is God alone who can accept the repentance of His servants ¹³⁸ and is the [true] recipient of whatever is offered for His sake - and that God alone is an acceptor of repentance, a dispenser of grace?
Rashad Khalifa	9:104 Do they not realize that GOD accepts the repentance of His worshipers, and takes the charities, and that GOD is the Redeemer, Most Merciful?
Shabbir Ahmed	9:104 Do they not know that God is the One Who accepts the repentance of His servants, and accepts their charity? Surely, God is the Acceptor of repentance, Merciful.
Transliteration	9:104 Alam yaAAalamoo anna Allaha huwayaqbalu a Ittawbata AAan AAib adhi waya/khuthualssadaqati waanna Allaha huwa alttawwabualrraheemu
A	9:104 ألم يعلموا ان الله هو يقبل التوبة عن عباده ويأخذ الصدقات وان الله هو التواب الرحيم
Edip-Layth	9:105 Say, "Work, and God will see your work and so His messenger and those who acknowledge. You will be sent back to the knower of the unseen and the seen, and He will inform you of what you did."
The Monotheist Group	9:105 And say: "Work, and God will see your work and His messenger and the believers. And you will be sent back to the knower of the unseen and the seen, and He will inform you of what you did."
	9:105 And say [unto them, O Prophet]: "Act! ¹³⁹ And God will behold your deeds, and [so will] His Apostle, and the believers: and [in the end] you will be brought

Muhammad Asad	before Him who knows all that is beyond the reach of a created being's perception as well as all that can be witnessed by a creature's senses or mind ¹⁴⁰ -and then He will make you understand what you have been doing."
Rashad Khalifa	9:105 Say, "Work righteousness; GOD will see your work, and so will His messenger and the believers. Ultimately, you will be returned to the Knower of all secrets and declarations, then He will inform you of everything you had done."
Shabbir Ahmed	9:105 Say, "Act! (Prove your word with action). God will watch your actions, and so will His messenger, and the believers. Ultimately you will be returned to the Knower of the Invisible and the Visible. He will show you (a replay of) what you used to do."
Transliteration	9:105 Waquli iAAamaloo fasayar a All ahuAAamalakum warasooluhu waalmu/minoona wasaturaddoona ilaAAalimi alghaybi waalshshahadatifayunabbi-okum bimā kuntum taAAamaloona
A	9:105 وَقُلْ اَعْمَلُوا فِى سَبِيْرِ اللّٰهِ عَمَلَكُمْ وَرِسُوْلُهُ وَالْمُؤْمِنُوْنَ وَسْتَرْدُوْنَ اِلَىٰ عِلْمِ الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ فَيُنَبِّئُكُمْ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُوْنَ
Edip-Layth	9:106 Others are waiting for God's decision; either He will punish them, or He will pardon them. God is Knowledgeable, Wise.
The Monotheist Group	9:106 And others will wait for God's decision; either He will punish them, or He will pardon them. God is Knowledgeable, Wise.
Muhammad Asad	9:106 And [there are yet] others-[people whose cases are] deferred until God wills to judge them: ¹⁴¹ He will either chastise them or turn again unto them in His mercy-for God is all-knowing, wise.
Rashad Khalifa	9:106 Others are waiting for GOD's decision; He may punish them, or He may redeem them. GOD is Omniscient, Most Wise.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:106 There are some who await God's decree whether He will punish them or relent to them. God is All Knower, All Wise. ³³
Transliteration	9:106 Waakharoona murjawna li-amri All ahiimma yuAAa ththibuhum wa-imm a yatoobuAAalayhim waAllahu AAaleemun hakeemun
A	9:106 وَاٰخَرُوْنَ مَرْجُوْنَ لَامِرُ اللّٰهِ اِمَّا يَعْذِبُهُمْ وَاِمَّا يَتُوبُ عَلَيْهِمْ وَاللّٰهُ عَلِيْمٌ حَكِيْمٌ
Edip-Layth	Mosques That Promote Division and Falsehood 9:107 There are those who establish a temple to do harm and cause rejection, to cause division among those who acknowledge, and as an outpost for those who fought God and His messenger before. They will swear that they only wanted to do good, but God bears witness that they are liars.
The Monotheist Group	9:107 And there are those who establish a temple to do harm and cause rejection, and to divide between the believers, and as an outpost for those who fought God and His messenger before. They will swear that they only wanted to do good, and God bears witness that they are liars.
Muhammad Asad	9:107 AND [there are hypocrites] who have established a [separate] house of worship in order to create mischief, and to promote apostasy and disunity among the believers, and to provide an outpost for all who from the outset have been warring against God and His Apostle. ¹⁴² And they will surely swear [to you, O believers], "We had but the best of intentions!" -the while God [Himself] bears witness that they are lying. ¹⁴³
	Masjids that Oppose God and His Messenger

Rashad Khalifa	9:107 There are those who abuse the masjid by practicing idol worship, dividing the believers, and providing comfort to those who oppose GOD and His messenger. They solemnly swear: "Our intentions are honorable!" GOD bears witness that they are liars. ¹⁰
Shabbir Ahmed	9:107 (The hypocrites keep making schemes.) They built a Masjid out of mischief to promote disbelief and sectarianism among the believers, and as an outpost for those who made war against God and His messenger before. They will surely swear, "We had but good intentions", but God bears witness that they are liars.
Transliteration	9:107 Waalla ^{the} ena ittakha th oomasjidan ^{dir} aran wakufran watafreeqan baynaalmu/mineena wa-ir ^s adan liman ^{har} aba All ^{ah} awarasoolahu min qablu walaya ^h lifunna in aradna illa ^{al} husna waAllahu yashhadu innahum laka ^{thi} boona
A	9:107 والذين اتخذوا مسجدا ضرارا وكفرا وتفريقا بين المؤمنين وارصادا لمن حارب الله ورسوله من قبل وليحلفن ان اردنا الا الحسنى والله يشهد انهم لكذبون
Edip-Layth	9:108 You shall never stand there. A temple that is founded on righteousness from the first day is more worthy of your standing; in it are men who love to be cleansed. God loves the cleansed.
The Monotheist Group	9:108 Do not maintain in it ever. A temple that is founded on righteousness from the first day is more worthy that you maintain in it; in it are men who love to be cleansed. And God loves the cleansed.
Muhammad Asad	9:108 Never set foot in such a place! ¹⁴⁴ Only a house of worship founded, from the very first day, upon God-consciousness is worthy of thy setting foot therein ¹⁴⁵ -[a house of worship] wherein there are men desirous of growing in purity: for God loves all who purify themselves.
Rashad Khalifa	Do Not Pray in Those Masjids 9:108 You shall never pray in such a masjid. A masjid that is established on the basis of righteousness from the first day is more worthy of your praying therein. In it, there are people who love to be purified. GOD loves those who purify themselves.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:108 You shall not stand in such a Masjid! (6:160). There is a Masjid whose foundation was laid from the first day on the Secure way, it is more worthy that you stand therein. In it are men who love to be purified, and God loves those who keep clean of division and sectarianism.
Transliteration	9:108 La taqum feehi abadan lamasjidunossisa AAal ^a a Ittaqwa min awwali yawmin a ^{ha} qqan taqooma feehi feehi rij ^{al} un yu ^{hi} bboona an yata ^{ta} hharoowaAllahu yu ^{hi} bbu almu ^{tt} ahhireena
A	9:108 لا تقم فيه ابدا لمسجد اسس على التقوى من اول يوم احق ان تقوم فيه فيه رجال يحبون ان يتطهروا والله يحب المطهرين
Edip-Layth	9:109 Is one who lays his foundation on obtaining awareness from God and His acceptance better, or one who lays his foundation on the edge of a cliff which is about to crumble, so that it crumbled with him into the fires of hell? God does not guide the wicked people.
The Monotheist Group	9:109 Is one who lays his foundation on obtaining righteousness from God and His acceptance better, or one who lays his foundation on the edge of a cliff which is about to crumble, so that it crumbled with him into the fires of Hell? God does not guide the wicked people.
	9:109 Which. then, is the better: he who has founded his building on God-

Muhammad Asad	consciousness and [a desire for] His goodly acceptance-or he who has founded his building on the edge of a water-worn, crumbling river-bank, so that it [is bound to] tumble down with him into the fire of hell? For, God does not grace with His guidance people who [deliberately] do wrong:
Rashad Khalifa	9:109 Is one who establishes his building on the basis of reverencing GOD and to gain His approval better, or one who establishes his building on the brink of a crumbling cliff, that falls down with him into the fire of Hell? GOD does not guide the transgressing people.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:109 Is he who founded his building on the Secure way of God and His goodly Acceptance better, or he who founded his building on the crumbling cliff of "Shirk" that topples down with him into the fire of Hell? God does not intervene to guide a people who displace right with wrong.
Transliteration	9:109 Afaman assasa bunyānahu AAalataqwa mina Allāhi waridwānin khayrunam man assasa bunyānahu AAalā shafā jurufinhārin fainhāra bihi fee n arijahannama waAllāhu lā yahdee alqawma al th thlimeena
A	9:109 افمن اسس بنينه على تقوى من الله ورضون خير ام من اسس بنينه على شفا جرف هار فانهار به فى نار جهنم والله لا يهدى القوم الظالمين
Edip-Layth	9:110 Such a structures that they erect will never cease to cause doubt in their hearts, until their hearts are severed. God is Knowledgeable, Wise.
The Monotheist Group	9:110 Such a structure that they erect will continue to cause doubt in their hearts, until their hearts are severed. God is Knowledgeable, Wise.
Muhammad Asad	9:110 the building which they have built will never cease to be a source of deep disquiet in their hearts until their hearts crumble to pieces. ¹⁴⁶ And God is all-knowing, wise.
Rashad Khalifa	9:110 Such a building that they have established remains a source of doubt in their hearts, until their hearts are stilled. GOD is Omniscient, Most Wise.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:110 The building which they have built will never cease to be a source of misgiving in their hearts unless their hearts be torn to pieces. God is Knower, Wise. ³⁴
Transliteration	9:110 La yaz alu buny anuhumuallathee banaw reebatan fee quloobihim ill a an taqattaAAaquloobuhum waAllāhu AAaleemun hakeemun
A	9:110 لا يزال بنينهم الذى بنوا ريبة فى قلوبهم الا ان تقطع قلوبهم والله عليم حكيم
Edip-Layth	The Monotheists 9:111 God has purchased from those who acknowledge their very lives and their wealth; that they will have paradise. They fight in the cause of God so they kill and are killed. A promise that is true upon Him in the Torah, the Injeel and the Quran. Whoever fulfills his pledge to God, then have good news of the deal which you concluded with. Such is the supreme success.
The Monotheist Group	9:111 God has purchased from the believers their very lives and their wealth, that they will have Paradise; they fight in the cause of God so they kill and are killed; a promise that is true upon Him in the Torah and the Injeel and the Qur'an. And whoever fulfills this vow with God, then have good news of the pledge which you are concluded with. Such is the supreme success.
Muhammad Asad	9:111 BEHOLD, God has bought of the believers their lives and their possessions, promising them paradise in return, ,[and so] they fight in God's cause, and slay, and are slain: a promise which in truth He has willed upon Himself in [the words of] the Torah, and the Gospel, and the Qur'an. And who could be more faithful to his covenant than God? Rejoice, then, in the bargain which you have made with Him: for this, this is the triumph supreme!

Rashad Khalifa	The Most Profitable 9:111 GOD has bought from the believers their lives and their money in exchange for Paradise. Thus, they fight in the cause of GOD, willing to kill and get killed. Such is His truthful pledge in the Torah, the Gospel, and the Quran - and who fulfills His pledge better than GOD? You shall rejoice in making such an exchange. This is the greatest triumph.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:111 God has bought from the believers their persons and their goods, for (in return) theirs is the Garden. They shall fight in the cause of God, and shall slay and be slain. It is a promise that is binding on Him in the Torah and the Gospel, and the Qur'an. Who can fulfill a promise better than God? Rejoice then in the bargain you have made, for that is the Supreme Triumph. ³⁵
Transliteration	9:111 Inna Allaha ishtarā minā almu/mineena anfasahum waamw alahum bi-anna lahumualjannata yuq atiloona fee sabeeli All ahifayaqtuloona wayuqtaloona waAAdan AAalayhi haqqan fee a Ittawraatiwaal-injeeli wa alqur-ani waman awfabAAahdihi mina All ahi faistabshiroo bibayAAikumualla thee bayaAAtum bihi wathalika huwaalfawzu alAAaatheemu
A	9:111 ان الله اشترى من المؤمنين انفسهم وامولهم بان لهم الجنة يقتلون في سبيل الله فيقتلون ويقتلون وعدا عليه حقا في التوراة والانجيل والقرآن ومن اوفى بعهده من الله فاستبشروا ببيعكم الذي بايعتم به وذلك هو الفوز العظيم
Edip-Layth	9:112 They are the repenters, the servers, the praisers, the activists, the bowing, the prostrating, the advocates of good, the forbidders of evil, and the keepers of God's ordinance. Give good news to those who acknowledge.
The Monotheist Group	9:112 They are the repenters, the worshipers, the thankful, the devout, the kneeling, the prostrating, the advocates of good and preventers of evil, and the keepers of the boundaries of God; and give good news to the believers.
Muhammad Asad	9:112 [It is a triumph of] those who turn [unto God] in repentance [whenever they have sinned], and who worship and praise [Him], and go on and on [seeking His goodly acceptance], ¹⁴⁷ and bow down [before Him] and prostrate themselves in adoration, and enjoin the doing of what is right and forbid the doing of what is wrong, and keep to the bounds set by God. And give thou [O Prophet] the glad tidings [of God's promise] to all believers.
Rashad Khalifa	The Believers 9:112 They are the repenters, the worshipers, the praisers, the meditators, the bowing and prostrating, the advocates of righteousness and forbidders of evil, and the keepers of GOD's laws. Give good news to such believers. You Shall Disown God's Enemies Abraham Disowned His Father
Shabbir Ahmed	9:112 Triumphant are those who: - Return to the right path and take corrective action as soon as they realize that they have erred. -Obey the commands of God. - Work to manifest the praise of God (for bestowing the most excellent guidance). . - Pick up lessons about the history of previous nations whenever they travel. -Are always humble before the Divine System. -Adore and submit to God alone. -Advocate all that is virtuous and discourage all that is vice. - And remain watchful against trespassing the limits set by God. So give the good news to those who have chosen to be graced with belief (that these are the men and women who deserve a most pleasant life in both worlds). ³⁶
Transliteration	9:112 Alta-iboona alAA abidoonaalhamidoona a Issa-ihoona

	alIrrakiAAoonaalssajidoona al- amiroona bi almaAAroofiwaalInnaHoona AAani almunkari waalhafithoonalihudoodi Allahi wabashshiri almu/mineena
A	9:112 التائبون العبدون الحمدون السئحون الركعون السجدون الءامرون بالمعروف والناهون عن المنكر والحفظون لحدود الله وبشر المؤمنين
Edip-Layth	9:113 It is not for the prophet and those who acknowledge that they should seek forgiveness for those who have set up partners, even if they are relatives, after it has been made clear to them that they are the dwellers of hell.
The Monotheist Group	9:113 It is not for the prophet and those who believe that they should seek forgiveness for those who have set up partners, even if they are relatives, after it has been made clear to them that they are the dwellers of Hell.
Muhammad Asad	9:113 IT DOES NOT behove the Prophet and those who have attained to faith to pray that they who ascribed divinity to aught beside God be forgiven [by Him] even though they happened to be [their] near of kin 148 -after it has been made clear unto them that those [dead sinners] are destined for. the blazing fire.
Rashad Khalifa	9:113 Neither the prophet, nor those who believe shall ask forgiveness for the idol worshipers, even if they were their nearest of kin, once they realize that they are destined for Hell.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:113 It is not fitting for the prophet and the believers to pray for the forgiveness of the idolaters, even if they are their relatives, after it has been made clear to them that they are companions of the fire.
Transliteration	9:113 Ma k ana li Innabiyyi wa allatheenaamanoo an yastaghfiroo lilmushrikeena walaw k anooolee qurb a min baAAadi m a tabayyana lahum annahum as-habuljaheemi
A	9:113 ما كان للنبي والذين ءامنوا ان يستغفروا للمشركين ولو كانوا اولى قربى من بعد ما تبين لهم انهٓم اصحب الجحيم
Edip-Layth	9:114 Abraham seeking forgiveness for his father was only because of a promise he made to him. But when it became clear that he was God's enemy, he disowned him. Abraham was kind, compassionate.
The Monotheist Group	9:114 And Abraham seeking forgiveness for his father was only because of a promise he made to him. But when it became clear that he was God's enemy, he disowned him. Abraham was kind, compassionate.
Muhammad Asad	9:114 And Abraham's prayer that his father be forgiven was but due to a promise which he had given the latter [in his lifetime]; 149 but when it was made clear unto him that he had been God's enemy, [Abraham] disavowed him - [although;] behold, Abraham was most tender-hearted. most clement.
Rashad Khalifa	9:114 The only reason Abraham asked forgiveness for his father was that he had promised him to do so. But as soon as he realized that he was an enemy of GOD, he disowned him. Abraham was extremely kind, clement.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:114 Abraham asked forgiveness for his father because of a promise that he had made. The promise was based on the hope that his father would mend his ways. When Abraham was sure that his father was a persistent opponent of God's commands, he desisted from asking forgiveness for him. Abraham was kind-hearted, clement. 37
Transliteration	9:114 Wama k ana istighf aruibraheema li-abeehi ill a AAan mawAAidatin waAAadahaiyyahu falam m a tabayyana lahu annahu AAaduwwun lill a hitabarraa

	minhu inna ibraheema laawwahun haleemun
A	9:114 وما كان استغفار ابراهيم لابيه الا عن موعدة وعدھا اياه فلما تبين له انه عدو لله تبرأ منه ان ابراهيم لاوه حليم
Edip-Layth	9:115 God will never mislead a people after He guided them, until He makes clear to them what they should be aware. God is knower of all things.
The Monotheist Group	9:115 And it is not for God to misguide a people after He guided them, until He makes clear to them what they should avoid. God is aware of all things.
Muhammad Asad	9:115 And God would never-after having invited them to His guidance -condemn people for going astray ¹⁵⁰ ere He has made [entirely] clear unto them of what they should beware. Verily, God has full knowledge of everything. ¹⁵¹
Rashad Khalifa	9:115 GOD does not send any people astray, after He had guided them, without first pointing out for them what to expect. GOD is fully aware of all things.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:115 God never sends a people astray after He has guided them, unless they violate the laws that were made plain. Surely, God is the Knower of all things.
Transliteration	9:115 Wama kana Allahu liyu dillaqawman baAAda i th had ahum hattayubayyina lahum ma yattaqoona inna Allaha bikullishay-in AAaleem un
A	9:115 وما كان الله ليضل قوما بعد اذ هديهم حتى يبين لهم ما يتقون ان الله بكل شيء عليم
Edip-Layth	9:116 To God is the sovereignty of heavens and earth, He causes life and death. You have none besides God as a supporter or victor.
The Monotheist Group	9:116 To God is the sovereignty of heavens and Earth, He brings life and death. You have none besides God as a supporter or victor.
Muhammad Asad	9:116 Verily, God's alone is the dominion over the heavens and the earth; He [alone] grants life and deals death; and there is none besides God who could protect you or bring you succour.
Rashad Khalifa	9:116 To GOD belongs the sovereignty of the heavens and the earth. He controls life and death. You have none beside GOD as a Lord and Master.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:116 To God belongs the Dominion of the heavens and earth. He has full control over the laws of life and death, for individuals and nations. You have no protector and helper outside God's laws.
Transliteration	9:116 Inna Allaha lahu mulku a Issamawatiwaal-ardi yu hyee wayumeetu wam a lakummin dooni Allahi min waliyyin wala naseer in
A	9:116 ان الله له ملك السموت والارض يحي ويميت وما لكم من دون الله من ولى ولا نصير
Edip-Layth	God is Supporting the Monotheists 9:117 God has pardoned the prophet and the emigrants and the supporters that followed him in the darkest moment, even though the hearts of some of them nearly deviated, but then He pardoned them. He is towards them Kind, Compassionate.
The Monotheist Group	9:117 God has pardoned the prophet and the emigrants and the supporters that followed him in the darkest hour, even though the hearts of some of them nearly deviated, but then He pardoned them. He is towards them Compassionate, Merciful.
	9:117 INDEED, God has turned in His mercy unto the Prophet, as well as unto

Muhammad Asad	those who have forsaken the domain of evil and those who have sheltered and succoured the Faiths ¹⁵² - [all] those who followed him in the hour of distress, when the hearts of some of the other believers had well-nigh swerved from faith. ¹⁵³ And once again: ¹⁵⁴ He has turned unto them in His mercy - for, behold, He is compassionate towards them, a dispenser of grace.
Rashad Khalifa	9:117 GOD has redeemed the prophet, and the immigrants (Muhajireen) and the supporters who hosted them and gave them refuge (Ansar), who followed him during the difficult times. That is when the hearts of some of them almost wavered. But He has redeemed them, for He is Compassionate towards them, Most Merciful.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:117 God turned in kindness to the prophet, the emigrants and those who hosted them. They followed him in difficult times after the hearts of some of them had nearly wavered. Then He turned to them in kindness. He is Compassionate, Merciful to them. ³⁸
Transliteration	9:117 Laqad t aba Allahu AAalaInnabiyyi waalmuhajireena waal-ansariallatheena ittabaAAoohu fee s a AAati alAAusrati minbaAAadi m a k a da yazeeghu quloobu fareeqin minhumthumma t aba AAalayhim innahu bihim raoofun raheemun
A	9:117 لقد تاب الله على النبي والمهجرين والانصار الذين اتبعوه في ساعة العسرة من بعد ما كاد يزيغ قلوب فريق منهم ثم تاب عليهم انه بهم رؤوف رحيم
Edip-Layth	9:118 Also upon the three who were left behind until the land, as vast as it is, became strained to them, and their very selves became strained; they thought there is no shelter from God except to Him. Then He pardoned them that they might repent. God is the Redeemer, the Compassionate.
The Monotheist Group	9:118 And upon the three who were left behind until the land, as vast as it is, became strained to them, and their very souls became strained, and they thought there is no shelter from God except to Him. Then He pardoned them that they might repent. God is the Redeemer, the Merciful.
Muhammad Asad	9:118 And [He turned in His mercy, too,] towards the three [groups of believers] who had fallen prey to corruption, ¹⁵⁵ until in the end-after the earth, despite all its vastness, had become [too] narrow for them and their souls had become [utterly] constricted they came to know with certainty that there is no refuge from God other than [a return] unto Him; and thereupon He turned again unto them in His mercy, so that they might repent: for, verily, God alone is an acceptor of repentance, a dispenser of grace. ¹⁵⁶
Rashad Khalifa	Do Not Abandon the Messenger 9:118 Also (redeemed were) the three who stayed behind. The spacious earth became so straitened for them, that they almost gave up all hope for themselves. Finally, they realized that there was no escape from GOD, except to Him. He then redeemed them that they may repent. GOD is the Redeemer, Most Merciful.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:118 And (God also turned in compassion) to the three men who had stayed behind. The earth, despite all its vastness, had become narrow for them, and they became extremely despondent. They realized with certainty that there is no refuge from God other than a return to Him. Then He turned to them in mercy so that they return to the right way. God is Acceptor of repentance, Merciful. ³⁹
Transliteration	9:118 WaAAala a lththalathatallatheena khullifoo h atta i th a d aqatAAalayhimu alardu bim a ra h ubat wa d aqatAAalayhim anfusuhum wa th annoo an l a maljaamina Allahi ill a ilayhi thumma t a baAAalayhim liyatooboo inna All a ha huwa alttaww a bualrraheemu

A	9:118 وعلى الثلاثة الذين خلفوا حتى اذا ضاقت عليهم الارض بما رحبت وضاقت عليهم انفسهم وظنوا ان لا ملجأ من الله الا اليه ثم تاب عليهم ليتوبوا ان الله هو التواب الرحيم
Edip-Layth	9:119 O you who acknowledge, be aware of God and be with the truthful.
The Monotheist Group	9:119 O you who believe, be aware of God and be with the truthful.
Muhammad Asad	9:119 O YOU who have attained to faith! Remain conscious of God, and be among those who are true to their word!
Rashad Khalifa	9:119 O you who believe, you shall reverence GOD, and be among the truthful.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:119 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! Be mindful of God and be with the truthful.
Transliteration	9:119 Ya ayyuh a alla theena amanooittaqoo All aha wagoonoo maAAa alssadiqeena
A	9:119 يايها الذين ءامنوا اتقوا الله وكونوا مع الصادقين
Edip-Layth	9:120 It is not advisable for the city dwellers and those around them of the Arabs that they should lag behind after God's messenger, nor should they yearn for themselves above him. That is because any thirst, fatigue, or hunger that afflicts them in the cause of God, or any step that they take which will annoy the ingrates, or any gain they have over any enemy; it will be recorded as a good deed for them. God does not waste the reward of the good doers.
The Monotheist Group	9:120 It is not advisable for the city dwellers and those around them of the Nomads that they should lag behind after God's messenger, nor should they yearn for themselves above him. That is because any thirst that will come to them, or fatigue, or hunger in the cause of God, or any step that they take which will annoy the rejecters, or any gain they have over any enemy; it will be recorded as a good deed for them. God does not waste the reward of the good doers.
Muhammad Asad	9:120 It does not behove the people of the [Prophet's] City and the bedouin [who live] around them to hold back from following God's Apostle, or to care for their own selves more than for him ¹⁵⁷ -for, whenever they suffer from thirst or weariness or hunger in God's cause, and whenever they take any step which confounds ¹⁵⁸ those who deny the truth, and whenever there comes to them from the enemy whatever may be destined for them ¹⁵⁹ -[whenever anything thereof comes to pass,,] a good deed is recorded in their favour. ¹⁶⁰ Verily, God does not fail to requite the doers of good!
Rashad Khalifa	9:120 Neither the dwellers of the city, nor the Arabs around them, shall seek to stay behind the messenger of GOD (when he mobilizes for war). Nor shall they give priority to their own affairs over supporting him. This is because they do not suffer any thirst, or any effort, or hunger in the cause of GOD, or take a single step that enrages the disbelievers, or inflict any hardship upon the enemy, without having it written down for them as a credit. GOD never fails to recompense those who work righteousness.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:120 It is not for the residents of Al-Madinah and for the Bedouins around, to stay back behind the messenger of God and prefer their own affairs over supporting him. For, whenever they suffer from thirst or weariness or hunger in the cause of God, and whenever they take any step that angers the rejecters, and whatever comes to them from the enemy (victory, injury or death), a good deed is recorded in their favor. Certainly, God never fails to reward the doers of good. 40

Transliteration	9:120 Ma k ana li-ahli almadeenatiwaman hawlahum mina al-aAAar abi an yatakhallafooAAan rasooli Allahi wala yarghaboo bi-anfusihiAAan nafsihi thalika bi-annahum la yuseebuhumthamaon wala nasabun walamakhmasatun fee sabeeli Allahi wal a ya taoonamawti-an yaghee thu alkuff ara wal ayanaloona min AAaduwwin naylan illa kutiba lahumbihi AAamalun salihun inna Allaha layudeeAAu ajra almuhsineena
A	9:120 ما كان لاهل المدينة ومن حولهم من الاعراب ان يتخلفوا عن رسول الله ولا يرغبوا بانفسهم عن نفسه ذلك بانهم لا يصيبهم ظما ولا نصب ولا مخمصة في سبيل الله ولا يطون موطنًا يعيظ الكفار ولا ينالون من عدو نيلا الا كتب لهم به عمل صالح ان الله لا يضيع اجر المحسنين
Edip-Layth	9:121 Anything small or large they spend, or any valley they cross, it will be recorded for them. God will recompense them with the best of what they did.
The Monotheist Group	9:121 And anything small or large they spend, or any valley they cross, it will be recorded for them. God will recompense them with the best of what they did.
Muhammad Asad	9:121 And whenever they spend anything [for the sake of God], be it little or much, and whenever they move on earth ¹⁶¹ [in God's cause] -it is recorded in their favour, and God will grant them the best reward for all that they have been doing.
Rashad Khalifa	9:121 Nor do they incur any expense, small or large, nor do they cross any valley, without having the credit written down for them. GOD will surely reward them generously for their works.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:121 And whatever they spend, small or large, and whenever they cross a valley, it is recorded in their credit, so that God repays them the best return for their actions.
Transliteration	9:121 Wala yunfiqoona nafaqatan sagheeratanwala kabeeratan wal a yaqtaAAoona w adiyaniilla kutiba lahum liyajziyahumu All ahu a hsanama k anoo yaAAamaloona
A	9:121 ولا ينفقون نفقة صغيرة ولا كبيرة ولا يقطعون واديا الا كتب لهم ليجزيهم الله احسن ما كانوا يعملون
Edip-Layth	Importance of Education; Restriction On Draft 9:122 It is not advisable for those who acknowledge to march out in their entirety. For every battalion that marches out, let a group remain to study the system, and warn their people when they return to them, perhaps they will be cautious.
The Monotheist Group	9:122 And it is not advisable for the believers to mobilize in their entirety. For every battalion that marches out, let a group remain to study the system, and warn their people when they return to them, perhaps they will be aware.
Muhammad Asad	9:122 With all this, it is not desirable that all of the believers take the field [in time of war]. From within every group in their midst, some shall refrain from going forth to war, and shall devote themselves [instead] to acquiring a deeper knowledge of the Faith. and [thus be able to] teach their home-coming brethren, so that these [too] might guard themselves against evil.¹⁶²
Rashad Khalifa	The Importance of Religious Education 9:122 When the believers mobilize, not all of them shall do so. A few from each group shall mobilize by devoting their time to studying the religion. Thus, they can pass the knowledge on to their people when they return, that they may remain religiously informed.

Shabbir Ahmed	9:122 The believers shall not go to an expedition all together. Of every group of believers, let some of them come forth to gain sound knowledge of Deen (the Qur'anic System of life). Then they can pass the knowledge on to their people when they return, so that they may remain aware.
Transliteration	9:122 Wama k ana almu/minoonaliyanfiroo k affatan falawl a nafara min kullifirqatin minhum ta-ifatun liyatafaqqahoo fee a Iddeeniwaliyunthiiroo qawmahum itha rajaAAoo ilayhimlaAAallahum ya htharoonaa
A	9:122 وما كان المومنون لينفروا كافة فلولا نفر من كل فرقة منهم طائفة ليتفقهوا فى الدين ولينذروا قومهم اذا رجعوا اليهم لعلهم يحذرون
Edip-Layth	9:123 O you who acknowledge, fight the ingrates who gird you about, and let them find strength in you; know that God is with the righteous.
The Monotheist Group	9:123 O you who believe, fight those who around you of the rejecters, and let them find strength in you; and know that God is with the righteous.
Muhammad Asad	9:123 O you who have attained to faith! Fight against those deniers of the truth who are near you, and let them find you adamant ; 163 and know that .God is with those who are conscious of Him.
Rashad Khalifa	The Disbelievers 9:123 O you who believe, you shall fight the disbelievers who attack you - let them find you stern - and know that GOD is with the righteous.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:123 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! Fight those of the disbelievers who close up on you, and let them find strength among your ranks. And know that God is with those who are mindful of His laws.
Transliteration	9:123 Ya ayyuh a alla theena amanooqatiloo alla theena yaloonakum mina alkuffariwalyajidoo feekum ghil thatan wa iAAalamoo annaAll aha maAAa almuttaqeena
A	9:123 ياايها الذين ءامنوا قتلوا الذين يلونكم من الكفار وليجدوا فيكم غلظة واعلموا ان الله مع المتقين
Edip-Layth	Conspiracy of Hypocrites Increases Only Impurity 9:124 When a chapter is revealed, some of them say, "Whose acknowledgement has this increased?" For those who acknowledge, it increased their acknowledgment, and they rejoice. ¹³
The Monotheist Group	9:124 And when a chapter is revealed, some of them say: "Who has been strengthened in faith by this?" For those who believe, it increased their faith, and they rejoice.
Muhammad Asad	9:124 YET WHENEVER a surah [of this divine writ] is bestowed from on high, some of the deniers of the truth are prone to ask, 164 "Which of you has this [message] strengthened in his faith?" Now as for those who have attained to faith, it does strengthen them in their faith, and they rejoice in the glad tiding [which God has given them]. ¹⁶⁵
Rashad Khalifa	The Hypocrites 9:124 When a sura was revealed, some of them would say, "Did this sura strengthen the faith of anyone among you?" Indeed, it did strengthen the faith of those who believed, and they rejoice in any revelation.

Shabbir Ahmed	9:124 Whenever a Surah is revealed some of them (hypocrites) say, "Which one of you has increased in faith?" In fact, it has increased the believers in faith and they rejoice.
Transliteration	9:124 Wa-i tha m a onzilat sooratunfaminhum man yaqoolu ayyukum z a dat -hu ha thi hi eem a nan faamma alla the ena a ma noo faz a dat -humeema nan wahum yastabshiroona
A	9:124 واذا ما انزلت سورة فمنهم من يقول ايكم زادته هذه ايما فاما الذين ءامنوا فزادتهم ايما وهم يستبشرون
Edip-Layth	9:125 As for those who have a disease in their hearts, it only increased foulness to their foulness, and they died as ingrates.
The Monotheist Group	9:125 As for those who have a disease in their hearts, it only increased foulness to their foulness, and they died as rejecters.
Muhammad Asad	9:125 But as for those in whose hearts is disease, each new message but adds another [element of] disbelief to the disbelief which they already harbour, ¹⁶⁶ and they die while [still] refusing to acknowledge the truth.
Rashad Khalifa	9:125 As for those who harbored doubts in their hearts, it actually added unholiness to their unholiness, and they died as disbelievers.
Shabbir Ahmed	9:125 But those who have caused their hearts to ail by harboring doubts, it only adds another element of disbelief to disbelief, and they die refusing to accept the truth.
Transliteration	9:125 Waamma alla the ena feequloobihim mara dun faz adat -hum rijsan ila ri jsihim wa ma too wahum ka fi roona
A	9:125 واما الذين فى قلوبهم مرض فزادتهم رجسا الى رجسهم وماتوا وهم كفرون
Edip-Layth	9:126 Do they not see they are tested every calendar year once or twice? Yet, they do not repent, nor do they take heed.
The Monotheist Group	9:126 Do they not see they are tested every year once or twice?, but then they do not repent, nor do they remember.
Muhammad Asad	9:126 Are they, then, not aware that they are being tested year-in, year-out? ¹⁶⁷ And yet, they do not repent and do not bethink themselves [of God];
Rashad Khalifa	9:126 Do they not see that they suffer from exacting trials every year once or twice? Yet, they consistently fail to repent, and fail to take heed?
Shabbir Ahmed	9:126 Do they not see that they are tested once or twice each year? Still they do not repent, nor pay heed. (Tested at your hands. 9:14).
Transliteration	9:126 Awa l a yarawna annahum yuftanoonafee kulli AA a min marratan aw marratayni thumma la yato oboona wa a hum ya th thakkaroo na
A	9:126 اولا يرون انهم يفتنون فى كل عام مرة او مرتين ثم لا يتوبون ولا هم يذكرون
Edip-Layth	9:127 When a chapter is revealed, they looked at one another: "Does anyone see you?", then they turn away. God turns away their hearts, for they are a people who do not comprehend. ¹⁴
The Monotheist Group	9:127 And when a chapter is revealed, they look at one another: "Does anyone see you?", then they turn away. God turns away their hearts, for they are a people who do not comprehend.

Muhammad Asad	9:127 and whenever a surah is bestowed from on high, they look at one another [and say, as it were], "Is there anyone who can see what is in your hearts?" ¹⁶⁸ - and then they turn away. God has turned their hearts away [from the truth] - for they are people who will not grasp it. ¹⁶⁹
Rashad Khalifa	A Historical Crime Unveiled: Tampering With the Word of God. 9:127 Whenever a sura was revealed, some of them would look at each other as if to say: "Does anyone see you?" Then they left. Thus, GOD has diverted their hearts, for they are people who do not comprehend. ¹¹
Shabbir Ahmed	9:127 When a Surah is revealed, the hypocrites look at each other mockingly as if saying, "Does anyone see you? Let us leave." And then they turn away. God's law turns their hearts away because they are a people who do not use their faculties of understanding.
Transliteration	9:127 Wa-i ^{tha} ma onzilat sooratunna th ara baAA ^{du} hum il ^a baAA ^d inhal yar ^a kum min a ^h adin thumma in sarafoo sarafaAll ^a hu quloobahum bi-annahum qawmun l ^a yafqahoona
A	9:127 واذا ما انزلت سورة نظر بعضهم الى بعض هل يريكم من احد ثم انصرفوا صرف الله قلوبهم بانهم قوم لا يفقهون
Edip-Layth
The Monotheist Group	9:128 A messenger has come to you from yourselves, concerned over your suffering, anxious over you, towards the believers he is compassionate, merciful.
Muhammad Asad	9:128 INDEED, there has come unto you [O mankind] an Apostle from among yourselves: ¹⁷⁰ heavily weighs -upon him [the thought] that you might suffer [in the life to come]; full of concern for you [is he, and] full of compassion and mercy towards the believers.
Rashad Khalifa
Shabbir Ahmed	9:128 Certainly, there has come to you (O Mankind) a messenger, one of your own, who feels your burden. He is full of concern for your betterment, and for those who choose to believe, he is most compassionate and merciful.
Transliteration	9:128 Laqad jaakum rasoolun min anfusikumAAazeezun AAalayhi m ^a AAanittum hareesunAAalaykum bi ^{al} mu/mineena raoofun ra ^h ee ^m un
A	9:128 لقد جاءكم رسول من انفسكم عزيز عليه ما عنتم حريص بالمومنين رءوف رحيم
Edip-Layth
The Monotheist Group	9:129 If they turn away, then say: "God is enough for me, there is no god but He, in Him I put my trust and He is the Lord of the great throne."
Muhammad Asad	9:129 But if those [who are bent on denying the truth] turn away, say: "God is enough for me! There is no- deity save Him. In Him have I placed my trust, for He is the Sustainer, in awesome almightiness enthroned." ¹⁷¹
Rashad Khalifa
Shabbir Ahmed	9:129 (O Messenger!) if they turn away, then say, "God is Sufficient for me. There is no god but He. In Him I put my trust. For, He is the Lord of the Tremendous Throne." ⁴¹
Transliteration	9:129 Fa-in tawallaw faqul hasbiya All ^a ^a hul ^a il ^a ^a ha ill ^a ^a huwa AAalayhi tawakkaltuwahuwa rabbu alAAarshi alAAa ^t heemi

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (9:1)

Those who abuse the Quranic statement "obey God and His messenger," to mean obeying the Quran and numerous books of hearsay, are convicted by this verse. By claiming that God is represented by the Quran, but the messenger is represented by hearsay collections produced centuries after Muhammad, they separate God and messenger from each other (4:150). Verse 9:1 attributes the ultimatum issued in this chapter to "God and His messenger." Since, God did not author the Quran in consultation with Muhammad, the only reason why the messenger was mentioned after God, is that the messenger will deliver the ultimatum as it is, like a trustworthy mailman. Thus, we should use similar inferences when we see verses telling us to "obey God and His messenger." Those verses do not mean God and His messenger represent different authorities or sources, but simply mean, "Obey God by obeying the message brought to you through His messenger." In the Quran we do not see a single verse instructing us to "obey Muhammad" or "obey Moses;" the verses always refer to obeying the messenger, since messengers' sole mission is to deliver God's message without distorting, adding, or subtracting from it. The messenger, on the Day of Judgment (25:30), will reject those who distort, add to, and subtract from God's message by hearsay. It is also noteworthy that the verb used for God and His messenger in 8:24 is in its singular form. Remind verse 6:114 to the polytheists who wish to raise Muhammad from the position of messengership to the position of legislator next to God. Also, see 49:1.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (9:3)

The verse 9:5 does not encourage muslims to attack those who associate partners to God, but to attack those who have violated the peace treaty and killed and terrorized people because of their belief and way of life. According to verses 9:5 and 9:11, the aggressive party has two ways to stop the war: reinstate the treaty for peace (silm), which is limited in scope; or accept the system of peace and submission to God (islam), which is comprehensive in scope; it includes observation of sala and purification through sharing one's blessings. These two verses refer to the second alternative. When, accepting islam (system of peace and submission) as the second equally acceptable alternative and when the first alternative involves only making a temporary peace, then none can argue for coercion in promoting the Din. The Quran does not promote war, but encourages us to stand against aggressors on the side of peace and justice. War is permitted only in self-defense (See 2:190,192,193,256; 4:91; 5:32; 8:19; 60:7-9). We are encouraged to work hard to establish peace (47:35; 8:56-61; 2:208). The Quranic precept promoting peace and justice is so fundamental that a peace treaty with the enemy is preferred to religious ties (8:72). Please note that the context of the verse is about the War of Hunain, which was provoked by the enemy. The verse 9:29 is mistranslated by almost every translator. Furthermore, note that we suggest "reparation," which is the legal word for compensation for damages done by the aggressing party during the war, instead of the Arabic word jizya. The meaning of jizya has been distorted as a perpetual tax on non- Muslims, which was invented long after Muhammad to further the imperialistic agenda of Sultans or Kings. The origin of the word that we translated as Compensation is JaZaYa, which simply means compensation, not tax. Because of their aggression and initiation of a war against muslims and their allies, after the war, the allied community should require their enemies to compensate for the damage they inflicted on the peaceful community. Various derivatives of this word are used in the Quran frequently, and they are translated as "compensation" for a particular deed. Unfortunately, the distortion in the meaning of the verse above and the practice of collecting a special tax from Christians and Jews, contradicts the basic principle of the Quran that there should not be compulsion in religion and that there should be freedom of belief and expression (2:256; 4:90; 4:140; 10:99; 18:29; 88:21,22). Since taxation based on religion creates financial duress on people to convert to the privileged religion, it violates this important Quranic principle. Dividing a population that is united under a social contract (constitution) into privileged groups based on their religion contradicts many principles of the Quran, including justice, peace, and brotherhood/sisterhood of all humanity. See 2:256. For a comparative discussion of this verse, see the Sample Comparisons section in the Introduction. Moral rules involving retaliation can be classified under several titles:

- The Golden Rule: Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.
- The Silver Rule: Do not do unto others what you would not have them do unto you.
- The Golden-plated Brazen Rule: Do unto others as they do unto you; and occasionally forgive them.
- The Brazen Rule: Do unto others as they do unto you.
- The Iron Rule: Do unto others as you like, before they do it unto you.

Empirical studies on groups have shown that the golden-plated brazen rule is the most efficient in reducing negative behaviors in a community abiding by the rule, since the rule has both deterrence and guiding components. Game theorists call this rule "Generous Tit-For-Tat" (GTFT), a rule that leads one party to cooperate as long as the other party does too. If the other party cheats or hurts the party adopting GTFT, then the GTFT-adopting party stops cooperation and retaliates, while demonstrating willingness to forgive the wrongdoing and start a new stage of cooperation. This positive tilt successfully leads the other party to seek cooperation of the GTF party and ultimately adopt the same rule of engagement. The Golden rule, on the other hand, does not correspond to the reality of human nature; it rewards those who wish to take advantage of the other party's niceness. Therefore, though the golden rule is the most popular rule on the lips of people, it is the least used rule in world affairs. It might have some merits in small groups with intimate relations, but we do not have evidence for that. The Quran is a book of reality, and its instructions involving social issues consider the side effects of freedom. Thus, the Quran recommends us to employ the golden-plated brazen rule. "If the enemy inclines toward peace, do you also incline toward peace" (8:61; 4:90; 41:34). Other verses encouraging forgiveness and patience in the practice of retaliation (2:178; 16:126, etc.), make the Quranic rule a "Golden-plated Brazen Rule," the most efficient rule in promoting goodness and discouraging crimes. Sunni and Shiite mushriks inherited many vicious laws and instructions of violence through hadith books, most of which scholars trace their roots to the influence of Jewish Rabbis and Christian priests who supposedly converted to Islam. Here are some samples of terrifying and bloody instructions found in The Old Testament. We recommend the reader to study them in their context: "The Lord said to Moses: 'Take the blasphemer outside the camp. All those who heard him are to lay their hands on his head, and the entire assembly is to stone him. Say to the Israelites: If anyone curses his God, he will be held responsible; anyone who blasphemes the name of the Lord must be put to death. The entire assembly must stone him. Whether an alien or native-born, when he blasphemes the Name, he must be put to death.... Then Moses spoke to the Israelites, and they took the blasphemer outside the camp and stoned him. The Israelites did as the Lord commanded Moses" (Leviticus 24:13-16). "Now kill all the boys. And kill every woman who has slept with a man. But save for yourselves every girl who has never slept with a man" (Numbers 31:18). "And they utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox, and sheep, and ass, with the edge of the sword" (Joshua 6:21). "Now go and smite Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass" (1 Samuel 15:3). "And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him, and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand" (1 Samuel 17:57). "Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they would unto those that hated them" (Esther 9:5). "Why do the wicked prosper and the treacherous all live at ease?... But you know me, Lord, you see me; you test my devotion to you. Drag them away like sheep to the shambles; set them apart for the day of slaughter" (Jeremiah 12:1-3). "A curse on all who are slack in doing the Lord's work! A curse on all who withhold their swords from bloodshed!" (Jeremiah 48:10). Chapter 20 of Leviticus contains a list of very severe punishments for various sins. For instance, cursing one's own father or mother would prompt the death penalty. A man marrying a woman together with her daughter must be burned in the fire. Homosexual men must be put to death. Those who commit bestiality must be put to death together with the animals. And many more deaths, and burning penalties.

Edip-Layth - End Note (9:29)

Edip-Layth - End Note 4 (9:30)

The system of islam belongs to God alone (98:5). Accepting the fatwas of this or that cleric as islam is setting up partners with God. See 42:21. Also, see 2:59; 2:79; 5:41-44.

Edip-Layth - End Note 5 (9:33)

Islam, which has been subjected to a terrible deformation and transformation process for centuries, has long ceased being islam (peacefully surrendering in and with peace), but rather became a man-made doctrine attributed to scholars, such as Shafii, Hanbali, Maliki, Hanafi, Jafari, Vahhabi, Naqshi, Qadiri, Alawi, Muhammadi, etc. By God's will, the fulfillment of the great prophecy (74:1-6) and the global events unfolding are signs that God has started a new era in which Islam will again provide humanity with a chance to reform their minds, their actions, and their world. See Chapter 110.

Edip-Layth - End Note 6 (9:36)

Verse 9:36 relates the number of months to the day of the creation of the earth. Perhaps in early days of the creation, the rotation of the Moon and Earth were synchronized and there were exactly 12 lunar months in a solar year. The increase in the length of the year or the decelerating earth is causing problems for modern technology which is very sensitive to small changes in the measurement of time, such as computers, electric grids, GPS systems, and missiles. In mid 20th century, scientists learned that the rotation of Earth was not sufficiently uniform as a standard of time. Besides solar gravity, there are many factors influencing the rotation of the earth. For instance, though in minor way, the Moon's gravity through tides causes deceleration, and melting of ice in the North Pole causes little acceleration. To compensate this net deceleration, almost every year we are adding one second to our atomic clocks, which defines and measures a second as 9,192,631,770 electromagnetic radiation or oscillation of Cesium 133. Since 1972 we added 23 leap seconds until 2006. However, the rate of the deceleration does not show a pattern. In recent years, the earth's rotation has been on schedule. See 9:122

Edip-Layth - End Note 7 (9:37)

Today's Sunni and Shiite mushriks consider Rajab, Zul-Qada, Zul-Hijja, and Muharram to be the Restricted Months (the 7th, 11th, 12th, and 1st months of lunar calendar). However, when we study 2:197,217; 9:2,5,36 and the names of known months, we will discover that real Restricted Months must be four consecutive months and they are Zul-Hijja, Muharram, Safar, Rabi ul-Awal (12th, 1st, 2nd, and 3rd months). The very name of the 12th month, Zul- Hijja (Contains Haj), gives us a clue that it is the first month of haj pilgrimage. When we start from the 12th month, the last of the Restricted Months becomes the 3rd month, Rabi ul-Awal (First Fourth), and the very name of this month also is revealing; it suggests that it is the fourth month of the Restricted Months. Then, why the qualification "First"? Well, the name of the following month provides an explanation: Rabi ul-Akhir (Second Fourth), which is the fourth month from the beginning of the year. In other words we have two months called "Fourth," the first one referring to the fourth restricted moth, with the second fourth referring to the fourth month of the lunar year. The word rabi (fourth) is used for seasons because each season is one fourth of a year. It is interesting that many of the crimes and distortions mentioned in the Quran have been committed by those who have abandoned the Quran for the sake of hadith and sunna; they repeated the same blunder of their polytheist ancestors.

Edip-Layth - End Note 8 (9:45)

Hypocrites and polytheists claim that they believe in God (23:84-90). Indeed, with their faith in the intercession of prophets and saints, they profess faith in the hereafter (10:18). Nevertheless, they have doubts in their compromised faith, which is the result of joining the bandwagon or wishful thinking (9:45; 11:110; 14:9; 34:21; 41:45; 44:9). We are told that a conviction/acknowledgement based on knowledge is not contaminated with doubts (49:15). Ironically, many polytheists do not accept their polytheism (6:23).

Edip-Layth - End Note 9 (9:51)

See 2:286.

Edip-Layth - End Note 10 (9:54)

This verse is another piece of evidence that sala prayers were known since Abraham and were practiced by Meccan polytheists (8:35; 21:73). This is another answer for those who reject Quran's assertion that it is complete, perfect, and sufficiently detailed, and then ask, "Where can we find the details of sala prayers in the Quran?" (6:19, 38,114). One can find the details of sala prayer for themselves by just studying the sixty plus verses that mention sala prayer.

Edip-Layth - End Note 11 (9:80)

How can Muhammad intercede on behalf of complete strangers while he could not even intercede on behalf of his uncles and his closest relatives? Abraham could not intercede on behalf of his own father (60:4), Noah could not save his own son (11:46). Also, see 2:48.

Edip-Layth - End Note 12 (9:99)

This verse exposes one of the most popular distortions made in the meaning of salla (to support, encourage), which has been transformed into glorifying Muhammad's name day and night. See 33:43,56 and 2:136.

Edip-Layth - End Note 13 (9:124)

The language of this and following verses that repeatedly use the word "increase" and the key words, "chapter" and "acknowledgment" is prophetic since it depicts a conspiracy of hypocrites after the revelation of the Quran who attempted to add two verses to the end of this chapter. For the example of a chapter that has increased the faith of those who acknowledge and tested the hypocrites, see Chapter 74.

Edip-Layth - End Note 14 (9:127)

The numerical structure of the Quran leads us to accept this chapter having 127 verses, rather than 129, and it rejects the additional statements found in modern manuscripts, which are written here in italics. This major correction is imposed on us by the Quran's own testimony, by its authenticating system. The correction made by the numerical structure of the Quran is also supported by numerous historical events and reports. See, Chapter 74 and the Appendix On it Nineteen.

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (9:1)

Sc., "which they (the unbelievers) have deliberately broken" (Tabari, Baghawi, Zamakhshari, Razi); see also verse 4, which relates to such of the unbelievers as remain faithful to their treaty obligations towards the believers. The above passage connects with verses 56-58 of the preceding surah (Al-Anfal). The noun bara'ah (derived from the verb bari'a, "he became free [of something]" or "quit of having any part [in something]") signifies a declaration of being free or quit of any bond, moral or contractual, with the person or persons concerned (see Lane I, 178); with reference to God - or the Apostle speaking in God's name - it is best rendered as "disavowal-

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (9:2)

These words, addressed to the mushrikin ("those who ascribe divinity to aught beside God") who have deliberately broken the treaties in force between them and the believers, indicate a cancellation of all treaty obligations on the latter's part. The period of four months which is to elapse between this announcement and the beginning (or resumption) of hostilities is a further elaboration of the injunction "cast it [i.e., the treaty] back at them in an equitable manner", given in 8:58 with reference to a breach of covenant by hostile unbelievers (see also note 62 on verse 58 of surah 8).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (9:3)

There is no unanimity among the commentators as to what is meant by "the day of the Greatest Pilgrimage". Most of them assume that it refers to the pilgrimage in the year 9H., in which the Prophet himself did not participate, having entrusted Abu Bakr with the office of amir al-hajj. This very fact, however, makes it improbable that the designation "the Greatest Pilgrimage" should have been given in the Qur'an to this particular pilgrimage. On the other hand, there exists a Tradition on the authority of `Abd Allah ibn `Umar to the effect that the Prophet described in these very words the last pilgrimage led by himself in 10 H. and known to history as the Farewell Pilgrimage (Zamakhshari, Razi); one may, therefore, assume that it is this which is alluded to here. If this assumption is correct, it would justify the conclusion that verses 3 and 4 of this surah were revealed during the Farewell Pilgrimage, i.e., shortly before the Prophet's death. This might explain the otherwise perplexing statement, reliably attributed to the Prophet's Companion Al-Bara' (Bukhari, Kitab at-Tafsir), that At-Tawbah was the last surah revealed to the Prophet: for, although it is established beyond any doubt that the surah as a whole was revealed in 9 H. and was followed by several other parts of the Qur'an, e.g., Al-Ma'idah, it is possible that what Al-Bara' had in mind were only these two key-verses (3 and 4) of At-Tawbah, which conceivably were revealed during the Farewell Pilgrimage.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (9:4)

I.e., from the cancellation, explained in note 2 above, of the treaties which they have concluded with the believers.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (9:4)

Lit., "until their term".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (9:5)

According to a pre-Islamic custom prevalent in Arabia, the months of Muharram, Rajab, Dhu 'l-Qa'dah and Dhu 'l-Hijjah were considered "sacred" in the sense that all tribal warfare had to cease during those months. It was with a view to preserving these periods of truce and thus to promoting peace among the frequently warring tribes that the Qur'an did not revoke, but rather confirmed, this ancient custom. See also 2:194 and 217.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (9:5)

Read in conjunction with the two preceding verses, as well as with 2:190-194, the above verse relates to warfare already in progress with people who have become guilty of a breach of treaty obligations and of aggression.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (9:5)

I.e., "do everything that may be necessary and advisable in order to denote any place from which it is possible to perceive the enemy and to observe his movements" (Manar X, 199).

warfare".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (9:5)

As I have pointed out on more than one occasion, every verse of the Qur'an must be read and interpreted against the background of the Qur'an as a whole. The above verse, which speaks of a possible conversion to Islam on the part of "those who ascribe divinity to aught beside God" with whom the believers are at war, must, therefore, be considered in conjunction with several fundamental Qur'anic ordinances. One of them, "There shall be no coercion in matters of faith" (2:256), lays down categorically that any attempt at a forcible conversion of unbelievers is prohibited - which precludes the possibility of the Muslims' demanding or expecting that a defeated enemy should embrace Islam as the price of immunity. Secondly, the Qur'an ordains, "Fight in God's cause against those who wage war against you; but do not commit aggression, for, verily, God does not love aggressors" (2:190); and, "if they do not let you be, and do not offer you peace, and do not stay their hands, seize them and slay them whenever you come upon them: and it is against these that We have clearly empowered you [to make war]" (4:91). Thus, war is permissible only in self-defence (see surah 2, notes 167 and 168), with the further proviso that "if they desist-behold, God is much-forgiving, a dispenser of grace" (2:192), and "if they desist, then all hostility shall cease" (2:193). Now the enemy's conversion to Islam - expressed in the words, "if they repent, and take to prayer [lit., "establish prayer"] and render the purifying dues (zakah)"-is no more than one, and by no means the only, way of their "desisting from hostility"; and the reference to it in verses 5 and 11 of this surah certainly does not imply an alternative of "conversion or death", as some unfriendly critics of Islam choose to assume. Verses 4 and 6 give a further elucidation of the attitude which the believers are enjoined to adopt towards such of the unbelievers as are not hostile to them. (In this connection, see also 60:8-9).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (9:6)

Lit., "seeks to become thy neighbour": a metaphorical expression denoting a demand for protection, based on the ancient Arabian custom (strongly affirmed by Islam) of honouring and protecting a neighbour to the best of one's ability.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (9:6)

Lit., "his place of security" (ma'manahu)-i.e., "let him rejoin his homeland" (Razi), which implies that he is free to accept or not to accept the message of the Qur'an: a further re-affirmation of the Qur'anic injunction that "there shall be no coercion in matters of faith" (2:256).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (9:7)

Lit., "have a covenant before [or "in the sight of"] God and His Apostle": i.e., be protected by those who believe in God and His Apostle. The specific reference to the latter is meant to stress the fact that he speaks and acts in the name of God.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (9:7)

Cf. verse 4 above. The "covenant" alluded to is the truce-agreement concluded in 6 H. at Hudaibiyyah, in the vicinity of Mecca, between the Prophet and the pagan Quraysh, which was (and was obviously intended to remain) a model of the self-restraint and the tolerance expected of true believers with regard to such of the unbelievers as are not openly hostile to them.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (9:8)

This connects with the opening clause of the preceding verse, and relates to the hostile among "those who ascribe divinity to aught beside God".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (9:8)

The term ill signifies any tie that arises from a compact or from blood relationship, and which imposes on both parties the obligation to protect each other (cf. Lane 1, 75); the latter implication is expressed in the word dhimmah, which literally denotes a "covenant of protection".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (9:10)

Or: "who are the aggressors" - the two expressions being, in this context, synonymous.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (9:11)

See note 9 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (9:12)

Lit., "if they break their oaths after their covenant". This obviously refers to unbelievers who, without having renounced their own beliefs, have concluded treaties of friendship with the Muslims. Their subsequent "breaking of the solemn pledges" is an allusion to the breach of the truce of Hudaibiyyah by the pagan Quraysh, which, in turn, led to the conquest of Mecca by the Muslims in the year 8 H.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (9:12)

The word imam (of which a'immah is the plural) denotes not merely a "leader" but also - and primarily - "a person who is an object of imitation by his followers" (Taj al-'Arus): hence, a "model", or "exemplar", or "archetype". The term kufr, which usually signifies a "denial of [or "refusal to acknowledge"] the truth", is rendered here as "faithlessness" because it refers, specifically, to a deliberate breaking of solemn engagements.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (9:13)

I.e., from Mecca, thus bringing about his and his followers' exodus (hijrah) to Medina.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (9:13)

Lit., "God is more worthy (ahaqq) that you should stand in awe of Him".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (9:15)

This relates to the unbelievers with whom the Muslims are at war: for God may, if He so wills, bring about a change of heart in them and guide them to a realization of the truth (Baghawi and Zamakhshari; see also Manar X, 236).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 23 (9:16)

Lit., "left [alone]", i.e., without being tried by means of suffering and hardship.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 24 (9:16)

Lit., "while God has not yet taken cognizance of those of you who have striven hard". For an explanation of God's "taking cognizance", see 3:142 and the corresponding note.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 25 (9:16)

Lit., "without having taken any intimate helper (waliyah) other than God and His Apostle and the believers".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 26 (9:17)

In its transitive form, the verb `amara comprises the meanings of both visiting and maintaining a place; hence my rendering of an ya'muru as "that they should visit or tend".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 27 (9:17)

Some of the commentators conclude from this verse that "those who ascribe divinity to aught beside God" are not allowed to enter mosques ("God's houses of worship"). This conclusion, however, is entirely untenable in view of the fact that in 9 H. -that is, after the revelation of this surah -the Prophet himself lodged a deputation of the pagan Banu Thaqif in the mosque at Medina (Razi). Thus, the above verse expresses no more than the moral incongruity of the unbelievers' "visiting or tending God's houses of worship". As regards their exclusion from the central mosque of Islam at Mecca ("the Inviolable House of Worship"), see verse 28 of this surah.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 28 (9:18)

Lit., "it may well be that these will be among the right-guided". However, according to Abu Muslim (as quoted by Razi), as well as the great grammarian Sibawayh (see Manar X, 253); the word `asa, usually signifying "it may well be", is here indicative of the hope which the above-mentioned believers may entertain.

Muhammad Asad - End Note (9:19)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 30 (9:20)

See surah 2, note 203, and surah 4, note 124.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 31 (9:23)

The term walayah ("alliance" or "friendship") is used in this context in the sense of an alliance against other believers, as in 3:28. (Regarding the wider, spiritual implications of this expression, see surah 4, note 154.) That it does not refer to "friendship" in the sense of normal human affection is obvious from the many exhortations in the Qur'an to be good to one's parents and kinsfolk; and, more explicitly, from 60:8-9, where the believers are reminded that friendly relations with unbelievers who are not hostile to the Muslim community are permissible, and even desirable. (See also Manar X, 269 ff., where a similar interpretation is advanced.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 32 (9:24)

Or: "brings about [the fulfilment of) His command". This may be an allusion to the Day of Judgment or - more probably - to the inevitable degeneration and decline of communities which place narrow self-interest above ethical values. In particular, this passage rejects the tendency to regard ties of kinship and national affiliation (expressed in the term "your clan") as the decisive factors of social behaviour, and postulates ideology ("God and His Apostle and the struggle in His cause") as the only valid basis on which a believer's life - individually and socially - should rest.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 33 (9:25)

The battle of Hunayn, a valley situated on one of the roads leading from Mecca to Ta'if, took place in the year 8 H., shortly after the conquest of Mecca by the Muslims. The tatters' opponents were the pagan tribes of Hawazin (in whose territory the valley lay) and their allies, the Banu Thaqif. The Muslim army - reinforced by many newly-converted Meccans - comprised about twelve thousand men, whereas the Hawazin and Thaqif had only one-third of that number at their disposal. Relying on their great numerical superiority, the Muslims were over-confident and, apparently, careless. In the narrow defiles beyond the oasis of Hunayn they fell into an ambush prepared by the tribesmen and began to retreat in disorder after heavy losses had been inflicted on them by the bedouin archers. It was only the example of the Prophet and his early adherents (the Meccan muhajirun and the ansar from Medina) that saved the day and turned the initial rout of the Muslims into a decisive victory. It is to this battle that verses 25 and 26 refer, pointing out that true succour can come only from God, and that great numbers, ties of kinship and worldly wealth are of no avail if they are "dearer to you than God and His Apostle and the struggle in His cause" (see preceding verse).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 34 (9:26)

I.e., spiritual forces. Cf. 3:124-125 (relating to the battle of Uhud) and the corresponding note, as well as 8:9 (which refers to the battle of Badr). The spiritual nature of this aid is clearly implied in the phrase, "forces which you could not" [or "did not"] see".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 35 (9:27)

Lit., "then, after this".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 36 (9:27)

Most of the commentators (e.g., Tabari, Baghawi, Zamakhshari, Ibn Kathir) understand this verse as relating to the unbelievers and having a general import; Razi, however, thinks that it refers to the believers who behaved badly at the opening stage of the battle of Hunayn. In my opinion, the former interpretation is preferable. (See also last sentence of verse 15 and note 22 above.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 37 (9:28)

The term najas ("impure") occurs in the Qur'an only in this one instance, and carries an exclusively spiritual meaning (see Manar X, 322 ff.). To this day, the bedouin of Central and Eastern Arabia—who, contrary to the modern town-dwellers, have preserved the purity of the Arabic idiom to a high degree—describe a person who is immoral, faithless or wicked as najas. "The Inviolable House of Worship" (al-masjid al-haram) is, of course, the Ka'bah and, by implication, the whole of the territory of Mecca: which explains the next sentence.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 38 (9:28)

Lit., "after this their year" -i.e., after the year 9 H., in which this surah was revealed.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 39 (9:28)

This is an allusion to the apprehension on the part of some Muslims (and not only at the time of the revelation of this verse) that an exclusion of unbelievers from living in or visiting Mecca might lead to a loss of its position as a centre of trade and commerce, and thus to an impoverishment of its inhabitants.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 40 (9:29)

Lit., "such of those who were vouchsafed revelation [aforetime] as do not believe...", etc. In accordance with the fundamental principle—observed throughout my interpretation of the Qur'an—that all of its statements and ordinances are mutually complementary and cannot, therefore, be correctly understood unless they are considered as parts of one integral whole, this verse, too must be read in the context of the clear-cut Qur'anic rule that war is permitted only in self-defence (see 2:190-194, and the corresponding notes). In other words, the above injunction to fight is relevant only in the event of aggression committed against the Muslim community or state, or in the presence of an unmistakable threat to its security: a view which has been shared by that great Islamic thinker, Muhammad `Abduh. Commenting on this verse, he declared: "Fighting has been made obligatory in Islam only for the sake of defending the truth and its followers.... All the campaigns of the Prophet were defensive in character; and so were the wars undertaken by the Companions in the earliest period [of Islam]" (Manar X, 332).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 41 (9:29)

This, to my mind, is the key-phrase of the above ordinance. The term "apostle" is obviously used here in its generic sense and applies to all the prophets on whose teachings the beliefs of the Jews and the Christians are supposed to be based - in particular, to Moses and (in the case of the Christians) to Jesus as well (Manar X, 333 and 337). Since, earlier in this sentence, the people alluded to are accused of so grave a sin as wilfully refusing to believe in God and the Last Day (i.e., in life after death and man's individual responsibility for his doings on earth), it is inconceivable that they should subsequently be blamed for comparatively minor offences against their religious law: consequently, the stress on their "not forbidding that which God and His apostle have forbidden" must refer to something which is as grave, or almost as grave, as disbelief in God. In the context of an ordinance enjoining war against them, this "something" can mean only one thing-namely, unprovoked aggression: for it is this that has been forbidden by God through all the apostles who were entrusted with conveying His message to man. Thus, the above verse must be understood as a call to the believers to fight against such-and only such-of the nominal followers of earlier revelation as deny their own professed beliefs by committing aggression against the followers of the Qur'an (cf. Manar X, 338).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 42 (9:29)

See in this connection the statement (in 5:13-14) that the Jews and the Christians "have forgotten much of what they had been told to bear in mind".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 43 (9:29)

Sc., "and having become incorporated in the Islamic state". The term jizyah, rendered by me as "exemption tax", occurs in the Qur'an only once, but its meaning and purpose have been fully explained in many authentic Traditions. It is intimately bound up with the concept of the Islamic state as an ideological organization: and this is a point which must always be borne in mind if the real purport of this tax is to be understood. In the Islamic state, every able-bodied Muslim is obliged to take up arms in jihad (i.e., in a just war in God's cause) whenever the freedom of his faith or the political safety of his community is imperilled: in other words, every able-bodied Muslim is liable to compulsory military service. Since this is, primarily, a religious obligation, non-Muslim citizens, who do not subscribe to the ideology of Islam, cannot in fairness be expected to assume a similar burden. On the other hand, they must be accorded full protection of all their civic rights and of their religious freedom: and it is in order to compensate the Muslim community for this unequal distribution of civic burdens that a special tax is levied on non-Muslim citizens (ahl adh-dhimma, lit., "covenanted" [or "protected"] people", i.e., non-Muslims whose safety is statutorily assured by the Muslim community). Thus, jizyah is no more and no less than an exemption tax in lieu of military service and in compensation for the "covenant of protection" (dhimma) accorded to such citizens by the Islamic state. (The term itself is derived from the verb jaza, "he rendered [something] as a satisfaction", or "as a compensation [in lieu of something else]" - cf. Lane II, 422.) No fixed rate has been set either by the Qur'an or by the Prophet for this tax; but from all available Traditions it is evident that it is to be considerably lower than the tax called zakah ("the purifying dues") to which Muslims are liable and which - because it is a specifically Islamic religious duty-is naturally not to be levied on non-Muslims. Only such of the non-Muslim citizens who, if they were Muslims, would be expected to serve in the armed forces of the state are liable to the payment of jizyah, provided that they can easily afford it. Accordingly, all non-Muslim citizens whose personal status or condition would automatically free them from the obligation to render military service are statutorily - that is, on the basis of clear-cut ordinances promulgated by the Prophet-exempted from the payment of jizyah: (a) all women, (b) males who have not yet reached full maturity, (c) old men, (d) all sick or crippled men, (e) priests and monks. All non-Muslim citizens who volunteer for military service are obviously exempted from the payment of jizyah. My rendering of the expression `an yad (lit., "out of hand") as "with a willing hand", that is, without reluctance, is based on one of several explanations offered by Zamakhshari in his commentary on the above verse. Rashid Rida', taking the word yad in its metaphorical significance of "power" or "ability", relates the phrase can yad to the financial ability of the person liable to the payment of jizyah (see Manar X, 342): an interpretation which is undoubtedly justified in view of the accepted definition of this tax.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 44 (9:30)

This statement is connected with the preceding verse, which speaks of the erring followers of earlier revelation. The charge of shirk ("the ascribing of divinity [or "divine qualities"] to aught beside God") is levelled against both the Jews and the Christians in amplification, as it were, of the statement that they "do not follow the religion of truth [which God has enjoined upon them]". As regards the belief attributed to the Jews that Ezra (or, in the Arabicized form of this name, `Uzayr) was "God's son", it is to be noted that almost all classical commentators of the Qur'an agree in that only the Jews of Arabia, and not all Jews, have been thus accused. (According to a Tradition on the authority of Ibn `Abbas - quoted by Tabari in his commentary on this verse - some of the Jews of Medina once said to Muhammad, "How could we follow thee when thou hast forsaken our qiblah and dost not consider Ezra a son of God?") On the other hand, Ezra occupies a unique position in the esteem of all Jews, and has always been praised by them in the most extravagant terms. It was he who restored and codified the Torah after it had been lost during the Babylonian Exile, and "edited" it in more or less the form which it has today; and thus "he promoted the establishment of an exclusive, legalistic type of religion that became dominant in later Judaism" (Encyclopaedia Britannica, 1963, vol. IX, p. 15). Ever since then he has been venerated to such a degree that his verdicts on the Law of Moses have come to be regarded by the Talmudists as being practically equivalent to the Law itself: which, in Qur'anic ideology, amounts to the unforgivable sin of shirk, inasmuch as it implies the elevation of a human being to the status of a quasi-divine law-giver and the blasphemous attribution to him - albeit metaphorically - of the quality of "sonship" in relation to God. Cf. in this connection Exodus iv, 22-23 ("Israel is My son") or Jeremiah xxxi, 9 ("I am a father to Israel"): expressions to which, because of their idolatrous implications, the Qur'an takes strong exception.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 45 (9:30)

My interpolation, between brackets, of the words "they deserve the imprecation" is based on Zamakhshari's and Rizi's convincing interpretation of this phrase. Originally, the Arabs used the expression "may God destroy him" in the sense of a direct imprecation; but already in pre-Qur'anic Arabic it had assumed the character of an idiomatic device meant to circumscribe anything that is extremely strange or horrifying: and, according to many philologists, "this, rather than its literal meaning, is the purport [of this phrase] here" (Manar X, 399).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 46 (9:30)

See surah 5, note 90.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 47 (9:31)

Cf. 3:64.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 48 (9:32)

Lit., "with their mouths" -an allusion to the "sayings" (i.e., beliefs) mentioned in verse 30.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 49 (9:32)

Lit., "except (illa) that He bring His light to completion", or "to perfection". The expression "for He has willed" (i.e., contrary to what the erring ones want), is here elliptically implied by means of the particle illa.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 50 (9:33)

Cf. 3:19-"the only [true] religion in the sight of God is [man's] self-surrender unto Him". See also 61 : 8-9.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 51 (9:34)

Most probably this is, in the first instance, an allusion to the wealth of the Jewish and Christian communities, and their misuse of this wealth. Some of the commentators, however, are of the opinion that the reference is wider, comprising all people, including Muslims, who hoard their wealth without spending anything thereof on righteous causes.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 52 (9:35)

Cf. the parallel allegory, in 3:180, of the suffering which will befall the avaricious and the niggardly in the life to come. Regarding the eschatological implications of this and similar allegories, see Appendix I.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 53 (9:36)

This connects with the subsequent reference to fighting against "those who ascribe divinity to aught beside God" (see next note). The months spoken of here are lunar months, progressively rotating through the seasons of the solar year (see surah 2, note 165). Since reckoning by the easily observable lunar months is more natural than by the arbitrarily fixed months of the solar year, it is described in this passage as "the ever-true law (din) [of God]". The four "sacred months" during which warfare was considered blasphemous in pre-Islamic Arabia—a view which has been confirmed by Islam (see note 6 above) —are Muharram, Rajab, Dhu 'l-Qa'dah and Dhu 'l-Hijjah.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 54 (9:36)

In their endeavour to obviate certain disadvantages for their trade caused by the seasonal rotation of the lunar months, the pagan Arabs used to intercalate a thirteenth month in the third, sixth and eighth year of every eight-year period, with a view to making the lunar calendar more or less stationary, and thus roughly corresponding to the solar year. An acceptance of this unwarranted intercalation by the Muslims would have tied the-Mecca pilgrimage as well as the fast of Ramadan to fixed seasons, and would thus have made, permanently, the performance of these religious duties either too exacting or too easy; and in either case the believers would have been offending against the spiritual purpose underlying these duties —which is the meaning of the words "do not sin against yourselves with regard to these [months]": i.e., by following, without any warrant from God, a custom devised by "those who ascribe divinity to aught beside Him", to whom the sequence refers.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 55 (9:36)

I.e., "just as all of them are, as it were, united against you in their rejection of the truth, be united against them in your readiness for self-sacrifice". As regards the circumstances in which the Muslims are authorized to make war against unbelievers, see the earlier parts of this surah, and especially verses 12-13, as well as 2:190-194, where the general principles relating to war are laid down.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 56 (9:37)

Lit., "is but an increase in denying the truth (kufr)". The term nasi', rendered by me as "intercalation", may also be translated as "postponement" —i.e., the postponement of lunar months by means of the periodical intercalation of a thirteenth month, as practiced by the pre-Islamic Arabs with a view to bringing the traditional lunar calendar, for purely worldly reasons, into accord with the solar year (see note 54 above). The Qur'an describes this practice as an additional instance of kufr because it contravenes God's declared will as regards the observance of the lunar calendar in respect of various religious duties (cf. the preceding verse, as well as 2:189 and the corresponding note 165).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 57 (9:37)

An allusion to the arbitrary manner in which the pre-Islamic Arabs intercalated a thirteenth month in the third, sixth and eighth year of every eight-year period.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 58 (9:37)

By means of the intercalation spoken of above, the pagan Arabs did in most years keep the number of months to twelve; but by divorcing the four "sacred months" (Muharram, Rajab, Dhu 'l-Qa'dah and Dhu 'l-Hijjah), from their proper lunar context they obviously profaned and perverted the natural law.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 59 (9:38)

I.e., "you are sluggish in your response, clinging to the life of this world". This verse - as well as most of this surah from here onward - alludes to the campaign of Tabuk, in the year 9 H. The immediate reason for this expedition was the information which the Prophet received to the effect that the Byzantines, made apprehensive by the rapid growth of Islam in Arabia and incited by the Prophet's enemy Abu `Amir (see note 142 on verse 107 of this surah), were assembling large forces on the confines of the Peninsula with a view to marching against Medina and overthrowing the Muslims. To guard against such an assault, the Prophet assembled the strongest force the Muslims were capable of, and set out in the month of Rajab, 9 H., towards the frontier. On reaching Tabuk, about half-way between Medina and Damascus, the Prophet ascertained that the Byzantines were either not yet ready to invade Arabia or had entirely given up the idea for the time being; and so - in accordance with the Islamic principle that war may be waged only in self-defence - he returned with his followers to Medina without engaging in hostilities. At the time of the preparation for this expedition, the hypocrites and a minority among the believers displayed an extreme reluctance (referred to in this and the following verses) to embark on a war with Byzantium: and it is this minority that the above verse reproaches for "clinging heavily to the earth" (Manar X, 493).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 60 (9:40)

Lit., "him", i.e., Muhammad.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 61 (9:40)

Lit., "the second of two": an allusion to the Prophet's flight, in the company of Abu Bakr, from Mecca to Medina in the year 622 of the Christian era. The expression "the second of two" does not imply any order of precedence but is synonymous with "one of two": cf. the Prophet's saying to Abu Bakr, on that very occasion, "What [could], in thy opinion, [happen] to two [men] who have God as the third with them?" (Bukhari, in the chapter Fada'il Ashab an-Nabi)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 62 (9:40)

When the Prophet and Abu Bakr left on their hijrah to Medina, they first hid for three nights in a cave on Mount Thawr, in the vicinity of Mecca, where they were almost discovered and apprehended by the pagan Quraysh who were pursuing them (Bukhari, loc. cit.).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 63 (9:40)

Cf. verse 26 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 64 (9:40)

Lit., "is the highest". The expression rendered by me as "cause", which occurs twice in this sentence, reads, literally, "word" (kalimah).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 65 (9:41)

Lit., "lightly or heavily". The rendering adopted by me corresponds to the interpretation given to this expression by most of the classical commentators (e.g., Zamakhshari and Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 66 (9:42)

A reference to the unwillingness of some of the Muslims to follow the Prophet's call and to set out on the expedition to the frontier (see last paragraph of note 59 above). A strenuous march of about fourteen days was needed to reach Tabuk, the goal of this expedition; and the uncertainty of its outcome, as well as the hardships involved, gave rise to all manner of spurious excuses on the part of the half-hearted believers and hypocrites. As the next verse shows, the Prophet accepted these excuses in many cases, and allowed the men concerned to remain at Medina.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 67 (9:43)

All the commentators agree in that this phrase, although expressed in the form of an invocation, has the meaning of a statement - "God pardons thee" or "has pardoned thee" - absolving the Prophet of any moral responsibility for his mistaken, but humanly understandable, acceptance of equivocal pleas on the part of those who wished to be excused from participating in the campaign. To me it seems that this statement of "absolution" was primarily intended to free the Prophet from any self-reproach for his too-great liberality in this respect. (It should be borne in mind that this part of At-Tawbah was revealed during or immediately after the expedition.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 68 (9:44)

Lit., "has full knowledge of the God-conscious (bi'l-muttaḡin)".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 69 (9:46)

This may refer to the permission granted by the Prophet (see verse 43) to certain of his followers who, for apparently legitimate reasons, were unable to take part in the campaign (Tabari, Zamakhshari, Razi) - a permission of which the hypocrites only too readily availed themselves. As regards God's "causing" those hypocrites to sin in this way, see 2:7 and the corresponding note 7, as well as surah 3, note 117.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 70 (9:48)

I.e., before the expedition to Tabuk, during which these passages were revealed.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 71 (9:49)

I.e., at the time when the Prophet was making preparations for the campaign.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 72 (9:49)

See verses 44 and 45 above. It is to be noted that both the verbal form la taftinni (rendered by me as "do not put me to too hard a test") and the noun fitnah have the same root, comprising a great complex of meanings: e.g., test, trial, affliction, temptation to evil, seduction, persecution, oppression, discord, civil strife, etc. (cf. surah 8, note 25). Since it is impossible in any language but Arabic to reproduce all these many shades of meaning in a single expression, the rendering of the term fitnah must necessarily vary in accordance with the context in which it is used.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 73 (9:50)

I.e., in the course of the expedition to Tabuk, during which most of this surah was revealed. One should, however, bear in mind that these verses have not merely a historical connotation but, rather, aim at depicting hypocrisy as such.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 74 (9:52)

Le., either victory or martyrdom in God's cause. The verb tarabbasa has usually the connotation of waiting with expectancy, and is, therefore, most suitably rendered as "he hopefully waited".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 75 (9:52)

Sc., in the life to come.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 76 (9:53)

I.e., "it shall never be acceptable to God": an allusion to the readiness on the part of many hypocrites to contribute financially to "good causes", ostensibly for the sake of moral considerations but, in reality, "only to be seen and praised by men" (cf. 2:264 and 4:38).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 77 (9:54)

Lit., "nothing prevents their spending from being accepted from them except that. ..", etc.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 78 (9:54)

Lit., "and they do not approach prayer without being reluctant" -i.e., when they participate in acts of worship they do it only for the sake of outward conformity, and not out of inner conviction.

Muhammad Asad - End Note (9:55)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 80 (9:57)

Thus the Qur'an shows that the innermost cause of all hypocrisy is fear-fear of a moral commitment and, at the same time, fear of an open breach with one's social environment. In their overriding, immoral desire for social conformity, "the hypocrites seek to deceive God-the while it is He who causes them to be deceived [by themselves]" (4:142); and as "they are oblivious of God, so He is oblivious of them" (9:67). One should note, in this connection, that the Arabic term munafiq - which, for want of a better word, is rendered as "hypocrite" - applies both to conscious dissemblers bent on deceiving their fellow-men, as well as to people who, out of an inner uncertainty, are deceiving themselves. For a fuller discussion of this term, see note 7 on 29:11, which probably represents the earliest instance of its use in the Qur'an.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 81 (9:58)

Since there is no English equivalent for the term sadaqat (sing. sadagah), I am rendering it here as "offerings given for the sake of God". This comprises everything that a believer freely gives to another person, out of love or compassion, as well as what he is morally or legally obliged to give, without expecting any worldly return: that is, charitable gifts and deeds of every description (which is the primary meaning of sadaqat -e.g., in 2:263 and 264), as well as the obligatory tax called zakah ("the purifying dues", because its payment purifies, as it were, a person's property from the taint of selfishness). In the context of the above verse, this term refers to the funds thus collected and administered by the Muslim community or state. When these funds are disbursed for the purposes stipulated in verse 60, they assume once more - this time in relation to the recipients-the aspect of "charitable gifts".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 82 (9:59)

Lit., "what God has given them, and His Apostle": a typically Qur'anic construction meant to bring out the fact that the real giver is God, and that the Apostle is His instrument. Although this passage relates, primarily, to the hypocrites at Medina and the historical situation obtaining at the time of the expedition to Tabuk, the import of these verses goes beyond the historical occasion of their revelation, describing as it does "the attitude and mentality of hypocrites of all times, and everywhere" (Manar X, 567). Consequently, we may assume that the reference, in this context, to "God's Apostle" is not confined to the person of the Prophet Muhammad but implies, metonymically, the Law of Islam as revealed through him - and, thus, to every government that holds authority by virtue of that Law and rules in accordance with it.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 83 (9:60)

See note 81 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 84 (9:60)

I.e., the officials entrusted with the collection and administration of zakah funds.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 85 (9:60)

These eight categories circumscribe all the purposes for which zakah funds may be expended. By "those whose hearts are to be won over" are apparently meant such non-Muslims as are close to understanding and, perhaps, accepting Islam, and for whose conversion every effort should be made, either directly or indirectly (i.e., by means of the widest possible propagation of the teachings of Islam). As regards the expression fi 'r-rigab ("for the freeing of human beings from bondage"), which relates both to the ransoming of prisoners of war and to the freeing of slaves, see surah 2, note 146. The term al-gharimun describes people who are overburdened with debts contracted in good faith, which - through no fault of their own - they are subsequently unable to redeem. The expression "in God's cause" embraces every kind of struggle in righteous causes, both in war and in peace, including expenditure for the propagation of Islam and for all charitable purposes. Regarding the meaning of ibn as-sabil ("wayfarer"), see surah 2, note 145.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 86 (9:61)

I.e., "he believes everything that he hears". Most of the commentators assume that the hypocrites were thus alluding to the Prophet's alleged propensity to believe everything-good or bad-that he was told about other people (cf. Manar X, 600). Since, however, there is no historical evidence of such a "propensity" on his part, it seems to me that what the hypocrites referred to was the Prophet's readiness to listen to what they-in common with many other unbelievers regarded as mere hallucinatory sounds, and to interpret them "mistakenly" as revelations. This would explain the statement that "they malign the Prophet" -namely, by attributing to him self-deception-and that this saying of theirs "amounts to a denial of the truth" (see verse 74 of this surah).-The verb adha signifies primarily "he molested" or "annoyed [another]", i.e., in a manner not amounting to actual harm (darar). Since in the above context this verb is used in the sense of making a derogatory remark, yu'dhun is best rendered as "they malign".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 87 (9:61)

I.e., to divine revelation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 88 (9:62)

Lit., "the while God and His Apostle are most entitled that they should seek His pleasure. ..", etc. As has been pointed out by many of the commentators (and most succinctly by Rashid Rida' in Manar X, 607 f.), there is no question of any juxtaposition of God and His Apostle in this phrase. This is made clear by the use of the singular pronoun in an yurduhu ("that they should seek His pleasure"), which is meant to bring out-in the inimitable elliptic form so characteristic of the Qur'an-the idea that God's pleasure is the only worthwhile goal of all human endeavour, and that a believer's duty to surrender to the Prophet's guidance is but an outcome of the fact that he is the bearer of God's message to man. Cf. in this connection, "Whoever pays heed unto the Apostle pays heed unto God thereby" (4:80), or, "Say [O Prophet]: 'If you love God, follow me, [and] God will love you'" (3:31).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 89 (9:64)

This refers to a particular type of hypocrite: namely, to the doubter who, not having any real convictions on this score, leaves the question of God's existence and/or Muhammad's prophethood open (Manar X, 610), but nevertheless, for the sake of worldly advantage, would like to be regarded as a believer. (Since, obviously, not all hypocrites belong to this category. my interpolation of the words "some of" at the beginning of this verse would seem to be justified.) The ambivalent attitude of mind alluded to here implies hypocrisy not merely with regard to one's social environment but also with regard to oneself: an unwillingness-or, rather, fear-on the part of such people to admit to themselves "what is really going on in their hearts" (cf. verses 56-57 and note 80 above), and the dim realization that this ambivalence is only a cover for their desire to escape from all spiritual commitment (cf. 2:9-"they would deceive God and those who have attained to faith - the while they deceive none but themselves").

Muhammad Asad - End Note 90 (9:64)

Namely, self-knowledge. The accusation of "mocking" refers to their frivolous allusion to the Prophet, "He is all ear" (see verse 61 and note 86 above).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 91 (9:65)

Most of the classical commentators assume that this refers to the derisive remarks made by some of the hypocrites about the alleged futility of the expedition to Tabuk. In view of the sequence, however. I am of the opinion that this is a further reference to those who "malign the Prophet by saying, 'He is all ear'" (verse 61)-i.e., accuse him of self-deception-and thus, by implication, "mock at God and His messages" (see next sentence).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 92 (9:66)

See note 89 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 93 (9:66)

I.e., consciously persevered in hypocrisy (Zamakhshari). The above Qur'anic sentence expresses the doctrine that in His final judgment God will take into account all that is in a sinner's heart, and will not indiscriminately condemn everyone who has been sinning out of weakness or out of an inner inability to resolve his doubts. and not out of a conscious inclination to evil (cf. 4:98 - "excepted shall be the [truly] helpless - be they men or women or children - who cannot bring forth any strength and have not been shown [or "cannot find"] the right way").

Muhammad Asad - End Note 94 (9:67)

Le.. their behaviour is - in its effect, at least - the exact opposite of that expected of the believers (cf. 3:104, 110 and 114, 9:71 and 112. and 22:41).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 95 (9:67)

It is to be borne in mind that this and the following verses refer to the conscious hypocrites spoken of in the last sentence of the preceding verse, and not to the waverers, whose hypocrisy is an outcome of inner fears and uncertainties.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 96 (9:69)

A reference to the statement, in verse 67, that conscious hypocrites are intrinsically "all of a kind" (ba'dhum min ba'd).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 97 (9:69)

Sc., "and the same will happen to you unless you repent".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 98 (9:70)

I.e., Sodom and Gomorrah, the cities of Lot's people (see 7:80-84 and 11:69-83). References to the chastisement meted out to Noah's people as well as to the `Ad and Thamud and the folk of Madyan (the Biblical Midian) are found in several places in the Qur'an; see, in particular, 7:59-79 and 85-93, and the corresponding notes. The reference to "Abraham's people" seems to point to the Babylonians, who rejected the monotheism preached by him, and to the overthrow of their first empire, at about 1100 B.c. by the Assyrians.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 99 (9:71)

Or: "are the protectors [or "friends and protectors"] of one another". Since, however, the believers are here contrasted with the hypocrites, spoken of in verse 67 as being "all of a kind", it is preferable to render the term wali (of which awliya' is the plural) in its primary meaning of being "near" or "close" to one another.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 100 (9:72)

For an explanation of this rendering of `adn (akin to the Hebrew `eden, "delight" or "bliss"), see note 45 on 38:50, where this expression occurs for the first time in the chronological order of Qur'anic revelation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 101 (9:73)

I.e., "do not compromise with them in matters of principle". Regarding the meaning of the verb jahada ("he strove hard", i.e., in a righteous cause), see surah 4, note 122. The imperative jahid is obviously used here in its spiritual connotation, implying efforts at convincing both the outspoken unbelievers and the waverers, including the various types of hypocrites spoken of in the preceding passages. Although the imperative is addressed in the first instance to the Prophet, it is considered to be morally binding on all believers.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 102 (9:74)

See the first sentence of verse 61 above, and the corresponding note 86. The allegation that the Prophet deceived himself in the matter of revelation is, naturally, equivalent to disbelief in the outcome of his revelation, i.e., the Qur'an.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 103 (9:74)

Lit., "which they were unable to attain to". The classical commentators take this as a reference to an abortive plot, on the part of some of the hypocrites, to kill the Prophet during the expedition to Tabuk. However, without contesting the validity of this historical interpretation, I believe that the above allusion has a far deeper meaning-namely, the existential impossibility of one's ever attaining to inner peace without a positive belief that man's life has meaning and purpose, either of which can be glimpsed only through the revelations bestowed on those exceptionally gifted and receptive personalities, the prophets. (An indirect reference to divine revelation as the only source of this kind of cognition appears in 96:5, that is, in the earliest Qur'anic passage revealed to the Prophet.) Thus, torn between their half-hearted desire to "surrender themselves to God" and their unwillingness to accept the divine guidance offered them by the Prophet, the hypocrites "were aiming at something which was beyond their reach".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 104 (9:74)

I.e., by means of the spiritual guidance contained in the Qur'an and the material welfare resulting from an adherence to its moral and social principles. The above phrase implies that the reluctance of the hypocrites to pay heed to the Prophet was not due to their finding fault with the Faith as such but, rather, to their lack of gratitude for the spiritual and material benefits which they had derived from it. (Because of its historical associations, most of this verse is expressed in the past tense, although its moral import is obviously timeless.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 105 (9:77)

Lit., "He has caused hypocrisy to become for them a consequence (a'qabahum) in their hearts until the Day on which they shall meet Him" (i.e., until their resurrection). Thus, the Qur'an states that it is excessive love of worldly possessions which gives rise, in a certain type of man, to the attitude of mind described as "hypocrisy"-and not vice versa (see also 29:11 and the corresponding note 7). Cf. in this connection the Prophet's saying, reported by Abu Hurayrah: "The mark (ayah) of the hypocrite is threefold: when he speaks, he lies; and when he promises, he breaks his promise; and when he is trusted, he betrays" (Bukhari, Muslim, Tirmidhi and Nasa'i similar Traditions, on the authority of `Abd Allah ibn `Amr; are quoted by Bukhari, Muslim, Abu Da'ud, Nasa'i, Ibn Majah and Ibn Hanbal).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 106 (9:77)

I.e., to themselves, trying to find excuses for their breaking their vow.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 107 (9:79)

Regarding my rendering of sadaqat as "that which is given for the sake of God", see note 81 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 108 (9:79)

There are many authentic Traditions to the effect that the hypocrites at Medina used to deride the offerings which the believers brought to the Prophet (as head of the community and the state) in response to the Qur'anic ordinance that they should "give for the sake of God". For instance, the Companion Abu Mas'ud reports: "[When] a man brought an ample offering, they [i.e., the hypocrites] would say, 'He [only] wants to be seen and praised by men'; and when a man brought an offering of a small measure [of dates or grain], they would say, 'God does not stand in need of such an offering'" (Bukhari and Muslim. and many similar versions in other hadith compilations). The above verse, however, does not allude merely to these historical incidents but serves to illustrate the mentality of the hypocrite whose own insincerity colours his view of all other people.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 109 (9:79)

Lit., "God will scoff at them": a turn of phrase often occurring in the Qur'an (e.g., in 2:15), indicating God's requital.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 110 (9:80)

Le.. many times. In Arabic usage, the number "seventy" often stands for "many". just as "seven" is a synonym for "several" (see Lisan al'Arab and Taj al-'Arus). It is evident from many authentic Traditions (recorded, among others, by Bukhari and Muslim) that the Prophet often prayed to God that He pardon his enemies.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 111 (9:80)

I.e., "those who are so deeply rooted in their iniquity and in their insolent persistence in evil-doing (tamarrud) ... [that] they have lost all disposition for repentance and belief" (Manar X, 657).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 112 (9:81)

Lit., "rejoiced in their sitting [at home]" -a reference to those who, under one pretext or another, excused themselves from participating in the expedition to Tabuk (see notes 59 and 66 above). As is evident from the sequence - and clearly stated in many authentic Traditions - one of the excuses advanced was the extreme heat of the season.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 113 (9:82)

Lit., "and let them weep a lot".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 114 (9:83)

Lit., "if God brings thee back [from the campaign] to a hypocrites who remained at home under false pretences.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 115 (9:83)

I.e., with the old men, the women, the children and the expected to go to war (Manar X, 662).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 116 (9:84)

I.e., unless he has repented before his death. It is reported that when the life-long opponent of the Prophet and leader of the hypocrites of Medina. `Abd Allah ibn Ubayy. was dying, he sent his son to the Prophet with the request that the latter give him his (the Prophet's) shirt, so that he might be buried in it, and that the Prophet should pray over him after his death. The Prophet took this request as a sign of Ibn Ubayy's repentance, and gave him his shirt and later led the funeral prayers over his body. When `Umar ibn al-Khattab vehemently protested against this clemency towards the man whom all the believers .had regarded as "God's enemy", the Prophet answered, "God has granted me a choice in this matter [a reference to verse 80 of this surah. "whether thou dost pray that they be forgiven or dost not pray. . .", etc.], and so I shall pray [for him] more than seventy times." Several variants of this Tradition are to be found in Bukhari, Tirmidhi, Nasa'i, Ibn Hanbal, on the authority of Ibn `Abbas; Bukhari and Muslim, on the authority of Ibn `Umar; Muslim, on the authority of Jabir ibn `Abd Allah; and in various other hadith compilations. Since `Abd Allah ibn Ubayy died some time after the Prophet's return from Tabuk, while verse 84-like most of this surah - was revealed during the campaign, it is clear that the prohibition expressed in this verse relates only (as the sequence shows) to those who "were bent on denying God and His Apostle, and [who] died in this their iniquity"-that is, to unrepentant sinners.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 117 (9:84)

Lit., "while they were iniquitous".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 118 (9:85)

Cf. 3:178 and 8:28, as well as the corresponding notes. This (almost literal) repetition of verse 55 above is meant to stress the psychological importance of this problem (Zamakhshari) - namely, the insignificance of worldly happiness as compared with spiritual righteousness or the absence of it.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 119 (9:86)

Lit., "when a surah was bestowed from on high": the word surah being here synonymous with "revealed message" (see note 25 on 47:20).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 120 (9:86)

I.e., with those who were either not expected to go to war-like women and children-or were handicapped by old age or illness.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 121 (9:87)

Cf. 2:7 and the corresponding note, as well as 7:100-101.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 122 (9:90)

I.e., from participating in the expedition to Tabuk. The term al-mu'adhdhirun connotes both "those having a valid excuse (`udhr)" and "those offering false excuses"; it is, therefore, best rendered as "such as had some excuse to offer". The specific mention of the a'rab ("bedouin") in this and the following passages probably arises from the fact that their attitude - positive or negative-towards Islam was of the greatest importance within the context of early Muslim history, inasmuch as the message of Muhammad could not obtain a real, lasting foothold in Arabia without first securing the allegiance of those warlike nomads and half-nomads, who constituted the great majority of the Peninsula's population. At the time when the Prophet was preparing to set out towards Tabuk, many of the already-converted tribesmen were willing to go to war under his leadership (and, in fact, did so), while others were afraid lest in their absence their encampments, denuded of man-power, be raided by hostile, as yet unconverted tribes (Razi); others, again, were simply averse to exposing themselves to the hardships of a campaign in distant lands, which did not seem to them to have any bearing on their own, immediate interests.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 123 (9:90)

I.e., without even caring to come to Medina and to excuse themselves.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 124 (9:91)

I.e., the old and the infirm.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 125 (9:91)

Lit., "who do not find anything to spend", i.e., on their equipment. At the time in question a public treasury did not yet exist, and every participant in a military expedition was expected to provide his own weapons and mounts.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 126 (9:93)

Lit., "who ask thee for exemption while they are rich". The term ghani denotes "one who is rich" or "free from want" or "self-sufficient"; in this context it obviously refers to physical competence in addition to financial means: that is, to people who were able-bodied as well as financially in a position to equip themselves (cf. verses 86-87 above).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 127 (9:94)

Lit., "and thereafter you will be brought back unto Him".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 128 (9:94)

See surah 6, note 65.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 129 (9:95)

Sc., "and not punishing them". As a matter of fact, their fears were unfounded, since, on his return from Tabuk, the Prophet took no punitive action against any of those who had failed to follow him on his campaign.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 130 (9:97)

The words interpolated by me between brackets at the beginning of this sentence are based on the interpretation given by Razi (see also Manar XI, 8), obviously in view of verse 99, which speaks of believers among the bedouin.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 131 (9:97)

Owing to their nomadic way of life and its inherent hardship and crudity, the bedouin find it more difficult than do settled people to be guided by ethical imperatives unconnected with their immediate tribal interests - a difficulty which is still further enhanced by their physical distance from the centres of higher culture and, consequently, their comparative ignorance of most religious demands. It was for this reason that the Prophet often stressed the superiority of a settled mode of life to a nomadic one: cf. his saying, "He who dwells in the desert (al-badiyah) becomes rough in disposition", recorded by Tirmidhi, Abu Da'ud, Nasa'i and Ibn Hanbal on the authority of Ibn Abbas, and a similar Tradition, on the authority of Abu Hurayrah, by Abu Da'ud and Bayhaqi.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 132 (9:100)

In the above context, the term muhajirun -lit., "emigrants", rendered by me as "those who have forsaken the domain of evil" (see surah 2, note 203, and surah 4, note 124) - applies primarily to the Meccan followers of the Prophet who migrated (hajar) from Mecca to Medina -which until then was called Yathrib - at a time when Mecca was still in the possession of the enemies of Islam; the "first and foremost" among them were the earliest emigrants, i.e., those who left Mecca in or before the year 622 of the Christian era (which marks the beginning of the Islamic hijri era) and in the course of the next few years, when the Muslim community at Medina was still in danger of being overrun by the powerful Quraysh of Mecca. Similarly, the term ansar (lit., "helpers") applies here to the early converts from among the people of Medina who sheltered and succoured (nasaru) their brethren in faith-the "first and foremost" among them being those who embraced Islam before and shortly after the Prophet's and his Companions' exodus (hijrah) from Mecca, and particularly those who did so on the occasion of the two meetings, at Al-`Aqabah near Mecca, between the Prophet and deputations of the Yathrib tribes of Al-Aws and Khazraj (a little over a year and a few months, respectively, before the Prophet's hijrah). Apart, however, from their purely historical connotations, both the terms muhajirun and ansar bear in the Qur'an a spiritual meaning as well, and are often used to describe those who morally "forsake the domain of evil" and those who "shelter and succour the Faith" (see surah 8, note 78).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 133 (9:101)

Le., Medina. Originally, the city bore the name Yathrib; but after the exodus of the Prophet from Mecca it came to be known as Madinat an-Nabi ("the City of the Prophet") and, eventually, as Al-Madinah ("The City" par excellence).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 134 (9:101)

I.e., first through failure in their worldly concerns, accompanied by pangs of conscience and the resulting spiritual distress, and then through a full realization, at the moment of dying, of the unforgivable nature of their sin (Manar XI, 19).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 135 (9:102)

Le., neither believers in the full sense of the word nor hypocrites, but half-hearted, confused waverers between right and wrong, or between truth and falsehood.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 136 (9:102)

Lit., "who have acknowledged their sins [after] having mingled a righteous deed with another that was evil". Although it relates primarily to the vacillating Muslims who refused to participate in the expedition to Tabuk, this verse alludes, in its wider meaning, to all sinners who-without external prompting-become conscious of their wrongdoing and repent of it.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 137 (9:103)

Lit., "take out of their possessions an offering for the sake of God (sadaqah)". For the meaning of this term, see note 81 above. In this context, it primarily denotes the tax called zakah ("the purifying dues") incumbent on every Muslim enjoying a certain minimum of property and/or income. Since an acceptance of zakah by the head of state (or of the community) amounts to a recognition of the giver as a "Muslim" in the Qur'anic sense of this term, the Prophet refused to accept it from all whose behaviour had made it obvious that they were hypocrites; the above verse, however, authorizes him (and, by implication, the authorities of an Islamic state at all times) to accept the payment of zakah from those who express their repentance by deeds as well as by words.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 138 (9:104)

Lit., "who accepts repentance from His servants": thus pointing out that no human being, not even the Prophet, has the power to absolve a sinner of his guilt (Manar XI, 32). A prophet can do no more than pray to God that He forgive the sinners.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 139 (9:105)

This connects with the injunction in verse 103 above, "accept that [part] of their possessions which is offered for the sake of God, . . . and pray for them". The stress on action as an integral part of faith is of fundamental importance in the ethics of the Qur'an: cf. the frequent juxtaposition of the concepts of "believing" and "doing good works", and the condemnation of all "who, while believing, wrought no good works" (see 6:158 and the corresponding note 160).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 140 (9:105)

See Surah 6, note 65.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 141 (9:106)

Lit., "deferred unto God's decree (amr)"-i.e., kept in abeyance in anticipation of their future repentance. As in the preceding four verses, the people referred to here are, in the first instance, the waverers who stayed away from the campaign of Tabuk, and, by implication, all half-hearted believers who confusedly hover between right and wrong: with the difference, however, that whereas the repentant sinners spoken of in verses 102-105 are said to have realized their sinfulness spontaneously, the kind of people referred to in verse 106 have not yet reached the stage of moral self-examination and repentance, with the result that their cases are "deferred" until such a time as their impulses sway them entirely one way or another. From a psychological point of view, it is possible to discern a subtle connection between this verse and 7:46-47.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 142 (9:107)

Lit., "who have been warring against God and His Apostle aforetime"-i.e., before the expedition to Tabuk. The historical occasion to which this verse refers may be thus summarized: Ever since his exodus from Mecca to Medina the Prophet was violently opposed by one Abu `Amir ("The Monk"), a prominent member of the Khazraj tribe, who had embraced Christianity many years earlier and enjoyed a considerable reputation among his compatriots and among the Christians of Syria. From the very outset he allied himself with the Prophet's enemies, the Meccan Quraysh, and took part on their side in the battle of Uhud (3 H.). Shortly thereafter he migrated to Syria and did all that he could to induce the Emperor of Byzantium, Heraclius, to invade Medina and crush the Muslim community once and for all. In Medina itself, Abu `Amir had some secret followers among the members of his tribe, with whom he remained in constant correspondence. In the year 9 H. he informed them that Heraclius had agreed to send out an army against Medina, and that large-scale preparations were being made to this effect (which was apparently the reason for the Prophet's preventive expedition to Tabuk). In order that his followers should have a rallying-place in the event of the expected invasion of Medina, Abu `Amir suggested to his friends that they build a mosque of their own in the village of Quba', in the immediate vicinity of Medina (which they did), and thus obviate the necessity of congregating in the mosque which the Prophet himself had built in the same village at the time of his arrival at Medina (see note 145 below). It is this "rival" mosque to which the above verse refers. It was demolished at the Prophet's orders immediately after his return from the Tabuk expedition. Abu `Amir himself died in Syria shortly afterwards. (For all the relevant Traditions, see Tabari's and Ibn Kathir's commentaries on this verse.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 143 (9:107)

Although the whole of this verse relates primarily to the historical occasion explained in the preceding note, it has a definite bearing on all attempts at creating sectarian divisions among Muslims, and is thus a clear amplification of an earlier injunction to this effect (see 6:159 and the corresponding note 161).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 144 (9:108)

Lit., "in it" - sc., "to pray therein".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 145 (9:108)

Lit., "Indeed, a house of worship founded ... upon God-consciousness (taqwa) is most deserving. ..", etc. Some of the commentators believe that this is a reference to the mosque founded by the Prophet at Quba', a village close to Medina, on his arrival there in the month of Rabi` al-Awwal in the year 1 H., since it was the first mosque ever built by him or his followers. There are, however, authentic Traditions to the effect that the Prophet applied the designation of "a house of worship founded on God-consciousness" to his (later-built) mosque at Medina as well (Muslim, Tirmidhi, Nasa'i, Ibn Hanbal). It is, therefore, reasonable to assume that it applies to every mosque sincerely dedicated by its founders, to the worship of God: a view which is supported by the next verse.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 146 (9:110)

Lit., 'unless their hearts are cut into many pieces'-i.e., until they die. In verses 109-110, the reference to "the building which they have built" is, obviously, widened beyond the preceding allusion to houses of worship, and allegorically circumscribes here all the "works" and the behaviour of men.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 147 (9:112)

Most of the commentators attribute to the expression as-sa'ihun (lit., "those who wander") the meaning of as-sa'imun, i.e., "those who fast", since he who fasts deprives himself, temporarily, of worldly enjoyments similar to one who wanders about the earth (Sufyan ibn `Uyaynah. as quoted by Razi); and they justify this metaphorical equation of siyahah ("wandering") with siyam ("fasting") by the fact that several Companions and some of their successors have thus interpreted the term as-sa'ihun in the above context (see Tabari). Other authorities, however, (e.g., Abu Muslim, as quoted by Razi) prefer the original significance of this term and explain it as more or less synonymous with al-muhajirun ("those who forsake the domain of evil"). To my mind, the expression as-sa'ihun is best rendered as "those who go on and on [seeking God's goodly acceptance]", thus combining the literal and metonymical connotations of the term siyahah.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 148 (9:113)

As is obvious from the sequence, this prohibition relates to the dead among such sinners-i.e., those who have died without repentance (Zamakhshari, Razi)-and not to those who are still living: for "a prayer for forgiveness in respect of a living [sinner] ... amounts to asking God that He grace him with His guidance ... and this is permissible" (Manar XI, 60).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 149 (9:114)

Abraham's promise to his father is mentioned in 19:47-48 and 60:4: for the actual prayer, see 26:86-87.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 150 (9:115)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 151 (9:115)

Most of the commentators assume that the people referred to are the believers who, before the revelation of verse 113, used to pray to God that He grant His forgiveness to their relatives and friends who had died in the state of shirk ("ascribing divinity to aught beside God"): in other words, the believers need not fear to be taken to task for something which they did before the prohibition laid down in verse 113 was revealed (i.e., "ere He has made clear unto them of what they should beware"). However, Razi advances also an alternative interpretation of verse 115, suggesting that it is meant to explain the severity with which the whole of this surah condemns the deniers of the truth and the hypocrites who are going astray after God "has made clear unto them of what they should beware". (See in this connection 6:131-132 and the corresponding notes.) `his interpretation is, to my mind, the more plausible of the two, and particularly so in view of the sequence (verse 116).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 152 (9:117)

See note 132 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 153 (9:117)

Lit., "after the hearts of a group of them had well-nigh swerved [from faith]": a reference to the believers who-without valid excuse-failed to respond to the Prophet's call when he was setting out on the expedition to Tabuk, and who afterwards repented.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 154 (9:117)

See surah 6, note 31. According to Zamakhshari and Razi, the particle thumma has here the meaning given in my rendering, and serves to emphasize the statement that "God has turned in His mercy unto the Prophet ... and all those who followed him in the hour of distress".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 155 (9:118)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 156 (9:118)

In its wider implication - as contrasted with a purely historical allusion - the above verse relates to all believers who temporarily deviate from the right path and then, after having realized - either spontaneously or in consequence of outside reprobation - that they had "fallen prey to corruption", sincerely repent their sin.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 157 (9:120)

Although this and the following verses relate, on the face of it, to "the people of the Prophet's City" (see note 133 above) and to "the bedouin who live around them", their purport is obviously general, and applies to all believers at all times. The specific reference to "the Prophets City" is due to the fact that it was the place where the revelation of the Qur'an was completed and Islam came to its full fruition under the Prophet's guidance.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 158 (9:120)

Lit., "causes wrath to".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 159 (9:120)

Lit., "[whenever] they get from the enemy whatever they get" -i.e., victory or death or injury.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 160 (9:120)

In its original construction, this sentence reads thus: "and neither thirst afflicts them.. , nor do they take any step . . . , nor do they get from the enemy . . . , without that a good deed is recorded in their behalf". The same construction is applied to the next verse.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 161 (9:121)

Lit., "cross a valley". As Zamakhshari rightly points out in his commentary on this verse, the term wadi ("valley" or "river-bed") is often used in classical Arabic to denote "the earth" -a usage which even in our days is familiar to the bedouin of the Arabian Peninsula, especially when combined with the verb gata'a (lit., "he cut") in its connotation of "cutting across" or "traversing [a distance]" or "advancing [on a journey]". Thus, the above Qur'anic phrase may be suitably rendered as "whenever they move on earth". (As regards the construction of this sentence, see preceding note.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 162 (9:122)

Lit., "admonish their people when they come back to them, so that they might be on their guard". Although the above injunction mentions specifically religious knowledge, it has a positive bearing on every kind of knowledge-and this in view of the fact that the Qur'an does not draw any dividing-line between the spiritual and the worldly concerns of life but, rather, regards them as different aspects of one and the same reality. In many of its verses, the Qur'an calls upon the believer to observe all nature and to discern God's creative activity in its manifold phenomena and "laws", as well as to mediate upon the lessons of history with a view to gaining a deeper insight into man's motivations and the innermost springs of his behaviour: and, thus, the Qur'an itself is characterized as addressed to "those who think". In short, intellectual activity as such is postulated as a valid way to a better understanding of God's will and - if pursued with moral consciousness-as a valid method of worshipping God. This Qur'anic principle has been emphasized in many well-authenticated sayings of the Prophet, for instance, "Striving after knowledge is a sacred duty (faridah) for every man and woman who has surrendered himself or herself to God (muslim wa-muslimah)" (Ibn Majah); or, "The superiority (fadl) of a learned man over a [mere] worshipper [i.e., one who merely prays, fasts, etc.] is like the superiority of the full moon over all the stars" (Tirmidhi, Abu Da'ud, Ibn Majah, Ibn Hanbal, Darimi). Consequently, the obligation of the believers to "devote themselves to acquiring a deeper knowledge of the Faith" (li-yatafaqquhu fi 'd-din) and to impart its results to their fellow-believers relates to every branch of knowledge as well as to its practical application.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 163 (9:123)

I.e., uncompromising with regard to ethical principles. For the general circumstances in which war is permitted, see 2:190-194, 22:39, 60:8-9, and the corresponding notes, as well as notes 7 and 9 on verse 5 of this surah. The reference to "those deniers of the truth who are near you" may arise from the fact that only "those who are near" can be dangerous in a physical sense or, alternatively, that - having come from afar- they have already approached the Muslim country with an aggressive intent.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 164 (9:124)

Lit., "there are among them such as say". The "saying" that follows is perhaps an oblique, sarcastic reference to 8:2, which speaks of the believers "whose faith is strengthened whenever His messages are conveyed unto them".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 165 (9:124)

A reference to the promise of paradise expressed in verse 111 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 166 (9:125)

Lit., "it but adds [another] loathsome evil to their loathsome evil" -i.e., makes them more stubborn in their denying the truth of God's messages because they are a priori determined to deny everything that is incompatible with their refusal to admit the existence of anything that is beyond the reach of human perception (al-ghayb - see surah 2, note 3).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 167 (9:126)

Lit., "every year once or twice" - a figure of speech denoting continuity (Manar XI, 83 f.). The "test" consists in the fact that man has been endowed with reason and, therefore, with the ability to choose between right and wrong.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 168 (9:127)

Lit., "who sees you" -thus implying that God does not exist.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 169 (9:127)

Cf. 8:55 .

Muhammad Asad - End Note 170 (9:128)

Le., "a human being like yourselves, not endowed with any supernatural powers, but only chosen by God to convey His message to you". (See note 2 on 50:2.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 171 (9:129)

Lit., "the Sustainer (rabb) of the awesome throne of almightiness". For my rendering of al-'arsh as "the throne of almightiness", see note 43 on 7:54 .

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (9:1)

The treaties that the believers had signed with the idolaters of the Arabian Peninsula, no longer remain valid, since they have repeatedly violated them. 9:4

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (9:2)

The Central authority will subdue the aggressors

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (9:5)

The four Sacred Months forbidden for any warfare: From the 12th month, Zil-Hajjah up to the 3rd month, Rabi'ul Awwal 2:194, 9:36

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (9:8)

Fasiqeen = Those who drift away

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (9:9)

This trade, frequently mentioned in the Qur'an, indicates: Fulfilling selfish desires for instant gains at the cost of disregarding Permanent Moral Values

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (9:11)

The usual translation of this verse conveys the meaning that if they start praying five times a day and give 2.5% poor-due per year, then they are your brothers in religion. This interpretation goes directly against the all-encompassing Ordinance of God that there is no compulsion or coercion in Deen Islam
2:256

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (9:17)

9:107, 30:31, 72:18

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (9:19)

Zaalim = One who displaces something from its rightful place

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (9:24)

Faasiq = One who drifts away

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 10 (9:26)

The messenger led them from chaos back to discipline, and boosted their morale. That was the army unseen. 3:125, 8:10, 9:40, 41:30, 48:4

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 11 (9:29)

Deen = Divinely Prescribed way of Life = The Religion. Jizya = Legal reparation to be paid by those who unjustifiably started the war. -Mufridaat-e-Raghib

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 12 (9:30)

Some Jews in the Arabian Peninsula used to believe that Osiris, the Egyptian idol, was God's son while others thought of Ezra, who restored the Torah after it had been lost in the Babylonian Exile, as God's son

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 13 (9:31)

*Talmud shows the Jewish superstition of ascribing divinity to Ezra, rabbis, saints, doctors of law and learned men. And the doctrine of Papal infallibility, divinity of saints and praying to them are common in the Roman Catholic Church

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note (9:31)

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 14 (9:33)

The Qura'nic Deen will prevail over all other systems of life. This refers to religions such as Christianity,

Judaism, Hinduism and all other forms of religion, including the sects that are now present in Islam. But next to religions, the Qur'anic Deen will also prevail over all political systems of the world such as Communism, Secular Democracy, Theocracy, Monarchy and it will rule over all ways of life as Humanism, Socialism and so on. This will happen as humanity willingly realizes the supremacy of the Qur'an

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 15 (9:34)

Ahbaar = Clergy of any religion. Ruhbaan = Monks and Sufis

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 16 (9:36)

Mankind, through international treaties, must agree to shun all kind of warfare during these four months. This will give them a cooling off period that sense may prevail over emotions. Four Sacred Months: 2:194, 9:15. 100 Solar years = 103 Lunar years. The earth completes its orbit around the sun in one Solar year

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 17 (9:39)

Only the competent nations live honorably on earth. 21:105, 24:55

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 18 (9:43)

The permission gave the hypocrites an excuse to stay back

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 19 (9:51)

Calling religious men as Maulana is a very common but dangerous practice involving Shirk

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 20 (9:54)

Islam requires willing submission to God. 2:256

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 21 (9:55)

The 'dazzle' of the world holds them back from striving. But people must strive and build Paradise with their own hands. 3:135, 16:32, 46:14-16

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 22 (9:59)

59:7. The Central authority will be just to all

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 23 (9:60)

It is important to bear in mind an almost universal misconception among Muslim scholars and the masses about Sadaqaat (alms and charity). They understand the above eight categories as pertaining to Zakaat. But Zakaat indicates the Just Economic Order where everyone in the society flourishes. The cornerstone of Zakaat is spending whatever is surplus for an individual (2:219). In more concrete terms, that means turning the extra income voluntarily to the Central authority who, in turn, will transform the State where everyone works according to his capacity and is paid according to his needs. The Central authority can set up a mandatory percentage of income as taxes on its citizens which would vary according to the needs of the time, be it 2.5%, 5% or more or less. Verse 9:60 is talking about Sadaqaat (alms and charity) and not Zakaat. Sadaqaat are meant to be an interim arrangement applicable at any time until the Divine System is established and the Just Economic Order (Zakaat) is set up in the society

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 24 (9:61)

The messenger is not an emperor or a king who keep guards around them. He is accessible to all at all time and it is good for you that he pays attention to everyone

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 25 (9:67)

'God forgetting them' denotes He depriving them of His grace. God forgets nothing in the customary sense. Whoever forgets God, forgets himself and his honored stature of being a servant of the Supreme Lord. 59:19

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 26 (9:71)

The believing men and women do not deliver empty lectures. They enjoin virtue and forbid vice by personal example, knowing that the Qur'an is the Eternal Criterion of right and wrong. 2:185. 'Good' and 'Evil', 'Right' and 'Wrong' are not vague entities. The Qur'an clearly defines them. 2:177 and many other verses. In short, good is all that helps people and evil is all that hurts them

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 28 (9:81)

And the advancing aggressors could soon bring the heat of the conflict to their homes

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 29 (9:85)

Hoarding of wealth and taking pride in children, party and possessions cause people to ignore Divine laws in their daily lives, and thus, they become a tribulation for them. 2:195, 8:28, 18:32, 63:9, 68:14, 57:20

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 30 (9:96)

9:23-24

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 31 (9:100)

Muhaajireen = Emigrants (from Makkah). Ansaar = Those who hosted them (in Madinah). Radhi-Allahu 'anhum wa radhu 'Anh also translates as, "God is well-pleased with them and they are well-pleased with Him."

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 32 (9:103)

Let the believers adopt the Divine Attributes in their human capacity. 2:103

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 33 (9:106)

Their matter is under investigation by the State. Divine laws are based on knowledge and wisdom 9:118

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 34 (9:110)

A building that divides believers will remain a source of unrest in the hearts of the sectarians till their hearts stop beating

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 35 (9:111)

Deuteronomy 6:4-5, 6:32. Mathew 10:5, 10:39, 19:29, 21:19

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 36 (9:112)

3:104, 33:35, 66:5

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 37 (9:114)

14:41, 19:47

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 38 (9:117)

Muhaajireen = Emigrants. Ansaar = Those who host and support them

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 39 (9:118)

9:106, 9:43-46. According to the ever fallible history, the three who had stayed behind: Ka'b bin Maalik, Mararah bin Rabee', Hilal bin Umayyah

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 40 (9:120)

Muhsin = A benefactor of humanity = One who serves people = Whoever helps the creation = A doer of good. Anger during combat deters sound planning. Muhsin, in this sense, may refer to the one engaged in benign aggression (self-defense) as opposed to malignant aggression (unjust war)

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 41 (9:129)

'Arsh = Throne = Sky = Height = The Throne of His Almightyness of Supreme Control. 7:54, 10:3, 13:2, 20:5, 25:59, 32:4, 57:4

Rashad Khalifa - The Final Testament

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 2 (9:24)

The Quranic, mathematical evidence points specifically to God's Messenger of the Covenant. By adding the gematrical value of "Rashad" (505), plus the value of "Khalifa" (725), plus the verse number (24), we get $505 + 725 + 24 = 1254 = 19 \times 66$

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 4 (9:33)

This statement, letter for letter, occurs here and in 61:9. If we write down the gematrical value of "Rashad" (505), followed by the value of "Khalifa" (725), followed by the sura and verse numbers where this statement occurs (9:33 & 61:9), we get 505 725 9 33 61 9, a multiple of 19. This confirms that the messenger here is Rashad Khalifa. Additionally, the number of verses from 9:33 to 61:9 (3902) + 9 + 33 + 61 + 9 + the value of "Rashad Khalifa" (1230) gives 5244, also a multiple of 19. The gematrical value of 9:33 & 61:9, calculated by adding the values of every letter, is 7858. By adding this number, plus the number of letters in the two verses (120), plus the number of verses from 9:33 to 61:9 (3902), plus the value of "Rashad Khalifa" (1230), we get $7858 + 120 + 3902 + 1230 = 13110 = 19 \times 690$. See Appendices 1, 2, and 26.

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 5 (9:36)

The word "month" is mentioned in the Quran 12 times, and "day" 365 times.

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 6 (9:37)

The Sacred Months according to the corrupted Muslim World are Rajab, Zul-Qe`dah, Zul-Hijjah, and Muharram (7th, 11th, 12th and 1st months of the Islamic Calendar). A careful study of the Quran, however, reveals that they should be Zul-Hijjah, Muharram, Safar, and Rabi I (12th, 1st, 2nd, and 3rd months). See Appendix 15.

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 7 (9:54)

This is another proof that the Contact Prayers (Salat) existed before the Quran, and were handed down from Abraham (see 21:73). Also, it stumps those who challenge God's assertion that the Quran is complete and fully detailed when they ask, "Where can we find the details of the Contact Prayers in the Quran" (6:19 , 38, 114).

Rashad Khalifa - End Note (9:54)

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 8 (9:80)

If Muhammad could not intercede on behalf of his own uncles and cousins, what makes strangers who never met him think that he will intercede on their behalf? Abraham could not intercede on behalf of his father, nor could Noah intercede on behalf of his son (11:46 & 60:4).

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 9 (9:101)

The hypocrites sit among the believers, listen to the message and proofs, then spread their poisonous doubts. It is a Quranic law that they receive double the retribution, now and forever.

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 10 (9:107)

Any masjid where the practices are not devoted absolutely to God ALONE belongs to Satan, not God. For example, mentioning the names of Abraham, Muhammad, and/or Ali in the Azan and/or the Salat prayers violates God's commandments in 2:136, 2:285, 3:84, & 72:18. Unfortunately, this is a common idolatrous practice throughout the corrupted Muslim world.

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 11 (9:127)

This is the only sura that is not prefixed with the Basmalah. This phenomenon has puzzled the students of the Quran for 14 centuries, and many theories were advanced to explain it. Now we realize that the conspicuous absence of the Basmalah serves three purposes: (1) It represents an advance divine proclamation that the idol worshipers were destined to tamper with the Quran by adding 2 false verses (9:128-129). (2) It demonstrates one of the functions of God's mathematical code in the Quran, namely, to guard the Quran against any alteration. (3) It provides additional miraculous features of the Quran's code. Due to their extraordinary importance, the details are given in Appendices 24 and 29. One immediate observation is that the number of occurrences of the word "God" at the end of Sura 9 is 1273 (19x67). If the two false verses 128 & 129 are included, this phenomenon--and many more--will vanish.

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

Translations

Chapter/Verse

Refresh

Search

Search

<< Prev 10:1-109 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 10:1 A1L30R200. These are the signs of the book of wisdom. ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 10:1 A.L.R, these are the signs of the Scripture of wisdom.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 10:1 Alif Lam. Ra. ¹ THESE ARE MESSAGES of the divine writ, full of wisdom. ²
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 10:1 A.L.R. These (letters) are the proofs of this book of wisdom.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 10:1 A.L.R. Alif-Laam-Ra. (Allah, Lateef the Unfathomable, Raaziq the Provider, states that), These are the verses of a Book that is full of wisdom.
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrrahmāni alrraḥeemi 10:1 Alif-lam-ra tilka ayatualkitabī alḥakeemī
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 10:1 الر تلك آيات الكتب الحكيم
Edip-Layth	10:2 Is it a surprise for the people that We would inspire a man from amongst them: "Warn people and give good news to those who acknowledge, that they will have a footing of truth with their Lord." The ingrates said, "Evidently, this is a magician!"

The Monotheist Group	10:2 Is it a surprise for the people that We would inspire a man from amongst them: "Warn the people and give good news to those who believe, that they will have a footing of truth with their Lord." The rejecters said: "This is clearly magic!"
Muhammad Asad	10:2 Do people deem it strange that We should have inspired a man from their own midst [with this Our message]: ³ "Warn all mankind, and give unto those who have attained to faith the glad tiding that in their Sustainer's sight they surpass all others in that they are completely sincere-? ⁴ [Only] they who deny the truth say, "Behold. he is clearly but a spellbinder!" ⁵
Rashad Khalifa	10:2 Is it too much of a wonder for the people that we inspired a man like them? He (was inspired to say), "You shall warn the people, and give good news to those who believe that they have attained a position of prominence at their Lord." The disbelievers said, "This is a clever magician!"
Shabbir Ahmed	10:2 Is it too much of a wonder for people that We reveal Our message to a man among them? "You shall warn mankind, and give good news to those who attain belief that they have a sure footing with their Lord." Those who are bent upon denying the truth, say, "This man is an obvious wizard." (He is gifted with spellbinding eloquence).
Transliteration	10:2 Akana liInnasi AAajabanan aw hayna ila rajulin minhum an an thirialInnasa wabashshiri allatheena amanooanna lahum qadama sidqin AAinda rabbihim q ala alkafiroonainna hatha lasahirun mubeenun
A	10:2 اكان للناس عجا ان اوحينا الى رجل منهم ان انذر الناس وبشر الذين ءامنوا ان لهم قدم صدق عند ربهم قال الكفرون ان هذا لسحر مبين
Edip-Layth	10:3 Your Lord is God who created the heavens and the earth in six days, then He settled over the throne; He handles all affairs. There is no intercessor except after His leave. Such is God your Lord, so serve Him. Would you not take heed?
The Monotheist Group	10:3 Your Lord is God who created the heavens and the Earth in six days, then He settled over the throne; He handles all affairs. There is no intercessor except after His leave. Such is God your Lord, so serve Him. Would you not remember?
Muhammad Asad	10:3 VERILY, your Sustainer is God, who has created the heavens and the earth in six aeons, and is established on the throne of His almightiness, ⁶ governing all that exists. There is none that could intercede with Him unless He grants leave therefor. ⁷ Thus is God, your Sustainer: worship, therefore, Him [alone]: will you not, then, keep this in mind?
Rashad Khalifa	10:3 Your only Lord is GOD; the One who created the heavens and the earth in six days, then assumed all authority. He controls all matters. There is no intercessor, except in accordance with His will. Such is GOD your Lord. You shall worship Him. Would you not take heed?
Shabbir Ahmed	10:3 But, your Lord (Who sent this Book) is God Who created the heavens and earth in six stages, and is established on the Throne of His Almightyness of Supreme Control. He, the Director of all directions, Issuer of all decrees, runs the Universe according to His laws. No intercessor can stand in His Court but as a witness of law. Such is God, your Sustainer. You shall serve Him. Will you not use your intellect and reasoning? ¹
Transliteration	10:3 Inna rabbakumu Allahu alla theekhalaaqa a Issamawati wa al-ardafee sittati ayyamin thumma istaw a AAalaalAAarshi yudabbiru al-amra m a min shafeeAAin illamin baAAadi i thnihi thalikumu Allahu rabbukumfa oAAabudoohu afal a tathakkaroonaa

A	10:3 ان ربكم الله الذى خلق السموت والارض فى ستة ايام ثم استوى على العرش يدبر الامر ما من شفيع الا من بعد اذنه ذلكم الله ربكم فاعبدوه افلا تذكرون
Edip-Layth	10:4 To Him is your return, all of you, for God's promise is true. He initiates the creation then He repeats it to recompense with justice those who acknowledged and did good work. As for those who rejected, they will have a boiling drink, and a painful retribution for what they had rejected.
The Monotheist Group	10:4 To Him is your return, all of you, for God's promise is true. He initiates the creation then He returns it to recompense with justice those who believed and did good work. As for those who rejected, they will have a boiling drink, and a painful retribution for what they had rejected.
Muhammad Asad	10:4 Unto Him you all must return: this is, in truth, God's promise-for, behold, He creates [man] in the first instance, and then brings him forth anew ⁸ to the end that He may reward with equity all who attain to faith and do righteous deeds; whereas for those who are bent on denying the truth there is in store a draught of burning despair and grievous suffering because of their persistent refusal to acknowledge the truth.⁹
Rashad Khalifa	10:4 To Him is your ultimate return, all of you. This is GOD's truthful promise. He initiates the creation, then repeats it, in order to reward those who believe and lead a righteous life, equitably. As for those who disbelieve, they incur hellish drinks, and a painful retribution for their disbelieving.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:4 To Him is your return, of all of you. God's promise is the unwavering truth. He created the first creation, and He will create it again so that every action may have its Just Recompense. Those who attain belief and work to help the society will have their just reward. And those who reject the truth, for them will be a burning draught of despair and a painful doom because of their persistent refusal to acknowledge the truth. ²
Transliteration	10:4 Ilayhi marjiAAukum jameeAAan waAAda All ahihaqqan innahu yabdao alkhalqa thumma yuAAeeduhu liyajziyaalla theena amanoo waAAamiloo alssalihatibialqisti wa allatheena kafaroo lahumshar abun min hameemin waAAathabun aleemunbima kanoo yakfuroona
A	10:4 اليه مرجعكم جميعا وعد الله حقا انه يبدا الخلق ثم يعيده ليجزى الذين ءامنوا وعملوا الصلحت بالقسط والذين كفروا لهم شراب من حميم وعذاب اليم بما كانوا يكفرون
Edip-Layth	10:5 He is the One who made the sun an illuminator, and the moon a light, and He measured its phases so that you would know the number of the years and the calculation. God has not created this except for truth. He details the signs for a people who know.
The Monotheist Group	10:5 He is the One who made the sun to emit light, and the moon to reflect it, and He measured its phases; that you may know the number of the years and the count. God has not created this except for truth. He details the revelations for a people who know.
Muhammad Asad	10:5 He it is who has made the sun a [source of] radiant light and the moon a light [reflected],¹⁰ and has determined for it phases so that you might know how to compute the years and to measure [time]. None of this has God created without [an inner] truth.¹¹ Clearly does He spell out these messages unto people of [innate] knowledge:
Rashad Khalifa	10:5 He is the One who rendered the sun radiant, and the moon a light, and He designed its phases that you may learn to count the years and to calculate. GOD did not create all this, except for a specific purpose. He explains the revelations for people who know.

Shabbir Ahmed	10:5 He it is, Who appointed the sun as a splendid glow, and the moon as a cool light. He appointed stages for the moon, in due measure. You make your calculations and calendars accordingly. God has created the Universe as the absolute reality and for a purpose. God explains His verses for those who wish to learn. ³
Transliteration	10:5 Huwa allathee jaAAala alshshamsadiyaan waalqamara nooran waqaddarahu manazilalitaAAalamoo AAadada a Issineena wa alhisabama khalafa Allahu thalika illa bialhaqqiyufassilu al-ayati liqawmin yaAAalamoon
A	10:5 هو الذى جعل الشمس ضياء والقمر نورا وقدره منازل لتعلموا عدد السنين والحساب ما خلق الله ذلك الا بالحق يفصل الاءيت لقوم يعلمون
Edip-Layth	10:6 In the alternation of night and day and what God has created in heavens and earth are signs for a people who are aware.
The Monotheist Group	10:6 In the difference between night and day and what God has created in heavens and Earth are signs for a people who are aware.
Muhammad Asad	10:6 for, verily, in the alternating of night and day, and in all that God has created in the heavens and on earth there are messages indeed for people who are conscious of Him!
Rashad Khalifa	10:6 Surely, in the alternation of night and day, and what GOD created in the heavens and the earth, there are proofs for people who are righteous.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:6 Surely, in the alternation of the day and the night, and in all that God has created in the heavens and earth, there are signs for people who are mindful of Divine laws. ⁴
Transliteration	10:6 Inna fee ikhtilafi allayli wa alnnaahariwama khalafa Allahu fee alssamawatiwaal-ardi laayatin liqawmin yattaqoon
A	10:6 ان فى اختلاف الليل والنهار وما خلق الله فى السموت والارض لاءيت لقوم يتقون
Edip-Layth	10:7 As for those who do not wish to meet Us, while pleased and content with the worldly life, they are unaware of Our signs.
The Monotheist Group	10:7 As for those who do not wish to meet Us, and they are content with the worldly life, and they became relieved with it, and they are unaware of Our signs.
Muhammad Asad	10:7 Verily, as for those who do not believe that they are destined to meet Us, ¹² but content themselves with the life of this world and do not look beyond it, ¹³ and are heedless of Our messages -
Rashad Khalifa	Preoccupation With This World 10:7 Those who are not expecting to meet us, and are preoccupied with this worldly life, and are content with it, and refuse to heed our proofs;
Shabbir Ahmed	10:7 Those who do not look forward to meeting with Us, but please and satisfy themselves with petty delights of the worldly life, it is those who neglect Our messages. ⁵
Transliteration	10:7 Inna alla theena la yarjoona liqaaanawaradoo bi alhayati alddunyawaiimaanoo biha waallatheenahum AAan ayatina ghafiloon

A	10:7 ان الذين لا يرجون لقاءنا ورضوا بالحياة الدنيا واطمانوا بها والذين هم عن آياتنا غفلون
Edip-Layth	10:8 To these will be the destiny of the fire for what they earned.
The Monotheist Group	10:8 To these will be the destiny of the Fire for what they earned.
Muhammad Asad	10:8 their goal is the fire in return for all [the evil] that they were wont to do.
Rashad Khalifa	10:8 these have incurred Hell as their ultimate abode, as a consequence of their own works.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:8 Their home will be the fire that they have earned (ignited) with their own actions.
Transliteration	10:8 Ola-ika ma/wahumu alInnarubima kanoo yaksiboona
A	10:8 اولئك ماوبهم النار بما كانوا يكسبون
Edip-Layth	10:9 Those who acknowledge and do good work, their Lord will guide them by their acknowledgment. Rivers will flow beneath them in the gardens of paradise.
The Monotheist Group	10:9 Those who believe and do good work, their Lord will guide them by their faith. Rivers will flow beneath them in the gardens of Paradise.
Muhammad Asad	10:9 [But,] verily, as for those who have attained to faith and do righteous deeds - their Sustainer guides them aright by means of their faith. [In the life to come,] running waters will flow at their feet ¹⁴ in gardens of bliss;
Rashad Khalifa	God Guides the Believers 10:9 As for those who believe and lead a righteous life, their Lord guides them, by virtue of their belief. Rivers will flow beneath them in the gardens of bliss.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:9 Surely, those who choose to believe and work to increase the human potential, their Lord guides them by virtue of their conviction (that no good deed goes to waste). Rivers will flow beneath them in the Gardens of Delight. ⁶
Transliteration	10:9 Inna alla theena amanoowaAAamiloo a lssalihati yahdeehim rabbuhumbi-eemanihim tajree min tahtihimu al-anharufee jannati alInnaAAeemi
A	10:9 ان الذين ءامنوا وعملوا الصلحت يهديهم ربهم بايمنهم تجرى من تحتهم الانهر فى جنت النعيم
Edip-Layth	10:10 Their prayer in it is: "Glory be to our god!" and their greeting in it is: "Peace," and the end of their prayer is: "Praise be to God, the Lord of the worlds!"
The Monotheist Group	10:10 Their saying in it is: "Glory be to our god!" and their greeting in it is: "Peace," and the end of their saying is: "Praise be to God, the Lord of the worlds!"
Muhammad Asad	10:10 [and] in that [state of happiness] they will call out, ¹⁵ "Limitless art Thou in Thy glory, O God!"-and will be answered with the greeting, "Peace !" ¹⁶ And their call will close with [the words], "All praise is due to God, the Sustainer of all the worlds!"
Rashad Khalifa	10:10 Their prayer therein is: "Be You glorified, our god," their greeting therein is, "Peace," and their ultimate prayer is: "Praise be to GOD, Lord of the universe."

Shabbir Ahmed	10:10 Their prayer therein will be, "glory be to You, O God!" Their greeting to one another will be, "Peace!" The conclusion of their prayer will be, "praise be to God, Lord of the worlds!" ⁷
Transliteration	10:10 DaAAawahum feeh a sub hanakaallahumma wata hiyyatuhum feeh a salamunwaakhiru daAAawahum ani alhamdu lillahirabbi alAAalameena
A	10:10 دعوتهم فيها سبحنك اللهم وتحيتهم فيها سلم وءاخر دعوتهم ان الحمد لله رب العلمين
Edip-Layth	10:11 If God were to hasten for people the evil as they desire the hastening of good for them, then they would have been ruined. We thus leave those who do not wish to meet Us wandering in their transgression.
The Monotheist Group	10:11 And if God were to hasten for the people the evil as He hastens for them the good, then they would have been ruined. We thus leave those who do not wish to meet Us wandering in their transgression.
Muhammad Asad	10:11 NOW IF GOD were to hasten for human beings the ill [which they deserve by their sinning] in the same manner as they [themselves] would hasten [the coming to them of what they consider to be] good, their end would indeed come forthwith! ¹⁷ But We leave them alone [for a while] -all those who do not believe that they are destined to meet Us: ¹⁸ [We leave them alone] in their overweening arrogance, blindly stumbling to and fro.
Rashad Khalifa	10:11 If GOD hastened the retribution incurred by the people, the way they demand provisions, they would have been annihilated long ago. However, we leave those who do not believe in meeting us in their transgressions, blundering.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:11 If God hastened retribution for people as they demand goodly things be hastened for them, their respite would have already expired. (It is God's mercy that His Law of Requitall does not grasp them instantly. He gives them time to mend their ways). Those who do not look forward to meeting with Us, We leave them in their arrogance, blindly stumbling to and fro. ⁸
Transliteration	10:11 Walaw yuAAajjilu All ahu li Innasialshsharra istiAAaj alahum bi alkhayri laqudiyailayhim ajaluhum fana tharu alla theena l ayarjoona liq aana fee tughyanihimyaAAamahoonaa
A	10:11 ولو يعجل الله للناس الشر استعجالهم بالخير لقضى اليهم اجلهم فذروا الذين لا يرجون لقاءنا في طغيانهم يعمهون
Edip-Layth	10:12 If any adversity inflicts people, then he calls upon Us on his side or sitting or standing. But when We remove his adversity from him, he goes on as if he never implored Us because of an adversity afflicted him! Thus the works of the transgressors are adorned for them.
The Monotheist Group	10:12 And if any adversity inflicts mankind, then he calls upon Us on his side or sitting or standing. But when We remove his adversity from him, he goes on as if he never called upon Us to an adversity which touched him! It is thus that what the carefree have done was made to appear good to them.
Muhammad Asad	10:12 For [thus it is:] when affliction befalls man, he cries out unto Us, whether he be lying on his side or sitting or standing; ¹⁹ but as soon as We have freed him of his affliction, he goes on as though he had never invoked Us to save him from the affliction ²⁰ that befell him! Thus do their own doings seem goodly unto those who waste their own selves. ²¹
	10:12 When adversity touches the human being, he implores us while lying down, or sitting, or standing up. But as soon as we relieve his adversity, he goes

Rashad Khalifa	on as if he never implored us to relieve any hardship! The works of the transgressors are thus adorned in their eyes.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:12 When affliction befalls man, he cries to Us, whether he be lying, or sitting or standing. But when We have relieved him of the affliction, he goes on his way as if he had never cried to Us for what afflicted him. Those who trespass the Divine laws, lose discernment and even their ill deeds will then seem fair to them.
Transliteration	10:12 Wa-i tha massa al-ins ana a l du rrudaAA ana lijanbihi aw q a AAidan aw q a -imanfalam ma kashafn a AAanhu du rrahu marra kaanlam yadAAun a il a du rrin massahu ka tha likazuyyina lilmusrifeena m a ka noo yaAAamaloona
A	10:12 واذا مس الانسان الضر دعانا لجنبه او قاعدا او قائما فلما كشفنا عنه ضره مر كان لم يدعنا الى ضره منه كذلك زين للمسرفين ما كانوا يعملون
Edip-Layth	10:13 We have destroyed the generations before you when they transgressed, and their messengers came to them with clear proofs, but they were not to acknowledge. It is such that We will recompense the criminal people.
The Monotheist Group	10:13 We have destroyed the generations before you when they transgressed, and their messengers came to them with clear proofs, but they were not to believe. It is such that We will recompense the criminal people.
Muhammad Asad	10:13 And, indeed, We destroyed before your time [whole] generations when they [persistently] did evil although the apostles sent unto them brought them all evidence of the truth; for they refused to believe [them]. Thus do We requite people who are lost in sin. ²²
Rashad Khalifa	Lessons from the Past 10:13 Many a generation we have annihilated before you when they transgressed. Their messengers went to them with clear proofs, but they refused to believe. We thus requite the guilty people.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:13 We annihilated many communities before you for their violation of human rights. Their messengers had come to them with clear evidence of the truth, but they refused to believe them. Thus We reward those who steal the fruit of others' labor.
Transliteration	10:13 Walaqad ahlakn a alquroona minqablikum lamm a tha lamoo waj aat -humrusuluhum bi albayyin ati wam a k anooli yu/minoo ka tha lika najzee alqawma almujrimeena
A	10:13 ولقد اهلكنا القرون من قبلك لما ظلموا وجاءتهم رسلهم بالبينت وما كانوا ليؤمنوا كذلك نجزي القوم المجرمين
Edip-Layth	10:14 Then We made you successors on earth after them to see how you would perform.
The Monotheist Group	10:14 Then We made you successors on Earth after them to see how you would perform.
Muhammad Asad	10:14 And thereupon We made you their successors on earth, so that We might behold how you act.
Rashad Khalifa	Now It Is Your Turn 10:14 Then we made you inheritors of the earth after them, to see how you will do.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:14 Now We have made you their successors in the land, to see how you behave.

Transliteration	10:14 Thumma jaAAaln akum khal a-ifafee al-ar di min baAAadihim linan thura kayfataAAamaloona
A	10:14 ثم جعلنكم خلف في الارض من بعدهم لننظر كيف تعملون
Edip-Layth	Denying God's Signs/Miracles; Inventing Lies 10:15 When Our clear signs are recited to them, those who do not wish to meet Us said, "Bring a Quran other than this, or change it!" Say, "It is not for me to change it from my own accord, I merely follow what is inspired to me. I fear if I disobey my Lord the retribution of a great day!"
The Monotheist Group	10:15 And when Our clear revelations are recited to them, those who do not wish to meet Us said: "Bring a Qur'an other than this, or change it!" Say: "It is not for me to change it of my own accord, I merely follow what is inspired to me. I fear, if I disobey my Lord, the retribution of a great day!"
Muhammad Asad	10:15 AND [thus it is:] whenever Our messages are conveyed unto them in all their clarity, those who do not believe that they are destined to meet Us [are wont to] say, "Bring us a discourse other than this, or alter this one." ²³ Say [O Prophet]: "It is not conceivable that I should alter it of my own volition; I only follow what is revealed to me. Behold, I would dread, were I [thus] to rebel against my Sustainer, the suffering [which would befall me] on that ,awesome Day [of Judgment]!"
Rashad Khalifa	Every Letter Calculated and Divinely Designed 10:15 When our revelations are recited to them, those who do not expect to meet us say, "Bring a Quran other than this, or change it!" Say, "I cannot possibly change it on my own. I simply follow what is revealed to me. I fear, if I disobey my Lord, the retribution of an awesome day."
Shabbir Ahmed	10:15 When Our messages are conveyed to them in all clarity, those who do not expect that they are destined to meet with Us (want to strike a deal with the messenger). They say, "Bring us a Qur'an other than this or make some changes in it." Say (O Prophet!), "I cannot possibly change it on my own. I only follow what is revealed to me. If I disobey my Lord, I fear the retribution of an awesome Day."
Transliteration	10:15 Wa-i th a tutl a AAalayhim ayatunabayyinat in q ala alla the ena l ayarjoona liq ^q ana i/ti biqur-anin ghayri hath aaw baddilhu qul m a yagoonu lee an obaddilahu min tilq a-inafsee in attabiAAu ill a m a yoo ha ilayyainnee akh afu in AAa saytu rabbee AAa th abayawmin AAa th eemin
A	10:15 واذا تتلى عليهم آياتنا بينت قال الذين لا يرجون لقاءنا ائت بقرآن غير هذا او بدله قل ما يكون لى ان ابدله من تلقائى نفسى ان اتبع الا ما يوحى الى انى اخاف ان عصيت ربى عذاب يوم عظيم
Edip-Layth	10:16 Say, "Had God wished, I would not have recited it to you, nor would you have known about it. I have been residing amongst you a lifetime before this; do you not reason?"
The Monotheist Group	10:16 Say: "Had God wished, I would not have recited it to you, nor would you have known about it. I have been residing amongst you for nearly a lifetime before this; do you not understand?"
Muhammad Asad	10:16 Say: "Had God willed it [otherwise], I would not have conveyed this [divine writ] unto you, nor would He have brought it to your knowledge. Indeed. a whole lifetime have I dwelt among you ere this [revelation came unto me]: will you not, then, use your reason ?" ²⁴

Rashad Khalifa	10:16 Say, "Had GOD willed, I would not have recited it to you, nor would you have known anything about it. I have lived among you a whole life before this (and you have known me as a sane, truthful person). Do you not understand?"
Shabbir Ahmed	10:16 Say, "If God willed otherwise, I would not have recited and conveyed this to you, nor would I have made you aware of it. I have dwelt among you a whole lifetime before this. (You have always called me Al-Ameen, the trustworthy). Will you not, then, use your reason?"
Transliteration	10:16 Qul law sh aa All ahu m atalawtuhu AAalaykum wal a adr akum bihi faqadlabithtu feekum AAumuran min qablihi afala taAAqiloonaa
A	10:16 قل لو شاء الله ما تلوته عليكم ولا ادركم به فقد لبثت فيكم عمرا من قبله افلا تعقلون
Edip-Layth	10:17 Who is more wicked than one who invents lies about God or denies His signs? The criminals will never succeed.
The Monotheist Group	10:17 Who is more wicked than one who invents lies about God or denies His revelations? The criminals will never succeed.
Muhammad Asad	10:17 And who could be more wicked than they who attribute their own lying inventions to God or give the lie to His messages? Verily, those who are lost in sin will never attain to a happy state ²⁵ -
Rashad Khalifa	10:17 Who is more evil than one who fabricates lies about GOD, or rejects His revelations. Certainly, the transgressors never succeed.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:17 Who does a greater wrong than the one who forges a lie against God, or denies His revelations? But the guilty will never prosper.
Transliteration	10:17 Faman a thlamu mimmani iftar aAAala All ahi ka thiban aw ka ththababi-ayatihi innahu la yuflihu almujrmoonaa
A	10:17 فمن اظلم ممن افترى على الله كذبا او كذب بايته انه لا يفلح المجرمون
Edip-Layth	Intercession: A Polytheist Fiction 10:18 They serve besides God what does not harm them or benefit them, and they say, "These are our intercessors with God." Say, "Are you informing God of what He does not know in the heavens or in the earth?" Be He glorified and high from what they set up.
The Monotheist Group	10:18 And they serve besides God what does not harm them or benefit them, and they say: "These are our intercessors with God." Say: "Are you informing God of what He does not know in the heavens or in the Earth?" Be He glorified and high above what they set up.
Muhammad Asad	10:18 and [neither will] they [who] worship, side by side with God, things or beings that can neither harm nor benefit them, saying [to themselves], "These are our intercessors with God!" ²⁶ Say: "Do you [think that you could] inform God of anything in the heavens or on earth that He does not know? ²⁷ Limitless is He in His glory, and sublimely exalted above anything to which men may ascribe a share in His divinity!"
Rashad Khalifa	10:18 They worship beside GOD idols that possess no power to harm them or benefit them, and they say, "These are our intercessors at GOD!" Say, "Are you informing GOD of something He does not know in the heavens or the earth?" Be He glorified. He is the Most High; far above needing partners.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:18 They worship and obey besides God, deities that can neither harm nor benefit them. They say, "These are our intercessors with God." Say, "Are you informing God of what He does not know in the heavens and earth? glory to Him!

	He is High, Exalted above all that they associate with Him." ⁹
Transliteration	10:18 WayaAAbudoona min dooni All ahi m ala ya durruhum wal a yanfaAAuhum wayaqooloonahaola-i shufaAAaona AAinda Allahiqul atunabbi-oona Allaha bima la yaAAalamufee a Issamawati wal a fee al-ar disubhanahu wataAA ala AAamm a yushrikoona
A	10:18 ويعبدون من دون الله ما لا يضرهم ولا ينفعهم ويقولون هؤلاء شفَعونا عند الله قل اتنبون الله بما لا يعلم في السموت ولا في الارض سبحانه وتعالى عما يشركون
Edip-Layth	10:19 The people were but one nation, and then they differed. Had it not been for a previous command from your Lord, the matter would have been immediately judged between them for what they differed.
The Monotheist Group	10:19 The people were but one nation, then they differed. And had it not been for a previous command from your Lord, the matter would have been immediately judged between them for what they differed.
Muhammad Asad	10:19 AND [know that] all mankind were once but one single community, and only later did they begin to hold divergent views. ²⁸ And had it not been for a decree- that had already gone forth from thy Sustainer, all their differences would indeed have been settled [from the outset]. ²⁹
Rashad Khalifa	10:19 The people used to be one congregation, then they disputed. If it were not for a predetermined word from your Lord, they would have been judged immediately regarding their disputes.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:19 All mankind were but one community (and are meant to be so); then they differed. Had it not been for a Word that went forth from your Lord (the Law of Free Will), He would have judged their disputes immediately. ¹⁰
Transliteration	10:19 Wama kana alInnasuilla ommatan wahidatan faikhtalafoo walawlakalimatun sabaqat min rabbika laqudiya baynahum feemafeehi yakhtalifoona
A	10:19 وما كان الناس الا امة واحدة فاختلفوا ولو لا كلمة سبقت من ربك لقضى بينهم فيما فيه يختلفون
Edip-Layth	The Sign of the Quran Would Be Revealed After Muhammad 10:20 They say, "If only a sign was sent down to him from His Lord." Say, "The future is with God, so wait, and I will wait with you." ²
The Monotheist Group	10:20 And they say: "If only a sign was sent down to him from His Lord." Say: "The future is with God, so wait, and I will wait with you."
Muhammad Asad	10:20 NOW THEY [who deny the truth] are wont to ask, "Why has no miraculous sign ever been bestowed upon him from on high by his Sustainer?" ³⁰ Say, then: "God's alone is the knowledge of that which is beyond the reach of human perception. ³¹ Wait, then, [until His will becomes manifest:] verily, I shall wait with you!"
Rashad Khalifa	Miracle of the Quran to be Unveiled After Muhammad 10:20 They say, "How come no miracle came down to him from his Lord?" Say, "The future belongs to GOD; so wait, and I am waiting along with you." ³
Shabbir Ahmed	10:20 And they say, "Why was not a miracle sent down to him from his Lord?" Then answer (O Prophet!), "The Unseen is known to God alone. Wait for the results of my program, and I shall be waiting with you." ¹¹

Transliteration	10:20 Wayaqooloona lawl a onzila AAalayhi ayatunmin rabbihi faqul innam a alghaybu lillahi faintat ^{hi} rooinnee maAAakum mina almunta th ireena
A	10:20 ويقولون لولا انزل عليه آية من ربه قل انما الغيب لله فانظروا انى معكم من المنتظرين
Edip-Layth	10:21 When We let the people taste a mercy after some harm had afflicted them, they take to scheming against Our signs! Say, "God is faster in scheming;" Our messengers record what you scheme.
The Monotheist Group	10:21 And if We let the people taste a mercy after some harm had afflicted them, they take to scheming against Our revelations! Say: "God is faster in scheming;" Our messengers record what you scheme.
Muhammad Asad	10:21 And [thus it is:] whenever We let [such] people ³² taste [some of Our] grace after hardship has visited them-lo! they forthwith turn to devising false arguments against Our messages. ³³ Say: "God is swifter [than you] in His deep devising!" Behold, Our [heavenly] messengers are recording all that you may devise!
Rashad Khalifa	Rebellious Humans 10:21 When we bestow mercy upon the people, after adversity had afflicted them, they immediately scheme against our revelations! Say, "GOD's scheming is far more effective. For our messengers are recording everything you scheme."
Shabbir Ahmed	10:21 When We cause people to taste of mercy after they have suffered a hardship, they start scheming to defy Our commands. Say, "God is more Swift in planning. Our couriers write down what you plot."
Transliteration	10:21 Wa-i ^{tha} a th aqna a Innasarah ^h matan min baAAadi ^{darraa} massat-hum i th alahum makrun fee ^{ayatina} quli All ^{ahuasraAAu} makran inna rusulan a yaktuboona ma ^{ta} mkuroona
A	10:21 واذا اذقنا الناس رحمة من بعد ضراء مستهم اذا لهم مكر فى آياتنا قل الله اسرع مكر ان رسلنا يكتبون ما تمكرون
Edip-Layth	10:22 He is the One who carries you on land and on the sea. When you are on the ships and We drive them with a good wind which they rejoice with, a strong gust comes to it and the waves come to them from all sides, and they suppose that they are overwhelmed, they implore God devoting the system to Him: "If You save us from this, we will be of the thankful."
The Monotheist Group	10:22 He is the One who carries you on land and on the sea. And when you are on the ships and We drive them with a good wind which they rejoice with, a strong gust comes to it and the waves come to them from all sides, and they think that they are finished, they implore God with loyalty and devotion to His system: "If You save us from this, we will be of the thankful."
Muhammad Asad	10:22 He it is who enables you to travel on land and sea. And [behold what happens] when you go to sea in ships: ³⁴ [they go to sea in ships,] and they sail on in them in a favourable wind, and they rejoice thereat until there comes upon them a tempest, and waves surge towards them from all sides, so that they believe themselves to be encompassed [by death; and then] they call unto God, [at that moment] sincere in their faith in Him alone, "If Thou wilt but save us from this, we shall most certainly be among the grateful!"
Rashad Khalifa	10:22 He is the One who moves you across the land and sea. You get onto the ships, and they sail smoothly in a nice breeze. Then, while rejoicing therein, violent wind blows, and the waves surround them from every side. This is when they implore GOD, sincerely devoting their prayers to Him alone: "If You only save us this time, we will be eternally appreciative."

Shabbir Ahmed	10:22 He is the One Who enables you to travel in the land and the sea. When you board the ships, the ships sail with the voyagers with a favorable breeze. And they rejoice therein. If a stormy wind comes and the waves surround them, they think they are overwhelmed. Then they implore God, in all sincerity turning to His universal laws, saying, "If You only save us this time, we will truly show our gratitude."
Transliteration	10:22 Huwa alla thee yusayyirukum feealbarri wa albahri hatta i thakuntum fee alfulki wajarayna bihim biree hin tayyibatinwafari hoo bi ha jaat-ha ree hun AAasifun waja ahumu almawju min kulli mak aninwa thannoo annahum o heeta bihimdaAAawoo All aha mukhli seena lahu a Iddeenala-in anjaytan a min h athihi lanakoonanna mina alshshakireena
A	10:22 هو الذى يسيركم فى البر والبحر حتى اذا كنتم فى الفلك وجرين بهم بريح طيبة وفرحوا بها جاءتها ريح عاصف وجاءهم الموج من كل مكان وظنوا انهم احيط بهم دعوا الله مخلصين له الدين لن انجيتنا من هذه لنكونن من الشكرين
Edip-Layth	10:23 But when He saves them, they then traverse through the land with injustice. O people, your rebellion is only against yourselves. What you seek out is only the consumption of this worldly life, then to Us is your return and We will inform you of all that you had done.
The Monotheist Group	10:23 But when He saves them, they then transgress with injustice through the land. "O mankind, what you seek out is only the luxury of this worldly life, then to Us is your return and We will inform you of all that you had done."
Muhammad Asad	10:23 Yet as soon as He has saved them from this [danger], lo! they behave outrageously on earth, offending against all right ! ³⁵ O men! All your outrageous deeds are bound to fall back upon your own selves! ³⁶ [You care only for] the enjoyment of life in this world: [but remember that] in the end unto Us you must return, whereupon We shall make you truly understand all that you were doing [in life].
Rashad Khalifa	10:23 But as soon as He saves them, they transgress on earth, and oppose the truth. O people, your transgression is only to the detriment of your own souls. You remain preoccupied with this worldly life, then to us is your ultimate return, then we inform you of everything you had done.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:23 Yet as soon as He has saved them, they return to land in their behavior of rebellion against all that is right. O Mankind! Remember that your rebellion is only against your own 'self' (91:9-10). Enjoyment of the worldly life with disregard of Eternity, is but a fleeting delight. In the end, to Us is your return, and We will inform you of all that you truly accomplished.
Transliteration	10:23 Falam a anj ahum i thahum yabghoona fee al-ar di bighayri al haqqi ya ayyuha a Inn asu innam a baghyukum AAal a anfusikum mat a AAa al hayati aldduny athumma ilayn a marjiAAukum fanunabbi-okum bim akuntum taAAamaloona
A	10:23 فلما انجبتهم اذا هم يبيغون فى الارض بغير الحق يايها الناس انما بغيكم على انفسكم متع الحياة الدنيا ثم الينا مرجعكم فننبئكم بما كنتم تعملون
	When Humans Are Intoxicated With Arrogance For Their Technological Achievements 10:24 The example of the worldly life is like water which has come down from the sky; it mixed with the plants of the earth from what people and the livestock eat.

Edip-Layth	Then the earth takes its attractions and becomes glamorous, and its inhabitants think that they have mastered it. Then Our judgment comes by night or by day, so We make it a wasteland as if it never prospered yesterday! It is such that We clarify the signs to a people who think.
The Monotheist Group	10:24 The example of the worldly life is like a water which has come down from the sky, so it mixed with the plants of the Earth from what the people and the livestock eat. Then the Earth takes its shape and becomes beautiful and its inhabitants think that they have mastered it; then Our judgment comes by night or by day, so We make it a wasteland as if it never prospered by the yesterday! It is such that We clarify the revelations to a people who think.
Muhammad Asad	10:24 The parable of the life of this world is but that of rain which We send down from the sky, and which is absorbed by the plants of the earth ³⁷ whereof men and animals draw nourishment, until -when the earth has assumed its artful adornment and has been embellished, and they who dwell on it believe that they have gained mastery over it ³⁸ -there comes down upon it Our judgment, by night or by day, and We cause it to become [like] a field mown down, as if there had been no yesterday. ³⁹ Thus clearly do We spell out these messages unto people who think!
Rashad Khalifa	10:24 The analogy of this worldly life is like this: we send down water from the sky to produce with it all kinds of plants from the earth, and to provide food for the people and the animals. Then, just as the earth is perfectly adorned, and its people think that they are in control thereof, our judgment comes by night or by day, leaving it completely barren, as if nothing existed the previous day. We thus explain the revelations for people who reflect.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:24 Those who do not invest in the life to come must consider a similitude: The life of the world is a passing delight: We send down water from the height to produce with it all kinds of plants from the earth, provision for humans and animals. Then, just as the earth has taken its ornament and is perfectly adorned, and its people think that they are in control, Our command arrives by night or by day, leaving it completely barren, as if nothing existed there yesterday. The only way to inherit the fruit of your labor in the Hereafter is to live by Our laws. We expound Our messages and signs in nature for those who use their intellect.
Transliteration	10:24 Innama mathalu al hayat alddunya kam a-in anzalnahu mina al Issama-ifaikhtalata bihi nabatu al-ardi mimmaya/kulu al Innasu wa al-anAAamu hattaitha akhatati al-ardu zukhrufah a wa izzayyanatwathanna ahluh a annahum qadiroonaAAalayha ataha amruna laylan aw naharanfajaAAalnaha haseedan kaan lam taghnabial-amsi kathalika nufassilu al-ayatiliqawmin yatafakkaroon a
A	10:24 انما مثل الحيوۃ الدنيا کما انزلنہ من السماء فاختلط به نبات الارض مما یاکل الناس والانعم حتی اذا اخذت الارض زخرفها وازینت وظن اهلها انهم قدرون علیها اتنها امرنا لیلا او نهارا فجعلناها حصیدا کان لم تغن بالامس كذلك نفصل الءایت لقوم یتفکرون
Edip-Layth	10:25 God calls to the abode of peace, and He guides those whom He wishes to a Straight Path.
The Monotheist Group	10:25 God calls to the abode of peace, and He guides those whom He wishes to a Straight Path.
Muhammad Asad	10:25 AND [know that] God invites [man] unto the abode of peace, and guides him that wills [to be guided] onto a straight way. ⁵⁶
Rashad Khalifa	10:25 GOD invites to the abode of peace, and guides whoever wills (to be guided) in a straight path.

Shabbir Ahmed	10:25 God calls to the Home of Peace, and leads men and women to the straight path. He does guide to the straight path him who wills to be guided. ¹²
Transliteration	10:25 WaAllahu yadAAoo il a d arialssalami wayahdee man yash ao il a siratinmustaqeemin
A	10:25 والله يدعوا الى دار السلم ويهدى من يشاء الى صراط مستقيم
Edip-Layth	10:26 For those who do good work will be good and more, and their faces will not be darkened or humiliated. These are the people of paradise, in it they will abide.
The Monotheist Group	10:26 To those who do good work will be good and more, and their faces will not be darkened or humiliated. These are the people of Paradise, in it they will abide.
Muhammad Asad	10:26 For those who persevere in doing good there is the ultimate good in store, and more [than that]. ⁴¹ No darkness and no ignominy will overshadow their faces [on Resurrection Day]: it is they who are destined for paradise, therein to abide.
Rashad Khalifa	Heaven and Hell are Eternal 10:26 For the righteous, the reward will be multiplied manifold. Their faces will never experience any deprivation or shame. These are the dwellers of Paradise; they abide therein forever.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:26 Those who benefit humanity get rewarded manifold. No dust of sadness and no trace of humiliation will overshadow their faces. Such are the rightful dwellers of the Garden; they will abide therein.
Transliteration	10:26 Lillatheena a hsanoo al husnawaziyaadatun wal a yarhaqu wujoohahum qatarun walathillatun ola-ika as-habu aljannatihum feeha khaldooona
A	10:26 للذين احسنوا الحسنى وزيادة ولا يرهق وجوههم قتر ولا ذلة اولئك اصحاب الجنة هم فيها خلدون
Edip-Layth	10:27 As for those who earn evil, the recompense of evil will be evil like it, and they will be humiliated. They do not have any besides God as a protector. It is as if their faces have been covered by a piece of darkness from the night. These are the people of the fire, in it they will abide.
The Monotheist Group	10:27 As for those who earn evil, the recompense of evil will be evil like it, and they will be humiliated. They do not have any besides God as a helper. It is as if their faces have been covered by a piece of darkness from the night. These are the people of the Fire, in it they will abide.
Muhammad Asad	10:27 But us for those who have done evil deeds - the recompense of an evil, deed shall be the like thereof: ⁴² and - since they will have none to defend them against God - ignominy will overshadow them as though their faces were veiled by the night's own darkness: ⁴³ it is they who are destined for the fire. therein to abide.
Rashad Khalifa	10:27 As for those who earned sins, their requital is equivalent to their sin. Humiliation is their lot, and no one beside GOD can protect them. Their faces will seem overwhelmed by masses of dark night. They will be the dwellers of Hell; they abide therein forever.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:27 And those who are unjust to others in their daily lives, will fail to balance their own personalities. They will spend their lives in sadness and humiliation, a linear result of their own actions. There will be no one to protect them from God's law. They will wander as if the darkness of night had covered their faces. They are the ones who have built their Hell and they will inherit it in the Eternity.

Transliteration	10:27 Waallatheena kasaboo a Issayyi-atijazao sayyi-atin bimithlih a watarhaqum thillatunma lahum mina All ahi min AA asimin kaannam aoghshiyat wujoohum qitaAAan mina allayli mu thlimanola-ika a s-habu a Innari humfeeh a khaldooona
A	10:27 والذين كسبوا السيئات جزاء سيئة بمثلها وترهقهم ذلة ما لهم من الله من عاصم كانما اغشيت وجوههم قطعا من الليل مظلماً أولئك أصحاب النار هم فيها خالدون
Edip-Layth	Idolized Leaders Reject Their Servants 10:28 On the day We gather them all, We will say to those who have set up partners: "Take your place, you and your partners," then We separate between them, and their partners will say, "It was not us that you served." ³
The Monotheist Group	10:28 And on the Day We gather them all, We will say to those who have set up partners: "Stop where you are, you and your partners," then We separate between them, and their partners will say: "It was not us that you served."
Muhammad Asad	10:28 For, one Day We shall gather them all together, and then We shall say unto those who [in their lifetime] ascribed divinity to aught but God, "Stand where you are, you and those [beings and powers] to whom you were wont to ascribe a share in God's divinity!" ⁴⁴ -for by then We shall have [visibly] separated them from one another. ⁴⁵ And the beings to whom they had ascribed a share in God's divinity will say [to those who had worshipped them], "It was not us that you were wont to worship;" ⁴⁶
Rashad Khalifa	Idols Disown Their Worshipers 10:28 On the day when we summon them all, we will say to those who worshipped idols, "We have summoned you, together with your idols." We will have them confront each other, and their idols will say to them, "We had no idea that you idolized us."
Shabbir Ahmed	10:28 One Day We will gather all of them together. We will say to those who acknowledged false deities, "Stay back, you and your contrived partners of God!" We will have the leaders and their followers confront each other. Their leaders will say, "It was not us that you worshiped."
Transliteration	10:28 Wayawma na hshuruhum jameeAAan thummanaqoolu lilla theena ashtrakoo makanakum antumwashurak aokum fazayyaln a baynahum waq alashurakaohum ma kuntum iyyanataAAbudoona
A	10:28 ويوم نحشرهم جميعاً ثم نقول للذين أشركوا مكانكم انتم وشركاؤكم فزيلنا بينهم وقال شركاؤهم ما كنتم إيانا تعبدون
Edip-Layth	10:29 "God is sufficient as a witness between us and you, we were unaware of your serving of us."
The Monotheist Group	10:29 "God is sufficient as a witness between us and you, we were unaware of you serving of us."
Muhammad Asad	10:29 and none can bear witness between us and you as God does: we were, for certain, unaware of your worshipping [us]. ⁴⁷
Rashad Khalifa	10:29 "GOD suffices as a witness between us and you, that we were completely unaware of your worshipping us."
Shabbir Ahmed	10:29 (Such false deities as prophets, angels, Sufis, saints, clergy, idols and the universal forces,) they will all say, "God suffices as a Witness between us and you that we were not even aware of your worship." ¹³

Transliteration	10:29 Fakafa bi Allāhishāheedan baynan a wabaynakum in kunn a AAan AAibadatikumlaghāfileena
A	10:29 فكفی بالله شهيدا بیننا و بینکم ان کنا عن عبادتکم لغفلین
Edip-Layth	10:30 Then and there every person will know what it has done, and they are returned to God their true patron, and what they had invented has left them. ⁴
The Monotheist Group	10:30 It is then that every soul will know what it has done, and they are returned to God their true patron, and what they had invented has left them.
Muhammad Asad	10:30 There and then will every human being clearly apprehend what he has done in the past; and all will be brought back unto God, their true Lord Supreme, and all their false imagery will have forsaken them.
Rashad Khalifa	10:30 That is when each soul will examine everything it had done. They will be returned to GOD, their rightful Lord and Master, and the idols they had fabricated will disown them.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:30 Therein every person will experience exactly the result of what he did before. They will be brought back to God, their rightful Master, and all their false imagery will fail them. ¹⁴
Transliteration	10:30 Hunalika tabloo kullu nafsīn m aaslafat waruddoo il a All ahi mawl a humu alhaqqiwaḍalla AAanhum m a kanoo yaftaroon a
A	10:30 هنالك تبلوا كل نفس ما اسلفت وردوا الى الله مولئهم الحق وضل عنهم ما كانوا يفترون
Edip-Layth	The Believers of False Religious Teachings 10:31 Say, "Who provides for you from the sky and the land? Who possesses the hearing and the eyesight? Who brings forth the living from the dead and brings forth the dead from the living? Who controls all affairs?" They will say, "God." Say, "Why then you do not show awareness!"
The Monotheist Group	10:31 Say: "Who provides for you from the sky and the land? Who possesses the hearing and the eyesight?, and who brings forth the living from the dead and brings forth the dead from the living, and who controls all affairs?" They will say: "God." Say: "Will you not be righteous!"
Muhammad Asad	10:31 SAY: "Who is it that provides you with sustenance out of heaven and earth, ⁴⁹ or who is it that has full power over [your] hearing and sight? And who is it that brings forth the living out of that which is dead, and brings forth the dead out of that which is alive? And who is it that governs all that exists?" And they will [surely] answer: "[It is] God. ⁵⁰ , Say, then: "Will you not, then, become [fully] conscious of Him-
Rashad Khalifa	10:31 Say, "Who provides for you from the heaven and the earth? Who controls all the hearing and the eyesight? Who produces the living from the dead, and the dead from the living? Who is in control of all things?" They would say, "GOD." Say, "Why then do you not observe the commandments?"
Shabbir Ahmed	10:31 (Now is the time for them to think.) Say (O Messenger!), "Who is it that provides for you from the heaven and the earth, or who is it that has full power over your hearing and sight? And who is it that brings forth the living from the dead, and the dead from the living? And who is it that directs the Order of the Universe?" They will say, "God." Say, "Will you not then be mindful of His laws?"
	10:31 Qul man yarzuqukum mina aIssama-iwaal-ardi amman yamliku aIssamAAa

Transliteration	waal-absarawaman yukhriju al hayya mina almayyiti wayukhriju almayyitamina alhayyi waman yudabbiru al-amra fasayaqooloona All ahufaqul afala tattaqoona
A	10:31 قل من يرزقكم من السماء والارض امن يملك السمع والابصر ومن يخرج الحى من الميت ويخرج الميت من الحى ومن يدبر الامر فسيقولون الله فقل افلا تتقون
Edip-Layth	10:32 Such is God, your true Lord. So what is after the truth except straying! How then you are turned away!
The Monotheist Group	10:32 Such is God, your true Lord. So what is after the truth except straying! Why then do you turn away?
Muhammad Asad	10:32 seeing that He is God, your Sustainer, the Ultimate Truth? ⁵¹ For, after the truth [has been forsaken], what is there [left] but error? How, then, can you lose sight of the truth?" ⁵²
Rashad Khalifa	10:32 Such is GOD, your rightful Lord. What is there after the truth, except falsehood? How could you disregard all this?
Shabbir Ahmed	10:32 Such is God, your Rightful Lord. After the truth what is there but error? How could you then turn away?
Transliteration	10:32 Fathalikumu All ahu rabbukumual haqqu fam atha baAAda al haqqi ill a alddalalufaanna tugafoona
A	10:32 فذلكم الله ربكم الحق فماذا بعد الحق الا الضلال فانى تصرفون
Edip-Layth	10:33 It was thus that your Lord's command came against those who were wicked, for they do not acknowledge.
The Monotheist Group	10:33 It was thus that your Lord's command came against those who were wicked, for they do not believe.
Muhammad Asad	10:33 Thus is thy Sustainer's word proved true with regard to such as are bent on sinful doings: they will not believe. ⁵³
Rashad Khalifa	10:33 This is what your Lord's decision does to those who choose to be wicked: they cannot believe.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:33 The Word of your Lord is justified that those who drift away from Reason will not accept the truth.
Transliteration	10:33 Kathalika haqqat kalimaturabbika AAal a alla theena fasaqoo annahum layu/minoona
A	10:33 كذلك حقت كلمت ربك على الذين فسقوا انهم لا يؤمنون
Edip-Layth	10:34 Say, "Are there any from those whom you have set up as partners who can initiate the creation and then return it?" Say, "God initiates the creation and then returns it." How are you deluded!
The Monotheist Group	10:34 Say: "Are there any from those whom you have set up as partners who can initiate the creation and then return it?" Say: "God initiates the creation and then returns it." How are you deluded!
Muhammad Asad	10:34 Say: "Can any of those beings to whom you ascribe a share in God's divinity create [life] in the first instance, and then bring it forth anew?" ⁵⁴ Say: "It is God [alone] who creates [all life] in the first instance, and then brings it forth anew. How perverted, then, are your minds!" ⁵⁵

Rashad Khalifa	Reflect on Your Idols 10:34 Say, "Can any of your idols initiate creation, then repeat it?" Say, "GOD initiates the creation, then repeats it. [How could you deviate?"]
Shabbir Ahmed	10:34 Ask them, "Can any of your 'partner gods' originate creation and then bring it forth again?" Say, "God originates creation and then brings it forth again. How then, are you so deluded?"
Transliteration	10:34 Qul hal min shurak a -ikum man yabdaoalkhalqa thumma yuAAeeduhu quli All ah u yabdao alkhalqathumma yuAAeeduhu faanna a tu/fakoona
A	10:34 قل هل من شركائكم من يبدوا الخلق ثم يعيده قل الله يبدوا الخلق ثم يعيده فاني توفكون
Edip-Layth	Do Not Follow Jesus, Muhammad, But Follow The Message/The Messenger 10:35 Say, "Are there any of those whom you set up as partners who can guide to the truth?" Say, "God guides to the truth. Is He who guides to the truth more worthy of being followed, or the one who does not guide except after he is guided? What is wrong with you, how do you judge?" ⁵
The Monotheist Group	10:35 Say: "Are there any of those whom you set up as partners who can guide to the truth?" Say: "God guides to the truth. Is He who guides to the truth more worthy of being followed, or the one who does not guide except after he is guided? What is wrong with you, how do you judge?"
Muhammad Asad	10:35 Say: "Does any of those beings to whom you ascribe a share in God's divinity guide unto the truth?" Say: "It is God [alone] who guides unto the truth. Which, then, is more worthy to be followed - He who guides unto the truth, or he who cannot find the right way unless he is guided? ⁵⁷ What, then, is amiss with you and your judgment?"
Rashad Khalifa	10:35 Say, "Does any of your idols guide to the truth?" Say, "GOD guides to the truth. Is one who guides to the truth more worthy of being followed, or one who does not guide, and needs guidance for himself? What is wrong with your judgment?"
Shabbir Ahmed	10:35 Say, "Of your 'partners', is there any that can lead you to the truth?" Say, "God leads to the truth. So, who is more worthy of being followed? The One Who shows you the way or one who finds no way unless he is guided? What is amiss with you? How do you judge?"
Transliteration	10:35 Qul hal min shurak a -ikum man yahdeeil a al h aqqi quli All ah u yahdee lil h aqqiafaman yahdee il a al h aqqi a h aqqu anyuttabaAAa amman l a yahiddee ill a an yuhda f ama a lakum kayfa ta h kumoon a
A	10:35 قل هل من شركائكم من يهدى الى الحق قل الله يهدى للحق افمن يهدى الى الحق احق ان يتبع امن لا يهدى الا ان يهدى فما لكم كيف تحكمون
Edip-Layth	10:36 Most of them only follow conjecture. While conjecture does not avail against the truth in anything. God is knower of what they do.
The Monotheist Group	10:36 Most of them only follow conjecture. While conjecture does not avail against the truth in anything. God is aware of what they do.
Muhammad Asad	10:36 For, most of them follow nothing but conjecture: [and,] behold, conjecture can never be a substitute for truth. ⁵⁸ Verily, God has full knowledge of all that they do.
Rashad Khalifa	10:36 Most of them follow nothing but conjecture, and conjecture is no substitute for the truth. GOD is fully aware of everything they do.

Shabbir Ahmed	10:36 *
Transliteration	10:36 Wama yattabiAAu aktharuhum illathannan inna alththanna layughnee mina alhaqqi shay-an inna Allaha AAaleemunbima yafAAaloona
A	10:36 وما يتبع اكثرهم الا ظنا ان الظن لا يغنى من الحق شيئا ان الله عليم بما يفعلون
Edip-Layth	Bigots Who Criticize the Quran Without Comprehending Its Knowledge 10:37 This Quran could not have been produced without God, but it is to authenticate what is already present, and to provide detail to the book in which there is no doubt, from the Lord of the worlds.
The Monotheist Group	10:37 This Qur'an could not have been produced without God, but it is to authenticate what is already present, and to give detail to the Scripture in which there is no doubt, from the Lord of the worlds.
Muhammad Asad	10:37 Now this Qur'an could not possibly have been devised by anyone save God: nay indeed, ⁵⁹ it confirms the truth of whatever there still remains [of earlier revelations] and clearly spells out the revelation [which comes] -let there be no doubt about it-from the Sustainer of all the worlds. ⁶⁰
Rashad Khalifa	Only God Can Author the Quran 10:37 This Quran could not possibly be authored by other than GOD. It confirms all previous messages, and provides a fully detailed scripture. It is infallible, for it comes from the Lord of the universe.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:37 This Qur'an could not possibly have been devised by anyone except God. Nay, it is a confirmation of the (truth in) the earlier revelations, and a clear exposition of the Eternal law. Without any trace of doubt, this Book is from the Lord of the worlds. (While it confirms the surviving truth in the previous revelations, it is a Watcher over them and ignores and, where necessary, corrects the human touch in them. ¹⁶
Transliteration	10:37 Wama k ana h atha alqur- anuan yuftar a min dooni All ahi wal akin tasdeeqaallathe bayna yadayhi wataf seela alkit abi l arayba feehi min rabbi alAAalameena
A	10:37 وما كان هذا القرآن ان يفترى من دون الله ولكن تصديق الذي بين يديه وتفصيل الكتب لا ريب فيه من رب العلمين
Edip-Layth	10:38 Or do they say he invented it? Say, "Then bring a chapter like it, and call upon whoever you can besides God if you are truthful!" ⁶
The Monotheist Group	10:38 Or do they say he invented it? Say: "Then bring a chapter like it, and call upon whoever you can besides God if you are truthful!"
Muhammad Asad	10:38 And yet, ⁶¹ they [who are bent on denying the truth] assert, "[Muhammad] has invented it!" Say [unto them]: "Produce, then, a surah of similar merit; and [to this end] call to your aid whomever you can, other than God, if what you say is true ! ⁶²
Rashad Khalifa	10:38 If they say, "He fabricated it," say, "Then produce one sura like these, and invite whomever you wish, other than GOD, if you are truthful."
Shabbir Ahmed	10:38 Or, do they say, "He has invented it"? Tell them, "Bring one Surah like this and call for help everyone you can besides God, if you are truthful." ¹⁷
Transliteration	10:38 Am yaqooloona iftar ahu qul fa/toobisooratin mithlihi wa odAAoo mani istataAAatum mindooni Allahi in kuntum sadiqeena

A	10:38 ام يقولون افتره قل فاتوا بسورة مثله وادعوا من استطعتم من دون الله ان كنتم صدقين
Edip-Layth	10:39 No, they have lied about the things they did not have comprehensive knowledge of, and before its explanation came to them. Similarly, those before them denied, so see what the retribution of the wicked was!
The Monotheist Group	10:39 No, they have lied about that which they did not have knowledge of, nor has its explanation come to them. It is also how those before them denied, so see how was the retribution of the wicked!
Muhammad Asad	10:39 Nay, but they are bent on giving the lie to everything the wisdom whereof they do not comprehend, and ere its inner meaning has become clear to them ⁶³ Even thus did those who lived before their time give the lie to the truth: and behold what happened in the end to those evildoers!
Rashad Khalifa	10:39 Indeed, they have rejected this without studying and examining it, and before understanding it. Thus did those before them disbelieve. Therefore, note the consequences for the transgressors.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:39 Nay, they deny it without grasping the profound knowledge therein. And they have yet to see the benevolent transformation it can bring about in the making of humanity. This is how those before them denied. Then see what was the end of those who thus wronged themselves! ¹⁸
Transliteration	10:39 Bal ka th haboo bim a lam yu hee toobiAAilmihi walamm a ya/tihim ta/weeluhu ka th alika ka th thabaallatheena min qablihim fa on thurkayfa k ana AAaqibatu al th thlimeena
A	10:39 بل كذبوا بما لم يحيطوا بعلمه ولما ياتهم تاويله كذلك كذب الذين من قبلهم فانظر كيف كان عقبة الظالمين
Edip-Layth	10:40 Some of them acknowledge it, and some of them do not acknowledge it. Your Lord best knows the corrupters.
The Monotheist Group	10:40 And there are some of them who believe in it, and some of them do not believe in it. Your Lord is better aware of the transgressors.
Muhammad Asad	10:40 And there are among them such as will in time come to believe in this [divine writ], just as there are among them such as will never believe in it; ⁶⁴ and thy Sustainer is fully aware as to who are the spreaders of corruption.
Rashad Khalifa	10:40 Some of them believe (in this scripture), while others disbelieve in it. Your Lord is fully aware of the evildoers.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:40 And of them is he who believes in this (Qur'an), and of them is he who does not believe in it. Your Lord is best Aware of those who are bent upon denial and want corruption and disorder to go on.
Transliteration	10:40 Waminhum man yu/minu bihi waminhum man l ayu /minu bihi warabbuka aAAalamu bialmufsideena
A	10:40 ومنهم من يؤمن به ومنهم من لا يؤمن به وربك اعلم بالمفسدين
Edip-Layth	10:41 If they deny you, then say, "My works are for me, and your works are for you. You are innocent from what I do, and I am innocent from what you do."
The Monotheist Group	10:41 And if they deny you, then say: "I have my deeds, and you have your deeds. You are innocent from what I do, and I am innocent from what you do."

Muhammad Asad	10:41 And [so, O Prophet,] if they give thee the lie, say: "To me [shall be accounted] my doings, and to you, your doings: you are not accountable for what I am doing, and I am not accountable for whatever you do."
Rashad Khalifa	10:41 If they reject you, then say, "I have my works, and you have your works. You are innocent of anything I do, and I am innocent of anything you do."
Shabbir Ahmed	10:41 If they keep denying you (O Prophet!), say, "I have my work, and you have your work. You are innocent of what I do and I am innocent of what you do." 19
Transliteration	10:41 Wa-in ka th habooka faqul lee AAamaleewalakum AAamalukum antum baree-oona mimma aAAlu waanabaree-on mimma taAAamaloona
A	10:41 وان كذبوك فقل لي على ولكم عملكم انتم بريون مما اعمل وانا بريء مما تعملون
Edip-Layth	10:42 Among them are some who listen to you; but can you make the deaf hear, if they do not reason?
The Monotheist Group	10:42 And there are some of them who listen to you; but can you make the deaf hear, if they do not comprehend?
Muhammad Asad	10:42 And there are among them such as (pretend to) listen to thee: but canst thou cause the deaf to hearken even though they will not use their reason?
Rashad Khalifa	10:42 Some of them listen to you, but can you make the deaf hear, even though they cannot understand?
Shabbir Ahmed	10:42 Among them are those who apparently listen to you. (But their thoughts are wandering.) Can you make hear those deaf who do not use reason? 20
Transliteration	10:42 Waminhum man yastamiAAoona ilayka afaantatusmiAAu a lssumma walaw kanoo la ^{ya} AAaqiloona
A	10:42 ومنهم من يستمعون اليك افانت تسمع الصم ولو كانوا لا يعقلون
Edip-Layth	10:43 Among them are some who look at you; but can you guide the blind, even though they will not see?
The Monotheist Group	10:43 And there are some of them who look at you; but can you guide the blind, if they do not see?
Muhammad Asad	10:43 And there are among them such as [pretend to] look towards thee: but canst thou show the right way to the blind even though they cannot see?
Rashad Khalifa	Humans Freely Choose Their Paths 10:43 Some of them look at you, but can you guide the blind, even though they do not see?
Shabbir Ahmed	10:43 And among them you will find those who look at you without seeing. (Their mind is roaming elsewhere.) Can you show the way to those who are blind of the heart? 21
Transliteration	10:43 Waminhum man yan th uru ilaykaafaanta tahdee alAAumya walaw kanoo la yubsiroona
A	10:43 ومنهم من ينظر اليك افانت تهدي العمى ولو كانوا لا يبصرون
Edip-Layth	10:44 God does not wrong the people in the least, but it is the people who wrong themselves.

The Monotheist Group	10:44 God does not wrong the people in the least, but it is the people who wrong themselves.
Muhammad Asad	10:44 Verily, God does not do the least wrong unto men, but it is men who wrong themselves.
Rashad Khalifa	10:44 GOD never wrongs the people; it is the people who wrong their own souls.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:44 God is never unjust to human beings; but people wrong themselves. 22
Transliteration	10:44 Inna All aha l a ya thlimualInna shay-an wal a kinna a Innasaanfusahum ya thlimoonaa
A	10:44 ان الله لا يظلم الناس شيئا ولكن الناس انفسهم يظلمون
Edip-Layth	10:45 The day We gather them, it will be as if they have slept for only a moment of a day. They will get to know one another. Losers are those who denied meeting God, and they were not guided.
The Monotheist Group	10:45 And the Day We gather them, it will be as if they have slept for only an hour of a day. They will get to know one another. Losers are those who denied meeting God, and they were not guided.
Muhammad Asad	10:45 And on the Day when He shall gather them [unto Himself, it will seem to them] as if they had not tarried [on earth] longer than an hour of a day, knowing one another; 65 [and] lost indeed will be they who [in their lifetime] considered it a lie that they were destined to meet God, and [thus] failed to find the right' way.
Rashad Khalifa	10:45 On the day when He summons all of them, they will feel as if they lasted in this world one hour of the day, during which they met. Losers indeed are those who disbelieved in meeting GOD; and chose to be misguided.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:45 And on the Day when He will gather them, they will think as if they lived (in this world) an hour of the day, recognizing one another. (Others will think it was a day or a few days 20:103-104.) Lost will be those who denied meeting with God, and thus, failed to be rightly guided. 23
Transliteration	10:45 Wayawma ya hshuruhum kaan lamyalbathoo ill a s aAAatan mina alInnahariyataAAaafaona baynahum qad khasira alla theena ka ththaboobiliqa-i Allahi wama kanoo muhtadeena
A	10:45 ويوم يحشرهم كان لم يلبثوا الا ساعة من النهار يتعارفون بينهم قد خسر الذين كذبوا بلقاء الله وما كانوا مهتدين
Edip-Layth	10:46 Whether We show you some of what We promise them, or We let you pass away, then to Us is their return and God is witness over what they do.
The Monotheist Group	10:46 And if We show you some of what We promise them, or We terminate your life, then to Us is their return and God is witness over what they do.
Muhammad Asad	10:46 And whether We show thee [in this world something of what We hold in store for those [deniers of the truth], 66 or whether We cause thee to die [before that retribution takes place - know that, in the end], it is unto Us that they must return; and God is witness to all that they do. 67
Rashad Khalifa	10:46 Whether we show you some (of the retribution) we promise them, or terminate your life before that, to us is their ultimate return. GOD witnesses everything they do.
	10:46 Whether We show you (O Messenger!), something of what We promise

Shabbir Ahmed	them, or cause you to die, to Us is their return. God is the Watcher over what they do.
Transliteration	10:46 Wa-imma nuriyannaka baAAa daallathee naAAiduhum aw natawaffayannaka fa-ilayna marjiAAuhum thumma Allahu shaheedun AAala mayafAAaloona
A	10:46 واما نرينك بعض الذي نعدهم او نتوفيك فاليينا مرجعهم ثم الله شهيد على ما يفعلون
Edip-Layth	For Every Nation 10:47 For every nation is a messenger; so when their messenger comes, the matter is decreed between them with justice, and they are not wronged. ⁷
The Monotheist Group	10:47 And for every nation is a messenger; so when their messenger comes, the matter is decreed between them with justice, and they are not wronged.
Muhammad Asad	10:47 NOW every community has had an apostle; and only after their apostle has appeared [and delivered his message] is judgment passed on them, in all equity; ⁶⁸ and never are they wronged.
Rashad Khalifa	10:47 To each community, a messenger. After their messenger comes, they are judged equitably, without the least injustice.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:47 Every community has had a messenger. They were judged in all equity only after their messenger came (and delivered the message), and they were never wronged.
Transliteration	10:47 Walikulli ommatin rasoolun fa-i tha j aarasooluhum qu diya baynahum bialqisti wahum layuthlamoon
A	10:47 ولكل امة رسول فاذا جاء رسولهم قضى بينهم بالقسط وهم لا يظلمون
Edip-Layth	10:48 They say, "When is this promise, if you are truthful?"
The Monotheist Group	10:48 And they say: "When is this promise if you are truthful?"
Muhammad Asad	10:48 And yet, they [who deny the truth] are wont to ask, "When is that promise [of resurrection and judgment] to be fulfilled? [Answer this, O you who believe in it,] if you are men of truth!"
Rashad Khalifa	10:48 They challenge: "When will this prophecy come to pass, if you are telling the truth?"
Shabbir Ahmed	10:48 And yet, they ask, "When will the promise be fulfilled, if you are truthful?" (The promise of just recompense.)
Transliteration	10:48 Wayaqooloona mata hathaalwaAAadu in kuntum sadiqeena
A	10:48 ويقولون متى هذا الوعد ان كنتم صدقين
Edip-Layth	The Messenger Has No Special Power 10:49 Say, "I do not possess for myself any harm or benefit except what God wills. For every nation is a time. When their time comes, they cannot delay it one moment nor advance it."
The Monotheist Group	10:49 Say: "I do not possess for myself any harm or benefit except what God wills. For every nation is a time. When their time comes, they cannot delay it one hour nor advance it."
Muhammad Asad	10:49 Say [O Prophet]: "It is not within my power to avert harm from, or bring benefit to, myself, except as God may please. ⁶⁹ For all people a term has been set: when the end of their term approaches, they can neither delay it by a single moment, nor hasten it." ⁷⁰

Rashad Khalifa	The Messenger Possesses No Power 10:49 Say, "I possess no power to harm myself, or benefit myself; only what GOD wills takes place." Each community has a predetermined life span. Once their interim comes to an end, they cannot delay it by one hour, nor advance it.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:49 Say (O Messenger!), "I have no power to avert any harm even from myself, or benefit myself contrary to the laws of God. Every community determines its own rise and fall. When the time comes, they can neither delay, nor hasten the requital."
Transliteration	10:49 Qul I a amliku linafsee darranwala nafAAan ill a m a sh aa All ahulikulli ommatin ajalun i tha j aa ajaluhum fal ayasta/khiroona s aAAatan wal a yastaqdimoonaa
A	10:49 قل لا املك لنفسى ضرا ولا نفعا الا ما شاء الله لكل امة اجل اذا جاء اجلهم فلا يستخرون ساعة ولا يستقدمون
Edip-Layth	10:50 Say, "Do you see if His retribution will come to you by night or by day, then which portion would the criminals hasten in?"
The Monotheist Group	10:50 Say: "Do you see if His retribution will come to you by night or by day, then which portion would the criminals hasten in?"
Muhammad Asad	10:50 Say: "Have you ever considered [how you would feel] if His chastisement were to befall you by night or by day? What could there be in that prospect that people lost in sin should wish to hasten?" ⁷¹
Rashad Khalifa	10:50 Say, "Whether His retribution comes to you by night or by day, why are the transgressors in such a hurry?"
Shabbir Ahmed	10:50 Say, "Have you thought, when His retribution comes to you suddenly by night, or in the bustling day, what portion of it would the guilty wish to hasten?"
Transliteration	10:50 Qul araaytum in at akum AAa thabuhubayatan aw nah aran m atha yastaAAjilu minhualmujrimoonaa
A	10:50 قل ارءيتم ان اتكم عذابه بيئا او نهارا ماذا يستعجل منه المجرمون
Edip-Layth	10:51 "When it occurs, would you then acknowledge it? While now you are hastening it on!"
The Monotheist Group	10:51 "Would you then, when it occurs, believe in it? While now you are hastening it on!"
Muhammad Asad	10:51 Will you, then, believe in it [only] after it has come to pass -[on the Day when you will be asked, 'Do you believe in it] now, ⁷² after having [contemptuously] called for its speedy advent?"
Rashad Khalifa	10:51 "If it does happen, will you believe then? Why should you believe then? You used to challenge it to come?"
Shabbir Ahmed	10:51 "Would you then profess belief in it at last, when it comes to pass! Ah! Now? And you wanted to hasten it on." (But the period of respite has been over.)
Transliteration	10:51 Athumma i tha m a waqaAAa amantumbihi al-ana waqad kuntum bihi tastaAAjiloona
A	10:51 اثم اذا ما وقع ءامنتم به ءالن وقد كنتم به تستعجلون

Edip-Layth	10:52 Then it will be said to the wicked: "Taste the everlasting retribution. You are only recompensed for what you have earned!"
The Monotheist Group	10:52 Then it will be said to those who were wicked: "Taste the everlasting retribution. You are only recompensed for what you have earned!"
Muhammad Asad	10:52 -whereupon those who [in their lifetime] were bent on evildoing will be told, `Taste suffering abiding! Is this requital anything but the just due for what you were wont to do?" ⁷³
Rashad Khalifa	10:52 It will be said to the transgressors, "Taste the eternal retribution. Are you not requited precisely for what you have earned?"
Shabbir Ahmed	10:52 It will be said to the oppressors and violators of human rights, "Taste the eternal torment, the exact reward of what you earned."
Transliteration	10:52 Thumma qeela lilla theena thalamoothooqoo AAa thaba alkhuldi hal tujzawna illabima kuntum taksiboona
A	10:52 ثم قيل للذين ظلموا ذوقوا عذاب الخلد هل تجزون الا بما كنتم تكسبون
Edip-Layth	10:53 They seek news from you: "Is it true?" Say, "Yes, by my Lord it is true, and you cannot escape from it."
The Monotheist Group	10:53 And they seek news from you: "Is it true?" Say: "Yes, by my Lord it is true, and you cannot escape from it."
Muhammad Asad	10:53 And some people ⁷⁴ ask thee, "Is all this true?" Say: "Yea, by my Sustainer! It is most certainly true, and you cannot elude [the final reckoning]!"
Rashad Khalifa	10:53 They challenge you to prophesy: "Is this really what will happen?" Say, "Yes indeed, by my Lord, this is the truth, and you can never escape."
Shabbir Ahmed	10:53 They keep asking you (O Prophet!), "Is it really true?" Say, "Yes, by my Lord, it is true. And you cannot defy His laws."
Transliteration	10:53 Wayastanbi-oonaka ahaqqun huwa qul eewarabbee innahu lahaqqun wama antum bimuAAajizeena
A	10:53 ويستنبونك احق هو قل اى وربى انه لحق وما انتم بمعجزين
Edip-Layth	10:54 If every person that wronged had possessed all that is on earth, it would have attempted to ransom it. They declared their regret when they saw the retribution, and it was judged between them with fairness. They are not wronged.
The Monotheist Group	10:54 And if every soul that wronged had possessed all that is on Earth, it would have attempted to ransom it. And they declared their regret when they saw the retribution, and it was judged between them with fairness. They were not wronged.
Muhammad Asad	10:54 And all human beings that have been doing evil's ⁷⁵ would surely, if they possessed all that is on earth, offer it as ransom [on Judgment Day]; ⁷⁶ and when they see the suffering [that awaits them], they will be unable to express their remorse. ⁷⁷ But judgment will be passed on them in all equity; and they will not be wronged.
Rashad Khalifa	What Price Faith 10:54 If any wicked soul possessed everything on earth, it would readily offer it as ransom. They will be ridden with remorse when they see the retribution. They will be judged equitably, without the least injustice.

Shabbir Ahmed	10:54 Whoever oppresses people, has wronged his own 'self'. Even if they possessed everything on earth, they would readily present it as ransom. But they will be ashamed within themselves, when they see the doom. They will be judged fairly and no wrong shall be done to them.
Transliteration	10:54 Walaw anna likulli nafsin th alamatma fee al-ar di la iftadat bihi waasarroo alInnad a matalamma raawoo alAAa th aba waqu di ya baynahum bi alqistiwahum la yu th lamoon a
A	10:54 ولو ان لكل نفس ظلمت ما فى الارض لاقتدت به واسروا الندامة لما راوا العذاب وقضى بينهم بالقسط وهم لا يظلمون
Edip-Layth	God's Grace and Mercy 10:55 To God is what is in the heavens and the earth. God's promise is true, but most of them do not know.
The Monotheist Group	10:55 To God is what is in the heavens and the Earth. God's promise is true, but most of them do not know.
Muhammad Asad	10:55 Oh, verily, unto God belongs all that is in the heavens and on earth! Oh, verily, God's promise always comes true-but most of them know it not!
Rashad Khalifa	10:55 Absolutely, to GOD belongs everything in the heavens and the earth. Absolutely, GOD's promise is truth, but most of them do not know.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:55 Oh, certainly, To God belongs all that is in the heavens and earth. His promise is unwaveringly True but most of them never learn.
Transliteration	10:55 Ala inna lillahi m a feealssamawati waal-ardi alainna waAAda All ah i h aqqun wal ak innaaktharahum la yaAAlamoon a
A	10:55 الا ان الله ما فى السموت والارض الا ان وعد الله حق ولكن اكثرهم لا يعلمون
Edip-Layth	10:56 He causes life, and He causes death, and to Him you will return.
The Monotheist Group	10:56 He gives life, and He brings death, and to Him you will return.
Muhammad Asad	10:56 He alone grants life and deals death; and unto Him you all must return. ⁷⁸
Rashad Khalifa	10:56 He controls life and death, and to Him you will be returned.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:56 He is the One Who gives life and death. You and your actions will be returned to Him.
Transliteration	10:56 Huwa yu h yee wayumeetu wa-ilayhiturjaAAoon a
A	10:56 هو يحيى ويميت واليه ترجعون
Edip-Layth	10:57 O people, advice has come to you from your Lord and a remedy for what is in the chests, and a guidance and mercy for those who acknowledge. ⁸
The Monotheist Group	10:57 O mankind, advice has come to you from your Lord and a remedy for what is in the chests, and a guidance and mercy for the believers.
Muhammad Asad	10:57 O MANKIND! There has now come unto you an admonition from your Sustainer, and a cure for all [the ill] that may be in men's hearts, ⁷⁹ and guidance and grace unto all who believe [in Him].
Rashad Khalifa	10:57 O people, enlightenment has come to you herein from your Lord, and healing for anything that troubles your hearts, and guidance, and mercy for the believers.

Shabbir Ahmed	10:57 O Mankind! There has now come to you Enlightenment from your Sustainer, and a healing for everything that troubles your hearts, and guidance, and grace to all who embrace it.
Transliteration	10:57 Ya ayyuh a a Innasuqad j aatukum mawAAi thatun min rabbikum washifaonlima fee al ssudoori wahudan warahmatunililmu/mineena
A	10:57 يايها الناس قد جاءتكم موعظة من ربكم وشفاء لما فى الصدور وهدى ورحمة للمومنين
Edip-Layth	10:58 Say, "By God's grace and His mercy." For that let them rejoice, that is better than all that they gather.
The Monotheist Group	10:58 Say: "By God's grace and His mercy." For that let them rejoice, that is better than all that they gather.
Muhammad Asad	10:58 Say: "In [this] bounty of God and in His grace-in this, then, let them rejoice: it is better than all [the worldly wealth] that they may amass!"
Rashad Khalifa	Joy for the Believers 10:58 Say, "With GOD's grace and with His mercy they shall rejoice." This is far better than any wealth they can accumulate.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:58 Say, "In this bounty of God and in His grace - in this, then, let them rejoice. It is better than all the treasures that they may amass."
Transliteration	10:58 Qul bifa dli All ahi wabira hmatihifabithalika falyafra hoo huwa khayrun mimmayajmaAAoona
A	10:58 قل بفضل الله وبرحمته فبذلك فليفرحوا هو خير مما يجمعون
Edip-Layth	10:59 Say, "Have you seen what God has sent down to you from provisions, then you made some of it forbidden and some lawful?" Say, "Did God authorize you, or did you invent lies against God?"
The Monotheist Group	10:59 Say: "Have you seen what God has sent down to you from provisions, then you made some of it forbidden and some lawful?" Say: "Did God authorize you, or did you invent lies against God?"
Muhammad Asad	10:59 Say: "Have you ever considered all the means of sustenance which God has bestowed upon you from on high ⁸⁰ -and which you thereupon divide into 'things forbidden' and 'things lawful?' ⁸¹ Say: "Has God given you leave [to do this] -or do you, perchance, attribute your own guesswork to God?"
Rashad Khalifa	Human-made Dietary Prohibitions 10:59 Say, "Did you note how GOD sends down to you all kinds of provisions, then you render some of them unlawful, and some lawful?" Say, "Did GOD give you permission to do this? Or, do you fabricate lies and attribute them to GOD?"
Shabbir Ahmed	10:59 Say, "Have you considered how God sends down to you all kinds of provisions for your minds and bodies? Then you render some of them unlawful and some lawful?" Say, "Has God permitted you to do this? Or do you invent lies and attribute them to God?" ²⁴
Transliteration	10:59 Qul araaytum m a anzala All ahulakum min rizqin fajaAAaltum minhu haraman wahalalanqul allahu athina lakum am AAala Allahitaftaroona
	10:59 قل ارءيتم ما انزل الله لكم من رزق فجعلتم منه حراما وحلالا قل والله انن لكم ام على

A	الله تقفرون
Edip-Layth	10:60 What will those who invent lies against God think on the day of Resurrection? God is with great bounty to people, but most of them are not thankful.
The Monotheist Group	10:60 And what will those who invent lies against God think on the Day of Resurrection? God is with great bounty to the people, but most of them are not thankful.
Muhammad Asad	10:60 But what do they think-they who attribute their own lying inventions to God-[what do they think will happen to them]. on the Day of Resurrection? Behold, God is indeed limitless in His bounty unto men -but most of them are ungrateful.
Rashad Khalifa	10:60 Does it ever occur to those who fabricate lies about GOD that they will have to face Him on the Day of Resurrection? Certainly, GOD showers the people with His grace, but most of them are unappreciative.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:60 Does it ever occur to the people who tamper with religion and invent lies concerning God, that they will have to face Him on the Resurrection Day? God is Infinitely Bountiful toward mankind, but the majority of them do not show gratitude in word and action.
Transliteration	10:60 Wama th annu alla the enayaftaroona AAal a All a hi alka th iba yawmaalqiyamati inna All a ha la th oo fa d linAAala a Innasi wal a kinna aktharahum layashkuroona
A	10:60 وما ظن الذين يفترون على الله الكذب يوم القيمة ان الله لنو فضل على الناس ولكن اكثرهم لا يشكرون
Edip-Layth	God's Allies 10:61 You do not engage in any business, nor do you recite any from the Quran, nor do you do any work; without us being witnesses over you when you undertake it. Nothing is hidden from your Lord, not even an atom's weight on earth or in the heavens, nor smaller than that nor larger, but is in a clear book.
The Monotheist Group	10:61 And any matter you are in, or any recital you do of the Qur'an, or any work you do; We are witnesses over you when you undertake it. Nothing is hidden from your Lord, not even an atoms weight on Earth or in the heavens, nor smaller than that nor larger, but is in a clear record.
Muhammad Asad	10:61 AND IN whatever condition thou mayest find thyself, [O Prophet,] and whatever discourse of this [divine writ] ⁸² thou mayest be reciting, and whatever work you [all, O men,] may do -[remember that] We are your witness ⁸³ [from the moment] when you enter upon it: for, not even an atom's weight [of whatever there is] on earth or in heaven escapes thy Sustainer's knowledge; and neither is there anything smaller than that, or larger, but is recorded in [His] clear decree.
Rashad Khalifa	Knowing God 10:61 You do not get into any situation, nor do you recite any Quran, nor do you do anything, without us being witnesses thereof as you do it. Not even an atom's weight is out of your Lord's control, be it in the heavens or the earth. Nor is there anything smaller than an atom, or larger, that is not recorded in a profound record.
	10:61 In whatever condition you may find yourself (O Prophet!), and whatever of the Qur'an you are reciting and preaching, and whatever work or business you

Shabbir Ahmed	believers are occupied with, remember that We are your Witness from the moment you embark upon it. Not an atom's weight in the Low nor in the Height escapes your Lord's knowledge. Nor, a thing smaller or bigger, everything is recorded in a clear Database.
Transliteration	10:61 Wama takoonu fee sha/nin wam atattoo minhu min qur- anin wal a taAamaloona minAAamalin illa kunna AAalaykum shuhoodan i thtufeedoona feehee wama yaAAazubu AAan rabbika minmithq ali tharratin fee al-ardi walafee alssama-i wala asghara min thalikawala akbara illa fee kitabin mubeenun
A	10:61 وما تكون في شأن وما تتلوا منه من قرآن ولا تعملون من عمل الا كنا عليكم شهودا اذ تفيضون فيه وما يعزب عن ربك من مثقال ذرة في الارض ولا في السماء ولا اصغر من ذلك ولا اكبر الا في كتب مبين
Edip-Layth	10:62 Indeed, for God's allies, there is no fear over them nor will they grieve;
The Monotheist Group	10:62 For God's allies, there is no fear over them nor will they grieve.
Muhammad Asad	10:62 Oh, verily, they who are close to God ⁸⁴ - no fear need they have, and neither shall they grieve:
Rashad Khalifa	Happiness: Now and Forever 10:62 Absolutely, GOD's allies have nothing to fear, nor will they grieve. ⁵
Shabbir Ahmed	10:62 Remember that people who strive to establish the Divine System, become the friends of God. They will have nothing to fear, nor shall they grieve.
Transliteration	10:62 Ala inna awliya Allahila khawfun AAalayhim wala hum yahzanoona
A	10:62 الا ان اولياء الله لا خوف عليهم ولا هم يحزنون
Edip-Layth	10:63 Those who acknowledged and were aware.
The Monotheist Group	10:63 Those who believed and were aware.
Muhammad Asad	10:63 they who have attained to faith and have always been conscious of Him.
Rashad Khalifa	10:63 They are those who believe and lead a righteous life.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:63 They accept His message, follow His commands, and get empowered against evil. ²⁵
Transliteration	10:63 Allatheena amanoo wakanooyattaqoona
A	10:63 الذين ءامنوا وكانوا يتقون
Edip-Layth	10:64 For them are glad tidings in the worldly life and in the Hereafter. There is no changing the words of God. Such is the supreme success.
The Monotheist Group	10:64 For them are glad tidings in the worldly life and in the Hereafter. There is no changing the words of God. Such is the great success.
Muhammad Asad	10:64 For them there is the glad tiding [of happiness] in the life of this world and in the life to come; [and since] nothing could ever alter [the outcome of] God's promises, this, this is the triumph supreme! ⁸⁵
Rashad Khalifa	10:64 For them, joy and happiness in this world, as well as in the Hereafter. This is GOD's unchangeable law. Such is the greatest triumph.

Shabbir Ahmed	10:64 There is good news for them in this world and in the life to come. God's Words never change. Success in the world and in the life to come is the Supreme Triumph. ²⁶
Transliteration	10:64 Lahumu albushr a fee al hayatialddunya wafee al- akhirati l atabdeela likalimati Allahi thalika huwaalfawzu alAAaath ^{ee} mu
A	10:64 لهم البشرى فى الحياة الدنيا وفى الآخرة لا تبدل لكلمات الله ذلك هو الفوز العظيم
Edip-Layth	10:65 Do not be saddened by their statements, for all glory is to God. He is the Hearer, the Knowledgeable.
The Monotheist Group	10:65 And do not be saddened by their speech, for all glory is to God. He is the Hearer, the Knowledgeable.
Muhammad Asad	10:65 And be not grieved by the sayings of those [who deny the truth]. Behold, all might and glory ⁸⁶ belong to God alone: He alone is all-hearing, all-knowing.
Rashad Khalifa	10:65 Do not be saddened by their utterances. All power belongs to GOD. He is the Hearer, the Omniscient.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:65 Let not their utterances sadden you (O Prophet!). To God wholly belong all authority, Might and Honor. He is the Hearer, the Knower. ²⁷
Transliteration	10:65 Wala ya hzunka qawluhum innaalAAizzata lill ahi jameeAAan huwa alssameeAAualAAaleemu
A	10:65 ولا يحزنك قولهم ان العزة لله جميعا هو السميع العليم
Edip-Layth	10:66 Certainly, to God belongs all who are in the heavens and those who are on earth. As for those who call on partners besides God, they only follow conjecture, and they only guess.
The Monotheist Group	10:66 Certainly, to God belongs all who are in the heavens and those who are on Earth. As for those who call on partners besides God, they only follow conjecture, and they only guess.
Muhammad Asad	10:66 OH, VERILY, unto God belongs whoever is in the heavens and whoever is on earth: hence, what is it that they follow-those who invoke, beside God. beings to whom they ascribe a share in His divinity? ⁸⁷ They follow but the conjectures [of others], and themselves do nothing but guess -
Rashad Khalifa	10:66 Absolutely, to GOD belongs everyone in the heavens and everyone on earth. Those who set up idols beside GOD are really following nothing. They only think that they are following something. They only guess.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:66 Oh! Surely, to God belongs whoever is in the Heights and whoever is on earth. So, what is it that they follow? - Those who call upon, besides God, His "partners"? They follow nothing but conjecture (of others), and themselves do nothing but make wild guesses.
Transliteration	10:66 Ala inna lill ahi man fee a Issamawatiwaman fee al-ar di wam a yattabiAAu allaheenayadAAoona min dooni All ahi shuraka inyattabiAAoona ill a l th thanna wa-inhum illa yakhru ^s oona
A	10:66 الا ان الله من فى السموت ومن فى الارض وما يتبع الذين يدعون من دون الله شركاء ان يتبعون الا الظن وان هم الا يخرصون
Edip-Layth	10:67 He is the One who made the night for you to reside in, and the day to see.

	In that are signs for a people who listen.
The Monotheist Group	10:67 He is the One who made the night for you to reside in, and the day to see. In that are signs for a people who listen.
Muhammad Asad	10:67 [whereas] it is He who has made the night for you, so that you might have rest therein, and the day, to make [you] see ⁸⁸ in this, behold, there are messages indeed for people who [are willing to] listen.
Rashad Khalifa	10:67 He is the One who rendered the night for your rest, and rendered the day lighted. These are proofs for people who can hear.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:67 He is the One Who made night for you to rest in, and made the day lighted to make things visible to you. These are signs for those who are willing to listen and think.
Transliteration	10:67 Huwa alla thee jaAAala lakumu allaylalitaskunoo feehi wa alInnah ra mub s iran innafee th alika la y atin liqawmin yasmaAAoon a
A	10:67 هو الذى جعل لكم الليل لتسكنوا فيه والنهار مبصرا ان فى ذلك لءايت لقوم يسمعون
Edip-Layth	10:68 They said, "God has taken a son." Be He glorified! He is the Rich. To Him is what is in the heavens and what is in the earth. Do you have proof for this? Or do you say about God what you do not know?
The Monotheist Group	10:68 They said: "God has taken a son." Be He glorified! He is the Rich. To Him is what is in the heavens and what is in the Earth. Do you have proof for this? Or do you say about God what you do not know?
Muhammad Asad	10:68 [And yet] they assert, "God has taken unto Himself a son!" Limitless is He in His glory! ⁸⁹ Self-sufficient is He: unto Him belongs all that is in the heavens and all that is on earth! No evidence whatever have you for this [assertion]! Would you ascribe unto God something which you cannot know?
Rashad Khalifa	The Gross Blasphemy 10:68 They said, "GOD has begotten a son!" Be He glorified. He is the Most Rich. To Him belongs everything in the heavens and everything on earth. You have no proof to support such a blasphemy. Are you saying about GOD what you do not know?
Shabbir Ahmed	10:68 And yet they assert, "God has taken to Himself a son!" glory to Him! Self-sufficient is He. Unto Him belongs all that is in the heavens and all that is on earth. No evidence whatever you have for this assertion! Would you ascribe to God something you really do not know?
Transliteration	10:68 Qaloo ittakhath a All ah uwaladan sub h anahu huwa alghaniyyu lahu m a fee alssamaw at iwa m a fee al-ar di in AAindakum min sul tan inbi h ath a ata q ooloona AAala All ah i m a la t aAAalamoon a
A	10:68 قالوا اتخذ الله ولدا سبحانه هو الغنى له ما فى السموت وما فى الارض ان عندكم من سلطان بهذا اتقولون على الله ما لا تعلمون
Edip-Layth	10:69 Say, "Those who invent lies about God, they will not be successful."
The Monotheist Group	10:69 Say: "Those who invent lies about God, they will not be successful."
Muhammad Asad	10:69 Say: "Verily, they who attribute their own lying inventions to God will never attain to a happy state!"
Rashad Khalifa	10:69 Proclaim: "Those who fabricate lies about GOD will never succeed."

Shabbir Ahmed	10:69 Say, "Those who attribute their lying inventions to God, will see the crops of their false imagery burning to ashes."
Transliteration	10:69 Qul inna alla the ena yaftaroona AAa la Alla hi alkath iba la yufli ho ona
A	10:69 قل ان الذين يفترون على الله الكذب لا يفلحون
Edip-Layth	Noah 10:70 A short pleasure in this world... Then to Us is their return and We will make them taste the severe retribution for what they were rejecting.
The Monotheist Group	10:70 A short pleasure in this world, then to Us is their return and We will make them taste the severe retribution for what they were rejecting.
Muhammad Asad	10:70 [A brief] enjoyment in this world-and thereafter unto Us they must return: and then We shall let them taste suffering severe as an outcome of their persistent denial of the truth.
Rashad Khalifa	10:70 They get their temporary share in this world, then to us is their ultimate return, then we commit them to severe retribution for their disbelieving.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:70 They get their fleeting share in this world, but then to Us is their return. Our Law of Requital will have them effectively taste a dreadful doom, for they chose to live in the darkness of falsehood.
Transliteration	10:70 MataAAun fee a Iddunya thumma ilayn a marjiAAuhum thumma nu the equhumu alAAa th abaalshshadeeda bima kanoo yakfuroona
A	10:70 متع في الدنيا ثم اليها مرجعهم ثم نذيقهم العذاب الشديد بما كانوا يكفرون
Edip-Layth	10:71 Recite for them the news of Noah as he said to his people: "My people, if my position has become too troublesome for you, and my reminding you of God's signs, then in God I place my trust. So, gather your action and your partners together, then make certain your action does not cause you regret, then come to judge me, and do not hold back."
The Monotheist Group	10:71 And recite to them the news of Noah as he said to his people: "My people, if my position has become too troublesome for you, and my reminding you of God's signs, then in God I place my trust. So gather your evidence and your partners, then make certain your evidence does not become against you, then come to judge me, and do not hold back."
Muhammad Asad	10:71 AND CONVEY unto them the story of Noah-when he said unto his people: "O my people! If my presence [among you] and my announcement of God's messages are repugnant to you ⁹⁰ -well, in God have I placed my trust. Decide, then, upon what you are going to do [against me], ⁹¹ and [call to your aid] those beings to whom you ascribe a share in God's divinity; ⁹² and once you have chosen your course of action, let no hesitation deflect you from it; ⁹³ and then carry out against me [whatever you may have decided], and give me no respite!
Rashad Khalifa	Noah 10:71 Recite for them the history of Noah. He said to his people, "O my people, if you find my position and my reminding you of GOD's revelations too much for you, then I put my trust in GOD. You should get together with your leaders, agree on a final decision among yourselves, then let me know it without delay.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:71 (People have been fabricating falsehood since ancient times.) Relate to them the history of Noah. He said to his people, "O My people! If the stand I have taken and my reminding you of God's revelations are an offense to you, well, I have put my trust in God. So, get together on a decisive plan, you and your partners. Let your course of action be clear to you. Then pass your sentence on me and give me no respite." 28

Transliteration	10:71 Waotlu AAalayhim nabaa noo h qala liqawmihi ya qawmi in kanakabura AAalaykum maq amee wata h keeree bi- ayatiAllahi faAAal a All h hi tawakkaltu faajmiAAooamrakum washurak aakum thumma l a yakun amrukumAAalaykum ghummatan thumma iqdoo ilayya wala tun h irooni
A	10:71 وائل عليهم نبا نوح اذ قال لقومه يقوم ان كان كبر عليكم مقامى وتذكيرى بايت الله فعلى الله توكلت فاجمعوا امركم وشركاءكم ثم لا يكن امركم عليكم غمة ثم اقضوا الى ولا تنظرون
Edip-Layth	10:72 "But if you turn away, then I have not asked you for any reward, for my reward is with God. I have been commanded to be of those who have peacefully surrendered."
The Monotheist Group	10:72 "But if you turn away, then I have not asked you for any reward, for my reward is with God. And I have been commanded to be of those who have submitted."
Muhammad Asad	10:72 But if you turn away [from the message which I bear, remember that] I have asked no reward whatever of you: my reward rests with none but God, for I have been bidden to be among those who have surrendered themselves unto Him."
Rashad Khalifa	10:72 "If you turn away, then I have not asked you for any wage. My wage comes from GOD. I have been commanded to be a submitter."
Shabbir Ahmed	10:72 But if you turn away, I have asked of you no wage. My wage is with none but God. And I am commanded to be of those who submit (to Him)."
Transliteration	10:72 Fa-in tawallaytum fam a saaltukum minajrin in ajriya ill a AAal a All h hi waomirtuan akoona mina almuslimeena
A	10:72 فان توليتم فما سالتكم من اجر ان اجرى الا على الله وامرت ان اكون من المسلمين
Edip-Layth	10:73 They denied him, so We saved him and those with him in the Ship, and We made them to succeed each other, and We drowned those who denied Our signs. So see how the punishment of those who were warned was!
The Monotheist Group	10:73 They denied him, so We saved him and those with him in the Ship, and We made them to succeed each other, and We drowned those who denied Our revelations. So see how was the punishment of those who were warned!
Muhammad Asad	10:73 And yet they gave him the lie! And so We saved him and all who stood by him, in the ark, and made them inherit [the earth], 94 the while We caused those who gave the lie to Our messages to drown: 95 behold, then, what happened in the end to those people who had been warned [in vain]!
Rashad Khalifa	10:73 They rejected him and, consequently, we saved him and those who joined him in the ark; we made them the inheritors. And we drowned those who rejected our revelations. Note the consequences; they have been warned.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:73 But, they persisted in their denial, and We saved Noah and his companions who boarded the ship, and made them successors in the land. (The deniers thought of the flood warning as a laughing matter. The Tigris and the Euphrates rivers flooded with torrential rains) and We drowned those who had rejected Our messages. See then what happened to those who had been given sufficient warning.

Transliteration	10:73 Fakaththaboohu fanajjaynaghuwaman maAAahu fee alfulki wajaAAaln aghum khala-ifawaaghraqa alla theena ka ththaboo bi- ayatinafaonthur kayfa k ana AAaqibatualmunthareena
A	10:73 فكذبوه فنجينه ومن معه فى الفلك وجعلتهم خلف واغرقنا الذين كذبوا بايتنا فانظر كيف كان عقبة المنزيرين
Edip-Layth	Moses and Aaron Against A Racist Tyrant 10:74 Then, We sent messengers after him to their own people, so they came to them with proofs. But they did not want to acknowledge what they had already denied beforehand. It is such that We stamp on the hearts of the transgressors.
The Monotheist Group	10:74 Then, after him, We sent messengers to their own people, so they came to them with proofs. But they did not want to believe in what they had already denied beforehand. It is such that We stamp on the hearts of the transgressors.
Muhammad Asad	10:74 AND THEN, after him, We sent forth [other] apostles-each one unto his own people ⁹⁶ -and they brought them all evidence of the truth; but they would not believe in anything to which they had once given the lie: ⁹⁷ thus it is that We seal the hearts of such as [are wont to] transgress the bounds of what is right. ⁹⁸
Rashad Khalifa	Humans Insist on Their Original Sin 10:74 Then we sent after him messengers to their people, and they showed them clear proofs. But they were not to believe in what they had rejected in the past. We thus seal the hearts of the transgressors.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:74 Then after him We sent many messengers to their respective people and they brought them clear evidence of the truth. (They preemptively rejected the message.) And they were not the kind of people who would choose to believe what they had denied before. Thus We (through Our laws) seal the hearts of the transgressors. ²⁹
Transliteration	10:74 Thumma baAAathn a min baAAadihi rusulanil a qawmihim faj aghum bialbayyinatifa k anoo liyu/minoo bim a ka ththaboobihi min qablu ka thalika natbaAAu AAalaquloobi almuAAatadeena
A	10:74 ثم بعثنا من بعده رسلا الى قومهم فجاءوهم بالبينت فما كانوا ليؤمنوا بما كذبوا به من قبل كذلك نطبع على قلوب المعتدين
Edip-Layth	10:75 Then, We sent Moses and Aaron after them with Our signs to Pharaoh and his leaders, but they turned arrogant, they were a criminal people.
The Monotheist Group	10:75 Then, after them, We sent Moses and Aaron with Our signs to Pharaoh and his leaders, but they turned arrogant, they were a criminal people.
Muhammad Asad	10:75 And after those [earlier prophets] We sent Moses and Aaron with Our messages unto Pharaoh and his great ones: but they gloried in their arrogance, for they were people lost in sin.
Rashad Khalifa	Moses and Aaron 10:75 Then we sent after them Moses and Aaron to Pharaoh and his group, with our proofs. But they turned arrogant; and were transgressing people.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:75 Then, after them, We sent Moses and Aaron to Pharaoh and his chiefs, with Our messages. But they were a people arrogant and they were used to thriving on the fruit of others' toil.
Transliteration	10:75 Thumma baAAathn a min baAAadihim moos awaharoona il a firAAawna wamala-ih bi-ayatinafaistakbaroo wakanoo qawman mujrimeena

A	10:75 ثم بعثنا من بعدهم موسى وهرون الى فرعون وملايه بايتنا فاستكبروا وكانوا قوما مجرمين
Edip-Layth	10:76 So when the truth came to them from Us, they said, "This is clearly magic!"
The Monotheist Group	10:76 So when the truth came to them from Us, they said: "This is clearly magic!"
Muhammad Asad	10:76 And so, when the truth came to them from Us, they said, "Behold, this is clearly nothing but sorcery!" ⁹⁹
Rashad Khalifa	10:76 When the truth came to them from us, they said, "This is obviously magic!"
Shabbir Ahmed	10:76 When the truth from Us came to them, they said, "This is clearly nothing but magic."
Transliteration	10:76 Famma j aahumu al haqqumin AAindin a q aloo inna h atha lasihrunmubeenun
A	10:76 فلما جاءهم الحق من عندنا قالوا ان هذا لسحر مبين
Edip-Layth	10:77 Moses said, "Would you say this about the truth when it came to you? Is this magic? The magicians will not be successful."
The Monotheist Group	10:77 Moses said: "Would you say this about the truth when it came to you? Is this magic? The magicians will not be successful."
Muhammad Asad	10:77 Said Moses: "Do you speak thus of the truth after it has been brought to you? Can this be sorcery? But sorcerers can never come to a happy end!" ¹⁰⁰
Rashad Khalifa	10:77 Moses said, "Is this how you describe the truth when it comes to you? Is this magic? How can any magicians prevail?"
Shabbir Ahmed	10:77 Moses said, "Is this what you say about the truth when it has come to you! Is this magic? Those who deceive people with lies and claims of magic, never prosper."
Transliteration	10:77 Qala moosa ataqooloona lil haqqilamma jaakum asihrun h atha wal ayuflihu alssahiroona
A	10:77 قال موسى اتقولون للحق لما جاءكم اسحر هذا ولا يفلح السحرون
Edip-Layth	10:78 They said, "Have you come to us to turn us away from what we found our fathers upon, and so that you two would have greatness in the land? We will not acknowledge you."
The Monotheist Group	10:78 They said: "Have you come to us to turn us away from that which we found our fathers upon, and so that you two would have greatness in the land? We will not believe in you."
Muhammad Asad	10:78 [The great ones] replied: "Hast thou come to turn us away from what we found our forefathers believing in and doing, so that the two of you might become supreme in this land? However, we do not believe in you two!" ¹⁰¹
Rashad Khalifa	10:78 They said, "Did you come to divert us from what we found our parents doing, and to attain positions of prominence for yourselves? We will never join you as believers."

Shabbir Ahmed	10:78 They said, "Have you come to turn us away from our ancestral ways, so that you two become prominent in the country? However, we will not believe in you two."
Transliteration	10:78 Qaloo aji/tan a litalfitan aAAamma wajadn a AAalayhi abaanaawatakoona lakuma al-kibriya fee al-arḍi wamaṇaḥnu lakuma bimu/mineena
A	10:78 قالوا اجئنا لتلفتنا عما وجدنا عليه اباؤنا وتكون لكما الكبرياء فى الارض وما نحن لكما بمومنين
Edip-Layth	10:79 Pharaoh said, "Bring me every knowledgeable magician."
The Monotheist Group	10:79 And Pharaoh said: "Bring me every knowledgeable magician."
Muhammad Asad	10:79 And Pharaoh commanded: "Bring before me every sorcerer of great knowledge!"
Rashad Khalifa	The Truth Prevails 10:79 Pharaoh said, "Bring to me every experienced magician."
Shabbir Ahmed	10:79 Pharaoh said, "Bring all eloquent debaters to me."
Transliteration	10:79 Waqala firAAawnu i/toonee bikulli saḥirinAAaleemin
A	10:79 وقال فرعون انتونى بكل سحر عليم
Edip-Layth	10:80 When the magicians came, Moses said to them: "Cast what you will cast."
The Monotheist Group	10:80 So, when the magicians came, Moses said to them: "Cast what you will cast."
Muhammad Asad	10:80 And when the sorcerers came, Moses said unto them: "Throw whatever you may [wish to] throw!"
Rashad Khalifa	10:80 When the magicians came, Moses said to them, "Throw whatever you are going to throw."
Shabbir Ahmed	10:80 And when they came, Moses said to them, "Begin with your presentation."
Transliteration	10:80 Falamma jaa alssaharatuqala lahum moosa alqoo ma antum mulqoon a
A	10:80 فلما جاء السحرة قال لهم موسى القوا ما انتم ملقون
Edip-Layth	10:81 So when they cast, Moses said, "What you have brought is magic, God will falsify it. God does not set right the work of the corrupters." ⁹
The Monotheist Group	10:81 So when they cast, Moses said: "What you have brought is magic, God will disable it. God does not set right the work of the corrupters."
Muhammad Asad	10:81 And when they threw down [their staffs and cast a spell upon the people's eyes ¹⁰²], Moses said unto them: "What you have contrived is [but] sorcery which, verily, God will bring to nought! Verily, God does not further the works of spreaders of corruption -
Rashad Khalifa	10:81 When they threw, Moses said, "What you have produced is magic, and GOD will make it fail. GOD does not support the transgressors' work."
Shabbir Ahmed	10:81 When they finished with their arguments, Moses said, "Your reasoning is totally flawed. God proves it false through His laws. Certainly, God will annihilate the political and social systems that promote corruption, disorder and bloody feuds.

Transliteration	10:81 Falamma alqaw qala moosama ji/tum bihi a Issihru inna Allahasayubtiluhu inna Allaha la yuslihuAAamala almufsideena
A	10:81 فلما القوا قال موسى ما جئتم به السحر ان الله سيبيطله ان الله لا يصلح عمل المفسدين
Edip-Layth	10:82 "So that God will verify the truth with His words, even if the criminals dislike it."
The Monotheist Group	10:82 "And so that God will set the truth with His words, even if the criminals hate it."
Muhammad Asad	10:82 whereas by His words God proves the truth to be true, ¹⁰³ however hateful this may be to those who are lost in sin!"
Rashad Khalifa	10:82 GOD establishes the truth with His words, despite the criminals.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:82 God will always vindicate the truth by His laws, even though the guilty may hate it. ³⁰
Transliteration	10:82 Wayu hiqqu Allahu alhaqqabikalimatihi walaw kariha almujrimuma
A	10:82 ويحق الله الحق بكلمته ولو كره المجرمون
Edip-Layth	10:83 Because of their fear from Pharaoh and his leaders that he would persecute them, none acknowledged Moses from his people except some of their descendants. Pharaoh was high in the land, and he was of the tyrants. ¹⁰
The Monotheist Group	10:83 But none believed in Moses from his people except some from their descendants, because of their fear from Pharaoh and his leaders that he would persecute them. Pharaoh was high in the land, and he was of the tyrants.
Muhammad Asad	10:83 But none save a few of his people declared their faith in Moses, ¹⁰⁴ [while others held back] for fear of Pharaoh and their great ones, lest they persecute them: ¹⁰⁵ for, verily, Pharaoh was mighty on earth and was, verily, of those who are given to excesses.
Rashad Khalifa	10:83 None believed with Moses except a few of his people, while fearing the tyranny of Pharaoh and his elders. Surely, Pharaoh was much too arrogant on earth, and a real tyrant.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:83 Only a few of the Egyptians, some youngsters, could proclaim belief in Moses because of the fear of Pharaoh and his chiefs. Pharaoh was a great tyrant on earth. He used to exceed the limits.
Transliteration	10:83 Fama amana limoos a ill athurriyyatun min qawmihi AAal a khawfin minfirAAawna wamala-ihim an yaftinahum wa-inna firAAawna laAA alinfee al-arḍi wa-innahu lamina almusrifeena
A	10:83 فما ءامن لموسى الا ذرية من قومه على خوف من فرعون وملايهيم ان يفتنهم وان فرعون لعال في الارض وانه لمن المسرفين
Edip-Layth	10:84 Moses said, "O my people, if you acknowledge God, then put your trust in Him if you have peacefully surrendered."
The Monotheist Group	10:84 And Moses said: "O my people, if you believe in God, then put your trust in Him if you have submitted."
Muhammad Asad	10:84 And Moses said: "O my people! If you believe in God, place your trust in Him -if you have [truly] surrendered yourselves unto Him!"

Rashad Khalifa	10:84 Moses said, "O my people, if you have really believed in GOD, then put your trust in Him, if you are really submitters."
Shabbir Ahmed	10:84 Moses said, "O My people! If you do believe in God, then place your trust in Him - if you have truly surrendered to Him."
Transliteration	10:84 Waqala moos a y a qawmiin kuntum amantum bi Allahi faAAalayhitawakkaloo in kuntum muslimeena
A	10:84 وقال موسى يقوم ان كنتم ءامنتم بالله فعليه توكلوا ان كنتم مسلمين
Edip-Layth	10:85 They said, "In God we put our trust. Our Lord, do not make us a test for the wicked people."
The Monotheist Group	10:85 They said: "In God we put our trust. Our Lord, do not make us a test for the wicked people."
Muhammad Asad	10:85 Whereupon they answered: "In God have we placed our trust! O our Sustainer, make us not a plaything ¹⁰⁶ for evildoing folk,
Rashad Khalifa	10:85 They said, "We trust in GOD. Our Lord, save us from the persecution of these oppressive people."
Shabbir Ahmed	10:85 They responded, "In God we trust. Our Lord! Make us not a temptation for the oppressors."
Transliteration	10:85 Faqaloo AAal a All a hitawakkalna rabban a l a tajAAaln a fitnatan lilqawmi alththalimeena
A	10:85 فقالوا على الله توكلنا ربنا لا تجعلنا فتنة للقوم الظالمين
Edip-Layth	10:86 "Save us by Your mercy from the rejecting people."
The Monotheist Group	10:86 "And save us by Your mercy from the rejecting people."
Muhammad Asad	10:86 and save us, by Thy grace, from people who deny the truth!"
Rashad Khalifa	10:86 "Deliver us, with Your mercy, from the disbelieving people."
Shabbir Ahmed	10:86 "Save us by Your grace from people who oppose the truth."
Transliteration	10:86 Wanajjina bira hmatika minaalqawmi alka fireena
A	10:86 ونجنا برحمتك من القوم الكافرين
Edip-Layth	10:87 We inspired to Moses and his brother: "Let your people leave their homes in Egypt, and let these homes be your focal point and hold the contact prayer. Give good news to those who acknowledge."
The Monotheist Group	10:87 And We inspired to Moses and his brother: "Let your people leave their homes in Egypt, and let these homes be your focal point, and hold the communion. And give good news to the believers."
Muhammad Asad	10:87 And [thus] did We inspire Moses and his brother: "Set aside for your people some houses in the city, and [tell them], 'Turn your houses into places of worship, ¹⁰⁷ and be constant in prayer!' And give thou [O Moses] the glad tiding [of God's succour] to all believers."
Rashad Khalifa	10:87 We inspired Moses and his brother. "Maintain your homes in Egypt for the time being, turn your homes into synagogues, and maintain the Contact Prayers (Salat). Give good news to the believers."

Shabbir Ahmed	10:87 We commanded Moses and his brother, "Maintain your homes in Egypt, and turn them into places of worship to remember God. Establish the commandments in your lives and give good news to the believers."
Transliteration	10:87 Waawhayna il a moos awaakheehi an tabawwa a liqawmikum a bimisrabuyootan wa ijAAaloo buyootakum qiblatan waaqeenoo alssalatawabashshiri almu/mineena
A	10:87 واوحينا الى موسى واخيه ان تبوءا لقومكما بمصر بيوتا واجعلوا بيوتكم قبلة واقيموا الصلوة وبشر المؤمنين
Edip-Layth	10:88 Moses said, "Our Lord, you have given Pharaoh and his chiefs adornments and wealth in this worldly life so that they will misguide from Your path. Our Lord, wipe-out their wealth and bring grief to their hearts so that they will not acknowledge until they see the painful retribution." ¹¹
The Monotheist Group	10:88 And Moses said: "Our Lord, you have given Pharaoh and his commanders adornments and wealth in this worldly life so that they will misguide from Your path. Our Lord, wipe-out their wealth and bring grief to their hearts; for they will not believe until they see the painful retribution."
Muhammad Asad	10:88 And Moses prayed: "O our Sustainer! Verily, splendour and riches hast Thou vouchsafed, in the life of this world, unto Pharaoh and his great ones-with the result, O our Sustainer, that they are leading [others] astray from Thy path! ¹⁰⁸ O our Sustainer! Wipe out their riches, and harden their hearts, so that they may not attain to faith ere they see the grievous suffering [that awaits them]!"
Rashad Khalifa	10:88 Moses said, "Our Lord, you have given Pharaoh and his elders luxuries and wealth in this world. Our Lord, they only use them to repulse others from Your path. Our Lord, wipe out their wealth, and harden their hearts to prevent them from believing, until they see the painful retribution."
Shabbir Ahmed	10:88 (Moses promised to proceed on these lines.) He prayed, "Our Lord! You have given Pharaoh and his chiefs a life of luxury and abundance. Our Lord! With their resources and might they continue with their oppression and lead people astray from Your path. Our Lord! Destroy their riches and make their faculties incapable of contriving their oppressive designs. They will not see the truth unless they face an awful suffering."
Transliteration	10:88 Waqala moos a rabban innaka atayta firAAawna wamalaahu zeenatan waamwalanfee alhayati alddunya rabbanaliyudilloo AAan sabeelika rabban a iimis AAalaamwalihim wa oshdud AAal a quloobihim fal ayu/minoo hatta yarawoo alAAathaba al-aleema
A	10:88 وقال موسى ربنا انك ااتيت فرعون وملاه زينة وامولا فى الحياة الدنيا ربنا ليضلوا عن سبيلك ربنا اطمس على امولهم واشدد على قلوبهم فلا يؤمنوا حتى يروا العذاب الاليم
Edip-Layth	10:89 He said, "The prayer of both of you has been accepted, so keep straight and do not follow the path of those who do not know."
The Monotheist Group	10:89 He said: "I have answered your call, so keep straight and do not follow the path of those who do not know."
Muhammad Asad	10:89 [God] answered: "Accepted is this your prayer! ¹⁰⁹ Continue, then, both of you, steadfastly on the right way, and follow not the path of those who have no knowledge [of right and wrong]."
	10:89 He said, "Your prayer has been answered (O Moses and Aaron), so be

Rashad Khalifa	steadfast, and do not follow the ways of those who do not know."
Shabbir Ahmed	10:89 God said, "Your prayer is heard. Both of you shall remain determined. And you shall not follow the track of those who act without comprehending." 31
Transliteration	10:89 Qala qad ojeebat daAAawatukum afaistaqeema wal a tattabiAA annisabeela allatheena la yaAAalamoona
A	10:89 قال قد اجيبت دعوتكما فاستقيما ولا تتبعان سبيل الذين لا يعلمون
Edip-Layth	10:90 We helped the Children of Israel cross the sea, and Pharaoh and his soldiers followed them out of hatred and animosity. But when drowning overtook him, he said, "I acknowledge that there is no god except the One in whom the Children of Israel acknowledge, and I am of those who have peacefully surrendered."
The Monotheist Group	10:90 And We helped the Children of Israel cross the sea, and Pharaoh and his soldiers followed them out of hatred and animosity. But when he was certain to drown, he said: "I believe that there is no god except the One in whom the Children of Israel believe, and I am of those who have submitted."
Muhammad Asad	10:90 And We brought the children of Israel across the sea; and thereupon Pharaoh and his hosts pursued them with vehement insolence and tyranny, until [they were overwhelmed by the waters of the sea. And] when he was about to drown, [Pharaoh] exclaimed: 110 "I have come to believe that there is no deity save Him in whom the children of Israel believe, and I am of those who surrender themselves unto Him!"
Rashad Khalifa	10:90 We delivered the Children of Israel across the sea. Pharaoh and his troops pursued them, aggressively and sinfully. When drowning became a reality for him, he said, "I believe that there is no god except the One in whom the Children of Israel have believed; I am a submitter."
Shabbir Ahmed	10:90 We brought the Children of Israel across the sea, and Pharaoh with his armies pursued them in rage and bitter enmity. When Pharaoh was drowning, he cried out, "I believe that there is no god but the One in whom the Children of Israel believe, and I am of those who surrender."
Transliteration	10:90 Wajawazna bibanee isr a-eelaalbahra faatbaAAahum firAAawnu wajunooduhu baghyanwaAAadwan hatta i tha adrakahu algharaqu q alaamantu annahu la ilaha illa allatheeamanat bihi banoo isra-eela waana minaalmuslimeena
A	10:90 وجوزنا بني اسرائيل البحر فاتبعهم فرعون وجنوده بغيا وعدوا حتى اذا ادركه الغرق قال ءامنت انه لا اله الا الذي ءامنت به بنوا اسرائيل وانا من المسلمين
Edip-Layth	10:91 Right now? But before you disobeyed and were of the corrupters!
The Monotheist Group	10:91 Now you say this?, while before you disobeyed and were of the corrupters!
Muhammad Asad	10:91 [But God said:] "Now? 111 -when ever before this thou hast been rebelling [against Us], and hast been among those who spread corruption?"
Rashad Khalifa	10:91 "Too late! For you have rebelled already, and chose to be a transgressor.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:91 What? Now! You rebelled ardently all your life. You committed bloody crimes on earth.
Transliteration	10:91 Al-ana waqad AAasaytaqablu wakunta mina almufsideena
A	10:91 ءالن وقد عصيت قبل وكنت من المفسدين

Edip-Layth	10:92 This day, We will preserve your body, so that you become a sign for those after you. But many people are oblivious to Our signs! ¹²
The Monotheist Group	10:92 This day, We will preserve your body, so that you become a sign for those after you. But most of the people are unaware of Our signs!
Muhammad Asad	10:92 [Nay,] but today We shall save only thy body, ¹¹² so that thou mayest be a [warning] sign unto those who will come after thee: for, behold, a good many people are heedless of Our messages!"
Rashad Khalifa	Pharaoh's Body Preserved 10:92 "Today, we will preserve your body, to set you up as a lesson for future generations." Unfortunately, many people are totally oblivious to our signs. ⁷
Shabbir Ahmed	10:92 Nay, but this day We will only preserve your body so that you may remain a lesson for generations to come. A great many of mankind remain heedless of Our signs. ³²
Transliteration	10:92 Faalyawma nunajjeeka bibadanikalitakoona liman khalfaka ayatan wa-inna katheeran mina alInnaasiAAan ayatina lagha ⁷ filoona
A	10:92 فالיום ننجيك ببدنك لتكون لمن خلفك آية وان كثيرا من الناس عن آياتنا لغفلون
Edip-Layth	10:93 We helped the Children of Israel reach a place of sanctity, and We provided them from the good things, and they did not differ until the knowledge came to them. Your Lord will judge between them on the day of Resurrection for what they differed in.
The Monotheist Group	10:93 And We helped the Children of Israel reach a place of sanctity, and We provided them from the good things, and they did not differ until the knowledge came to them. Your Lord will judge between them on the Day of Resurrection for what they differed in.
Muhammad Asad	10:93 And [thereafter], indeed, We assigned unto the children of Israel a most goodly abode, ¹¹⁴ and provided for them sustenance out of the good things of life. And it was not until knowledge [of God's revelation] was vouchsafed to them that they began to hold divergent views: [but,] verily, thy Sustainer will judge between them on Resurrection Day regarding all on which they were wont to differ.
Rashad Khalifa	10:93 We have endowed the Children of Israel with a position of honor, and blessed them with good provisions. Yet, they disputed when this knowledge came to them. Your Lord will judge them on the Day of Resurrection regarding everything they disputed.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:93 Thereafter, We assigned to the Children of Israel an honorable dwelling place, and gave them decent provision. But they began to hold divergent views and divided themselves despite the knowledge (of revelation). Your Lord will judge between them on the Day of Resurrection regarding wherein they differed.
Transliteration	10:93 Walaqad bawwa/na banee isra-eelamubawwaa sidqin warazaqna ⁷ hum mina al ⁷ tayyibat ⁷ ifatama ikhtalafoo hatta j ⁷ aahumualAAilmu inna rabbaka yaq ⁷ dee baynahum yawma alqiya ⁷ matifeema ⁷ kanoo feehi yakhtalifoona
A	10:93 ولقد بوانا بنى اسرائيل مبوا صدق ورزقتهم من الطيبات فما اختلفوا حتى جاءهم العلم ان ربك يقضى بينهم يوم القيمة فيما كانوا فيه يختلفون
When In Doubt, Question and Study

Edip-Layth	10:94 If you are in doubt regarding what We have sent down to you, then ask those who have been studying the book from before you. The truth has come to you from your Lord, so do not be of those who doubt.
The Monotheist Group	10:94 If you are in doubt regarding what We have sent down to you, then ask those who have been reading the Scripture from before you. The truth has come to you from your Lord, so do not be of those who doubt.
Muhammad Asad	10:94 AND SO, [O man,] if thou art in doubt about [the truth of] what We have [now] bestowed upon thee from on high, 115 ask those who read the divine writ [revealed] before thy time: 116 [and thou wilt find that,] surely, the truth has now come unto thee from thy Sustainer. Be not, then, among the doubters -
Rashad Khalifa	The Messenger's Doubt 10:94 If you have any doubt regarding what is revealed to you from your Lord, then ask those who read the previous scripture. Indeed, the truth has come to you from your Lord. Do not be with the doubters.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:94 (O Prophet!), If you ever think whether the revelation We send to you could be an inspiration from your heart, ask the angels who bring it. They read it before you read it. Indeed, the truth has come to you from your Lord. Be not of those who waver.
Transliteration	10:94 Fa-in kunta fee shakkin mimm a anzalnn ailayka fa is-ali alla theena yaqraoona alkit ab amin qablika laqad j a aka al ha qu min rabbika fal at akoonanna mina almumtareena
A	10:94 فان كنت فى شك مما انزلنا اليك فسل الذين يقرءون الكتب من قبلك لقد جاءك الحق من ربك فلا تكونن من الممترين
Edip-Layth	10:95 Do not be of those who denied God's signs, for you will be of the losers.
The Monotheist Group	10:95 And do not be of those who denied God's revelations, for you will be of the losers.
Muhammad Asad	10:95 and neither be among those who are bent on giving the lie to God's messages, lest thou find thyself among the lost.
Rashad Khalifa	10:95 Nor shall you join those who rejected GOD's revelations, lest you be with the losers.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:95 (Those who consider Divine revelations as intrinsic inspiration, in fact deny them.) Be not of those who deny Our revelations and become losers.
Transliteration	10:95 Wala t akoonanna mina alla theen a kath thaboo bi- ay ati All ah i fatakoonamina alkh as ireena
A	10:95 ولا تكونن من الذين كذبوا بايت الله فتكون من الخسرين
Edip-Layth	10:96 Those who have deserved your Lord's retribution do not acknowledge,
The Monotheist Group	10:96 Those who have deserved your Lord's retribution do not believe.
Muhammad Asad	10:96 Verily, they against whom thy Sustainer's word [of judgment] has come true 117 will not attain to faith -
Rashad Khalifa	10:96 Surely, those condemned by a decree from your Lord cannot believe.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:96 Surely, those against whom the Word of your Lord has been verified, would not believe. 33

Transliteration	10:96 Inna allath ^u ena haqqatAAalayhim kalimatu rabbika la yu/minoona
A	10:96 ان الذين حقت عليهم كلمت ربك لا يؤمنون
Edip-Layth	10:97 Even if every sign were to come to them; until they see the painful retribution.
The Monotheist Group	10:97 Even if every sign were to come to them; until they see the painful retribution.
Muhammad Asad	10:97 even though every sign [of the truth] should come within their ken - until they behold the grievous suffering [that awaits them in the life to come]. ¹¹⁸
Rashad Khalifa	10:97 No matter what kind of proof you show them, (they cannot believe), until they see the painful retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:97 Though every evidence may come to them, until they see the painful doom.
Transliteration	10:97 Walaw jaat-hum kullu ayatin hattayarawoo alAAathaba al-aleema
A	10:97 ولو جاءتهم كل آية حتى يروا العذاب الاليم
Edip-Layth	Appreciation of God's Signs and Blessings Brings Prosperity 10:98 Why was there not a single town that benefited from its acknowledgement, with the exception of the people of Jonah? When they acknowledged, We removed from them the retribution of disgrace in this worldly life, and We let them enjoy until a time.
The Monotheist Group	10:98 If there was any town that benefited from its belief, then that would be the people of Jonah. When they believed, We removed from them the retribution of disgrace in this worldly life, and We let them enjoy until a time.
Muhammad Asad	10:98 For, alas, ¹¹⁹ there has never yet been any community that attained to faith [in its entirety,] and thereupon benefited by its faith, except the people of Jonah. ¹²⁰ When they came to believe, We removed from them the suffering of disgrace [which otherwise would have befallen them even] in the life of this world, and allowed them to enjoy their life during the time allotted to them. ¹²¹
Rashad Khalifa	Believing Nations Prosper 10:98 Any community that believes will surely be rewarded for believing. For example, the people of Jonah: when they believed, we relieved the humiliating retribution they had been suffering in this world, and we made them prosperous.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:98 Alas, there has never yet been any community that attained belief, and benefited by its belief, except the people of Jonah. When they embraced belief, We removed from them the suffering of disgrace, and let them enjoy their term. (37:147-148). ³⁴
Transliteration	10:98 Falawl ^a kanat qaryatun amanatfanafaAAaha eemanu ^h a ill ^a qawmayoonusa lamma amanoo kashafn ^a AA ^a anhum AA ^a thabaalkhizyi fee al hayati alddunya ^w amattaAA ^a n ^h um il ^a heenin
A	10:98 فلولا كانت قرية ءامنت فنفعها ايمنها الا قوم يونس لما ءامنوا كشفنا عنهم عذاب الخزي فى الحياة الدنيا ومتعنهم الى حين
Edip-Layth	10:99 Had your Lord willed, all the people on earth in their entirety would have acknowledged. Would you force the people to make them acknowledge? ¹³

The Monotheist Group	10:99 And had your Lord willed, all the people on Earth in their entirety would have believed. Would you force the people to make them believe?
Muhammad Asad	10:99 And [thus it is:] had thy Sustainer so willed, all those who live on earth would surely have attained to faith, all of them: 122 dost thou, then, think that thou couldst compel people to believe,
Rashad Khalifa	10:99 Had your Lord willed, all the people on earth would have believed. Do you want to force the people to become believers?
Shabbir Ahmed	10:99 If your Lord willed, all who are on earth, would have believed. Would you then, compel people to become believers? 35
Transliteration	10:99 Walaw shaa rabbuka laaamana manfee al-ardi kulluhum jameeAAan afaanta tukrihu alnnasahatta yagoonoo mu/mineen a
A	10:99 ولو شاء ربك لءامن من فى الارض كلهم جميعا افانت تكره الناس حتى يكونوا مؤمنين
Edip-Layth	10:100 It is not for a person to acknowledge except by God's leave. He casts the affliction upon those who do not reason.
The Monotheist Group	10:100 And it is not for a soul to believe except by God's leave. And He makes the affliction upon those who do not comprehend.
Muhammad Asad	10:100 notwithstanding that no human being can ever attain to faith otherwise than by God's leave, 123 and [that] it is He who lays the loathsome evil [of disbelief] upon those who will not use -their reason? 124
Rashad Khalifa	The Disbelievers Blocked Out 10:100 No soul can believe except in accordance with GOD's will. For He places a curse upon those who refuse to understand.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:100 No person can attain conviction except by the law of God. And He places confusion in the minds of those who do not use their intellect. 36
Transliteration	10:100 Wama kana linafsin an tu/minailla bi-ithni Allahi wayajAAalu a IrrijsaAAala allatheena la yaAAqiloon a
A	10:100 وما كان لنفس ان تؤمن الا باذن الله ويجعل الرجس على الذين لا يعقلون
Edip-Layth	10:101 Say, "Look at all that is in the heavens and the earth." But what good are the signs and warnings to a people who do not acknowledge?
The Monotheist Group	10:101 Say: "Look at all that is in the heavens and the Earth." But what good are the signs and warnings to a people who do not believe?
Muhammad Asad	10:101 Say: "Consider whatever there is in the heavens and on earth!" But of what avail could all the messages and all the warnings be to people who will not believe?
Rashad Khalifa	10:101 Say, "Look at all the signs in the heavens and the earth." All the proofs and all the warnings can never help people who decided to disbelieve.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:101 Say, "Look and ponder what is in the heavens and earth! No miracles and no warnings will help those people who have chosen to disbelieve. 37
Transliteration	10:101 Quli on thuroo m athafee a lssamawati wa al-ardi wam atughnee al- ayatu waalnnuthuru AAanqawmin la yu/minoon a

A	10:101 قل انظروا ماذا فى السموت والارض وما تغنى الءايت والنذر عن قوم لا يؤمنون
Edip-Layth	10:102 Are they waiting for the days like those who passed away before them? Say, "Wait, for I am with you waiting."
The Monotheist Group	10:102 Are they waiting for the days like those who passed away before them? Say: "Wait, for I am with you waiting."
Muhammad Asad	10:102 Can such, then, expect anything else [to befall them] but the like of the days of [calamity which befell] those [deniers of the truth] who passed away before them? Say: "Wait, then, [for what will happen] verily, I shall wait with you!"
Rashad Khalifa	10:102 Can they expect other than the fate of their counterparts in the past? Say, "Just wait, and, along with you, I am also waiting."
Shabbir Ahmed	10:102 Can they expect other than the days of calamity that befell those who passed on before them? Say, "Wait then! I shall wait with you."
Transliteration	10:102 Fahal yanta thi roona illa m ithla ayya m i alla th eena khalaw min qablihim qul fainta thi rooinnee maAAakum mina almunta thi reena
A	10:102 فهل ينتظرون الا مثل ايام الذين خلوا من قبلهم قل فانتظروا انى معكم من المنتظرين
Edip-Layth	Put Your Full Trust In God 10:103 Then We will save Our messengers and those who acknowledge. It is thus binding upon Us that We save those who acknowledge.
The Monotheist Group	10:103 Then We will save Our messengers and those who believe. It is thus binding upon Us that We save the believers.
Muhammad Asad	10:103 [For thus it always happens: We seal the doom of all who deny the truth and give the lie to Our messages;] and thereupon We save Our apostles and those who have attained to faith. ¹²⁵ Thus have We willed it upon Ourselves: We save all who believe [in Us], ¹²⁶
Rashad Khalifa	Guaranteed Victory 10:103 We ultimately save our messengers and those who believe. It is our immutable law that we save the believers.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:103 We ultimately save Our messengers and those who believe. It is incumbent upon Us to save the believers.
Transliteration	10:103 Thumma nunajjee rusulan a wa alla th eena a m anoo ka th alika haqqan AAalayna n unjee almu/mineena
A	10:103 ثم ننجى رسلنا والذين ءامنوا كذلك حقا علينا ننج المؤمنين
Edip-Layth	10:104 Say, "O people, if you are in doubt of my system, then I do not serve those that you serve besides God. But I serve God who terminates you, and I have been commanded to be of those who acknowledge."
The Monotheist Group	10:104 Say: "O people, if you are in doubt of my system, then I do not serve those that you serve besides God. But I serve God; the One who will terminate your lives; and I have been commanded to be of the believers."
Muhammad Asad	10:104 SAY [O Prophet]: "O mankind! If you are in doubt as to what my faith is, then [know that] I do not worship those beings whom you worship beside God, ¹²⁷ but [that] I worship God alone, who shall cause you [all] to die: ¹²⁸ for I have been bidden to be among those who believe [in Him alone]."

Rashad Khalifa	10:104 Say, "O people, if you have any doubt regarding my religion, I do not worship what you worship beside GOD. I worship GOD alone; the One who will terminate your lives. I am commanded to be a believer."
Shabbir Ahmed	10:104 Say, "O Mankind! If you are in doubt about my religion, I do not worship and do not obey those whom you worship and obey instead of God. But I obey God Who causes you to die (and Who controls the laws of life and death of individuals and nations). I have been commanded to be of the believers." 38
Transliteration	10:104 Qul ya ayyuha aInna ^s u ⁱ n kuntum fee shakkin min deene ^e fal a aAAbudu alla ^t heenataAAbudoona min dooni All ahi wal akin aAAbudu All ahaalla ^t hee yatawaffa ^k um waomirtu an akoona minaalmu/mineen a
A	10:104 قل يا ايها الناس ان كنتم في شك من ديني فلا اعبد الذين تعبدون من دون الله ولكن اعبد الله الذي يتوفكم وامرت ان اكون من المؤمنين
Edip-Layth	10:105 Set your direction to the system of monotheism, and do not be of those who set up partners.
The Monotheist Group	10:105 And set your direction to the system of monotheism, and do not be of those who set up partners.
Muhammad Asad	10:105 Hence, [O man,] set thy face steadfastly towards the [true] faith, turning away from all that is false, 129 and be not among those who ascribe divinity to aught beside God.
Rashad Khalifa	10:105 I was commanded: "Keep yourself devoted to the religion of monotheism; you shall not practice idol worship.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:105 (O Prophet!) Set your purpose resolutely for the Upright System of life and do not be of those who associate anyone with God in any form.
Transliteration	10:105 Waan aqim wajhaka li Iddeeni haneefanwala takoonanna mina almushrikeena
A	10:105 وان اقم وجهك للدين حنيفا ولا تكونن من المشركين
Edip-Layth	10:106 Do not call upon other than God what does not benefit you or harm you; if you do, then you are of the wicked.
The Monotheist Group	10:106 And do not call upon other than God what does not benefit you or harm you; if you do, then you are of the wicked.
Muhammad Asad	10:106 Thus, do not invoke, side by side with God, anything that can neither benefit thee nor harm thee: for, behold, if thou do it, thou wilt surely be among the evildoers!
Rashad Khalifa	10:106 "You shall not worship beside GOD what possesses no power to benefit you or harm you. If you do, you will be a transgressor."
Shabbir Ahmed	10:106 Do not ever call on deities besides God. They have no control over your harm or benefit. If you expected help outside the laws of God, you will be among the wrongdoers.
Transliteration	10:106 Wala tadAAu min dooni All ahi ^m a l a yanfaAAuka wal a ya durruka fa- infaAAalta fa-innaka ithan mina al ^t h ^t halimeena
A	10:106 ولا تدع من دون الله ما لا ينفعك ولا يضرك فان فعلت فانك اذا من الظالمين
	10:107 If God afflicts you with any harm, then none can remove it except Him;

Edip-Layth	and if He wanted good for you, then none can turn away His grace. He bestows it to whom He wishes of His servants. He is the Forgiver, the Compassionate.
The Monotheist Group	10:107 And if God afflicts you with any harm, then none can remove it except Him; and if He wanted good for you, then none can turn away His grace, He brings it to whom He wishes of His servants. And He is the Forgiver, the Merciful.
Muhammad Asad	10:107 And [know that] if God should touch thee with misfortune, there is none who could remove it save Him; and if He intends good for thee, there is none who could turn away His bounty: He causes it to alight upon whomsoever He wills of His servants. And He alone is truly forgiving, truly a dispenser of grace.
Rashad Khalifa	All Power Belongs To God 10:107 If GOD touches you with a hardship, none can relieve it except He. And when He blesses you, no force can prevent His grace. He bestows it upon whomever He chooses from among His servants. He is the Forgiver, Most Merciful.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:107 If God afflicts you, there is none who can remove it but He. And when He intends some benefit for you, there is none who can prevent His bounty. He sends it to His servants according to His laws. And He is the Forgiving, the Merciful. 39
Transliteration	10:107 Wa-in yamsaska All ahu bi durrinfala k ashifa lahu ill a huwa wa-in yuridkabikhayrin fal a r adda lifa dilihi yu seebubihi man yash ao min AAib adihi wahuwa alghafooru alrraheemu
A	10:107 وان يمسسك الله بضر فلا كاشف له الا هو وان يردك بخير فلا راد لفضله يصيب به من يشاء من عباده وهو الغفور الرحيم
Edip-Layth	10:108 Say, "O people, the truth has come to you from your Lord, so whosoever is guided is guided for himself, and whosoever is misguided is misguided against himself. I am not a caretaker over you."
The Monotheist Group	10:108 Say: "O people, the truth has come to you from your Lord, so whosoever is guided is being guided for himself, and whosoever is misguided will remain so, and I am not a caretaker over you."
Muhammad Asad	10:108 SAY [O Prophet]: "O mankind! The truth from your Sustainer has now come unto you. Whoever, therefore, chooses to follow the right path, follows it but for his own good; and whoever chooses to go astray, goes but astray to his own hurt. And I am not responsible for your conduct."
Rashad Khalifa	10:108 Proclaim: "O people, the truth has come to you herein from your Lord. Whoever is guided is guided for his own good. And whoever goes astray, goes astray to his own detriment. I am not a guardian over you."
Shabbir Ahmed	10:108 Say, "O Mankind! Now has come to you the truth from your Lord. So whoever chooses to follow the right path, follows it for the good of his own 'self'. And whoever chooses to go astray, goes astray to the hurt of his own 'self'. And I am not a guardian over you."
Transliteration	10:108 Qul y a ayyuh a a Innasuqad j akumu al haqqu min rabbikum famani ihtadafa-innama yahtadee linafsihi waman dalla fa-innamayadillu AAalayha wama ana AAalaykumbiwakeelin
A	10:108 قل يا ايها الناس قد جاءكم الحق من ربكم فمن اهتدى فانما يهتدى لنفسه ومن ضل فانما يضل عليها وما انا عليكم بوكيل
Edip-Layth	10:109 Therefore, follow what is being inspired to you and be patient until God judges. He is the best of judges.

The Monotheist Group	10:109 And follow what is being inspired to you and be patient until God judges. And He is the best of judges.
Muhammad Asad	10:109 And [as for thyself, O Muhammad,] follow but what is being revealed unto thee, and be patient in adversity, until God shall give His judgment: for He is the best of all judges.
Rashad Khalifa	10:109 Follow what is revealed to you, and be patient until GOD issues His judgment; He is the best judge.
Shabbir Ahmed	10:109 (O Messenger!), Follow what is revealed to you and be steadfast in adversity until God issues His Judgment. And He is the Best of judges.
Transliteration	10:109 Wa ^{it} tabiAA ma ^a yooh ^{ai} layka wa ^{ai} s ^{ib} ir ha ^{tt} a ya ^h kumaAlla ^h u wahuwa khayru al ^h akimeena
A	10:109 واتبع ما يوحى إليك واصبر حتى يحكم الله وهو خير الحكمين

<< Prev 10:1-109 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (10:1)

A1L30R200. These letters/numbers play an important role in the mathematical system of the Quran. See 74:1-56; 1:1; 2:1; 13:38; 27:82; 38:1-8; 40:28-38; 46:10; 72:28.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (10:20)

Keeping "one of the greatest" signs of the Quran (74:30-37) for fourteen centuries as a secret and unveiling it in the computer era is God's plan. 010:022 "At first sight it may appear hopelessly garbled, but the three consecutive pronominal shifts are all perfectly logical. The shift from the second person plural to the third person plural objectifies the addressees and enables them to see themselves as God sees them, and to recognize how ridiculous and hypocritical their behavior is. The shift back to the second person plural marks God's turning to admonish them. Finally the speaker's shift from the third person singular to the first person plural expresses His majesty and power, which is appropriate in view of the allusion to the resurrection and judgment." Neal Robinson, Discovering The Qur'an: A Contemporary Approach To A Veiled Text (1996, SCM Press Ltd. p. 252). For the literary aspect and purpose of shift in person, see the footnote of verse 39:53. 010:024 Surely, God knows the exact time of the Hour. But, since the world is round, when that moment comes, half of the world will be experiencing night and the other half daylight. See 4:82.

Edip-Layth - End Note (10:22)

Edip-Layth - End Note (10:24)

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (10:28)

The believers of intercession do not really worship those they hope will intercede, since their idols are neither aware of their polytheistic belief nor would they approve of it. Since polytheists follow the teachings of Satan, knowingly or unknowingly, they serve Satan (16:60; 40:74; 36:60; 4:48).

Edip-Layth - End Note 4 (10:30)

Those who acknowledge the truth only accept the Truth as their mawla (master/patron/lord). See 2:286.

Edip-Layth - End Note 5 (10:35)

These verses also convict those who associate Muhammad as a partner with God in hukm (legislation/judgment). They confuse following the message of the messenger with following Muhammad. Verse 36, points at the source of their partnership: conjecture or hearsay. See 6:112; 12:111; 9:31.

Edip-Layth - End Note 6 (10:38)

Study the relationship between these and 27:77-85.

Edip-Layth - End Note 7 (10:47)

See 16:36; 40:78.

Edip-Layth - End Note 8 (10:57)

Some clerics abused the meaning of "cure" in this verse and sold the verses of the Quran as an amulet, or as a drug for their physical problems. 010:059-60 Attributing to God man-made prohibitions is considered polytheism, idolatry. According to the Quran, the religious leaders and clerics who commit this crime are the worst enemies of God. For instance, recently, Iranian mullahs prohibited fish with no scales. Some Turkish clerics prohibit lobster, mussel, crab, shrimp and many other excellent sources of nutrition; they attribute their prohibitions to God. See 6:145-155. 010:062-64 The Quran guarantees perfect and eternal happiness for those monotheists who pass certain tests.

Edip-Layth - End Note (10:59)

Edip-Layth - End Note (10:62)

Edip-Layth - End Note 9 (10:81)

For the definition of magic, see 7:116-117.

Edip-Layth - End Note 10 (10:83)

The word musrifin means "the transgressors," or "those who exceed the limits." Considering the context here, it is best translated as a single word, "tyrant" or "despot."

Edip-Layth - End Note 11 (10:88)

Those who are subjected to injustice are excused if they ask for divine punishment or use bad words. See 4:148.

Edip-Layth - End Note 12 (10:92)

God preserved the bodies of the Pharoahs by giving them the special knowledge of mummification.

Edip-Layth - End Note 13 (10:99)

God does not interfere with our initial choice. Those who decide to reject the truth, later in their lives are condemned to dogmatism and bigotry (13:11; 18:29; 42:13; 46:15; 57:22).

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (10:1)

See Appendix II.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (10:1)

The term hakim-which, when qualifying an animated being, may be translated as "wise" has here the connotation of a means of imparting wisdom. Some of the classical commentators (e.g., Tabari) are of the opinion that the "divine writ" (kitab) mentioned here is the Qur'an as a whole, while others (e.g., Zamakhshari) see in it a reference to this particular surah. In view of the sequence, it seems to me that the former interpretation is preferable.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (10:2)

This connects with the end of the preceding Surah, and particularly with the sentence, "There has come unto you [O mankind] an Apostle from among yourselves" (9:128; see also note 2 on 50:2).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (10:2)

Lit., "they have precedence (qadam) of truthfulness (sidq)": the latter term denoting a concord between what a person actually conceives in his mind or feels and what he expresses by word, deed or attitude - in other words, complete sincerity.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (10:2)

Lit., "He is indeed an obvious enchanter (sahir)" -thus implying that the "man from among yourselves" (i.e., Muhammad) did not really receive any revelation from God, but merely deluded his followers by means of his spellbinding eloquence (which is the meaning of sihr in this context): an accusation levelled by unbelievers of all times not merely against Muhammad but-as the Qur'an frequently states-against most of the earlier prophets as well. The term "those who deny the truth" refers, in this context, specifically to people who a priori reject the notion of divine revelation and, thus, of prophethood.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (10:3)

See surah 7, note 43. Since belief in divine revelation naturally presupposes a belief in the existence of God as the self-subsistent fount of all being, the reference to the revelation of the Qur'an with which this surah opens is followed by a consideration of God's creative almightiness.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (10:3)

Lit., "there is no intercessor whatever, save after His leave [has been granted]". Cf. 2:255 - "Who is there that could intercede with Him, unless it be by His leave?" Thus, the Qur'an rejects the popular belief in unqualified "intercession" by living or dead saints or prophets. As is shown elsewhere in the

Qus'an (e.g., in 20:109, 21:28 or 34:23), God will grant to His prophets on Judgment Day the permission to "intercede", symbolically, for such of the sinners as will have already achieved His redemptive acceptance (rida') by virtue of their repentance or basic goodness (see 19:87 and the corresponding note 74): in other words, the right of "intercession" thus granted to the prophets will be but an expression of God's approval of the latter. Furthermore, the above denial of the possibility of unqualified intercession stresses, indirectly, not only God's omniscience - which requires no "mediator" - but also the immutability of His will: and thus it connects with the preceding mention of His almightiness. (See also note 27 below.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (10:4)

Le., He will resurrect him by a new act of creation. That the verb yu'iduhu ("He brings him forth anew") refers here to the individual resurrection of human beings becomes obvious from the sequence. The noun khalq primarily denotes "creation" (i.e., the bringing into being of something that did not exist before); subsequently, it denotes the result or object of creation, i.e., a "created being" (or "beings"); finally, it is used in the sense of "man" in the generic connotation of this word, i.e., "mankind".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (10:4)

See surah 6, note 62 (for my rendering of hamim as "burning despair").

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (10:5)

The nouns diya' and nur are often interchangeable, inasmuch as both denote "light"; but many philologists are of the opinion that the term diya' (or daw') has a more intensive connotation, and is used to describe "a light which subsists by itself, as that of the sun and fire" - that is, a source of light - while nur signifies "a light that subsists by some other thing" (Lane V, 1809, on the authority of Taj al-'Arus): in other words, light due to an extraneous source or - as in the case of the moon - reflected light.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (10:5)

Lit., "God has not created this otherwise than in accordance with truth" - i.e., to fulfil a definite purpose in consonance with His planning wisdom (Zamakhshari, Baghawi, Razi): implying that everything in the universe - whether existent or potential, concrete or abstract - is meaningful, and nothing is "accidental". Cf. 3:191 - "O our Sustainer! Thou has not created [aught of] this without meaning and purpose (batilan)"; and 38:27 - "We have not created heaven and earth and all that is between them without meaning and purpose, as is the surmise (zann) of those who are bent on denying the truth".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (10:7)

Lit., "who do not hope for (i.e., expect) a meeting with Us": implying that they do not believe in a life after death or in God's ultimate judgment.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (10:7)

Lit., "are at rest with it" - i.e., regard the life in this world as the only reality, dismissing the idea of resurrection as mere wishful thinking.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (10:9)

Lit., "beneath them".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (10:10)

Lit., "their invocation (da'wa) therein [will be].. .", etc.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (10:10)

Lit., "their greeting therein [will be], 'Peace'". For an explanation of the term salam and its fundamental connotation of inner peace, fulfilment, and security from all that is evil, see Surah 5, note 29.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (10:11)

Lit., "[the end of] their term would indeed have been decreed for them": the implication being, firstly, that man is weak (cf. 4:28) and therefore prone to sinning; secondly, that God "has willed upon Himself the law of grace and mercy" (see 6:12 and the corresponding note) and, consequently, does not punish sinners without taking their circumstances into consideration and giving them time to repent and to mend their ways.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (10:11)

See verse 7, with which this verse connects.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (10:12)

These three metaphorical expressions are often used in the Qur'an to describe the various situations in which man may find himself. The "calling unto God" under the stress of misfortune describes the instinctive reaction of many people who consider themselves "agnostics" and in their conscious thinking refuse to believe in God. See also verses 22-23 below, as well as 6:40-41.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (10:12)

Lit., "called out unto Us against (ila) an affliction".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (10:12)

The expression musrif, which often (e.g., in 5:32 or 7:81) denotes "one who is given to excesses" or "commits excesses" or (as in 6:141) "one who is wasteful", has in the above context the meaning of "one who wastes his own self" (Razi)-namely, destroys his spiritual potential by following only his base impulses and failing to submit to any moral imperative. (Cf. the very similar expression alladhina khasiru anfusahum occurring in many places and rendered by me as "those who have squandered their own selves".) In the sense in which it is used here, the term israf (lit., "wastefulness" or "lack of moderation in one's doings") is almost synonymous with the term tughyan ("overweening arrogance") occurring in the preceding verse (Manar XI, 314), and relates to the same type of man. The phrase "goodly seem [to them] their own doings" describes the unthinking complacency with which "those who waste their own selves" go through life.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (10:13)

Cf. 6:131-132. The phrase rendered by me as "the apostles sent unto them" reads, literally, "their apostles". The sinners' refusal to believe is expressed in the text by means of the construction wa-ma kanu li-yu'minu.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 23 (10:15)

Sc., "to suit our own views as to what is right and what is wrong". This is an oblique reference to the highly subjective criticism of Qur'anic ethics and eschatology by many agnostics (both among the contemporaries of the Prophet and in later times), and particularly to their view that the Qur'an was "composed" by Muhammad himself and therefore expresses no more than his personal convictions. - Regarding the phrase, "those who do not believe that they are destined to meet Us", see note 12 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 24 (10:16)

This argument - placed in the mouth of the Prophet - has a twofold implication. Ever since his early youth, Muhammad had been renowned for his truthfulness and integrity, so much so that his Meccan compatriots applied to him the epithet Al-Amin ("The Trustworthy"). In addition to this, he had never composed a single line of poetry (and this in contrast with a tendency which was widespread among the Arabs of his time), nor had he been distinguished by particular eloquence. "How, then," goes the argument, "can you reconcile your erstwhile conviction-based on the experience of a lifetime-that Muhammad was incapable of uttering a lie, with your present contention that he himself has composed the Qur'an and now falsely attributes it to divine revelation? And how could he who, up to the age of forty, has never displayed any poetic or philosophic gifts and is known to be entirely unlettered (ummi), have composed a work as perfect in its language, as penetrating in its psychological insight and 'as compelling in its inner logic as the Qur'an?"

Muhammad Asad - End Note 25 (10:17)

I.e., in the life to come. In this context, the "attributing of one's own lying inventions to God" would seem to apply specifically to the wanton accusation that Muhammad himself composed the Qur'an and then attributed it to God; and the "giving the lie to God's messages" refers to the attitude of those who make such an accusation and, consequently, reject the Qur'an (Razi)_

Muhammad Asad - End Note 26 (10:18)

Thus the discourse returns to the problem of "intercession" touched upon in verse 3 of this surah. Literally, the beginning of the sentence reads thus: "And they worship that which neither harms them nor benefits them" -an expression alluding to both concrete representations and conceptual images. It should be noted that the "they" elliptically referred to here are not identical with the people spoken of earlier as "those who do not believe that they are destined to meet Us" (in other words, those who deny the reality of resurrection and of the Day of Judgment): for the people of whom the above verse speaks obviously do believe - albeit in a confused manner - in life after death and man's responsibility before God, as is evident from the statement that they worship imaginary "intercessors with God".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 27 (10:18)

Thus, belief in the efficacy of anyone's unqualified intercession with God, or mediation between man and Him, is here equated with a denial of God's omniscience, which takes all the circumstances of the sinner and his sinning a priori into consideration. (As regards God's symbolic grant of permission to His prophets to "intercede" for their followers on the Day of Judgment, see note 7 above.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 28 (10:19)

Lit., ("and then they disagreed [among themselves]"). For an explanation of the term "one single community" (ummah wahidah), see Surah 2, note 197. In the present context, this expression alludes not merely to mankind's one-time homogeneity, but also - by implication - to the fact, repeatedly stressed in the Qur'an (e.g., in 7:172), that the ability to realize God's existence, oneness and omnipotence is innate in man, and that all deviation from this basic perception is a consequence of the confusion brought about by man's progressive estrangement from his inborn instincts.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 29 (10:19)

Lit., "it would indeed have been decided between them regarding all that they were differing in": i.e., had it not been for God's decree - which is the meaning, in this context, of the term kalimah (lit., "word") - that men should differ in their intellectual approach to the problems touched upon by divine revelation, "they would not have contended with one another after having received all evidence of the truth", but would all have held from the very outset, and would continue to hold, the same views (cf. 2:253 and the corresponding note 245). Since, however, such a uniformity would have precluded men's intellectual, moral and social development, God has left it to their reason, aided by prophetic guidance, gradually to find their way to the truth. (See also surah 2, note 198.) The above parenthetical passage must be read in conjunction with 2:213.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 30 (10:20)

I.e., on Muhammad, in order to "prove" that he is truly a bearer of God's message (a sceptical objection which resumes the theme enunciated in verses 1-2 and 15-17 above); see also 6:37 and 109 and the corresponding notes, especially note 94. The pronoun "they" refers to both categories of deniers of the truth spoken of in the preceding passages: the atheists or agnostics "who do not believe that they are destined to meet God", as well as those who, while believing in God, "ascribe a share in His divinity" to all manner of imaginary intercessors or mediators (see verse 18 above).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 31 (10:20)

This answer relates not merely to the question as to why God has not bestowed on Muhammad a "miraculous sign" of his prophethood, but also to the "why" of his having been chosen for his prophetic mission. See in this connection 2:105 ("God singles out for His grace whom He wills") and 3:73-74 ("God is infinite, all-knowing, singling out for His grace whom He wills")

Muhammad Asad - End Note 32 (10:21)

I.e., the two categories of people referred to in verses 7, 11, 12, 15, 18 and 20.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 33 (10:21)

Lit., "they have forthwith a scheme against Our messages". (The particle idha preceding this clause is meant to bring out the element of immediacy, and is best rendered as "lo! they forthwith..", etc.) Since God's messages are purely conceptual, the "scheming against them" obviously connotes the devising of fallacious arguments meant to cast doubt on the divine origin of these messages or to "disprove" the statements made in them. The above discourse on the psychology of agnosticism and half-belief is continued in the parable of the seafarers set forth in the next two verses.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 34 (10:22)

Lit., "until, when you are in the ships...", etc. As has been pointed out by Zamakhshari, the particle "until" (hatta) which precedes this clause refers to the sudden rise of the storm described in the sequence, and not to the "going to sea in ships". It is to be noted that at this point the discourse changes abruptly from the direct address "you" to the third person plural ("they"): a construction which is evidently meant to bring out the allegorical character of the subsequent narrative and to turn it into a lesson of general validity.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 35 (10:23)

See verse 12 (of which the above passage is a parabolic illustration) and the corresponding notes.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 36 (10:23)

Lit., "your outrageousness (baghy) is only against your own selves". Cf. the oft-recurring Qur'anic expression, "they have sinned against themselves" (zalamu anfusahum, lit., "they have wronged themselves"), indicating the inevitability with which every evil deed damages its perpetrator spiritually.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 37 (10:24)

Lit., "with which the plants of the earth mingle".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 38 (10:24)

I.e., they come to believe that they have gained "mastery over nature", with no conceivable limits to what they may yet achieve. It is to be borne in mind that the term zukhruf bears almost invariably a connotation of artificiality - a connotation which in this case is communicated to the subsequent verb izzayyanat. Thus, the whole of the above parabolic sentence may be understood as alluding to the artificial, illusory "adornment" brought about by man's technological efforts, not in collaboration with nature but, rather, in hostile "confrontation" with it.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 39 (10:24)

Lit., "as if it had not been in existence yesterday": a phrase used in classical Arabic to describe something that has entirely disappeared or perished (Taj al-'Arus).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 56 (10:25)

Since the concept of "finding the right way" cannot apply to lifeless idols and idolatrous images, the above passage obviously relates to animate beings - whether dead or alive - to whom "a share in God's divinity" is falsely attributed: that is, to saintly personalities, prophets or angels whom popular fancy blasphemously endows with some or all of God's qualities, sometimes even to the extent that they are regarded as a manifestation or incarnation of God on earth. As for the act of God's guidance, it is displayed, primarily, in the power of conscious reasoning as well as of instinctive insight with which He has graced man, thus enabling him to follow the divine laws of right conduct (Zamakhshari).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 41 (10:26)

I.e., more than their actual merits may warrant (cf. 6:160-"Whoever shall come [before God] with a good deed will gain ten times the like thereof"). See also note 79 on 27:89.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 42 (10:27)

In contrast with the multiple "rewards" for good deeds, the recompense of evil will be only commensurate with the deed itself. (See also note 46 on the last sentence of 41:50.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 43 (10:27)

Lit., "by a piece of the night, densely dark".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 44 (10:28)

Lit., "you and those [God-]partners of yours": cf. surah 6. note 15. The expression makanakum (lit., "your place", i.e., "keep to your place") bears a connotation- of contempt and an implied threat.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 45 (10:28)

I.e., separated those who ascribed divinity to beings other than God from the objects of their one-time adoration (Tabari, Baghawi): a metonymical phrase denoting a realization on the part of the former that there has never been any existential link between them and those false objects of worship (cf. 6:24, 10:30, 11:21, 16:87 and 28:75-"and all their false imagery has [or "will have"] forsaken them"). See also the next two notes.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 46 (10:28)

I.e., "it was only your own fancies and desires that you worshipped, clothing them in the garb of extraneous beings": in other words, the worship of idols, forces of nature, saints, prophets, angels, etc., is shown here to be nothing but a projection of the worshipper's own subconscious desires. (Cf.

also 34:41 and the corresponding note 52.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 47 (10:29)

Thus the Qur'an makes it clear that the saints and prophets who, after their death, have been unwarrantably deified by their followers shall not be held accountable for the blasphemous worship accorded to them (cf. 5:116-117); furthermore, even the inanimate objects of false worship will symbolically deny any connection between themselves and their worshippers.

Muhammad Asad - End Note (10:30)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 49 (10:31)

The term rizq ("provision of sustenance") is used here in both the physical and spiritual connotations of this word, which explains the reference to "heaven and earth" and, subsequently, "[man's] hearing and sight".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 50 (10:31)

The people referred to here are those who believe, firstly, that there are beings endowed with certain divine or semi-divine qualities, thus having, as it were, a "share" in God's divinity; and, secondly, that by worshipping such beings men can come closer to God. This idea obviously presupposes belief in God's existence, as is brought out in the "answer" of the people thus addressed (cf. 7 :172 and the corresponding note 139); but inasmuch as it offends against the concept of God's oneness and uniqueness, it deprives those people's belief in God of its true meaning and spiritual value.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 51 (10:32)

Lit., "this [or "such"], then, being God, your Sustainer, the Ultimate Truth"-i.e., "seeing that, on your own admission, He is the One who creates and governs all things and is the Ultimate Reality behind all that exists" (see surah 20, note 99): which implies a categorical denial of the possibility that any other being could have a share, however small, in His divinity.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 52 (10:32)

Lit., "How, then, are you turned away?"-i.e., from the truth.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 53 (10:33)

See surah 2, note 7, as well as 8:55 and the corresponding note 58. In this particular context, "the Sustainer's word" seems to be synonymous with "the way of God" (sunnat Allah) concerning deliberate sinners and deniers of the truth (Manar XI, 359). The particle anna in annahum (lit., "that they") is, thus, indicative of the purport of the divine "word" referred to, and is best expressed by a colon.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 54 (10:34)

This rhetorical question is connected with the false belief that those idolatrously worshipped beings are no more than "intercessors" between their followers and God (see verse 18 above): and so, even their misguided votaries cannot possibly attribute to them the power to create and to resurrect. See also note 8 on verse 4 of this surah. In its wider sense, this question (and the subsequent answer) relates to the God-willed, cyclic process of birth, death and regeneration evident in all organic nature.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 55 (10:34)

See surah 5, note 90.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 57 (10:35)

Lit., "[and] how do you judge?"

Muhammad Asad - End Note (10:35)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 58 (10:36)

Lit., "conjecture can in no wise make [anyone] independent (la yughni) of the truth", i.e., of positive insight obtained through authentic revelation (to which the sequence relates). The people referred to here (and apparently also in the first sentence of verse 53 of this surah) are the agnostics who waver between truth and falsehood. - Some of the great exponents of Islamic Law-foremost among them Ibn Hazm-base on this verse their rejection of giyas ("deduction by analogy") as a means of eliciting religious laws which are supposedly "implied" in the wording of the Qur'an or of the Prophet's teachings, but not clearly laid down in terms of law. In his commentary on this verse. Razi thus sums up the above view: "They say that every deduction by analogy is a conjectural process and is, therefore, of necessity, inadmissible [in matters pertaining to religion]-for 'conjecture can never be a substitute for truth'." (See also 5:101-102, and the corresponding notes 120-123.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 59 (10:37)

Lit., "but" (wa-lakin)-a stress on the impossibility of any assertion to the contrary.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 60 (10:37)

The above passage has a twofold significance: firstly, the wisdom inherent in the Qur'an precludes any possibility of its having been composed by a human being; and, secondly, the Qur'anic message is meant to confirm, and give a final formulation to, the eternal truths which have been conveyed to man through a long succession of prophets: truths which have subsequently been obscured through wrong interpretation, deliberate omissions or interpolations, or a partial or even total loss of the original texts. For an explanation of the phrase ma bayna yadayhi, rendered by me in this context as "whatever there still remains [of earlier revelations]", see surah 3,

Muhammad Asad - End Note 61 (10:38)

According to the great philologist Abu `Ubaydah Ma'mar ibn al-Muthanna (as quoted by Baghawi), the particle am which introduces this sentence has no interrogative connotation, but is - as in several other places in the Qur'an - synonymous with the conjunction wa ("and"), which in this case can be suitably rendered as above note 3.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 62 (10:38)

Cf. 2:23 and the corresponding note 15.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 63 (10:39)

Lit., "the knowledge whereof they do not encompass, while its inner meaning has not yet come to them". Most of the classical commentators explain this sentence in the way rendered by me; some of them, however (e.g., Tabari and Baghawi), interpret the term ta'wil ("final [or "inner"] meaning") in the sense in which it is used in 7:53 (see my translation of that passage and the corresponding note 41).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 64 (10:40)

The verb yu'minun, which occurs twice in this verse, can be understood as connoting either the present tense-"[such as] believe", resp. "[such as] do not believe"-or the future tense. The future tense (adopted by me) is the meaning unequivocally attributed to it by Tabari and Ibn Kathir; some of the other authorities, like Zamakhshari and Razi, prefer the present tense, but nevertheless regard the other interpretation as legitimate. (See also Manar XI, 380.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 65 (10:45)

Le., their past sojourn in this world, during which they were bound to one another by various ties of human relationship, will appear to them like a short moment as compared with the timeless duration of the life that awaits them after resurrection (see note 19 on 79:46), with all their past relationships cut asunder. See also 6:94, which describes the condition of the deniers of the truth on the Day of Resurrection: "And now, indeed, you have come unto Us in a lonely state, even as We created you in the first instance"; and later on, in that same verse: "Indeed, all the bonds between you [and your earthly life] are now severed. ..."

Muhammad Asad - End Note 66 (10:46)

Lit., "of what We promise them" or "of what We threaten them with" - i.e., the inevitable retribution, sometimes even in this world, which a deliberate denial of the truth brings in its wake.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 67 (10:46)

The above verse is addressed, in the first instance, to the Prophet, and relates to those of his contemporaries who refused to acknowledge the truth of the Qur'anic revelation. In its wider sense, however, it is addressed to every believer who might find it incomprehensible that life-long suffering is often the lot of the righteous. While many wrongdoers and deniers of the truth apparently remain unscathed and are allowed to enjoy the good things of life. The Qur'an solves this apparent paradox by making it clear that, in comparison with the life to come, the life in this world is but a brief moment, and that it is only in the hereafter that man's destiny reveals itself in all its true aspects. Cf. 3:185 - "only on the Day of Resurrection will you be requited in full [for whatever you have done] ... for the life of this world is nothing but an enjoyment of self-delusion".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 68 (10:47)

Lit., "and when their apostle has come, a decision is made between them in all equity". This verse stresses (a) the continuity of religious revelation in mankind's history and the fact that in the long run no community, period or civilization (which latter is one of the meanings attributable to the term ummah) has been left without prophetic guidance, and (b) the doctrine that God does not punish "a community for its wrongdoing so long as its people are still unaware [of the meaning of right and wrong]: for all shall be judged according to their [conscious] deeds" (6:131-132).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 69 (10:49)

Sc., "and since I do not possess any supernatural powers, I cannot predict that which is beyond the reach of human perception (al-ghayb)".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 70 (10:49)

See 7:34 and the corresponding notes 25 and 26. In the above context, the "end of the term" refers, in particular, to the coming of the Last Hour and the Day of Judgment.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 71 (10:50)

Lit., "What [part] thereof might the people lost in sin (al-mujrimun) wish to hasten" meaning, according to Zamakhshari, that "all of [God's] chastisement is awful and bitter, and should inspire one with the desire to flee therefrom; ... and there is nothing in it that ought to make one wish to hasten it". This is an allusion to the incredulous inquiry of the deniers of the truth about the coming of the Last Hour (verse 48 above), as well as to their sarcastic demand that they should be immediately chastised by God in proof of Muhammad's prophetic mission (cf. 6:57-58 and 8:32, as well as the corresponding notes).-The expression "by night or by day" occurring in the preceding sentence denotes the suddenness and unexpectedness with which doom is bound to encompass the evildoers on the Day of Judgment.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 72 (10:51)

I.e., "when it is too late" (Tabari, Zamakhshari, Razi; my interpolation at the beginning of this sentence is based on these authorities).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 73 (10:52)

Lit., "Are you being requited for anything but for what you were wont to earn?"

Muhammad Asad - End Note 74 (10:53)

Lit., "they"-i.e., those of the unbelievers who are wavering in their agnosticism and-as mentioned in verse 36 above -"follow nothing but conjecture" (Manar XI, 394).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 75 (10:54)

In this instance, by deliberately giving the lie to the Prophet and rejecting the message of the Qur'an.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 76 (10:54)

Cf. 3:91 and the corresponding note 71.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 77 (10:54)

The primary meaning of the verb asarrahu is "he concealed it" or "he kept it secret"; thus, the phrase asarru 'n-nadamah (expressed in the past tense but in the above context obviously denoting a future event) could be rendered as "they will conceal their remorse". In view, however, of the many statements in the Qur'an that on the Day of Judgment the sinners will not only not conceal but will, rather, stress their remorse, some of the commentators (e.g., Baghawi, on the authority of Abu `Ubaydah) are of the opinion that in this particular verse the verb asarra denotes the opposite of its primary meaning and, accordingly, interpret the phrase as "they will manifest their remorse". But the linguistic validity of this rather forced interpretation has been emphatically contested by many philologists, and particularly by Abu Mansur al-Azhari (cf. Lane IV, 1337); and since there is no convincing reason to disregard the original significance of the verb asarra with its implication of "concealment", the above Qur'anic phrase must be understood (as Zamakhshari understands it), in the metonymical sense of an involuntary "concealment", that is, the sinners' inability to express the full depth of their remorse.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 78 (10:56)

Lit., "you shall be brought back" - for, "all that exists goes back to Him [as its source]" (11:123).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 79 (10:57)

I.e., a remedy for all that is contrary to truth and moral good.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 80 (10:59)

This connects with the statement, in verse 57, that the Qur'an offers to man a complete guidance towards the good life and spiritual fulfilment in this world, and happiness in the life to come. As already mentioned in surah 2, note 4, the term rizq connotes all that may be good and useful to man, be it of a physical nature (in the conventional sense of "means of sustenance") or belonging to the realm of the mind (like reason, knowledge, etc.) or of the spirit (like faith, kindness, patience, etc.). Thus, it applies exclusively to positive, beneficial means of sustenance, and never to things or phenomena which are morally reprehensible and/or physically or socially injurious.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 81 (10:59)

Lit., "and thereupon you have made some of it forbidden (haram) and [some of it] lawful (halal)". The fact that it is God who "has bestowed upon you from on high" (anzala `alaykum) i.e., has willed that man should make use of - all that can be qualified as rizq, automatically makes all its manifestations lawful (Zamakhshari). In accordance with the doctrine that everything which has not been expressly forbidden by the Qur'an or the explicit teachings of the Prophet is eo ipso lawful, this verse takes a clear-cut stand against all arbitrary prohibitions invented by man or artificially "deduced" from the Qur'an or the Prophet's sunnah (Manar XI, 409 f.; see also note 58 on verse 36 of this surah, as well as 5:101-102 and the corresponding notes). In its wider sense, the above verse relates to people who refuse to be guided by revelation and prefer to "follow nothing but conjecture" (verse 36).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 82 (10:61)

Or: "Whatever discourse (Qur'an) from Him".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 83 (10:61)

Lit., "witnesses", corresponding to the majestic plural "We". The specific reference to the Prophet and his recitation of the Qur'an (implied in the singular form of address in the first part of this sentence) is meant to stress the supreme importance of divine revelation in the context of human life.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 84 (10:62)

The verb waliya (from which the noun waii, pl. awliya', is derived) signifies, primarily, the nearness or closeness of one thing to another: thus, God is spoken of in the Qur'an (e.g., in 2:257 and 3:68) as being "near unto (waii) those who believe". Although the term waii, when applied to God, as well as to the relationship between one created being and another, is often used in the Qur'an in the sense of "helper", "friend", "protector", "guardian", etc., none of these secondary meanings can properly - i.e., without offending against the reverence due to God - describe man's attitude to, or relationship with, Him. Consequently, the above reference to the believers as awliya' of God is best rendered as "they who are close to God", in the sense of their being always conscious of Him. This rendering has the support of almost all the classical commentators.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 85 (10:64)

Le., the happiness born of the feeling of closeness to God and, hence, of spiritual fulfilment.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 86 (10:65)

The noun `izzah comprises the concepts of superior might as well as of honour and glory. Its rendering into another language depends on the context, and sometimes - as in this case - necessitates a combination of two terms.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 87 (10:66)

Lit., "partners", i.e., of God (see surah 6, note 15). The substantive pronoun man ("whoever") occurring twice in the first part of this verse contains an allusion to rational beings (as distinct from inanimate objects) whom "those who ascribe divinity to aught beside God" consider to be endowed with qualities or powers which, in fact, belong to Him alone. The Qur'an argues against this idolatrous concept by pointing out that all rational beings, whether men or angels, "belong to God" (i.e., are-like everything else in the universe-wholly dependent on Him for their existence), possessing no divine qualities and, therefore, no reality as objects of worship.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 88 (10:67)

See 14:32-33 and the corresponding note 46; for the specific significance, in this context, of the reference to "day" and "night", see note 77 on 27:86, which belongs to a somewhat earlier revelation than the present surah.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 89 (10:68)

See surah 2, note 96.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 90 (10:71)

Sc., "because they run counter to the idolatrous beliefs which you have inherited from your ancestors". The story of Noah, briefly mentioned in verses 71-73, is told at greater length in 11:36-48 (see also 7:59-64). Here it connects with verse 47 above, and thus with the main theme of this surah: the truth of God's revelation of His will through His prophets, and the suffering which in the life to come is bound to befall those who give the lie to His messages.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 91 (10:71)

Lit., "upon your course of action" (which is the meaning of the term amr in this context).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 92 (10:71)

Lit., "your [God-]partners". For an explanation of this term, see Surah 6, note 15.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 93 (10:71)

This is a free rendering of the elliptic phrase, "and let not your course of action (amrukum) be an uncertainty to you".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 94 (10:73)

Le., "made them outlive [the others]" (Zamakhshari). As regards the allegorical rendering of khala'if (sing. khalif or khalifah) adopted by me, see Surah 2, note 22.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 95 (10:73)

See surah 7, note 47.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 96 (10:74)

Lit., "We sent apostles to their [own] people"-an allusion to the fact that each of the apostles before Muhammad was sent to one particular people or community, and that the Arabian Prophet was the first and the last to bring a universal message addressed to all mankind

Muhammad Asad - End Note 97 (10:74)

Cf. 7:101 and the corresponding note 82.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 98 (10:74)

See Surah 2, note 7.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 99 (10:76)

Lit., "this is indeed obvious sorcery": an accusation which apparently refers to the spellbinding force of the messages conveyed to them by Moses, similar to the objections raised against the Last Prophet, Muhammad. (See verse 2 of this surah and the corresponding note 5).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 100 (10:77)

The implication is that what is termed "sorcery" cannot achieve more than ephemeral phenomena lacking any spiritual content, and can never prevail against the laws of nature which, in their totality, are described in the Qur'an as "the way of God". The story of Moses and the sorcerers and the tatters' subsequent conversion is told in greater detail in Al-A'raf and Ta Ha, both of which were revealed before the present surah.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 101 (10:78)

The dual address "you two" relates to Moses and his brother Aaron.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 102 (10:81)

The above interpolation is based on 7:116; see also the second paragraph of 20:66.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 103 (10:82)

By "God's words" is meant here His creative will, manifested in the laws of nature instituted by Him as well as in the revelations granted by Him to His prophets (Manar XI, 468). A similar phrase occurs also in 8:7 and 42:24.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 104 (10:83)

Lit., "believed in Moses"; however, since the sequence shows that not belief as such but its open profession is referred to here, I have rendered the above phrase accordingly. As for the term dhurriyyah (lit., "offspring"), we have several authoritative statements to the effect that it often denotes "a small group [or "a few"] of one's people" (Ibn `Abbas, as quoted by Tabari, Baghawi, Razi and Ibn Kathir, as well as Ad-Dahhak and Qatadah, as quoted by Tabari and Ibn Kathir); hence my rendering. Since the Qur'an mentions (e.g., in 7:120-126) that some Egyptians, too, came to believe in Moses' message and openly proclaimed their belief, it is reasonable to assume that by "his people" are meant not merely the Israelites but, more generally, the people among whom Moses was living: that is, both Israelites and Egyptians. This assumption is strengthened by the reference, in the next clause of this sentence, to "their great ones" - an expression obviously relating to the Egyptian "great ones":

Muhammad Asad - End Note 105 (10:83)

If the expression `aia khawf is taken to mean "despite [their] fear" (referring to those who did declare their faith openly), the above sentence would read thus: ". . . a few of his people declared their faith in Moses despite their fear that Pharaoh and their great ones would persecute them" -implying, as does the rendering adopted by me, that, because of their fear, the majority did not declare their faith openly.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 106 (10:85)

Lit., "temptation to evil" (fitnah).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 107 (10:87)

Lit., "a direction of prayer" (qiblah)-a metaphor meant to impress upon the children of Israel that their only salvation lay in God-consciousness and unceasing devotion to Him. The primary meaning of misr - usually rendered as "Egypt" - is "city" or "metropolis".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 108 (10:88)

According to most of the classical commentators, the particle li prefixed to the verb yudillu ("they are leading astray") represents in this context the so-called lam al-'aqibah ("the [letter] lam denoting a consequence") and does not, as in many other instances, express a purpose or an intent ("in order that" or "to the end that"). My rendering of this li as "with the result that" is meant to bring out Moses' moral indignation at the perversity of Pharaoh and his great ones who, instead of being grateful to God for His bounty, are using their power to corrupt their own people.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 109 (10:89)

Lit., "the prayer of you two", i.e., Moses and Aaron, both of whom are addressed in the next sentence as well.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 110 (10:90)

Lit., "until, when drowning overtook him, he said". For the full story of Moses and Pharaoh, the latter's tyrannical oppression of the Israelites and their ultimate deliverance, see Exodus i-xiv, and especially (with reference to the above Qur'an-verse), ch. xiv, which narrates in great detail the miraculous escape of the Israelites and the doom of Pharaoh and his forces. It should always be remembered that all Qur'anic references to historical or legendary events whether described in the Bible or in the oral tradition of pre-Islamic Arabia are invariably meant to elucidate a particular lesson in ethics and not to narrate a story as such: and this explains the fragmentary character of these references and allusions.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 111 (10:91)

Le., "Dost thou repent now, when it is too late?" Cf. 4:18 - "repentance shall not be accepted from those who do evil deeds until their dying hour, and then say, 'Behold, I now repent'."

Muhammad Asad - End Note 112 (10:92)

Lit., "We shall save thee in thy body": probably an allusion to the ancient Egyptian custom of embalming the bodies of their kings and nobles and thus preserving them for posterity. Some Egyptologists assume that the "evil Pharaoh" of the Qur'an and the Bible was Ramses II (about 1324-1258 B.C.), while others identify him with his unlucky predecessor, Tut-ankh-amen, or even with Thotmes (or Thutmosis) III, who lived in the 15th century B.C. However, all these "identifications" are purely speculative and have no definitive historical value. In this connection it should be remembered that the designation "Pharaoh" (fir'awn in Arabic) is not a proper name but a title borne by all the kings of ancient Egypt.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 114 (10:93)

Commenting on this verse, Razi says: "The people of Moses remained of one religious persuasion (`ala millah wahidah) and of one opinion, without any disagreement, until they began to study the Torah: whereupon they became aware of the [various] problems and obligations involved, and disagreements [regarding their interpretation] arose among them. And so God makes it clear [in the above Qur'an-verse] that this kind of disagreement is inevitable (la-budd) and will always occur in the life of this world." Razi's penetrating psychological comment is in tune with the oft-repeated Qur'anic statement that proneness to intellectual dissension is a permanent characteristic of human nature (see the last sentences of 2:213 and 253, respectively, as well as the corresponding notes; also 23:53 and note 30).

Muhammad Asad - End Note (10:93)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 115 (10:94)

Some of the commentators assume that verses 94 and 95 are addressed to the Prophet Muhammad - an assumption which is highly implausible in view of the admonition (in verse 95), "Be not among those who are bent on giving the lie to God's messages": for it is obvious that God's chosen Prophet was never in danger of falling into such a sin. Consequently, Razi interprets these two verses as being addressed to man in general, and explains the reference to "what We have bestowed upon thee from on high" in the sense given in my rendering. This interpretation makes it clear, moreover, that the above passage is closely connected with verses 57-58, which speak of the guidance vouchsafed to mankind through the ultimate divine writ, the Qur'an.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 116 (10:94)

I.e., the Jews and the Christians. The "reading" is here a metonym for belief, namely, in the Bible, which-notwithstanding the fact that its text has been corrupted in the course of time-still contains clear references to the advent of the Prophet Muhammad and thus, by implication, to the truth of the divine message revealed through him. In its wider sense, the above verse alludes to the unbroken continuity of man's religious experience and to the fact, frequently stressed in the Qur'an, that every one of God's apostles preached one and the same basic truth. (See in this connection the second paragraph of 5:48 and the corresponding notes 66 and 67.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 117 (10:96)

See verse 33 and note 53 above; also note 4 on 14:4.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 118 (10:97)

Sc., "when belief will be of no avail to them": an allusion to verses 90-91, which speak of Pharaoh's "conversion" at the point of death. Cf. also 4:17-18.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 119 (10:98)

The particle law-la ("were it not that" or "were it not for") is sometimes synonymous with hal-la, and could therefore be translated as "why not" ("why was there not...?", etc.). However, neither the interrogative nor the above-mentioned literal rendering would bring out the purport of this passage. Its meaning becomes obvious only if we remember that law-la is-apart from its primary significance-one of the so-called hunuf at-tahdid ("particles denoting insistence"). Whenever it is followed by a verb in the future tense, it expresses an urgent exhortation to do a thing; if followed by a verb in the past tense, as in the above case, it implies reproof for one's not having done something that should have been done. There is no idiomatic equivalent in modern English to convey this meaning. The nearest approach to it would be, I believe, the archaic exclamation "alack", expressive of deep sorrow or reproach; but the use of this expression (probably a compound of "ah! lack!"-i.e., loss or misfortune) is ruled out by its obsolescence. Consequently, I am constrained to employ the more current interjection "alas", despite the fact that it does not possess the intensity of the ancient "alack". At any rate, the reader must bear in mind that the passage under consideration, although seemingly phrased in a conditional or an interrogatory form, implies a positive statement: namely-as has been stressed by several classical commentators, and most explicitly by Tabari-the statement that "there has never yet been...", etc.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 120 (10:98)

The Qur'an points out in many places that no prophet has ever been immediately accepted as such and followed by all of his people, and that many a community perished in result of the stubborn refusal, by the majority of its members, to listen to the divine message. The only exception in this respect is said to have been the people of Nineveh, who-after having at first rejected their prophet Jonah, so that "he went off in wrath" (cf. 21:87) - later responded to his call in unison, and were saved. For the story of Jonah, see 21:87-88 and 37:139-148, as well as the corresponding notes; a fuller narrative, which does not conflict with the Qur'anic references, is forthcoming from the Bible (The Book of Jonah). In the context of the passage which we are now considering, the mention of Jonah's people - who alone among the communities of the past heeded their prophet before it was too late - is meant to warn the hearers and readers of the Qur'an that a deliberate rejection of its message by "those against whom God's word [of judgment] has come true" (see verse 96) is bound to result in their spiritual doom and, consequently, in grievous suffering in the life to come.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 121 (10:98)

Lit., "for a time", i.e., their natural life-span (Manar XI, 483).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 122 (10:99)

The Qur'an stresses repeatedly the fact that, "had He so willed, He would have guided you all aright" (6:149) - the obvious implication being that He has willed it otherwise: namely, that He has given man the freedom to choose between right and wrong, thus raising him to the status of a moral being (in distinction from other animals, which can only follow their instincts). See, in this context, surah 6, note 143, as well as - in connection with the allegory of the Fall - surah 7, note 16.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 123 (10:100)

I.e., by virtue of God's guidance and within the compass of what He has decreed to be man's nature, comprising the ability to discriminate between right and wrong. Since man's freedom of moral choice expresses itself in his willingness or unwillingness to conform to his true, God-willed nature, it can be said to depend, in the last resort, on God's grace. (Cf. in this respect surah 2, note 19, as well as surah 14, note 4.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 124 (10:100)

Cf. 8:22 and 55, as well as the corresponding note 58. As in those verses, unbelief is here shown to be the result of a person's a-priori unwillingness to use his reason with a view to understanding God's messages, be they directly expressed in the revelations granted to His prophets, or - as the Qur'an once again stresses in the next verse - open to man's perception in the observable phenomena of His creation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 125 (10:103)

My long interpolation at the beginning of this verse is based, in the main, on Zamakhshari's interpretation of it. It is necessitated by the fact that the adverbial conjunction thumma ("thereupon" or "thereafter") does not relate here to the immediately preceding passage but to a theme repeatedly occurring in the Qur'an and only indirectly alluded to in verse 102 above: namely, the experiences of the earlier prophets with their recalcitrant communities, the doom of those who gave the lie to their messages and, in every case, a divine deliverance of the prophet concerned and of those who followed him. Rashid Rida' describes this passage, rightly, as "one of the most outstanding examples of the elliptic mode of expression (ijaz) to be found in the Qur'an" (Manar XI, 487).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 126 (10:103)

Razi explains the phrase haqqan `alayna (lit., "as is incumbent upon Us") as denoting no more than a logical necessity, i.e., the unavoidable fulfilment of God's "willing it upon Himself", and not a "duty" on His part: for, neither is anything "incumbent" upon Him who has the power to will anything, nor-as Razi points out-has man any "right" with regard to his Creator.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 127 (10:104)

Sc., "and call you to account on Judgment Day". The use of the pronoun alladhina in the phrase "those whom you worship" shows that it relates here to rational beings-like saints, etc. - and not to inanimate representations. As regards the term din (rendered here as "faith", see the first half of note 249 on 2:256.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 128 (10:104)

The specific reference, in this context, to God as the One who causes all living beings to die is meant to impress upon "those who deny the truth" the fact that after their death they will be placed before Him for judgment.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 129 (10:105)

In classical Arabic usage, and particularly in the Qur'an, the word "face" is often employed as a metonym for one's whole being because it is the face, more than any other part of the human body, that expresses man's personality (cf. surah 2, note 91).- For an explanation of the term hanif, see surah 2, note 110.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (10:3)

Six Stages or Eras: 2:255, 7:54, 10:3, 11:7, 16:111, 25:59, 50:38, 57:4, 41:10

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (10:4)

A consequence of their own doings. 33:24, 34:3-4, 45:22, 53:31

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (10:5)

The Universe is neither a dream as the ancient Hindu philosopher Manu preached, nor a reflection of the world of ideas as Plato thought. 6:97, 17:12

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (10:6)

Taqwa = Seeking to journey through life in security = To live upright = To be mindful of Divine laws = Being observant = Shielding oneself against moral disintegration. 2:41

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (10:7)

Meeting with Us = Liqa-anaa. At other places 'Meeting with the Lord' is generally understood as meeting the Divine Law of Requitil or Recompense. Some exponents apply 'Meeting with the Lord' to Resurrection alone. In my humble opinion, since God is a Personal, Compassionate God, and a vast majority of His humble servants harbor an intense desire to see Him, He may not deny this Kindness to His servants. We know that God is far too Glorious to have a physical image (anthropomorphic form), but He is Able to do all things. In the World of command (AMR), He designs laws as He wills. It is only in the World of Creation (KHALQ) that He implements those laws, and then, never changes them. So, He is absolutely Capable of devising any law in His World of command. I find myself in agreement with numerous Ahadith narrating that humans should be able to meet their Creator in the Next Life, not as a wishful thinking, but because they are in agreement with the Qur'an. I do not certainly mean God assuming a physical form for 'meeting' with His servants, but in some way that is beyond our understanding at this time. Let us ponder some verses as well that allude to a new creation of humans in forms unknown to us at this time, and entirely new laws becoming operative in the New Universe: ♦ 56:59 Is it you who create it or are We the Creator? ♦ 56:60 We have decreed death (designed the laws of death) among you. And there is nothing to prevent Us ♦ 56:61 From changing your forms and making you in a manner, and in an environment, that is (as yet) unknown to you. ♦ 11:106 Those who, by their deeds, brought misery on themselves will be in the fire, sighing and wailing will be their portion. ♦ 11:107 Therein to abide, as long as the (New) Universe endures; that is time beyond count, unless your Lord decrees otherwise. Your Lord is Doer of what He wills in the World of command. ♦ The current Universe will be dismantled for a new Universe. 5:44, 14:19, 14:48, 21:104, 25:22, 35:16, 36:81, 69:16, 70:9) ♦ 'Meeting with the Lord' is mentioned in the Qur'an about a hundred times. Even the great Allama Mashriqi ventures into the area, although I humbly disagree with him. He thinks that with evolution, humans will lose their body and only the 'spirit' will remain. And this spirit will merge with the 'Spirit' of God. And that is the 'Meeting with the Lord'! (Ref: Hadith-il-Qur'an?) Now this concept exactly matches the Sufi parlance, and, therefore, it is totally unacceptable to a student of the Qur'an. Finally, 2:55 points out that only the disbelievers demand to see God in physical form, but that verse relates only to the life of this world

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (10:9)

A'maal Saaleh = Deeds that increase the individual and collective potential of a society = Helping people = Improving the environment = Fulfilling others' needs = Contributing to the society = Correcting a deficiency

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (10:10)

And so shall be the peaceful Ideal Society on earth. They will realize that the good of one is the good of another, and understand how Praiseworthy the Giver of such blissful guidance is

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (10:11)

10:7

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (10:18)

39:3

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 10 (10:19)

2:30, 2:213, 2:256, 11:118, 16:9, 76:2-3

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 11 (10:20)

That will be the best sign for all of us to behold

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 12 (10:25)

4:88

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 13 (10:29)

They worshiped their own desires and fantasies

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 14 (10:30)

Maula = The True Master = Lord Supreme. The extremely common practice of calling a religious leader as Maulana (Our Master) is a frank, deplorable form of Shirk (associating others with God). But the clergy take pride in it! Many verses in the Qur'an tell us that there is no Maulana but God. It is amazing to note that the Muslim clergy write Maulana with their names, and with their own hands! 9:51

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 16 (10:37)

2:101, 5:48

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 17 (10:38)

2:23, 11:13. One chapter like this in beauty, eloquence and wisdom. And "besides God" would mean, without copying phrases and sentences from the Qur'an

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 18 (10:39)

Taaweel = Practical interpretation. Taaweel is erroneously promoted by some as remote meanings of the Qur'an known only to a few select! Practical interpretation: They are yet to see the practical interpretation of the Qur'an, as to how it can bring about a benevolent transformation in the society

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 19 (10:41)

109:1-6

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 20 (10:42)

47:16

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 21 (10:43)

7:198

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 22 (10:44)

Failing to use the God-given faculties is the first wrong one can commit. It brings the humans down to subhuman levels. 7:179

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 23 (10:45)

10:7

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 24 (10:59)

The clergy go after manmade dogmas thus tampering with the revealed Word of God and declare unlawful His bounties of sustenance, food, clothes, ornament of life and things of aesthetic beauty such as art. 7:32. See 34:13 how a prophet of God, Solomon decorates his kingdom with beautiful works of art

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 25 (10:63)

See Taqwa, 2:41

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 26 (10:64)

And changeless are His laws 6:34, 6:115, 10:64, 17:77, 18:27, 33:38, 33:62, 35:43, 40:85, 48:23.
And you will never find even a slight turn in His laws 17:77

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 27 (10:65)

No power, glory or honor is attainable contrary to His laws

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 28 (10:71)

Maqaami = My stand = My station = My location

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 29 (10:74)

Mu'tadeen = Those who cross limits = Cross all bounds = Given to excesses = Transgressors = Who go beyond reason

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 30 (10:82)

Societies will flourish only when they embrace the Permanent Value System. The guilty that are used to thriving on the toil of others, will hate equity

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 31 (10:89)

20:36, 20:42

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 32 (10:92)

The Pharaoh's body was only discovered during excavations of 1898. Today it is on display in the Royal Mummies Chamber of the Egyptian Museum

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 33 (10:96)

They violate the law of guidance. 4:88

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 34 (10:98)

Jonah's people used to live in humiliation in Nineveh. When they accepted the Divine message, they prospered for about two centuries between 800-612 BC. Then the Midyans conquered them. After the demise of Jonah, his people had been fast ignoring the Divine Word revealed to Jonah, and leaning towards the resurging priest class. The invaders set on fire the wonderful town of Nineveh. The spacious 60 mile wide and beautiful town was reduced to ashes. The king of Assyria got himself burnt alive in the palace, and that was the end of the Assyrian dynasty

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 35 (10:99)

2:256, 76:4-6

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 36 (10:100)

6:126, 10:39. "He places", "He does", "He causes" = His laws are so designed

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 37 (10:101)

2:6-7, 41:53

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 38 (10:104)

Religion: The System that the prophet is trying to establish. Logic: If you believe that other parallel systems can be better, let us go ahead with our programs and await the results. 3:61, 7:71, 109:6

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 39 (10:107)

Affliction, relief or bounty from God must draw our attention to His laws

Rashad Khalifa - The Final Testament

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 3 (10:20)

In retrospect, we see now that the Quran's miracle, indeed "One of the greatest miracles" (74:30-35), was divinely predestined to be unveiled 14 centuries after Muhammad. In view of the current condition of the traditional Muslims, if Muhammad had been given this miracle, those Muslims, who are already idolizing Muhammad beside God, would have worshiped him as God incarnate. Additionally, this miracle is obviously designed for the computer age, and to be appreciated by mathematically sophisticated generations.

Rashad Khalifa - End Note (10:34)

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 5 (10:62)

Most people think that they have to wait until the Day of Resurrection before they receive their rewards for righteousness, or their retribution for wickedness. But the Quran repeatedly assures the believer that they are guaranteed perfect happiness here in this world, now and forever. At the end of their interim here, they go directly to Paradise (see Appendix 17).

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 7 (10:92)

God endowed the Egyptians with the exclusive knowledge of mummification. Today, Pharaoh's mummified body is on display at the Cairo Museum.

Rashad Khalifa - End Note (10:100)

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

Translations ▼

Chapter/Verse ▼

Refresh

Search

Search

<< Prev 11:1-123 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 11:1 A1L30R200. A book whose signs have been ascertained, then detailed, from One who is Wise, Ever-aware. ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 11:1 A.L.R, a Scripture whose verses have been made governing, then detailed, from One who is Wise, Expert.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 11:1 Alif. Lam. Ra. ¹ A DIVINE WRIT [is this], with messages that have been made clear in and by themselves, and have been distinctly spelled out as well ² - [bestowed upon you] out of the grace of One who is wise, all-aware,
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. The Quran: Messenger of God 11:1 A.L.R. This is a scripture whose verses have been perfected, then elucidated. It comes from a Most Wise, Most Cognizant.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 11:1 A.L.R. Alif-Laam-Ra. (Allah, Lateef the Unfathomable, Raaziq the Provider, states that), A Divine writ this is, the verses wherein are perfected and well expounded. It comes from One Wise, Aware.
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRrahmāni alRrahēemi 11:1 Alif-lām-rā kit ābun o ḥkimatayātuhu thumma fu ssilat min ladun ḥakeeminkhabeerin
	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم

A	11:1 الر كتب احكمت ءايتہ ثم فصلت من لدن حكيم خبير
Edip-Layth	The Quran as Warner and Good News 11:2 "That you shall serve none other than God. I am to you from Him a warner and a bearer of good news."
The Monotheist Group	11:2 "That you shall serve none other than God. I am to you from Him a warner and a bearer of good news."
Muhammad Asad	11:2 so that you may worship none but God. [Say, O Prophet:] "Behold, I come unto you from Him [as] a warner and a bearer of glad tidings." ³
Rashad Khalifa	11:2 Proclaiming: "You shall not worship except GOD. I come to you from Him as a warner, as well as a bearer of good news."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:2 It teaches that you serve none but God. (Say O Prophet), "I am to you from Him a warner and a bearer of good news."
Transliteration	11:2 Alla taAAabudoo illa Allahainnane lakum minhu na ^{theerun} wabasheerun
A	11:2 الا تعبدوا الا الله اننى لكم منه نذير وبشير
Edip-Layth	11:3 "Seek forgiveness from your Lord, then repent to Him; He will make you enjoy an enjoyment until a predetermined period. He gives His grace to those who are of grace. If you turn away, then I do fear for you the retribution of a great day!"
The Monotheist Group	11:3 "And seek forgiveness from your Lord, then repent to Him; He will make you enjoy an enjoyment until a predetermined period. And He gives His grace to those who are of grace. And if you turn away, then I do fear for you the retribution of a great day!"
Muhammad Asad	11:3 Ask your Sustainer to forgive you your sins, and then turn towards Him in repentance - [whereupon] He will grant you a goodly enjoyment of life [in this world] until a term set [by Him is fulfilled]; ⁴ and [in the life to come] He will bestow upon everyone possessed of merit [a full reward for] his merit. ⁵ But if you turn away, then, verily, I dread for you the suffering [which is bound to befall you] on that awesome Day ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	11:3 "You shall seek your Lord's forgiveness, then repent to Him. He will then bless you generously for a predetermined period, and bestow His grace upon those who deserve it. If you turn away, then I fear for you the retribution of an awesome day."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:3 Seek your Sustainer's forgiveness, then turn towards Him in repentance. He will then grant you a goodly enjoyment of life in this world until a term appointed. He will bestow His abounding grace on all who abound in merit. But if you turn away, then I fear for you the chastisement of a Great Day."
Transliteration	11:3 Waani istaghfiroo rabbakum thumma too ^{booilayhi} yumattiAAakum mat ^a AAan ^{hasanan} il ^a ajalin musamman wayu/ti kulla ^{thee} fadlin fad ^l ahuwa-in tawallaw fa-inee akh ^a fu AAalaykum AAa th abayawmin kabeerin
A	11:3 وان استغفروا ربكم ثم توبوا اليه يمتعكم متعا حسنا الى اجل مسمى ويوت كل ذى فضل فضله وان تولوا فانى اخاف عليكم عذاب يوم كبير
Edip-Layth	11:4 "To God is your return, and He is capable of all things."

The Monotheist Group	11:4 "To God is your return, and He is capable of all things."
Muhammad Asad	11:4 Unto God you all must return: and He has the power to will anything."
Rashad Khalifa	11:4 To GOD is your ultimate return, and He is Omnipotent.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:4 To God is your return and He has Power over all things.
Transliteration	11:4 Ilā Allāhi marjiAAukum wahuwaAAalā kulli shay-in qadeer un
A	11:4 إلى الله مرجعكم وهو على كل شيء قدير
Edip-Layth	11:5 Alas, they folded their chests to hide from Him. Even when they hide themselves under their outer garments, He knows what they keep secret and what they declare. He is the knower of all that is in the chests. ⁴
The Monotheist Group	11:5 Alas, they folded their chests to hide from it. Even when they hide themselves under their outer garments, He knows what they keep secret and what they declare. He is the knower of all that is in the chests.
Muhammad Asad	11:5 Oh, verily, they [who are bent on denying the truth of this divine writ] are enshrouding their hearts in order to hide from Him. ⁷ Oh, verily, [even] when they cover themselves with their garments [in order not to see or hear], ⁸ He knows all that they keep secret as well as all that they bring into the open - for, behold, He has full knowledge of what is in the hearts [of men].
Rashad Khalifa	11:5 Indeed, they hide their innermost thoughts, as if to keep Him from knowing them. In fact, as they cover themselves with their clothes, He knows all their secrets and declarations. He knows the innermost thoughts.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:5 Oh, certainly, see how they enshroud their hearts hiding their innermost thoughts, as if to keep Him from knowing them! (Are they trying to live a dual personality? 71:7). Ah! When they cover themselves with garments of vanity, He knows what they conceal and what they reveal. For, He is Knower of the innermost thoughts of the hearts.
Transliteration	11:5 Alā innahum yathnoona sudoorahumliyastakhfoo minhu al a heena yastaghshoona thiy abahumyaAAalamu m a yusirroona wam a yuAAlinoona innahuAAaleemun bithati alssudoori
A	11:5 الا انهم يثنون صدورهم ليستخفوا منه الا حين يستغشون ثيابهم يعلم ما يسرون وما يعلنون انه عليم بذات الصدور
Edip-Layth	11:6 There is not a creature on earth except that its provision is due from God. He knows their habitat and their depository. All is in a clear record. ²
The Monotheist Group	11:6 And there is not a creature on Earth except that its provision is due from God. And He knows where it dwells and where it hides. All is in a clear record.
Muhammad Asad	11:6 And there is no living creature on earth but depends for its sustenance on God; and He knows its time-limit [on earth] and its resting-place [after death]: ⁹ all [this] is laid down in [His] clear decree.
Rashad Khalifa	Provisions Guaranteed 11:6 There is not a creature on earth whose provision is not guaranteed by GOD. And He knows its course and its final destiny. All are recorded in a profound record.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:6 There is no living creature on earth but its sustenance depends on God. He knows its habitation and its destiny. (He carries them from one station to another until the final destination.) All this is laid down in the Divine Database ¹

Transliteration	11:6 Wama min d abbatin fee al-ar diilla AAal a All ahi rizquh a wayaAAalamumustaqarraha wamustawda AAaha kullun fee kit abinmubeen in
A	11:6 وما من دابة في الارض الا على الله رزقها ويعلم مستقرها ومستودعها كل في كتب مبين
Edip-Layth	11:7 He is the One who created the heavens and earth in six days, and His dominion was upon the water, and to test who from amongst you works the best. When you say, "You will be resurrected after death." those who rejected will say, "This is but clear magic!" ³
The Monotheist Group	11:7 He is the One who created the heavens and Earth in six days, and His throne was upon the water, and to test who from amongst you works the best. And when you say: "You will be resurrected after death." those who rejected will say: "This is but clear magic!"
Muhammad Asad	11:7 And He it is who has created the heavens and the earth in six aeons; and [ever since He has willed to create life,] the throne of His almightiness has rested upon water. ¹⁰ [God reminds you of your dependence on Him] in order to test you [and thus to make manifest] which of you is best in conduct. For thus it is: if ¹¹ thou sayest [unto men], "Behold, you shall be raised again after death!" - they who are bent on denying the truth are sure to answer, "This is clearly nothing but an enchanting delusion" ¹²
Rashad Khalifa	11:7 He is the One who created the heavens and the earth in six days - and His (earthly) domain was completely covered with water - in order to test you, to distinguish those among you who work righteousness. Yet, when you say, "You will be resurrected after death," those who disbelieve would say, "This is clearly witchcraft."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:7 He created the heavens and earth in six stages and established Himself on the Throne of His Almightyness. He has Supreme Control over the origination of life which began in water (21:30). Life is a test for yourselves to see which of you leads a balanced life and is best in conduct. Yet, if you (O Prophet!), say, "You will be raised again after death," those who deny the truth will surely say, "This is nothing but manifest sorcery!" ²
Transliteration	11:7 Wahuwa alla thee khalafa a Issamawatiwa al-arda fee sittati ayy amin wakanaAAarshuhu AAala alma -i liyabluwakum ayyukum a hsanu AAamalan wala-in qulta innakum mabAAoothoona min baAAadi almawtilayaqoolanna alla theena kafaroo in hatha ill asi hrun mubeen un
A	11:7 وهو الذى خلق السموت والارض فى ستة ايام وكان عرشه على الماء ليبلوكم ايكم احسن عملا ولن قلت انكم مبعوثون من بعد الموت ليقولن الذين كفروا ان هذا الا سحر مبين
Edip-Layth	11:8 If We delay for them the retribution to a near period, they will say, "What has kept it?" Alas, on the day it comes to them, nothing will turn it away from them, and what they used to mock will catch up with them.
The Monotheist Group	11:8 And if We delay for them the retribution to a near period, they will say: "What has kept it?" Alas, on the day it comes to them, nothing will turn it away from them, and what they used to mock will catch-up with them.
Muhammad Asad	11:8 And thus it is: if We defer their suffering until a time-limit set [by Us], ¹³ they are sure to say, "What is preventing it [from coming now]?" ¹⁴ Oh, verily, on the Day when it befalls them there will be nothing to avert it from them; and they shall be overwhelmed by the very thing which they were wont to deride. ¹⁵

Rashad Khalifa	11:8 And if we delay the retribution they have incurred - for we reserve it for a specific community - they say, "What is keeping Him?" In fact, once it comes to them, nothing can stop it, and their mocking will come back to haunt them.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:8 And when We delay for them the retribution until after the Period of respite, they will surely say, "What is keeping back the doom?" Ah! On the day it actually reaches them, nothing will turn it away from them. And their mockery will completely surround them.
Transliteration	11:8 Wala-in akhkharn a AAanhumu alAAa thabaila ommatin maAAadoodatin layaqoolunna m a ya ḥbisuhuala yawma ya/teehim laysa ma ṣroofan AAanhum wahaqabihim ṃa kanoo bihi yastahzi-oona
A	11:8 ولئن اخرجنا عنهم العذاب الى امة معدودة ليقولن ما يحبسهم الا يوم ياتيهم ليس مصروفا عنهم وحاق بهم ما كانوا به يستهزون
Edip-Layth	11:9 If We give the human being a taste of mercy from Us, then We withdraw it from him; he becomes despairing, rejecting.
The Monotheist Group	11:9 And if We give man a taste of mercy from Us, then We withdraw it from him; he becomes despairing, rejecting.
Muhammad Asad	11:9 And thus it is: if We let man taste some of Our grace, ¹⁶ and then take it away from him -behold, he abandons all hope, ¹⁷ forgetting all gratitude [for Our past favours].
Rashad Khalifa	11:9 Whenever we bless the human being with mercy from us, then remove it, he turns despondent, unappreciative.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:9 Thus it is: If We let the human being taste some of Our grace, and then take it away from him, he abandons all hope, forgetting all gratitude.
Transliteration	11:9 Wala-in a thaqṇa al-ins anaminna ra ḥmatan thumma nazaAAan ahaminhu innahu layaoosun kafoorun
A	11:9 ولئن اذقنا الانسن منا رحمة ثم نزعناها منه انه ليوس كفور
Edip-Layth	11:10 If We give him the taste of a blessing after hardship had afflicted him, he will say, "Evil has gone from me!" he becomes happy, boastful;
The Monotheist Group	11:10 And if We give him the taste of a blessing after hardship had afflicted him, he will say: "Evil has gone from me!"; he becomes happy, boastful.
Muhammad Asad	11:10 And thus it is: if We let him taste ease and plenty ¹⁸ after hardship has visited him, he is sure to say, "Gone is all affliction from me!"-for, behold, he is given to vain exultation, and glories only in himself. ¹⁹
Rashad Khalifa	11:10 Whenever we bless him, after adversity had afflicted him, he says, "All adversity has gone away from me;" he becomes excited, proud.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:10 But if We let him taste a blessing after adversity had afflicted him, he will say, "All adversity has gone away from me!" He is exultant, boastful.
Transliteration	11:10 Wala-in a thaqṇahu naAAam aabaAAada darṛaa massat-hu layaqoolanna thahabaaIssayyi-atu AAannee innahu lafarihunfakhoorun
A	11:10 ولئن اذقته نعماء بعد ضراء مسته ليقولن ذهب السيئات عني انه لفرح فخور

Eidip-Layth	11:11 Except for those who are steadfast and do good work; these will have a pardon, and a great reward.
The Monotheist Group	11:11 Except for those who are patient and do good work; these will have a pardon, and a great reward.
Muhammad Asad	11:11 [And thus it is with most men-] save those who are patient in adversity and do righteous deeds: it is they whom forgiveness of sins awaits, and a great reward.
Rashad Khalifa	11:11 As for those who steadfastly persevere, and lead a righteous life, they deserve forgiveness and a generous recompense.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:11 Except those who are steadfast in adversity and prosperity, and work to improve human potential. For them is the protection of forgiveness and a great reward. ³
Transliteration	11:11 Illa alla theena sabaroowaAAamiloo a lssalihati ol a-ika lahummaghfiraturun waajrun kabeerun
A	11:11 الا الذين صبروا وعملوا الصلحت اولئك لهم مغفرة واجر كبير
Eidip-Layth	11:12 So perhaps you wish to ignore some of what has been inspired to you, and you are depressed by it, because they say, "If only a treasure was sent down with him, or an angel had come with him!" You are but a warner, and God is caretaker over all things.
The Monotheist Group	11:12 So perhaps you wish to ignore some of what has been inspired to you, and you are depressed by it, because they say: "If only a treasure was sent down with him, or an angel had come with him!" You are but a warner, and God is caretaker over all things.
Muhammad Asad	11:12 IS IT, then, conceivable [O Prophet] that thou couldst omit any part of what is being revealed unto thee [because the deniers of the truth dislike it,-and] because thy heart is distressed at their saying, ²⁰ "Why has not a treasure been bestowed upon him from on high?" -or, "[Why has not] an angel come [visibly:: with him ?]" ²¹ [They fail to understand that] thou art only a warner, whereas God has everything in His care ; ²²
Rashad Khalifa	God's Revelation is Heavy 11:12 You may wish to disregard some of that which is revealed to you, and you may be annoyed by it. Also, they may say, "How come no treasure comes down to him, or an angel?" You are only a warner; GOD controls all things.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:12 Is it then conceivable (O Prophet!), that you omit any part of what is being revealed to you (because the rejecters dislike it)? Or because you feel uncomfortable on their saying, "Why has not a treasure been sent down for him, or an angel come with him?" You are but a warner, and it is God Who is the Custodian of all things.
Transliteration	11:12 FalaAAallaka t arikun baAA da m ayooaha ilayka wa da-iqun bihi sadruka anyaqooloo lawla onzila AAalayhi kanzun aw j aamaAAahu malakun innam a anta natheerun waAllahuAAala kulli shay-in wakeelun
A	11:12 فلعلك تارك بعض ما يوحى اليك وضائق به صدرك ان يقولوا لولا انزل عليه كنز او جاء معه ملك انما انت نذير والله على كل شيء وكيل
Eidip-Layth	The Quran is a Unique Book with Extraordinary Features 11:13 Or do they say, "He invented it!" Say, "Bring ten invented chapters like it, and call on whom you can besides God if you are truthful." ⁵

The Monotheist Group	11:13 Or do they say: "He invented it!" Say: "Bring ten invented chapters like it, and call on whom you can besides God if you are truthful."
Muhammad Asad	11:13 and so they assert, "[Muhammad himself] has invented this [Qur'an]!" ²³ Say [unto them]: "Produce, then, ten surahs of similar merit, invented [by yourselves], and [to this end] call to your aid whomever you can, other than, God, if what you say is true!" ²⁴
Rashad Khalifa	The Quran: Impossible to Imitate 11:13 If they say, "He fabricated (the Quran)," tell them, "Then produce ten suras like these, fabricated, and invite whomever you can, other than GOD, if you are truthful."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:13 Or they assert, "He has forged it." Say to them, "Then bring ten Surahs like this, forged, and call on whomever you can other than God - if you are truthful!" ⁴
Transliteration	11:13 Am yaqooloona iftar ahu qul fa/toobiAAashri suwarin mithlihi muftaray atin waodAAoomani istataAAatum min dooni Allahi in kuntum sadiqeena
A	11:13 ام يقولون افتره قل فاتوا بعشر سور مثله مفتریت وادعوا من استطعتم من دون الله ان كنتم صدقین
Edip-Layth	11:14 If they do not respond to you, then know that it was sent down with God's knowledge, and that there is no god but He. Will you then peacefully surrender?
The Monotheist Group	11:14 So, if they do not respond to you, then know that it was sent down with God's knowledge, and that there is no god but He. Will you then submit?
Muhammad Asad	11:14 And if they [whom you have called to your aid] are not able to help you, ²⁵ then know that [this Qur'an] has been bestowed from on high out of God's wisdom alone, ²⁶ and that there is no deity save Him. Will you, then, surrender yourselves unto Him?"
Rashad Khalifa	11:14 If they fail to meet your challenge, then know that this is revealed with GOD's knowledge, and that there is no god except He. Will you then submit?
Shabbir Ahmed	11:14 "And if they do not answer your call, then know that it has been revealed only with the knowledge of God, and that there is no god but He. Will you then submit to Him (be Muslims)?"
Transliteration	11:14 Fa-illam yastajeeboo lakum fa iAAalamooannama onzila biAAilmi Allahi waan la ilaha illa huwa fahal antum muslimoon a
A	11:14 فآلم يستجيبوا لكم فاعلموا انما انزل بعلم الله وان لا اله الا هو فهل انتم مسلمون
Edip-Layth	11:15 Whoever wants the worldly life and its adornments, then We will grant them their works in it, and they will not be short changed in it.
The Monotheist Group	11:15 Whoever wants the worldly life and its adornments, then We will grant them their works in it, and they will not be short changed in it.
Muhammad Asad	11:15 AS FOR THOSE who care for [no more than] the life of this world and its bounties -We shall repay them in full for all that they did in this [life], and they, shall not be deprived of their just due therein:
Rashad Khalifa	11:15 Those who pursue this worldly life and its material vanities, we will pay them for their works in this life, without the least reduction.

Shabbir Ahmed	11:15 Whoever cares for (no more than) the short term gains and glitter of the worldly life, We shall repay for them their deeds herein without the least reduction. ⁵
Transliteration	11:15 Man k ana yureedu al hayataalddunya wazeenatah a nuwaffi ilayhim aAAamalahumfeeha wahum feeha la yubkhasoon a
A	11:15 من كان يريد الحياة الدنيا وزينتها نوف اليهم اعمالهم فيها وهم فيها لا يبخسون
Edip-Layth	11:16 These will have nothing but fire in the Hereafter, and what they have done will be in vain, and evil is what they have worked.
The Monotheist Group	11:16 These will have nothing but fire in the Hereafter, and what they have done will be put-down, and evil is what they have worked.
Muhammad Asad	11:16 [yet] it is they who, in the life to come, shall have nothing but the fire -for in vain shall be all that they wrought in this [world], and worthless all that they ever did ! ²⁷
Rashad Khalifa	11:16 It is they who gave up their share in the Hereafter, and, consequently, Hell is their lot. All their works are in vain; everything they have done is nullified.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:16 But (since they did not invest in the life to come), for them is nothing but fire in the Hereafter. All that they have contrived here is in vain, and worthless is all that they did. ⁶
Transliteration	11:16 Ola-ika alla theena laysa lahumfee al- akhira ill a a Innaru wa habitama sanaAAoo feeha wabatilun makanoo yaAAamaloona
A	11:16 اولئك الذين ليس لهم فى الءآخرة الا النار وحبط ما صنعوا فيها وبطل ما كانوا يعملون
Edip-Layth	Similar Proof in the Book Given to Moses 11:17 As for those who are on a proof from their Lord, and are followed by a testimony from Him; and before it was the book of Moses as a guide and a mercy; they will acknowledge it. Whoever rejects it from amongst the parties, then the fire is his meeting place. So do not be in any doubt about it. It is the truth from your Lord, but most people do not acknowledge. ⁶
The Monotheist Group	11:17 For those who are on a clarity from their Lord, and are followed by a testimony from Him; and before it was the Scripture of Moses as a guide and a mercy; they will believe in it. And whoever rejects it from amongst the parties, then the Fire is his meeting place. So do not be in any doubt about it. It is the truth from your Lord, but most people do not believe.
Muhammad Asad	11:17 Can, then, [he who cares for no more than the life of this world be compared with ²⁸] one who takes his stand on a clear evidence from his Sustainer, conveyed through [this] testimony from Him, ²⁹ as was the revelation vouchsafed to Moses aforetime-[a divine writ ordained by Him] to be a guidance and grace [unto man]? They [who understand this message-it is they alone who truly] believe in it; ³⁰ whereas for any of those who, leagued together [in common hostility], ³¹ deny its truth - the fire shall be their appointed state [in the life to come]. And so, ³² be not in doubt about this [revelation]: behold, it is the truth from thy Sustainer, even though ³³ most people will not believe in it.
	The Quran's Mathematical Code 11:17 As for those who are given solid proof from their Lord, reported by a

Rashad Khalifa	witness from Him, and before it, the book of Moses has set a precedent and a mercy, they will surely believe. As for those who disbelieve among the various groups, Hell is awaiting them. Do not harbor any doubt; this is the truth from your Lord, but most people disbelieve.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:17 Can they (those who look for material gains alone) be like those who receive clear revelations from their Lord and to whom a witness from Him recites it? (They have the prophet as a witness who correlates God's signs in the Universe with His verses.) Also, they have the scripture of Moses before it, a standard of guidance and grace. (It foretold the advent of the final messenger; Deuteronomy 18:15-18). They, it is they, who should attain belief. As for those who league together (in opposition,) rejecting the truth, the fire is their appointed place. And so, harbor no doubt; most certainly this is the truth from your Sustainer, even though most people do not believe in it. ⁷
Transliteration	11:17 Afaman k ana AAal a bayyinatnmin rabbihi wayatloohu sh ahidun minhu wamin qablihi kitabumooosa imaman wara hmatan ola-ikayu/minoona bihi waman yakfur bihi mina al-a hzabi fa alInnarumawAAiduhu fal a taku fee miryatin minhu innahu alhaqqumin rabbika walakinna akthara alInnasi layu/minoona
A	11:17 افمن كان على بينة من ربه ويتلوه شاهد منه ومن قبله كتب موسى اماما ورحمة اولئك يؤمنون به ومن يكفر به من الاحزاب فالنار موعده فلا تك في مرية منه انه الحق من ربك ولكن اكثر الناس لا يؤمنون
Edip-Layth	The Most Wicked: Rabbis, Priests, Mullahs, Monks Who Attribute Lies to God 11:18 Who is more wicked than one who invents lies about God? They will be brought before their Lord, and the witnesses will say, "These are the ones who lied about their Lord." Alas, God's curse will be upon the wicked.
The Monotheist Group	11:18 And who is more wicked than one who invents lies about God? They will be displayed before their Lord, and the witnesses will say: "These are the ones who lied about their Lord." Alas, God's curse will be upon the wicked.
Muhammad Asad	11:18 And who could be more wicked than they who attribute their own lying inventions to God? ³⁴ [On the Day of Judgment, such as] these shall be arraigned before their Sustainer, and those who are called upon to bear witness [against them] ³⁵ shall say, "It is they who uttered lies about their Sustainer!" ³⁶ Oh, verily, God's rejection is the due of all evildoers ³⁷
Rashad Khalifa	11:18 Who are more evil than those who fabricate lies about GOD? They will be presented before their Lord, and the witnesses will say, "These are the ones who lied about their Lord. GOD's condemnation has befallen the transgressors."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:18 Who can be a greater wrongdoer than the one who invents a lie about God? Such will be brought before their Lord, and the witnesses will say, "These are the one who lied about their Sustainer." Oh, certainly, God's rejection is the due of all those who displace right with wrong. ⁸
Transliteration	11:18 Waman a thlamu mimmani iftar aAAala All ahi ka thiban ol a-ika yuAARadoonaAAala rabbihim wayaqoolu al-ashh adu h aola-iallatheena ka thaboo AAala rabbihim alalaAAnatu Allahi AAala alththalimeena
A	11:18 ومن اظلم ممن افترى على الله كذبا اولئك يعرضون على ربهم ويقول الاشهد هولاء الذين كذبوا على ربهم الا لعنة الله على الظالمين
Edip-Layth	11:19 Those who repel others from the path of God and seek to twist it; and regarding the Hereafter they are in denial.

The Monotheist Group	11:19 Those who block others from the path of God and they seek to twist it; and regarding the Hereafter they are in denial.
Muhammad Asad	11:19 who turn others away from the path of God and try to make it appear crooked -since it is they, they who refuse to acknowledge the truth of the life to come ! ³⁸
Rashad Khalifa	11:19 They repel from the way of GOD and seek to make it crooked, and they are disbelievers in the Hereafter.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:19 They are the ones who hinder people from the path of God, and seek to make it crooked. Thus they practically disbelieve in the life Hereafter.
Transliteration	11:19 Allat h eena ya s uddoona AAansabeeli All a hi wayabghoonah a AAiwajan wahum bial- a khira t ihum ka f iroona
A	11:19 الذين يصدون عن سبيل الله وييغونها عوجا وهم بالآخرة هم كفرون
Edip-Layth	11:20 These are the ones who will not escape on earth, nor do they have besides God any allies. The retribution will be doubled for them. They were not able to hear, nor could they see.
The Monotheist Group	11:20 These are the ones who will not escape on Earth, nor do they have besides God any allies. The retribution will be doubled for them. They were not able to hear, nor could they see.
Muhammad Asad	11:20 Never can they elude [their final reckoning, even if they remain unscathed] on earth : ³⁹ never will they find anyone who could protect them from God. [In the life to come] double suffering will be imposed on them ⁴⁰ for having lost the ability to hear [the truth] and having failed to see [it]. ⁴¹
Rashad Khalifa	The Disbelievers 11:20 These will never escape, nor will they find any lords or masters to help them against GOD. Retribution will be doubled for them. They have failed to hear, and they have failed to see.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:20 They will not escape on earth. And they will have no protectors against God. Double suffering will be imposed on them since they could not bear to hear (the truth) nor could see (it).
Transliteration	11:20 Ol a -ika lam yakoonoo muAAjizeena feeal-ar d i wama a kana lahum min dooni All a himin awliy a a yu d aAAafu lahumu alAAa t habu m a kanoo yasta teeAAoona alssamAAa wama a kanooyub s iroona
A	11:20 اولئك لم يكونوا معجزين في الارض وما كان لهم من دون الله من اولياء يضعف لهم العذاب ما كانوا يستطيعون السمع وما كانوا يبصرون
Edip-Layth	11:21 They are the ones who lost their selves, and what they had invented has abandoned them.
The Monotheist Group	11:21 They are the ones who lost themselves, and what they had invented has abandoned them.
Muhammad Asad	11:21 It is they who have squandered their own selves-for [on the Day of Resurrection] all their false imagery ⁴² will have forsaken them:
Rashad Khalifa	11:21 These are the ones who lose their souls, and the idols they had fabricated will disown them.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:21 Such are the ones who have lost their own 'self', and all their false imagery. Their invented dogmas and the idols will fail them.

Transliteration	11:21 Olā-ika alla the ena khasirooanfusahum wa d alla AAanhum m a k a noo yaftaroon a
A	11:21 اولئك الذين خسروا انفسهم وذل عنهم ما كانوا يفترون
Edip-Layth	11:22 There is no doubt, that in the Hereafter they are the greatest losers.
The Monotheist Group	11:22 There is no doubt, that in the Hereafter they are the greatest losers.
Muhammad Asad	11:22 truly it is they, they who in the life to come shall be the losers!
Rashad Khalifa	11:22 There is no doubt that, in the Hereafter, they will be the worst losers.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:22 These fabricators will be the worst losers in the Hereafter.
Transliteration	11:22 Lā jarama annahum fee al- a khiraatihumu al-akhsaroon a
A	11:22 لا جرم انهم فى الاءخرة هم الاخسرون
Edip-Layth	11:23 Those who acknowledge and do good works, and are humble towards their Lord; they are the dwellers of paradise, in it they will remain.
The Monotheist Group	11:23 Those who believe and do good works, and are humble towards their Lord; they are the dwellers of Paradise, in it they will remain.
Muhammad Asad	11:23 Behold, [only] those who attain to faith and do righteous deeds and humble themselves before their Sustainer - [only] they are destined for paradise, and there shall they abide.
Rashad Khalifa	The Believers 11:23 As for those who believe and lead a righteous life, and devote themselves to their Lord, they are the dwellers of Paradise; they abide therein forever.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:23 Those who attain belief and work for the betterment of people, and are humble before their Lord, are the rightful dwellers of the Garden; they will abide therein.
Transliteration	11:23 Inna allat he ena a manoowaAAamiloo al s alihati waakhbatoo ilarabbihi m olā-ika as- h abu aljannati hum fee h ak h alidoon a
A	11:23 ان الذين ءامنوا وعملوا الصلحت واخبتوا الى ربهم اولئك اصحب الجنة هم فيها خلون
Edip-Layth	11:24 The example of the two groups is like the blind and deaf, the seer and hearer. Are they equal when compared? Do you not take heed?
The Monotheist Group	11:24 The example of the two groups is like the blind and deaf, and the seer and hearer. Are they the same when compared? Do you not take heed?
Muhammad Asad	11:24 These two kinds of man ⁴³ may be likened to the blind and deaf and the seeing and hearing. Can these two be deemed alike in [their] nature? ⁴⁴ ` Will you not, then, keep this in mind?
Rashad Khalifa	11:24 The example of these two groups is like the blind and deaf, compared to the seer and hearer. Are they equal? Would you not take heed?
Shabbir Ahmed	11:24 These two kinds of persons may be likened to the blind and the deaf, and he who can see and hear well. Are the two equal when compared? Will you not then keep this in mind? ⁹

Transliteration	11:24 Mathalu alfareeqayni ka al-aAAaMawaal-aṣammi wa albaṣeeri waalssameeAAihal yastawiyani mathalan afala tathakkaroonā
A	11:24 ئ مثل الفريقين كالأعمى والأصم والبصير والسميع هل يستويان مثلا افلا تنكرون
Edip-Layth	Noah and His Aristocrat Opponents 11:25 We had sent Noah to his people: "I am to you a clear warner!"
The Monotheist Group	11:25 And We had sent Noah to his people: "I am to you a clear warner!"
Muhammad Asad	11:25 AND INDEED, [it was with the same message that] We sent forth Noah unto his people : ⁴⁵ "Behold, I come unto you with the plain warning
Rashad Khalifa	11:25 We sent Noah to his people, saying, "I come to you as a clear warner.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:25 We sent Noah to his people and he declared, "Indeed, I come to you with a plain warning."
Transliteration	11:25 Walaqad arsalnā nooḥan ilaḡawmihi innee lakum naṭṭheerun mubeenun
A	11:25 ولقد ارسلنا نوحا الى قومه انى لكم نذير مبين
Edip-Layth	11:26 "Do not serve except God. I fear for you the retribution of a painful day."
The Monotheist Group	11:26 "Do not serve except God. I fear for you the retribution of a painful day."
Muhammad Asad	11:26 that you may worship none but God-for, verily, I fear lest suffering befall you on a grievous Day!" ⁴⁶
Rashad Khalifa	Noah 11:26 "You shall not worship except GOD. I fear for you the retribution of a painful day."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:26 "That you may serve none but God (and follow not the rampant traditions). I am afraid this trend is slowly taking you toward a day of an awful disaster."
Transliteration	11:26 An l a taAAabudoo ill a All aḡainnee akh afu AAalaykum AAa ṭḥaba yawmin aleemin
A	11:26 ان لا تعبدوا الا الله انى اخاف عليكم عذاب يوم اليم
Edip-Layth	11:27 The leaders who rejected from amongst his people said, "We do not see you except as a human like us, and we see that only the lowest amongst our people with shallow opinion have followed you. We do not see anything that makes you better than us; in fact, we think you are liars."
The Monotheist Group	11:27 The leaders who rejected from amongst his people said: "We do not see you except as a human like us, and we see that only the lowest amongst our people who have no opinion have followed you. And we do not see anything that makes you better than us; in fact, we think you are liars."
Muhammad Asad	11:27 But the great ones among his people, who refused to acknowledge the truth, answered: "We do not see in thee anything but a mortal man like ourselves; and we do not see that any follow thee save those who are quite obviously the most abject among us; ⁴⁷ and we do not see that you could be in any way superior to us: ⁴⁸ on the ,contrary, we think that you are liars!"
Rashad Khalifa	11:27 The leaders who disbelieved among his people said, "We see that you are no more than a human being like us, and we see that the first people to follow you are the worst among us. We see that you do not possess any advantage over us. Indeed, we think you are liars."

Shabbir Ahmed	11:27 But the chiefs of his people, who were the foremost in rejection of the message said, "We see in you nothing but a man like ourselves. And we see that none has followed you except, quite obviously, the lowest among us. And we do not find in you all any merit over us. Nay, we think all of you are liars. ¹⁰
Transliteration	11:27 Faqala almalao alla theenakafaroo min qawmihi m a nar aka ill a basharanmithlana wama naraka ittabaAAaka ill aallatheena hum arathiluna badiya alrra/yiwama nara lakum AAalayna min fadlinbal na ^h unnukum kathibeena
A	11:27 فقال الملا الذين كفروا من قومه ما نربك الا بشرا مثلنا وما نربك اتبعك الا الذين هم ارادنا بادی الراى وما نرى لكم علينا من فضل بل نظنكم كذابين
Edip-Layth	11:28 He said, "My people, do you not see that I have proof from my Lord and He gave me mercy from Himself, but you are blinded to it? Shall we compel you to it while you are averse to it?"
The Monotheist Group	11:28 He said: "My people, do you not see that I have clarity from my Lord and He gave me mercy from Himself, but it has been blinded to you? Shall we compel you to it while you have a hatred to it?"
Muhammad Asad	11:28 Said [Noah]: "O my people! What do you think? If [it be true that I am taking my stand on a clear evidence from my~ Sustainer, who has vouchsafed unto me grace from Himself - [a revelation] to which you have remained blind-: [if this be true,] can we force it on you even though it be hateful to you? ⁴⁹
Rashad Khalifa	11:28 He said, "O my people, what if I have a solid proof from my Lord? What if He has blessed me out of His mercy, though you cannot see it? Are we going to force you to believe therein?"
Shabbir Ahmed	11:28 Noah said, "O My people, think! What if I am taking my stand on clear evidence from my Lord? What if He has blessed me out of His grace of guidance? It is obscure to you because you are not seeing it through the eyes of reason. In any case, can we compel you to accept what is detestable to you?"
Transliteration	11:28 Qala y a qawmi araaytum inkuntu AAal a bayyinatin min rabbee waataneerahmatan min AAindihi faAAummiyat AAalaykum anulzimukumoo ^h awaantum laha karihoona
A	11:28 قال يقوم اريتم ان كنت على بينة من ربى وءاتنى رحمة من عنده فعميت عليكم انلزمكموها وانتم لها كرهون
Edip-Layth	11:29 "My people, I do not ask you for money, my reward is with God. Nor will I turn away those who acknowledge, for they will meet their Lord. But I see that you are a people who are ignorant."
The Monotheist Group	11:29 "And my people, I do not ask you for money, my reward is with God. Nor will I turn away those who believe, for they will meet their Lord. But I see that you are a people who are ignorant."
Muhammad Asad	11:29 "And, O my people, no benefit do I ask of you for this [message]: my reward rests with none but God. And I shall not repulse [any of] those who have attained to faith. ⁵⁰ Verily, they [know that they] are destined to meet their Sustainer, whereas in you I see people without any awareness [of right and wrong]!"
Rashad Khalifa	11:29 "O my people, I do not ask you for any money; my wage comes only from GOD. I am not dismissing those who believed; they will meet their Lord (and He alone will judge them). I see that you are ignorant people.

Shabbir Ahmed	11:29 "O My people! No benefit do I ask you for this. My reward rests with none but God. And I am not going to repulse any of the believers (39:40, 63:8). Surely, they know that they are destined to meet their Lord, whereas in you I see people who are wandering in the darkness of ignorance."
Transliteration	11:29 Waya qawmi l a as-alukumAAalayhi m alan in ajriya ill a AAala All ahiwama ana bi taridi alla theena amanooinnahum mul aqoo rabbihim wal akinnee arakumqawman tajhaloona
A	11:29 ويقوم لا اسلكم عليه مالا ان اجرى الا على الله وما انا بطارد الذين ءامنوا انهم ملقوا ربهم ولكنى اربكم قوما تجهلون
Edip-Layth	11:30 "My people, who will give me victory against God if I turn them away? Will you not reflect?"
The Monotheist Group	11:30 "And my people, who will give me victory against God if I turn them away? Will you not remember!"
Muhammad Asad	11:30 And, O my people, who would shield me from God were I to repulse them? Will you not, then, keep this in mind?
Rashad Khalifa	11:30 "O my people, who can support me against GOD, if I dismiss them? Would you not take heed?"
Shabbir Ahmed	11:30 "And O My people! Who will help me against God if I drove them away? Will you then not reflect?"
Transliteration	11:30 Waya qawmi man yan surunee minaAll ahi in taradtuhum afal a tathakkaroonaa
A	11:30 ويقوم من ينصرنى من الله ان طردتهم افلا تذكرون
Edip-Layth	11:31 "Nor do I say to you that I have the treasures of God, nor do I know the future, nor do I say that I am an angel, nor do I say to those whom your eyes look down upon that God will not grant them any good. God is more aware of what is in them; in such case I would be among the wicked."
The Monotheist Group	11:31 "Nor do I say to you that I have the treasures of God, nor do I know the future, nor do I say that I am an angel, nor do I say to those whom your eyes look down upon that God will not grant them any good. God is more aware of what is in their souls; in such case I would be among the wicked."
Muhammad Asad	11:31 "And I do not say unto you, 'God's treasures are with me'; nor [do I say], 'I know the reality which is beyond the reach of human perception'; nor do I say, 'Behold, I am an angel'; ⁵¹ nor do I say of those whom your eyes hold in contempt, ⁵² 'Never will God grant them any good'- for God is fully aware of what is in their hearts. ⁵³ [Were I to speak thus,] verily, I would indeed be among the evildoers."
Rashad Khalifa	All Power Belongs to God 11:31 "I do not claim that I possess the treasures of GOD, nor do I know the future, nor do I claim to be an angel. Nor do I say to those despised by your eyes that GOD will not bestow any blessings upon them. GOD knows best what is in their innermost thoughts. (If I did this,) I would be a transgressor."
	11:31 "I never say to you that I have the Treasures of God. Neither do I claim knowledge of what is beyond human perception, nor do I say that I am an angel."

Shabbir Ahmed	I disagree with you, that my followers are the people of the lesser status. You claim that God will never give them His bounties, but He knows their true merit. I cannot be unjust to them."
Transliteration	11:31 Walā aqoolu lakum AAindee khaz ā-inuAllāhi walā aAAlamu alghayba wal ā aqoolu innee malakun wal ā aqoolu lilla theena tazdareeaAAayunukum lan yu/tyahumu All āhu khayran All āhuaAAalamu bim ā fee anfusihim innee i than lamina alththalimeena
A	11:31 وَلَا أَقُولُ لَكُمْ عِنْدِي خَزَائِنُ اللَّهِ وَلَا أَعْلَمُ الْغَيْبَ وَلَا أَقُولُ أَنِي مُلْكٌ وَلَا أَقُولُ لِلَّذِينَ تَزْدَرِي أَعْيُنُكُمْ لَنْ يُؤْتِيَهُمُ اللَّهُ خَيْرًا اللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا فِي أَنْفُسِهِمْ إِنِّي إِذَا لَمَنْ الظَّالِمِينَ
Edip-Layth	11:32 They said, "O Noah, you have argued with us, and continued arguing with us, so bring us what you promise us if you are of the truthful ones."
The Monotheist Group	11:32 They said: "O Noah, you have argued with us, and continued arguing with us, so bring us what you promise us if you are of the truthful ones."
Muhammad Asad	11:32 [But the great ones] said: "O Noah! Thou hast contended with us in argument, and hast [needlessly] prolonged our controversy : ⁵⁴ bring upon us, therefore, that with which thou dost threaten us, ⁵⁵ if thou art a man of truth!"
Rashad Khalifa	11:32 They said, "O Noah, you have argued with us, and kept on arguing. We challenge you to bring the doom you threaten us with, if you are truthful."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:32 They said, "O Noah! You have disputed with us and disputed a great deal. Now bring upon us what you threaten us with, if you are a man of truth."
Transliteration	11:32 Qaloo ya noohu qad jadaltanaafaaktharta jidalana fa/tina bim ataAAiduna in kunta mina alssadiqeena
A	11:32 قَالُوا يَنُوحُ قَدْ جَدَلْتَنَا فَاكْثَرْتَ جَدَلَنَا فَاتَنَا بِمَا تَعْدُنَا إِن كُنْتَ مِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ
Edip-Layth	11:33 He said, "It is God who will bring it to you if He wishes; you will not have any escape."
The Monotheist Group	11:33 He said: "It is God who will bring it to you if He wishes; you will not have any escape."
Muhammad Asad	11:33 He answered: "Only God can bring it upon you, if He so wills, and you shall not elude it:
Rashad Khalifa	11:33 He said, "GOD is the One who brings it to you, if He so wills, then you cannot escape.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:33 He answered, "God alone brings His requital according to His law. Once it is upon you, then you can by no means escape."
Transliteration	11:33 Qala innama ya/teekum bihi Allahuin shaa wama antum bimuAAajizeena
A	11:33 قَالَ إِنَّمَا يَأْتِيكُمْ بِهِ اللَّهُ إِنْ شَاءَ وَمَا أَنْتُمْ بِمُعْجِزِينَ
Edip-Layth	11:34 "My advice will not benefit you if I wanted to advise you and God wanted that you should stray. He is your Lord, and to Him you will return."
The Monotheist Group	11:34 "And my advice will not benefit you if I wanted to advise you and God wanted that you should stray. He is your Lord, and to Him you will return."
Muhammad Asad	11:34 for, my advice will not benefit you -much as I desire to give you good advice - if it be God's will that you shall remain lost in grievous error. ⁵⁶ He is your Sustainer, and unto Him you must return."

Rashad Khalifa	11:34 "Even if I advised you, my advice cannot benefit you if it is GOD's will to send you astray. He is your Lord, and to Him you will be returned."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:34 Noah said, "My counseling and well-wishing will not help you (outside of God's law of guidance and straying 4:88). He is your Lord, and to Him you must return."
Transliteration	11:34 Walā yanfaAAukum nu shēe inaradtu an an saḥa lakum in k ana Allāḥuyureedu an yughwiyakum huwa rabbukum wa-ilayhi turjaAAoon a
A	11:34 وَلَا يَنْفَعُكُمْ نَصْحِي إِنْ أَرَدْتُ أَنْ أَنْصَحَ لَكُمْ إِنْ كَانَ اللَّهُ يُرِيدُ أَنْ يُغْوِيَكُمْ هُوَ رَبُّكُمْ وَإِلَيْهِ تُرْجَعُونَ
Edip-Layth	11:35 Or do they say, "He invented it?" Say, "If I invented it, then I am responsible for my crime, and I am innocent from your crimes"
The Monotheist Group	11:35 Or do they say: "He invented it?" Say: "If I invented it, then I am responsible for my crime, and I am innocent from your crimes"
Muhammad Asad	11:35 DO SOME, perchance, assert, "[Muhammad] has invented this [story]"? 57 Say [O Prophet]: "If I have invented it, upon me be this sin; but far be it from me to commit the sin of which you are guilty." 58
Rashad Khalifa	11:35 If they say, "He made up this story," then say, "If I made it up, then I am responsible for my crime, and I am innocent of any crime you commit."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:35 God said to Noah, "Do they say that you have invented this set of values?" Tell them, "If I made it up, I am responsible for my crime. And I am innocent of your crimes."
Transliteration	11:35 Am yaqooloona iftar aḥu qul iniiftaraytuhu faAAalayya ijr amee waan a baree-on mimmatujrimoona
A	11:35 أَمْ يَقُولُونَ افْتَرَاهُ قُلْ إِنِّي افْتَرَيْتُهُ فَعَلَىٰ أَجْرَامِي وَأَنَا بَرِيءٌ مِّمَّا تَجْرِمُونَ
Edip-Layth	11:36 It was inspired to Noah: "No more of your people will acknowledge except those who have already acknowledged. So do not be saddened by what they have done."
The Monotheist Group	11:36 And it was inspired to Noah: "No more of your people will believe except those who have already believed. So do not be saddened by what they have done."
Muhammad Asad	11:36 AND THIS was revealed unto Noah: "Never will any of thy people believe except those who have already attained to faith. Be not, then, distressed by anything that they may do,
Rashad Khalifa	11:36 Noah was inspired: "No more of your people are going to believe, beyond those who already believe. Do not be saddened by their actions.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:36 And it was revealed to Noah, "No one of your people will attain faith except the ones who have already believed. Do not be saddened by their actions."
Transliteration	11:36 Waoohiya il a noo hinannahu lan yu/mina min qawmika ill a man qad amanafala tabta-is bima kanoo yafAAaloona
A	11:36 وَأَوْحَىٰ إِلَىٰ نُوحٍ أَنَّهُ لَنْ يُؤْمِنَ مِنْ قَوْمِكَ إِلَّا مَنْ قَدْ ءَامَنَ فَلَا تَبْتَئَسْ بِمَا كَانُوا يَفْعَلُونَ

Edip-Layth	11:37 "Construct the Ship under Our eyes and Our inspiration, and do not speak to Me regarding those who are wicked. They will be drowned."
The Monotheist Group	11:37 "And construct the Ship under Our eyes and Our inspiration, and do not speak to Me regarding those who are wicked. They will be drowned."
Muhammad Asad	11:37 but build, under Our eyes ⁵⁹ and according to Our inspiration, the ark [that shall .save thee and those who follow thee]; ⁶⁰ and do not appeal to Me in behalf of those who are bent on evildoing for, behold, they are destined to be drowned!"
Rashad Khalifa	11:37 "Build the ark under our watchful eyes, and with our inspiration, and do not implore Me on behalf of those who have transgressed; they are destined to drown."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:37 We commanded Noah, "Build an ark under Our Eyes and according to Our Directions, and do not plead with Me on behalf of the oppressors (23:27). Indeed, they are destined to be drowned." ¹¹
Transliteration	11:37 WaiṣnaAAi alfulka bi-aAayunin awawahyina wal a tukh atibnee fee allatheenathalamoo innahum mughraqoon a
A	11:37 واصنع الفلك باعيننا ووحينا ولا تخطبني في الذين ظلموا انهم مغرقون
Edip-Layth	11:38 As he was constructing the Ship, every time any cluster from his people passed by, they mocked him. He said, "If you mock us, then we also mock you as you mock."
The Monotheist Group	11:38 And as he was constructing the Ship, every time any cluster from his people passed by, they mocked him. He said: "If you mock us, then we also mock you as you mock."
Muhammad Asad	11:38 And [so Noah] set himself to building the ark; and every time the great ones of his people passed by him, they scoffed at him. [Thereupon] he said: "If you are scoffing at us-behold, we are scoffing at you [and your ignorance], just as you are scoffing at us." ⁶¹
Rashad Khalifa	He Who Laughs Last Laughs Best 11:38 While he was building the ark, whenever some of his people passed by him they laughed at him. He said, "You may be laughing at us, but we are laughing at you, just as you are laughing."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:38 As he was building the ship, and every time the chiefs of his community passed by him, they mocked him. Thereupon he said, "If you are mocking us, we are mocking (your ignorance) just as you are mocking us (for truth)."
Transliteration	11:38 WayaṣnaAAu alfulka wakullam amarra AAalayhi malaon min qawmihi sakhiroo minhu q ala intaskharoo minn a fa-inn a naskharu minkum kama taskharoona
A	11:38 ويصنع الفلك وكلما مر عليه ملا من قومه سخروا منه قال ان تسخروا منا فانا نسخر منكم كما تسخرون
Edip-Layth	11:39 "You will know to whom the retribution will come to disgrace him, and upon him will be a lasting punishment."
The Monotheist Group	11:39 "You will know to whom the retribution will come to disgrace him, and upon him will be a lasting punishment."
Muhammad Asad	11:39 But in time you will come to know who it is that [in this world] shall be visited by suffering which will cover him with ignominy, and upon whom long lasting suffering shall alight [in the life to come]!"

Rashad Khalifa	11:39 "You will surely find out who will suffer a shameful retribution, and incur an everlasting punishment."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:39 And soon you will know upon whom a humiliating punishment befalls, and upon whom a lasting torment will come. "
Transliteration	11:39 Fasawfa taAalamoona man ya/teehee AAa th abunyukhzeehi waya h illu AAalayhi AAa th abun muqee un
A	11:39 فسوف تعلمون من ياتيهِ عذاب يخزيهِ ويحل عليه عذاب مقيم
Edip-Layth	11:40 So, when Our command came and the volcano erupted. We said, "Carry in it two from every pair, and your family; except those against whom the word has been issued; and whoever acknowledged." But those who acknowledged with him were few. ⁷
The Monotheist Group	11:40 So, when Our command came and the volcano erupted. We said: "Carry in it two from every pair, and your family; except those against whom the word has been issued; and whoever believed." But those who believed with him were few.
Muhammad Asad	11:40 [And so it went on] till, when Our judgment came to pass, and waters gushed forth in torrents over the face of the earth, ⁶² We said [unto Noah]: "Place on board of this [ark] one pair of each [kind of animal] of either sex, ⁶³ as well as thy family -except those on whom [Our] sentence has already been passed ⁶⁴ - and all [others] who have attained to faith!"-for, only a few [of Noah's people] shared his faith.
Rashad Khalifa	11:40 When our judgment came, and the atmosphere boiled over, we said, "Carry on it a pair of each kind, together with your family, except those who are condemned. Carry with you those who have believed," and only a few have believed with him.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:40 Thus it was until Our command came to pass. Waters gushed forth in torrents over the face of the land. Torrential rain began and the rivers started over flowing. We commanded Noah to take with him livestock, a couple each, and to take his family and followers with him. The rejecters, of course, were not to embark. The community of believers with Noah was small. ¹²
Transliteration	11:40 H atta i th a j a aamruna waf a ra a Ittannooru quln a i h milfee h a min kullin zawjayni ithnayni waahlaka ill a man sabaqa AAalayhi alqawlu waman a mana wama a manamaAAahu illa qaleel un
A	11:40 حتى اذا جاء امرنا وفار التور قلنا حمل فيها من كل زوجين اثنين واهلك الا من سبق عليه القول ومن آمن وما آمن معه الا قليل
Edip-Layth	11:41 He said, "Climb inside, in the name of God shall be its sailing and its anchorage. My Lord is Forgiving, Compassionate."
The Monotheist Group	11:41 He said: "Climb inside, in the name of God shall be its sailing and its anchorage. My Lord is Forgiving, Merciful."
Muhammad Asad	11:41 So he said [unto his followers]: "Embark in this [ship]! In the name of God be its run and its riding at anchor! Behold, my. Sustainer is indeed much-forgiving, a dispenser of grace!"
Rashad Khalifa	11:41 He said, "Come on board. In the name of GOD shall be its sailing, and its mooring. My Lord is Forgiver, Most Merciful."

Shabbir Ahmed	11:41 Noah put his trust in God and told his people to embark, "Come on board, in the name of God will be its course and its resting. My Lord is the Provider of shelter, Merciful."
Transliteration	11:41 Waq ala irkaboo feeh a bismi All ahimajraha wamurs aha inna rabbeelaghafoorun ra heemun
A	11:41 وقال اركبوا فيها بسم الله مجريها ومرسها ان ربي لغفور رحيم
Edip-Layth	11:42 While it was running with them in waves like mountains, Noah called to his son, who was in an isolated place: "My son, ride with us, and do not be with the ingrates!"
The Monotheist Group	11:42 And while it was running with them in waves like mountains, Noah called to his son, who was in an isolated place: "My son, ride with us, and do not be with the rejecters!"
Muhammad Asad	11:42 And it moved on with them into waves that were like mountains. At that [moment] Noah cried out to a son of his, who had kept himself aloof [from the others]: "O my dear son! ⁶⁵ Embark with us, and remain not with those who deny the truth!"
Rashad Khalifa	11:42 As it sailed with them in waves like hills, Noah called his son, who was isolated: "O my son, come ride with us; do not be with the disbelievers."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:42 The ship sailed with them amidst huge waves as Noah called his son, who was standing aloof, "O My dear son! Come ride with us; do not be with the disbelievers."
Transliteration	11:42 Wahiya tajree bihim fee mawjin ka aljib aliwanada noo hunu ibnahu wak ana feemaAAazilin ya bunayya irkab maAAana walatakun maAAa alka fireena
A	11:42 وهى تجرى بهم فى موج كالجبال ونادى نوح ابنه وكان فى معزل بينى اركب معنا ولا تكن مع الكافرين
Edip-Layth	11:43 He said, "I will take refuge to the mountain which will save me from the water." He said, "There is no savior from God's decree except to whom He grants mercy." The wave came between them, so he was one of those who drowned.
The Monotheist Group	11:43 He said: "I will take refuge to the mountain which will save me from the water." He said: "There is no savior from God's decree except to whom He grants mercy." And the wave came between them, so he was one of those who drowned.
Muhammad Asad	11:43 [But the son] answered: "I shall betake myself to a mountain that will protect me from the waters." Said [Noah]: "Today there is no protection [for anyone] from God's judgment, save [for] those who have earned [His] mercy!" And a wave rose up between them, and [the son] was among those who were drowned.
Rashad Khalifa	11:43 He said, "I will take refuge on top of a hill, to protect me from the water." He said, "Nothing can protect anyone today from GOD's judgment; only those worthy of His mercy (will be saved)." The waves separated them, and he was among those who drowned.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:43 He said. "I will cling to a hill-top to protect me from the water." Noah said, "Nothing can protect anyone today from God's command except for those who have earned His grace." A towering wave came between them and his son was among those who drowned. ¹³
Transliteration	11:43 Q ala sa awee il a jabalinyaAA asimunee mina al ma -i q ala l a AA asimaalyawma

	min amri All ahi ill a man ra hima wa halabaynahuma almawju fak ana mina almughraqeena
A	11:43 قال ساوى الى جبل يعصمنى من الماء قال لا عاصم اليوم من امر الله الا من رحم وحال بينهما الموج فكان من المغرقين
Edip-Layth	11:44 It was said, "O land, swallow your water, and O sky, cease." The water was diminished, and the matter concluded. It came to rest on the Judea, and it was said, "Away with the wicked people."
The Monotheist Group	11:44 And it was said: "O land, swallow your water, and O sky, cease." And the water was diminished, and the matter concluded. And it came to rest on the Judi, and it was said: "Away with the wicked people."
Muhammad Asad	11:44 And the word was spoken: "O earth, swallow up thy waters! And, O sky, cease [thy rain]!" And the waters sank into the earth, and the will [of God] was done, and the ark came to rest on Mount Judi 66 And the word was spoken: "Away with these evildoing folk!"
Rashad Khalifa	Where Did the Ark Land 11:44 It was proclaimed: "O earth, swallow your water," and "O sky, cease." The water then subsided; the judgment was fulfilled. The ark finally rested on the hills of Judea. It was then proclaimed: "The transgressors have perished."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:44 And it was said, "O earth! Swallow your water and, O Sky! Cease!" And the command was fulfilled. The water sank into the earth. And the ark came to rest upon the Mount Al-Judi. And it was said, "Away with these oppressors of the weak." 14
Transliteration	11:44 Waqeela y a ar du iblaAAee m aakiwaya sam ao aqliAAee waghee da almaowaqudiya al-amru wa istawat AAal a aljoodiyyiwaqeela buAAdan lilqawmi alththalimeena
A	11:44 وقيل يارض ابلعى ماءك ويسماء اقلعى وغيض الماء وقضى الامر واستوت على الجودى وقيل بعدا للقوم الظلمين
Edip-Layth	No Nepotism, No Intercession 11:45 Noah called on his Lord, and he said, "My Lord, my son is from my family, and your promise is the truth, and you are the Wisest of all Judges."
The Monotheist Group	11:45 And Noah called on his Lord, and he said: "My Lord, my son is from my family, and your promise is the truth, and you are the Wisest of all Judges."
Muhammad Asad	11:45 And Noah called out to his Sustainer, and said: "O my Sustainer! Verily, my son was of my family; 67 and, verily, Thy promise always comes true, and Thou art the most just of all judges!"
Rashad Khalifa	11:45 Noah implored his Lord: "My Lord, my son is a member of my family, and Your promise is the truth. You are the wisest of the wise."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:45 Noah called upon his Lord, "My Lord! My son was of my family and Your promise is the True promise and You are the Most Just of judges." 15
Transliteration	11:45 Wanada noo hun rabbahufaq ala rabbi inna ibnee min ahlee wa-inna waAAdaka alhaquwaanta ahkam alhakimeena
A	11:45 ونادى نوح ربه فقال رب ان ابنى من اهلى وان وعدك الحق وانت احكم الحكمين
	11:46 He said, "O Noah, he is not from your family, he committed sin, so do not

Edip-Layth	ask what you have no knowledge of. I advise you not to be of the ignorant." ⁸
The Monotheist Group	11:46 He said: "O Noah, he is not from your family, he was fathered illicitly, so do not ask what you have no knowledge of. I advise you not to be of the ignorant."
Muhammad Asad	11:46 [God] answered: "O Noah, behold, he was not of thy family, for, verily, he was unrighteous in his conduct." ⁶⁸ And thou shalt not ask of Me anything whereof thou canst not have any knowledge: ⁶⁹ thus, behold, do I admonish thee lest thou become one of those who are unaware [of what is right]." ⁷⁰
Rashad Khalifa	The Myth of Intercession 11:46 He said, "O Noah, he is not of your family. It is unrighteous to ask Me for something you do not know. I enlighten you, lest you be like the ignorant." ⁶
Shabbir Ahmed	11:46 He (God) said, "O Noah! Your son was not of your family. For, his conduct was unrighteous. So, do not ask me of what you have no knowledge. I enlighten you so that you do not remain ignorant." ¹⁶
Transliteration	11:46 Qala ya noo hu innahulaysa min ahlika innahu AAamalun ghayru salihin falatas-alni m a laysa laka bihi AAilmun innee aAAi thukaan takoona mina aljahileena
A	11:46 قال ينوح انه ليس من اهلك انه عمل غير صالح فلا تسألن ما ليس لك به علم انى اعطاك ان تكون من الجهلين
Edip-Layth	11:47 He said, "My Lord, I seek refuge with You that I would ask You what I did not have knowledge of. If You do not forgive me and have mercy on me, I will be of the losers!"
The Monotheist Group	11:47 He said: "My Lord, I seek refuge with You that I would ask You what I did not have knowledge of. And if You do not forgive me and have mercy on me, I will be of the losers!"
Muhammad Asad	11:47 Said [Noah]: "O my Sustainer! Verily, I seek refuge with Thee from [ever again] asking of Thee anything whereof I cannot have any knowledge! For unless Thou grant me forgiveness and bestow Thy mercy upon me, I shall be among the lost!"
Rashad Khalifa	11:47 He said, "My Lord, I seek refuge in You, lest I implore You again for something I do not know. Unless You forgive me, and have mercy on me, I will be with the losers."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:47 Noah said, "My Lord! I guard myself in Your shelter from asking favors which do not befit me, and for my lack of knowledge. Forgive me and shower me with Your grace, otherwise I will become a loser."
Transliteration	11:47 Qala rabbi innee aAAao thuu bikaan as-alaka m a laysa lee bihi AAilmun wa-illataghfir lee watarhamnee akun mina alkhāsireena
A	11:47 قال رب انى اعوذ بك ان اسلك ما ليس لى به علم والا تغفر لى وترحمنى اكن من الخسرين
Edip-Layth	11:48 It was said, "O Noah, descend in peace from Us and blessings upon you and upon nations to come from those with you; and nations whom We will grant pleasure, then a painful retribution will reach them from Us."
The Monotheist Group	11:48 It was said: "O Noah, descend in peace from Us and blessings upon you and upon nations to come from those with you; and nations whom We will grant pleasure, then a painful retribution will reach them from Us."

Muhammad Asad	11:48 [Thereupon] the word was spoken: "O Noah! Disembark in peace from Us, ⁷¹ and with [Our] blessings upon thee as well as upon the people [who are with thee, and the righteous ones that will spring from thee and] from those who are with thee. ⁷² But [as for the unrighteous] folk [that will spring from you] - We shall allow them to enjoy life [for a little while], and then there will befall them grievous suffering from Us."
Rashad Khalifa	11:48 It was proclaimed: "O Noah, disembark, with peace and blessings upon you, and upon nations who will descend from your companions. As for the other nations descending from you, we will bless them for awhile, then commit them to painful retribution."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:48 He was told, "O Noah! Disembark and descend from the hills in peace from Us and blessings upon you, and some generations (that will spring forth) from your companions (11:41). There will be other peoples to whom We shall give enjoyment a long while, but in the end a painful chastisement will reach them from Us." ¹⁷
Transliteration	11:48 Qeela y a noo hu ihbi ṭbisalamīn minn a wabarak atin AAalayka waAAa ^l omamin mimman maAAaka waomamun sanumattiAAuhum thumma yamassuhumminna AAathabun aleem un
A	11:48 قيل ينوح اهبط بسلام منا وبركت عليك وعلى امم ممن معك وامم سنمتعهم ثم يمسهم منا عذاب اليم
Edip-Layth	11:49 This is from the news of the unseen that We inspire to you. Neither did you nor your people know this, so be patient. The ending is always in favor of the righteous.
The Monotheist Group	11:49 This is from the news of the unseen that We inspire to you. Neither did you nor your people know this, so be patient. The ending is always in favor of the righteous.
Muhammad Asad	11:49 THESE ACCOUNTS of something that was beyond the reach of thy perception We [now] reveal unto thee, [O Muhammad: for] neither thou nor thy people knew them [fully] ere this. ⁷³ Be, then, [like Noah,] patient in adversity - for, behold, the future belongs to the God-conscious!
Rashad Khalifa	11:49 This is news from the past that we reveal to you. You had no knowledge about them - neither you, nor your people - before this. Therefore, be patient. The ultimate victory belongs to the righteous.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:49 (O Prophet!) These are the news We reveal to you that neither you, nor your people were aware of. Go ahead with your program with forbearance. The destination of bliss belongs to those who wish to live upright.
Transliteration	11:49 Tilka min anba-i alghaybi noo ^h eehailayka ma kunta taAAalamuha anta wala qawmukamin qabli hatha faisbir inna alAAaqibatilimuttaqeena
A	11:49 تلك من انباء الغيب نوحيها اليك ما كنت تعلمها انت ولا قومك من قبل هذا فاصبر ان العقبة للمتقين
Edip-Layth	Hood and the People of Aad 11:50 To Aad was sent their brother Hud. He said, "My people, serve God, you have no god besides Him; you are simply conjecturing."

The Monotheist Group	11:50 And to 'Aad was sent their brother Hud. He said: "My people, serve God, you have no god besides Him; you are simply conjecturing."
Muhammad Asad	11:50 AND UNTO [the tribe of] `Ad [We sent] their brother Hud. ⁷⁴ He said: "O my people! Worship God [alone]: you have no deity other than Him. [As it is,] you are but inventors of falsehood!" ⁷⁵
Rashad Khalifa	Hood: One and the Same Message 11:50 To `Aad we sent their brother Hood. He said, "O my people, worship GOD; you have no other god besides Him. You are inventing.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:50 We sent to 'Aad their brother Hud. He said, "O My people! Serve God alone. You have no god but He. As it is, you are but inventors of falsehood."
Transliteration	11:50 Wa-ilā AAādin akhahum hoodan qāla ya qawmi oAAabudoo Allāha malakum min ilāhin ghayruhu in antum illā muftaroonā
A	11:50 والى عاد اخاهم هودا قال يقوم عبدوا الله ما لكم من اله غيره ان انتم الا مفترون
Edip-Layth	11:51 "My people, I do not ask you for any wage, my wage is from the One who initiated me. Will you not reason?"
The Monotheist Group	11:51 "My people, I do not ask you for any wage, my wage is from the One who initiated me. Will you not understand?"
Muhammad Asad	11:51 "O my people! No reward do I ask of you for this [message]: my reward rests with none but Him who brought me into being. Will you not, then, use your reason?"
Rashad Khalifa	11:51 O my people, I do not ask you for any wage. My wage comes only from the One who initiated me. Do you not understand?
Shabbir Ahmed	11:51 He said, "O My people! I ask no reward from you. My reward is with Him Who brought me into being. If you use your sense, you will understand."
Transliteration	11:51 Ya qawmi lā as-alukum AAalayhi ajran in ajriya illā AAalā alla thee faṭaraneefalā taAAaqiloonā
A	11:51 يقوم لا اسلكم عليه اجرا ان اجرى الا على الذى فطرنى افلا تعقلون
Edip-Layth	11:52 "My people, seek forgiveness from your Lord, then repent to Him; He will send the sky to you abundantly, and He will increase might to your might. So do not turn away as criminals."
The Monotheist Group	11:52 "And my people, seek forgiveness from your Lord, then repent to Him; He will send the sky to you abundantly, and He will increase might to your might. So do not turn away as criminals."
Muhammad Asad	11:52 "Hence, O my people, ask your Sustainer to forgive you your sins, and then turn towards Him in repentance-[whereupon] He will shower upon you heavenly blessings abundant, ⁷⁶ and will add strength to your strength: only do not turn away [from me] as people lost in sin!"
Rashad Khalifa	11:52 "O my people, seek forgiveness from your Lord, then repent to Him. He will then shower you with provisions from the sky, and augment your strength. Do not turn back into transgressors."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:52 "O My people! Come to the forgiveness of your Lord by turning to Him and mending your ways. He will shower upon you abundant heavenly blessings, and will add strength to your strength. So do not turn back into the guilty!"

Transliteration	11:52 Waya qawmi istaghfiroo rabbakumthumma tooboo ilayhi yursili a Issamaa AAalaykummidraan wayazidkum quwwatan il a quwwatikum wal atatawallaw mujrimeena
A	11:52 ويقوم استغفروا ربكم ثم توبوا اليه يرسل السماء عليكم مدرارا ويزدكم قوة الى قوتكم ولا تتولوا مجرمين
Edip-Layth	11:53 They said, "O Hud, you have not come to us with any proof, nor will we leave our gods based on what you say. We will not acknowledge you."
The Monotheist Group	11:53 They said: "O Hud, you have not come to us with any proof, nor will we leave our gods based on what you say. We will not believe in you."
Muhammad Asad	11:53 Said they: "O Mud! Thou hast brought us no clear evidence [that thou art a prophet]; and we are not going to forsake our gods on thy mere word, the more so as we do not believe thee.
Rashad Khalifa	11:53 They said, "O Hood, you did not show us any proof, and we are not abandoning our gods on account of what you say. We will never be believers with you.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:53 They said, "O Hud! You have not shown us any miracle. We will not forsake our idols just because you say so. We are not going to believe you."
Transliteration	11:53 Qaloo y a hoodu m aji/tana bibayyinatina wam a na hnu bit arikeealihatina AAan qawlika wama nahnulaka bimu/mineena
A	11:53 قالوا يهود ما جئنا ببينة وما نحن بتاركى ءالھتنا عن قولك وما نحن لك بمومنين
Edip-Layth	11:54 "All we can say is that perhaps some of our gods have possessed you with evil." He said, "I make God my witness, and all of you witness that I disown what you have set up as partners--
The Monotheist Group	11:54 "All we can say is that perhaps some of our gods have seized you with evil." He said: "I make God my witness, and all of you witness, that I disown what you have set up as partners."
Muhammad Asad	11:54 We can say no more than that one of our gods may have smitten thee with something evil!" ⁷⁷ Answered [Hud]: "Behold, I call God to witness - and you, too, be [my] witnesses - that, verily, it is not in me to ascribe divinity, as you do, ⁷⁸ to aught
Rashad Khalifa	11:54 "We believe that some of our gods have afflicted you with a curse." He said, "I bear witness before GOD, and you bear witness as well, that I disown the idols you have set up -
Shabbir Ahmed	11:54 "We think that one of our gods has possessed you like a demon and you have gone crazy." Hud said, "I call God to witness, and you too bear witness that I am absolutely free of your idolatry."
Transliteration	11:54 In naqoolu ill a iAAatar aka baAAa dualihatina bisoo-in q ala innee oshhidu Allahaishhadoo annee baree-on mimma tushrikoona
A	11:54 ان نقول الا اعتريك بعض ءالھتنا بسوء قال انى اشھد الله واشھدوا انى برىء مما تشركون
Edip-Layth	11:55 "-- besides Him, so scheme against me all of you, then do not give me respite."
	11:55 "Besides Him, so scheme against me all of you, then do not give me

The Monotheist Group	respite."
Muhammad Asad	11:55 beside Him! Contrive, then, [anything that you may wish] against me, all of you, and give me no respite! ⁷⁹
Rashad Khalifa	11:55 "beside Him. So, give me your collective decision, without delay.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:55 "Get together, all of you and your gods besides Him. Make a firm decision against me and give me no respite."
Transliteration	11:55 Min doonihi fakeedoonee jameeAAan thumma la tun <th>th</th> irooni	th
A	11:55 من دونه فكيدونى جميعا ثم لا تنظرون
Edip-Layth	11:56 "I have put my trust in God, my Lord and your Lord. There is not a creature except He will seize it by its frontal lobe. My Lord is on a Straight Path."
The Monotheist Group	11:56 "I have put my trust in God, my Lord and your Lord. There is not a creature except He will seize it by frontal lobe. My Lord is on a Straight Path."
Muhammad Asad	11:56 Behold, I have placed my trust in God, [who is] my Sustainer as well as your Sustainer: for there is no living creature which He does not hold by its forelock. ⁸⁰ Verily, straight is my Sustainer's way! ⁸¹
Rashad Khalifa	11:56 "I have put my trust in GOD, my Lord and your Lord. There is not a creature that He does not control. My Lord is on the right path.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:56 "I have put my trust in God, my Lord and your Lord. There is not a creature in the Universe beyond His firm Control. Indeed, my Lord is on the straight path."
Transliteration	11:56 Innee tawakkaltu AAal a All a _h irabbee warabbikum m a min d a _h bbatin ill a huwa a _h khithunbinas _i iyatiha inna rabbee AAala _h sirat _i nmustaqeem _i n
A	11:56 انى توكلت على الله ربي وربكم ما من دابة الا هو اأخذ بناصيتها ان ربي على صراط مستقيم
Edip-Layth	11:57 "If you turn away, then I have delivered what I was sent to you with. My Lord will bring after you a people who are not like you, and you will not harm Him in the least. My Lord is Guardian over all things."
The Monotheist Group	11:57 "So, if you turn away, then I have delivered what I was sent to you with. And my Lord will bring after you a people who are not like you, and you will not harm Him the least. My Lord is Guardian over all things."
Muhammad Asad	11:57 "But if you choose to turn away, then [know that] I have delivered to you the message with which I was sent unto you, and [that] my Sustainer may cause another people to take your place, ⁸² whereas you will in no wise harm Him. Verily, my Sustainer watches over all things!"
Rashad Khalifa	11:57 "If you turn away, I have delivered to you what I was sent with. My Lord will substitute other people in your place; you cannot harm Him in the least. My Lord is in control of all things."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:57 "You may accept or reject the message that I have clearly conveyed to you. If you turn away, you will decline and fall. Then, My Lord will bring another people in your place. You cannot harm Him at all. Surely, My Lord is He Who is the Guardian of all things."
	11:57 Fa-in tawallaw faqad ablaghtukum m a _h orsiltu bihi ilaykum wayastakhlifu

Transliteration	rabbee qawman ghayrakum wal atadurroonahu shay-an inna rabbee AAal a kullishay-in hafeethun
A	11:57 فان تولوا فقد ابلغتكم ما ارسلت به اليكم ويستخلف ربي قوما غيركم ولا تضرونه شيئا ان ربي على كل شيء حفيظ
Edip-Layth	11:58 When Our command came, We saved Hood and those who acknowledged with him by a mercy from Us, and We saved them from a harsh retribution.
The Monotheist Group	11:58 And when Our command came, We saved Hud and those who believed with him by a mercy from Us, and We saved them from a mighty retribution.
Muhammad Asad	11:58 And so, when Our judgment came to pass, ⁸³ by Our grace We saved Hud and those who shared his faith; and We saved them [too] from suffering severe [in the life to come]. ⁸⁴
Rashad Khalifa	11:58 When our judgment came, we saved Hood and those who believed with him, by mercy from us. We saved them from a terrible retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:58 And so, when Our command came to pass, We saved Hud and those who believed with him by a mercy from Us. We saved them from a harsh retribution that inflicted the rejecters.
Transliteration	11:58 Walamma j aa amrun anajjayna hoodan wa allatheena amanoomaAAahu birahmatin minna wanajjaynahum minAAathabin ghaleethin
A	11:58 ولما جاء امرنا نجينا هودا والذين ءامنوا معه برحمة منا ونجينهم من عذاب غليظ
Edip-Layth	11:59 Such was the case of Aad. They disregarded the signs of their Lord, and they disobeyed His messengers, and they followed the lead of everyone powerful and stubborn.
The Monotheist Group	11:59 Such was the case of 'Aad. They disregarded the revelations of their Lord, and they disobeyed His messengers, and they followed the lead of everyone powerful and stubborn.
Muhammad Asad	11:59 And that was [the end of the tribe of] `Ad, [who] had rejected their Sustainer's messages, and rebelled against His apostles, and followed the bidding of every arrogant enemy of the truth. ⁸⁵
Rashad Khalifa	11:59 Such was `Aad - they disregarded the revelations of their Lord, disobeyed His messengers, and followed the ways of every stubborn tyrant.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:59 Such were 'Aad. They denied the clear messages of their Lord, rebelled against His messengers and followed the command of every stubborn tyrant.
Transliteration	11:59 Watilka AA adun ja hadoo bi- ayatirabbihim waAAa saw rusulahu waittabaAAoo amra kullijabbarin AAaneedin
A	11:59 وتلك عاد جحدوا بايت ربهم وعصوا رسله واتبعوا امر كل جبار عنيد
Edip-Layth	11:60 They were followed by a curse in this world and on the day of judgment, for Aad rejected their Lord. There is no more Aad, the people of Hud.
The Monotheist Group	11:60 And they were followed by a curse in this world and on the Day of Judgment, for 'Aad rejected their Lord. There is no more 'Aad, the people of Hud.
Muhammad Asad	11:60 And they were pursued in this world by [God's] rejection, and [shall finally be overtaken by it] on the Day of Resurrection. ⁸⁶ Oh, verily, [the tribe of] `Ad denied their Sustainer! Oh, away with the `Ad, the people of Hud!

Rashad Khalifa	11:60 Consequently, they incurred condemnation in this world, and on the Day of Resurrection. Indeed, `Aad rejected their Lord. Indeed, `Aad, the people of Hood, have perished.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:60 And they were pursued in this world by Divine rejection, and will be overtaken by it on the Resurrection Day. Oh, certainly, 'Aad denied their Sustainer! Oh, away with the 'Aad, the people of Hud!
Transliteration	11:60 WaotbiAAoo fee h athihi aIddunyaIaAAnatan wayawma alqiy a_mati al_a inna AAadankafaroo rabbahum al_a buAAdan liAAadin qawmi hoodin
A	11:60 واتبعوا فى هذه الدنيا لعنة ويوم القيمة الا ان عادا كفروا ربهم الا بعدا لعاد قوم هود
Edip-Layth	Saleh to Thamud 11:61 To Thamud was sent their brother Saleh. He said, "My people, serve God, you have no god besides Him. He established you in the land and gave you control over it, so seek His forgiveness, then repent to Him. My Lord is Near, Responsive."
The Monotheist Group	11:61 And to Thamud was sent their brother Saleh. He said: "My people, serve God, you have no god besides Him. He established you in the land and gave you control over it, so seek His forgiveness, then repent to Him. My Lord is Near, Responsive."
Muhammad Asad	11:61 AND UNTO [the tribe of] Thamud [We sent] their brother Salih. ⁸⁷ He said: "O my people! Worship God [alone]: you have no deity other than Him. He brought you into being out of the earth, ⁸⁸ and made you thrive thereon. ⁸⁹ Ask Him, therefore, to forgive you your sins, and then turn towards Him in repentance-for, verily, my Sustainer is ever-near, responding [to the call of whoever calls unto Him]!" ⁹⁰
Rashad Khalifa	Saaleh: One and the Same Message 11:61 To Thamoud we sent their brother Saaleh. He said, "O my people, worship GOD; you have no other god beside Him. He initiated you from the earth, then settled you in it. You shall seek His forgiveness, then repent to Him. My Lord is always near, responsive."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:61 And to the tribe of Thamud, We sent their brother Saaleh. He said, "O My people! Serve God. You have no one worthy of obedience but He. He initiated you from the earth and made you thrive thereon. Come to His forgiveness, then turn to Him in repentance mending your ways. My Lord is ever-Near, Responsive."
Transliteration	11:61 Wa-ila thamooda akh ahum salihangala y a qawmi oAAbudoo All aha malakum min il ahin ghayruhu huwa anshaakum mina al-ar diwaistaAAamarakum feeha faistaghfiroohu thummatooboo ilayhi inna rabbee qareebun mujeebun
A	11:61 والى ثمود اخاهم صلحا قال يقوم اعبدوا الله ما لكم من اله غيره هو انشاكم من الارض واستعمركم فيها فاستغفروه ثم توبوا اليه ان ربي قريب مجيب
Edip-Layth	11:62 They said, "O Saleh, you were well liked amongst us before this. Do you deter us from serving what our fathers served? We are in serious doubt as to what you are inviting us."
The Monotheist Group	11:62 They said: "O Saleh, you were well liked amongst us before this. Do you deter us from serving what our fathers served? We are in serious doubt as to what you are inviting us."
	11:62 They answered: "O Salih! Great hopes did we place in thee ere this! ⁹¹ Wouldst thou forbid us to worship what our forefathers were wont to worship?

Muhammad Asad	Because [of this], behold, we are in grave doubt, amounting to suspicion, about [the meaning of] thy call to us!" ⁹²
Rashad Khalifa	11:62 They said, "O Saaleh, you used to be popular among us before this. Are you enjoining us from worshipping what our parents are worshipping? We are full of doubt concerning everything you have told us."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:62 They said, "O Saaleh! We had placed great hopes in you before this! But now you are telling us to move away from worshipping what our forefathers worshiped. Surely, now we are in grave doubt, amounting to suspicion about the meaning of your call to us."
Transliteration	11:62 Qaloo y a salihuqad kunta feen a marjuwwan qabla h atha atanh aanaanAAbuda ma yaAAbudu abaonawa-innana lafee shakkin mimma tadAAoonailayhi mureebun
A	11:62 قالوا يصلح قد كنت فينا مرجوا قبل هذا اتتهنا ان نعبد ما يعبد ءابولنا واننا لفي شك مما تدعونا اليه مريب
Edip-Layth	11:63 He said, "My people, what do you think if I was on clear evidence from my Lord, and He gave me from Him a mercy. Who would then support me against God if I disobey Him? You would only increase me in loss!"
The Monotheist Group	11:63 He said: "My people, what do you think if I was on clear evidence from my Lord, and He gave me from Him a mercy. Who would then support me against God if I disobey Him? You would only increase me in loss!"
Muhammad Asad	11:63 He retorted: "O my people! What do you think? If [it be true that] I am taking my stand on a clear evidence from my Sustainer, who has vouchsafed unto me grace from Himself -[if this be true,] who would shield me from God were I to rebel against Him? ⁹³ Hence, what you are offering me is no more than perdition!" ⁹⁴
Rashad Khalifa	The Disbelievers Always Losers 11:63 He said, "O my people, what if I have solid proof from my Lord, and mercy from Him? Who would support me against GOD, if I disobeyed Him? You can only augment my loss.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:63 He said, "O My people! Do you really see and think? What if I have clear evidence of the truth from my Lord, and mercy from Him? Then, who can help me against God if I disobey Him? You can only push me into ruin.
Transliteration	11:63 Qala y a qawmi araaytum inkuntu AAal a bayyinin min rabbee waataneeminhu ra hmatan faman yan surunee mina All ahiin AAa saytuhu fam a tazeedoonanee ghayra takhseerin
A	11:63 قال يقوم ارايتم ان كنت على بينة من ربي وءاتننى منه رحمة فمن ينصرنى من الله ان عصيته فما تريدوننى غير تخسير
Edip-Layth	11:64 "My people, this is God's camel, in her you have a sign. So leave her to eat from God's land freely, and do not harm her, or else a close retribution will take you."
The Monotheist Group	11:64 "And my people, this is God's camel, in her you have a sign. So leave her to eat from God's land freely, and do not harm her, or else a close retribution will take you."
Muhammad Asad	11:64 And [then he said]: "O my people! This she-camel belonging to God shall be a token for you: so leave her alone to pasture on God's earth, and do her no harm, lest speedy chastisement befall you!" ⁹⁵

Rashad Khalifa	11:64 "O my people, this is GOD's camel to serve as a proof for you. You shall let her eat from GOD's earth, and do not touch her with any harm, lest you incur an immediate retribution."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:64 (The feudal lords had been depriving the poor of using the land and its natural resources of water and vegetation). Saaleh said, "O My people! This she-camel belonging to God shall be a token for you. So leave her alone to graze in the land belonging to God. Do her no harm, lest speedy punishment befall you." 18
Transliteration	11:64 Waya qawmi h a thihi naqatuAllahi lakum a yan fa <th>ar</th> oo h a ta/kulfee ar d i All a hi wala tamasso h abisoo-in fay a /khu <th>h</th> akum AAa <th>h</th> abun qareebun	ar	h	h
A	11:64 ويقوم هذه ناقة الله لكم ءاية فنروها تاكل في ارض الله ولا تمسوها بسوء فياخذكم عذاب قريب
Edip-Layth	11:65 But they slaughtered her. So he said, "You will only have three days of enjoyment in your homes. This is a promise that will not be denied."
The Monotheist Group	11:65 But they slaughtered her. So he said: "You will only have three days of enjoyment in your homes. This is a promise that will not be denied."
Muhammad Asad	11:65 But they cruelly slaughtered her. ⁹⁶ And thereupon [Salih] said: "[Only] for three days [more] shall you enjoy life in your homes: this is a judgment ⁹⁷ which will not be belied!"
Rashad Khalifa	11:65 They slaughtered her. He then said, "You have only three days to live. This is a prophecy that is inevitable."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:65 But they cruelly slaughtered her. Thereupon he said to his people, "Only for three more days shall you enjoy life in your homes. This is a promise that cannot be false."
Transliteration	11:65 FaAAaqar oo h a faq a latamattaAAoo fee d a rikum thal a thata ayy a min th alikawaAA a dun ghayru mak th oobin
A	11:65 ففقروها فقال تمتعوا في داركم ثلاثة ايام ذلك وعد غير مكذوب
Edip-Layth	11:66 So, when Our command came, We saved Saleh and those who acknowledged with him by a mercy from Us against the disgrace of that day. Your Lord is the Powerful, the Noble.
The Monotheist Group	11:66 So, when Our command came, We saved Saleh and those who believed with him by a mercy from Us against the disgrace of that day. Your Lord is the Powerful, the Noble.
Muhammad Asad	11:66 And so, when Our judgment came to pass, by Our grace We saved Salih and those who shared his faith; and [We saved them, too,] from the ignominy of [Our rejection on] that Day [of Resurrection]. Verily, thy Sustainer alone is powerful, almighty!
Rashad Khalifa	11:66 When our judgment came, we saved Saaleh and those who believed with him by mercy from us, from the humiliation of that day. Your Lord is the Most Powerful, the Almighty.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:66 And so, when Our command came to pass, by Our grace We saved Saaleh and the believers with him from the humiliating annihilation of the day. Surely, your Lord, He alone is Strong, Almighty.

Transliteration	11:66 Falamma j aa amrun anajjayna salihan wa allatheena amanoomaAAahu birahmatin minn a wamin khizyi yawmi-i thininna rabbaka huwa alqawiyyu alAAazeezu
A	11:66 فلما جاء امرنا نجينا صلحا والذين ءامنوا معه برحمة منا ومن خزي يومئذ ان ربك هو القوى العزيز
Edip-Layth	11:67 Those who wronged were taken by the scream, thus they lay motionless in their homes.
The Monotheist Group	11:67 And those who wronged were taken by the scream, thus they lay motionless in their homes.
Muhammad Asad	11:67 And the blast [of God's punishment] overtook those who had been bent on evildoing: and then they lay lifeless, in their very homes, on the ground, ⁹⁸
Rashad Khalifa	11:67 Those who transgressed were annihilated by the disaster, leaving them in their homes, dead.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:67 (Saaleh and His followers moved out of the town while the disbelievers stayed back with their mockery). And a tremendous blast overtook the oppressors, and then they lay lifeless, in their very homes, on the ground.
Transliteration	11:67 Waakhatha alla theena thalamooalssayhatu faa sbahoo fee diyarihimjathimeena
A	11:67 واخذ الذين ظلموا الصيحة فاصبحوا فى ديارهم جثمين
Edip-Layth	11:68 It is as if they never lived there. For Thamud rejected their Lord. There is no more Thamud.
The Monotheist Group	11:68 It is as if they never lived there. For Thamud rejected their Lord. There is no more Thamud.
Muhammad Asad	11:68 as though they had never lived there. Oh, verily, [the tribe of] Thamud denied their Sustainer! Oh, away with the Thamud!
Rashad Khalifa	11:68 It was as if they never lived there. Indeed, Thamoud have rejected their Lord. Absolutely, Thamoud have incurred their annihilation.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:68 As if they had never lived there. Oh, certainly, Thamud had denied their Lord. Oh, away with the Thamud!
Transliteration	11:68 Kaan lam yaghnaw feeh a al ainna thamooda kafaroo rabbahum al a buAADan lithamooda
A	11:68 كان لم يغنوا فيها الا ان ثمودا كفروا ربهم الا بعدا لثمود
Edip-Layth	Abraham and Lut 11:69 Our messengers came to Abraham with good news, they said, "Peace" He said, "Peace," and it was not long before he came back with a roasted calf.
The Monotheist Group	11:69 And Our messengers came to Abraham with good news, they said: "Peace" He said: "Peace," and it was not long before he came back with a roasted calf.
Muhammad Asad	11:69 AND, INDEED, there came unto Abraham Our [heavenly] messengers, bearing a glad tiding. ⁹⁹ They bade him peace; [and] he answered, "[And upon you be] peace!"-and made haste to place before them ¹⁰⁰ a roasted calf.
	Abraham and Lot

Rashad Khalifa	11:69 When our messengers went to Abraham with good news, they said, "Peace." He said, "Peace," and soon brought a roasted calf.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:69 (Similar was the end of the people of Lot.) Our messengers came to Abraham bearing a glad tiding. They greeted Abraham with "Peace!" And he greeted them back with "Peace!" and made haste to place before them a roasted calf.
Transliteration	11:69 Walaqad j aat rusulun a ibraheemabi al bushra q aloo sal aman q alasal amun fama labitha an jaa biAAijlin haneeth in
A	11:69 ولقد جاءت رسلنا ابرهيم بالبشرى قالوا سلما قال سلم فما لبث ان جاء بعجل حنيذ
Edip-Layth	11:70 But when he saw that their hands did not go towards it, he mistrusted them, and felt a fear of them. They said, "Have no fear, we have been sent to the people of Lot."
The Monotheist Group	11:70 But when he saw that their hands did not go towards it, he mistrusted them, and he began to have fear of them. They said: "Have no fear, we have been sent to the people of Lot."
Muhammad Asad	11:70 But when he saw that their hands did not reach out towards it, he deemed their conduct strange and became apprehensive of them. ¹⁰¹ [But] they said: "Fear not! Behold, we are sent to the people of Lot." ¹⁰²
Rashad Khalifa	11:70 When he saw that their hands did not touch it, he became suspicious and fearful of them. They said, "Do not be afraid, we are being dispatched to the people of Lot."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:70 But when he saw that their hands did not reach out towards it, he deemed their conduct strange and became apprehensive of them. But they said, "Fear not! Indeed, we are sent to the people of Lot." (Abraham was apprehensive thinking the visitors refusing hospitality might have aggressive intentions, but in fact they were hurrying to Lot.)
Transliteration	11:70 Falamma ra a aydiyahum l atasilu ilayhi nakirahum waawjasa minhum kheefatan qaloola takhaf inna orsilna ila qawmi loo in
A	11:70 فلما رءا ايديهم لا تصل اليه نكرهم واوجس منهم خيفة قالوا لا تخف انا ارسلنا الى قوم لوط
Edip-Layth	11:71 His wife was standing, so she laughed when We gave her good news of Isaac, and after Isaac, Jacob.
The Monotheist Group	11:71 And his wife was standing, so she laughed when We gave her the good news of Isaac, and after Isaac, Jacob.
Muhammad Asad	11:71 And his wife, standing [nearby], laughed [with happiness] ¹⁰³ ; whereupon We gave her the glad tiding of [the birth of] Isaac and, after Isaac, of [his son] Jacob.
Rashad Khalifa	11:71 His wife was standing, and she laughed when we gave her the good news about Isaac, and after Isaac, Jacob.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:71 And his wife (Sarah), standing nearby, laughed when We gave her good tiding of Isaac, and after Isaac, (his son) Jacob.
Transliteration	11:71 Waimraatuhu qa-imatun fada h ikatfabashsharna ha bi-is haqa wamin war a-iish ha qa yaAAa qooba

A	11:71 وامراته قائمة فضحكت فبشرنها بأسحق ومن وراء اسحق يعقوب
Edip-Layth	11:72 She said, "O my! how can I give birth while I am an old woman, and here is my husband an old man? This is indeed a strange thing!"
The Monotheist Group	11:72 She said: "O my, how can I give birth when I am an old woman, and here is my husband an old man? This is indeed a strange thing!"
Muhammad Asad	11:72 Said she: "Oh, woe is me! ¹⁰⁴ Shall I bear a child, now that I am an old woman and this husband of mine is an old man? Verily, that would be a strange thing indeed!"
Rashad Khalifa	11:72 She said, "Woe to me, how could I bear a child at my age, and here is my husband, an old man? This is really strange!"
Shabbir Ahmed	11:72 She exclaimed, "Oh, woe unto me! Shall I bear a child now that I am an old woman and this husband of mine is an old man? This is really strange!"
Transliteration	11:72 Qalat ya waylata aaliduwaan a AAajoozun wah atha baAAalee shaykhan inna hathal ashay-on AAajeebu n
A	11:72 قالت يويلتي ءالد وانا عجوز وهذا بعلى شيئا ان هذا لشيء عجيب
Edip-Layth	11:73 They said, "Do you wonder at the decree of God? God's Compassion and Blessings are upon you O people of the sanctuary. He is Praiseworthy, Glorious."
The Monotheist Group	11:73 They said: "Do you wonder at the decree of God? God's Mercy and Blessings are upon you O people of the Dwelling. He is Praiseworthy, Glorious."
Muhammad Asad	11:73 Answered [the messengers]: "Dost thou deem it strange that God should decree what He wills? ¹⁰⁵ The grace of God and His blessings be upon you, O people of this house! Verily, ever to be praised, sublime is He!"
Rashad Khalifa	11:73 They said, "Do you find it strange for GOD? GOD has bestowed His mercy and blessings upon you, O inhabitants of the shrine. He is Praiseworthy, Glorious."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:73 Answered the messengers, "Do you marvel about God's command? May God's grace and blessings be upon you, O dwellers of the house! The Owner of all praise, Sublime He is."
Transliteration	11:73 Qaloo ataAAabeena min amri All ahira hmatu All ahi wabarak atu hu AAalaykum ahlaalbayti innahu hameed un majeedu n
A	11:73 قالوا اتعجبين من امر الله رحمت الله وبركته عليكم اهل البيت انه حميد مجيد
Edip-Layth	11:74 So when the shock left Abraham, and the good news was delivered to him, he began to argue with Us for the people of Lot.
The Monotheist Group	11:74 So when the shock left Abraham, and the good news was delivered to him, he began to argue with Us for the people of Lot.
Muhammad Asad	11:74 And when the fear had left Abraham, and the glad tiding had been conveyed to him, he began to plead with Us for Lot's people: ¹⁰⁶
Rashad Khalifa	11:74 When Abraham's fear subsided, and the good news was delivered to him, he proceeded to argue with us on behalf of Lot's people.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:74 When the fear had left Abraham, and the good news was conveyed to him, he began to plead with Us for Lot's people.

Transliteration	11:74 Falamma th ahaba AAan ibraheemaalrrawAAu waj a at-hu albushra yujadiluna fee qawmi loo tin
A	11:74 فلما ذهب عن ابراهيم الروح وجاءته البشرى يجدلنا في قوم لوط
Edip-Layth	11:75 Abraham was compassionate, kind.
The Monotheist Group	11:75 Abraham was compassionate, kind.
Muhammad Asad	11:75 for, behold, Abraham was most clement, most tender-hearted, intent upon turning to God again and again.
Rashad Khalifa	11:75 Indeed, Abraham was clement, extremely kind, and obedient.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:75 For, Abraham was clement, kind-hearted, ever turning to His Lord.
Transliteration	11:75 Inna ibraheema la h aleemun awwa h unmuneebun
A	11:75 ان ابراهيم لحليم اوه منيب
Edip-Layth	11:76 O Abraham, turn away from this. Your Lord's command has come, and a retribution that will not be turned back is coming for them.
The Monotheist Group	11:76 O Abraham, turn away from this. Your Lord's command has come, and a retribution that will not be turned back is coming for them.
Muhammad Asad	11:76 [But God's messengers replied:] "O Abraham! Desist from this [pleading]! Behold, thy Sustainer's judgment has already gone forth: and, verily, there shall fall upon them a chastisement which none can avert!"
Rashad Khalifa	11:76 "O Abraham, refrain from this. Your Lord's judgment has been issued; they have incurred unavoidable retribution."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:76 (It was said) O Abraham! Forsake this! Your Lord's command has gone forth, and certainly, the retribution is now inevitable.
Transliteration	11:76 Ya ibraheemu aA ri dAAan ha th a innahu qad ja a amru rabbika wa-inna h um a tee himAAa th abun ghayru mardood in
A	11:76 يا ابراهيم اعرض عن هذا انه قد جاء امر ربك وانهم آتاهم عذاب غير مردود
Edip-Layth	Homosexual Aggression is Condemned 11:77 When Our messengers came to Lot, he was grieved on their account and he felt discomfort for them and said, "This is a distressful day."
The Monotheist Group	11:77 And when Our messengers came to Lot, he was grieved on their account and he felt discomfort for them and said: "This is a distressful day."
Muhammad Asad	11:77 AND WHEN Our messengers came unto Lot, he was sorely grieved on their account, seeing that it was beyond his power to shield them; ¹⁰⁷ and he exclaimed: "This is a woeful day!"
Rashad Khalifa	Homosexuality Condemned 11:77 When our messengers went to Lot, they were mistreated, and he was embarrassed by their presence. He said, "This is a difficult day."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:77 When Our messengers came to Lot he was distressed, and did not know how to save his people. He exclaimed, "This is a difficult day!"
Transliteration	11:77 Walamma j a at rusulun a loo tan see-a bihim wa da qa bihim th arAAan waq al ah ath a yawmun AA a seebun

A	11:77 ولما جاءت رسلنا لوطا ساء بهم وضاق بهم ذرعا وقال هذا يوم عصيب
Edip-Layth	11:78 His people came rushing towards him, and were accustomed to committing sin. He said, "My people, these are my daughters, they are purer for you, so be aware of God and do not disgrace me regarding my guests. Is there no reasonable man among you?"
The Monotheist Group	11:78 And his people came rushing towards him, and before it they were committing sin, he said: "My people, these are my daughters, they are purer for you, so be aware of God and do not disgrace me regarding my guests. Is there no sane man among you?"
Muhammad Asad	11:78 And his people came running to him, impelled towards his house [by their desire]: ¹⁰⁸ for they had ever been wont to commit [such], abominations. Said [Lot]: "O my people! [Take instead] these daughters of mine: they are purer for you [than men]! ¹⁰⁹ Be, then, conscious of God, and disgrace me not by [assaulting] my guests. Is there not among you even one right-minded man?"
Rashad Khalifa	11:78 His people came rushing; they had grown accustomed to their sinful acts. He said, "O my people, it would be purer for you, if you take my daughters instead. You shall reverence GOD; do not embarrass me with my guests. Have you not one reasonable man among you?"
Shabbir Ahmed	11:78 And the most iniquitous among his people came rushing to Lot. (They wanted the visiting messengers to approve their behavior.) Lot said, "O My people! Your wives, who are like my daughters, are permitted for you. Be mindful of God, and do not humiliate me in the presence of my guests. Is there not a single upright man among you?"
Transliteration	11:78 Wajaahu qawmuhu yuhraAAoona ilayhiwamin qablu k anoo yaAAamaloona alssayyi-ati qalaya qawmi h aola-i ban atee hunna a tharulakum fa ittaqoo All aha wala tukhzooni fee dayfeelaya minkum rajulun rasheed un
A	11:78 وجاءه قومه يهرعون اليه ومن قبل كانوا يعملون السيئات قال يقوم هؤلاء بناتى هن اظهر لكم فاتقوا الله ولا تخزون فى ضيفى اليس منكم رجل رشيد
Edip-Layth	11:79 They said, "You know we have no interest in your daughters, and you are aware of what we want!" ⁹
The Monotheist Group	11:79 They said: "You know we have no interest in your daughters, and you are aware of what we want!"
Muhammad Asad	11:79 They answered: "Thou hast always known that we have no use whatever for thy daughters; ¹¹⁰ and, verily, well dost thou know what we want!"
Rashad Khalifa	11:79 They said, "You know well that we have no need for your daughters; you know exactly what we want."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:79 They said, "You know, we have little interest in our wives whom you call your daughters. You know well what we want." ¹⁹
Transliteration	11:79 Qaloo laqad AAalimta m a lan afee ban atika min haqqin wa-innaka lataAAalamu manureedu
A	11:79 قالوا لقد علمت ما لنا فى بناتك من حق وانك لتعلم ما نريد
Edip-Layth	11:80 He said, "If only I had strength against you, or I could find for myself some powerful support."

The Monotheist Group	11:80 He said: "If only I had strength against you, or I could find for myself some powerful support."
Muhammad Asad	11:80 Exclaimed .[Lot]: "Would that I had the strength to defeat you, or that I could lean upon some mightier support!" ¹¹¹
Rashad Khalifa	11:80 He said, "I wish I were strong enough, or had a powerful ally!"
Shabbir Ahmed	11:80 Lot exclaimed, "I wish I had the strength to resist you or had some strong support."
Transliteration	11:80 Qala law anna lee bikum quwwatan aw aweeila ruknin shadeedin
A	11:80 قال لو ان لى بكم قوة او ءاوى الى ركن شديد
Eidip-Layth	11:81 They said, "O Lot, we are your Lord's messengers; they will not be able to harm you. So travel with your family during the cover of the night and let not any of you look back except for your wife; she will be afflicted with what they will be afflicted. Their appointed time will be the morning. Is the morning not near?"
The Monotheist Group	11:81 They said: "O Lot, we are your Lord's messengers; they will not be able to harm you, so travel with your family during the cover of the night and let not any of you look back except for your wife, she will be afflicted with what they will be afflicted. Their appointed time will be the morning. Is the morning not near?"
Muhammad Asad	11:81 [Whereupon the angels] said: "O Lot! Behold, we are messengers from thy Sustainer! Never shall [thy enemies] attain to thee! Depart, then, with thy household while it is yet night, and let none of you look back; ¹¹² [and take with thee all thy family] with the exception of thy wife: for, behold, that which is to befall these [people of Sodom] shall befall her [as well]. ¹¹³ Verily, their appointed time is the morning [and] is not the morning nigh?"
Rashad Khalifa	11:81 (The angels) said, "O Lot, we are your Lord's messengers, and these people cannot touch you. You shall leave with your family during the night, and let not anyone of you look back, except your wife; she is condemned along with those who are condemned. Their appointed time is the morning. Is not the morning soon enough?"
Shabbir Ahmed	11:81 (The visiting messengers) said, "O Lot! Indeed, we are messengers of your Lord. They will not catch up to you. Now take your family while it is yet night. And let none of you look back, except your wife (who will stay behind). Surely, what is to befall these (people) shall befall her. Their appointed time is the morning. Is not the morning near? ²⁰
Transliteration	11:81 Qaloo y a loo tu inn arusulu rabbika lan ya siloo ilayka faasri bi-ahlika biqitAAinmina allayli wal a yaltafit minkum a hadun ill aimraataka innahu museebuha m a a sabahuminna mawAAidahumu a lssubhu alaysa alssubhubiqareebin
A	11:81 قالوا يلوط انا رسل ربك لن يصلوا اليك فاسر باهلك بقطع من الليل ولا يلتفت منكم احد الا امراتك انه مصيبها ما اصابهم ان موعدهم الصبح اليس الصبح بقريب
Eidip-Layth	11:82 So when Our command came, We turned it upside down, and We rained on it with hardened fiery projectiles.
The Monotheist Group	11:82 So when Our command came, We turned it upside down, and We rained on it with hardened fiery projectiles.
Muhammad Asad	11:82 And so, when Our judgment came to pass, We turned those [sinful towns] upside down, and rained down upon them stone-hard blows of chastisement pre-ordained. ¹¹⁴ one upon another,

Rashad Khalifa	Sodom & Gomorrah Destroyed 11:82 When our judgment came, we turned it upside down, and we showered it with hard, devastating rocks.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:82 And so, when Our command came to pass, We brought low the highly arrogant towns (Sodom and Gomorrah), and rained down upon them hard devastating rocks (from the volcano).
Transliteration	11:82 Falamma j aa amrun ajaAAalna AA aliyaha s afilehawaamtarna AAalayh a hijaratanmin sijjeelin mandoodin
A	11:82 فلما جاء امرنا جعلنا عليها سافلها وامطرنا عليها حجارة من سجيل منضود
Edip-Layth	11:83 Marked from your Lord, and they are never far from the wicked.
The Monotheist Group	11:83 Marked from your Lord, and they are never far from the wicked.
Muhammad Asad	11:83 marked out in thy Sustainer's sight [for the punishment of such as are lost in sin]. And these [blows of God-willed doom] are never far from evildoers ¹¹⁵
Rashad Khalifa	11:83 Such rocks were designated by your Lord to strike the transgressors.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:83 The stones were marked arrows from your Lord. His requital is never far from those who displace the right conduct with wrong.
Transliteration	11:83 Musawwamatan AAinda rabbika wam a hiyamina a lththalimeena bibaAAeedin
A	11:83 مسومة عند ربك وما هي من الظلمين ببيعد
Edip-Layth	Shuayb to Midian 11:84 To Midian was their brother Shuayb, he said, "My people, serve God, you have no god besides Him, and do not give short in the measure and weight. I see you in prosperity, and I fear for you the retribution of a day that is surrounding."
The Monotheist Group	11:84 And to Midyan was their brother Shu'ayb, he said: "My people, serve God, you have no god besides Him, and do not give short in the measure and weight. I see you in prosperity, and I fear for you the retribution of a day that is surrounding."
Muhammad Asad	11:84 AND UNTO [the people of] Madyan [We sent] their brother Shu'ayb. ¹¹⁶ He said: "O my people! Worship God [alone]: you have no deity other than Him; and do not give short measure and weight [in any of your dealings with men]. ¹¹⁷ Behold, I see you [now] in a happy state; but, verily, I dread lest suffering befall you on a Day that will encompass [you with doom]!"
Rashad Khalifa	Shu`aib: One and the Same Message 11:84 To Midyan we sent their brother Shu`aib. He said, "O my people, worship GOD; you have no other god beside Him. Do not cheat when you measure or weigh. I see that you are prosperous, and I fear for you the retribution of an overwhelming day.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:84 And to Midyan, We sent their brother Shoaib. He said, "O My people! Serve God alone. There is no god for you but He. And do not give short measure and weight. I see that you are prosperous. But I fear for you a day that will surround you with chastisement." ²¹
Transliteration	11:84 Wa-ilaa madyana akh ahumshuAAayban q alaa y a qawmi oAAabudoo All aha

	malakum min il ahin ghayruhu wal a tanqu sooalmikyala wa almeezana innee arakumbikhayrin wa-innee akh afu AAalaykum AAa th aba yawminmu h ee t in
A	11:84 والى مدين اخاهم شعيبا قال يقوم اعبدوا الله ما لكم من اله غيره ولا تنقصوا المكيال والميزان انى اريكم بخير وانى اخاف عليكم عذاب يوم محيط
Edip-Layth	11:85 "My people, give full measure and weight with justice, do not hold back from the people what is theirs, and do not roam the land corrupting."
The Monotheist Group	11:85 "And my people, give full measure and weight with justice, and do not hold back from the people what is theirs, and do not roam the land corrupting."
Muhammad Asad	11:85 Hence, O my people, [always] give full measure and weight, with equity, and do not deprive people of what is rightfully theirs, ¹¹⁸ and do not act wickedly on earth by spreading corruption.
Rashad Khalifa	11:85 "O my people, you shall give full measure and full weight, equitably. Do not cheat the people out of their rights, and do not roam the earth corruptingly."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:85 "So, O My people! Always give full measure and weight with equity and do not deprive people of what is rightfully theirs. Do not spread corruption and disorder in the land."
Transliteration	11:85 Waya qawmi awfoo almiky a la wa almeezanabialqisti wal a tabkhasoo alInna s aashya a hum wala taAAhaw fee al-ar d imu f sideena
A	11:85 ويقوم اوفوا المكيال والميزان بالقسط ولا تبخسوا الناس اشيائهم ولا تعثوا فى الارض مفسدين
Edip-Layth	11:86 "What will remain for you with God is far better if you are those who acknowledge. I am not a guardian over you."
The Monotheist Group	11:86 "What will remain for you with God is far better if you are believers. And I am not a guardian over you."
Muhammad Asad	11:86 That which rests with God ¹¹⁹ is best for you, if you but believe [in Him]! However, I am not your keeper."
Rashad Khalifa	11:86 "Whatever GOD provides for you, no matter how small, is far better for you, if you are really believers. I am not a guardian over you."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:86 "That which God gives you as just profit is better for you if you believe. But I am not a guardian over you."
Transliteration	11:86 Baqiyyatu All a hi khayrun lakum inkuntum mu/mineena wam a an a AAalaykum bi h afee t h i n
A	11:86 بقيت الله خير لكم ان كنتم مومنين وما انا عليكم بحفيظ
Edip-Layth	11:87 They said, "O Shu'ayb, does your contact prayer order you that we leave what our fathers served, or that we do not do with our money as we please? You are the compassionate, the sane!" ¹⁰
The Monotheist Group	11:87 They said: "O Shu'ayb, does your communion order you that we leave what our fathers served, or that we do not do with our money as we please? You are the compassionate, the sane!"
	11:87 Said they: "O Shu'ayb! Does thy [habit of] praying compel thee to demand of us ¹²⁰ that we give up all that our forefathers were wont to worship, or that we

Muhammad Asad	refrain from doing whatever we please with our possessions ? ¹²¹ Behold, [thou wouldst have us believe that] thou art indeed the only clement, the only right-minded man!"
Rashad Khalifa	11:87 They said, "O Shu`aib, does your religion dictate upon you that we must abandon our parents' religion, or running our businesses in any manner we choose? Surely, you are known for being clement, wise."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:87 They said, "O Shoaib! (We had thought that your religion was only a matter between you and your Lord.) Does your way of prayer (Salaat) command that we should forsake the worship that our fathers practised? Or, that we should give up doing what we like to do with our economy? You want us to think that you are the only clement, and the rightly guided man among us."
Transliteration	11:87 Qaloo y a shuAAaybu a salatukata/muruka an natruka m a yaAAabudu abaonaw an nafAAala fee amw alina m a nash goinnaka laanta al haleemu alrrasheedu
A	11:87 قالوا يشعيب اصلوتك تامرک ان نترك ما يعبد ءابونا او ان نفعل فى امولنا ما نشاء انك لانت الحليم الرشيد
Edip-Layth	11:88 He said, "O my people, do you see that if I am on clear evidence from my Lord, and He has provided me with good provision from Him, then I would not want to contradict by doing what I forbid you from. I only want to fix what I can, and my guidance is only with God. To Him I place my trust, and to Him I repent."
The Monotheist Group	11:88 He said: "O my people, do you see that if I am on clear evidence from my Lord, and He has provided me with good provision from Him, then I would not want to contradict by doing what I am deterring you from. I only want to fix what I can, and my guidance is only with God. To Him I place my trust, and to Him I repent."
Muhammad Asad	11:88 He answered: "O my people! What do you think? If [it be true that] I am taking my stand on a clear evidence from my Sustainer, who has vouchsafed me goodly sustenance [as a gift] from Himself - [how could I speak to you otherwise than I do]? ¹²² And yet, I have no desire to do, out of opposition to you, what I am asking you not to do: ¹²³ I desire no more than to set things to rights in so far as it lies within my power; but the achievement of my aim depends on God alone. In Him have I placed my trust, and unto Him do I always turn!
Rashad Khalifa	11:88 He said, "O my people, what if I have solid proof from my Lord; what if He has provided me with a great blessing? It is not my wish to commit what I enjoin you from. I only wish to correct as many wrongs as I can. My guidance depends totally on GOD; I have put my trust in Him. To Him I have totally submitted.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:88 He said, "O My people, think again! What if I am acting on a clear evidence from my Lord, and He has provided me with a decent sustenance? I deal in all fairness and I shall never preach what I do not practice behind your sight. I only desire your betterment as much as I can. All my resources, abilities, and success depend on God alone. In Him I trust and to Him I turn with hope."
Transliteration	11:88 Qala y a qawmi araaytum inkuntu AAal a bayyinat min rabbee warazaqanee minhu rizqanhasanan wama oreedu an okh alifakum ilama anhakum AAanhu in oreedu ill a al-i salahama ista taAAatu wam a tawfeegee ill a biAllahiAAalayhi tawakkaltu wa-ilayhi oneebu
A	11:88 قال يقوم اريتم ان كنت على بينة من ربى ورزقنى منه رزقا حسنا وما اريد ان اخالفكم الى ما انهكم عنه ان اريد الا الاصلح ما استطعت وما توفيقى الا بالله عليه توكلت واليه انيب

Edip-Layth	11:89 "My people, let not your hatred towards me incriminate you that you suffer the fate of what afflicted the people of Noah, or the people of Hud, or the people of Saleh; and the people of Lot were not far off from you."
The Monotheist Group	11:89 "And my people, let not your hatred towards me incriminate you that you suffer the fate of what afflicted the people of Noah, or the people of Hud, or the people of Saleh; and the people of Lot were not far off from you."
Muhammad Asad	11:89 "And, O my people, let not [your] dissent from me drive you into sin, lest there befall you the like of what befell the people of Noah, or the people of Hud. or the people of Salih: and [remember that] the people of Lot lived not very far from you!" ¹²⁴
Rashad Khalifa	11:89 "And, O my people, do not be provoked by your opposition to me into incurring the same disasters as the people of Noah, or the people of Hood, or the people of Saaleh; and the people of Lot are not too far from you."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:89 "O My people! Let not my disagreement with you be taken personally to cause you to persist in your guilt so that the same (retribution) befall you that befell the people of Noah, and the people of Hud, and the people of Saaleh. And remember that the people of Lot did not live very far from you."
Transliteration	11:89 Waya qawmi l a yajrimannakumshiq aqee an yu seebakum mithlu m a asabaqawma noo hin aw qawma hoodin aw qawma salihinwama qawmu loo tin minkum bibaAAeedin
A	11:89 ويقوم لا يجرمكم شقاقى ان يصيبكم مثل ما اصاب قوم نوح او قوم هود او قوم صالح وما قوم لوط منكم ببعيد
Edip-Layth	11:90 "Seek forgiveness from your Lord then repent to Him. My Lord is Compassionate, Loving."
The Monotheist Group	11:90 "And seek forgiveness from your Lord then repent to Him. My Lord is Merciful, Loving."
Muhammad Asad	11:90 Hence, ask your Sustainer to forgive you your sins, and then turn towards Him in repentance - for, verily, my Sustainer is a dispenser of grace, a fount of love!"
Rashad Khalifa	11:90 "You shall implore your Lord for forgiveness, then repent to Him. My Lord is Most Merciful, Kind."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:90 (None of the communities was destroyed for a deficiency in their worship. They met destruction for violating human rights.) "Seek forgiveness of your Lord, then repent by journeying on the right path. You will experience that my Lord is Merciful, Loving." ²²
Transliteration	11:90 Waistaghfiroo rabbakum thumma toobooilayhi inna rabbee ra heemun wadoodun
A	11:90 واستغفروا ربكم ثم توبوا اليه ان ربي رحيم ودود
Edip-Layth	11:91 They said, "O Shuayb, we do not understand most of what you say, and we see you as weak amongst us. If it were not for who your family is, we would have stoned/rejected you, and you would not be proud against us."
The Monotheist Group	11:91 They said: "O Shu'ayb, we do not understand most of what you say, and we see you as weak amongst us; and if it were not for who your family is, we would have stoned you, and you would not be proud against us."

Muhammad Asad	11:91 [But his people] said: "O Shu'ayb! We cannot grasp the purport of much of what thou sayest; ¹²⁵ on the other hand, behold, we do see clearly how- weak thou art in our midst:" ¹²⁶ and were it not for thy family, we would have most certainly stoned thee to death, considering that thou hast no power over us!"
Rashad Khalifa	11:91 They said, "O Shu`aib, we do not comprehend many of the things you are telling us, and we see that you are powerless among us. If it were not for your tribe, we would have stoned you. You have no value for us."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:91 They said, "O Shoaib! Much of what you tell us is beyond our comprehension. We see that you are not a man of power in our midst. If we were not concerned about your family and your tribe, we would have stoned you. You are of no value to us."
Transliteration	11:91 Qaloo y a shuAAaybu m anafqahu katheeran mimm a taqoolu wa-inn a lanara ^{ka} afeena daAAeefan walawl a rah tukalarajamnaka wam a anta AAalayn a biAAazeezin
A	11:91 قالوا يشعيب ما نفقه كثيرا مما تقول وانا لنرىك فينا ضعيفا ولولا رهطك لرجمناك وما انت علينا بعزیز
Edip-Layth	11:92 He said, "My people, is my family more important to you than God, while you have cast Him away behind your backs? My Lord is Encompassing over what you do."
The Monotheist Group	11:92 He said: "My people, is who my family is more important to you than God, while you have cast Him away behind your backs? My Lord is encompassing what you do."
Muhammad Asad	11:92 Said he: "O my people! Do you hold my family in greater esteem than God? -for, Him you regard as something that may be cast behind you and be forgotten!" ¹²⁷ Verily, my Sustainer encompasses [with His might] all that you do!
Rashad Khalifa	11:92 He said, "O my people, does my tribe command a greater respect than GOD? Is this why you have been heedless of Him? My Lord is fully aware of everything you do."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:92 He said, "O My people! Does my family and tribe command a greater respect than God? And you put Him behind you, neglected. Remember, my Lord surrounds all you do."
Transliteration	11:92 Qala y a qawmi arah teeaAAazzu AAalaykum mina All ahi waittakhathumoo ^{hu} warakum thihriyyan inna rabbee bim ataAAamaloona muheetun
A	11:92 قال يقوم ارهطى اعز عليكم من الله واتخذتموه وراءكم ظهريا ان ربي بما تعملون محيط
Edip-Layth	11:93 "My people, continue to act as you do, and I will act. You will then come to know to whom the humiliating retribution will come and who is the liar. Watch then, and I will watch with you."
The Monotheist Group	11:93 "And my people, continue to act as you do, and I will act. You will then come to know to whom the retribution will come to humiliate him and who is the liar. Watch then, and I will watch with you."
Muhammad Asad	11:93 Hence, O my people, do [to me] anything that may be within your power, [while] I, behold, shall labour [in God's way]; in time you will come to know which [of us] shall be visited by suffering that will cover him with ignominy, and which [of us] is a liar. Watch, then, [for what is coming:] behold, I shall watch with you!"

Rashad Khalifa	11:93 "O my people, go on doing what you wish, and so will I. You will certainly find out which of us will incur shameful retribution; you will find out who the liar is. Just wait in anticipation, and I will wait in anticipation along with you."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:93 "O My people! Go on doing what you wish, and so will I. Soon you will find out which of us will incur the chastisement of humiliation, and who is a liar. Just watch, and I am watching along with you."
Transliteration	11:93 Waya qawmi iAaMaloo AAa al a mak anatikuminnee AA amilun sawfa taAAalamoona man ya/teehee AAa thabunyukhzeehi waman huwa k athibun wairtaqiboo innemaAAakum raqeebun
A	11:93 ويقوم اعملوا على مكانتكم انى عمل سوف تعلمون من ياتيه عذاب يخزيه ومن هو كذب وارقبوا انى معكم رقيب
Edip-Layth	11:94 When Our command came, We saved Shuayb and those who acknowledged with him by a mercy from Us; and the scream took those who had wronged, so they lay motionless in their homes.
The Monotheist Group	11:94 And when Our command came, We saved Shu'ayb and those who believed with him by a mercy from Us; and the scream took those who had wronged, so they lay motionless in their homes.
Muhammad Asad	11:94 And so, when Our judgment came to pass, by Our grace We saved Shu'ayb and those who shared his faith, whereas the blast [of Our punishment] overtook those who had been bent on evil-doing: and then they lay lifeless, in their very homes, on the ground, ¹²⁸
Rashad Khalifa	11:94 When our judgment came, we saved Shu`aib and those who believed with him, by mercy from us. As for the evil ones, they were struck by a disaster that left them dead in their homes.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:94 When Our command came to pass, We saved Shoaib, and those who believed with him, by a mercy from Us. An awful blast seized the wrongdoers. The morning found them dead in their very homes, on the ground. ²³
Transliteration	11:94 Walamma j aa amrun anajjayna shuAAayban wa allatheena amanoomaAAahu bira hmatin minn a waakha thati alla theenathalamoo a lssayhatu faasba hoofee diyarihim jathimeena
A	11:94 ولما جاء امرنا نجينا شعيبا والذين ءامنوا معه برحمة منا واخذت الذين ظلموا الصيحة فاصبحوا فى ديارهم جثمين
Edip-Layth	11:95 It is as if they never lived there. Away with Midian as it was away with Thamud.
The Monotheist Group	11:95 It is as if they never lived there. Away with Midyan as it was away with Thamud.
Muhammad Asad	11:95 as though they had never lived there. Oh, away with [the people of] Madyan, even as the Thamud have been done away with!
Rashad Khalifa	11:95 It was as though they never existed. Thus, Midyan perished, just like Thamoud had perished before that.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:95 As if they had never lived there. Oh, away with Midyan, just as the Thamud have been done away with!

Transliteration	11:95 Kaan lam yaghnaw feeh a al abu AA adan limadyana kama a baAA aidat thamood u
A	11:95 كان لم يغنوا فيها الا بعدا لمدين كما بعدت ثمود
Edip-Layth	Moses to Egypt 11:96 We sent Moses with Our signs and a clear authority.
The Monotheist Group	11:96 And We sent Moses with Our signs and a clear authority.
Muhammad Asad	11:96 AND, INDEED, We sent Moses with Our messages and a manifest authority [from Us]
Rashad Khalifa	Moses 11:96 We sent Moses with our signs and a profound authority.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:96 We sent Moses with Our revelations and a manifest authority (of self-evident truth).
Transliteration	11:96 Walaqad arsal na moosa a bi- ay atin aw asult an in mubeen in
A	11:96 ولقد ارسلنا موسى بايتنا وسلطن مبين
Edip-Layth	11:97 To Pharaoh and his leaders; but they followed the command of Pharaoh, and Pharaoh's command was not wise.
The Monotheist Group	11:97 To Pharaoh and his leaders; but they followed the command of Pharaoh, and Pharaoh's command was not wise.
Muhammad Asad	11:97 unto Pharaoh and his great ones: but these followed [only] Pharaoh's bidding - and Pharaoh's bidding led by no means to what is right. ¹²⁹
Rashad Khalifa	11:97 To Pharaoh and his elders. But they followed the command of Pharaoh, and Pharaoh's command was not wise.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:97 To Pharaoh and his chiefs. They followed only the command of Pharaoh, and his command did not lead to right.
Transliteration	11:97 Il a firAA aw na wamala-ihi fa itt aba AA oo amra firAA aw na wam a amru firAA aw na birasheed in
A	11:97 الى فرعون وملايه فاتبعوا امر فرعون وما امر فرعون برشيد
Edip-Layth	11:98 He will be at the head of his people on the day of Resurrection, and he will lead them to the fire. What a miserable place they are lead in!
The Monotheist Group	11:98 He will be at the head of his people on the Day of Resurrection, and he will lead them to the Fire. What a miserable place they are brought in!
Muhammad Asad	11:98 [And so] he shall go before his people on the Day of Resurrection, having led them [in this world] towards the fire [of the life to come]; and vile was the destination towards which they were led -
Rashad Khalifa	11:98 He will lead his people on the Day of Resurrection, all the way to Hell; what a miserable abode to live in!
Shabbir Ahmed	11:98 Pharaoh will go before his people on the Day of Resurrection, and lead them into the fire. What a miserable place to land! ²⁴
Transliteration	11:98 Yaqdumu qawmahu yawma alqiy a matifaawradahumu a Inn a ra wabi/sa alwird u almawrood u

A	11:98 يقدم قومه يوم القيمة فأوردتهم النار وبئس الورد المورود
Edip-Layth	11:98 They were followed by a curse in this, and on the day of Resurrection. What a miserable path to follow!
The Monotheist Group	11:98 And they were followed by a curse in this, and on the Day of Resurrection. What a miserable path to follow!
Muhammad Asad	11:98 seeing that they were pursued by [God's] rejection in this [world], and [shall be finally overtaken by it] on the Day of Resurrection; ¹³⁰ [and] vile was the gift which they were given!
Rashad Khalifa	11:98 They have incurred condemnation in this life, as well as on the Day of Resurrection; what a miserable path to follow!
Shabbir Ahmed	11:98 Divine rejection was made to follow them in this world and will overcome them on the Day of Resurrection. Contemptible is the gift that will be given to them.
Transliteration	11:98 WaotbiAAoo fee h athihi laAAnatanwayawma alqiy amati bi/sa a Irrifdu almarfoodu
A	11:99 واتبعوا فى هذه لعنة ويوم القيمة بئس الردف المرفود
Edip-Layth	11:100 That is from the news of the towns which We relate to you; some are still standing and some have been wiped-out.
The Monotheist Group	11:100 That is from the news of the towns which We narrate to you; some are still standing and some have been wiped-out.
Muhammad Asad	11:100 THIS ACCOUNT ¹³¹ of the [fate of those ancient] communities - some of them still remaining, and some [extinct like] a field mown-down - We convey unto thee [as a lesson for mankind]: ¹³²
Rashad Khalifa	Lessons to be Learned 11:100 This is news from the past communities that we narrate to you. Some are still standing, and some have vanished.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:100 (O Messenger!), This is news from only a few of the past communities that We narrate to you. Some of them are merely surviving and some have vanished.
Transliteration	11:100 Thalika min anb a-i alqur anaqussuhu AAalayka minh a q a-imun wahaseedun
A	11:100 ذلك من انباء القرى نقصه عليك منها قائم وحصيد
Edip-Layth	11:101 We did not wrong them, but they wronged themselves. Their gods that they called on besides God did not rescue them at all when your Lord's command came, and they only added to their destruction.
The Monotheist Group	11:101 We did not wrong them, but they wronged themselves; their gods that they called on besides God did not rescue them at all when your Lord's command came, and they only added to their destruction.
Muhammad Asad	11:101 for, no wrong did We do to them, but it was they who wronged themselves. And when thy Sustainer's judgment came to pass, those deities of theirs which they had been wont to invoke instead of God proved of no avail whatever to them, and brought them no more than utter perdition.
	11:101 We never wronged them; they wronged their own souls. Their gods,

Rashad Khalifa	whom they invoked beside GOD, could not help them in the least when the judgment of your Lord came. In fact, they only ensured their doom.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:101 We did no injustice to them, but they wronged themselves. And when the command of your Lord came to pass, their gods whom they called besides God availed them not. They only added to their ruin.
Transliteration	11:101 Wama th alamnahumwal al kin th alamoo anfusahum fam a aghnat AAanhum al ihatuhumu allatee yadAAoona min dooni All ah imin shay-in lamm a j aa amru rabbika wama z adoohumghayra tatbeeb in
A	11:101 وما ظلمنهم ولكن ظلموا انفسهم فما اغنت عنهم الهتهم التي يدعون من دون الله من شيء لما جاء امر ربك وما زادهم غير تنبيي
Edip-Layth	11:102 Such is the taking of your Lord when He takes the towns while they are wicked. His taking is painful, severe.
The Monotheist Group	11:102 Such is the taking of your Lord when He takes the towns while they are wicked. His taking is painful, severe.
Muhammad Asad	11:102 And such is thy Sustainer's punishing grasp whenever He takes to task any community that is given to evil-doing: verily, His punishing grasp is grievous, severe!
Rashad Khalifa	11:102 Such was the retribution enforced by your Lord when the communities transgressed. Indeed, His retribution is painful, devastating.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:102 Such is the grasp of your Lord's Law of Requital on townships when they run oppressive systems. His grasp is painful, strong.
Transliteration	11:102 Wakath al ika akh thu rabbika i th aakhath al alqur a wahiya th alimatuninna akh th ahu aleemun shadeed un
A	11:102 وكذلك اخذ ربك اذا اخذ القرى وهى ظلمة ان اخذه اليم شديد
Edip-Layth	11:103 In this is a sign for he who fears the retribution of the Hereafter. That is a day to which all the people will be gathered, and that is a day which will witnessed.
The Monotheist Group	11:103 In this is a sign for he who fears the retribution of the Hereafter. That is a Day to which all the people will be gathered, and that is a Day which will witnessed.
Muhammad Asad	11:103 Herein, behold, lies a message indeed for all who fear the suffering [which may befall them] in the life to come, (and are conscious of the coming of) that Day on which all mankind shall be gathered together-that Day [of Judgment] which shall be witnessed [by all that ever lived],
Rashad Khalifa	11:103 This should be a lesson for those who fear the retribution of the Hereafter. That is a day when all the people will be summoned - a day to be witnessed.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:103 Herein, certainly is a lesson for those who fear the suffering of the life to come. That is a Day when all mankind will be gathered, and that is a Day that will be witnessed by all that ever lived. And the results of all actions will become manifest.
Transliteration	11:103 Inna fee th alika laayatanl iman kh af a AAath ab a al- ak hirati th alikayawmun majmooAAun lahu aln as u wath al ikayawmun mashhood un
A	11:103 ان فى ذلك لآية لمن خاف لآخرة ذلك يوم مجموع له الناس وذلك يوم

Edip-Layth	11:104 We do not delay it except to a term already prepared for.
The Monotheist Group	11:104 And We do not delay it except to a term already prepared for.
Muhammad Asad	11:104 and which We shall not delay beyond a term set [by Us]. 133
Rashad Khalifa	11:104 We have appointed a specific time for it to take place.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:104 And We defer that Day only to a specified time.
Transliteration	11:104 Wama nu-akhhiruhu illa li-ajalin maAdoodin
A	11:104 وما نؤخره الا لاجل معدود
Edip-Layth	11:105 On the day it comes, no person will speak to another except by His leave. Some of them will be distraught, some will be happy.
The Monotheist Group	11:105 On the Day it comes, no person will speak to another except by His leave. Some of them will be distraught, some will be happy.
Muhammad Asad	11:105 When that Day comes, not a soul will speak. unless it be by His leave; and of those [that are gathered together], some will be wretched and some, happy.
Rashad Khalifa	11:105 The day it comes to pass, no soul will utter a single word, except in accordance with His will. Some will be miserable, and some will be happy.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:105 On that Day, when it comes, no one will speak except by His Leave. Some of them will be sad, others glad. 25
Transliteration	11:105 Yawma ya/ti l a takallamu nafsun ill a bi-i <th>nihi</th> faminhum shaqiyyun wasaAAeedin	nihi
A	11:105 يوم يات لا تكلم نفس الا باذنه فمنهم شقى وسعيد
Edip-Layth	11:106 As for those who are distraught, they will be in the fire; in it for them is a sighing and a wailing.
The Monotheist Group	11:106 As for those who are distraught, they will be in the Fire; in it for them is a sighing and a wailing.
Muhammad Asad	11:106 Now as for those who [by their deeds] will have brought wretchedness upon them-selves, [they shall live] in the fire, where they will have [nothing but] moans and sobs [to relieve their pain],
Rashad Khalifa	11:106 As for the miserable ones, they will be in Hell, wherein they sigh and wail.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:106 Those who, by their deeds, brought misery on themselves will be in the fire, sighing and wailing will be their portion. 26
Transliteration	11:106 Faamma alla theena shaqoofafee a Innari lahum feeh a zafeerun washaheequn
A	11:106 فاما الذين شقوا ففى النار لهم فيها زفير وشهيق
Edip-Layth	11:107 They will abide in it as long as the heavens and earth exist, except for what your Lord wishes. Your Lord does as He pleases.
The Monotheist Group	11:107 They will abide in it as long as the heavens and Earth exist, except for what your Lord wishes. Your Lord does as He pleases.

Muhammad Asad	11:107 therein to abide as long as the heavens and the earth endure-unless thy Sustainer wills it otherwise: ¹³⁴ for, verily, thy Sustainer is a sovereign doer of whatever He wills.
Rashad Khalifa	11:107 Eternally they abide therein, for as long as the heavens and the earth endure, in accordance with the will of your Lord. Your Lord is doer of whatever He wills.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:107 Therein to abide, as long as the (New) Universe endures; that is time beyond count, unless your Lord decrees otherwise. Your Lord is Doer of what He wills in the World of command. ²⁷
Transliteration	11:107 Khalideena fee h a ma da matia l ssam a watu wa al -ar du ill a ma sh aa rabbuka inna rabbaka faAAAA a lun lim a yure du
A	11:107 خلدین فیہا ما دامت السموت والارض الا ما شاء ربك ان ربك فعال لما يريد
Edip-Layth	11:108 As for those who are fortunate, they will be in paradise; in it they will abide as long as the heavens and earth exist, except for what your Lord wishes, a giving without end. ¹¹
The Monotheist Group	11:108 As for those who are fortunate, they will be in Paradise; in it they will abide as long as the heavens and Earth exist, except for what your Lord wishes, a giving without end.
Muhammad Asad	11:108 But as for those who [by virtue of their past deeds] will have been blest with happiness, [they shall live] in paradise, therein to abide as long as the heavens and the earth endure -unless thy Sustainer wills it otherwise ¹³⁵ -as a gift unceasing.
Rashad Khalifa	11:108 As for the fortunate ones, they will be in Paradise. Eternally they abide therein, for as long as the heavens and the earth endure, in accordance with the will of your Lord - an everlasting reward.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:108 The happy ones on that Day will enter the Garden and live there as long as the (New) Universe endures, that is time beyond count; until your Lord opens for them the way to further evolution, a gift unfailing.
Transliteration	11:108 Waamma alla the ena suAAidoofafee aljannati kh a lideena fee h a m a da matia l ssam a watu wa al -ar du ill a ma sh aa rabbuka AAa ta an ghayra maj th oo th in
A	11:108 واما الذين سعدوا ففي الجنة خلدین فیہا ما دامت السموت والارض الا ما شاء ربك عطاء غیر مجنوذ
Edip-Layth	11:109 So do not be in doubt as to what these men serve. They serve nothing but what their fathers before them served. We will give them their recompense in full.
The Monotheist Group	11:109 So do not be in doubt as to what these men serve. They serve nothing but what their fathers before them served. We will give them their recompense in full.
Muhammad Asad	11:109 AND SO, [O Prophet,] be not in doubt about anything that those [misguided people] worship: ¹³⁶ they but [thoughtlessly] worship as their forefathers worshipped aforetime; and, behold, We shall most certainly give them their full due [for whatever good or evil they have earned], without diminishing aught thereof. ¹³⁷

Following Our Parents Blindly A Great Human Tragedy

Rashad Khalifa	11:109 Do not have any doubt regarding what these people worship; they worship exactly as they found their parents worshipping. We will requite them their due share fully, without reduction.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:109 Be not in doubt about the end of those who worship idols in any form. They only blindly follow their forefathers. They and their forefathers will get their due portion according to Our law.
Transliteration	11:109 Fa la taku fee miryatin mimm aya Abudu h ola -i m a yaAbudoona ill aka ya Abudu aba ohum min qablu wa-inn alamu waffoohum na seeb ahum ghayra manqoos in
A	11:109 فلا تك في مربة مما يعبد هولاء ما يعبدون الا كما يعبد اباؤهم من قبل وانا لموفوهم نصيبهم غير منقوص
Edip-Layth	11:110 We have given Moses the book, yet they disputed in it; and had it not been for a word which was already given by your Lord, their case would have been judged immediately. They are in grave doubt concerning it.
The Monotheist Group	11:110 We have given Moses the Scripture, yet they disputed in it; and had it not been for a word which was already given by your Lord, their case would have been judged immediately. They are in grave doubt concerning it.
Muhammad Asad	11:110 And, indeed, [similar was the case when] We vouchsafed the divine writ unto Moses, and some of his people set their own views against it; 138 and had it not been for a decree that had already gone forth from thy Sustainer, judgment would indeed have been passed on them [then and there]: 139 for, behold, they were in grave doubt, amounting to suspicion, about him [who called them unto God]. 140
Rashad Khalifa	11:110 We have given Moses the scripture, but it was disputed, and if it were not for a predetermined word decreed by your Lord, they would have been judged immediately. They are full of doubt about this, suspicious.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:110 People differed even when Moses was given the scripture. Had it not been for a Word that had already gone forth from your Lord, the matter would have been judged between them then and there. They are still in doubt, amounting to suspicion, concerning it. 28
Transliteration	11:110 Walaqad atayna moos a alkitaba fa ikhtulifa feehee walawl a kalimatunsabaqat min rabbika laqu diya baynahum wa-innahum lafeeshakkin minhu mureebun
A	11:110 ولقد آتينا موسى الكتب فاختلف فيه ولولا كلمة سبقت من ربك لقضى بينهم وانهم لفي شك منه مريب
Edip-Layth	11:111 To each your Lord will recompense their works. He is Ever-aware in what they do.
The Monotheist Group	11:111 And to each your Lord will recompense their works. He is expert in what they do.
Muhammad Asad	11:111 And, verily, unto each and all will thy Sustainer give their full due for whatever [good or evil] they may have done: behold, He is aware of all that they do!
Rashad Khalifa	11:111 Your Lord will surely recompense everyone for their works. He is fully Cognizant of everything they do.

Shabbir Ahmed	11:111 Unto each your Lord will certainly repay his works. He is fully Aware of what they do.
Transliteration	11:111 Wa-inna kullam alayuwaffiyannahum rabbuka aAAam alahum innahu bimayaAAamaloona khabeerun
A	11:111 وان كلا لما ليوفينهم ربك اعمالهم انه بما يعملون خبير
Edip-Layth	11:112 So stand straight as you were commanded together with those who repented with you and do not transgress. He is watcher over what you do.
The Monotheist Group	11:112 So stand straight as you were commanded and those who repented with you and do not transgress. He is watcher over what you do.
Muhammad Asad	11:112 Pursue, then, the right course, as thou hast been bidden [by God], together with all who, with thee, have turned unto Him; and let none of you behave in an overweening manner: ¹⁴¹ for, verily, He sees all that you do.
Rashad Khalifa	11:112 Therefore, continue on the path you have been enjoined to follow, together with those who repented with you, and do not transgress. He is Seer of everything you do.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:112 Therefore, (O Prophet!) stand firm as you are commanded, along with those who turn to God with you. Remember to be moderate in all your actions. He is watching all that you do.
Transliteration	11:112 Faistaqim kama omirta waman t abamaAAaka wala taughaw innahu bim a taAAamalonabaseerun
A	11:112 فاستقم كما امرت ومن تاب معك ولا تطغوا انه بما تعملون بصير
Edip-Layth	11:113 You shall not lean towards those who have wronged, else you will incur the fire; and you will not have besides God any allies, and you will not be victorious.
The Monotheist Group	11:113 And you shall not lean towards those who have wronged else you will incur the Fire; and you will not have besides God any allies, and you will not be victorious.
Muhammad Asad	11:113 And do not incline towards, nor rely upon, those who are bent on evil-doing ¹⁴² lest the fire [of the hereafter] touch you: for [then] you would have none to protect you from God, nor would you ever be succoured [by Him]. ¹⁴³
Rashad Khalifa	11:113 Do not lean towards those who have transgressed, lest you incur Hell, and find no allies to help you against GOD, then end up losers.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:113 Do not be intimidated by the oppressors and guard yourself against even a touch of the fire. Remember, there are no protectors to help you against the laws of God. And then you will not be helped in any way.
Transliteration	11:113 Wala tarkanoo il a alla theenathalamoo fatamassakumu a Innaru wamalakum min dooni Allahi min awliya thumma latunsaroona
A	11:113 ولا تركنوا الى الذين ظلموا فتمسكم النار وما لكم من دون الله من اولياء ثم لا تتصرون
Edip-Layth	Times of the Contact Prayers 11:114 You shall hold the contact prayer at both ends of the day and the near part of the night. The good deeds take away the bad. This is a reminder for those who remember. ¹²

The Monotheist Group	11:114 And you shall hold the communion at the two edges of the day, during the near parts of the night. The good deeds take away the bad. This is a reminder to those who remember.
Muhammad Asad	11:114 And be constant in praying at the beginning and the end ¹⁴⁴ of the day, as well as during the early watches of the night: ¹⁴⁵ for, verily, good deeds drive away evil deeds: this is a reminder to all who bear [God] in mind.
Rashad Khalifa	Three of the Five Prayers 11:114 You shall observe the Contact Prayers (Salat) at both ends of the day, and during the night. The righteous works wipe out the evil works. This is a reminder for those who would take heed.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:114 Strive to establish and consolidate the Divine System, day and night. Actions that create balance in the society remove the ill effects of inequities. Good deeds remove bad deeds. This is a reminder for those who pay attention.
Transliteration	11:114 Waaqimi a lssalata tarafayiaInnahari wazulafan mina allayli inna alhasanatiyuthhibna alssayyi-ati thalika thikralilththakireena
A	11:114 واقم الصلوة طرفى النهار وزلفا من اليل ان الحسنات يذهبن السيئات ذلك ذكرى للذكرين
Edip-Layth	11:115 Be patient, for God does not waste the reward of the good doers.
The Monotheist Group	11:115 And be patient, for God does not waste the reward of the good doers.
Muhammad Asad	11:115 And be patient in adversity: for, verily,. God does not fail to requite the doers of good!
Rashad Khalifa	11:115 You shall steadfastly persevere, for GOD never fails to recompense the righteous.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:115 Be steadfast in service. God never fails to reward the benefactors of humanity.
Transliteration	11:115 Waisbir fa-inna Allahala yudeeAAu ajra almuhsineena
A	11:115 واصبر فان الله لا يضيع اجر المحسنين
Edip-Layth	11:116 If only there was from the previous generations a people with wisdom who deterred from the corruption on earth, except the few that We saved of them. Those who were wicked followed the enjoyment they were in, and they were criminal.
The Monotheist Group	11:116 If only there was from the previous generations a people with wisdom who deterred from the corruption on Earth, except the few that We saved of them. And those who were wicked followed the enjoyment they were in, and they were criminal.
Muhammad Asad	11:116 BUT, ALAS, among those generations [whom We destroyed] before your time there were no people endowed with any virtue ¹⁴⁶ - [people] who would speak out against the [spread of] corruption on earth -except the few of them whom We saved [because of their righteousness], whereas those who were bent on evildoing only pursued pleasures which corrupted their whole being, ¹⁴⁷ and so lost themselves in sinning.
	11:116 If only some of those among the previous generations possessed enough

Rashad Khalifa	intelligence to forbid evil! Only a few of them deserved to be saved by us. As for the transgressors, they were preoccupied with their material luxuries; they were guilty.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:116 But, Alas! Among the generations before your time, only a few were virtuous enough to discourage disorder in the land. We saved those few, whereas those who continued to violate human rights only pursued material riches. And they were guilty of stealing the fruit of others' labor (and they were requited). ²⁹
Transliteration	11:116 Falawla k ana mina alquroonimin qablikum oloo baqiyyatin yanhawna AAani alfas adi feeal-ar di ill a qaleelan mimman anjayn a minhumwa ittabaAAa allatheena th alamoo m ot rifoo feehee wak anoo mujrimeena
A	11:116 فلولا كان من القرون من قبلكم اولوا بقية ينهون عن الفساد فى الارض الا قليلا ممن انجيناهم منهم واتبع الذين ظلموا ما اترفوا فيه وكانوا مجرمين
Edip-Layth	11:117 Your Lord would not destroy the towns wrongfully, while its people were good doers.
The Monotheist Group	11:117 And your Lord would not destroy the towns wrongfully, while its people were good doers.
Muhammad Asad	11:117 For, never would thy Sustainer destroy a community ¹⁴⁸ for wrong [beliefs alone] so long as its people behave righteously [towards one another]. ¹⁴⁹
Rashad Khalifa	11:117 Your Lord never annihilates any community unjustly, while its people are righteous.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:117 Your Lord never destroys a community for wrong beliefs alone as long as its people are reformers, setting right their own, and one another's condition. ³⁰
Transliteration	11:117 Wama kana rabbuka liyuhlikaalqura bi th ulmin waahluha mu s li h oona
A	11:117 وما كان ربك ليهلك القرى بظلم واهلها مصلحون
Edip-Layth	11:118 Had your Lord wished, He could have made all the people one nation, but they still would continue to disagree;
The Monotheist Group	11:118 And had your Lord wished, He could have made all the people one nation, but they still would continue to disagree.
Muhammad Asad	11:118 And had thy Sustainer so willed, He could surely have made all mankind one single community: but [He willed it otherwise, and so] they continue to hold divergent views'. ¹⁵⁰
Rashad Khalifa	Why Were We Created 11:118 Had your Lord willed, all the people would have been one congregation (of believers). But they will always dispute (the truth).
Shabbir Ahmed	11:118 Had your Lord so willed, He could have made all mankind one single community, (but He has granted them free will as against other creatures who are driven by instinct). Therefore, they will continue to hold divergent views. ³¹
Transliteration	11:118 Walaw sh aa rabbuka lajaAAala a Innasaommatan w a h idatan wal a yaz aloon amukhtalifeena
A	11:118 ولو شاء ربك لجعل الناس امة وحدة ولا يزالون مختلفين

Edip-Layth	11:119 Except whom your Lord has mercy upon; and for that He has created them. The word of your Lord came true: "I will fill hell with the Jinn and the humans together!" ¹³
The Monotheist Group	11:119 Except whom your Lord has mercy upon; and for that He has created them. And the word of your Lord came true: "I will fill Hell with the Jinn and the people together!"
Muhammad Asad	11:119 [all of them,] save those upon whom thy Sustainer has bestowed His grace. ¹⁵¹ And to this end has He created them [all. ¹⁵² But [as for those who refuse to avail themselves of divine guidance,] that word of thy Sustainer shall be fulfilled: "Most certainly will I fill hell with invisible beings as well as with humans, all together!" ¹⁵³
Rashad Khalifa	11:119 Only those blessed with mercy from your Lord (will not dispute the truth). This is why He created them. The judgment of your Lord has already been issued: "I will fill Hell with jinns and humans, all together."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:119 Except those on whom your Lord will bestow His grace (for working toward the noble objective of unity). And for this He created them. Those who defy (this command) will fulfill the Word of your Lord, "Surely, I shall fill Hell with the nomad and urban mankind all together."
Transliteration	11:119 Illa man ra hima rabbuka wali thalikakhalaqahum watammat kalimatu rabbika laamlaanna jahannama minaaljinnati waaInnasi ajmaAAeena
A	11:119 الا من رحم ربك ولذلك خلقهم وتمت كلمة ربك لاملان جهنم من الجنة والناس اجمعين
Edip-Layth	11:120 All the news of the messengers that we relate to you is to strengthen your heart. In this has come to you the truth and a lesson and a reminder for those who acknowledge.
The Monotheist Group	11:120 And We narrate to you from the news of the messengers with which We strengthen your heart. In this has come to you the truth and a lesson and a reminder for the believers.
Muhammad Asad	11:120 AND [remember:] out of all the accounts relating to the [earlier] apostles We convey unto thee [only] that wherewith We [aim to] make firm thy heart: ¹⁵⁴ for through these [accounts] comes the truth unto thee, as well as an admonition and a reminder unto all believers.
Rashad Khalifa	11:120 We narrate to you enough history of the messengers to strengthen your heart. The truth has come to you herein, as well as enlightenments and reminders for the believers.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:120 And (O Messenger!), all that We relate to you of the history of some messengers, is in order to strengthen your heart. Although through these accounts the truth comes to you, but it is also meant to be an enlightenment and reminder for all believers in this Divine writ.
Transliteration	11:120 Wakullan naqu ssu AAalayka min anb a-ialrrusuli m a nuthabbitu bihi fu-adaaaka wajaakafee hathihi alhaququ wamawAAathatun wathikralilmu/mineena
A	11:120 وكلا نقص عليك من انباء الرسل ما نثبت به فؤادك وجاءك في هذه الحق وموعظة وذكرى للمومنين
Edip-Layth	11:121 Say to those who do not acknowledge: "Continue to do what you will, we will also do."

The Monotheist Group	11:121 And say to those who do not believe: "Continue to do what you will, we will also do."
Muhammad Asad	11:121 And say unto those who will not believe: "Do anything that may be within your power, [while] we, behold, shall labour [in God's way];
Rashad Khalifa	11:121 Say to those who disbelieve, "Do whatever you can, and so will we.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:121 And tell those who adamantly disbelieve, "Do anything that may be in your power, while we shall labor (in God's way.)"
Transliteration	11:121 Waqul lilla the ena l ayu /minoona iAAamaloo AAal a mak a natikum innaAAaamiloona
A	11:121 وَقُلْ لِلَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ اَعْمَلُوا عَلَىٰ مَكَانَتِكُمْ اَنَا عَمَلُونَ
Edip-Layth	11:122 "Wait, for we are also waiting."
The Monotheist Group	11:122 "And wait, for we are also waiting."
Muhammad Asad	11:122 and wait [for what is coming]: behold, we too are waiting!"
Rashad Khalifa	11:122 "Then wait; we too will wait."
Shabbir Ahmed	11:122 And tell them, "And wait for what is coming. Indeed, we are also waiting."
Transliteration	11:122 Wainta thi roo inna muntathi roona
A	11:122 وَاِنْتظِرُوا اَنَا مُنْتَظِرُونَ
Edip-Layth	11:123 To God is the unseen of heavens and earth, and to Him all matters return. So serve Him and put your trust in Him. Your Lord is not unaware of what you all do.
The Monotheist Group	11:123 And to God is the unseen of heavens and Earth, and to Him all matters return. So serve Him and put your trust in Him. Your Lord is not unaware of what you all do.
Muhammad Asad	11:123 And God alone comprehends the hidden reality of the heavens and the earth: ¹⁵⁵ for, all that exists goes back to Him [as its source]. Worship Him, then, and place thy trust in Him alone: for thy Sustainer is not unaware of what you do.
Rashad Khalifa	11:123 To GOD belongs the future of the heavens and the earth, and all matters are controlled by Him. You shall worship Him and trust in Him. Your Lord is never unaware of anything you do.
Shabbir Ahmed	11:123 And God alone comprehends the hidden reality of the heavens and earth. For, all that exists goes back to Him as its Source. Serve Him, then, and place your trust in Him alone. Your Lord is not unaware of what you do.
Transliteration	11:123 Walilla hi ghaybu a Issamawati waal- ardi wa-ilayhi yurjaAAu al-amru kulluhu fa o AAabudhuwatawakkal AAalayhi wam a rabbuka bigh a filin AAammataAAamaloona
A	11:123 وَلِلّٰهِ غَيْبُ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ وَاِلَيْهِ يَرْجِعُ الْاَمْرُ كُلُّهُ فَاعْبُدْهُ وَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَيْهِ وَمَا رَبُّكَ بِغَفْلٍ عَمَّا تَعْمَلُونَ

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (11:1)

A1L30R200. These letters/numbers play an important role in the mathematical system of the Quran based on code 19. See 74:1-56; 1:1; 2:1; 13:38; 27:82; 38:1-8; 40:28-38; 46:10; 72:28. Verses of the Quran are treasures of details and they contain even further details when evaluated within their semantic network. For instance, when we study 46:15; 31:14; 22:5; 23:14; 16:58-59 and 17:31 carefully together with God's signs in the nature, they provide specific guidelines regarding abortion. When we study the verse recommending the punishment for theft (5:38) together with other verses using the same key word, we learn a flexible legal system. When we study the multiple-meaning key words in 4:34, we come across a different picture, much different than what the all-male scholars have taught us. The details related to the mathematical system prophesied in chapter 74, themselves can fill many volumes of books.

Edip-Layth - End Note 4 (11:5)

Such as robes, indicating religious rank or holiness.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (11:6)

Starvation and famine are the consequences of ignorance, wars, laziness, monopoly, myopic selfishness, dictatorship, wasting natural resources, injustice, and apathy. Communities that follow God's system have little chance of experiencing famine and starvation. See 17:31.

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (11:7)

The expression "six days" provide comparison. For instance, we learn that though the creation of galaxies took two days, the creation of earth to be habitable for life took four days (41:10-12). In other words, the creation of earth started 13.7 billion x 4/6 years ago. As for time, the Quran informs us that it is relative (32:5 and 70:4). The earth was initially covered with water; lands emerged later.

Edip-Layth - End Note 5 (11:13)

The mathematical structure of the Quran is too intricate to be imitated.

Edip-Layth - End Note 6 (11:17)

Bayyina means "proof" and it is repeated in the Quran 19 times. The book given to Moses too was designed according to a mathematical structure based on the number 19 (46:10), which was discovered by a French Rabbi, Judah, in the eleventh century.

Edip-Layth - End Note 7 (11:40)

Noah's ark was a simple watercraft made of logs connected with ropes (54:12). The flood was limited to the Dead Sea region and Noah's people (7:59; 9:70; 11:25,36,89; 22:42; 25:35-39; 38:12; 40:5,31; 50:12; 51:46; 53:52; 54:9; 71:1-11). The animals taken to the watercraft were a few domesticated animals in Noah's farm. The holy storytellers mutated the story, and with time, it was exaggerated into a global event. Perhaps public interest encouraged the storytellers to exaggerate a bit more, until it became a mythology about a worldwide flood. The mythology found its way to the Old Testament; three chapters of Genesis, chapters 6-8, are allocated to the story of a universal flood (See Genesis 7:21- 23). The letters of the New Testament also refer to a worldwide flood (1 Peter 3:18-20; 2 Peter 2:5; 2 Peter 3:6). Also, see 2:93; 16:103; 26:101-105; 71:1-28.

Edip-Layth - End Note 8 (11:46)

Intercession is a false hope and it contradicts the monotheistic theology advocated by the Quran. Neither Abraham could help his father, Noah to his son, nor Muhammad to his relatives (2:48,123,254; 6:70,94; 7:53; 9:80; 10:3; 39:44; 43:86; 74:48; 82:17-19).

Edip-Layth - End Note 9 (11:79)

Note that these are not people who are committing sin in their private lives; they are aggressive homosexuals who are proud of their behavior and show the audacity to harass men around them.

Edip-Layth - End Note 10 (11:87)

Sala prayer observed properly keeps away from immorality and crimes (29:45).

Edip-Layth - End Note 11 (11:108)

After the end of the world, the earth together with the universe will be recreated anew (14:48).

Edip-Layth - End Note 12 (11:114)

In the Quranic Arabic, the word layl denotes the period from sunset to sunrise (2:187). The times of the evening and dawn prayers extend from the proximate edges of night to both ends of the day. The Quran provides detailed information about sala prayer. This verse refers to three sala prayers. Some students of the Quran understand five times rather than three times for contact prayers. However, as the detected and undetected influence of sectarian teachings and practices wanes with time, the disagreement on this issue may lead to a better understanding. See the Appendix Sala Prayer According to the Quran.

Edip-Layth - End Note 13 (11:119)

God has given us a second chance to redeem ourselves in this world. Those who enter the hell are those who choose it on their own will.

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (11:1)

See Appendix II. In the somewhat strange opinion of Sibawayh (cf. Manar XII, 3) and of Razi in his commentary on this verse, the letters Alif-Lam-Ra represent the title of this surah, and ought therefore to be read in conjunction with the following sentence, thus: "Alif-Lam-Ra is a divine writ...", etc. However, this opinion conflicts sharply with that of several earlier authorities of great standing, e.g., Az-Zajjaj (quoted by Razi), and is, moreover, unacceptable in view of the fact that a number of other surahs are preceded by such letter-symbols without any syntactic possibility of their being regarded as "titles".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (11:1)

According to Zamakhshari and Razi, the conjunction thumma at the beginning of the clause thumma fussilat (lit., "and then have been distinctly spelled out") does not denote a sequence in time but, rather, a co-ordination of qualities or conditions; therefore my rendering. As regards my translation of the phrase uhkimat ayatuhu as "messages that have been made clear in and by themselves", see the first sentence of 3:7 as well as the corresponding note 5, which explains the expression ayat muhkamat. Rashid Rida' interprets this phrase in the same sense (see Manar XII, 3 f.).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (11:2)

The conjunction an ("that") preceding the next sentence ("that you shall. ..", etc.) is in this rendering expressed by means of a colon. The interpolation. between brackets, of the words "Say, O Prophet" is necessitated by the first-person construction of this sentence. The subsequent passage - up to the end of verse 4 - outlines both the "warning" and the "glad tidings" referred to above, and thus circumscribes elliptically the whole of the message entrusted to the Prophet.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (11:3)

I.e., "till the end of your lives" (for an explanation of the term ajal musamma, see note 2 on 6:2). Since God, in His unfathomable wisdom, does not always grant worldly happiness and material benefits to everyone who believes in Him and lives righteously, it is only reasonable to assume -as Rashid Rida' does in Manar XII, 7 ff. -that the "goodly enjoyment of life" (i.e., in this world) promised in the above sentence relates to the community of the believers as a whole, and not necessarily to individuals. (Cf. 3:139-"you are bound to rise high if you are [truly] believers".)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (11:3)

The noun fadl, when used with reference to God, invariably denotes "bounty" or "favour"; in its reference to man, it usually signifies "merit" or, occasionally, "eminence". The above verse makes it clear that, in contrast to the partial and often only moral rewards and punishments in the life of this world, God will, in the life to come, bestow the full measure of His favours upon everyone who has acquired merit by virtue of his faith and his actions. (Cf. 3:185 - "only on the Day of Resurrection will you be requited in full for whatever you have done".)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (11:3)

Lit., "the suffering of a great Day". See in this connection 9:128.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (11:5)

Since the people referred to in this verse obviously do not believe in the divine origin of Muhammad's message, their "hiding from God" can have, in this context, only one meaning-namely, that of a metaphor for their unwillingness to listen to the truth which emanates from Him: and this also explains the statement that they are "enshrouding their hearts" (lit., "bosoms", as at the end of this verse), i.e., are allowing their hearts and minds to remain wrapped-up in prejudices, thus making them impervious to spiritual perception. See in this connection 8:55 and the corresponding note 58.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (11:5)

The above interpolation corresponds to the meaning given to the preceding phrase by most of the lexicographers (cf. Lane VI, 2262).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (11:6)

For this rendering of mustaqarr and mustawda`, see note 83 on 6:98. The above reference to God's all-embracing knowledge connects with the end of the preceding verse ("He has full knowledge of all that is in the hearts of men").

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (11:7)

As regards my rendering of ayyam (lit., "days") as "aeons" and `arsh as the "throne of [God's] almightiness", see Surah 7, note 43. The symbolic reference to "the throne of His almightiness resting upon water" would seem to point to the God-willed evolution of all life out of water -a fact clearly brought out by the Qur'an (see 21:30 and the corresponding note 39) and in modern times confirmed by biological research. This tentative interpretation is strengthened by the mention, in the preceding verse, of "living creatures". My interpolation, between brackets, of the phrase "ever since He has willed to create life" is in accordance with the views advanced by Rashid Rida' in his lengthy commentary on this verse (Manar XII, 16 ff.).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (11:7)

The expression la'in (lit., "indeed, if . . .") appearing here as well as in each of the next three verses is meant to stress the typical -i.e., recurrent -character of the situation to which it refers. In my opinion, it is best rendered as "thus it is: if. . .", etc.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (11:7)

The term sihr, which is often used in the sense of "sorcery" or "magic", denotes, primarily, "the turning of something from its proper [i.e., natural] condition of being into another condition" (Taj al-'Arus); hence, it signifies any act which causes something that is false or unreal to assume the appearance of reality. Since, however, the Qur'anic statement that "you shall be raised again after death" is not - as has been pointed out by Razi - an "act" in the proper connotation of this word, it would be illogical to assume that this statement could be characterized as "sorcery" even by those who do not believe in it. On the other hand, it is obvious that they dismiss it contemptuously as a mere "enchanted delusion" intended to prevent those who are able to do so from enjoying their worldly life to the full (Razi) or, alternatively, to induce the poor and unfortunate to remain passively satisfied with their miserable lot on earth: and this is the meaning of sihr in the above context. (Cf. 10:2, where the epithet sahir -in the sense of "spellbinder"- is applied by unbelievers to the Prophet Muhammad.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (11:8)

Lit., "a time computed [by Us]", i.e., the Day of Judgment: a reference to the last sentence of verse 3 above, where the Prophet is made to say, "I dread for you the suffering [which is bound to befall you] on that awesome Day!" Among the several meanings which the noun ummah comprises, that of "time" or "a period of time" is the most appropriate here (Zamakhshari, Ibn Kathir and other classical commentators).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (11:8)

For an explanation of this allusion to the attitude of the unbelievers, see 8:32 and 10:50, as well as the corresponding notes; cf. also 6:57-58. The repeated Qur'anic references to the above derisive query are evidently meant to show that the attitude of mind responsible for it is not restricted to an isolated historic incident (see Surah 8, note 32) but is symptomatic of most, if not all, people "who are bent on denying the truth".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (11:8)

Lit., "that which they were wont to deride enfolded them (haqa bihim)". According to almost all the commentators, the use of the past tense in the verb haqa, despite the fact that it refers to the future, has the syntactic value of a stress, implying the inevitability of the happening to which it relates. (See also note 9 on 6:10.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (11:9)

The sequence makes it clear that the generic term "man" referred to in this and the next verse applies, primarily, to the agnostics who are either unconvinced of the existence of God or are "bent upon denying the truth"; in its wider implication, however, it applies also to those who, while believing in God, are weak in faith and therefore easily swayed by external circumstances, and particularly by whatever happens to themselves.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (11:9)

Lit., "he is [or "becomes"] utterly hopeless" or "despairing" (ya'us); inasmuch as he attributes his past happy state to a merely accidental chain of causes and effects-in short, to what is commonly regarded as "luck"-and not to God's grace. Hence, the term ya'us, in its Qur'anic usage, is indicative of spiritual nihilism.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (11:10)

This combination of two words is necessary to bring out the full meaning of the noun na'ma' which occurs in this form in the Qur'an only once. For my rendering of lain as "thus it is: if . . .", etc., see note 11 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (11:10)

Lit., "he is exultant beyond all measure, excessively self-glorifying" -i.e., he usually attributes the turn of fortune to his own good qualities and his supposed "good luck".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (11:12)

Lit., "because thy bosom is constricted [for fear] lest they say". According to all available authorities, the expression la'alla (lit., "it may well be that") at the beginning of the above sentence denotes a wrong expectation on the part of the opponents of Muhammad's message; it is, therefore, best rendered in the form of a query which implies its own denial-thus: "Is it conceivable that. . .", etc. As regards the expectation that the Prophet might omit a part of what was being revealed to him, it has been reported by `Abd Allah ibn `Abbas and other Companions (see Razi's commentary on this verse) that the pagan Quraysh demanded of the Prophet, "Bring us a revelation (kitab) which does not contain a defamation of our deities, so that we could follow thee and believe in thee."

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (11:12)

Explaining this verse, Ibn `Abbas mentions that some of the pagan chieftains of Mecca said, "O Muhammad, cause the mountains of Mecca to be turned into gold, if thou art truly an apostle of God", while others exclaimed derisively, "Bring before us angels who would bear witness to thy being a prophet!" - whereupon the above verse was revealed (Razi). Cf. 6:8 and 17:90-93.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (11:12)

Sc., "and so it is He who will cause the truth to prevail". Regarding the Prophet's denial of any ability on his part to perform miracles, see 6:50 and the corresponding note 38.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 23 (11:13)

Foamy rendering of the particle am at the beginning of this sentence as "and", see surah 10, note 61.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 24 (11:13)

I.e., that a divine writ like the Qur'an could have been "invented" by a human being. Cf. 2:23, 10:37-38 and 17:88, as well as the corresponding notes.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 25 (11:14)

Lit., "if they [i.e., your poets and wise men] do not respond to your call". Cf. 2:24, where a similar challenge is followed by the words, "And if you cannot do it-and most certainly you cannot do it - then . . .", etc.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 26 (11:14)

Lit., "only by God's knowledge".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 27 (11:16)

I.e., although their good deeds will be taken fully into account on Judgment Day, they will be outweighed by their refusal to believe in resurrection and the life to come.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 28 (11:17)

This interpolation is based on the interpretation given by Baghawi, Zamakhshari and Razi.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 29 (11:17)

Lit., "which a witness from Him recites", or "announces". According to Zamakhshari, Razi and other classical commentators, this phrase refers to the Qur'an; hence my rendering of shahid as "testimony". If, as some commentators believe, this term refers to the Prophet or, alternatively, to the Angel Gabriel who transmitted the revelation to him, shahid should be translated as "witness". Whichever interpretation one adopts, the meaning remains the same, for - as Ibn Kathir points out in his commentary on this verse - "the Qur'an was revealed through Gabriel to Muhammad, and was conveyed by the latter to the world".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 30 (11:17)

Sc., "and shall, therefore, attain to happiness in the hereafter". The ijaz (elliptic mode of expression) employed in this passage is comparable in its subtlety to that in 10:103.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 31 (11:17)

I.e., in hostile, a-priori opposition to the message of the Qur'an, without really understanding its purport. The "historical" identification, by some of the commentators, of the ahzab with the pagan Arabs who leagued together in their hostility to the Prophet is definitely too narrow in this context.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 32 (11:17)

Razi suggests that the conjunction fa ("And so") preceding this sentence (which is obviously addressed to man in general) connects with verses 12-14 above: a suggestion which is most convincing in view of the sequence.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 33 (11:17)

Lit., "but" or "nevertheless".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 34 (11:18)

This is a refutation of the contention of the unbelievers that the Qur'an was composed by Muhammad himself (cf. verse 13 above as well as 10:17) and thereupon blasphemously attributed to God.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 35 (11:18)

Lit., "the witnesses". Most of the earliest authorities take this to mean the recording angels, while others (e.g., Ibn 'Abbas, as quoted by Baghawi) relate it to the prophets, who, on the Day of Judgment, will be called upon to testify for or against the people to whom they were sent. The latter interpretation is supported by Ad-Dahhak (quoted by Tabari and Baghawi) on the basis of 16:84, where witnesses "out of every community" are mentioned-an expression which can obviously refer only to human beings.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 36 (11:18)

Or: "against their Sustainer".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 37 (11:18)

The term la'nah - which is usually, but inexactly, translated as "curse" - is in its primary meaning synonymous with ib'ad ("alienation", "estrangement" or "banishment") in the moral sense; hence it denotes "rejection from all that is good" (Lisan al-'Arab) and, with reference to God, the sinner's "exclusion from His grace" (Manar II, 50).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 38 (11:19)

Cf. 7:44-45, with which the above passage is almost identical, with only one difference: whereas in 7:45 the pronoun "they" occurs only once (and the phrase is, consequently, rendered as "and who refuse . . .", etc.), in the present verse this pronoun is repeated, to express both stress and causality ("since it is they, they who refuse ...", etc.)-thus implying that their refusal to believe in a life after death is the ultimate cause of their wrongdoing. In other words, belief in resurrection, God's judgment and life in the hereafter is here postulated as the only valid and lasting source of human morality.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 39 (11:20)

The above interpolation is, I believe, necessary in view of the highly elliptic character of this phrase. According to Tabari, Zamakhshari and Ibn Kathir, the meaning is that whereas God's punishment may befall the sinners referred to during their life on earth, it will certainly befall them in the hereafter. Cf. also 3:185- "only on the Day of Resurrection will you be requited in full for whatever you have done."

Muhammad Asad - End Note 40 (11:20)

For an explanation of the "double suffering", see surah 7, note 29.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 41 (11:20)

Lit., "they were unable to hear and they did not see": cf. 2:7 and the corresponding note 7, as well as 7:179.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 42 (11:21)

Lit., "all that they were wont to invent": a phrase which implies not merely false imaginings regarding the existence of any real "power" apart from God (i.e., the existence of supposedly divine or semi-divine beings) but also deceptive ideas and "glittering half-truths meant to delude the mind" (see 6:112 and the corresponding note) - such as "luck", wealth, personal power, nationalism, deterministic materialism, etc. - all of which cause men to lose sight of spiritual values and thus to "squander their own selves".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 43 (11:24)

Lit., "two groups" - i.e., the believers and those who reject the divine writ.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 44 (11:24)

For my rendering, in this context, of mathal (lit., "likeness") as "nature", see the first part of note 47 on 3:59.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 45 (11:25)

The conjunction "and" at the beginning of this sentence apparently connects with the opening verses of this surah, and stresses the fact that the fundamental message of the Qur'an is the same as that conveyed to man by the earlier prophets (Manar X11, 59 f.); hence my interpolation. See also surah 7, note 45.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 46 (11:26)

As in 7:59, this may refer either to the imminent deluge or the Day of Judgment.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 47 (11:27)

As is evidenced by the histories of all the prophets - and particularly that of Jesus and, after him, of Muhammad - most of their early followers belonged to the lowest classes of society - the slaves, the poor and the oppressed-to whom the divine message gave the promise of an equitable social order on earth and the hope of happiness in the hereafter: and it is precisely this revolutionary character of every prophet's mission that has always made it so distasteful to the upholders of the established order and the privileged classes of the society concerned.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 48 (11:27)

Lit., "We do not see in you any superiority [or "merit"] over us."

Muhammad Asad - End Note 49 (11:28)

A reference to the cardinal Qur'anic doctrine that "there shall be no coercion in, matters of faith" (2:256), as well as to the oft-repeated statement that a prophet is no more than "a warner and a bearer of glad tidings", implying that his duty consists only in delivering the message entrusted to him. The plural "we" in this sentence relates to Noah and his followers.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 50 (11:29)

This is an allusion to the contemptuous statement of the unbelievers (in verse 27 above) that the followers of Noah were to be found only among- the lowest classes of their society-thus indirectly implying that they might perhaps lend ear to Noah if he would but rid himself of those people (cf. 26:111). The Prophet Muhammad had, during the early years of his mission, a similar experience with the leaders of the pagan Quraysh; several Traditions to this effect are quoted by Ibn Kathir in his commentary on 6:52.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 51 (11:31)

See 6:50 and 7:188.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 52 (11:31)

i.e., the poor and "abject" followers of Noah spoken of in verse 27 (see also note 47 above).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 53 (11:31)

Lit., "all that is within themselves".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 54 (11:32)

Sc., "without convincing us" (as is brought out fully in 71:5-6). The mounting annoyance with Noah on the part of his unbelieving compatriots has already been alluded to in his saying, "If my presence [among you] and my announcement of God's messages are repugnant to you...", etc. (see 10:71).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 55 (11:32)

See the end of verse 26 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 56 (11:34)

According to some commentators, the expression an yughwiyakum -which literally means "that He shall cause you to err" - is to be understood as "that He shall punish you for your sins" (Al-Hasan al-Basri, as quoted by Razi), or "that He shall destroy you" (Tabari), or "that He shall deprive you of all good" (Al-Jubba'i, as quoted by Razi); this last interpretation is similar to the one adopted in my rendering of aghwaytani ("Thou hast thwarted me") in 7:16 and explained in the corresponding note 11. However, in the present context I prefer the rendering "if it be God's will that you shall remain lost in grievous error", inasmuch as it is in conformity with the Qur'anic doctrine of "God's way" with regard to those who persistently refuse to acknowledge the truth (see surah 2, note 7). This interpretation is, moreover, supported by Zamakhshari in his commentary on the above verse: "When God, knowing the persistence [in sinning] on the part of one who denies the truth (al-kafir), leaves him in this condition and does not compel him [to repent], this [act of God] is described [in the Qur'an] as 'causing [one] to err' (ighwa') and 'causing [one] to go astray' (idlal); similarly, when He, knowing that a person will repent, protects him and is kind to him, this [act of God] is described as 'showing the right direction' (irshad) or '[offering] guidance' (hidayah).\" (See also surah 14 note 4.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 57 (11:35)

Some of the classical commentators assume that this verse forms part of the story of Noah and his people. This, however, is improbable in view of the sudden change from the past tense employed in the preceding and subsequent verses ("he said", "they said") to the present tense ("do they say"). The only plausible explanation is that given by Tabari and Ibn Kathir (and mentioned also by Baghawi on the authority of Muqatil): namely, that the whole of verse 35 is a parenthetic passage addressed to the Prophet Muhammad, relating in the first instance to the story of Noah as narrated in the Qur'an and, by implication, to the Qur'an as such -in other words, a reiteration of the argument mentioned in verse 13 of this surah and in other places as well. This eminently convincing interpretation has also been adopted by Rashid Rida' (Manar XII, 71).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 58 (11:35)

Or: "I have nothing to do with the sin of which you are guilty" - i.e., the sin of giving the lie to God's messages (cf. 10:41) or of inventing lies about God.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 59 (11:37)

I.e., "under Our protection".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 60 (11:37)

This interpolation is necessitated by the definite article preceding the noun fulk (lit., "ship", but rendered by me as "ark" owing to its familiar connotation in European languages).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 61 (11:38)

Since it is obviously impossible to attribute to a prophet the levity of scoffing (Baghawi), the meaning of the above phrase seems to be this: "If you consider us ignorant because of what we believe and are doing, we consider you ignorant because of your refusal to acknowledge the truth and your readiness to expose yourselves to God's punishment" (Zamakhshari and, in a shorter form, Baghawi). Hence my interpolation of the words "and your ignorance".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 62 (11:40)

Lit., "the face of the earth boiled over" (fara 't-tannur). This phrase has been subject to several conflicting interpretations, some of which are based on no more than Talmudic legends (Manar XII, 75 f.). The most convincing explanation is that given - among others - by Tabari, Baghawi and Ibn Kathir on the authority of Ibn `Abbas and `Ikrimah: "At-tannur [lit., "oven"] denotes the face of the earth." Razi, too, mentions that "the Arabs call the face of the earth tannur", while the Qamus gives as one of the meanings of tannur "any place from which water gushes forth". The verb fara-which literally means "it boiled over"-describes the raging torrents of water which "turned the earth into springs" (Ibn Kathir; see also 54:12). This "gushing forth of water over the face of the earth" seems to point to the inundation of the huge valley now covered by the Mediterranean Sea (see surah 7, note 47) - an inundation which, augmented by continuous, torrential rains (cf. 54:11), rapidly spread over the land-mass of present-day Syria and northern `Iraq and grew into the immense deluge described in the Bible and in the Qur'an, and also referred to in the myths of ancient Greece (e.g., in the story of Deukalion and Pyrrha), as well as in Sumerian and Babylonian legends.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 63 (11:40)

The term zawj signifies, primarily, each of the two parts of a pair, and is also used in the sense of "a pair". In the present context it obviously has the former meaning; consequently, the expression min kullin zawjayn ithnayn is best rendered as above. -As regards the animals which Noah was commanded to take with him in the ark, it is reasonable to assume that this referred to the domesticated animals already in his possession, and not to all animals, as the Biblical narrative would have it.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 64 (11:40)

I.e., those who stand condemned in the sight of God because of their persistent refusal to acknowledge the truth. See also verses 42-43 and 45-47.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 65 (11:42)

The diminutive in ya bunayya (lit., "O my little son") is an expression of endearment irrespective of a son's age: for instance, Noah's son appears in the above story as a grown man, while Joseph, similarly addressed by his father in 12:5, was a child or at the most, an adolescent.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 66 (11:44)

This mountain, known in ancient Syriac as Qardu, is situated in the region of Lake Van, almost twenty-five miles north-east of the town Jazirat Ibn `Umar, capital of the modern Syrian district of Al-Jazirah. It "owes its fame to the Mesopotamian tradition which identifies it, and not Mount Ararat, with the mountain on which Noah's ark rested.... Its localization of the ark's resting-place ... is certainly based on Babylonian tradition" (Encyclopaedia of Islam I, 1059). We should, however, remember that the designation Ararat (the Assyrian Urartu) at one time included the whole area to the south of Lake Van, in which Jabal Judi is situated: this might explain the Biblical statement that "the ark rested. .. upon the mountains of Ararat" (Genesis viii, 4).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 67 (11:45)

A reference to the divine command, mentioned in verse 40 - "Place on board this [ark] ... thy family" - which Noah apparently understood as meaning that the whole of his family would be saved, thus overlooking the qualifying clause, "except those on whom sentence has already been passed". -Some of the commentators suppose that verses 45-47 connect with verse 43, and thus precede, in point of time, the events narrated in verse 44-a supposition which has caused the modern translators of the Qur'an to render Noah's prayer, erroneously, in the present tense (i.e., in the form of a prayer for his son's rescue from drowning). It is, however, much more plausible to assume - as is done by Tabari and Ibn Kathir - that Noah's words were spoken after the ark had come to rest on Mount Judi (i.e., long after his son's death) and that they represented "an endeavour on the part of Noah to find out what would be the condition of his drowned son [in the hereafter]" (Ibn Kathir). Consequently, the sentence relating to this son, both in Noah's prayer and in God's answer, must be rendered in the past tense.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 68 (11:46)

According to some commentators (e.g., Tabari and Razi), the phrase innahu `amal ghayr salih relates to Noah's prayer for his son, and constitutes a divine reproach-in which case it should be rendered as "verily, this [prayer] is unrighteous conduct [on thy part]". Others, however (e.g., Zamakhshari), reject this interpretation and relate the above phrase to the son, in the manner rendered by me. This, I believe, is more in tune with the statement, "he was not of thy family" - i.e., spiritually, inasmuch as he was of, or preferred to remain with, "those who deny the truth".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 69 (11:46)

Le., knowledge of the innermost reasons of God's decrees and of the ultimate destiny of any human being in the hereafter: for, the answers to this "why" and this "how" lie in the realm of things which are beyond the reach of human perception (al-ghayb).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 70 (11:46)

Le., "lest thou prove to be one of those ignorant who ask God that He change His decrees in response to their own desires" (Manar XII, 85 f.).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 71 (11:48)

The term salam - here translated as "peace" - comprises the notions of both external and internal security from all that is evil. For a fuller explanation of the term, see surah 5, note 29.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 72 (11:48)

The above interpolation is based on the consensus of most of the classical commentators. The phrase "the people [or "generations"] from those who are with thee" points to generations as yet unborn; but since God's blessing extends to all believers, it eo ipso comprises the believers of Noah's generation as well; and since "those who deny the truth" (al-kafirun) are excluded from God's blessing, only the righteous from among the offspring of these early believers are promised a share in His grace (cf. a similar allusion, relating to Abraham's descendants, in 2:124): hence my interpolation of the words "as for the unrighteous that will spring from you" in the next sentence.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 73 (11:49)

See verse 35 above. Although the story of Noah had been vaguely known to the Arabs even before the advent of the Prophet Muhammad, they - and the Prophet with them - were entirely unaware of the details as narrated in the preceding Qur'anic account (Razi). The use of the plural at the beginning of this parenthetical passage ("These accounts") - in contrast with the singular form employed in a similar phrase occurring in 3:44, 11:100 and 12:102 ("This account") - seems, in my opinion, to indicate that it refers not only to the preceding story of Noah but also to the subsequent stories of other prophets. In this connection it should be remembered-and it cannot be stressed too often-that "narrative" as such is never the purpose of the Qur'an. Whenever it relates the stories of earlier prophets, or alludes to ancient legends or to historical events that took place before the advent of Islam or during the lifetime of the Prophet, the aim is, invariably, a moral lesson; and since one and the same event, or even legend, has usually many facets revealing as many moral implications, the Qur'an reverts again and again to the same stories, but every time with a slight variation of stress on this or that aspect of the fundamental truths underlying the Qur'anic revelation as a whole.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 74 (11:50)

For particulars relating to the name Hud as well as the tribe of `Ad, see surah 7, note 48.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 75 (11:50)

I.e., inventors of alleged deities that have no reality in themselves (cf. 7:71, which also relates to the story of Hud). Regarding the term muftarun, see surah 7, note 119.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 76 (11:52)

Lit., "He will let loose the sky over you with abundance". The term sama'-lit., "sky"-is often used in classical Arabic as a metonym for "rain", and scarcity of rains is a characteristic of the desert country called Al-Ahqaf ("The Sand-Dunes"), the one-time habitat of the - since vanished-tribe of `Ad. As would appear from 46:24, the time to which the above passage alludes was a period of severe drought, and so it is possible that the "abundant blessings" here denote rains.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 77 (11:54)

I.e., with madness.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 78 (11:54)

Or: "that, verily, I am guiltless of your ascribing a share in [God's] divinity (mimma tushrikun)..... etc.-thus rejecting the sardonic suggestion of his compatriots that one of their imaginary deities might have stricken him with madness.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 79 (11:55)

Cf. a very similar challenge in the last sentence of 7:195.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 80 (11:56)

I.e., there is no living being over which He has not complete control and which is not entirely dependent on Him (cf. verse 6 of this surah). When describing a person's humility and subjection to another person, the ancient Arabs used to say, "The forelock of so-and-so is in the hand of so-and-so". See in this connection 96:15-16, where this idiomatic expression occurs for the first time in the chronological order of Qur'anic revelation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 81 (11:56)

Lit., "my Sustainer is on a straight way" - implying that He governs all that exists in accordance with a system of truth and justice in the ultimate, absolute sense of these terms, never allowing the conscious evildoer to escape the consequence of his deeds, and never letting righteousness go unrewarded, either in this world or in the hereafter (since it is only in the combination of these two phases that human life can be considered in its entirety).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 82 (11:57)

Lit., "to succeed you".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 83 (11:58)

For the story of the destruction of the tribe of `ad through violent storm-winds, see 54:19 and, more particularly, 69:6-8.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 84 (11:58)

I.e., the suffering which was yet to befall the rest of the tribe of `Ad. My addition, between brackets, of the words "in the life to come" is based on the interpretation advanced by Tabari, Zamakhshari and Razi, according to whom the first mention of the saving of Hud and his followers refers to the destruction of the people of `Ad in this world, and the second, to the latters' chastisement in the hereafter.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 85 (11:59)

An allusion to "the great ones among them, who refused to acknowledge the truth" (7:66). Regarding the above interpretation of the term jabbar, see note 58 on 26:130.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 86 (11:60)

For my rendering of the term la'nah as "[God's] rejection", see note 37 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 87 (11:61)

A short account of the tribe of Thamud (the "Second `Ad" of pre-Islamic poetry) is found in surah 7, note 56. Salih is believed to have been the second prophet, after Hud, sent to the Arabs.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 88 (11:61)

I.e., out of organic substances which derive their nourishment-and hence their capability of development, proliferation and evolution-either directly or indirectly from the earth (Razi). This is evidently also the meaning of the Qur'anic references to man as "created out of dust" (cf. 3:59, 18:37, 22:5 and 30:20).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 89 (11:61)

See 7:74 and the corresponding notes.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 90 (11:61)

See 2:186.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 91 (11:62)

Lit., "Thou wert among us one in whom hope was placed ere this": an allusion to Hud's outstanding intellect and strength of character, which had probably caused his tribe to see in him their future leader -until he startled them by his passionate demand that they should abandon their traditional beliefs and devote themselves to the worship of the One God.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 92 (11:62)

Lit., "we are indeed in disquieting doubt as to that to which thou invitest us". It is to be borne in mind that the pre-Islamic Arabs regarded their gods, as well as the angels (whom they believed to be "God's daughters"), as legitimate mediators between man and God, whose existence as such they did not deny; consequently, they were greatly disturbed by their prophet's demand that they should abandon the worship of those allegedly divine or semi-divine beings. The above answer of the Thamud seems to imply that they might consider Salih's claim to be a prophet more favourably if he would but refrain from insisting that "you have no deity other than Him": a suggestion that fully explains Salih's retort in the next verse.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 93 (11:63)

I.e., "if I were to suppress - in spite of all the evidence obtained through divine revelation - the fundamental truth that there is no deity save God, and that the ascribing of divinity or divine powers to anyone or anything beside Him is an unforgivable sin" (cf. 4:48 and the corresponding note 65).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 94 (11:63)

Lit., "you do not add [anything] to me but perdition". Although this dialogue is related in the context of the story of Salih and the leaders of the Thamud, its implications have - as is always the case with Qur'anic stories and parables - a universal, timeless import. The stress here is on the intrinsic impossibility of reconciling belief in the One God, whose omniscience and omnipotence, embraces all that exists, with an attribution of divine or semi-divine qualities and functions to anyone or anything else. The subtly-veiled suggestion of the Thamud (see note 92) and its rejection by Salih has a bearing on all religious attitudes based on a desire to "bring God closer to man" through the interposition of alleged "mediators" between Him and man. In primitive religions, this interposition led to the deification of various forces of nature and, subsequently, to the invention of imaginary deities which were thought to act against the background of an undefined, dimly-perceived Supreme Power (for instance, the Moira of the ancient Greeks). In higher religious concepts, this need for mediation assumes the form of personified manifestations of God through subordinate deities (as is the case, in Hinduism, with the personifications of the Absolute Brahma of the Upanishads and the Vedanta in the forms of Vishnu or Shiva), or in His supposed incarnation in human form (as represented in the Christian idea of Jesus as "God's son" and the Second Person of the Trinity). And, lastly, God is supposedly "brought closer to man" by the interposition of a hierarchy of saints, living or dead, whose intercession is sought even by people who consider themselves to be "monotheists" - and this includes many misguided Muslims who do not realize that their belief in saints as "mediators" between men and God conflicts with the very essence of Islam. The ever-recurring Qur'anic stress on the oneness and uniqueness of God, and the categorical denial of the idea that anyone or anything - whether it be a concrete being or an abstract force - could have the least share in God's qualities or the least influence on the manner in which He governs the universe aims at freeing man from the self-imposed servitude to an imaginary hierarchy of "mediating powers", and at making him realize that "wherever you turn, there is God's countenance" (2:115), and that God is "[always] near, responding [to the call of whoever calls unto Him]" (2:186; also, in a condensed form, in verse 61 of this surah).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 95 (11:64)

For an explanation of this passage, see surah 7, note 57.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 96 (11:65)

See surah 7, note 61.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 97 (11:65)

Lit., "promise".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 98 (11:67)

Lit., "they became, in their homes, prostrate on the ground". Ibn `Abbas - as quoted by Razi - explains the term sayhah (lit., "vehement cry" or "sound") occurring in this verse as a synonym of ;sa'iqah, a

"thunderbolt" or the "sound of thunder". Since the same event is described in 7:78 as "violent trembling" (rajfah), which in that context apparently denotes an earthquake, it is possible that the "vehement sound" mentioned here and in several other places describes the subterranean rumbling which often precedes and accompanies an earthquake and/or the thunder like noise of a volcanic eruption (see surah 7, note 62). However, in view of the repeated use of this expression in varying contexts, we may assume that it has the more general meaning of "blast of punishment" or - as in 50:42, where it indicates the Last Hour - of "final blast".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 99 (11:69)

The Qur'an does not state in so many words that these guests of Abraham were angels; but since the term rusuluna ("Our messengers") is often used in the sense of heavenly messengers, all the classical commentators interpret it thus in the above context. For the contents of the "glad tidings" referred to here, see verse 71 below. The reason for prefacing the story of Lot with an episode from Abraham's life lies in the latter's subsequent pleading in behalf of the sinful people of Sodom (verses 74-76) and also, possibly, in God's earlier promise to him, "Behold, I shall make thee a leader of men" (see 2:124), which must have imbued him with an enhanced sense of moral responsibility not only for his own family but also for the people with whom he was indirectly connected through his nephew Lot (Lut in Arabic).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 100 (11:69)

Lit., "and did not delay in bringing". Regarding the deeper implications of the word "peace" (salam) as used in this passage, see surah 5, note 29.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 101 (11:70)

Lit., "he did not know [what to make of] them and conceived fear of them". Since they were angels, they did not eat (contrary to the Biblical statement in Genesis xviii, 8); and since, in the Arabian tradition of hospitality, a stranger's refusal to partake of the food offered him is an indication of unfriendly intent, Abraham - who until then had not realized that his guests were angels - became apprehensive of possible hostility on their part.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 102 (11:70)

According to the Biblical account (not contradicted by the Qur'an), Lot, a son of Abraham's brother, lived to the east of the Jordan, in the vicinity of what is today the Dead Sea (called in Arabic Bahr Lut, "Lot's Sea"). The "people of Lot" were not actually the latter's community, for he-like Abraham - was a native of Ur in southern Babylonia, and had migrated thence with his uncle: hence, throughout the Qur'an, the expression "Lot's people" designates the inhabitants of the town (or country) of Sodom, among whom he had chosen to live, and with regard to whom he was entrusted with a prophetic mission.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 103 (11:71)

I.e., on realizing that the strangers were God's messengers, and that she and Abraham had nothing to fear from them (Zamakhshari): hence the interpolation of the words "with happiness". This differs from the Biblical statement (Genesis xviii, 12-15), according to which Sarah "laughed within herself" at the announcement that she, an old woman, would give birth to a son: for in the above Qur'anic passage this announcement comes after the statement that she laughed, and is introduced by the conjunctive particle fa, which in this context denotes "and thereupon" or "whereupon".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 104 (11:72)

This expression of grief obviously relates to her past barrenness as well as to her fear that this astonishing announcement might prove illusory.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 105 (11:73)

Lit., "Art thou astonished at God's decree"" -or: "post thou find God's decree strange?" However, the real meaning of this rhetorical question can only be brought out by paraphrasing it in the manner attempted by me: namely, as an echo of the statement, repeated several times in the Qur'an: "When God wills a thing to be, He but says unto it, 'Be'-and it is."

Muhammad Asad - End Note 106 (11:74)

According to all commentators, this means "he pleaded [lit., "argued"] with Our messengers" (who, as is evident from 29:31, had announced to him the impending doom of Sodom and Gomorrah), and not with God Himself.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 107 (11:77)

Lit., "he was straitened as regards the reach of his arm in their behalf" -an idiomatic phrase often used in classical Arabic, denoting here Lot's utter inability to afford his guests protection from the people of Sodom, whose homosexual propensities have ever since been commemorated in the term "sodomy". Since Lot thought that the strangers were no more than handsome young men, he felt certain that they would be sexually assaulted by his sinful countrymen.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 108 (11:78)

Lit., "towards him" -but since their desire was obviously directed at Lot's guests, and not at himself, my rendering would seem appropriate. It is to be noted that in its passive form, as used here, the verb yuhra'un does not merely mean "they came running" but, rather, "running as if driven onward by some force" (Zamakhshari)-in this case, the force of their perverse desire.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 109 (11:78)

Most of the commentators are of the opinion that the phrase "these daughters of mine" signifies here "the daughters of my community" (since a prophet is the spiritual father of his people). But whether this is the case, or whether - as is more probable - Lot's words refer to his actual daughters, there is no doubt that in their wider implication they point to the natural relationship between man and woman as contrasted with the perverse desires of the men of Sodom.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 110 (11:79)

Lit., "no claim whatever to thy daughters".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 111 (11:80)

Lit., "or that I could betake myself to some mighty support". Although some of the commentators are of the opinion that this expression denotes "tribal support" (which was, however, unavailable to Lot inasmuch as he was a stranger in Sodom), we have a number of authentic Traditions (extensively quoted by Tabari) to the effect that what Lot meant was God's support: for the Prophet Muhammad, referring to this Qur'anic passage, is reported to have said, "God bestowed His grace upon Lot, for he betook himself indeed unto a mighty support!"

Muhammad Asad - End Note 112 (11:81)

I.e., in an abstract sense, "to what you are leaving behind" (Razi)-evidently meaning the severing of all associations with the sinful city, and not a physical looking-back.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 113 (11:81)

Cf. 7:83 and the corresponding note, as well as 66:10, where it is mentioned that Lot's wife, who was apparently a native of Sodom, had acted faithlessly towards her husband, i.e., had refused to believe in his prophetic mission; and her story was thereupon "propounded as a parable of those who are bent on denying the truth".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 114 (11:82)

Lit., "stones of sijjil", which latter noun is regarded by some philologists as the Arabicized form of the Persian sang-i-gil ("clay-stone" or "petrified clay"): cf. Qamus and Taj al-'Arus. If this supposition is correct, the "stones of petrified clay" would be more or less synonymous with "brimstones", which in its turn would point to a volcanic eruption, probably in conjunction with a severe earthquake (alluded to in the preceding phrase, "We turned those [sinful towns] upside down"). But there is also a strong probability, pointed out by Zamakhshari and Razi, that the term sijjil is of purely Arabic origin - namely, a synonym of sijjil, which primarily signifies "a writing", and secondarily, "something that has been decreed": in which case the expression hijarah min sijjil can be understood in a metaphorical sense, namely, as "stones of all the chastisement laid down in God's decree" (Zamakhshari and Razi, both in conjunction with the above verse and in their commentaries on 105:4). It is, I believe, this metaphorical meaning of "stone-hard blows of chastisement pre-ordained", i.e., of God-willed doom, that the concluding sentence of the next verse alludes to.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 115 (11:83)

According to some of the earliest Qur'an-commentators (e.g., Qatadah and `Ikrimah, as quoted by Tabari), this threat of ultimate doom applies to evildoers of all times-which further supports the assumption that the expression hijarah min sijjil has a metaphorical connotation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 116 (11:84)

See surah 7, note 67.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 117 (11:84)

Thus, belief in the One God and justice in all dealings between man and man (see surah 6, note 150) are here placed together as the twin postulates of all righteousness. Some commentators assume that the people of Madyan were of a particularly commercial bent of mind, and given to fraudulent dealings. It is obvious, however, that the purport of this passage and of its sequence goes far beyond anything that might be construed by a purely "historical" interpretation. What this version of Shu'ayb's story aims at is-as always in the Qur'an-the enunciation of a generally applicable principle of ethics: namely, the impossibility of one's being righteous with regard to God unless one is righteous - in both the moral and social senses of this word - in the realm of human relationships as well. This explains the insistence with which the above prohibition is re-stated in a positive form, as an injunction, in the next verse.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 118 (11:85)

See surah 7, note 68.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 119 (11:86)

I.e., the lasting merit achieved by virtue of good deeds and fair dealings with one's fellow-men (cf. the expression al-baqiyat as-salihah in 18:46 and 19:76).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 120 (11:87)

Lit., "Do thy prayers command thee. . .", etc.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 121 (11:87)

i.e., without regard to the rights and needs of others, especially the poor: hence their sarcastic reference, in the next sentence, to Shu'ayb's clemency and right-mindedness.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 122 (11:88)

According to Zamakhshari, Razi and several other commentators, the clause interpolated here between brackets is elliptically implied in Shu'ayb's answer. His stress on the fact that God has graced him amply with worldly goods is meant to remind his countrymen that it is not self-interest that causes him to ask them to be fair in their dealings with their fellow-men.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 123 (11:88)

i.e., "I do not aim at depriving you of what is rightfully yours" - a reference to verse 85 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 124 (11:89)

As pointed out in surah 7, note 67, the region inhabited by Shu'ayb's people extended from what is known today as the Gulf of `Aqabah to the mountains of Moab, east of the Dead Sea, in the vicinity of which Sodom and Gomorrah were situated.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 125 (11:91)

Cf. 6:25. In the present instance, however, the self-confessed lack of understanding on the part of the people of Madyan may have a more subjective meaning, similar to the half-indignant, half-embarrassed retort. "I don't know what you are talking about."

Muhammad Asad - End Note 126 (11:91)

Lit., "we regard thee indeed as a weak one among us" -i.e., without any appreciable tribal support.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 127 (11:92)

In classical Arabic usage, as well as in the speech of certain bedouin tribes to this day, the phrase ittakhadhahu (or ja'lahu) zihriyyan (lit., "he put him behind his back") has the meaning of "he held him in contempt", or "he forgot him", or "regarded him as something that may be forgotten". This last rendering seems to be the most appropriate in the above context.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 128 (11:94)

See verse 67 of this surah and the corresponding note 98; also surah 7, note 73.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 129 (11:97)

Lit., "was not right-guided (rashid)". The short passage dealing with Pharaoh and his followers. (verses 96-99) connects with, and amplifies, the reference to the tribe of `Ad, who "followed the bidding of every arrogant enemy of the truth" (verse 59 of this surah). Thus, the main point of this passage is the problem of immoral leadership and, arising from it, the problem of man's individual, moral responsibility for wrongs committed in obedience to a "higher authority". The Qur'an answers this question emphatically in the affirmative: the leader and the led are equally guilty, and none can be absolved of responsibility on the plea that he was but blindly following orders given by those above him. This indirect allusion to man's relative free will - i.e., his freedom of choice between right and wrong-fittingly concludes the stories of the earlier prophets and their wrongdoing communities as narrated in this surah.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 130 (11:99)

See note 37 on the last clause of verse 18 of this surah, as well as verse 60, which refers in identical terms to the destiny of the tribe of 'Ad.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 131 (11:100)

Lit., "This of the accounts" (a construction identical with that employed in 3:44, 11:49 and 12:102), alluding to the fact that only certain aspects of the relevant stories, and not the complete stories as such, are presented here (cf. verse 120 below): the purpose being, as always in the Qur'an, the illustration of an ethical principle or principles, and of men's varying reactions to the guidance which God offers them directly through His prophets and indirectly through the observable phenomena of His creation. (See in this connection the second part of note 73 on verse ' > of this surah.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 132 (11:100)

See preceding note.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 133 (11:104)

Lit., "except till a term computed [by Us]".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 134 (11:107)

I.e., unless God wills to reprieve them (cf. the last paragraph of 6:128 and the corresponding note 114, as well as note 10 on 40:12). The phrase "as long as the heavens and the earth endure" has caused some perplexity to most of the classical commentators in view of the many Qur'anic statements to the effect that the world as we know it will come to an end on the Last Day, which is synonymous with the Day of Resurrection. This difficulty, however, can be resolved if we remember - as Tabari points out in his commentary on the above verse - that in ancient Arabic usage the expressions "as long as the heavens and the earth endure", or "as long as night and day alternate", etc., were used metonymically in the sense of "time beyond count" (abad). See also 20:105-107 and the corresponding note 90, as well as note 63 on 14:48.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 135 (11:108)

Le., unless God wills to bestow on them a yet greater reward (Razi; also Manar XII, 161); or - which to my mind is more probable - unless He opens up to man a new, yet higher stage of evolution.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 136 (11:109)

I.e., "do not think that their beliefs are based on reason": a reference, primarily, to the pagan Arabs who - like the wrongdoers spoken of in the preceding passages - rejected God's message on the plea that it conflicted with their ancestral beliefs; and, more generally, to all people who are accustomed to worship. (in the widest sense of this word) false values handed down from their ancestors and who, consequently, observe false standards of morality: an attitude which must unavoidably - as the last sentence of this verse shows - result in future suffering, be it in this world or in the hereafter, or in both.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 137 (11:109)

Lit., "We shall repay them their portion in full, undiminished". For an explanation of this sentence, see note 27 on verses 15-16 of this surah.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 138 (11:110)

Lit., "and it was disagreed upon", or "discordant views came to be held about it": meaning that, like Muhammad's early contemporaries, some of Moses' people accepted the divine writ, whereas others refused to submit to its guidance.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 139 (11:110)

Lit., "it would indeed have been decided between them" - i.e., they would have been punished, like those communities of old, by utter destruction, had it not been for God's decree (kalimah, lit., "word") that their punishment should be deferred until the Day of Resurrection (cf. the last sentence of 10:93 and the corresponding note 114).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 140 (11:110)

Cf. 2:55 - "O Moses, indeed we shall not believe thee until we see God face to face!"

Muhammad Asad - End Note 141 (11:112)

Explaining this injunction, expressed in the second person plural, Ibn Kathir points out that it is addressed to all believers, and that it refers to their behaviour towards everyone, be he believer or unbeliever; in this he obviously relies on the interpretation advanced by Ibn 'Abbas (and quoted by Razi): "It means, 'Be humble before God and do not behave with false pride towards anyone'." According to some later commentators (e.g., Tabari, Zamakhshari, Baghawi, Razi), the meaning is wider, namely, "do not overstep the bounds of what God has ordained", or "do not exceed the limits of equity".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 142 (11:113)

The verb rakana comprises the concepts of inclining (in one's feelings or opinions) towards, as well as of relying on, someone or something, and cannot be translated by a single word; hence my composite rendering of the phrase la tarkanu. The use of the past tense in alladhina zalamu indicates-as is often the case in the Qur'an-deliberate and persistent evildoing; this term is, therefore, suitably rendered as "those who are bent on evildoing".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 143 (11:113)

According to Zamakhshari, the particle thumma at the beginning of this last clause does not signify a sequence in time ("and then" or "afterwards") but, rather, a stress on the impossibility (istib'ad) of their ever being succoured by God.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 144 (11:114)

Lit., "at the two ends".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 145 (11:114)

This injunction circumscribes all the obligatory prayers without specifying either their form or the exact times of their performance, both of which are clearly laid down in the sunnah (i.e., the authenticated sayings and the practice) of the Prophet: namely, at dawn (fajr), shortly after mid-day (zuhr), in the afternoon ('asr), immediately after sunset (maghrib), and in the first part of the night ('isha'). Inasmuch as the above verse stresses the paramount importance of prayer in general, it is safe to assume that it refers not merely to the five obligatory prayers but to a remembrance of God at all times of one's wakeful life.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 146 (11:116)

For my rendering of the particle law-la, at the beginning of this sentence, as "alas", see surah 10, note

119. The present passage connects with the statement in the preceding verse, "God does not fail to requite the doers of good", as well as with verse 111 above, "unto each and all will thy Sustainer give their due for whatever [good or evil] they may have done". - For the wider implications of the term garn ("generation"), see surah 6, note 5.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 147 (11:116)

The verb tarifa means "he enjoyed a life of ease and plenty", while the participle mutraf denotes "one who enjoys a life of ease and plenty" or "indulges in the pleasures of life", i.e., to the exclusion of moral considerations. The form mutarraf has an additional significance, namely, "one whom a life of softness and ease has caused to behave insolently", or "one whom the [exclusive] pursuit of the pleasures of life has corrupted" (Mughni). Hence my above rendering of the phrase ma utrifu fih.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 148 (11:117)

See surah 6, note 116.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 149 (11:117)

This passage connects with the concluding clause of the preceding verse, "and lost themselves in sinning". According to most of the classical commentators, the term zulm (lit., "wrong" or "evildoing") is in this context synonymous with "wrong beliefs" amounting to a denial of the truths revealed by God through His prophets, a refusal to acknowledge His existence, or the ascribing of divine powers or qualities to anyone or anything beside Him. Explaining the above verse in this sense, Razi says: "God's chastisement does not afflict any people merely on -account of their holding beliefs amounting to shirk and kufr, but afflicts them only if they persistently commit evil in their mutual dealings, and deliberately hurt (other human beings) and act tyrannically [towards them]. Hence, those who are learned in Islamic Law (al-fugaha') hold that men's obligations towards God rest on the principle of [His] forgiveness and liberality, whereas the rights of man are of a stringent nature and must always be strictly observed" - the obvious reason being that God is almighty and needs no defender, whereas man is weak and needs protection. (Cf. the last sentence of 28:59 and the corresponding note 61.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 150 (11:118)

Le., about everything, even about the truths revealed to them by God. - For a discussion of the term ummah wahidah ("one single community") and its wider implications, see surah 2, notes 197 and 198; the second part of 2:253 and the corresponding note 245; and the second part of 5:48 and the corresponding notes 66 and 67. Thus, the Qur'an stresses once again that the unceasing differentiation in men's views and ideas is not incidental but represents a God-willed, basic factor of human existence. If God had willed that all human beings should be of one persuasion, all intellectual progress would have been ruled out, and "they would have been similar in their social life to the bees and the ants, while in their spiritual life they would have been like the angels, constrained by their nature always to believe in what is true and always to obey God" (Manar XII, 193) - that is to say, devoid of that relative free will which enables man to choose between right and wrong and thus endows his life - in distinction from all other sentient beings - with a moral meaning and a unique spiritual potential.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 151 (11:119)

Le., those who avail themselves of His grace, consisting of the God-given ability to realize His existence (cf. 7:172 and the corresponding note 139) and the guidance which He offers to mankind through His prophets (Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 152 (11:119)

Some of the earliest commentators (e.g., Mujahid and `Ikrimah) are of the opinion that the expression li-dhalika (rendered by me as "to this end") refers to God's bestowal of His grace upon man, while others (e.g., Al-Hasan and `Ata) relate it to men's ability to differ intellectually from one another.

According to Zamakhshari, it refers to the freedom of moral choice which characterizes man and is spoken of in the preceding passages: and since it is this freedom which constitutes God's special gift to man and raises him above all other created beings (cf. the parable of Adam and the angels in 2:30-34), Zamakhshari's interpretation is, in my opinion, the most comprehensive of all.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 153 (11:119)

The "word of God" reiterated here as well as in 32:13 has originally been pronounced in 7:18 with reference to the "followers of Satan", i.e., those who reject the guidance offered them by God; hence my interpolation at the beginning of the paragraph. As regards the meaning of jinn (rendered by me in this and similar instances as "invisible beings"), see Appendix III.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 154 (11:120)

Le., the Qur'an does not intend to present those stories as such, but uses them (or, rather, relevant parts of them) as illustrations of moral truths and as a means to strengthen the faith of the believer (see the second part of note 73 as well as note 131 above).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 155 (11:123)

Lit., "God's is [the knowledge of] the hidden reality of...", etc. For this meaning of the term al-ghayb, see note 3 on 2:3.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (11:6)

6:99, 55:29

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (11:7)

45:24. Six Stages or Eras: 7:54, 10:3, 11:7, 25:59, 50:38, 57:4, See 41:10

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (11:11)

A'maal Saaleh = Deeds that increase the individual and collective potential of a society = Helping people = Improving the environment = Fulfilling others' needs = Contributing to the society

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (11:13)

Or produce one Surah like this 2:23, 10:38

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (11:15)

17:18

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (11:16)

Following one's own desires is the inevitable consequence of disregarding Permanent Values

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (11:17)

Imam = Standard of truth = Literally, the plumb-line = A trustworthy leader, human or book =

Authority = Decisive means

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (11:18)

The clergy have tampered with previous scriptures, and they will keep doing it. 2:79, 2:101, 3:77, 6:113, 6:138-139, 9:34, 22:52

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (11:24)

A brief historical resume of some communities and their messengers illustrates this phenomenon - the efforts of the messengers and the reaction of their respective people. Using Tasreef, here are some related verses about people and their messengers described in Surah Hud. Noah (to the Valleys of Tigris and Euphrates): 7:69, 10:72, 14:9, 21:76, 23:23, 26:109, 29:14, 71:21. Hud (to 'Aad): 7:65, 7:123, 11:50, 29:38, 41:13, 46:26, 51:41, 53:50, 54:17, 69:4. Saaleh (to Thamud): 7:73, 11:89, 26:141, 27:45. LOT: 6:86, 15:61, 21:74, 27:56, 29:26, 37:131. Abraham (to Babylon and Ninevah): 21:24, 2:258, 3:33, 3:96, 4:35, 4:125, 14:36, 16:120, 19:50, 21:51, 22:26, 29:27, 37:83, 37:99, 53:27, 53:37, 60:1, 87:19. Shoaib (to Midyan): 7:85, 9:70, 15:78, 22:44, 26:176, 38:13, 50:14. Moses (to the Israelites and Pharaoh's people): 4:164, 6:84, 7:103, 7:144, 10:75, 17:101, 19:51, 20:9-40, 23:47, 26:10, 27-12, 28:22-29, 40:25, 79:15

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 10 (11:27)

17:70

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 11 (11:37)

A flood in the valley of Tigris and Euphrates was forthcoming (11:44). The rejecters would drown for not heeding the prophet

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 12 (11:40)

11:45, 66:10. Noah's wife and son did not embark

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 13 (11:43)

The only security that day in the valley was for those who had believed in Noah and followed his advice

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 14 (11:44)

The ship came to rest at Judea, in the hills of Ararat, east of the Tigris River

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 15 (11:45)

So, why was he not saved? Didn't You promise to save my family?

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 16 (11:46)

You were not aware of the Divine Criterion of relationships which are based on Ideology and not on lineage otherwise you would not have asked such a question

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 17 (11:48)

And other communities, all of them will be awarded according to their deeds. 11:15-16

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 18 (11:64)

This verse along with 55:10 pronounces one of the most revolutionary concepts of the Qur'an. The land, the earth is owned by none but God and must be open for all His creation as a means of sustenance. So, all landlord-ship is contrary to the Divine Ordinance. In the Divine System, the Central authority will see to it that any piece of land will be for those who toil in it and give God His Right, the poor-due. 6:141

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 19 (11:79)

Our intention is to get our behavior made permissible

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 20 (11:81)

She stays behind because she has chosen to go along with the trends of the times. And she is among those who remain silent at the prevalent wrongdoing

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 21 (11:84)

Any system based on injustice cannot endure

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 22 (11:90)

14:8

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 23 (11:94)

Shoaib and his companions had moved to safety as forewarned

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 24 (11:98)

14:28

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 25 (11:105)

The sad ones will be devoid of blessings, and the glad ones will enjoy all bounties of the eternal life. 36:59

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 26 (11:106)

21:100

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 27 (11:107)

The current Universe will be dismantled for a new Universe. 5:44, 14:48, 21:104, 25:22, 39:37, 69:16, 70:9

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 28 (11:110)

The Word that the Final revelation Al-Qur'an, will come forth with perfected message

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 29 (11:116)

Zulm = Displacing something from its rightful place = Wrongdoing = Violation of human rights.

Mujrimeen = Criminals = Guilty = Those who thrive on the fruit of others' toil

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 30 (11:117)

The Qur'an is consistent in its theme that people will be rewarded for what they do (Ya'maloon), and not for what they know (Ya'lamoona). The Book stresses on the right belief system, for, people are strongly influenced in their behavior by what they think and believe. Muslihoon = Reformers = Those who help their own and fellow humans' condition = Those who set things right in their environment. This is one of the most revolutionary verses in the Qur'an. It throws out all dogmatic assertions that are the hallmark of a 'religion'. As we have seen, Islam is not a 'religion' consisting merely of a set of some dogmas, rites and rituals. It is Ad-Deen, the Divinely Prescribed Collective way of Life. Allama Muhammad Asad, Sir Syed Ahmed Khan, Allama Inayatullah Khan Al-Mashriqi et al are in complete agreement with the meaning of this verse 11:117 as translated here

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 31 (11:118)

5:48

Rashad Khalifa - The Final Testament

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 6 (11:46)

Intercession is Satan's most effective bait to entice people into idol worship. However, Abraham could not help his father, nor could Noah help his son, nor could Muhammad help his own relatives (2:254, 9:80 & 114).

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

Translations

Chapter/Verse

Refresh

Search

<< Prev 12:1-111 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 12:1 A1L30R200. These are the signs of the clarifying book. ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 12:1 A.L.R, these are the signs of the clarifying Scripture.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 12:1 Alif. Lam. Ra. ¹ THESE ARE MESSAGES of a revelation clear in itself and clearly showing the truth: ²
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 12:1 A.L.R. These (letters) are proofs of this profound scripture.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 12:1 A.L.R. Alif-Laam-Ra. (Allah, Lateef the Unfathomable, Raaziq the Provider, states that), These are the messages of a revelation clear in itself and clearly showing the truth.
Transliteration	Bismi All a hi al R rah m ani al R ra h ee m i 12:1 Alif-l a m-r a tilka a y a t u al k i t a b i al m u b e e n u
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 12:1 الر تلك ءايت الكتب المبين
Edip-Layth	12:2 We have sent it down an Arabic Quran/recitation, perhaps you will reason.

The Monotheist Group	12:2 We have sent it down an Arabic compilation, perhaps you will comprehend.
Muhammad Asad	12:2 behold, We have bestowed it from on high as a discourse in the Arabic tongue, so that you might encompass it with your reason. ³
Rashad Khalifa	12:2 We have revealed it an Arabic Quran, that you may understand. ²
Shabbir Ahmed	12:2 Indeed, We have sent it down in all clarity, in the Arabic tongue, so that you might encompass it with your reason.
Transliteration	12:2 Innā anzalnāhu qur-ānanAAarabiyyan laAAaallakum taAAqiloona
A	12:2 انا انزلنه قرءنا عربيا لعلمكم تعقلون
Edip-Layth	12:3 We relate to you the best stories through what We have inspired to you in this Quran; and before it you were of those who were unaware.
The Monotheist Group	12:3 We narrate to you the best stories through what We have inspired to you in this Qur'an; and before it you were of those who were unaware.
Muhammad Asad	12:3 In the measure that We reveal ⁴ this Qur'an unto thee, [O Prophet,] We explain it to thee in the best possible way, ⁵ seeing that ere this thou wert indeed among those who are unaware [of what revelation is]. ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	12:3 We narrate to you the most accurate history through the revelation of this Quran. Before this, you were totally unaware.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:3 We reveal this Qur'an to you (O Prophet!) and explain it in the best possible way, seeing that before this you were unaware of what revelation is.
Transliteration	12:3 Nahnu naqu ssu AAalayka a hsanaalqasasi bim a aw hayna ilayka hathaalqur-ana wa-in kunta min qablihi lamina algh afileena
A	12:3 نحن نقص عليك احسن القصص بما اوحينا اليك هذا القرآن وان كنت من قبله لمن الغفلين
Edip-Layth	An Adventure Starting with a Dream 12:4 When Joseph said to his father: "My father, I have seen eleven planets and the sun and the moon, I saw them prostrating before me." ³
The Monotheist Group	12:4 When Joseph said to his father: "My father, I have seen eleven planets and the sun and the moon, I saw them yielding to me."
Muhammad Asad	12:4 LO! ⁷ Thus spoke Joseph unto his father: "O my father! Behold, I saw [in a dream] eleven stars, as well as the sun and the moon: I saw them prostrate themselves before me!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:4 Recall that Joseph said to his father, "O my father, I saw eleven planets, and the sun, and the moon; I saw them prostrating before me."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:4 Thus spoke Joseph to his father, "O My father! I saw in a dream eleven stars, and the sun, and the moon, I saw them prone themselves to me!"
Transliteration	12:4 Ith qala yoosufu li-abeehi y abati innee raaytu a hada AAashara kawkaban waalshshamsawaalqamara raaytuhum lee sajideena
A	12:4 اذ قال يوسف لابيه يابت انى رايت احد عشر كوكبا والشمس والقمر رايتهم لى سجدين
Edip-Layth	12:5 He said, "O my son, do not relate your dream to your brothers, or they will scheme against you. The devil is to human being a clear enemy."

The Monotheist Group	12:5 He said: "O my son, do not relate your vision to your brothers, or they will scheme against you. The devil is to man a clear enemy."
Muhammad Asad	12:5 [Jacob] replied: "O my dear son! ⁸ Do not relate thy dream to thy brothers lest [out of envy] they devise an evil scheme against thee; verily, Satan is man's open foe! ⁹
Rashad Khalifa	12:5 He said, "My son, do not tell your brothers about your dream, lest they plot and scheme against you. Surely, the devil is man's worst enemy."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:5 Jacob replied, "O My dear son! Do not relate your dream to your brothers. They might, out of envy, devise a scheme against you. Surely, selfish ego is man's open enemy."
Transliteration	12:5 Qala ya bunayya la taqsuṣru/yaḥa AAala ikhwatika fayakeedoo laka kaydan innaalshshayṭana lil-insāni AAaduwwun mubeen un
A	12:5 قال بينى لا تقصص رعباك على اخوتك فيكيدوا لك كيدا ان الشيطان للانسن عدو مبين
Edip-Layth	12:6 As such, your Lord has chosen you, and He teaches you the interpretation of dreams, and He completes His blessings upon you and upon the descendants of Jacob, as He completed it for your fathers before that, Abraham and Isaac. Your Lord is Omniscient, Wise. ⁴
The Monotheist Group	12:6 And as such, your Lord has chosen you, and He teaches you the interpretation of dreams, and He completes His blessings upon you and upon the descendants of Jacob, as He completed it for your fathers before that, Abraham and Isaac. Your Lord is Knowing, Wise.
Muhammad Asad	12:6 For, [as thou hast been shown in thy dream,] even thus will thy Sustainer elect thee, and will impart unto thee some understanding of the inner meaning of happenings, ¹⁰ and will bestow the full measure of His blessings upon thee and upon the House of Jacob -even as, aforetime, He bestowed it in full measure upon thy forefathers Abraham and Isaac. Verily, thy Sustainer is all-knowing, wise!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:6 "Your Lord has thus blessed you, and has given you good news through your dream. He has perfected His blessings upon you and upon the family of Jacob, as He did for your ancestors Abraham and Isaac before that. Your Lord is Omniscient, Most Wise."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:6 "Your Lord will elect you and give you outstanding insight into the reality of things. He will perfect His grace upon you, and upon the House of Jacob, as He perfected it upon your forefathers, Abraham and Isaac. Surely, your Lord is Knower, Wise."
Transliteration	12:6 Wakathalika yajtabeeka rabbukawayuAAallimuka min ta/weeli al-a ḥadeethi wayutimmuniAAamatahu AAalayka waAAala ḥali yaAAaqooba kam aatammaha AAala abawayka min qablu ibraḥeemawa-ishḥaqa inna rabbaka AAaleemun ḥakeem un
A	12:6 وكذلك يجتبيك ربك ويعلمك من تاويل الاحاديث ويتم نعمته عليك وعلى آل يعقوب كما اتمها على ابويك من قبل ابراهيم واسحق ان ربك عليم حكيم
Edip-Layth	12:7 It is thus that in Joseph and his brothers are signs for those who seek.
The Monotheist Group	12:7 It is thus that in Joseph and his brothers are signs for those who seek.
Muhammad Asad	12:7 Indeed, in [the story of] Joseph and his brothers there are messages for all who search [after truth]. ¹¹

Rashad Khalifa	12:7 In Joseph and his brothers there are lessons for the seekers.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:7 In the story of Joseph and his brothers there are messages for all with a seeking mind.
Transliteration	12:7 Laqad kana fee yoosufa wa-ikhwatihi ayatulilssa-ileena
A	12:7 لقد كان في يوسف واخوته آيات للسائلين
Edip-Layth	12:8 For they said, "Joseph and his brother are more loved by our father than us, while we are a gang. Our father is clearly misguided."
The Monotheist Group	12:8 For they said: "Joseph and his brother are more loved by our father than us, while we are a numerous group. Our father is clearly misguided."
Muhammad Asad	12:8 NOW [Joseph's brothers] spoke [thus to one another:] "Truly, Joseph and his brother [Benjamin] are dearer to our father than we, even though we are so many. ¹² Behold, our father is surely suffering from an aberration!" ¹³
Rashad Khalifa	12:8 They said, "Joseph and his brother are favored by our father, and we are in the majority. Indeed, our father is far astray.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:8 Joseph's brothers spoke thus to one another, "Joseph and his brother (Benjamin) are more favored by our father even though we are so many. Our father is obviously in error."
Transliteration	12:8 lth q aloo layoosufu waakhoohu a habbuila abeen a minn a wana hnu AAusbatuninna abana lafee dalalin mubeenin
A	12:8 اذ قالوا ليوسف واخوه احب الى ابينا منا ونحن عصبة ان ابانا لفي ضلال مبين
Edip-Layth	The Evil Whisperer 12:9 "Kill Joseph or cast him in the land, then your father's favor will be all yours, and after that you will be a reformed people."
The Monotheist Group	12:9 "Kill Joseph or cast him in the land, then your father's favor will be all yours, and after that you will be an upright people."
Muhammad Asad	12:9 [Said one of them:] "Slay Joseph, or else drive him away to some [faraway] land, so that your father's regard may be for you alone: and after this is done, you will be [free to repent and to live once again as] righteous people!" ¹⁴
Rashad Khalifa	Joseph's Fate Already Decided by God 12:9 "Let us kill Joseph, or banish him, that you may get some attention from your father. Afterwards, you can be righteous people." ³
Shabbir Ahmed	12:9 One of them proposed, "Let us slay Joseph or leave him in a distant land. Then your father's favor will be all for you, and your affairs will be adjusted right for you."
Transliteration	12:9 Oqtuloo yoosufa awi i trahoohuardan yakhlu lakum wajhu abeekum watacoonoo min baAAadihiqawman saliheena
A	12:9 اقتلوا يوسف او اطرحوه ارضا يخل لكم وجه ايكم وتكونوا من بعده قوما صالحين
Edip-Layth	12:10 One amongst them said, "Do not kill Joseph, but if you are going to do anything, then cast him into the bottom of the well, so that anyone traveling by will pick him up."
	12:10 One amongst them said: "Do not kill Joseph, but if you are going to do

The Monotheist Group	anything, then cast him into the bottom of the well, so that anyone traveling by will pick him up."
Muhammad Asad	12:10 Another of them said: "Do not slay Joseph, but -rather - if you must do something - cast him into the dark depths of this well, [whence] some caravan may pick him up." ¹⁵
Rashad Khalifa	12:10 One of them said, "Do not kill Joseph; let us throw him into the abyss of the well. Perhaps some caravan can pick him up, if this is what you decide to do."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:10 Another of them suggested, "Do not slay Joseph. Rather, if you must do something, cast him into a deep well, and some caravan may pick him up."
Transliteration	12:10 Qala qa-ilun minhum l a ¹ taqtuloo yoosufa waalqoohu fee ghay a ² bati aljubbi yaltaqi ³ thubaAA ⁴ adu alssayy ⁵ arati in kuntum fa ⁶ AA ⁷ ileena
A	12:10 قال قائل منهم لا تقتلوا يوسف والقوه في غيبت الجب يلتقطه بعض السيارة ان كنتم فعلين
Edip-Layth	12:11 They said, "Our father, why do you not trust us with Joseph, we are to him well wishers."
The Monotheist Group	12:11 They said: "Our father, why do you not trust us with Joseph, we are to him well wishers."
Muhammad Asad	12:11 [On this they agreed; and thereupon] they spoke [thus to their father]: "O our father! Wherefore wilt thou not trust us with Joseph, seeing that we are indeed his well-wishers?"
Rashad Khalifa	12:11 They said, "Our father, why do you not trust us with Joseph? We will take good care of him."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:11 They said, "O Our father! Why do you not trust us with Joseph when we are good friends to him?"
Transliteration	12:11 Qaloo y a ab ana m alaka l a ta/mann a AAal a yoosufa wa-inn alahu lanasi ¹ hoona
A	12:11 قالوا يا ابانا ما لك لا تامنا على يوسف وانا له لنصحون
Edip-Layth	12:12 "Send him with us tomorrow to enjoy and play, and we will take care of him."
The Monotheist Group	12:12 "Send him with us tomorrow to enjoy and play, and we will take care of him."
Muhammad Asad	12:12 Let him go out with us tomorrow, that he may enjoy himself and play: and, verily, we shall guard him well!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:12 "Send him with us tomorrow to run and play. We will protect him."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:12 "Send him with us tomorrow that he may enjoy himself and play. We will take good care of him."
Transliteration	12:12 Arsilhu maAAana ghadan yartaAAawayalAAab wa-inna lahu lahafit ¹ hoona
A	12:12 ارسله معنا غدا يرتع ويلعب وانا له لحفظون
Edip-Layth	12:13 He said, "It saddens me that you should take him, and I fear that the wolf would eat him if you would be absent from him."

The Monotheist Group	12:13 He said: "It saddens me that you should take him, and I fear that the wolf would eat him if you would be absent of him."
Muhammad Asad	12:13 [Jacob] answered: "Behold, it grieves me indeed [to think] that you might take him with you, for I dread lest the wolf devour him at a moment when you are heedless of him!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:13 He said, "I worry lest you go away with him, then the wolf may devour him while you are not watching him."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:13 Jacob said, "I worry that you take him with you to the wild and some wolf devours him when you are distracted."
Transliteration	12:13 Qala innee laya hzununee an tha thhaboobihi waakh afu an ya/kulahu alththi/buwaantum AAanhu ghafiloon
A	12:13 قال انى ليحزننى ان تذهبوا به واخاف ان ياكله الذئب وانتم عنه غفلون
Edip-Layth	12:14 They said, "If the wolf eats him, while we are a gang, then we are the losers."
The Monotheist Group	12:14 They said: "If the wolf eats him, while we are a numerous group, then we are the losers."
Muhammad Asad	12:14 Said they: "Surely, if the wolf were to devour him notwithstanding that we are so many-then, behold, we ought ourselves to perish!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:14 They said, "Indeed, if the wolf devours him, with so many of us around, then we are really losers."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:14 They said, "If a wolf devours him in the strong presence (of the ten) of us, will our lives be worth living?"
Transliteration	12:14 Qaloo la-in akalahu alththi/buwanahnu AAusbatun inna ithan lakhasiroona
A	12:14 قالوا لن اكله الذئب ونحن عصبة انا اذا لخسرون
Edip-Layth	12:15 So, when they went with him they had agreed to place him at the bottom of the well. We inspired him: "You will inform them of this act of theirs while they will not expect it." ⁵
The Monotheist Group	12:15 So, when they went with him they had agreed to place him at the bottom of the well. And We inspired to him: "You will inform them of this act of theirs while they will not expect it."
Muhammad Asad	12:15 And so, when they went away with him, they decided to cast him into the dark depths of the well. And We revealed [this] unto him: "Thou wilt yet remind them of this their deed at a time when they shall not perceive [who thou art] !" ¹⁶
Rashad Khalifa	Believers are Blessed with God's Assurances 12:15 When they went away with him, and unanimously decided to throw him into the abyss of the well, we inspired him: "Some day, you will tell them about all this, while they have no idea."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:15 Unanimous in their decision, they led Joseph to cast him into a deep well. When they were placing Joseph in the well, We revealed to him that he would remain secure, and one day he would tell his brothers about what they did. We also revealed to him that it would be a mystery to them as to how Joseph was saved!
Transliteration	12:15 Falamma thahaboo bihiwaajmaAAoo an yajAAaloohu fee ghay abati aljubbi waawhaynailayhi latunabi-annahum bi-amrihim hatha wahum layashAAuroona

A	12:15 فلما ذهبوا به واجمعوا ان يجعلوه فى غيبى الجب واوحينا اليه لتتبننهم بامرهم هذا وهم لا يشعرون
Edip-Layth	12:16 They came to their father at dusk crying.
The Monotheist Group	12:16 And they came to their father in the evening crying.
Muhammad Asad	12:16 And at nightfall they came to their father, weeping,
Rashad Khalifa	12:16 They came back to their father in the evening, weeping.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:16 After carrying out their plan they came to their father at night weeping.
Transliteration	12:16 Waj̣aoo abahum AAisḥaanyabkoona
A	12:16 وجاءو اباهم عشاء ييكون
Edip-Layth	12:17 They said, "Our father, we went to race and left Joseph by our things, and the wolf ate him! But you would not trust us even if we are truthful."
The Monotheist Group	12:17 They said: "Our father, we went to race and left Joseph by our things, and the wolf ate him! But you would not believe us even if we are truthful."
Muhammad Asad	12:17 [and] said: "O our father! Behold, we went off racing with one another, and left Joseph behind with our things; and thereupon the wolf devoured him! But [we know that] thou wouldst not believe us even though we speak the truth" -
Rashad Khalifa	12:17 They said, "Our father, we went racing with each other, leaving Joseph with our equipment, and the wolf devoured him. You will never believe us, even if we were telling the truth."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:17 Saying, "O Our father! We went racing with each other, and left Joseph by our belongings. A wolf did eat him up. We fear that you will not believe us even though we speak the truth."
Transliteration	12:17 Qaloo y a ab anainna thahabna nastabiqu watarakn ayoosufa AAinda mataAAaina faakalahu a lththi/buwama anta bimu/minin lan a walaw kunn a sadiqeena
A	12:17 قالوا يابانا انا ذهبنا نستيق وتركنا يوسف عند متعنا فاكله الذئب وما انت بمومن لنا ولو كنا صدقين
Edip-Layth	12:18 They came with his shirt stained in false blood. He said, "You have invented this tale yourselves. Patience is good, and God's help is sought against what you describe."
The Monotheist Group	12:18 And they came with his shirt stained in false blood. He said: "You have invented this tale yourselves. Patience is good, and God's help is sought against what you describe."
Muhammad Asad	12:18 and they produced his tunic with false blood upon it. [But Jacob] exclaimed: "Nay, but it is your [own] minds that have made [so terrible] a happening seem a matter of little account to you! ¹⁷ But [as for myself,] patience in adversity is most goodly [in the sight of God]; and it is to God [alone] that I pray to give me strength to bear the misfortune which you have described to me." ¹⁸
Rashad Khalifa	12:18 They produced his shirt with fake blood on it. He said, "Indeed, you have conspired with each other to commit a certain scheme. All I can do is resort to a quiet patience. May GOD help me in the face of your conspiracy."

Shabbir Ahmed	12:18 And they came with false blood on his shirt. He said, "I do not believe this story; you have made it up. I will remain steadfast in the face of your conspiracy, and God is the One Whose help is sought in the kind of misfortune you describe to me."
Transliteration	12:18 Waj ^{aa} oo AAa ^l a qamee sh ⁱ hibidamin ka th ⁱ bin q ^{al} a bal sawwalat lakum an ^f usukumamran fa ^s abrun jameelun waAll ^{ah} u al ^m ustaAA ^{an} uAAa ^l a m ^a ta ^s ifoona
A	12:18 وجاءو على قميصه بدم كذب قال بل سولت لكم انفسكم امرا فصبر جميل والله المستعان على ما تصفون
Edip-Layth	Joseph is Taken to Egypt 12:19 A traveling caravan came and they sent their water-drawer. When he let down his bucket he said, "Good news, there is a boy!" So they hid him as merchandise. God knows what they do.
The Monotheist Group	12:19 And a traveling caravan came and they sent their man to draw water, but when he drew he said: "Good news, there is a boy!" So they hid him as merchandise. And God is aware of what they do.
Muhammad Asad	12:19 AND THERE CAME a caravan; ¹⁹ and they sent forth their drawer of water, and he let down his bucket into the well - [and when he saw Joseph] he exclaimed: "Oh, what a lucky find, ²⁰ this boy!" And they hid him with a view to selling him: but God had full knowledge of all that they were doing.
Rashad Khalifa	Joseph is Taken to Egypt 12:19 A caravan passed by, and soon sent their waterer. He let down his bucket, then said, "How lucky! There is a boy here!" They took him along as merchandise, and GOD was fully aware of what they did.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:19 There came a caravan, and they sent their water drawer. He let down his rope and pail into the well. He called in excitement, "Oh, what a lucky find! It is a teenage boy!" People of the caravan took him along as treasure. And God was Aware of what they did.
Transliteration	12:19 Waj ^{aa} at sayy ar ^a tun faarsaloo w ar ⁱ dahumfaad ^l a dalwahu q ^{al} a y a bushr a ha th aghul ^a m ^u n waasarroohu bi ^d aAA ^{at} an waAll ^{ah} uAA ^{al} eem ^u n bi ^m a yaAA ^a maloo ⁿ a
A	12:19 وجاءت سيارة فارسلوا واردهم فادلى دلوه قال يبشرى هذا غلم واسروه بضعة والله عليم بما يعملون
Edip-Layth	12:20 They sold him for a low price, a few silver coins, and they regarded him as insignificant.
The Monotheist Group	12:20 And they sold him for a low price, a few silver coins, and they regarded him as insignificant.
Muhammad Asad	12:20 And they sold him for a paltry price - a mere few silver coins: thus low did they value him.
Rashad Khalifa	12:20 They sold him for a cheap price - a few dirhams - for they did not have any need for him.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:20 They sold him in the market for a low price, a few silver coins. They had little idea of his value.
Transliteration	12:20 Washarawhu bithamanin bakhsin dar ah ⁱ mamaAA ^a doodatin wak ^{an} oo feehi mina al ^z z ^h hideena

A	12:20 وشروه بثمن بخس درهم معدودة وكانوا فيه من الزهدين
Edip-Layth	12:21 The one from Egypt who bought him said to his wife: "Make his stay generous, perhaps he will benefit us or we may take him as a son." It was thus that We established Joseph in the land and to teach him the interpretation of dreams. God has full power over matters, but most of the people do not know. ⁶
The Monotheist Group	12:21 And the one from Egypt who bought him said to his wife: "Make his stay generous, perhaps he will benefit us or we may take him as a son." And it was thus that We established Joseph in the land and to teach him the interpretation of dreams. And God has full power over matters, but most of the people do not know.
Muhammad Asad	12:21 And the man from Egypt who bought him ²¹ said to his wife: "Make his stay [with us] honourable; he may well be of use to us, or we may adopt him as a son. And thus We gave unto Joseph a firm place on earth; and [We did this] so that We might impart unto him some understanding of the inner meaning of happenings. ²² For, God always prevails in whatever be His purpose: but most people know it not.
Rashad Khalifa	12:21 The one who bought him in Egypt said to his wife, "Take good care of him. Maybe he can help us, or maybe we can adopt him." We thus established Joseph on earth, and we taught him the interpretation of dreams. GOD's command is always done, but most people do not know.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:21 The one who bought him in Egypt said to his wife, "Receive him honorably. Take good care of him. May be he can help us or we can adopt him as a son." We, thus, established Joseph in Egypt and arranged for him proper education and training. He was gifted with a great insight into events. God's command always prevails although most people would not understand the stages of Cause and Effect.
Transliteration	12:21 Waqa ^{la} alla ^{thee} ishtar ^a humin mi ^{sra} liimraatihi ak ^{ri} me ^e mathwa ^{hu} AAa ^{sa} an ya ^{nfa} AAa ^{na} aw natta ^{khi} th ahu waladan waka th alikamakkanna ^{liyoosufa} fee al- ^{ardi} walinuAAa ^{llimahu} minta/weeli al-a ^h adeethi wa All ^a hu gh ^{al} ibunAAa ^{la} amrihi wa ^l akinna akthara aIn ^{na} sila ^{yaAAa} lamoona
A	12:21 وقال الذى اشتريه من مصر لامراته اكرمى مثوبه عسى ان ينفعنا او نتخذه ولدا وكذلك مكنا ليوسف فى الارض ولنعلمه من تاويل الاحاديث والله غالب على امره ولكن اكثر الناس لا يعلمون
Edip-Layth	Tested with Sexual Temptation 12:22 When he reached his maturity, We gave him position and knowledge. It is thus that We reward the good doers.
The Monotheist Group	12:22 And when he reached his independence, We gave him position and knowledge. It is thus that We reward the good doers.
Muhammad Asad	12:22 And when he reached full manhood, We bestowed upon him the ability to judge [between right and wrong], as well as [innate] knowledge: for thus do We reward the doers of good.
Rashad Khalifa	12:22 When he reached maturity, we endowed him with wisdom and knowledge. We thus reward the righteous.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:22 When Joseph reached his prime, We gave him wisdom and knowledge, since he lived upright. We bestow knowledge and wisdom on those who live a balanced life in youth.

Transliteration	12:22 Walamma balagha ashuddahu ataynahu hukman waAailman waka thalika najzee almuhsineena
A	12:22 ولما بلغ أشده ءاتينه حكما وعلمًا وكذلك نجزي المحسنين
Edip-Layth	12:23 The woman, in whose house he was staying, attempted to seduce him away from himself. She closed the doors and said, "I have prepared myself for you." He said, "I seek refuge with God, He is my Lord, He made good my residence; the wicked do not succeed." ⁷
The Monotheist Group	12:23 And the woman, in whose house he was staying, attempted to seduce him away from himself. And she closed the doors and said: "I have prepared myself for you." He said: "I seek refuge with God, He is my Lord, He made good my residence; the wicked do not succeed."
Muhammad Asad	12:23 And [it so happened that] she in whose house he was living [conceived a passion for him and] sought to make him yield himself unto her; and she bolted the doors and said, "Come thou unto me!" [But Joseph] answered: "May God preserve me! Behold, goodly has my master made my stay [in this house]! Verily, to no good end come they that do [such] wrong!"
Rashad Khalifa	God Protects the Believers From Sin 12:23 The lady of the house where he lived tried to seduce him. She closed the doors and said, "I am all yours." He said, "May GOD protect me. He is my Lord, who gave me a good home. The transgressors never succeed."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:23 The lady of the house, tried to seduce him. She closed the doors and said, "I am all yours." He said, "May God protect me! Truly, He is my Lord and He has bestowed upon me a good moral character and granted me a position of honor. (Know that) those who displace morality with temptation do not prosper." ¹
Transliteration	12:23 Warawadat-hu allatee huwa fee baytih aAAan nafsiihi waghallaqati al-abwab waqalat haytalaka qala maAAatha Allahi innahu rabbee ahsanamathwaya innahu la yuflihu alththalimoona
A	12:23 ورودته التي هو في بيتها عن نفسه وغلقت الابواب وقالت هيت لك قال معاذ الله انه ربي احسن مثواي انه لا يفلح الظلمون
Edip-Layth	12:24 She desired him and he desired her, had it not been that he saw His Lord's manifest evidence; thus We turned evil and lewdness away from him, as one of Our loyal servants.
The Monotheist Group	12:24 And she desired him and he desired her, had it not been that he saw His Lord's proof; it was thus that We turned evil and lewdness away from him; he is of Our loyal servants.
Muhammad Asad	12:24 And, indeed, she desired him, and he desired her; [and he would have succumbed] had he not seen [in this temptation] an evidence of his Sustainer's truth: ²³ thus [We willed it to be] in order that We might avert from him all evil and all deeds of abomination -for, behold, he was truly one of Our servants. ²⁴
Rashad Khalifa	12:24 She almost succumbed to him, and he almost succumbed to her, if it were not that he saw a proof from his Lord. We thus diverted evil and sin away from him, for he was one of our devoted servants.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:24 She desired him, and he would have desired her if he had not seen the Argument of his Lord, ("Go not near adultery" 17:32.) Obeying Our command saved him from evil and lewdness. He was among Our sincere servants.
	12:24 Walaqad hammat bihi wahamma bih a lawl aan ra a burh ana rabbihi

Transliteration	kaṭhalika lina ḡrifaAAanhu a lṣsoo-a wa alfahṣḥaa innahumin AAib adina almukhlaseena
A	12:24 ولقد همت به وهم بها لولا أن رءا برهن ربه كذلك لنصرف عنه السوء والفحشاء انه من عبادنا المخلصين
Edip-Layth	12:25 As they rushed towards the door, she tore his shirt from behind; and they found her noble husband at the door. She said, "What is the punishment of he who wanted to molest your family? Is it not that he be jailed or punished painfully?"
The Monotheist Group	12:25 And as they rushed towards the door, she tore his shirt from behind; and they found her master at the door. She said: "What is the punishment of he who wanted to molest your family? Is it not that he be jailed or punished painfully?"
Muhammad Asad	12:25 And they both rushed to the door; and she [grasped and] rent his tunic from behind-and [lo!] they met her lord at the door! Said she: "What ought to be the punishment of one who had evil designs on [the virtue of] thy wife - [what] but imprisonment or a [yet more] grievous chastisement?"
Rashad Khalifa	12:25 The two of them raced towards the door, and, in the process, she tore his garment from the back. They found her husband at the door. She said, "What should be the punishment for one who wanted to molest your wife, except imprisonment or a painful punishment?"
Shabbir Ahmed	12:25 And they raced to the door and in the process, she tore his shirt from behind. They found her husband at the door. She said, "What should be the punishment for one who wanted to molest your wife, except prison or a painful chastisement?"
Transliteration	12:25 Waistabaqa alb abawaqaddat qamee sahu min duburin waalfay a sayyidahalada albabi qalat m a jazao manar ada bi-ahlika soo-an ill a an yusjana aw AAathabunaleemun
A	12:25 واستبقا الباب وقدت قميصه من دبر والفا سيدها لدا الباب قالت ما جزاء من اراد باهلك سوءا الا ان يسجن او عذاب اليم
Edip-Layth	Circumstantial Evidence Exonerates Joseph 12:26 He said, "She is the one who seduced me from myself," and a witness from her family gave testimony: "If his shirt was torn from the front, then she is truthful, and he is the liar." ⁸
The Monotheist Group	12:26 He said: "She is the one who seduced me from myself," and a witness from her family gave testimony: "If his shirt was torn from the front, then she is truthful, and he is the liar."
Muhammad Asad	12:26 [Joseph] exclaimed: "It was she who sought to make me yield myself unto her!" Now one of those present, a member of her own household, suggested this: ²⁵ If his tunic has been torn from the front, then she is telling the truth, and he is a liar;
Rashad Khalifa	12:26 He said, "She is the one who tried to seduce me." A witness from her family suggested: "If his garment is torn from the front, then she is telling the truth and he is a liar."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:26 Joseph said, "She is the one who tried to seduce me." Now a member of her family came and suggested, "If his shirt is torn from the front, then she is telling the truth, and he is the liar."
	12:26 Qala hiya r awadatnee AAannafsee washahida sh ahidun min ahlih a in

Transliteration	kānaqameesūhu qudda min qubulin faṣadaqat wahuwa minaalkathibeena
A	12:26 قال هي رودتني عن نفسي وشهد شاهد من أهلها ان كان قميصه قد من قبل فصدقت وهو من الكذابين
Edip-Layth	12:27 "If his shirt is torn from behind, then she is lying, and he is truthful."
The Monotheist Group	12:27 "And if his shirt is torn from behind, then she is lying, and he is truthful."
Muhammad Asad	12:27 but if his tunic has been torn from behind, then she is lying, and he is speaking the truth."
Rashad Khalifa	12:27 "And if his garment is torn from the back, then she lied, and he is telling the truth."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:27 And if his shirt is torn from the back then she lied, and he is telling the truth."
Transliteration	12:27 Wa-in k āna qamee sūhu qudda minduburin faka ṭhabat wahuwa mina alṣṣadiqeena
A	12:27 وان كان قميصه قد من دبر فكذبت وهو من الصادقين
Edip-Layth	12:28 So when he saw that his shirt was torn from behind, he said, "This is from your female scheming, your female scheming is indeed great!"
The Monotheist Group	12:28 So when he saw that his shirt was torn from behind, he said: "This is from your female scheming, your female scheming is indeed great!"
Muhammad Asad	12:28 And when (her husband] saw that his tunic was torn from behind, he said: "Behold, this is [an instance] of your guile, O womankind! Verily, awesome is your guile!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:28 When her husband saw that his garment was torn from the back, he said, "This is a woman's scheme. Indeed, your scheming is formidable."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:28 When her husband saw the shirt torn from the back, he said, "This is the typical scheme of you women. Your scheming is formidable." 2
Transliteration	12:28 Falamma raā qameesāhuqudda min duburin q āla innahu min kaydikunna innakaydakunna AAaṭṭheemun
A	12:28 فلما رءا قميصه قد من دبر قال انه من كيدكن ان كيدكن عظيم
Edip-Layth	12:29 "Joseph, turn away from this. You woman, seek forgiveness for your sin; you were of the wrongdoers."
The Monotheist Group	12:29 "Joseph, turn away from this. And you woman, seek forgiveness for your sin; you were of the wrongdoers."
Muhammad Asad	12:29 [But,] Joseph, let this pass! 26 And thou, [O wife,] ask forgiveness for thy sin-for, verily, thou hast been greatly at fault!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:29 "Joseph, disregard this incident. As for you (my wife), you should seek forgiveness for your sin. You have committed an error."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:29 He said, "O Joseph! Forget about what happened. And you O woman! Ask forgiveness. For, you have been greatly at fault."
Transliteration	12:29 Yoosufu aAAari ḍ AAan h aṭṭha wa istaghfireeliṭṭhanbiki innaki kunti mina

	alkhati-eena
A	12:29 يوسف اعرض عن هذا واستغفرى لذنبك انك كنت من الخاطين
Edip-Layth	12:30 Some women in the city said, "The wife of the Governor is trying to seduce her young man from himself; she is taken by love. We see her clearly misguided."
The Monotheist Group	12:30 And some women in the city said: "The wife of the Governor is trying to seduce her young man from himself; she is taken by love. We see her clearly misguided."
Muhammad Asad	12:30 NOW the women of the city spoke [thus to one another]: "The wife of this nobleman is trying to induce her slave-boy to yield himself unto her! Her love for him has pierced her heart; verily, we see that she is undoubtedly suffering from an aberration!" ²⁷
Rashad Khalifa	12:30 Some women in the city gossiped: "The governor's wife is trying to seduce her servant. She is deeply in love with him. We see that she has gone astray."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:30 Women in the city started gossiping, "The governor's wife is trying to seduce her servant. She is deeply in love with him. But we see that she adopted the wrong tactics."
Transliteration	12:30 Waqala niswatun fee almadeenatiimraatu alAAazeezi tur awidu fat aha AAannafsihi qad shaghafaha hubban inna lanarahafee dalalin mubeenin
A	12:30 وقال نسوة فى المدينة امرات العزيز ترود فتنها عن نفسه قد شغفها حبا انا لنربها فى ضلل مبين
	Physical Attraction
Edip-Layth	12:31 So when she heard of their scheming, she sent for them and prepared a banquet for them, and she gave each one of them a knife. She said, "Come out to them," so when they saw him they exalted him and cut their hands, and they said, "God be praised, this is not a human, but a blessed angel!" ⁹
The Monotheist Group	12:31 So when she heard of their scheming, she sent for them and prepared a banquet for them, and she gave each one of them a knife. And she said: "Come out to them," so when they saw him they exalted him and cut their hands, and they said: "God be praised, this is not a human, but a blessed angel!"
Muhammad Asad	12:31 Thereupon, when she heard of their malicious talk, she sent for them, and prepared for them a sumptuous repast, ²⁸ and handed each of them a knife and said [to Joseph]: "Come out and show thyself to them!" And when the women saw him, they were greatly amazed at his beauty, ²⁹ and [so flustered were they that] they cut their hands [with their knives], exclaiming, "God save us! This is no mortal man! This is nought but a noble angel!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:31 When she heard of their gossip, she invited them, prepared for them a comfortable place, and gave each of them a knife. She then said to him, "Enter their room." When they saw him, they so admired him, that they cut their hands. They said, "Glory be to GOD, this is not a human being; this is an honorable angel."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:31 When she heard their gossip, she invited them, and prepared comfortable couches for them, and they schemed. She gave a knife to each of the women. Then, she called Joseph, "Come out to them!" And when they saw him they flattered him and 'cut their hands'. They exclaimed in their flattery, "Good Lord! This is no mortal man! This is but an angel!" ³

Transliteration	12:31 Falamma samiAAat bimakrihinna arsalatilayhinna waaAAatadat lahunna muttakaan wa atat kulla w ahidatinminhunna sikkeenan waq alati okhruj AAalayhinna falam aaraaynahu akbarnahu waqa ttaAAna aydiyahunna waqulna hashalillahi ma hatha basharan in hathailla malakun kareemun
A	12:31 فلما سمعت بمكرهن ارسلت اليهن واعتدت لهن متكاً وءاتت كل وحدة منهن سكينة وقالت اخرج عليهن فلما راينه اكبرنه وقطعن ايديهن وقلن حش الله ما هذا بشراً ان هذا الا ملك كريم
Edip-Layth	12:32 She said, "This is the one whom you blamed me for, and I have seduced him from himself but he refused. If he does not do as I command him, he will be imprisoned, and he will be one of those disgraced."
The Monotheist Group	12:32 She said: "This is the one whom you blamed me for, and I have seduced him from himself but he refused. And if he does not do as I command him, he will be imprisoned, and he will be one of those disgraced."
Muhammad Asad	12:32 Said she: "This, then, is he about whom you have been blaming me! And, indeed, I did try to make him yield himself unto me, but he remained chaste. Now, however, if he does not do what I bid him, he shall most certainly be imprisoned, and shall most certainly find himself among the despised! ³⁰
Rashad Khalifa	12:32 She said, "This is the one you blamed me for falling in love with. I did indeed try to seduce him, and he refused. Unless he does what I command him to do, he will surely go to prison, and will be debased."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:32 The lady of the house said, "This is he about whom you blamed me. I tried to change his views but he firmly saved himself. Since he thinks he is an angel, and remains adamant against my command, he shall be imprisoned and brought low. ⁴
Transliteration	12:32 Qalat fa th alikunna alla theelumtunnanee feehi walaqad r awadtuhu AAan nafsihi faistAAasamawala-in lam yafAAal m a amuruhu layusjanannawalayakoonan mina alssaghireena
A	12:32 قالت فذلكن الذى لمتننى فيه ولقد رودته عن نفسه فاستعصم ولن لم يفعل ما امره ليسجنن وليكونا من الصغرين
Edip-Layth	12:33 He said, "My Lord, prison is better to me than what they are inviting me to do. If You do not turn their scheming away from me, I will fall for them and be of the ignorant."
The Monotheist Group	12:33 He said: "My Lord, prison is better to me than what they are inviting me to do. And if You do not turn their scheming away from me, I will fall for them and be of the ignorant."
Muhammad Asad	12:33 Said he: "O my Sustainer! Prison is more desirable to me than [compliance with] what these women invite me to: for, unless Thou turn away their guile from me, I might yet yield to their allure ³¹ and become one of those who are unaware [of right and wrong]."
Rashad Khalifa	12:33 He said, "My Lord, the prison is better than giving in to them. Unless You divert their scheming from me, I may desire them and behave like the ignorant ones."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:33 He said, "My Lord! Prison is dearer to me than what they invite me to. Unless You help me fend off their schemes, I am afraid of getting intimidated and of behaving like the ignorant ones."

Transliteration	12:33 Qala rabbi a Issijnu a habbuilayya mimm a yadAAoonanee ilayhi wa-ill a taṣrifAAanee kaydahunna aṣbu ilayhinna waakun mina aljahileena
A	12:33 قال رب السجن احب الى مما يدعوننى اليه والا تصرف عنى كيدهن اصب اليهن واكن من الجهلين
Edip-Layth	12:34 So his Lord responded to him, and He turned away their scheming from him. He is the Hearer, the Knowledgeable.
The Monotheist Group	12:34 So his Lord responded to him, and He turned away their scheming from him. He is the Hearer, the Knowledgeable.
Muhammad Asad	12:34 And his Sustainer responded to his prayer, and freed him from the threat of their guile: ³² verily, He alone is all-hearing, all-knowing.
Rashad Khalifa	12:34 His Lord answered his prayer and diverted their scheming from him. He is the Hearer, the Omniscient.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:34 His Lord heard his prayer, and helped Joseph remain steadfast in fending off their schemes. Surely, He is the Hearer, the Knower of all intentions and actions.
Transliteration	12:34 Faistajaba lahu rabbuhu fa ṣarafaAAanhu kaydahunna innahu huwa alssameeAAu alAAaleemu
A	12:34 فاستجاب له ربه فصرف عنه كيدهن انه هو السميع العليم
Edip-Layth	12:35 But it appealed to them, even after they had seen the signs, to imprison him until a time.
The Monotheist Group	12:35 But it appealed to them, even after they had seen the signs, to imprison him until a time.
Muhammad Asad	12:35 For, presently it occurred to the nobleman and his household ³³ _ [even] after they had seen all the signs [of Joseph's innocence] - that they might as well imprison him for a time. ³⁴
Rashad Khalifa	12:35 Later, they saw to it, despite the clear proofs, that they should imprison him for awhile.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:35 (The women brought a suit against him.) The judges after seeing the marks on their hands put him in prison for a time.
Transliteration	12:35 Thumma bada lahum min baAAadi maaawoo al-ayati layasjununnahu hatta heenin
A	12:35 ثم بدا لهم من بعد ما راوا الءايت ليسجننه حتى حين
Edip-Layth	In the Prison 12:36 With him in the prison entered two young men. One of them said, "I dreamt that I was pressing wine," and the other said, "I dreamt that I was carrying bread on top of my head, and that the birds were eating from it." "Tell us what this means, for we see that you are of the good doers."
The Monotheist Group	12:36 And with him in the prison entered two young men. One of them said: "I dreamt that I was pressing wine," and the other said: "I dreamt that I was carrying bread on top of my head, and that the birds were eating from it." "Tell us what this means, for we see that you are of the good doers."
	12:36 NOW two young men happened to go to prison at the same time as

Muhammad Asad	Joseph. ³⁵ One of them said: "Behold, I saw myself [in a dream] pressing wine." And the other said: "Behold, I saw myself [in a dream] carrying bread on my head, and birds were eating thereof." [And both entreated Joseph:] "Let us know the real meaning of this! Verily, we see that thou art one of those who know well [how to interpret dreams]." ³⁶
Rashad Khalifa	12:36 Two young men were in the prison with him. One of them said, "I saw (in my dream) that I was making wine," and the other said, "I saw myself carrying bread on my head, from which the birds were eating. Inform us of the interpretation of these dreams. We see that you are righteous."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:36 Two young men went to prison with him (for unrelated crimes). One of them (a butler) told his dream, "I saw myself making wine." The other (a baker) said, "I saw myself carrying bread on my head from which birds were eating. Can you tell us what this means? We see that you are a doer of good."
Transliteration	12:36 Wadakhala maAAahu a Issijna fatay aniqala a haduhuma innee ar anee aAAsirukhamran waq ala al- akharu innee ar anee a hmilufawqa ra/see khubzan ta/kulu alttayru minhu nabbi/nabita/weelihi inna naraka mina almuhsineena
A	12:36 ودخل معه السجن فتيان قال احدهما انى ارنى اعصر خمرا وقال الءآخر انى ارنى احمّل فوق راسى خبزا تاكل الطير منه نبئنا بتاويله انا نربك من المحسنين
Edip-Layth	12:37 He said, "There is not any provision of food that will come to you except that I will tell you of its interpretation before it comes. That is from what my Lord has taught me. I have just left the creed of a people who do not acknowledge God, and they are rejecting the Hereafter."
The Monotheist Group	12:37 He said: "There is not any provision of food that will come to you except that I will tell you of its interpretation before it comes. That is from what my Lord has taught me. I have just left the creed of a people who do not believe in God, and they are rejecting the Hereafter."
Muhammad Asad	12:37 [Joseph] answered: "Ere there comes unto you the meal which you are [daily] fed, I shall have informed you of the real meaning of your dreams, ³⁷ [so that you might know what is to come] before it comes unto you: for this is [part] of the knowledge which my Sustainer has imparted to me. "Behold, I have left behind me the ways of people who do not believe in God, ³⁸ and who persistently refuse to acknowledge the truth of the life to come;
Rashad Khalifa	12:37 He said, "If any food is provided to you, I can inform you about it before you receive it. This is some of the knowledge bestowed upon me by my Lord. I have forsaken the religion of people who do not believe in GOD, and with regard to the Hereafter, they are really disbelievers."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:37 He said, "I will tell you the meaning before today's meal is served. But, remember that it is my Lord Who teaches me through revelation. Indeed, I have stayed away from the ways of people who do not believe in God and are disbelievers in the life to come."
Transliteration	12:37 Qala l a ya/teekum a taAAamunturzaqanihi ill a nabba/tukum a bita/weelihiqabla an ya/tyakum a thalikuma mimm aAAallamanee rabbee innee taraktu millata qawmin layu/minoona biAllahi wahum bi al-akhiratihum kafiroona
A	12:37 قال لا ياتيكم طعام ترزقانه الا نباتكما بتاويله قبل ان ياتيكما ذلكما مما علمنى ربى انى تركت ملة قوم لا يؤمنون بالله وهم بالءآخرة هم كفرون
Edip-Layth	12:38 "I followed the creed of my fathers: Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. It was not for us to set up partners with God at all. That is God's blessings over us and over the people, but most of the people are not thankful."

The Monotheist Group	12:38 "And I followed the creed of my fathers: Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob. It was not for us to set up partners with God at all. That is God's blessings over us and over the people, but most of the people are not thankful."
Muhammad Asad	12:38 and I follow the creed of my forefathers Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. It is not conceivable that we should [be allowed to] ascribe divinity to aught beside God: this is [an outcome] of God's bounty unto us and unto all mankind ³⁹ -but most people are ungrateful.
Rashad Khalifa	12:38 "And I followed instead the religion of my ancestors, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. We never set up any idols beside GOD. Such is the blessing from GOD upon us and upon the people, but most people are unappreciative.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:38 "I follow the Creed of such of my ancestors as Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. It is not conceivable that we ever ascribe partners to God. This (belief in Monotheism) is the bounty of God upon us and upon all mankind. (It frees us from bondage to superstition and to 'men of religion'). But the majority of people fail to grasp this point, and thus remain ungrateful."
Transliteration	12:38 WaaitabaAAatu millata aba-eeibraheema wa-is haqa wayaAAaqooba m a kanalana an nushrika bi Allahi min shay-in thalikamin fa dli All ahi AAalayn a waAAala alInnasiwalakinna akthara alInnasi layashkuroona
A	12:38 واتبعتم ملة اباي ابراهيم واسحق ويعقوب ما كان لنا ان نشرك بالله من شيء ذلك من فضل الله علينا وعلى الناس ولكن اكثر الناس لا يشكرون
	There is no lord Besides God
Edip-Layth	12:39 "O my fellow inmates, are various lords better, or God, the One, the Omniscient?" ¹⁰
The Monotheist Group	12:39 "O my fellow inmates, are various lords better, or God, the One, the Omniscient?"
Muhammad Asad	12:39 "O my companions in imprisonment! Which is more reasonable: ⁴⁰ [belief in the existence of numerous divine] lords, each of them different from the other" ⁴¹ -or [in] the One God, who holds absolute sway over all that exists?
Rashad Khalifa	12:39 "O my prison mates, are several gods better, or GOD alone, the One, the Supreme?
Shabbir Ahmed	12:39 "O My prison mates! Are several masters better, or God, the One, the Dominant?"
Transliteration	12:39 Ya sahibayi a Issijniaarbabun mutafarriqoona khayrun ami All alwahidulqahharu
A	12:39 يصحبى السجناء ارباب متفرقون خير ام الله الواحد القهار
Edip-Layth	12:40 "What you serve besides Him are nothing but names which you have fabricated you and your fathers. God did not send down any authority for such. The judgment is for none but God. He ordered that none be served but He. That is the true system, but most of the people do not know."
The Monotheist Group	12:40 "What you serve besides Him are nothing but names which you have created you and your fathers, God did not send down any authority for such. The judgment is for none but God. He ordered that none be served but He. That is the true system, but most of the people do not know."

Muhammad Asad	12:40 "All that you worship instead of God is nothing but [empty] names which you have invented ⁴² - you and your forefathers- [and] for which God has bestowed no warrant from on high. Judgment [as to what is right and what is wrong] rests with God alone-[and] He has ordained that you should worship nought but Him: this is the [one] ever-true faith; but most people know it not ⁴³
Rashad Khalifa	12:40 "You do not worship beside Him except innovations that you have made up, you and your parents. GOD has never authorized such idols. All ruling belongs to GOD, and He has ruled that you shall not worship except Him. This is the perfect religion, but most people do not know.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:40 "Those whom you worship and obey besides Him, are but names that you have fabricated, you and your forefathers. God has revealed no authority for them. All ruling belongs to God alone. And there is no Judge but He. He has commanded that you serve none but Him. That is the Right Religion. But most people are not aware of this fact or disregard it in practice."
Transliteration	12:40 Ma taAAbudoona min doonihi ill aasmaan sammaytumoooh a antum waabaokumma anzala All ahu bih a min sul taninini al hukmu ill a lill ahi amara allataAAbudoo ill a iyy ahu thalika a Iddeenu alqayyimu walakinna akthara a Innasi layaAAlamoona
A	12:40 ما تعبدون من دونه الا اسماء سميتموها انتم وءابوكم ما انزل الله بها من سلطان ان الحكم الا لله امر الا تعبدوا الا اياه ذلك الدين القيم ولكن اكثر الناس لا يعلمون
Edip-Layth	12:41 "My fellow inmates, one of you will be serving wine for his lord, while the other will be crucified so that the birds will eat from his head. The matter which you have sought is now concluded."
The Monotheist Group	12:41 "My fellow inmates, one of you will be serving wine for his lord, while the other will be crucified so that the birds will eat from his head. The matter which you have sought is now concluded."
Muhammad Asad	12:41 "[And now,] O my companions in imprisonment, [I shall tell you the meaning of your dreams:] as for one of you two, he will [again] give his lord [the King] wine to drink; but as for the other, he will be crucified, and birds will eat off his head. [But whatever be your future,] the matter on which you have asked me to enlighten you has been decided [by God]."
Rashad Khalifa	12:41 "O my prison mates, one of you will be the wine butler for his lord, while the other will be crucified - the birds will eat from his head. This settles the matter about which you have inquired."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:41 "O My prison mates! The first of you will be the chief wine butler for the King. The other one (the chief baker of the King) will be crucified and birds will eat off his head. Thus is the case decided about what you ask."
Transliteration	12:41 Ya sahibayi alssijniamma a hadukuma fayasqee rabbahu khamranwaamm a al-akharu fayuslabu fata/kulu a Ittayrumin ra/sihi qu diya al-amru alla thee feehi tastaftiyani
A	12:41 يصحبى السجن اما احكما فيسقى ربه خمرا واما الآخر فيصلب فتاكل الطير من راسه قضى الامر الذى فيه تستفتيان
Edip-Layth	12:42 He said to the one whom he thought would be saved of them: "Mention me to your lord." But the devil made him forget to mention to his lord, so He remained in prison for a few years. ¹¹
	12:42 And he said to the one whom he thought would be saved of them:

The Monotheist Group	"Mention me to your lord." But the devil made him forget to mention to his lord, so He remained in prison for a few years.
Muhammad Asad	12:42 And [thereupon Joseph] said unto the one of the two whom he considered saved: "Mention me unto thy lord [when thou art free]!" But Satan caused him to forget to mention [Joseph] to his lord, and so he remained in prison a few [more] years.
Rashad Khalifa	12:42 He then said to the one to be saved "Remember me at your lord." Thus, the devil caused him to forget his Lord, and, consequently, he remained in prison a few more years.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:42 Joseph asked the one whom he thought would be released, "Mention me in the presence of your King." But, his selfish ways made him ignore to mention it to the King, so Joseph stayed in prison for a few years.
Transliteration	12:42 Waqala lilla thee th annaannahu n aj in minhum a o th kurnee AAindarabbika faansahu alshshay tanu th ikrarabbihi falabitha fee a Issijni bi d AAa sineena
A	12:42 وقال للذي ظن انه ناج منهما اذكرني عند ربك فانساه الشيطان ذكر ربه فلبث في السجن بضع سنين
Edip-Layth	King's Dream 12:43 The King said, "I continue to dream of seven fat cows which are being eaten by seven thin ones, and seven green pods and others which are dry. O you chiefs, tell me what my vision means if you are able to interpret the visions." ¹²
The Monotheist Group	12:43 And the King said: "I continue to dream of seven fat cows which are being eaten by seven thin ones, and seven green pods and others which are dry. O you commanders, tell me what my vision means if you are able to interpret the visions."
Muhammad Asad	12:43 AND [one day] the King said: ⁴⁴ Behold, I saw [in a dream] seven fat cows being devoured by seven emaciated ones, and seven green ears [of wheat] next to [seven] others that were withered. O you nobles! Enlighten me about [the meaning of] my dream, if you are able to interpret dreams!"
Rashad Khalifa	The King's Dream 12:43 The king said, "I saw seven fat cows being devoured by seven skinny cows, and seven green spikes (of wheat), and others shriveled. O my elders, advise me regarding my dream, if you know how to interpret the dreams."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:43 And one day the King of Egypt said to his court, "I have dreamed seven fat cows being eaten up by seven lean cows and seven green spikes of wheat and (seven) dry. O My chiefs! Explain to me my vision, if you can interpret dreams."
Transliteration	12:43 Waqala almaliku innee ar as abAAa baqar a tin sim a nin ya/kuluhunna sabAAun AAij a funwasabAAa sunbul a tin khu d rin waokhara y a bis a tinya ayyuh a almalao afooonee fee ru/y a inkuntum li l rru/y a taAAaburoona
A	12:43 وقال الملك انى ارى سبع بقرت سمان ياكلهن سبع عجاف وسبع سنبلت خضر واخر يابست ياايها الملا افتونى فى رعبى ان كنتم للرعبا تعبرون
Edip-Layth	12:44 They said, "It is nothing but medley dreams; and we are not knowledgeable in the interpretation of dreams."
The Monotheist Group	12:44 They said: "It is nothing but bad dreams; and we are not knowledgeable in the interpretation of dreams."
	12:44 They answered: " [This is one of] the most involved and confusing of Muhammad Asad	dreams, ⁴⁵ and we have no deep knowledge of the real meaning of dreams."

Rashad Khalifa	12:44 They said, "Nonsense dreams. When it comes to the interpretation of dreams, we are not knowledgeable."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:44 They answered, "Confused nightmares! We are not skilled in interpreting such dreams." ⁵
Transliteration	12:44 Qaloo adghathu ahlaaminwama nahnu bita/weeli al-ahlamī biAAalimeena
A	12:44 قالوا اضغت احلم وما نحن بتاويل الاحلم بعلمين
Edip-Layth	12:45 The one of them who had been saved and remembered after all this time said, "I will tell you of its interpretation, so send me forth."
The Monotheist Group	12:45 And the one of them who had been saved and remembered after all this time said: "I will tell you of its interpretation, so have me dispatched."
Muhammad Asad	12:45 At that, the one of the two [erstwhile prisoners] who had been saved, and [who suddenly] remembered [Joseph] after all that time, ⁴⁶ spoke [thus]: "It is I who can inform you of the real meaning of this [dream]; so let me go [in search of it]." ⁴⁷
Rashad Khalifa	12:45 The one who was saved (from the prison) said, now that he finally remembered, "I can tell you its interpretation, so send me (to Joseph)."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:45 The one who was released (the chief butler) at long last remembered. He said, "I can bring you the meaning, so send me forth."
Transliteration	12:45 Waqala alla thee naj aminhuma wa iddakara baAAda ommatin an aonabbi-okum bita/weelihi faarsilooni
A	12:45 وقال الذى نجا منهما وادكر بعد امة انا انبئكم بتاويله فارسلون
Edip-Layth	12:46 "Joseph, O truth one, explain to us the matter regarding seven fat cows being eaten by seven thin ones, and seven green pods and others which are dry? Then perhaps I may go back to the people so they will know."
The Monotheist Group	12:46 "Joseph, O man of truth, explain to us the matter regarding seven fat cows being eaten by seven thin ones, and seven green pods and others which are dry? Then perhaps I may go back to the people so they will know."
Muhammad Asad	12:46 [And he went to see Joseph in the prison and said to him:] "Joseph, O thou truthful one! Enlighten us about [the meaning of a dream in which] seven fat cows were being devoured by seven emaciated ones, and seven green ears [of wheat appeared] next to [seven] others that were withered - so that I may return [with thy explanation] unto the people [of the court, and] that they may come to know [what manner of man thou art]!"
Rashad Khalifa	Joseph Interprets the King's Dream 12:46 "Joseph my friend, inform us about seven fat cows being devoured by seven skinny cows, and seven green spikes, and others shriveled. I wish to go back with some information for the people."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:46 He said, "Joseph, O you truthful one! Explain for us the seven fat cows being eaten by seven lean ones, and the seven green spikes of wheat and others dry. I wish to go back with information that they may know" (the interpretation and your value).
Transliteration	12:46 Yoosufu ayyuh a a Issiddeequafting fee sabAAi baqar atin simaninya/kuluhunna sabAAun AAij afun wasabAAi sunbul atinkhudrin waokhara

	yabisatin laAAallee arjiAAuila alInnasi laAAallahum yaAAalamoonaa
A	12:46 يوسف ايها الصديق افتنا في سبع بقرت سمان ياكلهن سبع عجاف وسبع سنبلت خضر واخر يابست لعلى ارجع الى الناس لعلهم يعلمون
Edip-Layth	12:47 He said, "You will plant regularly for seven years, and whatever you harvest you must leave it in its pods, except for the little that you will eat."
The Monotheist Group	12:47 He said: "You will plant regularly for seven years, and whatever you harvest you must leave it in its pods, except for the little that you will eat."
Muhammad Asad	12:47 [Joseph] replied: "You shall sow for seven years as usual; but let all [the grain] that you harvest remain [untouched] in its ear, excepting only a little, whereof you may eat:
Rashad Khalifa	12:47 He said, "What you cultivate during the next seven years, when the time of harvest comes, leave the grains in their spikes, except for what you eat.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:47 Joseph told him the meaning and the way to avert the oncoming famine, "Work hard on agriculture for seven seasons. When you harvest the crop, only reap the amount you need. Leave the rest of the grains in the spikes (to store for the ensuing famine)."
Transliteration	12:47 Qala tazraAAoona sabAAa sineenadaaban fam a hasadtum fa tharoonu feesunbulihi illa qaleelan mimma ta/kuloona
A	12:47 قال تزرعون سبع سنين دابا فما حصدم فنروه في سنبله الا قليلا مما تاكلون
Edip-Layth	12:48 "Then after that will come seven ones severe in drought, which will consume all that you planted except for what you have stored."
The Monotheist Group	12:48 "Then there will come seven after that which are severe and which will consume all that you plant except for what you have stored."
Muhammad Asad	12:48 for, after that [period of seven good years] there will come seven hard [years] which will devour all that you shall have laid up for them, excepting only a little of that which you shall have kept in store.
Rashad Khalifa	12:48 "After that, seven years of drought will come, which will consume most of what you stored for them.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:48 "Then after that will come seven dry seasons which will use up all that you have prepared for them, but a little that you have stored up."
Transliteration	12:48 Thumma ya/tee min baAAdi thalikasabAAun shid adun ya/kulna m a qaddamtum lahunna illaqaleelan mimma tuhsinoona
A	12:48 ثم ياتي من بعد ذلك سبع شداد ياكلن ما قدمتم لهن الا قليلا مما تحصنون
Edip-Layth	12:49 "Then after that will come a calendar year in which the people will have abundant rain and which they will be able to produce once again."
The Monotheist Group	12:49 "Then after that will come a year in which the people will have abundant rain and which they will be able to produce once again."
Muhammad Asad	12:49 And after that there will come a year in which the people will be delivered from all distress, ⁴⁸ and in which they will press [oil and wine as before]."
Rashad Khalifa	12:49 "After that, a year will come that brings relief for the people, and they will, once again, press juice."

Shabbir Ahmed	12:49 "After that, one year will come with good rains and the crops will be plenty. You will get abundant grain and fruit, and a lot of oil and juice to squeeze." ⁶
Transliteration	12:49 Thumma ya/tee min baAAadi thalika AA amunfeehi yugh athu a Innasu wafeehi yaAAa s iroona
A	12:49 ثم ياتى من بعد ذلك عام فيه يغاث الناس وفيه يعصرون
Edip-Layth	12:50 The King said, "Bring him to me." When the messenger came to him, he said, "Go back to your lord and ask him what the matter was regarding the women that cut their hands? My Lord is well aware of their scheming."
The Monotheist Group	12:50 And the King said: "Bring him to me." So when the messenger came to him, he said: "Go back to your lord and ask him what was the matter regarding the women that cut their hands? My Lord is well aware of their scheming."
Muhammad Asad	12:50 And [as soon as Joseph's interpretation. was conveyed to him,] the King said: "Bring him before me!" But when the [King's] messenger came unto him, [Joseph] said: "Go back to thy lord and ask him [first to find out the truth] about those women who cut their hands-for, behold, [until now it is] my Sustainer [alone who] has full knowledge of their guile!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:50 The king said, "Bring him to me." When the messenger came to him, he said, "Go back to your lord and ask him to investigate the women who cut their hands. My Lord is fully aware of their schemes."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:50 And the King said, "Bring him before me!" When the courier came to Joseph, he said, "Return to your King and ask him to find out the case of the women who marked their hands. Surely, my Lord knows their plot." ⁷
Transliteration	12:50 Waq ala almaliku i/toonee bihi falam m ajjahu a Irrasoolu q ala irjiAA il rabbika fa is-alhu m a b alu a Inniswatial latee qa ta AAana aydiyahunna inna rabbeebikaydihinna AAaleem un
A	12:50 وقال الملك ائتوني به فلما جاءه الرسول قال ارجع الى ربك فسله ما بال النسوة التي قطعن ايديهن ان ربي بكيدهن عليم
Edip-Layth	Governor's Wife Tells the Truth 12:51 He said, "What is your plea that you tried to seduce Joseph from himself?" They said, "God forbid that we would do any harm to him." The wife of the Governor said, "Now the truth must be known, I did seek to seduce Joseph from himself and he is of the truthful ones..."
The Monotheist Group	12:51 He said: "What is your plea that you tried to seduce Joseph from himself?" They said: "God forbid that we would do any harm to him." The wife of the Governor said: "Now the truth must be known, I did seek to seduce Joseph from himself and he is of the truthful ones."
Muhammad Asad	12:51 [Thereupon the King sent for those women; and when they came,] he asked: "What was it that you hoped to achieve when you sought to make Joseph yield himself unto you?" ⁴⁹ The women answered: "God save us! We did not perceive the least evil [intention] on his part!" [And] the wife of Joseph's former master ⁵⁰ exclaimed: "Now has the truth come to light! It was I who sought to make him yield himself unto me - whereas he, behold, was indeed speaking the truth!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:51 (The king) said (to the women), "What do you know about the incident when you tried to seduce Joseph?" They said, "GOD forbid; we did not know of anything evil committed by him." The wife of the governor said, "Now the truth has prevailed. I am the one who tried to seduce him, and he was the truthful one.

Shabbir Ahmed	12:51 The King sent for those women, and asked them, "What happened when you tried to seduce Joseph?" They answered, "Good Lord! We found no evil in him." The wife of the governor (Zelicha, Zulaikha in the Arab history) couldn't hold back, "Now the truth is out. I was the one at fault and he is surely truthful."
Transliteration	12:51 Qala m a kha ṭbukunna i thrawadtunna yoosufa AAan nafsīhi qulna hashā lillāhima AAalimna AAalayhi min soo-in q alatiimraatu alAAazeezi al- ana hashā alhaquana rawadtuhu AAan nafsīhi wa-innahu lamina alssadiqeena
A	12:51 قال ما خطبكن اذ رودتن يوسف عن نفسه قلن حش الله ما علمنا عليه من سوء قالت امرات العزيز الن حصص الحق انا رودته عن نفسه وانه لمن الصديقين
Edip-Layth	12:52 "That is so he knows that I will not betray him while he is not present and that God does not guide the scheming of the betrayers."
The Monotheist Group	12:52 "That is so he knows that I will not betray him while he is not present and that God does not guide the scheming of the betrayers."
Muhammad Asad	12:52 [When Joseph learned what had happened, he said: ⁵¹ "I asked for] this, so that [my former master] might know that I did not betray him behind his back, ⁵² and that God does not bless with His guidance the artful schemes of those who betray their trust.
Rashad Khalifa	12:52 "I hope that he will realize that I never betrayed him in his absence, for GOD does not bless the schemes of the betrayers.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:52 (When Joseph learned this), He said, "I hope that the governor will realize that I never betrayed him in his absence. And God never leads to success those who betray Him and betray the trust of people."
Transliteration	12:52 Thalika liyaAAlama annee lam akhunhubi alghaybi waanna Allaha la yahdee kaydaalkha-ineena
A	12:52 ذلك ليعلم انى لم اخنه بالغيب وان الله لا يهدى كيد الخائنين
Edip-Layth	12:53 "I do not make myself free of blame, for the person is inclined to sin, except what my Lord has mercy on. My Lord is Forgiving, Compassionate."
The Monotheist Group	12:53 "And I do not make myself free of blame, for the soul is inclined to sin, except what my Lord has mercy on. My Lord is Forgiving, Merciful."
Muhammad Asad	12:53 And yet, I am not trying to absolve myself: for, verily, man's inner self does incite [him] to evil, ⁵³ and saved are only they upon whom my Sustainer bestows His grace. ⁵⁴ Behold, my Sustainer is much forgiving, a dispenser of grace!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:53 "I do not claim innocence for myself. The self is an advocate of vice, except for those who have attained mercy from my Lord. My Lord is Forgiver, Most Merciful."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:53 "I do not claim that I am angelic, with no ego or desires. The human 'self' is not invincible against temptation (unless we make it surrender to the Divine Commands). It is my Lord's mercy that mankind are in control of their behavior. Surely, my Lord is Absolver of imperfections, Merciful."
Transliteration	12:53 Wama obarri-o nafsee inna a Innafsalaammaratun bi alssoo-i ill a m a rahimarabee inna rabbee ghafoorun raheemun

A	12:53 وما ابرئ نفسي ان النفس لامارة بالسوء الا ما رحم ربي ان ربي غفور رحيم
Edip-Layth	Joseph is Appointed to a Top Position 12:54 The King said, "Bring him to me so that I may employ him for myself." So when he spoke to him, he said, "Today you are with us in high rank and trusted."
The Monotheist Group	12:54 And the King said: "Bring him to me so that I may employ him to my person." So when he spoke to him, he said: "Today you are with us in high rank and trusted."
Muhammad Asad	12:54 And the King said: "Bring him unto me, so that I may attach him to my own person." And when he had spoken with him, [the King] said: "Behold, [from] this day thou shalt be of high standing with us, invested with all trust!"
Rashad Khalifa	Joseph Attains Prominence 12:54 The king said, "Bring him to me, so I can hire him to work for me." When he talked with him, he said, "Today, you have a prominent position with us."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:54 The King said, "Bring him to me so that I may appoint him a close adviser to me." And when he had spoken with him, the King decreed, "From today on you have a high standing with us, invested with all trust." 8
Transliteration	12:54 Waqaḷa almaliku i/toonee bihiastakhli shu linafsee falam a kallamahu qaḷainnaka alyawma ladayna makeenun ameenun
A	12:54 وقال الملك ائتوني به استخلصه لنفسى فلما كلمه قال انك اليوم لدينا مكين امين
Edip-Layth	12:55 He said, "Make me keeper over the granaries of the land, for I know how to keep records and I am knowledgeable."
The Monotheist Group	12:55 He said: "Make me keeper over the granaries of the land, for I know how to keep records and I am knowledgeable."
Muhammad Asad	12:55 [Joseph] replied: "Place in my charge the store-houses of the land; behold, I shall be a good and knowing keeper." 55
Rashad Khalifa	12:55 He said, "Make me the treasurer, for I am experienced in this area and knowledgeable."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:55 Joseph replied, "Place in my charge the treasury of the State. I shall be a competent custodian." 9
Transliteration	12:55 Qaḷa ijAAalnee AAala khaza-inial-ardi innee hafeethun AAaleemun
A	12:55 قال اجعلنى على خزان الارض انى حفيظ عليم
Edip-Layth	12:56 Thus, We gave Joseph authority in the land, to travel in it as he pleases. We bestow Our mercy upon whom We please, and We do not waste the reward of the good doers.
The Monotheist Group	12:56 And it was such that We gave Joseph authority in the land, to travel in it as he pleases. We bestow Our mercy upon whom We please, and We do not waste the reward of the good doers.
Muhammad Asad	12:56 And thus We established Joseph securely in the land [of Egypt]: he had full mastery over it, [doing] whatever he willed. [Thus do] We cause Our grace to alight upon whomever We will; and We do not fail to requite the doers of good. 56

Rashad Khalifa	12:56 We thus established Joseph on earth, ruling as he wished. We shower our mercy upon whomever we will, and we never fail to recompense the righteous.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:56 Thus, We gave established power to Joseph in the land (of Egypt). He had full mastery over it, ruling as he saw fit. We bestow Our grace according to Our laws, and never waste the reward of the doers of good.
Transliteration	12:56 Wakath alika makann a liyoosufafee al-ar di yatabawwao minh a haythu yasha on u seebu birah matina man nash ao wala n udeeAAu ajra almu h sineena
A	12:56 وكذلك مكنا ليوسف في الارض يتبوا منها حيث يشاء نصيب برحمتنا من نشاء ولا نضيع اجر المحسنين
Edip-Layth	12:57 The reward of the Hereafter is better for those who acknowledge and were aware.
The Monotheist Group	12:57 And the reward of the Hereafter is better for those who believe and were aware.
Muhammad Asad	12:57 But in the eyes of those who have attained to faith and have always been conscious of Us, a reward in the life to come is a far greater good [than any reward in this world]. ⁵⁷
Rashad Khalifa	12:57 Additionally, the reward in the Hereafter is even better for those who believe and lead a righteous life.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:57 And the reward in the life to come is phenomenally better for all those who attain belief and live upright.
Transliteration	12:57 Walaajru al- a khirati khayrun lilla the ena a manoo wak a n oo yattaqoon a
A	12:57 ولاجر الءاخرة خير للذين ءامنوا وكانوا يتقون
Edip-Layth	Joseph's Brothers Travel to Egypt for Grain 12:58 Joseph's brothers came and entered upon him, and he recognized them, but they did not recognize him.
The Monotheist Group	12:58 And Joseph's brothers came and entered upon him, and he recognized them, but they did not recognize him.
Muhammad Asad	12:58 AND [after some years,] Joseph's brothers came [to Egypt] ⁵⁸ and presented themselves before him: and he knew them [at once], whereas they did not recognize him.
Rashad Khalifa	12:58 Joseph's brothers came; when they entered, he recognized them, while they did not recognize him.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:58 (And after some years) Joseph's brothers came and presented themselves before him. Joseph recognized them, but they did not know him. ¹⁰
Transliteration	12:58 Waj aa ikhwatu yoosufa fadakh aloo AAalayhi faAAarafahum wahum lahu munkiroon a
A	12:58 وجاء اخوة يوسف فدخلوا عليه فعرفهم وهم له منكرون
Edip-Layth	12:59 So, when he furnished them with their provisions, he said, "Bring me a step-brother of yours who is from your father. Do you not see that I give full measure of grain and that I am the best of hosts?" ¹³
	12:59 So, when he furnished them with their provisions, he said: "Bring me a

The Monotheist Group	step-brother of yours who is from your father. Do you not see that I give full measure of grain and that I am the best of hosts?"
Muhammad Asad	12:59 And when he had provided them with their provisions, he said: "[When you come here next,] bring unto me that brother of yours from your father's side. 59 Do you not see that I have given [you] full measure and have been the best of hosts?"
Rashad Khalifa	12:59 After he provided them with their provisions, he said, "Next time, bring with you your half-brother. Do you not see that I give full measure, and treat you generously?"
Shabbir Ahmed	12:59 And when he had given them suitable provisions, he said, "Next time bring to me that brother of yours from your father's side. Now you have seen that I am just and hospitable."
Transliteration	12:59 Walamma jahhazahum bijah azihimqala i/toonee bi-akhin lakum min abeekum alatarawna annee oofee alkayla waana khayru almunzileena
A	12:59 ولما جهزهم بجهازهم قال انتوني باخ لكم من ابيكم الا ترون انى اوفى الكيل وانا خير المنزلين
Edip-Layth	12:60 "But if you do not bring him to me, then there shall be no measure of grain for you with me, and do not come near me."
The Monotheist Group	12:60 "But if you do not bring him to me, then there shall be no measure of grain for you with me, and do not come near me."
Muhammad Asad	12:60 But if you do not bring him unto me, you shall never again receive a single measure [of grain] from me, nor shall you [be allowed to] come near me!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:60 "If you fail to bring him to me, you will get no share from me; you will not even come close."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:60 "And if you do not bring him to me, you will get no share from me; you will not even come close."
Transliteration	12:60 Fa-in lam ta/toonee bihi fala kaylalakum AAindee wala taqrabooni
A	12:60 فان لم تاتوني به فلا كيل لكم عندى ولا تقربون
Edip-Layth	12:61 They said, "We will try to get him away from his father, and we shall do it."
The Monotheist Group	12:61 They said: "We will try to get him away from his father, and we shall be successful."
Muhammad Asad	12:61 They answered: "We shall try to persuade his father to part with him, and, verily, we shall do [our utmost]!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:61 They said, "We will negotiate with his father about him. We will surely do this."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:61 They said, "We shall try to persuade his father to let him go; that we will surely do."
Transliteration	12:61 Qaloo sanurawidu AAanhu abahuwa-inna lafaAAailoona
A	12:61 قالوا سنرود عنه اباه وانا لفعلون
	12:62 He said to his servants: "Return their goods back into their bags, so that

Edip-Layth	they will recognize it when they return to their family and they will come back again."
The Monotheist Group	12:62 And he said to his servants: "Return their goods back into their bags, so that they will recognize it when they return to their family and they will come back again."
Muhammad Asad	12:62 And [Joseph] said to his servants: "Place their merchandise ⁶⁰ in their camel-packs, so that they may find it there when they come home, and hence be the more eager to return. ⁶¹
Rashad Khalifa	12:62 He then instructed his assistants: "Put their goods back in their bags. When they find them upon their return to their family, they may come back sooner."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:62 Joseph said to his servants, "Load their barter (the price of wheat) back in their saddlebags, so that they may find it when they go home, and hence be more eager to return."
Transliteration	12:62 Waqala lifity anihi ijAAaloo bi daAAatahumfee ri halihi laAAallahum yaAAarifoona h i thainqalaboo ila ahlihim laAAallahum yarjiAAoon a
A	12:62 وقال لفتينه اجعلوا بضعتهم في رحالهم لعلهم يعرفونها اذا انقلبوا الى اهلهم لعلهم يرجعون
Edip-Layth	12:63 So when they returned to their father, they said, "Our father, we have been banned from getting anymore measure of grain, so send our brother with us so we may be given a measure of grain, and we will be his guardians."
The Monotheist Group	12:63 So when they returned to their father, they said: "Our father, we have been banned from getting anymore measure of grain, so send our brother with us so we may be given measure of grain, and we will be his guardians."
Muhammad Asad	12:63 And so, when they returned to their father, [Joseph's brothers] said: "O our father! All grain ⁶² is [to be] withheld from us [in the future unless we bring Benjamin with us]: send, therefore, our brother with us, so that we may obtain our measure (of grain); and, verily, we shall guard him well!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:63 When they returned to their father, they said, "Our father, we can no longer get any provisions, unless you send our brother with us. We will take good care of him."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:63 When they went back to their father, they said, "O Our father! All grain is to be withheld from us unless you send with us our brother (Benjamin). So send him so that we may obtain the measure, certainly, we shall guard him well."
Transliteration	12:63 Falamma rajaAAoo il a abeehim q alooya ab ana muniAAa minn a alka y l u faarsil maAAana akh ana naktal wa-inna lahu laha f i th oona
A	12:63 فلما رجعوا الى ابيهم قالوا يا ابانا منع منا الكيل فارسل معنا اخانا نكتل وانا له لحفظون
Edip-Layth	12:64 He said, "Shall I trust him with you as I trusted you with Joseph before that? God is the best guardian, and He is the Most Compassionate of those who show compassion."
The Monotheist Group	12:64 He said: "Shall I trust him with you as I trusted you with Joseph before that? God is the best guardian, and He is the Most Merciful of those who show mercy."
	12:64 [Jacob] replied: "Shall I trust you with him in the same way ⁶³ as I trusted

Muhammad Asad	you with his brother (Joseph) aforetime? [Nay,] but God's guardianship is better [than yours], for He is the most merciful of the merciful!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:64 He said, "Shall I trust you with him, as I trusted you with his brother before that? GOD is the best Protector, and, of all the merciful ones, He is the Most Merciful."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:64 Jacob said, "Shall I trust you with him as I trusted you with his brother? God is better at Guarding and He is the most Merciful of the merciful."
Transliteration	12:64 Qala hal amanukum AAalayhi ill akama amintukum AAal a akheehi min qablu faAllahukhayrun hafithan wahuwa arhamu alrrahimeena
A	12:64 قال هل ءامنكم عليه الا كما امنتكم على اخيه من قبل فالف خير حفظا وهو ارحم الرحمن
Edip-Layth	12:65 So when they opened their bags, they found their goods had been returned to them, and they said, "Our father, what more can we desire, this is our goods returned to us, so we can get more for our family, and be guardians over our brother, and increase a measure of grain to load a camel. That is truly an easy measure!"
The Monotheist Group	12:65 So when they opened their bags, they found their goods had been returned to them, and they said: "Our father, what more can we desire, this is our goods returned to us, so we can get more for our family, and be guardians over our brother, and increase a measure of grain to load a camel. That is truly an easy measure!"
Muhammad Asad	12:65 Thereupon, when they opened their packs, they discovered that their merchandise had been returned to them; [and] they said: "O our father! What more could we desire? Here is our merchandise: it has been returned to us! [If thou send Benjamin with us,] we shall (again) be able to bring food for our family, and shall guard our brother [well], and receive in addition another camel-load of grain ⁶⁴ That [which we have brought the first time] was but a scanty measure."
Rashad Khalifa	12:65 When they opened their bags, they found their goods returned to them. They said, "Our father, what more can we ask for? Here are our goods returned to us. We can thus provide for our family, protect our brother, and receive one more camel-load. This is certainly a profitable deal."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:65 When they opened their packs, they discovered that their barter had been returned to them. (The grand minister, the prophet of God, had paid on their behalf.) They said, "O Our father! What more can we ask? We shall bring food for our family and guard our brother. And we shall have the extra measure of a camel load. The first load we have brought is but scant."
Transliteration	12:65 Walamma fata hoo mat aAAahumwajadoo bi daAAatahum ruddat ilayhim qaloo yaabana ma nabghee hathihi bidaAAatunaruddat ilayna wanameeru ahlan a wanahfathuakhana wanazdadu kayla baAAeerin thalikakaylun yaseerun
A	12:65 ولما فتحوا متعهم وجدوا بضعتهم ردت اليهم قالوا يابانا ما نبغى هذه بضعتنا ردت الينا ونمير اهلنا ونحفظ اخانا ونزداد كيل بعير ذلك كيل يسير
Edip-Layth	12:66 He said, "I will not send him with you until you give me a covenant before God that you will bring him back unless you are completely overtaken." So when they gave him their covenant, he said, "God is a guard over what we say."
	12:66 He said: "I will not send him with you until you come to me with a covenant to God that you will bring him back unless you are completely

The Monotheist Group	overtaken." So when they brought him the covenant, he said: "God is placed in trust over what we say."
Muhammad Asad	12:66 Said [Jacob]: "I will not send him with you until you give me a solemn pledge, before God, that you will indeed bring him back unto me, unless you yourselves be encompassed [by death]!" And when they had given him their solemn pledge, [Jacob] said: "God is witness to all that we say!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:66 He said, "I will not send him with you, unless you give me a solemn pledge before GOD that you will bring him back, unless you are utterly overwhelmed." When they gave him their solemn pledge, he said, "GOD is witnessing everything we say."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:66 Jacob said, "I will not send him with you till you give me a solemn pledge in the name of God, that you will bring him back to me unless you get surrounded (by circumstances beyond control). And when they gave him their solemn pledge, he said, "God is the witnessing Guardian over all we say."
Transliteration	12:66 Qala lan orsilahu maAAakum hattatu/tooni mawthiqan mina All ahi lata/tunnanee bihi illa an yuhata bikum falamma atawhu mawthiqahum qalaAllahu AAala ma naqoolu wakeelun
A	12:66 قال لن ارسله معكم حتى توتون موثقا من الله لتاتننى به الا ان يحاط بكم فلما ءاتوه موثقهم قال الله على ما نقول وكيل
Edip-Layth	Risk Reduction 12:67 He said, "My sons, do not enter from one gate, but enter from separate gates; and I cannot avail you anything against God, for the judgment is to God. In Him I put my trust, and in Him those who put their trust should trust."
The Monotheist Group	12:67 And he said: "My sons, do not enter from one gate, but enter from separate gates; and I cannot avail you anything against God, for the judgment is to God. In Him I put my trust, and in Him those who put their trust should trust."
Muhammad Asad	12:67 And he added: "O my sons! Do not enter [the city all] by one gate, but enter by different gates. ⁶⁵ Yet [even so,] I can be of no avail whatever to you against [anything that may be willed by] God: judgment [as to what is to happen] rests with none but God. In Him have I placed my trust: for, all who have trust [in His existence] must place their trust in Him alone."
Rashad Khalifa	12:67 And he said, "O my sons, do not enter from one door; enter through separate doors. However, I cannot save you from anything that is predetermined by GOD. To GOD belongs all judgments. I trust in Him, and in Him shall all the trusters put their trust."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:67 And he said, "O My sons! Do not enter the town all by one gate, but enter by different gates. Yet, I cannot avail you against the Divine laws. (So, handle all situations accordingly.) Rule and law-giving belongs to God alone. In Him I trust, and everyone must place trust in Him since the Divine laws never change." ¹¹
Transliteration	12:67 Waqala ya baniyya latadkhuloo min babin wahidin waodkhuloo minabwabin mutafarriqatin wama oghnee AAankum mina All ahimin shay-in ini al hukmu ill a lillahiAAalayhi tawakkaltu waAAalayhi falyatawakkali almutawakkiloon a
A	12:67 وقال بينى لا تدخلوا من باب واحد وادخلوا من ابواب متفرقة وما اغنى عنكم من الله من شىء ان الحكم الا لله عليه توكلت وعليه فليتكول المتوكلون
	12:68 When they entered from where their father had commanded them, it would

Edip-Layth	not have availed them in the least against God, but it was out of a concern in Jacob's person. Since We have taught him, he had certain knowledge; but most people do not know. ¹⁴
The Monotheist Group	12:68 And when they entered from where their father had commanded them, it would not have availed them in the least against God, but it was out of a concern in Jacob's soul that he brought out. And he is with knowledge for what We have taught him, but most of the people do not know.
Muhammad Asad	12:68 But although ⁶⁶ they entered [Joseph's city] in the way their father had bidden them, this proved of no avail whatever to them against [the plan of] God ⁶⁷ [His request] had served only to satisfy Jacob's heartfelt desire [to protect them]: ⁶⁸ for, behold, thanks to what We had imparted unto him, he was indeed endowed with the knowledge [that God's will must always prevail ⁶⁹]; but most people know it not.
Rashad Khalifa	Jacob Senses Joseph 12:68 When they went (to Joseph), they entered in accordance with their father's instructions. Although this could not change anything decreed by GOD, Jacob had a private reason for asking them to do this. For he possessed certain knowledge that we taught him, but most people do not know.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:68 When they went, they entered the town as their father instructed. Jacob was quite right that even he (a prophet of God) could not avail them against the Divine laws. It was a duty that he did (giving the correct advice to his sons), although it could not prevent what was to happen (with Benjamin 12:75-81). He was, by Our instruction, full of knowledge. But most people have little knowledge.
Transliteration	12:68 Walamma dakhloo min haythuamarahum aboohum m a kana yughnee AAanhum mina All ahimin shay-in ill a hajatan fee nafsi yaAAaqooba qa dahawa-innahu la thoo AAilmin lim a AAallamn ahuwalakinna akthara a Innasi layaAAalamoona
A	12:68 ولما دخلوا من حيث امرهم ابوهم ما كان يغنى عنهم من الله من شيء الا حاجة في نفس يعقوب قضىها وانه لئو علم لما علمنه ولكن اكثر الناس لا يعلمون
Edip-Layth	12:69 When they entered upon Joseph, he called his brother to himself and said, "I am your brother, so do not be saddened by what they have done."
The Monotheist Group	12:69 And when they entered upon Joseph, he called his brother to himself and said: "I am your brother, so do not be saddened by what they have done."
Muhammad Asad	12:69 AND WHEN [the sons of Jacob] presented themselves before Joseph, he drew his brother [Benjamin] unto himself, saying [to him in secret]: "Behold, I am thy brother! So grieve thou not over their past doings!" ⁷⁰
Rashad Khalifa	Back in Egypt 12:69 When they entered Joseph's place, he brought his brother closer to him and said, "I am your brother; do not be saddened by their actions."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:69 When they met with Joseph, he brought his brother closer to him and said, "I am your brother, do not grieve about what they have been doing to us."
Transliteration	12:69 Walamma dakhloo AAal a yoosufa awa ilayhi akh ahu q ala innee angaakhooka fala tabta-is bima kanoo yaAAamaloona
A	12:69 ولما دخلوا على يوسف ءاوى اليه اخاه قال انى انا اخوك فلا تبتئس بما كانوا يعملون
Joseph Keeps His Brother from the Same Mother

Edip-Layth	12:70 When he furnished them with their provisions, he placed the measuring bowl in his brother's bag. Then a caller cried out: "O you in the caravan, you are thieves!"
The Monotheist Group	12:70 So when he furnished them with their provisions, he placed the measuring bowl in his brother's bag, then a caller cried out: "O you in the caravan, you are thieves!"
Muhammad Asad	12:70 And [later,] when he had provided them with their provisions, he placed the [King's] drinking-cup in his brother's camel-pack. And [as they were leaving the city,] a herald ⁷¹ called out: "O you people of the caravan! Verily, you are thieves!" ⁷²
Rashad Khalifa	Joseph Keeps His Brother 12:70 When he provided them with their provisions, he placed the drinking cup in his brother's bag, then an announcer announced: "The owners of this caravan are thieves."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:70 As the camels were being loaded, one of the brothers hid the drinking-cup into his brother's (Benjamin's) saddlebag. Then a caller cried, "O Camel-riders! You are thieves!" ¹²
Transliteration	12:70 Falamma jahhazahum bijah azihimjaAAala a lssiqayata fee ra hli akheehi thummaaththana mu-aththinun ayyatuhā alAAeerruinnakum lasariqoona
A	12:70 فلما جهزهم بجهازهم جعل السقاية في رحل اخيه ثم اذن موزن اينها العير انكم لسرقون
Edip-Layth	12:71 They said, turning towards them: "What is it you are missing?"
The Monotheist Group	12:71 They said, while coming towards him: "What is it you are missing?"
Muhammad Asad	12:71 Turning towards the herald and his companions, the brothers asked: "What is it that you miss?" ⁷³
Rashad Khalifa	12:71 They said, as they came towards them, "What did you lose?"
Shabbir Ahmed	12:71 They said, coming towards them, "What is it that you have lost?"
Transliteration	12:71 Qaloo waaqbaloo AAalayhim m athatafqidoona
A	12:71 قالوا واقبلوا عليهم ماذا تفقدون
Edip-Layth	12:72 He said, "We are missing the measuring bowl of the King, and whoever finds it shall receive a camel-load; I guarantee this."
The Monotheist Group	12:72 They said: "We are missing the measuring bowl of the King, and for whomever can produce it, we will give a camel's load, and I will be bound by this."
Muhammad Asad	12:72 They answered: "We miss the King's goblet; and he who produces it shall receive a camel-load [of grain as reward]!" And [the herald added:] "I pledge myself to this _ [promise]!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:72 They said, "We lost the king's cup. Anyone who returns it will receive an extra camel-load; I personally guarantee this."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:72 They said, "We have lost the King's cup, and whoever produces it shall have an extra camel-load, and I (the chief royal servant) guarantee that."
	12:72 Qaloo nafqidu suwaAAaalmaliki waliman j aa bihi himlu baAAeerin

Transliteration	waanabihi zaAAeemun
A	12:72 قالوا نفقد صواع الملك ولمن جاء به حمل بعير وانا به زعيم
Edip-Layth	12:73 They said, "By God, you know we did not come to cause corruption in the land, and we are no thieves!"
The Monotheist Group	12:73 They said: "By God, you know we did not come to cause corruption in the land, and we are no thieves!"
Muhammad Asad	12:73 Said [the brothers]: "By God! Well do you know that we have not come to commit deeds of corruption in this land, and that we have not been thieving!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:73 They said, "By GOD, you know full well that we did not come here to commit evil, nor are we thieves."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:73 They explained, "By God! Well you know that we did not come here to create mischief in the land, and we are not thieves."
Transliteration	12:73 Qaloo taAllahi laqadAAalimtum m a ji/n a linuufsida fee al-ar di wam akunna sariqueena
A	12:73 قالوا تالله لقد علمتم ما جئنا لنفسد في الارض وما كنا سارقين
Edip-Layth	12:74 He said, "What shall be the punishment, if you are not truthful?"
The Monotheist Group	12:74 They said: "What shall be the punishment, if you are not truthful?"
Muhammad Asad	12:74 [The Egyptians] said: "But what shall be the requital of this [deed] if you are [proved to be] liars?"
Rashad Khalifa	12:74 They said, "What is the punishment for the thief, if you are liars?"
Shabbir Ahmed	12:74 The callers asked, "What shall be the penalty for it if you prove liars?"
Transliteration	12:74 Qaloo fama jazaohu inkuntum kathibeena
A	12:74 قالوا فما جزوه ان كنتم كذابين
Edip-Layth	12:75 They said, "The punishment is that the person who has it in his bag shall himself be held as penalty. It is such that we punish the wicked."
The Monotheist Group	12:75 They said: "The punishment is that he in whose bags it is found will himself serve as the punishment. It is so that we punish the wicked."
Muhammad Asad	12:75 [The brothers] replied: "Its requital? He in whose camel-pack [the cup] is found-he shall be [enslaved as] a requital thereof! Thus do we [ourselves] requite the doers of [such] wrong.
Rashad Khalifa	12:75 They said, "The punishment, if it is found in his bag, is that the thief belongs to you. We thus punish the guilty."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:75 The brothers replied, "The penalty for it! He in whose bag the cup is found, he shall be the penalty for it. (The thief will become your slave.) Thus we requite the doers of such wrong (in our land)."
Transliteration	12:75 Qaloo jaz aohu man wujida feera hlihi fahuwa jaz aohu ka thalika najzee alththalimeena
A	12:75 قالوا جزوه من وجد في رحله فهو جزوه كذلك نجزي الظلمين

Edip-Layth	12:76 So he began with their bags before his brother's bag. Then he brought it out of his brother's bag. It was such that We planned for Joseph, for he would not have been able to take his brother under the King's system, except that God wished it so. We raise the degrees of whom We please, and over every one of knowledge is the All Knowledgeable. ¹⁵
The Monotheist Group	12:76 So he began with their bags before his brother's bag. Then he brought it out of his brother's bag. It was such that We planned for Joseph, for he would not have been able to take his brother under the King's system, except that God wished it so. We raise the degrees of whom We please, and over every one of knowledge is the All Knowledgeable.
Muhammad Asad	12:76 Thereupon [they were brought before Joseph to be searched; and] he began with the bags of his half-brothers ⁷⁵ before the bag of his brother [Benjamin]: and in the end he brought forth the drinking Cups ⁷⁶ out of his brother's bag. In this way did We contrive for Joseph [the attainment of his heart's desire]: under the King's law, he would [otherwise] not have been able to detain his brother, had not God so willed. We do raise to [high] degrees [of knowledge] whomever We will - but above everyone who is endowed with knowledge there is One who knows all. ⁷⁷
Rashad Khalifa	12:76 He then started by inspecting their containers, before getting to his brother's container, and he extracted it out of his brother's container. We thus perfected the scheme for Joseph; he could not have kept his brother if he applied the king's law. But that was the will of GOD. We exalt whomever we choose to higher ranks. Above every knowledgeable one, there is one who is even more knowledgeable.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:76 They were brought before Joseph for the search. He began with the bags of his half-brothers before the bag of his brother (Benjamin). And finally extracted the cup out of his brother's bag. We thus perfected the plan for Joseph. He could not have detained his brother under the King's law. But that was the will of God. We raise people in ranks according to Our laws. And above every person of knowledge there is One who knows all.
Transliteration	12:76 Fabadaa bi-awAAiyatihim qabla wiAA a-iakheehi thumma istakhrajah a min wiAAa-i akheehi ka thalikakidna liyoosufa m a k ana liya/khu thaakhahu fee deeni almaliki ill a an yash aa All ahunarfaAAu daraj atin man nash ao wafawqa kulli theeAAilmin AAaleemun
A	12:76 فبدا باوعيتهم قبل وعاء اخيه ثم استخرجها من وعاء اخيه كذلك كدنا ليوسف ما كان ليأخذ اخاه في دين الملك الا ان يشاء الله نرفع درجات من نشاء وفوق كل ذي علم عليم
Edip-Layth	12:77 They said, "If he has stolen, there was a brother of his before who also had stolen." Joseph kept this all inside himself, and did not reveal anything to them. He said, "You are in a worse position, and God best knows what you describe."
The Monotheist Group	12:77 They said: "If he has stolen, there was a brother of his before who also had stolen." Joseph kept this all inside himself, and did not reveal anything to them. He said: "You are in an awkward position, and God best knows what you describe."
Muhammad Asad	12:77 [As soon as the cup came to light out of Benjamin's bag, the brothers] exclaimed: "If he has stolen-well, a brother of his used to steal afore-time!" ⁷⁸ Thereupon Joseph said to himself, without revealing his thought to them: ⁷⁹ "You are far worse in this respect, and God is fully aware of what you are saying." ⁸⁰
	12:77 They said, "If he stole, so did a brother of his in the past." Joseph

Rashad Khalifa	concealed his feelings in himself, and did not give them any clue. He said (to himself), "You are really bad. GOD is fully aware of your accusations."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:77 The brothers said, "If he stole, so did his brother in the past." Joseph stayed quiet, revealing nothing. He only said in his heart, "You are in worse case, and God is the Best Knower of what you allege."
Transliteration	12:77 Qaloo in yasriq faqad saraq akhunlahu min qablu faasarraḥ a yoosufu fee nafsihi walam yubdih alahum q ala antum sharrun mak anan wa AllahuaAAalamu bima taṣifoona
A	12:77 قالوا ان يسرق فقد سرق اخ له من قبل فاسرها يوسف في نفسه ولم يبدها لهم قال انتم شر مكانا والله اعلم بما تصفون
Edip-Layth	12:78 They said, "O Governor, he has an elderly father, so take one of us in his place. Indeed we see you as one of the good doers."
The Monotheist Group	12:78 They said: "O Governor, he has an elderly father, so take one of us in his place. Indeed we see you as one of the good doers."
Muhammad Asad	12:78 They said: "O thou great one! Behold, he has a father, a very old man: detain, therefore, one of us in his stead. Verily, we see that thou art a doer of good!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:78 They said, "O you noble one, he has a father who is elderly; would you take one of us in his place? We see that you are a kind man."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:78 They said to Joseph, "O Noble one! He has an aged father, so take one of us instead of him. We see that you are a doer of good."
Transliteration	12:78 Qaloo y a ayyuh aalAAazeezu inna lahu aban shaykhan kabeeran fakhu th aḥadanamakānahu inna naraka mina almuḥsineena
A	12:78 قالوا ياايها العزيز ان له ابا شيخا كبيرا فخذ احدا مكانه انا نرىك من المحسنين
Edip-Layth	12:79 He said, "God forbid that we would take anyone except he whom we found our belongings with. Indeed, we would then be wrong doers."
The Monotheist Group	12:79 He said: "God forbid that we would take anyone except he whom we found our belongings with. Indeed, we would then be wrong doers."
Muhammad Asad	12:79 He answered: "May God preserve us from [the sin of] detaining any other than him with whom we have found our property-for then, behold, we would indeed be evildoers!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:79 He said, "GOD forbid that we should take other than the one in whose possession we found our goods. Otherwise, we would be unjust."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:79 He answered, "God save us from detaining other than the one with whom we found our goods. Otherwise, we would be unjust."
Transliteration	12:79 Qala maAAatha Allahi anna/khuṭha illa man wajadn a mat aAAanaAAindahu inna ithan laṭhalimoona
A	12:79 قال معاذ الله ان نأخذ الا من وجدنا متعنا عنده انا اذا لظلمون
Edip-Layth	12:80 So when they gave up from him, they held a conference in private. The eldest of them said, "Did you not know that your father has taken a covenant from you before God, and the past, you also failed in your duty with Joseph? I will not leave this land until my father permits me to do so or that God will judge for me. He is the best of judges."

The Monotheist Group	12:80 So when they gave-up from him, they held a conference in private. The eldest of them said: "Did you not know that your father has taken a covenant over you with God, and before this you also failed in your duty with Joseph? I will not leave this land until my father permits me to do so or that God will judge for me. He is the best of judges."
Muhammad Asad	12:80 And so, when they lost all hope of [moving] him, they withdrew to take counsel [among themselves]. The eldest of them said: "Do you not remember ⁸¹ that your father has bound you by a solemn pledge before God - and how, before that, you had failed with regard to Joseph? Hence, I shall not depart from this land till my father gives me leave or God passes judgment in my favour: ⁸² for He is the best of all judges."
Rashad Khalifa	12:80 When they despaired of changing his mind, they conferred together. Their eldest said, "Do you realize that your father has taken a solemn pledge from you before GOD? In the past you lost Joseph. I am not leaving this place until my father gives me permission, or until GOD judges for me; He is the best Judge."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:80 So, when they lost hope, they conferred in private. The eldest among them said, "Do you not know that your father took a solemn pledge from you in God's name, and how you failed in the case of Joseph before? I shall not go from this place until my father gives leave or God judges for me. He is the Best of deciders."
Transliteration	12:80 Falamma istay-asoo minhu khala soonajiyyan q ala kabeeruhum alam taAAalamoo anna ab akumqad akha tha AAalaykum mawthiqan mina All ahi waminqablu m a farra ttum fee yoosufa falan abra haal-arda hatta ya/ thana lee abee aw yahkumaAllahu lee wahuwa khayru alhakimeena
A	12:80 فلما استيسوا منه خلصوا نجيا قال كبيرهم الم تعلموا ان اباكم قد اخذ عليكم موثقا من الله ومن قبل ما فرطتم في يوسف فلن ابرح الارض حتى ياذن لي ابي او يحكم الله لي وهو خير الحكمين
Edip-Layth	12:81 "Return to your father, and tell him: "Our father, your son has stolen, and we did not witness except what we learned, and we could not know the unseen!"
The Monotheist Group	12:81 "Return to your father, and tell him: "Our father, your son has stolen, and we did not witness except what we learned, and we could not know the unseen!"
Muhammad Asad	12:81 [And as for you others,] return to your father and say: `O our father! Behold, thy son has stolen-but we [can] bear witness to no more than what has become known to us; ⁸³ and [although we gave you our pledge,] we could not guard against something that [lay hidden in the future and, hence,] was beyond the reach of our perception. ⁸⁴
Rashad Khalifa	12:81 "Go back to your father and tell him..."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:81 (He told the rest of the brothers), "Return to your father and say, 'O Our father! Surely, your son has stolen. We know for sure, because we witnessed it. That was something beyond our knowledge and control."
Transliteration	12:81 IrjiAAoo il a abeekum faqooloo y aabana inna ibnaka saraqam a shahidnailla bima AAalimna wama kunnalilghaybi hafitheena
A	12:81 ارجعوا الى ابيكم فقولوا يابانا ان ابنك سرق وما شهدنا الا بما علمنا وما كنا للغيب حفظين
Edip-Layth	12:82 "Ask the people of the town which we were in, and the caravan which we have returned with. We are being truthful."

The Monotheist Group	12:82 "And ask the people of the town which we were in, and the caravan which we have returned with. We are being truthful."
Muhammad Asad	12:82 And ask thou in the town in which we were [at the time], and of the people of the caravan with whom we travelled hither, and [thou wilt find that] we, are indeed telling the truth!"
Rashad Khalifa	Back In Palestine 12:82 `You may ask the community where we were, and the caravan that came back with us. We are telling the truth.' "
Shabbir Ahmed	12:82 Ask the township where we were, and the caravan we came with. We are certainly telling the truth."
Transliteration	12:82 Wais-ali alqaryata allatee kunn afeeha wa alAAeera allatee aqbaln a feehawa-inna laṣadiqoona
A	12:82 وسل القرية التي كنا فيها والغير التي اقبلنا فيها وانا لصدقون
Edip-Layth	12:83 He replied: "No, you lured yourself to commit this work. So patience is good; perhaps God will bring them all to me. He is the Knowledgeable, the Wise." ¹⁶
The Monotheist Group	12:83 He replied: "No, for it is your own souls that have conspired you to this. So patience is most fitting, perhaps God will bring them all to me. He is the Knowledgeable, the Wise."
Muhammad Asad	12:83 [AND WHEN they returned to their father and told him what had happened,] he exclaimed: "Nay, but it is your [own] minds that have made [so terrible] a happening seem a matter of little account to you! But [as for myself,] patience in adversity is most goodly; God may well bring them all [back] unto me: ⁸⁵ verily, He alone is all-knowing, truly wise!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:83 He said, "Indeed, you have conspired to carry out a certain scheme. Quiet patience is my only recourse. May GOD bring them all back to me. He is the Omniscient, Most Wise."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:83 Jacob said, "Nay, you have made up yet another story good enough only for you. But I resort to decent forbearance. May God bring them all to me! Surely, He, only He, is the Knower, the Wise."
Transliteration	12:83 Qala bal sawwalat lakum anfusukumamran fa sabrun jameelun AAas a Allahu anya/tiyanee bihim jameeAAan innahu huwa alAAaleemu alḥakeemu
A	12:83 قال بل سولت لكم انفسكم امرا فصبر جميل عسى الله ان ياتينى بهم جميعا انه هو العليم الحكيم
Edip-Layth	Father is Stricken With Psychosomatic Blindness 12:84 He turned away from them and said, "Oh, my grief over Joseph." His eyes turned white from sadness, and he became blind.
The Monotheist Group	12:84 And he turned away from them and said: "Oh, my sorry over Joseph." And his eyes turned white from sadness, and he became blind.
Muhammad Asad	12:84 But he turned away from them and said: "O woe is me for Joseph!"-and his eyes became dim ⁸⁶ from the grief with which he was filled.
Rashad Khalifa	12:84 He turned away from them, saying, "I am grieving over Joseph." His eyes turned white from grieving so much; he was truly sad.

Shabbir Ahmed	12:84 Then Jacob turned away from them saying, "Alas, my grief for Joseph!" His eyes glistened with tears but he suppressed his grief." ¹³
Transliteration	12:84 Watawallā AAanhum waq āla y āasafa AAal ā yoosufa wa ibyadḍat AAaynāhumina alḥuzni fahuwa ka ^{theemun}
A	12:84 وتولى عنهم وقال ياسفى على يوسف وابيضت عيناه من الحزن فهو كظيم
Edip-Layth	12:85 They said, "By God, will you never cease to remember Joseph until you become ill or you are dead!"
The Monotheist Group	12:85 They said: "By God, will you never cease to remember Joseph until you become senile or you are dead!"
Muhammad Asad	12:85 Said [his sons]: "By God! Thou wilt never cease to remember, Joseph till thou art broken in body and spirit or art dead!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:85 They said, "By GOD, you will keep on grieving over Joseph until you become ill, or until you die."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:85 His sons said, "By God! You will never cease remembering Joseph until your health is ruined or you perish."
Transliteration	12:85 Qaloo taAllāhi taftaota th kuru yoosufa ḥatta takoona ḥaradānaw takoona mina alḥalikeena
A	12:85 قالوا تالله تفتوا تذكر يوسف حتى تكون حرضا او تكون من الهلكين
Edip-Layth	12:86 He said, "I merely complain my grief and sorrow to God, and I know from God what you do not know."
The Monotheist Group	12:86 He said: "I merely complain my grief and sorrow to God, and I know from God what you do not know."
Muhammad Asad	12:86 He answered: "It is only to God that I complain of my deep grief and my sorrow: for I know, from God, something that you do not know." ⁸⁷
Rashad Khalifa	12:86 He said, "I simply complain to GOD about my dilemma and grief, for I know from GOD what you do not know."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:86 He said, "I present my distress and anguish only to God and I know from God what you know not."
Transliteration	12:86 Qala inna ^{ma} ashkoo baththee wa ḥuzneeila Allāhi waaAAlamu mina All āhi ma lātaAAlamoona
A	12:86 قال انما اشكوا بثى وحزنى الى الله واعلم من الله ما لا تعلمون
Edip-Layth	12:87 "My sons, go and inquire about Joseph and his brother, and do not give up from God's Spirit. The only people who would give up from God's Spirit are the ingrates of acknowledgment." ¹⁷
The Monotheist Group	12:87 "My sons, go and inquire about Joseph and his brother, and do not give-up from God's Spirit. The only people who would give-up from God's Spirit are the rejecters of faith."
Muhammad Asad	12:87 [Hence,] O my sons, go forth and try to obtain some tidings of Joseph and his brother; and do not lose hope of God's life-giving mercy: ⁸⁸ verily, none but people who deny the truth can ever lose hope of God's life-giving mercy.

Rashad Khalifa	12:87 "O my sons, go fetch Joseph and his brother, and never despair of GOD's grace. None despairs of GOD's grace except the disbelieving people."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:87 "O My sons! Go and find Joseph and his brother and never despair of the soothing mercy of God. None but the disbelievers (in His Attributes) despair of the soothing mercy of God."
Transliteration	12:87 Ya baniyya i thhaboo fata hassasoomin yoosufa waakheehi wal a tay-asoo min rawhi Allahiinnahu la yay-asu min rawhi Allahi illa alqawmu alkaifiroona
A	12:87 بينى اذهبوا فتحسسوا من يوسف واخيه ولا تاييسوا من روح الله انه لا ياييس من روح الله الا القوم الكفرون
Edip-Layth	The Family Secret is Unveiled 12:88 So when they entered upon him, they said, "O Governor, we have been afflicted with harm, us and our family, and we have come with poor goods to trade, so give us a measure of grain, and be charitable towards us, for God does reward the charitable."
The Monotheist Group	12:88 So when they entered upon him, they said: "O Governor, we have been afflicted with harm, us and our family, and we have come with poor goods to trade, so give us a measure of grain, and be charitable towards us, for God does reward the charitable."
Muhammad Asad	12:88 [AND THE SONS of Jacob went back to Egypt and to Joseph;] and when they presented themselves before him, they said: "O thou great one! Hardship has visited us and our folk, and so we have brought but scanty merchandise; 89 but give us a full measure [of grain], and be charitable to us: behold, God rewards those who give in charity!"
Rashad Khalifa	Israel Goes to Egypt 12:88 When they entered (Joseph's) quarters, they said, "O you noble one, we have suffered a lot of hardship, along with our family, and we have brought inferior goods. But we hope that you will give us full measure and be charitable to us. GOD rewards the charitable."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:88 When they came before Joseph, they said, "O Noble one! We have suffered a lot of hardship along with our family. We bring only inferior barter to pay. So give us the full measure, and be charitable to us. God rewards the charitable."
Transliteration	12:88 Falamma dakhloo AAalayhi q alooya ayyuh a alAAazeezu massan a waahlana alddurru waji/n a bibi daAAatin muzjatinfawfi lan a al kayla wata saddaq AAalayna innaAllaha yajzee almutasaddiqeena
A	12:88 فلما دخلوا عليه قالوا يا ايها العزيز مسنا واهلنا الضر وجئنا ببضعة مزجة فواف لنا الكيل وتصدق علينا ان الله يجزى المتصدقين
Edip-Layth	12:89 He said, "Do you know what you have done with Joseph and his brother, during your ignorance?"
The Monotheist Group	12:89 He said: "Do you know what you have done with Joseph and his brother, while you are ignorant?"
Muhammad Asad	12:89 Replied he: "Do you remember 90 what you did to Joseph and his brother when you were still unaware [of right and wrong]?" 91
Rashad Khalifa	12:89 He said, "Do you recall what you did to Joseph and his brother when you were ignorant?"
	12:89 As he granted the request, Joseph said, "Do you remember what you did to Shabbir Ahmed	Joseph and his brother in your ignorance?"

Transliteration	12:89 Qala hal AAalimtum mafaAAaltum biyoosufa waakheehi ith antum jahiloona
A	12:89 قال هل علمتم ما فعلتم بيوسف واخيه اذ انتم جهلون
Edip-Layth	12:90 They said, "Are you indeed Joseph?" He said, "I am Joseph, and this is my brother. God has been gracious to us. For anyone who reveres and is patient, then God will not waste the reward of the good doers."
The Monotheist Group	12:90 They said: "Are you indeed Joseph?" He said: "I am Joseph, and this is my brother. God has been gracious to us. For anyone who reveres and is patient, then God will not waste the reward of the good doers."
Muhammad Asad	12:90 They exclaimed: "Why - is it indeed thou who art Joseph?" He answered: "I am Joseph, and this is my brother. God has indeed been gracious unto us. Verily, if one is ⁹² conscious of Him and patient in adversity behold, God does not fail to requite the doers of good!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:90 They said, "You must be Joseph." He said, "I am Joseph, and here is my brother. GOD has blessed us. That is because if one leads a righteous life, and steadfastly perseveres, GOD never fails to reward the righteous."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:90 They exclaimed, "What? Is it really you who are Joseph?" He answered, "I am Joseph and this is my brother. God has been Gracious to us. Surely, if one empowers himself against evil, and is steadfast, God never loses the reward of such doers of good."
Transliteration	12:90 Qaloo a-innaka laanta yoosufa qalaana yoosufu wahatha akhee qad manna AllahuAAalayna innahu man yattaqi waya sbir fa-inna All ahala yu deeAAu ajra almuhsineena
A	12:90 قالوا اءنك لانت يوسف قال انا يوسف وهذا اخى قد من الله علينا انه من يتق ويصبر فان الله لا يضيع اجر المحسنين
Edip-Layth	12:91 They said, "By God, God has indeed preferred you over us and we were wrongdoers."
The Monotheist Group	12:91 They said: "By God, God has indeed preferred you over us and we were wrongdoers."
Muhammad Asad	12:91 [The brothers] said: "By God! Most certainly has God raised thee high above us, and we were indeed but sinners!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:91 They said, "By GOD, GOD has truly preferred you over us. We were definitely wrong."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:91 They said, "By God! Certainly, God has exalted you above us, and we were at fault."
Transliteration	12:91 Qaloo taAllahi laqad atharakaAllahu AAalayna wa-in kunna lakhati-eena
A	12:91 قالوا تالله لقد ءاثرك الله علينا وان كنا لخطين
Edip-Layth	12:92 He said, "There is no blame on you this day, may God forgive you, and He is the most Compassionate of those who show compassion." ¹⁸
The Monotheist Group	12:92 He said: "There is no blame on you this day, may God forgive you, and He is the Most Merciful of those who show mercy."

Muhammad Asad	12:92 Said he: "No reproach shall be uttered today against you. May God forgive you your sins: for He is the most merciful of the merciful!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:92 He said, "There is no blame upon you today. May GOD forgive you. Of all the merciful ones, He is the Most Merciful."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:92 Joseph said, "There is no blame on you this day! May God forgive you, and He is the Most Merciful of the merciful."
Transliteration	12:92 Qala l a tathreeba AAalaykumualyawma yaghfiru All ahu lakum wahuwa arhamu alrrahimeena
A	12:92 قال لا تثريب عليكم اليوم يغفر الله لكم وهو ارحم الرحمين
Edip-Layth	12:93 "Take this shirt of mine and cast it over my fathers face, and he will become with sight; and bring to me all your family."
The Monotheist Group	12:93 "Take this shirt of mine and cast it over my fathers face, and he will become with sight; and bring to me all your family."
Muhammad Asad	12:93 [And now] go and take this tunic of mine and lay it over my father's face, and he will recover his sight. ⁹³ And thereupon come [back] to me with all your family."
Rashad Khalifa	12:93 "Take this shirt of mine; when you throw it on my father's face, his vision will be restored. Bring your whole family and come back to me."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:93 Now, go and take this royal shirt of mine and show it to my father. He will see the reality of things. Then, bring all your family to me.
Transliteration	12:93 Ithhaboo biqamee see h athafaalqoohu AAal a wajhi abee ya/ti ba seeran wa/tooneebi-ahlikum ajmaAAeena
A	12:93 اذهبوا بقميصي هذا فالقوه على وجه ابي يات بصيرا واتوني باهلكم اجمعين
Edip-Layth	12:94 When the caravan departed, their father said, "I do indeed feel the scent of Joseph, except that you may think me senile."
The Monotheist Group	12:94 And when the caravan departed, their father said: "I do indeed feel the scent of Joseph, except that you may think me senile."
Muhammad Asad	12:94 AND AS SOON as the caravan [with which Jacob's sons were travelling] was on its way, ⁹⁴ their father said [to the people around him]: "Behold, were it not that you might consider me a dotard, [I would say that] I truly feel the breath of Joseph [in the air]!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:94 Even before the caravan arrived, their father said, "I can sense the smell of Joseph. Will someone enlighten me?"
Shabbir Ahmed	12:94 As soon as the caravan departed from Egypt, their father (Jacob) began telling his neighbors in Can'aan about the revelation that his son Joseph was in a position of high authority. "I do scent the presence of Joseph even though you may call me senile."
Transliteration	12:94 Walamma fasalati alAAeeru qalaaboohum innee laajidu ree ha yoosufa lawla antufannidooni
A	12:94 ولما فصلت العير قال ابوهم اني لاجد ريح يوسف لولا ان تفننون
Edip-Layth	12:95 People said, "By God, you are back to your old misguidance."

The Monotheist Group	12:95 They said: "By God, you are back to your old misguidance."
Muhammad Asad	12:95 They answered: "By God! Thou art indeed still lost in thy old aberration!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:95 They said, "By GOD, you are still in your old confusion."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:95 They said, "By God! You are still in your old confusion."
Transliteration	12:95 Qaloo taAllahi innakalafee dalalika alqadeemi
A	12:95 قالوا تالله انك لفي ضللك القديم
Edip-Layth	12:96 Then, when the bearer of good news came, he cast it over his face and he returned clear with sight. He said, "Did I not tell you that I know from God what you do not know?"
The Monotheist Group	12:96 Then, when the bearer of good news came, he cast it over his face and he returned clear with sight. He said: "Did I not tell you that I know from God what you do not know?"
Muhammad Asad	12:96 But when the bearer of good tidings came [with Joseph's tunic], he laid it over his face; and he regained his sight, [and] exclaimed: "Did I not tell you, `Verily, I know, from God, something that you do not know?'" 95
Rashad Khalifa	12:96 When the bearer of good news arrived, he threw (the shirt) on his face, whereupon his vision was restored. He said, "Did I not tell you that I knew from GOD what you did not know?"
Shabbir Ahmed	12:96 The caravan arrived in Can'aan and the good news was given to Jacob. When Joseph's royal shirt was shown to Jacob, he was delighted and his eyes saw the reality. He said, "Didn't I tell you that I know from God what you do not know?"
Transliteration	12:96 Famma an j aa albasheeru alq ahuAAala wajhihi fa irtadda ba seeran qalaalam aqul lakum innee aAAalamu mina Allahi ma lataAAalamoona
A	12:96 فلما ان جاء البشير القه على وجهه فارتد بصيرا قال الم اقل لكم انى اعلم من الله ما لا تعلمون
Edip-Layth	12:97 They said, "Our father, ask forgiveness for our sins, indeed we have been wrong."
The Monotheist Group	12:97 They said: "Our father, ask forgiveness for our sins, indeed we have been wrong."
Muhammad Asad	12:97 [His sons] answered: "O our father! Ask God to forgive us our sins, for, verily, we were sinners."
Rashad Khalifa	12:97 They said, "Our father, pray for our forgiveness; we were wrong indeed."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:97 They said, "O Our father! Ask forgiveness for us, for we trailed behind in your obedience, we were at fault."
Transliteration	12:97 Qaloo ya abanaistaghfir lana thunoobana inna kunnakhati-eena
A	12:97 قالوا يابانا استغفر لنا ذنوبنا انا كنا خطين
Edip-Layth	12:98 He said, "I will ask forgiveness for you from my Lord, He is the Forgiving, the Compassionate." 19
	12:98 He said: "I will ask forgiveness for you from my Lord, He is the Forgiving,

The Monotheist Group	the Merciful."
Muhammad Asad	12:98 He said: "I shall ask my Sustainer to forgive you: He alone is truly forgiving, a true dispenser of grace!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:98 He said, "I will implore my Lord to forgive you; He is the Forgiver, Most Merciful."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:98 Jacob answered, "I shall ask forgiveness for you from my Sustainer. Surely, He is Forgiving, Merciful."
Transliteration	12:98 Qala sawfa astaghfiru lakum rabbeeinnahu huwa alghafooru a Irraheemu
A	12:98 قال سوف استغفر لكم ربى انه هو الغفور الرحيم
Edip-Layth	Dream is Fulfilled; Family Reunion in Egypt 12:99 Then, when they entered upon Joseph, he took his parents to him and he said, "Enter Egypt, God willing, in security."
The Monotheist Group	12:99 So when they entered upon Joseph, he took his parents to him and he said: "Enter Egypt, God willing, in security."
Muhammad Asad	12:99 AND WHEN they [all arrived in Egypt and] presented themselves before Joseph, he drew his parents unto himself, ⁹⁶ saying, "Enter Egypt! If God so wills, you shall be secure [from all evil]!"
Rashad Khalifa	In Egypt 12:99 When they entered Joseph's quarters, he embraced his parents, saying, "Welcome to Egypt. GOD willing, you will be safe here."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:99 And when they came in before Joseph, he respectfully greeted his parents, "Welcome to Egypt! God willing, you will be in safety and peace here."
Transliteration	12:99 Falamma dakhaloo AAal a yoosufa awa ilayhi abawayhi waq ala odkhuloo misrain shaa Allahu amineena
A	12:99 فلما دخلوا على يوسف ءاوى اليه ابويه وقال ادخلوا مصر ان شاء الله ءامنين
Edip-Layth	12:100 He raised his parents on the throne, and all fell in prostration before Him. He said, "My father, this is the interpretation of my old dream. My Lord has made it true, and He has been good to me that he took me out of prison and brought you out of the wilderness after the devil had placed a rift between me and my brothers. My Lord is kind to whom He wills. He is the Knowledgeable, the Wise."
The Monotheist Group	12:100 And he raised his parents on the throne, and they fell in prostration to Him. And he said: "My father, this is the interpretation of my vision from before. My Lord has made it true, and He has been good to me that he took me out of prison and brought you out of the wilderness after the devil had placed a rift between me and my brothers. My Lord is kind to whom He wills. He is the Knowledgeable, the Wise."
Muhammad Asad	12:100 And he raised his parents to the highest place of honour; ⁹⁷ and they [all] fell down before Him, prostrating themselves in adoration. ⁹⁸ Thereupon [Joseph] said: "O my father! This is the real meaning of my dream of long ago, which my Sustainer has made come true. ⁹⁹ And He was indeed good to me when He freed me from the prison, and [when] He brought you [all unto me] from the desert after Satan had sown discord between me and my brothers. Verily, my Sustainer is unfathomable in [the way He brings about] whatever He wills: ¹⁰⁰ verily, He alone is all-knowing, truly wise!

Rashad Khalifa	12:100 He raised his parents upon the throne. They fell prostrate before him. He said, "O my father, this is the fulfillment of my old dream. My Lord has made it come true. He has blessed me, delivered me from the prison, and brought you from the desert, after the devil had driven a wedge between me and my brothers. My Lord is Most Kind towards whomever He wills. He is the Knower, the Most Wise."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:100 He raised his parents upon the throne of honor. All those present bowed to him in respect (To let his parents see the honor God had given their son) Joseph said, "O My father! This is how my Lord has made my dream come true. He has been very kind to me, since He freed me from the prison, and He has brought you here from the village. Satan (selfishness of my brothers) had sown enmity between us brothers. Surely, my Lord is Unfathomable in how He implements His laws. He is the Knower, the Wise."
Transliteration	12:100 WarafaAAa abawayhi AAal a alAAarshiwakharroo lahu sujjadan waq ala ya abati h athata/weelu ru/y aya min qablu qad jaAAalah a rabbee haqqanwaqad ahsana bee ith akhrajane min a lssijniwajaa bikum mina albadwi min baAAadi an nazagha alshshaytanubaynee wabayna ikhwatee inna rabbee la teefun limayashao innahu huwa alAAaleemu alhakeemu
A	12:100 ورفع ابويه على العرش وخرجوا له سجدا وقال يا بئ هذا تاويل ربي من قبل قد جعلها ربي حقا وقد احسن بي اذ اخرجني من السجن وجاء بكم من البدو من بعد ان نزغ الشيطان بيني وبين اخوتي ان ربي لطيف لما يشاء انه هو العليم الحكيم
Edip-Layth	12:101 "My Lord, you have given me sovereignty and taught me the interpretations of events and utterances. Initiator of the heavens and earth, you are my protector in this world and the Hereafter. Take me as one who has peacefully surrendered, and join me with the good doers."
The Monotheist Group	12:101 "My Lord, You have given me sovereignty and taught me the interpretations of what is narrated. Initiator of the heavens and Earth, You are my protector in this world and the Hereafter. Let me die as one who has submitted, and join me with the good doers."
Muhammad Asad	12:101 "O my Sustainer! Thou hast indeed bestowed upon me something of power, 101 and hast imparted unto me some knowledge of the inner meaning of happenings. 102 Originator of the heavens and the earth! Thou art near unto me in this world and in the life to come: let me die as one who has surrendered himself unto Thee, and make me one with the righteous!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:101 "My Lord, You have given me kingship and taught me the interpretation of dreams. Initiator of the heavens and the earth; You are my Lord and Master in this life and in the Hereafter. Let me die as a submitter, and count me with the righteous."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:101 Then, Joseph prayed, "O My Lord! You have bestowed upon me some power, and have imparted to me the insight into events. Originator of the heavens and earth! You are my Protecting Friend in the world and the Hereafter. Help me remain committed to your commands till the last breath, and be counted among those who help increase human potential."
Transliteration	12:101 Rabbi qad ataytane min almulkiwaAAallamtane min ta/weeli al-ahadeethi f atira a lssamawatiwaal-ardi anta waliyyee fee a lddunyaawaal-akhirati tawaffanee musliman waalhiqueebialssaliheena
A	12:101 رب قد آتيتني من الملك وعلمتني من تاويل الاحاديث فاطر السموت والارض انت ولي في الدنيا والءاخرة توفي مسلما والحقني بالصلحين

Edip-Layth	12:102 That is from the news of the unseen that We inspire to you. You were not amongst them when they arranged their plan and were scheming.
The Monotheist Group	12:102 That is from the news of the unseen that We inspire to you. You were not amongst them when they arranged their plan and were scheming.
Muhammad Asad	12:102 THIS ACCOUNT of something that was beyond the reach of thy perception We [now] reveal unto thee, [O Prophet:] for thou wert not with Joseph's brothers ¹⁰³ when they resolved upon what they were going to do and wove their schemes [against him].
Rashad Khalifa	12:102 This is news from the past that we reveal to you. You were not present when they made their unanimous decision (to throw Joseph in the well), as they conspired together.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:102 (O Prophet Muhammad) These are the chapters of the Unseen (history) that We reveal to you. You were not there when the brothers of Joseph decided together and were making their schemes.
Transliteration	12:102 Tha lika min anb a -i alghaybinoo he ehi ilayka wam a kunta ladayhim i th ajmaAAoo amrahum wahum yamkuroon a
A	12:102 ذَلِكَ مِنْ أَنْبَاءِ الْغَيْبِ نُوحِيهِ إِلَيْكَ وَمَا كُنْتَ لَدَيْهِمْ إِذْ اجْتَمَعُوا أَمْرَهُمْ وَهُمْ يَمْكُرُونَ
Edip-Layth	Majority of People are Unappreciative 12:103 Most people will not acknowledge, even if you wish eagerly.
The Monotheist Group	12:103 And most of the people, even if you are diligent, will not believe.
Muhammad Asad	12:103 Yet - however strongly thou mayest desire it -most people will not believe [in this revelation],
Rashad Khalifa	12:103 Most people, no matter what you do, will not believe.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:103 (Although you narrated the accurate account of Joseph as they demanded), most of these people will not believe even as you compassionately so desire.
Transliteration	12:103 Wama a aktharu alInnasiwalaw ha raṣṭa bimu/mineena a
A	12:103 وَمَا أَكْثَرُ النَّاسِ وَلَوْ حَرَصْتَ بِمُؤْمِنِينَ
Edip-Layth	12:104 Though you do not ask them for a wage for it; it is but a reminder to the worlds.
The Monotheist Group	12:104 And you do not ask them for a wage for it, it is but a reminder to the worlds.
Muhammad Asad	12:104 although thou dost not ask of them any reward for it: it is but [God's] reminder unto all mankind.
Rashad Khalifa	12:104 You are not asking them for any money; you simply deliver this reminder for all the people.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:104 Although you ask them no reward for it. It is but a reminder for the worlds.
Transliteration	12:104 Wama a tas-aluhum AAalayhi min ajrinin huwa ill a th ikrun lilAAa l ameena a
A	12:104 وَمَا تَسْأَلُهُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ أَجْرٍ إِنْ هُوَ إِلَّا ذِكْرٌ لِلْعَالَمِينَ
	12:105 How many a sign in the heavens and the earth do they pass by, while

Edip-Layth	they are turning away from it.
The Monotheist Group	12:105 And how many a sign in the heavens and the Earth do they pass by, while they are turning away from it.
Muhammad Asad	12:105 But [then] -how many a sign is there in the heavens and on earth which they pass by [unthinkingly], and on which they turn their backs!
Rashad Khalifa	12:105 So many proofs in the heavens and the earth are given to them, but they pass by them, heedlessly!
Shabbir Ahmed	12:105 How many a sign there is in the heavens and earth which they pass by with their faces turned away (without paying attention)!
Transliteration	12:105 Wakaayyin min ayatin fee a Issamawatiwaal-ardi yamurroona AAalayh a wahum AAanhamuAAaridoona
A	12:105 وكاين من آاية فى السموت والارض يمرون عليها وهم عنها معرضون
Edip-Layth	12:106 Most of them will not acknowledge God without setting up partners.
The Monotheist Group	12:106 And most of them will not believe in God except while setting-up partners.
Muhammad Asad	12:106 And most of them do not even believe in God without [also] ascribing divine powers to other beings beside Him.
Rashad Khalifa	The Majority of Believers Destined for Hell 12:106 The majority of those who believe in GOD do not do so without committing idol worship.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:106 The majority of those who believe in God, do not do so without committing idol worship (in different forms). ¹⁴
Transliteration	12:106 Wama yu/minu aktharuhum biAllahiilla wahum mushrikoon a
A	12:106 وما يؤمن اكثرهم بالله الا وهم مشركون
Edip-Layth	12:107 Are they secure against the coming of a cover of retribution from God, or that the moment would come to them suddenly while they do not perceive?
The Monotheist Group	12:107 Are they secure against the coming of a cover of retribution from God, or that the Hour would come to them suddenly while they do not perceive?
Muhammad Asad	12:107 Do they, then, feel free from the fear that there might fall upon them the overwhelming terror of God's chastisement, or that the Last Hour might come upon them of a sudden, without their being aware [of its approach]?
Rashad Khalifa	12:107 Have they guaranteed that an overwhelming retribution from GOD will not strike them, or the Hour will not come to them suddenly, when they least expect it?
Shabbir Ahmed	12:107 Do they deem themselves secure from the overwhelming requital of God, or the coming of the Hour all of a sudden while they do not perceive?
Transliteration	12:107 Afaaminoo an ta/tiyahum ghashiyatunmin AAathabi Allahi aw ta/tiyahumu alssaAAatubaghtatan wahum la yashAAuroona
A	12:107 افامنوا ان تاتيهم غشية من عذاب الله او تاتيهم الساعة بغتة وهم لا يشعرون
Edip-Layth	12:108 Say, "This is my way, I invite to God in full disclosure, myself and whoever follows me. Glory be to God. I am not of those who set up partners."

The Monotheist Group	12:108 Say: "This is my way, I invite to God in full disclosure, myself and whomever follows me. And glory be to God. And I am not of those who set up partners."
Muhammad Asad	12:108 Say [O Prophet]: "This is my way: Resting upon conscious insight accessible to reason, I am calling [you all] unto God ¹⁰⁴ - I and they who follow me." And [say:] "Limitless is God in His glory; and I am not one of those who ascribe divinity to aught beside Him!"
Rashad Khalifa	12:108 Say, "This is my path: I invite to GOD, on the basis of a clear proof, and so do those who follow me. GOD be glorified. I am not an idol worshiper."
Shabbir Ahmed	12:108 Say (O Prophet!), "This is my way. Resting my call upon reason, I am calling you all to God, I and those who follow me." glory to God! And I am not one of those who ascribe divinity in any form besides Him." ¹⁵
Transliteration	12:108 Qul h a thihi sabeelee adAAoo il a Alla h i AAal a ba s eeratin an a wamaniittabaAAanee wasub h ana Alla h i wama a na m ina almushrikeena
A	12:108 قل هذه سبيلي ادعوا الى الله على بصيرة انا ومن اتبعنى وسبحن الله وما انا من المشركين
Edip-Layth	12:109 We have not sent before you except men, to whom We gave inspiration, from the people of the towns. Would they not roam the earth and see what the punishment of those before them was? The abode of the Hereafter is far better for those who are aware. Do you not reason? ²⁰
The Monotheist Group	12:109 And We have not sent before you except men, to whom We gave inspiration, from the people of the towns. Would they not roam the Earth and see how was the punishment of those before them? And the abode of the Hereafter is far better for those who are aware. Do you not comprehend?
Muhammad Asad	12:109 And [even] before thy time, We never sent [as Our apostles] any but [mortal] men, whom We inspired, [and whom We always chose] from among the people of the [very] communities [to whom the message was to be brought]. ¹⁰⁵ Have, then, they [who reject this divine writ] never journeyed about the earth and beheld what happened in the end to those [deniers of the truth] who lived before them?-and [do they not know that] to those who are conscious of God the life in the hereafter is indeed better [than this world]? Will they not, then, use their reason?
Rashad Khalifa	12:109 We did not send before you except men whom we inspired, chosen from the people of various communities. Did they not roam the earth and see the consequences for those before them? The abode of the Hereafter is far better for those who lead a righteous life. Would you then understand?
Shabbir Ahmed	12:109 And even before you, We sent none but men (as messengers) to whom We revealed Our messages - (Men) chosen from the people of the townships. Have they then never journeyed about the earth to see what happened in the end to those who lived before them? But the home of the Hereafter is best for those who live upright. Will you not then, use reason?
Transliteration	12:109 Wama a rsaln a min qabluka ill a rija l an noo h ee ilayhim min ahli alqura a alam yaseeroo fee al-ar d i fayan t hurookayfa k a na AA a qibatu alla t heena min qablihimwalad a ru al- a khirati khayrun lilla t heenaittaqaw afala t aAAqiloon a
A	12:109 وما ارسلنا من قبلك الا رجالا نوحى اليهم من اهل القرى افلم يسيروا فى الارض فينظروا كيف كان عقبة الذين من قبلهم ولدار الءاخرة خير للذين اتقوا افلا تعقلون

Edip-Layth	12:110 Then, when the messengers gave up, and they thought that they have been denied, Our victory came to them. We then save whom We wish, and Our punishment cannot be swayed from the wicked people.
The Monotheist Group	12:110 Then, when the messengers gave up, and they thought that they have been denied, Our victory came to them. We then save whom We wish, and Our punishment cannot be swayed from the wicked people.
Muhammad Asad	12:110 [All the earlier apostles had to suffer persecution for a long time;] but at last ¹⁰⁶ -when those apostles had lost all hope and saw themselves branded as liars ¹⁰⁷ - Our succour attained to them: whereupon everyone whom We Milled [to be saved] was saved [and the deniers of the truth were destroyed]: for, never can Our punishment be averted from people who are lost in sin.
Rashad Khalifa	Victory, Ultimately, Belongs to the Believers 12:110 Just when the messengers despair, and think that they had been rejected, our victory comes to them. We then save whomever we choose, while our retribution for the guilty people is unavoidable.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:110 There have been times when even the messengers had lost all hope of reformation and thought that they had been denied. Then came Our help. We saved everyone worthy of being saved. Without exception, We punished those who thrived on the fruit of others' toil.
Transliteration	12:110 Hatta i tha istay-asa a Irrusuluwathannoo annahum qad ku thiboo jaahumnaṣruna fanujjiya man nash ao wal ayuraddu ba/sun a AAani alqawmi almuḥrimeena
A	12:110 حتى اذا استتيس الرسل وظنوا انهم قد كذبوا جاءهم نصرنا فنجى من نشاء ولا يرد باسنا عن القوم المجرمين
Edip-Layth	The Quran is not a Fabricated Hadith 12:111 In their stories is a lesson for the people of intelligence. It is not a hadith that was invented, but an authentication of what is already present, a detailing of all things, and a guidance and mercy to a people who acknowledge. ²¹
The Monotheist Group	12:111 In their stories is a lesson for the people of intelligence. It was not a narration that was invented, but an authentication of what was already revealed and a detailing of all things, and a guidance and mercy to a people who believe.
Muhammad Asad	12:111 Indeed, in the stories of these men ¹⁰⁸ there is a lesson for those who are endowed with insight. [As for this revelation, ¹⁰⁹] it could not possibly be a discourse invented [by man]: nay indeed, ¹¹⁰ it is [a divine writ] confirming the truth of whatever there still remains [of earlier revelations], clearly spelling out everything, ¹¹¹ and [offering] guidance and grace unto people who will believe.
Rashad Khalifa	The Quran is All We Need 12:111 In their history, there is a lesson for those who possess intelligence. This is not fabricated Hadith; this (Quran) confirms all previous scriptures, provides the details of everything, and is a beacon and mercy for those who believe.
Shabbir Ahmed	12:111 Indeed in the history of these men, there is a lesson for people of understanding. As for this revelation, it could not possibly be a Hadith, fabricated. It confirms the (surviving truth in) the previous scriptures, and gives a detailed explanation of everything. And it is a beacon and mercy for all those who accept it. ¹⁶
Transliteration	12:111 Laqad k ana fee qa saṣihimAAibratun li-olee al-alb abi m a k ana hadeethanyuftara walakin taṣṣeeqa allaṭheebayna yadayhi wataf seela kulli shay-

in wahudan warahmatanliqawmin yu/minoona

A

12:111 لقد كان في قصصهم عبرة لأولي الألباب ما كان حديثا يفترى ولكن تصديق الذي بين يديه وتفصيل كل شيء وهدى ورحمة لقوم يؤمنون

<< Prev 12:1-111 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (12:1)

A1L30R200. These letters/numbers play an important role in the mathematical system of the Quran based on code 19. See 74:1-56; 1:1; 2:1; 13:38; 27:82; 38:1-8; 40:28-38; 46:10; 72:28.

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (12:4)

The dream perhaps has another prophetic meaning besides the one related to Joseph's family. For Joseph and his family, the dream was fulfilled about 2600 years ago with a good ending (12:100). As for the other meaning of the dream, it is still waiting to be fulfilled. Does this allegory give us a clue regarding the number of planets in the solar system? The number of planets in our solar system may ultimately be determined by the conventional definition of astronomers and remain controversial for long time to come. Interestingly, the differences between planets and the controversy around them too resemble the differences between brothers and half brothers and their acceptance and dynamics in the family. The Old Testament narrates the same dream; however, because of transnational errors, the word "planet" in the dream is translated as "star" (Genesis 37:9). The story of Joseph starting with his dream when he was seventeen years-old, takes several chapters in Genesis, from chapter 37 to 50, its last chapter.

Edip-Layth - End Note 4 (12:6)

From Joseph's dream we learn that he will have a bright future. That is, when his jealous brothers were plotting against him, his future was already determined by God. How can God's knowledge of a future event leave any room for free choice? See 57:22-23. For sleep, see 25:47. Do we receive symbolic information regarding future events through our dreams? We may infer such a function from these and other episodes reported in this chapter, or we may understand it to be a series of extraordinary events which were created by God specifically to help the Children of Israel in that period. It is obvious that interpretation of dreams was a divinely inspired "knowledge" specifically given to Joseph. However, being the subject of prophetic dreams, as it seems, is not limited to being a messenger of God. The Book of Genesis of the Old Testament allocates several chapters, from 37 to 50, to the story of Joseph, starting with his dream and the following events. The Quranic story has many parallel lines with the Biblical story; though with some variations. The Bible contains many references to dreams, especially as a way of divine communication. For instance, Jacob (Genesis 28:12; 31:10), Laban (Genesis 31:24), Joseph (Genesis 37:9-11), Gideon (Judge 7:1-25), and Solomon (1King 3:5). Abimelech (Genesis 20:3-7), Pharaoh's chief butler and baker (Genesis 40:5), Pharaoh (Genesis 41:1-8), the Midianites (Judge 7:13), Nebuchadnezzar (Daniel 2:1; 4:10,18), the wise men from the east (Matthew 2:12), and Pilate's wife (Matthew 27:19).

Edip-Layth - End Note 5 (12:15)

Consensus (ijma) has been accepted by those who deserted the Quran to be one of the main authorities besides and even above the Quran. As the usage of hadith and sunna in the Quran is prophetic (6:112-116; 7:185; 8:38; 12:111; 33:38; 45:6), the usage of this word too is prophetic. The word ijma and ijtima are mentioned six times in the Quran and, in all cases, are used to depict the conspiracy of unappreciative opponents of God's message (10:71; 12:102; 20:64; 17:88; 22:73). See 33:38.

Edip-Layth - End Note 6 (12:21)

The Old Testament has a contradictory account regarding whom Joseph was sold to. Genesis 37:28-36 sells Joseph to Midianites, while Genesis 39:1 sells him to Ishmailites.

Edip-Layth - End Note 7 (12:23)

Joseph is using a statement with multiple meanings. The woman most likely understood it as a reference to her husband. In fact, Joseph, as a monotheist, could not have meant that; with the phrase "my Lord" he meant his Creator. Joseph cannot be referring to the person who purchased him as slave (12: 39,42,50; 6:164; 9:31).

Edip-Layth - End Note 8 (12:26)

This is an example of circumstantial evidence. Circumstantial evidence based on genetic testing is now more reliable than witness testimony.

Edip-Layth - End Note 9 (12:31)

See 33:52. Also, see 5:38.

Edip-Layth - End Note 10 (12:39)

See 4:25; 79:24.

Edip-Layth - End Note 11 (12:42)

The ending of the verse could also be understood as, "When Satan made him (Joseph) to forget remember his Lord (God), he remained in prison a few more years." Both meanings might be intended at the same time: When asking his friend to remind the King about him, Joseph forgot to remember his Lord (God), and his friend, in turn, forgot to mention him to the king whom he falsely considered "his lord." Verses 12:39-40 and 12:50 clearly indicate that Joseph was a monotheist, and would never call anyone other than God as his lord. The Quran reminds us that only God can save us from difficulties. Those who acknowledge the truth, trust God (1:5; 6:17; 8:17; 10:107; 26:77-80).

Edip-Layth - End Note 12 (12:43)

The Quran refers to the Egyptian leader contemporary of Moses as Pharaoh. However, it refers to Egypt's ruler who appointed Joseph to be his chief adviser as king (malik), not as Pharaoh (12:43,54, and 72). The Old Testament, erroneously refers to the Egyptian king during the time of Joseph as Pharaoh (See Genesis 41:14,25,46). Joseph lived approximately in 1600 BC, and according to archeological evidences, Egyptian rulers were not yet called Pharaoh then. The title Pharaoh started with the 18th Dynasty, about a hundred years after Joseph. For the Old Testament account of this story, see Genesis chapter 37 to the end of chapter 50.

Edip-Layth - End Note 13 (12:59)

Joseph was hiding his identity from his brothers. Wouldn't his knowledge about their missing brother give him away? Perhaps, Joseph prepared them for this by letting them talk about their family before; or, it was known by his brothers that he had official records about their family.

Edip-Layth - End Note 14 (12:68)

Perhaps, Jacob thought that a crowded group would pull the attention of officers or spies on the Egyptian border. Putting the eggs in different baskets is one of the ways of risk management.

Edip-Layth - End Note 15 (12:76)

This verse raises the dilemma of choosing between legal or moral alternatives. If laws are based on reason and universal principles, they usually do not create such dilemmas. However, even the best and most just laws, occasionally deny justice in some special cases. Then, a person might find himself in a conundrum: the legal and moral virtue of applying the law consistently, or the moral imperative of suspending the application of the law to bring about justice. Here, we are informed that as an officer of the Egyptian government, Joseph is using the laws of Israel rather than the Egyptian law. This was perhaps illegal, but was it also immoral? Joseph could defend his action by claiming that his illegal action did not harm anyone, and he had a good intention. Indeed, this intentionally good "trick" ends the tragedy and pain of a big family.

Edip-Layth - End Note 16 (12:83)

Reading the father's answer immediately after reading the recommended message of the big brother is an intriguing and economic style of narrating a story. Through this technique, the repetition of what the message of the big brother in verses 81-82 was, and an introductory statement such as "When they returned to Palestine they reported their situation according to what the recommendation of their older brother was," are avoided. The conversation among the brothers while they were in Egypt, with the 83rd verse, suddenly jumps over three dimensions (place, time, and context) and transforms into a conversation between them and their father in Palestine. See 20:47-49; 26:16-18.

Edip-Layth - End Note 17 (12:87)

Muslims are resolute optimists. Pessimism, as a self-fulfilling negative mindset, closes the door to God's blessings. See 15:56; 30:36; 39:53; 41:49.

Edip-Layth - End Note 18 (12:92)

What a beautiful example of clemency!

Edip-Layth - End Note 19 (12:98)

This does not justify the idea of intercession of a messenger. It is normal for those to ask someone to pray for their forgiveness, if their act or crime negatively affects that person.

Edip-Layth - End Note 20 (12:109)

The word rijal, which we translated as "man" has multiple meanings; it is also used to mean, "walker/pedestrian." See 2:239; 7:46-48; 22:27; 39:29; 72:5.

Edip-Layth - End Note 21 (12:111)

In this verse, God the Most Wise, rejects both the "hadith" and the basic excuse for accepting it as a source of Islam. No excuse is accepted from the followers of hadith in this world, nor on the Day of Judgment. The followers of fabricated hadiths claim that the Quran is not sufficiently detailed! They thus reject God's repeated assertion that the Quran is "complete, perfect, and sufficiently detailed"

(6:19,38,114), and thereby justify the creation of 60 volumes of hadith, and a library full of contradictory teachings that are supposed to complete the Quran. By reflecting on 12:111 above, one can see God's answer to those fabricators and their followers. God informs us that we do not need fabricated hadith; that the Quran as a sufficiently detailed guide, is all we need. The Quran is the only "ahsan al-hadith" (best statement) to be followed (39:23). See 6:112-116; 11:1; 31:6; 33:38; 45:6; 52:34.

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (12:1)

See Appendix II.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (12:1)

The participial adjective mubin may denote an attribute of the noun which it qualifies ("clear", "manifest", "obvious", etc.) as well as its function ("making clear" or "manifesting", i.e., the truth), either of which meanings is dictated by its context. In the consensus of authoritative opinion, both these meanings are comprised in the above instance; consequently, a compound phrase is necessary in order to render the term appropriately.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (12:2)

This, according to Zamakhshari, is the meaning of la'allakum ta'gilun in the above context. Although they were in the first instance addressed to the Arabian contemporaries of the Prophet, these two verses apply to all people, whatever their origin, who understand the Arabic language. They are meant to impress upon everyone who listens to or reads the Qur'an that its appeal is directed, primarily, to man's reason, and that "feeling" alone can never provide a sufficient basis of faith. (See also 13:37 and 14:4, as well as the corresponding notes.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (12:3)

Or: "By Our having revealed".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (12:3)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (12:3)

At this point in his commentary, Razi draws the reader's attention to 42:52 - "thou didst not know what revelation is, nor what faith [implies]": a passage similar in purport to the closing words of the above verse; hence my addition, between brackets, of the phrase "of what revelation is".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (12:4)

The particle idh is usually a time-reference, and can in most cases be translated as "when". Occasionally, however, it is used as a corroborative particle meant to draw the reader's (or hearer's) attention to the sudden occurrence of a thing (Mughni, Qamus, Taj al-'Arus), or-as is often the case in the Qur'an-to a turn in the discourse: and in such instances it is suitably rendered as "lo" or "now".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (12:5)

See surah 11, note 65.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (12:5)

As in the Biblical account of Joseph's story, the Qur'an shows that Jacob did not fail to understand the meaning of his son's dream-vision of future greatness, with the eleven stars symbolizing his brothers, and the sun and the moon his parents. But whereas the Bible quotes the father as "rebuking" his son (Genesis xxxvii, 10) in the obvious assumption that the dream was an outcome of wishful thinking, the Qur'an makes it clear that Jacob - who was himself a prophet - at once realized its prophetic quality and its deeper implications.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (12:6)

Lit., "sayings". or "tidings" (ahadith). Most of the commentators assume that this refers specifically to Joseph's future ability to interpret dreams; but Razi points out that in this context the term hadith (of which ahadith is the plural) may be synonymous with hadith ("something that newly comes into existence", i.e., "an event" or "a happening"). This is, to my mind, much more convincing than a mere reference to dream-interpretation, the more so as the term ta'wrl is often used in the Qur'an (e.g., in 3:7, 10:39 or 18:78) in the sense of "final meaning", "inner meaning" or "real meaning" of a happening or statement or thing, as distinct from its outward, prima-facie appearance. The use of the particle min ("of") before the term ta'wil indicates that absolute knowledge of what a thing or event implies rests with God alone (cf. 3:7 - "none save God knows its final meaning"), and that even God's elect, the prophets-albeit their vision is much wider than that of ordinary men-are granted only a partial insight into the mysteries of God's creation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (12:7)

Lit., "those who inquire".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (12:8)

Lit., "a company" or "group". Benjamin was Joseph's full brother-both being sons of Jacob's wife Rachel-whereas the other ten were only his half-brothers.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (12:8)

Lit., "is in most obvious error".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (12:9)

The phrase interpolated by me within brackets -reflecting the unconscious irony in the attitude of Joseph's brethren-is based on the consensus of most of the classical commentators.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (12:10)

Sc., "and take him with them to a faraway land" (cf. the preceding verse). The term jubb - rendered by me as "well" - is usually applied to a desert well simply cut through the earth or through rock and not cased with stone: the implication being that this particular well did not contain enough water to drown Joseph, but was deep enough to hide him from sight.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (12:15)

See verses 89-90 of this surah.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (12:18)

Apparently Jacob did not believe the tale of the wolf but, knowing his sons' envy of Joseph, at once realized that it was they themselves who had done grievous harm to him. Nevertheless - as is evident from Jacob's expression of hope in verse 83 of this surah -he was not quite convinced that Joseph was really dead.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (12:18)

Lit., "it is to God that I turn for aid against what you are describing".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (12:19)

According. to the Bible (Genesis xxxvii, 25), they were "Ishmaelites" - i.e., Arabs - who "came from Gilead with their camels bearing spicery and balm and myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt". (Gilead is the Biblical name for the region east of the Jordan.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (12:19)

Lit., "O good news!"

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (12:21)

The Qur'an does not mention his name or position; but a later reference to him (in verse 30 below) as al-'aziz ("the great [or "mighty"] one") points to his having been a high official or a nobleman.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (12:21)

See note 10 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 23 (12:24)

The interpolated phrase "and he would have succumbed", is, according to Zamakhshari, implied in the above sentence. In his commentary on this verse, he further points out that the moral significance of "virtue" consists in one's inner victory over a wrongful desire, and not in the absence of such a desire. Cf. the well-known saying of the Prophet, recorded, on the authority of Abu Hurayrah, by Bukhari and Muslim: "God, exalted be He, says: 'If a servant of Mine [merely] desires to do a good deed, I shall count this [desire] as a good deed; and if he does it, I shall count it tenfold. And if he desires to commit a bad deed, but does not commit it, I shall count this as a good deed, seeing that he refrained from it only for My sake...' -i.e., in consequence of a moral consideration (which, in the present instance, is described as "an evidence of God's truth").

Muhammad Asad - End Note 24 (12:24)

Lit., "he was among Our sincere servants".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 25 (12:26)

Lit., "a present one (shahid) from her household testified" - i.e., suggested a test on these lines. Here, again, the Qur'anic narrative differs from the story as told in the Bible, since according to the latter (Genesis xxxix, 19-20), the husband immediately believed the false accusation and cast Joseph into prison; the episodes related in verses 26-34 of this surah do not appear in the Biblical account.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 26 (12:29)

Lit., "turn aside from this". According to almost all the commentators, the meaning is, "do not mention this to anyone", the implication being that the husband was prepared to forgive and forget.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 27 (12:30)

Lit., "we see her indeed in obvious error".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 28 (12:31)

The expression muttaka'-lit., "a place where one reclines [while eating]", i.e., a "cushioned couch" - seems to have been used here tropically to denote a "luxurious [or "sumptuous"] repast".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 29 (12:31)

Lit., "they deemed him [i.e., his beauty] great".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 30 (12:32)

Lit., "become one of those who are humiliated".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 31 (12:33)

Lit., "incline towards them"; it should, however, be borne in mind that the verb saba combines the concepts of inclination, yearning and amorous indulgence (cf. Lane IV, 1649); hence my rendering.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 32 (12:34)

Lit., "turned away their guile from him".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 33 (12:35)

Lit., "it occurred to them".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 34 (12:35)

Thus, according to the Qur'an, Joseph was imprisoned not because his master believed him to be guilty, but because, in his weakness, he wanted to appease his wife, "being entirely submissive to her, and behaving like a riding-camel whose reins she held in her hand" (Zamakhshari).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 35 (12:36)

Lit., "entered the prison with him". According to the Biblical account (not contradicted by the Qur'an), they were the King's cup-bearer and baker, both of them imprisoned for unspecified offences.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 36 (12:36)

This is the meaning given by Baghawi, Zamakhshari and Baydawi to the expression al-muhsinin in the above context, adopting the tropical use of the verb ahsana in the sense of "he knew [something]" or "he knew [it] well". Thus, the Qur'an indicates here in its elliptic manner that Joseph's reputation for wisdom and dream-interpretation preceded him to prison.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 37 (12:37)

Lit., "the real meaning thereof".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 38 (12:37)

Joseph wants to avail himself of this opportunity to guide his two fellow-prisoners towards the true faith; and so, while promising that he would explain their dreams presently, he asks them to listen first to a short discourse on the oneness of God.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 39 (12:38)

Since God is almighty and self-sufficient, it is not for His sake that man is warned not to ascribe divine qualities to aught beside Him: the absolute condemnation of this sin is solely designed to benefit man by freeing him from all superstition, and thus enhancing his dignity as a conscious, rational being.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 40 (12:39)

Lit., "better", obviously in the sense of "better conforming to the demands of reason".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 41 (12:39)

The expression mutafarrigun connotes plurality as well as separateness-in this context, separateness in respect of qualities, functions and degrees.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 42 (12:40)

Lit., "names which you have named" -i.e., "figments of your own imagination".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 43 (12:40)

Cf. the last sentence of 30:30.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 44 (12:43)

This king seems to have been one of the six Hyksos rulers who dominated Egypt from about 1700 to 1580 B.C., after having invaded the country from the east by way of the Sinai Peninsula. The name of this dynasty, which was undoubtedly of foreign origin, is derived from the Egyptian hikshasu or heku shoswet, meaning "rulers of nomad lands", or - according to the late Egyptian historian Manetho - "shepherd kings": all of which points to their having been Arabs who, despite the fact that before their invasion of Egypt they were already well-established in Syria, had to a large extent preserved their bedouin mode of life. This would explain the confidence which the king mentioned in this story was later to place in Joseph, the Hebrew, and the subsequent settlement of the latter's family (and, thus, of what in due course became the Israelite nation) in Egypt: for it must be borne in mind that the Hebrews, too, descended from one of the many bedouin tribes who some centuries earlier had migrated from the Arabian Peninsula to Mesopotamia and later to Syria (cf. surah 7, note 48); and that the language of the Hyksos must have been very akin to Hebrew, which, after all, is but an ancient Arabian dialect.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 45 (12:44)

Lit., "confusing medleys (adghath) of dreams".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 46 (12:45)

According to almost all the authorities, the noun ummah denotes here "a time" or "a long period of time".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 47 (12:45)

The cup-bearer obviously addresses the assembly as a whole, and not the King alone: hence the plural "you".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 48 (12:49)

Or: "will be granted rain"-depending on whether one connects the verbal form yughath with either of the infinitive nouns ghayth ("rain") or ghawth ("deliverance from distress"). Although the crops of Egypt depend entirely on the annual Nile floods, the water-level of the river is, in its turn, contingent upon the quantity of rainfall at its upper reaches.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 49 (12:51)

Evidently, the King wanted to find out whether they had previously been encouraged by Joseph, or whether he was truly innocent. The noun khatb denotes "something that one has in view" or "desires" or "seeks to obtain"; and so the expression ma khatbukunna (lit., "what was it that you [really] had in view") may be suitably rendered as above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 50 (12:51)

Lit., "the wife of the great one (al-'aziz)".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 51 (12:52)

Some of the commentators (e.g., Ibn Kathir and, among the moderns, Rashid Rida' in Manar XII, 323 f.) regard this and the next verse as a continuation of the woman's confession; but the great majority of the classical authorities, including Tabari, Baghawi and Zamakhshari, attribute the speech that follows unequivocally -and, in my opinion, most convincingly-to Joseph: hence my interpolation at the beginning of this verse.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 52 (12:52)

Lit., "in [his] absence" or "in secret" (bi'l-ghayb).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 53 (12:53)

Lit., "is indeed wont to command [the doing of] evil"-i.e., is filled with impulses which often conflict with what the mind regards as a moral good. This is obviously a reference to the statement in verse 24 above - "she desired him, and he desired her; [and he would have succumbed,] had he not seen [in this temptation] an evidence of his Sustainer's truth" - as well as to Joseph's prayer in verse 33, "unless Thou turn away their guile from me, I might yet yield to their allure". (See also note 23 above.) Joseph's stress on the weakness inherent in human nature is a sublime expression of humility on the part of one who himself had overcome that very weakness: for, as the sequence shows, he attributes his moral victory not to himself but solely to the grace and mercy of God.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 54 (12:53)

Lit., "except those upon whom...", etc. According to most of the commentators, the pronoun ma (lit., "that which") is here synonymous with man ("he who" or "those who").

Muhammad Asad - End Note 55 (12:55)

By making this request, Joseph wanted to assure an efficient build-up of grain reserves during the coming years of plenty, knowing well that they would be followed by seven years of scarcity. It is obvious from the sequence that his request was granted, and that he was able to fulfil the task which he had set himself.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 56 (12:56)

I.e., sometimes in this world as well, but invariably in the hereafter, as the sequence shows.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 57 (12:57)

Lit., "for those who have attained to faith...", etc.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 58 (12:58)

Le., to buy wheat from the stores which Joseph had accumulated during the seven years of plenty: for all the countries in the vicinity of Egypt were by now affected by the famine which he had predicted, and Egypt alone had a surplus, the distribution of which he supervised personally (cf. Genesis x1i, 54-57).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 59 (12:59)

Lit., "a brother of yours from your father"-i.e., their half-brother Benjamin, who was Joseph's full brother (their mother having been Rachel, Jacob's favourite wife), whereas the other ten had different mothers. Benjamin, the youngest of Jacob's children, had not accompanied his brothers on their first journey to Egypt, but they had presumably mentioned him in the course of their conversation with Joseph.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 60 (12:62)

I.e., the goods which they had bartered for wheat (Ibn Kathir): a very plausible explanation in view of the fact that barter was the most common form of trade in those ancient times.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 61 (12:62)

Lit., "so that they may perceive them when they come back to their family, [and] that they may return".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 62 (12:63)

Lit., "measure [of grain]", here used metonymically in an allusion to Joseph's words (verse 60).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 63 (12:64)

Lit., "not otherwise than".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 64 (12:65)

It would seem that Joseph used to allot to foreign buyers of grain one camel-load per person.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 65 (12:67)

Probably in order not to attract undue attention in the foreign land and possibly fall prey to intrigues. See in this connection note 68 below.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 66 (12:68)

Lit., "when".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 67 (12:68)

As is shown in the sequence, they and their father were to suffer severe distress before their adventures came to a happy conclusion.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 68 (12:68)

Lit., "it (i.e., his request that they should enter the city by different gates] had been but a desire in Jacob's heart (nafs), which he [thus] satisfied". In other words, when he gave his sons this advice, he followed only an instinctive, humanly-understandable urge, and did not really expect that any outward precaution would by itself help them: for, as he himself pointed out on parting, "judgment as to what is to happen rests with none but God". This stress on man's utter dependence on God - a fundamental tenet of Islam - explains why Jacob's advice (which in itself is not relevant to the story) has been mentioned in the above Qur'anic narrative.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 69 (12:68)

This interpolated clause is based on Zamakhshari's interpretation of the above reference to Jacob's having been "endowed with knowledge".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 70 (12:69)

Thus, contrary to the Biblical account, Joseph is stated here to have disclosed his identity to Benjamin long before he revealed himself to his ten half-brothers. The words "their past doings" obviously refer to their treacherous behaviour towards him which Joseph had now presumably disclosed to Benjamin.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 71 (12:70)

Lit., "an announcer" (mu'adhdhin) - a noun derived from the verbal form adhdhana ("he announced" or "proclaimed" or "called out publicly").

Muhammad Asad - End Note 72 (12:70)

Commenting on this verse, Razi says: "Nowhere in the Qur'an is it stated that they made this accusation on Joseph's orders; the circumstantial evidence shows rather (al-aqrab ila zahir al-hal) that they did this of their own accord: for, when they had missed the drinking-cup, [these servants of Joseph remembered that] nobody had been near it [except the sons of Jacob], and so it occurred to them that it was they who had taken it." Analogous views are also advanced by Tabari and Zamakhshari in their comments on the last words of verse 76 below. This extremely plausible explanation contrasts sharply with the Biblical account of this incident (Genesis xliv), according to which the false accusation was part of an inexplicable "stratagem" devised by Joseph. If we discard-as we must-this part of the Biblical version, it is far more logical to assume that Joseph, who had been granted by the King full authority over all that belonged to the latter (see verse 56 above), had placed the royal cup as a present in the bag of his favourite brother; and that he did this secretly, without informing his servants, because he did not want anyone, least of all his ten half-brothers, to know his predilection for Benjamin. For a further explanation of this incident and of its ethical relevance within the context of Joseph's story, see note 77 below.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 73 (12:71)

Lit., "They said, turning towards them".

Muhammad Asad - End Note (12:75)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 75 (12:76)

Lit., "with their bags".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 76 (12:76)

Lit., "he brought it out".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 77 (12:76)

The meaning of this story is now clear: it is a further illustration of the basic doctrine that "judgment [as to what is to happen] rests with none but God" (verse 67 above). Joseph had wanted to keep Benjamin with himself, but under the law of Egypt he could not do this without the consent of his half-brothers, who were the legal guardians of their minor brother; and they -bound as they were by the solemn promise given to their father-would certainly not have agreed to Benjamin's remaining behind. The only other alternative open to Joseph was to disclose his identity to them; but since he was not yet prepared to go so far, he was obliged to allow Benjamin to depart with his brothers. The accidental discovery of his gift, entirely unexpected by Joseph (see note 72 above), changed everything: for now Benjamin appeared to be guilty of theft, and under the law of the land Joseph was entitled to claim him as his slave, and thus to keep him in his house. The words, "In this way did We contrive (kidna) for Joseph [the attainment of his heart's desire]", referring to the incident of the cup, indicate that its final outcome was neither planned nor even foreseen by Joseph.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 78 (12:77)

The reference is obviously to Benjamin's full brother, Joseph. In the absence of any indication that the latter had ever before been accused of theft, it is reasonable to assume that the brothers, unaware of the fact that they were standing before Joseph, simply wanted to vilify him in order to dissociate themselves more effectively from Benjamin, who now appeared to have been convicted of theft.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 79 (12:77)

Lit. , "Joseph concealed it within himself and did not reveal it to them; he said. . .", etc. According to almost all the commentators, the pronoun "it" refers to Joseph's subsequent "saying" or, rather, thought, indicated by the verb "he said" (i.e., within himself); hence my free rendering of this phrase.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 80 (12:77)

Lit., "of what you attribute", i.e., to Joseph and Benjamin-sc., "since you yourselves have stolen Joseph from his father".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 81 (12:80)

Lit., "know" -but since this expression denotes here remembrance rather than knowledge in the proper sense of the word, it can be suitably translated as above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 82 (12:80)

I.e., "enables me to win back my brother Benjamin".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 83 (12:81)

I.e., the finding of the King's cup in Benjamin's bag (Baghawi and Zamakhshari).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 84 (12:81)

Lit., "We were not guardians over that which was beyond the reach of [our] perception": i.e., "at the time when we gave you our pledge regarding Benjamin; we did not know that he would steal" (Zamakhshari).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 85 (12:83)

I.e., Benjamin and the eldest son (who had remained in Egypt) as well as Joseph, of whose alleged death Jacob was never fully convinced (cf. note 17).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 86 (12:84)

Lit., "white": i.e., dim with the tears that filled them (Razi). Although Jacob was now deprived of three of his sons, his grief for Joseph was the most acute because he was the only one of the three of whom Jacob did not know whether he was dead or alive.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 87 (12:86)

Namely, that "judgment as to what is to happen rests with none but God", and that "all who have 'trust [in His existence] must place their trust in Him alone" (verse 67): the twin ideas which underlie the whole of this surah, and which Jacob now seeks to impress upon his sons. In addition to this, his remembrance of Joseph's prophetic dream (verse 4) and his own conviction at the time that his beloved son would be elected by God for His special grace (verse 6), fills Jacob with renewed hope that Joseph is still alive (Razi and Ibn Kathir): and this explains the directives which he gives his sons in the next sentence.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 88 (12:87)

According to most of the commentators, especially Ibn `Abbas (as quoted by Tabari and others), the term rawh is here synonymous with rahmah ("grace" or "mercy"). Since it is linguistically related to the noun ruh ("breath of life" or "spirit"), and has also the metonymic significance of "rest" (raha) from grief and sadness (Taj al-'Arus), the most appropriate rendering would seem to be "life-giving mercy".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 89 (12:88)

I.e., goods which they intended to barter for grain (see note 60 above).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 90 (12:89)

Lit., "know" (see note 81).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 91 (12:89)

By coupling his own name with that of Benjamin he possibly hinted at his brothers' early envy and hatred of the two sons of Rachel (cf. verse 8 of this surah and the corresponding note 12); alternatively, the mention of Benjamin may have been due to the readiness with which they accepted the "evidence" of the latter's guilt (verse 77).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 92 (12:90)

Lit., "whoever is...", etc.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 93 (12:93)

Lit., "he will become seeing [again]"-i.e., "he will cease to weep for me and the dimness of his sight caused by unhappiness and constant weeping will disappear on learning that I am alive": thus may be summed up Razi's explanation of the above sentence. According to him, there is no compelling reason to assume that Jacob had become really blind from grief. -The phrase "lay it over my father's face" could also be rendered as "lay it before my father", since the term wajh (lit., "face") is often used in classical Arabic to denote, metonymically, one's whole personality, or whole being.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 94 (12:94)

Lit., "had departed", i.e., from Egypt.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 95 (12:96)

See verse 86 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 96 (12:99)

According to the Biblical account - not contradicted by the Qur'an - Joseph's mother Rachel had died while giving birth to Benjamin. We may, therefore, assume that the "mother" implied in the term "parents" was another of Jacob's wives, who had brought up Joseph and Benjamin; this would be in consonance with the ancient Arabian custom of applying the designation "mother" to a foster-mother.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 97 (12:100)

Lit., "onto the throne (al-'arsh)", in the metaphorical sense of this word.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 98 (12:100)

According to `Abd Allah ibn `Abbas (as quoted by Razi), the personal pronoun in "before Him" relates to God, since it is inconceivable that Joseph would have allowed his parents to prostrate themselves before himself.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 99 (12:100)

The fulfilment of Joseph's childhood dream consisted in the high dignity with which he was now invested and in the fact that his parents and his brothers had come from Canaan to Egypt for his sake: for "no reasonable person can expect that the fulfilment of a dream should be an exact replica of the dream itself" (Razi ` , alluding to the symbolic prostration of the eleven stars, the sun and the moon mentioned in verse 4 of this surah).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 100 (12:100)

As regards my rendering of latif as "unfathomable", see surah 6, note 89. In the present instance, this term supplies a further accent, as it were, on the theme "judgment as to what is to happen rests with none but God" (verse 67).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 101 (12:101)

Lit., "of dominion", indicating that absolute power and absolute dominion belong to God alone.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 102 (12:101)

See note 10 on verse 6 of this surah.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 103 (12:102)

Lit., "with them".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 104 (12:108)

It is impossible to render the expression `ala basirah in a more concise manner. Derived from the verb basura or basira ("he became seeing" or "he saw"), the noun basirah (as also the verb) has the abstract connotation of "seeing with one's mind": and so it signifies "the faculty of understanding based on conscious insight" as well as, tropically, "an evidence accessible to the intellect" or "verifiable by the intellect". Thus, the "call to God" enunciated by the Prophet is described here as the outcome of a conscious insight accessible to, and verifiable by, man's reason: a statement which circumscribes to perfection the Qur'anic approach to all questions of faith, ethics and morality, and is echoed many times in expressions like "so that you might use your reason" (la'allakum ta'gilun), or "will you not, then, use your reason?" (a fa-la ta'gilun), or "so that they might understand [the truth]" (la'allahum yafqahun), or "so that you might think" (la'allakum tatafakkarun); and, finally, in the oft-repeated declaration that the message of the Qur'an as such is meant specifically "for people who think" (li-qawmin yatafakkanun).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 105 (12:109)

This is an answer to the objection often raised by unbelievers that a mortal like themselves could not have been entrusted with God's message to man.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 106 (12:110)

Lit., "until" (hatta). This connects with the reference to earlier apostles in the first sentence of the preceding verse: the implication being (according to Zamakhshari) that they used to suffer for a long time before they were vindicated by God.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 107 (12:110)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 108 (12:111)

Lit., "in their stories" -i.e., the stories of the prophets.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 109 (12:111)

I.e., the Qur'an as a whole (Baghawi and Zamakhshari). The passage that follows connects with verses 102-105.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 110 (12:111)

Lit., "but"-denoting here the impossibility of its having been invented by Muhammad.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 111 (12:111)

III I.e., everything that man may need for his spiritual welfare. See also 10:37 and the corresponding note 60.

Rashad Khalifa - The Final Testament

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 2 (12:2)

Why was the Quran revealed in Arabic? See 41:44 and Appendix 4

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 3 (12:9)

We learn from Joseph's dream that he was destined for a bright future. Thus, while his brothers met to decide his fate, his fate was already decided by God. Everything is done by God (8:17), and is already recorded (57:22).

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (12:23)

Ahsana Mathwa = An excellent abode = A position of honor = Good moral stature. Zaalimoon = Those who displace something from its rightful place = Other meanings have been given in the Introduction - Glossary

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (12:28)

His discriminatory comment shows his anger, and that women in that society were not viewed well

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (12:31)

The governor's wife and her friends had planned to incriminate Joseph, and they were just buying time. They made marks on their hands to feign self-defense. There is absolutely no mention of the supposed 'beauty' of Joseph, a fabrication adopted by ancient and modern commentators. Secondly, the root word Qat'a in this verse is of very special significance. Did these women chop off their hands? Must the thieves get their hands chopped off? Please see 5:38-39

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (12:32)

Now the women had 'evidence' against him with marks on their hands in order to humiliate him

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (12:44)

This king was not a Pharaoh. He is probably the second one of the six Hyksos rulers who dominated Egypt between 1700-1580 BC, after invading the country through the Sinai Peninsula

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (12:49)

Please note that only a messenger of God could correctly interpret dreams since God shares His knowledge of the future only with a messenger He chooses. 3:179, 72:26-27

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (12:50)

Joseph asked for investigation before being released to vindicate his character

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (12:54)

Note the Egyptian head of state of prophet Joseph's era referred as 'Aziz' (Ruler or King and not as Pharaoh, the word that appears erroneously in the book of Genesis

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (12:55)

Now that he could personally handle the oncoming drought

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 10 (12:58)

They came from Can'aan to buy grain as places around Egypt started suffering the drought

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 11 (12:67)

17:77, 33:38, 35:43. It is a common misconception that Jacob told his eleven sons to enter by different gates to obviate 'evil eye'. Historically the brothers had been accused of spying on a previous occasion. The Qur'an consistently rejects all superstition. Genesis 42:9 And Joseph remembered the dreams which he dreamed of them, and said to them, Ye are spies; to see the nakedness of the land ye are come

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 12 (12:70)

12:77-89. The Qur'an here corrects Genesis which states that it was Joseph who had placed the cup in their pack

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 13 (12:84)

Jacob worried more about Joseph since he had no news of him yet. Many exponents at this point have ventured into strange guesswork. They report that prophet Jacob became blind with grief and cried incessantly for eighty years grieving for Joseph! The Bible relates that Jacob lived to be 147 years old. Even so, it is not befitting of a prophet of God, or even an ordinary person, to turn blind with grief and weep incessantly for 80 years. The whiteness of his eyes in this verse clearly refers to his eyes glistening with tears momentarily. And then he controlled his grief

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 14 (12:106)

Mushrik = One who calls upon gods besides God = Associates others with God = Believes in false deities = Ascribes partners to Him = Submits to false authorities = Prefers clergy over revelation = Commits idol worship in any form

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 15 (12:108)

We do not invite through blind faith, vague dogmas or by stunning your intellect with miracles

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 16 (12:111)

2:101

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

Translations ▼

Chapter/Verse ▼

Refresh

Search

Search

<< Prev 13:1-43 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 13:1 A1L30M40R200. These are the signs of the book. What has been sent down to you from your Lord is the truth; but most of the people do not acknowledge.¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 13:1 A.L.M.R, these are the signs of the Scripture. And what has been sent down to you from your Lord is the truth; but most of the people do not believe.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 13:1 Alif. Lam. Mim. Ra. ¹ THESE ARE MESSAGES of revelation: ² and what has been bestowed upon thee from on high by thy Sustainer is the truth-yet most people will not believe [in it]?³
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 13:1 A. L. M. R. ¹ These (letters) are proofs of this scripture. What is revealed to you from your Lord is the truth, but most people do not believe.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 13:1 A.L.M.R. Alif-Laam-Meem-Ra. (Allah, Lateef the Unfathomable, Majeed the Magnificent, Raaziq the Provider, states that), These are the verses of the Divine writ, the scripture. That which is revealed to you (O Prophet!) from your Sustainer is the truth. Yet most people do not believe in it.
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRrahmāni alRrahēemi 13:1 Alif-lām-meem-ra tilka ayatualkitabī wa allathee onzila ilayka minrabbika alhaqqu walākinna akthara alInnaṣila yu/minoona

A

13:1 المر تلك ءايت الكتب والذي انزل اليك من ربك الحق ولكن اكثر الناس لا يؤمنون

Edip-Layth

13:2 God, Who raised the skies without any pillars that you can see, then He established the authority, and He commissioned the sun and the moon; each running to a fixed destiny. He manages all affairs, and He details the signs so that you will be aware of the meeting with your Lord.

The Monotheist Group

13:2 God, Who raised the skies without any pillars that you can see, then He settled to the throne, and He commissioned the sun and the moon; each running to a fixed destiny. He manages all affairs, and He details the signs so that you will be aware of the meeting with your Lord.

Muhammad Asad

13:2 It is God who has raised the heavens without any supports that you could see, and is established on the throne of His almightiness; ⁴ and He [it is who] has made the sun and the moon subservient [to His laws], each running its course for a term set [by Him]. ⁵ He governs all that exists. Clearly does He spell out these messages, so that you might be certain in your innermost that you are destined to meet your Sustainer [on Judgment Day]. ⁶

Rashad Khalifa

13:2 GOD is the One who raised the heavens without pillars that you can see, then assumed all authority. He committed the sun and the moon, each running (in its orbit) for a predetermined period. He controls all things, and explains the revelations, that you may attain certainty about meeting your Lord.

Shabbir Ahmed

13:2 God is the One Who raised the skies without pillars visible to you. Then, upon the Throne of His Almightyness, He assumed Supreme Control of the entire Universe. He committed the sun and the moon to be of service, each running to an appointed term. He keeps Order in the Universe and He explains His messages in detail, so that you may be sure of meeting with your Lord. ¹

Transliteration

13:2 Allahu allathee rafaAAa a lssamawatibighayri AAamadin tarawnah a thumma istawa AAalaalAAarshi wasakhkhara alshshamsa waalqamara kullunyajree li-ajalin musamman yudabbiru al-amra yufa ssilu al- ayatilaAAallakum biliq a-i rabbikum tooqinoona

A

13:2 الله الذي رفع السموت بغير عمد ترونها ثم استوى على العرش وسخر الشمس والقمر كل يجرى لاجل مسمى يدبر الامر يفصل الءايت لعلكم بقاء ربكم توقنون

Edip-Layth

13:3 He is the One who stretched out the land, made in it stabilizers and rivers, and from every fruit He made a pair of two; the night covers the day. In that are signs for a people who will think.

The Monotheist Group

13:3 And He is the One who stretched-out the land, and made in it stabilizers and rivers, and from every fruit He made a pair of two; the night covers the day. In that are signs for a people who will think.

Muhammad Asad

13:3 And it is He who has spread the earth wide and placed on it firm mountains and running waters, and created thereon two sexes of every [kind of] plant; ⁷ [and it is He who] causes the night to cover the day. Verily, in all this there are messages indeed for people who think!

Rashad Khalifa

13:3 He is the One who constructed the earth and placed on it mountains and rivers. And from the different kinds of fruits, He made them into pairs - males and females. The night overtakes the day. These are solid proofs for people who think.

Shabbir Ahmed	13:3 He is the One Who has spread the earth wide and placed therein mountains firm like pegs, and flowing streams. And He created thereon couples of every kind of plants (and their fruit). He causes the night to cover the day. Surely, in all this there are signs for people who think! ²
Transliteration	13:3 Wahuwa alla thee madda al-ar dawaja AAala feeh a raw asiya waanh aran waminkulli a lththamarati jaAAala feeh a zawjayniithnayni yughshee allayla aInnahara inna fee thalikalaayatin liqawmin yatafakkaroon a
A	13:3 وهو الذى مد الارض وجعل فيها روسى وانهرها ومن كل الثمرت جعل فيها زوجين اثنين يغشى الليل النهار ان فى ذلك لءايت لقوم يتفكرون
Edip-Layth	13:4 On earth are neighboring pieces of land with gardens of grapes and plants and palm trees, some of which may be twins sharing the same root, or single, even though they are being watered with the same water source; and We make preference for some of them over others in what they consume. In that are signs for a people who reason.
The Monotheist Group	13:4 And on Earth are neighboring pieces of land with gardens of grape and plants and palm trees, some of which may be twin sharing the same root, or single, even though they are being watered with the same water source; and We make preference for some of them over others in what they consume. In that are signs for a people who comprehend.
Muhammad Asad	13:4 And there are on earth [many] tracts of land close by one another [and yet widely differing from one another ⁸]; and [there are on it] vinyards, and fields of grain, and date-palms growing in clusters from one root or standing alone, ⁹ [all] watered with the same water: and yet, some of them have We favoured above others by way of the food [which they provide for man and beast]. ¹⁰ Verily, in all this there are messages indeed for people who use their reason!
Rashad Khalifa	13:4 On earth, there are adjacent lots that produce orchards of grapes, crops, palm trees - dioecious and non-dioecious. Although they are irrigated with the same water, we prefer some of them over others in eating. These are solid proofs for people who understand. Belief in the Hereafter Required For Salvation
Shabbir Ahmed	13:4 On earth there are many lots and tracts of land in proximity, yet widely differing from one another in composition and quality. On it, there are vineyards, and fields of grain, date and palm-trees, growing in clusters or standing alone. All of them are watered by the same water and yet, We have made some of them excel others in fruit. Surely, in all this, there are messages for people who use sense.
Transliteration	13:4 Wafee al-ar ^{di} qitaAAun mutajawiratunwajannatun min aAAnabin wazarAAun wanakheelun sinwanunwaghayru sinwanin yusq a bim a -in w ahidinwanufaddilu baAAadaha AAal a baAA dinfee alokuli inna fee thalika la ayatinliqawmin yaAAqiloon a
A	13:4 وفى الارض قطع متجورت وجنت من اعنب وزرع ونخيل صنوان وغير صنوان يسقى بماء وحد ونفضل بعضها على بعض فى الاكل ان فى ذلك لءايت لقوم يعقلون
Edip-Layth	13:5 If you wonder, then what is more wondrous is their saying: "Can it be that when we are dust, we will be created anew!" These are those who rejected their Lord, and they will have chains around their necks, and they are the dwellers of the fire, in it they will abide.
The Monotheist Group	13:5 And if you are surprised, then what is more surprising is their saying: "Can it be that when we are dust, we will be created anew!" These are the ones who rejected their Lord, and they will have chains around their necks, and they are the dwellers of the Fire, in it they will abide.

Muhammad Asad	13:5 BUT IF thou art amazed [at the marvels of God's creation], amazing, too, is their saying, "What! After we have become dust, shall we indeed be [restored to life] in a new act .of creation?" ¹¹ It is they who [thus show that they] are bent on denying their Sustainer; ¹² and it is they who carry the shackles [of their own making] around their necks; ¹³ and it is they who are destined for the fire, therein to abide.
Rashad Khalifa	13:5 If you ever wonder, the real wonder is their saying: "After we turn into dust, do we get recreated anew?" These are the ones who have disbelieved in their Lord. These are the ones who have incurred shackles around their necks. These are the ones who have incurred Hell, wherein they abide forever.
Shabbir Ahmed	13:5 If you wonder at this, then even more wondrous is their saying, "What! After we have become dust, shall we be restored to life in a new act of creation?" It is those who are bent upon denying their Sustainer. As a result, it is those who carry the shackles of their own making around their necks. And it is those who are destined for the fire, therein to abide.
Transliteration	13:5 Wa-in taAAajab faAAajabun qawluhum a-i thakunna tur aban a-inn a lafee khalqin jadeedinol a -ika alla theena kafaroo birabbihim waol a -ikaal-aghlalu fee aAAnaqihim waola-ika as- habua lnnari hum fee ha khalidoona
A	13:5 ئى وان تعجب فعجب قولهم اءذا كنا ترابا اءنا لى خلق جديد اولئك الذين كفروا بربهم واولئك الاغل فى اعناقهم واولئك اصحب النار هم فيها خلدون
Edip-Layth	13:6 They ask you to hasten with the doom rather than the good, yet the examples of those before them have already been given. Your Lord is with great forgiveness to the people despite their transgression, and your Lord is severe in retribution.
The Monotheist Group	13:6 And they hasten towards you with sin before good, and the examples of those before them have already been given. Your Lord is with great forgiveness to the people for their transgression, and your Lord is severe in retribution.
Muhammad Asad	13:6 And [since, O Prophet, they are bent on denying the truth,] they challenge thee to hasten the coming upon them of evil instead of [hoping for] good ¹⁴ although [they ought to know that] the exemplary punishments [which they now deride] have indeed come to pass before their time. Now, behold, thy Sustainer is full of forgiveness unto men despite all their evildoing: ¹⁵ but, behold, thy Sustainer is [also] truly severe in retribution!
Rashad Khalifa	13:6 They challenge you to bring doom upon them, rather than turning righteous! Sufficient precedents have been set for them in the past. Indeed, your Lord is full of forgiveness towards the people, in spite of their transgressions, and your Lord is also strict in enforcing retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	13:6 (Instead of reflecting on the message), they challenge you (O Prophet!) to hasten the disaster, rather than doing acts of benevolence. Sufficient precedents have been set for them in the past. Indeed your Lord is full of forgiveness for people, despite their transgressions. Remember, your Lord is also Strict in retribution! ³
Transliteration	13:6 WayastaAAijloonaka bi alssayyi -atiqabla al hasanati waqad khalat min qablihimu almathulatuwa-inna rabbaka la thoo maghfiratin liInnasiAAala thul mihim wa-inna rabbaka lashadeedualAAiqabi
	13:6 ويستعجلونك بالسيئة قبل الحسنة وقد خلت من قبلهم المثلث وان ربك لنو مغفرة للناس

A	على ظلمهم وان ربك لشديد العقاب
Edip-Layth	13:7 Those who reject say, "If only a sign was sent down to him from his Lord." You are but a warner, and to every nation is a guide.
The Monotheist Group	13:7 And those who reject say: "If only a sign was sent down to him from his Lord." You are but a warner, and to every nation is a guide.
Muhammad Asad	13:7 However, they who are bent on denying the truth [refuse to believe and] say, "Why has no miraculous sign ever been bestowed on him from on high by his Sustainer?" ¹⁶ [But] thou art only a warner; and [in God] all people have a guide. ¹⁷
Rashad Khalifa	13:7 Those who disbelieved say, "If only a miracle could come down to him from his Lord (we will then believe)." You are simply a warner - every community receives a guiding teacher.
Shabbir Ahmed	13:7 Those who deny the truth keep saying, "Why has no miracle ever been bestowed upon him from his Lord?" But you (O Prophet!) are truly a warner, and to every community a guide. ⁴
Transliteration	13:7 Wayaqoolu alla the ena kafaroo lawl a onzila AAalayhi ay atun min rabbihi innama a nta mun th irunwalikulli qawmin ha din
A	13:7 ويقول الذين كفروا لولا انزل عليه آية من ربه انما انت منذر ولكل قوم هاد
Edip-Layth	13:8 God knows what every female carries, and how short her pregnancy or how long. Everything with Him is measured. ²
The Monotheist Group	13:8 God knows what every female carries, and how short her pregnancy or how long. And everything with Him is measured.
Muhammad Asad	13:8 God knows what any female bears [in her womb], and by how much the wombs may fall short [in gestation], and by how much they may increase [the average period]: ¹⁸ for with Him everything is [created] in accordance with its scope and purpose. ¹⁹
Rashad Khalifa	13:8 GOD knows what every female bears, and what every womb releases, or gains. Everything He does is perfectly measured.
Shabbir Ahmed	13:8 God knows what any female bears, and what decrease or increase takes place in the womb. Everything has a due measure with Him. ⁵
Transliteration	13:8 Allahu yaAAalamu m a ta h milukullu ontha w am a taghee du al-ar ha muwama tazda du wakullu shay-in AAindah b imiqa d arin
A	13:8 الله يعلم ما تحمل كل انثى وما تغيض الارحام وما تزداد وكل شيء عنده بمقدار
Edip-Layth	13:9 The knower of the unseen and the seen, the Great, the most High.
The Monotheist Group	13:9 The knower of the unseen and the seen, the Great, the Most High.
Muhammad Asad	13:9 He knows all that is beyond the reach of a created being's perception as well as all that can be witnessed by a creature's senses or mind ²⁰ -the Great One, the One far above anything that is or could ever be! ²¹
Rashad Khalifa	13:9 The Knower of all secrets and declarations; the Supreme, the Most High.

Shabbir Ahmed	13:9 He has perfect knowledge of the visible and the invisible. He is the Great, Most High.
Transliteration	13:9 AA _{al} imu alghaybi waalshshahadatalkabeeru almutaAA _{al} i
A	13:9 علم الغيب والشهادة الكبير المتعال
Edip-Layth	13:10 It is the same whether any of you conceals the word or openly declares it; whether he is hiding in the night or going openly in the day.
The Monotheist Group	13:10 It is the same whether any of you openly declares what he says, or conceals it; whether he is hiding in the night or going openly in the day.
Muhammad Asad	13:10 It is all alike [to Him] whether any of you conceals his thought ²² or brings it into the open, and whether he seeks to hide [his evil deeds] under the cover of night or walks [boldly] in the light of day, ²³
Rashad Khalifa	13:10 It is the same whether you conceal your thoughts, or declare them, or hide in the darkness of the night, or act in the daylight.
Shabbir Ahmed	13:10 It is all alike to Him whether any of you conceals his thoughts or declares them, and whether he seeks to hide under the cover of night or walks boldly in daylight.
Transliteration	13:10 Sawaon minkum man asarra alqawlawaman jahara bihi waman huwa mustakhfin biallayli wasaribunbialInnahari
A	13:10 سواء منكم من اسر القول ومن جهر به ومن هو مستخف بالليل وسارب بالنهار
Edip-Layth	Will to Change the Condition of the Society 13:11 As if he has followers in his presence and behind him guarding him from God's command! God is not to change what is in a people until they change what is within themselves. If God wanted to harm a people, then there is no turning Him back, nor will they have any protector against Him. ³
The Monotheist Group	13:11 Present with him and behind him are retainers, they guard him by God's command. God is not to change what is in a people until they change what is within themselves. And if God wanted to harm a people, then there is no turning Him back, nor will they have any protector against Him.
Muhammad Asad	13:11 [thinking that] he has hosts of helpers-both such as can be perceived by him and such as are hidden from him ²⁴ -that could preserve him from whatever God may have willed. ²⁵ Verily, God does not change men's condition unless they change their inner selves; ²⁶ and when God wills people to suffer evil [in consequence of their . own evil deeds], there is none who could avert it: for they have none who could protect them from Him.
Rashad Khalifa	13:11 Shifts (of angels) take turns, staying with each one of you - they are in front of you and behind you. They stay with you, and guard you in accordance with GOD's commands. Thus, GOD does not change the condition of any people unless they themselves make the decision to change. If GOD wills any hardship for any people, no force can stop it. For they have none beside Him as Lord and Master.
Shabbir Ahmed	13:11 Each person has Divine laws surrounding him. They record his actions according to the command of God. Most certainly, God does not change the condition of a nation until they first change themselves. And when God intends a nation to suffer punishment (as a consequence of their misdeeds), there is none who can repel it. For, they have no defender besides Him. ⁶

Transliteration	13:11 Lahu muAAaqqibatun min bayni yadayhiwamin khalfihi ya hfath oonahu min amri All ahi inna All aha l a yughayyiru m a biqawmin hattay ughayyiroom m a bi-anfusihi wa-i tha ar ada All ahu biqawmin soo-an fal a maradda lahu wam alahum min doonihi min w al in
A	13:11 له معقبات من بين يديه ومن خلفه يحفظونه من امر الله ان الله لا يغير ما بقوم حتى يغيروا ما بانفسهم واذا اراد الله بقوم سوءا فلا مرد له وما لهم من دونه من وال
Edip-Layth	13:12 He is the One who shows you the lightning, giving you fear and hope. He establishes the heavy clouds.
The Monotheist Group	13:12 He is the One who shows you the lightning, giving you fear and hope. And He establishes the heavy clouds.
Muhammad Asad	13:12 HE IT IS who displays before you the lightning, to give rise to [both] fear and hope, ²⁷ and calls heavy clouds into being;
Rashad Khalifa	13:12 He is the One who shows you the lightning as a source of fear, as well as hope, and He initiates the loaded clouds.
Shabbir Ahmed	13:12 He is the One Who displays before you the lightning, to cause fear and hope, and initiates heavy clouds. ⁷
Transliteration	13:12 Huwa alla thee yureekumu albarqakhawfan wa tama AAan wayunshi-o alss aha ba alththiq ala
A	13:12 هو الذى يريكم البرق خوفا وطمعا وينشئ السحاب الثقال
Edip-Layth	13:13 The thunder glorifies with His praise, the angels are in awe of Him, and He sends the thunderbolts, thus striking with them whomever He wills. Yet they are still arguing regarding God, while He is severe in punishment.
The Monotheist Group	13:13 And the thunder glorifies with His praise, and the angels are in awe of Him, and He sends the thunderbolts, and strikes with it whom He will. Yet they are still arguing regarding God, while He is severe in punishment.
Muhammad Asad	13:13 and the thunder extols His limitless glory and praises Him, and [so do] the angels, in awe of Him; and He [it is who] lets loose the thunderbolts and strikes with them whom He wills. And yet, they stubbornly argue about God, ²⁸ notwithstanding [all evidence] that He alone has the power to contrive whatever His unfathomable wisdom wills! ²⁹
Rashad Khalifa	13:13 The thunder praises His glory, and so do the angels, out of reverence for Him. He sends the lightning bolts, which strike in accordance with His will. Yet, they argue about GOD, though His power is awesome.
Shabbir Ahmed	indicates thunder being an angel of God. And a reported saying of 13:13 And the thunder and the (other) angels strive to glorify Him by carrying out their duties in awe of Him. And He is the One Whose physical laws let loose the thunderbolt to strike the earth. And yet they stubbornly argue about God (and fall for superstitions), though He is Awesome in Power!
Transliteration	13:13 Wayusabbi hu alrraAA adu bi ham dihiwaalmala a -ikatu min kheefatihi wayursilu alss awa AAi qafayuseebu bi ha man yash ao wahum yuj adiloona fee All ahi wahuwa shadeedu almi h ali
A	13:13 ويسبح الرعد بحمده والملائكة من خيفته ويرسل الصواعق فيصيب بها من يشاء وهم يجدلون فى الله وهو شديد المحال

Edip-Layth	Those Who Expect Help from Saints, Shrines, Prophets, etc. 13:14 To Him is the call of truth. Those who are called on besides Him, they will not respond to them in anything. It is like one who places his hands openly in the water to drink, but it never reaches his mouth. The call of the ingrates is nothing but in misguidance.
The Monotheist Group	13:14 To Him is the call of truth. And those who are called on besides Him, they will not respond to them in anything; like one who places his hands openly in the water to drink, but it never reaches his mouth. The call of the rejecters is nothing but in misguidance.
Muhammad Asad	13:14 Unto Him [alone] is due all prayer aiming at the Ultimate Truth, ³⁰ since those [other beings or powers] whom men invoke instead of God ³¹ cannot respond to them in any way - [so that he who invokes them is] but like one who stretches his open hands ³² towards water, [hoping] that it will reach his mouth, the while it never reaches him. Hence, the prayer of those who deny the truth amounts to no more than losing oneself in grievous error.
Rashad Khalifa	13:14 Imploring Him is the only legitimate supplication, while the idols they implore beside Him cannot ever respond. Thus, they are like those who stretch their hands to the water, but nothing reaches their mouths. The supplications of the disbelievers are in vain.
Shabbir Ahmed	13:14 Calling upon Him is the True calling. Those unto whom they call besides God, cannot respond to them at all. Thus, they are like the one who stretches forth his two palms towards water hoping for it to reach his mouth from distance, and it will never reach. Likewise, the calling of those who are oblivious to Divine laws is misdirected. ⁸
Transliteration	13:14 Lahu daAAawatu al haqqi wa allatheenayadAAoona min doonihi l a yastajeeboona lahum bishay-in ill akabasiti kaffayhi il a alm a-iliyablugha f ahu wama huwa bibalighihi wamaaduAAao alkafireena illa fee dalalin
A	13:14 له دعوة الحق والذين يدعون من دونه لا يستجيبون لهم بشيء الا كبسط كفيه الى الماء ليبلغ فاه وما هو ببلغه وما دعاء الكافرين الا في ضلل
Edip-Layth	13:15 To God prostrate all who are in the heavens and the earth, willingly and unwillingly, as do their shadows in the morning and the evening. ⁴
The Monotheist Group	13:15 And to God prostrate all who are in the heavens and the Earth, willingly and unwillingly, as do their shadows in the morning and the evening.
Muhammad Asad	13:15 And before God prostrate themselves, willingly or unwillingly, all [things and beings] that are in the heavens and on earth, ³³ as do their shadows in the mornings and the evenings. ³⁴
Rashad Khalifa	All Creation Has Submitted to God 13:15 To GOD prostrates everyone in the heavens and the earth, willingly or unwillingly, and so do their shadows in the mornings and the evenings.
Shabbir Ahmed	13:15 And before God bow, willingly or unwillingly, all beings that are in the heavens and earth, as do their shadows in the mornings and evenings. ⁹
Transliteration	13:15 Walillahi yasjudu man fee a Issamawatiwaal-ardi tawAAan wakarhan wathilaluhumbialghuduwwi waal-asali
A	13:15 والله يسجد من فى السموت والارض طوعا وكرها وظللهم بالغدو والاصل

Eidip-Layth	13:16 Say, "Who is the Lord of the heavens and earth," Say, "God." Say, "Have you taken besides Him allies who do not possess for themselves any benefit or harm?" Say, "Is the blind and the seer the same? Or, does the darkness and the light equate?" Or have they made partners with God who have created like His creation, so the creations all seemed the same to them? Say, "God has created all things, and He is the One, the Supreme."
The Monotheist Group	13:16 Say: "Who is the Lord of the heavens and Earth?" Say: "God." Say: "Have you taken besides Him allies who do not possess for themselves any benefit or harm?" Say: "Is the blind and the seer the same?, or does the darkness and the light equate? Or have they made partners with God who have created like His creation, so the creations all seemed the same to them?" Say: "God has created all things, and He is the One, the Supreme."
Muhammad Asad	13:16 Say: "Who is the Sustainer of the heavens and the earth?" Say: "[It is] God." Say: "[Why,] then, do you take for your protectors, instead of Him, such as have it not within their power to bring benefit to, or avert harm from, themselves?" Say: "Can the blind and the seeing be deemed equal? -or can the depths of darkness and the light be deemed equal?" Or do they [really] believe that there are, side by side with God, other divine powers³⁵ that have created the like of what He creates, so that this act of creation appears to them to be similar [to His]?³⁶ Say: "God is the Creator of all things; and He is the One who holds absolute sway over all that exists."
Rashad Khalifa	13:16 Say, "Who is the Lord of the heavens and the earth?" Say, "GOD." Say, "Why then do you set up besides Him masters who do not possess any power to benefit or harm even themselves?" Say, "Is the blind the same as the seer? Is darkness the same as the light?" Have they found idols besides GOD who created creations similar to His creations, to the point of not distinguishing the two creations? Say, "GOD is the Creator of all things, and He is the One, the Supreme."
Shabbir Ahmed	13:16 Ask them, "Who is the Sustainer of the heavens and earth?" Say, "It is God!" (23:84-90, 29:21-23). Then ask, "Why then, do you take as protectors besides Him those who have neither benefit, nor harm even for themselves?" (When you acknowledge Him as God of the heavens, what stops you from acknowledging Him as God of the earth, and thus, as the law-giving authority? (6:3, 21:21-22, 43:84). Say, "Is the blind of reason equal to the seer, or is darkness equal to light?" (11:24, 35:19). Have their so-called partners of God created something like He has created, so that this act of creation appears to them to be similar? Say, "God is the Creator of all things. He is the One, Dominating."
Transliteration	13:16 Qul man rabbu a Issamawatiwaal-ardi quli All ahu qul afa ittakhathummin doonihi awliyaa la yamlikoona li-anfusihi mnafAAan wal a darran qul hal yastawee al-aAAamawaalbaseeru am hal tastawee a lththulumatuwaalInnooru am jaAAaloo lillahi shurak aakhalaaqoo kakhalqihi fatash abaha alkhalqu AAalayhim quliAll ahu khaliqu kulli shay-in wahuwa alw^{ah}idualqahharu
A	13:16 قل من رب السموت والارض قل الله قل افاتخذتم من دونه اولياء لا يملكون لانفسهم نفعا ولا ضرا قل هل يستوى الاعمى والبصير ام هل تستوى الظلمت والنور ام جعلوا الله شركاء خلقوا كخلقه فتشبه الخلق عليهم قل الله خلق كل شىء وهو الوحد القهر
Eidip-Layth	13:17 He sent down water from the sky, so valleys flowed according to their capacity, and the flood produces foam. From what they burn to smelt jewelry or goods similar foam is produced. It is in such a manner that God strikes the falsehood with the truth. As for the foam, it passes away; as for what benefits the people, it remains in the earth. It is such that God cites the examples.

The Monotheist Group	13:17 He sent down water from the sky, so valleys flowed according to their capacity, and the flood produces foam. And from what they burn to smelt jewelry or goods is produced a similar foam. It is in such a manor that God strikes the falsehood with the truth. As for the foam, it passes away, and as for what benefits the people, it remains in the Earth. It is such that God puts forth the examples.
Muhammad Asad	13:17 [Whenever] He sends down water from the sky, and [once-dry] river-beds are running high ³⁷ according to their measure, the stream carries scum on its surface; ³⁸ and, likewise, from that [metal] which they smelt in the fire in order to make ornaments or utensils, [there rises] scum. In this way does God set forth the parable of truth and falsehood: for, as far as the scum is concerned, it passes away as [does all] dross; but that which is of benefit to man abides on earth. In this way does God set forth the parables
Rashad Khalifa	The Truth vs Falsehood 13:17 He sends down water from the sky, causing the valleys to overflow, then the rapids produce abundant foam. Similarly, when they use fire to refine metals for their jewelry or equipment, foam is produced. GOD thus cites analogies for the truth and falsehood. As for the foam, it goes to waste, while that which benefits the people stays close to the ground. GOD thus cites the analogies.
Shabbir Ahmed	13:17 He sends down water from the height causing the riverbeds to flow according to their measure and the flood bears on its surface swelling foam. When they use fire to refine metals for their jewelry or equipment, foam is produced like it. In this way, God is citing for you the example of the truth and falsehood. For, as far as the foam is concerned, it passes away as scum upon the riverbanks - While what is of benefit to mankind, abides on earth. This is how God uses analogies for you to understand. ¹⁰
Transliteration	13:17 Anzala mina a Issama-i m aanfasalat awdiyatun biqadarih a faihtamalaalssaylu zabadan r abiyam wamimm a yooqidoonaAAalayhi fee a Innari ibtighaa hilyatinaw mataAAain zabadun mithluhu ka thalika ya dribuAllahu alhaqqa waalbatila faamm aalzzabadu faya thhabu jufaan waamm a m ayanfaAAu a Innasa fayamkuthu fee al-ardi ka thalikayadribu Allahu al-amthala
A	13:17 انزل من السماء ماء فسالت اودية بقدرها فاحتمل السيل زبدا رابيا ومما يوقنون عليه في النار ابتغاء حلية او متع زبد مثله كذلك يضرب الله الحق والباطل فالما الزبد فيذهب جفاء واما ما ينفع الناس فيمكث في الارض كذلك يضرب الله الامثال
Edip-Layth	13:18 For those who responded to their Lord is goodness. As for those who did not respond to Him, if they had all that is in the earth twice over, they would offer it to be saved. To these will be a terrible reckoning, and their abode is hell; what a miserable abode.
The Monotheist Group	13:18 For those who responded to their Lord is goodness. As for those who did not respond to Him, if they had all that is in the Earth twice over, they would offer it to be saved. To these will be a terrible reckoning, and their abode is Hell; what a miserable abode.
Muhammad Asad	13:18 of those who have responded to their Sustainer with a goodly response, and of those who did not respond to Him. ³⁹ [As for the latter,] if they possessed all that is on earth, and twice as much, ⁴⁰ they would surely offer it as ransom [on the Day of Judgment] : ⁴¹ a most evil reckoning awaits them, and their goal is hell: and how evil a resting-place!
Rashad Khalifa	13:18 Those who respond to their Lord deserve the good rewards. As for those who failed to respond to Him, if they possessed everything on earth - even twice as much - they would readily give it up as ransom. They have incurred the worst reckoning, and their final abode is Hell; what a miserable destiny.

Shabbir Ahmed	13:18 For those who respond to their Sustainer's call, is a state of bliss. And those who do not respond to Him, even if they had all the treasures of the world and more like it, they would readily give it as ransom. But, a terrible reckoning awaits them, and Hell will be their abode. What a miserable bed to lie on!
Transliteration	13:18 Lilla ^{the} ena istaj ^a boolirabbihimu al ^h usna waalla ^{the} ena lamyastajeeboo lahu law anna lahum m ^a fee al-ar ^d ijameeAAan wamithlahu maAAahu la iftadaw bihi ola-ikalahum soo-o al ^h isabi wama/wahum jahannamuwabi/sa almihadu
A	13:18 للذين استجابوا لربهم الحسنی والذين لم يستجيبوا له لو ان لهم ما فى الارض جميعا ومثله معه لافتدوا به اولئك لهم سوء الحساب وماولهم جهنم وبئس المهاد
Edip-Layth	13:19 Is one who knows that the truth has been sent down to you from your Lord like one who is blind? Only those with understanding will remember.
The Monotheist Group	13:19 Is one who knows that the truth has been sent down to you from your Lord like one who is blind? Only those with understanding will remember.
Muhammad Asad	13:19 CAN, THEN, he who knows that whatever has been bestowed from on high upon thee by thy Sustainer is the truth be deemed equal to one who is blind? Only they who are endowed with insight keep this in mind:
Rashad Khalifa	Believers Versus Disbelievers (1) The Believers 13:19 Is one who recognizes that your Lord's revelations to you are the truth equal to one who is blind? Only those who possess intelligence will take heed.
Shabbir Ahmed	13:19 Is he, then who knows that what has been revealed to you (O Prophet!) is the truth from your Sustainer, like him who chooses to remain blind? Only those who develop their insight will bear this in mind.
Transliteration	13:19 Afaman yaAAalamu annam ^a onzila ilaykamin rabbika al ^h aqqu kaman huwa aAAama innamayata ^h akkaru oloo al-albabi
A	13:19 افمن يعلم انما انزل اليك من ربك الحق كمن هو اعمى انما يتذكر اولوا الالباب
Edip-Layth	13:20 Those who fulfill God's covenant, and they do not break the Covenant.
The Monotheist Group	13:20 Those who fulfill God's pledge, and they do not break the Covenant.
Muhammad Asad	13:20 they who are true to their bond with God and never break their covenant; ⁴²
Rashad Khalifa	13:20 They are the ones who fulfill their pledge to GOD, and do not violate the covenant.
Shabbir Ahmed	13:20 Those who are true to their bond with God (in their allegiance to the Divine System), keep their pledge with God and with people,
Transliteration	13:20 Alla ^{the} ena yoofoona biAAahdi All ^{ah} iwal ^a yanqudoona almeethaqa
A	13:20 الذين يوفون بعهد الله ولا ينقضون الميثق
Edip-Layth	13:21 Those who deliver what God has ordered be delivered, and they revere their Lord and they fear the terrible reckoning.
The Monotheist Group	13:21 And those who deliver what God has ordered be delivered, and they revere their Lord and they fear the terrible reckoning.

Muhammad Asad	13:21 and who keep together what God has bidden to be joined, ⁴³ and stand in awe of their Sustainer and fear the most evil reckoning [which awaits such as do not respond to Him];
Rashad Khalifa	13:21 They join what GOD has commanded to be joined, reverence their Lord, and fear the dreadful reckoning.
Shabbir Ahmed	13:21 Build bridges of goodwill between people, and strengthen ties of human relationships as God has commanded, and stand in awe of their Sustainer. (not relegating His commands to others' utterances), and fear the eventuality of a tough accountability,
Transliteration	13:21 Waallatheena ya siloonama amara All ahu bihi an yoo sala wayakhshawnarabbahum wayakhfoona soo-a alhisabi
A	13:21 والذين يصلون ما امر الله به ان يوصل ويخشون ربهم ويخافون سوء الحساب
Edip-Layth	13:22 Those who are patient seeking their Lord's direction; and they hold the contact prayer, and they spend from what We bestowed upon them secretly and openly, and they counter sin with good; these will have an excellent abode.
The Monotheist Group	13:22 And those who are patient seeking their Lord's direction; and they uphold the communion, and they spend from what We bestowed upon them secretly and openly, and they counter sin with good; these will have an excellent abode.
Muhammad Asad	13:22 and who are patient in adversity out of a longing for their Sustainer's countenance, and are constant in prayer, and spend on others, secretly and openly, out of what We provide for them as sustenance, and [who] repel evil with good. ⁴⁴ It is these that shall find their fulfilment in the hereafter: ⁴⁵
Rashad Khalifa	13:22 They steadfastly persevere in seeking their Lord, observe the Contact Prayers (Salat), spend from our provisions to them secretly and publicly, and counter evil with good. These have deserved the best abode.
Shabbir Ahmed	13:22 They persevere in the face of adversities seeking the Approval of their Sustainer, help establish and consolidate the Divine System, and uphold the Permanent Values, spend on others of the provision We have given them, in secret and in public, and they counter harshness with kindness. Theirs will be the Eternal Home. ¹¹
Transliteration	13:22 Waallatheena sabarootighaa wajhi rabbihim waaq amoo alssalatawaanfaqoo mimm a razaqn ahum sirran waAAal aniyatanwayadraoona bialhasanati alssayyi-ata ola-ikalahum AAuqba alddari
A	13:22 والذين صبروا ابتغاء وجه ربهم واقاموا الصلوة وانفقوا مما رزقهم سرا وعلانية ويدعرون بالحسنة السيئة اولئك لهم عقبى الدار
Edip-Layth	13:23 The gardens of Eden, they will enter it with those who are good doers from their fathers and their mates and their progeny. The angels will enter upon them from every gate:
The Monotheist Group	13:23 The gardens of Eden, they will enter it with those who are good doers from their fathers and their mates and their progeny. And the angels will enter upon them from every gate.
Muhammad Asad	13:23 gardens of perpetual bliss, which they shall enter together with the righteous from among their parents, their spouses, and their offspring; ⁴⁶ and the angels will come unto them from every gate [and will say]:
	13:23 They enter the gardens of Eden, together with the righteous among their

Rashad Khalifa	parents, their spouses, and their children. The angels will enter in to them from every door.
Shabbir Ahmed	13:23 They will enter the Gardens of Eden, along with all who are righteous, of their parents, spouses and children. Angels will greet them at every gate.
Transliteration	13:23 Jannatu AAadnin yadkhuloonah awaman salaḥa min aba-ihim waazwajihimwathurriyyatihim wa almala-ikatuyadkhuloona AAalayhim min kulli babin
A	13:23 جنت عدن يدخلونها ومن صلح من آبائهم وأزواجهم وذريتهم والملائكة يدخلون عليهم من كل باب
Edip-Layth	13:24 "Peace be upon you for what you have been patient for. Excellent indeed is the final abode."
The Monotheist Group	13:24 "Peace be upon you for what you have been patient for. Excellent indeed is the final abode."
Muhammad Asad	13:24 "Peace be upon you, because you have persevered!" How excellent, then, this fulfilment in the hereafter!
Rashad Khalifa	13:24 "Peace be upon you, because you steadfastly persevered. What a joyous destiny."
Shabbir Ahmed	13:24 Saying, "Peace be upon you, since you remained steadfast in your commitment! Oh, what an excellent final home!"
Transliteration	13:24 Salamun AAalaykum bima sabartumfaniAAama AAuqba alddari
A	13:24 سلم عليكم بما صبرتم فنعم عقبى الدار
Edip-Layth	13:25 As for those who break the pledge of God after making its covenant, and they sever what God ordered that it be joined, and they corrupt in the earth; to those is a curse and they will have a miserable abode.
The Monotheist Group	13:25 As for those who break their pledge with God after having made its covenant, and they withhold what God has ordered should be delivered, and who cause corruption on the Earth; on those is a curse and they will have a miserable abode.
Muhammad Asad	13:25 But as for those who break their bond with God after it has been established [in their nature], ⁴⁷ and cut asunder what God has bidden to be joined, and spread corruption on earth -their due is rejection [by God], ⁴⁸ and theirs is a most evil fate [in the life to come].
Rashad Khalifa	(2) The Disbelievers 13:25 As for those who violate GOD's covenant after pledging to keep it, and sever what GOD has commanded to be joined, and commit evil, they have incurred condemnation; they have incurred the worst destiny.
Shabbir Ahmed	13:25 But those who broke the pledge with God after ratifying it, and cut asunder what God has commanded to be joined (13:20-21), and spread corruption and disorder on earth, their due is (God's) rejection. And theirs is the terrible Home!
Transliteration	13:25 Waallatheena yanqu doonaAAahda All ahi min baAAadi meeth aqihi wayaqtAAaAoonama amara All ahu bihi an yoo sala wayuftsidoonafee al-arḍi ola-ika lahumu allaAAanatu walahum soo-oalddari
A	13:25 والذين ينقضون عهد الله من بعد ميثقه يقطعون ما أمر الله به أن يوصل ويفسدون في

Edip-Layth	13:26 God extends the provisions for whom He wishes, or restricts. They celebrated the worldly life, but the worldly life compared to the Hereafter was nothing but a brief enjoyment.
The Monotheist Group	13:26 God gives the provisions for whom He wishes, and He is able. And they were happy with the worldly life, but the worldly life compared to the Hereafter was nothing but a brief enjoyment.
Muhammad Asad	13:26 GOD GRANTS abundant sustenance, or gives it in scant measure, unto whomever He wills; and they [who are given abundance] rejoice in the life of this world - even though, as compared with the life to come, the life of this world is nought but -a fleeting pleasure.
Rashad Khalifa	God Controls All Provisions 13:26 GOD is the One who increases the provision for whomever He wills, or withholds it. They have become preoccupied with this life; and this life, compared to the Hereafter, is nil.
Shabbir Ahmed	13:26 God grants abundant provision, or gives it in scant measure according to His laws (17:18-21) And they (rejecters of the Permanent Values) rejoice in the life of this world alone (without investing in the Eternity) But the life of this world is a fleeting pleasure compared with the Hereafter (2:200-201)
Transliteration	13:26 Allahu yabsu tu a Irrizqaliman yash ao wayaqdiru wafari hoo bialhayatialddunya wama alhayatu alddunyafee al-akhirati illa mataAAun
A	13:26 الله يبسط الرزق لمن يشاء ويقدر وفرحوا بالحياة الدنيا وما الحياة الدنيا في الآخرة الا متع
Edip-Layth	13:27 Those who have rejected say, "If only a sign were sent down to him from his Lord!" Say, "God misguides whom He wishes and guides to Him whoever is repenting."
The Monotheist Group	13:27 And those who have rejected say: "If only a sign were sent down to him from his Lord!" Say: "God misguides whom He wishes and guides to Him whoever is repenting."
Muhammad Asad	13:27 NOW THOSE who are bent on denying the truth [of the Prophet's message] say, "Why has no miraculous sign ever been bestowed upon him from on high by his Sustainer?" ⁴⁹ Say: "Behold, God lets go astray him who wills [to go astray], ⁵⁰ just as He guides unto Himself all who turn unto Him-
Rashad Khalifa	13:27 Those who disbelieve would say, "If only a miracle could come down to him from his Lord (we would believe)." Say, "GOD sends astray whomever He wills, and guides to Him only those who obey."
Shabbir Ahmed	13:27 (These laws are unwavering.) Now those who are bent upon denying the truth say, "Why has no miracle ever been bestowed upon him from his Lord?" Say, "People go astray according to God's laws, and attain guidance according to His laws. (Man has been endowed with free will and there is no compulsion or coercion in Religion, whether physical, emotional or intellectual.) ¹²
Transliteration	13:27 Wayaqoolu alla theena kafaroo lawl aonzila AAalayhi ayatun min rabbihi qul inna Allahayudillu man yash ao wayahdee ilayhi man an aba
A	13:27 ويقول الذين كفروا لولا انزل عليه آية من ربه قل ان الله يضل من يشاء ويهدي اليه من اناب

Edip-Layth	13:28 The ones who acknowledged and their hearts are satisfied by the remembrance of God; for in God's remembrance the hearts are satisfied.
The Monotheist Group	13:28 The ones who believed and their hearts are relieved by the remembrance of God; for in God's remembrance the hearts are relieved.
Muhammad Asad	13:28 those who believe, and whose hearts find their rest in the remembrance of God - for, verily, in the remembrance of God [men's] hearts do find their rest-:
Rashad Khalifa	13:28 They are the ones whose hearts rejoice in remembering GOD. Absolutely, by remembering GOD, the hearts rejoice.
Shabbir Ahmed	13:28 Those who attain faith through reason, their hearts find rest in the practical remembrance of God, that is, in following His commands. For, certainly, remembering God (by following His commands) ensures tranquility in the hearts.
Transliteration	13:28 Allat h eena amanoo wata tma-innuquloobuhum bi thikri All ahi al a bi h ikriAlla h i ta t ma-innu alquloobu
A	13:28 الذين ءامنوا وتطمئن قلوبهم بذكر الله الا بذكر الله تطمئن القلوب
Edip-Layth	13:29 Those who acknowledged, and did good works, there will be happiness for them and a good abode.
The Monotheist Group	13:29 And those who believed, and did good works, there will be happiness for them and a good abode.
Muhammad Asad	13:29 [and so it is that] they who attain to faith and do righteous deeds are destined for happiness [in this world] and the most beautiful of all goals [in the life to come]!"
Rashad Khalifa	13:29 Those who believe and lead a righteous life have deserved happiness and a joyous destiny.
Shabbir Ahmed	13:29 The abode of bliss is guaranteed to those who accept the message and fulfill the needs of others. ¹³
Transliteration	13:29 Allat h eena amanoo waAAamiloo al s salihati t ooba lahum wa h usnu ma a bin
A	13:29 الذين ءامنوا وعملوا الصلحت طوبى لهم وحسن ماب
Edip-Layth	Dogmatism and Bigotry of Ingrates 13:30 As such, We have sent you to a nation as other nations that have come before, so that you may recite for them what has been inspired to you; while they are still rejecting the Gracious. Say, "He is my Lord, there is no god but He; in Him I place my trust and to Him is my repentance."
The Monotheist Group	13:30 And as such, We have sent you to a nation as other nations that have come before, so that you may recite to them that which has been inspired to you; while they are still rejecting the Almighty. Say: "He is my Lord, there is no god but He, in Him I place my trust and to Him is my repentance."
Muhammad Asad	13:30 Thus ⁵¹ have We raised thee [O Muhammad] as Our Apostle amidst a community [of unbelievers] before whose time [similar] communities have come and gone, ⁵² so that thou might propound to them what We have revealed unto thee: for [in their ignorance] they deny the Most Gracious ! ⁵³ Say: "He is my Sustainer. There is no deity save Him. In Him have I placed my trust, and unto Him is my recourse!"
	God's Messenger of the Covenant

Rashad Khalifa	13:30 We have sent you (O Rashad) ³ to this community, just as we did for other communities in the past. You shall recite to them what we reveal to you, for they have disbelieved in the Most Gracious. Say, "He is my Lord. There is no god except He. I put my trust in Him alone; to Him is my ultimate destiny."
Shabbir Ahmed	13:30 (O Messenger!) We have sent you as We sent the messengers before you so that you convey to them what We reveal to you, for in their ignorance, they deny the Most Gracious. Say, "He is my Lord, there is no deity except Him. In Him I put my trust and to Him is my recourse."
Transliteration	13:30 Kathalika arsalnaka feeommatin qad khalat min qablih a omamun litatluwa AAalayhimuallathee aw hayna ilayka wahum yakfuroona bi alrrahmaniqu huwa rabbee la ilaha illa huwa AAalayhitawakkaltu wa-ilayhi matabi
A	13:30 كذلك ارسلناك فى امة قد خلت من قبلها امم لتتلوا عليهم الذى اوحينا اليك وهم يكفرون بالرحمن قل هو ربي لا اله الا هو عليه توكلت واليه متاب
Edip-Layth	13:31 If there were a Quran/recitation with which mountains were moved, the earth were sliced, or the dead were made to speak... No, to God is all matters. Did not those who acknowledge know that if God wished He would have guided all the people? As for those who reject, until God's promise comes true, a disaster will continue to strike them or alight at near their homes because of what they do. God does not breach the appointment.
The Monotheist Group	13:31 And if a compilation were to be used to move mountains, or to slice the Earth, or the dead were spoken to with it. No, to God is all matters. Did not those who believe know that if God wished He would have guided all the people? As for those who reject, they continue to be stricken with disaster or it comes near to their homes, until God's promise comes true. God does not break the appointment.
Muhammad Asad	13:31 Yet even if [they should listen to] a [divine] discourse by which mountains could be moved, or the earth cleft asunder, or the dead made to speak - [they who are bent on denying the truth would still refuse to believe in it]! ⁵⁴ Nay, but God alone has the power to decide what shall be. ⁵⁵ Have, then, they who have attained to faith not yet come to know that, had God so willed; He would indeed have guided all mankind aright? ⁵⁶ But as for those who are bent on denying the truth-in result of their [evil] deeds, sudden calamities will always befall them or will alight close to their homes; ⁵⁷ [and this will continue] until God's promise [of resurrection] is fulfilled: verily, God never fails to fulfil His promise!
Rashad Khalifa	Mathematical Miracle of the Quran 13:31 Even if a Quran caused mountains to move, or the earth to tear asunder, or the dead to speak (they will not believe). GOD controls all things. Is it not time for the believers to give up and realize that if GOD willed, He could have guided all the people? The disbelievers will continue to suffer disasters, as a consequence of their own works, or have disasters strike close to them, until GOD's promise is fulfilled. GOD will never change the predetermined destiny.
Shabbir Ahmed	13:31 Our law precludes the possibility that a Lecture would move the mountains, tear the earth asunder, or make the dead speak. Nay, all decrees belong to God. Do not the believers know that if God had willed, He could have guided all mankind (by not giving them free will)? As for the rejecters of the Divine laws, disasters will not cease to strike them for their deeds, even close to their homes until the promise of God comes to pass. Surely, God never fails in His promise. ¹⁴
	13:31 Walaw anna qur- anan suyyirat bihialjib alu aw qu ttiAAat bihi al-ar du awkullima bihi almawt a bal lill aghi al-amru jameeAAanafalam yay-asi alla theena

Transliteration	amanoo an law yash aoAllahu lahadā a Innasa jameeAAan wal ayazalu alla theena kafaroo tuṣeebuhum bimāsanaAAoo qariAAatun aw taḥullu qareeban mind arihim ḥatta ya/tiya waAAadu Allāhiinna Allāha la yukhlifu almeeAAada
A	13:31 ولو ان قرءانا سيرت به الجبال او قطعت به الارض او كلم به الموتى بل الله الامر جميعا افلم يايس الذين ءامنوا ان لو يشاء الله لهدى الناس جميعا ولا يزال الذين كفروا تصيبهم بما صنعوا قارعة او تحل قريبا من دارهم حتى ياتي وعد الله ان الله لا يخلف الميعاد
Edip-Layth	13:32 Messengers before you were ridiculed, but I gave time to those who rejected, then I took them. Then how was My punishment?
The Monotheist Group	13:32 And messengers before you were ridiculed, but I gave time to those who rejected, then I took them. Then how was My punishment?
Muhammad Asad	13:32 And, indeed, [even] before thy time have [God's] apostles been derided, and for a while I gave rein to those who were [thus] bent on denying the truth: but then I took them to task - and how awesome was My retribution!
Rashad Khalifa	All Messengers Must Be Ridiculed 13:32 Messengers before you have been ridiculed; I permitted the disbelievers to carry on, then I punished them. How terrible was My retribution!
Shabbir Ahmed	13:32 And certainly, messengers were mocked before you, but I gave the rejecters plenty of respite. At length I seized them, and how awesome was My requital!
Transliteration	13:32 Walaqadi istuhzi-a birusulin min qablikafaamlaytu lilla theena kafaroo thumma akhaṭṭuhumfakayfa kana AAiqabi
A	13:32 ولقد استهزئ برسل من قبلك فامليت للذين كفروا ثم اخذتهم فكيف كان عقاب
Edip-Layth	13:33 Who is the One standing over every person for what it has earned? Yet they make partners with God. Say, "Name them? Or are you informing Him of what He does not know on earth? Or is it just a show of words?" But to the ingrates, their scheming is made to appear clever, and they are turned away from the path. Whoever God misguides will have no guide.
The Monotheist Group	13:33 The One who is standing over every soul for what it has earned; yet they make partners with God. Say: "Name them?, or are you informing Him of what He does not know on Earth or is it just a show of words?" But to the rejecters, their scheming is made to appear clever, and they are turned away from the path. And whoever God misguides will have no guide.
Muhammad Asad	13:33 IS, THEN, HE who has every living being ⁵⁸ in His almighty care, [dealing with each] according to what it deserves ⁵⁹ -[is, then, He like anything else that exists]? And yet, they ascribe to other beings a share in God's divinity! Say: "Give them any name [you please]: ⁶⁰ but do you [really think that you could] inform Him of anything on earth that He does not know-or [do you] but play with words ?, ⁶¹ Nay, goodly seems their false imagery ⁶² to those who are bent on denying the truth, and so they are turned away from the [right] path: and he whom God lets go astray can never find any guide. ⁶³
Rashad Khalifa	13:33 Is there any equal to the One who controls every single soul? Yet, they set up idols to rival GOD. Say, "Name them. Are you informing Him of something on earth that He does not know? Or, are you fabricating empty statements?" Indeed, the schemes of those who disbelieve have been adorned in their eyes. They are thus diverted from the right path. Whomever GOD sends astray can never find a guiding teacher.

Shabbir Ahmed	13:33 Is there anyone equal to the One Who stands witness over every being and knows all that it does? Yet, they ascribe partners to God. Say, "Name them! Are you educating Him about something that He does not know on earth? Or, is it a mere show of words?" Nay, whatever the unbelievers contrive seems fair to them. They are thus diverted from the right path. Whomever God leaves to stray (for violating the laws of guidance), for him there is no guide. ¹⁵
Transliteration	13:33 Afaman huwa q a-imun AAal akulli nafs in bim a kasabat wajaAAaloo lill ahi shuraka ^a qul sammoo ^h um am tunabbi-oonahu bim a l a yaAAalamufee al-ar di am bi th ahirin minaalqawli bal zuyyina lilla ^{the} ena kafaroo makruhum wa suddooAAani alssabeeli waman yu ^d lili Allahu famalahu min ha ^d in
A	13:33 افمن هو قائم على كل نفس بما كسبت وجعلوا لله شركاء قل سموهم ام تنبونه بما لا يعلم في الارض ام يظهر من القول بل زين للذين كفروا مكرهم وصدوا عن السبيل ومن يضل الله فما له من هاد
Edip-Layth	13:34 They will have a punishment in the worldly life, and the punishment of the Hereafter is more difficult. They will have no protector against God.
The Monotheist Group	13:34 They will have a punishment in the worldly life, and the punishment of the Hereafter is more difficult. And they will have no defender against God.
Muhammad Asad	13:34 For such, there is suffering in the life of this world; ⁶⁴ but, truly, [their] suffering in the life to come will be harder still, and they will have none to shield them from God.
Rashad Khalifa	13:34 They have incurred retribution in this life, and the retribution in the Hereafter is far worse. Nothing can protect them against GOD.
Shabbir Ahmed	13:34 For them is torment in the life of this world, and certainly the doom of the life to come is harder, and they will have no defender against God.
Transliteration	13:34 Lahum AAa th abun fee al hayat ⁱ alddunya walaAAa th abu al- akhira ^t iashaqu wama ^l ahum mina All ^a hi min wa ^q in
A	13:34 لهم عذاب في الحياة الدنيا ولعذاب الءاخرة اشق وما لهم من الله من واق
Edip-Layth	Heaven is Described Allegorically 13:35 The allegory of paradise that the righteous have been promised is that rivers flow beneath it, and its provisions are continuous as is its shade. Such is the abode of those who were righteous, while the abode of the ingrates is the fire.
The Monotheist Group	13:35 The example of Paradise that the righteous have been promised, is that rivers flow beneath it, and its provisions are continuous as is its shade. Such is the abode of those who were righteous, while the abode of the rejecters is the Fire.
Muhammad Asad	13:35 THE PARABLE of the paradise promised to those who are conscious of God [is that of a garden] through which running waters flow: ⁶⁵ [but, unlike an earthly garden,] its fruits will be everlasting, and [so will be] its shade. ⁶⁶ Such will be the destiny of those who remain conscious of God-just as the destiny of those who deny the truth will be the fire. ⁶⁷
Rashad Khalifa	Heaven Allegorically Described 13:35 The allegory of Heaven, which is promised for the righteous, is flowing streams, inexhaustible provisions, and cool shade. Such is the destiny for those who observe righteousness, while the destiny for the disbelievers is Hell.
	13:35 The similitude of the Garden which is promised for the righteous, is flowing

Shabbir Ahmed	streams beneath, its fruit everlasting, and cool shades (14:25, 47:15). This is the reward of the righteous, while the reward of the rejecters is the fire.
Transliteration	13:35 Mathalu aljannati allatee wuAAidaalmuttaqoona tajree min ta htiha al-an haruokuluha d a -imun wa thilluhatilka AAuqb a alla theena ittaqaw waAAuqb a alka fireenaalnnaru
A	13:35 ئى مثل الجنة التى وعد المتقون تجرى من تحتها الانهر اكلها دائم وظلها تلك عقبى الذين اتقوا وعقبى الكافرين النار
Edip-Layth	13:36 Those to whom We have previously given the book rejoice at what has been sent down to you, but there are some of the groups that reject parts of it. Say, "I am only ordered to serve God and not to associate any partner with Him. To Him I pray and to Him is the return."
The Monotheist Group	13:36 And those to whom We have previously given the Scripture rejoice at what has been sent down to you, but there are some of the groups that reject parts of it. Say: "I am only ordered to serve God and not join any partner with Him. To Him I implore and to Him is the return."
Muhammad Asad	13:36 Hence, they unto whom We have vouchsafed this revelation ⁶⁸ rejoice at all that has been bestowed upon thee [O Prophet] from on high; ⁶⁹ but among the followers of other creeds there are such as deny the validity of some of it. ⁷⁰ Say [unto them, O Prophet]: "I have only been bidden to worship God, and not to ascribe divine. powers to aught beside Him : ⁷¹ unto Him do I call [all mankind], and He is my goal!"
Rashad Khalifa	13:36 Those who received the scripture rejoice in what was revealed to you; some others may reject parts of it. Say, "I am simply enjoined to worship GOD, and never associate any idols with Him. I invite to Him, and to Him is my ultimate destiny."
Shabbir Ahmed	13:36 So, those to whom We have given the Book, rejoice in what is revealed to you (O Prophet!). But, among the (dissenting) groups, there are those who deny a part of it. Say, "I am commanded only that I serve God and associate none with Him. Unto Him I invite all mankind, and He is my goal." ¹⁶
Transliteration	13:36 Waallatheena atayna humualkitaba yafra hoona bim a onzila ilaykawamina al- ahzabi man yunkiru baAA dahu qulinnam a omirtu an aAAabuda All a ha wal a oshrikabihi ilayhi adAAoo wa-ilayhi ma abi
A	13:36 والذين ءاتينهم الكتب يفرحون بما انزل اليك ومن الاحزاب من ينكر بعضه قل انما امرت ان اعبد الله ولا اشرك به اليه ادعوا واليه ماب
Edip-Layth	The Miraculous Signs for Future Generations 13:37 Thus, We have sent it down a law in Arabic. If you follow their desires after what has come to you of the knowledge, then you will not have any ally or protector against God.
The Monotheist Group	13:37 And as such, We have sent it down a law in Arabic. And if you follow their desires after what has come to you of the knowledge, then you will not have any ally or defender against God.
Muhammad Asad	13:37 Thus, then, have We bestowed from on high this [divine writ] as an ordinance in the Arabic tongue. ⁷² And, indeed, if thou shouldst defer to men's likes and dislikes ⁷³ after all the [divine] knowledge that has come unto thee, thou wouldst have none to protect thee from God, and none to shield thee [from Him].

Rashad Khalifa	Divine Authorization of the Quran's Mathematical Code 13:37 We revealed these laws in Arabic, and if you ever acquiesce to their wishes, after this knowledge has come to you, you will have no ally, nor a protector, against GOD. ⁴
Shabbir Ahmed	13:37 Thus, We have revealed it, a decisive authority in Arabic. (O Prophet!) If you became influenced by people's likes and dislikes after the knowledge has come to you, you will have no protector or defender against God.
Transliteration	13:37 Wakathalika anzalnahu hukmanAAarabiyyan wala-ini ittabaAAata ahwaahum baAAada majaaaka mina alAAailmi ma laka mina Allahi minwaliyyin wala waqin
A	13:37 وكذلك انزلنه حكما عربيا ولن اتبع اهواءهم بعدما جاءك من العلم ما لك من الله من ولى ولا واق
Edip-Layth	13:38 We have sent messengers before you and We have made for them mates and offspring. It was not for a messenger to come with any sign except by God's leave, but for every time there is a decree. ⁵
The Monotheist Group	13:38 And We have sent messengers before you and We have made for them mates and offspring. It was not for a messenger to come with any sign except by God's leave, but for every time there is a decree.
Muhammad Asad	13:38 And, truly, We sent forth apostles before thee, and We appointed for them wives and offspring; ⁷⁴ and it was not given to any apostle to produce a miracle save at God's behest. ⁷⁵ Every age has had its revelation: ⁷⁶
Rashad Khalifa	13:38 We have sent messengers before you, and we made them husbands with wives and children. No messenger can produce a miracle without GOD's authorization, and in accordance with a specific, predetermined time.
Shabbir Ahmed	13:38 And certainly We sent messengers before you, and We appointed for them wives and children as well. It was not given to any messenger that he could bring a sign (the requital they hastened for), but it came according to God's Law of Respite. For every rise and for every fall, there is a Written law. ¹⁷
Transliteration	13:38 Walaqad arsaln a rusulan min qablikawajaAAaln a lahum azw ajan wathurriyyatan wam akana lirasoolin an ya/tiya bi- ayatin ill abi-ithni Allahi likulli ajalin kitabun
A	13:38 ولقد ارسلنا رسلا من قبلك وجعلنا لهم ازوجا وذرية وما كان لرسول ان ياتي باية الا باذن الله لكل اجل كتاب
Edip-Layth	13:39 God erases what He wishes and affirms, and with Him is the source of the book.
The Monotheist Group	13:39 God erases what He wishes and affirms, and with Him is the source of the Scripture.
Muhammad Asad	13:39 God annuls or confirms whatever He wills [of His earlier messages] -for with Him is the source of all revelation. ⁷⁷
Rashad Khalifa	13:39 GOD erases whatever He wills, and fixes (whatever He wills). With Him is the original Master Record.
Shabbir Ahmed	13:39 God blots out and establishes communities according to His laws. Nations rise and fall accordingly, and with Him is the Ultimate Decree. ¹⁸

Transliteration	13:39 Yam hoo Allahu ma yashaowayuthbitu waAAindah u ommu alkitabi
A	13:39 يمحوا الله ما يشاء ويثبت وعنده ام الكتاب
Edip-Layth	13:40 If We show you some of what We promise them or if We let you pass away, for you is only to deliver, while for Us is the reckoning. ⁶
The Monotheist Group	13:40 And if We show you some of what We promise them, or We terminate your life, then you are only to deliver while for Us is the reckoning.
Muhammad Asad	13:40 BUT WHETHER We let thee see [in thy lifetime, O Prophet, the fulfilment of] some of what We have promised them, ⁷⁸ or whether We cause thee to die [before its fulfilment] - thy duty is no more than to deliver the message; and the reckoning is Ours.
Rashad Khalifa	13:40 Whether we show you what we promise them, or terminate your life before that, your sole mission is to deliver (the message). It is us who will call them to account.
Shabbir Ahmed	13:40 (O Messenger!) Whether We show you what We promise them, or cause you to die before that, your duty is to convey the message. And the reckoning is Ours.
Transliteration	13:40 Wa-in ma nuriyannaka baAAdaallathee naAAiduhum aw natawaffayannaka fa-innamaAAalayka albalaghu waAAalayna alhisabu
A	13:40 وان ما نرينك بعض الذى نعدهم او نتوفيك فانما عليك البلغ وعلينا الحساب
Edip-Layth	The Consequence of Arrogance and Indulgence 13:41 Do they not see that We come to the land and reduce it from its borders? God gives judgment and there is none to override His judgment. He is quick reckoning.
The Monotheist Group	13:41 Do they not see that We come to the land and reduce it from its ends? And God gives judgment and there is none to override His judgment. And He is quick to reckoning.
Muhammad Asad	13:41 Have, then, they [who deny the truth] never yet seen how ⁷⁹ We visit the earth [with Our punishment], gradually depriving it of all that is best thereon? ⁸⁰ For, [when] God judges, there is no power that could repel His judgment: and swift in reckoning is He!
Rashad Khalifa	13:41 Do they not see that every day on earth, brings them closer to the end, and that GOD decides their life span, irrevocably? He is the most efficient Reckoner.
Shabbir Ahmed	13:41 Do they not see that every day on earth brings them closer to the end? For, when God judges, there is no power that could repel His Judgment. And Swift in reckoning He is!
Transliteration	13:41 Awa lam yaraw anna na/tee al-ar dananqusuha min a trafiha waAllahuyahkumu la muAAaqbiba lihukmihi wahuwasareeAAu alhisabi
A	13:41 اولم يروا انا نأتى الارض ننقصها من اطرافها والله يحكم لا معقب لحكمه وهو سريع الحساب
Edip-Layth	13:42 Those before them have schemed, but to God is all scheming. He knows what every person earns and the ingrates will come to know to whom is the ultimate abode.

The Monotheist Group	13:42 And those before them have schemed, but to God is all scheming. He knows what every soul earns and the rejecters will come to know to whom is the better abode.
Muhammad Asad	13:42 Now those who lived before these [sinners] did, too, devise many a blasphemy ⁸¹ -but the most subtle devising is that of God, who knows what each human being deserves : ⁸² and the deniers of the truth will [in time] come to know to whom the future belongs. ⁸³
Rashad Khalifa	13:42 Others before them have schemed, but to GOD belongs the ultimate scheming. He knows what everyone is doing. The disbelievers will find out who the ultimate winners are.
Shabbir Ahmed	13:42 Those who lived before these people, also devised schemes, but the most Subtle devising is that of God. He knows what every 'self' earns. The rejecters will soon find out as to whom belongs the Future.
Transliteration	13:42 Waqad makara alla the ena min qablihimfalill a hi almakru jameeAAan yaAAalamu m a taksibukullu nafsina wasayaAAalamu alkuff a ru liman AAuqb a alddar i
A	13:42 وقد مكر الذين من قبلهم فله المكر جميعا يعلم ما تكسب كل نفس وسيعلم الكفر لمن عقبي الدار
Edip-Layth	13:43 Those who reject say, "You are not a messenger." Say, "God is sufficient as a witness between me and you, the One who has the knowledge of the book."
The Monotheist Group	13:43 And those who reject say: "You are not a messenger." Say: "God is sufficient as a witness between me and you, the One who has the knowledge of the Scripture."
Muhammad Asad	13:43 And [if] they who are bent on denying the truth say [unto thee, O Prophet], "Thou hast not been sent [by God]", say thou: "None can bear witness between me and you as God does; and [none can bear witness as does] he who truly understands this divine writ." ⁸⁴
Rashad Khalifa	13:43 Those who disbelieved will say, "You are not a messenger!" Say, "GOD suffices as a witness between me and you, and those who possess knowledge of the scripture."
Shabbir Ahmed	13:43 The disbelievers say, "You have not been sent (by God)." Say, "None can bear witness between me and you as God does; and then, none can bear witness as the one who truly understands this Book by way of reason." ¹⁹
Transliteration	13:43 Wayaqoolu alla the ena kafaroo lastamursalan qul kaf a bi All a hi shaheedan bayneewabaynakum waman AAindahu AAilmu alkit a bi
A	13:43 ويقول الذين كفروا لست مرسلا قل كفى بالله شهيدا بيني وبينكم ومن عنده علم الكتب

< < Prev 13:1-43 Next > >

Return to top

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist TranslationEdip-Layth - End Note 1 (13:1)

A1L30M40R200. These letters/numbers play an important role in the mathematical system of the Quran based on code 19. See 74:1-56; 1:1; 2:1; 13:38; 27:82; 38:1-8; 40:28-38; 46:10; 72:28.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (13:8)

See 4:119. The verse does not assert that only God knows these. See 42:49; 31:34.

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (13:11)

This verse is traditionally rendered as "For each there are succeeding angels, before and behind him, guarding him by God's command." However, the context of the verse led us to prefer a different understanding.

Edip-Layth - End Note 4 (13:15)

The unappreciative opponents of the monotheistic message also prostrate for God; in other words, willingly or unwillingly they follow God's laws in nature. Unappreciative people are obliged to follow the laws of nature. Those who do not cognitively wish to accept God's sovereignty might speculate about their ability to control their biological bodies, but the Quran challenges them with a simple example that they can never escape: your shadow obeys God. The shade created by sunlight follows a precise path depending on geographic coordinates, hour of the day, and the day of the year. In other words, the motion of your shadow follows the laws of reflection of light that comes from the sun and changes in accordance to earth's motion. As long as you live on this moving planet and under this illuminating and radiating sun, you cannot change the motion of your shade. See 2:258, 16:48-49.

Edip-Layth - End Note 5 (13:38)

The Quran informs us about many miracles/evidences (aya/beyyinat) given to previous messengers, as extraordinary evidences for their extraordinary claims. However, many dogmatic skeptics or dogmatic followers of a particular teaching always managed to find excuses to blind themselves to those evidences. They considered them to be magic, tricks, illusions or mythology. Some modern Muslim scholars, perhaps because of their lack of appreciation of God's power, tried very hard to deny the existence of miracles; they tried to transform them into natural events, or symbolic statements. Those who have witnessed the perpetual mathematical miracle of the Quran, will have no problem in accepting the examples of miracles given in the Quran. Miracles remove the doubts of those who sincerely seek for truth, and strengthen those who already acknowledged the message. The Quran repeatedly informs us that God does not change His sunna (law); and sending messengers with supporting miracles/signs has been God's law. Below is a list of miracles/signs mentioned in the Quran:

- Some of the Children of Israel are resurrected on Earth after being killed (2:56).
- Moses causes 12 springs to gush forth (2:60).
- A man dies and is resurrected after 100 years (2:259).
- Abraham kills four birds and brings them back to life (2:260).
- Zechariah's wife gives birth while infertile (3:40).
- Mary gives birth while being a virgin (3:47).
- Jesus heals the blind, lepers (3:49).
- Jesus raises the dead (3:49).
- Angels descend to fight alongside the prophet (3:125).
- God speaks to Moses (4:164).
- Jesus brings down a feast from heaven (5:112).
- Moses turns his staff into a serpent (7:107).
- Moses' hand becomes pure white (7:108).
- God reveals Himself physically to a mountain (7:143).

- Abraham's wife gives birth while beyond menstruation (11:72).
- The sleepers of the cave survive 309 years in sleep (18:25).
- Jesus speaks from birth (19:29).
- Abraham survives being burned alive by the fire turning cold (21:69).
- Solomon commands the winds (21:81).
- Moses parts the sea and saves the Children of Israel (26:63).
- Solomon speaks to the birds (27:16).
- Solomon moves a palace across time and space (27:40).

Edip-Layth - End Note 6 (13:40)

These verse contain one of the many implied prophecies about the mathematical miracle of the Quran, which was designed by God to be unveiled in 1974. The Arabic word we translated with the word "reckoning" is hesab, which also means "to number" or "to count." The Arabic of the Quran contains many such rich meanings, which are usually lost in translation. In the endnotes, we have pulled the attention to a few of them. Furthermore, the reduction of the land from its edges might be a prophetic reference to the feared consequence of global warming. Melting of the icebergs can increase the height of ocean and claim the shores of many regions, thereby reducing the land from its edges.

Edip-Layth - End Note (13:41)

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (13:1)

See Appendix II.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (13:1)

Although some commentators are of the opinion that the term kitab ("divine writ" or "revelation") refers here to this particular surah, Ibn `Abbas states emphatically that it denotes the Qur'an as a whole (Baghawi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (13:1)

This passage connects with the concluding verses (102-111) of the preceding surah, and particularly with verse 103, all of which, stress the divine origin of the Qur'an.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (13:2)

For an explanation of this phrase, see surah 7, note 43. As regards the "raising of the heavens without any supports" visible to man, it should be borne in mind that the noun sama' denotes, primarily, "something that is above [another thing]", and is used - mostly in its plural form samawat - to describe (a) the visible skies (as well as, occasionally, the clouds), (b) the cosmic space in which the stars, the solar systems (including our own) and the galaxies pursue their course, and (c) the abstract concept of the forces emanating from God (since He is, in the metonymical sense of this word, "above" all that exists). To my mind, it is the second of these three meanings of samawat to which the 'above verse refers: namely, to the spatial universe in which all aggregations of matter - be they planets, stars, nebulae or galaxies - are, as it were, "suspended" in space within a system of unceasing motion determined by centrifugal forces and mutual, gravitational attraction.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (13:2)

This may refer either to the end of the world as we know it - thus indicating the finality of all creation - or, according to `Abd Allah ibn `Abbas (as quoted by Baghawi and Razi), to the "mansions" or stages through which the sun and the moon, like all other celestial bodies, move in time as well as in space.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (13:2)

Le., "so that you might realize that He who has created the universe and governs all that exists is equally able to resurrect the dead, and to judge you in the life to come in accordance with what you did when you were alive on earth".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (13:3)

Lit., "and out of all [kinds of] fruits He made thereon (i.e., on earth) pairs (zawjayn ithnayn)". The term zawj denotes, according to the context, either "a pair" or "one of a pair". Whenever the dual form zawjan is followed by the additional numerical definition ithnan ("two"), it invariably signifies "a pair comprising both sexes". Thus, the above phrase states that there are two sexes to every kind of plant: a statement fully in accord with botanical science. (Usually, the male and female organs of reproduction exist together in one and the same flower of a particular plant, e.g., cotton; alternatively, they are placed in separate flowers of one and the same plant, e.g., in most of the cucurbitaceae; and, in some rare cases, e.g., the date-palm, in entirely separate, uni-sexual plants of the same species.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (13:4)

Le., regarding the nature of the soil, fertility and kind of vegetation. The necessity of this interpolation - which, in the consensus of all commentators, conveys the meaning of the above phrase - becomes apparent from the subsequent clauses.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (13:4)

Lit., "non-clustered" (qhayr sinwan) - i.e., each tree having separate roots.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (13:4)

Cf. 6:99 and 141, where a similar stress is laid on the multiformity of plants-and their varying beneficence to man and animal - as some of the signs of God's purposeful, creative activity.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (13:5)

Le., while it is amazing that one can refuse to believe in God despite all the evidence, accessible to human observation, of the existence of a definite purpose in all life-phenomena, and thus of the existence of a conscious Creative Power, it is no less amazing to see people who, while vaguely believing in God, can yet refuse to believe in individual resurrection: for, if God has created the universe and the phenomenon of life as such, He obviously has the power to re-create life -and its requisite physical vehicle -in a new act of creation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (13:5)

By denying the possibility of resurrection, they implicitly deny God's almightiness, and thus, in effect, His reality.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (13:5)

A metaphor of man's wilful self-abandonment to false values and evil ways, and of the resulting enslavement of the spirit (cf. Zamakhshari, Razi, Baydawi). See also surah 34, note 44.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (13:6)

Lit., "they ask thee to hasten the evil before the good": i.e., instead of willingly accepting the guidance offered them by the Prophet, they mockingly challenge him to bring about the exemplary punishment with which, according to him, God threatens them. (For a fuller explanation of this "challenge", referred to here and in several other places in the Qur'an, see 6:57-58 and 8:32, as well as the corresponding notes.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (13:6)

Cf. the first sentence of 10:11 and the corresponding note 17.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (13:7)

Le., to prove that he (Muhammad) is really a prophet inspired by God. But the Qur'an makes it clear in several places (e.g., 6:7 and 111, 10:96-97 or 13:31) that even a miracle would not convince those who are "bent on denying the truth".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (13:7)

According to the classical commentators, this sentence lends itself to several interpretations: (1) "Thou art only a warmer; and every nation has had a guide like thee (i.e., a prophet)"-which would be in consonance with the Qur'anic doctrine of the continuity of prophetic guidance; or (2) "Thou art only a warmer - but [at the same time] also a guide unto all people" - which would stress the universality of the Qur'anic message as contrasted with the time-bound and ethnically limited missions of the earlier prophets; or (3) "Thou art only a warmer bound to do no more than deliver the message entrusted to thee, while it is God alone who can truly guide men's hearts towards faith". Since the last of the above three interpretations is the most plausible and has, moreover, the support of `Abd Allah ibn `Abbas, Sa`id ibn Jubayr, Mujahid and Ad-Dahhak, I have adopted it in my rendering. According to Zamakhshari, this interpretation is further strengthened by the subsequent reference to God's omniscience.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (13:8)

The term untha denotes any female being, whether human or animal. The "falling short" may refer either to a shortening of the usual period of gestation (e.g., to seven months in human beings) or to a falling short of the completion of pregnancy, i.e., a miscarriage; it is to be noted that the noun qhayd signifies "an abortive foetus" (Taj al-'Arus), i.e., in human beings, a foetus less than seven months old. The "increase", on the other hand, may mean either the completion of gestation or its being in excess of the average period (as, for instance, the occasional lengthening of human pregnancy from the usual period of about 280 days to 305 or, according to some medical authorities, even 307 days). In addition to this, God's knowledge of "what any female bears [in her womb]" obviously relates also to the sex of the unborn embryo as well as to the number of offspring involved in one pregnancy.-As the sequence shows, this reference to the mysteries of gestation, fully known only to God, is meant to bring out the idea that He who knows what is in the wombs knows also the innermost disposition of every human being and the direction in which that human being will develop.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (13:8)

Lit., "according to a measure" (bi-migdar) -i.e., in accordance with the particular purpose for which it has been created, the exigencies of its existence and the role which it is destined to play within God's plan of creation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (13:9)

See surah 6, note 65.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (13:9)

God's attribute al-muta'al, which occurs in the Qur'an only in this one instance, denotes His infinite exaltedness above anything existing or potential; also, according to Zamakhshari, above anything that could be circumscribed by human definitions. (See in this connection the last sentence of 6:100 and the corresponding note 88.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (13:10)

The term qawl denotes, primarily, "a saying" or "an utterance", but it is also used tropically, in the sense of "an idea", irrespective of whether it is expressed in actual words (as a statement, an assertion, a formulated doctrine, etc.) or merely conceived in the mind (e.g., an opinion, a view, or a connected set of ideas). Since in the above verse this term obviously refers to unspoken thoughts, I have rendered it accordingly.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 23 (13:10)

Lit., "and goes forth by day" - i.e., commits evil deeds openly (Ibn `Abbas, as quoted by Baghawi and Razi). In the Arabic construction, the sentence reads thus: "All alike [to Him] is he from among you who conceals his thought (al-qawl) and he who brings it into the open, as well as he who. . ." etc.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 24 (13:11)

Lit., "from between his hands and from behind him". As in 2:255, the expression "between his hands" denotes "something that is perceivable by him" or "evident to him", while that which is "behind him" is a metonym for something "beyond his ken" or "hidden from him". See also next note.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 25 (13:11)

Lit., "from God's command (amr)". The rendering of the above passage hinges on the meaning given to the term mu'aqqibat-a double plural of mu'agqib, which signifies "something that comes immediately after another thing" or "succeeds another thing without interruption". Most of the classical commentators understand by mu'aqqibat "hosts of angels", i.e., the recording angels who attend on every human being, succeeding one another without interruption. Consequently, they interpret the phrase min bayni yadayhi wa-min khalfihi as meaning "ranged before him and behind him", i.e., surrounding man from all sides; and they explain the words "from God's command" as being here synonymous with "by God's command", and take them to refer to the angels or to their function of guardianship. However, this interpretation has by no means the support of all the commentators. Some of the earliest ones assume that the term mu'aqqibat refers to all manner of worldly forces or concepts on which man so often relies in the mistaken belief that they might help him to achieve his aims independently of God's will: and this is the meaning given to this elliptic passage by the famous commentator Abu Muslim al-Isfahani, as quoted by Razi. Explaining verse 10 and the first part of verse 11, he says: "All alike are, in God's knowledge, deeds done secretly or openly, as well as he who hides in the darkness of night and he who walks [boldly] in the light of day ... : for he that resorts to the [cover of] night can never elude God's will (amr), just as he [cannot] that walks in the light of day, surrounded by hosts of helpers (mu'aqqibat)-that is, guards and aids-meant to protect him: [for] those guards of his cannot save him from [the will of] God." It is on this convincing interpretation that I have based my rendering. The worldly "guards and aids" on which a sinner relies may be tangible (like wealth, progeny, etc.) or intangible (like personal power, high social standing, or the belief in one's "luck"): and this explains the phrase "both such as can be perceived by him and such as are hidden from him" (see preceding note).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 26 (13:11)

Lit., "that which is in themselves". This statement has both a positive and a negative connotation: i.e., God does not withdraw His blessings from men unless their inner selves become depraved (cf. 8:53), just as He does not bestow His blessings upon wilful sinners until they change their inner disposition and become worthy of His grace. In its wider sense, this is an illustration of the divine law of cause and effect (sunnat Allah) which dominates the lives of both individuals and communities, and makes the rise and fall of civilizations dependent on people's moral qualities and the changes in "their inner selves".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 27 (13:12)

I.e., hope of rain, which in the Qur'an frequently symbolizes faith and spiritual life. With this verse, the discourse returns to the theme enunciated at the beginning of this surah (verses 2-4): namely, to the evidence of a consciously devised plan and purpose inherent in all nature and, thus, of the existence of God.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 28 (13:13)

I.e., about His transcendental existence or the quality of His Being.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 29 (13:13)

According to Raghīb, the expression shadid al-mihal (which occurs in the Qur'an only in this one place) signifies "powerful in contriving, in a manner hidden from man, that wherein wisdom lies"; hence my rendering.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 30 (13:14)

Lit., "His is the call [or "invocation"] of the truth"; or, possibly, "to Him [alone] is due all true invocation". It should, however, be remembered that the term al-haqq ("the Truth") is one of the Qur'anic attributes of God, signifying the Ultimate Reality or Primal Cause of all that exists (the Urgrund in German philosophical terminology): consequently, the expression da`wat al-haqq may be understood in the sense of "prayer directed towards Him who is the Ultimate Reality", implying-as the sequence clearly states-that the invocation of any other being, power or principle is eo ipso wrong and futile.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 31 (13:14)

Or: "side by side with God".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 32 (13:14)

Lit., "his two palms".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 33 (13:15)

The expression yasjud ("prostrates himself" or "prostrate themselves") is a metonym for complete submission to His will (Zamakhshari), that is, to the natural laws decreed by Him with regard to everything that exists. According to most of the classical commentators, those who submit to God willingly (i.e., consciously) are the angels and the believers, whereas the deniers of the truth, who are "not willing" to submit to Him, are nevertheless, without being conscious of it, subject to His will. However, in view of the subsequent reference to "shadows" it is logical to assume that the relative pronoun man relates in this context not merely to conscious beings but also to all other physical objects, whether animate or inanimate-i.e., to "all things and beings that are in the heavens and on earth". (See also 16:48-49 and 22:18.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 34 (13:15)

Le., the varying lengths of the shadow projected by any material object depend on the position of the sun in relation to the earth; and since the earth's rotation around the sun is -as everything else in the universe - an outcome of God's creative will, the greater length of a shadow in the morning and evening and its contraction towards noon visibly expresses the shadow's subjection to Him.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 35 (13:16)

Lit., "do they assign to God partners . . .", etc. - i.e., beings that supposedly have a share in God's divinity and/or His creative power. (See also surah 6, note 15.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 36 (13:16)

Although the term khalq ("creation" or "act of creation") is often used metaphorically with reference to human achievements, there is an intrinsic difference between the "creation" of an artist, a poet or a philosopher, and the act of creation as attributed to God: for whereas the human "creator" produces his work out of already-existing elements and does no more than bring those elements together in a (possibly) new combination, God alone has the power to create in the true sense of the word - that is, to bring into being something that did not exist, either in its entirety or in its components, before this particular act of creation (cf. 2:117 - "when He wills a thing to be, He but says unto it, 'Be' - and it is"). This is the significance of the allusion, in the above verse, to the erroneous belief that any other power or being could ever have "created the like of what He creates".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 37 (13:17)

The interpolation of the adjective "once-dry" before "river-beds" (awdiyah) is necessitated by the absence of the definite article al before this noun. According to Zamakhshari, this indicates that only some of the river-beds are streaming with water while others, not affected by this particular rainfall, remain dry. It is to be borne in mind that the term wad (or wadi in popular parlance) denotes, primarily, a "water-course" or "river-bed" which is normally dry and carries water only after copious rainfalls; it is only by extension that this term is sometimes applied to an actual river.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 38 (13:17)

Sc., "while the water beneath remains clear".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 39 (13:18)

This rendering is based on Zamakhshari's interpretation of the above passage. According to other commentators, the beginning of verse 18 is independent of the last sentence of the preceding verse, and is a new sentence, reading thus: "For those who have responded to their Sustainer there is the ultimate good (al-husna) [in store]; but as for those who did not respond to Him. . .", etc. In my opinion, Zamakhshari's reading-in which the expression al-husna is regarded as an adjective qualifying the believers' response - is preferable inasmuch as it fully justifies the repetition of the reference to "God's parables".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 40 (13:18)

Lit., "and the like of it with it".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 41 (13:18)

Cf. 3:91 and the corresponding note 71.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 42 (13:20)

The "covenant" is, in this context, a general term embracing the spiritual obligations arising from one's faith in God and the moral and social obligations, resulting from that faith, towards one's fellow-men (Zamakhshari)-1 see in this connection the first sentence of 5:1 (where the term `aqd is used) and the corresponding note 1. As regards my rendering of `ahd Allah as "bond with God", see surah 2, note 19.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 43 (13:21)

This refers to all ties arising from human relationships- e.g., the bonds of family, responsibility for orphans and the poor, the mutual rights and duties of neighbours -as well as the spiritual and practical bonds which ought to exist between all who belong to the brotherhood of Islam (cf. 8:75 and the corresponding notes). In its widest sense, the phrase "what God has bidden to be joined" applies to the spiritual obligation, on the part of man, to remain conscious of the unity of purpose underlying all of God's creation, and hence - according to Razi - man's moral duty to treat all living beings with love and compassion.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 44 (13:22)

Some of the commentators take this to mean that "if they have committed a sin, they repel it [i.e., its effect] by repentance" (Ibn Kaysan, as quoted by Zamakhshari), while others think that the "repelling" connotes the doing of a good deed in atonement of a -presumably unintentional - bad deed (Razi), or that it refers to endeavours to set evil situations to rights by word or deed (an alternative interpretation mentioned by Zamakhshari). But the great majority of the classical commentators hold that the meaning is "they repay evil with good"; thus Al-Hasan al-Basri (as quoted by Baghawi, Zamakhshari and Razi): "When they are deprived [of anything], they give; and when they are wronged, they forgive." Tabari's explanation is very similar: "They repel the evil done to them by doing good to those who did it"; and "they do not repay evil with evil, but repel it by [doing] good". See also 41:34-36.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 45 (13:22)

Lit., "For them there will be the end-result [or "fulfilment"] of the [ultimate] abode". The noun `ugba is regarded by almost all the philological authorities as synonymous with `aqibah ("consequence" or "end" or "end-result"; hence also "recompense" and, tropically, "destiny" or "fulfilment"). The term ad-dar stands for ad-dar al-akhirah, "the ultimate abode", i.e., life in the hereafter.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 46 (13:23)

As I have pointed out in several places, the term zawj denotes "a pair" or "a couple" as well as each of the components of a couple - i.e., with reference to human couples, "a spouse": hence it signifies either "husband" or "wife": Similarly, the term aba' (lit., "fathers" or "forefathers") usually denotes both fathers and mothers, i.e., "parents"; and this is, according to Zamakhshari, the meaning in this instance. - As regards the expression `adn, rendered by me as "perpetual bliss", see note on 38: 50, the earliest instance of the Qur'anic use of this term.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 47 (13:25)

Lit., "after its establishment (mithaq)". For a full explanation of the expression "bond with God" and of my interpolation, between brackets, of the words "in their nature", see surah 2, note 19.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 48 (13:25)

The Qur'anic term la'nah - usually but inexactly translated as "curse" (and popularly used in this sense in post-classical Arabic parlance) -denotes "banishment" or "alienation" (ib'ad), i.e., from all that is good (Lisan al-Arab). Whenever it is attributed in the Qur'an to God with reference to a sinner, it signifies the latter's "exclusion from God's grace" or his "rejection by God". In the present context, this meaning is reinforced by the subsequent reference to "a most evil fate" (lit., "abode") in afterlife. - For an explanation of the phrase "what God has bidden to be joined", see note 43 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 49 (13:27)

See verse 7 of this surah and the corresponding note 16. The repetition of this question at this place points to its connection with the reference to "those who break their bond with God after it has been established [in their nature]" in verse 25 above (elucidated in note 19 on 2:27). The abandonment of their original, innate faculty to realize the existence of God and their own dependence on His guidance - caused by their utter immersion in the passing pleasures of this world's life - makes it impossible for "those who are bent on denying the truth" to sense the breath of the divine in the message propounded to them by Muhammad: and so they refuse to accept it as true unless it is supported by an outward "miracle". (See in this connection note 94 on 6:109.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 50 (13:27)

Or: "God lets go astray whomever He wills". Regarding the rendering adopted by me, see surah 14, note 4.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 51 (13:30)

Most of the commentators explain the "thus" or "thus it is" (kadhalika) as referring to the earlier prophets, namely, "Thus, [or "in like manner"] as We sent prophets before thee, O Muhammad, We have now sent thee. . .", etc. It seems to me, however, that this speculative interpolation is unnecessary, and that the adverb "thus" connects directly with the preceding statement that God "guides unto Himself all who turn unto Him": in other words, the "thus" qualifies Muhammad's mission as an instrument of God's guidance. (This is, apparently, how Tabari understands the above phrase.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 52 (13:30)

Lit., "before whom [other] communities have passed away": an indirect reference to the continuity of prophetic revelation before and up to the time of the Last Prophet, Muhammad (Zamakhshari, Razi). The interpolation of the words "of unbelievers" is based on Ibn Kathir's commentary on this verse, whereas my rendering of arsalnaka (lit., "We have sent thee") as "We have raised thee as Our Apostle" is necessitated, in English, by the subsequent preposition "amidst".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 53 (13:30)

Le., by refusing to acknowledge His existence, or by rejecting His guidance, or by ascribing divine qualities to other beings or forces side by side with Him.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 54 (13:31)

The sentence added by me between brackets corresponds to the interpretation given to the above passage by Tabari and also by Az-Zajjaj (as quoted by, Razi and-without the mention of Az-Zajjaj by name - by Baghawi and Zamakhshari as well); cf. 6:109-111.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 55 (13:31)

Lit., "God's alone is all [power of] command": i.e., no "miraculous sign" can ever convince those whose hearts God has "sealed" in consequence of their "breaking their bond with Him" (see surah 2, notes 7 and 19).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 56 (13:31)

The meaning is that God grants man the freedom to choose between right and wrong: "He guides unto Himself all who turn unto Him" (verse 27 above) and "are true to their bond with God" (verse 20); on the other hand, He withholds His guidance from "the iniquitous, who break their bond with "God" (2:26-27). See also the last sentence of 6:149 and the corresponding note 143.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 57 (13:31)

Lit., "a sudden calamity (qari'ah) will not cease (la yazal) to befall them or to alight close to their home". However, since this phrase connotes repetition and continuity, the singular form of the noun qari'ah has here obviously a cumulative sense - namely, an unceasing succession of social catastrophes, fratricidal wars and mutual deprivations which, in consequence of their deliberate disregard of all spiritual values, will directly befall "those who are bent on denying the truth" (alladhina kafaru), or will, indirectly, cause them to suffer by affecting their whole organic environment: and this, to my mind, is the meaning of the phrase "or will alight close to their homes". (Cf. in this connection 5:33 and the corresponding notes, especially note 45.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 58 (13:33)

The term nafs has here apparently the general meaning of "soul" or "living being", applying both to humans and animals.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 59 (13:33)

Lit., "what it has acquired" - i.e., according to the exigencies of its life, and - in the case of a human being-according to his or her moral deserts as well.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 60 (13:33)

Lit., "Name them!" Most of the commentators explain this phrase as an expression of utter contempt for those allegedly "divine" beings: i.e., "they are so unreal and meaningless as not to deserve even a name". It is also conceivable that we have here an echo of the statement, to be found in 7:71, 12:40 and 53:23, to the effect that those false objects of worship are but "[empty] names which you have invented". However, in view of the next sentence - which refers to God's omniscience and is similar to 10:18, where imaginary "intercessors" are explicitly mentioned - it is possible to interpret the above phrase still more precisely, viz., "Call them `divine intercessors', if you so like: but. . .", etc. (According to Zamakhshari, the particle am, which usually denotes "or", stands here for bal, "nay, but" or simply "but".)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 61 (13:33)

Lit., "or [do you say this] in the outward appearance (bi-zahir) of a saying". Cf. the second part of 10:18 (preceded by a reference to deified "intercessors") and the corresponding note 27.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 62 (13:33)

Lit., "their cunning [or "artful"] device (makr)": but since, as Tabari points out, this term relates here mainly to conscious shirk ("the attribution of divine qualities to aught but God") and, hence, to false religious ideas in general, it can be suitably rendered as above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 63 (13:33)

See surah 7, note 152, and surah 14, note 4.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 64 (13:34)

See the last paragraph of verse 31 and note 57 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 65 (13:35)

This rendering (and the interpolation of the words "is that of a garden") reproduces literally the interpretation given to the above passage by Az-Zajjaj, as quoted by Zamakhshari and-in an abbreviated form - by Razi; according to Zamakhshari, this passage serves "as a parabolic illustration, by means of something which we know from our experience, of something that is beyond the reach of our perception" (tamthilan li-ma ghaba `anna bi-ma nushahid). As in the similar (but wider) reference to "the parable of paradise" in 47:15, we are here reminded that the Qur'anic descriptions of what awaits man after resurrection are, of necessity, metaphorical, since the human mind cannot conceive of anything that is - both in its elements and its totality - entirely different from anything that can be experienced in this world. (See in this connection Appendix I.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 66 (13:35)

I.e., its gift of happiness. Regarding this metaphorical meaning of; zill ("shade"), see the last clause of 4:57 and the corresponding note 74.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 67 (13:35)

For my rendering of `ugba, in this context, as "destiny" see note 45 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 68 (13:36)

Sc., "and who believe in it".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 69 (13:36)

I.e., because it offers them guidance in this world and holds out to them the promise of ultimate happiness in the life to come.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 70 (13:36)

I.e., while admitting that the Qur'an contains much that coincides with the spiritual concepts taught by their own religions. The designation ahzab (lit., "parties" or "sects", sing. hizb) connotes here the followers of other religions or creeds (Tabari and Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 71 (13:36)

The particle "only" (innama) at the beginning of this sentence "clearly shows that there is [in Islam] no obligation, no ordinance and no prohibition that is not connected with this [principle]" (Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 72 (13:37)

Lit., "as an Arabic ordinance (hukm)": i.e., so as to enable the Arabian Prophet to propound it to the people of his immediate environment and, through them, to the whole world. Cf. in this connection 14:4, where it is stated that every one of God's prophets was entrusted with a message "in his own people's tongue, so that he might make [the truth] clear unto them". That the message of the Qur'an is universal, and not restricted to the Arabs alone, is brought out clearly in many places, e.g., in 7:158, "Say [O Prophet]: 'O mankind! Verily, I am an apostle of God to all of you.'"

Muhammad Asad - End Note 73 (13:37)

Lit., "follow their likes and dislikes (ahwahum)" - i.e., by compromising with the followers of other creeds who, while accepting some of the fundamental verities of the Qur'an, are unwilling to accept the whole of it.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 74 (13:38)

I.e., they were mortals like all other men, and were not endowed with any "supernatural" qualities. This is a rejoinder to those who refuse to accept a divine message as true on the grounds of its having been conveyed to mankind by an "ordinary mortal". (Cf. 25:7, where the unbelievers are speaking derisively of Muhammad as an apostle "who eats food [like all other mortals] and goes about in the market-places", and the many references to their incredulous wondering that God should have chosen as His prophet "a man from among themselves".) In addition to this, the above verse stresses, by implication, the positive value of man's natural, physical life-summarized, as it were, in the expression "wives and offspring"-and the rejection of exaggerated asceticism and self-mortification as an allegedly desirable "way to God".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 75 (13:38)

Lit., "by God's leave". Cf. 6:109 - "Miracles are in the power of God alone" - and the corresponding note 94. In the present context, this is an answer to those who refuse to believe in Muhammad's message unless "a miraculous sign" is bestowed upon him.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 76 (13:38)

Or: "a divine writ" (kitab). See 5:48 - "Unto every one of you have We appointed a [different] law and way of life"-and the corresponding note 66, which explains the succession of divine messages culminating in, and ending with, the revelation of the Qur'an. This interpretation of the above phrase - adopted, among others, by Ibn Kathir - connects it plausibly with the preceding mention of the apostles who came before Muhammad, and with the subsequent reference to the super-session of the earlier divine messages by that of the Qur'an. Apart from this, the statement that every age had a revelation suited to the particular needs of the time and the people concerned (Zamakhshari) constitutes an answer to the objection, often raised by followers of other creeds, that the message of the Qur'an differs in many respects from the earlier divine revelations (Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 77 (13:39)

I.e., He is the fountainhead or source (asl) of all revelation.-As regards the preceding reference to the abrogation of earlier divine dispensations and their super-session by later ones - ending with the final revelation, the Qur'an - see 2:106 and the corresponding note 87. (According to Qatadah, as quoted by Tabari and Ibn Kathir, the passage under consideration has the same purport as 2:106.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 78 (13:40)

I.e., the calamities which, according to the last paragraph of verse 31 above, are in store for "those who are bent on denying the truth" (alladhina kafaru).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 79 (13:41)

Lit., "that".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 80 (13:41)

Or: "curtailing it from [all] its sides" (min atrafiha) -depending on whether one understands by atraf the "sides" or "extremities" or "outlying parts" (of a concrete body or land) or, alternatively, the "outstanding men" - i.e., the great leaders, scholars and thinkers (Taj al-'Arus) - and "the best of the [earth's] inhabitants and fruits" (ibid.). Many commentators, taking the primary meaning of atraf, are of the opinion that the above sentence relates to the struggle between the early Muslim community at Medina and the pagans of Mecca, and interpret it thus: "Do they [i.e., the pagans of Mecca] not see that we are visiting [with Our punishment] the land [held by them], gradually curtailing it from [all] its sides?"- which would imply a prophecy of the gradual conquest of all Arabia by the Muslims. Other commentators, however, prefer the secondary meaning of atraf and - without denying its relevance to the early history of Islam - interpret this passage in a more general sense similar to the rendering adopted by me. Thus, for instance, Razi: "Have they [i.e., the deniers of the truth] never yet seen the turns of fortune (ikhtilafat) that take place in this world-destruction after prosperity, death after life, humiliation after glory, deficiency after perfection? ... Hence, what makes those deniers of the truth so sure that God will not render them abject after they had been mighty, and subjected [by others] after they had been rulers?" Thus, in its widest sense, the phrase "gradually depriving it of all that is best in it" may be taken to relate not merely to physical and social catastrophes but also to the ` loss of all ethical values - and, thus, to the loss of all worldly power - which "those who are bent on denying the truth" are bound to suffer in the end.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 81 (13:42)

Lit., "did scheme"-an expression which in this context apparently refers to blasphemous ideas and attitudes.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 82 (13:42)

Lit., "earns" -i.e., of good and evil.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 83 (13:42)

For an explanation of this rendering of `ugba 'd-dar (which is here synonymous with `aqibat ad-dar), see surah 6, note 118.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 84 (13:43)

Lit., "and anyone who possesses (man `indahu) knowledge of the revelation"-implying that a true understanding of the Qur'an unavoidably leads one to the conviction that it has been revealed by God.

Rashad Khalifa - The Final Testament

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 1 (13:1)

These initials constitute a major component of the Quran's built-in proof of divine authorship, the miraculous mathematical code. See Appendix 1.

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 3 (13:30)

If we add the gematrical value of "Rashad" (505), plus the value of "Khalifa" (725), plus the sura number (13), plus the verse number (30), we get $505+725+13+30 = 1273 = 19 \times 67$. God thus specifies the name of His messenger (see Appendix 2 for the details).

Rashad Khalifa - End Note (13:30)

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 4 (13:37)

The verse number (38) = 19×2 . Placing the values of "Rashad" (505) and "Khalifa" (725) next to 13:37-38, gives 505 725 13 37 38, or 19×26617112302 (Appendix 2).

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (13:2)

Studying the Book of nature will bring mankind closer to their Lord. Until recently, the sun was thought to be stationary, but today we know that the sun, along with Solar System, is moving toward the "Constellation of Hercules," also known as the "Solar Apex", at a speed of 12 miles per second, 43,200 miles per hour. 36:38

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (13:3)

Plants have male and female flowers, and some trees like the date-palm are unisexual, male and female

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (13:6)

He has designed the Law of Respite, the interim period when people can safely mend their ways

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (13:7)

The Perfect Divine guidance through the prophet shall be preserved in the form of the Qur'an for all times and all people 6:34, 6:91, 6:116, 10:64, 15:9 18:27, 41:53, 75:16-19. And his prime duty is to counsel mankind that false systems of life only end up in disaster

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (13:8)

God's guidance is a mercy to humanity. You may liken it to the nourishment of the embryo in the evolving environment of the womb. The embryo lodges in security and its needs are met in a timely fashion and in perfect balance. Then it comes to the world ready to thrive. This is how the Divine System, when established in a society, nourishes the individual

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (13:11)

8:53, 82:10-14. Hifz = Protect = Preserve = Save = Record = Guard. Ma bi anfusihim = What is in themselves = What is in their own 'self' = What is in their hearts = Their psyche = Their way of thinking = Their intentions = Their will to change = Their innate 'self'

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (13:12)

Similarly, the light of guidance brings to you the warning and a good tiding

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (13:14)

4:123

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (13:15)

3:82, 41:11

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 10 (13:17)

The real existence on earth is of the person or the system that benefits humanity

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 11 (13:22)

2:27

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 12 (13:27)

2:256, 4:88, 12:108

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 13 (13:29)

3:13

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 14 (13:31)

Mankind will keep devising various political and socio-economic systems in search for the best. Those systems will keep collapsing and they will keep suffering far and close to their homes. Then, ultimately, they will realize that the Qur'an offers the solutions to all the problems humanity might be facing at any given time. 9:31-33, 10:100, 13:31,14:48, 18:48, 41:53, 48:28, 51:20-21, 61:9. The Qur'an is intended to move hearts, not mountains 6:7, 6:25, 6:112, 15:14-15, 17:90-93

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 15 (13:33)

4:88

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 16 (13:36)

The dissenting groups even preach that some of the verses are abrogated or that they have a hidden meaning

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 17 (13:38)

7:34. All messengers were mortal human beings and they conveyed God's revelation as commanded. Please note that all of them had wives and children, and think of Jesus!

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 18 (13:39)

Ummul Kitaab = The Ultimate Decree = Divine Database

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 19 (13:43)

God will soon prove me true

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

Translations ▼

Chapter/Verse ▼

Refresh

Search

<< Prev 14:1-52 Next >>

Eidip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 14:1 A1L30R200. A book which We have sent down to you so that you may take the people out of the darkness and into the light, by their Lord's leave, to the path of the Noble, the Praiseworthy. ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 14:1 A.L.R, a Scripture which We have sent down to you so that you may take the people out of the darkness and into the light by their Lord's leave, to the path of the Noble, the Praiseworthy.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 14:1 Alif. Lam. Ra. ¹ A DIVINE WRIT [is this -a revelation] which We have bestowed upon thee from on high in order that thou might bring forth all mankind, by their Sustainer's leave, out of the depths of darkness into the light: onto the way that leads to the Almighty, the One to whom all praise is due -
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 14:1 A.L.R. A ¹ scripture that we revealed to you, in order to lead the people out of darkness into the light - in accordance with the will of their Lord - to the path of the Almighty, the Praiseworthy.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 14:1 A.L.R. Alif-Laam-Ra (Allah, Lateef the Unfathomable, Raaziq the Provider, states that), A Divine writ this is that We have revealed to you (O Prophet!) so that you may bring forth all mankind, by their Sustainer's leave, out of darkness into light. On to the way that leads to the Almighty, the Owner of all praise. ¹
	Bismi Allāhi alRrahmāni alRrahēemi

Transliteration	14:1 Alif-lam-ra kit ab unanzaln ahu ilayka litukhrija a Inn asa mina a lithth ulum ati il la al nn oori bi-i th ni rabbihim il a sir at il AA az eezi al h ameedi
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 14:1 الر كتب انزلنه اليك لتخرج الناس من الظلمت الى النور بانن ربهم الى صرط العزيز الحميد
Edip-Layth	14:2 God, to whom belongs all that is in the heavens, and all that is in the earth. Woe to the ingrates from a painful retribution.
The Monotheist Group	14:2 God, to whom belongs all that is in the heavens, and all that is in the Earth. And woe to the rejecters from a painful retribution.
Muhammad Asad	14:2 to God, unto whom all that is in the heavens and all that is on earth belongs. But woe unto those who deny the truth: for suffering severe
Rashad Khalifa	14:2 (The path of) GOD; the One who possesses everything in the heavens and everything on earth. Woe to the disbelievers; they have incurred a terrible retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:2 God to Whom belongs all that is in the heavens and all that is on earth. Therefore, those who reject His guidance, incur an awful retribution. ²
Transliteration	14:2 All ah i alla thee lahu m afee a Issam aw ati wam a fee al-ar di wawaylun li lk a fi reena min AA ath abin shadeedin
A	14:2 الله الذى له ما فى السموت وما فى الارض وويل للكافرين من عذاب شديد
Edip-Layth	14:3 The ones who have preferred the worldly life over the Hereafter, and they repel away from the path of God, and they seek its distortion. Those are the ones who are in misguidance.
The Monotheist Group	14:3 The ones who have preferred the worldly life over the Hereafter, and they repel away from the path of God, and they seek to make it crooked. Those are the ones who are in misguidance.
Muhammad Asad	14:3 awaits those who choose the life of this world as the sole object of their love, ² preferring it to [all thought of] the life to come, and who turn others away from the path of God and try to make it appear crooked. Such as these have indeed gone far astray!
Rashad Khalifa	What is Your Priority? 14:3 They are the ones who give priority to this life over the Hereafter, repel from the way of GOD, and seek to make it crooked; they have gone far astray.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:3 They choose the life of this world as the sole object of their love, preferring it to the life to come, and bar people from the path of God. They try to make the straight path crooked. They have strayed far away. ³
Transliteration	14:3 All at heena yasta hib boona al hay ataa l ddunya AA al a al- akh irati waya s uddoonaAA an sabeeli All ah i wayabghoonah a AA i wajan ol a - i kaf ee dal al in baAA ee d in
A	14:3 الذين يستحبون الحياة الدنيا على الءاخرة ويصدون عن سبيل الله ويبغونها عوجا اولئك فى ضلل بعيد
The Language of the Messenger

Edip-Layth	14:4 We did not send any messenger except in the language of his people, so he may proclaim to them. But God misguides whom He wills, and He guides whom He wills. He is the Noble, the Wise. ²
The Monotheist Group	14:4 And We have not sent any messenger except in the language of his people, so he may clarify to them. But God misguides whom He wills, and He guides whom He wills. And He is the Noble, the Wise.
Muhammad Asad	14:4 AND NEVER have We sent forth any apostle otherwise than [with a message] in his own people's tongue, so that he might make [the truth] clear unto them; ³ but God lets go astray him that wills [to go astray], and guides him that wills [to be guided] -for He alone is almighty, truly wise. ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	The Messenger's Language 14:4 We did not send any messenger except (to preach) in the tongue of his people, in order to clarify things for them. GOD then sends astray whomever He wills, and guides whomever He wills. He is the Almighty, the Most Wise.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:4 We never sent a messenger who did not speak the language of his people, so that he might make the message clear to them. People go astray or attain guidance according to God's laws (4:88). He is Almighty, Wise.
Transliteration	14:4 Wama arsalna min rasoolin illa bilisani qawmihi liyubayyina lahum faydu dillu Allāhuman yashāo wayahdee man yashāo wahuwa alAAazezu alhakeemu
A	14:4 وما أرسلنا من رسول الا بلسان قومه ليبين لهم فيضل الله من يشاء ويهدي من يشاء وهو العزيز الحكيم
Edip-Layth	Moses 14:5 We sent Moses with Our signs that you should bring your people out from the darkness and into the light, and remind them with God's days. In this are signs for any who are patient and thankful.
The Monotheist Group	14:5 And We have sent Moses with Our signs, that you should bring your people out from the darkness and into the light, and remind them of God's days. In this are signs for any who are patient and thankful.
Muhammad Asad	14:5 And [thus], indeed, have We sent forth Moses with Our messages [and this Our command]: "Lead thy people out of the depths of darkness into the light, and remind them of the Days of God!" ⁵ Verily, in this [reminder] there are messages indeed for all who are wholly patient in adversity and deeply grateful [to God].
Rashad Khalifa	Moses 14:5 Thus, we sent Moses with our miracles, saying, "Lead your people out of darkness into the light, and remind them of the days of GOD." These are lessons for every steadfast, appreciative person.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:5 (Moses spoke the language of his people.) We sent him with Our messages, saying, "Bring your people from darkness to light and remind them of the Days of God. Surely, there are lessons in the history of communities for those who are steadfast in their resolve to rise as a community and wish that their efforts be fruitful." ⁴
Transliteration	14:5 Walaqad arsalna moosa bi-ayatinaa akhrij qawmaka mina alththulumatiila alInnoori wa thakkirhum bi-ayy amiAllahi inna fee thalika la ayatinlikulli sabbarin shakoorin
A	14:5 ولقد أرسلنا موسى بآيتنا ان اخرج قومك من الظلمت الى النور وذكرهم بايم الله ان في ذلك لآيت لكل صبار شكور

Edip-Layth	14:6 Moses said to his people: "Remember God's blessings upon you that He saved you from the people of Pharaoh. They used to inflict the worst punishment upon you, and they used to murder your children, and shame your women. In that was a great trial from your Lord."
The Monotheist Group	14:6 And Moses said to his people: "Remember God's blessings upon you that He saved you from the people of Pharaoh. They used to inflict the worst punishment upon you, and they used to murder your children, and rape your women. And in that was a great trial from your Lord."
Muhammad Asad	14:6 And, lo ⁶ Moses spoke [thus] unto his people: "Remember the blessings which God bestowed upon you when He saved you from Pharaoh's people who afflicted you with cruel suffering, and slaughtered your sons, and spared [only] your women ⁷ -which was an awesome trial from your Sustainer."
Rashad Khalifa	The Importance of Being Appreciative 14:6 Recall that Moses said to his people, "Remember GOD's blessings upon you. He saved you from Pharaoh's people who inflicted the worst persecution upon you, slaughtering your sons and sparing your daughters. That was an exacting trial from your Lord."
Shabbir Ahmed	14:6 Moses spoke thus to his people, "Remember God's blessing upon you when He saved you from Pharaoh's people. They used to persecute you in the worst manner, killed your sons and spared your women (for slavery and shameful acts). Therein was a tremendous trial from your Lord."
Transliteration	14:6 Wa-i th q ala moos aliqawmihi o th kuroo niAAamata All ^{ahi} AAalaykum i th anjakum min ^{ali} firAAawna yasoomoonakum soo-a alAAa th abiwayu th abbi ^{hoona} abn ^a akum wayasta ^{hyoonanisa} akum wafee th alikum bala ^{on} min rabbikumAAa th ee ^{mun}
A	14:6 واذا قال موسى لقومه اذكروا نعمة الله عليكم اذ انجلكم من آل فرعون يسومونكم سوء العذاب ويذبحون ابناءكم ويستحيون نساءكم وفي ذلك بلاء من ربكم عظيم
Edip-Layth	14:7 When your Lord proclaimed: "If you give thanks, then I will increase for you, but if you turn unappreciative, then My retribution is severe."
The Monotheist Group	14:7 And your Lord proclaimed: "If you give thanks, then I will increase for you, but if you are rejecting, then My retribution is severe."
Muhammad Asad	14:7 And [remember the time] when your Sustainer made [this promise] known: 'If you are grateful [to Me], I shall most certainly give you more and more; ⁸ but if you are ungrateful, verily, My chastisement will be severe indeed!'"
Rashad Khalifa	Appreciative vs Unappreciative 14:7 Your Lord has decreed: "The more you thank Me, the more I give you." But if you turn unappreciative, then My retribution is severe.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:7 And recall! Your Lord proclaimed, "If you are grateful (establishing a system where everyone equitably receives the provision), I will give you more. But if you show ingratitude, then My retribution is certainly dire."
Transliteration	14:7 Wa-i th taa th thana rabbukumla-in shakartum laazeedannakum wala-in kafartum inna AAa th a ^{beelashadeed} un
A	14:7 واذا تاذن ربكم لن شكرتم لازيدنكم ولن كفرتم ان عذابي لشديد
Edip-Layth	14:8 Moses said, "If you reject, you and all who are on earth together, yet God is Rich, Praiseworthy."

The Monotheist Group	14:8 And Moses said: "If you reject, you and all who are on Earth together, then know that God is Rich, Praiseworthy."
Muhammad Asad	14:8 And Moses added: "If you should [ever] deny the truth-you and whoever else lives on earth, all of you-[know that,] verily, God is indeed self-sufficient, ever to be praised!"
Rashad Khalifa	14:8 Moses said, "If you disbelieve, along with all the people on earth, GOD is in no need, Praiseworthy."
Shabbir Ahmed	14:8 And Moses said, "If you deny the truth and show ingratitude, you and all on earth together, yet God is Absolutely Independent, Worthy of all praise."
Transliteration	14:8 Waqala moos a in takfuroo antumwaman fee al-ar di jameeAAan fa-inna Allahalaghaniyyun hameedun
A	14:8 وقال موسى ان تكفروا انتم ومن فى الارض جميعا فان الله لغنى حميد
Edip-Layth	14:9 Did not news come to you of those before you: the people of Noah, and Aad, and Thamud. Those after them, whom none know but God? Their messengers came to them with proof, but they placed their hands to their mouths and said, "We are rejecting what you have been sent with, and we are in grave doubt as to what you are inviting us to."
The Monotheist Group	14:9 Did not news come to you of those before you: the people of Noah, and 'Aad, and Thamud, and those after them whom none know but God? Their messengers came to them with clarity, but they placed their hands to their mouths and said: "We are rejecting what you have been sent with, and we are in grave doubt as to what you are inviting us to."
Muhammad Asad	14:9 HAVE THE STORIES of those [deniers of the truth] who lived before you never yet come within your ken - [the stories of] the people of Noah, and of [the tribes of] `Ad and Thamud, and of those who came after them? None knows them [now] save God. 9 There came unto them their apostles with all evidence of the truth -but they covered their mouths with their hands 10 and answered: "Behold, we refuse to regard as true the message with which you [claim to] have been entrusted; and, behold, we are .in grave doubt, amounting to suspicion, about [the meaning of] your call to us!"11
Rashad Khalifa	Egotistic Defiance: A Human Trait 14:9 Have you not heard about those before you - the people of Noah, `Aad, Thamoud, and others who came after them and known only to GOD? Their messengers went to them with clear proofs, but they treated them with contempt and said, "We disbelieve in what you are sent with. We are skeptical about your message; full of doubt." Following Our Parents Blindly: A Great Human Tragedy
Shabbir Ahmed	14:9 "Has not the history of the previous communities reached you? The history of the people of Noah and 'Aad and Thamud? And of those who came after them? None knows them but God. To them came their messengers with clear evidence of the truth. But they put their hands on their mouths and said, "Look! We reject what you are sent with. We are in great doubt concerning what you invite us."
Transliteration	14:9 Alam ya/tikum nabao alla theena minqablikum qawmi noo hin waAA adin wathamooda wa allatheenamin baAAadhim l a yaAAalamuhum ill a All ahu j aat-humrusuluhum bi albayyinati faraddoo aydiyahum fee afw ahihimwaqaloo inn a kafarna bim a orsiltumbihi wa-inn a lafee shakkin mimm a tadAAoonan ailaayhi mureebun
A	14:9 الم ياتكم نبوا الذين من قبلكم قوم نوح وعاد وثمود والذين من بعدهم لا يعلمهم الا الله جاءتهم رسلهم بالبينت فردوا ايديهم فى افوههم وقالوا انا كفرنا بما ارسلتم به وانا لفى شك مما

	Blind Inheritors of Faith
Edip-Layth	14:10 Their messengers said, "Is there doubt regarding God, the initiator of the heavens and the earth? He invites you so that He may forgive some of your sins, and grant you until a predetermined time." They said, "You are but humans like us, you wish to turn us away from what our fathers used to serve. So come to us with clear authority."
The Monotheist Group	14:10 Their messengers said: "Is there doubt regarding God, the initiator of the heavens and the Earth? He invites you so that He may forgive some of your sins, and grant you until a predetermined time." They said: "You are but humans like us, you wish to turn us away from what our fathers used to serve. So come to us with clear proof."
Muhammad Asad	14:10 Said the apostles sent unto them: ¹² "Can there be any doubt about [the existence and oneness of] God, the Originator of the heavens and the earth? It is He who calls unto you, so that He may forgive you [whatever is past] of your sins and grant you respite until a term [set by Him is fulfilled]." ¹³ [But] they replied: "You are nothing but mortal men like ourselves! You want to turn us away from what our forefathers were wont to worship: well, then, bring us a clear proof [of your being God's message-bearers]!"
Rashad Khalifa	14:10 Their messengers said, "Do you have doubts about GOD; the Initiator of the heavens and the earth? He invites you only to forgive your sins, and to give you another chance to redeem yourselves." They said, "You are no more than humans like us, who want to repel us from the way our parents used to worship. Show us some profound authority."
Shabbir Ahmed	14:10 Their messengers said, "Can there be any doubt about God, the Initiator of the heavens and earth? He only calls you that He may grant you the protection of His forgiveness for your trailing behind in humanity and to postpone your end until an appointed time." They said, "Ah, you are but mortals like us! You want to bar us from what our ancestors used to worship. Then bring us a clear authority." 5
Transliteration	14:10 Qalat rusuluhum afee All ahishakkun f atiri a Issamawati wa al-ardiyadAAookum liyaghfira lakum min thunoobikumwayu-akhkhirakum il a ajalin musamman q aloo in antumill a basharun mithlun a tureedoona an tasuddoonaAAamma kana yaAAabudu abaonafa/toona bisultanin mubeenin
A	14:10 قَالَتْ رُسُلُهُمْ أَفِى اللَّهِ شَكٌّ فَاطِرِ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ يَدْعُوكُمْ لِيَغْفِرَ لَكُمْ مِنْ ذُنُوبِكُمْ وَيُخْرِجَكُمْ إِلَى أَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى قَالُوا إِنْ أَنْتُمْ إِلَّا بَشَرٌ مِثْلُنَا تُرِيدُونَ أَنْ تَصُدُّونَا عَمَّا كَانَ يَعْبُدُ آبَاؤُنَا فَآتُونَا بِسُلْطَانٍ مُّبِينٍ
Edip-Layth	14:11 Their messengers said, "We are but humans like you, but God will bestow His grace upon whom He pleases from His servants. It is not up to us to bring you an authorization except by God's leave. In God those who acknowledge should place their trust"
The Monotheist Group	14:11 Their messengers said: "We are but humans like you, but God will bestow His grace upon whom He pleases from His servants. And it is not up to us to bring you proof except by God's leave. And in God the believers should place their trust"
Muhammad Asad	14:11 Their apostles answered them: "True, we are nothing but mortal men like yourselves: but God bestows His favour upon whomever He wills of His servants. Withal, it is not within our power to bring you a proof [of our mission], unless it be by God's leave-and [so] it is in God that all believers must place their trust.

Rashad Khalifa	14:11 Their messengers said to them, "We are no more than humans like you, but GOD blesses whomever He chooses from among His servants. We could not possibly show you any kind of authorization, except in accordance with GOD's will. In GOD the believers shall trust.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:11 (Without exception) their messengers said to them, "Yes, we are human beings like yourselves. But God gives His grace (of revelation) to whom He chooses among His servants. It is not for us to bring you an authority except as God permits. And all believers put their trust in God.
Transliteration	14:11 Qalat lahum rusuluhum in na hnuilla basharun mithlukum wal akinna Allahayamunnu AAala man yash ao min AAibadihi wamakana lana an na/tyakum bisultanin illabi-ithni Allahi waAAala Allahifalyatawakkali almu/minoon a
A	14:11 قالت لهم رسلهم ان نحن الا بشر مثلكم ولكن الله يمن على من يشاء من عباده وما كان لنا ان ناتيكم بسلطان الا باذن الله وعلى الله فليتوكل المؤمنون
Edip-Layth	14:12 "Why should we not place our trust in God, when He has guided us to our paths. We will be resolute against the harm you inflict upon us. In God those who trust should put their trust."
The Monotheist Group	14:12 "And why should we not place our trust in God, when He has guided us our path. And we will be patient to the harm you inflict upon us. And in God those who trust should put their trust."
Muhammad Asad	14:12 And how could we not place our trust in God, seeing that it is He who has shown us the path which we are to follow? ¹⁵ "Hence, we shall certainly bear with patience whatever hurt you may do us: for, all who have trust [in His existence] must place their trust in God [alone]!"
Rashad Khalifa	14:12 "Why should we not trust in GOD, when He has guided us in our paths? We will steadfastly persevere in the face of your persecution. In GOD all the trusters shall trust."
Shabbir Ahmed	14:12 "Why should we not put our trust in God? He has shown us the ways we follow. We shall certainly endure with uncompromising resolve whatever torment you inflict upon us. Let those who trust put their trust in God." ⁶
Transliteration	14:12 Wama lan a all anatawakkala AAal a All ahi waqad had anasubulana walanasbiranna AAal a m a athaytymoonawaAAala All ahi falyatawakkali almutawakkiloona
A	14:12 وما لنا الا نتوكل على الله وقد هدانا سبلنا ولنصبرن على ما ءاذيتمونا وعلى الله فليتوكل المتوكلون
Edip-Layth	14:13 Those who rejected said to their messengers: "We will drive you out of our land, or you will return to our creed." It was then that their Lord inspired to them: "We will destroy the wicked."
The Monotheist Group	14:13 And those who rejected said to their messengers: "We will drive you out of our land, or you will return to our creed." It was then that their Lord inspired to them: "We will destroy the wicked."
Muhammad Asad	14:13 But they who denied the truth spoke [thus] unto their apostles: "We shall most certainly expel you from our land, unless you return forthwith to our ways. ¹⁶ Whereupon their Sustainer revealed this to His apostles: ¹⁷ "Most certainly shall We destroy these evildoers,

Rashad Khalifa	14:13 Those who disbelieved said to their messengers, "We will banish you from our land, unless you revert to our religion." Their Lord inspired them: "We will inevitably annihilate the transgressors."
Shabbir Ahmed	14:13 The ungrateful rejecters resorted to threatening the messengers, "We will banish you from our land unless you return to our religion." But their Lord revealed to them, "Surely, We will subdue those who try to displace truth with falsehood and insist on running oppressive systems." 7
Transliteration	14:13 Waqala alla theena kafaroolirusulihim lanukhrijannakum min ar dina awlataAAoodunna fee millatin a faaw ha ilayhim rabbuhumlanuhlikanna alththalimeena
A	14:13 وقال الذين كفروا لرسلم لنخرجنكم من ارضنا او لتعودن فى ملتنا فالوحى اليهم ربهم لنهلكن الظلمين
Edip-Layth	14:14 "We will let you reside in the land after them. That is for those who fear My majesty and fear My threat."
The Monotheist Group	14:14 "And We will let you reside in the land after them. That is for those who fear My station and fear My deliverance."
Muhammad Asad	14:14 and most certainly shall We cause you to dwell on earth [long] after they have passed away: 18 this is [My promise] unto all who stand in awe of My presence, and stand in awe of My warning!"19
Rashad Khalifa	14:14 "And we will let you dwell in their land after them. This is (the reward) for those who reverence My majesty, and reverence My promise."
Shabbir Ahmed	14:14 "And certainly We will establish you in the land after them. This reward is for those who recognize My Majesty and My warning."
Transliteration	14:14 Walanuskinannakumu al-ar da minbaAAadihim thalika liman khafa maqamee wakhafawaAAeedi
A	14:14 ولنسكننكم الارض من بعدهم ذلك لمن خاف مقامى وخاف وعيد
Edip-Layth	14:15 They sought victory, and every arrogant tyrant was then failed.
The Monotheist Group	14:15 And they sought victory, and every arrogant tyrant was then made to lose.
Muhammad Asad	14:15 And they prayed [to God] that the truth be made to triumph. 20 And [thus it is:] every arrogant enemy of the truth shall be undone [in the life to come],
Rashad Khalifa	14:15 They issued a challenge, and consequently, every stubborn tyrant ended up doomed.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:15 They earnestly prayed for triumph and then every stubborn tyrant was undone.
Transliteration	14:15 Waistaftahoo wakhabakullu jabbarin AAaneedin
A	14:15 واستفتحوا وخاب كل جبار عنيد
Edip-Layth	14:16 From behind him is hell, and he will be served repulsive water.
The Monotheist Group	14:16 From behind him is Hell, and he will be served boiling water.
Muhammad Asad	14:16 with hell awaiting him; 21 and he shall be made to drink of the water of most bitter distress,

Rashad Khalifa	14:16 Awaiting him is Hell, wherein he will drink putrid water.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:16 Hell of his own making is behind every stubborn tyrant, and before him is the cup of distress that he is made to drink. ⁸
Transliteration	14:16 Min wara-ihi jahannamu wayusqamin ma-in sadeedin
A	14:16 من وراءه جهنم ويسقى من ماء صديد
Edip-Layth	14:17 He tries to drink it, but cannot swallow it, and death comes to him from everywhere, but he will not die; and after this is a powerful retribution.
The Monotheist Group	14:17 He tries to drink it, but it cannot be swallowed, and death comes to him from everywhere, but he will not die; and from behind him is a powerful retribution.
Muhammad Asad	14:17 gulping it [unceasingly,] little by little, and yet hardly able to swallow it. ²³ And death will beset him from every quarter - but he shall not die: for [yet more] severe suffering lies ahead of him.
Rashad Khalifa	14:17 He will gulp it down, though he cannot stand it, as death comes to him from every direction, but he will never die. Awaiting him is a terrible retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:17 Which he sips but can hardly swallow. How difficult it is to swallow the bitterness of self-imposed failure! A life un-lived, a mere survival as if death comes to him from all sides, yet he neither lives nor dies. To follow him still is a heavy doom! ⁹
Transliteration	14:17 YatajarraAAuhu wal a yak aduyuseeghuhu waya/teehee almawtu min kulli makanin wamahuwa bimayyitin wamin wara-ihi AAathabun ghaleethun
A	14:17 يتجرعه ولا يكاد يسيغه ويأتيه الموت من كل مكان وما هو بميت ومن وراءه عذاب غليظ
Edip-Layth	14:18 The example of those who reject their Lord is that their works are like ashes, on which the wind blows strongly on a stormy day; they cannot get anything of what they earned. Such is the farthest straying.
The Monotheist Group	14:18 The example of those who reject their Lord is that their works are like ashes, on which the wind blows strongly on a stormy day, they cannot get anything of what they earned. Such is the farthest misguidance.
Muhammad Asad	14:18 [This, then, is] the parable of those who are bent on denying their Sustainer: all their works ²⁴ are as ashes which the wind blows about fiercely on a stormy day: [in the life to come,] they cannot achieve any benefit whatever from all [the good] that they may have wrought: for this [denial of God] is indeed the farthest one can go astray. ²⁵
Rashad Khalifa	14:18 The allegory of those who disbelieve in their Lord: their works are like ashes in a violent wind, on a stormy day. They gain nothing from whatever they earn; such is the farthest straying.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:18 Here is a similitude of those who deny their Lord. Their works are like ashes that the wind blows hard on a stormy day. They have no power whatsoever over what they earned. Such is the farthest wandering. ¹⁰
Transliteration	14:18 Mathalu alla theena kafaroo birabbiheemaAAam aluhum karam adin ishtaddat bihi a Irreehufee yawmin AA asifin l a yaqdiroona mimm akasaboo AAal a shay-in

	thalika huwa alddalalualbaAAeedu
A	14:18 مثل الذين كفروا بربهم اعملهم كرماد اشتدت به الريح فى يوم عاصف لا يقدرّون مما كسبوا على شيء ذلك هو الضلال البعيد
Edip-Layth	14:19 Did you not see that God created the heavens and the earth with truth? If He wished, He would do away with you and bring a new creation.
The Monotheist Group	14:19 Did you not see that God created the heavens and the Earth with truth? If He wished, He would do away with you and bring a new creation.
Muhammad Asad	14:19 ART THOU NOT aware that God has created the heavens and the earth in accordance with [an inner] truth? ²⁶ He can, if He so wills, do away with you and bring forth a new mankind [in your stead] : ²⁷
Rashad Khalifa	Worship Only the Omnipotent One 14:19 Do you not realize that GOD has created the heavens and the earth for a specific purpose? If He wills, He can remove you, and substitute a new creation in your place.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:19 Have you not realized that God has created the heavens and earth with a sublime purpose? If He wills, He can do away with you and bring a new creation. ¹¹
Transliteration	14:19 Alam tara anna All aha khalaqa a lssamawatiwaal-arda bi alhaqqi in yasha/ yu ^h hibkumwaya/ti bikhalqin jadeed in
A	14:19 ألم تر أن الله خلق السموت والارض بالحق ان يشا يذهبكم ويات بخلق جديد
Edip-Layth	14:20 That for God is not difficult to do.
The Monotheist Group	14:20 And that for God is not difficult to do.
Muhammad Asad	14:20 nor is this difficult for God.
Rashad Khalifa	14:20 This is not too difficult for GOD.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:20 And this is not difficult for God.
Transliteration	14:20 Wama ^a thalika AAala AllahibiAAazeezin
A	14:20 وما ذلك على الله بعزيز
Edip-Layth	14:21 They all appeared before God. The weak ones said to those who were arrogant: "We were following you, so will you avail us anything from God's retribution?" They said, "If God had guided us, then we would have guided you. It makes no difference if we rage or endure, for we have no refuge."
The Monotheist Group	14:21 And they appeared before God, all of them. And the weak ones said to those who were arrogant: "We were following you, so will you avail us anything from God's retribution?" They said: "If God had guided us, then we would have guided you. It makes no difference if we cry out or are patient, for we have no refuge."
Muhammad Asad	14:21 And all [mankind] will appear before God [on the Day of Judgment]; and then the weak ²⁸ will say unto those who had gloried in their arrogance: "Behold, We were but your followers: can you, then, relieve us of something of God's chastisement?" [And the others] will answer: "If God would but show us the way [to salvation], we would indeed guide you [towards it]. ²⁹ It is [now] all one, as far as we are concerned, whether we grieve impatiently or endure [our lot] with patience: there is no escape for us!"

Rashad Khalifa	On the Day of Resurrection 14:21 When they all stand before GOD ³, the followers will say to the leaders, "We used to follow you. Can you spare us even a little bit of GOD's retribution?" They will say, "Had GOD guided us, we would have guided you. Now it is too late, whether we grieve or resort to patience, there is no exit for us."
Shabbir Ahmed	14:21 They will be, all of them, marshaled before God. Then the ones who had disabled their minds with blind following will say to their self-glorified leaders, "We used to follow you. Can you divert from us some of God's doom?" The leaders will respond, "If God had guided us, we would have guided you. Now it makes no difference whether we panic in grief or try to bear it in patience, there is no escape for us." ¹²
Transliteration	14:21 Wabarazoo lillāhi JameeAAan faqalāallduAAafao lilla^{the}ena istakbarooinna kunna lakum tabaAAan fahal antum mughnoonaAAann a min AAathabi Allāhi min shay-in q aloolaw had ana Allāhu lahadayn akum saw aonAAalayna ajaziAAan a am sabarna malana min ma^{he}esin
A	14:21 وبرزوا لله جميعا فقال الضعفاء للذين استكبروا انا كنا لكم تبعا فهل انتم مغنون عنا من عذاب الله من شيء قالوا لو هدينا الله لهديناكم سواء علينا اجزعنا ام صبرنا ما لنا من محييص
Edip-Layth	14:22 The devil said when the matter was complete: "God had promised you the promise of truth, and I promised you and broke my promise. I had no power over you except that I invited you and you responded to me. So do not blame me, but blame yourselves; I cannot help you nor can you help me. I reject that you have set me as a partner before this; the wicked will have a painful retribution."
The Monotheist Group	14:22 And the devil said when the matter was complete: "God had promised you the promise of truth, and I promised you and broke my promise. And I had no power over you except that I invited you and you responded to me. So do not blame me, but blame yourselves; I cannot help you nor can you help me. I reject that you have set me as a partner before this; the wicked will have a painful retribution."
Muhammad Asad	14:22 And when everything will have been decided, Satan will say: "Behold, God promised you something that was bound to come true! ³⁰ I, too, held out [all manner of] promises to you -but I deceived you. Yet I had no power at all over you: I but called you-and you responded unto me. Hence, blame not me, but blame yourselves. ³¹ It is not for me to respond to your cries, nor for you to respond to mine: ³² for, behold, I have [always] refused to admit that there was any truth in your erstwhile belief that I had a share in God's divinity." ³³ Verily, for all evildoers ³⁴ there is grievous suffering in store.
Rashad Khalifa	Satan Disowns His Followers 14:22 And the devil will say, after the judgment had been issued, "GOD has promised you the truthful promise, and I promised you, but I broke my promise. I had no power over you; I simply invited you, and you accepted my invitation. Therefore, do not blame me, and blame only yourselves. My complaining cannot help you, nor can your complaining help me. I have disbelieved in your idolizing me. The transgressors have incurred a painful retribution."
Shabbir Ahmed	14:22 And Satan (their selfish desires) will disown them after the Judgment has been issued, "God promised you a true promise. And I promised you, then failed you. But I had no power over you except that I called upon you and you obeyed me. So do not blame me, blame yourselves. Neither can I help you, nor can you help me. Now I condemn your former act of associating me with God. Surely, there must be a painful doom for all those who displace truth with falsehood."

Transliteration	14:22 Waqala a Ishshaytanulamma qu diya al-amru inna All aha waAAadakumwaAAda al haqqi wawaAAadtukum faakhlaftukum wam a k analiya AAalaykum min sul tanin illa an daAAawtukum fa istajabtumlee fala taloomoonee waloomoo anfusakum m a an abimusrikhikum wam a antum bimu srikhiyya inneekafartu bim a ashraktumooni min qablu inna a lththalimeenalalum AAathabun aleemun
A	14:22 وقال الشيطان لما قضي الامر ان الله وعدكم وعد الحق ووعدتكم فاخلفتكم وما كان لي عليكم من سلطان الا ان دعوتكم فاستجبتم لي فلا تلوموني ولوموا انفسكم ما انا بمصرخكم وما انتم بمصرخي اني كفرت بما اشركتمون من قبل ان الظالمين لهم عذاب اليم
Edip-Layth	14:23 Admission was given to those who acknowledged and did good works to gardens with rivers flowing beneath them. In them they will abide by the leave of their Lord. Their greeting therein is "Peace."
The Monotheist Group	14:23 And admission was given to those who believed and did good works to estates with rivers flowing beneath them. In them they will abide by the leave of their Lord. Their greeting therein is "Peace."
Muhammad Asad	14:23 But those who shall have attained to faith and done righteous deeds will be brought into gardens through which running waters flow, therein to abide by their Sustainer's leave, and will be welcomed with the greeting, "Peace!"³⁵
Rashad Khalifa	14:23 As for those who believe and lead a righteous life, they will be admitted into gardens with flowing streams. They abide therein forever, in accordance with the will of their Lord. Their greeting therein is: "Peace."
Shabbir Ahmed	14:23 And those who attained belief and increased human potential, will be admitted to the Gardens underneath which rivers flow, therein to abide by their Lord's leave. Their greeting therein is, "Peace!"
Transliteration	14:23 Waodkhila alla theena amanoowaAAamiloo a Issalihati jann atintajree min tahtiha al-anharu khalideenafeeha bi-ithni rabbihim tahiyyatuhum feehasalamun
A	14:23 وادخل الذين ءامنوا وعملوا الصلحت جنت تجرى من تحتها الانهر خلدن فيها باذن ربهم تحيتهم فيها سلم
Edip-Layth	The Fruits of Truth 14:24 Have you not seen how God cites the example of a good word is like a good tree, whose root is firm and its branches in the sky?
The Monotheist Group	14:24 Have you not seen how God puts forth the example that a good word is like a good tree, whose root is firm and whose branches are in the sky.
Muhammad Asad	14:24 ART THOU NOT aware how God sets forth the parable of a good word? ³⁶ [It is] like a good tree, firmly rooted, [reaching out] with its branches towards the sky,
Rashad Khalifa	Truth vs Falsehood 14:24 Do you not see that GOD has cited the example of the good word as a good tree whose root is firmly fixed, and its branches are high in the sky?
Shabbir Ahmed	14:24 Do you not reflect how God cites an example of a Noble Ideology as a goodly tree, firmly rooted with its branches swinging high in the heaven? ¹³
Transliteration	14:24 Alam tara kayfa daraba Allahumathalan kalimatan tayyibatan kashajaratin tayyibatinasluha thabitun wafarAAuha fee alssama/-i

A	14:24 ألم تر كيف ضرب الله مثلا كلمة طيبة كشجرة طيبة أصلها ثابت وفرعها في السماء
Edip-Layth	14:25 It bears its fruit every so often by its Lord's leave. God cites the examples for the people, perhaps they will remember.
The Monotheist Group	14:25 It bears its fruit every so often by its Lord's leave; and God puts forth the examples for the people, perhaps they will remember.
Muhammad Asad	14:25 yielding its fruit at all times by its Sustainer's leave. And [thus it is that] God propounds parables unto men,' so that they might bethink themselves [of the truth]. ³⁷
Rashad Khalifa	14:25 It produces its crop every season, as designed by its Lord. GOD thus cites the examples for the people, that they may take heed.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:25 It (the tree of this Ideology) bears fruit in all seasons by the leave of its Lord. God sets forth examples to humans that they may reflect.
Transliteration	14:25 Tu/tee okulah a kulla heeninbi-ithni rabbih a waya dribu All ahual-amthala liInnasi laAAallahum yatahakkaroona
A	14:25 توتى اكلها كل حين باذن ربها ويضرب الله الامثال للناس لعلهم يتذكرون
Edip-Layth	14:26 The example of a bad word is like a tree which has been uprooted from the surface of the earth, it has nowhere to settle.
The Monotheist Group	14:26 And the example of a bad word is like a tree which has been uprooted from the surface of the Earth, it has nowhere to settle.
Muhammad Asad	14:26 And the parable of a corrupt word is that of a corrupt tree, torn up [from its roots] onto the face of the earth, wholly unable to endure. ³⁸
Rashad Khalifa	14:26 And the example of the bad word is that of a bad tree chopped at the soil level; it has no roots to keep it standing.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:26 And the example of an evil ideology is that of a bad tree that gets easily uprooted from the surface of the earth, and it has no stability. ¹⁴
Transliteration	14:26 Wamathalu kalimatin khabeethatinkashajaratin khabeethatin ijtuththat min fawqi al-ardi malaha min qararin
A	14:26 ومثل كلمة خبيثة كشجرة خبيثة اجتثت من فوق الارض ما لها من قرار
Edip-Layth	14:27 God makes firm those who acknowledge with firm sayings in the worldly life, and in the Hereafter. God sends the wicked astray, and God does what He wishes.
The Monotheist Group	14:27 God makes firm those who believe with firm sayings in the worldly life, and in the Hereafter. And God misguides the wicked, and God does what He wishes.
Muhammad Asad	14:27 [Thus,] God grants firmness unto those who have attained to faith through the word that is unshakably true ³⁹ in the life of this world as well as in the life to come; but the wrongdoers He lets go astray: ⁴⁰ for God does whatever He wills.
Rashad Khalifa	14:27 GOD strengthens those who believe with the proven word, in this life and in the Hereafter. And GOD sends the transgressors astray. Everything is in accordance with GOD's will. They Remove Their Families From God's Protection
Shabbir Ahmed	14:27 God strengthens those who choose to believe, with the Word that stands firm, in the life of this world and in the Hereafter. But God leaves to stray, those who displace truth with falsehood. God does everything according to His laws.

Transliteration	14:27 Yuthabbitu All a hu alla the ena a manoobialqawli a lthth ^h abiti fee alhayat ⁱ alddunya wafee al- a akhirati wayu dilluAll ^h ahu a lthth ^h alimeenawayafAAalu All ^h ahu ma yasha ^o
A	14:27 يثبت الله الذين ءامنوا بالقول الثابت فى الحياة الدنيا وفى الءآخرة ويضل الله الظالمين ويفعل الله ما يشاء
Edip-Layth	14:28 Did you not see those who replaced God's blessings with rejection, and they caused their people to dwell in the abode of destruction?
The Monotheist Group	14:28 Did you not see those who replaced God's blessings with rejection, and they caused their people to dwell in the abode of destruction?
Muhammad Asad	14:28 ART THOU NOT aware of those who have preferred a denial of the truth to God's blessings, ⁴¹ and [thereby] invited their people to alight in that abode of utter desolation
Rashad Khalifa	14:28 Have you noted those who responded to GOD's blessings by disbelieving, and thus brought disaster upon their own families?
Shabbir Ahmed	14:28 Have you not considered those who exchange God's blessing with ingratitude and lead their people down to an abode of utter loss?
Transliteration	14:28 Alam tara il a alla the enabaddaloo niAAamata All a hi kufran waa hal loo qawmahumd ^a ra albaw ^a ri
A	14:28 ألم تر الى الذين بدلوا نعمت الله كفرا واحلوا قومهم دار البوار
Edip-Layth	14:29 Hell is where they will burn, what a miserable place to settle.
The Monotheist Group	14:29 Hell is where they will burn, what a miserable place to settle.
Muhammad Asad	14:29 - hell - which they [themselves] will ' have to endure? ⁴² And how vile a state to settle in!
Rashad Khalifa	14:29 Hell is their destiny, wherein they burn; what a miserable end!
Shabbir Ahmed	14:29 Into Hell! They are exposed to it. What a miserable place to rest in! ¹⁵
Transliteration	14:29 Jahannama ya ^s lawna ^h a wabi/saalqar ^a ru
A	14:29 جهنم يصلونها وبئس القرار
Edip-Layth	14:30 They made equals to God in order that they may divert from His path. Say, "Enjoy, for your destiny is to the fire."
The Monotheist Group	14:30 And they made to God equals in order that they may misguide from His path. Say: "Enjoy, for your destiny is to the Fire."
Muhammad Asad	14:30 For, they claimed that there are powers that could rival God, ⁴³ and so they strayed from His path. Say: "Enjoy yourselves [in this world], but, verily, the fire will be your journey's end!"
Rashad Khalifa	Idol Worship: The Mother of All Evil 14:30 They set up rivals to rank with GOD and to divert others from His path. Say, "Enjoy for awhile; your final destiny is Hell."
	14:30 And they set up rivals to God to mislead from His way. (They take the Shabbir Ahmed	clergy as their authorities instead of the Word of God, thus setting up 'rivals' to Him.) Tell them, "Enjoy life while you can, for your sure destination is the fire."

Transliteration	14:30 WajaAAaloo lill ahi and adanliyudilloo AAan sabeelihi qul tamattaAAoo fa-inna maseerakumila alnnari
A	14:30 وجعلوا لله اندادا ليضلوا عن سبيله قل تمتعوا فان مصيركم الى النار
Edip-Layth	14:31 Say to My servants who acknowledge, that they should hold the contact prayer, and spend from provisions We granted them, secretly and publicly, before a day comes when there is no trade therein, nor will there be any friends.
The Monotheist Group	14:31 Say to My servants who believe, that they should uphold the communion, and spend from what provisions We granted them secretly and publicly, before a Day comes when there is no trade therein, nor will there be any friends.
Muhammad Asad	14:31 [And] tell [those of] My servants who have attained to faith that they should be constant in prayer and spend [in Our way], secretly and openly, out of what We provide for them as sustenance, ⁴⁴ ere there come a Day when there will be no bargaining, and no mutual befriending. ⁴⁵
Rashad Khalifa	Crucial Commandments 14:31 Exhort My servants who believed to observe the Contact Prayers (Salat), and to give (to charity) from our provisions to them, secretly and publicly, before a day comes where there is neither trade, nor nepotism.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:31 (O Prophet!) "Tell My believing servants to establish the Divine System and spend on others of the provision We have given them, secretly and openly, before a Day comes wherein there shall be neither trading nor befriending." ¹⁶
Transliteration	14:31 Qul liAAib adiya alla theena amanooyuqeemoo a lssalata wayunfiqoo mimmarazaqnahum sirran waAAal aniyatan min qabli anya/tiya yawmun l a bayAAun feehi wala khilalun
A	14:31 قل لعبادى الذين ءامنوا يقيموا الصلوة وينفقوا مما رزقتهم سرا وعلانية من قبل ان ياتى يوم لا بيع فيه ولا خلل
Edip-Layth	14:32 God is the One who created the heavens and the earth. He sent down water from the sky and brought out fruits as provisions for you. He committed for you the ships to run in the sea by His command, and He committed for you the rivers.
The Monotheist Group	14:32 God is the One who created the heavens and the Earth, and He sent down water from the sky and brought out fruits as provisions for you, and He committed for you the ships to run in the sea by His command, and He committed for you the rivers.
Muhammad Asad	14:32 [And remember that] it is God who has created the heavens and the earth, and who sends down water from the sky and thereby brings forth [all manner] of fruits for your sustenance; and who has made ships subservient to. you, so that they may sail through the sea at His behest; and has made the rivers subservient [to His laws, so that they be of use] to you;
Rashad Khalifa	14:32 GOD is the One who created the heavens and the earth, and He sends down from the sky water to produce all kinds of fruit for your sustenance. He has committed the ships to serve you on the sea in accordance with His command. He has committed the rivers as well to serve you.
	14:32 (Think of the Source of your wealth and provision!) God is the One Who has created the heavens and earth, and sends down water from the sky, thereby

Shabbir Ahmed	producing fruit and vegetation as provision for you. And He makes ships and boats to be of service to you that they sail in the sea by His command, and has made of service to you the rivers.
Transliteration	14:32 Allāhu allā thee khalaqa a Issamawatiwaal-arda waanzala mina a Issama-i maanfaakhraja bihi mina a lththamarati rizqan lakumwasakhkhara lakumu alfulka litajriya fee albaḥri bi-amrihiwasakhkhara lakumu al-anḥara
A	14:32 الله الذى خلق السموت والارض وانزل من السماء ماء فاخرج به من الثمرت رزقا لكم وسخر لكم الفلك لتجرى فى البحر بامرہ وسخر لكم الانهر
Edip-Layth	14:33 He committed for you the sun and the moon, both in continuity; and He committed for you the night and the day.
The Monotheist Group	14:33 And He committed for you the sun and the moon, both in continuity; and He committed for you the night and the day.
Muhammad Asad	14:33 and has made the sun and the moon, both of them constant upon their courses, subservient [to His laws, so that they be of use] to you; and has made the night and the day subservient [to His laws, so that they be of use] to you. 46
Rashad Khalifa	14:33 He has committed the sun and the moon in your service, continuously. He has committed the night and the day to serve you.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:33 And He made the sun and the moon, both of them constant on their courses and committed the night and the day to serve you.
Transliteration	14:33 Wasakhkhara lakumu a Ishshamsa wa alqamarada-ibayni wasakhkhara lakumu allayla waalInnahara
A	14:33 وسخر لكم الشمس والقمر دائبين وسخر لكم الليل والنهار
Edip-Layth	14:34 He gave you all that you have asked Him. If you were to count God's blessings, you will never enumerate them. The human is indeed transgressing, unappreciative.
The Monotheist Group	14:34 And He gave you all that you have asked Him. And if you were to count God's blessings, you will never fathom them. The human is indeed transgressing, disbelieving.
Muhammad Asad	14:34 And [always] does He give you something out of what you may be asking of Him; 47 and should you try to count God's blessings, you could never compute them. [And yet,] behold, man is indeed most persistent in wrongdoing, stubbornly ingrate!
Rashad Khalifa	14:34 And He gives you all kinds of things that you implore Him for. If you count GOD's blessings, you can never encompass them. Indeed, the human being is transgressing, unappreciative.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:34 And He gives you all that you would be asking Him for. If you count the blessings of God's provision never will you be able to enumerate them. Indeed, the human being is persistent in wrongdoing, stubbornly ingrate. 17
Transliteration	14:34 Waatakum min kulli m asaaltumoohu wa-in taAAuddoo niAAamata All ahi la tuhsoohainna al-insana laḥaloomun kaffarun
A	14:34 وءاتكم من كل ما سألتموه وان تعدوا نعمت الله لا تحصوها ان الانسن لظلوم كفار
Edip-Layth	Abraham 14:35 When Abraham said, "My Lord, make this town a sanctuary, and keep me and my sons away from serving idols."

The Monotheist Group	14:35 And Abraham said: "My Lord, make this a town of peace, and keep me and my sons away from serving idols."
Muhammad Asad	14:35 AND [remember the time] when Abraham spoke [thus]: ⁴⁸ "O my Sustainer! Make this land secure, ⁴⁹ and preserve me and my children from ever worshipping idols ⁵⁰ -
Rashad Khalifa	Abraham 14:35 Recall that Abraham said, "My Lord, make this a peaceful land, and protect me and my children from worshipping idols."
Shabbir Ahmed	14:35 Recall that Abraham said, "My Lord! Make this a peaceful land and protect me and my children from worshipping idols in any form." ¹⁸
Transliteration	14:35 Wa-iḥ q ala ibr aḥeemurabbi ijAAal h atha albalada aminan waojnubneewabaniyya an naAAabuda al-aṣṇama
A	14:35 واذا قال ابراهيم رب اجعل هذا البلد امانا واجنبني وبنى ان نعبد الاصنام
Edip-Layth	14:36 "My Lord, they have misguided many from amongst the people. So, whoever follows me, then he is of me, and whoever disobeys me, then You are Forgiving, Compassionate."
The Monotheist Group	14:36 "My Lord, they have misguided many from amongst the people. So, whoever follows me, then he is of me, and whoever disobeys me, then You are Forgiving, Merciful."
Muhammad Asad	14:36 for, verily, O my Sustainer, these [false objects of worship] have led many people astray! "Hence, [only] he who follows me [in this my faith]~ is truly of me; ⁵¹ and as for him who disobeys me - Thou art, verily, much-forgiving, a dispenser of grace!
Rashad Khalifa	14:36 "My Lord, they have misled so many people. As for those who follow me, they belong with me. As for those who disobey me, You are Forgiver, Most Merciful.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:36 "My Lord! They (the keepers of these idols and temples) mislead a great many people. Whoever follows me, will be of me. Any who rebels against me, well, You are Forgiving, Merciful." ¹⁹
Transliteration	14:36 Rabbi innahunna a ḡlalna katheeranmina a Innasi faman tabiAAanee fa-innahu minneewaman AAaṣanee fa-innaka ghafoorun raḥeemun
A	14:36 رب انهن اضللن كثيرا من الناس فمن تبعنى فانه منى ومن عصانى فانك غفور رحيم
Edip-Layth	14:37 "My Lord, I have resided part of my progeny in an uncultivated valley near your Restricted Sanctuary. My Lord, so that they may hold the contact prayer. So let the hearts of the people incline towards them. Provide them with fruits that they may appreciate."
The Monotheist Group	14:37 "Our Lord, I have resided part of my progeny in an uncultivated valley near your Sacred Dwelling. My Lord, so that they may uphold the communion. So let the hearts of the people incline towards them and give provisions to them of the fruits that they may give thanks."
Muhammad Asad	14:37 "O our Sustainer! Behold, I have settled some of my offspring in a valley in which there is no arable land, ⁵² close to Thy sanctified Temple, so that, O our Sustainer, they might devote themselves to prayer: cause Thou, therefore, people's hearts to incline towards them ⁵³ and grant them fruitful sustenance, so that they might have cause to be grateful.

Rashad Khalifa	14:37 "Our Lord, I have settled part of my family in this plantless valley, at Your Sacred House. Our Lord, they are to observe the Contact Prayers (Salat), so let throngs of people converge upon them, and provide for them all kinds of fruits, that they may be appreciative.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:37 "Our Lord! I have settled some of my family in this barren valley without cultivation, by your Sacred House. Our Lord! They are here to establish the Divine System. Give them the nobility of character so that the hearts of people incline toward them. Provide for them with your blessings so that they may focus on their Mission and show gratitude (by sharing the bounties)."
Transliteration	14:37 Rabbana innee askantu min th urriyyateebiwadin ghayri thee zarAAin AAinda baytika almu h arramirabbana liyuqeemoo a l ssalata faijAAalaf-idatan mina alInnasi tahwee ilayhim wa o rzuqhummina a l ththamarati laAAallahum yashkuroona
A	14:37 ربنا انى اسكنت من ذريتى بواد غير ذى زرع عند بيتك المحرم ربنا ليقيموا الصلوة فاجعل افدة من الناس تهوى اليهم وارزقهم من الثمرت لعلهم يشكرون
Edip-Layth	14:38 "Our Lord, you know what we hide and what we declare. Nothing is hidden from God in the earth nor in the heavens."
The Monotheist Group	14:38 "Our Lord, you know what we hide and what we declare. And nothing is hidden from God at all in the Earth or in the heavens."
Muhammad Asad	14:38 "O our Sustainer! Thou truly knowest all that we may hide [in our hearts] as well as all that we bring into the open:' for nothing whatever, be it on earth or in heaven, remains hidden from God.
Rashad Khalifa	14:38 "Our Lord, You know whatever we conceal and whatever we declare - nothing is hidden from GOD on earth, nor in the heavens.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:38 "Our Lord! You know what we conceal and what we reveal. Nothing is hidden from God, whether on earth or in heaven."
Transliteration	14:38 Rabbana innaka taAAalamu m a nukhfee wam a nuAAalinu wam a yakhf a AAalaAllahi min shay-in fee al-ardi wala fee alssama/-i
A	14:38 ربنا انك تعلم ما نخفى وما نعلن وما يخفى على الله من شىء فى الارض ولا فى السماء
Edip-Layth	14:39 "Praise be to God who has granted me, despite my old age, Ishmael and Isaac. My Lord is the hearer of prayers."
The Monotheist Group	14:39 "Praise be to God who has granted me in my old age Ishmael and Isaac. My Lord is the hearer of prayers."
Muhammad Asad	14:39 "All praise is due to God, who has bestowed upon me, in my old age, Ishmael and Isaac! Behold, my Sustainer hears indeed all prayer:
Rashad Khalifa	14:39 "Praise be to GOD for granting me, despite my old age, Ismail and Isaac. My Lord answers the prayers.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:39 "All praise to God Who has given me sons like Ishmael and Isaac in later age! My Lord is the Hearer of prayer."
Transliteration	14:39 Alhamdu lill a hi alla the ewahaba lee AAal a alkibari ism a AAeela wa-ishaqainna rabbee lasameeAAu a ldduAAa/-i

A	14:39 الحمد لله الذى وهب لى على الكبر اسمعيل واسحق ان ربى لسميع الدعاء
Edip-Layth	14:40 "My Lord, let me hold the contact prayer, and also from my progeny. Our Lord, accept my prayer."
The Monotheist Group	14:40 "My Lord, let me uphold the communion, and also from my progeny. Our Lord, accept my prayer."
Muhammad Asad	14:40 [hence,] O my Sustainer, cause me and [some] of my offspring to remain constant in prayer! ⁵⁴ "And, O our Sustainer, accept this my prayer:
Rashad Khalifa	The Contact Prayers: Gift From God 14:40 "My Lord, make me one who consistently observes the Contact Prayers (Salat), and also my children. Our Lord, please answer my prayers.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:40 "My Lord! Make me and my children establish the Divine System. Our Lord! Accept my prayer."
Transliteration	14:40 Rabbi ijAAalnee muqeema a lssalatiwamin thurriyyatee rabban a wtaqabbal duAAa/-i
A	14:40 رب اجعلنى مقيم الصلوة ومن ذريتى ربنا وتقبل دعاء
Edip-Layth	14:41 "Our Lord, forgive me and my parents, and those who acknowledge on the day the reckoning is called."
The Monotheist Group	14:41 "Our Lord, forgive me and my parents, and the believers on the Day the judgment is called."
Muhammad Asad	14:41 Grant Thy forgiveness unto me, and my parents, and all the believers, on the Day on which the [last] reckoning will come to pass!"
Rashad Khalifa	14:41 "My Lord, forgive me and my parents, and the believers, on the day when the reckoning takes place."
Shabbir Ahmed	14:41 Our Lord! Grant the shelter of forgiveness to me, my parents, and the believers on the Day when the final reckoning comes to pass." ²⁰
Transliteration	14:41 Rabbana ighfir lee waliw alidayyawalilmu/mineena yawma yaqoomu alhisabu
A	14:41 ربنا اغفر لى ولولدى وللمومنين يوم يقوم الحساب
Edip-Layth	14:42 Do not think that God is unaware of what the wicked do. He is merely delaying them to a day when all eyes are watching.
The Monotheist Group	14:42 And do not think that God is unaware of what the wicked do. He is merely delaying them to a Day when all eyes are watching.
Muhammad Asad	14:42 AND DO NOT think that God is unaware of what the evildoers are doing: He but grants them respite until the Day when their eyes will stare in horror, ⁵⁵
Rashad Khalifa	14:42 Do not ever think that GOD is unaware of what the transgressors are doing. He only respites them until a day where the eyes stare in horror.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:42 Do not think that God is unaware of what the wrongdoers are doing. He but gives them respite. They will stare in horror on the Day when all their deeds will reach their logical conclusion.
Transliteration	14:42 Wala tahsabanna Allaghaghafilan AAamma yaAAamalu alththalimoonainnama yu-akhkhiruhum liyawmin tashkhasu feehial-absaru

A	14:42 ولا تحسبن الله غفلا عما يعمل الظلمون انما يؤخرهم ليوم تشخص فيه الابصر
Edip-Layth	14:43 They will approach with their heads bowed, their eyes will not blink, and their hearts will be void.
The Monotheist Group	14:43 They will approach with their heads bowed, and their eyes will not blink, and their hearts will be void.
Muhammad Asad	14:43 the while they will be running confusedly to and fro, with their heads upraised [in supplication], unable to look away from what they shall behold, and their hearts an abysmal void. 56
Rashad Khalifa	14:43 As they rush (out of the graves), their faces will be looking upward, their eyes will not even blink, and their minds will be horrified.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:43 As they rush to and fro with their faces looking upwards, their eyes will not even blink, and their hearts will be horrified.
Transliteration	14:43 MuḥṭiAAeena muqniAAee ruosihim l ayardaddu ilayhim tarfuhum waaf-idatuhum hawa/on
A	14:43 مهطعين مقنعي رعو سهم لا يرتد اليهم طرفهم وافدتهم هواء
Edip-Layth	Warning 14:44 Warn the people of the day when the retribution will come to them, and those who were wicked will say, "Our Lord, delay this for us until a short time, and we will respond to Your call and follow the messengers!" Did you not swear before this that you would last forever?
The Monotheist Group	14:44 And warn the people of the Day when the retribution will come to them, and those who were wicked will say: "Our Lord, delay this for us until a short time, and we will heed your call and follow the messengers!" Did you not swear before this that you would last forever?
Muhammad Asad	14:44 Hence, warn men of the Day when this suffering may befall them, and when those who did wrong [in their lifetime] will exclaim: "O our Sustainer! Grant us respite for a short while, so that we might respond to Thy call and follow the apostles!" ⁵⁷ [But God will answer:] "Why - were you not aforetime wont to swear that no kind of resurrection and retribution awaited you?" ⁵⁸
Rashad Khalifa	God Sends His Commands Through His Messengers 14:44 You shall warn the people of the day when the retribution comes to them. Those who transgressed will say, "Our Lord, give us one more respite. We will then respond to Your call and follow the messengers." Did you not swear in the past that you will last forever?
Shabbir Ahmed	14:44 So, warn mankind of the Day when the suffering may befall them, and the wrongdoers will say, "Our Lord! Give us a little time. We will answer Your Call and follow the messengers." (They will be told), "What! Did you not use to swear in the past that there would never be a decline for you?"
Transliteration	14:44 Waanthiri a Innasa yawmaya/teehimu aAAa thabu fayaqoolu alla theena thalamoorabbana akhkhira il a ajalin qareebin nujibdaAAawataka wanattabiAAi alrrusula awa lam takoonooqsaamtum min qablu m a lakum min zawalin
A	14:44 وانذر الناس يوم ياتيهم العذاب فيقول الذين ظلموا ربنا اخرنا الى اجل قريب نجب دعوتك ونتبع الرسل اولم تكونوا اقسمتم من قبل ما لكم من زوال

Edip-Layth	14:45 You even resided in the homes of those who had wronged themselves, and it was made clear to you what We did to them. We had cited the examples to you.
The Monotheist Group	14:45 And you resided in the homes of those who had wronged themselves, and it was made clear to you what We did to them; and We had put forth the examples to you.
Muhammad Asad	14:45 And yet, you dwelt in the dwelling-places of those who had sinned against their own selves [before your time], ⁵⁹ and it was made obvious to you how We had dealt with them: for We have set forth unto you many a parable [of sin, resurrection and divine retribution]." ⁶⁰
Rashad Khalifa	14:45 You dwelled in the homes of those before you, who wronged their souls, and you have seen clearly what we did to them. We have set many precedents for you.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:45 "You dwelled in the homes and towns where people before you had dwelt and wronged their own 'self' oppressing the weak. And you were made well aware of how We dealt with them. And We gave you plenty of examples."
Transliteration	14:45 Wasakantum fee mas a kini alla theenath alamoo anfusahum watabayyana lakum kayfa faAAalnabihim wa d arabna lakumu al-amth al a
A	14:45 وسكنتم في مسكن الذين ظلموا انفسهم وتبين لكم كيف فعلنا بهم وضربنا لكم الامثال
Edip-Layth	14:46 Indeed they schemed their scheming, and their scheming was at God; though their scheming was enough to eliminate mountains.
The Monotheist Group	14:46 And they schemed their scheming, and their scheming is known to God; and their scheming was enough to make the mountains cease to exist.
Muhammad Asad	14:46 And [this retribution will befall all evildoers because] they devise that false imagery of theirs ⁶¹ - and all their false imagery is within God's knowledge. [And never can the blasphemers prevail against the truth - not] even if their false imagery were so (well devised and so powerful) that mountains could be moved thereby.
Rashad Khalifa	14:46 They schemed their schemes, and GOD is fully aware of their schemes. Indeed, their schemes were sufficient to erase mountains.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:46 Their schemes, all recorded with God, were strong enough to intimidate the strongest of resolves. But, since their schemes were pitched against the Divine laws, they utterly failed.
Transliteration	14:46 Waqad makaroo makrahum waAAinda All a himakruhum wa-in k a na makruhum litazoola minhu aljib al u
A	14:46 وقد مكروا مكروهم وعند الله مكروهم وان كان مكروهم لتزول منه الجبال
Edip-Layth	14:47 So do not think that God will fail to keep His promise to His messengers. God is Noble, able to seek revenge.
The Monotheist Group	14:47 So do not think that God will fail to keep His promise to His messengers. God is Noble, able to seek revenge.
Muhammad Asad	14:47 HENCE, do not think that God will fail to fulfil the promise which He gave to His apostles: ⁶² verily, God is almighty, an avenger of evil!
Rashad Khalifa	Guaranteed Victory for God's Messengers 14:47 Do not think that GOD will ever break His promise to His messengers. GOD is Almighty, Avenger.

Shabbir Ahmed	14:47 Never think that God could ever fail to keep His promise to His messengers. Surely, God is Mighty, the Lord of just requital.
Transliteration	14:47 Falā tahsabanna Allāhamukhlifa waAAadihi rusulahu inna Allāha AAazeezun thoointiqāmin
A	14:47 فلا تحسبن الله مخلف وعده رسله ان الله عزيز ذو انتقام
New Earth and New Heavens
Edip-Layth	14:48 The day the earth is replaced with another earth, as are the heavens, and they will appear before God, the One, the Irresistible. ³
The Monotheist Group	14:48 The Day the Earth is replaced with another Earth, as are the heavens, and they will appear before God, the One, the Irresistible.
Muhammad Asad	14:48 [His promise will be fulfilled] on the Day when the earth shall be changed into another earth, as shall be the heavens ⁶³ and when [all men] shall appear before God, the One who holds absolute sway over all that exists.
New Heavens and New Earth
Rashad Khalifa	14:48 The day will come when this earth will be substituted with a new earth, and also the heavens, and everyone will be brought before GOD, the One, the Supreme. ⁴
Shabbir Ahmed	14:48 The Day will come when this earth will be replaced with a new earth, and the heavens too will be replaced, and they will come forth to God, the One, the Dominating. ²¹
Transliteration	14:48 Yawma tubaddalu al-arḍu ghayra al-arḍi waalssamawātu wabarazoo lillāhi alwāhidialqahhari
A	14:48 يوم تبدل الارض غير الارض والسموت وبرزوا لله الواحد القهار
Edip-Layth	14:49 You will see the criminals on that day held by restraints.
The Monotheist Group	14:49 And you will see the criminals on that Day held by restraints.
Muhammad Asad	14:49 For on that Day thou wilt see all who were lost in sin linked together in fetters, ⁶⁴
Rashad Khalifa	14:49 And you will see the guilty on that day chained in shackles.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:49 And even before the Day of Resurrection, the Divine System will be established on earth and the guilty will not be able to commit bloody crimes on earth, nor will they be able to steal the fruit of the toil of others. They will be effectively immobilized.
Transliteration	14:49 Wataraḥ almujrimeena yawma-ithinmuqarraneena fee al-asfadi
A	14:49 وترى المجرمين يومئذ مقرنين فى الاصفاد
Edip-Layth	14:50 Their clothes will be of tar, and the fire will overwhelm their faces.
The Monotheist Group	14:50 Their clothes will be of tar, and the fire will overwhelm their faces.
Muhammad Asad	14:50 clothed in garments of black pitch, with fire veiling their faces. ⁶⁵
Rashad Khalifa	14:50 Their garments will be made of tar, and fire will overwhelm their faces.

Shabbir Ahmed	14:50 They will be drenched in the flames of their own igniting, feeling as if the coal tar is stuck on their whole existence.
Transliteration	14:50 Sarabeeluhum min qatraninwataghsha wujoohahumu alnnaru
A	14:50 سراييلهم من قطران وتغشى وجوههم النار
Edip-Layth	14:51 Thus God will recompense every person what it earned. God is quick to reckoning.
The Monotheist Group	14:51 Thus God will recompense every soul by what it earned. God is quick to reckoning.
Muhammad Asad	14:51 [And all shall be judged on that Day,] so that God may requite every human being for all that he has earned [in life]: verily, God is swift in reckoning!
Rashad Khalifa	14:51 For GOD will pay each soul for whatever it earned; GOD is the most efficient reckoner.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:51 Justice will be swift in the Divine Order, so that everyone is paid a quick recompense and peace will remain undisturbed. God is Swift at reckoning.
Transliteration	14:51 Liyajziya Allahu kulla nafsin makasabat inna Allaha sareeAAu alhisabi
A	14:51 ليجزى الله كل نفس ما كسبت ان الله سريع الحساب
Edip-Layth	14:52 This is a proclamation for the people and so that they are warned with it, and so that they know that there is but One god, and so that those with intelligence will remember.
The Monotheist Group	14:52 This is a proclamation for the people and so that they are warned with it, and so that they know that there is but One god, and so that those with intelligence will remember.
Muhammad Asad	14:52 THIS IS A MESSAGE unto all mankind. Hence, let them be warned thereby, and let them know that He is the One and Only God; and let those who are endowed with insight take this to heart!
Rashad Khalifa	14:52 This is a proclamation for the people, to be warned herewith, and to let them know that He is only one god, and for those who possess intelligence to take heed.
Shabbir Ahmed	14:52 This is a clear message for all mankind in order that they may be warned thereby, and that they may know that He is One God. Let those endowed with insight take this to heart. 22
Transliteration	14:52 Hatha bal aghun li Innasiwaliyuntharoo bihi waliyaAAlamoo annam a huwa ilahunwahidun waliyaththakkara oloo al-albabi
A	14:52 هذا بلغ للناس ولينذروا به وليعلموا انما هو اله وحد وليذكر اولوا الالباب

<< Prev 14:1-52 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (14:1)

A1L30R200. These letters/numbers play an important role in the mathematical system of the Quran based on code 19. See 74:1-56; 1:1; 2:1; 13:38; 27:82; 38:1-8; 40:28-38; 46:10; 72:28.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (14:4)

This verse rejects the Arab nationalists who glorify Arabic and claim its superiority over other languages. God can communicate His message to any nation in their language. After all, God communicates with all his creatures through the language they understand. The frequently used phrases yudillu man yasha can be understood in two ways: "He misleads whomever He wills," OR "He misleads whomever wills to be mislead." The same is also true for yahdi man yasha: "He guides whomever He wills," OR "He guides whomever wills to be guided." See 57:22-23; 6:88.

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (14:48)

See the Old Testament, Isaiah 65:17 & 66:22.

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (14:1)

See Appendix II; also surah 11, note 1.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (14:3)

According to Zamakhshari and Razi, this is the real meaning of the verbal form yastahibbun in the above context-implying that such an all-absorbing, exclusive love of the life of this world leads inevitably to a denial of moral truths.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (14:4)

Since every divine writ was meant to be understood by man, it is obvious that each had to be formulated in the language of the people whom the particular prophet was addressing in the first instance; and the Qur'an - notwithstanding its universal import (cf. note 126 on 7:158) - is no exception in this respect.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (14:4)

Or: "God lets go astray whomever He wills, and guides whomever He wills". All Qur'anic references to God's "letting man go astray" must be understood against the background of 2:26-27 - "none does He cause to go astray save the iniquitous, who break their bond with God" (regarding which latter expression, see surah 2, note 19): that is to say, man's "going astray" is a consequence of his own attitudes and inclinations and not a result of an arbitrary "predestination" in the popular sense of this word (cf. surah 2, note 7). In his commentary on the above verse, Zamakhshari stresses this aspect of free choice on the part of man and points out that "God does not cause anyone to go astray except one who, as He knows, will never attain to faith; and He does not guide anyone aright except one who, as He knows, will attain to faith. Hence, the [expression] 'causing to go astray' denotes [God's] leaving [one] alone (takhliyah) and depriving [him] of all favour, whereas [the expression] 'guidance' denotes [His] grant of fulfilment (tawfiq) and favour Thus, He does not forsake anyone except those who deserve to be forsaken, and does not bestow His favour upon anyone except those who deserve to be favoured." Commenting on the identical phrase occurring in 16: 93, Zamakhshari states: "[God] forsakes him who, as He knows, will [consciously] choose to deny the truth and will persevere in this [denial]; and ... He bestows His favour upon him who, as He knows, will choose faith: which means that He makes the issue dependent on [man's] free choice (al-ikhtiyar), and thus on his deserving either [God's] favour or the withdrawal of [His] aid ... and does not make it dependent on compulsion [i.e., predestination], which would rule out [man's] deserving anything of the above."

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (14:5)

In ancient Arabian tradition, the terms "day" or "days" were often used to describe momentous historical events (e.g., ayyam al-'arab as a metonym for the inter-tribal wars of pre-Islamic Arabia). However, in view of the frequent Qur'anic application of the word "day" to eschatological concepts - e.g., the "Last Day", the "Day of Resurrection", the "Day of Reckoning", and so forth-and, particularly, in view of 45:14, where the expression "the Days of God" unmistakably points to His judgment at the end of time - it is only logical to assume that in the present context this expression bears the same significance: namely, God's final judgment of man on the Day of Resurrection. The use of the plural form ("the Days of God") is perhaps meant to bring out the idea that the "Day" of which the Qur'an so often speaks has nothing to do with human time-definitions but, rather, alludes to an ultimate reality in which the concept of "time" has neither place nor meaning.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (14:6)

For this rendering of the particle idh, see surah 2, note 21.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (14:6)

Cf. 2:49; also Exodus i, 15-16 and 22.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (14:7)

Le., "even more than you deserve".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (14:9)

Le., they have disappeared from the face of the earth, and none save God knows today how many they were and how they lived. See verse 14 and note 18 below.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (14:9)

Lit., "they put their hands into their mouths" - an idiomatic phrase indicating one's inability to refute a reasonable proposition by cogent, logical counter-arguments: for the out-of-hand rejection of the apostles' message by their recalcitrant compatriots cannot by any means be regarded as an "argument".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (14:9)

See surah 11, note 92. It is to be noted that whereas in 11:62 this reply is placed in the mouth of people of one particular community -the Thamud -and is phrased in the singular ("thy call to us"), it appears here in the plural ("your call to us") and represents the gist of the answers given by various communities to various prophets. This generalization, underlying the entire subsequent account and containing echos of several Qur'anic narratives relating to the experiences of individual apostles of earlier times, is obviously meant to bring out the symptomatic character of the attitude referred to: the stubborn attitude of people who either deny God altogether, or - while not consciously denying His existence - yet fee[compelled to interpose all manner of imaginary "mediators" (thought to be divine or semi-divine) between themselves and Him, thus denying, by implication, His omniscience and omnipotence.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (14:10)

Lit., "their apostles".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (14:10)

Le., "until the end of your life in this world". This is, I believe, an indirect allusion to the calamities which are bound to befall, even in this world, "those who are bent on denying the truth" (see the last paragraph of 13:31 and the corresponding note 57) -implying that they who consciously respond to the call of God, conveyed through His prophets, would be immune to this kind of suffering and would be graced with abiding spiritual happiness (cf. 13:29).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (14:11)

I.e., it is to the contents of the divine message propounded to them that all seekers after truth must turn for illumination (see 7:75 and 13:43, as well as the corresponding notes). The Qur'an dwells in many places (e.g., in 6:109-111 or 13: 31) on the futility - moral as well as intellectual-of the demand that the divine origin of a prophetic message should be proved by tangible, extraneous means: for, a morally valid and intellectually justifiable conviction of the intrinsic truth of such a message can be gained only through "conscious insight accessible to reason" (12:108).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (14:12)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (14:13)

Cf. 7:88-89, where this alternative is placed before Shu'ayb.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (14:13)

Lit., "to them".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (14:14)

Lit., "after them": implying a divine promise that the truth preached by the apostles would outlive its detractors (cf. verse 9 above, "None knows them [now] save God"), and would triumph in the end.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (14:14)

As Zamakhshari points out, the divine promise expressed in the above verse is equivalent to the statement in 7:128 that "the future (al- aqibah) belongs to the God-conscious".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (14:15)

Or: "they [i.e., the apostles] prayed for victory" or "for [God's] aid" -both these meanings being contained in the noun fath, with which the verbal form istaftahu, used here, is connected. It should be borne in mind that the primary significance of fataha is "he opened", and of istaftaha, "he sought to open [something]" or "he desired that it be opened". Thus, the above passage echoes, in a generalized form, Shu'ayb's prayer in 7:89, "Lay Thou open (iftah) the truth between us and our people".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (14:16)

Lit., "[with] hell beyond him", i.e., as his destiny. For my rendering of jabbar, in this context, as "enemy of the truth", see the first part of note 58 on 26:130.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (14:16)

The word sadid is an infinitive noun of sadda. which in its primary meaning denotes "he turned away" or "was averse [from something]"; also - as noted in the Qamus and the Asas - "he cried out loudly" (i.e., by reason of his aversion to something). Since sadid signifies anything that is repulsive, it is also used tropically to describe the pus that flows from wounds or the viscous liquid that oozes from corpses. In his commentary on this verse, Razi suggests that the expression ma' sadid is here purely metaphorical, and should be understood as "water like [what is described as] sadid". It is in pursuance of this interpretation that I have rendered the above expression as "waters of most bitter distress" - a metaphor of the boundless suffering and bitter frustration which, in the life to come, awaits those who during their life in this world were bent on denying all spiritual truths. (Cf. the expression sharab min hamim -rendered by me as "a draught of burning despair"-occurring in several places and elucidated in note 62 on 6:70.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 23 (14:17)

I.e., to reconcile himself to this suffering.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 24 (14:18)

I.e., even the good ones (Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 25 (14:18)

Lit., "this, this is the straying far-away". The definite article in the expression ad-dalal al-ba'id, preceded by the pronouns dhalika huwa, is meant to stress the extreme degree of this "straying far-away" or "going astray": a construction that can be rendered in English only by a paraphrase, as above. It is to be noted that this phrase occurs in the Qur'an only twice- namely, in the above passage and in 22: 12 -and refers in both cases to a denial, conscious or implied, of God's oneness and uniqueness.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 26 (14:19)

See note 11 on 10:5.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 27 (14:19)

Lit., "bring forth a new creation" or "new people", for it should be remembered that the term khalq denotes not merely "creation" or "act of creation" but also "people" or "mankind", which seems to be its meaning here (Ibn `Abbas, as quoted by Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 28 (14:21)

I.e., those who had sinned out of moral weakness and self-indulgence, relying on the supposedly superior wisdom of the so-called "leaders of thought", who are described in the sequence as having "gloried in their arrogance" (astakbaru) inasmuch as they refused to pay heed to God's messages (Tabari, on the authority of Ibn `Abbas).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 29 (14:21)

Sc., "but now it is too late for repentance". According to Tabari and Razi, this is the meaning of the above passage. Zamakhshari, however, prefers another interpretation, implying a reference not to the present but to the past, thus: "`If God had guided us aright, we would have guided you [too] aright": in other words, he understands the phrase as an attempt on the part of the doomed to divest themselves of all responsibility, and to attribute their past sinning to God's "not having willed" to guide them aright. To my mind, the interpretation offered by Tabari and Razi is preferable because-all other considerations apart-it provides a logical connection between the request of "the weak" (see preceding note) and the reply of those who in their earthly life had "gloried in their arrogance", as well as with the latter's subsequent, despairing utterance, which can be summed up in the words, "too late!"

Muhammad Asad - End Note 30 (14:22)

Lit., "God promised you a promise of truth" - i.e., the promise of resurrection and last judgment.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 31 (14:22)

In his commentary on this passage, Razi remarks: "This verse shows that the real Satan (ash-shaytan al-asli) is [man's own] complex of desires (an-nafs): for, Satan makes it clear [in the above] that it was only by means of insinuations '(waswasah) that he was able to reach [the sinner's soul]; and had it not been for an already-existing [evil] disposition due to lusts, anger, superstition or fanciful ideas, these [satanic] insinuations would have had no effect whatsoever."

Muhammad Asad - End Note 32 (14:22)

Le., "I cannot respond to your call for help, just as you should not have, in your lifetime, responded to my call." The above sentence is often interpreted in another sense, namely, "I cannot succour you, just as you cannot succour me". However, in view of Satan's allegorical reference-in the preceding passages as well as in the next sentence-to the sinners' earthly past, the rendering adopted by me seems to be more suitable; moreover, it is closer to the primary meaning of the verb sarakha ("he cried out"), from which the form musrikh ("one who responds to a cry") is derived (Jawhari).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 33 (14:22)

This is, to my mind, the meaning of the highly elliptical phrase kafartu bi-ma ashrahtumuni min qabl, which could be literally-but most inadequately-translated thus: "I have refused to admit the truth of that whereby you associated me aforesaid [with God]." The implication is that Satan, while endeavouring to lead men astray, never claims to be God's "equal" (cf. 7:20, where he speaks of God, to Adam and Eve, as "your Sustainer", or 15:36 and 39, where he addresses Him as "my Sustainer", or 8:48 and 59:16, where he says, "behold, I fear God") but, rather, tries to make men's sinful doings "seem goodly to them" (cf. 6:43, 8:48, 16:63, 27:24, 29:38), i.e., persuades them that it is morally justifiable to follow one's fancies and selfish desires without any restraint. But while Satan himself does not make any claim to equality with God, the sinner who submits to Satan's blandishments attributes to him thereby, as it were, "a share in God's divinity". -It must be stressed, in this connection, that the Qur'anic expression shaytan is often used as a metaphor for every human impulse that is intrinsically immoral and, therefore, contrary to man's best - i.e., spiritual - interests.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 34 (14:22)

I.e., all those who had consciously either from intellectual arrogance or from moral weakness - responded to "Satan's call".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 35 (14:23)

As in 10:10, this phrase reads literally, "their greeting therein [will be], 'Peace!' (salam)" - a term which has been explained in surah 5, note 29.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 36 (14:24)

In its wider meaning, the term kalimah ("word") denotes any conceptual statement or proposition. Thus, a "good word" circumscribes any proposition (or idea) that is intrinsically true and - because it implies a call to what is good in the moral sense - is ultimately beneficent and enduring; and since a call to moral righteousness is the innermost purport of every one of God's messages, the term "good word" applies to them as well. Similarly, the "corrupt word" mentioned in verse 26 applies to the opposite of what a divine message aims at: namely, to every idea that is intrinsically false or morally evil and, therefore, spiritually harmful.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 37 (14:25)

See note 33 on the first clause of 39:27.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 38 (14:26)

Lit., "having no permanence (qarar) whatever": i.e., the "corrupt word" (see note 36 above) is ephemeral in its effect, however strong its original impact on the minds of people who fall prey to

Muhammad Asad - End Note 39 (14:27)

Lit., "firm" (thabit). The term Bawl -similar to the term kalimah (see note 36 above) - denote, beyond its primary meaning of "saying" or "utterance", also anything that can be defined as a statement of belief or opinion, namely, "concept", "tenet", "assertion of faith", and so on. In this context it expresses the concept that there is no deity save God, and that Muhammad is His Apostle: which is an interpretation of the above phrase given by the Prophet himself, as quoted by Bukhari in a Tradition on the authority of Al-Bara' ibn `Azib (Kitab at-Tafsir), and by other Traditionists, including Muslim, on the authority of Shu`bah. The adjective thabit connotes the "firmness"-that is, the unshakable truth-of the "word" (or "concept",) which it qualifies, thus connecting it with the preceding parable of the "good word" and the "good tree".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 40 (14:27)

See note 4 on verse 4 of this surah.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 41 (14:28)

Lit., "who have exchanged God's blessings for a denial of the truth". The expression "God's blessings (ni'mah)" obviously refers here to the messages revealed through His apostles.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 42 (14:29)

This is evidently an allusion to the relationship between the arrogant leaders of thought and their weak followers spoken of in verse 21 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 43 (14:30)

Lit., "they gave God compeers (andad)". For an explanation of my paraphrase of this sentence (fully justified by Razi), see surah 2, note 13. -The particle li prefixed to the subsequent verb li-yudillu does not denote intent but is a so-called lam al-`aqibah, i.e., "the [letter] lam indicating a consequence" or "a result" (Razi), and is in this case suitably rendered as "and so".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 44 (14:31)

See surah 2, note 4.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 45 (14:31)

Cf. 2:254. According to the philologist Abu `Ubaydah, as quoted by Razi, the expression bay` ("selling and buying" or "bargaining") denotes here the metaphorical "[giving and taking] ransom" which, as the Qur'an repeatedly stresses, will be inadmissible on the Day of Judgment (cf. 3:91 and the corresponding note 71, as well as 5:36, 10:54, 13:18, 39:47 and 70:11-15); similarly, the denial of khilal - which Abu `Ubaydah regards as synonymous, in this context, with mukhalah ("mutual befriending")-expresses the impossibility of "ransom" through intercession on Judgment Day, for "now, indeed, you have come unto Us in a lonely state, even as We created you in the first instance" (6:94).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 46 (14:33)

Almost all classical commentators agree that God's having made the natural phenomena "subservient" to man is a metaphor (majaz) for His having enabled man to derive lasting benefit from them: hence my explanatory interpolations. In the same sense, the night and the day are spoken of in 10:67, 27:86 or 40:61 as having been "made for you" (resp. "for them").

Muhammad Asad - End Note 47 (14:34)

Le., God satisfies every one of man's desires, provided that His unfathomable wisdom regards its satisfaction as ultimately beneficial to the human being concerned: this is the meaning of the preposition min (lit., "out of", but in this context, "something out of") preceding the phrase "what you may be asking".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 48 (14:35)

The whole of this passage (verses 35-41)-from which the title of this surah is derived represents a parenthetical reminder, in the form of Abraham's prayer, of the only way to righteousness, in the deepest sense of the word, open to man: namely, a recognition of God's existence, oneness and uniqueness and, hence, a rejection of all belief in "other powers" supposedly co-existent with Him (cf. verse 30 above). Inasmuch as this prayer implies a realization of, and gratitude for, God's infinite bounty, it connects directly with the preceding verse 34 and the subsequent verse 42.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 49 (14:35)

Le., the land in which the Ka'bah is situated (see surah 2, note 102) and, more specifically, Mecca.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 50 (14:35)

The term "idols" (asnam, sing. sanam) does not apply exclusively to actual, concrete representations of false "deities": for shirk -that is, an attribution of divine powers or qualities to anyone or anything beside God-may consist also, as Razi points out, in a worshipful devotion to all manner of "causative agencies and outward means to an end" - an obvious allusion to wealth, power, luck, people's favour or disfavour, and so forth-"whereas genuine faith in the oneness and uniqueness of God (at-tawhid al-mahd) consists in divesting oneself of all inner attachment to [such] causative agencies and in being convinced that there exists no real directing power apart from God".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 51 (14:36)

Thus, Abraham accepts God's verdict (given in 2:124) regarding the sinners from among his descendants.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 52 (14:37)

Le., the narrow desert valley of Mecca, which is enclosed by barren, rocky hills. By "some of my offspring" Abraham refers to Ishmael and his descendants who settled at Mecca.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 53 (14:37)

Le., to be desirous of visiting them - namely, on pilgrimage to Mecca - and thus help them to maintain themselves in the holy but barren land. The phrase af'idah min an-nas lends itself also to the rendering

"the hearts of some people", in which case it could be taken to mean "the hearts of the believers" (Baghawi, Razi, Ibn Kathir).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 54 (14:40)

I.e., metonymically, "to remain utterly devoted to Thee". The particle min ("[some] of") preceding the word dhurriyati ("my offspring") is obviously an allusion to 2:124, where God says in answer to Abraham's question about his descendants: "My covenant does not embrace the evildoers." Thus, Abraham has been given to understand that not all of his posterity would be righteous and that none can claim to belong to a "chosen people" by virtue of his or her descent from an apostle of God: a statement which relates not only to the Israelites, who descended from Abraham through Isaac, but also to the Arabian (Ishmaelite) branch of the Abrahamic peoples, from whom the Quraysh were to spring: hence, by implication, even to the unrighteous among the descendants of the Last Prophet, Muhammad, who belonged to the tribe of Quraysh.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 55 (14:42)

This verse connects with the last sentence of Abraham's prayer, namely, his reference to "the Day on which the [last] reckoning will come to pass". The wrongdoers mentioned here are those who indulge in the belief "that there are other powers that can rival God" (cf. verse 30 above), and thus commit the unforgivable sin of shirk. As regards the "respite" granted to them, see the first clause of I 1:20 and the corresponding note 39.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 56 (14:43)

Lit., "their gaze will not revert to them".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 57 (14:44)

Cf. 6:27.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 58 (14:44)

Lit., "that there would be no going down [or "no removal"] whatever for you" - i.e., no passing-over from earthly life to a life in the hereafter, attended by God's retribution of sins: a reference to many people's refusal, often mentioned in the Qur'an, to believe in life after death and, hence, in God's ultimate judgment.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 59 (14:45)

I.e., "you lived on the same earth, and in basically the same human environment, as those earlier generations who offended against all ethical values and thereby brought destruction upon themselves: hence, their tragic fate should have been a warning to you".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 60 (14:45)

Lit., "the parables", i.e., the parables in the Qur'an which illuminate the idea of resurrection and of God's final judgment (Razi). See also note 37 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 61 (14:46)

Lit., "they devised their devising", i.e., their blasphemous belief in the existence of other "divine powers" side by side with God: this is the interpretation given by Tabari towards the end of his long commentary on this verse. For my rendering of the term makr, in this context, as "false imagery", see surah 13, note 62.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 62 (14:47)

I.e., the promise of resurrection and recompense on the Day of Judgment. This relates specifically to the "respite" occasionally granted to evildoers for the duration of their lifetime (cf. verse 42 above).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 63 (14:48)

This is an allusion to the total, cataclysmic change, on the Last Day, of all natural phenomena, and thus of the universe as known to man (cf. 20:105-107 and the corresponding note 90). Since that change will be beyond anything that man has ever experienced or what the human mind can conceive, all the Qur'anic descriptions - in the next two verses as well as in many other places - of what is to happen on that Last Day are, of necessity, expressed in allegorical terms: and this applies also to all descriptions of man's condition, good or bad, in, the life to come. (Cf. note 37 above, relating to the term "parable" often used in the Qur'an.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 64 (14:49)

In his commentary on this passage, Razi expresses the view that the reference to the sinners' being "linked together in fetters" is a metaphor of their own evil deeds and inclinations and, consequently, of the utter despair which will be common to all of them in the hereafter. To my mind, it may also be an allusion to the chain-reaction which every evil deed is bound to set in motion on earth, one evil unavoidably begetting another.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 65 (14:50)

According to Razi, the "garments of black pitch (gatiran)" and the "fire veiling their faces" are metaphors of the inexpressible suffering and loathsome horror which will enwrap the sinners' souls on the Day of Judgment. (See also surah 73, note 7.)

Rashad Khalifa - The Final Testament

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 1 (14:1)

These initials remained a divinely guarded secret until the Quran's mathematical code was discovered in 1974 A.D. See Appendix 1 for the significance of these initials.

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 3 (14:21)

Frequently, the Quran talks about the Hereafter in the past tense. This is because those are future events already witnessed by God, and will surely come to pass.

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 4 (14:48)

This prophecy is also found in the Old Testament (Isaiah 65:17 & 66:22) and the New Testament: "What we await are new heavens and a new earth where, according to his promise, the justice of God will reside." (2 Peter 3:13).

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (14:1)

14:5, 33:43

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (14:2)

His commands must govern human social order as they govern the Universe

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (14:3)

They oppose reform in order to protect their selfish interests

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (14:5)

The Days of God = When people follow His guidance. Shukr or gratefulness is not just the verbal proclamation of 'Thank God!' It pertains to sharing the God-given bounties with others

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (14:10)

God is far too Glorious from feeling offended by idol worship in any form. But submitting to false deities and 'authorities' is the root cause of inequities in any society, such as superstition, exploitation, ritualism and division of humanity into castes and sects, and the resulting violation of human rights. That is why all messengers of God began their mission by calling people to the service, and obedience of the One True God

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (14:12)

Trusting in God is trusting the permanence of His laws

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (14:13)

Zaalimeen exactly translated in the last line

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (14:16)

Such people hinder their own development and forfeit inner peace in this life as well. 47:15

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (14:17)

20:74, 87:13

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 10 (14:18)

13:17, 14:24-26

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 11 (14:19)

4:133, 7:146, 9:39, 47:38

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 12 (14:21)

It is noteworthy here that Satan had brought the same argument that his Lord sent him astray. 7:16

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 13 (14:24)

This Ideology ensures blessings in both lives. Kalimatan Tayyebah = There is no god but God, and Muhammad is His messenger = Goodly Word = Noble Ideology = Ordained System of Life. 35:10

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 14 (14:26)

It is neither firmly rooted, nor reaches any heights

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 15 (14:29)

They show ingratitude by holding on to God's blessings for themselves, and exhort their people to do the same

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 16 (14:31)

2:254

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 17 (14:34)

55:29

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 18 (14:35)

2:125

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 19 (14:36)

11:15. Relationships would stand on Ideology. 2:124, 60:4

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 20 (14:41)

9:114

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 21 (14:48)

And before that, as the caravan of humanity journeys forward, people will witness a total metamorphosis in their political and social systems, a brand new environment where the Universal law of the One Mighty, Dominating God will prevail. 9:31-33, 13:31,14:48, 18:48, 41:53, 48:28, 51:20-21, 61:9

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 22 (14:52)

Danger signs have been posted on the highway of life as the caravan of humanity moves along to the Noble goal of Peace. God is the Sustainer and Cherisher of all humanity and His law is Supreme (1:1, 114:1). Men and women of understanding and discernment, and those of history, anthropology, philosophy, psychology, sociology, and those in positions of authority must pay heed to what their Lord is telling them. 9:31-33, 14:48, 18:48, 48:28, 61:9

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

Translations

Chapter/Verse

Refresh

Search

<< Prev 15:1-99 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 15:1 A1L30R200 these are the signs of the book, and a clear Quran. ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 15:1 A.L.R, these are the signs of the Scripture, and a clear Qur'an.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 15:1 Alif. Lam. Ra. ¹ THESE ARE MESSAGES of revelation -of a discourse clear in itself and clearly showing the truth. ²
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 15:1 A.L.R. ¹ These (letters) are proofs of this scripture; a profound Quran.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 15:1 A.L.R. Alif-Laam-Ra (Allah, Lateef the Unfathomable, Raaziq the Provider, states that), These are the verses of revelation, of Qur'an that explains itself.
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRrahmāni alRrahēemi 15:1 Alif-lām-ra tilka ayatualkitabī waqur-ānin mubeenīn
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 15:1 الر تلك آيت الكتب وقرآن مبين
Edip-Layth	15:2 Those who have rejected will often wish they were of those who peacefully surrendered!

The Monotheist Group	15:2 Ultimately, those who have rejected will wish they had submitted!
Muhammad Asad	15:2 And it will come to pass that those who are [now] bent on denying this truth will wish that they had surrendered themselves to God [in their life time]. ³
Rashad Khalifa	15:2 Certainly, those who disbelieved will wish they were submitters.
Shabbir Ahmed	15:2 The time is coming when the rejecters of the truth will ardently wish that they were Muslims.
Transliteration	15:2 Rubamā yawaddu allat ^h eenakafaroo law kanoo muslim ^{eena}
A	15:2 ربما يود الذين كفروا لو كانوا مسلمين
Edip-Layth	15:3 Leave them to eat and enjoy, and let them be preoccupied with hope. They will come to know.
The Monotheist Group	15:3 Leave them to eat and enjoy, and let them be preoccupied with hope. They will come to know.
Muhammad Asad	15:3 Leave them alone; let them eat and enjoy themselves the while the hope [of vain delights] be guiles them: for in time they will come to know [the truth].
Rashad Khalifa	15:3 Let them eat, enjoy, and remain blinded by wishful thinking; they will find out.
Shabbir Ahmed	15:3 Let them eat, drink, and enjoy life while hanging on to false hopes. They will come to know. ¹
Transliteration	15:3 ^T harhum ya/kuloo wayatamattaAAoowayulhihimu al-amalu fasawfa yaAAalamoon ^a
A	15:3 ذرهم ياكلوا ويتمتعوا ويلههم الامل فسوف يعلمون
Edip-Layth	15:4 We have not destroyed any town except that it had an appointed time.
The Monotheist Group	15:4 We have not destroyed any town except that it had an appointed time.
Muhammad Asad	15:4 And never have We destroyed any community [for its wrongdoing] unless a divine writ had (previously) been made known to it; ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	15:4 We never annihilated any community, except in accordance with a specific, predetermined time.
Shabbir Ahmed	15:4 And We never annihilated any community, except in accordance with a specific, predetermined time (before its period of respite was over). ²
Transliteration	15:4 Wama ^a ahlakna ^a min qaryatin ill ^a walaha ^a kit ^a bun maAAaloom ^{un}
A	15:4 وما اهلكنا من قرية الا ولها كتاب معلوم
Edip-Layth	15:5 No nation can quicken its fate, nor can they delay.
The Monotheist Group	15:5 No nation can quicken its fate, nor can they delay.
Muhammad Asad	15:5 [but remember that] no community can ever forestall [the end of] its term - and neither can they delay [it]. ⁵
Rashad Khalifa	15:5 The end of any community can never be advanced, nor delayed.
Shabbir Ahmed	15:5 (The Law of Respite makes no exceptions.) The end of any community can neither be advanced, nor delayed.

Transliteration	15:5 Ma tasbiq min ommatin ajalah awama yasta/khiroona
A	15:5 ما تسبق من أمة أجلها وما يستخرون
Edip-Layth	15:6 They said, "O you upon whom the Reminder has been sent down, you are crazy."
The Monotheist Group	15:6 And they said: "O you upon whom the Reminder has been sent down, you are crazy."
Muhammad Asad	15:6 And yet, they [who deny the truth] say: "O thou unto whom this reminder has [allegedly] been bestowed from on high: verily, thou art mad!"
Rashad Khalifa	15:6 They said, "O you who received this reminder, you are crazy."
Shabbir Ahmed	15:6 And yet, those who deny the truth, say, "O You, to whom this reminder has been revealed, certainly you are mad!"
Transliteration	15:6 Waqaloo ya ayyuha allatheenuzzila AAalayhi alththikru innaka lamajnoonun
A	15:6 وقالوا يا أيها الذي نزل عليه الذكر انك لمجنون
Edip-Layth	15:7 "Why not bring us the angels if you are of the truthful ones?"
The Monotheist Group	15:7 "Why not bring us the angels if you are of the truthful ones?"
Muhammad Asad	15:7 Why dost thou not bring before us angels, if thou art a man of truth? ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	15:7 "Why do you not bring down the angels, if you are truthful?"
Shabbir Ahmed	15:7 "Why do you not bring angels to us if you are among the truthful?"
Transliteration	15:7 Law ma ta/teena bialmala-ikatiin kunta mina alssadiqeena
A	15:7 لو ما تاتينا بالملئكة ان كنت من الصادقين
Edip-Layth	15:8 We do not send down the angels except with truth, and then they would have no more respite.
The Monotheist Group	15:8 We do not send down the angels except with truth, and then they would have no more delay.
Muhammad Asad	15:8 [Yet] We never send down angels otherwise than in accordance with the [demands of] truth; ⁷ and [were the angels to appear now,] lo! they [who reject this divine writ] would have no further respite! ⁸
Rashad Khalifa	15:8 We do not send down the angels except for specific functions. Otherwise, no one will be respited.
Shabbir Ahmed	15:8 We do not send down the angels except when the period of respite is over. And in that case the rejecters get no further reprieve.
Transliteration	15:8 Ma nunazzilu almala-ikata illabialhaqqi wama kanoo ithan munthareena
A	15:8 ما ننزل الملئكة الا بالحق وما كانوا اذا منظرين
Edip-Layth	Divine Protection 15:9 We, indeed We, it is We who have sent down the Reminder, and indeed it is We who will preserve it. ²

The Monotheist Group	15:9 Indeed it is We who have sent down the Reminder, and indeed it is We who will preserve it.
Muhammad Asad	15:9 Behold, it is We Ourselves who have bestowed from on high, step by step, this reminder? ⁹ and, behold, it is We who shall truly guard it [from all corruption]. ¹⁰
Rashad Khalifa	God's Messenger of the Covenant 15:9 Absolutely, we have revealed the reminder, and, absolutely, we will preserve it. ²
Shabbir Ahmed	15:9 Surely, it is We Who have sent down this reminder, and certainly, it is We Who shall guard it. ³
Transliteration	15:9 Inna nahnu nazzalna alththikrawa-inna lahu lahafithoona
A	15:9 انا نحن نزلنا الذكر وانا له لحفظون
Edip-Layth	15:10 We have sent before you to the factions of old.
The Monotheist Group	15:10 And We have sent before you to the groups of old.
Muhammad Asad	15:10 AND, INDEED, [O Prophet,] even before thy time did We send [Our apostles] unto communities ¹¹ of old -
Rashad Khalifa	15:10 We have sent (messengers) before you to the communities in the past.
Shabbir Ahmed	15:10 Of course, (O Prophet!) even before your time We sent messengers to the communities.
Transliteration	15:10 Walaqad arsalna min qablika feeshiyaAAi al-awwaleen a
A	15:10 ولقد ارسلنا من قبلك فى شيع الاولين
Edip-Layth	15:11 Any messenger that came to them, they would mock him.
The Monotheist Group	15:11 And any messenger that came to them, they would mock him.
Muhammad Asad	15:11 and never yet came an apostle to them without their deriding him.
Rashad Khalifa	15:11 Every time a messenger went to them, they ridiculed him.
Shabbir Ahmed	15:11 And never came a messenger to them that they did not mock him.
Transliteration	15:11 Wama ya/tehim min rasoolin illakanoo bihi yastahzi-oon a
A	15:11 وما ياتيهم من رسول الا كانوا به يستهزءون
Edip-Layth	15:12 We thus let it sneak into the hearts of the criminals.
The Monotheist Group	15:12 It is such that We let it seep into the hearts of the criminals.
Muhammad Asad	15:12 Even so do We [now] cause this [scorn of Our message] to pervade the hearts of those who are lost in sin,
Rashad Khalifa	15:12 We thus control the minds of the guilty.
Shabbir Ahmed	15:12 We instill this attitude in the hearts of the guilty. ⁴
Transliteration	15:12 Kathalika naslukuhu fee quloobialmujrimeen a

A	15:12 كذلك نسلكه فى قلوب المجرمين
Edip-Layth	15:13 They do not acknowledge it, while the examples of the early generations has been brought to them.
The Monotheist Group	15:13 They do not believe in it, while the examples of the early generations has been brought to them.
Muhammad Asad	15:13 who do not believe in it, ¹² . although the way which those [evildoers] of olden times had to go has long been within their ken. ¹³
Rashad Khalifa	15:13 Consequently, they cannot believe in him. This has been the system since the past generations.
Shabbir Ahmed	15:13 They do not accept the message. Such has been the way of those who went before them.
Transliteration	15:13 La yu/minoona bihi waqad khalatsunnatu al-awwaleen a
A	15:13 لا يؤمنون به وقد خلت سنة الاولين
Edip-Layth	15:14 If We opened for them a gate in the sky and they were to continue ascending to it,
The Monotheist Group	15:14 And if We opened for them a gate in the heaven and they were to continue ascending to it,
Muhammad Asad	15:14 Yet even had We opened to them a gateway to heaven and they had ascended, on and on, up to it,
Rashad Khalifa	15:14 Even if we opened for them a gate into the sky, through which they climb;
Shabbir Ahmed	15:14 And even if We opened to them a Gate into the Heaven, and they kept ascending through it,
Transliteration	15:14 Walaw fata hna AAalayhim b abanmina a Issama-i fa thalloo feehiyaAAarjuona
A	15:14 ولو فتحنا عليهم بابا من السماء فظلوا فيه يعرجون
Edip-Layth	15:15 They would have said, "Our sight has been intoxicated. No, we are a people who are being bewitched!"
The Monotheist Group	15:15 They would have said: "Our sight has been fogged. No, we are a people who are being bewitched!"
Muhammad Asad	15:15 they would surely have said, "It is only our eyes that are spellbound! Nay, we have been bewitched!", ¹⁴
Rashad Khalifa	15:15 they will say, "Our eyes have been deceived. We have been bewitched."
Shabbir Ahmed	15:15 They would say, "Our eyes are intoxicated. Nay, we are a people bewitched."
Transliteration	15:15 Laqaloo innama sukkirat absarunabal nahnu qawmun mashhooroona
A	15:15 لقالوا انما سكرت ابصرنا بل نحن قوم مسحورون
Edip-Layth	15:16 We have placed towers in the heavens and We have made them pleasant to the onlookers.

The Monotheist Group	15:16 And We have placed towers in the heavens and We have made them pleasant to the onlookers.
Muhammad Asad	15:16 AND, INDEED, We have set up in the heavens great constellations, ¹⁵ and endowed them with beauty for all to behold;
Rashad Khalifa	15:16 We placed galaxies in the sky, and adorned it for the beholders.
Shabbir Ahmed	15:16 We have set constellations in the Sky and We have beautified it for the beholders.
Transliteration	15:16 Walaqad jaAAalnā fee alssama-iburoojan wazayyannaḥa liInnaṭhireena
A	15:16 ولقد جعلنا فى السماء بروجاً وزينها للنظرين
Edip-Layth	15:17 We have guarded them from every outcast devil.
The Monotheist Group	15:17 And We have guarded them from every outcast devil.
Muhammad Asad	15:17 and We have made them secure against every satanic force accused ¹⁶ -
Rashad Khalifa	15:17 And we guarded it against every rejected devil.
Shabbir Ahmed	15:17 And We have guarded it from every destructive force.
Transliteration	15:17 Waḥafithnaḥamin kulli shayṭanin rajeemin
A	15:17 وحفظناها من كل شيطان رجيم
Edip-Layth	15:18 Except he who manages to eavesdrop, he will be pursued clearly by a flaming meteor.
The Monotheist Group	15:18 Except he who manages to eavesdrop, he will be pursued clearly by a flaming meteor.
Muhammad Asad	15:18 so that anyone who seeks to learn [the unknowable] by stealth is pursued by a flame clear to see. ¹⁷
Rashad Khalifa	15:18 If any of them sneaks around to listen, a mighty projectile will chase him back.
Shabbir Ahmed	15:18 The Shining Flame of knowledge has now come to you to dispel the deceptive claims of every deceiver. ⁵
Transliteration	15:18 Illā mani istaraqa aIssamAAafaatbaAAahu shihābun mubeenun
A	15:18 الا من استرق السمع فاتبعه شهاب مبين
Edip-Layth	15:19 As for the land, We have stretched it, placed stabilizers in it, and We have planted in it everything in balance.
The Monotheist Group	15:19 And the land We have stretched, and placed stabilizers in it, and We have planted in it everything in balance.
Muhammad Asad	15:19 And the earth -We have spread it out wide, and placed on it mountains firm, and caused [life] of every kind to grow on it in a balanced manner,
Rashad Khalifa	15:19 As for the earth, we constructed it, and placed on it stabilizers (mountains), and we grew on it a perfect balance of everything.
Shabbir Ahmed	15:19 And the earth, We have spread it out, and placed in it mountains firmly.

	And caused each seemly thing to grow therein in due proportion. ⁶
Transliteration	15:19 Waal-arda madadnahawaalqayna feeha rawasiya waanbatnafeeha min kulli shay-in mawzoonin
A	15:19 والارض مددناها والقينا فيها روسى وانبتنا فيها من كل شىء موزون
Edip-Layth	15:20 We made for you in it a habitat, as well as those whom you are not required to provide for.
The Monotheist Group	15:20 And We made for you in it a habitat, as well as those whom you are not required to provide for.
Muhammad Asad	15:20 and provided thereon means of livelihood for you [O men] as well as for all [living beings] whose sustenance does not depend on you. ¹⁸
Rashad Khalifa	15:20 We made it habitable for you, and for creatures you do not provide for.
Shabbir Ahmed	15:20 We have given you means of livelihood, as well as for all whose sustenance does not depend on you.
Transliteration	15:20 WajaAAalna lakum feeha maAAayishawaman lastum lahu biraziqueena
A	15:20 وجعلنا لكم فيها معيش ومن لستم له برزقين
Edip-Layth	15:21 There is not a thing, except that We have vaults of it, yet We only send it down in a measured amount.
The Monotheist Group	15:21 And there is not a thing, except that We have vaults of it, yet We only send it down in a measured amount.
Muhammad Asad	15:21 For, no single thing exists that does not have its source with Us; ¹⁹ and nought do We bestow from on high unless it be in accordance with a measure well-defined. ²⁰
Rashad Khalifa	15:21 There is nothing that we do not own infinite amounts thereof. But we send it down in precise measure.
Shabbir Ahmed	15:21 There is not a thing but with Us are the treasures thereof. And We send it down but in precise measure.
Transliteration	15:21 Wa-in min shay-in ill a AAindan akhaza-inuhu wam a nunazziluhu ill a biqadarinmaAAlloomin
A	15:21 وان من شىء الا عندنا خزائنه وما ننزله الا بقدر معلوم
Edip-Layth	Wind: Pollinator of Clouds and Plants 15:22 We have sent the winds to pollinate, and We sent down water from the sky for you to drink. It is not you who store it up.
The Monotheist Group	15:22 And We have sent the winds to pollinate, and We sent down water from the sky for you to drink. And it is not you who are keeping it in storage.
Muhammad Asad	15:22 And We let loose the winds to fertilize [plants] ²¹ and We send down water from the skies and let you drink thereof: and it is not you who dispose of its source-
Rashad Khalifa	15:22 And we send the winds as pollinators, and cause water to come down from the sky for you to drink. Otherwise, you could not keep it palatable.

Shabbir Ahmed	15:22 We send the winds as pollinators that fertilize plants, and cause water to come down from the height for you to drink. Who holds the stores of the Universe? You do not. ⁷
Transliteration	15:22 Waarsalna a Irriyaha law aqihafaanzalna mina a Issama-i maanfaasqaynaakumooahu wama antum lahu bikhazineena
A	15:22 وارسلنا الريح لوقح فانزلنا من السماء ماء فاسقيكموه وما انتم له بخزين
Edip-Layth	15:23 It is indeed We who give life and death, and We are the inheritors.
The Monotheist Group	15:23 And it is indeed We who give life and death, and We are the inheritors.
Muhammad Asad	15:23 for, behold, it is We-We alone -who grant life and deal death, and it is We alone who shall remain after all else will have passed away ! ²²
Rashad Khalifa	15:23 It is we who control life and death, and we are the ultimate inheritors.
Shabbir Ahmed	15:23 For, it is We, We alone Who control the laws of life and death, and it is We alone Who remain the Ultimate Inheritor. ⁸
Transliteration	15:23 Wa-inna lanahnu nuhyeewanumeetu wana hnu alwarithoona
A	15:23 وانا لنحن نحى ونميت ونحن الورثون
Edip-Layth	15:24 Certainly We know those among you who are progressive, and We know those of you who are regressive.
